UNIONVILLE FAIR.

Fine Weather—Large attendance—Splendid Exhibits—The Fair a Success.

The weather during the fair on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday last cannot be described as otherwise than fine, the occasional cloud and serving only to increase the appreciation with which the genial warmth of the sun's rays was received. There was a large attendance on the three days, the greatest number, of course being present on the third day, when the ground presented a most animated scene, every one seeming disposed to please and be pleased. To the majority the main building was the chief attraction, and all day long it was thronged with eagles despite the many interesting events constantly transpiring outside. Entering the front wing, which contained the ladies' work, the visitor was dazzled with the array of beauty and color there displayed. The ornamental predominated over the useful, though there were many fine specimens of domestic manufacture, such as gladdened the hearts of the early settlers, before machinery stepped in to lighten the toil of the busy housewife.
The display of articles made by hand, crochet and many kinds of embroidery was never finer, and the specimens of wax and leather work deserve special mention. To the left of this wing were found the artists' contributions, the space before which was ever filled with an admiring crowd.
There were many specimens of work by young amateurs, interspersed with the finer productions from the brush of more experienced artists. Among these latter, the first prize work of Miss Carrie Purvis, of Lynn, and the paintings of familiar scenes by our local artist, Mr. C. C. Slick, drew special attention. A crayon panel, which received first prize, was a very artistic sketch. Murray & Co., of Brockville, made a fine exhibit of photographs. The floral display by Messrs. S. Y. Brown, Rich. Kerr and Isaac Barber, was generally admired, and was a creditable display to be made up from three private conservatories. The exhibit of fruit was fully up to the average, and there was a fine display of canned fruit and vegetables.
A visitor to the wing devoted to grain and roots would be led to question the Ontario Bureau's statement that the drought had greatly damaged the crops.
The grain was a good sample well-filled and the roots were unusually good. Messrs. Laidley Bros., Brockville, representing the Singer Sewing Machine Co., occupied a prominent place, and their skilled operatives were engaged in manufacturing specimens of plain and fancy sewing, thus practically exhibiting the extensive range and fine quality of the work turned out by the Singer. This machine, ever popular, won golden opinions from the experienced seam-stresses visiting that part of the main building. N. H. Beecher, of Toledo, representing the Domestic Sewing Machine Co., presented with a number of machines, the Cabinet Domestic being "the star that lead them all." Only those who have seen "The Little Savage" can have any conception of the work executed on this machine.
W. L. Maloy, of Brockville, showed a fine lot of boots and shoes. R. D.
Judson & Son, of Farmersville, exhibited some specimen cabinets from their manufacture, which were admired for their durable character and fine finish.
There was some first class butter and cheese shown, but the display was not so large as might be expected in a county so famed for these articles as Leeds. A large exhibit of honey was made, and served to show to what perfection could be brought the product of the busy bee. The implements were few in number. An all-purpose horse-hoe, invented by G. P.
McNish, of Lynn, drew marked attention, and was viewed with great favor by many experienced farmers. One of its excellencies consists of a malleable tooth-faster which allows of the teeth being shifted by means of a set screw. The Mann Manf. Co. made their usual exhibit. An improvement in their combined seeder, invented and patented by their foreman, T. G. Cook, is worthy of special notice. It consists of a joint in the spring-tooth which is more easily pliable and much less liable to break.
....There were a large number of vehicles shown. Cole Bros., of Bow's Corners, exhibited four buggies and a lumber wagon and road wagon. W.
A. Robinson, of Brockville, showed a new style of road cart which received considerable notice and was favorably commented upon. John A. Rappeil, Farmersville, representing the Galt Carriage Works, had one of their fine New Orleans Road Carts on the ground. The Gannaque Carriage Co. showed eighteen carriages, and W. L. Kelley, of Gannaque, two carriages. R. B. Manhard, of Row's Corners, received first prize on covered buggy. In the harness match between Farmersville and the Young Canadians, of Brockville, the clubs lined up shortly after 1 p. m. There was some slight delay owing to objections made by the Farmersville club to the personnel of the Brockville club, he claiming that there were three men present who had played with the first team. Brockville consented to barring Bennett, and the game was proceeded with under protest.

