

ENEMY BREAKS WITH RUSSIA

Suspend Negotiations Rather Than Move to Stockholm

British Opinion in Favor of Premier's Speech

ANOTHER PAGE OF WAR TRAGEDY IS BEING WRITTEN UPON THAT SECTION OF FRONT BEHIND THE LINES HELD BY CANADIANS

READING TO COME TO U.S. Lord Chief Justice of England Will Be Representative of British War Cabinet

PREMIER WINS MORE UNIVERSAL APPROVAL THAN EVER BEFORE, BY LATEST STATEMENT OUTLINING THE WAR AIMS OF GREAT BRITAIN

Stricken France Fights on With Unbroken Spirit and Unflinching Determination—Population Evacuating Shelled Area in Large Number

Canadian Headquarters in France, via London, Jan. 4.—(Delayed)—(By W. A. Willison, special correspondent of the Canadian Press)—Behind the Canadian front another page is being written in the war tragedy of France and France, knowing it, fights on with unbroken spirit and unflinching determination to the ultimate end of victory.

TOWNS SHELLED Hersin, Coupigny, Bruay and other towns in this district, together with Bethune, many miles behind the line, have been shelled and bombarded with a regularity which threatens to reduce them to ruins, making of Bethune another Arras or Ypres, and of the towns such wastes as are Lievin, Arras and Vimy, within the forward battle area.

The French population has been evacuating the shelled areas while the people remaining are living in sand bagged lower rooms of underground retreats.

At present, fearing bright moonlight, the Hun aeroplanes have been quiet, but two weeks ago his machines were very busy. Raids on Bethune were of almost nightly occurrence, until finally the civilians began leaving in large numbers for places of greater safety, while the city at nightfall seemed deserted, those who remained in it having taken shelter in cellars and dugouts.

In the field there is little of interest to report. Our patrols have been unusually active against the alert enemy, who had been sweeping No Man's Land nightly with machine guns. Two enemy parties were dispersed with casualties, while one of our groups came under heavy enemy "pineapple" bombardment, but escaped without loss. Our artillery has been busy sniping enemy working parties with eighteen pounders, carrying out the usual harassing fire in co-operation with machine guns and trench mortars against the enemy lines of communication.

Healthy Troops Cheerful Another great help to the health of the soldiers is the dental laboratory. Such splendid work has been and is being done by the Canadian dentists that for the last two years every case in the corps has been treated within the corps area. Healthy troops are cheerful troops. The Canadian forces are cheerful—as cheerful as the nine generals from the army corps and divisions who, with a royal prince and an American general were honored guests to-night at what was the real premier of the divisional pantomime, "Aladdin in France."

With the American Army in France, Sunday, Jan. 6.—(By the Associated Press)—Plans for the care of American soldiers include a radical departure from former methods of treating wounded. An announcement made to-day by Surgeon-General Bradley says that a method has been formulated assuring each case continuous treatment from the dressing station on the fighting line to the base hospital.

WEATHER BULLETIN

Toronto, Ont., Jan. 7.—The disturbance which was in Texas on Saturday morning has caused a snow storm in the Great Lakes and has caused a snow fall over the larger part of Ontario. Manitoba is the only province where the temperature is low. Further west the weather is comparatively mild and in Maritime provinces it is very mild. Forecasts. Snow to-day, fresh northwest winds to-night. Tuesday—Fair and colder.

HOME FOR JEWS.

Ottawa, Jan. 7.—A proclamation has been issued by the British Government that Palestine will never be given back to the Turks, declared Dr. Herman Abramovitch of Montreal, speaking at the People's Forum last night. He added: "That the policy of the allied governments will be to make that country a national home for the Jewish race is a proof, if one is needed, that Great Britain entered this war, not for self-aggrandizement, but for the protection of small nations."

HUNS SUSPEND NEGOTIATIONS BECAUSE OF RUSS DEMANDS

Central Powers Would Not Consent to Have Peace Conference Transferred from Brest-Litovsk to Stockholm; Temporarily Suspending Negotiations Rather Than Accede to Russ Proposals

Russian efforts to have Germany acquiesce in the transference of the peace negotiations from Brest-Litovsk, in German control, to the neutral city of Stockholm, apparently have failed. An official statement issued at Berlin says that a German council meeting discussed the Russian demand, after which it was announced the sitting had been temporarily suspended.

The reports from German sources that the fear of intrigue in Stockholm on the part of Entente interests would endanger the work of the plenipotentiaries, is not confirmed from Petrograd. Foreign Minister Trotsky went to Brest-Litovsk in a vain attempt to persuade the Germans to go to Stockholm.

In Germany the political situation is much disturbed over the attitude of the Liberal parties concerning the government's stand on the proposed transference. The Socialists appear to be the stumbling block and there is danger that they may desert the Reichstag majority, making it necessary for the government to reform the party alignments.

Berlin has issued an official denial that General von Ludendorff, first quartermaster-general, has resigned. The general with his chief, Field Marshal von Hindenburg, was present at the crown council which decided to suspend the Russian negotiations.

There has been more lively infantry activities on the western front, but no operations in strength. In Flanders, near Arras and southeast of Verdun, the infantry fighting was liveliest, but little change in position is reported. In France and on the Italian northern front the artillery firing has been above normal at several points.

Lloyd George Makes Notable Speech to Trades Union Delegates

In a Very Frank and Full Speech He Tells Them of the War Aims of the Allies—Destruction of Germany or Austria Not Desired But There Must be Restoration of Belgium and Alsace-Lorraine and Rights of Small Countries Must be Guaranteed as Well as Larger—Independence for Poland—Inhabitants of Africa to Have Form of Government Acceptable to Themselves

London, Jan. 7.—The British Prime Minister, David Lloyd George yesterday set forth Great Britain's war aims more specifically and at greater length before the delegates of the Trades Unions than he had ever done before.

Text of Official Report Following is the full text of the official report of Premier Lloyd George's speech to the Trade Union Conference.

"When the Government invites organized Labor in this country to assist them to maintain the might of their armies in the field, its representatives are entitled to ask that any misgivings and doubts which any of them may have about the purpose to which this precious strength is to be applied should be definitely cleared. And what is true of organized Labor is equally true of all citizens in this country, without regard to grade or avocation."

"When men by the million are being called upon to suffer and die, and vast populations are being subjected to sufferings and privations of war on a scale unprecedented in the history of the world, they are entitled to know for what cause or causes they are making the sacrifice."

"It is only the clearest, greatest, and justest of causes that can justify the continuance, even for one day, of this unspeakable agony of the nations, and we ought to be able to state clearly and definitely not only the principles for which we are fighting, but also their definite and concrete application to the war map of the world."

War's Most Critical Hour

"We have arrived at the most critical hour in this terrible conflict, and before any Government takes a fateful decision as to the conditions under which it ought either to terminate or to continue the struggle, it ought to be satisfied that the conscience of the nation is behind these conditions, for nothing else can sustain the effort, which is necessary to achieve a righteous end to this war."

Divergence of Opinion Must be Expected Upon Some of the Terms Enumerated, But Lloyd George's Statement is Hailed as Eminently Satisfactory

By Courier Leased Wire London, Jan. 7.—If the country's opinion, as is probable on the present case, can be judged by expressions in the London press, it may be said that never before, has Premier Lloyd George won such universal approval as is given in his statement of Saturday concerning Great Britain's war aims. It is recognized that there will be a divergence of opinion on details like colonies, but in all essentials his statement is hailed as eminently satisfactory and the premier is declared to have performed a most important service to the country.

LOOK TO FOE All interest now is focussed on the question as to how the statement will be received in Germany, Austria-Hungary, and, not the least, in Russia, but as yet there is nothing to satisfy this anxious curiosity. With the exception only of the bellicose Morning Post, which, however, is not opposed to the Premier's thesis, the morning newspapers of London join in a chorus of approval.

The Times declares it is the most important state document since the declaration of war. It commands the moderation of the statement which, however, it thinks may disconcert some tried friends and allies and even lend itself to enemy misrepresentation. The Daily Mail says that nothing could be more democratic than the statement and the whole British people are behind it.

The Germans, it declares, will never get better terms. Premier Lloyd George's assertion that he was not speaking for the government, but for the nation and the empire, The Daily Telegraph thinks will remove a load of anxiety from many troubled minds. It says that all the primary essentials for peace terms are included in the statement, which however, it anticipates will draw a cry of incredulity from Germany.

A Landmark The Daily News describes the statement as a landmark in the war "bringing us into the line with our allies generally into line with the policy President Wilson constantly has formulated."

"On these lines," it adds, "the nation can go forward with clear conscience and firm purpose. They are the lines of a clean peace and we must stand by them firmly, unyieldingly. It is a peace of the people."

Spoke For Entente The Daily Express says the premier has spoken the entire mind of the Entente. Germany, it adds, finds itself taken seriously and it is the supreme test of her sincerity. To The Daily Chronicle the careful terms in which the aim of an effective league or nations is formulated, seem among the most valuable parts of the historical utterances.

Victory Essential The view of The Morning Post is that victory is the only war aim which has been conducted the war from the beginning on that principle victory would have been won long ago. It approves of the premier's statement by implication in saying that it assumes that the speech means the country will go on to victory, despite all sacrifices.

A Great Gain The Manchester Guardian says the premier's clear and comprehensive statement of Great Britain's aims is made in the name of the opposition as well as the government, but that the gain would have been still greater had statement been made in the name of the whole western alliance and embodied in a formal declaration as to the authority of which there has been no doubt.

The Guardian believes repudiation of any intention to disrupt the not merely of persisting the declared war aims of the Labor party, but also of discussing in detail with Labor leaders the meaning and intention of that declaration. (Continued on Page 7.)

THE MERCHANTS CORNER

Advertising makes the small town merchant rich as well as it does the merchandiser of the larger city. H. C. Larimer lives in Charleston, Iowa, a town of 4,000 population. When he began business he decided that, with advertising, he could sell goods within a radius of twenty-five miles. He was told it was impossible—but he proved that his estimate was correct. He was lavish in his use of newspaper advertising. He succeeded so very well that manufacturers sent men out to investigate his method of selling.

ays

lasses. But, apart from the absence of a good reason for them. It is a well-known fact that many feminine beauties are the result of relief. Relieving the head, the examination and we Harvey Optician. Phone 1479. Open Tuesday and Wednesday.

CANADIAN NORTH WEST REGULATIONS of a family, or any male, who was at the time of the present war, and has to be a British subject in an allied or neutral country a quarter-section of land in Manitoba, Alberta, Applicant must be at Dominion Lands Agency for District. Entry made on certain conditions residence upon land in each of three years a homestead may be secured as to $3.00 per acre. Duties in each of three years homestead patent and extra. They obtain pre-emption as homestead patent. Obtaining homestead patent secure a pre-emption, homestead in certain cases in each of three years, and erect a house worth $100.00. Duties on land in each of three years may count time of term laborers in Canada residence duties under the Act. On Lands are advertised by returned soldiers who have been housed, receive one day prior to entry at local Agency (Sub-Agency). Discharge presented to Agent. W. W. COLE, Minister of the Interior. Publications of this Act not to be paid for.

British Sailors' Fund Committee to the Patriotic support this worthy cause. A letter from a patriotic cause. The fact that the British Navy and take this opportunity in a small way. The cause can be left with the EXPOSITOR, COOK, or Treasurer.

on's Motor Transfer and Baggage

Assure you of the best Service. Office: 51 Text Garage. Residence 1251.

Wanted. Various departments, mill, good wages. Previous experience necessary. The Watson Co., Ltd.

Bailiff Sale

By virtue of a Bill of Sale, Wm. T. Brackenbury vs. Chas. J. Mitchell, the following goods and chattels will be sold on the premises, 27 Dalhousie street, on Thursday, Jan. 10th, 1918:

1 safe, made by Gray; 1 counter show case; 3 gas stoves; 1 roller top desk; 1 desk chair; 2 common chairs; 1 plated tea-pot; 1 plated card stand; 1128 spoons, knives and forks.

Gas engine (12 horse power) made by Gould, Shapley and Muir.

1 drill; 3 polishers; 1 extra polishers; 1 vice bench; 1 hand truck; a number of vats; 1 burnisher; a number of buffer wheels; 2005 balls; all shaft hangers, and belts on the hereinafter mentioned premises; 1 electric generator; distributor; together with all goods, chattels and effects of every kind, nature and description whatsoever in and upon and around the hereinafter mentioned premises where the said parties of the First part carried on business in the said City of Brantford and belonging to them the said parties of the First part.

Together with all book accounts now due, owing by any and all persons whomsoever, to the said parties of the First part.

Together with all the money due on work now being done by the said parties of the First part for any person or persons or Corporation or Corporations, it being the intention that all work and labor done by the said parties of the First part on any work now in their possession shall pass by these presents to the said parties of the Second part, and that they shall have the full and absolute benefit of the same.

S. P. FITCHER, Auctioneer.
J. M. DYCKMAN, Bailiff.

Cook's Cotton Root Compound.
A safe, reliable, regulating medicine. Sold in three doz. of 50c. No. 1, $1.25; No. 2, $1.50; No. 3, 75c. per box. Contains all druggists, or send prepaid receipt of price. Pamphlet, "Address: THE COOK MEDICINE CO., TORONTO, ONT. (Formerly Windsor.)"

Notice of Sitting of Commission

The Hon. Mr. Justice Hodgins, Commissioner appointed by the Ontario Government to enquire into and report upon the care of the feeble minded and the extent to which venereal disease prevails and affects present conditions, as well as other matters covered by the Commission, will hold a sitting as such Commissioner at the Parliament Buildings, Toronto, on Monday, 14th January, 1918, at the hour of 11 o'clock a.m.

All parties who desire to be present at this enquiry to give evidence are requested to be present so that future appointments may be then arranged for.
Dated, Toronto, January 4th, 1918.

IRISH-AMERICAN HONORED BY KING Lt. Patrick O'Brien of San Francisco Escaped From Germany

Irish Take Two...
St. John, N.B., Jan. 7.—After escaping from Germany and making his way to Holland, Lieut. Patrick O'Brien, of San Francisco, was taken before King George, to whom he related his experiences. Lieut. O'Brien reached here recently with a number of returned soldiers.

Lieut. O'Brien is a native of San Francisco and at the outbreak of the war he went to London that he might get to the front without delay. He joined the air service and one morning was sent up over the German lines to take photographs. He was attacked by two German machines, shot through the throat and forced to surrender. He says he was treated well. After recovering from his wounds, he was transferred to a prison camp, but just as the train was about to leave a station, he made his escape and was seventy-two days getting into Holland. In Holland he was given clothing and sent to England, where he reported to the intelligence office. When the King heard of his experience, he sent for him and conversed with him for fifty-two minutes.

The first tank driver to return from the battlefield has reached here in the person of G. H. Merrick, of Ottawa. Driver Merrick took part in the big tank offensive at Cambrai. He is a member of the Imperial Army.

"I endeavored to enlist in the Canadian army at the outbreak of the war," he told reporters, "but they refused to take me owing to my lack of height. I applied to the Imperial army and they accepted me. It was my luck to become a tank driver in France, and I was in practically every battle in which the tanks participated. In the big drive at Cambrai I was at the wheel, and we certainly did take the Germans by surprise."
Among the officers returning was Lieut. G. Earle Logan, of St. John, who had twice been reported dead, and whose obituary had been printed in the St. John papers. During the early fall, Lieut. Logan was officially reported dead from the effects of gas and gunshot wounds. This report was followed by a cable from the officer himself, saying he had been admitted to hospital, but was on the way to recovery. Later, his name again appeared in the official casualty list as having died of wounds.
Lieut. Nasmyth of the flying corps is a Canadian, who went to England as a member of an infantry

FOOD SITUATION GRAVE IN EUROPE

Described as Critical in Both England and France

MORE ACUTE IN ITALY
Only Ground for Optimism is That Conditions are Worse in Germany

Washington, Jan. 6.—The food situation in the allied countries of Europe is graver than it has been at any time since the beginning of the war and is giving American Government officials deep concern. Official reports picture extreme food shortages in England, France and Italy.

The fact that conditions in Germany and Austria are far worse off in view of the grounds for optimism in England and France.

In England and France the situation is described as critical in a cablegram from Lord Rhonda, the British Food Controller, which concluded with these words:

"I view the situation with grave anxiety."
Yesterday a cablegram from the French Government said that the wheat crop had been requisitioned so that the bread ration would be cut to allow only seven ounces of bread daily to all persons except the very poor and those doing hard manual labor. In Italy conditions are not as good perhaps, as in either England or France.

Compulsory rationing will be started in Great Britain immediately with meats the first commodity to be put under control. Distribution of butter and margarine will be taken in hand next, and other foods will be added as they become scarce. All of the principal foodstuffs will be rationed by April.

"I have repeatedly said in public and private that there is no reason for immediate alarm, although there is every reason for strict economy and pecuniary measures," said Lord Rhonda's message. These statements in some instances have been twisted into a declaration, that there is plenty of food in England and France.

"The food position in this country, and I understand in France also, can, without exaggeration be described as critical and anxious. As I am now unable to avoid compulsory rationing, I fear it will have to come with long queues of people awaiting in the severe weather in practically every town in England for the daily necessities of life."

Compulsory control of foodstuffs in England, France and Italy was insisted on by the American delegates to the Paris conference and was promised at that time.

battalion and after being wounded in the second battle of Ypres secured the opportunity to qualify for the aviation service and has since been engaged in that. He has not been wounded, but it is on a furlough to allow him to attend to urgent private business in Hamilton, Ontario. He has participated in several air battles and says that the British air raids on German positions in Belgium and even in the fatherland itself, have already produced much greater results than have been reported. The intelligence department of the Entente Allies is superior to that of Germany, he says, the French aviators having many times proved themselves master of the Germans in the air.

"RETURN TO CHRIST," SAYS THE PONTIFF

Pope Voices Protest Against Foe Raids on Open Cities

Rome, Jan. 6.—In thanking the Roman hierarchy to-day for their Christmas and New Year's greetings, Pope Benedict expressed his appreciation that the nobility had endorsed "our words which we have recently invited the peoples of the world to hasten to the end of the frightful mistourne which has afflicted the world for more than three years."
"We must return to Christ," his Holiness added, "in order once more to enjoy the benefits of civilization."
The Pontiff said the road whereby to return to Christ was that of justice and love. He expressed satisfaction that the nobility had joined with the Holy See in condemning the recent air raids, which were against the rights of man. The form of warfare which is used against undefended cities without bringing military results, and which causes victims among non-combatants, besides damaging churches and art treasures, thus increasing national hatreds.

ACT C. CHELD
By Courier Leased Wire
Washington, Jan. 7.—The selective service act was to-day upheld as constitutional by the Supreme Court. The Government's contention that the power given Congress to declare war includes power to compel citizens to render military service, both at home and abroad, was sustained by the Court.

HUNS RECOGNIZE FINNS.
By Courier Leased Wire
Amsterdam, Jan. 7.—Germany has recognized the Finnish republic.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

Local News

SYRUP SAILING.

A remarkable flurry in the sale of corn syrup has occurred within the past few days. Last week the price of this commodity declined one-half per cent. per pound, but early this morning it was announced that the former price was again the rule, and one prominent local grocer gave it as his opinion that this product would probably soon experience another advance.

STORY HOUR.

Children the world over are known for their interest in animals, and it is to gratify that interest, or rather stimulate it, that the matter of "Bear Stories," retold from the St. Nicholas Magazine, will be related to the children at the story hour at the Public Library to-morrow afternoon.

SEPARATE SCHOOLS.

The two separate schools of the city, St. Mary's and St. Basil's, re-opened after seven days' holidays this morning with a good attendance. Whether they will remain open, or will be forced to close, depends solely on the fuel situation.

HAMILTON PRINTERS.

Although the five years' agreement between the master printers and the typographical and printing pressmen's unions expired on January 1, no agreement has yet been come to between the parties. After considerable discussion the masters agreed to offer a raise of 20 per cent. all round, and they are now awaiting the acceptance of this offer by the men—Hamilton Herald.

POLICE COURT.

Emil and Simon Cempura, foreigners, could not agree. Recently these two countrymen engaged in a rather intimate conversation that grew increasingly more personal and finally became so animated, that Emil threatened dire punishment to Simon if the latter did not desist from attempting to force his opinions on others. Simon complained to the police, and in the court this morning it transpired that Simon also disapproved of certain qualities in the character of Emil that gave to the latter a distinct dislike for work. Emil was warned to cease using threats in language, and another charge of not working was dropped. Charles Sinden has finally squared his debt with Mrs. Daisy Griffin, his landlady, and after paying the costs of court, the charge of non-payment of board bill, that has rested opposite his name in the Police Court annals for some time, was dropped.

SUGAR DECLINES AGAIN.

A further reduction of 30c per hundred pounds has been made by the Canada Sugar Refining Company and 50c by the St. Lawrence Refinery during the week, which now makes the total decline of one-half cent. per pound within the past month by these two refiners. The other refiners have not yet followed, and it is expected that they will do so in the near future. Some stocks of raw sugars purchased previous to coming of new crop Cuban raw sugars which are now obtainable at approximately 1c below prices that were paid for the old crop.

HAMILTONIANS HUFFED

As Hamilton canvassers for Victory Loans complained about the remuneration for that work, so are some of the men who acted as enumerators in the Hamilton City, entering protests over the treatment accorded them. Here, there has been no such experience. In the riding of Westbrook is forwarding a statement to Ottawa either to-day or to-morrow which states that this morning the enumerators and the enumerators who compiled the lists in that riding will be paid for their work. The men were allowed $4 per day, and were given six days to cover the territory allotted to them.

