The Favorite

Mellican for Throat and Lung Difficulties has long been, and still is, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It cures Croup, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, and Asthma; soothes irritation of the Larynx and Fauces; strengthens the Vocal Organs; allays soreness of the Lungs; prevents Consumption, and, even in advanced stages of this disease, relieves Coughing and induces Sleep. There is no other preparation for diseases of the throat and lungs to be compared with this remedy.

"My wife had a distressing cough, with pains in the side and breast. We tried various remedies, but none did her any good until I got a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, which has cured her. A neighbor, Mrs. Glenn, had the measles, and the cough was relieved by the use of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I have no hesitation in recommending this to every one afflicted."—Robert Horton, Foreman Hendright, Morrilton, Ark.

"I have been afflicted with asthma for forty years. Last spring I was taken with a violent cough, which threatened to terminate my days. Every one pronounced me in consumption. I determined to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Its effects were magical. I was immediately relieved and continued to improve until entirely recovered."—Joel Ballard, Guilford, Conn.

"Six months ago I had a severe hemorrhage of the lungs, brought on by an incessant cough which deprived me of sleep and rest. I tried various remedies, but obtained no relief until I began to take Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. A few bottles of this cure cured me. Mrs. E. Coburn, 19 Second St., Lowell, Mass.

"For children afflicted with colds, coughs, sore throat, or croup, I do not know of any remedy which will give more speedy relief than Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I have found it, also, invaluable in cases of Whooping Cough."—Ann Lovejoy, 1207 Washington Street, Boston, Mass.

The Union Advocate.

Established 1847.

NEWCASTLE, MIRAMICHI, N. B.

WEDNESDAY, NOV. 7, 1888.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Our friends across the border have been unusually excited over a letter written by Lord Sackville West in reply to a correspondent who professed to be an Englishman, a naturalized citizen of the United States who, professed to wish instructions from the Minister how to vote. The letter was a put up job of certain Republicans with a view of influencing the Irish vote and although the reply was marked "private" yet it was at once published, and used for all it was worth to influence votes against the Democratic party and their nominees for President and Vice-President. That a diplomat of so many years experience should so simply overlook the bounds of prudence in recommending his correspondent to vote for the Democratic nominees is very much wondered at, and the matter has assumed an international character and the Home Government in consequence of representations made by the U. S. Government, has given Lord Sackville West leave of absence, and he is expected to shortly return to England.

In view of the fact that his recall might not be speedy enough to counteract the strong feeling supposed to be excited among the people of the neighboring republic prompt action was taken by the American cabinet and Lord Sackville West informed that his usefulness as British Minister was gone, and he would not be recognized as such any longer.

Hon. Michael Henry Herbert has been appointed British charge d'affaires at Washington. It is understood that the government will allow the case to rest until after the presidential election.

Similar letters are stated to have been sent to Sir Charles Tupper, Hon. McKenzie Bowell, and other prominent men but they were not so simple as to reply to what was evidently a trap.

The New York correspondent of the Montreal Star states that Cleveland's action in regard to the British Minister will cause the loss to him of every British American vote in the country.

The Light Out.

There has been considerable comment on the action of the Newcastle Police Committee in cancelling the contract for lighting the streets of the town just as soon as a prominent member of the conservative club was elected councillor, the plea being economy, but the evidence shows that the committee was acting on the basis of a political party against the proprietor of the gas works. If the president of the club had felt as he does now towards the party, and had been disposed to discontinue the introduction of Dominion politics into municipal affairs, he might have presented the town from being looked upon as strangers at a place so slow to light its streets. The reproach brought upon it by the influence of the conservative club is undeserved, for we know that its citizens are anxious to have the street-lighted and willing to pay for the service. It has set of street lamps which are equal to those of any town of its size in the province and it is simply difficult in the police committee that these lamps should be allowed to stand only as reminders that party politics continue to be abused in New Brunswick by those who ought to be above such narrowness as is developed in this street lighting at Newcastle.

