gach cruadail. Chuir na Laoich o na ghineadh sibh, le taic nam Beann, le misneachd an Dàn, 's le faobhar an claidheimh, na Ròimhich o shean, air ais do'n tìr chein, ged cheannsaich iad carran mhòr dhe 'n Domhain. 'S anns na blaraibh cian-iomraideach a thugadh anuadh, air feadh na h-Eorpa, 'n uair a bhagair Aintighearna na Frainge, gu ladarna, aon tigh-daorsa a dheanamh de 'n t-saoghal gu léir, sheas sibhse, mar bu dual, ri gualainn bhur Rìgh dhùthchasaich, gu calma, curanta, cunbhallach, bhur n-anamaibh bras 's'a chath, le meamnadh Ghaisgeach na Feinne, agus fhuair sibh, mar iadsan, moladh ann an dànaibh gach Dùthcha, nach leigear air diochuimhn gus an sguir na soluis neamhaidh a thomhas bhliadhnachan agus linntean.

Gum a fad a mhealas sibh an cliù sin a tha cho dlìgheach d'ar muinntir, anns gach deadh bheus agus deadh ghniomh. Lionmhor bitheadh 'ur sliochd mar Reultaibh nèimhe, cruadalach mar an darach nach còsnich slàn a gheamhraidh; a's gun robh saorsa, agus sonas, gu bràth, ag aiteachadh tìr nam Beann, 's nan Gleann, 's nam Breacan !!!

DO 'N UISEIG,

R'A H-'ORAN FEASGAIR.

'Fhilidh éibhinn	Gur spiorad thu
Sin, a dh'èireas	Bha fada 'n dàn ,
Do na spèuraibh,	Far nach mill ùine òigeal-
Far nach léur dhomh—	achd.
'S mi ga d' éisdeachd,	An guth o 'n chlàr
'S tric mi 'g éigheadh	Chuir gean air Saul
'N ann o shéraph	Bàrd bheag mo ghràidh?
Ghoid thu gleusan òrain sin?	No 'n Oisein àigh
O, 'èoin mo rùin,	Tha 'd riochd, gu h-àrd?
'S na ribheid chiùin,—	O! Rìgh nam Bàrd!
Le d' rann gun smùr,	Ma's e, cha nàr
'Sled' phronntachd lùth'r,	Ged tha 'n ceòl tlàth 'toirt
Tha mi 'n leth-dhùil	dheòire uam.

A Mhìc nan neul,
Tha guth do bhéil
A' cur 'an céill
Gu bheil thu'n gaol:—
Gun dol do'n t-saogh'l
Os ceann nan reul,
Cha-n fhaighear sgeul
Air dad cho nèamhaidh, shòlasach!

O! sud thu 'n àird—
Mar chaidh am fàidh
Do thìr an àigh,—
No anam Bàird,
'Nuair leaghas gràdh
A chridhe blàth,
'S e 'seinn a dhàin
Do'n rìbhinn mhàlt is Ceòl-raidh dha.

Feuch mar d' fhuair thu
Nis a suas ort!
Nèdil mu'n cuairt ort,
Ceòl a's suaimhneas;—
'Bheil do smuaintean,

Air do luaidh 'n sin?
No 'm fàth duain dhuit
Rìgh nan sluagh a ghloireachadh?

Pill, mo leug thu!
Pill mu'n téid thu
Far nach feud mi
Tuillidh d' éisdeachd,
'S mu 'm fàg trèubhan
Binn nan speuran
Air bheag glèusaidh
An clàir féin, a dh-fhòghlum uait!

O! stad dhe d' dhuain,
Tha 'n là 'san uaigh;
Tha 'ghrian 'sa' chuan;
Tha 'n druid 'na suain;
Tha 'n rionnag shuas:—
A nuas, a nuas,
A's faigh do dhuais
'An cneas do luaidh—'so
GHLÒMUIN E.

DO 'N GHREIN.

O! thusa féin a shiubhlas shuas
Cruinn mar làn-sgiath chruaidh nan triath,
Cia as tha do dhearsa gun ghruaim,
Do sholas a ta buan, a ghrian?
Thig thu ann ad àille thréin,
Is foluichidh réil uainn an triall,
A' ghealach 'g a dubhadh san speur
'G a cleith féin fo stuaidh 'san iar.
Tha thusa ann ad astar a mhàin,
Co tha dàna bhi 'nad chòir?

Tuitidh darag o'n chruaich àird,
 Tuitidh carn fo aois a's scorr :
 Tràoghaidh agus lionaidh 'n cuan,
 Foluichear shuas an reul 'san speur
 Tha thusa d' aon a chaidh fo bhuaidh
 An aoibhneas buan do sholuis féin.
 'Nuair dhubhas m' an domhan stoirm
 Le torran borb is dealan beithr',
 Scallaidh tu 'na d' àille o'n toirm,
 Fiamh-ghàir ort am bruaillean nan speur.
 Ach dhomhsa tha do sholas faoin,
 'S nach faic mi chaidh do ghnuis,
 Sgaoileadh cùil is òr-bhuidh ciabh
 Air aghaidh nan neòil san ear :
 No 'nuair a chritheas anns an iar
 Le do dhearsa ciar air lear.
 'S maith dh' fheudadh gu bheil thu mar mi féin,
 'S an àm gu treun, 's gun fheum air àm ;
 Ar bliadhnaibh a' tèarnadh o'n spéur
 A' siubhal le chéile gu 'n ceann.
 Biodh aoibhneas ort féin, a ghrian,
 'S tu neartmhor, a thriath, 'nad òige ;
 'S brònach mi-thaitneach an aois,
 Mar ghealach fhaoin san speur,
 A' ruith fo neul air raon,
 'S an liath-cheo air taobh nan carn,
 An osag o thuath air an réith ;
 Fear-siubhail fo bheud 's e mall.

An d'fhàg thu gorm-astar nan speur,
 A mhic gun bheud, a's òr-bhuidh ciabh ?
 Tha dorsan na h-oidhche dhuit réidh,
 Agus pàillion do chlos 's an iar.
 Thig na stuaidh mu'n cuairt gu mall,
 A choimhead fir a's gloine gruaidh ;

A togail fo eagal an ceann ;
 Ri d' fhaicinn cho àillidh 'nad shuain,
 Theich iadsan gun tuar o d' thaobh.
 Gabhsa codal ann do chòs,
 A ghrian ! is till o d' chlos le h-aoibhneas.

SGEUL COMAIL.

Bha Comal o Alba féin ;
 Thar ceud beinn bu thriath an triath,
 O mhìle sruth dh'òladh 'fhéidh ;
 Chluinnt' a choin air mìle sliabh ;
 Bha 'aghaidh cho sèimh ri òighe,
 Bu bhàs a làmh mhòr do laoi-ch.
 Bha 'rùn do ainnir, 's bu chòrr i.
 Nighinn Chomhluich nan còrn 's nam faobh.
 B' is' an gath-gréine 'measg bhan ;
 Bu duibhe na fitheach a ciabh ;
 Bu luath a caoin sheilg air tràigh ;
 Chluinnt' a bogh' air ghaoith nan sliabh.
 Bha h-anam air Comal a' tàmh ;
 'S tric thachair 'an gràdh an suil,
 'S a' mhonadh bha iomairt an làmh,
 Bu taitneach an sanas air chùl.
 Bu rùn do Ghruamal an òigh ;
 Triath Ardbheinn nam mòr neòil.
 Bha 'aire mu h-astar o shlòigh,
 Namhaid Chomail nan gorm-sgiath.
 Aon là o 'n t seilg, is iad sgìth,
 Ceò a cleith na frìth o 'n t-sluagh,
 Thachair Comal is ainnir gun chliath
 'N còs Ronain aig srìth nan stuadh,
 Aite-còmhnuidh do Chomal o 'n t-seilg,
 Dha féin is do àirm nam buadh.
 Bha ceud sgiath àrd gun mheirg,
 Ceud clogad treun de chruaidh.

