Montreal, April 25.—(Special)—The Elder-Dempster Company received a cable this afternoon stating that the transport Montford, with the Canadian detachment of Baden-Powell's constabulary, reached Cape Town today. The cable reported all the men in excellent health.

Mr. Benjamin C. Gunter, one of the well-known men of the Miramichi, passed away at his home at Boiestown in the 71st year of his age. He leaves one son, Mr. Herbert Gunter, of the firm of William Richards & Company, and one daughter, Mrs. William D. Richards.

Farnham, Que., April 25.—(Special)—Eighteen cases of smallpox have broken out in this town. The disease, it is believed, was brought here by a family recently returned from the New England States. The health authorities are taking stringent measures to stay the progress of the infection.

Montreal, April 24.—(Special)—A movement is on foot looking to the organization of a new Anglican congregation to be composed of members of existing churches who have become disaffected through the compulsory resignation of Prof. Steen from the diocesan college and as asserted, preacher at Christ Church Cathedral. Montreal, April 24.—(Special)—Owing to the fact that the marine underwriters have decided that rates on cargoes shipped from Montreal are higher than those from Quebec. The new tariff issued today determines in favor of Quebec from five to ten cents per hundred. This action is regarded by the shipping men as a heavy blow at Montreal and as a great advantage to Quebec, which is expected to increase its shipping.

The men were ascending from the machine shop to the brass shop when the accident happened. All received injuries which will lay them up for some time. Bayne sustained more severe injuries than his companions, having, in addition, broken the other leg sprained. While here he made many friends and proved himself an energetic and competent engineer. The weather still keeps cold and disagreeable. La grippe is prevalent. The fishermen along the coast find it almost impossible to get a good catch on account of high tides and ice. The funeral of the late Louis Avard, at Great Shemogus, which took place yesterday, was largely attended. The Rev. Dr. Chapman, of Point de la Heule, and Rev. What do you suppose that absurdly concocted woman did in church yesterday? Well, what? Why she took off her Easter hat. Why did she do that? She said she was afraid nobody would pay any attention to the minister if she kept it on. (Lauds Plain Dealer.)

We claim that The D. & L. Menhold plaster will cure lumbago, backache, sciatica, or neuralgia pain quicker than any other remedy. Made by Davis & Lawrence Co., Ltd.

Henry, she said, thoughtfully. What is it? responded the worried business man rather sheepishly. I wish you could rearrange your business a little bit. How? So as to be a bear on the stock exchange instead of a home.—Lauds Weekly.

If taken in time The D. & L. Emulsion will surely cure the most serious affections of the lungs. That "run down" condition, the after effects of a heavy cold is quickly counteracted. Manufactured by the Davis & Lawrence Co., Ltd.

A witness before the Industrial Commission, the other day, testified that there was still a long way to go in the State of New York to supply the world for a million years. This testimony should be corrective of the popular impression that New York is too rich.

THE BEST THINGS TO EAT

Hot-breads, biscuit, cake, rolls, muffins, crusts, puddings, and the various pastries requiring a leavening or raising agent.

ARE MADE WITH ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Risen with Royal Baking Powder, all these foods are superlatively light, sweet, tender, delicious and wholesome.

Royal Baking Powder is the greatest of time and labor savers to the pastry cook. Besides, it economizes flour, butter and eggs, and, best of all, makes the food more digestible and healthful.

There are cheap baking powders, made from alum, but they are exceedingly heavy and their cauterizing qualities add a dangerous element to food.

Albert County News. Houses Flooded by Recent High Tides. Hopewell Hill, April 22.—There was a very large attendance at the funeral of the late Mrs. Hamilton, which was held on Sunday at Lower Cape. The funeral services, in the Baptist church, were conducted by Rev. F. D. Davidson. The floral offerings were very beautiful. Interment was made in the Calkins cemetery.

San Jose Scale. A large amount of nursery stock, including trees and ornamental shrubs, imported into Canada from the United States and has been treated at the various fumigating stations which have been erected by the minister of agriculture at the most convenient points on the boundary line.

The season during which importations may be made into Canada will end on the 1st of May next. This date was fixed upon by the minister after consultation with nurserymen and fruit growers and is one week later than last year. It must be remembered, however, by importers that if the buds have burst and growth has begun there is some danger of injury from the poisonous gas which is used to destroy the scale insects, should any by chance be present on the trees.

The government announces publicly at the beginning of the season that by giving the privilege to fruit growers of importing trees under the amendment to the San Jose scale act, all importations must be made entirely at the risk of the shippers or owners.

The government has gone to great expense in erecting fumigating stations and appointing efficient officers to look after them, but they cannot assume any responsibility whatever for injuries which may occur. In the case of isolated consignments, in which vegetation may have begun, the plants will be refused treatment and entry unless the owners signify their consent to have the stock fumigated and assume all the risk. Owners will be promptly notified by the superintendents on the receipt of any stock which is not in a fit condition to be fumigated.

Kingston. Kingston, Kings county, April 24.—The people of Kingston were much pleased on the beginning of the season, for a special meeting, voted to submit to the stockholders of the road a proposition from the Great Northern and Northern Pacific railways to take control of the Burlington. The offer for the Burlington stock is $200 per share for not less than two-thirds of the whole amount, to be paid for in four per cent. bonds for the two negotiating roads, the stockholders being given the option of taking part cash.

