Since the appearance of the gallant Colonel's latter is our columns, he has become the surgest of attack from a few of the Canadian press. But, as we satisfupated, the spirit of fairness and candor, so nobly displayed by the

lonel, is not indulged in by these gentry of the prebut a great deal of froth about pride, feeling, " the flag that bas braved," the "nation so hard to whip," &c., &c., is "teller," are attributable to thispovernment and distant government, and they knote that our believed Prevince is in a misegatic condition, comparing it with the nation opposite; but they have not the manhood to speak out on the subject in terms that will startle Earl Grey from his dressiny discregard of Colonial Rights, Col. Prince is as much a Briton now as he ever was; and has not lost a spark of his loyalty. Far from it—and we may safely say that his loyalty is purer, nobler, and more reasonable, than that of the present Ministry of Canada, or any of its supporters; who (many of them) were found in open Rebellion, with arms of war in their handa. "When the time was, he was there !" bearing his breast to the foes of England; he was there, fighting for his country against hourds of foreign desparadoes, redugees from all nations on the face of the globe—he was shere in the hour of peril and strife and bloodshed, defeuding his home and disease from the attack of barbarous ruffanss staying themselves patriots, who sought only for plundes. Ard if the time should come again, where a like unnastant Ribellion should take place, and our shores - aim be polluted by the unholy tread of foreign resignades, to subvert our institutions, and starting and the start of the starting the substantian starting and the face. Such is the difference between Colonel Prince and many of his traducers; and we think the Globe should hide its diminished head, when it sneaks of him as in a late number of that reckless print. We might go into a defence of Colonel Princer's conduct in the crisis, of 1837 and 1838, but his friends throughout a sanda, one and all, are familiar with its history, and long ago has his conduct received the approbation of his country. A fact that shows the high estimation in which the glainst Colonel is held here, is his unbroken return to Parliament foreix act that he did here, is his unbroken return to Parliament foreix act that held here, is his unbroken return to Parliament for a that seaburgh to the single co

THE ST. LAWRENCE ROSTE.—We have heard of a transaction which affords most satisfactory proof that the St. Lawrence route will prove much cheaper than the Eric Canal. One of our finest propellers, the Western Miller, has been chartered to take a cargo of floor to Halifax, at as. 8d. currency per barrel, and bring a West India cargo back to Toronso at 2s. per cwt. It is confidently expected that these respective cargoes will be the first of the season at the respective ports. We have reason to know that freights can be engaged on much lower terms by sailing crafts than those which we have susted above. We need not add another word to convince those who have been sceptical as to the superiority of the St. Lawrence route, that goods can be carried cheaper by it than by the Eric Canal, When the route becomes known, there is no doubt that the great bulk of the Western produce must come by it. and that we shall be perfectly independent of the United States. We shall watch with much interest future transactions with regard to freights to and from the ports of the Sister Colonies.—

Globa.

The Kingston (Jamsica) correspondent of the New York-Herold, writing under date of the 2nd instant, mentions a prosecution against Sir Charles E, Grey for debt 1—15 in the Supreme Court of Judicature, in this island, a cause has been agreed, which created a little excitement, being one in which our Governor, Sir Charles E, Greywas immédiately interested. The cause was Manthew William es, Grey, the Right Honorable Sir Charles Edward. It was an action for debt; the first count in the Cecharation was on covenant on mortgage deed, to pay the sum therein stated; the second count was on covenant in astgument of a policy of life assurance to pay premiums, and the other counts for more ylent, and interest thereot, &c. To these counts, the defendant entered the pleas of non-jurisdiction, by fination of the defendant being Governor of the sinand, the keeper of the public Seal, and Chanceller of the same, ought not of right to be compelled to answer the suit, &c., and to this pien the plaintiff demutred. The case was argued as some length, and, I am suppy to say, that the three Judges were unantimosely of the opinion that the Court had jurisdiction over His Excellency. Thus has our worthy Governor, to whom we pay £6.000, or £80,000 per annum, been folled in his dishment attempt to repudiate an itemast debt, because, foreooth, he happens to represent Eler Majesty here. & fine example this, for a community not too far advanced in morals 19

The Americans, who are filled with such horror at the atrocities perpetrated by the Governments of Burope, seem sensitives to forget that the horror is reciprocated most hearity by the good people on this side of the Ocean. The general impression, even in Germany, where we are better known than eliewhere, is, that our country is an excellent place to make money in, and to be free from the amoyance of spics and the machinery of European Government; but that the law affords no security to life or properly, these lying at the mercy of the mob. The royalist papers leave mobine undone to deepen this impression. All the scenes of mob violence, the bloody street combats in our Southern and Southwestern States, and every fact that tends to weaken the respect of Europe or our institutions, are published and constructed in very largely. It is to be regretted that so many of these things are true; Americans alroad cannot contradict them. MONBAY, MARCH 25, 1850.

