

SONS OF RICH MEN HAVE ESPOUSED CAUSE OF LABOR

Many Young Conservatives Transferring Allegiance to MacDonald.

SO IT IS DECLARED

Some Examples Given—The Universities are Centres—Appeal to Women.

(United Press, Special Cable.) London, Oct. 18.—"Sons of rich men are taking themselves how their fathers made their money. The situation is the same here as in the United States."

This was the terse reply made by a leading organizer in the Labor party to the question as to why so many prominent Conservatives are transferring allegiance to the Labor party.

The fashion was set six months ago by Oswald Mosley, son-in-law of the Marquis of Cornwall, and heir to a baronetcy.

Following him came the sons of ex-Premier Stanley Baldwin and St. Leo Strachey, editor of the Conservative review The Spectator.

Other examples of the young converts to the Labor party are the sons of Lord Curzon, the son of Lord Balfour, the son of Lord Curzon, the son of Lord Curzon.

FREEZONE

Doesn't hurt one bit! Drop a little 'Freezone' on an aching corn, instantly that corn stops hurting, then shortly you lift it right off with fingers.

Although ordinarily very conservative, Queen's University students are expressing their opinion that the celebration of their 125th anniversary is sufficient justification to do a little shouting, and to invite friends of the Methodist and other denominations to visit them for that one occasion at least.

Progressive younger generation. The young Conservatives who are dissatisfied with their position in their own party are attracted to the Labor party.

Women of the younger generation are said to be switching their allegiance to the Labor party, largely due to the fact that the party was the first which fully admitted women to its organization.

MINERS CALL FOR LABOR SUPPORT

Federation Issues Manifesto and Promises Nationalization of Mines

London, Oct. 18—The Miners' Federation has issued a manifesto calling on the voters of the mining districts unhesitatingly to support the Labor candidates in their respective electoral divisions. It declares that the working classes can be proud of their own government's record of achievement and says if the Labor party is returned to power it will introduce a bill as speedily as possible for the nationalization of the mines. The manifesto asserts that mine workers and their families are suffering beyond description, that over 100,000 mine workers are idle and every week pits are closing. The wages are still below the subsistence level, it states. The electors are urged by the manifesto to "vote and work for the mines for the nation," in order to end the profligate and gross social injustice of the present system. "The remedy for the Labor party is to entirely reorganize industry on a basis of public ownership of mines and minerals and to eliminate waste in production and distribution," the manifesto proceeds, and it adds as a desirable reform: "The introduction of the most scientific methods of mining coal and cutting out the parasitical mine owners, and mine owners with a voice in the control of industry."

NEW LAMP BURNS 94% AIR

Beats Electric or Gas A new oil lamp that gives an amazing brilliant, soft, white light, even better than gas or electricity, has been tested by the U. S. Government and 88 leading universities and found to be superior to 10 ordinary oil lamps. It burns without odor, smoke or noise—no pumping up, is simple, clean safe. Burns 94% air and 6% common kerosene (coal oil). The inventor, O. K. Johnson, 246 Craig St., W., Montreal, is offering to send a lamp on 10 days' FREE trial, or even to give one FREE to the first user in each locality who will help him introduce it. Write him today for full particulars. Also ask him to explain how you can get the agency, and without experience or money make $200 to $300 per month.

OUR TURN

"The West has been at bat long enough. It can no longer keep its wickets, and is in danger of queering the pitch of all Canada."—Mr. W. E. Maclellan in the Dalhousie Review.
Mr. Maclellan's theme is immigration, and his assertion that it is time the East had its turn is put forward at a time when several other men whose knowledge of conditions entitles them to be heard on this question have expressed the same view. Mr. Maclellan is not attacking the West. He is pointing out that the West settles the East offers more solid and more lasting attractions, and that both the national government and the railways should not, in the face of conditions which have changed very materially since Sir Clifford Sifton's day, continue to employ nearly all the money and the energy devoted to immigration in directing settlers to the Western Provinces only. Mr. Maclellan says there can be no doubt that what Canada needs most at present, is an increase of population. A large, well selected and wisely distributed volume of immigration, he argues, would solve our railway problem and give the country an immense impetus in the way of additional production and purchasing power. He continues:

"The Northwest is no longer a new land, with the attractions of mystery and adventure, and the prospects of speedy fortune making. There is no longer any glamour surrounding the hardships and disappointments of pioneer life. The conditions that were encountered and endured are now a matter of knowledge, and not of vague conjecture, colored by hope or imagination. The class of people who are now deserting the countryside of Great Britain for its towns and cities are not likely to be attracted in large numbers to the wider solitudes and more scattered and less fertile agricultural communities of the West. In these circumstances it might not be well to reconsider, and if necessary reverse, the immigration policy of the Dominion. For years that policy has been directed to the planting of settlers on the prairie. In furtherance of this policy has been enticed away from the older provinces. Would it not be a more promising policy in future to strive for the refilling of the vacancies in the East, with a view to ultimate overflow into the West? The social as well as the natural conditions of Eastern Canada are much more closely analogous to those of Northern Europe, and of the British Isles in particular, than are those of the Northwest. New settlers would be much more likely to be contented and prosper in an area in less familiar surroundings."

Mr. Maclellan, in pressing for a re-orientation of immigration policy in the national interest and in order to do justice to the East, whose people's money has so long and so heavily financed western settlement, sums up in these words:

"Lands are relatively cheaper now in the East than in the West, and improvements are more easily and more cheaply made. The climate is milder and the cost of living less. The surroundings are more attractive. Markets are more accessible and better. Occupations, including farming, are much more varied. At any rate, it is only fair that the East should have its immigration innings. The West has been at bat long enough."

"The governments of Eastern Canada, five of them, at least might well unitedly submit to the federal administration, and to the railroads, as a reasonable proposition, that it would be both wise and just for some years to come that a fair share of the total national money expended on immigration be employed in advertising the East and securing suitable settlers for it. It is in no sense necessary to starve the West in this matter. Give us our share. An examination of immigration policy since the early nineties will prove that it is long overdue."

THE SEEKERS AND THE SCEPTICS

Seeking communication with the other world occupies the wives or widows of many public men in Washington this year. American newspapers tell of the widow of a former Cabinet minister who had a message from the Beyond of late, which she believes came from the spirit of her husband. It consisted of a few lines from Tennyson's "Maud." But whereas Tennyson wrote, "And the white rose weeps, 'She is late!'" the lady writes, "I hear, I hear, and the lily whispers, 'I wait.'" In the message that came the original was sadly mutilated, reading:— "The larkspur said, 'I listen!'" "And the lily, 'She is late!'" Mrs. Franklin K. Lane is the widow in question. Her husband was a native of Prince Edward Island. Had he been born in the United States he probably would have risen to the Presidency, so great was his ability and so sound his character. Newspapers quote Mrs. Lane as saying that her husband used to read parts of "Maud" to her, and she thus identifies the message as from him. There is no explanation of the mutilation, and though the skeptics might offer many theories as to why the obvious comma, apart from mere scoffing, is that in many such cases the intense desire for a message leads to the belief that one has come. Misquotation suggests to many an ignorant and dishonest medium. Yet it has been proved that in this particular case there was no message but only unworthy deception, though final would be established as to whether or not communication is possible or has been in some instances established. While merely to sport at the suggestion of possible communication is the prevailing fashion, there are wise minds who greatly hesitate to dismiss the problem thus summarily. The late William T. Stead used to say late in life that he talked daily and satisfactorily with the spirit of his dead son. Since Stead himself passed over those who have received what purported to be messages from him can scarcely pretend that they were coherent. But Stead when on earth very often said that one day communication with those in the other world would become easy for people of the spiritual type; that it would be the next tremendous step in human accomplishment. "You who used to sneer at the suggestion of wireless messages ought to wait a bit," he said, "I know."

