

W. Love, Secretary Calgary Trades and Labor Council, Victim of Accidental Shooting at Red Deer; Wounds Not of Serious Character; In Hospital

(Special to The Albertan) Red Deer, Aug. 13.—With the teeth on the right side of his mouth, shattered by a steel nosed bullet from an automatic pistol, A. W. Love, secretary of the Calgary Trades and Labor Council, is lying in the hospital at Red Deer figuring out what a lucky man he is in escaping death by a hair's breadth. The shooting was an accident and occurred Monday afternoon.

Mr. Love was visiting at the home of his friend, Mr. Bassant, on the 13th at A. W. D. Allen place in Red Deer. The men had an "automatic" and were examining it. It was the old story of not knowing the weapon was loaded, and without warning, the pistol was discharged.

Mr. Love was smoking a pipe at the time which probably was the factor that saved his life. The bullet struck the pipe, broke the teeth, knocked out some of Mr. Love's front teeth, and raised the teeth on the right side of his mouth, breaking them but stopping the bullet before it penetrated the flesh of his jaw. His mouth was badly cut by the shattered teeth and several stitches were required to close the wound on his lower lip made by bullet and the broken teeth and pipe.

Mr. Love went to the hospital at 6.30 o'clock Monday night suffering from great pain principally from the broken teeth. After they were given attention, however, he passed a fairly comfortable night and was resting well at a late hour last night. It will be some time however, before Mr. Love will be able to masticate his food with any degree of comfort.

That he was not instantly killed was mere chance as if the missile had struck a fraction of an inch higher it undoubtedly would have passed upward into his brain.

EVERYBODY WANTS THE POTATOES GROWN IN ALBERTA, SAYS MR. R. W. PAMMENT

Nightingale Farmer Arranging for Sale Direct to Buyer Pleased With Prospect Association Will Handle the "Spuds" in 100-Pound Sacks for the Present

DECLARING that he already is overwhelmed with orders for potatoes which will be handled direct to the consumer by the Nightingale Farmers' Supply association, R. W. Pamment, who is arranging for the sale of the "spuds" put in a busy day yesterday, Mr. Pamment says that for the present, the farmers will handle nothing but potatoes but arrangements are now in progress to sell all other kinds of farm products.

"We will start handing other vegetables and produce after the harvest is over," said Mr. Pamment, "as most of the farmers will be busy for the next two or three weeks to give their attention to anything else. We are going to begin by selling the potatoes in 100 pound sacks but will handle other quantities, upon agreement to be made. Agree to Sell to Consumer Direct

The association is not a profit-sharing organization in the sense of a co-operative company, but simply involves an agreement among the farmers to sell their produce through the same channel direct to the consumer. In other words, Mr. Pamment is acting as the commission agent.

"I am not charging a cent for my services," said Mr. Pamment yesterday, "as I have six acres of potatoes which I am anxious to sell myself at something like a reasonable profit and it the same time help the city consumer from the expense of a middle man."

Graft and Blackmail of Becker Netted Him $200,000; Banks are Ordered to Disclose Deposits of Police Officials; Four Police Inspectors Are Suspected

New York, Aug. 13.—Powerful banking interests, acting through the New York clearing house committee, came to the aid of District Attorney Whitman today in his efforts to lay bare the alleged corrupt alliance between the police and the gambling fraternity, founded on graft and blackmail. A virtual command was given by the commission to all banks in the clearing house to furnish the district attorney with a record of deposits they have received from any of the high police officials whom the district attorney suspects of having been a collector of blackmail from the disorderly element of the city.

As a result, records showing that within the last eight months Police Lieutenant Chas. Becker, charged with instigating the murder of Herman Rosenthal, and accused of gambling graft, has made bank deposits of $38,845 in his own name or that of his wife, were placed in the hands of the public prosecutor. These deposits the records show were made in November 1911, shortly after Becker became head of an army squad of gambling aiders and continued only during the time that Jack Ross says he was collecting graft for Becker and until his arrest.

The district attorney has promised records of Becker's deposits in four other banks which did not have time to go over their accounts today and he also discovered that Becker has an unknown amount of stocks, bonds and other securities locked up in two separate safety deposit vaults. That the total value of the police lieutenant's wealth will be found to approximate $200,000 would be no surprise to the district attorney. Becker's salary as a lieutenant was only $2,250 a year.

It became known tonight that the district attorney is holding for presentation to the grand jury in due time evidence which he expects to convict four police inspectors on the charge of collecting blackmail from gambling houses and disorderly resorts. These four men are all aware, it is said, of the nature of the evidence against them and have been making every effort to cover their tracks. Thus far the state investigators have uncovered bank accounts of two of them totalling $75,000.

Unknown Man Plunges from Scaffold On C. P. R. Natural Resources Bldg. While Horrified Citizen Looks on; Deepest Mystery Surrounds Accident

A man supposed to be Henry Gillente, but having the appearance of being a foreigner of the Latin or southern European birth, is lying in the general hospital unconscious from the effects of a fall from a scaffold on the east side of the C. P. R. Natural Resources building. The man was seen walking on the scaffold at 11 o'clock, a distance of 200 feet from the ground, and was seen to fall at 11:15.

At the hospital a physician bearing the name of Henry Gillente was found in the man's pocket, together with $15 in currency. This amount of money was found in a man's pocket in a building on the east side of the C. P. R. Natural Resources building, a distance of 200 feet from the ground, and was seen to fall at 11:15.

AUDIT OF MUNICIPAL BOOKS SHOULD BE MADE AT CLOSE OF THE YEAR

Members of Finance Committee of Council Seem Agreed on That Particular Point Alderman Minchin Thinks Work Should Be Done By Provincial Auditor Alderman Brocklebank Believes Audit Would Help in the Marketing of Bonds

THAT an audit of the various city departments should come at the close of the year seemed to be the consensus of opinion of members of the council finance committee at a meeting yesterday morning. Those present included Mayor Mitchell, Alderman Brocklebank, Alderman Minchin, City Treasurer Burns and City Clerk Miller.

The question of a municipal audit was discussed only in a general way and will be taken up later in detail by the committee. Alderman Brocklebank was of the opinion that a thorough audit of the city accounts would have a beneficial effect in the marketing of municipal securities. Treasurer Burns, however, thought this effect is somewhat overrated.