‘ Gabh tuinidh, ’s e thubhairt an t-òg,
 ‘ A Ghealmhìn a’s àillidh snuagh ;
 Ghath-soluis a’s ainneamh ’an còs ;
 Chi mi cabrach mòr mu’ n chruaich ;
 Falbhaidh, ach tilleam gun tàmh.’
 ‘ Tha m’ eagal mu nàmhaid,’ thuirt òigh,
 Mu Ghruamal nach éirich ’an dàn,
 Dha’s annsa Ronan ’s a chòs.

Ach fuiricheam am measg nan àrm
 Gu d’ thilleadh o thoirm na seilg.’

Dh’fhalbh e gu Mora an fhéidh.
 Chum feuchainn nach d’thréig a ghràdh,
 Chuir ise na h-àirm oirre féin,
 Is luathaich i ’ceum gu tràigh.
 Shaoil e gur nàmhaid a bh’ann ;
 Bhuail a chridh’ gu h-àrd a chliabh ;
 Thionndaidh a dhearg-chruth gu bàn,
 Mu ’shùile bha dorchadas ciar ;
 Tharruing e ’m bogha gu ’chùl ;
 Leum o ’thaifeid iuthaidh réidh ;
 Thuit Ghealmhìn ’n a fuil, a rùn.
 Thàinig ’s b’fhiadhaich a ghnùis ’s a cheum,
 Ghairm air nighinn Chomluich nan long
 Gun fhreagrachd o thòm no sliabh,
 ‘ C’ àite bheil thu, rùn nan sonn,
 Ainnir ghasda nan tròm-chiabh ?
 Bha ’cridhe-se ’clisgeadh thall
 Mu ’n iuthaidh a dh’ fhàg a làmh,
 ‘ An tus’ a nighinn Chomluich a t’ ann ?
 ’S e ’tuiteam gun dàil mu ’bràigh.
 Fhuair sealgair an dithis a b’ ùr
 ‘An àros an fhéidh ri stuaidh.
 Bu dorch a laithean mu ’rùn,
 Bu ònmhor a cheum mu ’h-uaigh :
 Thàinig luingeas naimhd’ o thuath,
 Bhuail ’us chuir fo ruaig an dàimh.

Ag iarraidh a' bhàis roimh 'n t-sluagh,
 Co a bhriseadh a chruaidh air tràigh;
 Thilg e 'airm dhùbh-ghorm air réith?
 Fhuair iuthaidh a chré gun bhàigh.
 Tha 'chodal, a Ghealmhìn, ri d' thaobh
 Mu ionairt na gaoith air chuan.
 Chi maraich' an uaigh maraon
 'S e 'g éiridh air druim nan stuadh.

EXERCISES IN TRANSLATION.

1. Sleighing is good. Walking is bad. That action was wicked. Where is the hair-brush? "Well" (Ma ta), he replied, "I do not believe in getting drunk as some folk do (nà), but I like to have a good time, now and then." To-day is fine. Take a chair. Bring your chair up near the fire. Exhausted by fatigue, I lay down to rest. A young man of talent and perseverance may reasonably have hope of success in life. The valiant do not taste of death but once.

2. He cut the paper with the scissors. He writes a good hand. Ring the bell. Did you hear the news. He is to be pitied (Is mairg) who holds out (infinitive, §85, R. 41) the hand of poverty to a hen's heart. Shut the door of the parlor. The snow is well-nigh gone. The students of that college honour their Professors. He said he would be here at seven o'clock. My friend is charitable and kind.

3. There is a voice from the tomb sweeter than song. There is a remembrance of the dead, to which we turn even from the charms of the living. Oh, the grave! the grave!—It buries every error, covers every defect, extinguishes every resentment.—Irvine.

4. Your favour of May 14th was duly received. The book of anecdotes, for which I am much obliged to you (mòran 'nad chomuinn), arrived a few days later ('na dhéigh). I and all your other friends here are well. John has gone (chaidh) to Halifax and will probably call to see you. Nothing of importance has disturbed the usual monotony of our country life. I am (I'mise) ever (a h-uile là a chi 'us nach fhaic) your faithful friend, Evan.

COMPARISON OF ADJECTIVES.

§35. Adjectives of quality are inflected for Degree.

There are three degrees called Degrees of Comparison:—Positive, Comparative and Superlative.

There are three forms of the Comparative, known as the First, Second and Third Comparatives.

§36. 1. The First Comparative. In the First Declension, the First Comparative is like the genitive singular feminine; mall, slow, moille; bàin, fair, bàine.

In the Second Declension adjectives whose last vowel is broad add a to the nominitive singular masculine, and adjectives whose last vowel is small add e to the same, for the First Comparative; as, bochd, poor, bochda; réith, plain, réithe.

2. The Second Comparative is formed by adding id to the First Comparative; but if the First end in e, e is dropped before id; as bochda, poorer, bochaid; bàine, fairer, bàinid.

3. The Third Comparative is formed by adding ad to the First Comparative; but if the latter end in a, d alone is added; as bòidhehe, more beautiful, bòidhchead; dona, worse, donad.

§37. Use of the Comparatives. 1. The First Comparative is used when two things are compared; as, is ise's bòidhehe na † Uua, she is prettier than Winifred. This Comparative is also frequently used as a noun feminine of the Sixth Declension.

2. The Second Comparative is used when two conditions of the same thing are compared; cha bhòidhchid i sud, she is none the prettier for that; cha bu mhisid mi e, I was none the worse for it; is feàrrid mi na rinn e air mo shon, I am the better of what he did for me.

3. The Third Comparative is a noun feminine of the Second Declension. It is used to express comparison after the verbs rach and cuir, and the prepositions ann and air. Tha mhin a' dol an daoiread, meal is becoming dearer (lit. meal is going into dearness).

EXERCISE XIII.

Learn §§3, R. 24 and 25.

1. Ni 's glice na eunlaith nan speur. Is tusa is firinniche na mise. Bha é ni b' urramaiche na a bhraithrean. Tha an t-iasg a' dol an daoiread. Tha iad ni 's milse na a' mhil. Is luaithe iad na iolairean. Tha é ni 's sine na Seòmaid. Tha an clarsach nis ann an deisead. Tha é dol an laigead gach là.

2. John is more handsome than James. I am more righteous than thou. Silk is becoming dear. I am older than Alexander. The waggon is now in readiness. Give me a swifter horse and stronger harness. Ludovick is more liberal than Malcolm.

§38. IRREGULAR COMPARISON.