MR. STEAD NOT HOPEFUL. Says United States Congress Will Throw Clayton-Bulwer Treaty in Britain's Face. London, April 20.—Mr. William P. Stead, in an interview with a representative of the Daily Mail yesterday, said: "The Boers are calculating upon England's becoming embroiled with Russia or upon some other international complication. If I am not mistaken we are on the verge of a storm, and the attitude that will rattle shatter our peaceful calculations."

When the United States congress meets in the Clayton-Bulwer treaty will be torn to shreds and flung in our faces. We shall have to choose between fighting and eating humble pie.

The first serious discussion of the responsibility of such a war will do more to keep the Boers in the field than all the speeches or all the pro-Boer in existence."

THE AXE IN POLITICS.

Few of the complaints charged against the present administration are more unjust than that which is made in relation to the civil service. In 1896, there occurred a change of government and since that time, there has undoubtedly a great deal of anxiety felt among the appointees of the Conservative regime; but it is unwarranted. From the very outset the incoming rulers showed an unmistakable disposition to treat public employes with justice, and they did so.

The injustice to which we allude arises from the fact that a great outcry was raised at the time of the change to the effect that the axe would be swung with a free and relentless hand, and from time to time since, it has been charged that the axe has been and is being employed in all directions. Such talk is very unfair and very imprudent. If our friends of the opposition know anything about the history of events they must know that the executive demands preferred by friends of the government. They must also know that this lenity toward many public officers has given rise to much dissatisfaction.

It cannot be denied by even the most violent opponent of the government that nearly all the dismissals were justifiable. They applied to men who had flagrantly and offensively taken an active part against Liberal candidates. Nor can it be denied by those who are disposed to be fair that these dismissals still left many in the service who might fairly have been retained. And it will be admitted that the failure to dismiss many aggressive politicians lost friends for the government. If there were removals which seemed hard to Conservatives, there were vastly many more cases in which Liberals were displeased by the tolerance of the government.

This being the situation, what sense is there in such rubbish talk about the use of the axe as that in which the Ottawa correspondent of our morning contemporary recently indulged. To say that every citizen who voted for a Conservative candidate, or who expressed the mildest opinion against the government, lost his head, is to talk nonsense. The man who would write in that fashion must either have been fast asleep for the past four years or he is pitifully lacking in judgment. He is only asserting what must be contrary to the knowledge of every Conservative, and what will be needlessly annoying to Liberals.

Take the International as an example. How many men were removed from the employ of the government railway for a five-partisanism as compared with the number who would have been disturbed if Mr. Blair had either applied the rule strictly or yielded to the pressure of political friends? There is not a man in the maritime provinces who has had his eyes open but knows very well that the minister has acted with great forbearance and reluctance. And fair-minded Conservatives will not feel thankful to the Tory press for parading a grievance which is without foundation, and which is only calculated to make the tolerant course of the government unnecessarily hard.

While we have government under the party system there will probably continue to be this trouble about the civil service. It seems to be inseparable from that plan; yet the present administration has gone a long way toward bettering the situation. They have taught the partisan that he takes his life in his hands if he meddles in politics while being a public servant, and they have made it equally clear that the employe who does no more than vote will be protected. Liberal appointees will do well to take this lesson to heart, and if they do so, there is ground for the hope that in future the axe will grow rusty from disuse.

MUCH ADD ABOUT NOTHING.

The honorable minister of railways was so vividly depicted by our Tory contemporary, in his last few issues, as being simply dumfounded to realize that the gentleman in question has been correct in his statement that the contract for rails to be yet completed with the Lake Superior Power Company will only call for the delivery of 25,000 tons of rails for 1901. Mr. Blair produced to the house the order-in-council authorizing the contract for this year's supply, and empowering him to enter into further contracts for succeeding years. The present contract will only be, however, for this year and will call for the delivery of 25,000 tons of rails, to be delivered in September, at a price of $32.00 per ton.

The frantic attack upon the minister of railways was not apparently due to any serious objection that could be taken to the contract he had made, whether it was for one year or five years, but was due to the idea that his partisan opponents entertained, that they had caught him in a misstatement of the facts, the only mistake made by the minister was in stating what both he and his deputy believed to be true, that the contract for one year's supply had actually been executed. The draft contract is not according to the terms of the order-in-council and will not be executed in that form.

And so the entire hue and cry is about nothing. In future the readers of our Tory contemporary will require stronger or corroborative than that paper's editorial utterances to convince them that white is black or black white.

OF INTEREST TO CANADA.

The transportation question is undoubtedly the subject of greatest magnitude and most pressing importance to the Canadian people at the present time. With a thinly settled country of vast extent it is a serious question, but the future progress of the dominion depends so largely upon its being grappled with in an intelligent manner, that the fabric tactics of former administrations will no longer be tolerated by the Canadian people. This question naturally resolves itself into three parts, that relating to the internal transportation facilities of the country and the Atlantic and Pacific ocean services. Of these, the first and the last have been and are being dealt with in a vigorous and progressive spirit. It is equally essential that the matter of an up-to-date Atlantic service between Canada and the British Isles should be provided.

