GERMANS ARE CHECKED IN TRYING TO CROSS YSER

Fighting Less Violent Today—Allies Generally Maintain Positions and in One Section Have Captured Attachment of Enemy

Paris, Nov. 13.—(2.45 p.m.)—The French official announcement given out in Paris this afternoon—

On the coast as far as the Yser the fighting has been of a less violent character than on previous days. Several efforts of the Germans to cross the Yser canal, at the western outlet from Dinmude and with other points of passage in the Amont District, were checked. Generally speaking, our positions have been maintained without change.

To the north, to the east and to the south of Ypres attacks of the enemy were repulsed at the end of the day, at different points of our line and that of the British army.

"From the region to the east of Arras and as far as the Oise there have been artillery exchanges and actions of minor importance.

"In the course of the last few days of foggy weather our troops have not ceased to make progress little by little. They are today established almost everywhere at distances varying from 300 to 500 metres from the network of barbed wire entanglements of the enemy.

"To the north of the Aisne we have made slight progress to the east towards Neuvion, as well as between Courcy and Vregny and to the northeast of Soissons.

"In the vicinity of Vailly a counter-attack by the Germans delivered against those of our troops who had retaken Chavonne and Soupre was repulsed.

"Equal failure attended the German efforts in the environs of Berry Aubeac.

"In the Argonne there has been a violent artillery duel.

"There has been minor progress in the vicinity of St. Mihiel and in the region of Pont-A-Mousson.

"A surprise attack delivered by our troops against the villages of Val and Chatillon, near Grey-sur-Vesouze, made it possible for us to capture a detachment of the enemy.

"A German attack directed against the heights of Mount Sainte Marie resulted in failure.

"It is reported that snow is beginning to fall in heights of the Vosges mountains."

ALLIES STILL HOLD KEY POSITION.

Paris, Nov. 13.—The battle on which probably depends the fate of the German invasion of Belgium and northern France continues to rage with unabated fury. Despite the masses that are ceaselessly being hurled against the allies and despite the German attacks of unparelleled violence, the allies are said still to hold the key position around Ypres.

The ancient city and the villages of Konnebeke, Paschendale and Hollebeke, within a radius of six miles constitute the dangerous salient or wedge, thrust into the German line. While Ypres remains in the possession of the allies, military strategists say that the way of La Bassée and Belgium will be impassable, since the north flank would be threatened by the allies.

If the allies should succeed in advancing further from Ypres, according to these officers, the Germans would be compelled to abandon Lille and virtually give up hope of reaching the coast through Arras.

GERMAN REPORT ON NORTH SEA

Berlin, Nov. 13.—The German admiralty has declared that the northern portion of the North Sea is free of mines. Consequently the sailing of neutral ships along this route is not attended by danger. There is danger, however, for vessels sailing through the southern portion of the North Sea, and an area announced by England as being free of mines. The correctness of this is proved by the newspaper Handelsblatt, published in Norway, which declares that during the last few days, several neutral ships have foundered while traversing the route recommended by the British Admiralty.

London, Nov. 13.—The police have discovered concrete beds erected in collusion with the Kent coast, which are owned by German syndicates. The positions are of strategic importance, but whether the beds are intended to carry machinery or guns is unknown.

London, Nov. 13.—A Reuter despatch from Vienna via the Associated Press says: "An official telegram from the southern war theatre states that the attacks on block-houses and strongly fortified positions, together with the pursuit of the enemy, continued on the whole front on Wednesday. The line east of Nakuani and Novoselo, on the Save River, was reached by the Austrian troops. The Serbians are in full retreat on Kotzietz and Valovo, where, according to reports from Austrian aviators, ammunition and provision cars block all the ways of communication. Four guns, fourteen munition cars and numerous prisoners were captured."

MONTENEGRIANS AND AUSTRIANS FIGHTING

Paris, Nov. 13.—A despatch from Cetinje, Montenegro, to the Havas Agency, says:— "A great battle is in progress on the Drahovo front, along the western border of Montenegro.

"The Montenegrin troops were attacked by superior forces, but are holding their own. They have repulsed the Austrians at several points, inflicting severe losses."

Prisoners Held by Austria.

London, Nov. 13.—A telegram from Vienna states that 701 officers and 79,814 men are prisoners of war in the Austrian concentration camps. The enemy's wounded are being treated like our own soldiers," the telegram says, "while the officers who are prisoners are interned in castles and in great private houses and the captured men in great barracks."

FRENCH GUNNER DECLINED TO RETREAT UNTIL ALL AMMUNITION WAS GONE

Then He Accounted For 600 Germans and Got Away With Slight Wound—Battle of Aisne Renewed as Fiercely as Before

London, Nov. 13.—The Times correspondent in France under date of Tuesday, sends the following regarding the fighting on the Aisne:

"The battle of the Aisne, which the official communications now refer to as the centre of the allied line, has been renewed this week with its original intensity from the forest of L'Alpa, past Soissons and Rheims to the Argonne."

"The three main areas of fighting here are the district between the Oise and Croisne, the neighborhood of Rheims and the forest of Argonne. The first named is the most important."

"On the whole, the allies have the advantage. The French capture of Quenoy-En-Santerre was a good deal bigger affair than reported. On the other hand the enemy's report of a great victory in Vailly was exaggerated. They obtained a temporary advantage but the allies have more than regained the original positions. It was here that one of the French gunners, who refused to join the retreat until all his ammunition was expended, succeeded in killing 600 Germans with his last twelve shells while the enemy was advancing. The gunner finally succeeded in retreating with a slight wound, while the enemy was only 100 yards away."

"All along the centre the allies are nibbling at the German entrenchments. As in the previous fighting along the Aisne, certain localities seemed destined to be the scene of continuous fighting as is Lewer to the native place for beer. Many of these hills, gullies and plateaus, which have been the scene of desperate fighting throughout the last few weeks, were the scenes of similar fighting in the war of 1911 and in the Napoleonic wars."

"Situations have been hard hit by the artillery while fighting continues feverishly around Rheims. The German front here runs from Bernercourt to Brimont, Femes, Vitry-les-Reims, Nogent l'Abbesse, Naroisy, Morsvillers and Vanducourt to Soupe and thence northward to Souain, Perthes Peulhurs, Ville-sur-Louvre to Argonne."

THE WHEAT MARKET

Chicago, Nov. 13.—Exporters buying future deliveries put strength today into the wheat market here. The foreign purchasing was about evenly divided between the December and May options. Selling was mostly in small lots and proved ineffective, except to cause at one time a temporary dip in prices. The opening, which varied from 1-8 off to 1-8 to 1-4 advance was followed by a moderate sag all around, and later a rise higher than before.

Mrs. P. Leslie Cox and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cox and family wish to thank their friends and the members of the City Cornet Band, Sons of England Band and lodge, and Moose lodge for kindness and sympathy shown them in their recent bereavement; also for the beautiful floral tributes.

