

was effected. The expectation which exists in some quarters that the English Government will disavow the indemnity bill will be completely disappointed. We think we see in the forceful meetings, which are reported at Toronto and elsewhere, some little resemblance with our own boisterous assemblies, which but too often end in nothing.

PARLIAMENTARY

In Parliament the chief interest has been the discussion in the House of Lords on the Navigation bill. Ministers having summoned Lord Normanby from Paris, Lord Cowley from Frankfurt, Lord Howard de Walden from Brussels, Lord Pousonby from Vienna, and Lord Clarendon from Dublin, to support the measure in committee. The Derby day at Epsom races, which is a sort of national holiday, has made a broken week of the business of the House of Commons, but W. O'Brien, having been adjudged guilty of treason, has become a "chilly dead," and is no longer a member of the Legislature. Besides the Irish measures, to which we have adverted elsewhere, little more has been done.

Mr. Tenyson D'Erucourt, M. P. for Lambeth, has stolen a march upon the Government whipper-in, upon his motion in favour of triennial Parliaments, the number upon the division being—46; nays, 41; leaving Ministers in a minority. But this "surprise" is precisely like that upon the question of the ballot law, and is not likely to have any legislative results.

The Colonies.—An interesting report, moved for by Mr. Vernon Smith, supplies the following information respecting the Colonies:—The North American possessions, including the United States, New South Wales, Prince Edward Island, New Brunswick, Newfoundland and Bermuda, entailed a total expense for the five years ending 31st March 1877, of £3,616,000 for the pay of the troops and contingent expenses; our West Indian possessions, during the same period, a cost of £1,772,337 for the same purposes; our Mediterranean and African possessions, including Sierra Leone, Gambia, the Cape Colony, the Gold Coast and St. Helena, entailed an expense of £3,170,988; and the Austral and miscellaneous possessions an expense of £2,000,000 per annum.

IRELAND

Horror accumulates in the west. Famine and disease are sweeping away the people in myriads. The Protestant clergy, joined by the Roman Catholic, implore aid for the miserable flocks; the gentry and middle classes are fast sinking to the level of the wretched and destitute, but their donations are instantly swallowed up, while the cries continue for "more," "more," and death seems the only certain means of relief.

Ballynasloe, Louisa, Galway, and Ballynobe are said to be vast hospitals. At Ballynobe, a man taken about a mile from the first, a person asked for the supply of coffee for that union, and such is stated to be the demand during the last month, that he employed forty men sawing boards and twenty using them. For some weeks past a relief committee has been in operation in Dublin, but as yet the amount of subscriptions obtained is not considerable. The General Central Relief Committee for Ireland, for which the Marquis of Killare is chairman, has been revived.

The election of Catholic Priests in Ireland took place at Arris on Tuesday. Out of fifty-one Parish Priests, five were present and voted. The Rev. Dr. Dixon, Professor of Sacred Scripture and Hebrew in Maynooth College, had 26 votes; Dr. O'Hanlon, 12; and Dr. Keenan, P.P. of Derry, 10.

The Irish State Prisoners.—The memorial to the Earl of Clarendon, on behalf of Mr. W. O'Brien and the other State Prisoners, praying for their release to the smallest possible number, has been received in Ireland 30,000 signatures. The memorial has been circulated in this country, and has been already extensively signed in this town. The signatures here being that of the Rev. Father Mathew.—See Journal.

FRANCE

France is undergoing a great political crisis, upon the issue of which depends not only her own internal tranquillity, but the general peace of Europe. The success of the Mountain party in the general elections now going on, has been much greater than was anticipated.

France is undergoing a great political crisis, upon the issue of which depends not only her own internal tranquillity, but the general peace of Europe. The success of the Mountain party in the general elections now going on, has been much greater than was anticipated.

The proceedings in the Assembly, with regard to the foreign relations of this country, are fraught with momentous danger of war. Mr. Jules proposed a motion which was nothing less than a declaration of war against Russia. This motion was rejected amidst great tumult, and General Cavagnac proposed an amendment, which was carried by a majority of 436 to 184.

