JUDGE LANDRY RULES OUT AN ALLEGED CONFESSION

Story That Tony Arosia is Said to Have Told Chief Foster Not Allowed in Evidence

Trial of Men Charged With Murder of "Paddy" Green—Resumed This Morning and Several Witnesses Examined—Arosia is Said to Have Confessed and Implicated His Fellow Prisoner

Perth, N. B., March 3.—(Special)—The trial of Tony Arosia and Leon Seppelt for the murder of Edward Green, was resumed this morning. Alexander Panamary was cross-examined by Charles H. Elliott, of Perth, for the prisoners. Panamary was unable to state whether he and Green were ahead of the murderer. Seppelt, the man with the moustache, aimed at him. He never saw either prisoner before, but he swore that Seppelt was the man who pointed the gun. He could not see the other man with a gun, nor could he see his features, as he was close to the bushes on the left, standing still. Seppelt was 30 feet away. He saw nobody else in the woods. He was certain Seppelt fired a shot, but could not swear he was the murderer. He did not see Green fall, but saw him bending and heard him say, "Oh my God." There was a clash between the over-talented Jew and Mr. Elliott over the law being positive that the accused were the men. He positively identified the watch as a gift to Green from a Montreal uncle. There were no particulars to identify it, but he reiterated that he was positive. Mr. Green kept it as a keepsake. He refused to admit even the possibility of being mistaken. He did not know whether the men followed him. Re-examined by Mr. McLeod, he was emphatic in his Green's watch. He did not see anybody around before the shooting. Alphonse Foster, chief of police, was called. He heard of the murder by telephone at Middle Simons at 10 a. m. Sunday, December 20th. He got Constable Pearson and drove through Bristol, searching the camps toward Plaster Rock. He crossed the right of way at Ferguson into a great 20 rods from the right of way. A boy and an old man, both Italians, were there. He arrested Seppelt and Arosia, who were inside, both with their feet frozen, and he took them to Plaster Rock, and searched Arosia, finding a watch and $11. He did not search Seppelt. McLeod proposed that Foster tell of a confession from Arosia, implicating Seppelt, but Judge Landry ruled it out, as Seppelt talked no English and could not reply. When the alleged confession was made, Mr. Elliott contended, the indictment against Arosia was made by questioning directly as if guilty. Judge Landry said the men were at the mercy of the officers. Sandy Murray, sworn, said the prisoners left the Amiel Johnson camp on Dec. 18, Friday, because of no bread, they left on Saturday and left again on Sunday morning. When they left on Friday they had a gun each with them. The guns exhibited in court were a Mauser rifle and a shot gun, were like theirs. They worked 40 days. Rainford Lovely, sworn, said he saw the men with guns on the right of way on Saturday and took a rifle. Arosia had a shot gun and Seppelt a rifle. Andrew Hatch, an Italian boy, told of the men coming to the Amiel Johnson camp on Monday half frozen. Seppelt had mittens on his feet. The boy saw Seppelt and his father was being tried. Judge Landry in disallowing confession said he would have no hesitation in permitting it if one man was being tried. Harry Kennedy, and Joseph Pearson corroborated Mr. Foster. Harry Kennedy and Constable Pearson, Beveridge testified to finding the body.

It is said that this will be the largest game preserve in the country.

CHINA PROTECTS FORESTS

Ancient Empire Joins in the Worldwide Movement to Prevent Destruction

The almost worldwide movement to protect and establish forests has reached China, said Percy T. Hyams, a railroad contractor, of Hong Kong, to a reporter for the Washington Post. The first Chinese school of forestry will soon be opened at Mukden. The Chinese empire is usually pointed out as the worst example among modern nations of forest destruction. "The floods which are periodically poured down from the denuded mountains are destructive beyond comparison with any country, and the want of forests is assigned to this as the chief cause. Wood is scarce in China, and in almost any other region in the world, although the country is well adapted to the growing of trees."

A Mysterious Disappearance
By Gordon Holmes

A Great Detective Story

Late on Sunday evening, February 5, a Continental telegram was handed to him at Scotland Yard.

"Mrs. Hillmer's present address, Hotel Imperiale, Florence."

He promptly wired the Chief of Police at Florence.

