THE MILDMAY FALL FAIR

SEPT. 23 & 24.

They are making preparations for the big fall fair, and the farmer and his family are loaded up with care; They are rubbing down the gelding and the big brood mare, and the three-year-old is frisky—you ought to see him rear, and they run him round the pasture when they've got an hour to spare. They make him go full sail with red ribbons in his tail; Yes, they're making preparations for the big fall fair.

They are combing out the fleeces on the thro'bred rams; They are picking out the best of the pretty spring lambs; The hired man is working on a wicker work rig For the easy transportation of the pedigree pig; And the boys are all constructing the cutest little pens For the safety and the comfort of turkeys, ducks and hens. The rickstratic bull with turnip tops is full— He'll make a great sensation at the big fall fair.

They are making preparations for the big fall fair: There is very much excitement in the circumambient air; Each farmer has a pumpkin that can't be beat b'gosh; And everybody stands to win upon a certain squash; Not to mention barley, wheat and oats, and buckwheat, corn and peas, and the product of the vine and the harvest of the trees; While I hear the housewife mutter, "They'll never beat that butter." Yes, they're making preparations for the Mildmay fair.

—Fresh stock of groceries just arrived at Elliott & Lamberts.

—John Hunstein's driver carried off the red ticket in the roadster class at Neustadt show yesterday. This show was not largely attended this year.

—Ed, Lobsinger, of the Massey-Harris foundry, Toronto, is home for a few weeks. He is suffering with a scalded foot, received while working in the moulding department in that foundry.

—Eckhardt Siegner was at Tavistock this week visiting relatives and attending the Tavistock fall show. Tavistock has one of the best fall shows in the province.

—The Hamel Upholstering Co., of Mildmay, are offering a special prize of a Centre Table valued at $2.50, for best collection and display of 6 to 10 or more House or Foliage plants at the Mildmay Fall Fair. Also a centre table valued at $3.00 for Best Merchants display.

—Great alterations are in progress this week at the Merchants Bank building. A complete new front is being put in the building with plate glass windows. The interior is also being remodelled, and equipped with entirely new fixtures and furniture manufactured by the Preston Office Furniture Co. Mildmay will have one of the neatest banks in the county when all the improvements are completed.

J. A. JOHNSTON, Clerk.

FORMOSA.

Died.—On Friday, Sept. 6, after a long illness, Sebastian Lehman, aged 74 yrs and 7 months. The remains were interred here last Monday. The friends from a distance who attended the funeral were: Mrs. Jos. Mosack and Mrs. Kline of Chicago, daughters of the deceased; Louis Zinger, of New Germany; Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Mosack and daughter; Mr. and Mrs. Adolf Mosack of Walkerton; Rev. Jonas Lenhardt, Russel Oberle and Peter Kroetch, of Carlshruc. Mr. Lehman was one of the pioneers of Culross. He took up the homestead here 54 years ago and has resided on it ever since.

A great game of baseball was played at Formosa last Friday between the Lucknow and Formosa clubs. The game resulted in a victory for Lucknow by a score of 4 to 2. At the end of the eighth innings the score stood 1 to 1, and in the last innings Formosa made one run while Lucknow added three runs to their score. We learn that the umpire gave the game away by a decision on a foul fly.

—The prize for Black Ducks was omitted in the prize list this year. The usual prizes will be given in this class.

—Elliott & Lambert are opening up in H. E. Liesemer's old stand, and will be ready for business to-morrow with a full new stock in all lines.

Clifford.

Mr. Andrew McIntosh has returned from his trip to North Dakota and Western Canada.

Mr. W. V. Schaus has assumed full control and ownership of the Clifford Evaporator, Mr. Tuck retiring.

Mr. J. R. McLachlin, manager of the Traders Bank here, is away on holidays. Rumor has it that this will be a very important vacation for him.

Mr. Henry V. Schaus is back from Listowel assisting his brother in the blacksmith shop. William Bailey has gone to Listowel, taking Henry's place.

Mr. John Lints, of Carrick, remarked to us the other night, that evidences of the recent great drought, now a thing of the past, was very marked. In his plowed field, he says, there were numerous fissures in the ground where a fork handle could be inserted down quite a distance. He had not experienced anything like it.

