THESE TRAVELERS NEVER MURMUR AT PLANK BEDS

Valuables Closely Guarded and Checked Free of Charge.

Nearly every night the London police department plays host to any number, from one to a dozen, late arrivals or homeless travelers in the city who cannot obtain accommodation at hotels or rooming-houses for one reason or another.

No very luxurious service is offered in the Carling street hostel, but the guests are invariably left at the desk, and the doors are locked by the "bell-cop" who escorts them to their rooms. A lot of travelers, it might be said, who are accustomed to journeying at more luxurious hotels, do not disdain once in a while to apply voluntarily for shelter over-night. To show that they are used to patronizing good hotels, where night clerks stay awake to call the sleeping guests at any hour desired, instructions to this effect are invariably left at the desk. But these instructions are accidentally almost always overlooked.

The police go upon the theory that if a man asks to be awakened at 7 o'clock, his reason for wanting to leave early may bear investigation, and it is always 10 o'clock before he makes his departure, after the detective have meticulously inquired how well he didn't sleep with the tabling and snoring of involuntary guests in the next room.

On the other hand, if the really blasé traveler hints that he has had a hard day and wants to sleep till noon, he is

BIRD NOTES

(Contributed by Melvraith Ornithological Club.)

Just because there are none of what are called "winter birds" this season, it must not be supposed that "no birds" have been observed during the winter months. It is quite true that our summer birds, with that lack of foreknowledge of weather for which they are noted (among bird students) departed from us at their regular dates, and very few remained, but a few individuals of quite a number of species habitually stay the winter with us, and many of these were to be found by the earnest seeker.

So it came about that the regular "first-of-the-year" walk, which is held with religious regularity on January 1, resulted in the listing of 23 species, a surprisingly large number in the eyes of those who say "there are no birds in winter," but some of our members were disappointed at the absence of so many that have been found in other years.

This list included junco, crow, blue jay, tree sparrow, great blue heron, red-headed woodpecker, white-breasted nuthatch, ruffed grouse, red-tail hawk, purple finch, chickadee, hairy woodpecker, downy woodpecker, cardinal, red-shouldered hawk, long-eared owl, snowflake brown creeper, golden-crowned kinglet, song sparrow, bronze grackle, great horned owl.

BOARD APPOINTS W. A. TANNER AS NEW SECRETARY

School Trustees Disregard Promise of Preference For Veteran.

SELECTION A SURPRISE

Question Raised Whether Wife of Appointee Should Resign As Trustee.

W. A. Tanner, who has been acting secretary to the board of education since the death of the late Secretary R. M. McElhannon, was yesterday afternoon appointed secretary at a special meeting of the board, after three ballots had been taken.

It was decided to advertise for applications, to the effect that in event any veteran whose name was on the list of eligibles, and who presented qualifications equal to those of a civilian, would be given the preference.

Following the announcement of the third ballot, on the motion of Trustees Smith and Udy, the board made the appointment of W. A. Tanner, on the suggestion of Trustee Rev. A. A. Bice, requested that no name be placed in the list of eligibles, who name had been placed in the first six, stating that it might injure the applicants in their present position.

One Applicant Withdrew. The ballot paper contained the names of six men whom the special committee considered to be especially qualified for the post, in alphabetical order, at the top and below these the names of 17 other applicants, also in alphabetical order. Trustees Bice before the ballot was opened and in reply to a question by Trustee Smith, read a list of the names of the applicants, whose name had been placed in the first six, stating that it was wished to withdraw his application.

Principal H. B. Beal and Inspector V. K. Groer withdrew. The names of the six men were named scrutineers by Chairman Trustee Rev. W. A. Tanner asked to be excused from voting. The request was granted.

On the first poll each of the five remaining names at the head of the list, and one name from the other part of the list were declared elected. On the second vote the result was as follows: 5, 3, 2, 1, 1, 0, the three low men were declared eliminated, the third vote was recorded as 7, 3, 2, and one ballot spoiled.

Notice "Too Broad." Following the reading at the opening of the meeting of the notice convening it, Trustee T. Rowe claimed that the notice was altogether too broad. The notice stated that the meeting was called to receive the report of the committee, to receive any communications and to receive the report of the special committee appointed to receive applications for the position of secretary.

Trustee T. Rowe claimed that the meeting was called to receive the report of the special committee appointed to receive applications for the position of secretary.

Chairman Coleridge suggested that the meeting be adjourned to the next meeting, and he was supported by the majority of the board. The meeting was adjourned to the next meeting.

School Plans Progressing. It was stated by Trustee Hayman, chairman of the school board, that the plans for Victoria school would be ready in two weeks.

On a "motion to adjourn," several trustees took occasion to object to the calling of any more special meetings for some time to come, and the chairman was understood to assure the board that so far as he was concerned the objection would receive fullest possible recognition.

HOLSTEIN BREEDERS HOLD BANQUET AT CONCLUSION OF SALE

Lifting of Cattle Embargo in Great Britain Would Benefit Cattle Raisers.

At the close of the sale of pure-bred stock on Wednesday afternoon, the London district Holstein breeders dined together at the Chateau restaurant. W. J. Ellis, London Township, presided, and in the course of a few remarks said that on the whole they were fairly well satisfied with the results of the sale, although the high prices of the stock warranted better prices. However, the low price of cattle at the present time did not encourage farmers to hope for too much.

In the course of the discussion which followed, reference was made to the prospective removal of the cattle embargo in Great Britain, and the opinion was expressed that if this barrier were lifted it would benefit breeders of pure-bred stock in this country by opening up a market in the old land. There was no reason, it was said, why purebred Holsteins of the quality which that day's sale had brought forward should not be in demand among British dairy farmers, as it is well known that this breed is rapidly gaining ground there as a milk and butter producer superior to all others.

Attention was also directed to the newly-formed London District Live Stock Club, and it was generally admitted that this formed a splendid opportunity for beginners to secure some good stuff and make a start as breeders of purebred cattle.

The movement for the provision of better sties also received the hearty endorsement of the Holstein breeders. The speakers included Capt. Tom Robinson, G. F. Pearson, Frank Balfour, Stanley Shaw, and R. A. Finn, agricultural representative for Middlesex County.

A quantity of money and securities from the same bank were found three months ago under a haystack five miles from the scene of today's discovery.

OTTAWA, March 22.—The total amount paid with respect to C. E. F. disability pensions for the year ending December 31, 1920, was $18,212,506, according to information given Gen. W. A. Griesbach, Edmonton West, in the House of Commons today.

The total number of persons pensioned on December 31, 1920, was 118,140. Of this number 53,454 were pensioners, 26,912 wives, and 37,773 children.

HOLSTEIN CATTLE BRING HIGH PRICES IN DISTRICT SALE

Sixty Head of Fine Stock Sold At Western Fair Grounds.

The annual spring sale of the London district Holstein breeders was held at the Western Fair grounds on Wednesday afternoon. About 60 head were placed in the ring, consisting of springers, new milkers and young bulls. There was a large attendance of buyers, and although the bidding was fairly brisk, no sensational prices were realized. In fact, considering the good quality of the stuff presented several of the animals were decided bargains.

The top price was for a fine young bull, just 1 year old, consigned by H. C. Holby of Glenworth. This bull, King Payne of Kady Grange, was a showy animal, and his dam and sire's dam's average was: Butternut, Payne, 31.33 pounds; milk, 7 days, $18.10 pounds. The price realized was $425, and his purchaser was J. C. Trick of Goderich.

A 5-year-old female, Jewel Pontiac, consigned by Wm. Knott of London, was sold to G. W. Keays & Sons, Hyde Park, for $275. Other sales which realized the $200 mark and over were as follows: Segis Wayne Harzog (female), consigned by Charles E. Holborn, sold to B. Bodkin, Asylum, for $110; Phoebe Finderns Dakot (female), consigned by F. D. Balfour, sold to J. G. Thomson, Asylum, for $110; Marina Payne (female), consigned by W. J. Ellis, London, sold to George Collins, Asylum, for $200; Mildred Patricia (female), consigned by W. J. Ellis, London, sold to H. N. McNeece, London Township, for $215; Colantha Bengerd Brookbank (female), consigned by A. C. Taylor, sold to Alfred Graves, Salford, for $225; Juley Dekol Pos (female), consigned by J. A. S. Smith, Komoka, sold to J. G. Thomson, for $240; Betty Netherland Payne (female), consigned by F. D. Balfour, sold to B. B. McCarty, Thamesford, for $225.

There were several promising calves which brought prices up to $25. The total sum realized was in the neighborhood of $10,000.

T. Merritt Moore acted as auctioneer.

CATTLE PRICES DOWN BUT PROFITS GOOD

Feed Is Cheap and Farmers Are Getting Good Returns.

LONDON, March 23.—The fall in prices of cattle is not getting down in some places, and getting down in some sections on the farm. Farmers report a poor year for milk, but the quality is good so far.

James Boland, Lobo, has been handling quite a lot of cattle, in fact, all the good fat heifers he can get for a London firm. Prices are about 25 per cent lower than last year, and in some cases 50 per cent, but feed is cheap and probably the profits are nearly as good this year.

The roads are improving, and the drive is being used on the county roads to good effect.

The Vanneck Literary Society held a concert and social evening on Tuesday, the closing night for the season. A large crowd was present, and a very pleasant evening was spent. Adam Robinson and Miss Lizzie Grieve gave several splendid readings; musical numbers by the Vanneck quartet; piano solos and vocal solos by Miss M. Scott, Miss Campbell, Gladys Hedley, Gwen Teffer, Gordon Robson, Leigh Lance and Clarence Teffer. The social time closed the final meeting for the winter season.