"Keep Mrs. Hillmer, English visitor, Hotel Imperiale, under surveillance. Also watch her associates, particularly Englishman named Corbett, if there. Letter follows."

"That's a good stroke of business," said he, when the message was sent. "Now we shall be long."

It was in contented mood that he lit a cigar in his office, before walking home for dinner, but a messenger with the badge of the Commercial Cable Company in Northumberland Avenue hustled past him. "Who's the cable for, boy?" said the detective.

"White, Scotland Yard," was the answer.

"That's me."

He tore open the envelope, and found that the contents were coded, but he caught the word "Corbett" amidst the unintelligible figures.

With some excitement he rushed into the office to find the A. B. O. Code, and after some confusion deciphering the words, this is what he read:

"Regret delay in replying to your communication. Corbett left New York in White Star steamer due Liverpool, February 4."

"February 4? Why, that's yesterday. Good gracious, how here all the time. Well, all the —"

But calculations were useless. Calling another plain-clothed man to accompany him, he drove off in his mad haste to Sloane Square.

About an hour later Bruce received a typewritten slip glummed on to a telegraph form. It was from Florence, and ran as follows:

"My brother wildly excited regarding allegations. Meanwhile careful investigations expected. Mr. Corbett, of Wyoming, my brother's friend, is probably occupying his flat, and may be arrested. We both trust you to save him. Write me at Modane, or Gare du Nord. GWENDOLINE HILLMER."

So Bruce also raced off in a hansom towards Sloane Square.

CHAPTER XX.
Mr. Sydney H. Corbett

The detective glanced up at Bruce's chambers while passing through Victoria Street. "I wonder what he would think if he knew what we are after?" he said to his colleague, one of the two who accompanied him when the latter was arrested by mistake.

"What are we after?" said the policeman.

"This time we are going to nail the right Corbett," was the confident answer.

"Will we cut him off?"

"Well, now, that depends. I think I am quite right in collaring him unless he explains to my satisfaction, which is hardly likely."

"The charge is one of murder, isn't it?"

"Yes."

"Well, up to now it hasn't come out, for the sake of the family. But if Corbett is here you will know soon enough."

"It's a funny way to go to work."

"Commissioner's orders, my boy. I am not to reveal the name until it cannot be helped. However, as I have said so much, I don't mind telling you it's a woman, and a big one too."

"Big fat do you mean?"

"No. A woman of high position."

"There! A regular society scandal, I suppose?"

"That's about the size of it."

On arrival at Sloane Square they quickly ascended to No. 12 Raleigh Mansions. A stout, elderly woman answered their knock, and a glance at her face revealed the map of Ireland, although her name was Susan Robinson.

"Mr. Corbett?" inquired White.

"Fais, he's not."

"Then where is he?"

"I don't know, mister, an' if I did I wouldn't be after telling when axed in an official manner."

"All right, Mrs. —"

"Robinson's my name, if that's any use to ye."

"Very well, Mrs. Robinson. We wish to have a word with Mr. Corbett, and we will be much obliged if you can tell us when he is likely to return, if he is in London."

Fashion Hint for Times Readers

Leathrine, dierthine and tungs distinguish all the blouses this year, and very few deep yokes of crosswise trimmings are seen. It is so easy to apply these straight up and down trimmings that often a simple little ready-made waist of fine material may be dressed up in this way. Tucked waist was used for this dainty dress, and the insertions are of heavy V cause lace with a shaped neckline of the same lace across the front. A little yoke of Valenciennes is set in above this tulle and below it oblique trimmings of the Val, give the effect of a vest. In these blouses, which combine sheer fabric on with heavy lace, the trimming of coarse, outwears the cobwebby material. Often the lace, if carefully ripped away from an old blouse can be used through another season in a new setting.

ARCHDEACON RAYMOND'S PAPER ON THE MINISTRY OF HEALING

The Editor of the Times:

Dear Sir:—As there seems to be some misapprehension as to what I said in a certain part of the paper on the Ministry of Healing, which was read yesterday before the members of the Evangelical Alliance, I should be glad if you will find room in your columns for the following extract.

Yours faithfully,
W. O. RAYMOND.

There is a practical side to the question now under consideration; and the practical side is this: What should be the attitude of the Christian Church at large towards the Emmanuel movement, and how should it enter upon the consideration of that question with some measure of freedom?

