United States. (From the Eastern Sentinel.) Fort Sullivan.—The troops have left us for the scene of war in the South. Maj. Churchill, in command was ordered some weeks since to repair to Fort Mitchell, Alabama, and the mail of Saturday evening, brought orders for Capt. Childs and his company to proceed to Black Creek, near St. Augustine, Florida. This order was obeyed with true military promptness. At one o'clock, on Sunday, the Fort was evacuated, and the public property there placed in the charge of Mr. Joseph C. Noyes. At two, the levee taken was over, the cheer from the ship and shore, had mingled with the "sabbath bell"—and the crowd had listened to the roll-call on the Boundary's deck.

This event to our village—famous village as it is, is of consequence, in various ways. And the circumstances attending it, are of a painful nature to many. Though Maj Churchill had been stationed here but a few months still, as his nature made him—"of us"—as soon as he came—"among us"—he had gained a strong hold upon our confidence and love.

Capt. Childs commanded the post for many years. A gentleman in manners, and a christian in character, he won what he deserved, the respect and esteem of the whole community.

DEATH OF JAMES MADISON. The Southern mail of yesterday brought us the melancholy intelligence of the death of EX-PRESIDENT MADISON. He died at his residence at Montpelier, Virginia, on the 28th inst. at the age of 85 years. It would require volumes of paper, and more time than we can devote to the subject, to give a detailed history of the life and various public services of this great and good man. While but a youth he took an active part in the political affairs of his native state, and on the breaking out of the American Revolution was one of the first—who pledged their lives, their fortunes, and their sacred honours—to the cause of their country. The conspicuous part he acted during this stormy period is familiar to all, and has stamped his name in characters indelible, on the hearts of his countrymen. His public speeches in Congress during the administration of Washington, and his political writings at a later period, were marked by a strength of intellect, and soundness of judgment, which rendered him at once conspicuous and popular as a public man. On the election of Mr. Jefferson to the Presidency, he was called to the Department of State, which office he filled with credit to himself, and honour to the country.

Count Suvelliers.—Joseph Buonaparte, formerly King of Naples and afterwards of Spain, now bearing the title of the Count Suvelliers after a residence in this country since the downfall of the French imperial dynasty, a period of more than twenty years, yesterday took his final leave, and embarked for London in the packet ship Philadelphia, whence, it is said he will not return.

Gen. Scott has been recalled, and General Jessup has command of the operations in the South. The Hon. Lewis Cass, Secretary of War, has been appointed Minister to the Court of France.

A farmer called on Earl Fitzwilliam to represent that his crop of wheat had been seriously injured in a field adjoining a certain wood, where his hounds had, during the winter, frequently met to hunt. He stated that the young wheat had been so cut up and destroyed that in some days he could not hope for any produce. "Well, my friend," said his lordship, "I am aware that we have frequently met in that field, and that we have done considerable injury, and if you can produce an estimate of the loss you have sustained, I will repay you." The farmer replied that anticipating his lordship's consideration of kindness, he had requested a friend to assist him in estimating the damage and they thought that, as the crop was quite destroyed £50 would not more than repay him. The Earl immediately gave him the money. As the harvest, however, approached the wheat grew, and in these parts of the field that were most trampled upon, the corn was the strongest and most luxuriant. The farmer went again to his lordship, and being introduced, "I am come, my lord, respecting the field of wheat adjoining such a wood." His lordship instantly recollected the circumstance. "Well, my friend, did I not allow you sufficient to remunerate you for your loss?" "Yes, my lord, I have found that I have sustained a loss at all, for where the horses had most cut the land, the crop is most promising, and I have therefore brought the £50-back again." "All!" exclaimed the earl, "that is what I like; this is what ought to be between man and man." The then entered into conversation with the farmer, asking him some questions about his family—how many children he had, &c. His lordship then went into another room, and returning, presented the farmer a check for £100. "Take care of this, and when your oldest son is of age, present it to him and tell him the occasion that produced it." "We know not which most to admire, the benevolence or the wisdom displayed by this illustrious man; for while doing a noble act of generosity, he was handing down a lesson of integrity to another generation."—English paper.

