METHODIST NOTE DISNEY AT BOSTON FOR UNION OF CHURCHES

Methodists Discussing Vital Topic — Justice MacLaren and N. W. Rowell Disagree on Important Point—Question of Superannuation.

VICTORIA, B.C., Aug. 26.—(Special.)—An overwhelming majority of the Methodist conference declared itself in favor of church union as arranged in the basic drawn up by committees of the Presbyterian, Methodist and Congregational churches this afternoon.

Methodists Discussing Vital Topic. The vote was 709, 295, against 55. Arrived against the proposed union were such men as Justice MacLaren of Toronto, Rev. William Briggs of Toronto, Rev. Dr. W. M. Fenton of Montreal, Rev. Dr. W. R. Young of Montreal, Rev. Dr. W. H. Sparling of Brockville, Rev. G. J. Bond, Rev. John, Rev. D. Hickey, Montreal, Rev. Dr. L. Curtiss, St. John's, Nfld.; Rev. W. E. Giffen, Toronto; Rev. J. Craig, Nelson Bay, and Rev. W. H. Hineck, president Toronto conference.

The recommendation read: "Your committee recommends that the General Joint Committee as a basis upon which the Methodist, Presbyterian and Congregational Churches may unite. Those who had voted affirmatively arose and sang the doxology, while the dissenting brethren remained seated."

Rev. Dr. Griffin opposed union. He did not feel that he could approve any movement that deprived aged workers of their just rights. With the union in existence the superannuation fund would not be adequately provided for.

He would defy any man to show where the Presbyterians had surrendered anything in the doctrinal basis.

Rev. J. W. Cooley, secretary of the conference, answered Dr. Griffin's objections by saying he guaranteed that under the proposed union the fund would not be inadequate.

Justice MacLaren of Toronto, the next speaker, who had been elected chairman of the committee of union, said he had weighed very carefully the whole drawn up scheme of union...

He was followed by Dr. W. F. Hilliard, who opposed the union. He was elected layman speaker on the subject. His first complaint was that the paragraph in the basic which stated that the nature of Christ was degrading and would become a breeding ground for all kinds of Unitarianism.

He was opposed in the third place because it destroyed the itinerant advantage of it, not without some advantage of it, the laymen," he said. He was opposed to the union, which appoints the ministers, committee, which appoints the ministers, committee, which appoints the ministers, committee...

CANADA AND THE NATIONAL POLICY

Introductory Article to Series in Which The World Will Present Facts and Conclusions of Greatest Interest to Canadians as a Whole.

Regarding the comparative merits of the conflicting policies of free trade and protection there can be and is endless discussion.

On the free trade side the arguments adduced are largely based on theory. Its supporters have, indeed, no concrete instance to offer of the success of that doctrine except the case of the United Kingdom—its one great exemplar.

Nearly half a century has passed since it achieved its final triumph under the chancellorship of the late William Ewart Gladstone. For the greater part of that period it reigned supreme — was elevated indeed into a position resembling nothing so closely as the eleventh commandment of the decalogue. For that there was some reason, which is easily found in the special circumstances of Great Britain. To these free trade owed an enormous initial advantage.

But for the fact that the increasing population had overtaken and was rapidly exceeding the food production free trade would not have appealed so strongly to the masses of the people. For the agitation for the repeal of the Corn Laws initiated the movement that culminated in the opening of the country to foreign imports.

Headed by Charles Pelham Villiers, and aided by the persuasive and powerful eloquence of Richard Cobden and John Bright, the Anti-Corn Law League, after a campaign of seven years, changed the economic policy of Britain. Not the least effective of the levers that forced the door was, however, the Irish famine.

The conversion of Sir Robert Peel, who, in turn, carried Gladstone with him, resulted in the repeal of the Corn Laws in 1846, to take effect in 1849, and, fifteen years later, the latter statesman gave Britain the system that has since in substance prevailed.

Cobden has his name indissolubly connected with the victory of free trade. The policy was derived from the considerations advanced by Adam Smith in his celebrated work, "The Wealth of Nations," and its original form had in immediate contemplation its acceptance by all civilized nations.

Britain was then as now the leading industrial and exporting nation, but her superiority was beyond comparison with that she now enjoys. Resting on that fact, Cobden held up to the eyes of his countrymen a vision of Britain as the workshop of the world. All nations were to become her customers, while she sat as queen drawing plenteous supplies of food and raw material and levying tribute from them.

The dream was full of charm to the British workers who had obtained considerable electoral power thru the Reform Act of 1832, and whose numbers grew with the growth of the country's industries. But it did not materialize, and, indeed, it was hopeless from the beginning. Other nations less advanced in industrial development but strongly national in sentiment were not prepared to become hewers of wood and drawers of water for the benefit of the British manufacturer.

In the United States especially, the determination to foster home industries was a dominant factor in its internal policy, and the republic possessed natural resources immeasurably greater than those of the United Kingdom.

Patriotic to an extreme degree, filled with restless energy and intoxicated by the conquest of half a continent, the people of the United States were little likely to accept a policy such as that advocated by Cobden. Their standard of living on its material side was higher than that of the toiling masses of Britain; they were more democratic, possessed far more political liberty and education was more generally diffused and valued. Protection, they held, was necessary in the first place to encourage their nascent industries and later to secure them a fair competitive opportunity against cheaper foreign production or slaughter prices. These remain the two main arguments in favor of a system of protective duties, and they have been fully sustained by the economic history of the United States and by that of Germany since her federation in 1871.

To aver, as many free trade doctrinaires do, that these typical examples of successful protection would have done just as well had protection never been afforded is simply to make an unprovable assertion, one, too, which is contradicted even by the case of the United Kingdom itself. For Britain's unapproached industrial predominance in the world, as it existed at the time free trade triumphed, had been gained under protection. Only then did the benefit of unrestricted exchange appeal to the British manufacturer, to whom foreign markets were a necessity, and who wanted cheap food, in order to secure cheap labor.