WAR NOTES

The British admiralty has permitted a steamer to sail from Copenhagen with thousands of Austrians for New York. Fearing conscription if Greece declares war, the German kaiser has given an option at a very low price to a Swiss syndicate on his $50,000,000 marble palace at Corfu. A party of 300 Newfoundland naval reservists have arrived in England and 200 will sail soon. Volunteers are being accepted at a very low rate for a second contingent of land forces also.

Appeal For Clothing From British Relief Association in New York

The British War Relief Association, Inc., headquarters, British Imperial Club, 108 East 90th street, New York City, has issued the following appeal:

Sir—The enclosed appeal signed by Dr. Shipley, Master of Christ College, Cambridge University, England, has been received by the president of Princeton University. "Do you think you could collect from the Princeton men and their friends any old clothes? It is difficult for those far away to appreciate what is going on in England. We have practically half a nation on our hands and ninety per cent of them are absolutely destitute; they have no money and no belongings of any kind. Our great base hospital on the Kings and Clare cricket ground now holds 600 and next week will hold 1,000 wounded. A hundred Belgian wounded came in yesterday.

"If you could issue a rousing appeal and send some clothing as quickly as possible—any sort of clothing and underclothing, suits, overcoats, hats, caps, boots, slippers, handkerchiefs, sleeping garments—we should be eternally thankful. Practically everything is needed except ball dresses."
You will see that he says, "practically half a nation is on our hands, and that ninety per cent of them are absolutely destitute."
The British War Relief Association has arranged to forward all clothing and supplies direct to Doctor Shipley as fast as they are received.
Will you not help these suffering men, women and children by making known their urgent and desperate need to your readers and asking them to send contributions of clothing or money to the headquarters of the association, 108 East 90th Street, New York City.
We have already sent twenty-four large cases of clothing and medical supplies to Great Britain, but much more is needed to meet this terrible distress. Trusting that you will do all in your power to give this appeal the publicity it deserves and thanking you in advance,
Yours truly,
A. M. KELLY, Secretary.

MRS. WHITNEY AND FLYING HOSPITAL REACH PARIS

Paris, Nov. 12—Mrs. Harry Payne Whitney has arrived in Paris from New York with fifteen trained nurses and four physicians. She is organizing a so-called flying hospital for work near the firing line. This hospital will be assisted with the American Ambulance as an auxiliary, but will be directed, it is understood, by Mrs. Whitney herself. She will contribute $200,000 to the hospital.

"I say, old fellow," said the young man who went in for health fads, to his lawyer friend. "I've been reading a lot about the way to sleep lately. Do you find it best to lie on the right side?"

"Well," replied the legal man, absently, "when you're on the right side, it is seldom necessary to lie at all."

THE WAR NEWS

The deadlock in West Flanders continues. The Germans have brought up their most experienced and seasoned troops to participate in the desperate effort to break through the British and French lines between Dixmude and Ypres. Beyond the capture of Dixmude, which was mentioned yesterday, they have, however, gained no material success. The road to Dunkirk and Calais is still barred by the Allies, who have been able to bring up reinforcements to fill up the gaps in their ranks caused by the desperate fighting of the last few days. The Germans will undoubtedly make a supreme effort to win through to the coast, and the issue may not be decided for several days.

A despatch from Petrograd says that the Germans will soon be forced back in Prussia to a line of fortresses, including Koenigsberg, Graudenz, Posen, Breslau and Neisse. If the report is well founded, it means that the Russian armies are making remarkable progress, and indeed the whole Russian campaign is described by military critics as one of the wonders of the war. The German Kaiser is said to have issued a frantic appeal to the people of East Prussia not to give way before the enemy. Along the whole battle line, however, the Russian armies appear to be pressing forward, and the news of their advance is being carefully suppressed in Berlin and other parts of Germany.

There are rumors of great activity among the German warships and auxiliaries in the Kiel Canal, and the British Admiralty authorities are said to attach some importance to them. A German submarine has been sunk on the Belgian coast. There is a rumor which appears to be correct in London as to the fact that the German cruiser Karlsruhe has been cornered, and a powerful Japanese fleet is out in search of the small German squadron still afloat in the Pacific.

From South Africa comes word that General Botha's forces have defeated those of General De Wet at Winburg, and that a force of German and Boer rebels has been defeated on the border of German South-West Africa.

A London cable says that Premier Asquith will ask sanction of parliament for raising one million additional troops, thus increasing the total to two millions, and that a war loan of one billion dollars will probably be authorized. An interesting fact in connection with yesterday's session of parliament was the declaration of the leader of the labor party that organized labor favored going straight through with the war until complete success crowned the efforts of the Allies.

HEAVY LOSSES

The casualties of the British army since the war began have amounted to 57,000 men of all ranks. This includes killed, wounded and prisoners. Being in ignorance of the exact number of British troops in the war zone, we are unable to say what percentage the loss is of the total number of men engaged; but it is a very heavy toll. The mere statement is an eloquent plea for more active recruiting, in order that the gaps in the ranks may be promptly filled by trained men, and reinforcements got in readiness to be hurled against the enemy at what maybe the critical time, when the German armies begin to give way and withdraw toward their own borders. So far as the Allies are concerned, there must be continuous heavy fighting, and the Germans may be relied on to fight desperately and dispute every inch of ground as they are pressed back toward the heart of their own country. It may be taken for granted that they are making defensive preparations, so that when compelled to withdraw from one position they will be able to entrench themselves in a new one, and present a formidable resistance to the British and French forces. Let it not be forgotten that this is Canada's war, and that her sons must rally to the defence and the attack, in order that the Empire may be preserved, and the world made better by the complete destruction of German militarism. It will cost much, but the task must be accomplished.

THE GOD OF BATTLES.

The Toronto World makes some observations in connection with a report of a great patriotic meeting in that city which are worth passing along. One of the speakers was Premier Heavly of Ontario, who said—"The flag will go forward, for the hand that holds it aloft is the unseen hand of Omnipotence." The World makes this comment:

"We hope so, just as the Kaiser does, but why denounce the Kaiser and err on the same path? God helps those who help themselves, and we ought to be more concerned with developing the self-help department than in making assertions about what will happen before we have done anything to bring it about."

In today's despatches the report of the Russian general staff gives to Divine inspiration and assistance the credit for a great victory over the Austrians. The German Kaiser is no doubt assured that God directed the shell which sent Sir Christopher Cradock and the crew of the Good Hope to the bottom of the sea. The Toronto World is quite right in protesting against anything that would tend to make people believe that they must win, because God is fighting their battles for them. So far as war is concerned, it is still true that victory is on the side of the best fighters, with the best equipment and the best knowledge of the science of war. Let us not be at all doubtful about the justice of our cause, but let us also be ready to maintain it in the field. No fortress walls fall in these days at the sound of a ram's horn.