That New York capitalists and merchants are not men of straw has been fully tested within the last few months. With apprehensions of a rupture with France which had a great effect upon commercial operations—a winter with its thirty snows and a severity unequalled since the memorable winter of 1789; and, add to the above, the great conflagration of December which destroyed twenty-five million dollars worth of property, and broke down nearly all the fire insurance offices—yet, notwithstanding all these drawbacks, scarcely a failure has taken place; nay, most of the broker offices have already been re-instituted by new subscriptions; the thousands burnt out have found temporary locations and are well supplied with goods, whilst some hundreds of substantial stores are already rising up in the "burnt district," and all classes disposed to labour find abundance of employment and good wages. Real estate too has risen rapidly in every part of the city, and could materials and work be procured; many hundred dwellings at present absolutely required, would be erected in the upper parts of the city, and pay fair interest for the investment.

Upper Canada. The venerable Bishop Macdonell, of Upper Canada, has recently published a long and extremely interesting address to the catholic and protestant Freeholders of Stormont and Glengary. After giving a rapid sketch of his own useful and honorable life, with the view of showing the parties to whom he addresses himself, the claims he has upon their confidence, he proceeds, as follows, to lay before them his opinion of the men whom they should return to Parliament as their Representatives. The language which the Reverend Prelate employs is strong, but not one whit more so than the circumstances which induced him to write will amply justify.

You will select men to represent you in the ensuing Parliament of sound and loyal principles, who have no real good of the country at heart, who will not show themselves to be duped or misled by wicked hypocritical Radicals, who are endeavouring to drive the Province into rebellion, and to cut off every connection between Canada and Great Britain your Mother Country, and subject you to the domination of Yankee rulers and Lynch law.

Your gracious and benevolent Sovereign sent you out as his representative, a personage distinguished for abilities, knowledge and integrity; to redress all the grievances and abuses that had crept into the Government of this province, since its first establishment; but, in place of meeting him with cordiality, and offering their co-operation in the important work of Reform; what do the Radicals do? Why, they assail him like hell hounds, with every possible abuse, indignity and insult; and your late Representatives are joined in politics and friendship with these Radical worthies, and would fain make you believe that they are your friends, and the friends of the country; although implicit enemies of yourselves, your religion and your country; and this they proved by stopping the money, which the government had been giving for some years past towards building and repairing Catholic churches, supporting Catholic schools, and maintaining Catholic clergy.

At the same time that those Radicals who aim at the destruction of our holy religion, are loud in their complaints against Government for affording no assistance towards establishing it on a permanent foundation in this Province—they are cutting and carving lucrative situations for themselves, and filling their own pockets, and those of their chaplain, O'Grady, with your money, and that of your fellow subjects. It was for this purpose they stopped the supplies last session, and thereby prevented the issue of the money, which was to be laid out on public roads, canals and other improvements of the Province; and in all those mischiefs your Radical Representatives joined with heart and hand with the enemies of their country.—Montreal Gazette.

Poetry. SLANDER. Also: that a desire to prattle, Should give extended circulation, To any much more speaking quality, And so much more speaking quality, A'd of so much more speaking quality, Just for the sake of spreading news!

Experience about my mind prepared, To trust to neither tongue nor eyes; For even religion's sacred garb, Is worn too oft as a disguise; An' tear-wet eyes too oft conceal, An unrelenting heart of steel.

My duties as your representative, are "arduous and difficult," and yet the remuneration I received from His Majesty are plain and easy—our Upper Canada has been so cruelly deceived by false statements, that the Farmer's interests are neglected, while the agitators of the Province have been reaping a rich harvest.

COLONIAL. Our patriots will doubtless be gratified to learn, that a proposition is now under consideration in England, for promoting Emigration to the Colonies by means of the surplus revenue arising from the Crown Lands, and that Mr. O'Connell is one of the leading promoters of the scheme.

