YOUNG LAD DROWNED SUNDAY EVENING

Party Returning From Battery In Canoe When Upset—Three Rescued

A sad drowning accident occurred near the government wharf Sunday evening about 6:30 o'clock when Napoleon Laviole of St. Omer lost his life through the upsetting of a canoe. Sunday morning was fine and a large number of people went to Battery in motor boats and canoes. During the afternoon a very strong easterly gale sprung up, increasing in force each hour. The tide was out, the ebb and consequently great white capped rollers filled the river and made navigation unsafe for small boats. Despite this fact four men set out on the return journey in a canoe. They set a small sail and with fair wind made a quick run up the river. The canoe was managed by Solomon Levesque and with him were Antoine Anisness, Thilias Diotte all of this town and seventeen year old Napoleon Laviole of St. Omer, Que. When just below the lower end of the government wharf, where the current is very strong, the canoe swung around slightly and overturned, throwing the occupants into the water. Fortunately the accident was seen by a man standing on the bank and an alarm was sounded. Soon many were running to the wharf.

ANOTHER HUNDRED THOUSAND GRAFT

Evidence Given at Inquiry in St. John Into St. John Valley Railway Affairs

St. John, N. B., June 6.—A PROMISE OF HALF OF THEIR ENTIRE PROFITS AND A CASH PAYMENT OF $100,000 ON ACCOUNT, ON THE DAY THE CONTRACT WAS SIGNED, WAS THE PRICE WHICH THE NOVA SCOTIA CONSTRUCTION COMPANY FOUND IT NECESSARY TO PAY IN ORDER TO SECURE A CONTRACT FOR THE CONSTRUCTION OF THE GAGGE TOWN-WEST-FIELD SECTION OF THE VALLEY RAILWAY.

This was the evidence given by Thomas Cozzolino, the president of the company at the inquiry into the St. John Valley railway affairs which was resumed here yesterday by Commissioner Stevens.

The person to whom it was necessary to promise these profits and make this payment was W. B. Tennant, of this city.

The reason why the members of the company consented to this arrangement Mr. Cozzolino testified, simply was that their vice-president and general manager told them that it would be necessary in order to secure the contract; they could get the contract on these conditions; they could not get it otherwise. Mr. Tennant's return for this generous provision, Mr. Cozzolino, was his "influence."

Mr. Tennant has been known as an influential citizen and Mr. Cozzolino has provided an accurate standard by which to gauge the value of his influence in certain circles. In the city directory, Mr. Tennant is described as a "financial agent and broker," but he is also known as a close associate of the local wing of the Murray-Baxter government, as a member of the Conservative patronage committee, and as a director of the St. John Standard.

Mr. Cozzolino did not attempt to give any reasons why his company should part with half of their profits and discount the prospective profit in such a liberal fashion except the fact that, at the time, they regarded it as "good business." Neither did he profess to know what was to happen to the $100,000 after it was paid to Mr. Tennant.

That the company could afford to be liberal was indicated by evidence given earlier in the day by E. O. Ford, a director and the chief engineer, of the Valley Railway Commission since the change in the local administration. From the records of the company which he found awaiting him when he entered office, Mr. Ford estimated that the profits of Nova Scotia Construction Company on the Westfield-Gagetown section WOULD BE IN THE VICINITY OF $235,207, ON A TOTAL COST OF $1,215,221.

This contract also contained the provision that the construction company should undertake to build the Centreville-Andover section at the same rate of remuneration, if called upon to do so within a year. The contract was signed on May 19, 1916, but when the government decided to proceed with the northern section and signed a new contract to that effect on February 8, 1917, they were prepared to be more generous. The new contract, ENTERED INTO AFTER

GREAT IMPROVEMENTS ON S. S. ELAINE

Spick and Span Upon Arrival Here Sunday—Now on the Route

The S. S. Elaine, Capt. John K. Wells arrived here Sunday from Halifax, where she has been undergoing extensive repairs and renovation, and presents a very different appearance from that of last year.

The hull and deckhouses inside and out, have been thoroughly painted, and overhauled and put in first class shape and the boat presents a tidy, clean and pleasing appearance.

Her machinery has also been thoroughly overhauled and put in perfect running order. The following are the officers, Capt. Wells, Chief Officer Morris O'Hara, Halifax; Chief Engineer E. Silver, Halifax; Chief Engineer John McCarvell, Pictou; Second Engineer Michael LeBlanc, Campbellton.

The first trip down the bay was made yesterday morning.