No country can afford to govern its policy in any part of its national life by idealistic considerations. Its course must be influenced by actual circumstances whatever the final aim of its endeavor may be. These circumstances include both its internal conditions and external relationships and to disregard either would be an act of supreme folly.

Even the most stalwart free trader admit that a tariff for revenue is perfectly permissible, nor will he insist, altho in theory strictly necessary, that a countervailing duty should be imposed on corresponding home products.

Exception has also been made, notably by John Stuart Mill, a convinced free trader, if ever there was one, in the case of a young country with large natural resources adjoining a populous nation having highly developed industries. By doing this, Mill conceded the strength of national sentiment and ambition.

Your cosmopolitan altruist, who, unfortunately, is too often more solicitous after the progress and prosperity of other nations than his own, flouts the notion that a patriotic people might possibly and justifiably prefer political and commercial independence, even at the cost of a measure of spare living to political and commercial dependence with ample fleshpots as its reward. Certainly this way national honor lies, if that be the alternative.

But if the experience of other nations is to be taken, prosperity and stability are more easily assured by encouraging equitable growth in all departments of national activity. Canada has found that out since the adoption of her National Policy in the spring of 1879 by a decisive vote of the people.

But upwards of 30 years has passed since its inauguration, and, despite the many and great advantages that have sprung from it, an attempt is now being made to destroy the bulwark. A generation has arisen that knows not the justification of the National Policy, its splendid history and remarkable success.

Whether it shall stand or fall is the question of the day for Canadians, and their future as a people depends on the answer that is given.

MUST GET NEW YORK LICENSES

Ontario Motorists Hit Hard by Reciprocity Clause.

The secretary of Ontario Motor League has just received a letter from Samuel S. Koenig, secretary of state for New York, advising him that it will be necessary under the new automobile law in New York for all Canadian tourists to secure New York State licenses, before crossing the border into New York State.

The letter states that under the provisions of section 285 of article 2 of the highway law, the department has no authority to issue temporary licenses or grant special privileges except to non-residents of those states or governments that grant the same to New York.

The new law hits hardest the motorists of Ontario and New Jersey. The State of New Jersey has a most stringent vehicle law and exacts special license fees from every motorist entering its borders. The Province of Ontario does likewise. Most of the other states of the union grant exemption to tourists when passing thru, there being a reciprocity of privileges between the states, altho permanent residents in these states must in each case secure licenses.

The license fee is graded according to the horse power of the car. For 25 h.p. or less, $5 per year. Less than 35 h.p., $10; and less than 50 h.p., $15. Fifty h.p. or more, $25. One half of these fees is charged for the balance of 1910.

Our Formal Display of New Styles in Furs Takes Place

Monday, August 29.

A Feature Being the Excellence of EATON Designing and Manufacture.

Summer is slowly fading away into the vista of things past. Autumn stands fresh and fair on the threshold of the future. The holiday spirit is giving place to the spirit of serious intent. Filmy stuffs, flowery ornaments and all the regalia of Midsummer have been supplanted. The counters and showcases have once again been dedicated to the trappings of Fall and Winter. And on Monday the Fur Department will hold its Formal Opening, when all the glories of the world's finest peltry in the multitude of fashionable forms dictated by Paris, New York and London will be unveiled.

The display will be a wide and comprehensive one, embracing that which will answer the demand of my lady of capricious and luxurious fancy, and of her practical and economical bent. Our buyers have brought back the best and latest creations from the great foreign markets, and these, supplemented by the productions of our own staff of skilled cutters and fitters, constitute a showing it would be difficult to eclipse.

The models that appear in the illustration are typical of the season's own particular styles. That worn by the figure on the left is a full-length coat, in Hudson seal, semi-fitting in the back, lined with green satin de Chine, and trimmed with Alaska sable; the long shawl collar being fastened with a single frog ornament.

The figure next wears a three-quarter length model of Russian pony, fashioned in Russian blouse effect, and displaying the new sleeve, a Cordial Invitation to Visit the Show Rooms is Extended to Residents and Exhibition Visitors.

with tuck running from shoulder to cuff. A black patent leather belt, with jeweled clasp, is a feature of this garment.

The long wrap on the figure to the right is of superb Canadian mink, exquisitely marked, an arrangement of three stripes, running round the foot, suggesting the narrow effect in current vogue. This model shows the new French-striped lining that will be largely employed in the make-up of the more luxurious garments.

The fourth figure is distinguished by a smart scarf and huge pillow muff, the former so designed as to permit of its wearing in motor hood fashion. The two pieces are composed of three stripes of soft Columbia sable, separated by two stripes of Paisley silk veiled with brown chiffon. Such sets are being seized upon rapturously in Paris by women who do an amount of motoring.

Innumerable other models in coats, wraps, neckpieces, and muff, for women, misses and children, will be on display.

Our Formal Millinery Opening Takes Place MONDAY

Miss Newport Here Monday

Following out the well established adage of "First things First," the acquisition of new stays is the fundamental care of the well dressed woman. The new gowns exploit new lines. Corsets designed to suit such requirements will be offered. Different types of figure call for different types of corset. And for the purpose of offering expert advice on these vexed questions, Miss Newport, the well known demonstrator of Nemo and Smart Set Corsets, will devote the next few days to the customers of the Store.

She will be found in the new fitting rooms, in the Corset Department, from nine to five o'clock daily, when she will be pleased to fit the corsets, explain methods of lacing, and advise generally respecting any point of up-to-date interest in regard not only to Nemo and Smart Set Corsets, but to any other make the customer may chance to prefer.

For women with stout or unusual figures, this is an unusually good opportunity to consult a specialist in the matter of procuring the corset best adapted to their particular need.

Exemplifying the Beauty of the New Styles in Both EATON-made Hats and Imported Models

This Autumn's will be a greater opening than any we have yet had. The importation of models has been increased fifty per cent, and the galaxy of lovely headgear in readiness for the display beggars description in its variety and charm.