Explains Competition.

Mr. Elliot of the county agricultural department is visiting the Lobo schools this week. On Tuesday he explained to the Bear Creek pupils, S. S. No. 7, all about the better stock competition, a pure-bred calf to each pupil so desiring to care for and raise it, and at the fall fair the stock will be examined and placed, and if desired can be purchased and become the property of the pupil. The object of this is to foster and encourage the raising and breeding of high-class, pure-bred livestock.

Lobo W. I. "At Home."

The Lobo Women's Institute held its annual "at home" on Friday evening in the Masonic Hall, Lobo. Rev. N. A. Campbell was chairman, and Mrs. A. Fraser, district president for the year, welcomed the visitors. The speaker of the evening was Mrs. (Dr.) Rutnam of Caydon, who gave a very interesting talk to the members and their friends. Dr. Rutnam has been conducting a class in "first aid" at Komoka, and the institute was thus able to have her address the meeting. Music was furnished by Misses Branton, Jean Gray, Vera Graham, Mary and Pearl Campbell.

The Linton U. F. O. junior baseball team has organized for the season, and is open for games with any other junior ball-teams. Andrew Chaston was appointed manager for the season.

The Bear Creek Community Club at Lobo has decided to hold a box social and concert at its next session on April 1.

Candy Easter Eggs May Have Caused Little Girl's Death

Authorities Are Making Investigation Into Sale of Cheap
Easter Candy in Detroit—Police Trying to Locate Store Where Child Made Her Purchase.

(Special to The Advertiser.)

DETROIT, March 23.—Eunice Fancher, 14-year-old freshman at Northwestern High School, died in an automobile in her father's arms this afternoon, as a result of eating candy Easter eggs, which the coroner's office thinks were poisonous. The girl's stomach will be sent up for analysis, together with samples of Easter eggs. An autopsy has been ordered by Deputy Coroner Carr.

A thorough investigation of cheap Easter candy on sale in Detroit will be made at once, Health Commissioner Vaughan said this evening. Tests will be made of various articles being offered to determine if poisonous substances are being used.

Bought Downtown.

The eggs were purchased in a downtown store, the name of which officials have not yet obtained. The girl was endeavoring to locate the store in an effort to learn the source of the candy and if they are found to be poisonous, prosecution will follow. The child had eaten but a few of those purchased. The remainder were seized by the officer.

Eunice was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Preston Fancher, 5115 Trumbull avenue. She had been spending Easter vacation with a girl friend in the suburbs. It is said the two girls came downtown Tuesday afternoon and purchased the candy.

Became Alarmed.

The mother of Eunice's chum, with whom the Fancher girl was staying, became alarmed when the girl was stricken with severe pains in stomach and notified her parents.

Her father took the child in his arms, carried her to an auto and started home shortly after 1 o'clock this afternoon.

Eunice spoke but little on the journey, and when a few blocks from her home raised her head and asked:

"Father, are we almost home?"

"Yes, dear, we are almost there," replied Mr. Fancher. A moment later the girl fell back dead.

SARNIA LOSING CITY ENGINEER

John A. Baird Has Tendered Resignation To the Council.

SARNIA, March 23.—City Engineer John A. Baird has tendered his resignation to the council. City Clerk Stewart, after thirty years' service, has been granted three months' leave of absence, following which he will likely resign, according to information at the city hall tonight. The resignation is said to be the result of lack of co-operation on the part of the council and also an offer made to him by an outside concern. So far the council has made no move to secure a new engineer.

The resignation has been forwarded to the chairman of the board of education, a letter tendering his resignation as treasurer. His duties as city treasurer now require his whole time. An expenditure of change for certificates is tendered by the chairman and board is contained in the letter. The resignation whereby the city treasurer was to take over the treasurer's office, over a year ago, but the growth of the city's business now makes it necessary for the treasurer to devote his whole time to the civic financing.

COUNCIL ACCEPTED PAVEMENT PETITION

Asphalt Roadways For Roseberry Place and Curtis Street.

ST. THOMAS, March 23.—The petition of the ratepayers on Roseberry place, and those on Curtis street, for an asphalt pavement was allowed at a meeting of the council tonight. The council on resolution will construct asphalt roadways on Roseberry place, from Talbot to Roseberry place, by a two-thirds vote of the members. The engineer was directed to prepare an estimate of the cost. The council instructed the treasurer to have debentures issued in connection with the waterworks improvements, and that they be in one issue instead of sets.

ALLEGED HE KEPT PROCEEDS OF SALE

Soldier-Farmer's Case Will Be Heard On Saturday.

ST. THOMAS, March 23.—John Stanton, a soldier-farmer of Malahide, who was arrested at Port Huron on a warrant charging him with disposing of the property of the Government and keeping the proceeds, was before the magistrate today, and was remanded until Saturday. Stanton, about two years ago, purchased a farm, near Latta, under the Dominion land settlement act, and paid the Government $500 as part of the consideration of $3,500. A loan was also made of money by the Government to buy implements and stock, but about a month ago Stanton held an auction sale and is alleged to have kept the proceeds and left the country. Stanton was held in Port Huron until the arrival of the local constable.

Constable Promoted.

The tender of Archie Macpherson for the making of eight suits of uniforms for the local constabulary has been accepted by the commission.

John Grant, rate turnkey of the county jail, will succeed Robert McCully, who leaves the service at the end of the month.

Tennis Club Officers.

The officers elected of the St. Thomas Tennis Club, are: Honorary president, J. W. Peart; president, Stanley Oliver; first vice-president, Miss Muriel Lewis; treasurer, W. O. Latornell; secretary, C. V. Boughner.

TWENTY-FOUR ARE KILLED IN AMBUSCADES

Sinn Feiners Start Numerous
Reprisals For Recent Executions.

DUBLIN, March 23.—Twenty-four persons were killed and nearly thirty wounded in ambushes reported today.

The men to whom the Government attribute the organization of the ambushes have not been captured.

The multiplication of the ambushes is believed to be largely due to reprisals for the recent executions. The Sinn Fein is said to regard their men as belligerents and the execution of those captured as a breach of the laws of warfare and punishable by reprisals. The execution of Whelan was followed by the killing of two policemen in his native town of Clifden. The deaths of the policemen were avenged in Clifden by house burnings.

The execution of Patrick Moran has been followed by the killing of two policemen in his native district of Roscommon.

For every man executed vengeance is anticipated, and as the Government are in custody many men liable to the death penalty, and is said to mean to carry out reprisals by killing up of deaths on each side is considered here as inevitable.

BREAKDOWN CRIPPLES HYDRO AT BRANTFORD

City in Darkness Until Transformers Can Be Repaired.

BRANTFORD, March 23.—After six years of continuous service the local hydro-electric station has reached a crisis through the breakdown of transformers. Power is being rationed out to the different users in various shifts, and until the transformers are repaired the city will be in darkness, and only for a few hours during the day-time will electric cooking be permissible.

New quarters for the local headquarters of the Tenth Regiment Dragoons have been secured on Dalhousie street in the Shultz building.

The lower floor will be entirely renovated and changed into lecture rooms and store rooms. Officers' mess room will be on the second floor. The 32nd Howitzer Battery will also have quarters in the Shultz building.

LAD RUN OVER, BUT NOT SERIOUSLY HURT

Two Wheels of Car Passed Over Roy Gilbert.

STRATFORD, March 23.—Roy Gilbert, a local lad, had a narrow escape from severe injury this afternoon, when he was run over by an auto at the corner of Downie and Albert streets.

Albert and Roy Gilbert's car passed over his body, no bones were broken, but he was badly bruised.

For many years has conducted the Windsor Hotel, is retiring from active business, and the Windsor will be conducted by W. M. Douglass of Toronto, at one time manager of the St. Charles hotel.

Word has been received of the death at Montreal of P. J. Reynett, formerly the city engineer, who was the brother of Ralph Donaldson of this city. He was employed in the G. T. R., but left here some years ago.

According to W. G. Dixon, city employment officer, the unemployment situation in Stratford is not now so serious. Calls on this department are becoming fewer, and many of the unemployed are evidently finding work. At present there are 35 men in the employ of the city works department in addition to the regular staff.

Preliminary steps for the continuing of Red Cross work in an organized manner in Stratford were taken at a meeting of representatives from various women's organizations this afternoon. There was an enthusiastic spirit evinced, and Mrs. D. Beeson was selected convener. It is proposed to have a Toronto speaker visit the city soon to outline the plans in detail, at which time formal organization will take place.

GIVEN FIVE YEARS FOR ATTACKING CHILD

James Williams Is Found Guilty of Serious Charge
At Guelph.

GUELPH, March 23.—James Williams of this city was found guilty at the spring assizes of attempting to commit rape on a 7-year-old girl, and sentenced to five years in Kingston penitentiary.

J. A. Morat, acting for Mrs. Nellie Beisel of Marchboro Township, against whom there is an indictment for the murder of her infant illegitimate child, made application this afternoon to have her trial proceeded with at once. The application was opposed by Crown Prosecutor Jeffrey, on the ground that the case took a new turn when Colonel Laughan was tried for the murder of the child of Mrs. Beisel, and was found guilty of birth concealment, and also because the entire jury panel had heard the evidence in the Laughan case. Justice Masten denied Mr. Morat's application, and ordered that Beisel's trial proceed on the fall assizes. She was allowed out on $15,000 bail.

To Be Troubled With CONSTIPATION

THE CAUSE OF MANY ILLS

If you do not feel well and go to your family physician, one of the first things he will do is ask you to hold out your tongue. The reason for this is that the condition of the tongue shows the condition of the stomach and bowels.