The proposal submitted to the government last week by Mr. B. R. Macaulay, in regard to the establishment of an Atlantic fleet of five fast steamers of 10,000 tons each, fitted with modern cold storage facilities, for a subsidy of $500,000 a year for five years, has the merit of being definite and practical. The only terms asked in addition to the subsidy are that a small advantage be given British imports coming into this country through Canadian ports, and a small benefit granted on Canadian farm, orchard and dairy products exported to Great Britain through our own ports, whether transported by the steamers of this particular company or not.

In asking these latter concessions, the company simply states that it prefers a lower cash subsidy with certain aids to stimulate Canadian export and import trade, to the bigger subsidy necessary without them. It will be remembered that $750,000 a year for a longer term of years was to be given for such a service by the late government. Certainly no company could do so much good with the increased subsidy as this plan offers for the lesser sum. The concession on direct imports could be given either by making a reduction of two per cent. on the present percentage, or by raising to give the full percentage, as at present, on goods coming into this country through American ports.

The bonds on Canadian export trade is a far more feasible proposition than the demand that British should grant a preference on Canadian foodstuffs. The demand for the fast transportation in properly equipped steamers, would permit of a splendid increase in fruit exports, which is now impossible. This would be the incentive which the western producer requires to divert their products through Canadian ports. The 60 day service proposed is what our trade requires, and would be the simplest solution of the question how to conserve Canada's export and import trade to Canadian routes and Canadian ports. Such a stimulus would furnish all the Canadian railways with all the business they could handle. There should be no quarrel among ourselves as to the ports to be used by the new line if the scheme be brought into practical effect. That question could, with advantage, be left to the company itself to decide on the best and most convenient ports for summer and winter service.

We trust that Mr. Macaulay will lay the proposal in all the details before the government in the near future, as we are satisfied from the public utterances of the various members of the administration and of members on both sides of parliament, that our public men realize the importance of solving this portion of the great transportation problem. It should be solved without delay.

OPINION OF ARMOURS.

Representative of English Syndicate Before Government Railway Committee -- A New Line of Steamers from Chicago Through the Canals.

Ottawa, April 21.—(Special)—Mr. Sawyer, of London, Eng., who represents an English syndicate which is prepared to build the Ottawa and Georgian Bay canal, addressed a meeting in the railway committee today.

He described the canal route and declared that by it the distance from Chicago to Montreal was only five miles longer than from Chicago to Buffalo.

He says the present plans provided for 30 locks, but he was confident he would be able to reduce this number by 15 or 20.

He said there were only 32 miles of canal on the route. The estimated grain could be taken from Chicago to Montreal for 3c. per bushel, while via Buffalo the lowest cost at which grain could be placed in New York would be 5c. The canal route would be 16 hours longer in time. In this connection he read a letter from the Armours, of Chicago, saying that if such a route could be offered the canal would get as much business as it could handle.

Chicago to Europe.

Chicago, April 24.—Bound for Europe with a cargo of agricultural implements, packing house products and miscellaneous goods, the Canadian North-western drew out of Chicago river today and headed for the Atlantic. While several vessels have come direct from Europe to this city, none has made a successful trip from this port across the Atlantic.

At Buffalo a large quantity of wheat will be discharged, lightening the vessel to 12 feet to permit the passage through the Welland and other canals and the shallows of the St. Lawrence river. At Montreal the Northwesters will load again for the Northwest.

The Northwesters Steamship Company, organized with Chicago and New York capital, is backing the new line.

The company has built four boats—the largest that can pass the Welland canal—at a cost of $1,000,000 and within a month all will be on the way across the ocean or en route to the Atlantic, the second steamer starting tomorrow.

A Daring Deed.

One man in New York died for his dinner the other day what most men would not do for all the wealth of Lord Strathcona. He was at work painting an arch in the new 200 River bridge 300 feet above the water. One of the steel cables being stretched across the river passed within his reach. When the noon whistle rang he began to cough and let himself out of the sling, and winding his legs about it, he shot toward the ground. The crowd below held its breath. They were not accustomed to such a daring. But the painter was unharmed. He came sliding to the ground, grunting his speed nicely by pressing his knees together, and the Post reported that the foundation pier, dashed away for his dinner.

COUGHING ALL NIGHT.

It's this night coughing that breaks you down, keeps you awake most of the time, and annoys everybody in the house. Lots of people don't begin to cough until they go to bed. It gets to be so that retiring for the night is an empty form, for they cannot sleep.

Adams' Botanic Cough Balsam makes life worth living to such people by its soothing effect on the throat. The "tickling sensation" promptly disappears when the use of the Balsam is begun, and the irritation goes with it. This medicine for cough hasn't a disagreeable thing about it, and it does efficient service in breaking up coughs of long standing. It is prepared from herbs and roots and gums of trees, and is a true specific for chronic troubles.

Handing coughs is a science that everybody should learn. Not knowing how to treat them has cost many fortunes and many lives. In Adams' Balsam there are the elements which not only soothe inflammation, but which protect the inflamed parts from further irritation. The result of this is that the tendency to cough does not manifest itself, and you are surprised at it. Afterward you would not be without Adams' Balsam at hand. C. B. Boynton, a weekly paper manufacturer of New York, is reported to have sunk $30,000. A PLOW COMBINE.

Big Combination of United States Interests Proposed.

New York, April 25.—The Journal of Commerce says of the proposed combination of plow manufacturers, reported from Chicago: It is learned in this city that the present plans instead of being merely for a consolidation of the plow industry contemplate a combination which shall include every branch of the farm machinery trade with the exception of mowers and reapers. The reported capital of $20,000,000 is said to be a minimum figure.

