CHAPTER XXX.

"What nonsense!" exclaimed Milly.
"He is both our papa. How funny that sounds, doesn't it? But you know what it means. You've no idea how proud she is, papa. I wanted to give her a set of furs to-day, and she actually refused to accept them.
That isn't behaving like a sister, is it? I had to read her a lecture on improper pride all the way home; but I don't believe it has done her any good. Now, if she had offered to give me a set of furs, I should have taken them at once, and kissed her a thank you. What is the good of having a sister if you can't give her presents? It's the principal thing a sister is made for."

Mr. Lester patted the thin, restless hand, while a thoughtful and rather troubled expression settled on his face.

"Why did you not take the furs?"
he asked, rather more gravely than the affair seemed to warrant.

Nora colored and laughed.
"They were fit for a princess," she said. "Milly has to be reminded about twice a day that I am very poor—"

"And proud," said Milly, wickedly.
"You shall buy the furs for yourself to-morrow," said Mr. Lester, with an intent gaze.
Nora shrunk a little.

Cured Diseases of the Kidneys

And is Depended On to Right Stomach and Liver Disorders.
Once Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills are introduced into the family and their efficiency becomes known they are usually found too valuable to do without. For everyday ills arising from liver and bowel disorders they bring relief promptly, and when complicated diseases of the kidneys and liver develop they often prove a successful cure after doctors have failed. As an illustration you may read the following, which was received a few days ago.
Mrs. John Wright, 52 McGe street, Toronto, Ont., writes: "We have used Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills for ten years, and would not be without them. My husband suffered from kidney trouble, and after taking treatment from several doctors without receiving any benefit, tried Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, which worked a complete cure. Since that time we have used them for all stomach and liver disorders."
One pill a dose, 25 cents a box, all dealers, or Edmondson, Pates & Co., Limited, Toronto.

"Indeed—indeed I do not want them," she said. "You must not take any notice of what Milly says. We never go out but she wants to buy me something quite unsuited to a poor girl."

Mr. Lester rose as if spurred by some mental uneasiness.
"There now, you have offended papa!" exclaimed Milly, with mock reproach; but Nora took it seriously, and her color coming and going, said falteringly:
"Oh, no, no!"

Mr. Lester stopped in front of her and took her hand.
"You are quite right, Nora," he said. "You have not offended me—but your words have filled my self with reproach."

Both girls stared at him. His usually calm, grave face showed evident signs of agitation, and his manner was anxious but deprecatory.

"My dear Miss Trevanion," he said. "I have played a most unworthy part—"

Nora stood silent and surprised.
"Papa!" exclaimed Milly.

Mr. Lester glanced at her.

"And yet I have been able to lay the flattering unction to my soul that I was not altogether unwarranted in acting as I have done. It was but a surmise, a guess—nothing tangible. Even now I do not know, actually know, that—"

A knock came to the door, and both girls started; but not so distinctly as did the ordinarily calm lawyer. The servant entered.

"Mr. Lester, sir," she said.
"Mr. Lester, that is papa's confidential clerk," said Milly. "He never comes here unless there is important business, and now the stupid man has come just at the wrong time. Send him away, papa, or let him wait until you have told us what you mean. Don't you see that you have frightened both of us?"

Mr. Lester stood for a moment uncertain, then he said:

"Mr. Lester has come at the right moment. Send him in, please."

Milly pouted, and held out her hand to Nora, who took it and sunk on the couch beside her. Had he learned her history—the story of "Ernest Mortimer," and was he going to send her away?

A middle-aged man, with "clerk" written all over him, entered, and looking rather surprised at finding the two young ladies present, bowed respectfully to Milly, and stood waiting with his black bag in his hand.

"You have just returned, Mr. Lester," said Mr. Lester. "I did not expect you until to-morrow or the day after."

"I got the information and proofs sooner than I expected, sir," said Mr. Lester, "and as I knew you were anxious, I came on straight here."

"Quite right," said Mr. Lester. "Take a seat. You may speak quite freely before the young ladies."

Mr. Lester again looked respectfully surprised, but took some papers from his bag and spread one of them out.

"Wild place down there, sir," he said as a kind of preliminary, "Vale fall's right enough; as magnificent residence as you'd wish to see, but set in the most outlandish country. Why, the very names are enough to frighten you—Garth's Hollow, Trevanion—like 'forlorn,' isn't it?—the 'Witches' 'aldron—"

He stopped short, for Nora, with a faint cry, had risen and stood looking from one to the other.

Was she dreaming, or had Mr. Lester actually repeated those well-known names?

Mr. Lester signed to her to resume her seat, and she did so, sitting with clasped hands and fast-coming breath.

"Go on," said Mr. Lester, gravely, to his clerk. "You found the will all right?"

"Quite right, sir," said Mr. Lester, at once falling into the dry, legal tone. "The late Mr. Reuben Vale's lawyer was quite a capable gentleman—quite—and everything was in order. The estates are immense and there is a very large sum of money."

"The estates are large," assented Mr. Lester, as if he wished the two girls to mark and understand.

"Yes, sir; it is a tremendous fortune. I don't suppose that the late

Mr. Vale knew the extent of his possessions. And the estate, valuable as it is now, will be still more so presently, for they are finding fresh minerals—lodes, I think they call it—every year. The trouble is that at present the heir can't be found. It's a most extraordinary story, sir—most extraordinary! Very few persons knew that Mr. Vale was ever married. It seems that there was some sort of scandal. The lady was supposed to have run away with a gentleman—a friend of Mr. Vale—and Mr. Vale believed this to be the case until within a few hours of his death."

CHAPTER XXXI.

There was a pause, during which Nora sat perfectly motionless, her eyes fixed on the thin, shrewd face of the lawyer's clerk.

Mr. Lester glanced at her watchfully and somewhat anxiously, and Milly slid her arm round Nora's waist and held her tightly. Both girls knew that something portentous was foreshadowed by Mr. Lester's manner and the clerk's opening statement.

"It seems," continued Mr. Lester, "that a few hours before his death Mr. Vale received a letter. I have a copy of it here. It was, of course found among his papers. It's too long to read at present, and I will summarize it."

"Do," said Mr. Lester.

He looked at Nora as he spoke, and signed for her to remain calm.