Positive.	1 Comp.
Beag, little,	lugha, big
Còir, proper,	còra
Cumhang, narrow,	cuinge
Dògh, probable,	dòcha
Dorch, dark,	dòrcha, dim
Duilich, difficult,	duilghe
Dùr, difficult,	dorra
Dugh, natural,	dùcha
Furasda, easy,	fusa
Faisg, Fagus, near.	faisge.

Positive.	1 Comp.
Gearr, Goirrid, short,	giorra.
Geur, sharp,	gèire, gèoire.
Ion, proper, fit,	iona.
Ionmhuinn, desireable,	ionnsa, annsa.
Làidir, strong,	treasa.
Math, Maith, good,	fèarr, feotha.
Mòr, great,	mò.
Ole, bad,	miosa, dona.*
Teth, hot,	teotha.
Toigh, toigheach, { dear, } { beloved, }	tocha, docha.

NOTE.—The Second and third Comparatives, when such exist, are formed regularly in the above Adjectives from the First, except the following :

1 Comp.	2 Comp.	3 Comp.
Gèire,	gèuraid,	gèurad.
Fèarr,	fèaird,	fèarras.
Feotha,	feothaid,	feothas.
Mò.	mòid,	mòid, meud.
Moisa,	misd,	oleas, miosad.
Tocha or docha,	dochaid.

§39. The superlative degree is merely the First Comparative preceded by a's and not followed by na; as, an fear a's truime dhiubh, the heaviest one of them; mar an t-òr a's gloine, as the finest gold; sagart an Dé a's ro aithe, priest of the most high God; so a' chaor a's fèarr 'nam measg, this is the best sheep among them.

EXERCISE XIV.

a, which, who, that,	i, she, her, it.
dha, to or for him.	Is fèarr leam, I prefer.
is fèarr leat, thou preferest,	is fèarr leis, he prefers.

* Has also a positive dona, bad.

1. Is dona an ghlomh a rinn é. B' fhèarr dha an clarsach na an fhiodhuill. Is fhèarr leam rioghachd na 's sùibhire na i sin. Tha é na 's blàithe anns an tigh an diugh na air rathad. Tha Gailean na 's lugha na Eòbhann. Is é so cuid a 's gairbhe de 'n chraoibh. Is fèarr gliocas na an t-òr.

2. *There is nothing sweeter than honey to the taste. *There is nothing sweeter than friendship to the soul. Love is stronger than fear, and more desirable than gold. The night is becoming darker (going into darkness). ('S ann) it is becoming smaller.

NOTES ON THE NUMERAL ADJECTIVES.

1. When the Cardinals are used absolutely the particle a is prefixed; thus, a ceithir; and then aon, dà and ochd are aspirated; thus, a h-aon, a dhà, a h-ochd.

2. From aon to deich the numeral precedes its noun, in Cardinals and Ordinals. Fichead, dà fhichead, trì fichead, &c., céud, míle, muillion, and their Ordinals also precede the noun. In the other numerals the noun comes after the unit; as, aon uair deug, (eleven hours), eleven o'clock; an dara duine deug thar fhichead, the thirty-second man.

3. Fichead, céud, míle, muillion take a noun in the nominative singular. Dà takes a noun in the dative singular aspirate; and if another adjective be expressed the adjective is put in the nominative singular feminine. If the noun after dà is governed in the genitive or dative, the singular is used and the other adjective agrees with its noun. Under all circumstances dà aspirates its noun.

4. A Cardinal with the noun uair, time forms a multiplicative expression; as, aon uair, once, trì uairean thrice, three times, fichead uair, twenty times.

5. The Cardinals aon, fichead, céud, muillion, when used absolutely are nouns masculine. All the others, when so used, are nouns feminine.

6. The Distributive numerals. Leth, half; trian, third; ceithreamh, quarter. The others are formed by joining cuid, a part, to the Ordinals; as, an deicheamh cuid, the twelfth part, one-twelfth.

7. The Collective numerals. The Collective numerals are nouns feminine which govern the genitive plural indefinite of nouns which accompany them. They are applied to persons only; as, dithis mhac; an triùir bhàrd. They take an adjective plural and the article singular. They are:

2. dithis, (gen. deise)

3. triùir,

4. ceathrar,

5. cóigear, cóignear.*

DEMONSTRATIVE ADJECTIVES.

§41. Demonstrative Adjectives are those which point out the thing spoken of; an là so, this day.

A Demonstrative Adjective when used with a noun requires the article; as, an là so; and if is is implied the adjective precedes the article; as, so an là, this is the day. But when joined with a pronoun the article is not used; as, e so, this one; so e, this is he.

Demonstrative Adjectives are indeclinable. They are, so, this, these; sin, that, those there; sud, ud, siod, that, those yonder.

* When two forms are given either may be used as the speaker pleases.

INDEFINITE ADJECTIVES.

§42. Indefinite Adjectives are adjectives of quantity which do not denote an exact number or quantity ; as, air bith, 'sam bith, any, -ever ; eigin, some ; cuid, some ; àiridh, certain.

DISTRIBUTIVE ADJECTIVES.

§43. Distributive Adjectives denote that the things spoken of are taken separately ; as, gach, each, every ; uile, each, every ; eile, other ; le cheile, both.

EXERCISE XVI.

* riut, as thou.

THE PRONOUN.

§44. A pronoun is a word which stands for a noun.

There are four classes of pronouns : Personal, Relative, Possessive and Interrogative.

Personal Pronouns are of two kinds : Substantive and Prepositional.

§45. A Personal Substantive Pronoun is a word which merely stands for a noun in the nominative or accusative case. There are three Pronouns of this class : First, Second and Third.

The First and Second are inflected for number only ; the Third, for number and gender.

First Pers. Sub. Pronoun, Sing. Mi, Mhi, I, me,

Plur. Sinn, we, us.

Second " " " Sing. Tu, thu, thou, thee.

Plur. Sibh, ye, you.

Third " " " Sing. { é, m, he, him, }

{ i, f. she, her, }

Plur. iad, they, them.

There is also an emphatic form in use :

	Sing.	Plur.
First	Mise, mhise	sinne.
Second	Tusa, thusa	sibhse.
Third	Esan, m, ise, f	iadsan.

NOTE.—Final a or e is frequently dropped in the emphatic form, except in the First Plural.

2. The adjective fein, self, may also be joined to either form of these Pronouns for the purposes of emphasis ; as, mi féin myself ; mise féin, my own self.

3. The nominative of the Third Pronoun singular is sometimes written se, m. si, f., and the plural siad, m. & f.

4. In addressing superiors in age and rank the plural of the second person is used in this and the prepositional pronouns.

EXERCISE XVII.

EXERCISE XVIII.

NOTE.—For phrases compounded of Is and a prepositional pronoun with a noun or adjective, see section on Composite verbs.

1. Cha-n 'eil agam ach fichead. Is beag leam an tuaradal agus is mòr leam an dragh. Is toigh leam thusa agus do bhrathair. Is fada leam an rathad. Is beinn leam an t-òran. Is cruaidh leam an càs. Thoir dha an t-airgiod. Thug é leis an t-each. So an lèchran agamsa. Innis sud orra. Tha eridhe annad. Bu bheag sud eadarainn.

1. He took-away (thug) the ink with him. He esteems that man. I am acquainted with William. I delight in music and I hate discord. It becomes him to say so (sin a ràdh). I think that heavy. I love learning for (air son) the mind and friendship for the heart. I do not care for that.