SOAP SOARING.

Toilet soaps within six months will be exceedingly difficult to obtain, according to a local druggist, who stated this morning that advances in price might be expected owing to the ever-decreasing supply of olive oil, an important ingredient in this household commodity. It is now impossible, stated this dispenser of drugs, to import olive oil, as all the available supply in Europe had been purchased by the British Government. The case is then reduced to using up the supply on hand, and only a small proportion of the amount needed in Canada and the United States is manufactured in this continent.

PRICE OF START DROPS.

Manufacturers of cornstarch and laundry starch have reduced the price of these commodities by 1c per pound during the week. Through the raising of the embargo on corn flour, and the prospect of getting heavier supplies due to the big crop which was produced in that country, makers of these corn products have been induced to lower the price. Millers of cornmeal, on the other hand, have advanced the price of this commodity 1c per pound during the week, which now makes the wholesale price in five-bag lots $7.50 per 98-lb. bag. It is stated that the corn which is being shipped into this country from the United States has to be kiln-dried before it is usable. So much of the corn was soggy in nature that it was a resort to this method of drying it for shipment. Even when treated in this manner the content of the cornmeal product is low as much of the kernel is not available.

MARKETS

Dairy Products

Butter, creamery . . . 50 0.50
Butter 50 0.50
Cheese, per lb 28 0.30
Eggs 69 0.65
Honey, comb 39 0.35
Honey, pail, 5 lbs. 1.15 1.15
Honey, pail, 1 lb. 2.25 2.25

Grain

Baled Hay 13 00 14 00
Hay 13 00 14 00
Oats 70 0.70
Rye 1.60 1.60
Straw, baled 7.00 7.00
Wheat 2.10 2.10
Barley 1.00 1.00

Vegetables

Beans, quart 25 0.30
Cabbage, dozen 50 1.00
Carrots, basket 40 0.40
Onions, basket 40 0.50
Celery 05 0.07
Onions, bushel 1.00 1.50
Onions, bag 50 2.00
Potatoes, bus. 1.50 1.75
Potatoes, basket 65 0.70
Potatoes, bag 2.50 2.50
Turnips, bushel 40 0.50

Meats

Bacon, back trim . . . 48 0.50
Bacon, back 45 0.45
Beef, boiling, lb. 15 0.20
Beef heart, each 25 0.50
Beef, roast, lb. 16 0.25
Beef, hinds 17 0.19
Chickens, dressed 75 1.50
Ducks 1.25 1.75
Geese 3.00 3.00
Chickens, live 75 1.00
Dry salt pork, lb. 30 0.35
Fresh Pork carcasses . . . 21 0.24
Sausages, pork 30 0.30
Smoked shoulder, lb. 35 0.35
Veal, lb. 25 0.30
Lamb 30 0.35
Sausages, beef 20 0.20
Sausages, pork 28 0.28
Pickers, pig 15 0.15
Pork kidneys, lb. 18 0.18
Lamb 30 0.35
Pork kidneys 18 0.18
Lamb 30 0.35
Sausages, beef 20 0.20
Sausages, pork 28 0.28
Pickers, pig 15 0.15
Pork kidneys, lb. 18 0.18
Lamb 30 0.35

Fish

Hallbut, steak, lb. 20 0.30
Kippers, herrings, pr. 10 0.25
Salmon trout, lb. 23 0.25
Salmon, sea 25 0.25
Mixed fish 10 0.12
Herring, fresh 10 0.15
Haddock 15 0.18
Pickers, pig 15 0.15
Smoked shoulder, lb. 35 0.35
Veal, lb. 25 0.30
Lamb, carcass 25 0.30

TORONTO MARKETS.
By Courier Leased Wire
Toronto, Jan. 7.—The market was steady all round this morning. Prices medium. Good demand for bulls. Receipts 121 cars, 2,540 cattle; 1,270 hogs; 94 sheep; 198 calves.

CHICAGO LIVE STOCK.

By Courier Leased Wire
Chicago, Jan. 7.—Cattle—Receipts 4,000; market steady. Steers, $6.75 to $11.50; stockers and feeders, $6.75 to $11.50; cows and heifers, $5.50 to $11.50; calves, $8.50 to $15.75.
Hogs—Receipts, 30,000; market, dull, 15c. High lights, $18.75 to $15.70; mixed, $16.05 to $16.70; heavy, $16 to $16.65; rough, $16 to $16.20; pigs, $12.25 to $15.30; bulk sales, $16.20 to $16.95.
Sheep—Receipts, 10,000; market, strong; wethers, $9.50 to $13.25; lambs, $13.50 to $17.30.

TORONTO CATTLE MARKET

By Courier Leased Wire
Toronto, Jan. 7.—Export cattle, choice $10.00 to $10.50; bulls $9.00 to $10.25; Butcher cattle, choice $10.50 to $11.50; medium $7.50 to $8.00; common $6.25 to $6.75. Butcher cows, choice $8.75 to $10.00; medium $7.50 to $8.25; canners $5.25 to $5.75; bulls $7.50 to $8; Stockers, choice $7.75 to $8.75; light $6.50 to $7.00; Milkers, choice, each $90.00 to $130.00; Springers $90.00 to $130.00; Sheep, ewes $12 to $14.00; Bucks and culls $7.50 to $9.50; Lambs $18.00 to $18.50; Hogs, fed and watered $18.25 to $18.75; Calves $18.00 to $18.00.

BUFFALO MARKETS

By Courier Leased Wire
East Buffalo Jan. 7.—Cattle, receipts 28,000; steady; prime steers, $12.50 to $14.50; shipping steers, $11.75 to $13; butchers, $10.00 to $12.25; yearlings, $10.50 to $12.50; heifers $8 to $11.50; cows $4.50 to $10.25; bulls $5.50 to $9.75; stockers and feeders $6.50 to $10.50; fresh cows and springers $5 to $10.
Calves, receipts 1,200; steady $7 to $17.50.
Hogs, receipts 12,000; easy to steady; heavy $17.15 to $17.25; mixed and yorkers $17.10 to $17.15; light yorkers and pigs $16.50 to $16.75; roughs $15.90 to $16.15; stags $14 to $15.
Sheep and lambs—Receipts 5,000, active and strong. Lambs $13.00 to $18.50; yearlings $12 to $16; others unchanged.

THROUGH GERMAN EYES.

(Associated Press.)
Amsterdam, Jan. 7.—A handful of captured American soldiers under cross-questioning by German officers told a crowd of grinning Germans that a picture of the last issue of "World in Pictures," an illustrated weekly printed in ten languages and distributed through-out the world by the German Government's propaganda department. Another picture shows the prisoners riding in a motor lorry under heavy guard. This is entitled "American Prisoners arriving in the German front giving the impression that the twelve are only a small section of a large number."

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

1-9-1-8

WE WISH OUR CUSTOMERS AGAIN A HAPPY AND PROSPEROUS NEW YEAR

This old and popular agency has had the best year in real estate that we have enjoyed since 1913. We have sold quite a number of large properties during the year. During the last week or two we have disposed of Residence, 147 Sheridan St., to Mr. W. E. Hafl.

Residence, 35 Webling St., to Mr. J. C. Deming.
Residence, 155-157 Murray, to Mr. R. A. Hartley.
Residence, 132 William St., to Mr. E. L. Hall

We are closing out the year in a fine way and hope to make 1918 a still better year.

We have had a much better year in pianos, organs and sewing machines, and our first year in Pathe Phonos is encouraging. We have now a large stock, which we will sell at reasonable prices. Call and see our goods.

S. G. Read & Son Limited

Bell phone 75. 129 Colborne St. Automatic 65

CANADIAN PACIFIC

CALIFORNIA

Offers Unsurpassed Attractions for Warm Sea Bathing, Golf, Tarpon Fishing, Etc.

Homelike, Moderate-Priced Resorts as Well as The More Palatial Hotels

CHOICE OF ROUTES

See that at least one portion of your ticket reads
Via Canadian Pacific Rockied'

Particulars from Canadian Pacific Ticket Agents, or W. B. Howard, District Passenger Agent, Toronto.

BRITISH BOMBED ENEMY AIRDROME

Birdman Continue Activities Against German Positions on West Front

By Courier Leased Wire
London, Jan. 7.—British aviators have dropped large quantities of bombs on the Ramengies-Chin airdrome in Belgium and in the vicinity of Metz, Lorraine. Bombs were dropped on the railroad station at Conflans, on the sidings northwest of Metz, and on the Conzelles station, southeast of Metz, according to the official statement on aviation activities issued last night. Many hits were secured. An explosion and a fire were caused at Conflans.

British Official.
London, Jan. 7.—There was occasional hostile artillery activity southeast of Messines (Flanders), says to-day's official report.

WOMAN POET DEAD.

By Courier Leased Wire
London, Jan. 6.—Dora Shorter, poet, died in London to-day. She was the daughter of George Sigeron, the biologist and married Clement K. Shorter, editor of The Sphere.

You May Find It In Stocking

Cincinnati authority says your troublesome corns just loosen and fall off

Sore corns, hard corns, soft corns or corns between the toes just loosen in their sockets and fall off the next day if you will apply directly upon the corn a few drops of a drug called freezezone, says a Cincinnati authority.

You merely put a drop or two of this freezezone on the tender, touchy corn to-day and instantly the corn stops hurting, then to-morrow sometime you may find the old torturous pest somewhere in your stocking, having fallen off entirely without a particle of soreness, pain or irritation. The skin surrounding the corn beneath the former corn will be as healthy, pink and smooth as the palm of your hand.

A quarter ounce of freezezone is sufficient to rid one's feet of every corn and callus, and any druggist will charge but a few cents for it. It is a compound made from ether.

POTATOES MUST NOT GO HIGHER

Food Controller Notifies Dealers—He May Fix the Profit, Even Prices

Ottawa, Jan. 4.—Higher prices for potatoes than those now prevailing will not be permitted. The Food Controller is sending a letter to this effect to all wholesale handlers of potatoes, stating that any attempt to secure higher prices will be dealt with promptly. If retail dealers should attempt to charge an unreasonable profit on potatoes, the Food Controller is prepared to fix the margin of profit and if necessary to fix maximum prices. In a statement issued to-night, Mr. Hanna said a recent survey of the situation by this office indicates that there is still a large supply of potatoes in the hands of the growers and dealers, to meet a continuous and heavy demand until the 1918 crop will be available. All handlers of potatoes should understand the situation clearly and realize that special effort to keep the public plentifully supplied at reasonable prices is necessary in order that no part of the large crop of the past season be wasted. Nothing can be gained by withholding supplies from the market, because higher prices will not be permitted, and any attempt in that direction will be dealt with at once by the Food Controller. The trend of the market is now towards lower prices notwithstanding the severe weather which has made the movement of potatoes difficult. When spring opens it is anticipated that much of the surplus will come on the market.

"In order to prevent possible loss later in the season, the winter movement of potatoes must be stimulated by every possible means. Potatoes are the only food of which Canada has a large surplus not in great demand for export. No effort should be spared therefore, to bring within easy reach of every family in the Dominion all the potatoes which can be eaten."

"In order to facilitate the movement of potatoes and other food commodities an order has already been issued requiring prompt unloading of cars and providing a heavy penalty for infraction of this regulation."

BAN JOHNSON SNOWBOUND.

By Courier Leased Wire
Cincinnati, Jan. 7.—While baseball was the chief topic discussed in the hotel lobbies here to-day, yet the annual meeting of the National Baseball Commission has been postponed until to-morrow, or until President Johnson of the American League can reach this city from snowbound Chicago.

AUSTRIAN SOCIALIST DEAD

By Courier Leased Wire
Amsterdam, Jan. 7.—The death of Engelbert Pernerstorfer, the Austrian Socialist leader, is announced in a dispatch from Vienna.

FOR SALE

That beautiful nine-roomed house with all conveniences. No. 242 Darling Street, for sale at a bargain.

For Sale—Good red brick cottage six rooms, electric lights, right on the car line, No. 27 Webling street.

For Sale—Six-roomed red brick cottage on Elgin street; very large lot.

For further particulars apply to
S. P. FITCHER & SON
43 MARKET STREET
Real Estate and Auctioneer
Issuer of Marriage Licenses

J. T. BURROWS

The Mover
Carting, Teaming
Storage
Special Piano Hoisting Machinery

Office—124 Dalhousie Street
Phone 865
Residence—236 West St.
Phone 688

THE GIBSON COAL Co.

D. L. & W. Scranton Coal

OFFICES:
154 Clarence St.
150 Dalhousie St.
52 Erie Ave.

MR. J. S. DOWLING Is a Candidate for Mayor

Our Clients are advised that although our
MR. J. S. DOWLING
Is a Candidate for Mayor
the business of this firm will be carried on without interruption or any neglect on our part. Some people hold that business men should not waste their time in municipal affairs but ALD. DOWLING thinks every responsible citizen owes a portion of his time and ability to his home city and also thinks to be the CHIEF MAGISTRATE of your city is the highest reward for services faithfully rendered.

BUSINESS AS USUAL

J. S. Dowling & Co. Limited
86 DALHOUSIE ST.
Office Phone 1276 and 1278, Auto 180
Residing Phone 128

T.H. & B. Railway

(Automatic Block Signals)
The Best Route to
BUFFALO, ROCHESTER, SYRACUSE, ALBANY, NEW YORK, PHILADELPHIA, WASHINGTON, BOSTON, CLEVELAND, PITTSBURG
Through Sleepers—Hamilton to New York, Boston; also New York, Boston to Hamilton.

H. C. THOMAS, Agent, Phone 110.
G. C. MARTIN, G. E. A., Hamilton, TOYS
That will appeal to the children and your purse, at J. W. Burgess, 44

GRAND TRUNK RAILWAY CHANGE IN TRAIN SERVICE

Effective January 6th, 1918, reductions and alterations will be made in the train service.
For particulars apply to ticket agents.

THE COURIER

Published by The Brantford Courier Limited, every afternoon, at Dalhousie Street, Brantford, Canada. Subscription rates: By carrier $4 a year; by mail to British possessions and the United States, $5 per annum.

SEMI-WEEKLY COURIER—Published on Tuesday and Thursday mornings, at $1 per year, payable in advance. To the United States 50 cents extra for postage. Toronto Office: Queen City Chambers, 52 Church Street, E. S. Smallpiece, Representative, Chicago Office, 145 Marquette Bldg., Robt. E. Douglas, Representative. Editorial . . . 276 Night . . . 452 Business . . . 139 Night . . . 582

Monday, Jan. 7th, 1918.

THE SITUATION

The speech of Lloyd George at present constitutes the great item of interest in connection with the war. It has received the commendation of the Labor men, to whom it was addressed, and the French papers laud the deliverance in eulogistic terms. Without any doubt it will be received with equal enthusiasm in all other quarters, and it should do much to help steady matters in Russia. The Teutons have broken off their peace negotiations with the latter country, and the request to Stockholm is given as the reason. No one will believe that it is the true one. The course taken has undoubtedly resulted from the fact that the Muscovites did not prove as pliable as expected. Meanwhile, Germany has gained much of value by reason of the suspension of hostilities on the Eastern front.

There has been quite a lot of activity in the Western area, but nothing of major importance. The enemy made quite a heavy attack on the British lines near Bullecourt, and succeeded in taking an advanced British position. They were repulsed with heavy losses at other points on the line, and the lost ground was afterwards retaken. On the French front, there have also been a number of clashes, without gains for the Teutons.

Washington considers that the food conditions of the Allies, Great Britain included, are more serious than supposed, and the U. S. authorities are redoubling their efforts to help. Canada also should realize the necessities of the case as never before.

Italy has taken drastic steps to secure more men, and all those from eighteen to forty-four, previously exempted for defects, will again be reported for examination. It is hoped to thus add six hundred thousand to the colors.

The rumored revolt of 25,000 German soldiers is most important if true.

QUEBEC ONCE MORE

As a war measure, the Dominion Government announced a couple of days ago that future borrowings of money in Canada by issues of bonds must be subject to Government approval. As the Ottawa Journal-Press points out the measure is a sensible one, and no likelihood of hardship under it exists to anybody, for the Government would assuredly not interfere with any reasonable borrowing. But Quebec kicks. The Quebec premier, won't have it. He says that the Dominion Government has no business to make such a move. He declares that Quebec will defy the order.

This is only the usual story. After Quebec had fallen down fast in the matter of giving valentines to the Canadian army, somebody down there raised a cry in excuse that recruiting had not been handled well in that province. This bosh was seized on and promulgated by some newspapers and speakers in the English-speaking provinces which were ready to use any sort of mud wherewith to pelt the Borden Government. It was poor stuff. If the French-Canadians are Canadians, what more should they ask than that Canadians should be content to be Canadians rather than racialists?

What wrong did it do to French-Canadians if recruiting officers in the province were simply Canadians, and not all French-Canadians?

The cry (raised a year or two after it became notorious that Quebec had failed in volunteering) that recruiting had not been handled with special regard to French-Canadian susceptibilities, was a poor after thought to excuse the contemptible frame of mind which racialism had long promoted in the province; and that this was so was illustrated by everything in connection with the war, other than recruiting. Quebec fell down not merely in recruiting but in everything—in the Patriotic Fund, the Red Cross, the war loans, the Belgian and other relief funds—and in some of them before anybody raised the whimper, or thought of it, that in Quebec "recruiting was mismanaged."

And now a further illustration is afforded of the Quebec spirit by the declaration of the premier of that province that a wise war measure of the Dominion Government will be defied by Quebec, for no

Hot Water Bottles!

of guaranteed quality at the lowest prices Guaranteed One Year $1.25 Guaranteed Two Years $1.75

116-118 Colborne reason except a jealous claim of autonomy which no other province thinks it necessary or desirable to raise.

THE MOMENTOUS SPEECH OF LLOYD GEORGE.

In all history it has fallen to the lot of very few men indeed to make a more momentous speech than that which the Premier of Great Britain delivered on Saturday. It was a most appropriate incident also that it should have been addressed to delegates—three hundred in number—of British Trade Unions, for the industrial clauses of the Old Land in men and output have done their part in a most magnificent way.

Lloyd George rose to the occasion as he always does. His deliverance was made to the world on behalf of the allies and he made it abundantly clear that he spoke with the full approval of all of them and had consulted with representatives of all classes in Great Britain and also those of the overseas Dominions. His remarks throughout were characterized by a fitting recognition of the deep solemnity of the occasion and he did not once resort to the invective of which he is such a master—the occasion was too pregnant with serious import for anything but an earnest presentation of the issues and the determination of John Bull and his associates. He first demonstrated that there must be the most just of causes to warrant the continuance "even for a day of this unspeakable agony of nations" and then proceeded in unrivalled fashion to demonstrate the justice of the allied cause. He made it equally clear that the destruction of Germany and her associates was not desired, but simply the affirmation of the fact that Prussian aggrandizement at the expense and enslavement of other peoples could not and would not be tolerated. The principles he defined were the complete restoration of Belgium, reparations for devastated towns and cities, the restoration of Alsace-Lorraine to France, an independent Poland, neutralization of the Dardanelles, separate national conditions for Armenia, Arabia, Palestine, Mesopotamia, and Syria, the inhabitants of African colonies to be placed under an administration acceptable to themselves, recognition of the rights of small countries equally with those of great and the creation of an international organization to limit armaments and diminish the probability of war.

The Teutons will thus once more be made to realize that they cannot successfully sidestep the consequences of their vandal attempt to disrupt the world for their own purposes and that there will be no let-up in the struggle until the cause of right and justice and human liberty has been completely and thoroughly vindicated.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

As far as the four candidates for the chair with the coat of arms are concerned, it is a case of Mayor or may not.

Lloyd George has served up a nice little dose for the Hohenzollern outfit to swallow. An esteemed contemporary hears an article, "Quebec Again." Well, is it? Regina Leader: One of the pressing duties to which Union Government must early devote its attention is the finding of an adequate supply of farm labor. The Leader believes that every ex-farmer now living in cities and towns and engaged in other occupations should be drafted

Special Values in Men's Furnishing Section—Visit the Dpt.

OGILVIE, LOCHEAD & CO.

For Bargains, Come to the Ready-to-Wear Department

A Clearance of Surplus Winter Apparel

Winter Coats at $21.95 REGULAR $30.00 VALUES

Warm, well made Coats, all the newest styles and materials; consisting of a dozen new samples, with large plush collars, fancy belts and button trimmed velour, Whitney and Beaver Coats in colors, navy, black, brown, green and burgundy.

Women's and Misses' Serge Dresses $6.95 REGULAR $10.00 VALUE

Made in many different styles, with normal or high waist line, pockets, large fancy collars and belts; in colors of black, navy and copen; values up to $10.00; Sale price $6.95

Winter Coats at $14.95 REGULAR $25.00 VALUES

All this season's Coats, made up in the smartest styles; materials are tweeds, zebeline, whitney, and smooth finished cloths; in colors of black, brown, green, burgundy and tweeds.

Winter Coats at $11.95 REGULAR $19.00 VALUES

All new Coats, made from Velour, Plush, Tweeds, Chinilla, Zebeline Cloths, made with large collars and pockets; nicely trimmed with plush to match.