As to whether Emmanuel Church, Boston, should occupy its buildings and a large expenditure of time on the part of its clergy and lay workers in attending to the ministry of healing, is little concern of yours or mine. The pastor and the people of that church can settle that question for themselves. But the Emmanuel movement means more than this. A movement seeks to be all-embracing—as, for example, does the Laymen's Missionary Movement. Certain advocates of the Emmanuel movement assert that the church, if filled with the Spirit of Jesus, is able to give the people help which is not possible to give in any other way. They claim that the Christian Church is not applying that help in closing her eyes to the example of her Lord, and becoming deaf to His commands in withholding a duty and devolving upon her. I conceive there is some danger in that. It is not the Emmanuel movement, but the Emmanuel movement, not satisfied with the good work which they may fairly claim to have accomplished in Boston and elsewhere, desire to commit the Christian Church everywhere to a similar line of action, as a part of the Church's divine mission. Nay, they even proclaim that the Church is recreant to its trust if it does not enter upon the ministry of physical healing. Let us examine the appeal to the Church to follow her Lord in regard to the ministry of healing, and see what, if any, are the limitations.

There can be no question that the New Testament declares that Jesus "healed" in a manner of speech, and all manner of disease amongst the people." We are told also that He sent out twelve apostles to represent Him and speak in His name, to whom He gave "authority over all devils and to cure diseases." We are told that He appointed other seventy, and when He commanded to go and "heal the sick," and there can be no question that the healing of disease was a marked feature in the demonstrative and convincing ministry of the Apostolic Church. But there is some further history to be considered. From the 12th and 13th centuries St. Paul's first letter to the Church at Corinth, we learn that the ministry of special gifts began to cause discussion very early in the church's history. Let us attend carefully to his words:

"Now there are diversities of gifts, but the same Spirit. . . . And there are diversities of operations, but it is the same God that worketh all in us. . . . To one is given by the Spirit the word of wisdom. . . . To another faith by the same Spirit; to another the gift of healing by the same Spirit; to another the working of miracles; to another prophecy; to another divers kinds of tongues; to another the interpretation of tongues. But all these worketh that one and the self-same Spirit dividing to every man severally as He will."

Then a little farther on in the same chapter the Apostle observes:—"God hath set some in the Church, first apostles, secondarily prophets, thirdly teachers, after that, evangelists, rulers, etc."

Meanwhile we cherish our faith in the power of earnest faithful prayer, and can never forget the assurance of our Lord "all things are possible to Him that believeth."

THE CHURCH AND HEALING

The Bishop of London Will Appoint a Committee of Inquiry

(London Standard.)

At a meeting of the Church and Medical Union, at the Church House, yesterday, Colonel Hephworth suggested that a "Healing House," with resident clergy, set apart by the Bishop, should be established in each diocese to attend to rich and poor alike.

"The church has the gift of healing, but has allowed it to slumber," said Lieut.-Colonel J. S. Hephworth. "It should be the object of this society, in conjunction with the medical profession, to restore the use of that gift."

"A 'Healing House,' where clergy, selected by the Bishop, and physicians, selected by the British Medical Association, should reside in community, should be established in each diocese. It should be ready, at all times, like an ordinary hospital, to attend to the wants of the people—rich and poor alike."

"I hope that every large parish will ultimately have its resident clerical healer, working in conjunction with a local doctor," he concluded.

The Rev. Percy Ellis, vicar of St. Mary's, Vincent-square, said he did not think the clergy and doctors were sufficiently advanced to take advantage of the proposals put forward by Lieut.-Colonel Hephworth.

"Two years ago I said I would not catch a cold, and I have never had one since," another speaker declared. "Before then I never went through a winter without half a dozen."

It was announced that the Bishop of London will appoint a committee of clergy and doctors to consider the question of spiritual healing.

AMHERST EXPECTS TO HAVE GOOD YEAR

Amherst, Nov. 1.—The business outlook in Amherst is considerably improved and manufacturers and business men are looking forward to a bright commercial year. The Robt. Engineering Co., who have been practically idle in many departments, report that they are now working five days a week, and expect to put their men on full time at once.

