CANADA'S TRADE FOR THE FISCAL YEAR WELL OVER THE BILLION MARK

An Increase of Twenty-six Millions Over the Year of 1912.

GAIN IN EXPORTS
DECREASE IN IMPORTS

Dominion's Trade With United Kingdom Showed Net Increase of $37,634,098—Total Exports Nearly Half Billion.

Ottawa, June 13.—A statement of Canadian trade for the fiscal year has just been issued by the trade and commerce department. The total trade in merchandise for the year was $1,073,766,098, an increase of $26,697,666 over the corresponding fiscal year. Imports totalled $518,235,874, a decrease of $51,871,315, while exports totalled $555,530,224, an increase of $78,568,982.

The net increase in trade for the year was due to the big gain in exports of agricultural products, animal products and manufactured products, particularly during the autumn months. Since then there has been a considerable falling off both in imports and exports. The total exports of agricultural products for the year was $198,220,029, an increase of $48,074,368, or nearly thirty per cent. Exports of animal products totalled $53,249,119, an increase of $8,564,526, and exports of manufacturers totalled $37,443,452, an increase of $13,759,644.

There was a much greater movement of coin and bullion during the year than during 1912-13, imports of coin and bullion totalled $15,235,350, an increase of $9,507,376. Exports of coin and bullion totalled $23,560,704, an increase of $7,297,002. In the liquidation of balances Canada was out of the country $8,325,399 more of gold and bullion than was brought in.

Over Thirty-seven Millions Gain Made With United Kingdom

Trade with the United Kingdom showed a net increase of $37,634,098. Trade with the United States showed a net increase of nearly three millions. With the British West Indies, including Bermuda, despite the recent reciprocal trade agreement, there was a net falling off in trade of $1,200,283. From nearly every country imports decreased, while to every country except the Argentine Republic exports increased.

From the United Kingdom, Canada took last year imports valued at $11,942,765, or $6,706,666 less than the preceding year. Canadian exports to the United Kingdom totalled $22,322,766, a gain of $44,240,754.

Imports from the United States last year totalled $410,786,091, a decrease of $30,255,754. Exports to the United States totalled $209,459,370, a gain of $33,348,991.

Statistics of trade with the West Indies show imports of $4,354,943, a decrease of $1,622,281 and exports of $4,770,200, a gain of $41,998. Some details of the more important increases or decreases in imports and exports are interesting. In imports there were decreases of over two million dollars each in breadstuffs, and gutta serena, rubber and manila, and of over one million in iron and steel, and manufactures thereof, and of one and a quarter millions in the imports of provisions.

Increased Importation of Coal and Coke

On the other hand, there was an increase of over six millions in the imports of coal, coke, etc. and of nearly one million in the imports of fruits. The total imports of foodstuffs was over sixty-three millions, including breadstuffs, $9,425,412; fruits, $17,323,223; provisions $10,813,459; sugar, molasses, etc. $17,949,596; and vegetables $3,806,920.

In exports there was an increase of over six and a half millions in live animals, nearly thirty millions in wheat and of over eight millions in oats.

It may be noted that Canada sent to the United States last year animals worth $8,519,102; bran to the value of $1,509,595; oats to the value of $6,802,408; and wheat to the value of $8,891,624. Exports of fish to the United States amounted to $6,644,365.

SEAMAN DROWNS WHILE IN BATHING

Seventeen Year Old Lad Seized With Cramps and Sank.

St. Catharines, Ont., June 14.—Wm. Nixon, fireman on the steamer Keyport of the Keystone Transportation Company of Montreal, was taken with cramps and drowned while bathing in the harbor of Port Dalhousie Saturday evening. He was 17 years of age. His mother lives in Belfast, Ireland.

Sees Bitter Struggle Ahead in Ireland

Dublin Correspondent of London Papers Believes it Will Compare Only to Parnell Split in the 90's.

London, June 15.—The more one sees of the wrangle which has commenced between Redmond and the provisional committee of the Nationalist volunteers, says the Dublin correspondent of the Morning Post, "the more one is forced to the belief that Ireland is on the threshold of a bitter struggle, comparable perhaps only to the Parnell split in the early nineties. One thing seems obvious. Redmond was too late in the field to capture the volunteer force, and for several months he looked askance at the new body, not only without sympathy, but with absolute contempt."

The Daily News, ministerialist, deems that there is any antagonism between Redmond and Devlin, and says that the Nationalist leaders are all exercising their influence patriotically. The overwhelming majority of the volunteers are Nationalists, but the executive officers mostly belong to the Sinn Féin. Though a split would be regrettable it cannot be of serious dimensions, says the News.

The House of Lords reassembles today, when it is expected that the Marquis of Crewe will make a definite announcement as to the date of the second reading of the home rule bill and introduction of the amending bill. In the commons a division on the third reading of the plural voting bill is expected today.

NEW RULES FOR DAIRY INDUSTRY

All Package Cheese or Butter Must be Marked so Buyer Will Know What He's Getting.

Ottawa, June 13.—Regulations have been proclaimed to come into force on September 1st next, under the dairy industry act passed at the session of parliament last week.

The regulations provide for the marking or branding of all package cheese, or butter, so that purchasers may know just what they are getting. If "whey butter" is mixed with creamery or dairy butter the package must be marked "whey butter," similarly if dairy butter is mixed with creamery butter the package must be marked "dairy butter."

Cheese makers who manufacture cheese from skim milk or from milk to which skim milk has been added, must label the product "skim milk cheese."

For the violation of any of the regulations a fine of not less than $10 and not more than $50 is provided.

BIG RAILWAY STRIKE IS CALLED OFF

Anarchists Start Story of Revolution and Flight of King—Soldiers Fire on Inhabitants to Quell Disorder.

Rome, June 13.—The threatened railway strike throughout Italy has been abandoned and order is being gradually restored, even in the towns where a virtual revolutionary movement was in progress.

An outstanding feature in the general strike situation today was the news received at the capital of the proclamation of an Italian republic by the people of several towns bordering on the Adriatic in Northeastern Italy. In some towns, like Fabriano and Rimini, scenes similar to those of the French revolution were enacted. The inhabitants, misled by reports issued from the headquarters of the anarchist committee at Ancona, an important seaport of the Adriatic, to the effect that a revolutionary movement had been successful in overthrowing the monarchy, proclaimed a republic and substituted for the national flag the black banner of the peasants' league.

All the newspapers were burned the moment they reached those towns, in order to prevent the people from knowing the real condition of the country as the revolutionary leaders had stated King Victor Emmanuel had escaped to Montenegro, that the revolution had mastered the entire peninsula, and that the troops had joined with the people.

In some instances the soldiers were compelled to fire on the people before order was restored, with the result that several persons were killed or injured.

DEMONSTRATION IN HONOR OF MGR. STAGNI

Escorted Through Thronged Streets by Catholic Clergy in 'Charlottetown—Addresses from Clergy and Laity.

Charlottetown, P. E. I., June 14.—Mgr. Stagni, apostolic delegate, was tendered a hearty reception tonight by the Roman Catholics of Charlottetown. This was the fourth place to greet him during this, his first official visit to the island. This morning he drove to Kelly's Cross where he ordained two candidates for the priesthood. This evening he drove to St. Dunstan's College on the outskirts of the city.

At eight o'clock a large procession was made up of members of the C. M. B. A., A. O. H., B. I. S., and Knights of Columbus accompanied by two bands escorted the delegate into the cathedral. The streets were densely thronged with people. At the cathedral there was a special service during which the delegate imparted the apostolic benediction. There was also the benediction of the blessed sacrament by Bishop O'Leary. The latter had accompanied the delegate from Chatham where the consecration of his brother took place. Tonight the delegate received an address from the clergy read by Bishop O'Leary. The delegate was asked to convey to the Pope the sincere devotion of Catholics to the successor of St. Peter. The delegate in replying expressed his appreciation of the manifestation of affection, respect and reverence which he met since landing on the island.

Almost Met Fate Similar To That of the Empress

American Liner New York Creeps Into Port With a Hole in Side—Rammed by Steamer in Fog—Passengers Sing "Nearer My God to Thee" in Memory of Empress Victims.