Only those who have visited the new works at Sand Point have any idea of the immense amount of work being done and the great number of men employed there.

The Russian boat's crew who deliberately exploded a mine at the cost of the lives of all but one of them in order to save a cruiser from destruction performed an act of heroism that has not been surpassed in the whole war.

It appears to be perfectly clear that there should be a heart to heart talk between the members of the provincial government and Mr. W. H. Berry, who is said to have returned to the province, and to be in possession of certain information which undoubtedly should be conveyed to Acting Premier Clark in his capacity as attorney-general.

There appears to be quite as much work for laboring men in St. John at present as is usual at this time of year. The cancelling of the sailings of two of the first winter port steamships will mean something to the longshoremen, but the general outlook for the fall and winter appears to be fairly good. The shipment of horses and hay will make up to some extent for the possible falling off in other lines.

The St. John Playgrounds Association has done very valuable work in this city, and in its decision to carry on social centre work for the benefit of girls and boys during the winter as well as the summer, deserves not only the sympathy, but the hearty support of all the citizens. There is great need for just the kind of work which it proposes to undertake, and the extent of which will only be limited by scarcity of funds.

The new hospital for advanced cases of tuberculosis at East St. John presents a very handsome front, and when completed will be a very fine building. Any one who stands at The Lookout in Rockwood Park, or at any point from which a broad view of East St. John may be obtained, cannot but be impressed with the large number of fine new buildings that have been erected there during the past two or three years. The growth at West St. John, however, is even more marked. On the whole, 1914 has been a busy building year in the city and suburbs.

Mr. O. Turgeon, M.P., will address meetings in French in the county of Gloucester in the interests of the recruiting campaign. Every member of parliament and every member of the legislature in this province should join heartily and promptly in this movement. It is not, as Mayor McKay of Sussex observed last night, that there is any doubt about the loyalty of the people; but they should be urged to give the most substantial proofs of that loyalty by filling up the ranks in the New Brunswick Battalion, and contributing generously to the various funds which must be raised in connection with a successful prosecution of the war.

Hon. John Morrissey has good reason to entertain a feeling of pride and satisfaction in connection with the notable event which took place yesterday on the Miramichi. The splendid new steel bridge between Newcastle and Nelson, which is known as the Morrissey Bridge, was formally opened by the chief commissioner's daughter, while his son, who is the mayor of Newcastle, was chairman at the meeting at which various speakers congratulated the chief commissioner, and referred to the great benefit the county of Northumberland and especially the Miramichi towns would derive from its construction. It was a notable day in the calendar of Hon. John Morrissey, as well as of the north shore county.

There are evidently many persons in the city who have little or no regard for appearances and who take no pride whatever in work that is done to add to the attractiveness of the streets. The effort to plant trees along the streets and thus beautify them ought to be heartily endorsed by every citizen young and old, and yet there is constant complaint of damage done to young trees and the work of the department rendered useless. The chief offenders are the drivers of teams, who bring their horses to a standstill at the side of the street within easy reach of the tops or branches of the young trees. Every such transgressor should be dealt with in the police court, and any citizen witnessing the destruction of a tree would be doing a public service by reporting the case at once to the authorities.

THESE INDIAN GIRLS ARE RICH HEIRESES

Visit Washington and Might Be Taken for Exponents of Parisian Fashion.

With all the absorbing interest in the European struggle diplomatic Washington has found time to stop and surrender itself completely to three Indian girls. Such a strange thing. But these maidens are totally different from the American idea of Indian girls.

Were it not that Paris is in a state of siege one would believe that the three beauties who have encamped in the national capital are exponents of the latest fashions from the French capital. They are so unlike anything ever seen in the moving pictures, yet, that is what they are—moving pictures.

The three young women in question, aside from their natural beauty and their modish styles, possess still another attribute which has endeared itself to the hearts of Washington men, to wit: They have money—and much of it. In fact, they are about the richest young women who have shown here for some time. Through their Uncle Sam, they have been given in round numbers, close to $3,000,000 each, in payment for oil lands, belonging originally to the richest nation, per capita, in the world.

It may be well to introduce to their American friends Mrs. Ada Shaw York, Miss Josephine Mathews, and Miss Louise Bruce. They are all natives of Tahaska, Okla. They have started out on a tour of their native land. The girls are descendants of famous Indian chiefs.

Instead of the conventional costumes of the Indian girls, these girls wear the dress of their American sisters. That is why today they walk the streets of Washington and are mistaken for exponents of ultra-fashion. They are smartly frocked in the latest basque models with light black velvet turbans perched jauntily over one eye and they wear Paris models with the grace and

Few women will deny the smartness of this frock in silk and wool charmeuse. This satin is so much in demand that the manufacturers found it necessary to produce it in more substantial quality for winter use. A warm leaf brown tone is employed, and the med.

case of never having known signs of a bulky blanket.

Mrs. York is a direct descendant of Pehaska, whose band of Osages founded the city of that name in Oklahoma. She is French and Indian. While her eyes are typically Indian, her complexion is clear and rosy and bespeaks her French ancestry.

Mrs. York is known among the Indians as "Little Black Bird." She is a Catholic and was educated by the Sisters of Divine Providence at St. Mary's Institute at Ponca City, Okla.

Miss Mathews, who is distinctly a blonde, is the daughter of Judge William S. Mathews, counsel for the Osage tribe. Mr. Mathews is a frequent visitor to Washington, coming to confer with the Indian bureau in the interest of his people. "Little Deer," by Chief Saucyreff, whose murder has been a mystery in Oklahoma for ten years. She was educated at Loreto Academy, in Kansas City, Mo., and besides being a writer of skill, is an authority on interior decoration.

One would easily mistake Miss Bruce, the third member of the party, for a German, but she has a mixture of English in her veins. She has large blue eyes and a wealth of light hair. Her education was completed at Crescent College, Eureka Springs, where she studied dramatic art and painting. Some of her works in the latter have been presented in various exhibitions throughout the country.

These three girls, who already have found a host of admirers in the capital city, represent the true aristocracy of the Indian race, and even above association with the one-time carpet-bagger who now own vast acreage of land and form the so-called "society" in some localities.

The Indian trio will tour the eastern cities before sailing for Cuba next month. After a trip through Cuba they will return home via Mexico and Texas.—Washington Herald.

There may be in your Sunday school fifty or a hundred kiddies who will have a hard job getting coppers for collection if you don't help their fathers earn wages by buying the things they make.

Flag-waving is all right if you apply the sentiment practically. Some enlist and go to the front. The rest of us can buy "Made in Canada" goods and make the money to keep them there.

It isn't a matter of buying silks and bric-a-brac. What keeps the Canadian factory going nowadays is the main part of what you buy every day and the small items multiplied run into a larger total than the big purchase.

When you agree for sake of argument that it's a good thing to buy goods made in Canada, don't forget that it's not merely a matter of argument. Do it.