The first game lasted fifteen minutes, when the ball was tipped through the Farmersville flags by Bennett. The second game was stubbornly contested.
During the early part of the game the fight was in the neighborhood of Far-mersville goal, but at the end of a half hour, the ball frequently threatened the Brockville flags, and there was a fair chance of Farmersville scoring when the game was stopped by the Society officials in order that the regular programme of the fair might be proceeded with. There was some good play on both sides, notwithstanding the rough play of the town team. Mike Stack officiated as referee, and gave satisfaction to both clubs.
....There was an average display of poultry, Messrs. Foster, Forth and Bedlow being the chief exhibitors. The number of hogs shown was not large, but some fine specimens of pure breeds were exhibited by W. H. Mc-Nish and Alvin Orton. In cattle, Holsteins and Ayrshires were the principal breeds shown. Of the former, Bissell & Son showed sixteen and J. R.
McNish six head. In Ayrshire, Robt.
Frew and Thos. Davidson were the principal prize takers. The cattlemen were unanimous in their praise of the comfortable stalls provided for their cattle. The sheep shown found many admirers, and though not large, they were true to name, showing all the points of thoroughbred. There was a grand show of horses, all the classes being well filled. A gentleman from New York State, who has visited the principal fairs in New York, Pennsylvania and Ohio, said that at none of these places had he seen so fine a show of horses as at the Unionville fair. Below are the results of the speeding contests: Three-minute-race First heat—1st Doctor, owned by T. Slick, on Newber; 2nd Donny-brook; 3rd Ben Rysdyk, owned by R. H. Foley. S. cond heat—1st Ballu-Wilson, owned by Lew Wiltse; 2nd Doctor; 3rd Donnybrook. Third heat—1st Bella Wilson, which gave her the race; 2nd Doctor; 3rd Ben Rysdyk. The open race was won by S. Y. Ballis stallion in two straight heats; 2nd Ben Rysdyk; 3rd bay mare owned by A. Stevens. Ben Rysdyk and Bella Wilson, though both new to the turf, showed good staying powers, and will be regarded with favor, or in the races to take place in Farmersville on Tuesday and Wednesday of this week. ....The Toledo Brass Band furnished music during the second and third days. The best of order was maintained on the ground, and every detail of the fair was carefully attended to. Policemen Brown and Smith blocked the game of some fakirs, and also seized some contract whiskey which was brought there for sale. No other attempt, so far as could be learned, was made to violate the Scott Act or the rules of the society. The following list is as returned by the judges. Any person noticing an error or omission will please notify the secretary.

GENERAL NEWS SUMMARY.

A letter dated July 12th has been received from Stanley, who was then ten days' march past the mouth of the Arnwina and was getting along very well. Two bills for injunction against the R. R. Valley railway have been filed in Court at Winnipeg in the name of the Minister of Justice.
Chief Justice Wallbridge indicated on Saturday that the Browning case would be dismissed. The Manitoba Government have raised money enough to pay the contractors $100,000 and to release the rails at Montreal, but efforts to float the bonds in New York and Montreal have failed. At a public meeting of Home Rule sympathizers held at Mitchellstown, Ireland, a conflict took place between the police and people. The police were worsted, and retired to the barracks from which safe enclosures they fired upon the rioters, killing two and wounding one hundred and fifty.
Fifty-four policemen were injured.
There is great excitement throughout England and Ireland over the shooting, and a government enquiry is being instituted. The Industrial Exhibition at Toronto proved a grand success, eclipsing previous years in extent and variety of exhibits, and in attendance. During the first week, $900 more gate money was received than for the corresponding week of last year. The British Government has agreed to grant an annual subsidy of $45,000 for the Canadian Pacific mail service from the East. The coal found in the Canadian Northwest has been submitted to a practical analysis and found to average with the best Pennsylvania coal.

Elbe Mills.

