REPORT OF MEDICAL HEALTH OFFICER FOR 1922

To the Warden and Councilors of Annapolis County:—
I herewith submit the following report as County Health Officer for the year 1922:

The past year has been very free of contagious diseases, the most serious being a few outbreaks of Diphtheria in a few localities that were not severe or attended by any loss of life. Small pox of the modified type such as we have had, almost annually, for many years has now been absent for two whole seasons and it is to be hoped, and expected, that with the general vaccination carried out in the school children will make a new record for us with this disease. By referring to the Health Nurse report you will notice that of 2281 children she examined all but two of them had been vaccinated. Perhaps it is a little early to draw any conclusions but it seems to me that the general vaccination and the Municipalities has already benefited several hundred dollars in having no small pox bills to pay for the past two years.

There have been no cases of typhoid reported this year and as far as I am able to ascertain our mortality from preventable diseases has been very favorable.

The report of the work of our Public Health Nurse will be before you and speaks for itself. Miss Chute was obliged to give up the work on account of ill health, the middle of the summer, and since then we have been without a nurse.

While Miss Chute's work has been largely pioneer, in laying foundations and staking up the Municipality and its needs, it has been very beneficial and important. As she has given part of her time to Digby County she has not made as thorough visitation in our County as the work demands and in this way her work has not appealed to the public as it has to those in close touch with it, but this will all be remedied in the course of time. Miss Chute is now in Halifax completing her Public Health Nursing course and expects to again be available for this work in the early summer. The supply of Health Nurses has been very limited heretofore but I understand from the Provincial Health Dept. that there will be more available this season.

Health Clinics for diseases of Throat and Nose, and for diseases of Chest, where specialists in these lines were provided by the Provincial Health Dept. were held at the different towns in the first half of the year and brought to the homes, almost, of those with chest symptoms, a specialist who could speak with authority and give aid and assistance to the local doctor in puzzling or doubtful cases being available.

During the late fall an educational campaign for the control of cancer was put on over the whole continent of America. In this County it was not possible to hold public meetings as generally as the question warrants but meetings, well attended, were held in the main towns and much literature distributed and much information given to the subject by the press all calling for the early recognition of the precancerous condition when the disease might be prevented or cured. It is of very little satisfaction to a patient, with this disease to know he is dying of incurable cancer but it would mean years of life to him if his disease could be recognized early when it could very easily be overcome. The marked increase of cancer during the last decade or two is the reason given for this general alarm and warning to the public.

If in the summer season any church or other community organization desired a public meeting on this subject the Health Officer would be glad to arrange it and to send some of the County Medical men to address them on the subject.

As I have mentioned in previous reports Public Health measures and activities have now become an important department of governments federal, local and municipal and have assumed increased importance from year to year and today demands a greater attention than ever before, by our municipal parliaments. If we are to keep abreast of our age and of scientific knowledge, and it will certainly pay in lowered mortality rate, in healthier people, in increased length of life, then it is necessary for our Municipal Councils to carry out what our governments and hygienic research departments are discovering and giving to us. Preventive medicine never held as important a position as it holds today but that we may benefit by it we must put in action the knowledge we possess, for knowledge without effort or action is as dead as faith without works.

It has occurred to me that this subject is now of importance enough that the Council might appoint a Committee of Public Health to whom matters could be referred of importance during the year and with whom the Health Officer and Health Nurse could consult from time to time as seemed necessary.

Just now there is much agitation regarding Nova Scotia as a summer visitors' paradise and tourists resort. No County in the Province has better advantages than ours for this. We are free of fogs, have lots of sunshine and our inland Basin with its 20 to 40 miles of shore presents an ideal camping ground and location for out door life by the seaside, and capable of accommodating thousands and of easy access. Our lakes not very far back are even prettier and so far their beauties very largely bluish unson but I believe that very soon we are to be better known in this respect and will receive a large number of city and out side summer visitors who are seeking rest and a change and an ideal outdoor summer resort, and if we are to get our share of this we must be sure we do our part in making our County safe as a health resort and secure the very best conditions for visitors and our own people.

During the year a change was made in the Public Health Act that has an important bearing on this Municipality. The Act was amended so that any one desiring to ranch wild animals must first obtain a permit from the local Board of Health to so do; this is the same provision as required in erecting a slaughter house and is not a difficult restriction of regulation. As there has been thirty or more new black fox ranches built in the Municipality the past season it is well that those interested should know this regulation that they may secure these permits as required, and that these fox compounds be placed a reasonable distance back from the highway and a safe distance from dwellings that the unsavory smell from them does not give offence to those living near.