And, since in these matters, a few years, even many years, count as nothing, mere skepticism, or the exposure of obvious charlatanisms, arrives nowhere. But Stead, some say, or many, was crazy. No one knows that, nor would it materially affect the issue if he were. Where is that which was Franklin K. Lane? Until we can answer that definitely no one should lay down too many hard and fast rules about the possibilities of communication between spirits in different stages of existence. Stead's "wait a bit" was not an unreasoning admonition after all. "There are more things in heaven and earth, Horatio, than are dreamed of in our philosophy." Proof that it is yet not found is not necessarily non-existent. The search for it will never cease short of attainment.

SENATE AND COMMONS

In reference to Senate reform, the Montreal Gazette writes that the Provincial Legislatures should be consulted before the Senate's status is materially altered. It says:— "The Dominion of Canada is a Federal, not a Legislative union; and a principal mission of the Senate is to guard provincial rights. Its very position is founded on that fact. The B. N. A. Act made three divisions of the new Dominion: Ontario, Quebec, and the Maritime Provinces; and provided that these divisions shall be equally represented in the Senate, the number being twenty-four members for each. There was not such limitation made in respect of the House of Commons, except in the matter of representation by population. The Maritime Provinces with an aggregate population of only about one-third that of Ontario have precisely the same representation in the Senate as the larger province, an arrangement designed and deliberately agreed to for the express purpose of preserving and protecting provincial rights. It then, Mr. King, is to restrict the constitution of the Senate, thereby alter the conditions of the Confederation pact, obviously he should begin by asking an expression of opinion from the provincial legislatures."

Without decreasing the representation of the provinces in the Senate, or diminishing the protection thus afforded, it is still possible to insure to the Commons, the elected body, a greater certainty that it shall not be blocked in carrying out the wishes of the people from whom it has a direct mandate that should be beyond challenge.

"Sir Thomas White says there are ten open roads to prosperity in Canada today for each one that was open when he was a young man," says the Toronto Globe. "Sir Thomas is by no means a veteran either. Some of his party friends should catch his outlook."

The Times-Star commends to all its readers a thoughtful perusal of the report in this issue of the remarks of Chairman Curran and Messrs. Nagle, Green, Porter and McIntyre at last night's meeting of the School Board.

This country is bound not to miss anything. For example, Canada is to be represented at the Japanese annual military manoeuvres late this fall. From the strategic centre of the Dominion, Ottawa, there comes the announcement that Major-General J. H. McBrian, C. M. G., D. S. O., Chief of the General Staff of the Canadian Militia, is to leave presently for Japan, where he will be the guest of the Japanese government during the army manoeuvres. It is just possible, of course, that if we did not send a man to watch what the Japanese do in the way of massed army activities those crafty folk might introduce some new form of tactics, or employ some new instruments of warfare, of which we might not otherwise become aware. It is true that all the countries of the world making any pretension to military strength will be similarly represented, Great Britain included. But it appears to be the conviction of official circles that it would not be safe for us to receive any such information at second hand, or, as it were, by hearsay. Anyhow, our own man will be on the job, and anything he learns will be at the disposal of the Canadian General Staff in due season. It sounds odd, and yet so long as we are among the possibilities of this kind are really necessary.

Press Comment

DENMARK DISARMS

The people of Holland are said to be in a frame of mind which would favor any move on the part of their Government to follow the example of Denmark whose Government has now before it a proposal to abolish the navy and army and to disarm unconditionally. Of all nations in Europe, Holland is perhaps the one in the best position to follow her neighbor, should the latter decide to carry out its plan.

What is Denmark, through its Labor Government, proposes to do? It proposes to do away with conscription. Every year 6,000 men are called up and put into an army of 80,000 men in the field. It will abolish all that, and in its place recruit, on a voluntary basis, 7,000 members of a police force, to watch the frontiers and prevent smuggling, etc. Denmark plans also to dismantle her forts. The present navy will be scrapped, and in its place 10 ships of 1,200 tons will be placed in service to perform duties on sea equivalent to those of the police on land. An air force of 12 "biplanes" will be created. By this means, Denmark will spend annually $6,000,000 instead of $10,000,000, as at present. The dockyards will be turned into factories to supply the needs of the state railways. Could other nations follow this example? Not in the case of countries which have large overseas possessions like Britain or France. It may be possible in the case of Holland or nations in the Scandinavian group which have no political interests outside their own borders. The problem of disarmament is basically one of government. No longer universal disarmament will succeed while there are world states which have to be held together by force. Britain to her credit is substituting self-government for dependence as rapidly as circumstances will allow, and in this fact lies one of the greatest hopes for a world at peace.

A DANGEROUS TREATY

(Toronto Treaty.) The Anglo-Russian commercial treaty negotiated by the Labor Government, and denounced by both Liberal and Conservative, though a long time in the making, was hurried through at the end, and the consequences of some of the clauses in it do not appear to have been understood. One curious pitfall is pointed out in an article contributed to the Fortnightly Review by "Angus" after the fashion used by Mr. E. A. Lesling, M. P., who has an intimate knowledge of Russian trade.

Article 8 of the treaty says that each of the contracting parties guarantees "friendly" treatment to the subjects or citizens of the other party. This can mean only that British subjects in Russia shall receive the same treatment which is meted out by the Bolsheviks to all Russians. The case is supposed of a British subject who goes to Russia to invest in and to manage a factory. He first deposits his money in a Russian bank. It is assumed that the factory grows and prospers, but in the end the man dies and his heirs desire to realize on the property. But Article 416 of the Soviet Civil Code says: "It is not permissible to inherit—by law or by will—property of a total value of more than ten thousand gold rubles. If more than 21,000 is deposited in the late merchant's name at the State bank it is necessary to enter into an agreement with the Commissariat of Finance as to the distribution of the surplus between the State and the lawful heirs. In addition only those heirs are considered to be lawful, even by will, who are direct descendants of the testator. No publication in the press is necessary for finding heirs, and if within six months no heirs appear to claim the property it belongs to the State. This is said to be only one of innumerable examples of Russian law to which British subjects in that country would be subjected by the "national" treatment provided for in the treaty.

Soviet Russia's oil fields increased their production 23 per cent. in the last year.

It is estimated that the total salmon pack of British Columbia for 1923 will net about $10,000,000.

Ends Stubborn Coughs in a Hour
For real effectiveness, this old home-made remedy has no equal. Easily and cheaply prepared.
You'll never know how quickly a bad cough can be conquered, until you try this famous old home-made remedy. Anyone who has coughed all day and all night, will say that the immediate relief given is almost like magic. It takes but a moment to prepare and really there is nothing better for coughs.
Into a 16-oz. bottle, put 2 1/2 ounces of Finax then add plain granulated sugar syrup to make 16 ounces. Or you can use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, this mixture saves about two-thirds of the money usually spent for cough preparations, and gives you a more positive, effective remedy. It keeps perfectly, and tastes pleasant.
You can feel this take hold instantly, soothing and healing the membranes in all the air passages. It promptly loosens a dry, tight cough, and soon you will notice the phlegm thinning out, and then disappear altogether. A day's use will usually break up a cold, and give absolute relief. It is also splendid for bronchitis, croup, hoarseness, and bronchial asthma.
Finax is a most valuable concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, the most reliable remedy for bronchitis and chest ailments. To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for Finax, and insist on the directions and do not accept anything else substituted to give absolute satisfaction and money refunded. GREAT GAS WELL SHOWS OIL SIGNS
New One is Blown in Within Forty-Nine Miles of Calgary.
Calgary, October 18. Royalty No. 4, well, near Black Diamond, in the Turner Valley field, 40 miles southwest of Calgary, blew in at 6 o'clock yesterday afternoon with a tremendous flow of gas, estimated at 19,000,000 cubic feet daily.
There is a small quantity of light oil spraying out with the big gas flow. The Northwest Company, the development branch of the Imperial Oil, Limited, which has been conducting a deepening test on the well, is allowing the gas to flow, in the chance that the well may drill itself into a real oil production.
The huge flow of gas was struck at a depth, as near as can be ascertained, of approximately 3,740 feet. The drill was working in a limestone formation, when the gas blew in without warning, lifting the tools up in the hole, but not blowing them out. The terrific roar of the escaping gas could be heard for miles, and drew scores of spectators to the vicinity, which is more or less isolated.