If you allow your bowels to become constipated you will have bilious attacks, sick headaches, coated tongue, foul breath, heartburn, water brash, etc., and those troublesome piles, which cause so much annoyance and misery.

Keep your bowels moving regularly and you won't be sick.

In Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills you will find just the remedy you require for this purpose. They are purely vegetable and do not gripe, weaken or sicken.

Mr. James S. Harris, Box 394, Halifax, N. S., writes: "For two years I suffered with constipation. I could not get anything to cure me, and hardly anything would give me even temporary relief. One day my uncle induced me to try Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills, and even brought me a vial. I tried them without much faith, but I soon found they were doing me good, and after using the second vial I was relieved of my trouble."

Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills are 25c a vial at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price of The T. Milburn Company, Limited Toronto, Ont.

COAL SHORTAGE WAS RESULT OF GOVT. ACTION

Duncan Ross Scores Borden and Meighen For Indifference.

SITUATION IS ACUTE

Committee May Be Appointed
To Investigate Country's Fuel Problem.

OTTAWA, March 23.—(By Canadian Press).—A discussion of ways and means whereby Canada may insure an adequate supply of coal for the future featured today's sitting of the House of Commons. It was private members' day, and after the usual routine business, the House was called to order by the speaker, Mr. D. C. Ross (Middlesex), who was disposed of the decks cleared for a discussion of some of the proposals emanating from other than Government sources.

Mr. Michael Steele of South Perth was responsible for the discussion on Canada's fuel supply, when he moved that a committee be appointed to investigate the situation. He emphasized the gravity of the situation, the tremendous increase in coal prices, and the difficulty in getting a supply for some time past.

Future prospects were that Canada would require more coal than she could produce. Every effort, therefore, should be made to conserve the present supply and develop new fuel resources. Electrification of steam railways, and the establishing of central heating plants were suggested by Mr. Steele as a means for conserving coal. He also advised the adoption of some form of setting coal in order to see that the consumer got the grade for which he paid.

Major Beaman of the House seconded the resolution, emphasizing the importance of improving transportation facilities in order to get Alberta coal to the East. It would compete with the Pennsylvania product shipped to Ontario.

D. H. McKenzie of North Cape Breton declared that the supply of coal in Nova Scotia was extremely large, and that he would be glad to supply coal for bringing it up to Ontario. He suggested that ships carrying wheat overseas might get a cargo of coal in Nova Scotia, and return voyage and bring it up to Montreal for distribution in Ontario.

Debate on Dr. Steele's resolution was eventually adjourned, the prime minister suspending appointment of the parliamentary committee proposed.

Given First Reading.
A bill to amend the chronology of the railway act in certain minor respects was introduced by H. H. Stevens (Vancouver Centre), who introduced the bill. The House opened this afternoon. It was given first reading.

Premier Meighen, replying to a question asked by Jacques Bureau (Three Rivers), some days ago, said that the Government had received no communications from the international joint commission in regard to the Lake of the Woods levels, since 1916.

Premier Meighen also announced that the Government had decided, in view of increased salaries resulting from reclassification and reductions in the cost of living, to reduce the civil service bonus from 25 per cent to 20 per cent. Mr. Meighen explained that the bonus had been given to meet the abnormal increase in living costs. Last year it aggregated $12,500,000, bringing the total appropriation for the civil service up to $60,000,000.

J. Archambault (Yarborough) brought up the question of the grants by the department of agriculture to autumn shows of domestic animals and poultry. Present regulations provided that agricultural societies which have spent a minimum amount of $2,000 of their own money in their preceding year for the granting of prizes are entitled to a minimum grant of $2,500. Mr. Archambault moved that the minimum be reduced to $1,000, so that fair is a disease of the blood, and that with good, rich, red blood any man or woman of any age can defy rheumatism. There are many elderly people who have never felt a twinge of rheumatism, and many who have conquered it by simply keeping their blood rich and pure. The blood-enriching qualities of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills is becoming every year more widely known, and the more general use of these pills has robbed rheumatism of its terrors. At the first sign of poor blood, which is shown by loss of appetite, dull skin and dim eyes, protect yourself against further ravages of disease by taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. They have helped thousands of people if you give them a fair trial they will not disappoint you.

You can get these pills through any dealer in medicine or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Brockville, Ont.

In seconding the resolution, dwell particularly on Alberta's fuel resources. D. C. Ross (Middlesex) charged the present Government, and that of Sir Robert Borden with having galled with the fuel conservation question, and with having permitted it to become steadily worse. In the older portions of Ontario, he said, wood fuel was disappearing, with the result that the rural districts were daily growing more dependent upon outside coal.

In spite of the fact that Canada had 12 per cent of the coal supply of the world, this country was forced to take the humiliating position of asking the United States for enough coal to keep the wheels of industry turning, and the people from freezing. Last winter people living in the constituency of Middlesex paid as high as $23 a ton for coal. While the price was high, the difficulty in getting coal was more important. Should trouble arise between Canada and the United States, or the miners strike, people would find it impossible to get coal at all.

Up to Government.
It was the duty of the Government to see that the people secured coal at a reasonable price, even if money was lost in solving the problem.

D. W. Fisher (Wentworth North) declared the coal question was one which particularly interested Ontario and Quebec, in view of the lack of coal deposits in these provinces. He strongly supported the resolution.

H. B. Morphy (North Perth) thought the Government could seriously consider the nationalization of the coal industry. In twenty years it might be termed a success for not having done so. He would also give attention to the advisability of bounting the industry.

The prime minister, after referring to the great coal resources in the west, and the success which attended the experiments in briquetting, said the great question was that of freight. He feared that, while water-power would go a long way to help solve the fuel problem, yet it would not entirely solve the fuel problem for the eastern provinces. As he had said, he was delighted with the suggestion of the resolution, but he thought it better to give them an opportunity to discuss it.

Douglas (Cape Breton) moved the adjournment of the House at 6:12 p.m.

Hon. W. S. Fielding, before the House rose for the Easter recess, three Sir Henry Drayton, when the House reassembled on Tuesday, an idea as to when the House would be brought down. This, he said, would greatly facilitate the business yet to be transacted before the Easter recess, and his seat at this time, made no reply.

WILL PAY FOR BOOKS THAT WERE BURNED

ST. THOMAS, March 23.—The board of health has acknowledged its responsibility for the destruction of books of children who were found to be suffering with smallpox, although protest was made by the little ones, parents against the burning of the books.

The board ordered that the parents be recompensed for the loss of the books, and that school supplies hereafter found on the children affected with communicable diseases be fumigated.

RHEUMATIC SUFFERERS

May Obtain Relief by Enriching the Blood Supply.

In the days of our fathers and grandfathers, rheumatism was thought to be the inevitable penalty of middle life and old age. Almost every elderly person had rheumatism, as well as many young people. It was thought that rheumatism was the mere effect of exposure to cold and damp, and it was treated with liniments and hot applications which sometimes gave temporary relief, but did not remove the trouble. In these days there were many cripples. Now, medical science understands that rheumatism is a disease of the blood, and that with good, rich, red blood any man or woman of any age can defy rheumatism. There are many elderly people who have never felt a twinge of rheumatism, and many who have conquered it by simply keeping their blood rich and pure. The blood-enriching qualities of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills is becoming every year more widely known, and the more general use of these pills has robbed rheumatism of its terrors. At the first sign of poor blood, which is shown by loss of appetite, dull skin and dim eyes, protect yourself against further ravages of disease by taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. They have helped thousands of people if you give them a fair trial they will not disappoint you.

You can get these pills through any dealer in medicine or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Brockville, Ont.

FOSTER THE FARM.

There is an urgent demand for the better class of immigrants into Canada. Farms need more help, and the area of tillage should be rapidly extended. We have built our enormous mileage of railroads, which will eat their heads off if the country is not adequately and rapidly settled. Of course, the immigration must be carefully sifted from standpoints of political, social, moral and economic welfare. But still we must have the population for which we have so expensively provided.

At the same time there are 80,000 unemployed at present in this country. These men do not go to the farms and forests, doubtless because there are many of them unadapted for such work. But the main reason why the farm is not magnet is the economic discrimination made against the farmer by the tariff and taxation system which the Ottawa Government tenaciously maintains.

We have heard a good deal of declining prices in the last six months; these have been chiefly in the returns for farm produce. The farmer and the consumer are not benefitting as they should from price deflation.

The Liberal platform has declared flatly and frankly for an alleviation of the price and tax situation in Canada as affecting farmers and consumers. The Meighen clique has almost as clearly repudiated this idea. It should be possible for a skillful farmer to make a fortune as easily as tradespeople and middlemen. Only such a possibility will make the hard and rather lonesome work of the farm as attractive as the city office. This can never be while governments ignore the rights and wants of the agricultural population.

Canada has become top-heavy. The agricultural foundation must be strengthened. Then the railways will be made to pay, the national revenue will become adequate to reasonable expenditure, and the whole people will be morally and physically as well as financially better off. But as yet we are in the clutches of the Meighen Government, which neither wishes the farmer well, nor occupied as it is with hanging on to unearned power, has the ability or the desire to develop a considered agricultural and immigration policy. It is a deplorable condition of affairs for Canada.