Rhodes & Co., Ltd. held their annual meeting last week, the reports being most favorable. The usual dividend of 20 per cent. was declared, and the company is working at full capacity, and have sufficient orders on hand to keep them until September.

Samuel G. Baird, of Calgary, Alberta, is visiting the city. He is a member of the Lewis preached two able sermons, and addressed the men's class in the afternoon.

MAKE NEW BLOOD

That is What Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Do—That is Why They Cure So Many Diseases

When persons have not enough blood, or when their blood is weak and watery, the doctors name the disease anemia. Anemia is the direct cause of many common diseases, such as indigestion, palpitation of the heart, loss of appetite, nervousness, rheumatism and consumption. The surest signs of poor blood are pale face, listless, dry hands and feet, nervousness, headache and dizziness. If you are not checked in time it will probably develop into consumption. There is one certain cure for anemia—Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. These pills actually make new, rich red blood, which is the very life and vigor of the body. In proof of this, Miss Abigail C. Williams, Niagara Falls, Ont., says: "For two years I suffered from anemia. I was weak, thin, had no appetite; I sometimes had intermitting headaches and felt low spirited. My heart would palpitate violently. I could not work around the house. I became very pale and my nerves got unstrung. The efforts of two good doctors failed to help me. I was in fact a pitiful case. One day a friend urged me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and I did so. Soon I saw the pills were helping me. I felt better, my appetite returned, and I gained weight. I had a good appetite, and my nerves were better. I cannot speak too highly of what Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have done for me."

What Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have done for Miss C. Williams they have done for thousands—they will do for you. But you must get the genuine with the full name "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People" on the wrapper around every box. If your dealer has not got the genuine pills you can get them at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from "The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont."

LOCAL OPTION CAMPAIGN

Toronto, March 1.—Petitions are in circulation for signatures asking the legislature now in session to repeal the objectionable three-fifths majority requirement for carrying local option. In the recent campaign twenty-one municipalities gave an actual majority, but local option did not prevail because of the three-fifths clause. During the past three years the majority vote of the people in ninety-one municipalities has been in like manner thwarted. Prohibitionists are naturally aggrieved that during this period they have only 83 local option municipalities, when by actual majority they should have secured more than 100. However, with these added to previous results there are now 233 municipalities in Ontario where intoxicating liquors cannot be legally sold. A provincial campaign is called at Toronto for March 5-6, when the work of the Ontario branch of the Dominion Alliance will be taken up, and plans made for the more efficient continuance of the local option campaign.

The Church of England branch of the laymen's missionary movement in St. John held an important meeting in Trinity church school room last night at which they confirmed March 14 as the date for a big missionary day to be held in St. John. Silas McBe, Editor of the New York Churchman, will be the chief speaker and Rev. R. Norwood of Springfield (N. S.) will also address the meetings. They will conduct church services in the city on the morning and evening of that day and both will speak at a mass meeting to be held in the afternoon. The arrangement of the details in connection with the visit of these two speakers was left in the hands of a strong committee. The names of the churches where the meetings will be held will be announced later.

CONSTITUTION OF PROPOSED SOUTH AFRICAN FEDERATION

Provision Made for an Assembly and Senate With Elective Senators—English and Dutch to be Official Languages

London, March 2.—The main provisions of the constitution prepared by the National convention at Cape Town are as follows:

The constitution has been drafted in the form of an imperial bill, based on the resolutions previously passed by the convention. These resolutions have in some cases been modified, but, except as regards the senate, not materially.

Any two or more of the South African colonies may be declared within a year of the passing of the act to be united under legislative union under one government under the name of South Africa. The provinces so united are to retain the names of the present colonies, except that the Orange River Colony is to be called the Orange Free State Province.

The executive government of the union will be the Government of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, to consist of a governor-general, an executive council, and two houses of parliament.

The senate is to consist of 22 elected and 12 nominated senators, four of which latter are to be appointed in virtue of their qualifications with the Orange Free State Province.

The House of Assembly is to consist of 121 members chosen directly by the voters of the union and assigned to the various provinces in the following manner—Cape of Good Hope, 33; Natal, 24; Orange River Colony, 17; Transvaal, 38. Members of both Houses must be British subjects of European descent, and have resided in the province for which they are elected.