This is an event appreciated not only by the woman in search of a smart bonnet, but also by the woman who seeks to keep abreast of the modish times. For it is an occasion when the styles and fancies of the New Season are revealed in the identical shades and substance in which the master milliners of New York and Paris are presenting them.

Ostrich plumes are ubiquitous. In divers forms, they constitute the sole ornamentation of nine-tenths of the large hats and of the majority of the small toques. They appear curled, semi-curved, uncurred, and drooping in "willow" fashion. It is essentially a "made" season, satin, velvet, silk, and fur composing the fashionable foundation of the designs. And broad curving brims are the order of the hour, the old poke bonnet shape being suggested in many instances. As an aftermath of Court Mourning the preference in color is for purple, white, grey and black. Royal blue is also a prime favorite.

Among the models particularly worthy of notice is one by A Napoleon toque by Germaine is entirely of broadtail, with huge amount of uncurled plumes caught with a knot of aquamarine velvet.

One of the most notable models in the array is a large, silk-covered production in the new ardote shade—a dark bucklesberry blue, the brim exploiting a bonnetlike front and flare back, with a mass of dark blue feathers oddly dotted with white, falling cascade-like down over the high crown. This is a creation by Gergette.

The productions of our own workrooms prove formidable rivals to those of foreign origin. Among these will be shown on Monday a charming royal blue velvet toque, with clever touches of soutache braiding on the high beaver crown, the trimming of which takes a decided tilt backward. A large felt picture hat is developed in velvet in the odd mahogany shade known as "herne." A small mushroom shape, with royal blue beaver crown, instances in the feather mount that distinguishes it, the high military arrangement of feathers, which is so popular a feature.

These are but Typical of a Myriad of Alluring Conceptions. COME AND SEE THEM.

Special Opening Day Selling of Ostrich Feathers

In connection with the Opening there will be a special offer of ostrich feathers. They come direct from the most famous manufacturers of ostrich feathers in London. A great portion of that immense purchase will be on sale Monday. Coming to us as they do direct from the maker, the prices are surprisingly low. This class of goods will be very fashionable this coming season, and now is your opportunity to secure one of these handsome plumes; but, whether buying or inspecting, come Monday morning.

That Beautiful Venetian Oil Painting at Half-price

That distinguished painting of a large Venetian canal that has been a Mecca for visitors in our Art Gallery is now to be sacrificed owing to a rearrangement of our galleries. It portrays a scene on the Grand Canal, Venice, the gondolas and pleasure craft, the gaudy colorings and the costumes, with the warm, brilliant sunshine, making a picture full of interest and amusement, and an exquisite color effect. In the background, on each side of the canal, the quaint dwellings, business houses, public buildings, etc., are cleverly brought out, showing the novel doorways and arches.

It is a wonderful work of art, painted by the well known artist, Dupray, and would make a very desirable painting for public buildings, schools, or in a large dwelling. The frame is of gilt, swept with gold burnished ornaments; 5 ft. x 6 1/2 ft. On Monday it will be offered at exactly half its former price..... $87.50

BRITISH BOWLERS BEAT THE R.C.Y.C.

Tourists Up on Each of the Four Rinks at the Island Green.

The visiting British bowlers defeated the R.C.Y.C. teams yesterday at the Island Green by a score of 33 to 18, all four of the sailor rinks going down to defeat...

The tourists played an unusually strong game and the final result never seemed to be in doubt. Unfortunately for the locals several of their best players are absent at present on their vacation, and on account of their absence the Royals were rather weaker than usual. But even so, it is the consideration it calls for, it is the fact that the British bowlers have been victorious with the assistance of these players, so strong was the game put up by the tourists.

In the game between Kirkland and Reid the former was one up. In the first end he notched three and in the next three ends got seven more, six being made on the fourth, while the locals had to be satisfied with three. At the tenth end the score was 15 to 4, but the eleventh gave the Torontonians six. The latter stages of the contest were all Royal Canadian, the score being 15 to 4.

In the game in which D. T. Morrison and Dr. V. Scargrove were the opponents, the Scotchmen were victorious by 15 to 10. The first ten ends gave the visitors an advantage of 5 and the last ten ends 1.

The closest contest of the day was the Bates-McColl game, for which the score was 18 to 17 in favor of Bates. He gave the locals the advantage in the fifth, 1 on sixth, and four noughts in the sixth. Bates scored one on the start and then for the first five ends was unable to count at all. However, they redeemed themselves in the 7th, 8th and 9th ends by getting 4, 2 and 1 for these ends. The R.C.Y.C. aggregation fell two in the last half and were unable to do better than six.

The Coppin-McColl game was the greatest contest for the British players of the day. The score being 12 in this game the visitors counted 15 in four and their total for the first 10 ends was 15 while R.C.Y.C.'s was 7. In the last half the Britishers could not be stopped and scored 17 to the local team's 10.

COSTLY LIVING AND THE PUBLIC TRIBUTE.