GROWING NEW FORESTS. Citizens who read of the floods of fire and the amount of cutting in Canadian forests frequently inquire anxiously of foresters what the different Government forestry departments are doing in the way of planting trees. This anxiety is a very healthy sign, and shows the progress Canada is making in forest conservation, but at the present time the question is not so important as this one: "What are we doing to protect our forests?" This is not begging the first question, for a forest is not a dead thing, like a quarry or a mine, but a living thing more akin to a flock of sheep. If the flock is protected, it increases in numbers, and if the forest is protected it grows new crops of trees on the burned-over lands and replaces the trees cut for lumber. Lumbermen take the mature trees, but fire takes mature trees, saplings, seedlings, and even the soil in which the trees grow. In a country with such great areas of forest land, and with such a climate as Canada, nature will grow new forests rapidly if only given a chance. But even if it were not so, and planting were an absolute necessity to preserve Canadian forests, what would be the good of planting if our fire protection were so poor that we allowed these seedlings to be burned up a year after they were planted? Planting both in Europe and Canada is necessary in certain cases, but it cannot be undertaken until there is a reasonable assurance (as there is in the settled districts of the older provinces) that these plantings will be protected from fire. The first duty of Canadians is to protect their mature timber and their young forests from fire.

A NEW HUMORIST. At a meeting of No. 23, Army and Navy Veterans, held Tuesday night, Secretary Glennie read the following from a Buffalo paper:

"Hon. Charles E. Hughes, Secretary of State, Washington, D. C.: 'My Dear Sir—One of the great problems affecting the immediate prosperity of the United States and the world is the removal of the incubus of the foreign debt to the United States. It seems to me at first blush that the cessation of territory to us by foreign debtors would help in solving the difficulty. England has acquired more territory out of the war than is good for her or the rest of the world that she should have.'

"I suggest that it would be of MUTUAL advantage if Great Britain, in consideration of a discharge of a PART of the amount she owes us, would Cede TO THE UNITED STATES THAT PORTION OF CANADA LYING SOUTH OF A LINE EXTENDING TO THE WESTERN END OF LAKE ONTARIO TO THE JUNCTION OF LAKE HURON AND THE ST. CLAIR RIVER."

"Some of the ADVANTAGES to us would be: '1. It would GIVE TO THE UNITED STATES control of the waters of the Niagara River and permit the unhampered development of the electric power. It would also mean the creation of the greatest industrial centre of the world along the Niagara frontier. This development is now checked by the international boundary. It would GIVE TO THE UNITED STATES the ownership of the Welland Canal, and thus be an aid to commerce upon the Great Lakes."

"2. It would GIVE a more direct route from New York to Chicago. The advantages that would flow to that part of Canada and its inhabitants would be incalculable. It would bring this portion of Canada into unhampered trade relations with the whole of the United States, would permit them to participate in the great benefits of the development of Niagara power, would permit the commercial development of the St. Clair and Detroit Rivers, and the north shore of Lake Erie."

"I submit the suggestion for your consideration. Sincerely yours, 'CLARENCE MACGREGOR.'"

Clarence is a new member of Congress, and the above stamps him as a humorist of the first water. How an occasional outburst such as the above will add to the gaieties of life! Congress is assured against dullness while Clarence is on the job. One gloomy aspect is, however, that Sir Adam Beck and his friends may scent in Clarence's move a dark conspiracy to ditch hydro. That's the only objection we can register against Clarence, the Comic Congressman.

ALGONQUIN PARK. The natural beauty of the two provincial reservations, Algonquin and Rondeau Parks, suffers not at all by comparison. The quiet woods' loveliness of the latter holds as alluring an invitation as does the grandeur of panorama of lakes, rivers, wooded islands and vast extent of the former.

A late March snowfall in Algonquin Park leaves the great woods like fairyland, and a drive to the different camps or shelters is a way of witchery and beauty under a morning sky of deepest blue. Spring comes slowly, but her approach is heralded by the presence of the juncos, crossbills, purple finches, pine siskins and grosbeaks that are fed by the superintendant at headquarters every morning, to which feast the bluejays and crows occasionally come.

A recent return to headquarters of all the rangers brings the report of deer in abundance, in spite of the number killed by the wolves. The rangers are destroying quite a number of the latter, but it is very difficult to get rid of this menace to the deer life of the park.

With the first promise of continued warmth the ice will go off the lakes almost by magic, and a balmy day invites exploration by canoe of the sunny points of the islands. Delicate pink and white arbutus, with its fragrance so surprisingly sweet, is found very early in certain places of the islands where the sun's work is sheltered. Then there are the vines, twinflower, snowberry and wintergreen, mingled with prince's pine, and the mosses of varying tints. Lichen with its silvery sheen covering the great rocks, mosses, club moss and staghorn, the latter so lovely in its vinelike growth. There are, too, the interesting pitcher plants, so quaint and queer in their forms, big pitchers and little ones, just learning the wonderful art for which they were made. Plenty of ferns have lived under the snow all winter, and the great rocks will be alive with fluttering, green, lacelike polypody ferns with the passing of their snow covering and the playing of the warm winds.

Gradually over the wooded heights everywhere will dawn that golden green of new leaves, so elusive of description, so different from the settled green of summer. Mingling of this delicate color with the dark glow of the various evergreens will make possible the watching of the real miracle of dawning spring. Our provincial park to the north has a magnificence of pictures for every season.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Clear, dry weather is reported from Europe. That will make the roads good for the march to Berlin, which now seems inevitable.

Next to Russia, Canada possesses the richest natural resources. What is needed at Ottawa is a government that will harness this heritage to the task of wiping out our stupendous financial obligations.

The country will not readily approve of Hon. Mr. Lemieux's suggestion that a senator be permitted to participate in Commons affairs so long as the Senate is made up by appointments. The business of the Commons should be handled by those who represent the people by the direct method of the ballot.

LETTERS

THE GARFIELD PETITION. To the Editor of The Advertiser: I notice in today's Advertiser that a Mr. E. A. Westland intends to circulate petitions for commutation to imprisonment on behalf of Norman Garfield, who was found guilty by two good men and true on a charge of murder.

I wonder if Mr. Westland would do this supposing it was his own brother who was shot down? It is very doubtful.

Another thing I would like to say before the public signs this petition. Mr. Johnson was a married man and father. What about that poor wife who is left alone in the world to fight the battle of life alone, excepting the comfort of that dear little child? Yes, and what about the child, who no doubt made around his daddy's knees each night after his work was done, and knew what a father's love was, and who even now is asking her mamma when will her daddy come home? Mothers and fathers, we must think twice before we sign these petitions. Our mothers, sisters and wives must be protected, and every man known should know that when he goes out to commit crime he must pay the penalty. Norman Garfield knew, and he did not stop to think. It's not these men that suffer; it's their parents and friends who have to bear the disgrace. We must not let our sympathy run away with us. Of course we all sympathize with Norman Garfield's wife. But we must not let that interfere with the law. They are man-made laws, made for the protection of the Canadian people, and if they were relaxed, we would not be safe on the city streets.

Mr. Johnson was shot dead in cold blood in his own home by Norman Garfield, who went there to commit robbery. He was an old offender; it was not his first offence. He had all kinds of chances to redeem himself, and make good, but he ignored them. He intended to live a life of crime. Therefore, I say, that the making that the majority will concur with me in saying, let the law take its course. It will be a reason to other young men growing up. It may be the turning-point in their lives, and put them on the right road to truth, honesty and justice.

VERY BLUE. [Halifax Chronicle.] The book containing the estimates for the ensuing fiscal year has been fittingly intoned in blue covers. It is indeed a "blue" document. It foretells a huge deficit on the Canadian National Railway, and in spite of the fact that the demobilization expenses have been greatly reduced, and there are decreases in pension and other expenditures on behalf of returned soldiers, the Government proposes the staggering expenditure of over $82 million dollars, an increase of 44 millions as compared with the main estimates of last year. The only "dash away and spend" is the Government's translation for "economy."

DAYLIGHT SAVING. [Victoria, B. C., Times.] Even if the other provinces of Canada do not favor the adoption of daylight saving, there appears to be a majority of British Columbia ready to support an act of the Legislature to unify conditions during the summer months. As far as Victoria is concerned, the majority in favor of the additional hour of daylight is practically two to one. Vancouver put its clocks ahead last year, and operated without much inconvenience, although the referendum submitting the proposal this year was defeated by a narrow margin. It may be supposed, however, that many voted because of the apparent desire to avoid as much as possible a patch-work system.

WOMEN PAY. [Ottawa Journal.] The immense sum of $379,702,600 was paid by 266,000 single women of the United States last year in the form of income tax. This not only indicates a colossal principal, but the important place which women now occupy in the state. The term "housewife" includes widows, divorcees and women who have been separated from their husbands—each slightly alters its superficial significance. This statistical fact alone is not necessary to give point to the change which a century of active house-making has brought into the life of the American republic. Women are everywhere identified with commerce and finance. They stand side by side with men in the counting house and factory.

RAILROAD LOAD TOO HEAVY. [Vancouver Sun.] In January, 1915, the Canadian Pacific Railway paid for operating expense $4,000,000. In January, 1921, the Canadian Pacific Railway paid for operating expense $13,234,000. While as a matter of bookkeeping it is correct to say that "the Canadian Pacific Railway paid," as a matter of actual fact the people of Canada paid $9,234,000 more for the transportation services of the C. P. R. in January, 1921, than they did in January, 1915. This increase enters into the cost of the necessities of life taken into every home in Canada, and directly increases the cost of living.

There is no possible or real value given for this tremendous increase in transportation cost, and there is not business enough and not money enough in Canada to continue paying them.

Compelled by the board of railway commissioners to continue operating under American war rules and schedules, our Canadian roads appear helpless in the matter of getting transportation business back to normal.

No matter how the thing is figured, business throughout the country cannot and will not go ahead until this load is lifted.

If the railway board will not remove these obnoxious and unwelcome rules now crippling our railways, the task will have to be assumed by Parliament.