Thanking you, Mr. Warden, for the sympathy and favorable support given this department of Municipal work in the past and believing you and the whole Council are anxious to give consideration to everything that pertains to the good health of the Municipality which still is the greatest blessing we possess.
I remain faithfully yours,
M. E. ARMSTRONG,
Medical Officer.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON INSANE
To the Warden and Councilors of the Municipality of Annapolis:
Gentlemen:—We, your committee on Insane, beg leave to report as follows:
We examined the accounts from the N. S. Hospital and find we paid for the support of our patients, at this institution, for the year 1922, the sum of $3128.01. We recommend that the sum of $3000.00 be placed in the presentation to cover the expenditure for the current year.

Respectfully submitted,
JOSEPH I. POSTER
F. S. MILLS
MYERS GIBSON

MEDICAL ATTENDANT AT COUNTY INSTITUTIONS

To the Municipal Council of the Municipality of Annapolis Co.:

I herewith submit the following Annual Medical Report of the Municipal Humane Institutions at Bridgetown:

Statistics of Co. Hospital of Insane
Patients at beginning of year . . . 44
Admitted during the year . . . 13

First Total 57
Discharged during the year . . . 2
Died . . . 10

No. of patients at close of year 45
County Home
Inmates at beginning of year . . . 54
Admitted during year . . . 22

First total 76
Died during year . . . 8
Discharged . . . 18

Total at close of year . . . 50
The number of deaths at the County Hospital has been more than the average year but this higher rate of mortality has been entirely due to natural causes. In several cases it was the very aged and in one or two others patients were very feeble when admitted and died quite soon after coming to the Hospital of the chronic malady that brought them there.

The usual amount of general sickness of minor character has been present but little severe sickness of any kind.
At both Institutions the inmates have been encouraged to keep out of doors as much as possible when weather permits and to do light work as they felt able and were willing, and no doubt this has had much to do with their general good health.
Mr. and Mrs. Hiltz have continued to give the best of satisfaction at the County Hospital and are deservedly as popular with those under their care as they are with those outside who are interested in the Hospital.
The County Home moves along as a well ordered house and Mr. and Mrs. Myers have given every detail of its routine life their careful and painstaking attention for the comfort of those who come here for a home.

At both Institutions I am glad to report that there is very little that could be suggested to add to their comfort and I believe that your Committee are quite ready to add any thing that could be suggested looking to the comfort of the one hundred or thereabouts of our fellow beings who find here care and a home and living.
Faithfully submitted,
M. E. ARMSTRONG,
Medical Attendant.

TENDERS AND PUBLIC PROPERTY COMMITTEE'S REPORT

Mr. Warden and Councilors of the Municipality of Annapolis:
Gentlemen:—Your Committee on Tenders and Public Property beg to submit the following report for the year ending December 31st, 1922:

In our report of a year ago the departments in our care showed an increased expenditure due largely to the general depression through which our country was passing, and though present conditions are far from normal, the improvement is being felt and has resulted in a general saving in the gross cost of maintaining our County Hospital, County Home, and Outside Poor of 13 1/2 per cent. or $2283.39.

Our Hospital and County Home have been conducted in the usual efficient manner and continue to reflect credit on the Superintendents and their staff, so that your Committee look with pride on the work and usefulness of these Institutions which continue to rank high in comparison with similar Institutions in the Province.

The Hospital has been rendered more comfortable by the installation of a pipeless furnace for heating the large halls in the centre of the building and by an improvement in the toilet accommodation.
For further particulars regarding this Institution, would refer you to the report of the Superintendent, Mr. Hiltz.

The County Home, in addition to the necessary repairs, has been improved by the installation of toilets in each of the large dormitories. The total weeks board for the year was 349.

DELORO ARSENICALS

“Made at the Mouth of the Mine”

DELORO Brown Copper Arsenic Dust Combines the advantages of low cost of manufacture, (no coal is used) with high fungicidal and insecticidal value. The difference between the Brown and Blue in scab control in 1922 was less than one per cent, or well within the range of experimental error.

The Brown dust used in 1922 was made in a small way and poorly ground in a ball mill. The Brown Dust being put out by Deloro in 1923 possesses the following advantages over that used in 1922.

It is all ground in a Raymond mill and air floated before packing.

Deloro Arsenate of Lime is the most adhesive arsenical yet made and is used in Deloro Brown Dust, thus making it infinitely more adhesive than Blue dust mixed with lead arsenate.

Deloro Brown Dust is made in such a manner as to prevent it from caking as rapidly as last year's Blue dust. Samples have been kept over a year without showing any signs of caking.

Experiments in Cornhill in 1922 with some air floated, new process dust showed it to be a much better floating material than the Blue Copper Dust.

With all these improvements, Deloro confidently expects its Brown Copper Dust to prove superior in insecticidal and fungicidal value as well as in sticking value, safety and cost to the Blue Copper Arsenic Dusts in 1923.