New York, June 14.—With more than 650 persons on board, all of them thankful at having escaped a disaster similar to that which the Empress of Ireland recently went to the bottom. The American Liner New York, a gaping hole where the Hamburg-American liner Pretoria struck her in the fog off Nantucket early yesterday, reached port safely today.

As the steamer passed Fire Island on her way into port an impressive service of thanksgiving, presided over by the Rev. Francis E. Clark of Boston, founder of the Christian Endeavor Society, was held. There was scarcely a dry eye among the congregation while "Nearer My God to Thee" was being sung in memory of those less fortunate than the New York's crew.

Coming up the bay this afternoon the damaged liner wore a big tarpaulin bandage over the gash in her side, cut by the Pretoria's prow and anchor. Although the hole covers a range of three of the broad plating of the liner and extends from her upper works to within ten feet of the water line, it was said that repairs would be made immediately and that the New York would sail on her regular schedule for Europe.

War Between Turkey And Greece Inevitable

No Answer to Greek Note Demanding Turks to Cease Persecution of Greeks and Reparation For Losses.

Athens, June 13.—War between Greece and Turkey is inevitable, according to the newspaper Hestia, which is considered as voicing the majority of Greek public opinion.

The government has not as yet received any intimation of the nature of the sublime Porte's reply to the Greek note demanding that Turkey cease its persecution of the Greeks in Turkey and make reparation to them for the losses incurred. It is feared here that in accordance with the usual method of Turkish diplomacy the Turkish note will contain vague promises and denials, and will seek to delay a settlement. But public opinion is strongly opposed to dilatory tactics.

At the same time, it is expected that the government will compel the persecutions cease or war will follow at once.

It is reported there have been several encounters between Turks and Christians in the Asiatic littoral that have resulted in the loss of life and amputation at various points. Several sailing vessels with Greek refugees aboard, it is also reported have been captured by the Turks.

A despatch to the Times from Athens says Greece is actively making naval preparations. According to the Durazzo correspondent of the Times he is authorized to deny that Prince William has any intention to abdicate the Albanian throne.

PRELIMINARY MEETING OF COMMISSION AT BATHURST

Empress Inquiry to Deal With Whole Question of St. Lawrence Navigation—Commissioners Met Saturday.

Ottawa, June 14.—Lord Mersey and the other members and officers of the Empress of Ireland investigation commission had a preliminary meeting in Ottawa yesterday in reference to the conduct and procedure of the inquiry which opens at Quebec on Tuesday next. Hon. J. D. Hazen, minister of marine, and several of the officials of his department were in conference with the commissioners, and the information gathered by Captain Lindsay immediately after the disaster was placed at their disposal.

The investigation will deal not only with the cause of the collision and the loss of life, but also with the whole question of the safety of St. Lawrence navigation, in so far as it is possible to prevent wrecks in future and to insure the safety of passengers and crew. As the inquiry develops any line of special investigation shown to be necessary will be provided for.

The commission and the government have decided that the investigation shall be comprehensive, thorough and exhaustive. The evidence will be taken in public. Captain Kendall, of the Empress of Ireland, and Captain Andersen, of the Storstad, will be among the first witnesses called.

Lord Mersey and his fellow commissioners, Sir Malcolm Routledge, and Chief Justice McLeod, of New Brunswick, together with British officials connected with the inquiry were the guests of Premier Borden and the members of the cabinet at a dinner in the Rideau Club last night.

Damage Done by Passing Steamer on Wednesday will Amount to About $15,000.

St. Catharines, Ont., June 14.—Leut. G. S. Gordon of the British navy, who completed a model of a submarine in St. Catharines, has sent it to the naval office of England, where the new invention will be given a practical trial. The invention consists of a conning tower which can be detached from the main part of the craft in case of disability while under water, allow the entire crew to take refuge in the tower and ascend to the surface of the water in safety. He made a trial run in Lake Ontario, near Port Dalhousie, at a depth of 250 feet and the model worked perfectly.

Lt. Gordon's Model to be Tested by Naval Dept.—Has Detachable Tower in which Crew Can Take Refuge.

THE BRITISH POLO TEAM OUTPLAY AMERICANS

REDMOND WANTS CONTROL OF VOLUNTEERS

Trying to Persuade Local Leaders to Come Under the Captaincy of Nationalist Parliamentary Party.

London, June 15.—John Redmond is reported to have sent several supporters skilled in organization work, to persuade the local leaders of the Nationalist Volunteers to consent to come under the captaincy of the Nationalist parliamentary party.

That the volunteer will be offered Redmond's attempt to obtain control of the volunteer organization is seen by the advice given by Sinn Féin. In this week's issue, which charges the parliamentary party with attempting to disrupt the volunteer movement. It declares that complete harmony reigned amongst the different sections of the Nationalists during the volunteer body, until the heads of the parliamentary party interfered.

Freeman's Journal, defending Redmond's action says that the Irish people cannot submit to amateur military dictatorship, at the hands of unknown or hostile entities. The Western Free Press claims that the volunteer movement only began to spurt when Redmond gave it his encouragement, and that, therefore, Redmond is entitled to obtain control. Whatever may be the outcome of the dispute, it adds, it constitutes another difficult factor in the Irish problem, since Redmond will probably suffer great pressure and in turn apply it in dealing with the government relative to the concessions to Ulster.

The line up was:

America—No. 1, Rene Lamontagne; No. 2, J. M. Waterbury; No. 3, Devereaux Milburn; back, Lawrence Waterbury.

England—No. 1, Captain H. A. Tomkinson; No. 2, Captain I. St. C. Chesney; No. 3, Major F. W. Barrett; back, Captain Vivian Lockard.

Referee—Louis E. Stoddard.

The final score was, England 8-12, America 3-12.

MAKE ANOTHER ATTEMPT TO WRECK CHURCH

Bomb Placed in St. George's Church, London, Demolishes Pews and Shatters Three Stained Glass Windows.

London, June 14.—A bomb was exploded in St. George's church, Hanover square, tonight. There is evidence to show that the explosion was the work of suffragettes, and coming so close upon the bomb outrage in Westminster Abbey the desecration of this famous edifice has increased alarm as to how far the militant women intend to go.

The caretaker of St. George's had locked the church after careful inspection on the conclusion of the evening services. A few minutes after ten o'clock a passerby heard an explosion and summoned the fire brigade. The firemen, forcing the doors, found the church filled with a dense white smoke. Three pews in the north aisle and three stained windows were damaged by the explosion, while a pew immediately in front of the lectern was blown down.

The firemen found a square tin box and several pieces of candle in the overturned pew, and a member of the congregation said that the pew was occupied at the evening service by a woman in a checked dress. An envelope was found in the church on which was written: "A protest against the torture of women."

St. George's church was built in 1712-24. It has long been a favorite church for fashionable weddings. Premier Asquith was married in this church in 1894, and ex-President Roosevelt was married there in 1896.

While the judges of the high courts and the lord mayor were attending services in St. Paul's cathedral today, according to the annual custom, several suffragettes interrupted with protests against the torturing of women. The services were delayed several minutes while two women who were chained to seats were removed. As they were carried out they shouted: "God save Mrs. Pankhurst."

FORTY THOUSAND SEE THE MATCH

Americans Outclassed in Every Department—Defeat a Surprised Display of Skill by the Winners.

Meadowbrook, L. I., June 13.—Before an immense crowd that filled the great stands on either side, and the standing room partly at either end of the field, England and America met today to decide the world's polo championship. The scene rivalled in brilliancy of display and color any formerly seen at even a world's series game or the annual army-navy football contest. Fully 40,000 persons were in the stands or in automobiles which were packed twenty deep at either end of the huge field.

Above the smooth turf which stretched 900 feet from north to south, and 400 feet from west to east, between the two main stands, the sky was blue with only a faint fleecy of clouds to temper a scorching sun. A brisk breeze from the southwest snapped the flags of the contending nations which lined the tops of the east and west stands.

The judges were Joshua Crane, of Briton, for America; Keith Markham for England. The goal umpires were Dr. H. A. Souther and Frank Farrester for America, and Spencer Fish and Frank E. Drago for England. The referee was Louis E. Stoddard.