"The letter was from the sister of Mr. Vale's wife, and it told the story of that wife's flight. She did not run away with the gentleman who chanced to leave the house at the same time, but fled to this sister. I'm afraid Mr. Vale was rather of a suspicious and jealous temperament and the poor lady hadn't the happiest of lives with him. Anyway, she fled to this sister, and while away, under this sister's roof, the poor lady gave birth to a daughter, and soon after died."

Mr. Lester, still watching, inclined his head at Nora.

"Now, any one would think that Mr. Vale's sister would have at once gone to Mr. Vale and delivered up the child to him and explained his wife's innocence; but the lady happened to be extremely—well, proud. I suppose you would call it, and she determined to keep the child's existence secret, and bring up the little girl herself. She lived in London for some years, and then she lost her money and fell on hard times, and she went down into the west country and lived in a queer kind of cottage near Vale Hall, at a place called the 'Witches' 'aldron.'

Nora began to tremble, and her hands writhed together.

"There she lived under an assumed name, and got her living by smuggling, so they say, though I don't believe it; and the girl, grown up by this time, helped her. Well, one day Mrs. Trevanion—"

Nora pressed her hand to her lips to keep back the cry which rose. It was of her aunt and herself, then, that this man was speaking.

"Made up her mind to leave England, and take her niece with her. She sent the young lady on a message to Trelorne by boat, and the boat got upset, and, so the report goes, the young lady was drowned. But her death has never been proved, and the sailors and fishermen I talked with openly declare that if the girl had been washed overboard, her body must have been recovered either by the men along the shore or by one of the fishing boats at sea. Do you follow me, sir?"

"Quite," said Mr. Lester.

He rose as he spoke, and tilted the lamp-shade so that it screened Nora's face, now white and expressive of dread and excitement.

"This is a matter of some importance, you see, sir, because inclosed in the letter of Mrs. Trevanion was indisputable evidence of this young lady's birth and identity; and so convinced was Mr. Reuben Vale of the truth of this statement, and his wife's innocence, that he sat down there and then and made a will, leaving the whole of his estates and every penny of his money to his daughter; and that there might be no misapprehension of his intentions, he actually named her by the name her aunt had assumed. He referred to a copy of the will. Here are the words: 'My daughter, the child of my wife, Adelaide Vale, lately living with her aunt, Mrs. Trevanion, and known as Nora Trevanion.'"

The room seemed to rise and fall before Nora's burning eyes, and her breath came in quick gasps.

"Clever man, Mr. Vale, sir," said Mr. Lester, with lawyer-like appreciation. "He was determined not to give us much work. Naming and describing the young lady, as well as calling her his daughter, didn't leave any one a loop-hole for disputing her identity; and I must say it will be a great pity if her death can be proved. I fancy she must be one of the richest young ladies in England—that is, if she is alive; and the fishermen of Trelorne seem to think so. There is a rumor that on the night the boat was found bottom upward on the shore, a stranger in sailor's clothing was seen and spoken to, and that he was the size and build of this young lady, but this is a clue I can follow up if you wish."

Mr. Lester rose.

"I will consider the matter and let you know, Some. You will have some supper before you go. I will join you in the dining room in a few minutes. One moment; the young lady's aunt, Mrs. Trevanion, where is she?"

"In Melbourne. I wrote her, asking her to cable a reply. She confirms the letter, and that is all. I fancy that she is what you call a strong-minded lady, and that whether the niece, Miss Trevanion—or Miss Vale, as she really is—is found or not, Mrs. Trevanion will not return to England. The first thing to do now, I take it, is to discover whether Miss Trevanion was drowned or not. If not—he tied the tape round his neatly folded papers and smiled—"then the sooner she is found and informed that she is a millionairess the better."

Radway's Ready Relief

Chas. H. Billings, of 240 W. 17th St., writes: "Two years I have been suffering from asthma and bronchitis. A week ago I purchased a bottle of Radway's Ready Relief and have taken a teaspoonful in water before retiring each night. The relief I have experienced is marvellous. I most heartily endorse R. R. R."

CURES ASTHMA

The specifics for this disease are the Ready Relief, the Resolvent and Radway's Pills. The pills must be rubbed on the chest and throat until a burning sensation is produced, and the bowels thoroughly open. The Resolvent must be given at short intervals, the small doses, five or ten drops of the Resolvent whenever a paroxysm occurs. RADWAY & CO.

On Recommending.

BY RUTH CAMERON.

It is often said that one should never recommend a servant, a dressmaker or a doctor.

I am inclined to go much beyond that and say, "Never recommend a anything or anybody."

The passionate desire to blame someone when anything goes wrong is one of the most universal of human emotions.

We all know the fury that assails us when we bump our heads, or bruise our shins upon some inanimate object, and have nothing but that object to blame.

And we all know what a temptation it is to blame some meek member of the family—usually mother—when family affairs go wrong.

It is this same unreasonable, but unquerable tendency which the business of recommending so very risky.

I once recommended to a close friend a washerwoman who had done a washing in a first class manner for a reasonable sum. I did not, however, understand the information upon my friend. I gave it in answer to general inquiries on her part.

After that unguarded moment I learned to dread meeting my friend, for she always brought me bad news of the washerwoman.

She had changed exorbitantly; she had let the color run in a new shirt waist; she was late with the clothes—for these and numerous other faults I was

When listless, pale, feverish, full of cold, breath bad, throat sore, doesn't eat, sleep or act naturally, has stomach-ache, indigestion, diarrhoea, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul waste, the sour bile and fermenting food passes out of the bowels and you have a well and playful child again.

Children love this harmless "fruit laxative," and mothers can rest easy after giving it, because it never fails to make their little "insides" clean and sweet.

Keep it handy, Mother! A little given today saves a sick child tomorrow, and get the genuine. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle.

Remember there are counterfeiters sold here, so surely look and see that yours is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." Hand back with contempt any other fig syrup.

In the future when I am asked about plays, doctors, tailors, restaurants, summer places, etc., etc., I shall tell my own personal experience with as little enthusiasm as possible and then add politely but firmly, "but remember this is only my experience, don't go by my recommendation."

That ought to save me from any come-back, oughtn't it?