In the course of an interview in Paris with the representative of a New York daily, Justice James V. Gerard of the supreme court of that state, expressed his opinion in outspoken terms on current political issues in the United States. Conditions of life in that country, he declared, were as pathetic as they are impressive. Things, he said, cannot go on at the present rate, for the cost of living has grown to such a point that misery is spreading; wages are where they were ten years ago and the cost of rent and living is practically doubled. From his own experience Justice Gerard illustrated his point by the fact that whereas a few years ago he paid seventy cents a basket for potatoes, the charge is now $1.50, a difference more than double. Following the course of the basket, he found that the German farmer on Long Island now gets exactly the same price he received six years ago and makes just the same profit. But there is now a very large corporation on Long Island that collects produce and the farmer must sell to it if he is to sell at all. That corporation resists to a cold storage concern capitalised at many million dollars and then the railroads come in and add their charges. Still another corporation enters in the shape of a distributing agency before the basket of potatoes reaches the consumer, upon whom tribute to four corporations is thus levied. All this in place of the original simple transaction where the German farmer sold direct to the German grocer, who taking a moderate profit sold the basket at seventy cents. Very similar conditions exist all over Canada. Here in Toronto every obstacle is thrown between the producer of food stuffs and the consumer. Various unnecessary profits are drawn by collecting, transporting and distributing concerns, the effect being that the grower often finds it cheaper to let his produce rot on the ground than accept the price which is made for him. Foolish restrictions prevent him from offering his goods in quantities convenient to the consumer, and the public is not only punished by extravagantly high prices, but is deprived of sources of supply which would otherwise have been made readily available. The remedy for this can come in Toronto, either from the growers or the public—the former thru the establishment of co-operating distributing centres, the latter by requiring from their elected representatives to the city council a pledge to restore the public market to its proper place in the civic economy by removing the restrictions that prevent sellers and buyers from trading freely together. Old country markets are self-supporting and usually yield a profit over and above the cost of management and upkeep, and yet there are plenty of retail dealers there who earn a comfortable living and have no kick coming against the markets. Retail dealers themselves are advantaged by being brought into immediate contact with the producers and if they were alive to their own interest they would heartily support every proposal that enlarges their area of supply, and increases the public demand and eliminates non-productive and unnecessary agencies.

TORONTO AND THE C.P.R.
Mr. McNeill, general manager of the Canadian Pacific Railway, voiced the corporate spirit when he remarked that the company wants to spend money in Toronto in its own way. If it gets its own way, it will carry out big plans, no doubt, but the trouble is not where he placed it, but in the fact that the particular interest of the C. P. R. and the public good of the city are not interchangeable terms. The railroads want to hamper and restrict waterborne traffic, the one form of competition that they dread, since it is the most effectual agency in keeping down freight rates. Because the Pacific ports of the United States had that advantage, the railroads were compelled to give rates on at least equality with those of ocean transport and they attempted to make the difference up by charging inland points with the full transcontinental rates for freight and an additional charge for the distance back from the coast to the proper destination. This practice was rightly condemned by the Interstate Commission, the rates being cut in some cases fifty per cent.
Even at the cost of further delay, Toronto is not going to give the railway companies their own way. Improvement of service conditions would be dearly bought if it meant limitation of harbor facilities and the loss of free access to the bay. The position of the C. P. R. is all the more unreasonable since Mr. McNeill himself indicated that in his opinion the proper location for a big station will be in the north district of the city. The World thinks he is right, but Toronto would be in disagreeable shape when that time arrives were it to give the railways now their own way in regard to the waterfront. It would be an error of the first magnitude for the city to yield in the matter of viaduct construction, the only method by which the full natural advantages of the harbor can be preserved intact. On this question there can be no compromise, and Mr. McNeill's complaint that there is no scope for enlargement is discounted by his admission that in any case the railroads must seek relief in the north. Co-operation of the railroads and the city can be easily obtained if they frankly recognize that Toronto's wider interests must not be sacrificed to enhance their profits and perpetuate their transportation monopoly.

HAIL TO THE CHIEF!
Congratulations are due Chief Thompson on his election as president of the International Association of Fire Engineers. The body is representative of the fire-fighting services of the leading cities of the United States and Canada, more than 500 delegates attending this week's convention at Syracuse, N. Y., and the honor conferred is a striking testimonial to his prominence in the profession. Chief Thompson in his 35 years of service in Toronto has seen and materially helped the department grow from a minor affair to one that he and the citizens can well be proud of. To be sure, there are improvements that can yet be made, and Chief Thompson should hearken to the advice of Croker of New York and not be backward in putting it up to the city to foot the bills for what he believes is needed, so that when the association is invited to come here some day he can show them a fire department that, for its size, will be a model in equipment and efficiency.

THE PERCY HASWELL PLAYERS.
Under the inexorable law that governs human life there cometh an end to all things. If they be evil their disappearance is a relief, if they have brought joy and gladness, parting is regret. During the summer season now nearing its close, Toronto has been favored by the presence of a theatrical company of unusual excellence in the persons of Miss Percy Haswell and the players associated with her. It required some degree of faith in themselves and in the public of Toronto to undertake the attraction of open air amusements, but it has been amply justified. Success has been theirs, but it has been well earned by the high quality of the plays Miss Haswell has presented, and their thoroly artistic interpretations. Some pardonable inequality could not be avoided in a series including many dramatic forms, but the comparative failures have been few and slight and quite overborne by the conspicuous merit of by far the greater number.
Miss Haswell has revealed herself as an actress of quite remarkable versatility and charm. Her art is unflinchingly true, without exaggeration, and passes without effort from grave to gay, from lively to severe. She can take a firm and sympathetic grip of widely differing character types and give them a stage presence at once natural and vital. Her popularity has grown steadily with the people of Toronto, and appreciation has been mutual. Miss Haswell has a delightful way of making her audience her personal friends and it has been perfectly evident during this parting week that they have understood and reciprocated. Congratulations is also the meed of her company of players, who have given Miss Haswell admirable support, and have shared with her gratifying popular acknowledgment. Her good-bye fortunately is not forever, if all things go well together, and Toronto will be ready to give her a cordial and affectionate greeting when she returns next summer to the boards of the Royal Alexandra.

MAKE THIS CLEAR.
If the Grand Trunk Railway wishes to secure the confidence of the traveling public, it will renege the employees awaiting employment as a result of the strike as soon as it can get them on the job.
The news from Durand is very ominous, but whether it be shown or not that inefficiency on the part of new men was the cause of the tragedy there, the only way to remove doubt is to make it clear that no petty official spite is allowed to interfere with the safety of passengers.
Ottawa, which promises to be the aesthetic as well as the political centre of Canada, is considering the burial of all electric wires and cables and the erection of handsome lamp posts with powerful tungsten lights on the principal streets.
Don't tell anybody, but they say there was two inches of snow in Cochrane yesterday.

Ourselves

It is proposed to start a cheerful little magazine in which things that are of interest to all of us will be talked over in a neighborly way. It will be called OURSELVES.