In the Assembly on the 22d, the affairs of Italy being under consideration, M. Savary said in regard to the Russian intervention, that every one knew the ambition of the Cabinet of St. Petersburg as well as the spirit which guides it. This declaration was a blow to European principles, and it is sufficient, in order to know the Czar's intentions, to read his last manifesto, which was a declaration of war against all domestic interests.

The Minister for Foreign Affairs, M. Drouin, stated, in reply to the question of the Russian intervention, that he had addressed a remonstrance to the Government. It had addressed a remonstrance to the Government. It had addressed a remonstrance to the Government.

The Minister for Foreign Affairs, M. Drouin, stated, in reply to the question of the Russian intervention, that he had addressed a remonstrance to the Government. It had addressed a remonstrance to the Government. It had addressed a remonstrance to the Government.

The Minister for Foreign Affairs, M. Drouin, stated, in reply to the question of the Russian intervention, that he had addressed a remonstrance to the Government. It had addressed a remonstrance to the Government. It had addressed a remonstrance to the Government.

able gentleman to give some explanation on the subject. M. Combes replied, that the details had been communicated to him by a person on whom he could rely, and he had considered it his duty to mention the subject to the President of the Council, and had by that means defended the honor of M. Combes. He said that the Minister of the Interior, M. Combes, had given him the letter in the most unambiguous manner.

The subject led to a warm discussion, in which Gen. Bureau defended the President of the Council, saying it would always be found ready to support the laws and constitution.

A grand review of the garrison of Paris, by the President, took place on Monday, in the Champ d' Mars. The reception of the President by 100,000 troops, was the most enthusiastic description. Heavy shouts of Vive Louis Napoleon welcomed him on all sides, and were in singular contrast with the almost unbroken and feeble cries of Vive la Republique. The weather was beautiful, and the number of persons assembled to witness the splendid spectacle was immense—the whole of which passed off with the greatest eclat.

CONTINENTAL

It is scarcely possible to condense within our prescribed space even a summary of the events which are going on in Europe. Currently, the Austrians have industriously put into circulation by the Germans, that the war in the duchies was about to end, more stringent notices of the blockade are issued by the official authorities of one of the belligerents. The war, however, is quite disregarded amid the threatening elements of mischief fast collecting elsewhere.

Russia, so long silent, has issued a manifesto, announcing its determination to interfere in the Austrian and Hungarian quarrel; and, notwithstanding that he has simultaneously recognized the French Republic, the effect of his intervention in Hungary has stirred up all the feelings in France which have been subdued since 1812, and the shout resounds against the ultra-Republicans. The Corsicans are coming, hurrah! "They come! France will take the sword of war on the breast of the last King!"

From Hungary and Austria we learn little that is authentic. It is quite clear that the belligerents are well matched. Even with the aid of the Russians, it is reported that Ben has gained considerable advantages.

In Italy all is confusion. The Austrians have bombarded Bologna, and Leghorn the most beautiful cities of blood has taken place. The French remain about Palermo, near Rome, the derision of all Europe. Gen. Oudinot has received the vote of the National Assembly which disapproved his attempt to put down the Roman Republic; so that the poor general is left to do the best he can to promote "the legitimate influence" of France in Italy.

From all the statements which reach us, we are led to believe that the Pope is more than ever hostile to the French intervention; and under such circumstances, the solution of the present difficulties seem magnified in tenfold degree. The Neapolitans having, in spite of their assertions to be contrary, been beaten by Garibaldi, have not made any progress towards the Eternal City. Palermo, after an ineffectual struggle, has again, we believe, been compelled to yield to the Neapolitans.

The Romans have levelled to the ground every remnant that embarrassed or encumbered the free range of machinery round the city. The most beautiful edifices of blood has taken place. The French remain about Palermo, near Rome, the derision of all Europe. Gen. Oudinot has received the vote of the National Assembly which disapproved his attempt to put down the Roman Republic; so that the poor general is left to do the best he can to promote "the legitimate influence" of France in Italy.