Deloro makes a full line of Wettable Sulphate, Lead Arsenate, Paris Green, Nicotine Sulphate, Arsenate of Lime, Nicotine Dust, 90-10 Sulphur Lead Arsenate, Green Potato Dust, etc.

CLARENCE

About all the men in this locality are "rail-roaching" the last few weeks trying to keep the H. and S. W. open between Middleton and Bridgetown. Scarcely a day goes by without some part of the train is off the track or stuck in the snow. Several thousand barrels of apples are still in the warehouses along this line.

Roy Jackson arrived from Boston on Tuesday and visited at his old home.

Two girls, one colored and the other white, who escaped from the Aims House, Bridgetown, were stopped at the Brooklyn warehouse on Thursday, having followed the H. and S. W. railroad from Bridgetown.

CLEMENTSPORT

"THE QUEEN OF THE BASIN"

On Monday evening, 12th inst., a meeting was held in the Baptist Hall, in the interest of the Bible Society. In consequence of short notice and bad roads, only a small number were at attendance. The Rev. Canon Robinson, Agent of the British and Foreign Bible Society, was present. Rev. I. D. Lyttle was in the chair. Canon Robinson gave a most interesting address, telling how the Society was founded, a little Welsh girl, Mary Jones, saved her money for four years and had to walk 25 miles to get a Bible. When this news came to the ears of certain Golly people in London, they determined to make the Bible accessible to all, and in 1804, the British and Foreign Bible Society was formed. It is noteworthy that the first missionary work was the translation of a gospel into the "Mohawk" language—Joseph Brant, (a worthy name in Canadian history) assisted in this translation. The Society aims to put the Bible into each and every home in the world. Some 320 million copies have been distributed since the Society began. During the late war nine million copies were given to the soldiers in sixty different languages.

The following were elected officers of the local branch:—

President—Miss Alberta Morton, re-elected.

Vice-Presidents—Local Clergymen, Mrs. M. W. Page, Deep Brook; Miss L. Jagger, Smith's Cove.

Treasurer—Mrs. Fred Jones.

Secretary—Mr. S. T. Porter.

A hearty vote of thanks was tendered to Canon Robinson for his interesting address, and the hope expressed he would come again at a more propitious time.

The Rector assured Canon Robinson that, although only a few people were present, yet when it came to a contribution for the work of this Society, Clementsport would nobly do its part as it had always done.

While here Canon Robinson was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Vroom.

On Monday evening, 12th inst., a jolly crowd of the boys and girls formed a surprise party and called on Capt. and Mrs. George Gilliam, where a pleasant few hours were spent.

Wednesday, 14th inst., was Ash Wednesday and also Valentine's Day. Ash Wednesday, or the first of Lent, was kept in the Parish. Service was held in the Parish Church at 10:30 a.m. Valentine's Day was celebrated in the schools and in many homes. Valentine was a Christian Martyr of the reign of the emperor Claudius (about 270). His feast day, Feb.

21st, is a word re letters which appeared in your issue of the 14th inst. "Another Citizen" has misunderstood my meaning, when I said "He (the Councillor) takes the place of the Mayor in an incorporated town. To make it clear to him—the Mayor is the representative man in the incorporated town, he is elected as such; the Warden is the representative man in the County, he is elected as such; the Councillor is the representative man in the district,—he is elected as such.

Councillor Rawling is mistaken in two of the statements in his letter. He says—re opening up of roads for motor traffic, "He (your correspondent) and several others including the Warden of the County, it seems, acted with what result? NONE. I feel flattered that I knew enough to mind my own business." I wish to tell the Councillor that I have my permit from the 20th March to May 1st, as had all others who applied for them from this district, as a result of our efforts. But supposing we had not succeeded—I believe, with many others—

"It's better to have loved and lost, Than never to have loved at all".

Re the accident at Randall's Bridge, he states that my warning was after the accident. I quote from the files of "THE MONITOR": "Clementsport Notes" Nov. 1st, 1922—"The Government demands that all motor vehicles shall carry a red light in the rear. Yet the same Government's Highway Board uses a white light as a danger signal. The bridges under repair on the main highway in this vicinity, and on the road to Bear River are marked by white lights and in such a way that to one approaching them they look like an auto in the distance. The local men—Messrs. Harry Porter and Robt. Spurr, would use the red lights if they could get them. No blame can be attached to them. In fact the former camps beside his work, and the latter keeps a night watchman, but it would be an interesting legal point, if an accident occurred at one of these places, whether the Highway Board could get out of paying heavy damages, but the G. H. E. have a happy faculty of taking chances and we must admit they usually get by—but they have been caught before, and may again. Why not, gentlemen, send some red cotton or red cheese cloth to the bridges, and let each motorist be responsible for his own care? If you cannot afford the red cloth, and thus comply with the law? The above notes were sent on the noon train to Bridgetown—on that night Monday, Oct. 30th, the accident occurred.