THE ULSTER PROPAGANDA. James Ray, president of the Ulster League of North America, writes to the Boston Herald: "It having been called to my attention that a widespread public appeal has just been made by the American committee for relief in Ireland in aid of distress said to prevail among the people of that country. This committee makes the official statement that 20,000 shipyard men and their families in Ulster are near starvation. Personal Health Service

(By WILLIAM BRADY, M.D., Noted Physician and Author.)

The Menace of Typhus—Typhus fever, one of the victims being a Brooklyn boy, has occurred in New York up to the time this is written. The New York health commissioner has endeavored in vain to protect the people of New York city and of the country at large from a fresh accession of coolies from Europe.

body like being the carriers of typhus fever. The federal authorities in control of the port have thus far successfully supported the right of the coolies to place in the ship of the potential American citizen. In an inspection of some 32 immigrants at the Battery after they had been admitted by federal guards, health commissioner's staff found 32 infected with body lice.

Which goes to show that the European stock of vermin has friends among the personnel of the federal administration, or else that immigration inspectors need some new glasses. Twenty-one cases of typhus fever on one ship and fifteen on another bearing pilgrims to the land of promise ought to arouse some slight concern for the safety of the country, no matter how many coolies may be ruthlessly excluded. Three out of four persons sent to Long Island College Hospital from the steamship President Wilson, as cases of pneumonia, were found to have typhus fever, and were promptly returned to quarantine.

Bearing in mind the agency of the body louse in transmitting typhus, common names for typhus fever assume great significance: jill fever, ship fever, camp fever, and in some parts of Europe) hospital fever. Another common name suggests a change in the sign of typhus, fever, spotted fever, or rat fever, as was observed in New York city for years under the name of "Brill's disease."

Epidemics of typhus occurred in

New York in 1881-82 and in 1893-94, and in Philadelphia in 1883. One of the peculiar features of these outbreaks was

Flax grows to from twenty to forty inches high. When the leaves turn brown, the plants are pulled up by the roots, in dry weather by hand; the seeds and leaves are removed, the plants are then separated from the roots, and the inner fibres are removed. Short fibres are then separated from long fibres by machinery, and the fibres are drawn together into a thick strand, called a roving, slightly twisted, which is then spun into yarn. Flax fibres require moisture for spinning and the warp threads must be twisted harder than the wool.

Linen is bleached mostly in the cloth, by a long process, because the fibres resist bleaching; it is best done by dew and sun, as chemicals are apt to injure the fibre. Linen does not dye well; it does not take, nor hold color so well as cotton.

FOR LOVE OF BETTY

(BY MAY CHRISTIE.)

(Copyright, 1920, by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)

XIV.—"THE BANKRUPTCY NOTICE."

Jack Trevor, in the three days in which he had been absent from Betty, had been extraordinarily busy.

The telegram which had broken so abruptly into his rendezvous with Betty had been dispatched by his general manager in New York, and proved so peremptory that Trevor had had to heed it. It could not be ignored.

April's conduct had been decidedly odd. It seemed a strange coincidence that the letter in which she freed him and herself from their engagement should arrive on the very morning that the papers announced his financial ruin.

He wondered from what source the erroneous information came. . . .

Who more likely to have played the part of lying informant than Charlie Davon?

It must have been he, too, who had put the notice in the paper. Or if it wasn't him, then it was the handwriting of some one in league with him.

Heavens, he'd bring a libel suit against the rogue, if it only knew for certain! Trevor's young face was squarely set. "It's a damn monkey trick that I've been summoned up to see you about," he said to himself.

The grim look faded as he recollected that if it was he, the said "monkey trick" on the part of the unknown person, the said "monkey trick" would probably still be tied to April Moore.

"I ought to say 'Good luck to him!'" the bad turn's been in truth a good turn, for it's given me Betty."

His smile was one of his greatest charms, and now it broke out radiantly. "I'll willingly put up with any temporary dislocation that may occur in business through it."

The interview with his business manager surely wouldn't be a lengthy one? For an ecstatic moment Trevor thought it might be possible to get back to The Sheaf of Wheat tonight.

But common sense told him that this interview would necessarily lead to others, which, in turn, would absorb the whole of tomorrow, and perhaps the next day.

Well, he could go through it—for at the end of it all was Betty Gordon!

He was wrapped in happy dreams of her, when the train glided smoothly into the station. How glaring the lights were, after the dimness of the night, and the delicate moonlight of the country!

He found his business manager worried and anxious. The lying notice in sale in aid of the chapter funds on Monday afternoon next at 34½ Talbot street.

UNION MOTHERS' CLUB CONCERT. A big money-making scheme for the Children's Hospital fund is being undertaken by the mothers' clubs of the city, which are trying to put on the presentation of a big concert to be held in the city on April 21. Among the numbers promised for this very fine concert will be national and interpretative dances.

DRAMA LEAGUE PLAY. The Drama League cast for the presentation of Jerome K. Jerome's interesting play, "The Servant Problem," has been partially selected, a first reading of the play being held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George McCormick, on Tuesday evening. The cast, as selected so far, includes Mrs. Arthur Brinkenden, Mrs. E. H. Johnson, Miss Amy Strain, Miss Madeleine Simon, Miss Neville, Miss W. Dance, Miss H. McMillan, Col. Lyon Evans, Mr. R. F. Simon, Mr. J. Meredith, and Kenneth Greene, with J. S. Meredith as director and producer. Regular rehearsals will begin next week, the public presentation to be probably made on May 9.

Cynthia Grey's Mail-Box. Every thought we think, images itself in the mind and every image is bound to materialize.—Jean Porter Ruddy.

A Troubled Conscience. Dear Miss Grey,—Will you kindly answer this question for me: If a club of prizes through the first of the season, should they throw off to let someone else win the end of the season, if they could win the prizes? Thanking you in advance for your answer.

A SUBSCRIBER. Ans.—Apparently you have a guilty conscience, or you would not ask this question. It rests entirely with yourself, if you think you should, by all means do so.

Spring. Dear Miss Grey,—I've had it on my mind to write ever since the discussion of books started, but just kept putting it off. However, when someone steps in and uses my pen name, it makes me sure I don't quite know it. I've forgiven the lady who has done this, and I've forgiven the pattern she was asking for. Am I too late for a satchel bag? If not I would like to have one made for me. I have two authors I am very fond of: Nellie McClung is one, Ralph Connor and Basil King, of course. Gene Stratton-Porter I've read several of Jack London's and enjoyed them, and I've read "The Call of the Wild" but as so many of the writers to our Page say, one just can't name them all. I love a good detective yarn, too.

HUGH NIVEN CHAPTER. The Hugh Niven Chapter, I. O. O. F., is arranging to hold a rummage sale.

At a meeting of the Children's Hospital committee held yesterday afternoon at the Y. W. C. A. residence, King street, the committee decided on the holding of a rummage sale in the armories at the last week of April, as a means of raising more money for the hospital.

The report of the honorary treasurer, Mrs. C. T. Campbell, showed that the hospital fund balance was now $3,474.24, a second rummage sale had recently handed over to the hospital building committee. A report as to the progress of the hospital stated that the roof would probably be on by the end of May, and that if everything went well the hospital would be finished this year.

E. E. Labarr, manager and promoter of the Farnham, Quebec, race meets, is claiming June 17 and 18 for the spring meet in the eastern town. All purses this year will be of $500 value or better.

Abby Robinson, the well known racing promoter, of Woodstock, has been taking a well-earned rest this winter. He now has his "shoes on" and getting ready to stage several big meets this season.

Zowie! Single G, 1:59, Louie Grant, 2:00, Sanardo, 2:00 1/2, Grace Dittan, 2:00 1/2, Hal Mahone, 2:01 1/2, Red Lancelot, 2:02 1/2, and John R. Braden, 2:03 1/2, are named in the free-for-all racing sweepstakes. What a line-up!

Although in a terrible condition, the get of Peter Volo in Patcha Wilkes was in great demand at the Lexington sale. Poor as they were, four of them sold for an average of $122, and the three trotting mares averaged a little less than $400.

It is quite probable that the Charter Oak stake at Hartford will be split in three divisions this year. With the 2:13 trot for $5,000, 2:08 trot, $3,000, and 2:04 trot $10,000. Any horse that takes a winrace record of better than 2:10 on or before September 3 must start in the 2:04 trot. The entrance fee will be $250 in each division.

One of the chronic ringers that Mr. Goehner will not have to worry about any more is the mare of many hues, Edna L, 2:09 1/2, which also has appeared on the harness turf under different names. E. Roland Ward of Hyde Park, Mass., has bought the mare for export to England.

Eunice Bell, 2:17 1/4, now three, and sister of Aron Guy, 2:04 1/2, has just been sold by Senator Bailey to Tommy Murphy, who made the purchase. It is supposed, for Mr. A. H. Coeden. The latter just recently bought Margaret Parrish, 2:04 1/2, dam of the line-up, and the three trotting mares averaged a little less than $400.

Cald, 2:07 1/2, the most successful American trotting sire ever exported to Austria-Hungary, died recently of Cerebro-Spinal at the age of 28. He was a son of Highwood, 2:11 1/2, by Nutwood, 2:18 1/2, and was sold to go abroad in 1892. He won the European championship at Baden, and at Vienna trotted two miles in 4:27 1/2, then the world's record for the distance. It is estimated that his offsprings have won more than $1,000,000 in purses and stakes.

Milton Pierce of Longwood, Ont., has broke and is driving his three-year-old colt, by Hindenburg, 4:24 1/2, out of a registered mare imported from the United States. She is very prominent and along with others in the near future will be proving that the Canadian-owned son of the Harvester, 2:01, is a sire of extreme speed.