The newspapers tell us a lot about other people. We shall try to find out a little about ourselves and what is worth while in our everyday lives. Perhaps we can help one another to see what is enjoyable, what must be put up with and what may be made better. And we'll try not to miss any of the good jokes.

The policy of OURSELVES will be to learn all there is in our home land that should command our love and loyalty. It will be published once every month for the enjoyment of true Canadians. The first number will be issued on the fifteenth of September.

If you feel that you would like an occasional good laugh or a spell of quiet thinking about things of real interest, become one of us. There will be monthly talks by the editor, and articles, poems and stories by ourselves and other people. If we get rich we will have pictures later on.

It will cost you just one dollar to become one of OURSELVES. This will entitle you to a year's subscription to the magazine and give you the right to tell the editor what you find in life that amuses you and cheers you, and that may amuse and give heart to others. For a while, at least, you will have to go elsewhere with your troubles.

Subscribe today! Send your dollar by Postal Note, P. O. Order, or Registered Letter to The Ourselves Publishing Company, St. Thomas, Ont., but if you would rather you may come over to the farm in Ekfrid and hand it to the editor.

Agents wanted in every neighborhood in the country to sell subscribers to OURSELVES. Write for terms. They are liberal.

Tell everyone you know about OURSELVES and have all send your dollar today. Subscribe yourself and get us one or two subscribers.

PETER McARTHUR, Editor.

Corporations Are Out to Sew Up North Toronto

The application of the Toronto Electric Light Company to the North Toronto Council, for the privilege of supplying light in the town, another evidence of the antagonism to the desires of the people of the municipality to annex themselves to the city, has shown that the large Toronto corporations are busying themselves in North Toronto at the present time, just exactly the same way they did in the other suburbs when there was a clear wish to become part of the large municipality.

This is the second of these applications which has come before the North Toronto Council within the last few days, the first being that of the York Radial Railway to double track Yonge street.

If these corporations are making strenuous efforts to tie up the town before it becomes part of the city, it cannot be believed that the people's representatives will attempt to give away any privileges and so bind the district that it cannot get a full advantage of the amalgamations with Toronto.

The application of the Toronto Electric Light Company is a most plausible one on paper, but North Toronto people should not be induced to agree to a corporation. This experience of Toronto, and, in fact, any other municipality, has shown that an agreement with a corporation is practically so much waste paper.

In the present conditions of affairs violating a confidence of the people in attempting toicker with either the Toronto Electric Light Company or the York Radial Railway Company.

Overturn, no matter how adroit, in either of these cases, prearrange trouble for the municipality and would sometime come to the aid of some corporation.

The idea of the corporations is to doubt development as a portion of the city.

AT OSGOODE HALL

August 26, 1910.
Master's Chambers.
Before Chief Justice K.C. Master.
Sovereign Bank v. Frost—W. J. Boland, for plaintiff; F. Aylesworth, for defendant. Motion by plaintiff for an order for security for costs of counter claim.

Judgment: In the present case the counter claim alleges merely what is set up by way of defence, that if plaintiffs had dealt properly with their securities, there would be on a proper accounting a balance due the defendants and asks for such an account. The motion cannot in my judgment succeed, and should be dismissed with costs in the cause.

Stewart v. Hildebrand—W. J. Boland, for plaintiff; W. C. Chisholm, K.C., for defendant. Motion by plaintiff for order for further examination of defendant as a judgment debtor; defendant as a judgment creditor.

Judgment: From the examination already had, it appears that defendant has parted with all the assets and spent the money. He admits that since the liability in question was incurred, he has earned several thousand dollars in his practice, as he has been making money right along, and spending all he could get hold of. He was not asked how much was still owing or by whom, nor called on to produce his books. This, the plaintiff now wishes to be allowed to do. In view of the authority on this matter, I think an order should be made. But as the inquiry should properly have been made on the first examination, the costs of this motion and order, which may be fixed at $25, should be allowed to the defendant and set off pro tanto against the judgment.

Ward v. Scott—H. S. White, for defendant; G. Kerr, for plaintiff. Motion by defendant to change venue from Toronto to Berlin.

Judgment: The order should go so far as to allow the defendant to set the date down for the ensuing sittings next month if the case is not settled. It seems that negotiations are pending between the parties. Plaintiffs may have leave to plead that the releases executed by them were only given provisionally, but this is not to prevent a trial in September. As the point is not now raised for the first time, nor can it have been a matter of surprise, costs of motion in the cause.

Dominion Automobile Co. v. McIntosh—Hubbard (Exr) & Co., for plaintiff; An ex-parte motion for an order for replevin. Order made, and amount of bond fixed at $200.

McDonald v. Hart—W. C. Chisholm, K.C., for defendant. Motion by defendant on consent for an order setting aside judgment and dismissing action without costs. Order made.

Dovey v. Ord—McLaughlin (McLaughlin & Co.), for plaintiff. Motion for leave to issue writ of summons for service on a defendant in Vancouver. Order made.

A BROKEN-DOWN SYSTEM.
This is a condition for which few doctors give many names, but which few of them understand. It is only weakness—a break-down, as it were, of the vital forces that sustain the system. No matter what may be its cause (for they are almost numberless), its symptoms are the same: the most prominent being sleeplessness, spirit and want of energy, depression of mind, loss of interest in life, and a general feeling of exhaustion. Now, what alone is absolutely essential in such cases is the restoration of the VITAL STRENGTH & ENERGY to throw off these morbid feelings, and experience proves that night after night the use of this medicine certainly secures a complete recovery.

WEST TORONTO.

Citizens Complain That West End is Greatly Neglected.

WEST TORONTO, Aug. 26.—(Special.)—The death took place today of the 2-year-old child of Mr. and Mrs. Gray of 35 Sinclair-avenue from meningitis. Funeral takes place on Monday morning at 9 o'clock to St. Michael's cemetery.

Typoid fever is rampant in West Toronto, and it is charged that much of this sickness comes from neglect on the part of the city re sanitation. Many of the lanes are half clean, and if cleaned at all, many mud puddles exist, a hotbed for the disease.