Although a little late in starting the season's business the Elaine arrived here in time to render valuable assistance in saving the lives of three Campbellton citizens, as it was through the promptness of the officers and crew that a boat was launched to affect the rescue of three of the four men in the overturned canoe Sunday evening, particulars of which are to be found in another column.

ROBINSON CRUSOE

Those who saw this five reel picture at the Opera House last night were delighted. It is on again to night and will be at Dalhousie Friday night and Athol Saturday night.

THE GENERAL ELECTIONS HAD BEEN ANNOUNCED. ENTITLED TO RATES OF PAY WHICH WOULD ADD THE NET SUM OF $7,000 TO THEIR PROFITS. OTHERS ALSO MARKED FOR FAVORS.

The evidence given by Mr. Ford and Mr. Cozzolino went to show, however, that Mr. Tennant was not the only person marked for special favors. While half of the Westfield section was sublet to various contractors at a uniform scale, the other half was given to Kennedy & McDonald and to Smith & Merrithew at much higher rates. Kennedy & McDonald's contract, for instance, would yield them $42,000 more than if they had accepted the terms under which the other contractors were working.

This was another mystery which Mr. Cozzolino could not unravel. On the contrary, he testified that he "made a kick about it" on his own account, but the protest of the president of the company did not seem to have affected the arrangement.—St. John Telegraph.

ROBBING THE PRISONERS.
German theft of parcels sent to Canadian war prisoners appears to be clearly established by the reports that Canadian tobacco has been found on German soldiers recently captured on the French front. In a letter to Lieut. Colonel McAvity, the present commander of the 26th Battalion, Lieut. Colonel A. E. G. McKenzie, said:
"It might be interesting for you to know that our chaps captured a quantity of Canadian tobacco, which evidently had been consigned to Canadian prisoners of war in Germany. The Germans are evidently stealing the soldiers' comforts sent from Canada to our prisoners in Germany."
Confirmation of this news is contained in a letter received a few days ago by Hon. Colonel William T. Gregory, of Leamington, Ont., from Lieut. W. Chrystal:
"After we took a line of trenches from the Germans, the beggars putting up a good fight until faced by

SEVEN YEARS TORTURE

Nothing Helped Him Until He Took "FRUIT-A-LIVES"

ALBERT VARNER
Buckingham, Que., May 2nd, 1915.
For seven years, I suffered terribly from Severe Headaches and Indigestion. I had belching gas from the stomach, bitter stuff would come up into my mouth after eating, while at times I had nausea and vomiting, and had chronic Constipation. I went to several doctors and wrote to a specialist in Boston but without benefit. I tried many remedies but nothing did me good. Finally, a friend advised "Fruit-a-lives". I took this grand fruit medicine and it made me well. I am grateful to "Fruit-a-lives", and to everyone who has miserable health with Constipation and Indigestion and Bad Stomach, I say take "Fruit-a-lives", and you will get well.

A DALHOUSIE BOY'S DEATH AT THE FRONT.

In a long letter of sympathy written by Lt. Col. A. N. Bull to Mr. and Mrs. Alex McKay, parents of the late Ernest McKay, who died at the front in France, the last words of the letter are the following:
"Your son during the entire period of my acquaintance with him, was a splendid man, and one of those whom you would choose when going into a tight corner. Higher honor for a soldier would be next to impossible to attain."
He was buried with full military honors, and his many friends in the Company have created a cross with a brass plate engraved in his honor, which they procured from London.
But under foreign skies, Par from those who loved him best But in a hero's grave he lies.
We think of him in silence, And his name we often call, But there's nothing left to answer But his photo on the wall.
He nobly fell at duty's call, Far from his home he fighting fell For that dear home he loved so well; He did his part; his life he gave; His resting place a soldier's grave.

MAGNIFICENT PRODUCTION OF IL TROVATORE

Coming to Opera House Monday Night June 18th.