Play started at 4:38 in the international polo contest between America and England. Forty thousand spectators were present and the sun shone brightly on the broad green field. The crowd broke all records. Every man of the two teams was in condition for a battle to the last gasp. The points were as eager as the players.

The line up was:

America—No. 1, Rene Lamontagne; No. 2, J. M. Waterbury; No. 3, Devereaux Milburn; back, Lawrence Waterbury.

England—No. 1, Captain H. A. Tomkinson; No. 2, Captain I. St. C. Chesney; No. 3, Major F. W. Barrett; back, Captain Vivian Lockard.

Referee—Louis E. Stoddard.

The final score was, England 8-12, America 3-12.

The American team went to pieces. The American team was completely demoralized by the speed and work of the English challengers. After the first flurry in the opening period the defending four never held the sway, being outplayed and outsprited by the Hurlington Club representatives and the English ponies.

The defeat came as a great surprise to the majority of the forty thousand spectators, who had expected an American victory and made the cup defenders 10 to 7 favorites in the wagers previous to the game. They were quick to appreciate the brilliant work of the invaders, however, and the stands rang with applause at the clever exhibition of team work and good shooting of the blue-shirted riders from England.

This superiority became apparent with the bell in the opening period, and it appeared to upset the defending four, who never recovered the form shown in recent practice games until the closing minutes of the game, when the Americans settled down and gave the first indications of team play of which they were supposed to be capable.

British Team Strong in Every Phase of Game.

The challengers gave the finest exhibition of team work ever seen in an invading four. Both on attack and defense they played the ball into each other's hand, taking few unwarranted chances, and the success of these tactics was proved by the score and the ease with which they captured the first leg in the 1914 trophy series. It was not alone in team work that the English players excelled, however, for their er forehand or backhand driving they outclassed the defenders and the length and direction of their strokes showed the benefits gained by the long preliminary practice season which began in Madrid early in the winter.

The American four was far weaker than was the case last year, and in addition was called upon to face a team which surpassed in style and speed the combination which just failed to lift the cup in 1913. The absence of former Captain Harry Payne Whitney appeared to break up the perfect combination play for which the "big four" has been noted for years. Rene Lamontagne who played No. 1, was unable to pierce the English defense, even when backed by Captain Monte Waterbury, and the burden of the rushes into the English end of the field was finally shouldered by the captain of the American four, Lamontagne was exceedingly wild in his stroking and repeatedly missed.

HON. MR. PERLEY GIVES DETAIL TO RUMORS

Rebuts Impression Which Has Gained Ground in London—Will Attend Inter-parliamentary Congress in Stockholm.

London, June 15.—The impression that he has come to London as acting High Commissioner, was today rebuted by George H. Perley, who explained that, as a member of the cabinet, he is simply authorized to deal with government business coming up here. It was realized he said, that Lord Strathcona would be a very difficult man to replace, and hence the government wished to be thoroughly informed regarding the situation, on which Hon. Mr. Perley will make a report after he returns to Ottawa.

Hon. Mr. Perley along with Hon. Dr. Beland will attend the inter-parliamentary congress at Stockholm on August 19th as delegates of the Canadian parliament. Mr. Perley, however, beyond the few days which attendance at the congress will entail, will occupy himself with the business of the high commissioner's office, starting today.

Besides looking into the question of securing a site for the new offices of the high commissioner, Mr. Perley will confer with the imperial authorities regarding the amendment of the British North America Act, requisite to carry out the proposal calling for the naming of additional senators for the western provinces. This he hopes will be arranged during the present session of the imperial parliament.

Baby Eczema Becomes Chronic

Causing Great Suffering and Anxiety—Prompt Relief and Cure by Dr. Chase's Ointment.

This is one reason why every mother should know about Dr. Chase's Ointment, since it is an unfailing cure for all itching skin diseases. Mrs. F. Clarke, Belmont, Mass., writes: "My baby had eczema on her ear. The sore was very bad, and nothing seemed to do her much good. Hearing of the remarkable cures Dr. Chase's Ointment was making, we sent for some, and after the third application the sore began to heal. I am glad to say that it is quite well now, and we give the credit to Dr. Chase's Ointment. We cannot recommend this preparation too highly."

Here is another letter, which tells of the cure of a five weeks old baby: Mrs. Wallace Mingo, River John Road, Colchester County, N. S., writes: "My little girl took eczema when she was five weeks old. Though we doctored her until she was nearly a year old, she got no better. I was advised to use Dr. Chase's Ointment, and this treatment completely cured her."

In his circular the Postmaster General states the reasons which the bill was defeated and hopes that the bill will go through next session and declares that the salaries will be retroactive.

London, June 15.—Unique in length and in the variety of the participants, was the procession which marched from the Thames embankment to Hyde Park this afternoon. In tableaux it represented the different phases of the Salvation Army's work all over the globe, incidentally doing advertising for the colonies. The Canadian car, for instance, was loaded with grain and decorated with pennants. In Hyde Park a monster meeting was held, the speakers addressing the vast gathering from twelve platforms. Last night a great meeting was held in Aldwych Hall, the feature being the cosmopolitan character of the audience. A band of Zulu representatives in company with other Africans, gave a rendition of one of their sacred dances.

NO TRACE YET OF MISSING BALLOON

Portland, Oregon, June 14.—Active search continued throughout the day for the balloon Springfield, the only one still missing of four which started in the Portland Rose Festival race, under the auspices of the Aero Club of America last Thursday. The fact that all of the three balloons which have come to earth were wrecked and that the Springfield was last seen hovering over the wild mountainous region which was the scene of the other disasters, is regarded as ominous, and great anxiety is felt for Captain Ray Donaldson, the Springfield's pilot, and Wilbur Henderson of Portland.

THE BRITISH POLO TEAM OUTPLAY AMERICANS

Continued from page one. This confusion was communicated to the other players. They were further handicapped by the fact that in the field the English ponies were faster on their feet and better handled. The English team seldom sacrificed teamwork for individual brilliancy. Captain Cheape and Tomkinson, however, starred in the attack because of their forward position, and the veteran at No. 2 never gave a better example of finer driving and riding than he did today. He scored four of the English goals and assisted repeatedly in three goals for England's No. 1.

The play in general was fast and clean, and aside from a cropper experienced early in the game Larry Waterbury, was without the suggestion of an accident.

The score was the largest run up in recent years by either United States or English teams in a cup match. Not since the "big four" defeated the Hingham Club, eight to two in the final game of the 1909 series, when the cup was retained, have today's figures been exceeded. The game also developed the quickest goal ever made in international cup play, when Captain Cheape scored within ten seconds after the throw in at the beginning of the fourth period.

The assessment department was differently dealt with by the board and the chief assessor, Hamilton Ferns, was given a salary of $5,000, an advance of $1,500 a year, and the assistant assessors were given an increase of $200 a year each.

Once again the daring souls of Wolfe and Montcalm were embroiled on the bloody field of battle. Once again the fight raged about the gentle and beautiful falls of Montmorency. . . . At times the realism was overpowering."

A Charter From The Public

If publishers of daily newspapers were to cease issuing their papers during the summer months, saying—"It's too hot in July and August to publish papers, and anyway, people don't read papers in summer"—what a cry of protest would go up all over the land! The public would say to the publishers: "We must have the news and you must give it to us. You are our servants in this matter—our news gatherers—and scatterers. We are ready to pay you for this service. You have no right or liberty to take it upon yourselves to cease publishing your papers at your pleasure or convenience. Think of it! The Daily Newspaper exists by the mandate of the people. It alone among all publications may not continue or cease at its pleasure, for it holds its charter from the people whose servant it is."

Then think of this:—Have those other servants of the people—the merchants who supply them with their daily necessities—any right to be silent with respect to the news they have for those who depend on them? Has not the public a right to demand that the news of the stores shall be published along with other news of value and interest? We put it up to the people of this community and to the merchants of this city that the store news of this community is necessary news and should appear regularly in the public press at all seasons of the year. Think of this, you merchants of this city.