A Few More of Those Lovely Crepe-de-Chene Waists Which Were $5.00—FOR $3.50

Very dainty waists, made of good quality Crepe de Chine; colors, maize, white and flesh; large collars; Saturday Sale price, $3.50

Taffetine Underskirts Now $2.50 Taffetine Petticoats, in colors, Old Rose, black and green; worth regular $3.50; Sale price $2.50

Ladies' Skirts $3.50 Ladies Heavy Wool Serge Skirts in navy and black; with fancy pockets; gathered $3.50

$14 Serge Dresses $9.75

Made in the new coat styles, with large pockets and belts, collars and cuffs; trimmed with fancy stitching; regular $14.00 values $9.75

Women's Flannelette Gowns For Winter Wear

Women's Comfy White Flannelette Night Gowns for winter wear, in a special sale to-morrow. They are made of good qualities, in generous full sizes, in several different styles, with self frill, lace or tucked trimming, on sale at a big saving to-morrow, at $1.25 $2.25 Children's Flannelette Gowns, ages 2 to 15 yrs., priced at 50c, 60c and 98c

Warm Sweater Coats

Women's Fine Knit, light weight Sweaters, with sailor collar and belt; colors mauve $6.75 and coral; special at $7.00 Women's 3-4 Length Sweater Coats, with cap to match, plain knit with brush wool collar and cuffs; also band of brush wool around bottom; colors, white, coral and copen; $15.00 Very special

Tuck Yourself in Under One of These

Remarkable values are these Comforters; well filled with cotton and covering of silk-line, good colorings and patterns, large bed size.

WHITE WOOL BLANKETS WINTER COMFORT, NOW $9.75 Pr

These Blankets are in clean, soft, deep, cheviot finish, with pink or blue borders, in large size; on sale at $9.75

$17.00 Dresses $12.50

Ladies and Misses' Serge Dresses, made in the full pleated or coat style; others in high waist line, fancy collars and cuffs; touches of colored braiding to match. Colors are navy, black, brown and green; regular $17.00 $12.50 value, at back to the land. This may involve a sacrifice, but what is it compared to the sacrifice involved in being drafted into the army? If Canada approves of the latter, it certainly approves of the former.

OGILVIE, LOCHEAD & CO.

ANOTHER PAGE

Continued from page one permission to adopt it themselves. Plans for the care of the blind include instruction to begin as soon as possible after the wound has been received, experience in other countries having shown that quick treatment and instruction are most valuable. Personal instruction will be continued by the army until the blind reach the United States.

READING TO COME

Continued from page one ting to the understanding in official circles deal mainly with financial and general business matters and he will be relieved of the ordinary ambassadorial functions of handling numerous minor diplomatic negotiations which constitute a large part of the embassy's work. Col. E. D. Swinton, assistant secretary of the war cabinet and one of the originators of the British tank, will accompany the lord chief justice as an attaché. The appointment of Earl Reading as the ambassador is primarily for war purposes, it is said, and probably means that Viscount Reading will not return to the United States as head of the permanent British mission. Lord Northcliffe will continue the active direction in England of the American missions which have just been established in Creve House a spacious old fashioned mansion in the heart of Mayfair. Lord Crewe has loaned the house to the government for the duration of the war. Washington, Jan. 7.—Combination of the three separate functions which have been exercised by as many different agencies, diplomatic, financial and war supplies, is the purpose of the appointment of Earl Reading as British Ambassador in Washington to succeed Sir Cecil Spring-Rice as the situation is understood by Government officials here. Some confusion has followed the independent operations of the Northcliffe-war mission; the technical military and naval attaches bureau and the diplomatic bureaus of the embassy proper. It has been found difficult for these separate commissions and agencies to react their business with the State Department, the War and Navy Departments and the Treasury Department here without overlapping and confusion.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

When Foreign Minister Balfour was in the United States the subject of the re-organization of the business methods of the embassy here was discussed and plans were formed along the line of those about to be executed now for the relief of Sir Cecil Spring-Rice at his own request by an official specially trained in law, business and finance. It was felt that the purely diplomatic business of the embassy could be safely entrusted to the experienced hands of Colville Barclay, the present counselor, that General MacLachlan and Gammage Gaunt could properly continue to handle military and naval matters, especially, and that the finances and business problems could best be handled by the head of the embassy, who at the same time should be responsible for the work of all three branches and have the final voice in the decision of any questions that might arise.

BOOSTING BOOZE.

Manufacturers of two and a half per cent. substitutes for beers, have announced that owing to the conditions in the hop and malt markets, and owing to the increase in other materials used in the manufacture of the beverage, an increase in price had been found necessary. According to a Brewing association representative the new prices becoming effective to-day follows: Lager Beer, per barrel, $9 net cash, an increase of about a dollar a barrel; ale increased 35 cents per barrel; beer and ale will sell per case at: Quarts, $1.90 net cash; pints, $1.40. This is an increase of twenty cents per 24 bottles. Some of the hotelkeepers are in a quandary as to what to do. One hotelman said it would either mean an extra cent per glass for "near" beer and ale, or a smaller glass, if fifty cents remains the price.

PROSPECTS GOOD.

Brantford reports to Bradstreet's that retailers both city and country have now been able to measure up

Always Pay by Cheque If you pay your accounts by cheque on a Royal Loan & Savings Company account, you hold a double receipt. In addition, the balance of your account is secure and earning interest. Cheque Books Supplied. Enquire at Office. The Royal Loan & Savings Co. 38-40 MARKET ST. BRANTFORD

WOOD'S ESCHSCHOLZ'S

Wood's Eschscholz's. The Great English Remedy. Tones and invigorates the whole nervous system, makes new blood, cures all the various forms of Debility, Neuralgia and Rheumatic Pains, Headaches, Stomach Disorders, Indigestion, Nervousness, Loss of Sleep, Irritability of the Bowels, and all other ailments of the Nervous System. One will please, it will cure. Sold by all Druggists or mailed in plain wrapper, 60c per bottle. A 30-day supply mailed free. THE WOOD BROTHERS CO., TORONTO, CAN. (French Edition)

WASH. CASUALTIES.

For the virtually doubling of the British casualties for the week ended over the previous week, when the total was 9,851, the sharp fighting just before New Year's Day in the vicinity of Welsh ridge, in Cambrai front south of Marcinval, may have been largely responsible. It is possible also that belated reports on casualties in the Palestine, Italian and other war theatres may have gone to swell the total considerably.

LOCAL LIBRARY BOARD. The final meeting of the Library Board will be held in the Public Library on Tuesday night. Routine business will constitute the program. NOON DAY CLUB. The first meeting of the Noon Day Club for the year 1918 will be held on Tuesday, Jan. 8th at 12 noon in the Y. M. C. A. This afternoon a good attendance was present and a programme has been arranged for the balance of the season. SUNDAY SERVICE. Yesterday afternoon a service of the Men's noon song service was held in the Y. M. C. A. and a capable and interesting full of hope for the future was given by Honorary George Wedlake. RESIDE IN HAMILTON. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Merly of Brantford, recently moved to Hamilton on a house on the corner of street and Charlton avenue. RETURNED MEN. Four special trains, returned inviolated men on furlough, left St. to-day and last night for various provinces. Many of them are coming to Ontario. GAOL STATISTICS. The quarterly report from C. A. Jones concerning the statistics of the Ontario Gaols, for the quarter ending December 31st, has just been issued. The average daily ration was 104 lbs. The gaol has eleven present time.

NON-ASSESSABLE PROPERTY. Nearly four million of property in the city of Toronto is unassessable, according to a report of C. G. Ludlow, in an assessment amounting to but this includes the unassessable property of Government, municipalities and public institutions. Government property which is not taxed, is approximately $27,750,000, the Public $80,000, and the public assessable property of schools and other public

Three M One needs g One need RIGHT ki One HA RIGHT ki What are your We can help JARV OPTICAL CO Consulting Opt 52 Market Phone 1285 for app

Three M One needs g One need RIGHT ki One HA RIGHT ki What are your We can help JARV OPTICAL CO Consulting Opt 52 Market Phone 1285 for app

OPTICAL CO Consulting Opt 52 Market Phone 1285 for app

Travel Neil

Neil

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS

LIBRARY BOARD.

The final meeting of the 1917 Library Board will be held in the Board room at the Public Library to-morrow night. Routine business will constitute the programme.

NOON DAY CLUB.

The first meeting of the Noon Day Club for the year 1918 was held at the Y. M. C. A. this afternoon. There was a good attendance, and an active programme has been drafted for the balance of the season.

SUNDAY SERVICE.

Yesterday afternoon saw a re-summation of the Men's Sunday afternoon song services at the Y. M. C. A. There was a gratifying attendance and a sensible and inspiring address was given by Honorary President George Wedlake.

RESIDE IN HAMILTON.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Bain, formerly of Brantford, who have recently moved to Hamilton, have taken a house on the corner of Bay street and Charlton avenue. — Hamilton Herald.

RETURNED MEN.

Four special trains, carrying 960 returned invalided men and a few women, left St. John, N.B., today and last night for the upper provinces. Many of the men are coming to Ontario.

GAOL STATISTICS.

The quarterly report of Gaol Governor C. A. Jones contains some interesting statistics. Forty-two prisoners were committed to the gaol during the quarter, and an aggregate of 998 days was spent by that number. The average cost of a prisoner's daily rations was 13 3/4 cents. The gaol has eleven inmates at the present time.

NON-ASSESSABLE PROPERTY.

Nearly four million dollars' worth of property in the city is non-assessable, according to City Assessor A. G. Ludlow. In all the city's assessment amounts to $22,403,595, but this includes the $3,789,850 of unassessable property, including Government, municipal buildings, and public institutions. Dominion Government property in the city, which is not taxed, is valued at approximately $372,750, churches at $500,000, the Public Library at $60,000, and the balance of non-assessable property includes the schools and other public buildings.

Three Men
One needs glasses
One needs the RIGHT kind
One HAS the RIGHT kind

JARVIS OPTICAL CO., Ltd.
Consulting Optician.
52 Market St.

S.S. CONVENTION.

A meeting of the General Executive of the City Sunday School Association was held at Mr. Ranton's home, 21 Wellington street, on Friday evening last, to make arrangements for the annual convention of the association, which will be held in this city on Friday evening, January 6th. Mrs. Bryner of Chicago, one of the International Sunday School workers, will be present as will several of the Provincial workers.

CAPT. BEST SPOKE

Capt. T. F. Best, the well known Y. M. C. A. worker, formerly of this city, delivered three addresses in Kitchener yesterday, giving vivid descriptions of war conditions, which attracted large audiences. In the morning he spoke at Trinity Methodist church, and in the afternoon he addressed the women of the city on their relation to the boys at the front. At a mass meeting in the Grand Theatre, Capt. Best compared conditions at the front during the first two years and the present time. The afternoon and evening meetings were held under the auspices of the Daughters of the Empire and liberal contributions were received for the Halifax sufferers.

ALLES WILL WIN.

Speaking last night to an audience which filled the Park Baptist Church to capacity, Capt. T. F. Best, senior officer of the Y. M. C. A. in France, now campaigning for that organization in Canada, dropped several verbal bombs in the camp of the war pessimists and completely routed old General Gloom regarding the final outcome of the war. The captain turned the war clouds inside out and showed their true nature by declaring that the Allies' chance of winning the war were steadily declining. "Many faint hearts fear that the release of the German troops from the eastern front will mean the defeat of the Allies in the western theatre," he said. "I say, 'if it comes' said the captain, 'and the boys in the trenches say so, for the factor that comes over the factor will they be killed off, and the counter the war will be over'."

BILL TOO INDEPENDENT

It has been figured out why Bill Clymer, former manager of the Toronto baseball club, and one of the most successful managers in the minor leagues, has never reached the big show. According to some of the wire birds, Clymer's failure to be drafted for the major leagues is entirely due to his independence. They do say that Clymer has never asked for a job in baseball and when one is offered to him they say conditions must be just so before he will consent to sign a contract. In other words, Clymer is determined to dictate the policies of any club that he manages rather than turn this responsibility over to the manager. As you know, owners of ball clubs are inclined to be jealous of their prerogatives. — Toronto News.

ROY TRIAL.

Roy Holrum, better known as Paddy Lewis, the boxer, who was one of the gang of four Hamilton young men who were responsible for the thefts at the Lyons and Coghill stores in this city, appeared before Magistrate Jaffe in Hamilton on Saturday and pleaded guilty to five different charges of housebreaking, none of which included the local cases. He denied having participated in two other robberies with which he was charged. He elected to be tried by a higher court and will probably appear next week.

POOL FOOD RESOURCES.

No authoritative announcement is yet available as to any plan which may be considered to pool resources of the Dominion and the United States for the benefit of the Allies. The suggestion has been made in Washington that action along this line should be taken and the matter is one that will engage the attention of the war committee of the cabinet of which Hon. N. W. Rowell is the president at an early date. No concrete proposal, or proposals, has yet been formulated either at Washington or the Dominion capital, but the increasing necessities of the Allies as indicated in recent dispatches received by the food controller from Europe, make apparent the desirability of joint action by the two governments having under their control the biggest supplies of food within a reasonable distance of Great Britain, France and Italy.

TO TOUR U. S.

Capt. G. M. Hanna, late of the 125th battalion, is about to leave for a tour of the United States, during which he will be attached to a recruiting mission.

TRANSFERRED.

This morning's camp orders announce the transfer of Regimental Sergt. Major Jenkins from the 18th Reserve battalion to the C. B. unit that is quartered here for the winter.

BUILDING PERMITS.

A building permit was issued this morning at the office of the city engineer at the city hall to Charles Peters, 193 Park Avenue for the erection of a frame addition to a frame shed, the structure to be used as a garage.

RETURNING HOME.

Mrs. Judson Emmett, Spring St. has received word that her son, Sergt. James Emmett has landed at St. John's on his way home. Sergt. Emmett is a veteran of the 4th battalion, and had the experience of passing through two air raids while wounded in England.

RAIDED REVELLERS.

Two Ruthenians were interrupted in the midst of Bacchanalian revelry by the police in a raid on 23 Durham Street last night at half past ten. Sergt. Wallace, Detective Schuler and P. C. Cobden and Boles participated in the nocturnal visit and the two men taken into the fold were John Romanski and Tom Malczki. They will appear in the police court later in the week charged with having liquor in an unauthorized place.

BIBLE CLASS SOCIAL.

The Bible Class of the Knox Presbyterian Sunday School held a social at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. Merlihan, Aberdeen, on January 4th, which was exceptionally one of the best events in the history of this young school and goes to show what will be accomplished in the new building just about finished. The talents were exceptionally good, some splendid readings, some fine solos and a few brief speeches during the evening. Mr. R. F. Marsh called on Mr. Peter McInnes, the faithful, loyal and earnest teacher of the Bible Class, to come forward and after a neat little address presented him with a handsome Morris chair as a token of appreciation from the class and voted for his untiring efforts and capable work for the last three years and a half. Mr. McInnes was completely taken by surprise. However, he replied very nicely, thanking one and all for the kind gift and urging all present to the great necessity for more prayer in our Sabbath School work, after which refreshments were served round, bringing a very pleasant and happy evening to a close.

LAUNDRY SOAP JUMPS.

The second general advance in the price of laundry soaps during the past month was announced by the manufacturers during the latter part of the week. The more recent increase quoted amounts to 60 cents per case of 100 bars. Manufacturers of all laundry soaps have quite generally advanced the price to the extent of 60 cents per case of one hundred bars. This makes the second advance within the past three weeks and makes a total increase of 10 per cent in the price of soap. With prices of fats and oils of all kinds and manufacturers of soaps have been compelled to pay high prices for them in order to secure them for the making of their products. With prices advanced the price of soap in a wholesale way is now $8.75 per case of one hundred bars. There seems every possibility that prices may be still higher in view of the fact that the supply of oils and fats is likely to decrease still further rather than increase. Some fairly heavy stocks of soap are carried by wholesalers at the present time, and it is possible that the higher prices may not reach the consumer immediately. Those retailers who protected themselves by buying before the recent advance will still be able to sell at prices recently prevailing.

HONOR GOVERNOR-GENERAL.

A delegation of the chiefs of the Six Nations Confederacy of Indians waited upon His Excellency, the Governor-General Saturday in council and in keeping with the traditional custom, renewed the "covenant chain." The chiefs presented the Duke with a suitable address, and with the Wampum belts significant of the position which the King bears to the Mohawks, Senecas, Cayugas, Tuscaroras, Oneidas, Onondagas, and the Thames. The chiefs also advised his Excellency of grievances which the Six Nations have against the Government. They objected to the application of the conscription law and requested that it be not enforced against the Indians on the ground that they already stand as reserved. They also protested against some of the actions taken by the Department of Indian Affairs. His Excellency promised consideration of their complaints.

OH, JOHNNY.

Brantfordites who are shivering in these days of fuel shortage, may gain some consolation in reflecting on their lot, by comparing it with that of John D. Rockefeller, Jr., who has realized during this pan-American shortage of coal, that fuel is sometimes a commodity that money cannot buy. He has been obliged to close his New York home and move into his father's home at Tarrytown, N.Y., because the stand-

Who is Gitz Rice?

He's the Montreal boy of the First Contingent, who after being gassed was made official entertainer for the trenches in Flanders. He has made this splendid descriptive record for us, listed below. Hear it at any 'His Master's Voice' dealer.

- 'His Master's Voice' Records - 53 cents for 10-inch, double-sided. Fun in Flanders - Part 1. Fun in Flanders - Part 2. When We Wind Up the Watch On the Rhine. If You Were the Only Girl in the World and I Were the Only Boy. Two Exquisite Med. Seals. E. W. Jared Down the Mountain Side. The Rainbow of Love.

Berliner Gram-o-phone Company MONTREAL LIMITED 104 Lenoir Street Darwen Piano and Music Company Dalhousie Street Brown's Victrola Store 9 George Street Don't Forget Advertisements for Victrola records, listing various artists like Gitz Rice, Harry Bauer, etc., and their record titles.

Darwen Piano & Music Co. High Class Pianos. MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS. AGENTS FOR VICTROLA. DALHOUSIE STREET.

Brown's Victrola Store 9 George Street.

FROST KING WEATHER STRIP 25c ROLL. The kind that keeps out the cold. KARN'S & CO., Ltd. 156 Colborne Street.

Travelling Goods See Our Assortment of Travelling Goods. Neill Shoe Co. LIMITED

ORANGES HIGH PRICED. There is no improvement in the situation in the orange market, and it has been intimated that the price is likely to be greatly advanced in the near future. The supply this year has been decidedly limited and this in a large measure accounts for the high prices that have prevailed. In a wholesale way California oranges were quoted from $4.50 to $5 per case. Some Mexican oranges are still on sale by wholesalers at $3.25 to $3.50 per case. Florida navel oranges range from $4.50 to $5 per box for the large sizes. Florida navel oranges are quoted at $3.25 to $3.50 per box. Jamaica grapefruit ranged in price from $4 to $5 per case. In a retail way oranges are selling from 30c to 60c per dozen, while grapefruit range in price from 4c to 10c each.

CLAIM YOUR GOODS. Goods left at the Brantford Planting Co. must be reclaimed before Jan. 10, on which date a sale of the firm effects will take place. Galt John Dryden of C.J. Mitchell to recover. 22 Executed For Espionage

PURITY FLOUR. Every day is PURITY FLOUR DAY with cooks who are satisfied with nothing less than the flakiest pastry and finest bread. MORE BREAD and BETTER BREAD.

Vertical advertisements on the far left edge of the page, including 'arel', '95', 'Under', 'KETS', 'W $9.75 Pr', '$9.75', 'esses', 'O', 'heque', 'y che-', 's Com-', 'ble re-', 'ance of', 'arning', 'at Office.', 'ngs Co.', 'RD', 'od's Phospho...', 'Great English Kennedy', 'and investigates the whole', 'system, makes new Blood', 'and Veins, Cures Nervous', 'and Brain Worry, Despon-', 'dency, Indigestion of the', 'stomach, Price $1 per box, six', 'boxes $5 will save. Sold by all', 'in plain blue or white, with', 'of metal top. THE WOOD', 'MONTREAL, QUEBEC, CANADA.'

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY

WANTED-To buy, used records, Apply Box 376 Courier, M/W/12

STRAYED-On premises of Wm. Smith, Jr., South Springs, two colts, a bay and sorrel, about two years old. Owner may have same by paying expenses. L/15

WANTED-Steady girl to learn spinning. Apply Slingsby Mfg. Co. M/15

WANTED-The Austin Co. wants at once twenty carpenters at the Dominion Steel Products Co. 50 cents per hour, pay each week. J. E. Anderson, Supt. M/15

WANTED-A woman to wash one day a week. North ward preferred. 99 William street.

WANTED-Two boys about sixteen years old. Ham & Nott. M/15

FOR SALE-Elmhurst Berkshires. We offer a choice selection in broad sows. H. M. Vandenberg, Brantford, R. R. 1, phone 847-21

WANTED-Two men for general work in picket department. Apply Slingsby Mfg. Co. M/15

TO LET-House 171 Bruce St. $9 per month. Apply 17 Marlboro. Bell phone 1832. T/11t

WANTED-A warm room with board, refined private family. Box 190 Courier. M/W/15

FOR SALE-Handsome two-seated cutter, converted from Gray's make. Good as new. Box 404.

FOR SALE OR RENT-Barber shop with furnishings. Apply Box 59 Lynnden. Bell Phone 29. R/15

LOST-A bunch of four keys at skating rink on Saturday night. Return to Courier office. F/15

DIED

NORRIS-In Brantford township, on Sunday, Jan. 6, Mary Jane Richardson, beloved wife of Mr. J. D. Norris, age 62 years. Funeral from her late residence, Mt. Vernon on Tuesday 8th at 2 o'clock. Interment at Mt. Hope Cemetery.

REID & BROWN Undertakers 814-816 Colborne St. Phone 459. Residence 443

H. B. BECKETT Funeral Director and Embalmer 158 DALHOUSIE STREET. Both Phones 23.

UPHOLSTERING All kinds of Upholstering William & Hollinrake Phone 107, 2 & 4 Darling St. Opera House Block.