M. R. Bates is giving the tenement house across the road from the school yard a thorough repairing. Mr. Arza Sherman is doing the carpenter work.
M. M. Pyke and wife, Ottawa, Fred.
Bates and wife Brockville, C. C. Wiltse, Phillipsville, were victorious here last week.

The butchers of Glen Duell and Mr.
Marshall of Toledo supply this neighborhood with fresh meat. Three pounds of the best steak for 25 cts.
The supply of beef cattle of the "Bell farm jr." will soon be exhausted, and our farmers who have beef to dispose of, expect to have a good market for the same.

The young man who formerly fed the iron horse at the mills and is now boss sawyer and foreman of the cheese box department, purchased a fine horse about a year ago from one of our farmers and soon after commenced to trade. Each exchange seemed for the horse and recently he returned home with one of the sorriest specimens of horse flesh, ever seen in this vicinity.
It died a few days after and report says John has about $35 that he received in boot for the horse first bought, which was lately sold for $160.

BEE CULTURE.

The following was written—not by way of discrimination—as a proof of what may be done with no loss of time to other matters. I know, Mr.
Editor, scores of bee-keepers who have well earned a claim to a favorable notice and encouraging word in the Reporter, and many more who are about to begin bee culture and try and harvest the tons of honey which annually fall from the little unnoted flowers to the earth. Well, to these latter I say, remember the Scotch lassie's definition of patience—“Wait a wee and dimma weary.” We could benefit by asking and answering questions bravely in the Reporter. If the editor will give us space, a friend of mine last year took 1400 lbs. of honey from 20 colonies; this season he took 2,400 lbs. from 24 colonies. Some of our old bee-keepers set themselves up for teachers. They are blind guides; their wheel has been in the rut so long that they can't get out, and periodically they all tumble in the ditch together.
My highest wish in this matter is to see bee culture develop into a great national industry—its benefits reaching ten thousand homes that now know not the taste of honey.

W. S. HORN.

The Editor of the Reporter will hold an "at home" in his office every day for the next month to which all arrivals for advertising, printing, or subscriptions are cordially invited.
No effort will be spared to make it interesting for visitors.

Mrs. Wm. Hawley and daughter of Vinton, Iowa, are visiting friends in town this week.

Mrs. Towns, of Ogdensburg, passed through here on her way to visit her father's family, and friends at Delta.

The total receipts from all sources at the Unionville fair were $871, which is considerably larger than ever before.

Owing to the large amount of space devoted to Unionville fair notes, we are obliged to hold over several items of local interest and district news.

At the evening service in Christ Church last Sabbath, Rev. R. N. Jones officiating, the solemn rite of baptism was conferred upon four candidates.

Work was commenced on Mitchell & Robeson's division of the Brockville & Westport R. R., on Monday. They are working on Gibson's farm, north-east of the village. Men are engaged building a hopper near the corner of the race ground.

A copy of this issue is sent to nearly all those who drew prizes at Unionville. We hope to receive their orders for the LANTERN for the balance of the year at least. Only 25 cents until Jan. 1st, 1888. Send on the money at once as no more copies will be sent unless ordered.

"Aunt Gerty" Phillips celebrated the anniversary of her 89th year on Thursday last. In the evening the house and grounds were tastefully decorated and illuminated, and a large number of her friends called to felicitate her upon having safely reached another milestone on her journey home.

The reporter published two weeks ago that Mr. A. Conal, of Toledo, had sold the product of his three cheese factories for 12 3/16 cents was incorrect, as the price really received was 12 13/16 cents—nearly one cent higher than that obtained by any other factory in this district.

On Wednesday night a bootless burglar broke a pane of glass in the shop of Wm. Langstaff and abstracted two pairs of boots. The burglar probably required booting, but Mr. Langstaff objects to furnishing the material. As three of the boots were built for the right foot, the thief will have some difficulty in disposing of his booty.

FOR SALE.—Micro-eight years old—standard, also Top Range lamp (burns in good repair). All can be bought for $150. S. SHELTON, Farmersville.