WIND VOICES.
(Miriam E. Edmiston, in Wind Voices, in the Presbyterian Witness.)
The winds that blow across the starless night
Have human voices, so my fancy tells;
Their madness dies away—returns and swells
Upon the silliness, with a harsh delight,
Winds on the time some moaning in
From sea,
Go laughing through the trees with summer rain;
Or whisper with leaf-shadows on the pane;
Yet, wild or sad, they wake no fear in me.
The winds that blow today across my heart
Are winds whose voices nothing can dispel:
Stars are their guide—or moonlight or the sun;
In darkest night, up from the depths
they start—
Hope, Joy and Love, their message seek to tell.
And know no silence till the end is won.

TEACHERS AGAINST HANDING ADS TO SCHOOL PUPILS

The Teachers' Association of St. John last night went on record as being opposed to the practice of handing advertising matter to the pupils as they were leaving the school buildings and decided to ask the Common Council to take steps to put a stop to this. H. C. Ricker brought up the matter. A paper written on discipline, by W. N. Biggan, of Sussex, was read by W. S. Fraser, principal of the Sussex school. W. T. Denham presided.

Following the reading of the paper there was a round table discussion on discipline in which the following took part: J. Frank Owens, Miss Isabelle Reed, H. C. Ricker, Miss Isabelle Carr, E. J. Alexander, Miss Ida Keigan, A. J. Gunter, W. J. S. Miles and Mr. Fraser, of Sussex.

A cradle-roll certificate was presented to the youngest member present, little Katharine Josephine Colwell, who was just eight weeks old. The majority of the children were from three to four years old. Toys were provided for their amusement and they had a thoroughly delightful afternoon. Re-

CANADA DISCUSSED BY U. S. POLITICIANS

Republican Text-Book Makes Some Comparisons to Influence the Farmers.

New York, Oct. 18.—(By Canadian Press).—Canada is receiving much attention in the Presidential election campaign.

The Republican campaign text-book has some particularly interesting material of this nature. On the matter of Canada's advantages over the United States in wheat-growing it says:

Early in February, 1924, the United States Tariff Commission issued a report showing the results of its investigation in the United States and Canada as to the cost of producing wheat.

The details of this report are very exhaustive, but the summary shows that the cost of producing wheat in the United States ranged from 88 cents to $2.19 a bushel, while in Canada it ranged from 83 cents to $1.19 a bushel.

Taking the minimum figure in each case it will be seen that the Canadian wheat grower can produce a bushel of wheat for 82 cents lower than the American wheat grower.

Freight rates are a burning subject among the farmers, and on this subject the text-book makes the following tribute to conditions north of the boundary line:

The Kidneys—and their relation to Good Health

You want good health. You want to enjoy life to the full, unhampered by sickness and disease. Then you must see to it that every organ of your body is working smoothly and performing its functions properly.

Particularly is this true of the kidneys, the filters of your body. If the kidneys become clogged with impurities, your blood becomes poisoned, and your whole system suffers. You have headaches, pains in the back, swollen hands and joints, rheumatism. Urination is painful, scanty, or too frequent.

Unless this condition is checked, serious and perhaps fatal illness will result. If you detect any of these symptoms, correct the trouble right away by taking

Mrs. Murray Hough, Warton, Ont., writes:

"I had eczema for twelve years. Every once in a while it would break out and spread all over my arms. I tried all kinds of treatments to relieve it, but without success. One Spring it broke out and nothing gave me relief, even the salve I got from the doctor did no good. At last I tried Dr. Chase's Ointment and it healed the eczema in a short time. There remains only the deterrent effect on other reckless drivers and the protection of society by the prisoner's return to that pious society may gain. But on the other side of the ledger, the community will lose the skill of the surgeon for four years and perhaps forever, and the country, which paid for his education, will fill away its investment as though it had no value.

Says this journal: "To forbid Dr. Boak to drive a car during a term of years would go some distance in the right direction, though this penalty might not be considered sufficiently severe."

Social Notes of Interest

Conference Declares Railway Rate System Is Intolerable

WESTERN APPEAL ON RATES MUST GO TO SUPREME COURT

This is Opinion of Conference McKenzie King Attended Yesterday.

SO SAYS OLIVER Federal Premier Says Govt. is Favoring Trade by Panama Canal.

Victoria, B. C., Oct. 18.—At a conference between Premier W. L. Mackenzie King and the British Columbia cabinet here yesterday, it was the consensus of opinion that the railway rate situation in Canada is intolerable, following the abandonment of the Crow's Nest Pass rates, said a statement given out by Premier John Oliver after the conference.

It was agreed also, Mr. Oliver said, that steps must be taken to remedy the situation. That the appeal of the Board's recent decision on the Crow's Nest Pass rates will have to be settled by the Supreme Court of Canada was the opinion of the meeting.

Mr. Oliver said that this was the general opinion of the conference and he did not desire to quote anyone who had attended it.

Premier King assured the Provincial Government at another meeting that the Federal authorities were doing everything in their power to facilitate the movement of ocean borne freight from Eastern Canada to this coast. A customs officer, he pointed out, had been stationed in New York and the through freight movement is becoming easier now.

Federal Premier Speaks. Victoria, B. C., Oct. 18.—(By Canadian Press)—The fact that for the first time since Confederation a minister from every province represented around the council table, was evidenced by actions and not words, in the meeting between the Premier and the Board of Railway Commissioners.

Mr. Mackenzie King declared at a Liberal Association luncheon meeting here last night. The audience, including Premier Oliver, members of his Cabinet, prominent Liberals and representatives of the City Council, High School and Normal School students, came to the Prime Minister at the luncheon, swelled the attendance.

Mr. King, in his short address, Premier King said that the fact that for the first time since Confederation a minister from every province represented around the council table, was evidenced by actions and not words, in the meeting between the Premier and the Board of Railway Commissioners.

CLIMBED SLIPPERY GRANITE SPIRES

Peary and McMillan Performed Daring Feat When Students.

Brunswick, Maine, Oct. 18.—The removal of the lightning rods which formerly ran up the side of Kings Chapel at Bowdoin College makes it unlikely that any present or future student will be able to duplicate a feat which college tradition says has been performed by only two men. The two who succeeded in climbing up the outside of the chapel and scaling the heights of the slippery granite spires, placing in one of the peaks the emblems of their classes, afterwards became two of the famous Arctic explorers. They were Robert E. Peary, '77, and Donald B. MacMillan, '98.

Since the chapel was built soon after the founding of the college in 1794 this feat has been the ambition of the best athletes of each class. A STRAIGHT FIGHT FOR LADY ASTOR

The Struggle is Between Her and a Socialistic Candidate in Plymouth.

Plymouth, Oct. 18.—For the fourth time in almost as many years Lady Astor, the first woman to enter Parliament, is carrying the standard of the Conservative party in the Sutton division of Plymouth. On Wednesday night amid scenes of great enthusiasm, when hundreds failed to gain admission to the hall in which people were packed like sardines, she was adopted once more she will have a lone fight with socialism, for the Liberals have decided not to oppose her.

At present she has two Labor candidates to tackle, because of friction in the Labor camp, but in the end it is expected that only one will stand.