Concerns in Utica, Syracuse and Buffalo, N. Y., and York, Pa., are said to be among those which favor the present plans. It is intended to secure all concerns rated at $100,000 or more.

The financial details have not yet been arranged, but it is understood that the capital of the new company, if formed will be divided equally between preferred and common stocks.

Good-will, etc., is to go in at about a third of the total capitalization. It is stated that tangible value of the plants is intended to consolidate is upwards of $50,000,000.

Syracuse, New York, April 25.—Col. James Manning, of the Syracuse Chilled Iron Co., returned on Tuesday from attending the conference at Chicago. According to information secured from Col. Manning, the Syracuse company is the only one in the east interested in the new combination. Some of the others being the Deere Plow Company of Moline, Ill., and the McCormick Harvesting Company, and companies located in Illinois, Indiana, Mich., and Wisconsin.

A PURIFYING CAMPAIGN.

Gloucester's Questionable Houses Raided and Inmates Scamper.

(Gloucester, Mass., April 25.—The purification of Gloucester began this afternoon in lively style and tonight all the questionable places of entertainment were in darkness. Not for years has the city been so quiet or so morally inclined. As a result of the order passed by the city government and Mayor French's notification to the city marshal, the officers this afternoon were told to proceed against places alleged to have been run as gambling houses, houses of questionable character and kitchen barrooms. About 10 bars were actually made, but in most instances the supposed questionable places took the hint and closed the doors. So precipitate was the retreat of the female inmates of several places at which the police called, that clothing was left behind. The harem seemed to do a lively business about town time in carrying passengers to the depot. In only one place raided did the police get the evidence they wanted. Tonight a number of rooms, usually brightly lighted and in which it has been claimed "a quiet game" could be found, were in darkness.

MILITIA ESTIMATES IN THE HOUSE.

Commanding Officers May Be Brought to Ottawa to Learn Canadian Defence Scheme--No Canada Eastern Bill This Session.

Ottawa, April 25.—(Special)—In the house today, on motion to go into supply, Mr. Loy called attention to the charges made in the house some time ago by Mr. Monk, of Jacques Cartier, to the effect that the Liberals had had an intimate connection with the origin of the Valley field strike and that Mr. King, the deputy minister of labor, had taken advantage of the strike to make capital for the Liberals. Mr. Loy said that Mr. Monk had promised to produce affidavits in support of his charges and he asked whether this had been done.

The premier—"Not that I am aware of."

Mr. Monk said he had communicated with the parties that gave him the information on which the charges were made. They had promised to procure him affidavits in support of the charges but he had not as yet received them.

Mr. Loy, on resuming, said that Mr. Monk had made his charges on April 3, but had not supplemented his promise to produce proof. Mr. Loy then read a large number of affidavits from laborers in the strike and that the deputy minister of labor had not introduced politics into the strike. One of the affidavits was from a Conservative foreman who said he commended a strike at the time, though ordinarily he was opposed to strikes.

Mr. Smith said that Monk should either prove his statement or withdraw it.

Militia Estimates.

The house then went into supply taking up the militia estimates.

In connection with the question of central armories in which the new rifles for rural corps are to be stored, the minister stated it was proposed to issue 10 rifles, or three-fourths, to the captain of each militia company, which could be kept at company headquarters and used for practice the year round.

Dr. Bowden agreed with Col. Prior's suggestion that it was desirable that there should be a second cartridge factory in the interior at Winnipeg, for instance.

The minister also stated that he had copies of the Canadian defence scheme prepared a couple of years ago by a committee of officers. He agreed that it might be well to bring officers commanding districts to Ottawa and make them familiar with such parts of the general plans as the general saw fit.

GRAND ORANGE LODGE MEETING OPENED CAMPBELLTON, TUESDAY.

Grand Master's Address and Grand Secretary and Treasurer's Reports—Will Prepare Resolution Against Changing the Coronation Oath—Presentation to A. J. Armstrong, P. G. M.

Campbellton, N. B., April 23.—(Special) The 58th annual session of the Right Worshipful Grand Orange Lodge of New Brunswick, was opened in simple form by the grand master, Douglas McArthur, of St. John, in the Masonic Hall, in this town, at about 2 o'clock this morning.

Among the distinguished Orangermen present are Past Grand Masters A. J. Armstrong, James Kelly and H. H. Pitts, and there is very full representation of the order from all parts of the province, owing doubtless to the great interest felt in the proceedings of this session.

A well written and appreciative address of welcome from the county lodge of Restigouche was read by County Master Thos. Carter. After its proper reception by the grand lodge, the grand master, in a few well chosen words, fittingly responded to the address.

Grand Master's Address. The grand master then read his annual report. He said in part: "It gives me more than ordinary pleasure to present to you my first address as your grand master. In doing so, however, it comes to my mind that for 58 years my predecessors have trod this same path; many of these brethren were the foremost men of their times and men of marked ability; considering these things I do not find it an easy matter to prepare this address."

I have confidence, however, that considering the fact, year of the occupancy of the chair by the grand master is generally looked upon as a year of education, one in which the experience gained may be stored up for future use, I feel that I can confidently hope for the sympathy of every brother present.