The Farmersville La rosse Club proved themselves to be of good material at the Unionville fair match. They had evidently not devoted much time to acquiring a knowledge of the popular art of slugging, but apart from a weakness in this regard, they played a stiff game, and in the opinion of many spectators, would have "got there" had the game been finished.

The Homestead for October will contain a full account of the wedding of the manageress of that paper, in the Minneapolis, Minn. Exposition, on the evening of September 28, together with accurate descriptions and illustrations of the participants' wedding dresses and presents. A copy of this issue will be mailed free to any of our lady readers sending their address to The Buckeye Pub. Co., Minneapolis, Minn.

The many friends of the Kingston Business College will be pleased to learn that the rapid growth of that institution has necessitated the addition of three more teachers making in all a staff of eight teachers. Our friend Lillie, late principal of the Brockville Business College, is one of the new teachers. If this institution keeps on increasing and extending its business in the future as in the past, Kingston will have the business college of America.

Mr. Preese, of Brockville Business College, and Mr. McKay, of Kingston Business College, were at the Unionville fair. These young men represent worthy institutions of a class the value of which is each year becoming more apparent to business men throughout the country. Those desiring to take a thorough and practical business course should write or call upon either of these young men, who will be pleased to give full information relating to the conduct of their colleges.

That grim monster, Death, has visited the village since our last issue, and removed the friend of two of our most popular and highly respected young people. Miss Susan Cars, sister of our esteemed townsman, John Cars, was the first to obey the summons, her death occurring on the morning of Wednesday last, the 14th inst. On Friday last the spirit of Valentine Moles passed peacefully from earth. Deceased, with his mother and sister, removed from Pine Hill to this place about five years ago. His many excellent qualities endeared him to all, and those who, by reason of nature's ties, more keenly mourn his loss have the heartfelt sympathy of the community. On Saturday his remains were borne to their last resting place at Pine Hill, the funeral being largely attended.

officers arrived in the neighborhood they at once proceeded to the house of Morris who was found in hiding under the bed. He made no resistance to their arrest and so quiet was his demeanor that the officers did not consider it necessary to handcuff him. He delivered up the knife with which the deed is said to have been committed. It is a small two-bladed knife and not longer nor more murderous looking than any ordinary knife carried by farmers. Morris was taken before one of the local magistrates who made out a commitment to the Brockville jail. The writer was quite well acquainted with prisoner years ago and he then had the reputation of being a peaceable, hardworking farmer. Morris claims to have killed Dool in self defence, and says that he is glad that he has been arrested as the suspense of being liable to arrest at any moment was giving him great uneasiness and he was glad that the matter would soon be settled one way or the other. It is said that the neighbors are not very anxious to have Morris punished as they consider the provocation very great.

A MYSTERIOUS LETTER.

The following beautiful specimen of "English as she is spoke" we commend to the careful perusal of our local correspondents. It was handed to us for publication, having the post mark of a Michigan office. Its pure orthography and elegant chirography won its way to our favor, and we reproduce it.

DIVISION COURT.

The ninth division court was held here on Monday last. Owing to the junior judge having condemned the town hall, the sittings were held in the North Church. Bailiff Brown had a pen of saw dust placed in each paw so that "chawers" found a receipt ready for the saliva, which would otherwise have been deposited upon the floor. The judge was a "leagle late" as usual, the court not opening until nearly 11 a.m. but when once started business was run-ld through with all the despatch possible.

The first case called was Horace Booth vs. Jas. Livingstone. This was an action to recover an account for some pork sold to debt, the amount being $4. The debt put in an offset of $7.50 for work alleged to have been done for plaintiff some five or six years ago. Plaintiff swore that his old acct was settled at the time by a payment in grain. Verdict for plaintiff with costs.

Abel Stevens vs. Jas. Fendlong, action to recover payment for service of stallion. Debt had paid $5 into court, being as he claimed the amount agreed upon. It seems from the evidence that Stevens called upon the debt, and had a conversation with him regarding the service of the horse. The debt offered him half a ton of hay for said service saying that he could get the use of Covey's horse for that amount and proved by his son that this was the agreement. Judgment for debt with costs.