DEMPSEY SAYS HE DRAWS COLOR LINE

CALGARY, Alta., March 23.—Jack Dempsey, who is here today, expressed pleasure at the new arrangement for his fight with Carpenter on a percentage basis instead of a straight guarantee. He said he believed the fight would draw a million and a half dollars.

"And here is something else I have never told the world yet," said the champion. "I will never accept a challenge from a colored man. I absolutely draw the color line."

RYERSON SCHOOL PUPIL
VOLLEY-BALL CHAMPION

The individual volleyball championship in the public schools was won last night by Miss Margaret Laing, a pupil of Ryerson school. A game between the Blues and the Reds was played, following a meeting of the Ryerson Literary Society, the game being won by the Blues, of which Miss Laing is a member.

The teachers and pupils of Grade 8 of Ryerson school were entertained by Ryerson School, and during the evening a beautiful bouquet of roses and violets was presented to Miss Laura Cook, a teacher, who is active in the sports direction of Ryerson school.

Wilson, who is a third-rater, is in the class occupied by modern middleweights like Ketchick, Frank Klaus, George Chip or Billy Pappke. AS YOU WERE

Now that we lead the larger life, and lovely woman has her innings. A learned judge declares a wife may share her husband's poker winnings. The wife, he tells us, earns the right, by helping bear her husband's burdens. When he's been gambling half the night, to frisk him of his guerdons.

Too much discretion we have got to treat this dictum with derision. And yet we hope that wives will not place too much faith on this decision. It may be fair, it may be just, it may be law, we'll not deny it. Yet wives won't be deceived, we trust, and think they're going to profit by it.

For we ourselves, in days of old, of our untrammelled choice decided To give our spouse one-half the gold our boasted skill at draw provided; We held that she who shared our name and kept our pipe and slippers handy Should have a hat from every game, or, anyway, a box of candy.

On rosy hope our fancy fed, we'd pile up stakes on small beginnings. But though full many a year has fled, she still is waiting for those winnings; And though a hundred nights a year still resolutely we endeavor, For better luck, we sort of fear that she will wait for them forever!

The London and District Football Association's council is letting some valuable time slip by in not organizing the junior soccer game in the city immediately.

Provision has been made by the council to take up junior soccer, but thus far nothing has been done, and there are several teams already in existence, just waiting for a city league to be formed.

The Sarnia end of the L. and D. F. A. have organized the juniors, and Windsor has also gone ahead in the same way, and in both places the response from the youth has been a splendid one.

The London and District no doubt intends to do something, but whatever their intentions, too much time is being wasted when it should be taken up in getting the junior soccer organized.

Just how strong the demand for soccer among the youngsters is was shown in a practice held by the Machine Gun regulars last Saturday. The younger members of the unit were invited out to give the team a workout, and over forty boys were lined up to give the desired, but unexpected opposition.

W. J. Finlay in the Free Press says: "The University of Toronto boys turned the trick. They did it in a clean-cut and commanding manner that at the finish there was not the least doubt in the mind of even the most partisan fan that the better team had won. All the more glory to the students for the manner in which they did it, though it was a mighty hard blow to the Winnipeg hockey colony, which had visions of the cup remaining in Manitoba for another year at least, after the sparkling display of the Brandonites in the first game. But the Winnipeg City boys were over their heads in that opening conflict or the easterners were below form."

"Jim Ching" in the Tribune says: "Although losing heavily last night, Brandon were not disgraced, because they were beaten by the best hockey team that has ever come west for the coveted silver mug. In past years the East sent good teams West, but none had the speed nor vision in following in on the net that University of Toronto have. The western cup finalists generally had a wide margin on eastern teams on hard ice, but this time it was entirely different, as Brandon showed up fast on heavy ice, while Toronto cut-skated and out-generated them on a hard surface. Another thing that the new champions have that many former challengers have lacked is the college spirit, and the ability to go into the game all the time to win, no matter how adverse the conditions."

A certain percentage of the fighting once or twice and they usually correct the particular fault about which you complain.

The chances of the Giants depend largely on the showing of Goldie Rapp, the new third baseman, do not want to go into ecstasies about Rapp, but he looks as if he will make good. I do not want to say that he is a perfect fielder, or even an approach to one. He also has a bad way of hitting which John McGraw is trying to correct, and he is getting restless. We will have to wait and see how he does against real opposition. We expect the series with Cleveland at Dallas on Saturday and Sunday to give us a valuable line in that direction.

Maybe? Rioran says that "Babe" Ruth could bring peace to Russia.

A lotta pitchers in the American League think so, too.

Wilson Not So Bad. In estimating the ability of Johnny Wilson, comparison has been made with former middleweight titlholders, including Jack Dempsey, the Nonpareil; Fitzsimmons, Tommy Ryan and others. Those who saw those famous fighters in action know that in comparison, Wilson is a third-rater.

As a matter of fact, Wilson is not in the class occupied by modern middleweights like Ketchick, Frank Klaus, George Chip or Billy Pappke. The writer doubts that Wilson would have been able to score decisively over Al McCoy, and Mike Gibbons, Jack Dillon, Eddie McCarty, Jimmy Clabby and some others in their prime outclassed the present

MIDGETS FAVORED TO BEAT OFF THE
WESTERN ATTACK

Allan Cup Games Inspired Visitors, But Classic City Crew Are Careful and Confident.

Once more a Falcon team comes out of Winnipeg to try and wrest hockey laurels from the east. But this time it will be the Junior Falcons, and not the great senior team which brought so much glory to Canada at Antwerp a year ago. The Junior Falcons, holders of the Abbott Cup, emblematic of the junior hockey championship of the western provinces by Stratford Midgels, who have just finished up, beating the best in the east, two games in the O. H. A. Memorial Cup, at the Arena tomorrow night and Saturday.

The Falcons come heralded as a team of speedy players. If they have the combination along with their speed, they will be hard to beat. But the O.H.A. Junior champions are not small by any means, and in addition they have team play down to a science.

The Midgets have come through a hard season's campaign. They have beaten the best down this way, and though they may not be the great team which represented Toronto Canoe Club last season, they will go into the series with the western champions decided favorites. That Mores-Carson combination has gained a lot of respect here in Toronto. Anyway two fine games should result.

Apparently the Pacific coast champions slipped one over the Senators in the first game. Whenever Lemann, in the Millionaire's net, blocked a shot he immediately passed the puck out to a waiting teammate, who would be looting in the no man's land territory and start the attack.

Bank Championship. The bank championship game between the Dominion Bank of Toronto and the Royal Bank of Montreal will be decided at the Arena Monday night.

These two teams recently played a tie round, and the two games were great struggles.

Shoe Trades Team. The Hamilton Tigers defeated the Boston Shoe Trades team, 4 to 3, in Boston last night.

Dufresne Back. Dufresne, being given an amateur card, and then being allowed to play hockey for the Boston Shoe Trades team, has brought about a mix-up in U. S. hockey. The Shoe Trades team has been back into the running for the American title. They will play Boston A. A. a sudden-death game, and if successful in winning will go to Elyeth, Minn., and play two games there, returning to Boston later for two more games. The winner will then play Cleveland a series. If Boston A. A. defeat the Shoe Trades team, then Cleveland will go on and play Elyeth in the finals, as originally arranged.

Tiger. The Hamilton Tigers defeated the Boston Shoe Trades team, 4 to 3, in Boston last night.

Four Teams Will Make Up the League this year. Paris having been dropped and a new team suggested, the entry fee to all teams was raised from $10 to $25.

BRANTFORD WILL HAVE FOUR SENIOR TEAMS

BRANTFORD, March 23.—The Brantford Senior Baseball League was re-organized at an enthusiastic meeting here tonight. Allen Valey, a prominent baseball man, was the unanimous choice for president. George Mosely is this year's vice-president and Jack Cook secretary.

Four teams will make up the league this year. Paris having been dropped and a new team suggested, the entry fee to all teams was raised from $10 to $25.

HAD AN ANNOYING HACKING COUGH GOT NO REST AT NIGHT.

Hacking coughs are very wearing on the system. The constant coughing disturbs the rest, and keeps the lungs and bronchial tubes in such an irritated and inflamed condition, that unless you get immediate relief the cough may become settled and serious lung trouble ensue.

There is no better remedy than Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup for relieving all kinds of coughs or colds, combining as it does the lung healing virtues of the pine tree with which is combined wild cherry bark, and the soothing and healing expectorant properties of other excellent herbs and barks.

Mrs. E. J. Ross, Penhold, Alta., writes: "About three years ago I caught a very bad cold, accompanied with a sore throat and hoarseness. I was so hoarse you could not hear me speak. I could get no rest at night with the terrible annoying, hacking cough. I tried several remedies, but they did me no good. I finally saw Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup advertised, so I got a bottle. It at once gave me relief, and after using four of them my cough had all gone. Now I always keep it in the house."

"Dr. Wood's" is put up in a yellow wrapper; three pine trees the trade mark. Price 35c and 60c a bottle. Manufactured only by The T. Milburn Company, Toronto, Ont.

WOULD GIVE RAILWAY BOARD ABSOLUTE CONTROL OF ALL ELECTRIC RAILWAY FARES

London is Vitrally Affected by New Bill Proposed in Ontario Legislature—Any Orders Issued Would Be Binding For Five Years.

(Special to The Advertiser.)

Toronto, March 23.—Absolute control by the Ontario Railway and Municipal Board of electric railway fares throughout the whole province is proposed in a measure introduced for first reading into the Ontario Legislature today by Charles McCrea, Conservative member for Sudbury. The bill is similar to that proposed by Mr. McCrea at the last session, and which on that occasion was regarded as an effort to secure increased fares on the Toronto Street Railway.

