Then he ventured to inquire, If her sister, Jane Mariar, And her mother and her sire, Were quite well,
And from time to time he'd eye her,
As though he would like to buy her, And his bashfulness was dire,

For a spell. Then his husky throat grew dryer, When he told her that the Squire To himself would gladly tie her, If she would : Might he now go ask her sire?
And he thought he would expire.
When she said, to his desire, That he could.

Mongrel Journalism.

Port of Newcastle.

There are mongrel editors who imagine that it is their duty to keep up a fight with their next door neighbor in order to establish and maintain a reputation for ability in their profession. There is about as much of the journalist about such persons as there is of the good citizen in the corner and alley loafer, who besmears the sidewalk with tobacco-juice, fills the air with bad tobacco-smoke and worse language and stands in the way of respectable citizens with a push-me-if-you-dare aspect that challenges aversion and merits avoidance.