Need we say that the above is from the Advocate, the text for its homily being a couple of paragraphs written by a correspondent in a jokey vein and which had no foundation in fact. If there is any member or more contemptible business than that of hearing false witness against your neighbors then no doubt the editor of the Advocate will soon discover it and put it into practice, but which, making, discovery, he "takes the cake" as the most unscrupulous perverter of the truth known in the profession, and the paragraph above is bristling with falsehood, insinuations and the petty spite he cannot conceal when he writes anything about political opponents. The Advocate states the cause of the gas lamps being cancelled as "political spite against the proprietor of the gas works." The absurdity of such an idea will be seen in the fact that that gentlemen had expressed his satisfaction to the police committee at its resolve to do without lights as he saved money by this arrangement. Will the Advocate tell us how long a time it is since it took that committee under its protection, as not very long ago hardly a copy of that paper appeared without some complimentary reference to him and his business. "Political spite," indeed. The editor of the Advocate is the only man who carries out the motto "let us be as true as the word of commendation is ever heard in favor of those politically opposed to the party he supports. If such a thing should occur it would be very apt to excite suspicion that the person so mentioned had deserted his party and hence was on good terms with our bumptious contemporary.

The police committee had good and substantial reasons for the course they pursued, and the President of the L. C. Club only regrets that when they had made up their minds as to the course to adopt that they allowed themselves to be misled in the opposite direction, and acceded to the prayer of petitioners as to continuing the police in town. The facts of the case are as follows:—

When Mr. Donald Morrison looked into the accounts of the Police Committee he found that fund in debt to the amount of over $800 and as the amount allowed by law is only $800 in a year there would be less than $800 to pay expenses in 1888. It was then decided to do without a policeman for a few months and gas lights as well as the debt was paid. A month's notice was given the policeman then engaged and when the month was up he was discharged. A petition was then presented to the police committee pointing out what the petitioners considered the necessity of a policeman being appointed and they gave way and appointed another. Consequently there has been no saving in the policeman's salary, and only some $75 saved in gas, and in consequence the police fund at the end of the year will present almost as bad a showing as it did at the end of last year. The committee have the lights now lit until midnight when they are put out, and they will not be lit at all on moonlight nights. Some slight saving will thus be effected, and the debt reduced as much as possible.

Per. cal.

Messrs. Donald Sutherland and Patrick Wheeler returned last week from their trip to New York. They report having a high time and enjoyed their cruise very much.

OTTAWA, Oct. 31.—The Hon. C. H. Tupper, Minister of Marine and Fisheries, is able to be out again, having recovered from his recent indisposition.

Cardinal Newman is seriously ill. He is suffering from extreme debility. He fell down through weakness while walking in his residence recently and hit his head against a wall.

Mr. D. T. Johnston, Jr. is about to remove from Chatham, having accepted a very responsible position in the business of the Charlottetown Milling Company, who operate the well known Steam Roller Mills in that city. We understand that the salary he is to receive is $1,000 a year. As he is one of our best qualified accountants and business men the Company is fortunate in having secured his services. Mr. and Mrs. Johnston will be much missed in the social circle here and the change will also make a vacancy in the Vestry of St. Paul's Church, of which Mr. Johnston is a member. He has also held charge of the Dominion Meteorological Observatory here and that vacancy is, we hear, to be filled by the appointment of Mr. Jas. Connors.—Advocate.

Mrs. Decanillon died in her 84th year at the residence of Samuel Freese, after a short illness. She was well known in years past as the hostess of the Decanillon hotel in the days of stage coaches and kept the best house on the river.

Capt. Smith R. N. late of the Parliament, has been appointed chairman of the board of examiners of masters and mates.

The resignation of the famous banker E. H. King, formerly general manager of the Bank of Montreal and for the past seventeen years director on the London register of the bank, was announced and created a good deal of talk among financial men in Montreal. Friday.

Mr. John T. Hawke, of the Moncton Transcript, is ill of typhoid fever.

Mr. Spurgeon is very ill, quite dangerously so, and his enormous congregation is much worried. His trouble results from undertaking extra services at this time of the year, when fog and cold make a preacher's work in London so difficult. One of his hands and both feet are rendered useless, and he suffers great pain. It is probable that he will be unable to preach again before his departure for the South.

A Brotherhood Monument.

There is at the marble works of T. F. Sherard and son, at the Main street railway crossing, a handsome monument to be erected by the Moncton lodge of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen to the memory of their late brother Kenneth Campbell, who was drowned at Buctouche last summer.

The monument is of white marble of superior quality and will stand 6 feet high. The first base is 2 ft. 11 in. square and 18 inches deep; second base, which will contain the family name, Campbell, is raised letters, 1 foot 5 in. square and 8 inches deep.