On Nov. 8th, the following note appeared:—

"The natural sequel to our article on the state of the bridges under construction by the Highway Board in this vicinity will now be read. On Monday evening, Oct. 30th, a Vermont car east-bound, saw the white lights and thinking no danger, went ahead, and no barricade having been placed where they are constructing the new road at Randall's Bridge, mislaid by cart marks he ran into the muck and rocks. Here he remained for over two hours while a number of men worked hard and dug him out with the help of a team, all because the construction work was inadequately protected." In fact for many days before my warning appeared in the press, I had been asking the Councillor to have these bridges properly protected with red lights i. e. to request the Highway Board to do so. Now Mr. Editor "my suggestion to post the ropes of roads to be shovelled" caused this controversy. The suggestion was given with the best of intention, and in a kind way. We are very sorry indeed if we have offended the Councillor. The motive that moved us to write "Clementsport Notes" is love of the place and its people. It was not for money as you Mr. Editor can vouch. We have kept them going regularly—when absent have had our friend, Mr. Tupper, write them. They take up considerable time, which we gladly give, but it is, perhaps, a little premature and presuming on our part, after all, as lights if they could get them. No blame can be attached to them. In fact the former camps beside his work, and the latter keeps a night watchman, but it would be an interesting legal point, if an accident occurred at one of these places, whether the Highway Board could get out of paying heavy damages, but the G. H. E. have a happy faculty of taking chances and we must admit they usually get by—but they have been caught before, and may again. Why

News came on Wednesday, 14th, of the death on the 13th inst., of Mr. Robert B. Rawling, of Rye Beach, New Hampshire, at the age of forty-eight years. He leaves a wife and two sons. His father, Capt. Joseph Rawling, resides at Bear River with his daughter, Mrs. Wilfred Chute, a sister of the deceased, Capt. Elias Rawling here is a brother—four other brothers and two other sisters reside abroad.

An interesting scene was witnessed the other evening from the rectory windows. Six partridges were budding on a tall poplar tree as dusk deepened into darkness. One by one they gradually dropped from branch to branch until about 12 to 15 feet from the ground, when they dove into the deep snow and disappeared leaving only a small impression where they went in. Here they stayed until next morning when they emerged and began their breakfast. A shot storm is almost fatal to them. When the crust is so hard they cannot pierce it they die by hundreds. Bird lovers in the village are hanging out food for the little birds which become quite tame. Blue Jays, Pine Grosbeaks, Junco, Chickadees and others can be seen coming daily for their meals. These birds are our friends and deserve our help during the hard Winter months.

As we write our notes word comes of the somewhat sudden death of Mrs. Jas. Williams, of Upper Clements, an account of which will appear next week.

Continuous storms of snow and wind beginning Tuesday, 13th inst., and lasting for nearly three days filled up the highways and retarded the breaking of the roads again. The D.A.R. train service was delayed seriously, but the various trains got through in many cases hours late. The great danger now is ice formation on the rails and a repetition of the situation of 1904-05 which we trust may not happen.

Interesting Letter from Florida By Bridgetown Lady

In the Sunny South land, The skies are ever blue, The palm trees and the flowers Of every varied hue, Are spread upon the landscape In such profusion rare, One cannot but wonder If Heaven can be more fair.

Such is the sentiment of the bunch of Nova Scotians who journeyed South the week before Christmas, and are enjoying to the fullest extent this wonderful country, with its magnificent scenery of sparkling lakes, that one never loses sight of, for as fast as you pass one, another appears in view; beautiful palm trees, of which there are three hundred and sixty-five varieties; flowers of every hue—just now the Bignonia, venusta, is showing itself in all its golden radiance, it is a climbing trailing vine with a bell-shaped flower of the orange hue. We pass it covering fences, immense trees so thickly covered that one can see nothing else, but its flame, frequently we see the whole front of houses, water tanks, and other things completely covered, and you cannot imagine the beauty. Other winter flowers are the Bogenvilla which come in different shades, pink, a beautiful scarlet, and lavender. The single and double Hibiscus, a shrub belonging to the mallow family, and its cousin the Japanese Hibiscus which has a bell-shaped flower of the same color. The roses are wonderful and all of the hot house flowers at home are growing here in profusion.

But the climax of all beauty is found in the orange and grapefruit groves which are said to be the best in the world. Out of the fourteen million boxes of citrus fruit shipped from Florida last year, one fifth was exported from Port County, which is situated about the centre of the State, with an area of one thousand nine hundred and seven square miles and a population that has doubled since the last federal census. It has a good system of railways, and has the distinction of having every town connected with every other town by its three hundred and forty-six miles of hard surfaced roads constructed of "brown asphalt" sand and tree trunks.