FIFTEEN CASES ON THE DOCKET

A busy session for Divorce Court next month—Nine of the cases, new ones.

Frederickton, June 13.—In the court of Divorce and Matrimonial Causes in New Brunswick, which will open on July 7th, there are no less than fifteen cases on the docket, the largest on record.

Three of the cases have already been tried and the decision by Justice McKown are only required to wind them up, while two other cases have been partly finished and will not take long to complete.

The other nine cases are entirely new, being as follows: Sarah Frances Ross vs. Robert Ross; Richard Burhoe vs. Annie Burhoe; Milton Lemuel Perry vs. Flora Gyneth Perry; Walter H. Appleby vs. Maggie Appleby; Clara Kent Douthright vs. Adam M. Douthright; Nancy Maud Bugless vs. Clement Darling Bugless; Kathleen Frances Wheaton vs. James Bernard Wheaton; Herbert B. Parlee vs. Mary Parlee; John James Melanson vs. Mary Melanson.

The Ross and Burhoe cases arise out of the criminal cases which were heard in the courts in St. John some time ago, in which Robert Ross and Annie Burhoe were found guilty of certain charges.

In the Perry case the plaintiff is a street railway employe at St. John and the defendant was formerly Miss Maggie Snodgrass, of Young's Cove, Queens Co. He was 38 years old and she was 40 when they were married by Rev. Henry Pierce at St. John on Sept. 10th, 1913. They lived together until the following December and have since lived apart. No co-respondent is named, the grounds for action being unusual, and the first case of its kind since six years ago.

The plaintiff in the Bugless case was formerly Miss Nancy Maud Stiles, daughter of Henry A. Stiles, of Riverside, Albert Co. She married the defendant in 1910 and returned to her former home in Albert Co. where she was ill and under the doctor's care for a long time. She says the name of the co-respondent is unknown to her and charges that her husband drank liquor to excess and was habitually very violent and cruel in his action and conduct. The defendant now resides in Rochester, N. Y.

Kings County is providing its full share of cases for the coming session. Mrs. Douthright lives in Erb Settlement, not far from Sussex, and her husband formerly lived in Sussex, but now resides in Ontario where he is an agent. They were married at Waterborough, Queens Co., March 19th, 1904, by Rev. H. H. Gliddis, formerly of this city, and they afterwards lived together at Berwick, Cole's Island, Penobscot and other places in Kings and Queens counties, lastly at Sussex until June 7th, 1911. Mrs. Douthright names Sadie C. Wiggins, wife of Eleazor Wiggins, as co-respondent, and further alleges that they are now living together at Berwick, Cole's Island, Penobscot and other places in Kings and Queens counties since parting with her husband and charges that during the last five years of their married life her husband "acted in a most brutal manner and several times threatened to strike her."

Launching of the Robert G. Seymour. (By Myron Cooley.)

The date was May 28, and the place Eagle Harbor, Bainbridge Island, across Puget Sound from Seattle. The time was 7:30 in the evening, and the center of attraction was the newly built missionary cruiser, lying on the ways, ready to be launched into the waters of Puget Sound, to be a Gospel carrier to all the towns and settlements along the water front of the Sound and all the navigable streams which flow into it. The first act in the ceremony was the raising of the burgee, or pennant, which was done by Robert Seymour House, the young son of Rev. A. H. Hause, of the Second church, Seattle. Just as the beautiful boat started to leave the ways for the water Miss Mabelle Burgess, of the First Church, Seattle, said, "I name thee Robert G. As the words were spoken Miss Burgess placed a copy of the Bible, open at Matt. 25:13, on the deck, and the Gospel boat slipped gracefully from the ways into the water, amid the cheers of the crowd of interested onlookers, the blowing of whistles from the nearby steamers, and the music of the orchestra of the Fremont Church, Seattle.

A BREACH OF FAITH.

It is just possible that some of the Liberals in the Senate are congratulating themselves upon having "put one over" on the Government in the matter of the western representation in the Upper House, but it is a victory to be proud of, considering the price at which it was attained.

A member of the Borden cabinet has described the action as a "deliberate and cynical breach of faith," and the accounts coming from Ottawa are correct, and there is no reason to doubt them, the description is an apt one.

It is understood that, during the session which closed on Saturday, Premier Borden and Senator Loughheed made an agreement with Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Senator Bostock to the effect that the bill providing for western representation in the Senate should be withdrawn, and instead, an address should be passed asking for an amendment of the British North America Act to provide for the increase. Instead of carrying the agreement into effect the Kild organization had the bill considered in the Senate and a section added that it should not become effective until after dissolution of the present parliament.

Plainly the effect of the Senate's action is that the intolerable condition which exists in the Upper House, and which prevented the passage of the Naval Aid Bill, must continue until after the next session, unless the Grit majority in the Red Chamber is overcome in some other way. No matter how useful the legislation which the House of Commons may pass, so long as there is a hostile majority in the Upper House it cannot become effective.

With nine new senators in the Upper House, owing allegiance to the Conservative party, the objectionable situation in that chamber would be brought that much nearer to a solution. The Grits realize this and for that reason, after agreeing on a certain course, they repudiated their own action and continued in the same of trying to block the progress of the country. The gain, however, comes through the breach of faith, but temporary, and no honest man will say it is value for the price paid.

A GOOD TURN TO THE PRESS.

By defeating the bill intended to give to the Postmaster General the authority to regulate newspaper postage the Canadian Senate did a good turn to the newspaper interests of Canada and, at the same time corrected an error of the lower House. In the past the power to fix rates of newspaper postage has been in the hands of Parliament and the proposal to rescind this provision and give an arbitrary power in this regard to the Postmaster General aroused much opposition on the part of different newspaper organizations.

The bill as originally framed, and as adopted by the House of Commons, gave absolute and unlimited power to fix rates to the Postmaster-General.

This slipped through the Lower House before the press realized it. The newspaper associations had been in negotiation with the Postmaster-General some months ago, and had agreed to an increased postal rate, and they were under the impression that the Postmaster-General would place a schedule of increased rates before Parliament, also that before doing so he would notify them. Instead of this, the Postmaster-General merely inserted in a bill covering a variety of other matters a clause authorizing himself to make the increase.

By the time the newspapers were aware of this the bill had gone through the House of Commons. The Canadian Press Association then sent a delegation to oppose the bill before the Senate.

After a discussion in the Senate Committee on Banking and Commerce, the Postmaster-General found the opposition so strong that he agreed to allow the clause giving him unlimited power to be altered so that he could not fix a higher rate than 1 1/2 cents a pound—which would be six times the present rate.

The bill then went back to the Commons. The Canadian Press Association sent a delegation to Premier Borden to protest. In consequence of this a further amendment was framed by which any schedule made by the Postmaster-General must go to the Treasury Board for approval.

The Treasury Board is composed of five cabinet ministers.

The Press Association still objected, arguing that Parliament alone should change the postal rates.

The members of the Government, however, largely occupied with other matters, possibly of more general importance, felt that the amendment should be adhered to and the bill passed the lower House and was sent to the Senate where it was defeated. It is not always that the course of the Senate meets with the approval of all

Diary of Events

HISTORIC DAYS IN CANADA

Montreal, which had been in the possession of the American revolutionists since the preceding November, was again occupied by the British on this date, June 15th, in 1776, and the flag of England was hoisted over the city, never to come down. During the war of a century ago an elaborate campaign of 15,000 men for the capture of Montreal was rendered futile by the bravery and able leadership of two small armies numbering only 2,000 men. The Canadian invasion of 1775 was effected by Gen. Montgomery with 3,000 men and Col. Benedict Arnold with an army of 1,500 ragged, poorly-armed troops. When the Americans approached Montreal, the Governor, Gen. Sir Guy Carleton, who had only a small armed force under his command, retreated upon Quebec and left Montreal to the foe. Both Montgomery and Carleton had served under Wolfe, and both displayed much of the gallantry and military ability of their former commander. The latter was joined at Quebec. The foehardy charge ordered by Montgomery was repulsed, and the General himself was killed. In the following British ships appeared in the St. Lawrence, and the enemy around Quebec beat a retreat which turned into a rout. In the meantime the American held Montreal and governed the city with justice and humanity, but although Benjamin Franklin, Charles Carroll, and other distinguished Americans visited the city and brought all their logic and eloquence to bear upon the people, they failed to induce the French Canadians. Gen. David Wooster, during the American occupation of Montreal, made his headquarters in the city hall, which was the official residence of British governors after the conquest, and the common-sense, Franklin, Carroll and Chase, also met and held council under Benedict Arnold in that historic chamber.