When Joseph F. Sheehan, America's greatest tenor, and Neeli Garuni, Europe's greatest Leonora, decided to join forces it was only natural that they should choose for their initial Co-Star vehicle Verdi's Masterpiece, IL Trovatore.
Opera singers, like people in other professions, have certain preferences. Some are great in one opera some in others, therefore, in selecting the cast to support these two famous stars special attention was paid to get only artists who have won renown in their respective parts in IL Trovatore.
Joseph F. Sheehan is said by competent critics to be one of the greatest tenors in IL Trovatore. The world has never known him.
Mile Gardini is without a peer as Leonora, in fact it is doubtful if any other living artist equals her in the role.
Elsie De Selien has won her biggest laurels as Azucena, the Gypsy Hag in IL Trovatore, and so on down the line, every artist was chosen because he or she was eminently fitted for the one particular role they were assigned to.
The result, well suppose you picture for yourself what such a cast together with a specially selected chorus and augmented orchestra and beautiful scenic production would do in IL Trovatore.
If you have any inquiries about the Special Notes—Reserved seat sale will open for the general public on Friday, June 15th at 10 o'clock but to the subscribers two days earlier June 13th at 10 o'clock.

the bayonets, I came across a package of Old Chum tobacco in a German dug-out. This, Mr. Gregory, had your label attached, so it is evident Huns are stealing tobacco sent to Canadian soldiers in German prison camps. These two letters establish clearly the fact that tobacco sent from Canada to prisoners of war has been used by German soldiers in the trenches. The fact does not prove theft of the tobacco, but it strongly suggests theft and must occasion grave doubts as to the final fate of any and all supplies sent to prisoners of war. The war crimes of the Germans are so many that robbery of prisoners would be regarded rather as a smart trick than as a breach of any code—Globe.

CANADIAN ENGINEER SOLVED THE PROBLEM

Of Getting Power to Operate Mills in the Jura Mountains

Toronto, May 16.—"I have just returned from a visit to some of the forestry camps which are situated in all parts of France, several quite close to the front," says a London cable to the Evening Telegram:
"I visited those in the Jura mountains, within sight of the Alps and close to the Swiss frontier. The section is so dry that it has never been cut, at the French thought it impossible to get water to operate the mills, but a Canadian engineer from Arras, solved the difficulty by a hydraulic pump. He invented a siphon that raises water 600 feet, and there is now a large output. The forest is reminiscent of British Columbia, the timber being spruce and balsam trees, tall and symmetrical. For quality Ottawa lumbermen declare there is nothing in Canada to equal it. The products going chiefly to the French army."
The Canadian engineer of Arras prior referred to in the above is George H. Johnson, a son of the late J. A. Johnson, for many years foreman of the I. C. R. shops at Campbellton. The other brothers are Ernest and Harry at present overseas, Charlie of the C. G. R. here, his sisters are Mrs. F. F. Matheson of this town and Mrs. C. F. Payne of Halifax.
Many friends here will be glad to learn of George's success. He is a S. A. veteran. At the outbreak of the war he went to England, paying his own expenses. In his work in France he has used machinery of Canadian manufacture, making three trips to Canada.
For a time he worked with the Vickers company. In recognition of his good work he has been appointed to a staff position at the war office with the rank of Colonel.
With him in France were many expert millwrights from Canada, and he was given a free hand, and as the Yankees say "made good".

The railways will be permitted to fix the date for such payments. There was no marked opposition to the amendment by the committee.

NOT FOR THE RUSTLER
Times are hard, to be sure, but what's the use of climbing up on a dry goods box and day after day proclaiming to the world this old threadbare stereotype? We sometimes think that times ought to be still more stringent with some of these fellows. Did it ever occur to you that the genuine hustler rarely if ever complains of hard times?

A. is doing for the boys at the front. See church notices.

SLEIGHT FIRE AT RICHARD'S COOK HOUSE
An alarm of fire was rung in Friday morning about 11.45 on receipt of a telephone from Richardville that the large boarding house in connection with the mill was on fire. The firemen gathered at the fire station and were sent down in autos, while the steam engine was sent to assist in fighting the flames. When the firemen reached Richardville the fire was practically extinguished and they were not required. The large building caught on the roof from sparks from the burner, and the top story was quite badly burned. The fire fighting appliances of the mill were speedily at work and saved a serious fire loss. All the furniture was removed. The loss, which is covered by insurance is small.

SUFFERING CATS! GIVE THIS MAN THE GOLD MEDAL

Let folks stop on your feet hereafter; wear shoes a size smaller if you like, for soles will never again send electric shocks of pain through you, according to this Chiropractic authority.

He says that a few drops of a drug called creosote, applied directly upon a tender, aching corn, instantly relieves soreness, and soon the entire corn, root and all, falls right out.

This drug is a sticky, odorless compound, but dries at once and simply shrivels up the corn without inflaming or even irritating the surrounding tissue.

It is claimed that a quarter of an ounce of creosote obtained at any drug store will cost very little but is sufficient to remove every hard or soft corn or callus from one's feet. Cut this out, especially if you are a woman reader who wears high heels.