POSSESSIVE PRONOUNS.

§48. The Possessive Pronouns are adjectives corresponding to the personal substantive pronouns. They are three and are inflected for number only.

First Possessive Pronoun, no, my, sing. : ar, plur. our.

Second “ “ do, thy, sing. ; bhur, plur. your.

Third “ “ a, his, her, its ; an, am, plur. their.

NOTE.—1. The enclitics of emphasis are not connected with the possessive pronouns, but still are used with them and suffixed to the nouns they qualify. These enclitics are : -sa for the First and Second singular, -se for the Third singular, when feminine -san when masculine ; -ne for the First plural, -se for the Second, and -san for the Third.

2. Mo, do and a when masculine throw the nouns they qualify into the aspirate form.

3. The First and Second singular elide their final o before a vowel and after a preposition ending in a vowel, thus: m', d'; and the Third singular when used instead of a masculine noun, is elided altogether before a vowel and its place is occupied by an apostrophe (').

4. Ann mo, in my, ann do, in thy, are contracted into 'am and 'ad.

5. Ar and blur take n- before a vowel; and a feminine takes h-.

EXERCISE XIX.

1. Is mise fear-gleidhidh mo bhrathar. Is mò mo pheanas. Is é ar dearbh-bhrathair é agus ar féil. Thèid mi sìos do 'n uaigh a chum mo mhic ri bròn. Mar so (thus) rinn 'athair caoidh air a shon. Is mise do bhanoglach. Thainig i air a h-ais. Thug blur Dia fois duibh, agus thug é dhuibh an tír so. Tha an tuarasdal aca.

2. The value of my sheep and my cows. He took-away your horse with him. Thy death-bed. The thongs of his boots. Her face was as fair as (§88, R. 54.) morning. His eyes were full (§83, R. 22.) of love. Their hands are full of blood.

RELATIVE PRONOUNS.

§49. A Relative Pronoun is a Pronoun which connects two clauses in a sentence.

There are three Relative Pronouns :

The Affirmative, a, an, am, who, whom, which, that,

The Negative, nach, who not, whom not, which not, that not.

The Collective, na, the things which, the persons who, all that, what.

§50. The noun to which the pronoun refers is called its Co-relative. When the Co-relative is extended, a term of reference is introduced immediately before the Relative; as An Ti a ta beannaichte, agus a mhàin cumhdach, Rìgh nan rìgh agus Tighearn nan tighearna, neuch nach faca duine 'sam bith.

THE INTERROGATIVE PRONOUNS.

§51. An Interrogative Pronoun is a pronoun which asks a question.

There are three Interrogative Pronouns:

Co? who? which? Applied to living beings.

Cìod? what? what kind of?

Cia? which? Applied to inanimate objects.

NOTE 1.—An interrogative pronoun asks a question without the assistance of the verb Is to be, but when it implies the Relative, the verb to be is used.

2. Interrogative pronouns precede the nouns to which they refer and the prepositions which govern them; as co an duine? co as an triath? co th' ann ach triath a' chùil mhóir?

3. Co is sometimes used in the genitive case; as, á broinn co an d' thainig an eigh? (Job 38, 29).

4. If the subject of inquiry be in view or its gender and number known, the Personal pronoun is used, as, co e an guth? (Oigh-nam-mor-shuil, 122).

5. The interrogatives are also used in indirect questions.

EXERCISE XX.

1. Co é? Cìod é sud? Co iad? Co i am boirionnach uasal ud? Co é am fear so? Is coma leam co tha ann. Co dhiubh thainig? Is aithne dhomh co rinn é. Tha fios agam cìod é rinn é.

2. Who is that youth? Whose? (Co bu leis?)
 Whose book is this? Which of them did it? Who is that tall gentleman? What prince is that? Who came? Who is the poet that gave you that poem?

THE VERB.

§52. A Verb is a word which asserts.

Verbs are of three kinds: Transitive, Intransitive and Copula.

A Transitive Verb denotes action which passes over to an object.

An Intransitive Verb denotes action which does not pass over to an object.

A Copula Verb is a verb which requires a noun, adjective or adverb to be joined with it so as to make a complete assertion. Verbs of being, becoming, feel- ing, growing are copula.

§53. Conjugation is the exhibition in regular order of the several inflections of the verb.

Verbs are inflected by voice, mood, tense, number and person.

There are two voices: the Active and the Passive.

§54. There are five moods: Imperative, Infinitive, Indicative, Potential, Conditional and Subjunctive.

The Imperative Mood asserts in the form of a command or exhortation.

The Infinitive Mood merely names the action denoted by the verb.

The Indicative Mood asserts with certainty.

The Potential Mood indicates desire or liberty to perform an action.

The Conditional Mood expresses a conditional action or state upon which another action or state depends.

The Subjunctive Mood represents the action expressed by it as contingent.

§55. There are four tenses : Present, Past, Second Past and Future.

The Present Tense expresses an action as being done in the present time.

The Past Tense expresses an action as being done in the past time.

The Second Past Tense expresses an action as being done in some time previous to the immediate past.

The Future Tense expresses an action as to be done in future time.

FORMATION OF THE TENSES.—ACTIVE VOICE.

§56. There are two primary parts in the Active Voice from which all the other tenses are formed, namely the 2nd pers. sing. present Imperative, and the present Participle.

1. In the Indicative Mood.

The Present Tense is formed from the Present of the verb Bi, to be, and the present participle ; as, Thu mi 'g radh, I say or I am saying.

NOTE.—A of ay, the sign of the present participle is elided after a vowel.

The Past is formed from the 2nd singular Imperative by aspiration ; as, Bhuail mi, I struck. But if the verb begins with a vowel, this tense is formed by prefixing dh' (for do the old sign of the Preterite) ; if the verb begins with f pure, f is aspirated and dh' is prefixed ; as dh' òr mi, I gilded ; dh' fhaighnich e, he enquired.

The Future Tense is formed by adding -idh or -as to the 2nd sing. Imperative ; as, faighnichidh mi, I will enquire ; briseas mi, I will break.

2. In the Potential Mood.

The Past Tense is formed from the 2nd sing. Imperative by aspiration and by adding -inn for the 1st person singular, and -adh for the other persons sing. ; 1st plural is like the same in the Imperative ; and the 2nd and 3rd plur. are like the same in the singular.

3. In the Conditioned Mood.

The Present and Past Tenses are like the same in the Indicative with the particle ma prefixed.

The Second Past tense is like the Past Potential aspiration being removed, and the particle na-n prefixed (modified into na-m before labials.)

The Future tense is like the Future Indicative in as and the particle ma prefixed.

4. In the Subjective Mood.

The Present tense is formed from the Present Subjunctive of the verb Bi and the present Participle.

The Past tense is formed from the Past Indicative by prefixing gu-n do, contracted into gu-n d' before a vowel or silent fh or th.

The Second Past tense is formed from the Second Past Conditional by changing na-n into gu-n and na-m into gu-m.

The Future tense is formed from the 2nd. sing. Imperative by prefixing gu-n or gu-m.

5. In the Infinitive Mood.

The Present Tense is formed by suffixing -adh to the 2nd sing. Imperative.

6. Participles.

A Participle is a word that partakes of the nature of a verb and an adjective.