FIRST THINGS PENNY PAPERS.

The first penny newspapers in Great Britain were made possible by the abolition of the stamp duty on newspapers on this date, June 15, 1855. On this side of the Atlantic, cheap newspapers had come into existence many years before, but the heavy tax imposed on the English press made newspapers a luxury for the wealthy and well-to-do so long as the stamp duty was in force. In the early part of the last century a tax of 4d., or eight cents, was imposed on each copy of a newspaper published, printed, or having possession of an unstamped newspaper were crimes involving severe penalties. In 1836 the stamp duty was reduced to one penny per copy, but this tax made the cheapest papers sell for threepence, or six cents the copy. It was not until the year 1861 that the duty was reduced to one penny, and the result was the abolition of the newspaper duty, and the daily journals were reduced to a price which placed them in the hands of the millions.

"THE HUMAN PROCESS ON "KAID" MACLEAN, 66 TODAY.

A might man is Maclean—although he sometimes calls himself McLean or MacLaine. Originally a Scotchman, and still frequently to be encountered in the land of heather, he is equally at home on all continents and all seas. In Canada, the United States and Australia he has become a mart of success, and he has written his name in the history of all these countries. He is the editor of great newspapers, editor, financier, adventurer, captain, or chief engineer on many ships, statesman, artist, soldier, clergyman, philosopher, explorer, scientist. Presently he is prominent in many other professions, trades and varied activities. And what a Maclean does, he does well—trusting for his success to the luck of the draw, and the good will of the members of this numerous and wandering clan, however, the most adventurous is that distinguished soldier who achieved fame as "The Kaid" in the British army, serving in the Sixty-ninth Foot. While on military duty in Gibraltar he visited Morocco, and there met the then Sultan Mulid-el-Hassas. Muley was very much impressed by the soldierly bearing of the Scotchman and offered him a job as instructor to the Moorish army, with the rank of colonel in the Sultan's Bodyguards. Maclean accepted—no Maclean could refuse such an opportunity for adventure—and for thirty years the Kaid was prominent in Moroccan affairs. He quickly rose to be the commander-in-chief of the Sultan's army, and for years wielded an influence second only to that of the Sultan himself. An "indefatigable" hero, he ruled with rod of iron an army of about 50,000 fanatical, Christian-hating Moslems. There was not a man among them who did not consider that the slaying of a "kaid" was a virtuous act which would be rewarded by Allah with an extra number of hours in Paradise, yet the Kaid was looked upon as an exception, and every dusky Moorish soldier would have protected that particular "Christian" with his life.

Besides instructing the troops of the Sultan in the science of warfare, the Kaid frequently led them in battle against the rebellious tribes of the interior, and his bravery on such occasions was what won the admiration of the Mohammedan followers. They believed that the Kaid was under the special protection of Allah, because of his many narrow escapes. When French troops invaded Morocco, when the real ruler of Morocco, the Mula's son was the nominal head of the government. In 1901 the Kaid was knighted and decorated for his services to the British government. One of the most thrilling of the Kaid's experiences was his capture in July, 1907, by the bandit Raisul. For seven months he was held a prisoner by Raisul, and subjected to the most cruel treatment, but was released when almost dead of starvation on the payment of a ransom of $100,000. It was during the Kaid's captivity that Mula had himself proclaimed Sultan. The Kaid divorced his first wife in 1905 and last September he married a daughter of the late Sir Harry Prendergast, who deposed Theebaw and annexed Burma.

The regiment formed a guard for the blessed sacrament, which was carried by Bishop Gauthier. Several thousand people

TUBERCULOSIS CURED AT HOME

Maritime Provinces present good chances for cure of consumption—Sunshine and fresh air, essentials.

"Physicians today are not sending their tuberculous patients two or three thousand miles away to be cured by climate," said a citizen yesterday, "but they are changing the old cry of 'change of climate' to the more rational and humane precept, 'live rightly at home'."

It was pointed out that in the Maritime Provinces from May 1 to December 1, the climate was unsurpassed by any country on the face of the earth—not cold, not too hot, days of glorious sunshine and the most invigorating atmosphere. The remaining five months furnished nothing to interfere with the proper treatment of tuberculous of the lungs. The person who had not felt the physical and mental uplift of a bright crisp winter's morning with the sun making myriads of crystals and diamonds dazzling upon the earth's snowy mantle, had never denied the experience of the greatest value to those suffering from any physical trouble.

In former days it had been the custom of physicians to send patients to other places, such as Colorado, for change of climate, when they were suffering from tuberculous. In this way the Maritime Provinces had lost many citizens who might have been retained. When a patient had been sent to a Maritime Province sanitarium he was able, when cured to return to his home and generally to his former occupation with safety to himself and his family. If the person, suffering from tuberculous of the lungs, were sent away to some other country it was very probable that he would spend the remainder of his days there and adapt himself, perhaps at great sacrifice, to his new surroundings.

The provincial authorities in these Maritime Provinces have taken upon the matter and there is now a sanitarium at River Glade, N. B., and another at Kentville, N. S., and already many cures have been effected there.

The governments have also striven to impart to all citizens the proper way to guard against tuberculous and the methods of proper living at home have been shown to many and the work is still going on.

It has been said that where a person suffering from tuberculous was not able to go to a sanitarium by proper living and treatment at home. The great question of the open window was and is to be up-to-date in every respect, and the members of the Board of Health, and the anti-tuberculous societies have done good work in distributing literature and in other ways spreading abroad the knowledge necessary for home treatment, and the care of those afflicted with tuberculous.

MILK SUPPLY REGULATIONS

Up-to-date methods of inspection adopted for St. John—Cleanliness one of the chief requirements.

The regulations governing the inspection of milk which have been put in force by the Board of Health are said to be up-to-date in every respect, and based on systems found successful in other cities.

The inspector has a form sheet on which an arbitrary number is placed against such conditions as absence of disease on physical examination, stable location, stable cleanliness, stable ventilation, etc., and these numbers added together total 100. When making his inspection he marks down such percentage of the arbitrary number as in his judgment the particular condition in a given case is entitled to. If this percentage total less than fifty, the dairymen is not given a license to sell milk in the city.

Bases of Percentage.

Among the various conditions against which such percentage marks are made are:

"Quality of food, quality of water, stable location, stable cleanliness, stable ventilation, cleanliness of cows, condition of barnyard drainage, milk room construction, cleanliness at milking time, absence of disease on physical examination, absence of disease on approved tubercular test."

"The inspector makes out three forms, one of which he keeps, while another is filed with the secretary of the board, and the third is left with the dairyman."

The inspector also notes the number of cattle on each farm supplying milk to the city.

Periodical inspections will be made, and it is believed the new system will assure a pure milk supply for the city.

WALL STREET DULL AGAIN SATURDAY

Week ended with market almost at a standstill - Weekly Trade Reviews better.

New York, June 15.—The week's trading in stocks came to an end today as quietly as it began. Seldom has Wall Street seen six consecutive days in which speculation interest was at lower ebb or the movement narrower. Less than 40,000 shares were dealt in today and in a large number of prominent issues there were no transactions. At the opening prices eased off. Board room traders did little, and the only apparent reason for the decline was the lower range of quotations cabled from London. While the downward movement was general it was of small proportions, none of the active shares losing more than half a point. Later the demand expanded, owing chiefly to the customary week-end covering, and the market made up its opening losses. At the end of the day changes were trivial.