W. H. Malton vs. Wm. Pierce. This was an action to recover payment for a mason's hammer, which plaintiff claimed had been taken from a pile of mason's tools by debt, and returned. Debt swore that he returned the hammer after using and had seen it in the place where he took it from on several occasions thereafter. Debt could not prove to contrary, and was nonsuited.

H. R. Gordon vs. Cyrenus Stowell. An action to recover pay for a quantity of provender furnished to Wm. Harper on the order of debt. A number of witnesses were examined, who proved that a change of proprietors of the Elbe Mills having taken place, the debt was released from payment.

Mrs. Wm. H. Giles vs. J. H. McLaughlin. A claim of $3.50 for a quantity of stone. From the evidence it appeared that the debt had got a few loads of stone from the plaintiff, with the understanding that Wm. H. Shymon was to fix the price. Wm. H. Shymon on being called said that he did not consider the stone worth more than 25c. per load, as it was fitly only for filling in. Frank Blanchard being sworn said he drew five loads of stone, three of which were worth $1 per load and the balance 25c. per load. Abner Wilse thought the stone all told was not worth more than $2.50. Alex. Compo said he had offered Mrs. Giles $5 for the lot, which included a few loads not taken by the debt. His son had objected to paying $5 for the lot, so he did not take them. An order was made for $2.50 without costs.

Geo. H. Weatherhead vs. Thos. H. Johnston.—Debt was up on judgment summons. Ordered to pay $1 on 1st October and $2 per month thereafter until the debt and costs are paid.

J. H. McLaughlin vs. Dr. Mosher.—The Dr. was up on judgment summons. He produced a certificate from Dr. Cornell that he was physically unable to perform hard manual labor. Mac produced a counter certificate which stated that the Dr. was still in an able-bodied condition. The Dr. also pleaded as an excuse that he was not able to earn more than 25c. per day breaking stone, and some days not that much. This excuse was met with the broadly hinted insinuation that he was not so sick as he was. The Dr. intimated that he would like to get a good paying job, and brickmaker King offered to take him on at good wages for all he was able to do, provided he boarded himself. The judge here asked Mac if he hadn't a job piling wood or some other light work that he could let the Dr. have to work out the debt. Mac demurred to this, as he had no desire to "adopt the Doctor." The judge concluded to make out a commitment for twenty days, in default of the claim being satisfied forthwith.

Jas. Lenihan vs. A. E. Donovan.—Action on acct. Struck out.

N. C. Williams vs. J. J. Carey.—Action on acct. Settled out of court.

J. H. McLaughlin vs. Charles Doldridge.—Judgment summons. Debt not appearing, a commitment was made out for 20 days.

SMITH'S FALLS.

A delicate and difficult investigation is under way at Smith's Falls. The practice of flogging pupils in the High school there having become obsolete, and there being a painful absence of variety in the daily program of pro-ceedings, it is said that a few days ago the principal undertook to vary the monotony by thrashing one of the assistant teachers.

The assaulted assistant disputes the principal's right to sacrifice him for a school boy's holiday and has appealed to a magistrate and to the School Board against the unusual exercise of unbecoming authority by his superior officer.

Grave questions must arise during the course of the inquiry:—

- (1) Has a principal a right to physical exercise during school hours?
(2) If prohibited from operating upon his pupils, may he use his assistants, upon whom to develop his muscle?
(3) And if he enjoys this right with respect to his male teachers, has he not authority to devote his female assistants to the same uses?
(4) Then have male and female assistants singly or unitely, as may best suit their purpose, the right to employ their surplus physical energy in putting identification marks on the principal?
(5) If so, what steps is it advised the Minister of Education should take in order to guarantee a continuous supply of principals under the new system of High school discipline?

The Smith's Falls inquiry will quite fail to meet popular expectation if there be not some strong and satisfactory deliverance upon these various points of grave perplexity.—Globe.