The Present Participle is formed by prefixing ag and adding -adh to the 2nd sing. Imperative.

The Past Participle is formed by adding to the 2nd sing. Imperative, -te if its last vowel be small, and -ta if that vowel be broad.

§63. Notes on the Conjugation.

1. To save space only such parts as are really necessary for the guidance of the student are given. In negative conjugation the first person singular alone is set down; all the other persons may be formed by placing the negative particle or particles before the other persons of the verb, changed, when change is necessary, after the manner of the part given.

A series of dots (.....) has been introduced when there is no personal termination, to indicate the position of the noun or pronoun; thus, Pres. Ind. Tha..... 'glacadh; 1st sing. tha mi 'glacadh, I catch; 2nd. tha thu 'glacadh, thou catchest; 3rd. tha an duine 'glacadh, the man catches. In these cases the English of the first person has been given.

2. Changes of ag, the sign of the Present Participle. It is written:

- 1.) ag before a vowel; as, ag òl, drinking.
- 2.) 'g between two vowels*; as, tha mi 'g òl, I drink.
- 3.) a' before a consonant; as, a' bualadh, striking.
- 4.) ' between a vowel and a consonant; as, tha mi 'glacadh.
- 5.) ga before the possessive pronouns mo, do, and bhur; as, Tha é ga mo threòrachadh, he leadeth me; tha é ga m' iarraidh, he is seeking me; tha mi ga d' ionndran, I miss you.

3. The Consuetudinal Tenses. The Future tense is used to express an habitual action, with a present signification; as, brisidh mi piob gach seachdan, I usually break a pipe a-week. More frequently present habit is expressed by the composite verb, is abhàist dhomh, it is my wont. The Past tense, Potential mood and the Second Past Conditional and Subjunctive, are used to express habitual action of past time ; as, ghla na' gach là, I used to clean it every day ; mur bitinn, 'dol do 'n eaglais, if I were not accustomed to go to church. The Past Consuetudinal tense is also expressed by the Past tense of is abhàist dhomh, viz., b' abhàist dhomh, I was wont.

* And before the Possessive Pronouns a, an, ar and 'ur; as, tha mi 'g a glacadh—'g a bhualadh, I am catching her—striking him.

4. The Second Past Tense, Conditional and Subjunctive, has a future signification as well as its past meaning ; thus, na-n glacainn, signifies if I had caught and if I should catch.

The sign of the Second Past Participle is sometimes written by grammarians, air, but it seldom occurs in that form in conversation or in print. So we have written it air, because our design is to introduce the student to Scottish Gaelic as it is now spoken and written.

§64. Formation of the tenses in the Passive Voice.

1. In the Imperative Mood.

The Present Tense is formed by adding -ar to the past participle Active.

2. In the Infinitive Mood.

See Note §68.

3. In the Indicative Mood.

The Present Tense is formed from the present Indicative of the verb Bi and the past participle.

The Past tense is formed by adding -adh to the second person singular Imperative Active.

The Second Past Tense is formed from the past tense of the verb Bi and the past participle.

The Future tense is formed by adding -ar to the 2nd pers. sing. Imperative Active.

4. In the Potential Mood.

The Past tense is formed by aspirating the past participle and adding -adh to it.

5. In the Conditional Mood.

The different Tenses are formed from the corresponding Tenses in the Indicative Mood by prefixing the particle ma; except

The Second Past Tense which is formed by prefixing na-n to the Past Potential unaspirated.

6. In the Subjunctive Mood.

The Present Tense is formed from the Present Subjunctive of the verb Bi and the past Participle.

The Past Tense is formed by prefixing gu-n do to the Past Indicative Passive.

The Second Past Tense is formed by prefixing gu-n to the Past Potential Passive.

The Future Tense is formed by prefixing gu-n to the Future Indicative Passive.

§68 Note on the Infinitive Passive.

The Infinitive Passive has several forms, but these may be reduced to two classes; viz. the Infinitive of Purpose or Intent, and the Infinitive of Simple Futurity. The former is signified by a number of prepositions and combinations, as:

ri bhi air a sgrìobhadh, *to be written.*air son sgrìobhaidh, *to be written.*gu bhi air a sgrìobhadh, *to be written.*gu bhi sgrìobhta, to be written.

The Infinitive of Simple Futurity has only one form, composed of the Infinitive of the verb Bì and the Past Participle Active; as, a bhi sgrìobhta, to be written, a bhi glacta, to be caught, a bhi briste, to be broken.

EXERCISE XXIII.

1. Cha ghlac mi é an diugh. Glac a' luch sin. Cha do bhris é a' bhrà. Bhris a' chlach an uinneag. Mur do bhris so ort gun fhios is tu is coireach. Co bhris a' chlarsach? Cha do bhris mis' é. Nach do ghlac iad an gadaiche? Cha do ghlac, ni mò a ghlacas. Nach glacaim é? Cha ghlacadh. Nach brisinn an gloin le aon buille? Cia fhada a bhriseas sibh mo chridhe le briathraibh? Brisidh mi sios an t-úr so. Brisidh do sholus a mach mar a' mhaduinn. Brisibh suas bhur fearann treabhaidh.

2. He broke the window. He did not catch the mouse. If it were not broken. Who broke the ink-stand? If he caught (2nd Past), him would he break his legs and arms? He will catch the poor man. They watched to catch* him in his speech. They would catch the deer if I were with them. If William were there they would not break the costly lamps with so little rebuke.

§71. IRREGULAR VERBS.

There are ten Irregular Verbs: 1. Abair, say, recite; 2. Beir, bear, bring forth;* 3. Cluinn, hear; 4. Dean, do, make; 5. Faic, see; 6. Faigh, get; 7. Rach, go; 8. Ruig, reach; 9. Thig, come; 10. Thoir, give. Of these we give the Indicative and Potential Moods with the Participles, from which the other parts may be formed. In this table the student must supply the Particles in the Negative and Interrogative forms.

ACTIVE VOICE—INDICATIVE MOOD.

Past Tense.		Future Tense.
Affirm.	Neg. & Inter.	Affirm.	Neg. & Inter.
1. Thubhairt‡	dubhairt	thair	abair.

* Beir air means to seize; as, rug é orm, he seized me.
‡ Thubhairt and dubhairt are also written thuir and duir.

PARTICIPLES.

Present.

- | | |
|------------------|-----------------|
| 1. Ag radh | 6. A' faotainn. |
| 2. A' breith | 7. A' dol |
| 3. A' chluinninn | 8. A' ruigsinn |
| 4. A' deanann | 9. A' teachd |
| 5. A' faicinn | 10. A' toir |

Past

- | | |
|------------|------------|
| 2. Beirte. | 5. Faicte. |
| 4. Dearda. | |

The Second Past Participle of the others—formed by placing air before their Infinitives given in §70—is used instead of the Past Participle.

§72. DEFECTIVE VERBS.

1. Is iri, I am, it is I.

¹Aspirated after cha or ch-u.

INDICATIVE MOOD.

Present Tense.		Past Tense.
AFFIRM.	Is.....	Bu.....
NEG.	Cha.....	Chu bu.....
INTER.	I. Am mi? An.....?	Am bu.....?
NEG.-INTER.	Nach.....	Nach bu.....?

CONDITIONAL MOOD.