When seven or eight millions of men armed to the teeth for killing one another and destroying property can get away with fifty million dollars a day outside of the property they destroy, remember what eight millions of Canadians using goods made by Canadians can do to keep the old ship head up to the storm.

The man that has a made-in-Canada salary should have made-in-Canada tastes.

AN OPERA STAR.

New York, Nov. 12.—"They do say in Walkerville, N. B., that 'Little Eleanor Painter' was the life of the husking bee round Walkerville—everybody was glad when she got the red car of corn, and everybody was especially happy when she sang. People are still happy when Eleanor Painter sings; they have been paying good money to hear her sing in Berlin and Munich, and now New York is interested because Andreas Dippe has brought the little Iowa girl over from Berlin to sing the prima donna role in his new opera, 'The Domino'."

LOCAL BEEF SITUATION

Local wholesale meat dealers are not inclined to think that the embargo placed upon cattle to or from the United States will lower the price of beef in this section. They do not expect to see any change in the price of beef, although there will be no shipments of cattle unless the embargo is removed. On Wednesday a large shipment of cattle from a local dealer to the New England market was turned back at the border. The dealer said that these would be killed and dressed and then sent forward. This would be one reason why the embargo is being so keenly felt here and another reason was that the number of cattle in the province was limited because American buyers had been taking all they could get and shipments to the states, particularly to the New England market had been heavy. Since there is no duty on the dressed beef, they say there is likely to be considerable trade in this connection, so that no more than the regular quantities will come to the local market.

WAR NOTES

A report reached London yesterday from Stockholm that a battle was raging in the Baltic Sea, and that a Norwegian schooner, master had been wanted to change his colors by a German submarine on account of the fighting ahead. The Admiralty has officially "pre-announced" that the British cruisers Good Hope and Monmouth have been lost. In these reports there are several errors. The name of Rear Admiral Sir Christopher Cradock. The Japanese have a squadron of whole ships patrolling the Pacific in German ships. General Botha is reported to have declared a force of regulars under General DeWet in the Orange River Colony, and taken 250 prisoners. It is reported in London that Canada intends purchasing four fast cruisers from the United States, the move being hastened by the success of the Australian cruises. The Duchess of Connaught has issued an appeal in behalf of the Jackies serving in the Atlantic squadrons under Admiral Hornby, asking that a fund be organized in Canada to help fit them with special winter clothing. There are about 6,000 sailors in the several ships. Dr. S. Stanley King of Hampton has volunteered for service with the medical corps at the front and expects to leave for England very soon.

THIS "GERMAN SPY" FOUND TO BE EX-MAYOR

Welland, Nov. 13.—By the police and military authorities at Welland on the suspicion that he was a German spy, it was found that Welland was harboring an ex-Mayor of Geneva, N. Y. He came to Welland some weeks ago and has been staying at the Dexter House. He had no apparent business in town and did not make any friends. He had nothing to say about himself and so suspicion grew. Investigation, however, showed that his real name was Abernethy and that he was for four years mayor of Geneva. At the present time he is being sued for divorce and his attorney advised him to seek some quiet place in Canada where the papers could not be served. He was released from custody.

North End Concerts.

The members of the League of Chosen Friends last night conducted a most enjoyable picnic concert in Temple Building, Main Street, the proceeds of which were for the city poor. Zam-Buk Heals So Quickly, it Saved a Worker Three Weeks' Wages

Mr. Hebert Hoghen, 888 Beverley St., Winnipeg, writes: "While at work my hand was caught between an iron bar and a revolving belt, and three fingers were very badly damaged—indeed, almost torn off. The doctor who dressed the injury advised me to use a certain preparation, and I did so, but the healing was so slow that I decided to try Zam-Buk.

"Just one week after I began using Zam-Buk my fingers were as far healed that I was able to go back to work, although the doctor said it would be at least a month before I would be able to do so. Zam-Buk thus not only healed my wound, but did it so quickly that I saved me three weeks' wages. I heartily recommend Zam-Buk for all cuts, wounds and injuries."

The above is but one of the numerous instances in which Zam-Buk has saved money for those who give it a fair trial. Apart from that, look at the hours of suffering it does away with. Accidents will happen; you cannot tell at what moment your turn will come. Be prepared! Keep Zam-Buk always handy; it is the best "First Aid." As soon as applied it soothes the pain, kills the germs of blood poison and quickly heals the injury. Just as good for skin diseases.

If you suffer from eczema, cuts, burns, bruises, cold sores, chapped hands, ulcers, piles, scalp sores, eruptions, or any skin disease, give Zam-Buk a fair trial. Refuse substitutes. Zam-Buk is entirely different from other ointments, and there is nothing "just as good."

At all druggists and stores, or post paid from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, on receipt of price, 50c. box, 8 boxes $1.25. For free trial send name and address, to stamp, this advertisement, and name of village.

YOU CAN'T EARN MONEY WHEN YOU'RE LAID UP

There are a lot of people in this town who cannot afford to be sick. Perhaps none of you feel that you can, but certainly some of you can't, for as soon as you are sick, your wages stop and worry and debts begin to pile up. The sensible thing for you to do, as soon as you feel run-down and on the verge of a nervous breakdown, is to take something just as quick as you can to build up strength and health. Make yourself more comfortable and provide against serious illness.

We don't believe there is any other medicine that will do as much towards saving your health and thus helping you save your money as Rezell Olive Oil Emulsion. It is a medicine that gets right at the trouble and relieves it by toning the nerves, enriching the blood, and giving new strength and health to the whole body. It doesn't do this by means of alcohol or habit-forming drugs, because it contains none.

It is a pure food, and is made of the Hypophosphites, long endorsed by successful physicians, the one for its food value, the other for its tonic value. Here, for the first time, they are combined, and the result is a real nerve, blood and body-building medicine—a real strengthener that we are proud to tell you about.

It doesn't do all we say it will, and satisfy you in every way, it will cost you nothing. If it doesn't make you strong and well again, come back and get your money. It will be given to you without word or question. Sold only in this town only by 7,000 Retail Stores, and in this town only by $1.00.

The Retail Stores 100 King St., 473 Main St., and 899 Main St.

MORNING WAR SUMMARY

London, Nov. 12—A critical stage in the battle in West Flanders has now been reached, and the next few days, if not hours, should produce something more decisive than has yet occurred.

The Germans have continued to attack, with all the forces at their command, the British and French, who hold the line between Dixmude and Ypres, but with the exception of the capture of Dixmude, which occurred Tuesday and some little progress around Ypres, they have not been able to make any material advance.

In fact the French official report issued this afternoon, says that all the attacks have been repulsed. The Germans are no longer utilizing green troops in this region, but have brought up the pick of their army, including some Prussian Guards, who attempted an offensive movement against the British, but without success.