Finance committee meet on Monday evening and the town council on Tuesday.

GIRL SCOUT COMING.

SUMMER RECORDS OF CHILDREN'S DEATHS

Records show that by far the greater number of deaths among little ones occur during the hot summer months. The excessive heat, the difficulty in keeping baby's milk sweet, proper food all tend towards bringing on those dreaded baby troubles—cholera infantum, diarrhoea, dysentery and other stomach and bowel troubles. To guard against these troubles Baby's Own Tablets should be kept in the house. An occasional dose of the Tablets will prevent these deadly summer complaints or cure them if they come on suddenly.

NOT A GIRL'S WORK

Coroner's Jury Want a Man Always on Duty at the Morgue.

The jury investigating the death of the unknown man found in the bay at the foot of Bathurst-street, brought in a verdict of drowning. There was nothing to show that the wife found round the corpse indicated foul play rather than suicide.

NEW E-M-F "30" COUPE—Price $1950. Magneto, five lamps, horn and generator included. Deliveries on this model will begin in October, 1910.

THE SPECIFICATIONS

Our E-M-F "30" and Flanders "20" chassis remains unchanged for 1911 and the same standard specifications which have proven so successful, practical and economical in operation will be the rule during the coming season. There will be the same powerful motor, simple carburetor, practical rear axle transmission, automatic oiling system, safe steering apparatus and other practical features constructed by the same superior workmen from the highest class of materials. No necessity for changes appears in the case of a product which has stamped itself as standard and absolutely successful.

One Year's Guarantee With Every Car

The E-M-F Company believes that a stage has been reached in the automobile industry which makes it the duty of every responsible manufacturer to protect dealers and public by an absolute guarantee of his product.

We accordingly announce that, beginning August 1, 1910, every car manufactured at our plants WILL BE GUARANTEED FOR ONE YEAR as absolutely free from defects in material or workmanship, and will replace, free of charge, any part of the car OR ITS EQUIPMENT which proves defective in any such respect, except tires, which are guaranteed by maker.

E-M-F COMPANY OF CANADA.

A STARTLING DEVELOPMENT in manufacturing, is it not? Yet it is one which comes appropriately from the factory which was the first to give the public a satisfactory car at a reasonable price, and the company whose policies have always been pre-eminently original and progressive.

HOW CAN WE AFFORD TO DO IT? That is the question which is naturally first on the lips of the man unfamiliar with the E-M-F Company's progress and the merits of its output. There are several reasons, and here they are. The E-M-F Company will furnish absolute protection to its dealers and purchasers—the first time any such promise has been made in the history of the industry—because:—

WE MAKE ALL OF OUR OWN CAR. The E-M-F Company alone can say—and prove the statement—that every part which is assembled to build an automobile is manufactured in its own mammoth plants—plants conceded the most efficient in the industry, with machinery more specialized and organization better systematized than any firm of its character.

WE KNOW OUR PRODUCT and we have confidence in it—confidence born of years of successful manufacture and nurtured by the severest tests to which motor cars can be put.

WE WILL BUILD 36,000 CARS FOR 1911 SEASON in United States and Canada and are enlarging our capacity as rapidly as our contractors are able. Unlike some automobile manufacturers who say they aim to produce only a few cars of high quality, and profess to believe that, the smaller their output, the better is each car, we maintain that the more cars we build according to our methods, the better is each individual car and the less its cost both to us and the purchaser.

PRODUCTION IN LARGE QUANTITIES ASSURES QUALITY in each item of manufacture, according to E-M-F Company methods. It gives us the opportunity of providing, at a minimum price to each purchaser of E-M-F "30" and Flanders "20" Cars the most skillful engineers, the most efficient mechanical force and the most versatile array of automatic machinery ever gathered for one purpose in a manufacturing enterprise. It enables us to add to our equipment a laboratory where we test every carload of raw steel which enters into the manufacture of our cars. The purchaser of a car made at a smaller factory must pay more for every department of manufacture or else—far more likely—he pays for a product designed and manufactured by second-class men provided with second-class facilities.

PROVE IT? WHY, OF COURSE! Does the housewife who wants a sewing machine go rambling about the retail district, looking for a product made by hand in some small factory and therefore supposedly superior to a Singer that comes from a factory where they make a million machines a year and sell them through their own branches? Does the hunter who wishes a good rifle search something superior to the product of the Winchester Company which, by quantitative production, has made rifle-manufacture a science? Does the man who wants an adding machine ask for something better than the Burroughs and believe it possible for another company to make a better machine because it manufactures only a few score where the Burroughs manufactures by the thousand? Does the man who wants to buy a watch shun the counter where he would find the Waltham, Elgin or South Bend, and seek the little corner occupied by an obscure brand of timekeeper, manufactured by a company compelled to sell at a higher price, though providing an article unproven and comparatively unknown? Is the Steinway piano an unwelcome piece of furniture in the home of a musician because, forsooth, the manufacturers build them in large quantities which find a ready market at a reasonable and therefore popular price? Does the farmer who needs a wagon waste his time looking for something better than the Studebaker, merely because, by the systematic manufacture of 200,000 vehicles annually, that firm has made its product the standard article of the world? The answers are, of course, obvious. And the same course of reasoning is logical for the man in the market for a watch, a piano or an automobile. There is a standard in each realm of manufacture and "Standard" is synonymous with "Excellence."

A STANDARD ARTICLE; THAT'S IT! It has been the ambition of the E-M-F Company to build that very thing. And why not a standard for automobiles? The industry is surely old enough; the universal manner in which the E-M-F "30" and Flanders "20" cars are running in every city and almost every hamlet of the United States and Canada makes the claim logical. We are the one company that is building automobiles as the Singer builds sewing machines, as the Winchester builds rifles, as the Burroughs builds adding machines, as the Waltham, Elgin and South Bend build watches, as the Steinway builds pianos, as the Studebaker builds wagons and carriages—in large quantities and by expensive machinery which makes every part of every individual entirety of the product available for use in every other one. Standard? Why, of course, and therefore the most desirable.