I wonder if it will? N. B. Not an hour after writing this I caught myself saying, "You really ought to try the S— Inn. I never was so well treated in my life."

Evidently the desire to recommend things I have found worth recommending is too strong in me to be uprooted at will. I am not sure that I am sorry.

At Mattewan.

When the lunatics foregather to discuss the bill of fare, there is grief in every bosom for they see a vacant chair. "Where is Harry Thaw?" they question.

"We have missed him for a while, we have missed his winning smile. Lonesome is the place without him, and our games all spirit lack; we are sighing for our playmate—bring our little Harry back!" and the keepers, sad and lonely, turn away to hide a tear; they too miss the youth who cheered them in the golden yesteryear. Put away his selfishness, put away his fountain pen! Put in lavender's nightie. He will need them ne'er again. From the place that knew and loved him little Harry's skipped and gone, and the bird of grief broods darkly over mournful Mattewan. When attorney's cease their jawing, he may grace your halls once more! After forty years of lawing, he may totter to your door! But the present generation will be dead and underground ere his joyous peals of laughter, through your corridors resound! 'Til that time, O grim asylum, you may weep for him in vain! Put away his box of talcum, put away his lacquered cane!

LIVERPOOL, Oct. 28. Information comes from London that the British Government will gladly co-operate with the United States in any practical policy towards the restoration of peace in Mexico. The British and other European Foreign Offices, it is said, are waiting for President Wilson to propose some definite line of action. This apparently innocent attitude carries with it an implied criticism of the President's present policy, and is regarded as equivalent to a declaration that the Government's desire, the protection of the lives and property of foreigners, and the restoration of peace. Until a practical policy is offered, Britain must continue to follow the policy she has heretofore pursued, recognition of the Huerta Government.

Lewis & Carter at Topsail.

Editor The Evening Telegram.

Dear Sir—It gives me a very valuable space I will add to your valuable paper an item concerning a most enthusiastic meeting here on Saturday night, Oct. 25th, by Captain Lewis and Mr. E. L. Carter. The meeting opened at 7.30, when the Orange Hall rang with cheers for Lewis and Carter.

Our friend, Mr. Carter, then gave us a piece of his mind when he exposed the fine point the Railway Contract and a few other similar facts; he also received much applause, but nearing the end of his speech there was a couple of hooligans of the Tory side came in and interrupted him, but they were crushed down by the loud cheering and BOND CANT LOSE!

Our friend, Mr. R. Hibbs, from Kelligrews, being present, was asked by Capt. Lewis to say a few words. He was very pleased in doing so and dwelt for a short while on the impurities of the People's Party. He then spoke on the Agricultural Policy when he pricked the hearts of a few heart-sick Tories too deep and they had to go out. Hibbs also received great applause. After a few words from the chairman, Mr. J. H. Butler, the meeting closed by singing the National Anthem. Capt. Lewis and Mr. Carter left the Hall amid loud cheering and BOND CANT LOSE!

Sick, Sour Stomach Indigestion Or Gas

Take "Pape's Diapepsin" and in five minutes you'll wonder what became of misery in stomach.

Wonder what upset your stomach— which portion of the food did the damage—do you? Well, don't bother. If your stomach is in revolt; if sour, gassy and upset, and what you just ate has fermented into stubborn lumps; head dizzy and aches; belch gases and acids and acetate undigested food; breath foul, tongue coated—just take a little Pape's Diapepsin and in five minutes you wonder what became of the indigestion and distress.

Millions of men and women today know that it is needless to have a bad stomach. A little Diapepsin occasionally keeps this delicate organ regulated and they eat their favorite foods without fear.

If your stomach doesn't take care of your liberal limit without rebellion; if your food is a damage instead of a help, remember the quickest, surest, most harmless relief is Pape's Diapepsin which costs only fifty cents for a large case at drug stores. It's truly wonderful—it digests food and sets things straight, so gently and easily that it is really astonishing. Please, for your sake, don't go on and on with a weak, disordered stomach; it's so unnecessary.

Liberal Meeting at Freshwater.

LIBERAL CANDIDATES GIVEN RED HOT WELCOME—TORYISM WIPED OUT—AN UNQUALIFIED VICTORY FOR KENT, DWYER AND RYAN IN ST. JOHN'S EAST.

St. John's East always stood nobly by the Liberal party but never before did the standard bearers of that district show such true loyalty and patriotism as they will on tomorrow when they come to cast their votes—straight ticket votes—for Kent, Dwyer and Ryan.

The candidates held a meeting last night at Freshwater. They were enthusiastically received and every voter in that historic settlement, in accordance with every other district or section in the country, have signified their intention of supporting the tried and true Liberal Party and return the invincible Kent, Dwyer and Ryan by an overwhelming majority. At eight o'clock the candidates accompanied by some supporters proceeded to Freshwater where the people greeted them in a whole-souled fashion. Bon fires were lit, guns fired, white cheers, loud and long, could be heard for miles distant. The meeting was held at the house of Mr. John Jenkins. On motion of Mr. P. Summers, Mr. John Lamb, an old and respected resident of the place, was appointed chairman. In an effective and well worded speech he said he was glad to see the Liberal banner again being uplifted and assured the candidates that the voters of Freshwater would not be gulled by the anarchistic Tories but would vote the straight ticket for the Liberal Standard-bearers of St. John's East. Mr. Ryan, Mr. Dwyer and Mr. Kent were then introduced and spoke in the order mentioned. They showed up the recklessness and criminal extravagance of the Morris Government, pointing out illustrations of blundering, hoodling, chest-thumping and other rascalities and emphasized the clean and progressive policy outlined in the Manifesto of that capable and distinguished statesman, Sir Robert Bond. The candidates assured the people that if elected they would look after the wants and requirements of Freshwater but this was unnecessary to say as the frequent applause and enthusiasm that was manifested was sufficient assurance of a unanimous vote from historic Freshwater. At the close a vote of thanks was tendered the chairman followed by the singing of the National Anthem. Toryism is snowed under in St. John's and Kent, Dwyer and Ryan will win by the biggest majority on record, therefore the old proverb holds true: "BOND CANT LOSE!"

What Mr. Turner Says.