Electric Work Let the Returned Soldier do your Electric work. All orders given prompt attention. ELECTRIC WIRING, REPAIRING & SUPPLIES

W. BUTLER Electrical Contractor 322 Colborne. Phone 1589

ALL OUR Electric Work is satisfactory. First class workmen, materials and supervision. Ask our customers.

T. J. MINNES PLUMBING AND ELECTRIC Phone 301. 9 King St.

Machinists Wanted Several all around machinists for work in Munitions shops. Highest wages and best working conditions. Apply at once to G. W. McFarlane Engineering Company, Paris, Ont.

Broadbent Tailor to the well-dressed Man or Woman Agent for Jaeger's pure wool Fabrics Agent for Ely's Neckwear Agent for Aertex Underwear "Borsalino" and other high grade Hats Phone 312 4 Market St.

BOLSHEVIKI STRENGTHEN RUSS FRONT

Are Mustering Strong Army Prepared to Fight For National Ideal

SEND SHIRKERS HOME Say Germany Has Nothing to Gain by Advance Into Russia

By Courier Leased Wire.

London, Jan. 7.—The Bolsheviki are definitely strengthening the front. Petrograd advices say. The correspondent of The Daily News obtained this information from M. Radek, one of the Russian delegates, who took a prominent part in the negotiations with the Austrians and Germans at Petrograd. He said the Bolsheviki were intending to send home all who did not wish to fight, so that they would have an army which was willing to fight for an ideal.

The correspondent asked what would be the attitude of the Bolsheviki in the case of actual war in regard to help from the Allies. M. Radek replied: "We do not desire their help. Our strength lies in our weakness, and if we accepted help from the Allies the significance of our position would be hurt. The weaker we are the stronger we are. The Germans can drive us back, but what good would it do them?"

The country behind the front has been stripped bare. There is not enough there to feed a single horse. The Germans will not wish starving persons on their hands. "We stand for a democratic peace. If the German government attacks us it will display itself to its own people in its true light."

A telegram from Brest-Litovsk to Amsterdam gives a wireless message sent to M. Joffre, chairman of the Russian delegation by Foreign Minister von Kuehlmann for the German delegation. Foreign Minister Chernin for the Austrians; Foreign Minister von Neesmy Bey for the Turks, and Minister of Justice Popoff for the Bulgarians. It recalls the fact that when the Central Powers outlined the terms on which they were willing to make peace, they stipulated that these terms would be valid only if all the belligerents bound themselves within a certain period to observe them. The Russians then fixed ten days as the period in which the other belligerents were to decide whether to join in the negotiations, but although this time elapsed January 4th, nothing had been heard from them.

Another telegram from Brest-Litovsk states that informal discussions there on Friday between the Germans and the Ukrainians took a direction favorable to Germany. A Petrograd despatch to The Daily Mail says that General Nishel, head of the French military mission, replied to Foreign Minister Troitzky's complaint respecting French military propaganda by stating that certain news received from Stockholm had been issued by a young officer by mistake. The general promised that no such mistake would be made again. M. Troitzky replied with a demand that the officer in question leave Russia.

The correspondents adds that it is a pity that some of the allied diplomats pretend to ignore M. Troitzky, while in fact they are obliged to recognize his authority. Referring to the same incident, a Reuter despatch from Petrograd says that Troitzky ordered the immediate closing of the French bureau, the removal of the wireless apparatus and the immediate recall of Petrograd of French officers in the war area. Huns Divided. Amsterdam, Jan. 7.—Admiral von Tirpitz, voicing the demands of the fatherland party and the pan-Germans regarding the negotiations with Russia, has telegraphed to Chancellor von Hertling, formally commending the firm stand taken by the Chancellor towards the Russian demands. In the position taken by Russia, says the Admiral, is seen "the fruit of ten days' work" considers responsible. He claims the transfer of the negotiations to Stockholm would constitute a decisive step on the path to a general peace which would have no regard for Germany's vital needs.

The Rhenische Westfalishe Zeitung violently attacks Dr. von Kuehlmann's conduct at the Brest-Litovsk negotiations which considers responsible. It says, for the intention of General von Ludendorff, right-hand man of Field Marshal von Hindenburg, to resign. (An official Berlin despatch last night denied a report published in several German newspapers that General von Ludendorff had tendered his resignation.) The newspaper regards any further cooperation between the German command and Dr. von Kuehlmann as impossible.

DEALERS GOT COAL FOR CITY Shipment Which Went Astray on Lake Erie, Secured for Canada

Between three and four hundred tons of hard coal have been distributed from the municipal agency since Saturday greatly relieving the serious situation in Brantford. This was only accomplished by a succession of unusual circumstances. Last week a vessel loaded with coal, destined for a Canadian port on the Great Lakes, narrowly avoided coming to grief on Long Point, Lake Erie. A wreck was averted, but the boat was forced to retrace its course to Buffalo, and was fortunately successful in reaching that place. Immediately it was beset by coal merchants from that city, but a difficulty arose as to the allotment of the fuel. The cargo had been originally consigned to a Canadian port, and its exportation had been allowed by the United States Fuel Administration.

The Buffalo dealers however were not to be placated, and carried the matter to President Wilson, at Washington. In settlement, local Canadian dealers related by appeal to Ottawa for their rights, and the difficulty was finally solved by allowing the rights of the Canadian dealers. Immediately Messrs. Fred Mann and D. S. Gibson, local coal dealers, became interested, and as a result a large share of the cargo was secured for consumption in Brantford. By twelve o'clock, all the available hard coal in the city had been distributed with the exception of a small amount of egg coal, and it was expected at the depot that this supply would be exhausted by one o'clock in the afternoon.

There is some misunderstanding regarding the scope over which the fuel depot here has jurisdiction. Only hard coal is distributed through this agency. Wood and soft coal may be secured independently from the dealers, provided there is a supply on hand, without reference to the depot.

COUNTRESS A SMUGGLER By Associated Press Amsterdam, Jan. 7.—Caught at Zevenaar by a special agent of the Hague police while she was attempting to smuggle into Germany eleven large boxes said to contain underclothes, shoes, coffee, tea and other foodstuffs, Countess Von Platen has been held at Arnhem court. The Countess had carefully prepared for her encounter with the customs authorities by a telephone message supposedly from the foreign office at the Hague, and a telegram from the local German consul asking for considerate treatment; but the special agent arrived in time to overlook these instructions and insisted on examining the Countess' luggage where he found the contraband.

ONTARIO LIBERAL LEADER Wm. Proudfoot, M.L.A., Centre Hudson, who was on Thursday chosen temporary Liberal leader in the Ontario Legislature to succeed Hon. N. W. Rowell.

German Soldiers Revolt Along The Russian Front

25,000 Reported to Have Marched Out of Battle Line and Entrenched Themselves with Machine Guns.

London, Jan. 6.—A despatch received here from the Russian wireless service says that 25,000 German soldiers in the region east of Kovno have revolted. German deserters state that in consequence of the Government drafting all soldiers below the age of 35 for despatch to the western front, the aforementioned number of men rebelled and marched out of the battle line. They then entrenched themselves with rifles and machine guns against the other German units. The German military authorities have been powerless against the revolters, and are trying to cut off their food supplies. The German deserters declared that one of the motives for the revolt was that the sending of troops to the western front was a contravention of the Russo-German armistice agreement.

Premier Lloyd George who outlined the war aims of the Allies in a speech Saturday.

SUNDAY DAY OF PRAYER

Churches of Every Denomination United in Paean of Intercession

In response to the proclamation of the King setting aside January 6th, the first Sunday of the year as a day of prayer for the Empire, special services were held in all the local churches yesterday morning and evening. Practically without exception the attendances at all the churches were most gratifying, and the messages delivered from the different pulpits were appropriate to the times, and clothed with the intensity of the crisis through which the Empire is now passing.

Battles may be won by men and ammunition, but wars are won by spiritual forces. This was the conviction behind the King's call to prayer which was responded to by the people of Brantford yesterday in unison with the whole of the British Empire. In all Christian churches and in the Jewish Synagogue the voice of prayer, fervent and insistent prevailed throughout the services. Old texts and ancient liturgies were clothed with new meaning and power as they were applied with urgent directness to the woes of war and the needs of the present crisis in the greatest struggle for righteousness and freedom.

AT THE FIRST BAPTIST. The audience yesterday were large at both services despite the storm in the evening. In the morning the pastor spoke on "The Kingdom of God is Within You" and in the evening on Acts 2: 21 "Prayer and Salvation." Two were baptized at the close of the evening service. Ten new members received the hand of welcome in the morning.

AT ST. BASIL'S. Special prayers for the occasion were said at the close of each mass at St. Basil's and St. Mary's Cathedral yesterday, including a decade of the rosary and the Litany of the Blessed Virgin Mary. The feast of the Epiphany was also commemorated and at St. Basil's Very Rev. Dean Brady preached a special sermon exhorting all to emulate the example set by the wise men from the east, and to pour out before the Saviour the gold of frankincense and myrrh of our hearts. rBw to

AT ST. ANDREW'S. The morning service at St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church yesterday was given wholly to prayer and meditation, there being no sermon. Four passages from Scripture, suitable to the occasion, were read, in which the congregation joined responsively. The laymen of the church figured largely in the service, leading in prayer on such subjects as "Confession and Forgiveness," "Our City and Country," "Our Empire, Our Allies and God's Cause," "Our Soldiers, Sailors and Their Widows and Orphans," and "Our Congregation." The service was highly devotional throughout. Miss M. J. Leach presided at the organ for the first time since her appointment. The choir sang with beautiful effect, "God of Our Fatherland," the solo parts being most acceptably taken by Mr. Andrew McWhirter and Miss S. Howling. In the evening, the pastor, Rev. J. W. Gordon, preached upon "The Lord's Supper," using the subject to illustrate what prayer ought to be. The quartette sang "One Sweetly Solemn Thought."

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

APPEAL COURT

Thomas Jacob Harriman, flour miller, Paris Ont., allowed while Miller in present situation.

Andrew Glen, R. R. No. 3, Paris, Ont., allowed while managing munitions plant.

Lawrence Frederick Newert, R. R. No. 4, Paris telegraph operator, appeal disallowed.

Robert Allison Young, R. R. No. 2, Caledonia, exempted while farming.

Hartley Kenneth Begg, 20 Superior street, Brantford, exemption allowed until June 1st, 1918.

Ernest Obediah Obaswelen, farmer, exemption refused.

James Reginald Smith, shoe salesman, 59 Erie Avenue, appeal disallowed.

James O'Reilly, 119 Victoria street, laborer, disallowed.

Percy Chas. Springale, Tutela P. O. bench hand, exempted on domestic grounds until March 1st, 1918.

Edwin Hood Onodaga, farmer, exemption refused.

Allen Smith, Paris Ont., munition worker, exemption refused.

William Lottridge Lynden, barber and machine shop, proprietor, disallowed.

Geo. Sidle, R. R. No. 1, Middleport, farmer, exemption while farming.

Vernon Clare Heningway, R. R. No. 2, Scotland, farmer, disallowed.

James William McMahon, 230 Bruce Street, fireman, exemption refused.

MEDICAL OFFICER

Dr. C. D. Chapin is acting as medical officer of the C.O.R., unit stationed here, and cases of sickness among the men will be treated by him.

Lemons Beautify!

Strain lemon juice well before mixing and massage face, neck, arms, hands.

Here is told how to prepare an inexpensive lemon lotion which can be used to bring back to any skin the sweet freshness of which it has been robbed by trying atmospheric conditions. Wind-chafe, roughness, tan, and redness are washed off and those tell-tale lines of care or of age are softened away. The juice of two fresh lemons strained into a bottle containing three ounces of orchard white makes a whole quart jar of the most remarkable lemon skin beautifier at about the cost one must pay for a small jar of the ordinary cold cream. Care should be taken to strain the lemon juice through a fine cloth so no lemon pulp gets in. Then this lotion will keep fresh for months. Every woman knows that lemon juice is used to bleach and remove such blemishes as freckles, sallowness and tan, and is the ideal skin softener, smoothen and beautifier. Just try it! Get three ounces of orchard white at any pharmacy and two lemons from the grocer and make up a quart pint of this sweetly fragrant lemon lotion and massage it daily into the face, neck, arms and hands, and see for yourself.

Fresh Winter-Caught FISH. Fish is healthful as well as economical. Our fresh, winter caught Fish makes dainty eating. SELECT TOMORROW'S DINNER FROM THIS LIST B. C. C. Hoe Salmon—Lake Salmon—Trout—White Fish—Lake Superior and Lake Erie Herring—Sea Herring—Halibut and Smelts FINE SELECT OYSTERS Benwell Fish Co's. Successors to W. J. Campbell 48 DALHOUSIE STREET Next Door to the Fire Hall. Both Phones 204 Newly Re-Modelled—Everything Clean and Fresh

Fire Sale! Smoke, caused by a fire which visited our store recently, did considerable damage to our large stock, which had been purchased for the holiday trade. We have completed our adjustment with the insurance companies, and are now busy re-marking our stock. On WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON AT 2 O'CLOCK we will open our doors to the public. OUR STOCK CONSISTS OF BOOKS, GAMES, GLASSWARE, TOILET SETS, FANCY GOODS, PICTURES, POSTAL CARDS, PAPERIES, CREPE PAPERS, ETC. You can make no mistake. The goods are all new, and although only very slightly damaged by smoke, will be marked down regardless of the entire stock will be cleared out in six days. Don't forget. SALE STARTS WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON AT 2 O'CLOCK Under the circumstances Harwood's are obliged to take over this stock. HARWOOD'S 320 COLBORNE STREET OPP. GAS OFFICE. PHONE 747

The TRANSCONTINENTAL Lv. TORONTO 9.00 P.M. TUESDAY, THURSDAY AND SATURDAY Ar. WINNIPEG 6.00 P.M. THURSDAY, SATURDAY AND MONDAY Connecting at Winnipeg for all Western Canada and Pacific Coast Ports Time Table and all information from any Grand Trunk, Canadian Government Railway, or T. & N. O. Railway Agent.

Directory First! WHEN you call a telephone number from memory or when you guess at it you are apt to be wrong. The mind has a trick of transposing figures—instead of "1263" you are quite likely to say "1623." Also, telephone numbers, firm names, etc., are frequently changed. And when you thus ask for the wrong number, you waste your own time, the operator's, and the time of the person called through your error. Directory first is a good principle. In the end it saves time and temper to first consult the latest issue of the telephone book. The Bell Telephone Co. of Canada "Good service... our true intent."

LABOR GREEN GREAT Arthur Henders With Statement Georg London, Jan. 6.— son, leader of the House of Commons, ed it was his opinion labor would welcome George's statement of which Great Britain the world war. In Mr. Henders said the labor would welcome the principles and the labor, at our recent, find as essential to Labor stands for freedom and integrity Serbia, Roumania and for the establishment basis of a league of nations for the prevention of future war. "Our Irreducible" continued, "continuing the minimum, and this, we desire the nation of international it the complete repudiate tempt as the war, boycott. So far as statement conforms principles, we welcome it convinced that no effort can be consistent with desire for peace, will not contain with of future wars." British labor, Mr. Henders warmly welcomed principles laid down by Government, but it is completely as the Bolsheviki any idea of making a fit out of the war. "In essentials we Bolsheviki, and so, to his published statement Wilson." Mr. Henders said: "We are now effort to arrange another conference as a preliminary conference of labor movement of the desire nothing more than a fresh and the fullest discussion with the representative labor, first among all with neutrals and enemies." I make one urgent our comrades in Russia reach any basis of agreement. The Central powers, since, I ask them to the Central powers shall basis for consideration Governments and persons. "The Bolsheviki Henders concluded, presented a power to do all in their power to receive a clear and ready reply." To The Editor of The Dear Sir.—Will you the parents in the vic hospital, not to allow to play in the sand barnurses' home, as I could lar death trap since have taken sand away hole big enough for direct to enter, perhaps under several tons of just seems ready to have a repulsion of the Fine weather and ject of interest were a close view of one of HERES A PACKAGE FROM FLO

LABOR GREET'S GREAT SPEECH

Arthur Henderson Pleas'd With Statement of Lloyd George

London, Jan. 6.—Arthur Henderson, leader of the Labor party in the House of Commons, last night stated it was his opinion that British labor would welcome Premier Lloyd George's statement of the aims for which Great Britain is fighting in the world war.

"Our Irreducible Minimum." "These things," Mr. Henderson continued, "constitute our irreducible minimum. And if we secure this, we desire the fullest resumption of international intercourse and the complete repudiation of all attempts at an economic war or boycott."

British labor, Mr. Henderson added, warmly welcomes the main principles laid down by the Russian Government, but it rejects as completely as the Bolsheviks themselves any idea of making a national program out of the war.

Agree With Bolsheviks "In essentials we agree with the Bolsheviks, and so, to judge from his published statement, does President Wilson," Mr. Henderson declared.

"I make one urgent request of our comrades in Russia. If they reach any basis of agreement with the Central powers for general peace, I ask them to insist that the Central powers shall submit this basis for consideration to all the Governments and peoples concerned."

To The Editor of The Courier

To The Editor of The Courier: Dear Sir,—Will you kindly advise the parents in the vicinity of the hospital, not to allow their children to play in the sand bank opposite the nurses' home, as I consider it a regular death trap since it has left a hole big enough for about six children to enter, perhaps to be buried under several tons of earth, which just seems ready to cave in and so have a repetition of the sad accident which occurred in Eagle Place some months ago. Also hoping the proper authorities will see it and take steps to have this place safeguarded.

MARIE CORELLI well known novelist, who has been fined $250 and $100 costs on a charge of purchasing excessive quantities of sugar.

Thanking you for space. Stephen Cayless, 163 Terrace Hill St.

LYOYD GEORGE

Continued from page one

"I have also had opportunity of discussing this same momentous question with Mr. Asquith and Viscount Gray. Had it not been that the Nationalist leaders are in Ireland, engaged in endeavoring to solve the tangled problem of Irish self-government, I should have been happy to exchange views with them, but Mr. Redmond, speaking on their behalf, has with his usual lucidity, and force, in many of his speeches made clear what his ideas are as to the object and purpose of the war."

"I am glad to be able to say, as a result of all these discussions, that although the Government are more responsible for the actual language I propose using, there is a national agreement as to the character and purpose of our war aims and peace conditions, and in what I say to you to-day, and through you to the world, I can venture to claim that I am speaking not merely the mind of the Government, but of the nation, and of the Empire as a whole."

"We may begin by clearing away some misunderstandings and stating what we are not fighting for."

"We are not fighting a war of aggression against the German people. Their leaders have persuaded them that they are fighting a war of self-defence against a league of rival nations bent on the destruction of Germany. That is not so. The destruction or disruption of Germany or the German people has never been a war aim with us from the first day of this war to this day."

public law of Europe must be re-established, and so far as possible repaired. "Reparation means recognition. Unless international right is recognized by insistence on payment for injury, done in defiance of its canons, it can never be a reality."

From left to right: Controller O'Neil, Controller Maguire, Mayor Church, Controller Robbins and Controller McBride.

eral interpretation of such a pledge. Does it mean that Belgium, Serbia, Montenegro and Roumania will be as independent and as free to direct their own destinies as Germany or any other nation? Or does it mean that all manner of interferences and restrictions, political and economic, incompatible with the status and dignity of free and self-respecting people, are to be imposed? If this is the intention, then there will be one kind of independence for the great nation and an inferior kind of independence for the small nations."

"We must know what it means, for equality of right among the nations, small as well as great, is one of the fundamental issues this country and her allies are fighting to establish in this war."

Repair Damage in Belgium "Reparation for the wanton damage inflicted on Belgian towns and villages and their inhabitants is emphatically repudiated. The rest of the world will be shocked and appalled when they are told that the powers are almost entirely a refusal of all concessions. All suggestions about the autonomy of subject nationalities are ruled out of the question."

"On one point only are they perfectly clear and definite. The German demand for the restoration of the whole of Germany's colonies, he departed from. All principle of self-determination is abandoned. The consequence of the agreement, here vanishes this morning."

"The days of the treaty of Vienna are long past. We can no longer submit the future of European civilization to the arbitrary decisions of a few negotiators, trying to secure by chicanery or persuasion the interests of this or that dynasty or nation."

"The settlement of the new Europe must be based on such grounds of reason and justice as will give some promise of stability. Therefore, it is that we feel that Government with the consent of the governed must be the basis of any international settlement in this war."

"The first requirement, therefore, always put forward by the British Government and their allies, has been the complete restoration of political, territorial and economic independence of Belgium, and such reparation as can be made for the devastation of its towns and provinces."

"We had to join in the struggle or stand aside and see Europe go under, and brute force triumph over public right and international justice."

"It was only the realization of that dreadful alternative that forced the British people into war, and from that original attitude they have never swerved."

"Nor did we enter this war merely to alter or destroy the Imperial constitution of Germany, much as we consider that military and autocratic constitution a dangerous anachronism in the twentieth century."

"We are not fighting to destroy Austria-Hungary or to deprive Turkey of its capital or the rich lands of Asia Minor and Thrace, which are predominantly Turkish."

"On one point only are they perfectly clear and definite. The German demand for the restoration of the whole of Germany's colonies, he departed from. All principle of self-determination is abandoned."

"The days of the treaty of Vienna are long past. We can no longer submit the future of European civilization to the arbitrary decisions of a few negotiators, trying to secure by chicanery or persuasion the interests of this or that dynasty or nation."

"The settlement of the new Europe must be based on such grounds of reason and justice as will give some promise of stability. Therefore, it is that we feel that Government with the consent of the governed must be the basis of any international settlement in this war."