Are Funds Legally Expended? Alderman Minchin believed that the most important thing to discover was whether municipal funds have been expended strictly in accordance with the provisions of the Municipal Act. In view of the fact, he thought that if such an arrangement were possible it would be well to have the auditing conducted by a professional auditor familiar with the operation of municipal bylaws and provincial acts of Alberta.

City Clerk Miller pointed out the admirable city organization of Winnipeg, due to thorough audits and recommendations of experts employed by the city. Alderman Minchin and Brocklebank were believed that so far as any ordinary audit of municipal affairs is concerned, even by an expert, it is not possible to detect the virtually invisible under one's eye and he believed that the audit should be made by a professional auditor.

Treasurer Burns pointed out that until the taxes have all come in and sufficient time allowed his department (continued on Page Eight)

Memorial Tower, Commemorating the Establishment of Representative Parliamentary Institutions in Nova Scotia, Will be Dedicated Today

HALIFAX, Aug. 13.—The steamer Earl Grey with H.R.H. the Duke of Connaught and party arrived from St. Ann's, C.B., at three o'clock today. They were received with a royal salute from H.M.S. Sirius, which is here with Sir Ralph Williams, governor of Newfoundland. The Duke will land at the dock yard at 10 o'clock tomorrow forenoon, and will proceed through the streets lined by military to the city hall where a civic address will be presented. He will also receive a number of other addresses. Then His Royal Highness will proceed to the Northwest Arm where the memorial tower will be dedicated.

The Canadian club offered one hundred dollars for a poem in honor of the event. The winner was Rev. A. L. Fraser, of Great Village, N.S., his sonnet, now appearing for the first time, being as follows: Freedom doth greet this royal throng today, In the Elysian haunts—largest of one, Whom time has amply proved Britannia's son And when by age or love or ease shall stay, In years unborn this pillar to our hall, Its walls will tell not of war's stunning shock, But how long since liberty did rock, Her cradle by this old Atlantic bay, And if far scattered children surr their feet To where their father's earliest heart did blaze And bath the very stones in tears 'tis met That we of British blood this pile should raise, Whose first a daughter of our ancient throne Did sit beside a fire-side of her own.

FARMERS TO COMPETE FOR ALFALFA PRIZES

Judging Will Take Place About August 20; C. P. R. Offers $750 in Prizes

The scoring of the Alfalfa competition which is being held by the Canadian Pacific railroad for residents in the irrigation block will take place about the 20th of August. Two officials of the Dominion government will do the scoring, and it will be necessary for all those who have entered the competition to see their nearest distributor and assure themselves that their crops are entered for competition.

It will be remembered that $750 is to be given in cash prizes, and the handsome prizes offered has induced a large number to take advantage of the competition. At the present time there are something like 80 farmers who have each a ten-acre field entered in the contest. It is hoped that Alfalfa is already a success in Southern Alberta, and it has also been grown for three years on the C. P. R. demonstration farm at Strathmore with very good results. With the large acreage that has been seeded due to the competition held by the C. P. R. it is hoped that Alfalfa may soon be one of the leading crops in the irrigation block. It is a well known fact that there is no fodder grown that can compare with Alfalfa for all classes of farm stock. After the scoring, the names of the winners will be published. There is intense interest among the farmers of the irrigation block in the coming contest.

Three Chefs Will be Detailed to Prepare Viands for Royal Palates

Gleichen Preparing to Extend True Western Hospitality to Its Guests

When their Royal Highnesses, the Duke and Duchess of Connaught and Princess Patricia, and the distinguished guests that will accompany them on their trip to Gleichen, arrive there to witness the opening of the great C. P. R. Irrigation works, they will be treated to a banquet that for originality and good taste has never been excelled in the central west.

Through but a few days' notice was given, Mr. E. W. Voth, head of the C. P. R. dining car department has demonstrated the thoroughness of the organization of this branch of the service by practically completing not only the plans for serving the distinguished guests, but the menu as well.

Purely Canadian Banquet While not as elaborate as some banquets served to his royal highness, the event will be distinguished by the fact that every viand on the menu save two will be brought from the soil and waters of Canada.

The banquet will be served by a corps of 55 men, and will be prepared by the travelling instructive chef of the C. P. R., assisted by two of the most capable chefs in the service.

From the sunny slopes of Spain will come luscious olives and from the tropic mangoes from the fertile gardens of Alberta crisp lettuce, radishes and other vegetables, most of which will be recruited from the C. P. R. experimental farm at Strathmore, from Ashcroft, famed for its potatoes, will come big tubers, which under the magic hand of the skilled chef of the C. P. R. will be transformed into irresistible gems of epicurean excellence.

Yesterday the order went forth to the British Columbia to supply the banquet with a half dozen of the finest salmon procurable in the key waters of its famous fishing streams.

Artistic Features Special attention will be given to the artistic features of the banquet as served. By a special process of preparing potatoes, they will be removed from their jackets after baking, minced and replaced, the whole then being pressed into perfect shape to resemble the original potato.

All meats will be served chilled in iced trays, while the vegetables will be moulded and patterned after the Al-Berta coast of arms, and the Canadian coat of arms.

From British Columbia will come luscious fruits, and the ice cream will be moulded into the shape of a maple leaf.

A canopy which is to cover the frame forming the banquet hall has been ordered and special provision will be made to supply retiring quarters for the royal party and their attendants.

In anticipation of a security of automobiles, due to the Stampedes in Calgary, it has been arranged to have a supply furnished from the Hat and Gleichen, where twenty cars will be waiting to take the ducal party over the irrigation project.

