FIVE STRIKERS ARE KILLED, 15 HURT IN FIGHT WITH POLICE

Fatalities Are Result of Trouble At Steel Car Plant At Hammond.

Hammond, Ind., Sept. 9 .- Five strik ers were killed and fifteen wounded today in a battle between 1,000 former employees of the Standard Steel Car Company and the police.

Two months ago, 2,000 workmen at the plant went on strike for increased wages and improved working conditions. Yesterday 200 strikers returned to work and this caused considerable bad feeling among the men who refused to return. Today when the 206 men were on their way to work a crowd of 1,000 foreign-born strikers gathered in the street several blocks from the plant of the Standard Steel Car Company and threatened them. The police ordered the crowd to disperse, but this was greeted with jeers, and the men refused to obey. When the police attempted to arrest the leaders of the mob, the crowd attacked them with sticks and stones and several of the strikers drew revolvers and fired a number of shots.

The police then retaliated by firing about seventy-five shots into the crowd, killing five and wounding fifteen strikers. Two months ago, 2,000 workmen at

SENT CIRCULAR LETTERS

Men Will Not Abide by Borden's Decision As Final.

Ottawa, Sept. 9.—There is no inclination whatever on the part of the G. W. V. A. as represented by the Dominion executive here to take the refusal of Sir Robert Borden to have their claims for better terms submitted to an independent tribunal as final. Members of the executive, including President Purney, Vice-President Maywell, Secretary MacNeil, and others, have been in constant attendance in the corridors since yesterday morning, and are conducting a very strenuous lobby of the members. Following a caucus of the soldier members of the House yesterday, it was decided that just as soon as the prime minister has recovered from his present indisposition a deputation should wait upon him and urge him to reconsider his decision and agree to the appointment of the commission desired.

Send Circular Letters.

A strong circular letter was yesterday sent to every member, with special delivery stamp attached to insure its receipt. #### Some of Finest Animals Ever EIGHTEEN MONTHS Exhibited Here Are in Competition This Year-Come From Far and Near.

Hundreds of farmers and people interested in agriculture visited the Western Fair this morning and eagerly thronged the exhibition buildings devoted to live stock, fruit and flowers, poultry, dairy, dogs and the pure food show in the process building. Great interest was taken in the judging of the live stock and truit and flowers, continued from yesterday, during the forenoon and in the dog show, which started at moon.

The judging of the Clydesdale class of horses in the arena inside of the race track attracted a large number of horse tanciers. Their attention was well occupied until noon for the appraising of several other classes tollowed that of the heavy registered animals. These classes were standard bred, carriage and coach, English sires, heavy draught horses, and the various kinds of ponies. Then, this afternoon the judges will be busy with the thoroughbreds, hackneys, Percherons and agricultural horses.

shires, Holstein-Friesians and the grade dairy cattle was commenced. Western Ontario's best cattle and several from the United States were led into the ring, and they presented such a beautiful appearance that the eyes of every cattle raiser in attendance must have turned green with envy. There has not been such a splendid exhibition of live stock, according to the judges, at the Western Fair for many years. High grade cattle in such large numbers make the task of judging a long and very arduous one. Then in addition, the judging of the swine and sheep entries was continued today, so it is problematical whether or not the judging of all animals will be completed today.

A noisy mixture of loud barks and yelps, insistent, pleading or scared in tone, attracted many people to the dog show building when it was opened to the public at noon under the auspices of the London Canime Association. The building proved to be a centre of interest, especially to the ladies and children, for splendid specimens of every size, color and breed are being exhibited by fifty-five residents of the city, and many from Western Ontario, Detroit, Port Huron and several places as far away as Lethbridge, Alberta. There are bloodhounds, magnificent great danes, and Russian wolfhounds, American foxhounds, pointers, English and Irish secters, cocker spaniels, beagles, collies and Dalmatians. Fred was found guilty of participating in a drinking bout with Mike Belouse, Mike Shanak and Mike Bellows, and assessed $10. The policemen declared that they smelled the breath of each man immediately before putting him in the police auto.

JUDGE MACBETH TELLS

Wishes "To Make This Thing unique and very interesting character As Public As Possible."