The weekly trade reviews were in keeping with the more optimistic sentiment which has been evident of late. In some lines of trade, it was said, the improvement is more than a sentimental one, having crystallized into a broader demand. Weather conditions continued to favor the growing crops. The doubtful outlook for payment of the July interest on St. Louis and San Francisco refunding is causing active selling of the bonds, which sagged to 6 1/2%. This is a loss of 4 1/2% on the week. Last week these bonds sold at 7 1/2%. Speculation in bonds was relatively more active than in stocks, with higher prices for investment issues. Total sales, par value, $982,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call.

DETROIT MAY BUY STREET RY. SYSTEM

Engineers and Experts are appraising Detroit United Railways' Co's property with view to City buying system.

Detroit, June 13.—Following the receipt of a letter from President Hutchins of Detroit United Railways, the street railway commissioners of Detroit voted to immediately devise plans to acquire the purchase of the Detroit City lines by the employment of engineers and accounting experts to appraise Detroit United property within the city in the shortest possible time.

President Hutchins declined to name a price at which the company would sell its property, but expressed the willingness of the company to sell to the city all its property used for street railway purposes within the city for its true value, after the elimination of everything that comes under the heads of obsolescence, wear and tear and depreciation.

President Hutchins estimated the value of the property of Detroit United Railway within the city at least $24,000,000, without including amounts expended from income over a period of years. His estimates included the $20,000,000 of bonds issued against the city properties, at least $12,500,000 of the stock at par and the $2,000,000 of notes recently issued to pay improvements.

WEEK-END RALLY ON MONTREAL 'CHANGE

Market took spurt at close of a Dull Week. BETTER FEELING ON THE STREET

Montreal, June 13.—The local market brightened at the close of a very trying week. A number of houses in which there had been heavy selling for the past few days made sharp advances this morning. Trading was very active and at the close of the session there was a much more cheerful feeling on the stock exchange circles. The Canada Steamship issues again attracted considerable part of attention of the market. Trading in the contract was not very active but held its own around 10 1/2. The preferred opened firmer at 6 1/2 and rapidly advanced to 6 3/4 at the close. During the past couple of days a number of re-arrangement schemes regarding the affairs of the Canada Steamship Lines have been issued by directors and others close to the company and apparently these inspired greater confidence. The opinion was expressed, however, by several brokers that the situation would continue to require close watching. A pleasing feature of the market today was the advance of Scotia to 45. Later it reacted to 46 1/2. A number of explanations were offered for the sudden advance but it is probable that there was a good deal of short covering. No official statement has yet been given out as to the prospects of the dividends being continued, but opinion favors the close of the week at least will be paid. Regarding subsequent quarters and the present industrial conditions it is impossible to make predictions. The announcement that the Dom. Steel Corporation had received an order for 4000 tons of steel rails from the Canadian Northern Railway attracted attention to iron and the market advanced to 16 1/2. The 2 1/2 cent advance in the price of steel rails from the Canadian Northern Railway attracted attention to iron and the market advanced to 16 1/2. ### CLOSING STOCK LETTER FROM RANDOLPH

New York, June 13.—An easier tone prevailed at the opening in sympathy with the declines abroad caused by the unsettled French political situation. Trading was dull, however, and the selling was unimportant. It soon dried up and the market rallied. The rally, however, does not hold through-out the late dealings, and the net result of the day's trading was some slight fractional and entirely unimportant changes.

Exchange was unaffected by the large gold exports of the week and arrangements were made for further shipments on Tuesday.

Unwillingness to enter into commitments until the I. C. C. has acted on the rate case, continues as pronounced as ever, and barring some unexpected news, it is improbable that the market will get out of this rut and the decision is rendered. Sales 37,000; bonds $978,000.

EXPECTS SCHEME TO GO THROUGH FRIDAY

London, June 13.—John Hanson, general manager of North Saskatchewan Land Company, who sails on the Lusitania today, informs me there is every reason to expect the company's re-arrangement scheme will go through without opposition at an adjourned meeting of the bond holders next Friday.

WESTERN CANADA LAND CO'S AFFAIRS

London, June 13.—An unfortunate impression is made by the retirement of Major General Sir Roland Lane from the chairmanship of the Western Canada Land Company on the ground of health, leaving John R. Tennant and H. W. MacPell as the remaining members of the board, who are now summoning shareholders to consider his position.

Commenting upon the Western Canada Lands deposit with Canadian Agency, the Financial News says: "Shareholders generally must exercise great future vigilance as to the domicile of their funds."

"Western Canada Land shares now stand at about 7 shillings, compared with 16s. 3d. at the beginning of the year, while five per cent. debentures stand at 67 1/2 against 91."

WESTERN CANADA LAND CO'S AFFAIRS

London, June 13.—An unfortunate impression is made by the retirement of Major General Sir Roland Lane from the chairmanship of the Western Canada Land Company on the ground of health, leaving John R. Tennant and H. W. MacPell as the remaining members of the board, who are now summoning shareholders to consider his position.

Commenting upon the Western Canada Lands deposit with Canadian Agency, the Financial News says: "Shareholders generally must exercise great future vigilance as to the domicile of their funds."

"Western Canada Land shares now stand at about 7 shillings, compared with 16s. 3d. at the beginning of the year, while five per cent. debentures stand at 67 1/2 against 91."

LATE NEWS FROM THE COTTON MARKET

New York, June 13.—The market opened 8 to 11 points lower on the old crop positions and 3 to 4 points lower on new, in consequence of census figures. There was good demand at the start, and the special pressure of yesterday was not in evidence. Prices rallied to last night's figures in the old crop, while the new crop sold 4 to 5 points net higher, on the prospects for continued dry hot weather over the greater part of the eastern belt. In this rally increased offers were encountered and Riohard, who was the heaviest seller of yesterday afternoon, again became active on the settlement. There was also considerable liquidation by old crop longs and the market eased off with prices being 1/2 cent lower over August and selling about 12 points net lower, while October and December contracts reacted to about the 12 3/4-cent level.

WALL STREET DULL AGAIN SATURDAY

Week ended with market almost at a standstill - Weekly Trade Reviews better.

New York, June 15.—The week's trading in stocks came to an end today as quietly as it began. Seldom has Wall Street seen six consecutive days in which speculation interest was at lower ebb or the movement narrower. Less than 40,000 shares were dealt in today and in a large number of prominent issues there were no transactions. At the opening prices eased off. Board room traders did little, and the only apparent reason for the decline was the lower range of quotations cabled from London. While the downward movement was general it was of small proportions, none of the active shares losing more than half a point. Later the demand expanded, owing chiefly to the customary week-end covering, and the market made up its opening losses. At the end of the day changes were trivial.

DETROIT MAY BUY STREET RY. SYSTEM

Engineers and Experts are appraising Detroit United Railways' Co's property with view to City buying system.

Detroit, June 13.—Following the receipt of a letter from President Hutchins of Detroit United Railways, the street railway commissioners of Detroit voted to immediately devise plans to acquire the purchase of the Detroit City lines by the employment of engineers and accounting experts to appraise Detroit United property within the city in the shortest possible time.

President Hutchins declined to name a price at which the company would sell its property, but expressed the willingness of the company to sell to the city all its property used for street railway purposes within the city for its true value, after the elimination of everything that comes under the heads of obsolescence, wear and tear and depreciation.

President Hutchins estimated the value of the property of Detroit United Railway within the city at least $24,000,000, without including amounts expended from income over a period of years. His estimates included the $20,000,000 of bonds issued against the city properties, at least $12,500,000 of the stock at par and the $2,000,000 of notes recently issued to pay improvements.

BEN BEY IS IN TOWN WITH HIS CHARGER

He Comes from Northern Indiana, where he is a Ruler Among the Desert Tribes.

The Resemblance is So Great That He Will Make a Tour of Canada in Costume, on His Arab Steed

Jewan Singh, otherwise Ben Bey, will be in St. John today. This high caste Hindu philosopher and much travelled man of the world is the living image of an advertising trade mark and he and his Arabian charger are making a rather remarkable tour of Canada.

Singh is an aristocrat among his people, who live on the desert plains of northern India. He came to Canada about six months ago to see if this country really holds such wonderful opportunities for his people as was reported by travellers who came to their tents. Like more high caste Hindus who come over here, he brought money for investment, and became interested in several moving picture shows in Vancouver.