The menu as announced yesterday is as follows: Consomme Royale, Stuffed Olives, Radishes, Pin Money Mangoes, Cold British Columbia Salmon, Mayonnaise Decoree, Assorted Cold Meats, on Gelee (Boar's Head, Roast Beef, Tongue, Ham), Gelatine de Capon, Alberta Green Peas, Special Baked Potatoes, Chilled Strathmore Farm Tomatoes, Head Lettuce Salad, on Bellevue, Caramel Custard Pudding, Maple Leaf Puff, Fruit Ice-Cream, Fancy Assorted Cakes, Cafe Noir, Roquefort or Stilton Cheese, Toasted Crackers, Assorted British Columbia Fruit, Dinner Mints, Assorted Flowers

SHOOTS WIFE IN BACK WHEN REFUSED $5 Denver, Colo., Aug. 12.—After shooting his wife twice in the back, inflicting fatal wounds, Henry Robitill, early today turned his weapons on his employees and patrons of a restaurant in which the shooting occurred. The shots went wild. Three hours later Robitill walked into a saloon and shot back from the scene of the shooting.

"Throw up your hands," he commanded. "I've only got this night to live. Give me all the cash in this drawer."

Robitill made no move to take the money. Instead, he forced the bartender to give him several drinks. In a moment of relaxed vigilance the man was overpowered. At the city jail Robitill collapsed and was rushed to the county hospital, where it was found he was suffering from poisoning, apparently taken while drinking.

Robitill went to a restaurant where his wife was working and demanded $5, and when the woman refused to give it to him, Robitill opened fire.

REFUSES TO LET UNION MEN WORK FOR HER Butte, Mont., August 13.—Declaring that not a dollar of hers ever should go to union labor, Miss Elizabeth O'Boyle proprietress of a grocery here, dined overalls today and completed the carpentry work on her store made necessary by damage by a fire. A crowd of union men looked on and jeered from a safe distance. Miss O'Boyle's store had been picketed by unionists because she kept open after 8 o'clock, but she secured an injunction some weeks ago restraining the unions from interfering further with her business.

Her store was damaged by fire last week and the insurance adjusters gave her the repair work to union carpenters. When they appeared for work today, Miss O'Boyle drove them off with a ban and did the work herself.

CANADA POOR ASYLUM FOR THOSE WHO WED AND RUN AWAY National Desertion Bureau Makes Specialty of Finding Deserting Husbands They Are Sent Back Across the Line as Aliens for an Undesirable Character If Runaway is Not American He is Sent to the Country of His Nativity New York, August 13.—If a man wants to get away from his wife and family and avoid the obligations the law imposes upon him for their support, it is no longer safe to skip over the border, because through the efforts of the National Desertion Bureau it has been established that Canada is no longer an asylum for the wife deserter. Deportation of the offender to the United States when he is a citizen is now possible, and then the offender can be readily arrested when he crosses the border. If the bread winner was not a citizen when he deserted his family in the United States he can be arrested and deported to the country of which he is a native, and there he will be liable for the support of his family. The National Desertion Bureau was started as an experiment on February 1, 1911. In June, the national conference of Jewish Charities established a larger fund to carry on the work of the bureau and made it a permanent institution. Its head offices are at 356 Second Avenue, but it does its work all over the country and in other countries, through agents and correspondents. Monroe M. Goldstein, a young lawyer, is the secretary of the bureau. "The cases we handle are unlike those tried by the courts," said Mr. Goldstein. "Our primary object is to reunite and reconcile husband and wife who have become estranged, and usually a considerable part of the case consists of finding a missing husband. Our cases have come from every part of the earth—even from Palestine, South Africa and South America. We have correspondents or agents almost everywhere in the country, and here in New York I think we have been of use to the district attorney as well as to us. Our work is increasing all the time. One Typical Case "A case typical of those we handle is this: "A woman came to the bureau and said her husband had been away eight months. She was becoming a burden to the community. We took a photograph she gave us and had numerous copies made. Our information was to the effect that he had gone out west, so we inserted his photograph in what we call our 'Gallery of Missing Husbands' in The Chicago Courier, a Jewish paper, together with what description we had, which was slight. "Three weeks passed, and there was no response. Last Sunday we printed the husband's picture in our 'gallery' in the Jewish Daily Forward. We had previously sent out bulletins all over the country. These reach a class of people who if they know a man who has deserted his family will report it. Since Sunday we have received a dozen letters telling that the man had been found in New Bedford, Mass. We have since heard from him. He says he is willing to make amends and that he is ready to refund transportation for his wife to go to him. It seems that before he left home his wife had been persuaded by a lawyer to carry on the work of separation against him. The idea of paying alimony had scared him and he fled. "There was one applicant who said she was a chorus lady at a Yiddish theatre on the East Side. She said she didn't care so much about the existing law as to whether she was a chorus lady or not. My husband is in New York City. Send him to me at once." "Another woman had absolutely forgotten her husband's name. Then there was a negro woman who wrote from Baltimore asking us to find her husband, saying: "I have no picture of him, but one of the children is just like him—age about 4 years. You can use the picture just the same as if it was him." "The photograph enclosed was that of a little girl in infant's clothes. "Often the reason why the husband left home is worth pondering over. Here is what one said: "Twins are no joke. Three pair is too much of a full house. It ain't a fine thing to exercise by walking all night with one baby, but when you get two then you know why there are so many single men. First there was Mary and Addie; they howled every night from 11 to 1. Then came Sammy and Bella, who howled still more, and I put up with it. But when the new babies arrived, Mamie and Sophie—such a noise! I spend half my money buying milk and I get nothing but a concert every night and a lot of talk from my jealous wife. Such responsibilities for a poor comb peddler!" "Investigation developed that the foundation of the marital trouble was the wife's jealousy. She would follow her husband and act as his chaperon. Whenever he talked too much with a woman patron she would get after him. The case was arranged by the wife taking charge of the three sets of twins and the husband paying her $3 a week. This continued only temporarily, for the wife has now deserted, and the husband is now making a complaint at the bureau in regard to her."