Present indications are that the election will be a keenly fought one as on the last occasion, tonight as Lady Astor faced her audience, a slim vivacious personality in a becoming orchid colored dress, her eyes were lit up with the light of battle. A few hecklers gained admission to the hall, but she repartee and promised them a hot time for a fortnight.

The first thing she did on entering the hall was to lean across the rail of the platform and shout at the top of her voice, "Are we downhearted?" and the "No" given in response could be heard a long distance outside the hall.

Mr. Oliver said that this was the general opinion of the conference and he did not desire to quote anyone who had attended it.

Premier King assured the Provincial Government at another meeting that the Federal authorities were doing everything in their power to facilitate the movement of ocean borne freight from Eastern Canada to this coast.

A customs officer, he pointed out, had been stationed in New York and the through freight movement is becoming easier now.

Federal Premier Speaks. Victoria, B. C., Oct. 18.—(By Canadian Press)—The fact that for the first time since Confederation a minister from every province represented around the council table, was evidenced by actions and not words, in the meeting between the Premier and the Board of Railway Commissioners.

Mr. Mackenzie King declared at a Liberal Association luncheon meeting here last night. The audience, including Premier Oliver, members of his Cabinet, prominent Liberals and representatives of the City Council, High School and Normal School students, came to the Prime Minister at the luncheon, swelled the attendance.

CLIMBED SLIPPERY GRANITE SPIRES

Peary and McMillan Performed Daring Feat When Students.

Brunswick, Maine, Oct. 18.—The removal of the lightning rods which formerly ran up the side of Kings Chapel at Bowdoin College makes it unlikely that any present or future student will be able to duplicate a feat which college tradition says has been performed by only two men. The two who succeeded in climbing up the outside of the chapel and scaling the heights of the slippery granite spires, placing in one of the peaks the emblems of their classes, afterwards became two of the famous Arctic explorers. They were Robert E. Peary, '77, and Donald B. MacMillan, '98.

CLIMBED FROM $3 WEEK-JOB TO BE PRESIDENT OF N. Y. TELEPHONE CO.

James A. McCulloch Tells Boys What Will Bring Success.

Another barefooted boy with a predilection for hidden "fish" holes" has stepped into the seats of the mighty, if the highest executive office in an organization representing millions of dollars may be so won. And once more the bankers of the clerk to reach such elevation are passed in review by all young workers aspiring to high position.

When James A. McCulloch, the newly appointed president of the New York Telephone Company, was yesterday by the New York Times to what he attributed his success, he said he thought it was the Scotch blood in him which made him always want to build something and which had kept him building even through lousy moments.

The boy James started building at the age of 8 a miniature telephone exchange between his house and that of a small friend.

"I'm afraid I started life by infringing on the patent of the Bell Telephone Company," said the man who was called back from a fishing trip—he still follows in the footsteps of the barefooted boys who take up the duties of the new position. "They spoiled a perfectly good vacation," he continued as he pulled out of his desk drawer a pile of kodak pictures taken at the camp in the Canadian woods where the salmon's haunts are well known and which were practiced in the moods and habits of fish.

His First Job. Born in the country, James McCulloch has never lost his love of woods and streams. He still likes best to swim, to hunt and to fish. In later years golf has been added to these other sports. "I've always been a fisherman," he can't remember when he began to fish, it was so long ago. "Though not so long ago, it would seem, after all, for records write him down not much over 40. His first jobs were among the banks of New Jersey brooks, for he was born in Englewood. It was in old jobs after school before he got his first real position.

"We didn't have any money in the family, so I had to go to work." The first job was with the West Shore Railroad at a salary of $3 a week when he was 16. "I was in charge of the telegraph wires and messages. I learned a lot from that job. I learned about telegraph wires and messages. Well, I did a little of everything on that job—wiring, paper hangers, wire splicing for a crew of men. Many a night I was dragged out of bed to go on my telephone company. I was a headliner, a breaker on the line. There was no such thing as hours when I went to work. We worked then till a job was finished."

Eight Years With West Shore. In April, 1900, after eight years with the West Shore Railroad and the Western Union Telegraph Company at Westport, he joined the force of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company, and three years later was appointed Assistant Division Superintendent.

He carried his work with him through Ohio, Indiana, Michigan, Minnesota, North and South Dakota, Iowa and Wisconsin, and in a few years back to New York. This was about the time the New England States were being linked up with Boston as a headquarters. And, as Mr. McCulloch puts it, he went up there and "worked himself out of a job." For it was decided to handle the lines from New York instead of from Boston. In 1908 McCulloch went into the New York Telephone Company as superintendent of buildings and insurance.

"The insurance companies had about as much fondness for a telephone office as they had for a TNT shell. They had an exaggerated idea that a central office might blow up almost any minute. So we went to work gathering figures and facts to show them just what was the actual status." The facts collected by Mr. McCulloch aroused a matter of record, and proved to property is not such a bad risk after all. Incidentally, the success of this investigation effected great savings for the telephone company. This work resulted in a few years back to New York. Mr. McCulloch terms his various occupations, "I wasn't a specialist, you see."

WARNING TO BOYS

Phosphorus in Pocket Ignited With RATHER SERIOUS Results.

Toronto, Oct. 18.—An unusual accident occurred at the Queen Victoria School, when Duncan McDonald, aged 18, a pupil in the entrance class, suddenly awoke from his seat, screaming and trying in vain to extinguish a flame that was burning his clothing. He was rushed to the fire department, and at last, after the beating of the boy's clothing failed to extinguish the blaze, a fire extinguisher had to be resorted to.

The boy was badly burned about the hips and arms, and was removed to the Western Hospital. His teacher, H. A. Halbert, was also burned about the arms and hands when he went to the rescue.

It was found out later that the boy probably had been carrying a piece of phosphorus in his pocket, and it had become ignited.

When I went to work for the telephone company, over thirty years ago, I had a very special knowledge about telephones and telephone needs, not the least of which has been handling people. The man who has worked up through the ranks and knows first hand the construction end of the telephone lines he now controls has got pretty well acquainted with human nature in the process. It was McCulloch who handled the public three or four years ago—and thereby pleased them—by admitting that the telephone service was bad and that something must be done about it. He proposed to do it with their help, despite depleted post-war equipment. Today he claims that subscribers have been kept in the dark for three or four years ago—and thereby pleased them—by admitting that the telephone service was bad and that something must be done about it.

LIBERAL WOMEN OF CITY TO ORGANIZE

Preliminaries Arranged—Address by Miss Armstrong.

Preliminaries in connection with the formation of a Liberal Women's Association in St. John were carried through expeditiously and with enthusiasm at a meeting held yesterday afternoon in the Church of England Institute when the chief speaker was Miss Isabel C. Armstrong, director of the women's division of the National Liberal Association. The meeting was attended by a representative gathering of women and Miss Armstrong's masterly presentation of Liberal doctrine and accomplishment called forth appreciative comment.

Hon. Dr. E. Ooster, M. L. A., presided for the opening meeting. Dr. W. P. Broderick also gave a short address. Mrs. William Pugsley was chosen chairman for the organization meeting and Miss Amelia Haley was appointed secretary.

She referred to the newness of women's entry into the political field. Miss Armstrong recalled the contentment with strong military tactics were spoken of about ten years ago and then she spoke of the great work that has been done since that time. She said that the Mackenzie King government had carried out the ideal of economy and last year had been able to balance its books and make a reduction in the debt, and then had turned attention to helping industries and consumers. She told of duty reductions and dealt with other questions of the hour.

ONTARIO GETTING BOARD REAFFIRMS ITS VOCATIONAL SCHOOL POLICY

Upwards of Four Thousand Now on Farms in Older Part of Province.