THE C. P. R. AND ST. JOHN "The proposed transfer of property between the city, the C. P. R. and the government on the west side should be made. The only objection to it is based on the theory that the C. P. R. will pursue a dog-in-the-manger policy and try to shut other railway companies out from the use of this port. This theory is not well founded. It can not be denied that the C. P. R. as a business corporation will secure every possible advantage. It has done so in the past, and will do so again. But St. John today is confronted by a situation which calls for prompt action, and a demand for the future of the business that St. John has secured it owes to the C. P. R. The Grand Trunk Pacific will have its terminals at Courtenay Bay. The Canadian Northern, if it comes this way, will not desire terminals on the west side. The C. P. R. is not at all likely to have a rival in this quarter, but, if it should, the C. P. R. has shown that the railway companies have power to make terms. In viewing this whole matter, we must, as Mr. Baxter says, look to the future, but not in the light in which he regards the future. St. John is to be held in the Canadian Pacific. As you pass the volume of its business must increase enormously. The time is coming when it will need all the space it asks for on the west side to accommodate the business it will bring to St. John. Canada is growing rapidly. We have been told over and over again that the time will come when St. John will not be able to handle all the business that will originate in the great west, and that other ports must eventually be developed. The statement cannot be doubted. The enormous areas of western Canada, when developed, will provide an immense traffic. The Canadian Pacific is the pioneer railway with branches and feeders all through the west. St. John is its port. Viewing the present situation from the standpoint of thirty or forty years hence, it is at once apparent that the company will require enormously increased facilities on the west side. No other line is seeking access to the west side. The government stands ready to develop the necessary harbor facilities. The minister of public works declares that he does not share in the slightest degree the suspicion with which some of the older men regard the professions of the railway company. Nobody pretends to believe that the C. P. R. is a benevolent institution, or that it will depart from business methods, but it is business for the company to stand by St. John; and the larger the stake it has in the port, the more business it will be likely to bring this way. Therefore the city council, being assured of the support of the government of Canada, may fairly make the proposed transfer and let the work proceed.

THE PLAYGROUNDS "The school board has reversed its former decision to take over the supervised playgrounds. The reason alleged was that the expense would be too great at present, that all sections of the city would want a share of the expenditure, which in the aggregate could not be very large, and that the officials should not be overtaxed in the hot season with the labor that would be involved in playground supervision. The board is only postponing what it must eventually do, and is throwing back upon the Women's Council a work that ought to be performed by the board and its officials. Mr. Baxter has sharply criticized the board for negligence in one direction, and it has now laid itself open to criticism in another. The plea that the officials of the board should not be overburdened during the hot season, if it is really put forward, can only be received by the public with derision. However, there is nothing in it but for the Women's Council to make such arrangements as they may for carrying on the work another season. They will have the sympathy of the citizens, which it may be hoped will take practical form. It was assumed when the board announced its intention of taking up the work that the playgrounds committee of the Women's Council would be free to take up the larger plan of the proposed public playground at the entrance to Rockwood Park. They can still promote this scheme and carry on the supervised playgrounds as usual, with, no doubt, the hearty co-operation of the school board.

ROWLAND R. CROCKER Newcastle, N. B., March 2.—(Special)—Robinson Rowland Crocker, of Millerton, died there this morning at the home of his sister, Mrs. E. N. Bell, at fifty-two. Deceased was unmarried, and a son of the late Rowland Crocker. He leaves, besides his sister, three brothers, Timothy W., of Newcastle; James and Christopher, of Millerton.

WARNING TO BOYS On the subject of over-exertion in athletic contests the Montreal Witness makes some observations worthy of the attention of the youth of the country. We quote: "Five of the most eminent medical specialists in Great Britain have declared that long-distance racing is unsuitable for growing boys under nineteen. This may cause a shock to some parents and school masters, but will hardly surprise those who have observed the effects of over-exertion in this as in other sports." Reasonable physical exertion is beneficial to old and young, but excess is terribly mischievous and often fatal. Athletes are comparatively short-lived. Sir Lauder Brunton, one of the five medical specialists who have signed a declaration against long-distance running for growing boys, says that such harm to many young men can be traced to over-exertion in school athletics. Over-exertion may cause muscles to become smaller and may make them liable to spasm and pain; over-exertion strains and weakens the heart, lessens the mental power, destroys the appetite, and renders the individual more ready to succumb to the attacks of disease. So say those high authorities, and such must be the observation of any who have lived long enough to follow the history of the most ardent devotees of sport.