The die is 1 foot square and 2 feet 6 inches long. Above the inscription on the front is a shield, consisting of the emblem of the order, coal hammer and shears, with the letters, B. of L. F. intertwined. Around the shield is the motto of the order, four words, Protection, Chivalry, Sobriety, Industry. Below the shield is a scroll with the inscription: "Kenneth Campbell, Drowned Aug. 1, 1888, aged 22 years," and the following lines suggested by a very near friend of the deceased:

"Oh! for the touch of a vanished hand
And the sound of a voice that is still."
The name is in raised letters in the form of a semi-circle, the word "drowned" being in a scroll partly within the semi-circle. On another side of the die is the name of the father of the deceased.

The die is surrounded by an urn 15 inches high and 7 inches in diameter. The design of the monument is very pretty, and the carving and lettering has been done in the best style of the art by Mr. W. E. Sherard, who has charge of the Moncton branch of the business. When finished the lodge will have the monument conveyed north and erected over the grave of their deceased brother.—Times.

Campbellton Notes.

CAMPBELLTON, Nov. 3rd, 1888.

There was a majority of twenty-seven in favor of incorporation at the poll held in this town last Tuesday 30th inst.

G. A. Vye, Esq., who has had control of the L. C. restaurant here for the past twelve years has resigned that position. He has secured a first class name for this restaurant by good satisfaction given while he occupied it. Mr. W. J. Williams now has charge.

The following are the officers elected of the new Curling Club formed here and which has been organized with good prospects of becoming a strong and successful club:—

Geo. Moffat, M. P., Patron; John McAllister, President; J. P. Moraw, 1st Vice-President; A. E. Alexander, 2nd Vice-President; W. H. Beck, Secretary.

Mr. Moffat has donated a piece of land 180x50 to build a rink on, situated north of the railway track and east of Mr. Paul Roy's dwelling house. Tenders for the building of a rink, to cost about five hundred dollars, will be asked for at once.

An Epidemic of Theft.

It is to be hoped that we shall not again have such a bad week on the Miramichi as the past one. On Saturday night an island schooner lying at the east side of the Trading Company's wharf, was visited by thieves, who stole two tubs containing 72 lbs. butter and a ham. The same, or another party stole quite a large quantity of dried codfish from another craft in port while sundry other craft were raided more or less.

About the same time a man from on board one of the vessels in port was met on the sidewalk near the Ferry by three young men, who attacked and robbed him of a valuable fur cap.

On Tuesday night another theft was committed, but, this time, it was, evidently, by one of the crew of a vessel in port. Jas. Doherty, Dan Arisneah and Tom Gooley were shipmates on the Sch. Janet A. from Tignish, with cattle, sheep, turkeys, etc. Arisneah, having more confidence in Doherty than himself, entrusted him with $27 to keep safely for him. Doherty and Gooley were ashore for a time on Monday evening and on their return to the vessel Doherty had imbibed enough Scotch Ale to make him sleep soundly.

He awoke yesterday morning he missed the $27, which he had kept in his trousers pocket; then, he missed Gooley and his belongings. Doherty, Arisneah and other people believe that Gooley took Arisneah's money from Doherty's person while the latter slept, and, then, gathering together his "duds" silently stole away. He is described as of fair complexion, weighing about 170 lbs. good looking and wearing dark clothes.—Advertiser.

Buctouche Municipal Elections.

Parish of Addington.—Wm. McRae and A. McKendrick.

Parish of Dalhousie.—Jas. S. Harquail and John Miller.

Parish of Colborne.—Donald McLean and John McNeelan.

Parish of Durham.—In this Parish there was a keen and exciting contest for the old council being opposed by Jas. P. Doyle, mill-owner of Jacques River, who made a thorough canvass of the parish, visiting each elector personally; but the friends of the old council stood firm and elected them with a sweeping majority.

At the close of the poll the vote stood as follows:—

Thos. Hayes, Jr., 215.
John Culligan, 100.
Jas. P. Doyle, 100.

Cous. Hayes addressed the electors at length, thanking them for the honor conferred upon him, by electing him for the ninth time, always placing him at the head of the poll. Cous. Culligan also addressed the electors, thanking them for having elected him for eleven years in succession.

Scott Act Cases.

A case was tried on Monday last after several adjournments, against Mrs. Hays, of Nelson, for selling liquor contrary to the Scott Act. A witness testified to giving another the money and saw him go in, get liquor, the motions made as if he was paying for it and then come out with the bottle full of gin. The bottle with part of the contents was put in evidence and yet Police Magistrate Niven decided in favor of the defendant. Saml. Thomson, Esq., for the prosecution, M. Adams, Esq., for the defense.