By an Overland Mail from India, with dates from Bombay to the 17th of April and Calcutta to the 7th April, we learn that the war in the Punjab is still going on. That Dost Mohammed and his Afghanians have escaped through the Khyber Pass and reached Cabool; that General Gilbert now occupies Peshawar, and in his march towards the Indus cleared the entire country of the insurgents; and having communicated these particulars in a despatch to the Governor-General, which reached immediately to the British Government, and patch to the Governor-General, which reached the head quarters on the 25th March.

The King of Naples, and 6,000 men, are in a position very critical. Colonel Roselli, with 4,000 Romans, and Garibaldi, with 6,000, have both got between him and his capital.

INDIA

By an Overland Mail from India, with dates from Bombay to the 17th of April and Calcutta to the 7th April, we learn that the war in the Punjab is still going on. That Dost Mohammed and his Afghanians have escaped through the Khyber Pass and reached Cabool; that General Gilbert now occupies Peshawar, and in his march towards the Indus cleared the entire country of the insurgents; and having communicated these particulars in a despatch to the Governor-General, which reached immediately to the British Government, and patch to the Governor-General, which reached the head quarters on the 25th March.

The King of Naples, and 6,000 men, are in a position very critical. Colonel Roselli, with 4,000 Romans, and Garibaldi, with 6,000, have both got between him and his capital.

The King of Naples, and 6,000 men, are in a position very critical. Colonel Roselli, with 4,000 Romans, and Garibaldi, with 6,000, have both got between him and his capital.

The King of Naples, and 6,000 men, are in a position very critical. Colonel Roselli, with 4,000 Romans, and Garibaldi, with 6,000, have both got between him and his capital.

The King of Naples, and 6,000 men, are in a position very critical. Colonel Roselli, with 4,000 Romans, and Garibaldi, with 6,000, have both got between him and his capital.

We were, however, left but little choice—except to be almost forced to resign. On the whole the change of sovereignty will, we believe, be acceptable to all but the Sikh military chiefs.

Lord Gough has published a farewell address to the Indian army. It dwells with proud satisfaction on the result of the recent operations in the north-west of India, achieved by the immense energy and valor of the forces under his command. Lord Gough has exercised a wise discretion in his selection of particular points for commendation. There is more hardship and suffering in the progress of a campaign than there is of terror in a battle-field. The exposure to the inclemency of the skies, the forced marches under an Indian sun, the alterations in the clothing, the want of food, the want of rest, the want of shelter, the want of water, the want of everything that a soldier's mind can desire, are the lot of the soldier. Many are the faults of Lord Gough as a strategist, the Army List has never contained the name of a more gallant or more daring soldier. As a sea officer, Lord Gough would have been a man after Nelson's own heart. He would have disregarded every signal but the one to advance; every direction would have been forgotten but the one to follow; he would have fought it out, and not long for a truce.

In the late war, the name of M. Ledru Rollin stands second on the list, that of Marat being before him.

China.—The news from China is to March 31, when the anticipated opening of the gates of Canton to foreigners was near at hand. The British and American consuls, and a report prevailed that the government and state would enter the city on the 1st of April, under the protection of Sea, the Chinese Government.

HER MAJESTY'S BIRTH-DAY.—The Queen held a drawing-room in St. James's Palace on Saturday afternoon in celebration of Her Majesty's birthday. The Queen received an immense number of addresses of congratulation in the Royal closet from the Archbishops and Bishops. The Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, and the Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, and the Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

For Her Majesty's birthday, the Queen held a drawing-room in St. James's Palace on Saturday afternoon in celebration of Her Majesty's birthday. The Queen received an immense number of addresses of congratulation in the Royal closet from the Archbishops and Bishops. The Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, and the Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

For Her Majesty's birthday, the Queen held a drawing-room in St. James's Palace on Saturday afternoon in celebration of Her Majesty's birthday. The Queen received an immense number of addresses of congratulation in the Royal closet from the Archbishops and Bishops. The Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, and the Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