In the year 1850 the first railway in this County started the first groves and some of them are still in great condition; even before the first railroad was built citrus fruit was raised in quantities sufficient to justify hauling it from fifty to seventy-five miles in wagons pulled across the sandy trail by oxen. With the advent of the first railroad this industry received a new impetus and has steadily increased until now it leads the State, not only in the number of acres set to groves, but also in the number of boxes of fruit shipped annually. Up-to-date packing houses owned by growers, also several owned by private companies are well equipped for packing and shipping this luscious fruit which is sent to all parts of U. S. and Canada east of the Rocky Mountains also European markets are being opened up for it.

In this County there are thousands of acres of winter vegetables of all varieties and supplied the Christmas market. Just now at Plant City they are shipping seventy thousand boxes per day. Owing to the continued seasons without frost, crops can follow each other in quick succession, they tell us that corn will produce from forty to fifty bushels per acre, without additional fertilizer, when following a winter vegetable crop, and sweet potatoes following winter vegetables will produce from three hundred to five hundred bushels per acre. Sugar-cane is also becoming a profitable profitable product and averages about four hundred gallons of syrup per acre.

In our auto trips through this County, we pass stock, dairy and poultry farms, native grasses and forage crops in their luxuriance all the year; beautiful farm houses, situated along the splendid highways; passing through modern towns with a population of from a few hundred to ten or fifteen thousand. Splendid churches and schools, up-to-date stores and public buildings and numerous industries. Lumbering is an important industry, we pass miles and miles of magnificent pine forests; as the ground is being prepared for setting of thousands of acres of new groves each year, these pines are cut down and find their way to the numerous small saw mills awaiting them, to be cut into lumber for building. These trees are the turpentine pine, a fire is set in the stump which burns up the entire root, making it an easy method of clearing the land, which is very sandy and then only need to be broken up, fertilized and set with groves.

GLAD SHE DID AS DOCTORS TOLD HER

Took Tanlac on Physicians Advice and It Put Her in Fine Condition, States Mrs. Coles

"Tanlac is certainly an ideal medicine," recently said Mrs. Bessie Coles, highly esteemed resident of 1851 Lorrie St., Regina, Sask. "I was in such a badly run-down condition that I just felt miserable all the time. My appetite had failed me to such an extent that I was losing weight steadily. My nerves were awfully unstrung; many, many times I couldn't get even an hour's sleep at night long, and I never felt like doing my housework at all. "I was badly in need of something to build me up and when a physician advised me to take Tanlac, I lost no time getting a bottle. Now, I really don't feel like the same person, the medicine has done me such a world of good. My nerves have steadied down, I am sleeping like a child, eating heartily, have gained several pounds, and am feeling just fine. Knowing what a wonderful medicine Tanlac is, I can sincerely recommend it to anyone."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Over 35-million bottles sold.

REPORT OF ANNAPOLIS COUNTY FARMERS' ASSOCIATION DEC. 31st, 1922.

To the Warden, W. G. Clarke, and Members of the Municipal Council for Annapolis County: Gentlemen:—Report of the Annapolis County Farmers' Association for 1922 follows: The Nineteenth Annual Meeting of the County Farmers' Association was convened in the Demonstration Building, Lawrencetown, on the 3rd of January, 1923, President C. S. Buchanan presiding. He read an excellent address reviewing events of the past year (this will appear in the local press soon). The Secretary referred to some of the Association by the instructive Short Course held in the Dem. Building on the 14th, 15th and 16th of March conducted by Dr. J. M. Cumming, Secty. of Agriculture, and staff of the Agricultural College, Truro, also the pleasing speeches on the 20th of Aug. by Professor W. Saxby Blair, Supt. of the Experimental Farm, Kentville, and Prof. Traeman of the Agricultural College, and Dr. Lovett, M. P., of the County.

On the 7th of September, J. Forsyth Smith, Canadian Fruit Commissioner to Great Britain, well-known to fruit growers by his frequent reports of the English markets, was favored with a good audience. At this Annual Meeting Prof. Blair gave an excellent address on "Beautifying the Home".

Professor Arthur Keisall, of Entomological Laboratory Station, Annapolis, a practical talk on the "Control of Orchard and Potato Pests". "Dr. C. B. Sims, V. S., on "Some Facts About the Horse". A strong plea for "The Retention of the Horse".