THE MEETING OF THE NEW BRUNSWICK MORAL AND SOCIAL REFORM COUNCIL, to be held in the Y. M. C. A. rooms on Wednesday afternoon of next week, will consider the question of temperance legislation as it relates to this province, in view of the reply of the government to the appeal for prohibition. United action is desirable, along whatever lines the council may decide to move.

THE BOARD OF TRADE has found it necessary to criticize the course of the city council in various matters of late. How would it do for the board to get busy and see to it that there is a city council more to its liking?

EX-ADM. MACRAE insists that the money received by the city when the harbor goes into commission should be used to extinguish the debt. Mayor Bullock replies that the city's interests will be fully safeguarded. Put it in the bond.

ENQUIRIES by the board of trade have brought out the fact that the majority of the patrons of the L. C. R. do not desire any change in the management.

THE DEFeat of Mr. Gibson Bowles in the central division of Glasgow by over two thousand majority is a distinct victory for the trait reformers in Great Britain.

THE LOCAL HERESY hunt is over. It did not assume serious dimensions. Modern problems are more pressing than ancient disputations.

BABIES

I don't know where it started, but I think it's time for me to rise up and kill a rumor. A rumor that is spreading. Everyone you'll hear it told. The babe's not interesting. Until it's five months old.

Where a babe is, every minute there is always something doing. Oh, yes, I got my salary. Last night, but here's the point: you see I'm not a baby.

IN LIGHTER VEIN

Belie-Dick says I grow prettier every time I see you. Estelle—you should get him to call more often—William's Bill.

IF PAPA HAD HEARD IT A six-year-old was seated a barber's chair. Well, my little man, how would you like your hair cut?

REASON—Does your wife object to smoking?—Well, if she does, she is man enough not to say so.

MUSK—Why did you turn down my verses? Heartless—So no more would turn up.

Don't think the maiden all forlorn. Don't think she's lost her lover true. Because she says "I'm a little blue, it's Lent."

Don't think because you've spent your pay that you can touch me hard today. Oh, yes, I got my salary. Last night, but here's the point: you see I'm not a baby.

Teacher—And what do you suppose all the animals did during those forty days in the ark? "Smarty" Williams—They just loaded up on everything.

"Sandy" Toke (distastefully)—Chuck it, Smarty! You'll get a scratch for when there was a quarter to two—The Roman.

DIAGNOSIS, lantern in hand, entered the village drug store. "Say, have you anything for a headache?" "No, sir, I have not," answered the pill-compler.

"Give me your hand," exclaimed Diogenes, dropping his lantern. "It's a Christian Advocate, an honest man."

A man's wife never thinks this illness is serious until he quits using language that wouldn't look well in print.—Chicago News.

"Where are you going, my pretty maiden?" "I'm going milking, sir," she said.

"Then I want to marry you, my pretty maiden." "For I own the waterworks here," he said.

So they were married, ead and they. Have lived ever since on the milky way.—Appaloosa's Magazine.

The proposed mill will be up-to-date in every respect as a grist mill. Hon. George E. Foster has been agreed upon as one of the judges for the inter-collegiate debate in Fredericton on March 20, between Mount A. and U. N. B., but it is not announced yet as to whether he will accept.

PURILS LINED UP EACH DAY FOR MEDICAL INSPECTION

A Physician and a Nurse Are the Official Examiners—Some thing St. John People Should Think About and Take to Heart

(Detroit New Tribune.) "Pediculosis, said the nurse calmly as she sent one little chap on his way and turned to the next one. Only the uninitiated reporter who watched the daily morning clinic at the Bishop school was in the dark as to the nature of this formidable sounding disease. Later he was enlightened to the extent of learning that it was what they called in the vernacular of the school, "hair trouble."

Hair trouble is frequent among the members of the Bishop school—eleven hundred boys and girls of every class, but among them is the largest grammar school in the city and so it was necessary to watch the children against the spread of the disease. Every morning a quarter to five the gong sounds. Every teacher who feels that she has one or more children in her room who need medical attention sends them out at the call of the bell to little room where Dr. H. Peyton Johnson and Nurse Aylesworth, uniformed and cheerful, await the little charges.