BELMORE.

May Ballagh commenced High School at Wingham last week.

Miss Hazel Dickson is now living in Toronto, learning dressmaking.

Miss Maggie Law is attending Business College in Wingham.

Roy Gallagher and Cartey and Lizzie McKee are attending High School in Wingham.

Mrs. McKee's mother is paying her a visit. She is 84 years of age and quite smart.

Robers Jeffrey left last week for an extended visit with his brother in California.

Wm Hall was favored with a visit from his two sisters from the United States recently.

Samuel Chittick left last week for Burk's Falls, where he will have steady employment.

The Misses Chittick, who have been spending their vacation here, returned to New York on Tuesday of last week.

James Wallace, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Weir, died on Monday evening, Sept. 2. Funeral was held on Wednesday to the Wingham Cemetery.

Harvest Home Anniversary services will be held in the Methodist church on September 22 and 23. Sermons will be preached at 10.30 a. m., and 7 p. m. by Rev. H. W. McTavish, Gorrie. A hot supper will be served in the basement of the church from 6 to 8 on Monday, September 23rd. Programme will consist of addresses by Revs. Martin J. Wilson, of Teeswater, E. G. Powell, of Brussels, and the resident ministers. Music will be furnished by the Mildmay Methodist Choir, assisted by Miss Reynard of Ethel and others.

—James Dunbar and his sister of Windsor are visiting their parents here this week.

—George Helwig, the capable and obliging accountant at the Merchants Bank, is away on his holidays. Mr. Anderson, of Walkerton, is relieving him.

—Fred. Bury, photographer, will have his gallery open on both days of the show. This will afford exhibition visitors an excellent opportunity of having their photo properly taken. Don't forget Bury.

—William Loth brought in a grist of wheat to the Actna Roller Mills on Wednesday of this week, that has everything beaten so far this season. The wheat was an excellent sample and tested 65 pounds to the bushel. Mr. Loth grows the genuine No. 1 hard wheat on his farm.

—The annual S. School convention of the North District, Evangelical church, convened at Port Elgin Sept. 11 and 12. Many practical and helpful suggestions were given in the different addresses for effective Sunday School work. Much emphasis was laid on the home influence in the moulding of the child's character. A report of the worlds 5th S. S. convention held at Rome, May 18 to 23, 1907, by Rev. S. R. Knechtel, of Berlin, Ont., was appreciated by a large and attentive congregations. The convention proved to be a great benefit to visitors and delegates. May it also prove to be an inspiration to the Sunday schools of the District.

COUNTY AND DISTRICT.

The price of horses has taken quite a drop from figures that were received a few months ago. The dark outlook in the West is said to be the cause. The West has been a great market for Ontario horses for the past few years.

Automobilists are not having it all their own way in North York. A few days ago a Mr. Guernsey was fined $5 and costs for not displaying his number, and Mr. Welch contributed $20 and costs to the treasury for exceeding the speed limit.

"The graspin'est man I ever knowed," said uncle Jerry Pebbles, "was an old chap named Snoopins. Somebody told him once that when he breathed he took in oxygen and gave out carbon. He spent a whole day in tryin' to find out which of them two gases cost the most if you had to buy 'em. He wanted to know whether he was makin' or losin' money when he breathed."

Oh, For A Clear Complexion!—A clear complexion is the outward evidence of inward cleanliness. In bad health the face becomes a sign-board, telling of disease within. If yellow, bile is not properly secreted; if pallid, the kidneys are faulty; if skin is murky and dark circles beneath the eyes, look for constipation. Whatever the cause, no remedy compares with Dr. Hamilton's Pills which are mild, safe, purifying and vitalizing in their action. They give a marvelous rosy tint to the cheeks, brighten the eyes and establish health that defies age and disease. Sold everywhere in 25c boxes.

The Weekly Sun pays especial attention to Market conditions. On the question of hogs, it says,—"There will be no glut in the supply of hogs in this Province during September and October at all events. So much is made abundantly clear by the special reports. There may be a somewhat heavier pressure on the market in November, but after the end of December indications point to the probability of receipts running below demand.