QUESTIONS. Such as the following are not rare: "My husband is in New York City. Send him to me at once." "Another woman had absolutely forgotten her husband's name. WAR OFFICE CONSIDERING THE APPLICATION OF REMARKABLE DEVELOPMENT Interesting Experiments About to be Taken by French Government London, Aug. 12.—The war office has appointed a committee to consider the application of the recent remarkable developments in wireless telegraphy to the needs of the army. The chairman of the committee is Sir Henry Norman, the author and traveller. Interesting experiments are about to be undertaken by the French government in connection with the use of Hertzian waves for fog signals. It is believed that the system will prove of great value to navigators, as vessels equipped with wireless apparatus will receive warnings when the sea is rough, and that of determining the exact position of a vessel, and that of establishing as to whether a vessel is a merchant or a warship. Several British and Italian investigators have now, it is said, formulated practicable schemes, and will set to work to carry them out. A complete wireless installation which can be carried in the bag, and which is capable of transmitting and receiving radio-telegraphic messages by the British army, a "handy" station has a range of about ten miles. It is carried in knapsack strapped on the backs of soldiers. Four men each carry a load of twenty pounds, but most are about thirty feet in height, extremely light though rigid construction, being made chiefly of aluminium in tube form. Regina Boy Falls While Crossing Track; Killed Regina, Sask., Aug. 12.—James Verx, 12 years old, was killed by the Regina street railway today by the switch engine. CHILDREN MUST HAVE PLAYGROUNDS

In modern municipal life there is no more readily sign than that afforded by the interest everywhere displayed in the provision of spaces for parks and playgrounds. The actual accomplishments of the various cities when viewed in the light of their obligations and opportunities are insignificant; nevertheless, the widespread discussion of the subject is serving its purpose in the cultivation of a healthy sentiment which in the very near future cannot fail to bear fruit in an effective demand for reform. There would appear to be ground for the belief that western communities, obsessed with the greed of growth, are more forgetful of their obligations and more careless of their opportunities than some of the larger eastern centres. We commend to the attention of the citizens of Calgary the following pertinent note from The Montreal Witness. It is pertinent, not only of the interest taken in this important subject in that city, but also of the errors that have been made there and that may easily be avoided here:

The time is not far off when providing for and regulating children's play will be a supreme part of municipal statesmanship. There is not only the natural right of the child to that kind of enjoyment, which no community may rightly deny him, but the needs of it. If the race is not to deteriorate physically and morally, not only will supervised playgrounds need to be provided within reach of all children as can avail themselves of them, but in all places where poor children abound provision should be made that the only open air exercise they get at their doors shall not be in front of street cars and automobiles. Where land is worth from four to fifty dollars a foot and self-reliance, they opposed the Canadian navy because they were afraid that it would foster Canadian self-reliance. They tried to laugh us out of it by calling it a baby navy. Just as every man begins life as a baby, so every great enterprise begins as a baby. We do not profess to read Mr. Borden's mind and heart, but we hope he will disappoint the advocates of centralization.

political forces. It is to be feared, however, that what many supporters of Mr. Borden desire is, not that the question shall be approached without party bias by all Canadians, but that Liberals shall give full approval to whatever policy Mr. Borden may devise before knowing what that policy is, and therefore without consideration of its merits. If this be their expectation they are marked victims for disappointment.

There is good reason to suspect that Mr. Borden is not the happiest of men at the present moment. It may be questioned whether he will be able to devise a policy that will satisfy the sense of duty to the Empire of the Canadian people without approaching very nearly to the policy of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, which he first approved and afterwards condemned. Despite the widespread discussion of the subject precipitated by Mr. Borden's visit to England, we have heard of the suggestion of no practicable plans that were not fully discussed at the time when this difficult problem was dealt with by the Liberal premier.

To the eager but ignorant patriot some form of cash contribution sometimes commends itself. Apart from the consideration whether the Canadian people would feel that their duty was accomplished by the contribution of their mite to the imperial coffers, evidence is not wanting that would suggest that the assistance thus rendered would be of less value than would at first appear. Lord Charles Beresford, who is generally conceded to know something of naval affairs, declares that Great Britain is not in a position to man all the ships she has at the present time. The delusion that a cash contribution meets the demands of a crisis, supposing such a crisis to exist, is disposed of by no less a person than the First Lord of the Admiralty, who recently directed attention to the extreme slowness with which naval preparations can be made. Referring first to the length of time required for building ships and training men, he declared that "it is no use flinging millions of money about on the impulse of the moment by a gesture of impatience or in a mood of panic. Such a course would only reveal your own weakness and impotence. Those who clamor for sensational expenditures, who think that dangers are to be warded off in that way, are, I venture to think, either ignorant themselves of naval conditions, or they take advantage of the ignorance of others."

The following comment upon the problem by The Vancouver Sun is not without interest:

"The real and permanent naval strength of the Empire can be increased only by the establishing of new naval centres. That is how the British Empire has grown—by the establishment of new centres of growth, giving free play to national ambition and enterprise. Timid reactionaries, calling themselves friends of the Empire, opposed Canadian self-government, opposed municipal self-government, opposed everything which appealed to Canadian manhood and self-reliance. They opposed the Canadian navy because they were afraid that it would foster Canadian self-reliance. They tried to laugh us out of it by calling it a baby navy. Just as every man begins life as a baby, so every great enterprise begins as a baby. We do not profess to read Mr. Borden's mind and heart, but we hope he will disappoint the advocates of centralization."

Ideas of a Plain Man

DR. FRANK CRANE

Omara's poem he says there was a little talk awhile of Thee and Me, and then no more of Thee and Me. We enter this world as separate personalities, hard and irrefragable individualities; our life's problem is to combine with others. Happiness lies only in soul-compounds. As we approach, we glow, as we recede we grow cold and dead. The highest joy is love, which is a man and a woman melted into one being," as Victor Hugo says. Every new friendship gives the soul a new chemical substance, with a new flavor and odor, differing from those of either of the ingredient persons. Even in solitude high souls have been unable to realize happiness, and so must think of God as sharing it. An invisible companion to share our own life is so essential to virtue that Voltaire said that "if there were no God it would be necessary to invent one."

NE of the purest satisfaction is doing good by stealth. Not that it is not also pleasurable to be generous and get thanks for it, but there is a far finer flavor to the kind deed that is never known. This is the secret treasure of the heart. As the eastern nabobs had underground chambers where they could go and boast over their chests of gold, thrust their arms into bags of rubies, so all those good turns we have done to others in secret are our private hoards where we can enjoy the delights of ownership with a good conscience. Unfortunately society is so constituted that we all have to act with a propriety we do not always feel, and hence we are most of the time oppressed by the knowledge that we are not really as good as people think we are. Hypocrisy is forced upon us to a certain degree, and that arises from this, to have always on hand a goodness nobody suspects. Don't tell of it. Don't tell of it. Hold it as the one secret that shall keep you from having sympathy. Whoever said "Let this always be in secret" understood human nature in its highest reaches. "These have the double advantage of suppressing at once ingratitude and vanity."