For Her Majesty's birthday, the Queen held a drawing-room in St. James's Palace on Saturday afternoon in celebration of Her Majesty's birthday. The Queen received an immense number of addresses of congratulation in the Royal closet from the Archbishops and Bishops. The Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, and the Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

For Her Majesty's birthday, the Queen held a drawing-room in St. James's Palace on Saturday afternoon in celebration of Her Majesty's birthday. The Queen received an immense number of addresses of congratulation in the Royal closet from the Archbishops and Bishops. The Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, and the Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

For Her Majesty's birthday, the Queen held a drawing-room in St. James's Palace on Saturday afternoon in celebration of Her Majesty's birthday. The Queen received an immense number of addresses of congratulation in the Royal closet from the Archbishops and Bishops. The Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, and the Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

For Her Majesty's birthday, the Queen held a drawing-room in St. James's Palace on Saturday afternoon in celebration of Her Majesty's birthday. The Queen received an immense number of addresses of congratulation in the Royal closet from the Archbishops and Bishops. The Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, and the Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

For Her Majesty's birthday, the Queen held a drawing-room in St. James's Palace on Saturday afternoon in celebration of Her Majesty's birthday. The Queen received an immense number of addresses of congratulation in the Royal closet from the Archbishops and Bishops. The Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, and the Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

For Her Majesty's birthday, the Queen held a drawing-room in St. James's Palace on Saturday afternoon in celebration of Her Majesty's birthday. The Queen received an immense number of addresses of congratulation in the Royal closet from the Archbishops and Bishops. The Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, and the Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

For Her Majesty's birthday, the Queen held a drawing-room in St. James's Palace on Saturday afternoon in celebration of Her Majesty's birthday. The Queen received an immense number of addresses of congratulation in the Royal closet from the Archbishops and Bishops. The Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, and the Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

For Her Majesty's birthday, the Queen held a drawing-room in St. James's Palace on Saturday afternoon in celebration of Her Majesty's birthday. The Queen received an immense number of addresses of congratulation in the Royal closet from the Archbishops and Bishops. The Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, and the Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

For Her Majesty's birthday, the Queen held a drawing-room in St. James's Palace on Saturday afternoon in celebration of Her Majesty's birthday. The Queen received an immense number of addresses of congratulation in the Royal closet from the Archbishops and Bishops. The Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, and the Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

For Her Majesty's birthday, the Queen held a drawing-room in St. James's Palace on Saturday afternoon in celebration of Her Majesty's birthday. The Queen received an immense number of addresses of congratulation in the Royal closet from the Archbishops and Bishops. The Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, and the Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

For Her Majesty's birthday, the Queen held a drawing-room in St. James's Palace on Saturday afternoon in celebration of Her Majesty's birthday. The Queen received an immense number of addresses of congratulation in the Royal closet from the Archbishops and Bishops. The Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, and the Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

For Her Majesty's birthday, the Queen held a drawing-room in St. James's Palace on Saturday afternoon in celebration of Her Majesty's birthday. The Queen received an immense number of addresses of congratulation in the Royal closet from the Archbishops and Bishops. The Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, and the Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

For Her Majesty's birthday, the Queen held a drawing-room in St. James's Palace on Saturday afternoon in celebration of Her Majesty's birthday. The Queen received an immense number of addresses of congratulation in the Royal closet from the Archbishops and Bishops. The Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, and the Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

For Her Majesty's birthday, the Queen held a drawing-room in St. James's Palace on Saturday afternoon in celebration of Her Majesty's birthday. The Queen received an immense number of addresses of congratulation in the Royal closet from the Archbishops and Bishops. The Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, and the Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

For Her Majesty's birthday, the Queen held a drawing-room in St. James's Palace on Saturday afternoon in celebration of Her Majesty's birthday. The Queen received an immense number of addresses of congratulation in the Royal closet from the Archbishops and Bishops. The Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, and the Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

For Her Majesty's birthday, the Queen held a drawing-room in St. James's Palace on Saturday afternoon in celebration of Her Majesty's birthday. The Queen received an immense number of addresses of congratulation in the Royal closet from the Archbishops and Bishops. The Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, and the Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