There is remarkable resemblance in Jewan Singh to the desert horseman pictured on the boxes in which Ben Bey cigars are sold, and this attracted considerable attention, with the result that the manufacturers of the cigars, E. Youngheart & Co. Limited of Montreal, heard of it.

They proposed to Singh that, in his native costume, on a dapple grey charger which he purchased for him, he should tour Canada, as one feature of their advertising campaign for Ben Bey cigars. Singh accepted. A complete costume, just as Ben Bey appears on the cigar box, and also just as Singh himself appears on his native plains, was made, and today Jewan Singh, otherwise Ben Bey, will make his first appearance on the streets of St. John. After he leaves here, he will visit other cities, in turn until he has seen the whole of Canada.

Like most rulers among the desert tribes, Singh is a philosopher, and deeply versed in the religions and the wisdom of the east. His comments on people and things often take the form of wise sayings which are quite as much to the point in modern Canada as in ancient India. He has agreed to translate many of these for reproduction in the Ben Bey advertising.

Singh looks forward to his tour on behalf of the cigar, as his continuous adventure. He says he hopes that some day his countrymen will be as popular in Canada as the cigars he is now advertising.

IN THE COURTS

The following important judgments have been delivered in the chancery division: Lizzie Moses et al vs. Thomas French and Charles Simon. This was an action by the plaintiffs to eject the defendants from the property at the corner of Brunswick and Erin streets to which both parties claim to be entitled. The cause was transferred from the King's Bench division to the chancery division on order of Mr. Justice McKeown, and was tried before Chief Justice McLeod. The question in dispute was whether or not the plaintiffs had agreed to sell this property to the defendants for $1,575. The plaintiffs contended that the agreement of sale and deed completed, and they did not wish to carry it out as real estate value in the vicinity.

Waldo Anderson vs. the St. John and Quebec Railway Company. This was an application to set aside an ex parte order of Chief Justice McLeod appointing James Wilson to act as sole arbitrator to determine the compensation to be paid for a right of way across the plaintiff's lands in Carleton County. It was argued at the hearing that the order should be set aside on two grounds, namely: (1) That the Judge of the County Court alone when not interested has jurisdiction to appoint an arbitrator under section 17 of the Railway Act.

(2) That no Judge has jurisdiction to appoint an arbitrator without notice to the land owner. The application was heard before Chief Justice McLeod, who set aside the order.

John E. Stocker vs. Robert R. Smith. This was a suit brought for a dissolution of partnership between the plaintiff and defendant, both of whom belong to Oromocto, and also for an accounting. The defendant owned 100 shares of a par value of $100 each in the Imperial Dredging Company Limited, and in February, 1911, agreed with the plaintiff in consideration of the sum of $2,000 to pay him the profits on 20 shares of stock, and a like portion in the event of a sale of the dredge being made. The plaintiff paid $1,500, but never paid the balance. After the election of September, 1911, the company sold its dredge for $30,500, and after the sale the defendant paid the plaintiff $1,500.

The case was heard before Mr. Justice McLeod, who held that the contract was completed, as the plaintiff was still liable for the balance of $300, and the matter was referred to a master in chancery for an accounting. P. J. Hughes appeared for the plaintiff and P. A. Guthrie for the defendant.

Whitecombe vs. the St. John and Quebec Railway Company. This was an action brought for specific performance entered into by the defendant, in which they agreed to pay $500 for a right of way across the plaintiff's lands, and also to put in a culvert on the right of way. The defendant paid the $500, but afterwards decided not to construct a culvert. The case was tried before Mr. Justice White, who granted a decree for specific performance, the defendants to be at liberty to pay $1,000 as damages in Taylor, of Sheffield, paid a short visit to Brown's Flat last week.

Halifax this time is the anxious ones and they have already formed a professional team and word was received here yesterday that if St. John would put in a team that Halifax and Moncton would be in line and the league could be started immediately. In Halifax McGovern is one of the men imported. One local promoter has stated that he is willing to form a professional team and the matter will be closed today and if everything is satisfactory this morning professional ball will be played in the city within a very short time.

RACE FOR BIG STAKES.

The North Sydney Herald says: As was expected, the deft of Contractor P. C. Redding, who stated he would race his last American bred mare Gladolis 2 1/4 against Dr. Sharper, with a similar record, for $500 a side, has been accepted.

SPALDING'S CANADIAN GUIDE

The Standard has received Spalding's official Canadian baseball guide, edited by Joe Page. This, the fifth year for the Canadian edition, and it is bigger and better than ever. Considerable space is given to the Maine and New Brunswick league and the standing, batting and fielding averages of the clubs are given in full.

Ben Bey's secret is out. He is here, greeting the thousands who already know him and the others who have not met him before.

Ben Bey is the name of the ten cent cigar that is the favorite with hundreds of thousands of Canadian men. It pleases more men—rich, poor and in-between—than nearly any other cigar made. Millions were smoked last year, and more millions will be smoked this year.

There has been a very good crop of the choice tobaccos from which Ben Beys are made, and there are enough this year to "go around." Hence Ben Bey's appearance in this fashion—so that all smokers may make his acquaintance quickly.

Don't wait—get to know him now to-day! You'll be glad of it! Well-made, mellow, mild, steady-flavoured—this cigar. No weakness at the start, no rankness at the end—no frazzled wrapper, nor lop-sided burning.

Ten cents—Everywhere

Say "Ben Bey" to-day!

Lost His Leg
Daniel Collins was again in the police court Saturday and was charged with drunkenness. Policeman Armstrong told of the arrest. Collins, it seems, had a wooden leg but kicked this off when arrested and had to be hauled to the lockup. His wooden leg was still missing Saturday morning. He was remanded until today when other witnesses will be called.

Miss Doherty Honored
At an official court held by their majesties King George and Queen Mary, in Buckingham Palace, London, last week, Miss Agatha Doherty, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Doherty of Abbey Court, Eglinton, Toronto, was present upon a commendation invitation. The young lady who had this honor bestowed upon her is a sister of Manning W. Doherty of St. John, and will visit her brother here upon her return to Canada. She graduated recently with triple degrees in the medical profession after a course of study in London, and is the third lady to achieve this distinction.

The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon from her late residence.

A REFINED DISTINCTION.

Many fox-stock propositions are being placed on the market today and the prospective purchaser should use caution in selecting. There is a refined distinction between the prospective hope-to-make-good offering and that of the successful going concern, with a splendid record of big profits. One notable fact is, that the Eureka Fox Company, Limited, is admitted by all other companies to be a big profit producer and they take pleasure in printing its record in their literature. J. S. Currie in his recent tour of inspection of the industry selected the Eureka as the safest and best, but like all "best" things, this stock is being rapidly taken up and all orders should be mailed in promptly to ensure delivery. The greater portion of the present issue is expected to be taken up by present shareholders. This company will maintain its policy of honestly dividing the net profits with its shareholders. The shares are selling at fifty dollars per value. Further information may be obtained from J. S. Currie, Box 50, St. John, N. B., where all orders should be submitted.

PRISON SYSTEM IS A FAILURE, SAYS PREACHER

Rev. Ralph Haughton makes a strong appeal for old fashioned religion—Its power necessary.

An interesting appeal for the revival of old-fashioned religion was made by Rev. Ralph Haughton in a sermon delivered in the Congregational church last evening. "We are overlooking the parable of the Good Samaritan; we are making too much of the Golden Rule," he said. "There is an old saying that it does not matter what a man believes so long as he acts right. That is a false and pernicious doctrine. What a man thinketh in his heart so is he. If a man's conception of God was wrong he would have a wrong conception of life."

The preacher remarked that great attention was being given to the matter of social imprisonment. There was a great social movement in progress; great efforts were being made to reform institutions and people to improve housing conditions, and prevent crime and white slavery. But if we confined our attention to the material aspects of these things we would miss our mark. What was wanted was old-fashioned religion.

Believed in Miracles.

The preacher said the greatest agency in the world for uplifting men was the power of the Gospel of Jesus Christ. He was sufficiently old-fashioned to believe in miracles, and in the ability of Christ to effect a sudden conversion by repentance and the remission of sins.