Unintentionally Judge Talbot Macbeth let the cat out of the bag in county to court this morning. He stated that city enumerators, making up the lists of voters on the Ontario temperance referrendum act, had sent in their bill, through Chief Enumerator W. C. Fitzgerald, for ten days' work, but upon Provincial Auditor McLaurin drawing the attention of Court Clerk Diamond to the state of affairs at Toronto, payment was held up owing to the fact that one of the days for which wages were requested was a Sunday. However, the enumerators claimed this a legitimate day's work, as they were busily engaged copying out their returns on the Sabbath.

On payment for Sunday being refused at Toronto, Chief Enumerator Fitzgrald requested that an extra week day be added to the pay list to even things up, and overcome the technicality. This also was refused by the provincial clerk.

performances all day, standing room only was obtainable at many of the showings.

Although a few incidents, unfit for the civilized eye, were not included in the story, other scenes showing the heinous crimes and the lusts and passions of the brutal Ottoman leave nothing to be imagined. As the narrative is unfolded before one's eye, one's blood boils, and involuntarily one's fists clench and unclench. From the screen, ravished Armenia seems to cry for succor.

Nestling beneath the shadows of ancient Mount Ararat was the home of Aurora Mardiganian, daughter of a wealthy Armenian merchant. On the surrounding slopes the flocks of Hadikah, a well-to-do young shepherd, grazed. Armenia, although living in dread of its oppressor, Turkey, was a land of industry. Its 4,000,000 people were peace-loving and obedient to their masters. Armenia followed Christ; Turkey worshipped Allah. There was the great dividing line! Convert or exterminate—the Turk's creed was this.

War was declared. England was busy with Germany. Armenia was without a protector. At last the opportunity for which the powers at Constantinople, the city of mosques and minarets built to the glory of Mohammet, had waited, arrived. Under the excuse that Armenia was plotting to aid Russia to crush the Ottoman Empire the sultan and his high officials, approved by Germany, began the crusade against the Christians.

Armenian soldiers were disarmed, forced to dig their own graves, into which they were thrown after their massacre. The children were drivamed and bayoneted. Deportation began. Naked, starving, bruised and heartbroken, hundreds of thousands of maidens were driven across burning desert sands. By day they marched under the lash and taunts of their brutal masters. When night fell they were ravished by the drunken soldiery. Revolt meant death; submission, worse than death.

Those who were strong in their denial of the Mohammedan faith were cruci-

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE

CHRISTIANITY.

Editor of The Advertiser: Free Press in an editorial tes more Christianity. Now, as advocates more Christianity. Now, as long as garages and automobiles are purchased for ministers, and poor people's bodies are sent for dissection, because they have not the almighty dollar, there won't be much Christianity. Everywhere we look we see that it is not work but money that makes money. Look at stores, banks, life insurance offices, etc., and now we have the hydro, which will make things worse in a few years by competing with railroads, with the people's money. Yours respectfully.

JOHN SIMS. London, Sept. 8, 1919.

THE GRAND ARMY'S WORK.

To the Editor of The Advertiser:

I am instructed to convey to you the best thanks of this Post for your publicity of our agitation and delegation to the city council re the insanitary kouses and shacks that our returned comrades are forced to inhabit through a shortage of more suitable dwellings. We further thank, through you, the officials who immediately made an inspection and found our statements to be true in every detail. It appears that laws made by a class who really do not represent the people do not allow a medical officer to condemn foul or insanitary dwellings unless at the time an epidemic of fever, flu, or other contagious diseases is raging. The Grand Army of Canada has thrown down the gauntlet and will shortly appear in the political arena to ask no favor, nor give any quarter in the struggle for rights. I have the honor to be.

Yours faithfully.

AEOLIAN-VOCALION

The Greater Phonograph

With the introduction of the Vocalion the public has been made acquainted with a new and superior type of Phonograph—a Phonograph which is not only mechanically in advance of other instruments, but which, musically, is so far ahead of anything hitherto known as to be in a class quite by itself. This superiority rests on definite and distinctive features of advantage.

The New Aeolian-Vocalion Record

From the great music house responsible for the perfecting of the Phonograph as a musical instrument, there has recently come a new and better type of record. This record, made under an exclusive and more scientific system, produces astonishing musical results. Instead of the slightly metallic effects hitherto characteristic of Phonograph performances, it produces clear, rich tones of great depth and beauty.

The New Universal Tone-Arm

In this feature of the Vocalion is found a perfect means of supplying what is now recognized as an absolute necessity in the modern Phonograph-viz., a practical method of playing all makes of records. Without such means, the enjoyment of a Phonograph is seriously curtailed. This new tone-arm not only plays all records, but plays them at their best.