For Her Majesty's birthday, the Queen held a drawing-room in St. James's Palace on Saturday afternoon in celebration of Her Majesty's birthday. The Queen received an immense number of addresses of congratulation in the Royal closet from the Archbishops and Bishops. The Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, and the Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

For Her Majesty's birthday, the Queen held a drawing-room in St. James's Palace on Saturday afternoon in celebration of Her Majesty's birthday. The Queen received an immense number of addresses of congratulation in the Royal closet from the Archbishops and Bishops. The Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, and the Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

For Her Majesty's birthday, the Queen held a drawing-room in St. James's Palace on Saturday afternoon in celebration of Her Majesty's birthday. The Queen received an immense number of addresses of congratulation in the Royal closet from the Archbishops and Bishops. The Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, and the Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

For Her Majesty's birthday, the Queen held a drawing-room in St. James's Palace on Saturday afternoon in celebration of Her Majesty's birthday. The Queen received an immense number of addresses of congratulation in the Royal closet from the Archbishops and Bishops. The Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, and the Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

For Her Majesty's birthday, the Queen held a drawing-room in St. James's Palace on Saturday afternoon in celebration of Her Majesty's birthday. The Queen received an immense number of addresses of congratulation in the Royal closet from the Archbishops and Bishops. The Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, and the Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

For Her Majesty's birthday, the Queen held a drawing-room in St. James's Palace on Saturday afternoon in celebration of Her Majesty's birthday. The Queen received an immense number of addresses of congratulation in the Royal closet from the Archbishops and Bishops. The Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, and the Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

For Her Majesty's birthday, the Queen held a drawing-room in St. James's Palace on Saturday afternoon in celebration of Her Majesty's birthday. The Queen received an immense number of addresses of congratulation in the Royal closet from the Archbishops and Bishops. The Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, and the Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

For Her Majesty's birthday, the Queen held a drawing-room in St. James's Palace on Saturday afternoon in celebration of Her Majesty's birthday. The Queen received an immense number of addresses of congratulation in the Royal closet from the Archbishops and Bishops. The Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, and the Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

For Her Majesty's birthday, the Queen held a drawing-room in St. James's Palace on Saturday afternoon in celebration of Her Majesty's birthday. The Queen received an immense number of addresses of congratulation in the Royal closet from the Archbishops and Bishops. The Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, and the Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

For Her Majesty's birthday, the Queen held a drawing-room in St. James's Palace on Saturday afternoon in celebration of Her Majesty's birthday. The Queen received an immense number of addresses of congratulation in the Royal closet from the Archbishops and Bishops. The Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, and the Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

For Her Majesty's birthday, the Queen held a drawing-room in St. James's Palace on Saturday afternoon in celebration of Her Majesty's birthday. The Queen received an immense number of addresses of congratulation in the Royal closet from the Archbishops and Bishops. The Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, and the Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

For Her Majesty's birthday, the Queen held a drawing-room in St. James's Palace on Saturday afternoon in celebration of Her Majesty's birthday. The Queen received an immense number of addresses of congratulation in the Royal closet from the Archbishops and Bishops. The Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, and the Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

For Her Majesty's birthday, the Queen held a drawing-room in St. James's Palace on Saturday afternoon in celebration of Her Majesty's birthday. The Queen received an immense number of addresses of congratulation in the Royal closet from the Archbishops and Bishops. The Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, and the Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

For Her Majesty's birthday, the Queen held a drawing-room in St. James's Palace on Saturday afternoon in celebration of Her Majesty's birthday. The Queen received an immense number of addresses of congratulation in the Royal closet from the Archbishops and Bishops. The Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, and the Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

For Her Majesty's birthday, the Queen held a drawing-room in St. James's Palace on Saturday afternoon in celebration of Her Majesty's birthday. The Queen received an immense number of addresses of congratulation in the Royal closet from the Archbishops and Bishops. The Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, and the Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

For Her Majesty's birthday, the Queen held a drawing-room in St. James's Palace on Saturday afternoon in celebration of Her Majesty's birthday. The Queen received an immense number of addresses of congratulation in the Royal closet from the Archbishops and Bishops. The Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, and the Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