The Financial Statement was declared correct by the Auditor, showing Receipts of the usual Provincial Grants, Member Fees and Sundry Items amounting to $189.54. The Expenditure, Insurance, paid delegates to Provincial Association at 1922, necessary repairs, maintaining plant, care and upkeep of D. Building, $140.75. Number of members, 73. ## REPORT SUPT. OF COUNTY HOSPITAL

To the Warden and Councillors of Annapolis County: Gentlemen:—I beg to present the following report of the Annapolis County Hospital for the year ending Dec. 31st, 1922: Table showing Admissions, Deaths, etc: Enregistered Dec. 31, 1921 ..... 44 Admitted ..... 13 Total under care ..... 57 Discharged ..... 2 Died ..... 10 Enregistered Dec. 31, 1922 ..... 45

Reference to the above statistics will show that many changes have taken place during the year. Of the forty-five now in residence, thirteen were admitted during the year, this being considerably above the average. During the last year the death record has been considerably above the average, and in proportion to that of admissions so that there is but a slight increase in residence at the close of the year. The deaths have been largely among the aged, and those who have had illness of long standing; one had passed her 86th birthday; three, their 75th; two, their 62th, the remaining number ranging from forty-five to sixty-five. It might be interesting to note that one of those who died, was admitted to the Hospital April 29th, 1897, and continued in residence for twenty-two years to the time of his death. It might also be of interest to know that there are still two patients in the Hospital, who were admitted previous to the year 1895, and among the first to be admitted to the Hospital.

Of those admitted during the year, three were from Bridgetown; three from the County, and seven transferred from the N. S. Hospital; three of Annapolis County, and four of Yarmouth. The three of Annapolis County and who were transferred from the N. S. Hospital, were the only patients belonging to this County at that Hospital, who were at all suitable for transfer.

I wish to refer briefly to the matter of applications that are often received for the admission of patients to the County Hospital, and in this respect I wish only to refer to those usually received for the admission of the aged and infirm. The longer my experience in the work in which I have had the honor to be so long engaged, the more I am convinced that there are those who have the impression that the Hospital exists for the purpose of convenience, and as a place of refuge from family cares, rather than that of necessity. True, infirmities due to old age, unfortunately, very often embody mental as well as physical defects, and as a consequence to this condition the patients at times become noisy and restless, and is doubtless very disconcerting to members of the household at times, yet, when the patient is so incapacitated through age and physical debility, as is often the case, they might, so far as their mental condition is concerned, be easily managed in the home, especially when pecuniary circumstances warrant the same. It might also be well to emphasize the need of reserving the very limited accommodations which the Hospital affords, for those cases whose mental and more vigorous physical condition warrant care and treatment other than that which is possible to provide in the home, and who must of necessity be placed in some institution.

The various repairs incidental to an institution of this kind have been attended to during the year. Two new bowls have been set in the toilets, replacing the two that had become

GENERAL DEBILITY FOLLOWS INFLUENZA

The After-Effects Often More Serious Than The Disease Itself.

No reasonable precaution to avert an attack of influenza should be spared. The disease itself often proves fatal and its after effects among those who are spared, make the life of a victim one of almost constant misery. Ask almost any of those who have been attacked by this trouble what their present condition of health is and most of them will answer: "Since I had the influenza I have never been fully well." This trouble leaves behind it a persistent weakness of the limbs, shortness of breath, bad digestion, palpitation of the heart and a tired feeling after even slight exertion. This is due to the thin-blooded condition in which the patient is left after the fever and influenza have subsided. This condition will continue until the blood is built up again, and for building up the blood and strengthening the nerves nothing can equal a fair treatment with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. The value of this medicine in cases of this kind is shown by the statement of Mr. Edward J. McGuire, Pembroke, Ont., who says:—"In the fall of 1918 I was attacked with the influenza—and not in a mild form either. I was confined to my room for three weeks, and although the influenza subsided I did not regain my health. As a matter of fact I seemed to be growing weaker. I had no appetite, was subject to fainting spells and my feet and ankles were badly swollen. The doctor told me that my condition had developed into a serious case of anaemia, and although I was under his care for over two months I was not improving in any way. At this stage one of my friends advised me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I was loath to do so, as I began to think my case hopeless. However, I was finally persuaded to try them, and by the time I had used two boxes there was no doubt they were helping me. I continued taking the pills until I had used a dozen boxes, when I found that every symptom of the trouble had left me and I was again enjoying the best of health. I returned to my work and have ever since been in good health and feel that I owe it entirely to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I think that every one who is suffering from the after effects of influenza, or any form of anaemia, should give this medicine a fair trial."

You can get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills through any dealer in medicine, or by mail at 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50, from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

obscure and unsanitary, bringing us one step nearer the goal we have been endeavoring to reach in the way of sanitation. A long felt want has also been supplied in the installation of a pipeless furnace. A large portion of the Hospital has been without heat and in cold weather was far from being comfortable. Happily the furnace is giving excellent satisfaction, and everybody is warm and happy, even though the temperature drops on the outside.