YOU speak of strict justice. There is no such thing. And if there were we could none of us endure it. It is not enough to be perfectly fair. Human beings cannot possibly live together except they be more than honest; they must be generous. It takes a deal of retreating, yielding, pardon and overlooking to get along in the world. And if we are to be perfectly just, who is to begin? Not I, and not you. Our hands are not clean enough. To be just and to ask but justice one must be antisepitic as a surgeon performing an operation. The least evil on the part of the judge who speaks microbes more than enough to over-balance the goods results of his surgery. So long as our common humanity is so frail it will be necessary for men to keep forgiving, cancelling debts, swallowing offenses, and so on. Do you any one only want your just dues? You are mistaken. What you want is your share of the world's forgiveness. The justice of either God or man would be more than you could bear. We are all imperfect, and the two things that make it possible for imperfect people to live together in any peace and joy, are forgiving and forgetting.

NEW WESTMINSTER POLICE OFFICER DISAPPEARS

New Westminster, B.C., Aug. 12.—Police Sergeant William Stanton of the New Westminster police, acting chief constable, disappeared on the morning of the 11th. He was last seen at the station and since then has not been seen. Stanton was a steady man, and the New Westminster officials can give no reasons for his disappearance. It looks as if he had either been kidnapped or had of his own accord left the force before he left, he went down town and bought himself a new outfit. There is no ground for believing that he was the victim of foul play. Many have found it decidedly advantageous to consider the Wants in making their vacation plans. Changes in domestic servants may be accomplished quickly and at slight inconvenience by using the Wants.

NEW BRUNSWICK CROP IS ALMOST TOTAL FAILURE

Moncton, N.B., Aug. 12.—The farmers in eastern and northern New Brunswick are greatly discouraged by the weather conditions, and unless there is a change soon, many of the crops will be a bad failure. The conditions, in short, may be described as desperate, and only on high or sandy soil has there any present prospect of an average crop.

SECRETARY OF STATE TO ATTEND MIKADO'S FUNERAL

Knox Has Been Named as Special Ambassador to Represent United States

Incidentally Will Take Up Several Matters of Diplomacy With Japanese

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13.—For the first time in the history of the United States, a special ambassador was designated as a special ambassador to a foreign power. President Taft assigned Secretary of State Knox as special ambassador to Japan to attend the funeral services of the late Emperor Meiji, on September 12, with the statement that the mission was given to the premier of the cabinet as an evidence of the American friendship for Japan. When the Japanese ambassador, Mr. W. I. Houston heard of the mission, he asserted it would be taken by the Japanese as an act of the greatest courtesy and one calculated to make even warmer and more cordial the existing relations between the two governments.

Important Questions Up At present the United States and Japan are vitally interested in several important diplomatic questions, including the great international loan, soon to be made to the Chinese republic; the neutralization of the Japanese railway systems of Manchuria; the development of Manchuria and Mongolia by the aid of outside capital; the treatment of American missionaries in Korea, and the use of the Panama canal by Japanese ships.

Facilitates Exchange of Views The mission of the office of minister of foreign affairs by his friend Baron Uchida, who formerly was the Japanese ambassador to Washington, promised to facilitate a ready exchange of honest views regarding the policies of the two countries. Thus the secretary, having concluded his duties as funeral ambassador, may find an opportunity to discuss these questions of policy with the Japanese foreign minister.

Leave From Seattle The party will leave next Thursday for the board the armored cruiser Pennsylvania at Seattle for the trip across the Pacific. Secretary Knox expects to return early in October.

Chronicles of the Khan

A Great Gamble

The Kaiser stands at the table with the dice-box in his hand. To be and to be war? Not in the history of the world has a single man faced such a throw. It is a most excellent game, and one that he has won. Look at his winnings—Holland and France as far north as Paris, colonies all over the world! If he rolls a six, he will see his people who are out of patience with his stupendous army and navy policy will rise up and tilt his throne over his head. If he rolls a seven, several new republics in Europe.

Who can watch this man standing there with the iron dice, and not wonder at his place, I wouldn't. The chances are too great against him. Napoleon had too great a brain and nothing to lose. Wilhelm has everything to lose, and what he gains is not worth the risk. When New York started to grow she found she couldn't spread out. What did she do? She rolled a seven, and got New York on top of the old one, and when this failed to meet her wants she built another New York on top of that; and now there is a fourth New York being built over the whole thing. I don't believe that the Kaiser will be allowed to expand sideways, and he can't go up. Then what had he better do? He can go down. He has his eye on Brazil and South Africa and the islands of the sea; he has his eye on them. Let him go on a voyage of discovery over Germany. Does he know what is under Germany three miles from the surface? He has his eye on five miles deep in the centre of his empire as a starter, and I will guarantee that "he will sell his fleet for old iron and disband his army, or, rather, he will give them all employment in the great new world under his feet. Think of a land richer than Brazil only five miles away, and another Africa over Bavaria or Hesse, only an hour's trip from his capital by incline railway! If the money he spends on say, four dreadnoughts were spent in exploring the country under Germany for five or ten miles deep, he would have something to show for his expenditure. He is taking no risks, and has a chance of putting himself on record as the greatest monarch of all times.

A hole five miles deep is quite a hole, but if the Kaiser loses the dice game he will go in a hole far deeper than that. It will be a bottomless pit, and that's some hole. Into that hole will tumble a dozen thrones and a thousand ships and twice one million men. Into that hole will roll fifty cities and seven hundred and fifty thousand barns, and they will sod the hole over with the curses of sixty million people, and they will start the grass growing with their tears! If I were the Kaiser I wouldn't throw the dice. I would dig the other hole first, anyway. He has a standing army of a million men in each one of these months they would make a hole in the ground that would be a revelation to the world. It would cost much, and it would make the Hohenzollern dynasty solid for another century.

No, I love the Kaiser, I wouldn't throw the dice! THE KAHN.