Present Tense.		Second Past Tense.
AFFIRM.	Ma 's.....	Na-m bu.....
NEG.	Mur.....	Mar bu.....

SUBJUNCTIVE MOOD.

Present Tense.		Past Tense.
AFFIRM.	Gur.....	Gu-m bu.....
NEG.	Nach.....	Nach be.....

PARTICIPLE.

Present, Agus.....(contracted into 's.....)

NOTES.—1. Mi is aspirated (mhi) after bu and cha.
Cha becomes cha-n and bu become b' before a vowel sound.

2. The Past Indicative serves as the Past Potential of is; as, bu tuagh do chor, your state would be miserable.

3. The Present Participle of is, followed by an infinitive or Present Participle, is translated by a Present Participle; as,

Moch 's mi 'g éiridh 's a' mhaduinn,
————— chuaca mi 'n lonan.

Rising early in the morning,
————— I heard the prattling.

An óladh tu deoch 's tu d' ruith.
Could you drink a draught running.

2. Faod (or féud) may, forms its Past and Future

Indicative, Conditional and Subjunctive and Past Potential regularly. It has also the same tenses in the Passive voice, which are always used impersonally (see §74).

3. Feum (or fimir), must, has the same parts as faod.

4. Orsa (or arsa), said, quoth, is used in the Past Indicative alone, thus :

SING. 1. Orsa mise	PLUR. 1. Orsa sinne
2. Orsa thusa	2. Orsa sibhse
3. Orsa é	3. Orsa iadsan

5. The following have only the Imperative Mood, Second Person Singular and Plural.

SING.		PLUR.
Feuch	lo, behold	Feuchai bh
Siuthad	proceed, say away	Siuthadaibh
Tiugainn	come along,	Tiugainnibh
Trothad	come hither,	Trothadaibh

6. Some Verbs have become obsolete, leaving nothing but their infinitives; as, cláisteachd, cláistinn, hearing, from cláist.

§73. COMPOSITE VERBS.

Is, in all its parts, unites with a noun or adjective and a prepositional pronoun to form a Composite Verb.

Cuir, cum, gabh, bi, leig, thoir, and some others, also form idiomatic phrases with nouns and prepositions.

The following are examples of composite verbs :

Is abhaist dhomh	or I am wont, accustomed.
Is ag leam,	I doubt.
Is aithne dhomh,	I am acquainted with.
Is beò dhomh,	I live.

Is còir dhomh,	I ought.

Gabh suas,	pretend.
Gabh ort,	desist.
Leig dhiat,	let alone.
Leig le,	persuade, compel.
Thoir air,	yield, deliver.
Thoir suas,

§74. IMPERSONAL VERBS.

The Passive Voice is often used in Gaelic without a Nominative, i. e., impersonally. This form adds animation to narrative, the Future Passive being used for the Historical Present of other languages.

THE ADVERB.

§75. An Adverb is a word which modifies the meaning of a verb, adjective or another adverb or adverbial phrase.

§76. Adverbs are of two classes: Simple and Compound.

A Simple Adverb is an adverb of one word; as, ainmic, seldom; bhos, on this side; cia, how; cionnus, after what manner.

A Compound Adverb is an adverb consisting of two words; as, gu brònach, sorrowfully; gu h-olc, badly; am feasl, for ever.

A compound adverb may be formed from any adjective by prefixing the preposition gu (equivalent to the English postfix -ly); as, gu dona, badly; gu peacach, sinfully.

An adverbial phrase is a phrase having an adverbial signification and consisting of more than two words; as, a h-nìle uair, every time; cho luath agus, as soon as.

THE PREPOSITION.

§77. A Preposition is a word placed before a noun or pronoun to show its relation to some other word or phrase in a sentence.

§78. Prepositions are of two classes: Simple and Compound.

A Simple Preposition is a preposition consisting of one word.

LIST OF SIMPLE PREPOSITIONS

Á, as, out, out of.	Gun, without.
Aig, at, in the possession of. I.e. leis, with, by.
Air, on, upon, concerning.	Mar, like to.

Feadh, among, through, whilst.	Troi, troimh, } through, by.
Gu, gus, to, for.	Tre, trid, }

For the Syntax of the Preposition see §87.

 THE CONJUNCTION.

§79. A Conjunction is a word used merely to connect the parts of a sentence.

Conjunctions are also Simple (as, cho, as, so ; gu, gur, that ;) and Compound (as air an aobhar sin, therefore ; ach coma co dliù, nevertheless, notwithstanding.)

Some Conjunctions are used in pairs and are said to be co-relative ; as cho.....ri, so.....as ; an.....neo, whether.....or ; araon.....agus, both.....and.

 THE INTERJECTION.

§80. An Interjection is a word or phrase of exclamation denoting some strong emotion, but not entering into the grammatical construction of the sentence ; as, hasidh ! hallo ! seall ! faic ! feuch ! behold ! lo ! thugad ! hook it ! ho ró ! huzza !

Many phrases are used as Interjections; thus, mo naire 's mo leaghadh! O fy! éudail a dh-fhearaibh an t-saoghal! O dear!

EXERCISE XXIV.

Nochd rìgh àraidh do dhuine glic mòrach, l a rìoghachd, agus meud a chumbachd agus a bheartais: Ach an àite amharc air féin agus air a shonas talmhaidh le h-ìoghnadh, thubhairt an duine glic ris, "Is iad na nithe sin a ta 'g ar deanamh neo-thoileach air an t-saoghal so fhàgail, agus 'g ar dalladh a thaobh ar dleasdanas do ar Dia agus ar Slànuighear. Ma's duine glic thu air do shon féin, tarruing do chridhe uapa gu grad, agus guidh air Dia gu'n stiùradh e thu gu ionmhas a thasgadh suas 'san ionad sin far nach cladhaich am meirleach, agus nach truail an reudan a chaoidh.

'Nuair a bha òganach àraidh a' gul agus ri bròn air son a mhàthar, a fhuair bàs beagan roimh sin thubhairt companach a bha aige ris gu'm bu chòir dha misneachd a ghlacadh, do bhrìgh gu'n robh mòr-ghradh aig d'a mhàthair, agus gu'n robh e ùmhal di anns gach ni a chuir i fa a chomhair. "Sinnuainich mi féin sin," orsa an t-òganach, "fhada's bu bheò i; ach a nis, 'nuair tha i marbh tha iomadh ni a' teachd 'nam chuimhne anns an do ghiùlain mi mi féin gu mi-chiatach d'a taobh; agus tha so ga m' fhàgail brònach air an uair, do bhrìgh nach urrainn domh nis a leasachadh.

Impersonal Use of the Passive Voice. — 'Nuair chunnacas a' tighinn iad. Chualas é 'g radh. Dh' aithnich i aogas a leannain, 'us ehlisg a-eridhe 'na còm. Gun mhoille, gun tàmh buailear a dh' fhios na tràighe, agus faighear an laoch 's a dhaoine m' a thimehioll.

SYNTAX, (Rialtachadh.)

§81. THE ARTICLE.

RULE 1. The Article stands immediately before its noun ; as, an dàn, am preas.

RULE 2. When an adjective precedes the noun, the article stands before the adjective ; as, a' cheud là.

RULE 3. The article agrees with its noun in gender, case, number and form ; as, am preas, nan oirean.