Special to The Evening Telegram. LEWISPORT, Last Evening. Replying to the horrible lying statements of the Herald of the 27th, I say there was no cheating for Tories on Oct. 25th at Bond's meeting, of Monday night. We held 33 public meetings since 6th and visited 45 places, and will poll a majority vote at 43 of these places. I AM CONFIDENT THAT EVERY SEAT FROM ST. BARBE TO ST. JOHN'S WILL GO LIBERAL-UNION. I ask every Union member in the city to be sure to vote. A number of voters in Trinity and Bonavista Districts are absent in the logging camps up country. S.S. PORTIA.—The s.s. Portia will sail for the Westward at 10.30 a.m. tomorrow. She is taking a large freight.

And he is now working overtime with the hope of saving his taxation fee. Nobody can blame Bond and Kennedy for what they are doing. Somebody told them they ought to be statesmen and they believed it. They will now find their level and be wiser men when the battle of the ballots is over.

BOND'S TRIUMPH IS INSTANT!

Nothing can stop it! It stands in the public mind and is rushing onward in a mighty confluence of public sentiment to a great and glorious victory over hydro-headed Toryism. Toryism is destined to go down. It must go down. Booblers and grubbers will fight to keep it up as long as there is money in it, but it must go down. It is destined to fall before an enlightened public sentiment. It is an awful test of strength and elasticity for any (claim to survive four years of destructive Tory rule. Thank goodness the end is coming near when the reign of craft and greed shall end forever!

CAN'T BELIEVE THE ELECTORATE!

Bond once again takes charge of the public business of the colony.

SAVORY ROASTER.

Our many customers who had the pleasure of examining and trying our sample of this very useful household article will be pleased to hear that we have just received a shipment, so that all orders can now be filled. What is a Savory Roaster? It is such a good thing that it must be seen to be properly understood. A Savory Roaster is a Pan for roasting meat; but it is more than this, it is a self-baster. No torment or burning your fingers removing it from oven to baste the meat. You simply place your roast of meat in the roaster, close the pan—trouble no more about it until it is cooked. The meat is really steamed all through. None of the nutritious properties of the meat can escape. It is a marvel and the price is within the reach of everybody, $1.50.

Public Opinion

Will Declare that Morris and His Government Must Go!

An election is not without interest for many reasons. It brings out the future, or shows the want of it, in the men who govern us, and who make our laws; it incites people to think; it tests the worth of public men; it brings to a focus the real issues in the public affairs of the country. The policy of the Government of today is the policy of Sir Edward Morris; it is also very little short of the policy of an "irresponsible." Whether he is judged by the Railways and their cost, by his own opinions, or by his Ministers and their conduct, one great fact stands out, that Sir Edward Morris poses as a political "irresponsible"; or he is a Premier who assumes the people to be incapable of discernment. He is one or the other, with that qualification, when he, in these days of grace, asks the people to commend and approve what he refuses to justify or explain. Let not that estimate of his worth be put down to prejudice, if it is possible to focus against him and his Ministers so many acts of political depravity.

He is a striking example of a Premier whose acts, conduct and speech should cause young men and old to be alarmed. Occupying the highest position in public life, he trampled the timber laws under foot, and willfully deceived a Governor in one stroke; he approved Ministers of the Crown and their infamy, and, at the same time, with inordinate egotism, arrogated to himself high ideals in another stroke.

If Premier Morris realizes the depths of his political conduct he would not now be a candidate for reelection unless he also deceived himself in believing that you, the people, did not appreciate the enormity of the draught he is making up your credulity. "Pay no heed to what you hear!" is the only justification he offers; it is nevertheless sufficient to term him a political "irresponsible." For it is scarcely possible to conceive an incorrupt mind exhibiting such contempt for public opinion. Yet he says: "My opponents are deficient in ideals of statesmanship!" Would you know the character of man Sir Robert Bond is? The test of long years in public life has left his name unaltered; has, indeed, given his name the hall-mark of honour and integrity, without which no Government is safe.

Would you learn of the ideals that were to Premier Morris as guiding stars, that shaped his end—rough-hewn though they be?

The test of four short years exhibits him as a Premier who merits defeat; whose acts and conduct proclaim him to be unsafe to ever again occupy that position in public life.

What ideal statesmanship can be gathered from the Railway Branches? What statesmanship is contained in a contract given to Reids to build Railways no matter what they cost? If there is any limit to the cost beyond $15,000 a mile, what is it, and where can it be found? One hesitates to ask the churches! It cannot be found in the law! And since Premier Morris has spoken such nonsense in figures, and is such a great friend of the Reids, he is the last man on earth one would think of consulting. His characteristic penchant to be trivial on great occasions, as he is great on trivial occasions, seems to have been with him in that Railway Deal!

"To be perfectly safe," said Morris in 1910, "I will put the estimate at 250 miles, though some think my mileage too high." Again: "When all these lines are built, the cost will be four millions." Has he to be reminded again that he has already borrowed six millions; that the Railways are not half completed; that it will take five or six millions more to finish them; and that he has not told us how he spent the money!

If Morris, in making the contract, told us in his solemn language that they would cost four millions; if he has now borrowed six millions; if Reids are to be the receivers of the most of the money; will you trust Morris, Reids friend, any further in the business? Will you not rather ascertain what foundation there is for the rumour that the Government Engineer is importuned for certificates of completion, or partial completion, and which, it is said, he refuses to give?

"What has he done with the millions!" should be one of the first subjects of investigation by Sir Robert Bond's Government.

Unfortunately for Premier Morris his sagacity does not commend him to the people; neither should his conduct in assisting Morison to deceive Governor Williams; for it seems to run parallel with Piccott's (his Minister) when he assisted W. Crosbie in trying to cheat Mr. M. Gibbons.

In the Gibbons case Piccott had large scope to lie, yet he was caught; in the Morison matter, Morison was more limited in scope (though not in scope), nevertheless, he lied, and was exonerated for advising another to steal timber.

In the Gibbons case Piccott received a certain letter from Gibbons, and replied to it; yet he denied getting it but failed to deceive the Court.

In the Morison matter, Premier Morris wrote a letter to the Governor approving Morison's lie and succeeded in deceiving the Governor. And Morison got clear. If those men had retired to private life they would not now be the subject of criticism. But two of them are Ministers of the Crown, and one is the Premier of Newfoundland seeking re-election.