On the 13th May a numerous deputation of Noblemen and gentlemen, of different political parties, amongst whom were the Earl of Devon, Mr. O'Connell, Mr. W. W. Whitmore, Mr. T. P. Courtenay, Mr. H. G. Ward, M. P., Mr. Hunt, M. P., Mr. Angerson, M. P., Col. T. Oates, Mr. Ferguson, of Balh, and Mr. Wyo. A. P. had a long interview with Lord Melbourne, to suggest to his lordship the expediency of raising an emigration fund for Ireland by means of the sale of waste lands in the Colonies. The result of the conference was, that an inquiry into the subject would be immediately proposed to Parliament, with the sanction of Government.

Clerical Charges.—The Rev. George Jarvis, R.A., has removed to Shediac N. B. and the Rev. J. Black, heretofore Missionary there has assumed the charge of Sackville N. B. The Rev. H. L. Owen, has returned from St. Andrews, to his own Parish at Aylesford, and his place at the former station is to be supplied by the Rev. Richard Uniacke.

The young Chinese female who was brought to New York about a year ago, after having made a tour through the principal cities in the union, has returned to New York, and is to be exhibited for a short time previously to her departure. She is a native of Canton, and now seventeen years of age. Her feet are four inches and an eighth in length; but the most interesting particular we learn about her is that under the care of her conductress, she has made considerable proficiency in the English language, and takes a pleasure in relating little anecdotes and circumstances illustrative of the manners and customs of the singular nation to which she belonged.

The New York Shipping and Commercial List mentions that the Schooner Carolina, Harvey from St. John for that port, was run down and sunk on the 23rd ult. 29 miles from Barnegat, by the Schooner Superior, at Philadelphia. The crew were saved and carried into the latter. It is also noticed that a British Brig of about 100 tons from Jamaica for New York, with rum sugar and pimento, went ashore on Bogue Bank N. C. but it was expected she would be got off.

The Fredericton Gazette says that "the most alarming sensations have been felt by the inhabitants of this town and the surrounding country, from the extensive fires which have for some time raged with great fury in the forests not many miles distant, and which have excited in very many persons apprehensions for the safety of the town. We are not alarmists, but from the gloomy appearance of things around, above and beneath us, we conceive that the utmost care and vigilance is necessary, and we are happy to hear that the Fire Engines are kept constantly filled with water in perfect readiness to be used when occasion may require. We trust that a kind Providence which directs and controls all things for good, will graciously avert those evils which threaten us, and and that the rains may descend and stay the ravages of the destroying element, and revive the parched fields, that there may be yet plenty in our land for man and beasts. We understand the vast tracts of fine land have been destroyed on the Miramichi, and some houses burnt."

Mr. Joseph Howe, Editor of the Newscotian, has signified his intention to comply with a requisition addressed to him to come forward as a Candidate, at the approaching General Election, for the representation of the County of Halifax. Mr. Howe has been for several years the indefatigable reporter, transcriber and publisher of the proceedings of the N. S. House of Assembly, through which means his parliamentary knowledge must be very great; but his intimate acquaintance with every title of the political, commercial and natural advantages and disadvantages of the province, renders him eminently qualified to assume the duties of a legislator, and to take his station in that arena where his abilities, integrity and patriotism, will be exerted for the accomplishment of those salutary measures, to which his pen has been long and ably devoted.

The electors for the Assembly of Upper Canada are in active operation. The constitutionalists and Conservatives are in strong array. The wonder working promptitude of the unflinching civil Lieut. Governor has put a "head and front" on the proper pretensions of the corrective parties, that are quite appalling to the destructives. Even the "Lyon" little McKenzie, has shook his wouled main without being able to shed one dew-drop of consolation from it, to cheer the drooping stem of his shallow based popularity, which is now thrown up and withering on the sterile soil in which he vainly fancied it might take root. "Tis ever thus in childhood's hour, we find our fond hopes decay, and there is no childhood so replete with fanciful conceits as political childhood. We cannot help calling attention to the address of the venerable Catholic Bishop McDonnell to the people of Glengary, in which his lordship speaks in so decided and powerful a strain, as no sinner but contrite or obeyed. We have no doubt of the alternative.