DO YOU REALISE

that Zam-Buk is not an ordinary ointment? It is a herbal skin healer with unusual power in overcoming chronic skin troubles.

Mr. John L. Frenette, of Nigadoo, Gloucester Co., N.B. writes: "Some years developed on my head and spread rapidly, until my head was entirely covered with scurf. I was attended by a doctor, but his treatment did not do me much good. By this time my head was in such a shocking condition that I determined to try something on my own account. Having heard of some wonderful cures effected by Zam-Buk, I commenced applying it, and the result was most encouraging. This marvellous balm soon ended the irritation and drew out all the inflammation. Then the scurf began to heal and perseverance with Zam-Buk resulted in a complete cure."

This skin healer is equally good for ringworm, salt rashes, skin abscesses, running sores, bad legs, blood-poisoning, boils, piles, burns, scalds, cuts and all skin injuries. All druggists, or Zam-Buk Co., Toronto. 50c. box, 2 for $1.25.

To The Women of Campbellton

The women today do 90 per cent of the buying for the home, and it is regrettable to say that thoughtlessly many have got into the habit of sending their money away to distant cities for making purchases that should rightfully be made at home—and could be made here more satisfactorily.

How much each year do these out-of-town firms contribute toward the support of Campbellton institutions?

Do they contribute one cent toward the education of our children? Do they help to maintain our police and fire departments, which afford protection for our families and our houses?

Do these out-of-town firms contribute one cent toward the paving and upkeep of the streets of our town, the roads of our country and our public thoroughfares?

How much interest do these out-of-town houses take in the upbuilding and support of our churches and charitable institutions?

In spending your money outside of Campbellton for goods that may be purchased here, has it occurred to you that you are retarding the growth of your own town, that perhaps you are working against the interest of your own husband, brother, father, or friend?

Women of Campbellton you have shown your patriotism and civic pride in many ways heretofore. Will you not weigh this one question carefully and devote a part of your time, energy and influence toward rectifying the evils of out-of-town buying?

Spend your money in your own town and you will find that it will come back to all of us in one way or another.

Our merchants will be able to carry bigger and better stocks—more people will be employed and Campbellton will grow.

Killed in Action:—

A. Johnson, Shives Athol.

Word has been received that Pte. Harry Travers has been wounded in action on May 13th. No further particulars are given. Pte. Travers enlisted here with the 132nd Battalion but on arriving in England was drafted into another battalion.

Pte. Melvin Alexander of Upper Charles of the 132nd Battalion who was wounded at Vimy Ridge on April 9th by shrapnel in the knee and later was reported dangerously ill, in No. 3 General Hospital Boulogne is now in hospital in England. Many friends will be glad to know that he is improving.

Mrs. J. C. Ferguson has received the following letter in answer to one written to Major B. W. Roscoe in command of D. Company of the 6th Mounted Rifles, of which her son R. Currie Ferguson was a member.

France, 18th May, 1917

Mrs. J. C. Ferguson,
Campbellton, N. B.

Dear Madam:

Your letter of inquiry of the 16th ult. with reference to your son Ronald is at hand and I regret the only information in my possession is that he was reported as missing after the 2nd of June 1916 and is now believed killed.

We have no information whatever concerning his being made prisoner nor of him having been wounded and in hospital. I well remember the occasion in our advance to reinforce the remnants of the battalion where your son acted as wire cutter or one of the wire cutters. It was a brave deed and was mentioned in my report. After we joined up with the rest of the Battalion there were some very hard fighting during which there is no doubt but that your son was killed. Unfortunately I was wounded before we were relieved and cannot give you any first hand information.

All that you state with reference to newspaper clippings and other rumors is what generally happens in such cases but I would not advise you to entertain any false hopes on such slim foundation. Had he been in hospital or a prisoner we should have known of it long ago. It is hardly possible that any man of my company could have been taken prisoner particularly a soldier like your son.

I quite realize your distress of heart in the matter and regret my inability to give you any comforting information. Please be assured of my sincere sympathy.

Yours sincerely
B. W. ROSCOE.

IN THE STUD SEASON OF 1917

THE MAGNIFICENTLY BRED STALLION

MORRIS TIPTON 61689

Son of San Francisco 2:07 1/2

WILL STAND FOR SEASON OF 1917

MORRIS TIPTON is a handsome chestnut stallion; foaled 1913. Bred by Walnut Hall Farm. He is a grand individual in every respect and is one of the best bred horses on the American continent. Just study his tabulated pedigree. He is by San Francisco 2:07 1/2, himself a great trotter, and now regarded as the leading stallion at the great Walnut Hall farm in Kentucky, a sire of sensational, early and extreme speed.