Do you marvel at their miserable ingenuity? Are you astounded that Premier Morris did not recommend Piccott's dismissal? Do you detect any difference in principle between the "ideals" that guide Piccott, and the "high ideals" that guide Premier Morris? These things happened in 1912.

Go back a little! In 1910 Morison and Crosbie, two Directors of the Produce Company, members of the Government, got a contract from Premier Morris, or took it themselves for carrying mails to Pogo in a small steamer for $19,000 a year. They also got a contract for carrying mails in Fortune Bay in a smaller steamer, the "Susan," for $20,000 a year. Both contracts are for twelve years. Do the people know that? Do the people know that those steamers earn a profit in freight and passenger money? Do you think that if those men were not members of Morris's Government they would have got such a price? Marvel as you may but always remember that Morris borrowed an extra two million dollars, and perhaps did not know what to do with the money! But let the tale proceed. The same Crosbie buys a wrecked vessel for $28,000. He rigs them up, and also rigs up the price to $2,200.00, and Premier Morris paid it. He paid it because his "ideals" were as high as the spars, but not a bit higher. The only person in Morris's Party who has referred to the cost of the spars is R. A. Squires. He seems to have had a stiffer face than Crosbie for he sent a circular to Trinity Bay on October 1st, saying Crosbie only got $2,000. Afterwards on October 8th he sent another circular saying that Crosbie received the $2,200 for sure. Why was this scalding jobbery not justified by Morris in the Herald or the Daily News? Why did Squires seek to defend it by circulars, sent surreptitiously to a section of the people? Squire's attempt to justify this miserable business will have contributed not a little to his own defeat.

If the recital of these abominable acts do not pall,—acts which Premier Morris flaunts before you as ideals of statesmanship—let the excellence of the fraud, which that infamous Bay de Verde Iron Ore Prospectus was given to commit, satiate the soul of unprejudiced people who can still support Morris!

Has Premier Morris to be reminded again that the Prospectus proposed to sell 60,000 shares at $7.50 in an abandoned mine; that it falsely stated that the property was estimated to contain forty million tons of ore; that it falsely stated that there were two hundred thousand tons of ore available for shipment?

Has Premier Morris to be reminded again that Morison, Minister of Justice, was named as Counsel for the Company; that M. P. Cashin, Minister of Finance; C. H. Emerson, member of the Executive; F. J. Morris, Judge of Circuit Court, were named as Directors?

Has Premier Morris to be reminded again that nothing more false, nothing more indelicate, nothing more brazen, has appeared in print than that prospectus in mining exploitation?

If depravity is the state of being depraved and corrupted then only one thing can exceed the depravity of that document. And it is: the ideal nerve of the "irresponsible" that Premier Morris and his Ministers exhibit in seeking re-election with that detestable Prospectus staring them in the face.

—glaring at them; the ideal nerve that those men flaunt with closed teeth in the face of an outraged people; the ideal nerve that makes Premier Morris keep silent, and refuse to show that his Ministers are clean.

Would the people have the tale lengthened out? Do you desire more degrading evidence against Ministers of the Crown?

Have not the rough-hewn ideals of Premier Morris and his Ministers received an exposition—scalding as the price of Crosbie's spars!

Do you look for Premier Morris's return? Can you with decency respect his indecent seeking of re-election? For is it not indecent in a Premier to seek re-election who refuses to justify or explain:—

(1) Why he, as Premier, approved the plea of Morison, his Minister of Justice, that he forgot the law—a plea not known to the law?

(2) Why Morris, as Premier, and Morison his Minister of Justice, willfully deceived the Governor in an effort to explain how Morison forgot the law when Morison advised a man to steal timber?

(3) Why Premier Morris has not given any justification for the price paid Crosbie, a member of his Executive, for two second-hand spars?

(4) Why Crosbie, Morison and their Produce Company got the scalding price of $39,000 on the two mail contracts?

(5) Why those railways will cost so many millions more than the four millions Premier Morris so solemnly assured us?

(6) Why his ideals of statesmanship refuse to allow him to explain what connection Morison, Cashin, Emerson and F. J. Morris had in that fraudulent Bay de Verde Iron Ore business; and why he puts them up for re-election suffering the odium of persons who were stated to have "active participation" in that exploitation!

All these matters have been known to the public for some considerable time. It is but one day before Polling Day.

Therefore, Electors, the facts are before you. You are the highest Court of Appeal in this land; the Court of Public Opinion; the only Court that can order Clean Government because you alone have the power and the will to turn political rascals out.

If eyes were made for seeing, and ears for hearing, and minds for thinking, there is not the slightest doubt that you will issue the order on Polling day that

MORRIS MUST GO!

A Human Trimmer.

Dear Sir,—Please allow me space in your valuable columns to explain to the best of my knowledge, the definition of the word "Trimmer."

There are two classes of Trimmers, one made of steel, iron, or some other metal, for the purpose of trimming lumber and other material; the other is a Human Trimmer, who is ready to trim anything that comes along in the shape of a man's pocket-book, or a man's honor and personality. Mr. Editor, if you happen to have missed that very expressive slang word that has lately crept into Newfoundland Politics, you ought to know it now.

A Human Trimmer is a Politician who makes promises when he needs you, with the intention of breaking his promise when he has got all from you that he can get; a Trimmer is a man who sacrifices his friends to help himself; a Trimmer is a man who betrays his country for his own selfish interests; a Trimmer is a man who holds Government office for his own selfish and corruptible ends; a Trimmer is a Politician who deceives the public under pretence of his office; a Trimmer is a man that meets a poor, widow with a smile, and then slyly defrauds her out of the last 10 cent piece she had in the world to buy a loaf of bread for her starving child.

Now voters of Bonavista Bay, beware of a Political Trimmer, for he is a dangerous person to meet, and more dangerous to do business with. I will not only warn the voters of Bonavista Bay, but of the whole country; and if any of my fellowmen come in contact with this class of a Trimmer, be aware and don't let him trim you the same as I have been trimmed with one of those Political Trimmers.

Minimise The Loss.

Practically farmers may easily minimise the loss, due to a backward and cold season, by the judicious use of Sulphate of Ammonia as a fertilizer.