The rapidity with which men have surrendered their ancient prejudices, and allied themselves with the advacates of elective institutions, but proves how deeply implanted in the breast of man is that aspiration for freedom of thought em-bodied in action; the entiment had long been germinating in the mable wind. ng in the public mind, but it needed a mulant to urge even the boldest thinker to burst the fetters of conventional training. The fruition of reflection is coincident with industrial prostration; the imposed leisure of unrequite industry, removed a veil which clouded the vision ing to the eye a blended picture of com tection, and what writers styled a red constitution." In the calm seclu sion of the study, with the memorials of the past discern a coming day when the mists of sophistry tated the suppression of opinion, analogy declared that the principles which ever actuate the freeborn, would at length be vindicated. Canada i now on the threshold of reflection; she has cease her tutelage, and, emerging from the restraints of authority, she advances timidly and doubtingly; but as she exercises her young arms, she will become conscious of a latent power as yet unappreciated. Her Northern clime will nurse a race us for vigor of thought and energy destined hereafter to enact a distinguishe part in the inture history of America. The nursery schooling of Colonialism stunted the intellect called "the waiters upon Providence;" to then the Governor-General was a demi-god, the Eng lish Premier the supreme disposer of worldly bliss. A few months since, they raised the hands with holy horror at the bare allusion to ent, and elective institutions wer ding to their creed, a direct assault upon the ed constitution." Cunard's steame conveys the solitary speech of Lord John Russell which prostrates to the dust the object of the idolatry. The hand of the high priest demolishes idolatry. The hand of the high priest demolishes the temple in which they worshipped, and casts their faith to the winds. Like clustering bees which lose their queen, they cling with buzzing person whom he had robbed. The guard called upon him instinct to the nearest branch, and the tree of elective institutions now contains many once discordant warms, content to work in common for mutual benefit. Such a disposition, and such capacities, should not be foolishly frittered away; the ductile and impressible imagination should be stamped with ideas of an elevating and enduring character. It would be ungenerous to encourage a delusion that elective institutions, restricted to the Upper and Lower Houses of Parliament, would meet the necessities of our position, or relieve us from the oscillations of a clumsily balanced constitution. If we are to adopt elective principles, let the superstructure possess the essen-tials of unity, time, place, and circumstance. Let us cast saide as useless, if not noxious, the intermixture of Colonial Office ingredients. He who holds the office of Governor or President of Canada, ought to be elected by the people; any other form of nomination is pregnant with anomalies and evils impossible to evade and dishonorable to suffer. That such would be the consequences, may be demonstrated with the same accuracy as The course of legislation where the Governor was the nominee of the Crown, the Despatch writer to the Colonial Office, and the two other branches to the Colonial Office, and the two other branches elective, would, sooner or later, raise an issue between the Representative of the Crown and the Representative of the People. If the Colony were resolute, or, to coin a stronger term, obstinate, the stale device of recalling the Governor might be invoked; but if the Colonial Office, equally as obstinate as the Colony, sustained the Governor, what then would be out remedy, have the last alternative, armed resistance. [Comparative Statements of the Rates of Pre-Comparative Statements of the Rates of Premium adopted by the various Life Assurance Companies transacting business in Canada have, from time to time, appeared in the public prints, placing the Colonial Company, in some instances, at an apparent disadvantage with other Companies. Lowness of Premium of itself is but a poor criterion of the stability or standing of a Life Assurance institution, or of the advantages to be desurance institution, or of the advantages to be decriterion of the stability or standing of a Lite Assurance institution, or of the advantages to be derived by Assuring with it. The Statements moreover, though attractive at first sight, ought not to go for much. The example selected for comparison is invariably taken at the Age and from the particular class of Rates most favorable to the Company advertising. Were an average of the Rates selected, the comparison would often show a very different result. Without meaning to attach much weight to the fact, nevertheless it may tach much weight to the fact, nevertheless it may be remarked, in proof of the fallacy of these Com-parative Statements, that the average Rate of Pre-nium on the Participation System, on which nearly four-fifths of the transactions of the Colonnearly four-fifths of the transactions of the Colonial Company are based, is lower than the average under a similar class of Rates of the great majority of Companies transacting business in this Country. The Rates of the Colonial Company have been most carefully 'famed from the best statistics that could be procured—(statistics which, it is believed, are far more perfect than are in the possession of any other office.) They are as reasonable as present information justifies; and until some good ground is afforded for making a change, either from fuller statistical information than is at present in existence, or from an experience much Depose to increase the CAPITAL STOCK of the Company also, for power to unite, amalgamate with one lease the MONTREAL AND PROoptained, the Directors will rightly adnere to them, being resolved not to enter into a dangerous competition for business by lowering their Rates, in order to outbid others, but to do either a safe

REDUCED RATES OF PREMIUM—HALF CREDIT RATES OF PREMIUM.