John Ryan, of Greenock Tp., who has been confined in the Walkerton gaol since August 1st, on a charge of insanity, was removed to the London Asylum on Friday last. His condition was much improved before his removal and it is expected that he will soon be fully recovered.

An Estevan policeman saw a little boy on the street and told him he must go home or be put in jail. "All right," said the boy, "I'll go to jail." "But why don't you go home?" asked the officer. "I don't want to," replied the boy. "Dad's at lodge, ma's gone to the euchre party, Bud's out walking with his girl and sis is at the theatre with her beau. They left me and the dog at home. I'll go to jail."

This Tonic Builds Up.—Many medicines stimulate, break down, leave you worse than ever. Ferrozone is different—it's a blood-former, a nerve-strengthener, a body-builder. Pale anaemic girls are given color and vigor. The tired and sleepless are strengthened and restored. "Better than all tonics I found Ferrozone" writes Mrs. E. F. Castleton of Woodstock. "I was completely run down, cheeks were blanched, lips white and had every sign of anaemia. Ferrozone added to my weight, gave me strength, ambition and good health." Nothing better, try Ferrozone yourself, 50c per box at all dealers.

Daniel Cook, of Drayton, who is charged with perjury and bigamy appeared before Judge Chadwick at Guelph on Saturday. Daniel's plea as to the perjury, when he swore that he was 28 yrs old, was that an older brother had told him that was his age. It seems a reasonable excuse; how does anybody know just how old he is except from hearsay or circumstantial evidence? In the bigamy case it is different. Anybody who has been married once must have got wise enough not to do it again unless the conditions were favorable. Daniel will come to judgment later on.

Mr. Mathews, Postmaster of Acton, has a small plantation of ginseng which he set out four years ago. There are about 12,000 plants all of which appear to be thriving. It requires five years to sufficiently mature the ginseng root for market, and the first crop will be ready in the fall of 1908. Each bed is estimated to yield about 1,200 ounces, which at $7.50 or $8.00 per pound will produce a handsome revenue. After next year Mr. Mathews expects to mature 2,000 or 3,000 ounces of ginseng each fall.

"A man is liable not to get much credit in this world," said Uncle Eben. "If you's prosperous dey'll mos' likely say you has mo' luck dan sense, an' if you's unprosperous dey'll say you didn't hab much of either."

The town of Orillia will make a profit this year of nine thousand dollars from its light and power plant. Owing to the increased profits, the council has been enabled to reduce the tax rate from twenty-five to twenty-three mills.

Trial Catarrh treatments are being mailed out free on request, by Dr. Shoop Racine, Wis. These tests are proving to the people—without a penny's cost—the great value of this scientific prescription known to druggists everywhere as Dr. Shoop's Catarrh Remedy. Sold by J. Coates.

Do nothing in a hurry; Nature never does. "More haste, worse speed," says the old proverb. If you are in doubt, sleep over it. But, above all, never quarrel in a hurry. Think it over well. Take time. However vexed you may be over night, things will often look different in the morning. If you have written a clever and conclusive, but scathing letter, keep it back till the next day and it will very often never go at all.

Great Distress In Her Throat.—Not an uncommon experience was that of Mrs. H. S. Wilmot of Shuler, N. S. Doctors failed, still a quick cure was found in Catarrhzone. Notice this statement: I have been a most dreadful sufferer from bronchial trouble and catarrh. On damp days I would hawk and suffer great distress in my throat. I used all kinds of medicines but didn't get permanent relief till I used Catarrhzone. It has strengthened my throat, cured my cough and made me entirely well." Refuse substitutes for the one reliable bronchial and throat cure. All dealers sell "Catarrhzone" in 25c and $1.00 sizes.