The Graduola Tone-Control

The Graduola is the only method that not only perfectly controls tone without impairing its qualities, but gives the performer the opportunity to put in true musical expression. With the Graduola it is actually possible to play the Phonograph, shading and coloring the music to suit one's Indians Beat Hams in First of Series, Though Shaughnessy's Men Collected Greatest Number of Hits.

Frank Shaughnessy's Hams and "Dad" Stewart's Tecumsehs are playing out the Mint League schedule over in Tecumseh Park until Wednesday. The first battle was staged yesterday. It was a gentle affair. The day's program was marred by another accident in which Patrick Cherrier, piloting Armardale, had his left leg broken. It was in the 2:06 pace and one of the horses which "broke" reared and plunged into Cherrier's sulky. Driverless, Armardale raced to the wire and finished first.

The feature event of the day, the Matron stake for 3-year-old trotters, was won by Periscope in straight heats, the best time, 2:0414, being the fastest time of the season for 3-year-olds.

The Chamber of Commerce Stake for 2:06 pacers developed a lively battle between Edward P. and Little Batiste, the former taking the first and third heats, turning the miles in each instance in 2:0444.

Opposition House Takes View Issue Needs Careful Consideration Before Signing.

OTTAWA, Sept. 8.—Strong Opposi-tion criticism of the league of nations was voiced in the House of Commons was voiced in the House of Commons today. Generally, as was expected, the criticism centered around the tenth article and the obligations thereunder placed on members of the league to preserve against external aggression the territorial integrity of all members of the league.

"Are we bound henceforth to take irt in outside affairs?" queried the ting leader of the Opposition.

Canada, Dr. Beland feared, was assuming more international obligations without increasing her international states. "Under this convention," Dr. Beland declared, "the council of the league of nations is given the right to dispose of Canadian troops for the quelling of disorders in any of the five continents."

Mr. McKenzie took the view, too, that Canada has not yet reached the full status of nationality. "We are not," he argued, "able to declare war and peace." If Canada, as a separate nation, bound herself to observe the league covenant, she might have to fight even the mother country. Nor would Canada's action on the treaty alter it in the slightest degree. Submitting it to the Dominion parliament merely "tickled the fancy" of some members and made them feel more important.

The debate was adjourned by Mr. LaPointe of Kamouraska.

No Responsibility.

The making of war had not been brought about by the Government of Canada, and Canada had no responsibility for the trouble or for the making of the treaty, said Mr. McKenzie, the Opposition House leader. While Canada plenipotentiaries had no doubt assisted, it had not been said that the treaty was a product of the brains of the Canadian Government, and whether it was good or bad, it was unnecessary to say that the Government must fall if it was not ratified.

The prime minister, sald Mr. McKenzie, the Canadian Government, and whether it was good or bad, it was unnecessary to say that the Government must fall if it was not ratified.

The prime minister, sald Mr. McKenzie, had been anxious to make a party question out of a matter which should be considered entirely apart from party feelings.

ONE IS the chief thing to be desired when you purchase any musical instrument; but how much more in your choice of a phonograph—the interpreter of ALL instruments.

Since your phonograph must be the medium for conveying every sound known to music, and also the human voice in speech and in song, how important it is to own an instrument that will perfectly render vocal, spoken and instrumental selections. Such an instrument you will find in the STARR Phonograph—a musical marvel—the product of a half-century of effort in the production of the best musical instruments known.

Why you should choose a STARR

to choose from If in doubt as to which Phonograph would be best for you to purchase, and the advice and assistance of a board of world-famous musical experts were offered, you would accept, would you not? Well, just such a gathering of experts awarded the Grand Prize, Blue Ribbon and Gold Medal to the STARR Phonograph at the Panama-Pacific Exposition, in competition with all other makes. Since that was the verdict of the experts, it follows that,

The singing throat and sound horn of every STARR Phonograph is of finest silver-grained spruce—the wood of which the world's master violins are made—the wood which made possible the peerless instruments of Stradivarius. Let us demonstrate the tone of a STARR Phonograph in your home, at the Fair or in our salesrooms. Hear it, whether you purchase or not. An article in the Pure Food Show, which is attracting great attention, is a new cooking oil, Mazola by name, made from the hearts of corn, demonstrated by the Canada Starch Company. This oil, which has revolutionized the art of cooking in fat, came into prominence during the war, when fat substances were scarce, and bids fair to keep its place on account of qualities which are superior to animal fats.