His dam Sister Min is one of the greatest producing daughters of Moko, the wonderful sire of futurity winners, and she in turn out of another great brood mare by Aberdeen. A better combination of blood lines could scarcely be devised.

Morris Tipton is himself a fast horse, a grand individual and with such blood lines cannot help but produce his kind.

Bred to Morris Tipton and get a St. Frisco or one like The Real Lady. He possesses the blood from whence they came, as well as a host of other campaigners.

He will make the season of 1917 at Campbellton at $

HELP FOR WORKING WOMEN

Some Have to Keep on Until They Almost Drop. How Mrs. Conley Got Help.

Here is a letter from a woman who had to work, but was too weak and suffered too much to continue. How she regained health:

Frankfort, Ky.—"I suffered so much with female weakness that I could not do my own work. I had to hire it done. I heard so much about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound that I decided to try it. I took three bottles and I found it to be all you claim. Now I feel as well as ever I did and am able to do all my own work again. I recommend it to any woman suffering from female weakness. You may publish my letter if you wish."—Mrs. James Conley, 816 St. Clair St., Frankfort, Ky.

No woman suffering from any form of female trouble should lose hope until she has given Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a fair trial. This famous remedy, the medicinal ingredients of which are derived from native roots and herbs, has for forty years proved to be a great valuable and invigorator of the female organism. All women are urged to write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for special advice—it will be confidential.

STRATEGY AND PREPARATION CONTROL LUCK.

Luck is always with the man who is prepared. It can safely be said without contradiction that there are no accidental successes in business. The man who makes money and is rated a successful man, first puts himself in the line of success, by making the proper preparation, by creating around himself the right atmosphere, fixing the circumstances and the so-called luck which subsequently comes to him falls to his lot because he is the logical man to secure it. No one else occupies the position of strategy.

The violin selections by Mr. McNiece were of a very high order and at the close he was generously applauded for his fine rendition of France's National Anthem.

Miss Haddow who is favorably known here in connection with patriotic work was enthusiastically received. Miss Alma LaBilloy who is known as an elocutionist received a hearty welcome in her native town, reading "Fleur-de-lis" written by Robert W. Service during this war, in which The Wounded Canadian Speaks, touched the audience deeply.

Those present were, Frances Cook, Myrtle Caldwell, Hattie Wellman, Irene Caldwell, Alberta Caldwell, Frances Robinson, Elsie Robinson, Mona Hocquard, Helen Caldwell, Florence Jacobson, Emily Fraser, Ruby Hocquard.

We are sorry to hear that Mrs. Wm. A. Flowers is very seriously ill with pneumonia. Her many friends hope that soon there will be a change for the better.

Mr. J. S. LeBrocq has also been unwell for some time and for the past few days has not been able to attend to his store. We trust he may soon be about again.

Everybody is very busy these times farming and as the good weather has come everyone is endeavoring to obey the command and till the soil to the best of their ability. Seed is rather scarce with quite a few and prices very high. The few potatoes that are for sale are worth $6.00 per barrel and oats 50 cents per bushel, wheat $3.00 per bushel. There seems to be plenty of hay now selling at $12.00 a ton. The herring fishing has been small this spring and is now about over.

Mr. Weston Chisholm has his salmon nets out and is catching quite a few, shipping most of them to Boston.

Lieut. O. Sherar made a trip up the line today, the 4th inst., in the interests of his work, and expects to return on the 6th.

Miss Jolicoeur has spent several summers here and has many friends who wish her well.

Miss Anna Poirier the popular teacher of Balmoral, was in town Sunday, the guest of her sister Mrs. Senette. Miss Poirier who has contributed many splendid articles to the press has been offered a lucrative position with one of the French papers in Moncton; but on account of the death of her brother Athanas at the front in the battle at St. Eloi, on March 27th, 1916 and the absence in France of another brother, Etienne and the illness of her father she is forced to remain at the old home.

Miss Poirier who has been very busy during the past year, having charge of a large school in addition to the home work, finds the want of a rest and change and she expects to take a trip to Halifax to visit Mount St. Vincent Academy, where she studied, Fredericton, where she attended convent school, and St. Basile, Madawaska Co. where she attended the convent, stopping at other places where she taught school. Miss Poirier is one of the brightest French teachers in the province and when she can take up newspaper work she will have an opportunity to develop her great talents.