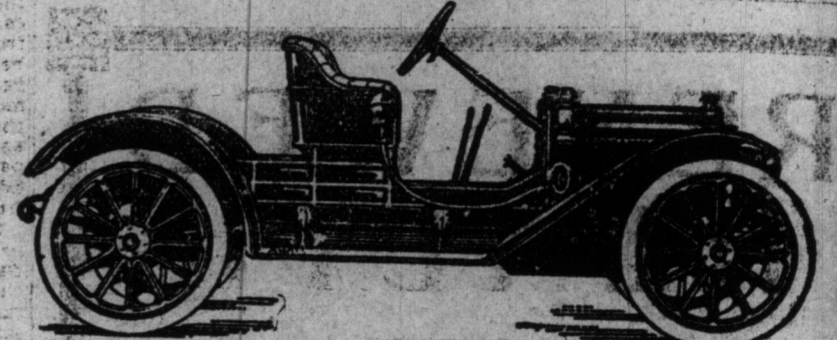

THE SAME SQUARE DEAL we have always given our distributors throughout the world will remain in force in the future and we are now making contracts for the season of 1911. The work of distribution we believe will be facilitated by the establishment of a system of branch houses where dealers and owners may obtain supplies and extra parts.

ANOTHER NEW POLICY which we are announcing today concerns particularly the relations between the E-M-F Company and our agents. Several manufacturers are at present engaged in an endeavor to persuade their distributors to handle the one line exclusively in 1911. In many cases such overtures have been made to E-M-F Company dealers who have handled other cars in combination during 1910. As a result we have received hundreds of letters during the past month from dealers anxious to renew these contracts, asking if, for the coming year, we are expecting to ally ourselves with the exclusive-representation movement. To such inquiries we are replying emphatically "No!" E-M-F Company distributors are free to handle all the lines they believe consistent with their policies, whatever they may be.

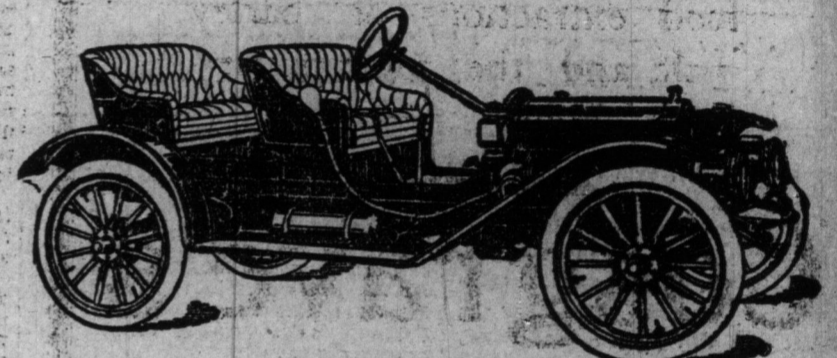

WE WELCOME SUCH AN ARRANGEMENT. The E-M-F Company does not ask nor expect exclusive representation. We are not dictating the business arrangements of our agents. We believe that they should have the power to represent what companies they may elect. We certainly do not fear the competition of any other line of cars and will genuinely appreciate the opportunity to show our cars on the same floor with any others of their type. We shall stand by this policy and are ready to complete our arrangements for 1911 on this basis.

THE EQUIPMENT

Although the price of tires, raw material and the cost of labor has materially advanced during the past year, the E-M-F Company will continue to furnish its cars complete for the list prices noted. Bear in mind that every E-M-F "30" and Flanders "20" is equipped at the list price with a magneto, five lamps, tube horn and generator, all of which are usually listed as extras by other manufacturers.

We make our own parts and equipment and are able to eliminate a considerable source of expense to the purchaser. Otherwise it would be necessary for us to increase the prices of all our models or else to reduce the amount of equipment provided as standard.

HOW ONTARIO'S CROPS HAVE BEEN GATHERED

Official Reports Up to Aug. 15—
Fall Wheat a Good Crop and So is Barley.

A statement regarding the condition of crops in the province, based upon returns of correspondents, under date of Aug. 15, has been issued by the Ontario Department of Agriculture, giving the following particulars:

Fall wheat—May be classed as a good crop, although more shrunken grain is reported than in any of the last two or three years, attributed largely to the dry weather when filling. From several localities come reports of smut in Dawson's Golden Chaff, but only a little rust is complained of. In some of the western and central counties halftowns did considerable injury to the growing crop in strips and patches, and the other crops also suffered from this cause. The straw was of better length than in more recent years and stood up well, there being much less lodging than in the case of the spring grain. Several correspondents state that the crop was particularly good on summer fallow. Old mention only was made of injury from insects.

Spring wheat—This class of wheat is steadily going out of favor in Ontario, and where grown it is confined chiefly to the "green" varieties. The yields per acre vary much, but will give a fair average.

Barley—This crop will be a good one, generally speaking, although collecting reports have been received from the same localities. The straw was clean and bright, as a rule, but it was rather short, and a considerable portion of it was lodged owing to heavy winds and rains.

Oats—This crop was so badly knocked down by rains, that a considerable portion of it could be cut only one way by the binder. In most localities the straw was short, but clean and bright, only a little smut or rust being reported. The bulk of the returns speak of the heads as being well filled and the grain as plump, and on the whole the crop will be a satisfactory one.

Rye—This crop is not largely grown for grain in this province, but where raised it has done well as a whole this season.

Peas—The pea crop has been rather disappointing, although in some cases remarkably good yields have been reported. The crop did not get a good start in the spring owing to too much rain, and the dry, hot weather at blossoming retarded satisfactory podding. While the present is unusually large numbers in nearly every section.

Roots—The weather has been rather dry for roots, and turnips especially suffered from the poor germination of seed. A good deal of turnip land had to be re-sown, and some was finally plowed up. The crop was not looking up to this average as to condition as reports came in. Many of the plants were much smaller than those reported last fall. It is almost every instance new seedling did not get a good start.

