Attempts were made to force an investigation of the transactions of the Shell Commission, but the Government, shielding itself behind the British Government and the War Office, continued to refuse an investigation, for the present at least. It is to be hoped that the matter will be thoroughly investigated some time, in view of the charges and insinuations made.

The Minister of Finance introduced his budget on Tuesday. It was a surprise. The tariff was scarcely touched, only two or three changes being announced; but the needed increase in revenue is to be provided by a surtax on profits of wealthy orporations and those engaged in the ufacture of munitions and materials of war. It is too soon to speak of the

THE SONG OF THE TRENCH

THIS is the song of the blooming trench: It's sung by us, and it's sung by the French; It's probably sung by the German Huns; But it isn't all beer, and skittles, and buns. It's a song of water, and mud, and slime, And keeping your eyes skinned all the time. Though the putrid "bully" may kick up a stench, emember, you've got to stick to your trench-Yes, stick like glue to your trench.

You dig while it's dark, and you work while it's light, And then there's the "listening post" at night.

Though you're soaked to the skin and chilled to the bone; Though your hands are like ice, and your feet like stone; Though your watch is long, and your rest is brief, And you pray like hell for the next relief; Though the wind my howl, and the rain may drench, Remember, you've got to stick to your trench-Yes, stick like mud to your trench.

Perhaps a bullet may find its mark, And then there's a funeral after dark; And you say, as you lay him beneath the sod, A sportsman's soul has gone to his God. Rehind the trench, in the open ground, There's a little cross and a little mound; And if at your heart-strings you feel a wrench, Remember, he died for his blooming trench-Yes, died like a man for his trench.

There's a rush and a dash, and they're at your wire, And you open the hell of a rapid fire; The Maxims rattle, the rifles flash, And the bombs explode with a sickening crash. You give them lead, and you give them steel, Till at last they waver, and turn, and reel. You've done your job-there was never a blench-You've given them hell, and you've saved your trench; By God, you've stuck to your trench!

The daylight breaks on the rain soaked plain (For some it will never break again), And you thank your God, as you're "standing to," You'd your bayonet clean, and your bolt worked true. For your comrade's rifle had jammed and stuck, And he's lying there, with his brains in the muck. So love your gun-as you haven't a wench-And she'll save your life in the blooming trench-Yes, save your life in the trench.