FLEET FOOT
for Summer Wear
at Work and Play

Don't work in heavy, leather boots this summer. Wear "Fleet Foot" Shoes. They are honest and sturdy enough to stand the farm work.

Easy and comfortable—light—sensible—and so much cheaper than leather.

When you go out in the evening, wear "Fleet Foot" White Shoes. There are plenty of different styles and shapes, for every occasion, day as well as evening—and they are far less expensive than leather boots.

Next time you go to town, be sure to see the "Fleet Foot" Shoes for summer wear.

In the Balance

"In acute disease or sudden injury the steady, constant drinkers' chances of recovery are diminished 50 per cent."—Professor Gilbert Darling, F.R.C.S., Vice-Chancellor of Birmingham University.

It was at the bedside of a very sick man. The physicians gravely watched the struggle between Life and Death. All depended upon the heart. Could it cope with the crisis? Life hung by a thread. The thread snapped. The newspapers said he died of pneumonia, and so he did. But the physicians remarked, "Too bad he used alcohol, or he could have passed the crisis."

Yet this man was no drunkard—just a moderate drinker; he could "take it or leave it alone just as he liked" and all the rest of it; was a highly respected citizen, and a staunch supporter of "British Liberty" (to have his drop when he wanted it).

Here's the tremendous significance of his case: He always voted true to his convictions. Moderate drinkers form a large proportion of the vote upon which the Traffic depends for existence. In fact, in many communities the moderate drinkers hold the "balance of power."

Help to Enforce Prohibition

When, after the vote, the people vote for or against permanent Prohibition, the moderate drinker may turn the scale as he will.

Prohibition is on trial. The moderate drinker of the class mentioned is needed in the fight for vigorous enforcement—the means to permanent victory—and who is more likely to be indifferent? Would not all the moderate drinkers in New Brunswick could thoroughly realize the seriousness of even slight acquiescence with John Barleycorn, Prohibition would be assured forever!

In the name of common sense why will intelligent men vote for such a curse? Think of thousands of good citizens being the Traffic's main political support by voting "wet."

Will the moderate drinkers take the responsibility of killing Prohibition after the war? We think decidedly not. But we want their help now to enforce the laws and thus make freedom a certainty.

Use your influence with every moderate drinker you know. Help to enforce Prohibition.

EXTRA PROFIT FROM SELECTED COWS.

One remarkably satisfactory result of keeping simple dairy records, yields of milk and cost of feed, is the knowledge gained that cows of good dairy type do repay the cost of extra feed.

One example may be given. Not far from St. Hyacinthe, Quebec, one hundred cows produced 104,864 pounds of milk more during 1916 than one hundred did in 1915. The 1916 records showed that ten were not paying so they were beefed, and again in 1916 eleven were sent to the block being replaced by better milkers. Better feedings contributed largely to the above noted big increase in milk yield; more corn was fed, more clover and a little higher meal ration.

The value of the extra feed was $60,500, this produced more milk to the value of $1,977.66, so that the extra clear return was $1,917.16, and the cows were in much better condition.

Dairy records help to select good cows and to ensure larger profit. Write the Dairy Commissioner, Ottawa, for form and feed record system.

HON. P. J. VENIOT'S BILL FOR PERMANENT HIGHWAY

By Funding Automobile Fees Every Year, Money Will Be Available For Expenditure on Provincial Highway.

Fredericton, N. B., June 1.—The Provincial Legislature met yesterday afternoon at the usual hour.

After considerable routine business, during which one or two bills were advanced a stage, the bill relating to the establishment of permanent highways was taken up.

Mr. Smith (Carleton) asked if the hon. minister of public works would kindly say just what he intended by the expression "permanent highway".

PERMANENT HIGHWAYS

Hon. Mr. Veniot said that if his hon. friend did not already understand the meaning of the word "permanent," he feared he could not help him very much. He (Smith) had used it quite a lot around election time. With regard to the subject matter of the bill no one would suppose for a moment that with only half a million dollars to work with, he could construct permanent roads over the province. He could only begin the work with such a comparatively small amount as that. The idea was that by funding the automobile fees every year a certain sum would become available which could be used to make roads as permanent as was possible in view of climatic conditions in the province. He had already outlined the programme which it was proposed to follow, but he had not been able in the short time which had elapsed since he took office to make as complete plans as he could wish, but he had been able so far to commence the work of having profiles of each leading road made by competent engineers, which, when completed, would be open for inspection to anyone who would care to see them. These profiles would show the nature of every section of the various roads, showing the differences in the condition in which they happen to be so that the department would be able to get complete knowledge of what they had to deal with, and when any report came in that any part of a road was out of repair, they would, by turning to the profile, be able to find out just exactly where the spot was. Three crews would be at work this summer making these profiles, and at the same time they would be doing any necessary repairs to the roads they were working on as they went along.