For Her Majesty's birthday, the Queen held a drawing-room in St. James's Palace on Saturday afternoon in celebration of Her Majesty's birthday. The Queen received an immense number of addresses of congratulation in the Royal closet from the Archbishops and Bishops. The Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, and the Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

For Her Majesty's birthday, the Queen held a drawing-room in St. James's Palace on Saturday afternoon in celebration of Her Majesty's birthday. The Queen received an immense number of addresses of congratulation in the Royal closet from the Archbishops and Bishops. The Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, and the Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

For Her Majesty's birthday, the Queen held a drawing-room in St. James's Palace on Saturday afternoon in celebration of Her Majesty's birthday. The Queen received an immense number of addresses of congratulation in the Royal closet from the Archbishops and Bishops. The Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, and the Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

For Her Majesty's birthday, the Queen held a drawing-room in St. James's Palace on Saturday afternoon in celebration of Her Majesty's birthday. The Queen received an immense number of addresses of congratulation in the Royal closet from the Archbishops and Bishops. The Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, and the Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

For Her Majesty's birthday, the Queen held a drawing-room in St. James's Palace on Saturday afternoon in celebration of Her Majesty's birthday. The Queen received an immense number of addresses of congratulation in the Royal closet from the Archbishops and Bishops. The Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, and the Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

For Her Majesty's birthday, the Queen held a drawing-room in St. James's Palace on Saturday afternoon in celebration of Her Majesty's birthday. The Queen received an immense number of addresses of congratulation in the Royal closet from the Archbishops and Bishops. The Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, and the Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

For Her Majesty's birthday, the Queen held a drawing-room in St. James's Palace on Saturday afternoon in celebration of Her Majesty's birthday. The Queen received an immense number of addresses of congratulation in the Royal closet from the Archbishops and Bishops. The Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, and the Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

For Her Majesty's birthday, the Queen held a drawing-room in St. James's Palace on Saturday afternoon in celebration of Her Majesty's birthday. The Queen received an immense number of addresses of congratulation in the Royal closet from the Archbishops and Bishops. The Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, and the Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

For Her Majesty's birthday, the Queen held a drawing-room in St. James's Palace on Saturday afternoon in celebration of Her Majesty's birthday. The Queen received an immense number of addresses of congratulation in the Royal closet from the Archbishops and Bishops. The Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, and the Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

For Her Majesty's birthday, the Queen held a drawing-room in St. James's Palace on Saturday afternoon in celebration of Her Majesty's birthday. The Queen received an immense number of addresses of congratulation in the Royal closet from the Archbishops and Bishops. The Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, and the Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

For Her Majesty's birthday, the Queen held a drawing-room in St. James's Palace on Saturday afternoon in celebration of Her Majesty's birthday. The Queen received an immense number of addresses of congratulation in the Royal closet from the Archbishops and Bishops. The Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, and the Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

For Her Majesty's birthday, the Queen held a drawing-room in St. James's Palace on Saturday afternoon in celebration of Her Majesty's birthday. The Queen received an immense number of addresses of congratulation in the Royal closet from the Archbishops and Bishops. The Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, and the Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

For Her Majesty's birthday, the Queen held a drawing-room in St. James's Palace on Saturday afternoon in celebration of Her Majesty's birthday. The Queen received an immense number of addresses of congratulation in the Royal closet from the Archbishops and Bishops. The Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, and the Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

For Her Majesty's birthday, the Queen held a drawing-room in St. James's Palace on Saturday afternoon in celebration of Her Majesty's birthday. The Queen received an immense number of addresses of congratulation in the Royal closet from the Archbishops and Bishops. The Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, and the Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

For Her Majesty's birthday, the Queen held a drawing-room in St. James's Palace on Saturday afternoon in celebration of Her Majesty's birthday. The Queen received an immense number of addresses of congratulation in the Royal closet from the Archbishops and Bishops. The Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, and the Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

For Her Majesty's birthday, the Queen held a drawing-room in St. James's Palace on Saturday afternoon in celebration of Her Majesty's birthday. The Queen received an immense number of addresses of congratulation in the Royal closet from the Archbishops and Bishops. The Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, and the Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