One great advantage of corn oil is that it will heat to a much higher degree than other fats, without burning. This appeals to the housewife, who is all of a flutter at dinner time, and wishes she could leave her fryingpan the constant of so without running the STRATED.

Corn oil is also much more economical than fat products, and for this reason it is fast supplanting them on the market. It has the added advantage that it is rich in lecithin, considered by many physiologists as one of the most important tonics and tissue builders known to science. Odiferous vegetables or fish cooked in this oil are soon sealed over with it and cease to give out an odor. Corn oil has also a lower congealing point than any other oils, and therefore is especially valuable in the preparation of salads. The discovery of this vegetable oil is indeed a boon to housewives, and no one should be content to continue with they have given itla try. The fact that from three million jushels of grain there is a potential prospect of four hundred million gallous of corn oil, insures the cheapness of this preduct on the market. In these days of high prices and enforced economy, corn oil will be a great help in the saving of money.

One of the greatest of the fair week attractions at the Grand will be the Great Blackstone, master magician, and his big company, who will appear here tomorrow and Thursday evenings at $15 and Thursday matinee at 2:15, the engagement being limited to two days only. Blackstone will offer the world's greatest production in magic, presenting one hundred new and startling allusions, altogether different from anything yet seen in this Lae on any stage. For the benefit of those who have never witnessed Blackstone's marvellous performances it will suffice to say that he is the only master magician and necromancer whose attraction is booking the New York office of Klaw & Erlanger. Blackstone has fifteen attendants, the largest troupe carried by any magician. He has a carload of magic paraphernalia, offering the same program of novelties that made the theatre-goers of the largest cities gash by any magician. He has a cannot be made paraphernalia, offering the same program of novelties that made the theatre-goers of the largest cities gasp with amazement. ### "SEVEN DAYS' LEAVE," MELODRAMA, PLAYS AT GRAND FRIDAY

Twice Saturday Also - Enjoyed Long Run in New York.

"Seven Days' Leave," the big spectacular New York and London military melodrama, will be presented at the Grand Theatre Friday and Saturday evenings at 8:15 and Saturday matinee at 2:15.

It enjoyed a continuous run of two years at the Lyceum Theatre. London, England, six months at the Park Theatre, New York, to tremendous busi-The story of the play concerns princi ness.

The story of the play concerns principally a rollicking young major, back in London on a leave of absence, with buoyancy and heart enough to fall in love with a certain young woman, who ardently welcomes his wooing. But Cupid has fairly opened his eyes to this affair, when enters again sinisterly the clutch of his conflict whose roars can still be heard within the bowers, and from romance the play instantly stiffens to the tense thrill of danger for both the furlough's principal, his fiancee, and indeed all about them who are dear to both. Many of the phases of life in London as it is at present—hazards of spies, levelling of castes, awakening of a finer spiritual note — fall into the alembic. There is a thrilling denouement when a submarine is exploded in view of the audience. The seat sale opens this morning.

General Displays Retentive Memory.

He was conducted through the military wing on the institution by Dr. Bell. Members of the reception party who had met the general many years ago were astonished when he immediately recalled their names and the incidents of their former acquaintance. He readily remembered all the military men he had met in France. Passing through the hospital he spoke to many of the men, and on learning their battalion was able to recount some incident connected with it in every case.

From the Sanatorium the party proceeded to the city. Children from the various public schools lined the way and cheered the party enthusiastically. The downtown streets were crowded when the general arrived at noon, and he was cheered to the echo as he proceeded to the Masonic Temple.

Here many other prominent citizens were drawn up to greet him. The Henderson Juvenile Klitte Band led the way into the banqueting hall, where the members of the band provided a program of songs and dancing.

Accompanying the general were:
Lady Currie, the general's little son, Garner Ormsby Currie; his young daughter. Marjorie Curfie; the general's brother. Warden John Currie of Middlesex County, and his two sisters, Miss Ethel Currie and Officials.

Among others with whom the general shook hands were His Worship Mayor Somerville, Ald, F. Harley, Ald, Wilson, Ald, Holmes, Capt. Tom Robson, Lieut.-Col. A. A. Campbell, Mr. Geo. M.