LITTLE FOLKS WALK IN LINE. It was a long line of diminutive men and women who waited to be attended to yesterday morning. Most of them, it was evident from their dress and bearing, had come from the shadowy places, and it was as they stepped into the light that they came to brave conduct and more cleanly ways.

One little boy had a sore finger which he insisted must be carefully bound up, although there was little indication of soreness. A little girl with an ugly scrofulous looking sore behind her ear, two or three with sore throats and an anemic girl who, the teacher said, would do much better in school if her eyes were attended to—all stood in line, were duly diagnosed by Dr. Johnson and sent on. Here and there was a case that needed special attention and a note was written to the parents recommending them to take the child to their family physician for special treatment.

There were thirty in all and many looked as though their first need was good nourishing food, and if the truth must be told, a vigorous application of soap and water.

MANY ARE GIVEN WASH CURE. Hands, necks and finger-nails were examined and in many cases found so badly wanting that Miss Aylesworth dealt out paper to serve as towels and bade her protégées wash themselves to the hilt, which has been fitted up with hot and cold shower baths for boys and girls.

It is a wonderful work that is being accomplished at the Bishop school. It exemplifies very clearly the modern tendency of all work to take on the social aspect. These children are being educated—not merely in the sense of being taught the things they should know that are in books. They are being helped to care for themselves and taught the need of strong, clean bodies.

SAID TO QUICKLY IMPROVE COMPLEXION

When it's so easy to bring back the bloom of youth, to remove the blemishes and fill the hollows, isn't it foolish to plaster on cosmetics? Sallow skin and fall-in cheeks are produced by disorders of the alimentary canal. Remove the cause—correct the condition that keeps you from looking what you ought. Use Dr. Hamilton's Pills and very soon you'll have a complexion to be proud of. Just imagine how much happier you will feel when those pimples and murky look have gone. Dainty looks came to Miss Vrooman, a well-known resident of Belfast, from using Dr. Hamilton's Pills. Read what she says: "My friends all admit that I have very delightful complexion. This I owe positively to Dr. Hamilton's Pills. I use to look so yellow I thought it might be jaundice. There was simply no color in my cheeks at all. Today my skin is clear and never gets that murky, dull appearance it had before. Dr. Hamilton's Pills have also given me a good appetite and improved my general health also."

Not only the complexion, but every organ of the body is strengthened, cleaned and made healthy by Dr. Hamilton's Pills. Bloating, wind and a feeling of fever invariably follow their use. Sold in yellow boxes by all dealers; 25c. per box or 2 boxes for $1.00.

GREGORY AT THE SAME OLD GAME

Member of Moncton Victors Inflicted Severe Injuries on Condon of the Crescents in Recent Starr Trophy Contest.

(Halifax Recorder) The Crescents returned home this morning, with everybody delighted with their treatment by the Moncton people, speaking in volumes of praise for the referee, and the admirers of the home team being unable to say too much for the playing of every individual player.

The referee was in reference to Condon's injury by Gregory, and they are confident that had he been in the game to the finish they would have won.

They were playing in fine form, and his absence was the biggest kind of a loss. They say that Gregory struck him with the butt end of a stick, falling on to the ice, the blow was between the eye and the nose, and he had to have two stitches in the cut. This however was not the most serious result of the affair, but the doctor has had on the ice to have two stitches in the cut.

Gregory has a reputation for such occurrences, as early in the season, McLean of the Amherst Ramblers had his nose badly hurt after a collision with Gregory that he went to hospital, and for a time his life was despaired of. It is up to somebody to take this matter in hand, obtain the referee's report on the subject, and if Gregory deserves all that is believed of him, to have him put out of the game.

Even if Gregory does not commit those acts intentionally, he is a dangerous man to have on the ice.

The same old Gregory, at the same old tricks. When there is any close play it apparently is up to gentle Gledhill to save the situation.

In this particular case where the two teams were so evenly matched, there is much truth in the statement that it threw the scale in favor of the Moncton team, as Condon was out of the play of the Crescents.

But it is the old story always associated with professional hockey—with any sport. There is a lot of money at stake for both players and followers, and what is a broken head or two to the bank of coin.