The methods relative to employment and recreation afforded the patients during the past year, have been along the same lines as formerly. A number of the male patients have been able to participate in the work on the farm, and with resulting benefit to both. Those whose condition did not permit of participation in any kind of outdoor work, have had the usual out door exercise. Most all the male patients can be induced, and are quite anxious and contented to engage in some sort of work which is usually provided them, and which adds materially to their comfort and happiness. This feature is not so pronounced on the female side of the house; with the exception of a very few, it is impossible to engage them in any kind of work, a feature I am sure not prevalent among this sex under normal conditions.

Several entertainments have been provided by local talent during the year, and have been a source of pleasure to those who were able to be present. The result of these entertainments can be best realized by those who have the care, and are in constant touch with these people, and when we say that they in their isolation and monotony of institutional life, are considerably cheered and encouraged by these entertainments, know whereof we speak. It is to be highly commended that there are those who, from time to time provide entertainment, and who are ever ready with a helping hand in all that tends toward the happiness of an unfortunate people.

We are again indebted to Dr. Joel and the Baptist Deacons for religious services held each fortnight, as also the Clergy of the several denominations who perform such religious rites as are frequently required. The Weekly Monitor and Annapolis Spectator have usual been regularly supplied, and are appreciated by

Winter Weather Hard on Little Ones

Our Canadian winters are exceedingly hard on the health of little ones. The weather is often so severe that the mother cannot take the little one out for an airing. The consequence is that baby is confined to overheated, badly ventilated rooms; takes cold and becomes cross and peevish. Baby's Own Tablets should be given to keep the little one healthy. They are a mild laxative which regulate the stomach and bowels and thus prevent colds. The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

In conclusion I wish to take this opportunity of expressing appreciation for the many acts of kindness and assistance afforded me by the Committee, and to all those associated with me in the work of the Hospital. I wish also at this time to heartily thank the Warden, W. G. ### N. S. TEMPERANCE ACT ACCUSES AND INSPECTOR'S REPORT

To the Warden and Councilors of the Municipality of Annapolis County: Gentlemen—Permit me to submit the following report of my doings as your Inspector for enforcing the N. S. Temperance Act during the year 1922:

In March last I proceeded against Andrew Smith, of West Dalhousie, secured a conviction before Stipendiary McKay, and committed Smith to prison.

I made the following searches without the expense of securing warrants: the premises of Arthur Sims and Ezekiel Marsman at Ingleswood, Jas. Morrison near the town of Middleton, Harry Gesner near Parker's Cove, Moses' and six other premises at General Bridge, Lequile. I also visited Clementsport with the intention of searching premises near Waldeck line, but upon consultation with Conciliator Rawding and others, I was convinced that the search was not necessary. I also made a trip to Springfield for purpose of search but could not secure evidence of any value.

At Sims', Marsman's and Morrison's I found supplies of "Home Brew", but only small quantities in the other localities. In the Sims case I brought action in May last, secured a conviction and had a warrant of commitment issued, but on his premises to refrain from selling or otherwise disposing of such Beer, I have simply held the warrant over him ready for use at any time. In August last I again visited his residence and found nothing objectionable, and am convinced that the said conviction has been sufficient to put him out of the business.

In the case of Marsman and Morrison I could not procure sufficient evidence to warrant my bringing action. In fact, no action has been brought by me unsuccessfully. Tereto annexed is my general account totalling $100.36 with itemized accounts appended thereto.

MISS CORBETT SAVES HIGH SCHOOL BUILDING

On Monday afternoon, as the teachers were leaving the Academy, they were aware of the presence of smoke in all the rooms. As the furnaces are in the habit of sending forth a certain amount of smoke as well as heat, it was merely given passing notice. Miss Corbett, Principal, who was detained longer than the others of the staff, soon became conscious of something very wrong, as the smoke was rapidly increasing. On investigation she found the fire near the chimney in the lower hall. The alarm was given and a number of men soon gathered. Part of the men near the chimney had to be seen out as the fire was gaining headway between the walls. The cause of the fire was a faulty chimney; either the building had settled, causing a crack in the chimney, or one of the bricks had loosened—Milton Cor. in Liverpool Advance.

(The Miss Corbett referred to above is Miss Gladys Corbett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Corbett, of this town).—Ed. Monitor.

WRITING AND DOING

A woman there was, and she wrote for the Press (As you or I might do) She told how to cut and fit a dress. And how to stew many a savoury mess; But she never did it herself, I guess (Which none of her readers knew).

Oh, the hour we spent and the flour we spent, And the sugar we wasted like sand, At the behest of a woman who never had cooked (And now we know that she could cook) And did not understand.

A woman there was, and she wrote right fair (As you or I might do) How out of a barrel to make a chair. To be covered with chintz and stuffed with hair 'Twould adorn any parlor and give it an air (And we thought the tale was true).