Sulphate of Ammonia contains over 20 per cent of nitrogen, as against 15 per cent in Nitrate of Soda, and is therefore more than 25 per cent better than nitrate of soda as a means of quickening and increasing the growth of crops.

The use of Sulphate of Ammonia has increased enormously of late years and it is recognized to be the most valuable fertilizer obtainable. By its judicious use the production of root crops per acre may be doubled, and the growth of late crops stimulated.

We invite the attention of Farmers to our special pamphlet on the best methods of using Sulphate, copies of which will be forwarded free to any address on application.

The price of Sulphate is moderate, and our terms are accommodating.

Let the Requirement of Honesty in Public Men Prevail, or Let It Be Renounced!

"ONCE TO EVERY MAN AND NATION COMES THE MOMENT TO DECIDE."

THE MORRIS GOVERNMENT HAS SPENT THE PEOPLE'S MONEY WITH A SPENDTHRIFT PRODIGALITY—THE REIDS AND THE MEMBERS OF THE MORRIS GOVERNMENT GOT THE MOST OF IT.

Although Morris as Premier solemnly told us the Railways would cost four millions. You can be assured they will cost more like ten millions! Can you trust Morris with the spending of all those millions in the next four years?

Did Morris wilfully deceive you? You know he wilfully deceived Governor Williams to save the rascal Morison, from dismissal for his abominable offence against Good Government, honesty and truth! The people will admit that Morison should be banished from public life. Does anyone deny that? Is Premier Morris any better? He lied with Morison; could it be for any other reason than to save his Government?

CAN you trust Morris? If he is friendly to the Reids, and if Morris misled you, in millions, in Reid's favour, will you trust him? Will you trust him after he and Morison, together, deliberately deceived the King's representative?

Do the people realize the awful gravity of the charge that Premier Morris and Minister of Justice Morison wilfully deceived a Governor, the King's representative?

Do the people realize the awful gravity of the silence of Morris and Morison on this charge? And that their awful deliberate silence is an admission that they wilfully deceived the Governor, or else that they are "irresponsible."

Will you trust men such as that again? Will you let the Revenues and the millions that must be borrowed, be spent by Morris, Morison, Crosbie, Piccott? Have you not been deceived enough already?

"A dishonest man should be banished from public life." Whoever spoke those words, is that a rule that should be followed, or should it be ignored?

CAN Premier Morris, or his Ministers, answer the charges that have been made in the Telegram? It is maintained that Premier Morris cannot show that he and Morison did not wilfully deceive the King's representative here; if they did not do it wilfully then they are irresponsible.

YOU know the charges. They know the charges. They have not answered them.

Public men in high office are their own masters, so it seems.

Some of them have proven themselves to be masters of their own infamy.

Will you make them masters again of the Colony, of the Revenue, and render yourselves again helpless against their designs?

No Government has ever insulted public opinion in the face of such grave charges as the Morris Government has done—so bare-facedly, so indecently as amounts to a claim that they are not responsible to the people.

TO-MORROW IS POLLING DAY.

Up to this moment not one word of defence has been uttered. Let not the torch-light mouthings of a Tory demonstration deceive the people when such grave charges have been so brazenly ignored.

Let Sir Robert Bond be put in charge of public affairs; or let the requirement of honesty in public men, holding the chief public offices, be forever renounced.

"Once to every man and nation Comes the moment to decide!"

THEREFORE VOTE FOR BOND AND CLEAN GOVERNMENT.

C.L.B. DANCE. — The postponed dance of the C.L.B. in aid of their Armory funds, will take place on next Tuesday night, and an enjoyable time is anticipated, as the committee in charge are sparing no effort to have the affair the most successful in the history of the Brigade.

INTER-COLLEGIATE CHAMPIONS.—The result of yesterday's football match between the St. Bon's and Methodist College teams decided the championship for the season. The game was an exciting one. St. Bon's scoring in the first half, and up to the sound of the final whistle the Methodists did not succeed in finding the net. One more match is to be played to complete the series, but the result will not affect St. Bon's title to the Championship.

Everybody admits that the Fairbanks Morse "is a good engine."—Oct 15, 11

VICTORY Is Assured!

Bond Will Have 28 Seats in the next Assembly!

Special to Evening Telegram. CONCEPTION HR. To-day. Recent disclosures prove eye-openers. Arias, how force plain. Gibbs' motive in stamping the District in favor of Woodford and Kennedy. The revelation of the secret of Gibbs after Woodford's appointment into a fat office for life, is the rumor here. Mr. Min would become a rotten borough and the people tools for the rejected Jinker of the West Coast, and St. John's West. Every honest patriot Newfoundlander would resent this new insult to the intelligent voter and kill all attempts against their liberties. Therefore, every voter should without exception, to-morrow vote the straight ticket for Lewis and Carter, and every district in the Island for Sir R. Bond and his Liberal-Union nominees; do this and sweep out of existence the greatest crowd of hoodlums this country has ever seen.

Special to Evening Telegram. PLACENTIA To-day. Reports from all parts of this district say that people have decided to crush out of political existence the present Toryism. Hall, Political Boss Morris, and his henchman, Patsy McGrath, the man who has entered politically the sacredness of the family homes of nearly every prominent politician in Newfoundland and vilified them, Boss Morris not excepted. God knows its time for the people to crush such a creature and let him see that all his dirty writings are of no account and not taken notice of. Arias, how force plain, to-morrow, all classes and creeds, and show by your votes that hoodlums and squandering of your money will not buy your liberty. Hall around the tried and true old Liberal Standard led by Sir Robert Bond, the incorruptible and the whole Don, Spar Crosbie and the whole gang of hoodlums follow in the wake of their Big Chief and henchman, Patsy. Three cheers for Sir R. Bond and Clean Government.

Special to Evening Telegram. DILDO, via NEW HR. To-day. We brand the Herald's message of the 27th inst. and hold mass meetings and R. A. Cranford, a lie Lloyd's meeting was two-thirds Liberal and a big success. Topical few heeders who were unable to stand Lloyd's fire. If the Herald's correspondence from other settlements contain such untidy, with good-bye.