Mr. Smith, (Carleton) said his hon. friends must admit that at any rate he had given him a good start.

Hon. Mr. Veniot replied that he feared time would show that he had done quite the opposite and that the course he took before leaving office had retarded rather than helped on the road question. He hoped, however, despite these little set backs that the province would have in a few years' time some good trunk roads which would no longer be a disgrace to the government and the people as they now were.

Mr. Smith (Carleton) said he did not want to criticize his hon. friend because the policy which he had just been laying down had his (Smith's) hearty approval, but still he would like to know what was meant by permanent roads. Would the minister describe a macadam or gravel road as permanent?

Hon. Mr. Veniot said that by a permanent road he meant such roads as would at least last the life time of the bonds, which were to be floated to pay for them. He would in building them use gravel and concrete culverts, but by gravel roads he did not mean the sort of gravel roads the province had been used to in the past. There were several fine pits in the province, the gravel from which partook somewhat of the nature of cement and a road made of that material properly put down should last for twenty or twenty-five years at least.

Mr. Tilley expressed his approval of the minister's plans.

Mr. Magree said it was impossible to make a permanent highway. A highway built of the so-called semi-

PURITY FLOUR

Milled especially for particular cooks—those who want

"MORE BREAD AND BETTER BREAD"

ment would be good for 20 years, but an ordinary road with the automobile traffic there was would not last half that time. Under present financial conditions the method of providing the money by funding the auto tax meets with unanimous approval, as it would easily provide for the bond issue of half million. That would be sufficient to take care of the worst parts of the main roads, much of which was semi-permanent already and there would be money available for much larger expenditure on the ordinary roads. As to the gravel they had in Westmorland a gravel pit that was already being taken out and was giving good satisfaction on the St. John streets and he was glad to know that the minister was coming down to his county to inspect it with a view of using it in the work which he proposed to take up.

BIG DEFICIT FOR PROVINCE

Results of Operations of Late Government.

Fredericton, June 4.—The statement of receipts and expenditures of the province of New Brunswick prepared and submitted by the provincial secretary-treasurer to the legislature, is not an encouraging one.

The statement covers transactions for the first six months of the fiscal year, since November 1st last, five months of which the affairs of the province were in charge of the Clark Murray-Baxter government.

In that six months the expenditures of a reached the large total of $768,957.84, while the receipts were only $492,804.84, of a deficit for that period of $277,153.

The question arises, if there is such a deficit in the first six months of the fiscal year, what will the deficit be at the end of the twelve months? That there was a tremendous deficit on October 31st last year, had the accounts been all in and paid, can no longer be doubted. The public works department by a stroke of the pen transferred $72,000 from "ordinary expenditures" upon roads to "special improvements," with the idea of bonding it as permanent expenditure and paying the amount out of the $500,000 to be raised by an issue of serial bonds. That was the plan of ex-Minister, B. Frank Smith who, after October 31, had governor's warrants issued increasing this "special improvement" account to over $103,000, very much of this expenditure being to the year 1916, but was wiped out of ordinary accounts in a bid to show a small surplus.

Many accounts that had already been paid out of ordinary revenue in August and September were "disallowed" by the minister, and were transferred to "special accounts."

Economy is Cost Divided by Time

The reason why the Studebaker Four is the most economical four is because of the extra quality, the extra safety, the extra power, the extra low upkeep.

Extra safety means the extra feature of strength which takes the strain of the shock which wrecks the small cheap car.

Extra power means smooth, vibrationless operation, not the jarring, jerking, racking strains of over exerted power.

Extra low upkeep is the sum of the advantage mentioned above, and it is the sum of economy, and that is why Studebaker believes it is better to put a little more money and a great deal more quality in manufacturing a car like the Series 18 at $1375, and at the same time give you genuine leather upholstery and the same quality of fittings and equipment that you find in cars costing more than twice as much as the Studebaker Four.

We repeat that the Studebaker Series 18 is the most economical four in the world. Come in and ask for demonstration.