Oh, the days we worked and the ways we worked, To hammer and saw and tack. In making a chair in which no one would sit, A chair in which no one could possibly sit Without a crack in his back.

A woman there was, and she had her fun (Better than you and I); She wrote recipes, and she never tried one, She wrote about children—of course, she had none— She told us to do what she never had done (And never intended to try). —Columbus "Dispatch".

OBITUARY

On Thursday, Feb. 1st, after about a month's illness, Elizabeth C., widow of the late J. W. Hutchinson, passed away at her home in Arlington, Mass., aged 70 years. She was formerly Miss Stapleton, of St. John's, Newfoundland, and came to Massachusetts at an early age. After her marriage, she came with her husband to Granville Centre, where she lived for a number of years. Recently she has been living in Massachusetts.

On Sunday afternoon, Feb. 4th, preceded by the ladies of the Guild of the Church of our Saviour, of which she was a valued member, she was taken to the church where a short service was held by the rector, Rev. Warren Bisby. On Tuesday following another service was held in All Saints' Church, Granville Centre, where for many years she was one of the congregation. Ven. Archdeacon Watson officiating. She was then laid to rest beside her husband who predeceased her seven years ago.

She leaves to mourn their loss four daughters, Misses Carrie, Edith and Leila at home, and Mrs. J. L. Amberman at Granville Ferry, also two sons, William Hutchinson of Brookline, Mass., and Harold Hutchinson, of Somerville, Mass., the latter of whom accompanied the remains to Granville. The large number of beautiful flowers in wreaths, sprays, etc., testified to the esteem in which she was held by her friends in Massachusetts.

DEATH OF CAPT. W. R. LONGMIRE

Universal Regret Felt Over Passing of Such a Splendid Type of Citizen.

The whole town and surrounding country was saddened on Tuesday to learn of the death of Capt. W. R. Longmire, after an illness extending back for a considerable period but borne with cheerfulness and courage so much so in fact that even most intimate friends could scarcely realize the seriousness of his malady. Capt. Longmire kept up on his varied and numerous duties till finally forced to give up he went to Halifax for an operation four weeks ago. From the very first, no hope was entertained of his recovery, his death being regarded as the matter of a short time.

He leaves a wife, four sons, Paul, associated with him in business; John, of the firm of Dargie & Longmire; Charles, proprietor of the Bridgetown Book Store, and Ronald, at school; one daughter, Mrs. Walter W. Flett; four brothers, C. B. Longmire, proprietor of Longmire's Shoe Store, Bernard, in Calgary; Martin and Hatheway in Boston, to mourn their loss.

Next week we trust to give a much more extended reference. Captain Will Longmire was an ideal father, a pillar in the church and a man whom any community would be proud to have on the roll of its citizens. A man of whom everyone spoke in the highest terms in his business, in a social way and in every relation of life. Of him it might be truly said without the faintest suspicion of flattery, that the world where he touched it in all the relations of life was far the better for his having lived and far the poorer from his having died.

DEATH OF MRS. A. F. LITTLE

Came With Suddenness Following Brief Illness—Dense Deeply Bereft

The death occurred at her home on Saturday afternoon at 3.30 after a very brief illness of Mrs. A. F. Little, wife of manager A. F. Little, of the Royal Bank branch here.

Mrs. Little had, during the week, taken cold, but her condition was not such as to cause any alarm or apprehension either to herself or to any other members of the family. On Saturday morning medical counsel was called in and the case was diagnosed as bronchial pneumonia but with no symptoms of the impending end which came with startling suddenness during the afternoon.

Mrs. Little, who was, previous to her marriage, Miss Sadie McAskill, of St. Peters, C.B., leaves to mourn their loss, husband, three children, James, Dorothy and Reginald; one brother, Kenneth, residing at St. Peters.

A woman of pleasing personality, a splendid musician, she gave of her talents freely in the town generally and in church circles particularly, where her ready assistance was much appreciated in entertainments for the public good. One of her last helps rendered was in the direction of the entertainment programme by the C. Mates of the County Institutions than whom these unfortunates had no better friend in town.

The funeral took place from the home at 2.30 Tuesday afternoon, the services being conducted by Rev. E. Underwood, rector of St. James' Church. The Daughters of Rebekah of whom the deceased was a valued member, performed the impressive rites of the Order at the grave in Riverside cemetery.

Feeding a wringer has gone out of style

It isn't necessary nowadays, any more than it is necessary to crank an automobile. The Laun-Dry-ETTE has made wringers old-fashioned. The Laun-Dry-ETTE has no wringer—and needs none. It washes the clothes, then wrings them dry for the line in one minute—a tubful at a time. Let us show you the wringerless Laun-Dry-ETTE—the electric washer that both washes and dries.