Toronto, Oct. 18.—During the past year the Ontario Department of Agriculture, through its colonization branch has located upwards of 4,000 settlers upon farms in old Ontario, according to a statement of H. A. Macdonnell, director of the branch. These settlers are in addition to those located in Northern Ontario by a different branch of the department. Those going north are mostly of foreign extraction. Those settled in old Ontario are from agricultural regions in the Old Country. Many of them, especially those who have not arranged to purchase farms in the north, will go to the northern clay belt and Rainy River Valley after the experience of a year or two here in Canadian agricultural methods.

Trustees Agree to Meeting With the Common Council.

Views Expressed Chairman Dr. Curran Makes Detailed Presentation of the Situation.

The Board of School Trustees last night after going on record as still being in favor of the erection of a vocational high school, decided to notify the City Council that it would be pleased to hold a conference with that body any time during the week of October 27, which might be convenient to the council. The following resolution was adopted by a special meeting at the instigation of H. A. Porter, was unanimously passed:

That the communication of the Common Council of Oct. 15 be acknowledged and that the Common Council be advised that although we have already decided on a definite policy with respect to the vocational policy it is the view of the Board that at any time during the week of Oct. 27, at which the views of the Common Council and the vocational committee regarding immediate creation of a vocational high school were read to the meeting.

Dr. L. M. Curran, M. L. A., chairman, presided. Others present were Trustees Mrs. E. R. Taylor, Mrs. D. P. Chisholm, M. Colli, Thomas Nagle, E. R. W. Ingraham, Horace A. McInnes, G. H. Green, Allan A. McInnes, S. A. Worrell, acting superintendent of city schools, and Gordon Leavitt, secretary, Alexander Wilson, member of the vocational committee.

Dr. Curran said the building as suggested would cost about $340,000. Mr. Ingraham, as an appointee to the city, said the city would have to supply the money, as there had been criticism of the site selected and as there was lack of understanding of what vocational education stood for. He wished to present a resolution. The resolution called for a joint meeting of the School Board and the City Council to discuss the matter. Mr. Ingraham further said that there was no immediate hurry to go forward with the vocational school. The work could be started in the spring. Mr. Ingraham's motion was seconded by Mr. Porter.

Vocational Policy. Mr. Nagle said he wished to make clear the position of the School Board with regard to the vocational school. He first taken action following a direct request from the City Council in 1919. The City Council at that time had requested the School Board to apply for permission to build and equip a vocational school. This permission had been obtained and for a time school work was commenced. Then a larger project was claimed for and in order to obtain all information the School Board sent the acting superintendent to obtain information concerning the type of building to be erected and to go ahead with the project if felt the responsibility was too great and so referred the matter to the Common Council and the Commission in turn referred the matter to the people, and the people in their mandate in favor of the establishment of vocational training on the programme suggested. To ignore the people Mr. Nagle thought savored of Sovietism.

He said there had been criticism of the programme, of the site, and of the cost, but all the critics agreed that vocational training was a good thing. The cry was that the time was not opportune for so great an expenditure. The School Board believed it did not want to ride roughshod over the Common Council, but it had notified the Council before it made application for an issue of $400,000 bonds for the vocational school and that was the time for the Common Council to have made any objection. Objections made at the present time came too late. Mr. Nagle said that if it was thought that times were not good was there any assurance that they would be any better in two years, and with regard to receiving outside assistance with the building in two years he did not believe any government would obligate itself that far ahead. It was up to the Common Council to take the onus of its own action.

Council Changed. Mr. Ingraham said the personnel of the Council was not the same and that financial conditions were not the same as they had been when vocational training was first suggested. Mr. Smith said that he thought that the vocational committee's resolution with regard to the policy of the Board would be first considered. Mr. Ingraham and Mr. Colli consented to withdraw their motion in favor of one presented by Mr. Porter which was to the effect that the Board reaffirm its policy of carrying out the vocational education programme and erecting a building of the type proposed or else abandoning the vocational project on or before October 10, first column.

WHAT PREMIER SAID ABOUT PEACE RIVER

As Soon as "Humanly Possible" the Railway Will Be Built.

The following is a report of Premier Mackenzie King's speech in Edmonton relative to the railway to the Peace River district. "It is the policy of the Government of Canada to introduce a vigorous policy of immigration which will populate the vast areas of undeveloped country in the great West," declared the Premier.

"The future prosperity of this country is bound up in the development of its great natural resources and to develop these resources it is necessary to have a large increase in the population of Canada. There is to the north of this city a great tract of land that is crying out for development. The Peace River country is among the richest in Canada, but before the proper development of that country can take place an outlet to the Pacific Coast is an absolute necessity.

"I pledge myself that as soon as it is humanly possible the great Peace River country will be given the measure of railway relief that will bring to the pioneers of that country the outlet that they have been so long denied and will open up the country for prospective settlers.

"I must, however, sound the same note to you here as I did to the citizens of Saskatchewan. The times that we are passing through are very difficult and I would ask you to have a little patience and in as short a time as possible a railway outlet will be provided for the Peace River country and northern Alberta districts that will open up an era of prosperity for that country which will not be equalled by any other province in Canada."

BOARD REAFFIRMS ITS VOCATIONAL SCHOOL POLICY

Mr. McIntyre seconded this resolution which carried unanimously.
Dr. Curran said there were two matters that could now be considered, what would the Board lose by waiting and second had the Board the power to wait. He believed that to represent the public honorably it was necessary to accept the public's authority unless there was some self-evident and universally accepted condition which had arisen since the mandate of the people which would nullify the public's will. For himself he could not see any reasonable justification for him to refuse to carry out the mandate of the people. If the Mayor was satisfied that there had been a sufficient change of warrant a different stand being taken that was his responsibility.
From the standpoint of economy, Dr. Curran said that it was clear that if there was delay there was no assurance that outside assistance could be claimed and the vocational training would be a considerably heavier burden upon the people. The Federal Technical Education Act would in case of construction would be apt to increase rather than decrease if the work was delayed and there was the loss of the work itself, which was an economic consideration.
Dr. Curran said further that nearly all the provinces in the Dominion were ahead of New Brunswick in establishing vocational training and in delaying the establishment of vocational training, the city would suffer the loss of having its children go out into the world without the training they needed and which the children of other provinces received.
There was also the consideration that if no vocational school was built it would be necessary to build another High School and for the new High School the city would have to pay the full amount of the building and the full amount of teachers' salaries while, for the vocational school, it would have to pay only three-quarters of the cost of the building and 40 per cent of the teachers' salaries. It was only in case of matter of vocational education that New Brunswick had failed to take advantage of federal assistance.
Should Proceed.
Dr. Curran said in conclusion that the City Council must convince him that there was reason for cancelling the instruction of the people and that, from an economic standpoint, it would be unwise to proceed and if the Council could not convince him on these points, he was satisfied that the board should proceed with the vocational education. He was decidedly of the opinion that a meeting should be arranged with the Common Council and the position of the School Board made clear.
Mr. Green made his position clear, pointing out that, in the nine years during which he had served on the board, he had given close attention to all branches of the school work. He spoke of the new High School as essential if no vocational school were built, of the need of vocational training to fit the children of the city to earn their livelihood; of the injustice of providing a school for the rich man's child and leaving the poor man's child unprovided for, and of the blot which would be placed upon the city if vocational training was not established.
Mr. Green said he was a city appointee on the board but he believed he was appointed to provide the best education for the boys and girls and if he had not carried out that duty then the City Council could have his resignation from the board. He was in favor of carrying out the vocational education policy once.
Pleased to Hear Council.
Mr. McIntyre said that the board should advise the Common Council that it was going ahead with the vocational education programme but would be pleased to have the council appear before the board to state its views. As a member of the delegation which appeared before the Provincial Government, Mr. McIntyre did not think the Government could make the grant available for a later date.

