Sir Wilfrid Laurier is but an about ferront student of history. The cive of Theseday last published what was evidently a prepared reprint of the contingenters just before their emberkation. Rochfort Maguire was a Parne'lite candidate in Clare under Mr. Redmond's patronace.

Another "Irish rebel" has been discovered in the person of Miss Maud Gonne. The young lady, however, is not an Irish woman. She is the daughter of Colonel Gonne, who commanded the 17th Lancers, and who was at one time D.A.A.T. in Dublin. Miss Golne developed robellion upon Irish air and personal experience of the risgovernment of the country.

Considerable anxiety was feit in the early part of the week over the prospect of an engagement between Col. Sun Hughes and his adversaries on the bislone battefield of Quebec. The bild facts are as follows: When the Canadian contingent had been founded and quadruple ploted with insurance on the lives and finite of its members; it was amounced in all the papers that Col. San Mod received the appointment of sentor major. But it quickly transpired that General Hutton was unalterably opposed to the arrangement, and had decided to resign his own post unless Col. Sam was put off like roll of the confingent absolutely. This amouncement struck the jubile with quibb damid, all the more so that the Lindauy warrior had definitely another the pross his interition of leading the Canadian recruits against the Russians after he had il-ked the Boors. The Government struck the first of the condition of Sam show that he is no board he Sar-dizian, coaveying the contingent absyrve way to General Hutton's Jedziany, however, and the last tidings of Col. The Government will not give him even a letter of introduction to General Bullet that, pould hop him to obtain command or the Dublin Fugiliers o. the Black Watch. It is a terrible state of affairs, and if Col. Sam showld over reach South Africa we can see so propect before him but to carry out his military plans on his sown hook, or serve as a Canadian "Bill Adams" to General Bullet as

A great deal is being said about the approval alleged to have been given to the war in South Altica by Right Rev. Dr. Gaughran, C.M.I., Vicar-Aportolic of the Ocnape Free State. This approval is said to have been expressed in a letter written by Dr. Gaughran to a friend in Boston, The friend sent an extract from the letter to a Boston paper, whether with or without the eritor's leave, we have on means of knowing. But supposing that the position of Dr. Gaughran is exactly as stated, it simply means that he is entitled to his opinion. Opinions on such matters as this are often developed by the surroundings of the individual, and it is not any wonder that Dr. Gaughran, "time the city of Klosherley, where fresh are as strong as in New York, where the Mayor up to very recently was Moces Cornwall, a fine Home Ruler and delegate to the Duiltin Corn also