"The first requirement, therefore, always put forward by the British Government and their allies, has been the complete restoration of political, territorial and economic independence of Belgium, and such reparation as can be made for the devastation of its towns and provinces."

CHILD'S TONGUE BECOMES COATED IF CONSTIPATED

Children love this "fruit laxative" and nothing else cleanses the tender stomach, liver and bowels so nicely. A child simply will not stop playing to empty the bowels, and the result is, they become tightly clogged with waste, liver gets sluggish, stomach sour, then your little one becomes cross, half-sick, feverish, don't eat, sleep or act naturally, breath is bad, stomach full of cold, has sore throat, stomach ache or diarrhoea. Listen, Mother! See if tongue is coated, then give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the system, and you have a well, playful child again.

Millions of mothers give "California Syrup of Figs" because it is perfectly harmless; children love it, and it never fails to act on the stomach liver and bowels. Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Beware of counterfeiters sold here. Get the genuine, made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.

"The natives live in their various tribal organizations under chiefs and councils who are competent to consult and speak for their tribes and members, and thus to represent their wishes and interests in regard to their disposal. The general principle of national self-determination is, therefore, as applicable in their cases as in those of the occupied European territories."

"Not for German Rulers "The German declaration that the natives of the German colonies have shown their attachment and resolve to remain united all circumstances to remain with Germany is applicable, not to the German colonies generally, but only to one of them, and in that case, German East Africa. The German authorities secured the attachment, not of the native population as a whole, which is and remains profoundly anti-German, but only of a small section of them from whom their askaris, or soldiers, were selected. These they attached to themselves by conferring on them a highly privileged position, as against the bulk of the native population, which enabled these askaris to assume a lordly and oppressive superiority over the rest of the natives."

"By this and other means they secured the attachment of a strong and influential minority, whose interests were directly opposed to the rest of the population, and for whom they have no right to speak. The German treatment of the native populations in their colonies has been such as amply to justify their fear of submitting the future of those colonies to the wishes of the natives themselves."

Reparation Fundamental "Finally, there must be reparation (Continued on Page Ten.)"

INCIDENTS OF THE LORD MAYOR'S SHOW Fine weather and a cheering crowd greeted the Lord Mayor's procession in London. Naturally the chief object of interest were the British tanks which crawled like monstrous caterpillars along the roads. The Photo shows a close view of one of the tanks.

Advertisement for Wilson's Cigar. Text: Say "Bachelor" when you want a really good cigar. Clear Havana filler. Finest Sumatra Wrapper. An imported value at a domestic price. CIGAR 3 for 25. Andrew Wilson & Co.

Cartoon titled "THAT SON-IN-LAW OF PA'S" by Wellington. A man offers an express package from Palm Beach, Florida. The man asks if it can be in the bally thing. The man says he'll be blamed soon. The man says he can't imagine what anyone would send him from Florida. The man says he'll be blamed soon. The man says he can't imagine what anyone would send him from Florida. The man says he'll be blamed soon.

LABOR GREET'S GREAT SPEECH

Arthur Henderson Pleased With Statement of Lloyd George

London, Jan. 6.—Arthur Henderson, leader of the Labor party in the House of Commons, last night stated it was his opinion that British labor would welcome Premier Lloyd George's statement of the aims for which Great Britain is fighting in the world war.

"Our Irreducible Minimum." "These things," Mr. Henderson continued, "constitute our irreducible minimum, and, if we are to resume the fullness of international intercourse and the complete repudiation of all attempts at an economic war or a boycott. So far as the Premier's statement conforms to these principles, we welcome it and we are convinced that no other settlement can be consistent with the expressed desire for peace, which he says will not contain within it the seed of future wars."

British labor, Mr. Henderson added, warmly welcomes the main principles laid down by the Russian Government, but it rejects as completely as the Bolsheviks themselves any idea of making a national profit out of the war.

Agree With Bolshevik "In essentials we agree with the Bolshevik, and so, to judge from his published statement, does President Wilson," Mr. Henderson declared; "we are now making every effort to arrange another inter-allied conference as a preliminary to a complete conference of the whole labor movement of the world. We desire nothing more than to have a fresh and the fullest joint discussion with the representatives of labor, first among our allies—then with neutrals and our present enemies.

I make one urgent request of our comrades in Russia. If they reach any basis of agreement with the Central powers for general peace, I ask them to insist that the Central powers shall submit this basis for consideration to all the Governments and peoples concerned.

To The Editor of The Courier

To the Editor of The Courier: Dear Sir,—Will you kindly advise the parents in the vicinity of the hospital, not to allow their children to play in the sand bank opposite the nurses' home, as I consider it a regular death trap since the teamsters have taken sand away. It has left a hole big enough for about six children to enter, perhaps to be buried under several tons of earth, which just seems ready to cave in and so have a repetition of the sad accident well known novelist, who has been fined $250 and $100 costs on a charge of purchasing excessive quantities of sugar. Her defence was that she wanted it for making jam.

MARIE CORELLI

which occurred in Eagle Place some months ago. Also hoping the proper authorities will see it and take steps to have this place safeguarded. Thanking you for space, Stephen Cayless, 163 Terrace Hill St.

LLOYD GEORGE

Continued from page one Speech Carefully Prepared

"I have also had opportunity of discussing this same momentous question with Mr. Asquith and Viscount Gray. Had it not been that the Nationalist leaders are in Ireland, engaged in endeavoring to solve the tangled problem of Irish self-government, I should have been happy to exchange views with them, but Mr. Redmond, speaking on their behalf, has with his usual lucidity, and force, in many of his speeches made clear what his ideas are as to the object and purpose of the war."

"I am glad to be able to say, as a result of all these discussions, that although the Government are alone responsible for the actual language I propose using, there is a national agreement as to the character and purpose of our war aims and peace conditions, and in what I say to you to-day, and through you to the world, I can venture to claim that I am speaking not merely the mind of the Government, but of the nation and of the Empire as a whole.

"We may begin by clearing away some misunderstandings and stating what we are not fighting for. We are not fighting a war of aggression against the German people. Their leaders have persuaded them that they are fighting a war of self-defence against a league of rival nations, bent on the destruction of Germany. That is not so. The destruction or disruption of Germany or the German people has never been a war aim with us from the first day of this war to this day. Most reluctantly and, indeed, quite unprepared for the dreadful ordeal, we were forced to join in this war, in self-defence of the violated public law of Europe and in vindication of the most solemn treaty obligations, on which the public system of Europe rested, and on which Germany had ruthlessly trampled in her invasion of Belgium.

TORONTO'S NEW BOARD OF CONTROL

"We had to join in the struggle or stand aside and see Europe go under, and brute force triumph over public right and international justice. "It was only the realization of that dreadful alternative that forced the British people into war, and from that original attitude they have never swerved. They have never aimed at a break-up of the German people, or the disintegration of their State or country. Germany has occupied a great position in the world. It is not our wish or intention to question or destroy that position for the future, but rather to force her aside from hopes and schemes of military domination.

Let German People Decide "Nor did we enter this war merely to alter or destroy the imperial constitution of Germany, much as we consider that military and autocratic constitution a dangerous anarchy in the twentieth century. Our point of view is that the adoption of a really democratic constitution by Germany would be the most convincing evidence that her old spirit of military domination has, indeed, died in this war, and would make it much easier for us to conclude a broad, democratic peace with her. But, after all, that is a question for the German people to decide.

"We are not fighting to destroy Austria-Hungary or to deprive Turkey of its capital or the rich lands of Asia Minor and Thrace, which are predominantly Turkish. "It is now more than a year since the President of the United States, then neutral, addressed to the belligerents a suggestion that each side should state clearly the aims for which they were fighting.

"We and our allies responded by the note of January 10, 1917. To the President's appeal the Central Empires made no reply, and in spite of many addendums, both from their opponents and from neutrals, they have maintained complete silence as to the objects for which they are fighting. Even on so crucial a matter as their intention with regard to Belgium they have uniformly declined to give any trustworthy indication.

A Vague Pronouncement by Austria-Hungary "On December 25 last, however, Count Czernin, speaking on behalf of Austria-Hungary and her allies, did make a pronouncement of a kind. It is, indeed, deplorably vague.

"We are told that it is not the intention of the Central Powers to appropriate forcibly any occupied territories or to rob of its independence any nation which has lost its political independence during the war.

"It is obvious that almost any scheme of conquest and annexation could be perpetrated within the literal interpretation of such a pledge. It means that Belgium, Serbia, Montenegro and Roumania will be as independent and as free to direct their own destinies as Germany or any other nation? Or does it mean that all manner of interferences and restrictions, political and economical, incompatible with the status and dignity of free and self-respecting people, are to be imposed? If this is the intention, then there will be one kind of independence for the great nation and an inferior kind of independence for the small nations.

"We must know what it meant, for equality of right among the nations, small as well as great, is one of the fundamental issues of this country, and her allies are fighting to establish in this war. Repair Damage in Belgium. "Reparation for the wanton damage inflicted on Belgian towns and villages and their inhabitants is emphatically repudiated. The rest of the so-called offer of the Central powers is almost entirely a refusal of the autonomy of subject nationalities are ruled out of the peace terms altogether. The question whether any form of self-government is to be given to the Arabs, Armenians or Syrians is declared to be entirely a matter for the sublime Porte. A pious wish for the protection of minorities, 'insofar as it is practically realizable,' is the nearest approach to liberty which the Central Powers have ventured to make.

"On one point only are they perfectly clear and definite. Under no circumstances will the German Reich see the restoration of the whole of Germany's colonies be departed from. All principle of self-determination, or of ownership by the peoples, or of the consent of the governed, have vanished on this subject. "It is impossible to believe that any edifice of permanent peace could be erected on such a foundation as this. Mere lip-service to the formulae of no annexations and no indemnities or the right of self-determination is useless. These are negotiations, not even the Central Powers must realize the essential facts of the situation. The days of the treaty of Vienna are long past. We can no longer negotiate in the spirit of a liberator to the arbitrary decisions of a few negotiators, trying to secure by chicanery or persuasion the interests of this or that dynasty or nation.

Must Have Stability. "The settlement of the new Europe must be based on such grounds of reason and justice as will give some promise of stability. Therefore, it is that we feel that Government with the consent of the governed must be the basis of any territorial settlement in this war. For that reason, also, unless treaties be upheld, unless every nation is prepared at whatever sacrifices to honor the national signature, it is obvious that no treaty of peace can be worth the paper on which it is written.

"The first requirement, therefore, always put forward by the British Government and their allies, has been the complete restoration, political, territorial and economic, of independence of Belgium, and such reparation as can be made for the devastation of its towns and provinces.

"This is no demand for a war indemnity, such as that imposed on France by Germany in 1871. It is not an attempt to shift the cost of warlike operations from the belligerent to another, which may or may not be defensible. It is no more and no less than an insistence that before there can be any hope for stable peace, this great breach of the public law of Europe must be repaired, and so far as possible repaired. "Reparation means recognition. Unless international right is recognized by insistence on payment for injury, done in defiance of its canons, it can never be a reality. "Next comes the restoration of Serbia, Montenegro, and the occupied parts of France, Italy, and Roumania. The complete withdrawal of the allied (Teutonic) armies, and the reparation for injustice done is a fundamental condition of permanent peace.

"We mean to stand by the French democracy to the death in the demand they make for a reconsideration of the great wrong of 1871, when, without any regard to the wishes of the population, two French Provinces were torn from the side of France and incorporated in the German Empire. "This sore has poisoned the peace of Europe for half a century, and, until it is cured, healthy conditions will not have been restored. There can be no better illustration of the folly and wickedness of using a transient military success to violate national right.

Russia's Fate Uncertain. "I will not attempt to deal with the question of the Russian territories, now in German occupation. The Russian policy since the revolution has passed so rapidly through so many phases that it is difficult to speak without some suspension of judgment as to what the situation will be when the final terms of European peace come to be discussed. "Russia accepted war with all its horrors because, true to her traditional guardianship of the weaker communities of her race, she stepped in to protect Serbia from a plot against her independence. It is this honorable sacrifice which not merely brought Russia into the war, but France as well. "France, true to the conditions of her treaty with Russia, stood by her all in a quarrel which was not her own. Her chivalrous respect for her treaty led to the wanton invasion of Belgium, and its treaty obligations of Great Britain to that little land brought us into the war.

Beware of Prussianism. "The present policy of Russia are now argued, without any reference to the countries whom Russia brought into the war, in separate negotiations with their common enemy. I am including in no reproaches, I am merely stating the facts with a view to making it clear why Great Britain cannot be held accountable for decisions, taken in her absence, and concerning which she has not been consulted. Her aid is revoked. "No one who knows Prussia and her designs upon Russia, can for a moment doubt her ultimate intention. Whatever phrases she may use to delude Russia, she does not mean to surrender one of the fair provinces or cities of Russia now occupied by her forces. Under one name or another (and the name hardly matters) those Russian provinces will henceforth be in reality a part of the dominions of Prussia. They will be ruled by the Prussian sword in the interests of the Prussian autocracy, and the rest of the people of Russia will be partly enticed by specious phrases and partly bullied by the threat of continued war against an important army, into a condition of complete economic and ultimate political enslavement to Germany.

People Must Save Russia. "We all deplore the prospect. The democracy of this country means to stand to the last by the democracies of France and Italy and all our other allies. We shall be proud to stand side by side by the new democracy of Russia. So will America, and so will France and Italy. But if the present rulers of Russia take action, which is independent of their allies, we have no means of intervening to arrest the catastrophe which is assuredly befalling their country. Russia can only be saved by her own people. "We believe, however, that an independent Poland comprising all those genuinely Polish elements who desire to form a part of it, is an urgent necessity for the stability of Western Europe.

Break Up Dual Monarchy. "Similarly though we agree with President Wilson that a break-up of Austria-Hungary is no part of our war aims, we feel that unless genuine self-government on true democratic principles is granted to those Austro-Hungarian nationalities who have long desired it, it is impossible to hope for a removal of those causes of unrest in that part of Europe which have so long threatened the general peace. "On the same grounds we regard as vital the satisfaction of the legitimate claims of the Italians for union with those of their own race and tongue. We also mean to press that justice be done to the men of Roumanian blood and speech in their legitimate aspirations. If these conditions are fulfilled, Austria-Hungary would become a power whose strength would conduce to the permanent peace and freedom of Europe instead of being merely an instrument to the pernicious military autocracy of Prussia that uses the resources of its allies for the furtherance of its own sinister purposes.

Outside of Europe we believe the same principles should be applied. While we do not challenge the maintenance of the Turkish Empire in the homelands of the Turkish race with its capital at Constantinople, the passage between the Black Sea being internationalized and neutralized, Arabia, Armenia, Mesopotamia, Syria, and Palestine are, in our judgment, entitled to a recognition of their separate national conditions. Let Colonies Decide. "What the exact form of that recognition in each particular case should be need not here be discussed, beyond stating that it would be impossible to restore to their former sovereignty the territories to which I have already referred. "Much has been said about the arrangements we have entered into with our allies on this and on other subjects. I can only say that under the new circumstances, like the Russian collapse and the separate negotiations, have changed the conditions under which those arrangements were made, we are and always have been perfectly ready to discuss them with our allies. "With regard to the German colonies, I have repeatedly declared that they are held at the disposal of a conference whose decision must have primary regard to the wishes and interests of the native inhabitants of such colonies. Not of these territories are inhabited by Eur-

CHILD'S TONGUE BECOMES COATED IF CONSTIPATED

Children love this "fruit laxative" and nothing else cleanses the tender stomach, liver and bowels so nicely. A child simply will not stop playing to empty the bowels, and the result is, they become tightly clogged with waste, liver gets sluggish, stomach sours, then sour little one becomes cross, half-sick, feverish, don't eat, sleep or act naturally, breath is bad, system full of cold, has sore throat, stomach ache or diarrhoea. Listen, Mother! See if tongue is coated, then give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the system, and you have a well, playful child again.

Millions of mothers give "California Syrup of Figs" because it is perfectly harmless; children love it, and it never fails to act on the stomach, liver and bowels. Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for growing-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. Get the genuine, made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.

operations. The governing consideration, therefore, must be that the inhabitants should be placed under the control of an administration acceptable to themselves, one of whose main purposes will be to prevent their exploitation for the benefit of European capitalists or Governments. "The natives live in their various tribal organizations under chiefs and councils who are competent to consult and speak for their tribes and members, and thus to represent their wishes and interests in regard to their disposal. The general principle of national self-determination is, therefore, as applicable in their cases as in those of the occupied European territories. Not for German Rulers. "The German declaration that the natives of the German colonies have through their military fidelity in war shown their attachment and resolve under all circumstances to remain with Germany is applicable, not to the German colonies generally, but only to one of them, and in that case, German East Africa, the German authorities secured the attachment, not of the native population as a whole, which is and remains profoundly anti-German, but only of a small number of natives from whom their askaris, or soldiers, were selected. These they attached to themselves by conferring on them a highly privileged position, as against the bulk of the native population, which enabled these askaris to assume a lordly and oppressive superiority over the rest of these natives. "By this and other means they secured the attachment of a very small and insignificant minority, whose interests were directly opposed to the rest of the population, and for whom they have no right to speak. The German treatment of the native populations in their colonies has been such as amply to justify their fear of submitting the future of those colonies to the wishes of the natives themselves. Reparation Fundamental. "Finally, there must be reparation. (Continued on Page Ten.)

INCIDENTS OF THE LORD MAYOR'S SHOW Fine weather and a cheering crowd greeted the Lord Mayor's procession in London. Naturally the chief object of interest were the British tanks which crawled like monstrous caterpillars along the roads. The photo shows a close view of one of the tanks.

Advertisement for Wilson's National Smoke Cigar. Text includes: 'The National Smoke Cigar', 'Say "Bachelor" when you want a really good cigar. Clear Havana filler. Finest Sumatra Wrapper. An imported value at a domestic price.', '3 for 25', 'Cheaper by the Box', 'ANDREW WILSON & CO.'

THAT SON-IN-LAW OF PA'S —By Wellington

Copyright, 1917, by Newspaper Feature Service, Inc. Great British rights reserved. Submit this cartoon to the Editor.

Grand Trunk Railway

MAIN LINE EAST
Schedule Standard Time.
2:01 a.m.—For Hamilton, St. Catharines, Niagara Falls and New York.

MAIN LINE WEST
Departure Port Huron and Chicago.
10:02 a.m.—For London, Detroit, Port Huron and Chicago.

BUFFALO AND GODERIC LINE
Leave Brantford 10:05 a.m.—For Buffalo and intermediate stations.

G. T. R. ARRIVALS
From West—Arrive Brantford 2:01 a.m., 6:30 a.m., 9:30 a.m., 10:20 a.m., 1:23 p.m., 3:30 p.m., 6:00 p.m., 8:57 p.m.

BRANTFORD AND HAMILTON Electric Railway
Leave Brantford 6:35 a.m.—For Galt and Godevic.

T. H. & B. RAILWAY
EFFECTIVE NOVEMBER 18, 1917.
Eastbound
7:35 a.m. Sun.—For Hamilton and intermediate points.

L. E. and N. Railway
Effective November 11th 1917.
Leave Kitchener 10:05 a.m. 12:05 p.m. 3:05 p.m. 5:05 p.m.

Maple and Butternut Creams
This is a Southern recipe and it is very good. Take two cups of shaved maple sugar and one cup of cream.

Barley Fudge—This is an especial favorite with children. Take one cup of barley and brown it in but

Sultana Chocolate Caramels
Place in a porcelain-lined kettle one cup of golden "corn syrup" and

Maple Syrup Popcorn Fudge
Cook together two cups of maple sugar, one cup of milk and one

Horhound Candy—Use two cups of cream of tartar, one cup of Peanut Taffy—Place in a saucepan two cups of light brown sugar,

Children Ory FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

Children Ory FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA
CREW OF SINKING SUB. AWAILS RESCUE BY U. S. DESTROYER.

CREW OF SINKING SUB. AWAILS RESCUE BY U. S. DESTROYER.
Taken a few minutes after the United States destroyer Fanning had rescued a direct hit.

CREW OF SINKING SUB. AWAILS RESCUE BY U. S. DESTROYER.
Taken a few minutes after the United States destroyer Fanning had rescued a direct hit.

CREW OF SINKING SUB. AWAILS RESCUE BY U. S. DESTROYER.
Taken a few minutes after the United States destroyer Fanning had rescued a direct hit.

CREW OF SINKING SUB. AWAILS RESCUE BY U. S. DESTROYER.
Taken a few minutes after the United States destroyer Fanning had rescued a direct hit.

CREW OF SINKING SUB. AWAILS RESCUE BY U. S. DESTROYER.
Taken a few minutes after the United States destroyer Fanning had rescued a direct hit.

CREW OF SINKING SUB. AWAILS RESCUE BY U. S. DESTROYER.
Taken a few minutes after the United States destroyer Fanning had rescued a direct hit.

CREW OF SINKING SUB. AWAILS RESCUE BY U. S. DESTROYER.
Taken a few minutes after the United States destroyer Fanning had rescued a direct hit.

SOME WARTIME CANDIES MADE WITHOUT WHITE SUGAR

(Virginia C. Lee, in N. Y. Tribune.)

In preparing these dainties it is best to use a candy thermometer. With this intelligent little instrument at hand the mystic terms "soft ball," "hard ball" and "crack" bring no dismay to the inexperienced candy

As a guide in using the candy thermometer the following table may be useful:
Thread stage . . . 230 to 235 degrees
Soft ball stage . . . 238 to 240 degrees
Hard ball stage . . . 250 to 255 degrees

The "soft ball" stage is reached when the syrup upon being dropped in cold water forms a soft ball between the fingers; the "hard ball" is determined when it makes a firm ball under the same conditions.