To win the Starr trophy from Moncton the probability is that the Crescents will have to win something of that sort, that is, of course, as long as their games are played in Moncton.

PANARSKY SWEARS SIPPIL WAS MAN WHO HAD THE GUN

On Saturday at 11 a. m. at Ferguson's Panarsky told Green he was foolish for carrying such a large amount with him.

Panarsky also said he saw money in Green's wallet on Saturday. Green usually kept undischarged, lockets and some watches in his wallet and in the case were 100 or 110 watches.

Panarsky said he gave the alarm at the residence of some engineers and next saw Green's body at the hotel at Plaster Rock on the following Tuesday morning.

The witnesses were restored to separate lots and he is positive that there are twenty-five or thirty watches yet missing.

Panarsky will be recalled tomorrow morning for examination by Mr. Elliot, as Mr. Stratton only consented to represent the prisoners today at the request of the court.

Dr. Joseph R. Coffin of Plaster Rock testified that in conjunction with Dr. Taylor he made a post mortem examination of the body at Plaster Rock on Dec. 22.

He found two wounds above the left eye and the other, after taking an arrow from the chest, was on the right hip.

The bullet went between the third and fourth ribs and grazed the border of one lung and penetrated the right ventricle of the heart, diaphragm and liver and came out, severing the lower ends of the aorta and the ribs, the heart would not contract and instantaneous death. He believed the bullet entered on the left as if it had entered on the right side it would not touch the high left tenth ribs.

From appearance the bullet was not deflected in its course. The fact that the bullet entered higher and emerged lower was explained by Green having bent to the left with his baggage.

Dr. George O. Taylor, also of Plaster Rock, said he had examined the body of the man who was shot on Saturday. He corroborated the fore physician's testimony in the main.

The body of the man who was shot on Saturday was about forty years old, five feet high, dark hair and eyes, a sandy mustache. His weight was about 150 pounds.

His left arm was withered from a previous injury. He was wearing a dark suit and a white shirt. He was wearing a watch on his left wrist.

The wounds were inflicted by a 16-gauge bullet and not from a revolver. The wounds were inflicted by a 16-gauge bullet and not from a revolver.

Palpitation of the Heart.

One of the first danger signals that announces something wrong with the heart is the irregular beat or violent throb. Often there is only a fluttering sensation, or an "all gone" sinking feeling; or again, there may be a more violent beating, with fits and starts, and a feeling of constriction of the arteries.

The person may experience a smothering sensation, gasp for breath, and feel as though about to die. In such cases the action of Millburn's Heart and Nerve Pills is indicated, as they not only relieve the heart, but also improve the circulation of the blood, and imparting tone to the system.

They give such prompt relief that to one used suffer.

Mr. Sylvester Smith, Hampton, N.B., writes: "I was troubled with palpitation of the heart and tired doctor's medicine, but I found relief in the use of your Heart and Nerve Pills, and bought two boxes and before I had used them I was completely cured and would recommend them to all similarly afflicted."

Price, 50 cents per box, or 2 boxes for $1.25 at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Millburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

MATCH WAS NOT PLAYED
Thistle Curlers Claim They Were Not Properly Treated by Three St. Andrews Skips Over McCaffrey Cup Match
 If the members of the Thistle Curling Club, who went to St. Andrew's rink last night, to play in the match for the McCaffrey cup, could get the three St. Andrew's skips, who refused to go on with the match, into a dark corner there would be something doing. The Thistles went to St. Andrew's rink to play. The thermometer stood at thirty, and outside the temperature was going down. The ice was in splendid condition. But the three St. Andrew's skips declared it wasn't. They refused to play. The Thistles pointed out that it was considered good curling ice when the thermometer was up to 34. They offered to go on with the game, and if the ice went bad to call it off, and they would let the St. Andrew's skip be the judge. This proposition was rejected. Then they offered to play until the mercury rose to 33, and if it did, to call the game off. But this also was rejected, and they were compelled to abandon the match. A few of them remained and joined in a friendly game, and the ice got better all the time.
 It is alleged, whether correctly or not, that the St. Andrew's skips were much opposed to the ladies playing on the ice in the afternoon, and that as the ladies played yesterday, the fact had some bearing on the attitude of the three skips last night. At all events, the frost is all thawed off the harbor, and it may soon be on fire.