THE greet and decided success which has attended this Institution has induced the Directors to REDUCE the RATES originally required in British North America to the ordinary is to enable parties to avail themselves of the im-portant benefits of Life Assurance at much lower Rates of Premium than those of any other Assurance Company transacting business in Canada.

The Directors have also resolved to extend to British North America the advantages afforded by the HALF CREDIT RATES of PREMIUM which have been so highly approved and are so generally adopted by Policy Holders in the United Kingdom. The most liberal conditions are likewise offered to the Assured in the limits to which they may proceed by sea or land, to other parts of North America without affecting their Interest in their respective. BOGLE'S AMOLE.

BOGLE'S AMOLE,
A COMPOUND FOR SHAVING.

This delightful article is totally different and far superior to anything yet inheated for shaving. The base of it is derived from the Amole, or "song plant" of California, an article used by the initives of that country for washing is and thus the use of strong alkali, so hurful to the skin, its avoided. Bas vegetable and detergent properties have the purest and most nourishing effects on the skin,—it southers and allays irritation, and has a fine, thirk, creamy lather, which does not dry on the face. It is a decided luxury to be shaved with this incomparable soap. It is done up in elegant ship, calculated either for the dressing case of the "rough and ready" traveller, or the tolkt of the most fastidious connoiseur.

RADWAY'S READY RELIEF

RADWAY'S READY RELIEF gives instant ease to pain. The most severe pain is quickly mitigated; Rheumatism, Lumbago, Gout, Paralysis, Cramps, Spasms, Strains, Bruisse, Chris, Wounds, Sores, Eruptions, Sore Throat, Hoarseness, Influenza, are quickly cured by a few applications of the Ready Relief.

are quickly cured by a few applications of the kessly Relief.

It is so speedy in its operations, that the most severe pars have been relieved during the application of the Relief. It has cured Tie Doloureaux in a few seconds, Tooth Ache the moment it touched the nerve, Hemicrania, or Pain in the Head, in fixe or ten minutes, Cramps in the Stomach in fiften minutes, Lumbago by rubbing the back fifteen minutes. It is truly a modificing of worth, and had the "god of fight" in ancient time possessed a bottle of Radway's Ready Relief, the "Greeian darts" would not have caused him to be "condemned to pain."

THE FOWER OF BEAUTY.

First or the train that tempts the longing eye,
For beauty's self, majestic queen we spy;
Whether in man or maiden's form adored,
Still mightier than the sceptre or the sword.
This ravished him who wak'd the world's alarm,
Subdued his heart and nerveless made his arm,
Thus Alexander knelt at beauty's shrine,
And Anthony felt Cleopatra's charus divine;
Celestial beauty—daughter of the skies,
Fair-skinned, rose-cheeked, and hisy-necked arise
Tell each poor mortal who for thee would hope,
Try Radway's Chinker Medicard Soar!
This for pimples, tetters, biotches, theur,
Will banish all before its rich perfume;
No fing-worm, squrf, mosquito laites, nor tan
Can stay, its force on face of maid or man,
But all who test it will, at Radway's shrine,
Confess his Soap gives beauty's g'ow divine!
Yes, dear reader, Radway's Soap is truly a friend to those who wish for heanity's glow divine—it imparts health, sweetness and elasticity to the shrivelled skin, and beauty to the dark, sallow complexion—removes pimples, blotches, pustules, tetters, mah, sun-burns, chops, chafe's,
and rough skin.
The most delicous Soap in the world is Radway's Medicated Seap, it instantly removes all redness and other anaoying spots from the skin. For Shaving, Tolet, and the Nursery, it is the ne olias ultim of its king.

The most dilicious Scap in the world is Radway's Medicated Scap, it instantly removes all redness and other analoging spots from the skin. For Shaving, Toilet, and the Nursery, it is the ne plus ultra of its kind.

Marriage requires the fuffilment of several conditions, in order that it may be really the cause of mu torigin of domestic veretochoices, be ruised, and its true source in every instance disclosed, in how many could it be traced to physical disqualifications and their attendant disappoin ments. Excesses are alsways injurious; the gift which, when used in moderation; is frought with advantage, becomes, when abused, the prolific source of mischief, and of greater or less irjury to the constitution and vital powers.

The particular excesses, on the nature and consequences of which this Treatise projesses to dilate, are productive of greater misery to the human trame than any other to which it is subject.

This Work contains an accurate and complete account of the Anatomy and Physiology of the Reproductive Organs, and of their relative conditions to health and disease. Nor are these the sole condense to form of the Anatomy and of their relative conditions to the work: the means of secape, as well as the nature of the danges, are pointed suit in clear and intelligible language.