There are men who would resent being called dishonest who have a persistent habit of asking the "loan" of pocket knives, lean pencils or any other of the small articles which men generally carry in their clothes and then inadvertently pocket them after distracting the attention of the owner. "Lend me your knife for a minute," "lets see your lead pencil or your fountain pen," "give me a pipeful of tobacco," etc., are some of the methods of these gentlemen. They invariably keep the knife, pencil, tobacco plug, or whatever it may be and consider themselves clever, but their victims remember them as meaner thieves than common pickpockets. Some of the respectable persons who regularly work this species of fraud will read this item, and it may cause them to take a tumble to themselves. A man on the street can easily lose a dozen lead pencils and a couple of knives in a week through accommodating these ultra respectable people.

YOU FEEL TIRED ALL THE TIME.

Night comes and it's hard to sleep. Morning dawns and the anxious tired feeling is still there. Unwilling to get up, a strong desire to rest a little longer. It can't cure itself,—but Ferrozone by forming rich pure blood at once supplies nutriment for building up the system. This extra nourishment is distributed throughout the entire body, gives force to the nerves, strength to the muscle, and power to the digestive organs.

At once you feel braced, toned, strengthened. You know a powerful force is building up depleted energies, you realize what it means to have the vim and spirit of robust health.

Search the world over and you won't find a tonic to nourish, build up, and fortify a weak body like Ferrozone. Physicians claim it is the best all round strengthening medicine ever discovered.

To take Ferrozone regularly is an insurance policy of health, a guarantee that you will be free from vexatious spells of tiredness and debilitating sickness of every kind. Surely it's worth while trying a medicine that Mrs. H. S. Gold, of Bowsman, Man., speaks of as follows: "I want to state my case, because I think it may be the means of assisting other suffering women to health. A year ago I was almost a wreck. I was pale and emaciated, suffered from nervousness and hysteria. Little things that went wrong in the house bothered me. The doctor advised different treatments, but they didn't help. He said my low condition of health was due to weakness that might never be cured. Ferrozone had a peculiar grateful effect and built me up quickly. The ills I suffered from are cured. I am now strong and vigorous, and was made so by Ferrozone." (Signed) Mrs. H. S. Gold.

Before your ill-health assumes a chronic or malignant form build up with Ferrozone. Sold everywhere, 50c per box or six for $2.50, at all dealers.

A USEFUL INVENTION.

Gov. Folk, of Missouri, said the other day of a proposed law:

"This law, I fear, would bear too hard on certain classes. To some people it would be a cruelty. Thus it is like the luminous paint story.

"This new invention of luminous paint," said a young father, "is going to be an excellent thing in growing families.

"How so?" asked a friend.
"Why," said the young father, "you just touch up the baby's face with it before retiring, and then you can see to give him his bottle without making a light."

It is estimated that Huron's apple crop will run 300,000 bbls.

Stomach troubles, Heart and Kidney ailments, can be quickly corrected with a prescription known to druggists everywhere as Dr. Shoop's Restorative. The prompt and surprising relief, which this remedy immediately brings is entirely due to its Restorative action upon the controlling nerves of the stomach, etc. A weak Stomach, causing dyspepsia, a weak Heart with palpitation or intermittent pulse, always means weak Stomach nerves or weak Heart nerves. Strengthen these inside or controlling nerves with Dr. Shoop's Restorative and see how quickly these ailments disappear. Dr. Shoop of Racine, Wis., will mail samples free. Write for them. A test will tell. Your health is certainly worth this simple trial. Sold by J. Coates.

AT HIS MAJESTY'S COURT

HOW THE PRESENTATIONS ARE CONDUCTED.

Sight of Splendor and Magnificence Unsurpassed at Any Other Court of Europe.

The average person probably finds it difficult to understand why there should be such a keen desire on the part of society people to be presented at Court. To the uninitiated, the mere honor or pleasure—however you may like to regard it—of making a curtsy to the King and Queen in the ballroom of Buckingham Palace scarcely compensates one for the expense and trouble involved.

As a matter of fact, a presentation at Court means a great deal to those who move in upper circles. Without it a woman has no recognized social position; she is never invited to Royal entertainments, and when visiting a foreign country cannot be presented to its Sovereign. In the old days, when a lady had been once presented, she could not attend Courts, uninvited and unchallenged, until the end of her life. But time has changed that privilege.

However, it is obvious that there are still great inducements to secure the precious card of invitation from the Lord Chamberlain which entitles one to attend the Court.