It is suggested on this occasion that the measure is directed at the electric railway situation in London.

Included in the terms of the bill are four important proposals. The first makes all electric railway fares subject to the approval of the Ontario Railway Board; the second makes it possible for the council of any municipality, with the approval of the board, to enter into agreement with a railway company without a vote of the people on matters affecting other than franchise rights.

Aims at London.

The third, which would seem to particularly affect London, sets forth that 60 days after the board has taken possession of an electric railway, the municipal council and the company having failed to reach an agreement, the board shall, upon the application of either party, "make such orders as it deems just and reasonable," such order to be binding on both parties, subject to the right of either party to apply for a revelion thereof at the expiration of any fifth year thereafter upon one year's previous notice to the other party.

The fourth proposal is that where a company's franchise has expired and the municipality does not desire to take over the operation of the road, the company may apply to the Ontario Railway Board for the right to increase fares.

For Five Years.

Should the act pass the Legislature in its present form the London Electric Railway situation could be adjusted to whatever the arrangements of the Ontario Railway Board might see fit to impose and the people of London would be subjected to a period of five years.

The industrial rehabilitation committee of the Legislature this afternoon recommended that the workmen's compensation act be amended by providing for therapeutic treatment and medical attention within a reasonable time after injury to crippled workmen in the province.

Made Much Strider.

The bill when introduced will be known as the industrial rehabilitation act and besides providing for such medical treatment as the compensation board may deem necessary, will further provide re-education of the man who has been incapacitated and will also provide for assistance in securing suitable employment.

The proposed legislation also provides that these benefits shall be paid by the board out of the accident fund, and the necessary amount shall be included in assessment levied upon the employers.

W. H. Casselman, Dundas, and Major Tomlin, Windsor, expressed opinion that the bill would be too late to become fully operative this year.

On motion of Major Tomlin, seconded by Col. W. T. Price, the committee decided to recommend that the report be printed and that legislative action be deferred until next session.

May Be Superannuated.

An amendment was made today to the police magistrates act by the Ontario Legislature in committee of the whole, providing that any municipality may superannuate a magistrate on his attaining the age of 70 years.

J. W. Curry, K.C., member for South-east Toronto, said that he had discussed the matter with Col. Denison, police magistrate of Toronto, and that he approved of his case being dealt with by means of legislation of this kind.

H. Hartley Dewar, K.C., Liberal leader, wanted to know if the attorney-general had any person in mind as a possible successor to Col. Denison. The attorney-general replied in the negative.

The member for South-west Toronto was absolutely opposed to the bill, as he thought it was only adding to the centralization of power in the hands of the attorney-general. Hon. G. Howard Ferguson, looking in the direction of J. W. Curry, said the Legislature could not afford to lose a member at the present time.

The magistrates act was further amended so that the lieutenant-governor-in-council may make regulations for the appointment and remuneration of a shorthand writer in any city police court, and the said remuneration shall be paid by the corporation of the city.

Allowed To Proceed.

While answering J. A. Pinard (West Ottawa) as to the number of applications made by J. W. Curry, K.C. (South-east Toronto) for remission of fines or sentences under the Ontario temperance act, Hon. W. E. Raney read a communication he had received from the chairman of the board of license commissioners.

Already this session, Hon. Nelson Parliament, speaker of the Legislature, had ruled that ministers were entitled to answer the questions and proceed no further. Hon. Thomas Crawford, who this afternoon was acting speaker, ruled that the attorney-general was entitled to read the Flavelle memorandum in so far as it was upon this memorandum that he had founded his reply to the member for Ottawa.

Hon. W. E. Raney, in his answer, had said that no record was kept of such cases as Mr. Pinard was inquiring about, and that it would take months to secure the information required.

Having said this, the attorney-general read his communication from Mr. Flavelle, in which the chairman of the license board stated that he believed that the percentage of cases for which Mr. Curry claimed clemency was lower than the average among all the lawyers.

Ferguson Objects.

Hon. G. Howard Ferguson contended that the answer was not an answer at all and should not be allowed to go on the records of the House.

The prime minister said that many of the questions asked by members were not for the purpose of securing definite pieces of information but were "of an exploratory nature." If the member for Ottawa would ask for a return of the facts he would get it.

"After all, the House controls the Government, and the House represents the people," said Hon. G. Howard Ferguson. "Members of this House are responsible to the people and are entitled to the information, no matter how long it takes to secure it."

Again the attorney-general said that it would be impossible to secure the information before prorogation.

Not Asking Much.

Mr. Pinard said that he was not asking for very much information. He only wanted to know of matters from the time my friend (J. W. Curry, K.C.) was ready, body and soul, to help the Farmer Government.

Hon. G. Howard Ferguson gained his point in so far as the answer given by the attorney-general will not go on the record of the House. A return will be made to the House with the information desired.

Hon. W. E. Raney informed C. H. Buchanan (South Wellington) that the Government expected to pay Arthur Hawkes the services in connection with the hydro radial inquiry. The attorney-general said that Mr. Hawkes was engaged by the Government to assist him. The Government was paying Mr. Robertson and his assistants.

WINDSOR MAN TO FACE CHARGE OF MURDERING WIFE

John Warlow Will Be Arrested When He Leaves the Hospital.

WINDSOR, March 23.—When John Warlow leaves the hospital in a few days' time he will be arrested and charged with the murder of his wife, Louisa, Crown Attorney Urquhart stated today. Two police officers are still keeping constant vigil over Warlow's bedside. The decision to place a formal charge of murder against Warlow was reached following the verdict of the coroner's jury.

S. A. C. Branch Closing.

The Border Cities branch of the Soldiers' Aid Commission will be closed at the end of the month, according to an announcement made by Col. W. J. Douglas, officer in charge, today. Col. Douglas stated that offices in nearly all the cities and towns of Ontario were being closed. Officers are still maintained at Toronto, Ottawa, Hamilton and London. Decrease of work is the cause of closing of the office here.

Made Their Escape.

Shots were exchanged between provincial police officers and occupants of an auto in Essex East Township. When the occupants discovered they were being followed they deserted the motor, making their escape through the corn fields. The police found a quantity of liquor in the auto, which bears a Michigan State license number.

Restrict Railway Entrance.

That all railways should be required to enter the border cities to the south instead of along the riverfront, thus making available a considerable acreage for park purposes, is the suggestion being made by a number of prominent citizens.

The proposal would give the border cities the most attractive riverfront of any city on the continent. A union depot centrally located, to which all lines would converge, is also proposed in connection with the scheme. The matter is to be presented to the various municipal councils interested at an early date.

Opposed to Tax.

Opposition was voiced at a meeting of the Walkerville Town Council to the proposed government tax of $2 per horsepower on the motor vehicle.

The Walkerville Council made a grant of $1,000 to the motor vehicle safety fund. The work being accomplished by this organization in the border cities was favorably commented upon by members of the town council.

Grand Trunk officials in a communication addressed to the town clerk of Walkerville express the view that the question of replacing the dangerous Peabody Bridge over the G. T. R. tracks on Sandwich street is entirely one to be dealt with by the town council of Walkerville. At a meeting of the council it was decided to reopen the matter with the Grand Trunk officials, pointing out that they are also interested.

CLAIM ROAD WORK

Resolution Is Sent From Cedar Springs To Highways Minister.

CEDAR SPRINGS, March 23.—At a representative meeting of the Cedar Springs Farmers' Club and the ratepayers an interesting discussion took place, after which the following resolution was carried:

To Hon. Mr. Biggs—"We, the members of the Cedar Springs Farmers' Club and the ratepayers of this district, protest the action of the present superintendent on that portion of the provincial highway extending from the limits of the town of Blenheim westward through the village of Cedar Springs to the Union Church, Paroville. We feel, sir, that he is not receiving sufficient work for the money expended, and therefore respectfully request you to give the matter thorough investigation. Signed on behalf of the club: Charles Cummer, president; A. H. Thompson, secretary."

SEES TROUBLE FOR QUEBEC IN LABOR MOVEMENT

Minister of Labor Warns Against Racial and Religious Strife.

FEARS DISCRIMINATION

Fortin Charges Dept. With Only Recognizing International Unions.

OTTAWA, March 23.—(By Canadian Press).—That racial and religious strife are the possible outcome of the growth of the Quebec Catholic labor movement was the warning conveyed by Hon. G. D. Robertson, minister of labor, to a delegation representing these organizations which met him today.

The delegation came to submit a program of legislation which it drafted at a convention held by the Catholic Unions at Chicoutimi, Quebec, and the item which provoked the minister's warning was a request that the Catholic Unions be given representation in the building trades conference to be held in Ottawa on May 3, next.

Urged Caution. "Last year I pleaded with your organization," declared the minister to Abbe Fortin, who headed the labor men, "to proceed very carefully along the lines sets in the mind of the people that in your province for a man to get along in his work he must accept a certain religious guidance, it will not be conducive to the improvement of relations between your province and other parts of the Dominion."

Would Cause Trouble. "You have charged discrimination by the department against your union, yet you make it necessary for a member of your organization to be of a certain faith. What would be the result if the Methodists, say, in Ontario should band together and ask the employers to employ only Methodists? I am sure that, not only Catholics, but Protestants as well, would rise against such a movement."

Abbe Fortin charged the department with recognizing only the international trade unions, despite the fact that Catholic Federated Unions in Quebec numbered between 40,000 and 50,000 members. He urged that equal consideration be given his organization, declaring that such is being done in practically every European country where Catholic, Socialist and Protestant unions exist. He further contended that the labor section of the peace treaty made such provision.