The Russian army, under General Rennenkampf, is fighting its way into East Prussia, and has taken Johannsburg, which is on the railway from Lyck to Soldau, both of which towns are already in Russian hands. This gives to Russia the control of an important railway line which skirts the frontier in German territory, and several branch railways running into the interior.

The other Russian armies are also advancing.

The manner in which Grand Duke Nicholas, the Russian commander-in-chief, is wielding these armies, and the mobility they are showing, are the subject of admiration on the part of military men here.

There is a steady flow of recruits for Kitchener's army, and it is expected that, with the Territorials, who number 600,000, England before long will have an army of two million men. New armies are also being organized in India.

Premier Asquith, according to report, will ask parliament at an early date to give sanction to the raising of additional troops to the number of 1,000,000 for war service, thus bringing the total up to 2,000,000 men. It is also understood that the government intends to issue a war loan of $5,000,000,000.

In the British House of Commons Arthur Henderson, the Labor party leader has made the announcement that organized labor felt that the only course now open was to go straight through with the war until success crowned the efforts of the Allies.

Great Britain and France have warned Ecuador and Colombia that they will not countenance further violations of neutrality by these countries. Representatives have been made at Quito and Bogota to this effect and the United States government has been notified in view of possible complications that might arise.

Logical Dyspepsia Treatments

Importance of Eliminating Acidity and Food Fermentation

During the past two or three years dyspepsia has frequently appeared in the form of indigestion, the remarkable value of bismarated magnesia as an antacid; its ability to promote normal, healthy digestion by preventing food fermentation and neutralizing dangerous stomach acids has often been demonstrated. Until recently druggists could supply bismarated magnesia in powder form only, one to two teaspoonsful of which, taken in a little water after meals, almost instantly stops all fermentation and neutralizes acid, but suffers from much trouble will be glad to learn that, after a long series of experiments, leading firm of manufacturing chemists has now succeeded in producing a grain tablet which combines all the valuable antacid properties of the ordinary bismarated magnesia in a very convenient form. The new tablet of bismarated magnesia can now be obtained of druggists everywhere and many physicians are already prescribing them instead of the powder form.

SCORES "PEACE" KING

Writer Says Kaiser Long Aimed at Britain

Editor Detroit Journal:

It is almost superfluous to allege the pertinacity of the pro-German party in their attempt to excuse the "Empire of Peace." The British side is much stronger than the general public knows.

With a view to show the trouble we Britons have had at the hands of Germany, I submit some information which I have not seen in the daily press either in Canada or the States.

It has lately been suggested that the British constantly thwart the Germans. Let me ask, as the Boer war has been once or twice mentioned, who were the engineers in erecting the forts of the Boers at Pretoria and Johannesburg? The Germans. Who instructed the Boers in artillery? German officers. Who reported upon Natal for the purposes of the Boers three months before the latter's rebellion broke out? German officers (Hall Magazine, March 1900).

What papers prayed for the downfall of England in the Boer war? Why, sir, papers such as the Germania and Vaterland—St. James Gazette, May 29, 1900. In fact, all the leading German papers were "as malignant and mendacious as the lowest of the gutter press."—Sir Roland Bienenrasselt, National Review, Dec. 1900.

When was it publicly stated, "We (Germans) must keep cool, and until we have a strong fleet it would be a mistake to let ourselves be drawn into a hostile policy towards England?" In the German Reichstag, by Herr Bassermann (National Review, August, 1905).

With whom did the rebel Boer, Col. Maritz, recently conspire to overthrow British rule in South Africa? The Germans.

When was it publicly advised that the Germans should "double their naval armaments, yet speak and write about England as little as possible?" At the Pan-German congress, by Dr. Hasse.

Who had the hardihood to state in his dispatches to Kruger that "the independence of the Transvaal was a German interest?" The then German foreign minister, (National Review, October, 1902).

Who, again, stated in a series of articles, that "the future of South Africa belongs to the Boers?" Prof. Schlemann, a friend and intimate adviser of the Kaiser. ("Plot for the Downfall of Britain," page 126).

Who, who, who? The Boer war, made the significant remark: "The British empire was not unlikely to break up?" The German leader, Count von Bulow.

Who, in 1904, got the Boer order for heavy guns, etc., to the value of $500,000? The German, Herr Krupp.

In his latest plan for invading England, wrote: "The strength of our German navy should be developed so far that the security of all troops during a possible crossing is certain, and that it is able to defeat, or at least to detain, any hostile fleet, which the opponent may collect." The German strategist, Baron von Edelsheim.

The "possible crossing" referred to is, of course the Straits of Dover and the "opponent" England.

The well-known novelist, Wm. Le Queux (in letter to the Standard, London, June 26, 1909) says that an old friend of his—an ex-diplomatist of Germany, ridiculed the manner in which the British swallowed "our pro-German pills," as he termed them. He declared that his government was in intimate relation with more than one British military or naval officer of high standing!

Lord Charles Beresford only a few weeks ago expressed the opinion that the torpedoing of these British ships in one engagement could only have been accomplished by the aid of spies. I put the two statements together.

But does not that German's reference to "swallowing pro-German pills" lead one to think that a few of your correspondents have lately been suffering from doses of them, especially that one who, most singularly and with such maladroitness, proclaims himself a "Britisher?" This gentleman I have emulated in drawing up a little catch-in after the style of the one with which he interested your readers. Since then he has stated that the Kaiser is opposed to war, that the latter is no fire-eater, no sword swallower, though he feeds his enemies most hospitably, in their own country, however, with both sword and fire.

Behold the apostle of peace stretching out his one arm, but with a "mangled" as it appears, or, more correctly, its hypocritical complement! He is blessing the fleeing multitude. He had a plane factory at Willodon Junction, whence he hoped to play the "Hell Sonata" to the London citizens on a "blood and iron" Grand Krupp, whilst from another factory, at Edinburgh, commanding the British naval base at Rosyth, he belittled blasting forth the new gospel—on ship and shore. What does such long-prepared but discovered treachery prove if it does not prove corroborative of their plot against Britain? The evidence is overwhelming, yet we are asked to believe the Kaiser is opposed to war!

CHILDREN HATE PILLS, CALOMEL AND CASTOR OIL

If Cross, Feverish, Constipated, Give "California Syrup of Figs"

Look back at your childhood days. Remember the "dose" mother insisted on—castor oil, calomel, cathartics. How you hated them, how you fought against taking them.

With our children it's different. Mothers who cling to the old form of physic simply don't realize what they do. The children's revolt is well-founded. Their tender little "insides" are injured by them.

If your child's stomach, liver and bowels need cleaning, give only delicate "California Syrup of Figs." Its action is positive, but gentle. Millions of mothers keep this harmless "fruit laxative" handy; they know children love to take it; that it never fails to clean the liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach, and that a teaspoonful given today saves a sick child tomorrow.

Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on each bottle. Beware of counterfeiters sold here. See that it is made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.