Complaint was also made against Mrs. Daly for a similar offense. This case also came up on Monday last, and after the case for the prosecution was in the defendant's counsel, asked for an adjournment so that they could put in evidence in rebuttal and the trial was adjourned until Wednesday, Nov. 7th. S. Thomson, Esq., for the prosecution and M. Adams, Esq., for the defense.

The third complaint was that against John Ritchie, also of Nelson. The prosecution presented their case, and the counsel for the defendant, L. T. Tweedie, Esq., asked for postponement to enable him to attend court at Bathurst, which was granted until Saturday.

Newcastle Curling Club.

The first regular meeting of this club for this season was held at the Waverley Hotel on Monday evening last, when Ritchie, Esq., President, in the chair. Miss Philomena Roy, of Petit Rocher, who was housekeeper for the late Dr. Robt. Leith, and who nursed him during a severe sickness, by the doctor's will will become his heir to his property, said to be worth $50,000.

Dr. Leith was induced to sign a document transferring all his right and title in the said property to the doctor's relations for the sum of $10,000. She received this amount and is no doubt the richest damsel of Petit Rocher, where she now resides.

One Black Drop.

Byron was wise when he wrote, "A drop of ink may make a million think." This is indeed true when the black fluid is used to enlighten the world on the merits of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Let consumptives everywhere hear the glad tidings. Try it all, who breathe with pain and lose in fever through the long night hours. You will find the cough gone and sleep as balmy as a child's will visit your pillow. You will thank the drop of ink that brought the message of mercy to you.

So confident are the manufacturers of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy in their ability to cure chronic nasal catarrh, no matter how old or how long standing, that they offer, in good faith, the above reward for a case which they cannot cure. Remedy sold by druggists at 50 cents.

SCOTT ACT CASES.

POSTPONEMENTS.—TAMPERING WITH WITNESSES.—NEWCASTLE JUSTICE.

A number of the liquor dealers of Nelson having been summoned before Justice Niven of Newcastle, for Monday last, in compliance with council, the case was postponed until Friday.

On Thursday evening three of the friends of defendants came to the witness' house about nine or ten o'clock armed with a bottle of whiskey, called the witness out from the house, and after though he resisted the invitation to "parade" from the bottle, he finally "was" taken to the house. He was then taken up town and finally concealed in one of their houses, consequently when the case was called on Friday the witness was not to be found, and on application of S. Thomson, Esq., Q. C., an adjournment was obtained until Monday, Nov. 6th.

The secretors of the witness now finding that it would be necessary to keep him away for an indefinite length of time, had him conveyed to Nelson, where they surrounded him and made him the hero of the day, keeping him however concealed and guarded, but feeding him on pies, cakes and all the drinks required. As soon as night came on he was taken by three persons, two of whom were defendants, and with two horses conveyed to the L. C. R. station at Buctouche River and informed that one of them would accompany him to Moncton where they would see him safely on board the car provided with a ticket for Bangor.

Arriving at Bangor River, Galley (the witness), began to come to consciousness, realizing that they were dragging him from his wife and babe who was in Newcastle dependent on his day's wages for support, he protested against being long detained, jumped from the wagon and made a bolt for liberty and home. His captors however determined not to be foiled, went in hot pursuit, accompanied by a railway employee, and they again captured him and undertook to drag him to the employee's house to be kept there until the train came along that was to convey him to Moncton, he however protested, and preferred being taken back to the station where they took him.

Arriving there another of the defendants was there in waiting, who made grab for him swearing that unless he would clear out to Bangor he the defendant would murder him. Galley by this time realized that he was in a terrible position and made another desperate bolt for liberty, it being quite dark he succeeded in getting away from them and concealed himself under the bank of the river until he heard a train approaching, it was going towards Newcastle. He then made a life or death run and succeeded in grabbing the rail and climbing on board, hiding his pursuers and arriving home about midnight.

So that on Monday when the case was called on for trial, Galley the escaped witness, was in court to give testimony.

When all the above facts were brought out by Mr. Thomson, counsel for the prosecution. The cases for tampering with witnesses will be attended to in good time.

There was however only one case disposed of some of the particulars of which are as follows:—

Galley, the witness, went into Mrs. Hays' shop in Nelson and asked for liquor. She told him that she had liquor but would not sell it to him. He then left and went back again with two others, one was Donaldson. He gave Donaldson 60 cts to get liquor. Donaldson went into the salley stood at the window outside and saw Donaldson speaking to Mrs. Hays, who left him, went into an adjoining apartment, returned and passed a black bottle to Donaldson. He then saw their hands meet as though there was a passing of money although he could not swear that he saw the money pass. He