He spoke along similar lines to those stressed by Dr. Curran and Mr. Green. He said that not only a new High School but a central building for manual training and domestic science would be needed if the vocational school were not built and expenditures for these two would be about the same as for the vocational school and no grant would be given for them.
Mr. Porter thought that, since the Common Council had taken issue with the action of the School Board the Common Council should appear before the School Board and explain its position. With reference to the status of those members of the board who were appointed by the City Council, Mr. Porter said that it was a mistake to consider that they owed any special allegiance to the City Council. In rural communities the people elected the members of the School Board and in cities, as a matter of convenience merely, the City Council took the duty of the citizens and elected members of the School Board.

Once appointed, the members of the School Board were answerable to the people and not to the City Council, Mr. Porter said that the School Board was to cooperate with the City Council but it was a concurrent body and not subservient to the City Council.
Mr. McIntyre then presented his resolution which Mr. Porter seconded and which carried unanimously and the meeting adjourned.

DIES NEAR HIS GERMAN CASTLE
Baron was Rescued From Poor Farm in United States.

(United Press.)
Colorado Springs, Colo., Oct. 18.—Baron Herman von Goldschmidt, whose presence more than a year ago on the local county poor farm caused immediate assistance from noblemen relatives in Germany, died within a few miles of his wealthy relatives.

This fact was divulged in a letter received here by M. D. Hexter, in reply to an inquiry as to the baron's health.

Baron Goldschmidt's career in Colorado Springs just after the war was a dazzling round of unostentatious entertainment, spotlights and night life. Unable to realize that the ravages of his home country had cut off his income to a mere fraction of its previous size, the baron continued the revelry until creditors stepped in and salvaged what remained of his squandered fortune.

Broken in health and in purse through his twelve months of strenuous living, the German nobleman silently submitted to being taken to the poor farm. None of those friends who had helped him feast and dance away half a million dollars within the year offered a penny to rescue him from the climax.

Hexter took up the baron's case, communicated with relatives in Germany, and finally obtained passage money to send him home. On April 24, 1924, the baron sailed, but ill-health, augmented by the disgrace he felt had befallen him, caused his condition to grow worse. At Bremen, just a few hours travel from his castle at Cassel, the baron became too ill to continue his travels, and a day later died.

Baron Goldschmidt was at one time a member of the Prussian Imperial guard and passed several years in attendance on former Kaiser Wilhelm.

The New Studebaker Big Six Duplex-Phaeton

Two Cars in One—
An open and closed car combined

STUDEBAKER Duplex—a closed and open car combined. An entirely new type car—developed by Studebaker and available from no other maker.
It is the most sensational—most talked-of car in America.
One minute you are enjoying the comfort and protection of a closed car—next the unbridled freedom that made the open car so popular. And the change can be made in 30 seconds by simply lowering the roller side enclosures.
Yet with all this two-fold convenience, the Duplex-Phaeton sells for no more than an open car.
The new Studebaker Big Six is strikingly beautiful—with long, low sweeping lines. It is especially designed and powered for seven-passenger service.
The Big Six Duplex-Phaeton is delivered to you with complete equipment. This even includes two highest grade bumpers, extra balloon tire, tube and tire cover—there is nothing else to buy.
But to appreciate this car you must inspect it—drive it. Test its delightful ease of operation—steering mechanism especially designed for its full-sized balloon tires.
Notice the new location of the lighting switch on the steering wheel—and many other new and unusual features.
See this car that has definitely solved the open-closed car problem.

CHANCELLOR MARX STILL HOLDS FORT

He Hopes for Agreement With The Nationalists for a Coalition.
(United Press.)
Berlin, Oct. 18.—Refusing to relinquish office while the slightest possibility of an agreement with the Nationalists upon a Coalition Government remains, Chancellor Marx and his colleagues still withheld their expected resignations today. Leaders of the Democratic party issued a warning to the Chancellor that inclusion of Nationalists in the Cabinet would undoubtedly sooner or later mean sabotage of the expert plan and the existing reparations agreement.

The Nationalists accepted the Dawes-McKenna plan "in principle," but their sincerity is doubted now. Eric Donawick, of the Tagelblatt, Germany's most informed political writer, says the Nationalists want Hergt, Von Gayl, Leopold and Schiele as four new Cabinet members, and points out that these men really oppose the expert's plan and reparations settlement.

TODAY'S MARKET STRONG IN N. Y.

Trading Active for Both Accounts—Little Change
at Montreal.

New York, Oct. 18.—(Wall Street opening)—Stock prices developed impressive strength at the opening of today's market with active buying for both accounts. Colorado Fuel and Oil, Canadian Pacific, and General Electric, American Waterworks, Maxwell and Studobaker showed large fractional gains on initial sales. Davidson Chemical was the only heavy spot in the first few minutes of trading, falling back 1/4 of a point.

Montreal, Oct. 18.—During the early minutes of trading on the local stock market this morning no price changes of any note were registered and it was difficult to detect a trend either up or down. Alcohol was the most active of securities and was fractionally stronger at 44. Spanish River Common and Preferred were both in demand, but remained the same at 102 and 118 respectively. Laurentide was also unchanged at 82. A few shares of textile stock at yesterday's close of 62. Other leaders did not appear on the tape at the opening.

OPINIONS ON THE STOCK MARKET
New York, Oct. 18.—(Fines and Whittier)—"American Smelting appears to be due for an important advance before very long."
Josephine & Co.—"Would you will see favorable selling levels."
Bach & Co.—"Bach will see good stocks at substantially higher levels the first week in November."
Houseman—"We cannot advise taking a positive position one way or the other, but do think it is wise to proceed cautiously."
Horsflower and Weeks—"We see no reason to prescribe a given moment to sell stocks beyond being reasonably certain that they are going lower."

Morning Stock Letter
(From McDougall & Cowan)
New York, Oct. 18.—(McDougall) Pointing to the political victory which most of the street wants and some early of in call money rates were the big factors in the advance yesterday. Considerable buying was, of course, from the shorts. It must now be admitted that the professional selling on Tuesday attracted very little liquidation and the shorts did not have an easy time covering stocks. The market should be fairly strong again today, but look for some kind of a reaction before the close Monday. The market looks decidedly better. There should be considerable buying in the next several weeks, however. We would not buy stocks on break, selling more, as there should be in the next week or so. Some of the day some special stocks. and for this space he pays directly or indirectly. The bill of the landlord takes precedence over other bills, consequently the holder of a First Mortgage Bond on income-producing centrally located Metropolitan Real Estate is fundamentally in a strong position.

If, to this strength, one adds modern premises (either residential or commercial) a First Mortgage Real Estate Bond issue for not more than two-thirds of the valuation of such property takes on the character of a perfect investment, because the security is so substantial and current interest rates are from 6% to 7%.

We have specialized in developing the high grade First Mortgage Real Estate Bond for Canadian investors. The First Mortgage Bonds of the Drummond Apartments, Montreal; Booth Buildings, Ottawa; Barrington Street Realities, Halifax; Drummond Investment Company, Montreal, and Acadia Apartments, Limited, Montreal, are among our prominent offerings.

Holdings of this type of security have seen their values well maintained and have enjoyed better than a 6 1/2% interest return on their money.

We maintain a good market for First Mortgage Real Estate Bonds of our underwriting and invite your application for list of current offerings.

KEEN INTEREST IN Y. M. C. I. CLASSES

Junior and High School Boys Organized for Physical Instruction.

With the formation yesterday afternoon of the junior classes for physical instruction and last night of High School boys for the same purpose, and the formation during the week of one of the largest senior classes in the history of the institution, activities of the Young Men's Catholic Institute are away to a good start for the year.