With the prospect of adding a rapid-firing gun to its armament, the Montreal Home Guard Regiment will be formidable if ever called upon. A wealthy recruit has offered to furnish the gun, fully equipped, and to provide a squad to handle it. The offer will be accepted.

An Opportunity for Household Economy

The great advance in price of cream of tartar—which is derived from grapes—due to inability to care for and market the grape crop in the European countries now at war, can be made advantageous to housewives

Housekeepers will find it more economical and much more satisfactory to use Royal Baking Powder, which is made from highly refined, pure cream of tartar. First, because the price of Royal has not been changed and it will do perfect work; second, because food made with Royal Baking Powder will be finer and more palatable; and finally, because it insures the absence of all danger from alum or similar unwholesome products.

The old-fashioned custom of buying cream of tartar and mixing it with soda, or using sour milk, may be discarded with profit. The high cost and scarcity of cream of tartar furnishes a temptation to unscrupulous dealers to substitute an adulterated product, which may be either lime phosphates or alum, that will change the baking strength and may spoil the food.

RUSSIANS HARDEST SOLDIERS IN EUROPE

Germans Inferior Also to Belgians, French and English

London, Nov. 13.—Henry Savage, Landor, an explorer, who has recently returned to London after an official mission in Belgium, which kept him in Antwerp or its environs from September 1 until after the bombardment of the city had begun, says:

"In the course of my work I was several times within the German lines, and I have also been among many German prisoners. The physique of the German soldiers is very poor, and does not compare with the physique of the Belgians, French or English. It is still further below that of the Russians, who I consider the hardest soldiers in Europe. I admire the way in which the Ger-

"But my stay at the front in Belgium convinced me that the Belgians as a nation are the bravest people whom I have had the good fortune to know. The greatest is their king, at once the most heroic and most modest of European rulers. I am going to give lectures in all of the Belgian relief work and then return to the front. I think the war will be a long struggle, with the Germans gradually driven out of France and out of Belgium. Then, while the war in the west is waged, on the Rhine, the Russians will do the rest."

ORDER TWENTY SUBMARINES.

Fore River Plant Gets $10,000,000 Contract Through Schwab.

Boston, Nov. 13.—An order for the immediate construction of twenty submarines has been placed with the Fore River Shipbuilding Corporation of Quincy. Officials of the plant refused information as to the identity of the power for which the submarines were intended, but one officer of the corporation said the order would amount to about $10,000,000.

The order came to Quinok through the Bethlehem Steel Corporation at South Bethlehem, Pa., of which Charles M. Schwab is president.

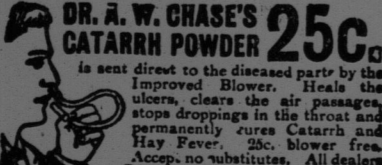

The submarines are not to be turned out as completed vessels, but as finished sections, to be assembled afterwards. It is supposed they are for the British government.

An old artisan who prided himself on his ability to drive a close bargain contracted to paint a huge barn in the neighborhood for the small sum of $12.

"Why on earth did you agree to do it for so little?" his brother inquired.

"Well," said the old painter, "you see, the owner is a mighty ornamental man. If I said I'd charge him $25, likely he'd have only paid me $19. And if I charge him $12 he may not pay me but $9. So I thought it over and decided to paint it for $12 so I wouldn't lose so much."

55c. PER DAY

A trifling amount,---what does it mean? Just this; that you, as representing the average Canadian citizen, can square off your account with our army of factory workers, by making sure that at least 55 cents worth of the things you buy, in your ordinary every day shopping, are made right here in Canada---the country that gives you your own living.

That sum, 55 cents a day, equals $200 per year. There are 8,000,000 people in Canada. If for the support of every one of them, there was spent $200 a year on Canadian made goods it would give us a factory output of $1,600,000,000.

Back in 1910-11 Canada was enjoying pretty good times, but the total factory output then was less than $1,200,000,000.

You can easily bury the hard times of to-morrow under the coppers you spend on odds and ends to-day, just by using a little intelligent discrimination, by saying to the shop-keeper

SETTLE WITH WRIGHT CO.

British Government Pays $15,000 for Aeroplane Patents.

The London Morning Post's aeronautical correspondent writes:

"Until the matter of a month or two ago it was still the fashion of this country for aeroplane designers, manufacturers and others, boldly to assert that there was nothing in the Wright patents. No publicity was given to the fact that the time had now arrived when the Wright interests intended to settle the business of their claims here even as they had done in America.

"One of the largest manufacturers and employers of the Wright organization went to the fountain head by serving a writ on the government by way of the Royal Aircraft factory at Merwin, Orpington, its civilian superintendent was the nominee of the War Office in the proceedings that had been going on quietly for more than a year for a claim of $25,000.

It is satisfactory to know that the government have now settled terms with the British Wright Company by paying a lump sum of $15,000 for the past, present and future use of the Wright patents, taken out by Wilbur and Orville Wright, the offer of this amount being accepted by the British Wright Company, to relieve the government from any unnecessary embarrassment during the stress of war.

"This is a matter of congratulation to both sides. Henceforth there will never be any argument on the part of constructors in the country who embody any Wright features in their aeroplanes. Instead they will do the customary thing of either paying a royalty or in offering given parts from the British Wright Company. The happy solution further means that such firms as have manufactured machines in order for the Royal Flying Corps are also absolved from proceedings by the British Wright Company.

Those who know the surviving brother, Orville Wright, however, will be aware that the decision means more than all this to him. He places beyond price the recognition of the work done by himself and his late brother, whereby they were the first men in the world to accomplish flying by motor driven aeroplanes.

"It is to be hoped that those who formerly have been so bold in asserting that there was nothing in the Wright claims will now have the honesty to come forward and publish abroad with equal prominence the fact that the British government has shown its opinion of the validity of those claims by paying $15,000 in cash to the British Wright Company."

NO "SOCIETY" IN LONDON NOW

Marked Change Which Has Come Over Life in Empire Metropolis (Associated Press Correspondence) London, Oct. 30.—Two months ago a London newspaper contrasted the unrefined aspect of London life with the transformation that war had cast over Paris and Berlin. Since then England has passed from a condition of profound and thoughtless peace to a military status which pervades all the activities of life. Politics and "society"—the absorbing interests of the population three months ago—have disappeared from the talk of the people, and have almost vanished from existence.

There are no social columns in the newspapers because there are no social events to record. There is no dinner giving, and there are no balls or shooting parties on country estates. All the restaurants, fashionable and humble, close at ten o'clock. Immense funds for the soldiers and dependents of soldiers are being raised and administered. Every regiment has a headquarters in London, where workers are supplying its wants in the line of comforts and luxuries. Among the women of the country there is a fierce campaign of knitting. Socks, belts, mittens, mufflers are being turned out in prodigious quantities. Ladies knit at their meals, the shop girls are knitting, the maids in hotels and the cashiers in their boxes at the restaurants and in the cigar stands of the underground stations.