Many of the dried fruits, such as dates and prunes, are excellent if the pits are removed and nut meats inserted in their place; or chopped nuts or cocoanut can be mixed with Popcorn, so dear to children's hearts, can be added with excellent results to many of the candy mixtures given. It is well to remember that margarine or the nut butters can be used in any of the recipes calling for the more costly butter.

White Nougat Candy—Grate one pound of strained honey very nearly to the crack stage, about 250 degrees P.; then add the stiffly whipped cream to eggs and stir over a very slow fire until the consistency

Maple Syrup Popcorn Fudge
Cook together two cups of maple sugar, one cup of milk and one tablespoonful of margarine to the soft ball stage, or 240 degrees.

Horhound Candy—Use two cups of cream of tartar, one cup of sugar, and one cup of horhound liquor, made by steeping one ounce and a half of dried horhound in one pint of hot water.

Peanut Taffy—Place in a saucepan two cups of light brown sugar, half a cup of water and one

Sultana Chocolate Caramels
Place in a porcelain-lined kettle one cup of golden "corn syrup" and one cup of milk. Boil to about 235 degrees, or just before it reaches the soft ball stage; then add one-quarter

Maple and Butternut Creams
This is a Southern recipe and it is very good. Take two cups of shaved maple sugar and one cup of cream.

Barley Fudge—This is an especial favorite with children. Take one cup of barley and brown it in but

Maple Syrup Popcorn Fudge
Cook together two cups of maple sugar, one cup of milk and one

Horhound Candy—Use two cups of cream of tartar, one cup of sugar, and one cup of horhound liquor, made by steeping one ounce and a half of dried horhound in one pint of hot water.

Peanut Taffy—Place in a saucepan two cups of light brown sugar, half a cup of water and one BIG SHAKE UP IN BRITISH DIPLOMACY. The retirement of Sir Cecil Spring-Rice, (on left) as British Ambassador to Washington is imminent. Sir George Buchanan, (in center), British Ambassador to Petrograd, is about to resign, and Lord Bertie, of Thame, (on the right), The British Ambassador to Paris, is also on the eve of retirement.

WATERFORD NEWS

Saturday, January 5th — Miss Ina Sharp of Flint, Mich., is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Claxton. Ina intends staying here for a time and taking up a course at the Business College.

Candied Sweet Potato Balls—This is another Southern sweet. Take good sweet potatoes, peel them and cut out into balls with a vegetable peeler. Boil these balls in slightly salted water until they can be pierced with a splint.

Honey Peppermint Tablets—Put into a granite saucepan one cupful of brown sugar and half a cupful of water. Boil these balls in slightly salted water until they can be pierced with a splint.

Chocolate Molasses Kisses—Put into a saucepan two cups of light brown sugar, one-third of a cupful of "corn syrup," two-thirds of a cupful of water, one cupful of molasses and two tablespoonfuls of margarine.

Maple Syrup Popcorn Fudge
Cook together two cups of maple sugar, one cup of milk and one

Horhound Candy—Use two cups of cream of tartar, one cup of sugar, and one cup of horhound liquor, made by steeping one ounce and a half of dried horhound in one pint of hot water.

Peanut Taffy—Place in a saucepan two cups of light brown sugar, half a cup of water and one

Sultana Chocolate Caramels
Place in a porcelain-lined kettle one cup of golden "corn syrup" and one cup of milk. Boil to about 235 degrees, or just before it reaches the soft ball stage; then add one-quarter

Maple and Butternut Creams
This is a Southern recipe and it is very good. Take two cups of shaved maple sugar and one cup of cream.

Barley Fudge—This is an especial favorite with children. Take one cup of barley and brown it in but

Maple Syrup Popcorn Fudge
Cook together two cups of maple sugar, one cup of milk and one

Horhound Candy—Use two cups of cream of tartar, one cup of sugar, and one cup of horhound liquor, made by steeping one ounce and a half of dried horhound in one pint of hot water.

Peanut Taffy—Place in a saucepan two cups of light brown sugar, half a cup of water and one

Sultana Chocolate Caramels
Place in a porcelain-lined kettle one cup of golden "corn syrup" and one cup of milk. Boil to about 235 degrees, or just before it reaches the soft ball stage; then add one-quarter

REX THEATRE

Vaudeville—Pictorial
Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday

Held over by popular demand all this week
Troy's All Girl Revue

In an entire change of program Monday and Thursday
WALLACE REID

Man of Music Mountain
Lasky Production
THE ENCHANTED KISS

An O. Henry Story
COMING THURSDAY
Sessue Hayakawa

THE SECRET GAME

BRANT THEATRE

The Greatest Melodramatic Motion Picture ever offered to the public

"WITHIN THE LAW"
Featuring Alice Joyce and Harry Morey

The Stage's Greatest Production Picturized
HAROLD JARVIS

The Popular Concert Singer
The Act Beautiful
Mme La Toy and Her Posing Dogs

The Most Refined Posing Act in Vaudeville
"WHO IS NUMBER ONE"

Coming Thursday, Friday and Saturday
Hall Caine's Biggest Success
"THE MANX MAN"

Featuring Elisabeth Risdon, Fred Groves and 10,000 others. Entirely filmed on the Isle of Man. No advance in prices for these big productions

GRAND OPERA HOUSE Jan. 11th
AUGUSTUS PITON, INC. PRESENTS
AMERICA'S FOREMOST COMEDienne
MAY ROBSON
A Little Bit Old Fashioned
By Anna Nichols
A blend of Love—Mystery—Laughter—A new melodrama Farce overflowing with human and keen dialogue. Filled with rapid action.
PRICES—25c, 50c, 75c, $1.00, $1.50
SEAT SALE NOW AT BOLES DRUG STORE.

GRAND OPERA HOUSE Jan. 8th
ARTHUR HAMMERSTEIN
OFFERS THE BRILLIANT AND SPARKLING SUCCESS
"KATINKA"
A MUSICAL PLAY OF INFINITE CHARM
BY HAUBERBACH AND FRIAL
AUTHORS OF "HIGH JINKS" AND "THE FIREBIRD"
ONE YEAR AT THE LYRIC AND 44th ST. THEATRES, NEW YORK
PRICES—$1.50, $1.00, 75c; Gallery 50c.
SEAT SALE NOW AT BOLES DRUG STORE
This Company Carries its Own Orchestra

Music and Drama
"KATINKA"
In a hurry" one of the lively solo and chorus numbers of "Katinka," which Arthur Hammerstein will present at the Grand Opera House Tuesday, Jan. 8th, sets the pace early in the first act of the new musical play, which so brilliantly scored on Broadway last winter. The speed does not slack during the course of the three acts, moving to a hilarious finale, "Katinka," which is the work of Otto Harbuck and Rudolf Friml, authors of "The Firebird," "High Jinks," and "You're in Love," which eclipsed the former compositions of its creators in metropolitan popularity, and promised to take the entire country by storm. The musical score is particularly rich in decisive musical hits, headed by "Rackety Cool" which forces its way immediately into the heart and brain of the listener and becomes thoroughly domesticated. It is one of those things that keep whistling and humming themselves for days afterwards.

"Tuck Into It"

Death of Great

The death of Bob brought to light many world's great fighters

Not at all, "Two moons done th' busin' th'wud 've gone harry he'd lost th' fight in 'He'd have to go home 'I'll be five o' first lady y'r land Comforts of a "As me good friend van, says, 'tis a gre have little reminder by whin ye'er fightin

"Jawn had none, that account fr th' down at last. Th' is felt in fry walk in

"Whin Corbett we first jintleman iv th' man shinglin' a roof th' land stood in th' on th' brused an' bl 'Darlin' she say yer home, she say

"An' Fitz looked ov an' seen her face an' 'ly tenderness comin' Mr. C. Leavy, Kenney, she's a good as the love of a If I don't nail this ta Rippling F "A good old word th seed. Yet 'Gumpkin you need, if you woul if you have gumption though all the planets plot to hold you d live from hand to mou their lifetime poundi yonder in the rain; t vantes galore, and at their door have knocked in vain. W tions in their hearts, all the busy marts while things are do this world a killing, no gumption, and th chaps with gumption, with gumption howe

White House gave on his sign. The man w the yoke with everyt tals like to cheer bl but all his ventures t last the poorhouse c comes his pink abode spurs the laggard ste some and grip and things hard to beat; the word, I think, an honored gink who la feet.

Courier Pattern

LADY

FRANCE'S PREMIER "ACE" ON THE WESTERN FRONT
Lieut. Fank, who promises to succeed Gwynemer, as France's premier "Ace." He brought down the German aviator Wiseman, who after defeating Gwynemer exclaimed: "Now that Gwynemer is dead I fear nothing more."

Black Colors, Our Specialty, Cahill's

"Tuck Your Lovin' Hooks Into His Diseased Ribs," Was Mrs. Fitz' Advice

Death of Great Old Veteran Recalls Dooley Story Following Bob's Victory Over Corbett

The death of Bob Fitzsimmons has brought to light many stories of the world's greatest fighter.

Stored away in some old papers a reader found one of Finley Peter Dunne's real stories, which appeared in a Chicago newspaper after Fitz defeated Corbett at Carson City.

The story, one of the best perhaps that Dunne wrote in the days when he was making Hennessy and Archy road famous, follows:

"Twas this way," said Mr. Hennessy, sparring at Mr. Dooley.

"Fitz led his right light on the head, then he stuck his thumb in Corbett's heart, an' that was th' business."

"Not at all," said Mr. Dooley. "Not at all. 'Twas Mrs. Fitzsimmons done th' business. Did ye see th' pitcher iv th' lady's Devoe? Well, 'twould've gone har-r-d with th' lad if he'd lost th' fight in th' ring."

"He'd have to lose another at home. I'll bet five dollars that th' first lady iv th' land licks th' champion without th' aid iv a shove lid. I know it."

Comforts of a Fighter

"As me good friend, Jawn Sullivan, says, 'tis a great comfort to have little reminders iv home near by when ye're fightin'."

"Jawn had none, poor lad, an' that accoutn fr' th' way he went down at last. Th' home influence is felt iv fry walk iv life."

"Whin Corbett was poundin' th' first jintleman iv th' land like a man shinin' a roof th' first lady iv th' land stood in th' corner cheerin' on th' bruised an' bleedin' hero."

"Darlin'!" she says, "think iv ye'er home, me love. Think iv ye'er little child larnin' his catechism in Rahway, New Jersey," she says, "an' paste hm." she says, "in the slats. Don't hit him on the jaw," she says. "He's well thraited there. But tuck ye'er lovin' hooks into his diseased an' achin' ribs," she says. "Ah, love," she says, "recall them happy golden days iv our courtship, whin we walked th' country lane in th' light iv th' moon," she says, "an' hurl ye'er manlies in his hooons," she says. "Hit him on th' slats!"

"An' Fitz looked over his shoulder an' seen th' face an' strange feelin' iv tenderness come over him an' thinks he to himself: 'What is so good as the love of a pure woman. If I don't nail this large man she'll probably kick me in the head.' And with this sacred sentiment in his heart he went over an' jolted Corbett wan over the lathes.

"'Twas Woman's Love

"Father Kelly mentioned th' scrap in his sermon last Sunday. He said it was a disgraceful an' corruptin' affair, an' he was ashamed to see th' young men iv th' parish takin' such an' interest in it in Lent."

Father Doyle agrees

"But late Winesath afternoon he came bustlin' down th' street, "Nice dar," he says. It was poorin' rain. "Fine," says I. "They was no parade to-day," says he. "No," says I. "Too bad," he says, an' started to go thim he turned an' says he: "Be th' way, how did that there foul an' outrageous afray in Carson City come out?" "Fitz," says I, "in the fourteenth," "Ye don't say," he says, dancin' around. "Good," he says, "I told Father Doyle this mornin' at breakfast that if that r-r-d-headed man ever got wan punch at th' other lad I'd bet a new cassock—oh, dear! he says, "what am I sayin'?" "Ye'er sayin'," says I, "what nintenths iv th' people, laymen and clergy, are sayin'!" "I says, "Well," he says, "I guess ye're right," he says, "After all," he says, "an' under all, we're mere brutes, an' it's only takes two lad more brutal in th' best fr' to expose th' streak in th' best iv us. Fooorce rules the wurrd an' th' churches is empty whin th' blood begins to flow," he says, "Teh-mas-Corbett much hurted," he says, "—Chicago Post."

hand he win't over an' jolted Corbett wan over the lathes.

"'Twas Woman's Love

"Father Kelly mentioned th' scrap in his sermon last Sunday. He said it was a disgraceful an' corruptin' affair, an' he was ashamed to see th' young men iv th' parish takin' such an' interest in it in Lent."

Father Doyle agrees

"But late Winesath afternoon he came bustlin' down th' street, "Nice dar," he says. It was poorin' rain. "Fine," says I. "They was no parade to-day," says he. "No," says I. "Too bad," he says, an' started to go thim he turned an' says he: "Be th' way, how did that there foul an' outrageous afray in Carson City come out?" "Fitz," says I, "in the fourteenth," "Ye don't say," he says, dancin' around. "Good," he says, "I told Father Doyle this mornin' at breakfast that if that r-r-d-headed man ever got wan punch at th' other lad I'd bet a new cassock—oh, dear! he says, "what am I sayin'?" "Ye'er sayin'," says I, "what nintenths iv th' people, laymen and clergy, are sayin'!" "I says, "Well," he says, "I guess ye're right," he says, "After all," he says, "an' under all, we're mere brutes, an' it's only takes two lad more brutal in th' best fr' to expose th' streak in th' best iv us. Fooorce rules the wurrd an' th' churches is empty whin th' blood begins to flow," he says, "Teh-mas-Corbett much hurted," he says, "—Chicago Post."

hand he win't over an' jolted Corbett wan over the lathes.

"'Twas Woman's Love

"Father Kelly mentioned th' scrap in his sermon last Sunday. He said it was a disgraceful an' corruptin' affair, an' he was ashamed to see th' young men iv th' parish takin' such an' interest in it in Lent."

Father Doyle agrees

"But late Winesath afternoon he came bustlin' down th' street, "Nice dar," he says. It was poorin' rain. "Fine," says I. "They was no parade to-day," says he. "No," says I. "Too bad," he says, an' started to go thim he turned an' says he: "Be th' way, how did that there foul an' outrageous afray in Carson City come out?" "Fitz," says I, "in the fourteenth," "Ye don't say," he says, dancin' around. "Good," he says, "I told Father Doyle this mornin' at breakfast that if that r-r-d-headed man ever got wan punch at th' other lad I'd bet a new cassock—oh, dear! he says, "what am I sayin'?" "Ye'er sayin'," says I, "what nintenths iv th' people, laymen and clergy, are sayin'!" "I says, "Well," he says, "I guess ye're right," he says, "After all," he says, "an' under all, we're mere brutes, an' it's only takes two lad more brutal in th' best fr' to expose th' streak in th' best iv us. Fooorce rules the wurrd an' th' churches is empty whin th' blood begins to flow," he says, "Teh-mas-Corbett much hurted," he says, "—Chicago Post."

hand he win't over an' jolted Corbett wan over the lathes.

"'Twas Woman's Love

"Father Kelly mentioned th' scrap in his sermon last Sunday. He said it was a disgraceful an' corruptin' affair, an' he was ashamed to see th' young men iv th' parish takin' such an' interest in it in Lent."

Father Doyle agrees

"But late Winesath afternoon he came bustlin' down th' street, "Nice dar," he says. It was poorin' rain. "Fine," says I. "They was no parade to-day," says he. "No," says I. "Too bad," he says, an' started to go thim he turned an' says he: "Be th' way, how did that there foul an' outrageous afray in Carson City come out?" "Fitz," says I, "in the fourteenth," "Ye don't say," he says, dancin' around. "Good," he says, "I told Father Doyle this mornin' at breakfast that if that r-r-d-headed man ever got wan punch at th' other lad I'd bet a new cassock—oh, dear! he says, "what am I sayin'?" "Ye'er sayin'," says I, "what nintenths iv th' people, laymen and clergy, are sayin'!" "I says, "Well," he says, "I guess ye're right," he says, "After all," he says, "an' under all, we're mere brutes, an' it's only takes two lad more brutal in th' best fr' to expose th' streak in th' best iv us. Fooorce rules the wurrd an' th' churches is empty whin th' blood begins to flow," he says, "Teh-mas-Corbett much hurted," he says, "—Chicago Post."

hand he win't over an' jolted Corbett wan over the lathes.

"'Twas Woman's Love

"Father Kelly mentioned th' scrap in his sermon last Sunday. He said it was a disgraceful an' corruptin' affair, an' he was ashamed to see th' young men iv th' parish takin' such an' interest in it in Lent."

Father Doyle agrees

"But late Winesath afternoon he came bustlin' down th' street, "Nice dar," he says. It was poorin' rain. "Fine," says I. "They was no parade to-day," says he. "No," says I. "Too bad," he says, an' started to go thim he turned an' says he: "Be th' way, how did that there foul an' outrageous afray in Carson City come out?" "Fitz," says I, "in the fourteenth," "Ye don't say," he says, dancin' around. "Good," he says, "I told Father Doyle this mornin' at breakfast that if that r-r-d-headed man ever got wan punch at th' other lad I'd bet a new cassock—oh, dear! he says, "what am I sayin'?" "Ye'er sayin'," says I, "what nintenths iv th' people, laymen and clergy, are sayin'!" "I says, "Well," he says, "I guess ye're right," he says, "After all," he says, "an' under all, we're mere brutes, an' it's only takes two lad more brutal in th' best fr' to expose th' streak in th' best iv us. Fooorce rules the wurrd an' th' churches is empty whin th' blood begins to flow," he says, "Teh-mas-Corbett much hurted," he says, "—Chicago Post."

hand he win't over an' jolted Corbett wan over the lathes.

"'Twas Woman's Love

"Father Kelly mentioned th' scrap in his sermon last Sunday. He said it was a disgraceful an' corruptin' affair, an' he was ashamed to see th' young men iv th' parish takin' such an' interest in it in Lent."

Father Doyle agrees

"But late Winesath afternoon he came bustlin' down th' street, "Nice dar," he says. It was poorin' rain. "Fine," says I. "They was no parade to-day," says he. "No," says I. "Too bad," he says, an' started to go thim he turned an' says he: "Be th' way, how did that there foul an' outrageous afray in Carson City come out?" "Fitz," says I, "in the fourteenth," "Ye don't say," he says, dancin' around. "Good," he says, "I told Father Doyle this mornin' at breakfast that if that r-r-d-headed man ever got wan punch at th' other lad I'd bet a new cassock—oh, dear! he says, "what am I sayin'?" "Ye'er sayin'," says I, "what nintenths iv th' people, laymen and clergy, are sayin'!" "I says, "Well," he says, "I guess ye're right," he says, "After all," he says, "an' under all, we're mere brutes, an' it's only takes two lad more brutal in th' best fr' to expose th' streak in th' best iv us. Fooorce rules the wurrd an' th' churches is empty whin th' blood begins to flow," he says, "Teh-mas-Corbett much hurted," he says, "—Chicago Post."

hand he win't over an' jolted Corbett wan over the lathes.

"'Twas Woman's Love

"Father Kelly mentioned th' scrap in his sermon last Sunday. He said it was a disgraceful an' corruptin' affair, an' he was ashamed to see th' young men iv th' parish takin' such an' interest in it in Lent."

Father Doyle agrees

"But late Winesath afternoon he came bustlin' down th' street, "Nice dar," he says. It was poorin' rain. "Fine," says I. "They was no parade to-day," says he. "No," says I. "Too bad," he says, an' started to go thim he turned an' says he: "Be th' way, how did that there foul an' outrageous afray in Carson City come out?" "Fitz," says I, "in the fourteenth," "Ye don't say," he says, dancin' around. "Good," he says, "I told Father Doyle this mornin' at breakfast that if that r-r-d-headed man ever got wan punch at th' other lad I'd bet a new cassock—oh, dear! he says, "what am I sayin'?" "Ye'er sayin'," says I, "what nintenths iv th' people, laymen and clergy, are sayin'!" "I says, "Well," he says, "I guess ye're right," he says, "After all," he says, "an' under all, we're mere brutes, an' it's only takes two lad more brutal in th' best fr' to expose th' streak in th' best iv us. Fooorce rules the wurrd an' th' churches is empty whin th' blood begins to flow," he says, "Teh-mas-Corbett much hurted," he says, "—Chicago Post."

hand he win't over an' jolted Corbett wan over the lathes.

"'Twas Woman's Love

"Father Kelly mentioned th' scrap in his sermon last Sunday. He said it was a disgraceful an' corruptin' affair, an' he was ashamed to see th' young men iv th' parish takin' such an' interest in it in Lent."

Father Doyle agrees

"But late Winesath afternoon he came bustlin' down th' street, "Nice dar," he says. It was poorin' rain. "Fine," says I. "They was no parade to-day," says he. "No," says I. "Too bad," he says, an' started to go thim he turned an' says he: "Be th' way, how did that there foul an' outrageous afray in Carson City come out?" "Fitz," says I, "in the fourteenth," "Ye don't say," he says, dancin' around. "Good," he says, "I told Father Doyle this mornin' at breakfast that if that r-r-d-headed man ever got wan punch at th' other lad I'd bet a new cassock—oh, dear! he says, "what am I sayin'?" "Ye'er sayin'," says I, "what nintenths iv th' people, laymen and clergy, are sayin'!" "I says, "Well," he says, "I guess ye're right," he says, "After all," he says, "an' under all, we're mere brutes, an' it's only takes two lad more brutal in th' best fr' to expose th' streak in th' best iv us. Fooorce rules the wurrd an' th' churches is empty whin th' blood begins to flow," he says, "Teh-mas-Corbett much hurted," he says, "—Chicago Post."

hand he win't over an' jolted Corbett wan over the lathes.