I am glad to see so many representatives at this session of the grand lodge; it speaks louder than words for the love and loyalty of the members of Orange lodges, and I extend to you all a most earnest and hearty welcome.

I am particularly glad and highly honored to have the privilege of doing this, as we are for the first time in the highly favored and beautiful town of Campbellton.

He spoke of the happy surroundings of the North Shore brethren and of the prosperity enjoyed during the year in the dominion. "This, the old, was not to be wondered at, because a people who are loyal and patriotic to the core, honest, industrious and self-reliant cannot fail of their reward, where peace and plenty abound."

The incursions of death into the ranks were feelingly told of and special reference made to the deaths of Brothers William Brough and Robert Will, both of St. John. Both were, for over 30 years, members of grand lodge, Brother Will having been grand treasurer for many years. It was recommended that letters of condolence be sent to their families.

The grand master then made feeling reference to the death of Queen Victoria and the sorrow experienced in her demise by members of the Orange order. He expressed hearty welcome of King Edward VII to the throne.

He congratulated the members of the lodge on the prosperity of the order in New Brunswick, which is beyond all previous conditions. He said: "The number of primary lodges reporting a very large and the per capita paid proportionately so. This state of affairs in our jurisdiction is most satisfactory, and would perhaps lead us to suppose that our duty had ended towards our beloved brethren, but it is not so; there are still many parts of our province without the Orange hall, with the flag flying on the 19th of July, and our aim must be to press forward into our part of our jurisdiction where it is possible to support an Orange lodge can be found without this adjunct to modern civilization. Let the motto be, Church, Public School House, and Orange Hall in sight of each other; then, and not until then, will our duty be having completely discharged."

words having reference to the real presence in communion be dropped from the coronation oath. It is said that the work is distasteful and insulting to the Roman Catholic citizens of the empire, and hence the request. It may well ask themselves, what next? It is not set forth that the use of these words debar our Roman Catholic citizens from any of the rights and privileges the Protestant citizen enjoys. It is not charged that these words in this oath have stayed the progress or enlightenment of the British empire; it is not even charged that these words in the oath are a standing menace to any body of citizens, one way or the other; not so! But we do find that, under the British flag and this coronation oath, the 400,000,000 of British subjects enjoy greater freedom and more privileges than any other like number of people in the world.

"I call upon you, brethren, at this session, to place on record your strong disapproval of this request; and I am glad to see that no uncertain sound let it go forth from this meeting that the L. O. Association of this province is not in sympathy with tampering with the coronation oath."

South African was about closed. Canada's part as generally throughout the province, I hope harmony and good feeling will be the predominating feature of this session and all the business transacted will be for the better perpetuation of Orange principles everywhere.

The address was referred to the following committee: Grand Chaplain, Mr. Brown; Brothers Scott E. Morrell, W. H. Anderson, Chas. W. Stockton, John Menzies and H. G. Wadman.

Grand Secretary's Report. Grand Secretary Nell J. Morrison made a lengthy report for the 14 months from February 21st, 1900. He eloquently spoke of the beauties of the Restigouche section and the pleasure of Grand Lodge at meeting in Campbellton. Feeling and eloquent reference to the death of Queen Victoria was made and King Edward was heartily and joyfully welcomed. Taking up the work he then gave these particulars:

New Lodges. Two new lodges were organized during the past year, viz., United Empire, L. O. No. 112, at Hibernia, Queens county, and McArthur, L. O. No. 115, Dundas, Kent county, United Empire, L. O. No. 112, was organized by County Master John Petty, on November 24th and returns 15 members. McArthur, L. O. No. 115 was organized by Grand Master McArthur and Grand Treasurer P. E. Heine, and ably assisted by County Master Lockhart and others from Moncton on November 29th and reports 20 members.

Resuscitations. The following lodges from which we had no returns for 1899 were resuscitated during this year, viz.: Kent county, L. O. L., No. 43, Kent county. New Dominion, L. O. L., No. 63, Cumberland Bay, Queens, East. Pitts, L. O. L., No. 71, Mouth of Tay, York county. Protection, L. O. L., No. 119, Maple Ridge, York county. Star of Hope, L. O. L., No. 140, Elgin, Albert county. Wadman, L. O. L., No. 43, was resuscitated by M. C. Lockhart and H. G. Wadman, on September 3rd, and now reports 14 members. New Dominion, L. O. L., No. 63, was resuscitated by County Master L. T. Hetherington on Sept. 1st and returns 14 members. Pitts, L. O. L., No. 71, was resuscitated by County Master A. D. Thomas and others from Fredericton August 2nd, and reports 40 members, 21 of whom were initiated since resuscitation.

Protection, L. O. L., No. 119, was resuscitated by County Master Thomas and P. C. M. W. H. Anderson, of York, on November 30th and bids fair to have a prosperous future. Star of Hope, L. O. L., No. 140, was resuscitated by Rev. S. C. Moore, past grand chaplain, on Sept. 4th, making in all a total of seven lodges added to our register during the year. Also re-issued a warrant to L. O. L. No. 60, South Bay, St. John county, to replace the one consumed by fire when they lost their hall. A county warrant was issued to Carleton county (north) on April 10th, 1901, to enable them to establish a county lodge for that part of the county.