From the cavalier style in which the notices of the transactions of "the lower Provinces" are generally given in the Canadian prints, we are led to suppose that they are bound to supply matter for the registrars of atmospherical phenomena rather than the fluctuation of the political pulse of these colonies. The Canadas, God knows, have enough to do with their own political struggles, but they should remember that the "wallraggles" are often the reliance of the main army when it is hard pushed; and although the whole of those colonies, in importance, may be merged in the sounding title of "THE CANADAS," there are among the lower provinces some on whom H. M. Government have to draw in elucidation of its policy; and that the rich casual revenue of this Province has been a main stay for political experiment. We rejoice in the sunshine of that loyalty and affection which sheds its benign rays o'er our happy land; and although the foreign discontents, which induce the budding prospects of lower Canada, may convey their canker-worms into the predisposed shoots of a weedy and seedy generation of malcontents here, yet the good sense and ardour of the majority will never cease to put the pruning knife and the weeding iron into such requisition as will not only prevent the growth of disloyalty but thoroughly extirpate the noxious tares of dissension.

As it may not be generally known that all matters connected with the Rail Road from St. Andrews to Quebec are transacted by the committee of the Association in the Rooms set apart for that purpose adjoining the dwelling of James Rait Esq. and that the General Meetings of the Association are held there; the Public are informed that these rooms are exclusively at their service for transactions appertaining to this national undertaking.

Liverpool Intelligence

By the packet ship North America, Capt. Dixon, London papers to May 31st, and Liverpool to the 1st of June, both inclusive have been received at New York.

The Spanish Cortes have been dissolved by the Queen, chiefly in consequence of their voting in a large majority that the existing ministry did not enjoy their confidence.

Cardva, one of the Queen's Generals, has gained a victory over a considerable body of Carlists.

The Parliament has resumed its sittings, after a recess of a few days. Lord Althorpe, however, had not yet made his appearance in the House since the late untoward affair.

Admiral Boscawen is to be created a Duke. The internal affairs of the Kingdom are in a satisfactory state.

Public meetings on the all-absorbing questions which now agitate Ireland, will be held throughout the country.

At a meeting held at Drogheda, Waterford will forward a petition praying for a measure of corporate reform as far as that enjoyed in England.

A resolution denouncing the bill sent down to the Commons by the Lords, and a petition for a red reform in corporations were unanimously adopted.

Mr. Henry Grattan, M.P. was subsequently called to the chair, and the meeting adjourned.

United States

We call the attention of our readers to a letter from the "Spirit of Washington," published below, in which he furnishes information that must excite the most alarming fears in the citizens of Maine in reference to our North Eastern Boundary.

On this proud day for our country, our National Banner will be spangled with twenty six stars, the additional two, being added in consequence of the admission of the States of Arkansas and Michigan into the Union.

While an extraordinary drought has prevailed for a month past at Quebec, there were constant rains along the Atlantic coast by the Gulf of Mexico, up to the 19th inst.

The Albany papers say that it had rained incessantly there from the 17th to the 22d instant, and that much damage had been done by the carrying away of the mill dams and flooding of the low lands.

The Convention was still in session yesterday, but it is supposed, will adjourn in the course of this afternoon.

The proceedings are not open to the public, we cannot furnish our readers with an outline of the business transacted before the Convention, but we have heard it stated, that Agents have been appointed to advocate the claims, demands and petitions of the Constitutional party, at the Colonial Office and before Parliament.

Mr. S. Crawford, on price of the petitions, intimated to the members of the Church of Ireland.

Lord J. Russell, previous order of the day on the Irish asked Lord Stanley, the only passed amendment.

Lord Stanley answered, if notice intimated, to leave a bill on the subject, and he proposed Government bill should be presented, to afford an opportunity of the comparative merits of Lord J. Russell, declared this arrangement, but having considered the motion for the conversion of the title - rents charges; for the sale and for the better distribution of the revenues in Ireland, this motion in speech of generation, clearness, earnestness, he detailed very fully measures that had been proposed, and the Church of Ireland that he calculated on a sum of £250,000. That surplus be appropriated in equalizing the Irish Church, establish, to secure the population in income less than three years - an amount fixed by the Government. When populous places were shown to have been diminished, or to be one of more of more added, the Commission, led by the leading object of his motion, to secure luxurious living, he strongly urged the Government to take the position of which they had unfortunately taken, and to consider the proposed, as it was necessary, which never will and new to the abstract principle contained in the bill of the