The preacher said a report appeared in the papers during the week that one man had been in jail over 100 times and others numerous times. This showed that as a preventive of crime our prison system was a failure.

He believed in social work, but the politician and reformer could not uplift men. Only the power of religion could solve the problems which are troubling humanity today.

ROUND UP DAY SUCCESSFUL

Leinster Street Baptist Sunday School had Special Service yesterday—Good programme.

Round-up Day in Leinster street Baptist church Sabbath school yesterday proved most successful. There was a large attendance and the programme was particularly interesting. The programme as arranged by the Sunday school board of the United Baptist conference of the Maritime Provinces was followed. There were recitations, music and dialogues. "The Conquering Power of Christianity" in which several members of the school took part was well rendered.

Mrs. Dandfield and Mrs. Metcalfe contributed a duet and there were addresses by the superintendent, John Collins, and by the pastor of the church, Rev. Wellington Camp. J. H. Mosher led the devotional exercises at the opening of the session.

LAST SMO RITES FOR MRS. H. H. McLEAN

Many attend obsequies on Saturday afternoon—Floral tokens from all parts of Canada.

The funeral of Mrs. H. H. McLean took place on Saturday afternoon from St. Andrew's church. A private service was first held at the house and then the body was taken to the church where service was conducted by Rev. J. H. MacVicar.

The service at the church was particularly impressive and the large auditorium was filled with sorrowing relatives and friends. The hymns "Rock of Ages, Jesus Lover of My Soul, and Nearer My God to Thee" were sung by a quartette composed of Miss Louise Knight, Mrs. Fred C. MacNeil, C. A. Munro and Thomas Guy.

The pall bearers were Dr. Thomas Walker, Dr. F. E. Inches, W. C. Whitaker, H. C. Rankine, Colonel M. B. Edwards and Alexander Wilson.

Arthur McLean, brother of H. H. McLean, arrived in the city from Boston to attend the funeral and Hugh H. McLean, Jr. was called home from Boston, where he had been on a visit.

Many beautiful flowers have been received from friends of the family both in the city and from various places in Canada and the United States, including set pieces from friends in Ottawa. Many messages of sympathy have also been received. The body was laid at rest in Fernhill where the grave was completely lined with roses.

The Suburban Train No. 136, due to leave St. John at 12:15, will be held on June 16, until 12:15 to accommodate those wishing to attend the closing exercises at Netherwood.

CHARLES MYERS SHOT IN LOCKUP CELL

Slashed his throat with small penknife after being arrested on suspicion of stealing—Removed to General Public Hospital—Condition not considered serious.

To break into a store, steal two or three boxes, be arrested, locked in a cell and then try to kill himself by cutting his throat all within fifteen minutes was the record made in the North End early yesterday morning by Charles Myers, a man about fifty years of age.

Shortly after half past four o'clock Sunday morning, Patrolman Linton was walking along Main street near Simonds street when he heard the crash of glass and running towards W. H. Pierce's store on Simonds street he was just in time to see Charles Myers in front of the store. As soon as Myers saw the policeman running towards him he tried to make his escape along Brooks street, but he had not gone very far before he was overtaken by the officer. The officer found a pane of glass in the store broken and two pairs of shoes missing. When placed under arrest Myers had shoes in his pockets.

Myers was taken to the North End police station and locked up in one of the cells. He appeared to be ill after his run and the officer gave him a drink of water. A few minutes after the officer went to the cell to learn the prisoner's age and name. Myers was sitting with his head bent down and in an instant the policeman saw blood pouring from the prisoner's throat over his clothing and hands. He immediately unlocked the door of the cell and found that the prisoner had cut a long gash across one side of the throat and along side of him in the cell was a pen knife with the small sharp blade open and covered with blood. The officer at once called Dr. Pratt and the ambulance. Dr. Pratt found that Myers was not dangerously wounded and had him removed to the General Public Hospital. At the hospital last night it was said that Myers had spent a comfortable day and it was not thought his injuries would result seriously.

While the cut on the throat was long and rather deep and the man lost a great deal of blood, the knife fortunately did not sever the jugular vein but it came very near proving fatal. Myers did not give any reason for his rash act and had nothing to say, but just sat quietly awaiting the arrival of the doctor and the examination.

It is expected that he will be able to leave the hospital in a week or so and then he will likely have to answer the charge of breaking and entering, stealing and attempting to kill himself.

It was only two weeks ago yesterday morning that another prisoner who was locked up in the county jail attempted to kill himself but cutting his throat and he has so far recovered that he is now on his trial for trying to take his life.

CELEBRATION OF THE PEACE CENTENARY

The features of the programme as outlined by the Canadian Peace Centenary Association.

The movement for celebrating the Hundred Years of Peace between the British Empire and the United States is, judging by a circular just issued by the Canadian Peace Centenary Association, taking rapid hold in Canada and Great Britain and the United States.

The general proposals contain four main features, (1) Monuments and other memorials, (2) Thanksgiving services in the churches, (3) Educational propaganda, (4) Festivities.

The circular enumerates various suggestions regarding the erection of monuments, and states that the matter has been referred to an international committee.

February 14, 1915, has been selected for thanksgiving services in all the churches of the British Empire and the United States. This date is the nearest Sunday to February 17, 1915, the centenary of the ratification of the Treaty of Ghent.

The educational propaganda includes several important features, among which may be mentioned the preparation of a series of pamphlets dealing with the various treaties which have made the long peace possible, which is intended to send to all the schools in Canada. Tableaux and masques are in course of preparation which will also be sent to the schools for production upon a date to be hereafter arranged. A somewhat unique proposal is the writing of comparative essays on the writing of comparative essays on Anglo-American relations, and provision is being made for provincial and Dominion prizes.

About one hundred centres have been chosen for special celebrations in Canada and strong local committees have been arranged for in a majority of these.

The circular also reports the progress made in Great Britain and the United States and contains replies received last Christmas from world rulers to a message sent in connection with the celebration by the American committee.

The Dominion government has arranged for an appropriation to meet the preliminary organization expenses. In announcing this the Rt. Hon. R. L. Borden said: "The cause which the Canadian Peace Centenary Association and the corresponding bodies in the United Kingdom and the United States have set before them is one with which we are warmly sympathetic. It is a triumph of humanity that during a century of rapid development, despite the existence of serious international differences and problems, the British Empire and the United States have found wiser and more humane methods of adjusting differences than the arbitration of war. We welcome the achievement of a century of peace, and hope that it will prove to be but the first century of peace the forerunner of a long series stretching into the future as far as human anticipation can trust itself."

CELEBRATION OF THE PEACE CENTENARY

The men of the 62nd Regiment St. John Fusiliers spent Saturday night and yesterday morning in the open under the conditions that usually prevail on active service. The outing was unique in the annals of the local regiment. Colonel McAvity, Dawson and Lieutenant Stetchen acted as umpires. The result of the engagement will not be made known but the report of the manoeuvres will be sent to headquarters.

Blank cartridges were used and the different movements of the men were carried out under the same conditions as would prevail during war. After the engagement the men formed a line on the open ground and remained there till yesterday morning.

Bivouac in Rain.

Rations were served immediately after the fight and blankets were spread just as a heavy rain started. This lasted about one hour but the men showed themselves to be in a class with seasoned campaigners and in a few minutes they had made shelters for themselves from the different materials at hand and lighted fires. No tents had been issued but the men remained in the open all night.

The men spent a restful night and breakfast was served at nine o'clock yesterday morning, after which the regiment fell in and marched to the city. The regimental band met the soldiers at the Golf Club house and played them to the barracks.

The progress through the streets was witnessed by many citizens and there were many favorable comments on the good appearance of the regiment. The officers took the same chances as the men and slept under the same conditions.

At the barracks the men were drawn up and Colonel McAvity complimented them on the soldierly way in which they carried out the manoeuvres and did their part in connection with the bivouac. It was work such as this that was really beneficial and showed the worth of soldiers. Colonel McAvity announced that the annual inspection would take place Wednesday evening next when the regiment would be mustered in review order before Colonel Rutherford of Halifax.