Dormant Warrants. The following warrants were called in during the past year, some of which have been dormant, or nearly so, for a number of years, and which at last gave up and sent in their warrants. L. O. L., No. 92, Havelock, Kings county; L. O. L., No. 124, Sussex, Kings county; also, L. O. L., No. 10, Campbellton, this latter lodge surrendered its warrant for some reason not known to your grand secretary, and a portion of the members, I understand, joined a sister lodge, viz., Heine, No. 61.

Through the exertions of the county master of Queens, east, Bro. I. T. Hetherington, I was able last year to get possession for a short time of two very old warrants that were not cancelled when they became dormant, and were in the custody of some of our old veterans of Queens county. Although the numbers of these warrants were issued to other parts of the jurisdiction some ten years ago, and the warrants useless, yet these loyal brethren did not like to part with what to them a sacred memento of the time they used to meet under their authority and conduct an Orange lodge, and it was not until they were informed that they would be cancelled that they would consent to part with them.

Incorporations. Owing to many enquiries from masters and secretaries asking whether their lodges were incorporated or not, I made application to the provincial secretary's office at Fredericton for a list of all the lodges incorporated from 1870 to date, with the intention of asking Grand Lodge to have the list printed, and the list could refer to it. I am pleased to report that I received the list at a small cost, and would recommend its publication in the journals, if this year.

Returns. I have received returns from the following county lodges, viz.: Albert returning nine primary lodges with one to hear from. Carleton (north), returning eight primary lodges with two to hear from. Carleton, returning nine primary lodges with two to hear from. Kings (east), returning three primary lodges with one to hear from. Kings (west), returning six primary lodges with one to hear from. Northumberland, returning three primary lodges with one to hear from. Queens (east), returning six primary lodges with one to hear from. Queens (west), returning five primary lodges with two to hear from. Sunbury, returning four primary lodges. Restigouche, returning four primary lodges with one to hear from. St. John, returning 12 primary lodges and one district lodge. St. John (west), returning five lodges with one to hear from. Westmorland, returning nine primary lodges with one to hear from. Kent county returns three primary lodges. Gloucester returns two primary lodges. Charlotte county returns two primary lodges.

Making a total of 110 lodges with six to be heard from. From the above returns I have learned the following statistics: 400 have been initiated by certificate and 98 re-initiated; 123 have withdrawn by certificate, two expelled and three died.

The large list of withdrawals is accounted for in the activity of the order in the United States in procuring cards for all the brethren who go from this province to that country, and insuring that they must connect with them and help in the great work in which our order is engaged under the stars and stripes.

I must especially congratulate the officers and members of the counties of York, Queens (east), Queens (west), Northumberland and Kent, on the splendid increase in membership for the last year, and hope other counties will follow in their wake this year.

The large increase in the county of Kent this year is due to the exertion of M. C. Lockhart, county master of Westmorland, and other workers from the city of Moncton, and goes to show what could be done if brethren could spare time to give to the work. It is to be regretted in several counties in our province. Let us hope that the good work so well begun by Bro. Lockhart last year may be followed up by others, and in the meantime things to be done in membership brought up to the position they should occupy in our order.

The grand secretary regretted he could not make so many visits to the lodges last year. The triennial council and the dominion elections prevented. He recorded another trial of propagation work.

There had been a great deal of correspondence during the year and it was carried on by the county master of York and New York and of the brotherly treatment received there.

Deaths. It is with sorrow, he said, that I have to report that from the returns at hand I find that 33 of our members have been gathered to their Father by our grim reaper, death, during the past year. A number of whom used to take great delight in attending past sessions of this Grand Lodge, and who, by their ripe experience, aided very much in the legislation enacted. I may especially mention the names of William Roxborough and Robert Will of St. John county, brethren who, in the past, held very high and responsible position in this lodge. Bro. Roxborough's name is very familiar in the records of this association from the early seventies up to last year, and the active manner in which he always took hold of anything he thought was for the benefit of the order, was in keeping with the zeal he displayed in everything he was in sympathy with.

We will miss these brethren very much, but let us hope that others will come forward to fill the gap made in our ranks and help in carrying on the work of building and maintaining the principles which our order enunciate, and which tends to raise man to the high position which his Creator made possible for him to occupy in this world.

The claims of the Sentinel were urged and also of the Fredericton Reporter and the grand secretary said: "Until such time as a thorough Protestant daily paper is established in this jurisdiction, we would do well to patronize the material we have."

This report was referred to the committee on correspondence and on finance. The grand treasurer, P. E. Heine, read his report of the financial proceedings of the grand lodge for the past year, in which it is shown that the total receipts for the year were $1,044.37 and the disbursements were $1,090.49, leaving a balance on hand of $500.88.

The large expenditure consisted of $120 to the contingent fund and $50 to the India famine fund and nearly $200 to propagation work.

It was resolved that a special committee be appointed upon resolution which, among other things, shall consider special resolutions to present to the grand lodge regarding the death of our much beloved queen, the fealty, love and loyalty of this Grand Orange Lodge to His Gracious Majesty King Edward VII and the disapproval of the order in this province to any change in the coronation proceedings—this committee to be Bros. F. Spruell, H. F. McLeod, H. H. Pitts, R. G. Magee and Wm. Wyse.

The committee appointed to strike the standing committees reported the following as such: A. J. Armstrong, Geo. L. Haviland, Philip Palmer, John Williamson and Robert Rubin.