Special to the Evening Telegram. BONAVISTA. To-day. President Coaker, Dr. Lloyd and John Abbott, arrived by express this morning and will hold mass meetings to-night. A big change of sentiment here since campaign opened Morison was carried down at grand meeting here on the 20th, for abusing the union. He was compelled to take his seat. Four fifths of the votes here will see cast for Union Candidates. Wonderful excitement amongst the people. The whole Bay side with Union spirit, Coaker and Lloyd leaving for the city by to-night's train. The largest hall here won't hold more than a third of the people wanting to be present. Coaker can't lose and the grandest victory ever accomplished will be the Unions to-morrow.

F. P. U. COUNCIL.

Special to Evening Telegram. BONDVIEWAR. To-day. Held splendid meeting at Bay Bulls Arm; got great reception with flags and guns. Bay Bulls Arm will give a solid vote for Bond candidate Lloyd, Stone and Targett. Have finished canvass of Trinity Bay and predict that the three Liberal candidates will go in to-morrow by at least a thousand majority. Bond Can't Lose this time. Have been invited to close Bonavista campaign with President Coaker to-night.

W. F. LLOYD.

Special to Evening Telegram. CARBONVILLE. To-day. At last night's meeting two or three Tory heeled, headed by Mick Powell, tried to create a disturbance but were quickly silenced by W. F. Penney's replies. Several prominent gentlemen, who were Tories at the last election, were so disgusted by last night's proceedings, that they have decided to come over into the Liberal ranks and help swell the number of those who say...

Politeness.

By GEORGE FITCH.
Author of "At Good Old Sinsab."

Politeness is the lubricant which enables human beings to mingle without knocking the corners off of each other.

It is the piano finish of conversation. Politeness isn't a state of mind, but of words. Many a man can be perfectly polite and agreeable to another while he is longing to leap upon him with a hoarse growl and bite off his ear.

Politeness is the art of expressing what you ought to feel. When a man is polite and expresses it at the same time, he is a perfect gentleman. When he only expresses it he is a good imitation. Sometimes the imitations sell for higher prices than the real things in the marriage market.

With the aid of politeness a man may make his way pleasantly through a maze and perplexing world, getting what he wants and having his own way. Politeness is a greater asset than financial ability. The financier has to work for his money, but the truly polite man can allow others to work for him and can make a life-long friend of a creditor by the beautiful way in which he apologizes for not being able to pay him.

Some people wear their politeness all the time, while others take it off like an overcoat when they become heated and use the plain unvarnished cussword. After using politeness constantly and to excess for a few years a man's feelings and his conversation become total strangers and have to be introduced when they meet on rare occasions.

Politeness has made the world twice as pleasant and about half as truthful as it was before. However, people should not attempt to live on politeness alone. It is like living on cake. Some of our politest citizens have come to sad ends by being shot by boorish persons to whom they were apologizing for being compelled to ask them to elevate their hands and stand perfectly quiet.

America is not noted as a nation for politeness. France is. Frenchmen are marvels of politeness and pleasant elastic manners. A Frenchman can run an automobile over a pedestrian with such perfect manners that the boorishness of the American who picks up the victim is painfully evident by contrast.

We should all strive to be polite, but not too blanket-blithing polite.

This is the story of what happened to a Yale Padlock when the owner lost the key, as told to the makers in the following letter:—

"I thought you might be interested in this lock. It was attached to a chest, the owner of which lost both keys. He tried to pick the lock, but couldn't. He then called his son, and together they attacked the padlock with a seven-pound striking hammer and a three-pound ball pen hammer. For two hours it resisted their efforts. They were finally compelled to cut the shackle with a cold chisel. I stood by and watched the operations for two whole hours, and therefore vouch for the accuracy of my statements."

Have you anything that needs padlocking? And if you'd like to keep it, it does need padlocking. We can show you the Yale Padlock that is made for the purpose.

The Abnormal Development of the GIRAFFE is remarkable, but the abnormal development of the demand for SUNLIGHT SOAP is still more remarkable. It is not known how many people have never seen a Giraffe, but it is known that there are millions and millions of careful house-wives all over the world using

SUNLIGHT SOAP.

These housewives no longer dread the advent of wash-day, for, with SUNLIGHT SOAP as their ally, they are assured of a quick despatch of all dirt and uncleanness. SUNLIGHT SOAP saves your clothes.

Tramp! Tramp!! TRAMP!!

"DINA YE HEAR IT?"—THE NIGHT SLOGAN OF THE LIBERAL ARMY MARCHING TO VICTORY!

Yes, it is the old-time Liberal feeling that makes everyone put the happy smile on.

The West End was doubtful last time and gave Morris a chance, but they have found out that he is a Tory, and as bad as the worst of that ill-fated Party.

They have found out that he doesn't mind if Piccott and Crosbie take Gibbons' land and don't pay him a cent. They have found out that he doesn't mind if his Minister of Justice, Morrison, forgets the law and that it was wrong to steal!

They have found out that he doesn't mind if the Colony (that's me) pays Crosbie $2200 for ten spars!

They have found out that he doesn't mind if Morrison, Cashin, Bowen and Brother Frank want to make a million or so out of poor deluded persons who buy stock in the play-out Bay de Verde mine!

They have found out that he doesn't mind how much the Colony (that's you and me) pays Reid per mile to build the railways!

They have found out that he doesn't mind if the Colony (that's me) pays $500,000 extra as less as Fried Reid is saved the trouble of cashing our debentures!

They have found out that he doesn't mind if no new industries are started!

But if Morris doesn't mind these things, the West End does!

They have determined that the spectacle of a Premier, who permits such a bunch of self-condemned sinners in his Cabinet, must cease at once. Do you blame them? Can you imagine any self-respecting merchant keeping men of this reputation in his employ? So Morris has come to his Waterloo, and after Thursday he will be free to retire to his little island where the sheep feed on two-blade grass and crows of jam are picked off the trees, and there let him meditate on the past and receive well, he knows what.

Ellis Cowan and Scott will be dined because they stand for Honest and Clean Government, and because they merit the support of all honest, right-thinking and intelligent men, who know that Sir Robert Bond would not stand for corruption in his party for one instant.

For the same reason Kent, Dwyer and Ryan will be elected again in the East End, which has been Liberal and is more Liberal than ever this election.