For Her Majesty's birthday, the Queen held a drawing-room in St. James's Palace on Saturday afternoon in celebration of Her Majesty's birthday. The Queen received an immense number of addresses of congratulation in the Royal closet from the Archbishops and Bishops. The Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, and the Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

For Her Majesty's birthday, the Queen held a drawing-room in St. James's Palace on Saturday afternoon in celebration of Her Majesty's birthday. The Queen received an immense number of addresses of congratulation in the Royal closet from the Archbishops and Bishops. The Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, and the Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

For Her Majesty's birthday, the Queen held a drawing-room in St. James's Palace on Saturday afternoon in celebration of Her Majesty's birthday. The Queen received an immense number of addresses of congratulation in the Royal closet from the Archbishops and Bishops. The Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, and the Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

For Her Majesty's birthday, the Queen held a drawing-room in St. James's Palace on Saturday afternoon in celebration of Her Majesty's birthday. The Queen received an immense number of addresses of congratulation in the Royal closet from the Archbishops and Bishops. The Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, and the Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

For Her Majesty's birthday, the Queen held a drawing-room in St. James's Palace on Saturday afternoon in celebration of Her Majesty's birthday. The Queen received an immense number of addresses of congratulation in the Royal closet from the Archbishops and Bishops. The Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, and the Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

For Her Majesty's birthday, the Queen held a drawing-room in St. James's Palace on Saturday afternoon in celebration of Her Majesty's birthday. The Queen received an immense number of addresses of congratulation in the Royal closet from the Archbishops and Bishops. The Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, and the Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

For Her Majesty's birthday, the Queen held a drawing-room in St. James's Palace on Saturday afternoon in celebration of Her Majesty's birthday. The Queen received an immense number of addresses of congratulation in the Royal closet from the Archbishops and Bishops. The Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, and the Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

For Her Majesty's birthday, the Queen held a drawing-room in St. James's Palace on Saturday afternoon in celebration of Her Majesty's birthday. The Queen received an immense number of addresses of congratulation in the Royal closet from the Archbishops and Bishops. The Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, and the Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

For Her Majesty's birthday, the Queen held a drawing-room in St. James's Palace on Saturday afternoon in celebration of Her Majesty's birthday. The Queen received an immense number of addresses of congratulation in the Royal closet from the Archbishops and Bishops. The Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, and the Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

For Her Majesty's birthday, the Queen held a drawing-room in St. James's Palace on Saturday afternoon in celebration of Her Majesty's birthday. The Queen received an immense number of addresses of congratulation in the Royal closet from the Archbishops and Bishops. The Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, and the Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

For Her Majesty's birthday, the Queen held a drawing-room in St. James's Palace on Saturday afternoon in celebration of Her Majesty's birthday. The Queen received an immense number of addresses of congratulation in the Royal closet from the Archbishops and Bishops. The Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, and the Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

For Her Majesty's birthday, the Queen held a drawing-room in St. James's Palace on Saturday afternoon in celebration of Her Majesty's birthday. The Queen received an immense number of addresses of congratulation in the Royal closet from the Archbishops and Bishops. The Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, and the Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

For Her Majesty's birthday, the Queen held a drawing-room in St. James's Palace on Saturday afternoon in celebration of Her Majesty's birthday. The Queen received an immense number of addresses of congratulation in the Royal closet from the Archbishops and Bishops. The Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, and the Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

For Her Majesty's birthday, the Queen held a drawing-room in St. James's Palace on Saturday afternoon in celebration of Her Majesty's birthday. The Queen received an immense number of addresses of congratulation in the Royal closet from the Archbishops and Bishops. The Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, and the Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

For Her Majesty's birthday, the Queen held a drawing-room in St. James's Palace on Saturday afternoon in celebration of Her Majesty's birthday. The Queen received an immense number of addresses of congratulation in the Royal closet from the Archbishops and Bishops. The Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, and the Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

For Her Majesty's birthday, the Queen held a drawing-room in St. James's Palace on Saturday afternoon in celebration of Her Majesty's birthday. The Queen received an immense number of addresses of congratulation in the Royal closet from the Archbishops and Bishops. The Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, and the Queen was the cultivator of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