Correspondence—George Jenkins, W. L. Byles, E. H. Allen, Thos. Carter, J. M. Steves.

Finance—J. A. Moore, W. B. Wallace, Isaac T. Hetherington, John B. Gunter, W. H. Anderson, and others.

Suspension and expulsions—S. G. Nickerson, Burrell Lison, R. M. Grindley, R. G. Magee, Thos. Glendinning.

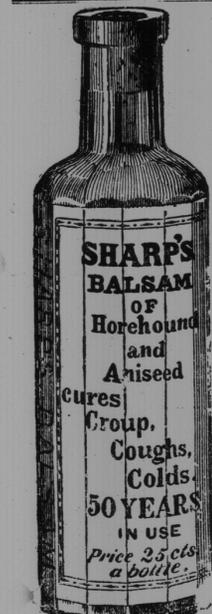

Propaganda—E. Day, Ira H. Copp, Wm. Grant, Henry Wyse, Danie Melanah.

Constitution and laws—H. G. Wadman, Chas. Stockton, Rev. A. F. Brown, J. Van B. Hetherington, C. B. Ward.

Adopted. Grand lodge then adjourned until 8 o'clock.

Presentation to P. G. M. Armstrong. This evening a special committee to proceed to a suitable residence to Past Grand Master A. J. Armstrong, made a report which took the shape of the presentation of an address and a handsome case of solid silver. The silver service is one of the richest and best which the committee could procure in St. John. The case bore this inscription: "Presented to Past Grand Master A. J. WEDNESDAY'S BOSTON POST says: According to some of the St. John, N. B., newspapers, the skippers of vessels down that way are up in arms against what they call the 'straw' and 'straw' of the coast.

These papers claim it is one of the most flagrant abuses of the alien labor law. It is only a case of reciprocity, as it is well known by persons familiar with the shipping industry of the Hub that there is a fleet of from 50 to 75 schooners enrolled under American register and flying the Stars and Stripes that are owned by merchants of that city in New Brunswick, and which enjoy all the privileges of the coasting trade between ports in the same country.

THE quantities of water poured into the British steamer Ontario, from Hull, April 18, for Boston, which put back here yesterday with her cargo on fire, the consequences of the fire prevent entrance to the cargo hold. It is feared that the fire will spread to the vessel's store of about 200 tons of coal. The fuel is being removed. The Ontario is kept in the river. The fire is under control.

New York advices, dated April 23, say: There has been a little more attention extended to square-rigged sail tonnage, and upon the basis of the late rates paid some little long voyage business is reported. A feature of the market has been the fixtures of two large American schooners to load deals at St. John, N. B., to United Kingdom, at more satisfactory figures than the same class of tonnage in port to command on the coast. In other lines nothing of interest has occurred.

The following charters have been reported: Schr Sarah C. Ropes, 1021 tons, St. John to London, deals, 51, 3d; Schr Frank T. Simpson, 577 tons, St. John to Liverpool, deals, 51, 3d; Schr barques Prospero-Davide, St. John to Cork, 47, 6d; Regina, Mitamichi to Malaga, Alicante or Cartagena, 63, 8d; Schr barques Prospero-Davide, St. John to Malaga, Alicante or Cartagena, 63, 8d; three steamships of 1200 standards each, Saguenay, 30s.

ONE TAKEN, THE OTHER LEFT.

"Are you going to the Grantham's to-night, Dick? It's our last chance before the contingent sails."
Dick Hartley was silent for a moment. "Yes, I will go," he said, slowly, almost, as if he were reluctant.

"Oh, don't, if you don't want to," hurriedly replied his companion, and as he spoke his fingers played abstractedly with something which lay at the bottom of his pocket—a tiny gold circle with a gleaming stone. He fervently hoped his friend would not want to go. But in Hartley's breast pocket lurked also a diamond ring, and in his heart he cursed his luck that Jack Lessor should have chosen this night, of all nights, for a final visit to those who, to him, were but acquaintances of a few weeks' standing.

THE PORTLAND TRAGEDY.

Brainerd Talked Very Little Since Shooting—Arrangements for Inquest.

Lawrence, Mass., April 25—George Brainerd, the New England telephone construction boss, who shot four fellow-workmen and Deputy Fire, two fatally, in the rooms of the New-England Telephone Company, in Portland, Wednesday, was known to the local telephone men and made frequent visits to this city. Last summer Brainerd and his wife occupied a cottage at Belle Grove on the banks of the Merrimack river and was well known to the local campers. Just before the close of the season Brainerd's edge and Brainerd was administering a sound punishment. The two men were separated after a struggle and Brainerd immediately left for his cottage while the wounds of the other man were cared for in a nearby cottage. Arrests were talked of, but nothing came of it.

Portland, Me., April 25—The report from the hospital late tonight was that while Lane's temperature has risen somewhat his chances for recovery are yet good. Wadsworth is still lingering between life and death, with but a faint ray of hope, if any. Today Constable Wm. J. Dyer was busy engaged in summoning witnesses for the inquest upon the body of Isaiah H. Farnum. The time is set at 10 o'clock next Monday morning, at the office of the coroner, in the court house. Mr. Dyer said he had summoned 16 witnesses, who were picked from among those who were on the spot at the time the shooting occurred. The inquest will be private, following the custom in this country.