Every workman knows that he owes it to Kent that he is paid anything when an accident befalls him at his work.

The issue was never plainer. Bond and Honesty is against Morris!

Corruption! There can be no doubt of the result, because Right must triumph over Wrong. Therefore Bond Can't Lose!

Hark! Dina ye hear it? That might shout from North and West! See the Banners of the Grand Old Liberal Party! Hear the shout!

"BOND and CLEAN GOVERNMENT!"

Chorus from Tory Troupe.

NOVEMBER 1st.

O where, tell us where, shall we find a seat for Ned?

O where, tell us where, will he lay his weary head?

E'en Johnnie Scott has beat him, And leathered him quite sore— And its vote to our hearts St. John's West sees him no more!

There's Don and young Syd and the bully Winsor boy.

All out in the cold with Crosbie and the "Grips."

That Coker has us flattened out And sent us all to bed— But its where, tell us where, shall we find a seat for Ned?

O what shall we do if the price of spars goes down?

Our picnics and trips are all gone for ever more.

Sir Robert Bond will stop our "grabs" For he'll do all he said— But its where, tell us where, shall we find a place for Ned?

Falling Hair Means Dandruff Is Active

Save your Hair! Get a 25 cent bottle of Danderine right now— Also stops itching scalp.

Thin, brittle, colorless and scraggy hair is mute evidence of a neglected scalp; of dandruff—that awful scurf.

There is nothing so destructive to the hair as dandruff. It robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life; eventually producing a freshness and itching of the scalp, which if not remedied causes the hair roots to shrink, loosen and die—then the hair falls out fast. A little Danderine to-night—now—any time—will surely save your hair.

Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and after the first application your hair will take on that life, lustre and luxuriance which is so beautiful. It will become wavy and fluffy and have the appearance of abundance; an incomparable gloss and softness, but what will please you most will be after just a few weeks use, when you will actually see a lot of fine, downy hair—new hair—growing all over the scalp.

TO THE ELECTORS OF LOGY BAY, OUTER COVE, POUCH COVE, MIDDLE COVE, TORBAY, BAULINE, FLATROCK, PORTUGAL COVE AND BELL ISLAND AND ALL OUTLYING SETTLEMENTS OF ST. JOHN'S EAST!

This is to warn you against the statements that Howley and Higgins are making about the result to the Country if the Liberal Party is returned to power. You know in your hearts that these stories of "blue ruin" and the bugbear of Socialism are concocted by the Tories in a frantic endeavour to deceive you.

You know they are not true. Don't rely on what Higgins and Howley tell you. They want to win the Election and they are working on your feelings in a way that would give points to many a demagogue. The LIBERAL PARTY has been your friend always and past history shows you that it is while the Tories are in power that we should be alarmed for our Newfoundland. Be warned in time, and vote for Clean and Honest Government by crossing your Ballots for Extract of Letter Received From Levi Munden, Dated October 2nd.

I really believe that the Fairbanks Morse engine is all-right, she has given me perfect satisfaction. I went to work the other day and put on a kerosene oil tank and connected the pipe to the carburettor and started her and ran her just about three minutes on gasolene and then shut off the gasolene and turned on the kerosene and as soon as the gasolene was burned out she took to the kerosene all right. She does better work on kerosene than on gasolene.

Extract of a Letter Received From J. A. Strong & Co., Dated Oct. 9th.

With regard to your enquiry concerning the Fairbanks Morse Co. engines which we had from you this spring, we may say that they have given perfect satisfaction as far as reliability and simplicity in running are concerned. In fact they are as good as the manufacturers say they are. We would not change a Fairbanks Morse Engine for any other that we have ever seen.

Postal Reform Urgently Needed.

Editor Evening Telegram.

Dear Sir,—I have it on the best of authority, that a prominent Post Office Official has recently been going around amongst a certain class of people who are not British subjects, with the object of inducing them to take out Naturalization Papers, and of course, to vote for the Tory Party.

When Sir Robert Bond comes into power, no doubt, there will be a most searching examination into Post Office methods. Most people will say, and quite true.

Yours, TOM TIT.

He was committed to prison on false charges and was executed this date.

The Gypsies.

We learn that the Gypsies who arrived in the city on Monday, intend to settle down in the country for a few years. Previous to coming here they had been ranching a few miles from Calgary, Alberta, and recently sold out all their live stock, securing enormous prices. There are three families, 26 persons in all, and Mr. Ephraim Butch, the eldest of the three brothers, and leader of the party, informed us they are copper-smiths and hope to work at that trade here. They are Brazilians but speak English fairly well. More than likely the Tories will try and get them naturalized, so as to vote for them.

Mr. Chauncey is quite a young man and his old friends in St. John's are glad to hear of his success.

Mr. J. J. O'Grady, of O'Grady Bros., leaves to-morrow for Harbor Grace where he will be engaged for some time painting the R. C. Church at Riverport. Quite recently Mr. O'Grady finished the interior of the Cathedral at H. Grace, and the beauty and excellence of his work have won for him the encomiums of all who saw it.

Stomach, Nerves and Thicker Restored by Grape-Nuts Food.

The number of persons whose ailments were such that no other food could be retained at all is large, and reports are on the increase.

"For 12 years I suffered from dyspepsia, finding no food that did not distress me," writes a Western lady. "I was reduced from 145 to 90 lbs. gradually growing weaker until I could leave my bed only a short while at a time, and became unable to speak aloud."

"Three years ago I was attracted by an article on Grape-Nuts and decided to try it.

"My stomach was so weak I could not take cream, but I used Grape-Nuts with milk and lime water. It helped me from the first, building up my system in a manner most astonishing to the friends who had thought my recovery impossible.

"Soon I was able to take Grape-Nuts and cream for breakfast and lunch at night, with an egg and Grape-Nuts for dinner.

"I am now able to eat fruit, meat and nearly all vegetables for dinner but fondly continue Grape-Nuts for breakfast and supper."

"At the time of beginning Grape-Nuts I could scarcely speak a sentence without changing words around or talking crooked" in some way but I have become so strengthened that I no longer have that trouble." Name given by Canadian Postum Co., Windsor, Ont.

"There's a reason" and it is explained in the little book, "The Road to Wellville," in p.k.s.