OTIS STAPLES, LUMBERMAN DIES OF HIS INJURIES

Eye Pierced by Fish Hook, Meningitis Develops and Death Results Special Train, at Record Breaking Speed, Rushes Son to Father's Bedside

Spokane, Aug. 12.—Meningitis, developing from the infection and subsequent removal of an eye that was pierced by a fish hook, caused the death of Otis Staples, lumberman of Cranbrook, B. C., who was brought to this city a week ago for treatment. A special train, in a record-breaking run over the Spokane International, yesterday brought C. L. Staples, a son of Mr. Staples, to his father's bedside at the Deaconess hospital, where the end came last night about 11 o'clock. E. L. Staples, another son, came here with the injured man.

Mr. Staples was the victim of a peculiar accident that took place during a fishing trip about 25 miles from Cranbrook. On a bank east the barbed hook struck the eye and pierced the eyeball. As no medical aid was at hand Mr. Staples walked two miles to his automobile and drove the car 22 miles to Cranbrook, the hook still in his eye. He was hurried to Spokane and at the Deaconess hospital Dr. C. A. Veasey found that infection had set in and that the eye must be removed. Other complications occurring, Dr. W. W. Mackenzie and J. M. Neff were called into consultation, and Thursday it was seen that the new ailment was meningitis. To get the son, C. R. Staples, from Cranbrook a special train was run over the Spokane International from Kingsgate, B. C. The special cut the running time from Cranbrook to Spokane from eight hours to six, a record for the distance, and the son reached this city yesterday morning at 4.

ALL MARRY ON SAME DAY

In the city of Plougasnet in Brittany all marriages occur on one and the same day. The men are all fishermen, many of them going as far as the Newfoundland banks, and are away from a few months in the winter. One day in early February is set apart for the weddings. Little courting is done, but much haggling over the dowry of the girls. They have to bring a certain quantity of linen, chickens, pigs and vegetables. Frequently a match is broken off because a father refuses to add a sack of potatoes to the dowry. On the day set the inhabitants of the entire region go to Plougasnet. The whole population attends church to hear mass and to take communion. Often fifty or more couples are united on the same day. Bride and groom do not walk together until the ceremony has been completed. For the rest of the day and the whole of the next day every house is open to receive guests and to provide food and drink for them. On the evening of the second day the young men carry the dowries of the brides to the houses of the bridegrooms. There they dance and frolic until early morning, and after they leave the couples are for the first time together and alone.

ELECTRICALLY PROPELLED VESSEL TO BE BUILT

Will be Ready in the Spring and is Designed for Canal Trade To be Equipped With Internal Combustion Engines and Dynamos

Montreal, Aug. 12.—Contracts have just been let by the Montreal Transportation company by which the Canadian canal trade will have the first electrically propelled merchant vessel ever built. The ship will take its place in the trade next spring. The new vessel will be a development of the internal combustion engine type tried out last year, when the Teller was built. It will be equipped with internal combustion oil engines, but these will be hooked up to dynamos instead of the propeller, and the electrical power thus developed will be used for driving the screws and handling other mechanical equipment of the vessel, the captain handling them by switches from the bridge like a motorman. It will be of the usual Canadian canal form and dimensions, with a dead weight capacity of 2,400 tons gross and 14 feet.

EVOLUTION OF POLITICAL PARTIES IN UNITED STATES FROM WASHINGTON TO TAFT

THEODORE ROOSEVELT'S new Progressive Party adds another political organization to the long list that has come into being since the formation of the American government.

There have always been two great parties, and frequently there have appeared a third, but for a day seemed to be permanent, but then faded and disappeared, to make way for expressions of protest from some other quarter.

Whether the party of the "Bull Moose" will be ephemeral—blossoming with the summer and expiring with the evening—or take on a more enduring existence, only time can tell.

Today the vehicle of American protest—just as other parties, in times past, have served the expressions of impatience and discontent at the prevailing conditions.

The Federal Party
At the outset of the government, linking with it the name of Washington, there was the Federal party. The term was applied first to the members who favored the adoption of the constitution framed by the constitutional convention in 1787.

The Anti-Federalist Party
Concurrently with the Federalists there came into being the Anti-Federalist party. Its distinctive principles are perpetuated in the Democratic party of today.

The First Republican Party
The first Republican party, the organization next took the name of the "Republican," and finally about 1796 that of "Democratic-Republican," and finally in the Democratic party of today.

The Whig Party
The Whig party came into existence in 1824. It sprang from a political party known as the National Republican party.

The American Party
The American party came into prominence in 1853. Its fundamental principle was that the government should be in the hands of native citizens.

The Republican Party of Today
The Republican party, as the great organization is known today, was the outgrowth of the anti-slavery movement prior to the Civil War.

The National American Party
About 1842 there also came into existence the National American party, an organization based on the extension of slavery into the territories.

The Prohibitionists, who became a distinctively national organization in 1859 and have maintained that status ever since.

The Greenback Party
The Greenback party originated in 1874. It demanded the suppression of banks of issue, in confinement of the currency to greenbacks, and the total or partial payment of the debt of the United States in that currency.

The Populist or People's Party
The Populist or People's party was established as a political organization in 1892. Its chief objects were the expansion of the currency, the free coinage of gold and silver in the ratio of 16 to 1, state control of railways, and the placing of restrictions upon the ownership of land.

The Socialist-Labor Party
The Socialist-Labor party has an organization extending into about thirty states. Any seven persons in any city or town of the United States may form a "section," providing they acknowledge the platform and constitution of the Socialist-Labor party and do not belong to any other political party.

The Bull Moose Party
The Bull Moose party, officially known as the "Social Democratic party" in Wisconsin, where it has elected Victor L. Berger to Congress, and as the "Public Ownership Party" in Minnesota, maintains a national executive committee of seven members, and also a national committee with representatives from each state in the Union.

On October 16, 1911, a number of "Progressive Republicans," representing membership from several states, met in national conference at Chicago. They adopted a platform endorsed Robert M. La Follette of Wisconsin, as their choice for the presidency and declared for the presidential primary.