W. Ernest Stirling is at the helm guiding the physical instruction of the various classes during the year. Mr. Stirling was much encouraged last night with the turnout of High School boys and has already conceived elaborate plans for their training during the coming winter.

The girls of St. Vincent's High met last night and decided that they were ready to begin their course of instruction in physical education in the girls' gymnasium next week. Mr. Stirling will also plan their course and two instructors will carry out his plans under his supervision.

Badminton has grown tremendously in popularity and will be played in the Y. M. C. I. and in St. Vincent's this year. The St. Vincent's Alumnae, the Catholic Women's League and the Knights of Columbus have all taken up the game and some lively tournaments for seniors and juniors are anticipated for the winter season when the game gets into full swing.

Joe Milan, the well known ball player, is in charge of the billiard room and William Dacey in charge of the bowling alleys at the Y. M. C. I. this year.

The spirit in which the Catholic young men and boys have entered into the work of the Y. M. C. I. this year augurs well for a successful season. The membership is growing daily which, in view of the fact that no special drive was made for membership this year, the officials regard as showing an intensified interest in the work of the institution.

TUNNEY TO MEET WINNER OF BOUT

Boxing Commission Grants Permission for McTigue-Berlenbach Go.

New York, Oct. 18.—Permission for a light heavyweight match for the championship of the world on between the title holder, Mike McTigue, and Paul Berlenbach, knockout sensation, was granted yesterday by the State A. C. which had previously ruled that Gene Tunney be given the first opportunity to meet McTigue. Tunney's interests were safeguarded by the commission in a plan by which the winner of the bout will meet Tunney, the American champion designated by the commission as the logical challenger.

The commission also sanctioned to Promoter Tex Rickard that he discontinue plans for a bout between Fitz and either Fred Fulton or Bertie Madden because neither man was adjudged to be a worthy foe of the Argentine.

Rickard suggested George Goetzky of Philadelphia as a possible opponent for the South American, but Goetzky, a member of the staid Jimmie Daugherty, is now under the ban of suspension which was placed upon the entire stable when Bobby Barrett, one of Daugherty's boxers, fought Mickey Walker who is under suspension in this state.

DALHOUSIE'S DECISION

Halifax, N. S., Oct. 17.—At a meeting tonight of the Dalhousie Athletic Association, it was decided to withdraw from all inter-collegiate sports. The reason given was that the trips away from Halifax took the students too much from their classes and also depleted the funds of the association to a prohibitive extent, the gate receipts for games being too small to pay expenses.

FAMOUS RACER SOLD

Wilmington, Ohio, Oct. 18.—Power Patch, 2:08 1/2, noted pacing stallion and holder of the world's record for the half mile on the ice, was sold by W. J. Galvin of Wilmington to Elmer E. Lay of Carlisle, Pa. Power patch is the son of the world's champion, Dan Patch, 1:55, and his dam was the racing mare Edie Powers, 2:08 1/2, winner of 100 races.

HOPPE MAKES HIGH RUN AND GAMES

Is Leading De Oro 400 to 261 in Billiard Match.

New York, Oct. 18.—Willie Hoppe, world's champion at 15.2 ballkline billiards, has increased his lead over Alfred De Oro, former three-cushion champion, by winning the seventh and eighth blocks of the three-cushion match at the Hoppe Billiard Academy. Hoppe won the afternoon block, 50 to 80, in sixty-seven innings and the night block, 50 to 40, in forty-one innings. Hoppe now leads by 400 to 261.

STAR FOOTBALL PLAYER IN RING

Giant Athlete is Ready to Break Into Professional Boxing Game.

Boston, Oct. 18.—Big Ed Garvey, four years star, lacking a fighting heart, great Notre Dame eleven, and the last two seasons captain of the professional Chicago football eleven, is in New York, ready to break into professional boxing.

TALKING HOCKEY IN NEW GLASGOW

New Glasgow, Oct. 18.—New Glasgow is already talking hockey, and making plans for next season. Amateur hockey received a big boost last year in the New Glasgow team captured the provincial title, after a thrilling battle with Kentville. The citizens are back of this year's team, and will support them to the very limit, and hope to see them retain the title.

NOVA SCOTIA CHAMPIONS ARE OUT TO WIN THE MARITIME TITLE

Ernie Williams and Archie Nicholson, who are trying for their "A" certificates in the New Glasgow High School, will be on the team again this year, and are receiving the splendid training of the football season which will have them in the best of shape for the grueling contests of the winter. Both these lads are looked upon as "A" puck handlers.

FIRESIDE SOCIAL HELD AT Y.M.C.A.

Much Merriment Caused by Debate on Bobbed Hair.

The social season at the Y. M. C. A. opened last night when a fireside social was held for the senior group after the regular gymnasium period. A singing of popular airs was the first item and was heartily enjoyed. A debate followed and the resolution that it was preferable for girls to have bobbed hair, was debated with much favor and much good fun. The affirmative side was captained by E. Newton Hanjoly and the negative by Dodd Tweedie. Rev. John Unsworth was the judge and he gave his decision in favor of the negative. Motion pictures were shown after the debate and light refreshments were served. The social was one of the most enjoyable gatherings that the Y. M. C. A. has witnessed, and was the first of a series of similar gatherings to be held during the winter months.

The failure of Bobby Veach to deliver for the Boston Red Sox may mean the passing of the slugging outfielder to the minors. Veach cost the Red Sox a sum close to $25,000 and wasn't a profitable investment.

HOPPE IS WILLING TO MEET SCHAEFER

Would Go to the Coast in November—Wants Two Matches.

New York, Oct. 18.—Willie Hoppe, the world's ballkline champion, has accepted the challenge of Young Jase Schaefer to a special ballkline match. Hoppe outlined the conditions and said that he was ready to go to the Coast to meet Schaefer providing there were two matches of 2,000 points each instead of one at 4,000 points, as suggested by Schaefer. Hoppe also informed Schaefer that the only open date he had on his schedule were the last two weeks in November.

Ross, and Epinar, the French horse, which has already won several races in international races, will likely make their next appearance at Laurel race course this afternoon. The race is over a distance of one mile, which will suit Halucination. He new driver will be Halucination's trainer, General Thatcher and Wise Counselor.

NO AMERICA CUP RACE

There will be no America Cup race next year, for Sir Thomas Lipton has not yet challenged, and the rules require that ten months' notice must be given. This would push the time beyond the available good weather season of next year.

DEMPSEY MAY BE SECOND FOR WALKER

Expects to be Behind Welterweight Champion in Malone Bout.

New York, Oct. 18.—The possibility of a clash between the winner and Harry Greb, world's middleweight champion, has served to arouse keen interest in the match between Mickey Walker, the world's welterweight titleholder, and Jack Malone, which is scheduled to take place in the Newark armory on the night of Oct. 29, under the auspices of the National Sportsmen's Club.

The bout is scheduled to go twelve rounds and while no bet is expected to be involved the battle nevertheless is expected to furnish a good line on the respective chances of the two men against Greb. Particularly will it be the desire of Walker, who has expressed a desire to try conclusions with the middleweight champion.

Both Walker and Malone are putting in their hardest training in preparation for their coming fight, and an announcement was made yesterday that Walker, who is working out at Rumson, N. J., probably will have Jack Dempsey in his corner on the night of the fight. Dempsey, who will embark on a vaudeville tour this Sunday, will be playing in Newark the week of the Walker fight and stated yesterday that he expected to make arrangements in order to be with Walker when the latter steps into the ring with Malone.

Willie Harmon, the east side welterweight, and Harry Marton of Jersey will meet in the ten-round semi-final, while Nick Ferrara and Gordon Munce, the former national amateur heavyweight champion, will meet in a six-weight champion, will clash in a six-

EPINARD'S OWNER STAYS FOR RACE

Laurel, Md., Oct. 18.—Pierre Wertheimer's four-year-old colt Epinar, which is to be a starter in the Laurel Stakes here this afternoon, has arrived from Lexington, Ky., where he ran second to Seaman last Saturday in the third and last of the international races. Epinar came through the journey in excellent condition.