RULE 4. A noun which governs another noun in the genitive case does not take the article ; as, iuchair an doruis, the key of the door.

RULE 5. The article is prefixed to words used in a collective sense, names of virtues, vices, metals, and kingdoms or states.

RULE 6. A simple appellative to a proper name does not take the article, but a compound one does.

NOTE.—A simple appellative added to the full name takes the article.

§82. THE NOUN.

RULE 8.—Nouns referring to the same thing are in the same case ; as, Ban-rìgh Victoria, Queen Victoria.

NOTE.—An adjective qualifying nouns in apposition is placed between them, and when there are two or more adjectives the last noun takes the article ; as, Eòbhan glas gobh, pale Eean the blacksmith; Eòbhan cridheil, blàth, an ceannaiche, merry, warm-hearted Eean, the merchant.

RULE 9.—A titled proper name, a noun in apposition having the article or a possessive pronoun, and a noun in opposition to a dative, are put in the nominative absolute ; as, mac Joseph saor, the son of Joseph, the carpenter ; do mhacaibh Bharsillai an Gileadach, to the sons of Barzillai the Gileadite ; ri Sàrai a bhean, to Sarai his wife.

Rule 10.—The particle a is always prefixed to the Vocative case.* When two nouns are in apposition in the vocative case, each takes a ; gabh comhairle, a leanabh, a mhic, be advised, O child, O son.

NOTE.—Except when the possessive pronoun is expressed ; as, a ghaoil, mo rùn ! beloved, my desire !

Rule 11.—One noun governs another signifying a different thing in the genitive case.

NOTE.—The genitive follows the noun that governs it. As, solus lochrain, the light of a lamp ; solus an là, the light of day, daylight.

Rule 12.—A noun which itself governs the genitive is put in the nominative though governed by another noun ; as, meas craobhan u' ghàraidh, the fruit of the trees of the garden.

NOTE.—Each part of a succession of proper names is put in the genitive ; as, Joseph mac Heli, mhic Mhatait, mhic Lebhi, &c., Joseph the son of Heli, the son of Matthat, the son of Levi, &c., Lu. iii, 23 ; mac Joseph an t-saor, the son of Joseph, the carpenter's (son or servant).

Rule 13.—An adjective or article may come between the noun and its genitive ; as, mac ban Alastair, Alexander's fair-haired son.

Rule 14.—Instead of the genitive case, the prepositions aig, do and le, are used with the dative to denote possession ; as, mac le Iain, one of John's sons, a son of John ; leabhar aig Seòras, George's book.

* When the vocative enters into the construction of a phrase, the particle a is not expressed ; as, rùn nan sonn.

Rule 15.—After nouns of quantity the preposition de with the dative may be used instead of the genitive ; and must be used when the governed noun has an adjective or governs the genitive ; as, mòran de bhainn, a great deal of milk ; slat de shioda chaol, a yard of narrow silk.

§83. THE ADJECTIVE.

Rule 16.—An Adjective is generally placed after the noun it qualifies ; as, ni coguis ghlau agus inntinn thoilichte, duine sona, a good conscience and a contented mind makes (lit. will make) a happy man.

NOTE.—This rule does not apply when the adjective is in the predicate and the noun elsewhere ; as, tha é blàth an diugh, to-day is warm ; is sona an duine é, he is a happy (lit. happy is the man he ;) tha an duine ud sona, that man is happy.

Rule 17.—An adjective agrees with its noun in gender, number and case ; as, òglach còir, a kind youth ; dànaehd mhòr, great confidence.

Rule 18.—An adjective referring to two or more nouns of different genders, agrees with the noun placed next it ; as, each agus làr bhàn, a white horse and a white mare ; làr agus each bàn.

Rule 19.—When a noun forms its nominative plural like its genitive singular the objective attached to it, is aspirated in the plural ; as, bàird cheolmhora, musical poets.

NOTE.—An adjective beginning with d preceded by a noun ending in n is always plain ; as, coin dubha, black dogs.

Rule 20.—A collective noun takes an adjective singular with its genitive and dative, but an adjective plural with its nominative and accusative ; as, cinneach naomha, a holy nation ; na cloinne bhe, of the little children.

Rule 21.—An adjective placed before its noun suffers no inflexion in its termination.

An adjective placed before its noun aspirates that noun ; as, seann mhuinntir, old people ; droch dhuine, a bad man.

NOTE.—1. The adjectives most commonly placed before their nouns are : deagh, good, droch, bad, seann, old,* lag, weak.

2. Many monosyllabic adjectives are prefixed to nouns, verbs or other adjectives and form with these one compound word ; as, ard-slagart, a high priest ; òigear (=òg-fhear) a young man ; banabhard, a poetess ; so the prefixes—ath, again ; ath-thog rebuilt ; bith, continued ; bith-dheanadh, constant working ; &c.

Rule 22.—Adjectives of plenty govern the genitive, and adjectives of want are followed by of and the dative, as, poc làn phòir, a bag full of seed ; gann de 'n airgid, scarce of money.

Rule 23.—The following classes of adjectives require a preposition after them :

1.) Signifying affections of the mind : miannach, déigheil, iarrtach, cairdeil, and such like, require air, ri or do ; as, miannach air airgid, desirous of money.

2.) Signifying profit or disprofit : fénmail, buannachail, eirinnach, còlach, &c., require air, air or do.

3.) Signifying likeness or unlikeness : amhuil, coslach, mì-choslach, ionann, &c., require ri ; as, coslach ris an leabhar so, like this book.

4.) Signifying proximity or distance : fad, fagus, dlùth, &c., require do or o ; as, fad o 'n eaglais, far from the church.

* Initial Dentals are not aspirated by seann.

Rule 24.—The Comparative degree with the verb is requires na after the first object compared ; as, is sine thu-a na mise, you are older than I.

Rule 25.—The Comparative degree with any other verb than is requires *na's before it, and na after the first object compared, if the comparison have regard to time present.

The Comparative degree with any other verb than is requires na bu before it, and na after the first object compared, if the comparison have regard to time past ; as, cha n fhaic mi neach eile na's deigheile air urram na esan, I do not see (lit. I will not see) any other more desirous of honour than he ; bha Uilleam na bu shaoibhire na Iain, William was richer than John.

Rule 26.—The Superlative degree is followed by de when selection is stated ; as, is e Iain a 's sine de 'n dithis, John is the older of the two ; is i Mòr a 's boidhebe dhiubh, Sarah is the prettiest of them.

NOTE.—The Superlative is used in Gaelic when selection from two only is implied, as well as when from a greater number.

§81. THE PRONOUN.

Rule 27.—Personal, prepositional and possessive pronouns agree with their co-relatives in gender, number and person ; as, dh' fhalbh Màiri 'us thug i an leanabh leatha, Mary went away and she took the child with her.

Collective nouns require a pronoun in the plural ; as, is aon shluagh a ta ann agus aon teanga aca.

*On page 32, ni 's and ni b' are (erroneously ?) used for na 's and na bu (contr. for na bu). We do not think it is an error for almost all writers use these forms, but it is best to abide by one mode of spelling and pronunciation.

Rule 28.—A pronoun standing for a clause is in the third person singular masculine.

Rule 29.—A feminine noun denoting a male requires a masculine pronoun; and a masculine noun denoting a female takes a feminine pronoun; as, Isdean an boirtiomach í; is abúin a m'í.