MONNOIR PRIESTS DO NOT SUBMIT TO THE CHURCH'S ORDERS

Embarrassment Greater Than Ever, Declares Archbishop Bruchesi

Dreaded Document From Rome May Put Ban on Those Who Do Not Obey

Effect Would Prohibit Priests From Performing Church Functions

Montreal, Aug. 13.—The rumor of the submission of St. Marie Monnoir priests is without foundation so far. His Grace Archbishop Bruchesi in answering the address of congratulation of his clergy on his anniversary must have heard nothing of the submission.

In fact the immense gathering of religious men and women yesterday at the anniversary mass of the Archbishop's consecration was an answer to the report that had circulated in religious communities that His Grace felt keenly the trouble caused by the submission of priests and all should rally to his aid.

Rev. Canon Jassin of St. Therese College issued the keynote of the assembly when in the course of his address he referred at length to the unhappy situation by the disobedient attitude of certain priests. He expressed to His Grace the regret of his clergy in general and renewed in their name their pledge of fidelity, loyalty and obedience due to a Bishop by his powers. They promised to co-operate in the fullest extent of their powers in remedying the evil caused by the situation.

His Grace in reply thanked the Canon and Clergy for the expression of their affection and devotedness.

In referring to Monnoir trouble His Grace said: "That hope had long been held that a Catholic solution would have been reached. He regretted though to have to admit that the state of embarrassment was greater than ever."

The expression of the Archbishop, "Hope had long been held," gave foundation to the rumor which has been circulating among the clergy before they left the palace yesterday afternoon, that an important document was in the hands of the Archbishop for the past two weeks. It is the most recent document of condemnation ever sent from Rome to priest or people in Canada.

His Grace, it appears, has held the document hoping that the priests of St. Marie Monnoir would submit. The whole trend of conversation yesterday gave little hope of a submissive settlement to the situation.

The full speech of Judge Monet in pamphlet form, was distributed yesterday in Montreal, and Rev. Canon Lemay, head of the Monnoir College, was in Montreal, but he had not presented his submission before the Bishop and priests dispersed from the Palace.

The new document from Rome, it appears, is a most severe condemnation of the Monnoir faculty's line of conduct, and demands absolute and unconditional submission.

It is certain to maintain the decisions reached by the Archbishop of Montreal, by which interdiction has been laid upon the faculty of the college and assuredly upholds the prohibition laid on the parents of sending their sons to that institution.

If the priests of the Monnoir submit they will hold their salaries as priests and may be adopted separately by other Bishops, but should they fail to submit, no Bishop can adopt them, for they will be outside of the pale of the Catholic church. Anyhow, it is rumored that their career as teaching bodies in the Catholic Church, submission or no submission, is at an end.

It would not be a matter of surprise to find this report officially confirmed and perhaps the text of the document given to the Catholic public next Sunday. Then the College of St. Marie Monnoir will be no longer a Catholic institution, as the faculty and building will be under interdiction by Rome.

SLEEPING CAR TRAFFIC IS GROWING GREATER

Reports from the sleeping car department of the C.P.R. show that sleeping car traffic between Calgary and Edmonton has grown until the daily clearings of this modern accessory to comfortable travel now equals that between Montreal and Ottawa.

For the past few weeks the sleeping car equipment of the road has been heavily taxed owing to the vast amount of travel in all directions, especially that coming from the south and east and going from Calgary to the Pacific coast.

NEW YORK AWAIT NEW ASTOR HEIR

All Preparations For it Completed In Fifth Ave. Mansion

New York, Aug. 13.—Col. John Jacob Astor's posthumous heir, a highly important baby, who will inherit $3,000,000, is expected within a week at the Astor residence, 340 Fifth avenue, and it seems all New York is interested.

Mrs. Madeline Force Astor, the ex-patent mother, years for a son, to perpetuate the name of John Jacob Astor.

But, boy or girl, she is determined that the infant shall first see the smiling face of the nurse which her husband bequeathed her.

Nursery Is Ready
The nursery in the Astor house is ready, having reverted to its original use in the nursery Vincent Astor was bequeathed and powdered and dressed. As he grew older the great room was divided into a suite for him. Now the partitions have vanished, the room is attended by a nurse, the perfection of ventilation and sanitation. Two nurses, one selected by Dr. Carlin for the mother, are in waiting.

As has been said the highly important baby awaited on Fifth avenue will inherit $3,000,000 from his father's vast estate, and if Mrs. Astor be doubly blessed each child shall receive $2,000,000.

$3,000,000 For Each
The eight sections of the will stripped of legal verbiage, directs that $3,000,000, or as many such sums as need be, be divided among the members of children by his second marriage surviving him.

Suppose the baby lives no longer than to utter a cry, to breathe, to look into its mother's fond eyes. In that case the $3,000,000 willed by Col. Astor to his posthumous child would go to the next of kin of the child — its mother.

Austin, Texas, Aug. 13.—The secretary of war today replied to the message of Gov. Colquhoun of Texas, which described reported raiding by rebels along the Mexican border. The governor had declared that if the United States did not offer aid to protect the people of the state of Texas, the state troops would be ordered out to intercept the marauders or drive them back across the border.

Sheriff Edwards of El Paso county, who headed a posse to Sierra Blanca, wired the governor that several bands of Mexicans had crossed the border and the mounted men would be required to control them.

Four troops of state cavalry are now at New Braunfels waiting the exonerated men.

Becker Had Many Secret Accounts
Grant Funds Deposited Under Assumed Names, Public Prosecutor Asserts

New York, Aug. 13.—Cloaking his identity under assumed names, Police Lieutenant Becker, now behind the bars for the murder of the gambler, Herman Rosenthal, is said by members of the state attorney's staff to have deposited thousands of dollars in several savings banks.

Proceeds of Blackmail
These deposits were the proceeds, the public prosecutor says, of gambling and blackmail, and the search for these savings accounts is being continued not only here but in Rochester, where it is reported Becker has an account under a name not his own.

Detectives of the district attorney's office say the two accounts, one in a savings bank in Newark and another in Elizabeth, N.J., belong to Becker.

Total Amount $21,000
The total of all accounts said to belong to Becker amounts to $21,000, Becker's salary as a policeman is $2,250 a year.