The only statement made by Brainerd since his arrest in any way relating to the tragedy was made to one of the officers on duty at the station today. Brainerd did not close his eyes Wednesday night, and he generally spoke to them. It was well along towards morning when an officer went out to the cell to see how he was. Brainerd said he had said to him: "I didn't mean to hurt Deputy Fire. You may believe it or not as you please, but I had no intention of injuring him in any way, and it was an accident pure and simple, but the others—" At this point Brainerd stopped abruptly as though he realized he had reached dangerous ground, and he immediately changed the subject. This evening Brainerd was pretty well tired out and at midnight was sleeping calmly and peacefully.

Clara Ward, with her gipsy husband, Rogo, spent ten days here on their way to Egypt, from London, where they now are, says a Paris despatch to the New York Herald. The Princess de Chimay went bitterly when the two boys by her first husband declined to see her. They are now good-looking lads, and it was an accident pure and simple that their condemnation of their wild doings has evidently cut her deeper than the manifest disgust of the civilized world. The Hungarian fiddler, when he was interviewed by the World correspondent, showed the most undomestic indifference toward his American wife. He went so far as to say: "She can't be more tired of this cramped life than I am." "If now she eloped with another man, I should not care, but she can't elope alone, and my wife is no longer very fresh or attractive."

KILLED FIFTH MAN.

Monster Elephant Ends Life of Trainer.

Peru, Ind., April 25—Henry Huffman, well-known animal trainer, with the Wallace shows, met a horrible death here today, killed by "Big Charley," a monster elephant, while the animal was bathing in the river. "Big Charley" would his trunk about keeper Huffman and hurled him far into the stream. The man was injured and when he returned he said "Why Charley, I didn't think that of you; aren't you ashamed of yourself?"

The next instant Huffman was grabbed by the elephant and thrown to the bottom of the river and held there by the forefoot of the animal. Then with a great roar, the elephant ran away. Several showmen near him with no effect. He broke down fences and roamed about in a big field, keeping everybody at a distance. Apples loaded with strophs were thrown near him and he ate them voraciously. An hour later he laid down and was in terrible agony. A rifle shot settled him. "Big Charley" weighed over three tons and was valued at $40,000 and in his lifetime killed four men. Keeper Huffman at different times was animal trainer in Fairmount Park, Philadelphia, and Central Park, New York City. His home was at Columbus, O.

There is now a club in Vienna of which the sole members are divorced women. It was opened a few days ago, and already thirty-eight women have joined it. The object of the organization is to provide a home for its members, and to secure remunerative work for those among them who are obliged to earn their living. After some further debate a vote was passed to this effect, and, therefore, henceforth the club will welcome such women.

WHY WOMEN DON'T GET RICH.

What Hetty Green, the Richest Woman in America, Has to Say on the Subject.

Nearly every woman wants to be rich, but she has vague ideas of how she should go about making money. She reads in some newspaper about some woman who has been successful in stock operations, and in the first spare cash she gets she invests in stock with some customer broker. She buys a few shares of some stock, and she loses her savings. Then she is discouraged, and believes that it's not possible for women to make money. She resigns herself to being a housewife for the rest of her life, and her career as a capitalist is ended.

This woman went about her task in the wrong way, and so does nearly every other woman who starts out to become rich. Those men who say that not one woman in ten has the money-making instinct are very nearly right. Women like to spend money, but they don't know how to make it. If they could become rich in a day, or a month, all would try, but they can never make up their minds to work years to accumulate a fortune, as men do. Women would much rather spend than save. And, because women spend so much, they are hardly ever in the field for investing when the chance comes along. Most women are afraid to venture into the investment world. They are afraid to be started by men who have saved and saved, and finally had a few hundred dollars a year, if they were so minded. But that is not the way of women. They spend every cent they make, and in most cases have their money all spent before it's in their hands. As long as women won't save, we're not likely to have many women millionaires in this country.

Sometimes there's a woman who really wants to increase her fortune, but she soon realizes that conditions are against her. A woman hasn't as many chances for making money as men have. She isn't around among men, as a rule, and she doesn't hear of the opportunities for investment which are talked of, day by day, in Wall street and other financial centres. She wants to buy stocks; but she has saved up a few hundreds to invest, but she doesn't know how to go about it. Most women are afraid to venture into the regions where man reigns supreme. This is foolish timidity, for a woman can get along as well as a man in any office, and she can manage her own money as well as a man. If a woman can't manage her own money, she isn't fit to be a capitalist. She should learn to take care of her own business affairs.—Mrs. Hetty Green, in May Success.

REGO AND PRINCESS CHIMAY.

To Appear in Paris Music Hall—She is Scorned by Her Two Sons.

Clara Ward, with her gipsy husband, Rogo, spent ten days here on their way to Egypt, from London, where they now are, says a Paris despatch to the New York Herald. The Princess de Chimay went bitterly when the two boys by her first husband declined to see her. They are now good-looking lads, and it was an accident pure and simple that their condemnation of their wild doings has evidently cut her deeper than the manifest disgust of the civilized world. The Hungarian fiddler, when he was interviewed by the World correspondent, showed the most undomestic indifference toward his American wife. He went so far as to say: "She can't be more tired of this cramped life than I am." "If now she eloped with another man, I should not care, but she can't elope alone, and my wife is no longer very fresh or attractive."