At Mayence, France, all the reservists could not be accepted for the army, but all were so eager to go that the matter was decided by a footrace. The winners were allowed to go to the front.

TOD SLOAN'S LEAP TO FAME

Stable Boy to Champion Jockey in Two Seasons

AT FIRST IT DID NOT SPOIL TOD SLOAN

HIS PECULIAR STYLE OF RIDING A HORSE EVOKED COMMENT.

CHAPTER II
There came onto the race tracks of the central west in the middle nineties a quiet, little fellow, bright of eye, quick of manner, weighing about 90 pounds and in build a miniature Adonis. He rode in selling races at Latonia, at New Orleans, at Memphis and St. Louis and finally he reached Chicago.

The mounts that were given him were second-class, but he commenced winning. His brother, had already established himself as a jockey and the little apprentice boy rider quickly attracted attention. There were afterward a dozen who claimed to have discovered Tod Sloan and perhaps they all noticed at once that he was a rider of exceptional merit.

His peculiar style of riding a horse evoked comment even from those who knew nothing of horses. He sat far forward, his knee held tightly just behind the shoulder muscles of the horse, his little body tilted forward until he really sat on the base of the horse's neck, his head alongside the horse's until he almost could whisper into the ear of his mount.

In his second season he was given almost the choice of mounts on the western tracks, and he was engaged in the east for the great races at Sheepshead, at Saratoga and at Brighton. He rode in the American Derby, led the way in one Futurity and won a Metropolitan.

Fortunes poured in upon him. His income in those years, must have been close to $100,000 in fees and salary.

It is small wonder that, with a valet to wait upon him, trainers and women of beauty seeking him, that he was carried away.

He fell for the bright lights. It was not long before the jockey club stewards commenced to worry Sloan, premier jockey of the world,—was commencing to love the money more than he loved horses.

LION ESCAPED FROM CAGE ON STEAMSHIP

Troublesome Times on Animal Ship in Gale on Voyage to States

Philadelphia, Nov. 13.—Thrilling stories of a battle with a lion which broke from its cage during a raging gale in mid-Atlantic were told by the crew of the steamship West Point which landed here its cargo of more than seventy-five wild beasts, destined for Prospect Park, Brooklyn.

From the time the steamship left London until it docked here, life on board ship was one horror after another. Bedlam reigned and sleep was impossible. Some of the crew, ancient mariners, used to sleeping when the fiercest gales are blowing said that it was impossible for them to get any rest. Roaring of lions, chattering of monkeys, shrieking of jackals and the whining of coyotes kept them in a constant state of uneasiness.

According to Captain Walker, this was one of the roughest voyages he ever made. Gale and hurricanes were encountered in succession. The continual pitching and rolling of the ship made the animals seasick and at times aroused their anger. The constant lurching of the vessel also weakened the cages holding these denizens of the jungle. Just before the vessel reached the Delaware Breakwater, a large lion burst through his cage and his escape was not discovered for a short time. Because of the delay caused by the bad weather the vessel was two or three days late at port for the animals had run short. The lion was hungry and his first thought was for food. He made for a cage containing a white rat and was trying to tear the bars apart when H. B. Goodkin, an employe of the Burdocks, who was in charge of the animals, saw him, and shouted for assistance.

When the word spread among the sailors that a lion was loose and help was needed to get him back into his cage, two or three of them volunteered to go, but most of them fled to the upper decks and some to the rigging. After an hour's work, however, Goodkin and his volunteer helpers by dint of skilful manoeuvres and prodding with sharp pronged pitchforks, managed to shepherd the lion back into his cage.

When the vessel arrived here, another exciting incident occurred. While a cage containing a large black bear, weighing 400 pounds, was being lowered into a car, the animal battered the entrance of the cage with its head. He tried to break almost half an hour to beat brain back into his cage and repair the door. While this was going on, longshoremen, who were unloading the ship, had sought safety on top of box cars and in the rafters of the pier.

He fell for the bright lights. It was not long before the jockey club stewards commenced to worry Sloan, premier jockey of the world,—was commencing to love the money more than he loved horses.

Was Troubled With Eczema.

Would Nearly Yell With Pain. BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS CURED HIM.

Mr. R. J. Swales, Harrison, Ont. writes: "I have been a great sufferer with eczema. I tried all kinds of salves, but they did me no good. Sometimes would nearly yell with the pain, and would pass little white worms. I was told to get at the blood, so I used four bottles of Burdock Blood Bitters, and I have made a complete cure."

All skin diseases such as eczema or salt rheum, itching or burning rashes, boils, pimples, eruptions, ulcers, etc. are all caused by the blood becoming impoverished, and while not usually attended with any fatal results, as soon as or later develop into some serious blood trouble, and the entire system be come affected.

Burdock Blood Bitters will cleanse the blood of all its impurities and by it means cure all skin and blood troubles. This valuable preparation has been on the market for the last forty years, so you do not make any experiment when you give it a trial.

The Simple, Sturdy Empire

Made in Canada

Costs less—yet does more work

THE first cost of the "Empire" is from $40 to $60 lower than that of any other standard typewriter.

—because it is the ONLY typewriter "Made in Canada," and hence the only one on which you do not have to pay a heavy duty.

—because it has but two-thirds as many working parts as its nearest competitor, and so costs considerably less to manufacture.

THE upkeep of the "Empire" is the lowest known.

One of Canada's largest corporations, which uses over 3,000 "Empires" has found the repair bills for the "Empires" average just 1/5 as much as those for other machines.

This is due to fewer working parts—the easy sliding stroke—the exclusive "Empire" locking device, ensuring permanent alignment—and the splendid material and workmanship.

Let us give you a demonstration, or send you an "Empire" on trial without expense or obligation to you. Call, phone or write:

SOLDIERS' LETTERS

Mrs. Thomas Malley of 56 Chapel street has received a letter from her brother, Fred K. Danery, who sailed with Canada's first contingent for overseas service. He is in the ammunition column. He tells of his trip across and his life at Salisbury Plain. He says when they sailed into the harbor at Plymouth a man-of-war was being built and on its side in chalk was written: "Bravo Canada."

He expresses his pleasure at what he has seen of England and says that the people are very good to them. As they marched to the train they were given cigarettes and apples. He wishes to be remembered to all his friends in St. John.

A letter from Bombarlier F. H. Shear, with the first Canadian contingent Salisbury Plains, dated October 29, states that he is in the best of health. He also sends a greeting to the boys of the Everly Day Club with whom he spent most of his evenings last winter and the winter before.

COURT WARNING ABOUT COACHMEN AT DEPOT

Daniel Doherty, Harold Cronin and Robert Beckwith reported by I. C. R. Policeman Roberts for going beyond the stand allotted to them at the depot were each fined $20 by Magistrate Ritchie. "If the conduct of the coachman at the depot, as reported, is as continuous," he remarked, "either some of the coachmen will be sent to jail, or some of the officials will be discharged; I hear that they even assault people and of course, it being fashionable now to drink, there is a deal of drinking among them."