Rule 30.—A noun and its pronoun agree in the nominative; to the same verb; as, faid an duine abúin bu teare é, a noun of person is faid an duine é, he is warm.

CHAPTER VIII.

Rule 31.—The verb is placed before its nominative; as, traing Mac Leoid, Michael has gone.

The Relative and Interrogative Pronouns precede their verbs; as, an duine a thair é, the man who received it; co rinn é? who did it?

Rule 32.—The verb agrees with its subject in number and person; as, glac thusa, catch thou; bhuail an duine an t-each, the man struck the horse.

NOTE.—The nominative is not expressed after a personal termination of a verb; as, fosgláibh na dorsan, open ye the doors; or emphatic, fosgláibhse na dorsan.

Rule 33.—A question is answered by the verb and tense which asks it; as, an alp mi so? Cha-n alp; an téid mi? téid.

NOTE.—1. The nominative is not expressed in the answer except:

1.) for emphasis; as, an abair mi sud ris? Cha-n abair thusa.

2.) after is; as, An é an duine so é? Cha-n é.

Consequently a question asked in the Potential mood in the first person is answered in the third person; as, an bithinn fad air an rathad? Bhithheadh.

Rule 34.—When two or more verbs are joined by a conjunction the last only has the nominative expressed; as, dh' iarr agus gluadh é oimn, he asked and entreated.

NOTE.—Except when there is a personal termination, as, dh' iarr agus eum maid é, let us see it and keep it.

Rule 35. After the verb is the predicate comes before the subject; as, is h'áir an duine Tomás, Thomas is the man; is ní eucorich an id, so this is a child.

NOTE.—bh aspirates a consonant following it, except d and t, and is written b' before f aspirated or a vowel; as, bh' shocair an gille é, he was a quiet lad; b' éle a mhíam, his desire was bad.

Rule 36. Propositions universally true are expressed in the future tense; as, le gliocas tógar tigh, agus le tuigse daingúche ar é; Prov. xxiv, 3.

NOTE.—When bí or is are used such propositions are sometimes expressed in the present tense; as, thá aon Dia ann, there is one God.

Rule 37.—Transitive verbs govern the accusative case; as, dhín an dorús; fhuair é a' bhuidh, he gained the victory.

Rule 38. Verbs of asking, teaching, promising, giving, refusing, and some others (i. e., such as in some languages govern two objectives), require, in the Active and the Passive Voice, a preposition governing the purpose or result or object benefited or discommoded; as, thug é doch do Sheanna, he gave James a drink.

Rule 39.—Many active and neuter verbs require a preposition to complete their meaning (see §73); as, leig as mo lámh, let go my hand.

Rule 40.—The impersonal form of active verbs is followed by le when the cause, agent, or instrument is expressed; as, chunnacas leam, I saw.

Rule 41.—A verb may be governed in the infinitive mood by a noun, an adjective, or another verb; as, féinnaidh sían pasgadh, she will be going to the mountain; fáilbh, I am willing to go.

Rule 42.—When the object of the infinitive precedes it, the latter is aspirated and is preceded by a; as, chum bean a ghabháil, to take a wife.

NOTE.—1. Be and verbs of motion require a before the infinitive; as, chaidh é a fadhlúmsachd, he has gone to take a walk.

2. The Infinitive of purpose in the Active Voice is preceded by chom or gu; as, chum réis a cur, to run a race; or the infinitive of purpose may be expressed by chom, and the Second Past Subjunctive if the principal verb be in a past tense; and by chom and the Future Subjunctive when the principal verb is in present or future time.

Rule 43.—The infinitive and present participle govern their object placed after them in the genitive.

The infinitive and present participle govern their subject placed before them in the nominative; as, pasgadh an t-olaich, to fold the cloth; a' bhrisadh arm, break of the arm; a' dol a phárládh, to fold cloth.

Rule 44.—When the subject of an infinitive is a pronoun, a possessive pronoun, or a noun, and is rendered into English by a personal pronoun, as, the general hearing, he hears, &c.

§19. THE ADVERB.

Rule 45.—The simple adverbs, cha, ní, glé, ní, ní, ní, ní, precede and govern the words which they modify; as, ní ghlé, very good.

NOTE.—1. Cha seldom aspirates a dental.

2. Cha requires n before a vowel and f aspirate; and ní requires h before a vowel, n before a labial, and -u before a lingual ; as, cha-n fhoghain sin, that will not be sufficient ; ni m bris mi, I will not break.

3. Gu is expressed before the first only of two or more adjectives which it modifies ; but if they be coupled by a conjunction, gu is expressed with each adjective ; as, gu fialádh, coir, kindly, benevolently ; gu bocht ach gu h-onorach, poorly but honestly.

Rule 46. A compound adverb or an adverbial phrase is placed either between the subject and object, or after the object of the verb it modifies ; as, rinn é gu math e, he did it rightly ; rinn sé é gu dona, he did it badly.

§87. THE PREPOSITION.

Rule 47.—The simple prepositions á, aig, air, ann, de, do, fo, feadh, gu, gun, le, mar, nu, o, ri, roimh, tar, troimh, govern the dative case ; as, le tóirleum, with a leap ; air tír, on land ; tre theasaich, through a fever.

NOTE.—1. Anns is used before a relative pronoun or the article ; as, anns an lá, in the day ; anns' eudainn, in his face ; and the particle an (ann before labials) is inserted after ann before an indefinite noun for the sake of euphony ; as, ann an leabhar, in a book.

2. As, gus, leis and ris are used before the article and relative and possessive pronouns ; as, leis an rinn sé é, by which he made it.

Rule 48.—Phar, car, chum, tríd and re govern the genitive case ; as, re nà h-oidliche, during the night.

Rule 49.—De, do, fo, nu, roimh, tre, troimh, aspirate a noun with or without the article ; mar and gun aspirates a noun without the article ; as, do na choin, to the dogs.

NOTE.—1. De and do take dh- before a vowel or f aspirate ; as, de dh'ám, of better.

2. Air sometimes aspirates its noun ; as, air thalamh, on earth.

Rule 50.—Os, eadar and seach govern the accusative; as, eadar am béul 's an gogán (between the cup and the lip.)

Mar and gus govern the accusative of nouns definite; as, mar an leabhar so, like this book.

Rule 51.—Compound prepositions govern the genitive case; as, air son a' ghnothúich, for the business.

NOTE.—The genitive under this rule is governed by the noun contained in the compound preposition.

Rule 52.—The simple prepositions are generally repeated before each noun they govern; but the compound prepositions are not generally so repeated; as, dean ceartas do 'n bhochd agus do 'n dilleachdau, give justice to the poor and the orphan.

§88. THE CONJUNCTION.

Rule 53.—Conjunctions connect nouns and pronouns in the same case.

Conjunctions connect verbs in the same voice, mood, tense, number and person, when the actions denoted are the same; as dealbh fir agus mná, the picture of a man and a woman; tha mórán air an gairm ach beagan air an taghadh, many are called but few are chosen.

Rule 54.—In comparison ri is the co-relative of cho; as, cho geal ris an t-sneachd, as white as (the) snow.

Otherwise agus is the co-relative of cho; as, bi cho math agus an doras fhosgadh, be so good as to open the door.