TRIBUTE OF NURSE TO THE SOLDIERS

Says Wounded Men Are Best of All Patients—They're Gentlemen All—An Army that Respects Women Folk

(M. G. S., in Scottish American.)

Within the last two years in my hospital work amongst the soldiers, I have had endless opportunities of observing their chivalry, which, combined with their cheerfulness, makes them ideal patients. Incidentally, men always make better patients than women! But soldier's beat them all. They never take our services for granted, and their gratitude is boundless. Strong language is often-in fact, nearly always—a strong man's outlet in times of severe pain, yet never once have I heard an oath from a suffering soldier. Our orderlies may have heard something stronger, but when a sister is present soldiers behave accordingly. Where I was stationed at first I was theatre sister, and had charge of a small surgical ward. Sitting one day beside a stalwart gunner, who was just coming out of chloroform, I found him greatly distressed. He wanted to know if, when under the chloroform, he had "used bad language?" "It wouldn't matter for the blokes (i. e., the surgeons), you see, sister—but it would be awful if I done it before you," I hastily reassured him that he had slept like a lamb and never even bleated.

A Court Martial.

Conscious or unconscious, our Tommy's chivalry is to be depended upon. On another occasion I entered one of the larger wards and found an impressive court-martial scene proceeding. If there had been any officers about they'd have been much tickled. The Tommy representing the Colonel was irresistible. The offender was charged with using profane language in the presence of a sister. The defence was that the sister was half-way out of the door, and therefore technically not in the ward. I suggested the case be settled by asking the sister what the profane word had been, and abiding by her judgment. A tactful sister had heard nothing so the court was dissolved, with a threat of C. B. if the offence was repeated. "These may seem small matters, but an army that respects womanfolk can be trusted all the world over."

Many things happened in Belgium in the early days of the war that our soldiers could not bring themselves to speak about.

They spoke, however, of the security for fleeing refugees only to be found in and around our trenches. One well known Highland regiment was proud of the fact that a party of their school-girl charges, found sanctuary in a trench filled with fighting Highlanders, who next day formed their escort to the rear. Those western days, and helpless women and girls were in deadly peril, but their appeals for help found ever a ready response from ever soldier of our army. A soldier told me a story of this kind, and when I praised him for his share in it, he modestly said, "Oh! any other bloke 'ud have done as much for my missus or kids." That is the spirit in which our soldiers proved their chivalry, and it ought to hold a foremost place in our memory, even in these great days crowded out with wonderful deeds.

Taking-in Night.

"Taking-in night"—that is the name we gave to our nights for receiving the wounded, and they were often an education to us sisters in more ways than one.

A cordial invitation extended to all from the trenches.

In taking his case I discovered that his real age was seventeen, his interest in soldiering nil, and his apparent use, in a fighting unit, a negligible quantity. He informed me he had enlisted by mistake! He entered, as he thought, a registrar's office, with a view to getting married; and on receiving a form retired. What was his horror on regaining the street to discover that, instead of being on the high road to matrimony, he was Private—of the Royal Scots. He had a poor opinion of me when I suggested he should convey my congratulations to the lady on her narrow escape. He made no secret of his disgust at his mistake, and his comrades always laughingly advised him to try a different registrar next time!

There is a splendid free masonry in the army. There is also a tremendous rivalry between the English, Scottish and Irish regiments, and every man, fortunately, is convinced that his own regiment is the best. But in hospital their absolute goodness and helpfulness to each other beggars description. Men are notably, of course, more sympathetic than women, and soldiers seem more sympathetic than either.

Bearing Each Other's Burdens.

Nothing is too much to do for a sick comrade, and it almost seems a gospel with them to "bear each other's burdens."

A fine Irish boy came to us fearfully wounded in the knee, and every attempt was made to save his leg. This was impossible, however, and the doctor had to tell him he must lose his right leg. When told, he lay very quietly for a minute, and then he brightened up and said: "Very well; it's not as if it was anything to be ashamed of, doctor." He was only nineteen, and all the older men admired him, and would do anything for him. The morning of the boy's operation, his special pal walked miles simply because he couldn't bear to be in the hospital when "they were doing it". In spite of all the appalling, our Irish boy went home as unspoiled as when he came, and I don't think in all my practice as a nurse I ever came across a more lovable nature.

But in nursing the soldiers I have finally come to this conclusion, that if soldiering makes patients of their stamp, the sooner humanity, on blood, become soldiers of some kind the better. Their rare courage and single-hearted devotion is beyond the range of ordinary comprehension. One can only reverently wonder at it, and thank God for it.