Policeman Roberts said he had given the men every chance he could.

EVIDENCE IN CASE OF ALLEGED THEFT

Stephen P. French of Douglas avenue gave evidence this morning in a case against Albert Daigle charged with stealing $40. He said he saw a light in his room after he left his boarding house at 411 Douglas avenue on Monday evening. He went back and found the accused in his bed. He left a fellow boarder in charge of the defendant while he went for a policeman.

Samuel H. Shanklin, caretaker of the bridge, said he saw Daigle in the house on Monday night. Mr. French said he found that his trunk had been opened and two $20 bills taken out of a wallet. The hearing will be continued tomorrow morning.

TOBACCO GIFTS FOR SOLDIERS ACKNOWLEDGED

The following contributions to the tobacco gift for the soldiers are acknowledged by Miss Travers—Motor Power Boat Club, 40 lbs.; North End Conservatory Club, 84 lbs.; National Drug Co., 80 lbs.; I. L. B. Society, 5 lbs.; St. Andrews Curling Club, 60 lbs. and 1,000 cigarettes; J. G. Moore, 2 lbs.; James F. Robertson, 18 lbs.; E. B. Jones, 2 lbs.; Anonymous, Port Elgin, 3 lbs.; Castle A. P. Barnhill, 84 lbs.; Gordon Leavitt, Mrs. C. S. Murray, Annie S. Grant, and Mrs. Charles McLaughlin, $1 each.

The money given will be spent for tobacco and cigarettes. The ladies feel that the men would appreciate a gift of home tobacco more than one of money to buy tobacco in England.

ADDRESS ON YUKON

Under the auspices of the Brotherhood of Fairville Methodist church last evening Rev. W. H. Barracough gave an interesting lecture entitled "Beyond the Edge of the Arctic Circle." It was a large gathering. He showed slides depicting the early days of the gold rush and also of the improved modern methods of mining in contrast to the crude earlier usages. The lecture spoke of life in the Yukon in general, and traced the boundary of the great Canadian territory. The new republican machine, a gift to the church from W. E. Earle, was used for the first time and proved most satisfactory. Rev. Gilbert Earle presided.

MARRIED IN WEST

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the manse by the Rev. M. B. Ryan on Oct. 31, when Miss Mianth Florence Braden, formerly of this city, but now residing in Calgary, was joined in wedlock to Frank Beatty. The bride, who was unattended, was attired in a navy blue traveling suit with hat to match. Mr. and Mrs. Beatty left for a short trip south and will reside in Calgary on their return.

HELPING THE BOYS.

At the meeting of the executive of the Playgrounds Association last evening Superintendent Howard told of meeting in the street a boy nine years old who had never been at school. He visited the boy's home and found that his mother must go out to work every day. He took the boy to Doctor Bridges and arrangements will be made to have him attend school.

FOR THE BELGIAN FUND.

A group of young girls will have a tea and fancy sale on a small scale in the St. John Boys' Club hall in Union street tomorrow afternoon from two to six o'clock, for the benefit of the Belgium fund. They have been busy for some time making articles for sale, and hope that many citizens will visit the hall tomorrow afternoon.

NINE OF STAFF OF W.H. THORNE & CO. GO TO THE WAR

They have an honor roll in the offices of W. H. Thorne & Company. It contains the names of six employees of the firm who went with the first contingent and three who are going with the second contingent. Nine men from one business establishment in the city is a fine contribution. If these men are all fortunate enough to return, employment will be given them again at the close of the war. Their names are—Allan Leavitt, Walford Scott, William Gill, Chester Daley, George Wilson, Walter Somerville in the first contingent; and Harold Young, George Glass and Arthur Dixon for the second contingent.

ST. JOHN LADIES SEND HUNDRED QUILTS FOR THE QUEEN'S HOSPITAL

Queen Mary Quilting Bee Has Done Excellent Work, 16 Quilts a Day

One hundred quilts, each with the maple leaf embroidered on it, will be one of the gifts sent forward from St. John on November 24 for Queen Mary's Hospital in London. In response to the appeal that was made by Lady Tilley, Mrs. George L. Wetmore organized what is called the Queen Mary Quilting Bee. They were granted the use of the school room in St. Paul's church, and began work on last Monday. As many as sixty ladies have been engaged in the work, and it has been carried on both afternoon and evening, the average being about sixteen quilts a day.

They have used up 800 yards of material and will use another 300. The ladies generously abandoned other engagements and have given up their time very freely to this work. The quilts are of excellent quality, and may be seen by any who care to visit St. Paul's school-room, where the work is being done.

ST. ANDREW'S CADETS' ENJOYABLE EVENING

The St. Andrew's Church Cadet Corps, No. 182, spent a most enjoyable evening in the schoolroom of the church last evening, when about fifty of the cadets sat down at a table laden with good things. After the enjoyment of the menu came the following program—Piano duet by Master Edwin and Miss Maud Willis; sword dance by Master John and Miss Dolly Gibbs, accompanied by the band; by Fred Hayter. They responded to an encore with the Highland Flings; song by Mr. Gray accompanied by the organist of the church, Mr. Cochran; selection on the harp, by Harry Cross; Highland Flings by Master Chick Ross.

During the evening speeches were delivered by Color Sergeant Doce, of the Hothey Collegiate School; Rev. Gordon Dickie, Captain Manfred Brown and Color Sergeant Vall of St. Stephen's Cadet Corps; and Rev. J. H. McVicar, Major Maguire and Captain Marvin White of the St. Andrew's Cadet Corps.

The following ladies had charge of the supper—Mrs. Frank H. White, Mrs. James Christie, and Mrs. John Finley, assisted by Misses Helen and Dorcas Woodrow, Helen Wilson, Sylvia Ferguson, Dorothy and Fannie Nixon, Margaret Wallace, Florence McLean, Mildred and Ada Till, and Bessie Forbes.

Color Sergeant Vall presented stick pins to the cadets who won the relay race at the sports held in the Queen's rink last week. The team consisted of Captain Marvin White, Sergeant Innis and Corporals Regan and Mountain. The evening was brought to a close by the singing of "It's a Long Way to Tipperary" and God Save the King.

PUTTING A NEW PRODUCT ON THE MAP

A new chewing gum has been put on the map and 500,000 dealers stocked, and it was all done in sixty days.

In addition, a tremendous consumer demand has been created that is keeping the factory busy. It has largely been done by bold, aggressive newspaper advertising.

The same advertising that is influencing the consumer is proving effective with dealers.

They are glad to stock up with an article that easily moves from their counters because it is advertised in home newspapers.

The way from factory to cash register is via the newspaper advertising route.