"'Twas Woman's Love

"Father Kelly mentioned th' scrap in his sermon last Sunday. He said it was a disgraceful an' corruptin' affair, an' he was ashamed to see th' young men iv th' parish takin' such an' interest in it in Lent."

Father Doyle agrees

"But late Winesath afternoon he came bustlin' down th' street, "Nice dar," he says. It was poorin' rain. "Fine," says I. "They was no parade to-day," says he. "No," says I. "Too bad," he says, an' started to go thim he turned an' says he: "Be th' way, how did that there foul an' outrageous afray in Carson City come out?" "Fitz," says I, "in the fourteenth," "Ye don't say," he says, dancin' around. "Good," he says, "I told Father Doyle this mornin' at breakfast that if that r-r-d-headed man ever got wan punch at th' other lad I'd bet a new cassock—oh, dear! he says, "what am I sayin'?" "Ye'er sayin'," says I, "what nintenths iv th' people, laymen and clergy, are sayin'!" "I says, "Well," he says, "I guess ye're right," he says, "After all," he says, "an' under all, we're mere brutes, an' it's only takes two lad more brutal in th' best fr' to expose th' streak in th' best iv us. Fooorce rules the wurrd an' th' churches is empty whin th' blood begins to flow," he says, "Teh-mas-Corbett much hurted," he says, "—Chicago Post."

hand he win't over an' jolted Corbett wan over the lathes.

"'Twas Woman's Love

"Father Kelly mentioned th' scrap in his sermon last Sunday. He said it was a disgraceful an' corruptin' affair, an' he was ashamed to see th' young men iv th' parish takin' such an' interest in it in Lent."

Father Doyle agrees

"But late Winesath afternoon he came bustlin' down th' street, "Nice dar," he says. It was poorin' rain. "Fine," says I. "They was no parade to-day," says he. "No," says I. "Too bad," he says, an' started to go thim he turned an' says he: "Be th' way, how did that there foul an' outrageous afray in Carson City come out?" "Fitz," says I, "in the fourteenth," "Ye don't say," he says, dancin' around. "Good," he says, "I told Father Doyle this mornin' at breakfast that if that r-r-d-headed man ever got wan punch at th' other lad I'd bet a new cassock—oh, dear! he says, "what am I sayin'?" "Ye'er sayin'," says I, "what nintenths iv th' people, laymen and clergy, are sayin'!" "I says, "Well," he says, "I guess ye're right," he says, "After all," he says, "an' under all, we're mere brutes, an' it's only takes two lad more brutal in th' best fr' to expose th' streak in th' best iv us. Fooorce rules the wurrd an' th' churches is empty whin th' blood begins to flow," he says, "Teh-mas-Corbett much hurted," he says, "—Chicago Post."

hand he win't over an' jolted Corbett wan over the lathes.

"'Twas Woman's Love

"Father Kelly mentioned th' scrap in his sermon last Sunday. He said it was a disgraceful an' corruptin' affair, an' he was ashamed to see th' young men iv th' parish takin' such an' interest in it in Lent."

Father Doyle agrees

"But late Winesath afternoon he came bustlin' down th' street, "Nice dar," he says. It was poorin' rain. "Fine," says I. "They was no parade to-day," says he. "No," says I. "Too bad," he says, an' started to go thim he turned an' says he: "Be th' way, how did that there foul an' outrageous afray in Carson City come out?" "Fitz," says I, "in the fourteenth," "Ye don't say," he says, dancin' around. "Good," he says, "I told Father Doyle this mornin' at breakfast that if that r-r-d-headed man ever got wan punch at th' other lad I'd bet a new cassock—oh, dear! he says, "what am I sayin'?" "Ye'er sayin'," says I, "what nintenths iv th' people, laymen and clergy, are sayin'!" "I says, "Well," he says, "I guess ye're right," he says, "After all," he says, "an' under all, we're mere brutes, an' it's only takes two lad more brutal in th' best fr' to expose th' streak in th' best iv us. Fooorce rules the wurrd an' th' churches is empty whin th' blood begins to flow," he says, "Teh-mas-Corbett much hurted," he says, "—Chicago Post."

hand he win't over an' jolted Corbett wan over the lathes.

"'Twas Woman's Love

"Father Kelly mentioned th' scrap in his sermon last Sunday. He said it was a disgraceful an' corruptin' affair, an' he was ashamed to see th' young men iv th' parish takin' such an' interest in it in Lent."

Father Doyle agrees

"But late Winesath afternoon he came bustlin' down th' street, "Nice dar," he says. It was poorin' rain. "Fine," says I. "They was no parade to-day," says he. "No," says I. "Too bad," he says, an' started to go thim he turned an' says he: "Be th' way, how did that there foul an' outrageous afray in Carson City come out?" "Fitz," says I, "in the fourteenth," "Ye don't say," he says, dancin' around. "Good," he says, "I told Father Doyle this mornin' at breakfast that if that r-r-d-headed man ever got wan punch at th' other lad I'd bet a new cassock—oh, dear! he says, "what am I sayin'?" "Ye'er sayin'," says I, "what nintenths iv th' people, laymen and clergy, are sayin'!" "I says, "Well," he says, "I guess ye're right," he says, "After all," he says, "an' under all, we're mere brutes, an' it's only takes two lad more brutal in th' best fr' to expose th' streak in th' best iv us. Fooorce rules the wurrd an' th' churches is empty whin th' blood begins to flow," he says, "Teh-mas-Corbett much hurted," he says, "—Chicago Post."

SIDE TALKS

THEY ALSO SERVE.

"They also serve who only stand and wait."

There is a tremendous wave of sympathy, a fine passion of helpfulness sweeping through our country, for the man behind the gun.

Everywhere women knit and sew and organize for him, and men give their time and money toward movements to make his life bearable.

Which is it to be?

The Woman Behind the Man Behind the Gun

But in all this excitement let us not forget someone as important to the welfare of the nation and often facing as great privations as the soldier—the woman behind the man behind the gun.

He may die for his country, she has to live for hers.

And I am not at all sure that his is the greater sacrifice.

The Inglorious Miserable Fight With Poverty

I know for my own part that I would rather, had I the choice, go to the front and, swept on by the big spirit of the thing, risk my life, than watch the one I loved best go forth to risk his life and then go back home to an empty home, to fight the inglorious, miserable single-headed fight with poverty (as so many women have to do) and to carry about all the time in my heart the black fear.

Did you ever have a doctor say to you that one dearly beloved to you would perhaps be out of danger in a week? And did you think "How can I wait though that week to know he is safe?" Well, think of the months of waiting which these women face.

Did you ever dread the ring of the telephone or the coming of the postman? And they must live with that dread all the time.

Of course I don't want you to forget the soldier but I want you to remember his wife and family. Look about you to see if there are any cases of privation on account of the war in your neighborhood. Go out with your head for diversion and cheer to those who are not in material want. Give them in anyway you can the honor that they deserve. Surely no where else could honor to whom honor is due be more worthily paid.

LEMONS BRING OUT THE HIDDEN BEAUTY

Make this lotion for very little cost and just see for yourself.

An attractive skin wins admiration. In social life and in business the girl whose face and hands show evidence of constant care enjoys a tremendous advantage over those who do not realize the value of a healthy skin and a spotless complexion.

At the cost of a small jar of ordinary cold cream one can prepare a full quarter pint of the most wonderful lemon skin softener and complexion beautifier, by squeezing the juice of two fresh lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of orchard white. Care should be taken to strain the juice through a fine cloth so no lemon pulp gets in, then this lotion will keep fresh for months. Every woman knows that lemon juice is used to bleach and remove such blemishes as freckles, sallowness and tan, and is the best skin softener, soothe and beautifier.

Just try it! Get three ounces of orchard white at any pharmacy and make up a quarter pint of lotion as directed. It is so easy to use and so sure to bring out the roses and beauty of any skin.

ment of St. George Methodist S.S. Dear fellow worker.—As members of your staff, engaged in the important and responsible duty of training the young in the principles of right living, we wish to express to you our appreciation of your unweary efforts, in the face of many difficulties, and at considerable inconvenience, and to say that we have noted with no small degree of satisfaction your efficient management of the school's activities, and your efforts at leading up to the one great aim of all S.S. work, the winning of the child for Christ, and the linking of the child to the church, as Christ's great representative on earth. These are matters for which we are all grateful, and ideals towards which we all desire to direct our efforts.

We recognize the quality of your mind and heart, which fit you in no small degree for this department of our church work, have been cheerfully given, and we wish for you not only the compliments of the season but many years of service in what we believe is your much-loved work. As a slight token of our appreciation of your efforts, and of our congenial fellowship in the work of the S.S. we ask you to accept this copy of the New Methodist hymn book lately published by our church. May it be to you a source of joy, and an inspiration in rendering the praises of our common Lord and Saviour.

Signed on behalf of the teachers and officers of the school.

The presentation was made by Miss M. Morris. Mr. Howell replied very suitably, after which God Save the King was sung and the presents distributed to the S.S. scholars.

CREAM FOR CATARRH OPENS UP NOSTRILS

Tells How To Get Quick Relief From Head-Colds. It's Scientific!

In one minute your congested nostrils will open, the air passages of your head will clear and you can breathe freely. No more hacking, snuffling, blowing, head-ache, dizziness. No struggling for breath at night, your eye and catarrh will be gone.

Get a small bottle of Dr. E.C. Cream Balm from your druggist now. Apply a little of this fragrant, antiseptic, healing cream in your nostrils. It penetrates through every air passage of the head, soothes the inflamed or swollen mucous membrane and relief comes instantly.

It's just fine. Don't stay stuffed-up with a cold or nasty catarrh—Relief comes so quickly.

BUCKEYE FAIRY.

David's mamma was very sick, and David ran errands for the neighbors to earn the few pennies to buy their bread. For David's mamma was very poor.

One cold day as David was on his way home he saw an old woman chopping wood. David felt very sorry for her, so he took the axe, chopped the wood, and built her a lovely fire!

"It's a good boy you are, David," said the old woman in a trembling voice. "But I've no pennies to pay you for your trouble, as I'm only a poor woman myself."

"One never expects pay for a good deed done," replied David, and drawing out a handful of pennies he offered them to the old woman, saying, "That's what you need. I've enough to share for my day has been good!"

But the old woman shook her head and said:

"No, David, make them to your mamma. But here's a buckeye. Some day it brings luck to carry one. I wish you luck for the kindness you've shown me."

"I'll keep the buckeye for luck, if you'll give me a penny for bread," bargained David.

The old woman smiled, took the pennies, and gave David the buckeye, which he put in his pocket and quickly ran home, while the old woman was waiting for him. She looked so patient and sad that David kissed her thin white cheeks with special tenderness.

"Mamma, I do wish you were well and strong again," cried David to his mamma.

The words were no sooner out of his mouth than his mamma threw off the covers and jumped out of bed, just as well and strong as she used to be.

"What has done this wonderful thing!" she cried. "Before you came home I was very ill, and now—why, I'm well!"

"I wish I knew, then we could help others," cried David to his mamma.

Out of his pocket rolled the buckeye. It opened, and a tiny fairy sprang out.

"The old woman whom you helped was none other than the Good Fairy in disguise. She has given you my buckeye house, and with it now to grant all your wishes. I'm now at your command!" cried Buckeye Fairy.

"What gives us this supper?" laughed David. He could scarcely believe his eyes when the table before them spread itself with a lovely hot supper.

David and his mamma never again had to go without bread, for all David had to do was to wish and Buckeye Fairy saw that his wish was granted.

David with his buckeye in his pocket went from house to house curing all the sick and bringing help to the needy. He grew to be an old man whom every one loved and admired for his great goodness and his beautiful unselfishness.

CAINSVILLE

(From Our Own Correspondent.) Miss Pearl Ludlow spent Tuesday with her mother.

We are very sorry to hear that Mrs. J. Humphrey has recently gone under an operation, but is improving.

We regret to hear that Mr. Watson will be leaving the village on the 21st.

Mrs. Hanley spent Wednesday in Hamilton.

Miss Evelyn Bradd spent the weekend at Brantford.

Mrs. and Mrs. Bert Holbrook and baby of Buffalo, Mrs. J. Holbrook and Dorothy of Welland, spent Tuesday with Mrs. Islett.

Miss Ruth Moore of Brantford spent Wednesday with Miss M. Bradd.

Mrs. and Mrs. Ramey entertained a number of their friends on Tuesday.

We regret to hear that Mr. Doddy is very ill.

Mrs. Short and family of Brantford spent the week-end with her mother, Mrs. Vanechle.

Miss Laura Spangier is spending a few of her holidays with Mrs. Violet Humphrey.

Mrs. Fred Balmont of Meese Jew is sending a few months with Mrs. MacWilliam.

The Breggs spent Tuesday and Wednesday in Woodstock.

WRIGLEY'S

During convalescence, and when appetite lags WRIGLEY'S brings to the hot, dry mouth a freshness and a soothing balm that coaxes back the enthusiasm of health.

Thousands of soldiers in Europe have cause to thank Wrigley's for its tonic effect.

The Flavour Lasts

Keep your fighter supplied

MADE IN CANADA

After every meal

WRIGLEY'S SPEARMINT THE PERFECT GUM WITH LASTING FLAVOUR

WRIGLEY'S DOUBLE MINT CHEWING GUM

WRIGLEY'S JUICY FRUIT CHEWING GUM

Rippling Rhymes

A good old word that's gone to seed. Yet "gumption" is the stuff you need, if you would gain renown; if you have gumption you will win, though all the planets may be in a plot to hold you down. So many live from hand to mouth, and spend their lifetime pounding sand, out yonder in the rain! They've had advantages galore, and golden chances at their door have knocked, and knocked in vain. With good intentions in their hearts, they failed in all the busy marts where worth while things are done; they found this world a killing frost; they had no gumption, and they lost, while chance with gumption won. The man with gumption hews his way from lowly station day by day, to something high and fine; as Lincoln rose from low estate, until upon the White House gate one day he nailed his sign. The man without it hits the pike with everything that mortals like to cheer him on his road; but all his ventures turn out ill; at last the porchouse on the hill becomes his punk abode. 'Tis gumption spurs the laggard step, it stands for sense and grip and pep, and all things hard to beat; 'twas Eli coined the word, I think, and Eli was the honored gink who landed with both feet.

Courier Daily: Valuable Suggestions for the Handy Homemaker — Order any Pattern Through The Courier. State size.

LADY'S FOUR GORED SKIRT.

By Anabel Worthington.

For a practical and up to date gored skirt it would be hard to find one with more style to it than No. 6544. There is very little fitting to be done because in the new skirts the gores are cut almost straight, and the extra fullness is gathered to the inside belt. No. 6544 is an exceptionally good skirt for slim or medium figures. The straight gores at back and front give long lines, and the large pockets with covered flaps for trimming add an interesting touch. The model is gathered all around the slightly raised waist line. The top of the narrow belt is a matter of choice.

The four-gored gored skirt, pattern No. 6544, is cut in five sizes—24 to 32 inches waist measurement. Width at lower edge of skirt is 2 1/2 yards. As on the figure, the 26 inch size requires 5 3/4 yards 36 inch or 2 1/2 yards 44 inch material.

SUTHERLAND'S

WE CAN FURNISH YOUR Office Supplies

of every description in the way of account books, office diaries, pocket diaries, black calendars, Shannon Files and other filing devices. Loose Leaf Devices, Stafford's Inks and Mucilage, Carters Inks and Mucilage, Stevens Inks and Mucilage; Paste in all sizes; Pens and Penholders; Pencils and Pencil Sharpeners; Carbon Papers, Typewriter Papers, etc.; Typewriter Ribbons.

When you require any supplies for your office come to us and we will furnish them for you.

Jas. L. Sutherland

MERCANTILE STATIONER

WELL ATTEND BUSINESS LECTURES.

Arrangements are being made by many of Brantford's business men to attend the Frank Sutherland lectures in Hamilton this week. Mr. Sutherland is lecturer and secretary for the Educational Committee of the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World, and has a real live message for business men. Information regarding the lectures can be had from J. A. Powell, at The Courier office.

EAT CABBAGE, FISH SAUSAGE, NEW BREAD

No Indigestion, Gas, Sourness or Upset. Stomach if you'll take "Pepp's Diapenta" every time!

Do some foods you eat hit back—taste good, but work badly; ferment into stubborn lumps and cause a sick, sour, gassy stomach? Now, Mr. or Mrs. Dyspeptic, get this down. Pepp's Diapenta digests everything, leaving nothing to sour and upset you. There never was anything so safely quick so certainly effective. No heartburn, no bad body, your stomach is disordered, you will get happy relief in five minutes, but what pleases you most is that it strengthens and regulates your stomach so you can eat your favorite foods without fear. Pepp's Diapenta gives you relief sometimes they are slow, but not sure. "Pepp's Diapenta" is quick, positive and puts your stomach in a healthy condition so the misery won't come back.

You feel different as soon as "Pepp's Diapenta" comes in contact with the stomach—distress just vanishes—your stomach feels sweet, no gases, no belching, no eructation of undigested food, your head clear and you feel that you are well again.

Now make the best investment you ever made, by getting a large 15-cent case of Pepp's Diapenta from any drug store. You realize in five minutes how a diet less is in after from indigestion, dyspepsia or any stomach disorder.

323 Colborne Street
BELL 90 MACHINE 4

THEATRE

Finest Melodramatic Picture ever offered to the public.

IN THE LAW

ing Alice Jones and Harry Morley.

ge's Greatest Production Picturized.

OLD JARVIS

ular Concert Singer.

Act Beautiful.

La Toy and Her

osting Dogs

st Refined Posing in Vaudeville

8th Chapter

S NUMBER ONE

Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

g's Biggest Success

MANY MAN

Ellisabeth Risdon, Proves and 10,000.

Entirely filmed.

the Isle of Man.

ance in prices for big Productions.

Jan. 11th

MENTS

MEDIEUNNE

ON

ashioned

melodrama Farce dialogue.

0, $1.50

UG STORE.

Jan. 8th.

RSTEIN

NG SUCCESS

KA

FRIMAL

RES THE FIREFRY

RES. NEWYORK

illery 50c.

STORE

Orchestra

EMIER "ACE" ON

TERN FRONT

who promises to succ-

France's premier

ght down the German

n, who after defeat-

xclaimed: "Now that ad I fear nothing

ed. The author, possesses extraordi-

character portrayals, lft she combines a for narrative. She persons and she str-

in the relation of a y in "A Little Bit

y of laughter Miss upported by an ex-

of players, includ-

Edward L. Smith,

Peery Cameron,

Lillian Harner.

COURIER "Classified" Advertising Pays

RATES: Wants, For Sale, etc., 10 words or less; 1 insertion, 15c; 2 insertions, 25c; 3 insertions, 35c. Over 10 words, 1 cent per word; 1-2 cent per word each subsequent insertion. Coming Events - Two cents a word each insertion. Minimum ad. 25 words. Births, Marriages, Deaths, Memorial Notices and Cards of Thanks 50c per insertion. Above rates are strictly cash with the order. For information on advertising, phone 125.

Buy, Sell, Rent, Lease, Hire or secure a situation. Use Courier Classified Columns.
Don't close that empty room. Rent it through a Courier Classified Advt. It's easy.

Male Help Wanted

- WANTED—Two Lathes hands. John H. Hall & Sons, Ltd. M/9
- WANTED—Two men for finishing department. Apply Silngsby Manufacturing Co. M/34.
- WANTED—One good teamster. $18 per week. Geo. Yake, 1 Grandview St. Phone 926. M/52
- WANTED—Night Watchman, Apply Watson Manufacturing Co., Holmdale.
- WANTED—Good smart man to drive wagon. The Canadian Express Co. M/3
- WANTED—Floor and machine moulders. Apply Supt. Cockshutt Plow Company.
- WANTED—Two good men for a garbage wagon. Apply J. T. Burrows. M/3
- WANTED—A boy for office work and errands. Apply Pratt and Letchworth Ltd.
- WANTED AT ONCE—Smart young man. College education, for office and outside work. Courier Office.
- WANTED—Gentleman roomer, private home, central all conveniences. Box 401 Courier. M/W11
- WANTED—A man for delivery. Apply 43 Dalhousie street. Benwell Fish Co. M/11
- WANTED—Boy to carry papers to Starch Works. Good wages. Apply Courier Office.
- WANTED—For Junior position in Office, youth from fifteen to seventeen years of age. Apply Waterous Engine Works. M/32
- WANTED—Driver for single wagon, must know the city well. Steady job for right man. Apply Dominion Flour Mills Limited, Market street. M/9
- WANTED—A man with good office and business experience desires position in office or store. Have had three years and a half experience in hardware. Apply Box 350 Courier. S/W44

Legal

- BREWSTER & HEYD—Barristers, etc., Solicitors for the Royal Loan and Savings Co., the Bank of Hamilton, etc. Money to loan at lowest rates. W. S. Brewster, K. C., Geo. D. Heyd.
- ERNEST R. READ—Barrister, Solicitor, Notary public, etc. Money to loan on improved real estate at current rates and on easy terms. Office 121-1-2 Colborne St. Phone 487.
- JONES AND HEWITT—Barristers, etc., Solicitors. Solicitors for the Bank of Nova Scotia. Money to loan. Offices: Bank of Hamilton Chambers Colborne and Market Sts. Bell phone 604. S. Alfred Jones, K. C., H. S. Hewitt.