The district attorney has also investigated the bank accounts of two police inspectors.

The state attorney says he is curious to know how the inspectors could have made so much money.

Claw to Fugitives
District Attorney Whitman, before departing for a two day's rest in Manchester, Vt., indicated that he believed that the police knew where Harry Horowitz and Louis Rosenzweig, the two most-wanted gunmen could be found. The public prosecutor points out that "Dago Frank" Croft and "Whitey" Lewis were not treated by the police until their own detectives were close on the trail.

DISAPPOINTED BECAUSE OF LACK OF SUPPORT

Bishop Blair, Head of Largest Diocese in the World, May Resign

Asked Members of Church of England for $500,000; Has Received $30,000

LONDON, Aug. 13.—Bishop Blair, of the Falkland Islands, which is the largest diocese in the world, embracing the major portion of the continent of South America, who attempted to raise $500,000 for church work in those countries has succeeded in getting only $30,000.

He announces that he will resign unless an adequate response appears before next September. The bishop says he has made thousands of appeals to members of the church of England, having South American interests, by letters and also personally.

"The opportunity for religious, educational and medical work," the bishop declares, "will be greatly intensified by the opening of the Panama canal and the only method of preventing conditions like the atrocities perpetrated against the Indians in the Putumayo rubber gathering district of Peru is by church organization."

"I refuse to acquiesce in a deplorable system," the bishop continues, "which assigns a man to a magnificent field and there leaves him impotent for the want of men and means. Bitterly and deeply though I shall feel it, both on such a spathy on the part of the church and the people, I must resign my bishopric."

The bishop says that such a course would not be to lead a life of ease at home, as it would leave him stranded without means.

The bishop of the Falkland Islands is the Right Rev. Lawrence Frederick DeValnes Blair. The work of the bishop lies principally in the west coast of South America. His commission gives him jurisdiction over all the English Episcopal clergy and congregations throughout the republics of Chile, Bolivia, Peru, Ecuador, Colombia, with the Falkland Islands, South Georgia, Terra del Fuego and Southern Patagonia.

Is Your Back Full of Aches All Day Long

That Stubborn Pain in the Back is a Sure Indication of Kidney Trouble

Dr. J. J. Moore writes as follows: "I have suffered with backache for some time in Valencia, California. It was a steady, nagging pain, which grew steadily worse, and I became almost unable to walk. I tried many remedies, but nothing helped. I finally discovered that my kidneys were the cause of my sufferings. I took Dr. J. J. Moore's Pills, and in a few days I was able to walk again. My backache is now a thing of the past, and I feel as well as ever. I can now regulate my own health, and I am a strong, energetic, and happy man. I can now regulate my own health, and I am a strong, energetic, and happy man. I can now regulate my own health, and I am a strong, energetic, and happy man."

COMPLAINS OF DELAY ON NINTH AVENUE EAST SUBWAY

President W. H. Cushing Avers City May be Asked to Pay for Loss to His Firm

Cofmissioner Clarke Says Delay is on Part of C. P. R. Which Failed to Heed Kicks

Letter Will be Addressed to the Proper Railway Officials Asking More Haste

Intimating that his company will be obliged to apply to the city to reimburse them for the loss occasioned by delay on the Ninth avenue east subway, W. H. Cushing, president of the Cushing Bros. Ltd., sash, door, and planing factory, laid a strong complaint yesterday morning before the city commissioners. The city is supposed to stand 60 per cent. of the construction work and the Canadian Pacific Railway 40 per cent. Commissioner Clarke says the delay is on the part of the railway, and another letter will be addressed immediately to the proper railway officials.

Unusual Delays Retard Contractors' Progress

Situation Demands Prompt Action -- Sweeping Price Reductions

This is the only course open to us. You Piano buyers, whom we expect to PAY to help us out of this situation, have the right to know why we turn to the method of radical, unparalleled price reduction for relief. Briefly, circumstances have developed which make it impossible for us to get into our new wareroom by Sept. 1. Our present lease expires Sept. 1. We must get out.

What Are We Going to Do With Our Big Stock of High-Grade Pianos?

We can store them—yet, at heavy expense for cartage and storage, damage, time, tuning and repair. We have weighed the situation thoroughly, and tell you frankly that we have determined to deduct all these expenses from the piano prices and cut off another big slice as an advertisement, and

Pass Our Pianos on to You at $100 to $175 Savings

In fact, orders have gone to our Sales Department to forget entirely cost figures and cut every instrument down to a quick sale figure, no matter how high the quality of the representatives of 25 of the world's greatest pianos on our floors. Every instrument must go at less than the cost of the cheapest unguaranteed "commercial" instrument. Think what this means. You buy a piano once in a lifetime. This, then, is the opportunity of YOUR lifetime!

CRUEL STEPMOTHER IS SENTENCED TO JAIL

London, Aug. 13.—The cruel stepmother in England has just been sentenced to six months' imprisonment at Liverpool. When 8-year-old Ethel Shaw was found lying on the ground in Stanley Park, she awoke with a start, trying "Oh mother, don't hit me!"

TO DECIDE IF SEATTLE MUST BUY HEBB SITE

Seattle, Aug. 13.—Judge Main is expected this afternoon to decide whether a writ of mandate shall be issued requiring the city officials to issue $1,000,000 in bonds and turn them over to the Mountain View Development company in exchange for approximately 1,000 acres included in the White river power site, and a 160-foot right-of-way for pipe lines owned by P. H. Hebb of Tacoma.

It is contended on the part of the relator that when the city voted March 6 last on the acquisition of the power site, the affirmative result made it mandatory upon the city to issue the bonds and complete the deal. On the city's part it is contended that Mr. Hebb has offered to give a deed only to indefinite property, and that the city is not bound to issue the bonds or complete the deal.

BRITAIN AND FRANCE MUST REMAIN FRIENDLY

Victoria, Aug. 12.—Count Douville, of Paris, who owns considerable tracts of land in the prairie provinces, in an interview on the relations of the great powers, said:

"So long as Britain and France are friendly towards each other as they are at present, so long as they keep the entente unshaken and allow no mean Jealousies or bitterness to creep into their relations, so long will the balance of power be preserved in Europe and the nations at peace."