Has No Say in It. Senator Robertson pointed out to the delegation that the building trades conference referred to had not been organized by the Government, but by members of the international unions and of the builders, consequently the minister could not dictate to either party that a third party should be admitted. Furthermore, he explained that the agreement of all nations subscribing to the peace treaty was that each country should recognize associations of employers and associations of labor which would give each class the greatest representation. In Canada these organizations were respectively the Canadian Manufacturers' Association and the Dominion Trades and Labor Congress.

Ernest Lapointe, member for Quebec East, who introduced the deputation, protested against the decision of the minister, in recognizing only international unions.

LLOYD GEORGE GIVES FACTS ABOUT IRELAND

Quickly Silences Asquith Criticism Regarding Recent Rebel Executions.

ELECTIONS TO BE HELD

Negotiations Held Up Because Ireland Has No Courageous Leader.

LONDON, March 23.—An Irish debate was raised in House of Commons today by Francis Dyke Akland, in appealing to the Government to act with magnanimity before Easter. He advocated the summoning of a constituent assembly to choose the form of an Irish constitution. The members who supported Mr. Akland made much play of the analogous situation in South Africa.

Former Prime Minister H. H. Asquith criticized the Government's failure to employ the same vigor in vindicating the law in Ireland against the crown forces as against the Sinn Feiners and, in suggesting that the Government again get in touch with the representatives of the Irish people, said it was useless to lay down impossible conditions in such negotiations.

Gives the Facts. Replying to Mr. Asquith's indictment of the Government in connection with the executions at Mount Joy and elsewhere, Asquith said that two of the men executed at Mount Joy were murderers, and that the other four were engaged in an ambush to kill policemen; they were taken when one of them was shot. He gave similar details of the other cases adduced and added that Mr. Asquith could have taken no other course had he been in power than the Government had done.

"I venture to say," he went on, "that the United States papers while quoting Mr. Asquith's statements will not publish the same now as they did then."

Get One Side Only. He contended that such misrepresentation was responsible for opinions in the United States.

On the question of negotiations the prime minister announced no new policy. He said the Government was anxious to hold elections under the home rule act in Ireland next May for both the north and south, and if the representatives of the south chose to participate, the two parliaments could then meet as a constituent assembly under the provision of that act to consider and recommend changes. If they refused thus to participate the responsibility would be theirs.

Respecting negotiations, his previous offer still held good; there would be no demand for the prior surrender of arms as a condition of such negotiations. The surrender of arms would only be required as a prior condition of a truce or armistice.

Doing Their Best. Mr. Lloyd George declared he was laboring to the utmost to keep the door of peace and conciliation open, and Irishmen ought to assist. Some of the greatest men in English history had tried, but failed, to solve the Irish problem, and he and his colleagues felt no shame that up to the present they had failed.

He feared that the real reason which prevented negotiations was that there was no Irish leader possessing sufficient courage to face his people and tell them he was going to abandon certain demands for the sake of Ireland which it was impossible for the British Government to meet.

Were Disappointed. The Irish and Labor members, including Arthur Henderson, expressed the greatest disappointment over the prime minister's speech, and reproached Mr. Lloyd George for his treatment of the late John Redmond, when the latter courageously tried to bring about reconciliation, as justifying the Sinn Feiners' reluctance to place confidence in the prime minister.

Mr. Henderson said that before the Sinn Feiners could respond to Mr. Lloyd George's present suggestion they must have very definite assurance that the negotiations would lead to definite business.

WORKERS ACCEPT CUT IN WAGES

100,000 Packers Sign Agreement Following Conference At Chicago.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 23.—Workers in the packing industry, numbering more than one hundred thousand, accept the recent wage reductions of approximately 12½ and 15 per cent under an agreement signed late today by their spokesmen with representatives of the five leading packers.

The agreement also provides for the basic eight-hour day and for extension for six months, or to September, if the packers demand it. The wage scale as agreed to corresponds with that put into effect March 7 by the big packers. It reduces the wage rate for all employees eight cents an hour and amounts to a reduction in piecework wage rates of 12½ per cent.

DECISION RESERVED IN SEAFORTH CHARGE

SEAFORTH, March 23.—As the result of a raid made by Inspector Fellow and special officers on the Commercial Hotel and stables recently, Alex. McLeish, the proprietor appeared before Police Magistrate Greig today, charged with violating section 1 of the O. T. A. In a room off the bar was found a full bottle of liquor and another partly full was concealed in the stable. Mr. McLeish alleged that he did not know these were there, although he opened the room in the hotel with a key which was in his possession, and he is the owner of the stable. The inspector also took away a dozen or more whiskey bottles that appeared quite "fresh."

Lawyer Best acted for McLeish, and Crown Attorney Seager for the inspector. The court reserved judgment for a week.

MANY INCOME TAX RETURNS
BEING FILED

Stacks of Letters Arriving On Every Mail.

100,000 FORMS SENT OUT

Inspector Tambling and Large Staff Working Overtime To Keep Up With Rush.

The filing of the income tax returns at the office of the inspector for the London district increases in volume from day to day. Some idea of the amount of work involved may be gathered from the huge stack of letters containing inquiries and filled-up forms which arrives with each mail, especially in the morning.

“But this is nothing to what we shall have later,” said Inspector of Taxes George Tambling to The Advertiser. “About the middle of April we may have as many as 15,000 letters or more arriving daily.”

Over 100,000 forms have been distributed to 500 postoffices in the district, and, of course, a large number are not direct from the inspector's office. A large staff is kept constantly busy in dealing with this work.

Considerable doubt appears to exist as to what steps, if any, ought to be taken by those whose income is below the figure rendered taxable by the act. In a case of this kind the person concerned may voluntarily file a return, giving the necessary information, and if this is verified later by his employer's return, all is well. But if his income is hovering dangerously near to the border line of taxation, and the inspector sends him a form to fill up, he is liable to heavy penalties if the return is not filed within the number of days allowed. If sent a form by the inspector he must fill it up, whether he is liable to taxation or not.

PERMITS REQUIRED
BY ALL OWNERS OF
REVOLVERS OR GUNS

Police Commission May Take Drastic Action in Matter.

When the police commission meets, the question of permit forms being printed so that all guns in the homes of citizens may be registered in accordance with the amendment to the criminal code which requires every citizen owning a gun to have a permit, will be discussed.

Chief of Police Robert Birrell stated Wednesday that it will mean four hours' work each day for a considerable length of time, for one man to issue permits for revolvers and rifles now in the possession of the holders. Seventy-five per cent of the people of London possessed fire-arms, he estimated.

PURCHASER WOULD PAY COMMISSION
ON TRANSACTION

If Housing Commission Allows Real Estate Agents To Sell Houses.

Offers from two real estate firms to sell houses erected by the housing commission will come before that body at its meeting on Thursday night. It is possible that the commission may accept one of these in place of its present plan of selling through a business agent, F. B. Lavender.

The housing act will not permit the sale of houses except on a cost basis, and the commission will therefore not be able to pay the company making the sale. According to Commissioner E. R. Dennis, other arrangements can be made which will not violate the conditions of the housing act. The real estate men can act as agents for the commission and will have nothing to do with the housing commission. The commission will sell the houses at cost, and any fee paid to the agent will be from the purchaser. Citizens who wish to deal directly with the commission will still be permitted to do so.

The advantage of the plan, Commissioner Dennis claims, is that the firms making the offer have applications for homes from any first-class prospective purchasers. Many of these are willing to pay a substantial fee to an agent to get them a house of any kind. If the agent can arrange the sale of houses built by the commission it will help that body in the disposal of its property and will also be to the advantage of the men buying the house.

Mr. Dennis stated that a similar plan has been operated in St. Catharines for some time. A firm there arranged loans from the housing commission, had plans drawn, and superintended the actual building in return for fees paid to them.

RAILWAYMEN'S KICK
ABSURD, SAYS BAKER

No Violation of Secrecy of the Ballot by Publication of Figures.

“The thing's absurd. We are bound to publish the reports of the election and we can't help announcing the result of the railwaymen's poll,” City Clerk Baker declared today. Railwaymen declared Tuesday that the secrecy of the ballot had been violated in publishing the report of the railwaymen's vote on the recent ward 4 by-election.

Mr. Baker pointed out today that the returning officer is bound to announce the total vote polled and it has always been the custom to give the vote by sub-divisions as well. Even if no announcement of the railwaypoll was made and the results of all the sub-divisions were given out any person would be able to learn the railwaymen's vote by subtracting the total vote on election day from the complete total. The remainder would be the vote of the railwaymen.

The individual secrecy of the ballot was kept inviolate, Mr. Baker declared. The manner in which any railwayman voted is something which the man himself alone knows. There was not the least inkling of the results from the railway poll until the results of the whole election were announced Saturday at 6 o'clock.

REMARKABLE STORY

Inspector of Humane Society Visits 47 Stables During Search.

Although he has inspected 47 stables in the north end of the city, George Tustin, inspector for the local Humane Society, failed to find any trace of a horse which, according to a local paper, was badly burned one day last week through the carelessness of its owner. Mr. Tustin claims that if the story was true it was a case which should be investigated by the society.

According to the story, the owner sought to rid a rather decrepit animal from lice, by soaking its infested hide with kerosene. Later when he wished to see if the remedy had taken effect he struck a match near the horse with the result that the kerosene was ignited and before the flames could be extinguished the animal suffered many severe burns.

Immediately after the publication of the story Mr. Tustin started his search for the horse and in his efforts to find it visited practically every stable in the north end, but without results.