Elocution

MISS SQUIRE will resume her classes in psychology, elocution, oratory, dramatic art, and literature on Monday, October 1st. All subjects are taught on the Mind Development principle. Studio 12 Peel street.

Boys' Shoes

HAND MADE, machine finished, all solid leather, sizes 11 to 5. All shoe repairing of all kinds. W. S. Pettit, 10 South Market street.

For Rent

- TO RENT—Two unfurnished rooms. Apply 41 Duke St. T/30
- TO RENT—Medium moderate house; conveniences. Apply 172 Sheridan street. T/5
- TO LET—First class site for up-to-date grocery store in North Ward, all conveniences. Apply corner Pearl and Palace streets.
- LADIES WANTED to do plain and light sewing at home, whole or spare time; good pay; work sent any distance, charges paid. Send stamp for particulars. National Manufacturing Co., Montreal. Feb. 9

Chiropractic

CARRIE M. HESS, D. C., Granddaughter of the University Chiropractic College, Davenport, Ia. Office in Ballantyne Building, 195 Colborne St. Office hours 9:30 a.m., 11:30 and 7:30 to 8:30 p.m. Evenings by appointment Phone Bell 2425.

Female Help Wanted

- WANTED—Girl to help in kitchen. Apply, Assembly Cafe, 31 Dalhousie Street. W/38.
- WANTED—A housemaid. Apply Belmont Hotel. F/3
- WANTED—Stenographer by manufacturing Co. must be first-class and thoroughly experienced. Apply Box 392 Courier. F/1
- WANTED—Two young women to help in sorting and grading department. Apply Silngsby Mfg. Co. F/50
- WANTED—Dining-room girl. Apply New Benwell Hotel, 187 Market street. F/13
- WANTED—Girl for general housework. Apply 15 Albion St. F/38
- WANTED—A woman to do washing and ironing at home. Apply, Box 62, Courier. F/44
- WANTED—Experienced weavers and apprentices; steady work. Highest wages paid. Apply Silngsby Mfg. Co., Ltd. F/46
- WANTED—A woman to wash and iron, highest wages. Apply, Box 385, Courier. F/46
- WANTED—Housekeeper, good home, two in family, permanent home for right party. Apply Box 402 Courier. F/11
- WANTED—Two smart young girls to assist in weaving department. Silngsby Manufacturing Co. F/44
- WANTED—A respectable widow, middle aged, wishes position as housekeeper. Box 384 Courier. F/36
- WANTED—Young girl for putting glue in packages. Clean congenial work. Apply Canada Glue Co. Limited. F/30

Miscellaneous Wants

- WANTED—By young lady of experience, general office work. Apply Box 403 Courier. S/W13
- WANTED—Room and board for young couple. Centrally located. Phone 18. M/W17
- WANTED—Position as fireman and night watchman. Experienced. Apply 11 Wilkes street. M/W11
- Wanted—Warm room, single, central, reasonable. Apply Box 399 Courier.
- WANTED—One or two respectable gentlemen boarders in a private home. Apply 277 Murray. M/W13
- SKATES hollow ground by new electrical method. J. W. King. General repairing, 150 Dalhousie Street.
- WANTED TO RENT—Nicely furnished flat or housekeeping rooms; central, young couple; no children. Box 389 Courier. M/W44
- WANTED—All A. R. men in Brantford to join A. R. Club. Meets every Friday evening returned Soldiers home, Dalhousie St. M/W13
- WANTED—Old False Teeth! don't matter if broken. I pay $3 to $15 per set. Send by parcel post and receive check by return mail. F. Teri, 403 N. Wolfe St. Baltimore.

Home work

WOULD YOU like $1 or $2 daily at home, knitting war socks on Auto Knitters? Experience unnecessary. Send 3c stamp. Dept. 12C. Auto Knitter Company, College St., Toronto. D/17

Situations Vacant

YOU CAN MAKE $25 TO $75 weekly, writing show cards at home, easily learned by our simple method; no canvassing or soliciting. We sell your work. Write for particulars. American Show Card School, 801 Yonge street, Toronto. S/Feb.23

Architects

WILLIAM C. TILLEY—Registered Architect, Member of the Ontario Association of Architects. Office, 11 Temple Building, Phone 1937.

Contractor

JOHN MCGRAW AND SON, contractors. Get our tender before you build. Office phone 1227. Residence phone 1223, 5 King street.

Articles For Sale

- FOR SALE—Three fresh cows. Phone 211 R. 3. A/43
- FOR SALE—Or Exchange, on a Ford automobile, good driver. John Easton, Box 141, Brantford. A/38
- FOR SALE—Potatoes, (while they last) $2.25 per bag. 135 Sydney street, or 161 Erie Ave. Phone 621 or 2474. A224
- FOR SALE—In good village 8-roomed brick dwelling grocery store connected with grading department. Box 397 Courier. R/3
- FOR SALE—Dodge Brothers Touring car in A-1 condition only driven 6,000 miles; will take Ford car in part payment. Apply Box 400 Courier. A/9
- FOR SALE—Two fresh Jersey cows, two registered Jersey bulls. Peter Porter, Brantford, Automatic phone.
- FOR SALE—CHEAP—Good sewing machine. 263 Clarence street. A/44
- FOR SALE—Ford Touring car in good condition. Price $275.00 easy terms. Apply Box 898 Courier. A/9
- FOR SALE—Get Delone's Magic Oil for Lumbago, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Bronchitis, Inflammation, Gout, Etc. Gives immediate relief. For sale at all leading druggists.
- FOR SALE—Hardwood, Beech and maple of the very best quality. Cut suitable for any stove or furnace. Stove wood 12 to 14 inches, $6.00 per cord. Firance blocks $6 cord. Delivered to any part of the city. 153 Terrace Hill or phone 2185. Auto wagon will call at your service. A/41

Osteopathic

- DR. CHRISTIE IRWIN—Graduate of American School of Osteopathy is now at 13 Nelson street. Office hours: 9 to 12 a.m. and 2 to 5 p.m. Bell telephone 1380.
- DR. C. H. SAUBER—Graduate American School of Osteopathy, Kirksville, Missouri. Office Suite 6, Temple Building, 76 Dalhousie St. Residence, 38 Edgerton St. Office phone 1544, home phone 2125. Office hours: 9 to 12 a.m. 2 to 5 p.m. evening by appointment at the house or office.
- DR. GANDIER, Bank of Hamilton Building, Hours 9 to 6. Evenings, Tuesday and Saturday. Graduate under Discoverer. Osteopathy re-adjusts all parts of the human body, restores freedom of nerve energy and blood flow which are the greatest essentials of good health.

Shoe Repairing

BRING YOUR Repairs to Johnson's Electric Shoe Repair store, Eagle Place. Satisfaction guaranteed. Phone 497 Machine.

SHEPPARD'S 73 Colborne Street—Electric Shoe Repairing. Work Guaranteed. Phone, Bell 1207. Automatic 207.

Dental

DR. RUSSELL, Dentist—Latest American methods of painless dentistry, 201 Colborne St., opposite the Market over Western Counties Office, Phone 306.

Professional

DR. L. G. PEARCE, Specialist in Diseases of the Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat. Office: Bank of Commerce Building, Hours: 1:30 to 5 p.m. Other hours by appointment. Phone, office: Bell 1885, machine 558. Residence Bell 2430.

PERSONAL

TO couple who left Brantford on December 18. If the lady returns by Monday no further action will be taken.

Eye, Ear, Nose, Throat

DR. C. B. BECKEL AND DR. N. W. BRAGG—Eye, ear, nose and throat, specialists. Office 65 Brant Avenue. Bell Telephone 1013, Machine 101. Office hours 10 to 12 a.m. and 2 to 4 p.m.

Lost

- LOST—On Monday, ladies gold handkerchief, initials E.M. T. R. Reward at Courier. L/52
- LOST—Gold Pendant and chain. Reward phone 1903. L/1
- LOST—On Dufferin or Brant Ave. Knitting bag, containing white sock and wool. Finder kindly return to 96 Dufferin Ave. L/3
- LOST—Leather Purse containing sum of money. Return to Courier and receive reward. L/3
- LOST—Black leather purse containing money. Reward at Courier. L/46
- LOST—Saturday afternoon pair of eye glasses. Return to 75 Brant Ave. Reward. L/7
- LOST—Will the person who picked up $10 bill in Post Office. Woolworth's or Ogilvie's kindly return to 177 Wellington. Reward. L/5
- LOST—Ladies gold watch initials E. M. J. New Year's Day. Return to Hospital. L/7
- LOST—Monday on Colborne Street black hand purse containing about fourteen dollars. Finder return to Parker's Dye Works. Reward. L/46
- LOST—On Monday afternoon a cameo ring an Colborne Street. Reward at Courier. L/43
- LOST—On Dec. 31st, White Fox Terrier, Brown head. Answers the name of Spike. Persons found harboring dog after this notice will be prosecuted. Reward at 31 Peel street. BRIDGE ST. L/47
- LOST—In West Brantford or on Burford road, cushion out of chair, please leave at No. 9 George street. Reward. BRIDGE ST. L/47

Business Cards

BRANTFORD BOTTLE EXCHANGE—A man buys all kinds of bottles, paper, metal, and waste products, paying highest market price. Apply 153 Terrace Hill or phone 2185. Auto wagon will call at your service.

FOUND

FOUND—In Royal Cafe two pair of glasses and small parcel. Owner can have same by proving property and paying for ad. L/3

SMOKE El Fair Clear Havana Cigars 10 to 25 cents Fair's Havana Bouquet Cigar 10 cents straight Manufactured by T. J. FAIR & CO., LTD. BRANTFORD, ONT.

Your Dealer Can Supply You With BLUE LAKE BRAND PORTLAND CEMENT Manufactured by ONTARIO PORTLAND CEMENT COMPANY, LTD. Head Office - Brantford

The Gentlemen's Valet

CLEANING, PRESSING DYEING AND REPAIRING LADIES WORK A SPECIALTY Goods called for and delivered on the shortest notice G. H. W. BECK, 152 Market St.

FOR SALE

by G. W. Haviland, 61 Brant Street. $1,600 for 25 acres; frame house, 1 1/2 storey, 7 rooms; good cellar, bank barn 30x50, hen house, hog pen, two acres of orchard, best of fruit, strawberries and raspberries; 16 acres seeded, all under cultivation; best of soil, near Burford. On easy terms. $4,000 for 50 acres; good frame house, 8 rooms, 1 1/2 storey, bank barn 30x50, drive house, shed, one acre of fruit, 30 acres of timber, 60 acres under cultivation; good loam soil. A snap. $4,600 for 50 acres; good brick house, nine rooms, large bank barn, silo, cement, 163x6, drive barn 30x22 implement house 18x24, steel windmill; 24 acres seeded, seven acres of fruit, 30 acres of timber. A bargain. Good loam soil. $7,000 for 100 acres, a choice clay loam farm, brick house, large bank barn, drive house. A snap. $1,700 for 25 acres, fair buildings, 370 other farms. G. W. Haviland, 61 Brant street, Brantford. Phone 1530.

Sporting Comment

WAR ON THE "SPITTER." The action of the American association in barring the use of the spitball foreshadows similar legislation by other baseball organizations, including the two major leagues. Agitation against the delivery has been heard at frequent intervals since it became the chief asset of many twirlers several years ago, but opponents of the move to curtail the use of the spitball argued that such legislation would be an injustice to certain clubs and to many boxmen. So in turn each attempt to abolish this form of delivery was abandoned. Now that a league as prominent as the American association has taken the initiative other leagues will follow. The spitball always has been distasteful to the governing bodies of baseball, just as it has been to patrons. Certain players saw it a few years ago, to complain that it was unsanitary because of an outbreak of tonsillitis, which they charged to the spitball. A pitcher who reeled notably upon this delivery, was taken down after pitching a game, and other players who had taken part in the contest found themselves victims of the same ailment. The spectacle of a baseman announcing the ball with saliva is anything but pleasing, and there will be no regrets when it follows the emery ball and other freak deliveries out of the sport. To legitimate the delivery out of the minor leagues with the passing of a vote would be unfair to certain pitchers and to their clubs, as has been contended. The proper method would be to pass a rule forbidding the use of the spitball after a certain date, two or three years hence. This would allow pitchers now in the major leagues to prepare for the change by perfecting themselves in the use of methods that will be permissible when their favorite delivery passes out. At the same time young pitchers in the minors will be served with notice that spitball specialties are not wanted in the majors. Especially of those who would return to the majors without the use of any foreign substance on the ball. Barring the emery ball was a move in the right direction and similar action against the use of the spitball must follow.

SAMMY HERBERT the Toronto goalkeeper, who by his brilliant work in the net paved the way for a Toronto victory over Ottawa.

MACABEES INSTALLED OFFICERS

The installation of the officers of the Redemption Tent No. 15 took place on Thursday evening last in their regular hall in the presence of a large and enthusiastic attendance of members. The ceremony was conducted by G. H. Townsend of Dundas. The officers installed were as follows: Past Commander, W. Penny. Commander, Thos. Blower. Record Keeper, Wm. Lake. Financial Keeper, Noah Wilfong. Physician, Dr. Wylie. Chaplain, F. Howie. Sergeant, C. Crane. Master at Arms, F. Vallance. 1st Master of Guards, W. Home. 2nd Master of Guards, J. Wilson. Sentinel, E. Blackwell. Pleket, F. W. Scott. After the installation, two hours were pleasantly and profitably spent with carpet balls and other games. Some pointed and helpful speeches were made by the officers installed, and the installing officer, who spoke at some length concerning the vital relationship of the order to the Great War. He stated that many thousands of the members were now fighting in France for the world's liberties, and many had already paid the costly price. He said that the great order of the Macabees was faithfully protecting the homes and loved ones of those fighting for us, and that without extra insurance cost to those in khaki. He urged upon the members that they thoughtfully and tenderly look after the tion for the injuries done in violation of international law. The peace conference must not forget our seamen and the services they have rendered to and the outrages they have suffered for the common cause of freedom. "One omission we notice in the proposal of the Central powers which seems to us especially regrettable. It is desirable and essential that the settlement after this war shall be one which does not in itself bear the seed of future war. But that is not enough. However wisely and well we may make territorial and other arrangements, there will still be many subjects of international controversy. Some, indeed, are inevitable.

LLOYD GEORGE

Continued from Page Seven

Trade After the War

"Economic conditions at the end of the war will be in the highest degree difficult owing to the diversion of human efforts to war-like pursuits. There must follow a world shortage of raw materials which will increase the longer the war lasts, and it is inevitable that those countries which have control of raw materials will desire to help themselves and their friends first. Apart from this, whatever settlement is made will be suitable only to the circumstances under which it is made, and as those circumstances change, changes in the settlement will be called for.

The Burden of Armaments

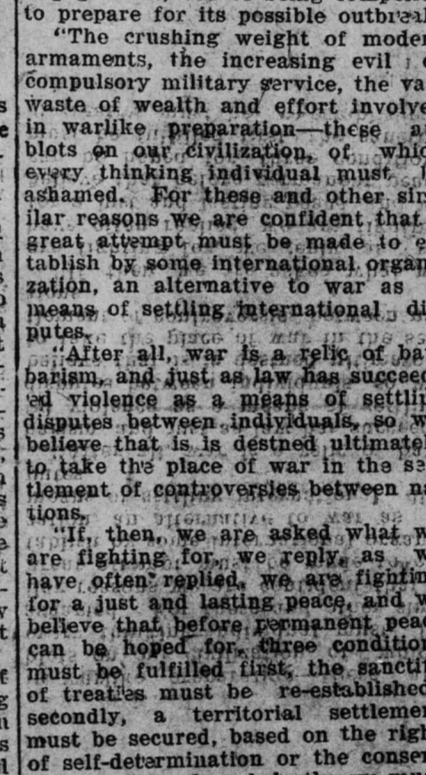

"So long as the possibility of a dispute between nations continues—that is to say, so long as men and women are dominated by impassioned ambition, and war is the only means of settling a dispute—all nations must live under a burden, not only of having from time to time to engage in it, but of being compelled to prepare for its possible outbreak. "The crushing weight of modern armaments, the increasing evil of compulsory military service, the vast waste of wealth and effort involved in warlike preparations—these are blot on our civilization, of which every thinking individual must be ashamed. For these and other similar reasons we are confident, that a great attempt must be made to establish by some international organization, an alternative to war as a means of settling international disputes.

"After all, war is a spasm of the human mind, and just as soon as war breaks out, it is as if a new kind of violence as a means of settling disputes between individuals, so we believe that it is destined ultimately to take the place of war in the settlement of international disputes between nations.

"If, then, we are asked what we are fighting for, we reply as we have often replied, we are fighting for a just and lasting peace, and we believe that before long, a just peace can be hoped for, three conditions must be fulfilled, first, the sanctity of treaties must be re-established, secondly, a territorial settlement must be secured, based on the right of self-determination or the consent of the governed, and, lastly, we must seek, by the creation of some international organization, to limit the burden of armaments and diminish the probability of war. On these conditions if his peoples are prepared to make even greater sacrifices than those they have yet endured."

GIRLISH DIGNTY

is considerably enhanced by the wearing of glasses. But, apart from the dignity, the absence of headaches is alone a good reason for wearing them. It is a well-known fact that many feminine headaches particularly are the result of disordered vision. Relieving the eye strain relieves the head. Come for an examination and we will prove it.

Dr. S. J. Harvey Manufacturing Optician. Phone 478 78 Market St. Optician Tuesday and Saturday evenings.

WEST LAKES REGULATIONS

The sole head of a family, of any age over 18 years old, who was at the commencement of the present war, and has since continued to be a British subject of a subject of an allied or neutral country, may constitute a quarter-section of available Dominion Land in Manitoba, Saskatchewan or Alberta. Applicant must appear in person at Dominion Lands Agency or Sub-Agency for District. Entry by proxy may be made on certain conditions. Duties—Six months residence upon certain conditions of land in each of three years.

In certain districts a homestead may secure an adjoining quarter-section as pre-emption. Price $3.00 per acre. Duties—Six months in each of three years after earning homestead patent and cultivate 50 acres extra. May obtain pre-emption patent as soon as homestead patent on certain conditions:—

1. If he cannot secure a pre-emption, may take a purchased homestead in certain districts. Price $3.00 per acre. Must reside six months in each of three years, cultivate 50 acres and erect a house worth $200.00.

Holders of entries may send their employees as farm laborers in Canada during 1917, as residence duties under certain conditions:—

When Dominion Lands are advertised for sale, returned soldiers who have served overseas and have been lawfully discharged, receive one day priority in applying for entry at Agent's Office (but not Sub-Agency). Discharge papers must be presented to agent.

W. W. GOBY, Deputy Minister of the Interior, N.B. Entries will not be held for

LESS MEAT IF BACK AND KIDNEYS HURT

Take a glass of Salts to flush Kidneys if Bladder Bothers You.

Eating meat regularly eventually produces kidney trouble in some form or other, says a well-known authority, because the uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish; clog up and cause all sorts of distress, particularly backache and misery in the kidney region; rheumatic twinges, severe headaches, acid stomach, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation. "The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act right. The famous salt is made from the salt of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity; also to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders. "Jad Salts cannot injure anyone; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to keep the kidneys and urinary organs clean, thus avoiding serious kidney disease.

FORTY SEVEN

EN Mac POLI M'BRIDE MAJOR

Labor Candidate Polls Throughout Yesterday ALD DOWLING Mayor J. W. Boyd Ald. S. Alfred Also Ran

It is all over, even MacBride will occupy ally chair during the months. The result of the polls was little of a surprise public opinion had not been the labor candidate. The a word, although expect fight between Mac and the polls. As an Irishman, Mac's expectations fulfilled, but are he expected they would. Mac's majority, however a surprise. He lost, for chairman of his nearest rival of a thousand. Adding that second, with a while the worship. Mac and Ald. S. A. Jones have year with 712 and 418 and here's to a good Mayor-elect, MacBride.

Ward 1
1	Bowley Dowling
2	21 35
3	19 83
4	21 22
5	26 16
6	18 14
	43 24
Total	128 194
Ward 2.
7	17 31
8	15 31
9	14 73
10	32 34
11	30 30
12	35 77
	143 200
Ward 3.
13	11 15
14	13 33
15	28 27
16	40 47
17	24 30
	121 152
Ward 4.
18	12 34
19	26 32
20	18 18
21	33 24
22	17 18
23	9 5
	145 141
Ward 5.
24	30 42
25	25 30
26	21 25
27	22 21
28	22 21
29	12 16
30	19 15
31	21 19
	176 187
Total	1718 876

Girls Wanted
Girls for various departments of knitting mill, good wages, night work. Previous experience not necessary. The Watson Manufacturing Co., Ltd., holmdale.

WANTED AT ONCE BOY
In Watford TO CARRY THE COURIER
Write at once to Manager Courier Brantford Or Apply to Geo. Gould, Watford

DR. DOVAN'S FEMALE PILLS Restore health for all Female Complaints. Get a box of three for $10, set drug stores. Retail to try address on receipt of price. Tamara's Pharmacy, 50 St. Catherine St., Montreal, Quebec.

PHOSPHORUS FOR MEN Restores Vigor for Nerve and Brain. Increases Vitality. Restores—will build up. Buy a box of two for $6, at drug stores, or by mail on receipt of price. V.S. Remondet, Chicago.

Weather Bu
The ANTONIO CAN READ THE FUTURE BUY THE CHIRDS CAN MOST COME IN THE EAST WEATY BOSTON ANTONIO

Zimmie