Everybody who is anybody is to be seen at a Court presentation—princes, lords, and dukes, grey-haired ambassadors, generals, politicians, and diplomats, down to young attaches, all attired in the men's attire, in many cases, being no less brilliant and gorgeous than the dazzling confections worn by young debutantes who nervously await their turn for presentation.

Those who by right of birth are entitled to attend at Court are members of the aristocracy and of the leading county families, the wives and daughters of officers in the Army and Navy, of clergymen and barristers, of important financiers, and of men engaged in large commercial enterprises. But the line is rigidly drawn at those occupied in retail trade, no matter how refined or well connected they may be. Nowadays several titled women, members of old families, keep shops of their own, and this fact entirely prevents their appearance at Court. This rule is absolute, and has no exceptions.

The general company drive into the courtyard of Buckingham Palace under the portico at the State entrance. There is also another entrance, known as the Palmico door, through which members of the Diplomatic Corps and what is known as the Entree company are allowed to pass. By entering with the general company, however, one obtains a splendid view of some of the beauties of Buckingham Palace.

After alighting at the Doric portico, the debutante enters the large but somewhat low-ceilinged entrance-hall, with its marble floor and staircase, and its double row of pillars in

PURE WHITE CARRARA MARBLE.

From the hall access can be obtained to the so-called Bay Window Room, which is one of the finest on the garden floor of Buckingham Palace. The Bow Library is used as a cloak-room, where wraps and cloaks are left and numbered tickets received in exchange. The staircase is a model of splendor. Every step is a solid piece of white marble, and the gold and cream ceiling shows some marvellous decoration. Stationed on the staircase and everywhere about are Yeomen of the Guard dressed in red and gold, with neck ruffles, buckled shoes, and the flat hats that have become known by their name.

Attentive gentlemen ushers pass the guests on in batches of about thirty through the ante-rooms which lead to the last halling-place, the Tapestry Corridor. The ballroom, where the Court is held, is a superb saloon, with walls panelled in crimson and a floor of satinwood and mahogany. At one end is a fine organ and the gallery for His Majesty's musicians.

The King and Queen enter the ballroom about ten o'clock. They are preceded by the White Staves and followed by the most important officers of the State, who, together with other members of the Royal Family, take up their position in a semi-circle round their Majesties in order of precedence. Then the business of the evening commences. Trains are let down and spread upon the floor, cards are passed from hand to hand, and broken to a nervous debutante's ear only by the sound of her own tread on the polished floor and by the announcement of her name in a tone of official authority. When the two deep curtises have been duly made, the lady has to retire from the Royal presence with all the grace at her command.

Formerly a debutante was obliged to undergo the nerve-trying ordeal of kissing the Queen's hand, and, if a peeress, of being saluted on both cheeks, while, in addition, she was obliged to walk backwards from the Royal presence. But King Edward has altered all that. Their Majesties remain seated, and a curtsy is all that is required.

Between one and two hours are thus taken up with the business of presentation, after which the King and Queen retire from the ballroom to partake of supper with a few favored guests. Supper is also provided for the general company, with this difference—that while the Royal party sit down to a formal meal, the others refresh themselves at the buffets, for the most part standing up.

by the way, that strict regulations govern the dress of both men and women who attend at Court. Men who do not belong to the Services must appear in the regulation velvet tail-coats and steel buttons, knee breeches, black silk stockings, buckled shoes, and white gloves, with cocked hat under the arm and small sword at the side.

Ladies, too, must dress to order, in evening toilette, with train from three and a half to four yards long, white gloves, and with ostrich feathers. For mourning black trimmings are permissible with the black toilette, but a special permit must be obtained if a lady wishes to attend Court in a high-necked gown and long sleeves. A doctor's certificate is generally necessary in order to obtain this permission.—London Tit-Bits.

MOTOR ENDS ROMANCE.

French Father Captures His Eloping Daughter and Takes Her Home.

The romance of a French heiress and her penniless lover, their elopement, and a few weeks of wedded bliss, have been followed by the abduction of the bride in the paternal motor-car.