In the car with the French colt were his stable companions, Sain Slippers and Idle Girl, while the car also brought the three Belmont horses, Larkin, Diagram and Blind Play. Frank Leigh and Dick Williams, Epinar's room, accompanied the shipment. Later in the day Eugene Leigh, Epinar's trainer, with Louis Peustic, trainer of the Belmont horses, reached Laurel Park.

It was reported here that Epinar's owner, Mr. Wertheimer, was to have sailed for France today, but cancelled his passage in the hope of seeing his stable companions come home in front in at least one race on this side of the water. Epinar's most formidable opponents in the $10,000 stake over the mile course are expected to be Larkin, Wise Counselor, My Play, Sun Flag, Whetstone and Single Foot, while other eligibles are Initiate, Arcady, Donaghe and Big Blaz. Probably the field will go to the post. The race is for all ages, and H. P. Whitney's Arcady and J. E. Griffin's Single Foot are juveniles.

In the Laurel Stakes, which is an allowance affair, Epinar will be asked to carry 116 pounds, while Larkin will have to pick up 120 pounds. This big shift in the weights undoubtedly will send the French colt to the post as a strong favorite. In the mile race at Aqueduct, at weight for age, Epinar carried 120 pounds, and Larkin, a three-year-old, was in with 119 pounds, and just beat Epinar.

The secretary's report. Personally I was there two hours, and it opened my eyes to something more than two months of reading or talking would have done.

Another new feature is the patrol leaders' meetings which Mr. Johnson has begun. This is for the boys, and I may say that their enthusiasm is boundless.

This briefly takes up most of the matters I wish to mention. There is a great deal of interest that I would like to enlarge on but will not take your time.

I must, however, make you aware of a few things. No report from me would be complete without a few words of acknowledgment to the real strength of the scouts. I mean the accountants.

With no assistance from me, they have kept steadily on as always, using their spare time after the long day's work; worrying, planning and carrying on to spare the movement going.

I must not close without speaking of the work of one without whose efforts I don't think whether we'd be on the map as a city institution. I of course mean Mrs. Wilford Campbell, who organized our tag day under such trying circumstances and with such splendid results.

I regret exceedingly that I cannot be present. In fact I have been so busy I have only been able to work very little this year. Even so, with the support I have had I can confidently state we are on an upward wave of enthusiasm and with such and as we now have, we can go ahead. Our sole worry will be finances and that I feel will be well handled by the finance committee.

FRANK BRANDEGEE HAD LOST WEALTH

Reputed Millionaire, Remaining Property Heavily Encumbered.

Washington, Oct. 18.—The reputed millions of Frank Brandegee, Senator from Connecticut, who ended his life by inhaling gas, vanished into thin air when investigation was begun into the state of his financial affairs.

His supposedly extensive real estate holdings, moved to be relatively small and are all heavily encumbered with debt. Tales of widespread borrowings by the Senator during recent years of both small and large amounts from banks and from friends and associates tell their own story of his desperate financial plight.

The imposing brown stone mansion in Washington which he occupied alone in solitary splendor appears on the assessors books in the name of a local trust company instead of being owned by the Senator as was generally supposed.

It is assessed for $180,000 and is large enough to be frequently mistaken by passerby for a club or hotel. It had the appearance of a millionaire's home, and it, more than anything else, contributed to the popular estimation of the Senator in the millionaire class.

Non-Paying Property. The only real estate now standing in Brandegee's name in the District of Columbia are five houses adjoining one another in a single block near Connecticut avenue, which are all together assessed $190,000 and which he acquired about five years ago.

This property is not of the sort which in its present state repays enough to pay what the real estate investor calls the "carrying charges," namely taxes, repairs and interest on mortgages.

In Montgomery county, Md., which adjoins the District of Columbia, the Senator had in recent years acquired a thousand or more acres of farm land, likewise unproductive of income, and purchased as a speculative investment, like real estate in value. It is close to the new $3,000,000 Congressional Country Club.

Could Not See Boom Through. Great Falls, from which the capital draws its water supply and where a mammoth hydro-electric power has been forecast is nearby.

Brandegee foresaw a real estate boom in this neighborhood, but it never closed he lacked the resources to "see the deal through."

Despatrols from New London, Conn., the Senator's home, bring the information that what property he once owned there he disposed of several years ago. So far as it is known the farm land tract in Maryland and the little cluster of houses in Washington, which he had, and against this, according to report, were heavy commitments for money borrowed to finance their purchase.

To emphasize the fact that our industries are producing commodities which compare favorably with the best importations, both as to quality and price.

To stress to the consumer the serious consequences following extensive buying abroad, and the obvious advantage of buying from local merchants.

MAYOR WILL TAKE ST. JOHN SCHOOL SITUATION BEFORE LEGISLATURE

On Monday Will Ask Council to Seek Legislation for the Election of Trustees and Board to Do Its Own
Assessing and Collecting.

Mayor Potts said this morning that he proposed to see that no mayor of the city in future would find himself in the position that he was in today, that of having to accept responsibility for an expenditure of half a million dollars when he had nothing to say about how the money should be spent. To that end he would like to see legislation to have the members of the school board elected by the people and make their own assessment and collect it. He said that it looked as though the vocational school was to be erected in spite of the expressed will of the members of the council, who were the elected representatives of the people, and in view of that he would, at the committee meeting on Monday, introduce a resolution to the effect that the city promote legislation at the next session of the legislature providing that in future the Board of School Trustees make their own assessment and collect it; also an Act providing for the election of the trustees.

WOODEN LEG MAN

Police Recall Visit in Connection With Search Around Woodstock.

Word was received here last night that Sheriff Maguire of Bangor, Maine, was in Woodstock looking for a man who is supposed to have been a party in New Brunswick and Maine robberies. He has a wooden leg and was held in Woodstock for some days, but was later released.

On September 30 a man with a wooden leg, who said he had traveled from Woodstock and had been held in custody there, called at central police station here and asked for protection. He remained that night, and the following morning signified his intention of proceeding to Sydney, N. S., where he hoped to secure work in the mines. Since that time he has not been seen or heard of by the local authorities.

THISTLES COMPLETE THEIR RINK PLANS

Will Make Four Rinks on Solid Foundation—Membership Campaign.

Plans for remodeling of the Thistle Curling rink were perfected at a meeting of the members held last evening. The contract for the work was let to George Lawson and he is expected to start operations soon. A committee was appointed to supervise the work and report progress from time to time. When completed the rink is expected to be second to none in the maritime provinces.

It has been decided to tear up the entire floor area, remove the spruce posts underneath the rink floors and sink concrete pillars. The top dressing will be of stone, gravel and cinders and ice will be made on top of the cinders instead of on a floor as heretofore. At present a walk runs down the centre of the building with spaces for two sheets of ice on one side and one on the other. This will be changed to give four rinks in the centre and a promenade around the entire rink. The installation of the concrete posts and the substitution of the crushed stone, gravel and cinders instead of a board floor are expected to make a perfect playing surface. In former years the frost caused a settling of the cedar posts and the building itself and as a result one of the ice sheets was out of line.

In addition to having the rink remodelled the members are also planning on a membership campaign and hope to secure new talent for this popular winter pastime. Much enthusiasm is being displayed and the outlook is regarded as bright for a successful season.

BURIED TODAY.

Mayor Potts this morning received an invitation from the G. W. V. A. to open their fair on October 25, and he will accept the invitation. He also received a request that "Poppy Day" be changed from November 11 to Saturday, November 8.