Some months have passed since Mile. Piedallu met Victor Dehaulon near her millionaire father's chateau at Isle-Adam, France. A friendship sprang up and ripened into love. A few weeks ago the elopement was planned and carried out. Mile. Piedallu and her governess went shopping in Paris. The girl gave her chaperon the slip and joined her lover, who was waiting in a cab. So deep was the father's anger that he swore to leave the neighborhood. The contents of his chateau are to be sold by auction before the place is shut up.

The lovers drove to a railway station and traveled to Ostend. There they took cheap rooms, and Dehaulon obtained work at a well-known hotel. His wife carried his dinner in a bundle through the streets each day.

Neither knew that the millionaire who was searching for them was one of the chief shareholders in the company which owns the hotel where Dehaulon was employed. Discovery came owing to this fact.

The heiress was carrying her husband's dinner through the streets of Ostend when three men suddenly seized her and placed her in a motor-car waiting by the kerb. Instantly the vehicle, in which the millionaire was sitting, started off and quickly got clear of the town. Dehaulon, alarmed by his wife's non-appearance, ran to their rooms, found them vacant, and learned what had happened a few days later. Since then he has been searching in vain for his wife.

MAN WHO FEEDS MANY.

Joseph Lyons of London Has Most Colossal Eating Concern in World.

Joseph Lyons runs in London what is by long odds the most colossal catering concern in the world. There is no aggregation of restaurants under one management in America that comes any way near feeding such a vast multitude daily. He makes it pay, too, handsomely. His company has declared a dividend of 32½ per cent., besides adding $200,000 to its reserve fund. There are few companies in the land of millions which can show such profits as that. From the rank of a small public provider at provincial exhibitions, Jos. Lyons has risen in twenty years to the forefront of the restaurant and catering world, and to-day the ramifications of his business extend throughout the whole of Great Britain.

ENGLAND'S BAD WEATHER.

Sleet in July, This Year Was the Crowning Indignity.

A woman who announces that she has just "looked out of the window and beheld flakes of sleet drifting past on this July morning," writes to the Queen to recall a rhyme which celebrated another season quite as dripping as the one which has afflicted England this year.

Dirty days have September,
April, June and November;
All the rest have thirty-one.
Without a blessed gleam of sun,
If any of 'em had two-and-thirty,
They'd be just as wet and twice as dirty.

Mrs. Money Bags—"I hear you have spent a great deal of your time in Italy?"
Mrs. Parvenue—"Oh, yes, my dear; we're quite Italianized."

A reputation for wisdom may be acquired by applauding the opinions of your neighbors.

ES ATE SHOE PEGS

TOR TAYLOR KEPT THE STABLE DARK.

Shoe Factory—Horses Got Off Their Feed—A Great Scheme.

In the southern part of the New Hampshire, at a railway where the farmers for miles used to come to take the train on, a certain man had a house-g stable, and in the long rows they kept their horses during until they returned from their to "the nub." Then they would and drive home. Everybody himself in these democratic ties, so they were in the habit ching their own horses, hang-harness on the pegs at the foot all and giving each animal a of oats from a big bin over in of stable was kept very.

is the cheapest you can buy

The first cost may be more—but the first cost is the only cost. Suppose one fence costs $40, and lasts, say, for 8 years. That fence costs you $5 a year. Suppose the same length of Frost Fence costs $55. But the Frost Fence—made of High Carbon Steel Wire and locked with the F Frost Lock—lasts for 25 years—at a cost of only $2 a year. Isn't the Frost the cheapest you can buy? Frost Fences are for sale by Buying Here Is Buying Sure.

Housekeepers have learnt that buying here is buying sure.

When they wish to be certain sure about a thing they pretty nearly always buy it here.

The "sure" part is this store's first thought—its most important aim.

It's ahead of prices even.

Trust us with that Spice order.

Trust us with every order for goods that must be just so.

Trust us with orders for goods that are better because their purity is unquestioned.

PICKLING SPICES.

What you need is here when you are ready. We guarantee every ounce of our spices to be absolutely pure. No more to pay than anywhere else.

When ordering spices, do not forget to include some of our Special Pickling Vinegar.—Price, 50 cts per gallon.