Clover—This is relatively the best crop of the season, and it would have been better, but for close feeding on pastures last fall. It is almost every instance new seedling did not get a good start.

Hay and clover—This is relatively the best crop of the season, and it would have been better, but for close feeding on pastures last fall. It is almost every instance new seedling did not get a good start.

Corn—The corn crop got off to a start, the weather turning cold and wet just after planting, rotting some of the seed. Complaints of inferior seed are also common. Crows, blackbirds and grubs also did injury to the young corn. More recent weather, however, has favored the crop, and it is making a rapid and promising growth.

Tobacco—While a few promising fields of tobacco are reported, the bulk of the crop is rather backward in growth.

GET YOUR MONEY READY AND WEAR A TAG TO-DAY

Chorus, Girls and Newsies Will Be After You For That Donation to the Newsboys' Home.

This morning the newsboys will be out bright and early to tag you for their home and club fund. With them will be a whole bundle of burlesque beauties, but they will be no burlesque on beauty, but the real thing. Twenty-five members of Manager Stair's own show "The Big Review," which has packed the Star Theatre this week, and 30 of the beauties who will pack next week, are going out to get you.

These girls, chorus and otherwise, have developed something of a rivalry, and they are going to see which show can collar the most coin for the kids. There is also the time-permanent feature of the "Big Review," which is going to get a chance to help to give clean and healthy and away from the indecent, dishonest and destructive. Frankie Heath, who is with "The Big Review," says that she is going to enjoy selling the tags to-day. "Honestly, it isn't just for the fun that I want to do it," she said last night. "It's because I know just what those kids have seen in hundreds of times in the show business, and I want to see all the little fellows, and particularly the little ones, get a decent play for their white alley in the great big game."

THREE RAILWAY ACCIDENTS

Yardman Killed, Brakeman Hurt and Train Ditched.

NORTH BAY, Aug. 25.—(Special)—John Bevan, aged 31, C.P.R. yard switchman, was instantly killed last night by stepping from a switch engine directly in front of an incoming express. The severe wind storm prevented him from hearing the approaching train. He had been employed by the railway only ten days, and leaves a widowed mother.

Harry Miller, a young C. P. R. brakeman, fell from a passenger train last night near Pembroke during the wind storm and his legs were crushed and broken nose.

The C. P. R. Imperial Limited, east-bound, was derailed near Carter early this morning by a misplaced switch, and delayed six hours. Passengers received a severe shaking up.

Plans for New Schools.

Plans were submitted yesterday afternoon to the property committee of the board of education for the following new schools: Manning-avenue, Annette-street, school, where part of a new building is being erected to replace the old one, and the McMurrich school, on Ossington-avenue.

It was decided to pay the widow of the late George Stagg, formerly caretaker of Duke-street school, salary for the balance of the year, in consideration of the faithful and efficient manner in which he had fulfilled his duties as caretaker for the past 25 years. John Stagg will succeed him.

GREAT CROPS IN NORTH

Chairman Enthusiastic Over the Country.

Ontario's depot for seed potatoes is new Ontario.

Chairman Enghart of the T. & N. O. Railway Commission returned yesterday from a trip over the lines, and says the wheat, oat and vegetable crops are magnificent up there, and they are supplying seed potatoes to southern Ontario. He never saw finer potatoes in quantity or quality.

"They have no bugs up there but big bugs," he reports.

One hundred and twenty-five carloads of hay are being shipped from Lindsay and distributed to contractors along the G.T.P. and Transcontinental Railroads, and up to Pucopine.

Cochrane is rebuilding very rapidly, and is destined to become a great town. Numerous brick and concrete buildings have already gone up, and the rebuilding will undoubtedly be practically entirely of substantial fire-proof quality. The season is now so late that they are rushing up a great many temporary structures.

The foundations for the big bridge over the second Vavia River at mile-post 113-3-4 are completed and the contract for the steel has been let to the Hamilton Bridge Co. The span is 400 feet long. Construction will start during September. The bridge will be completed in October.

Roman Catholic International Eucharistic Congress, Montreal, Sept. 6 to 11, 1910.

For this great event the low rate of 25 cents for the round trip has been made by the Grand Trunk Railway, the only double-track line, and the route of Canada's fastest and best train, the "International Limited." Tickets will be good going Sept. 3 to 10, returning until Sept. 15, and apply from all stations in Canada west of Kingston; Buffalo, Buffalo and Detroit. This makes the round trip rate to Montreal from Toronto $10.25.

Remember that a double-track line contributes to safety, that the excellence of the Grand Trunk roadbed is conceded, that its dining car service is unrivalled, and that the ride along Lake Ontario shore and in view of the St. Lawrence makes the trip a delight. Early application for accommodation in sleeping or parlor cars should be made to Grand Trunk agents, or address J. D. McDonald, district passenger agent, Toronto, Ont.

Osgoode Hall Writs.

Chamberlain and the plaintiff. She claims there is due on the principal $1265, insurance $8.30, taxes $334, and interest. The property is on Jordan-street.

The National Cigar Co., Joliette, P. Q., is suing Joseph Goodman of this city for $112.25, on promissory notes, Cockburn and Rea, Toronto, claim $1026.91 from Maud Hackett, Warton, for goods.

The Trusts and Guarantees Co. and J. M. Foster are suing Harry Power, Clifton and Helen W. Clifton, all of Toronto. The claim is on a mortgage.

Orders for the above were issued at Osgoode Hall yesterday.

H. M. Fletcher is arranging a mass election of 100,000 votes for the International Y.M.C.A. convention here late in October.

MUST KILL THE DOG

And Pay Doctor for Girl That Was Bitten.

Thomas Henthorne appeared in the afternoon police court yesterday charged with owning a vicious bulldog, that had bitten little Bertha Richardson's leg so badly that medical aid was required. The defendant pleaded guilty, but urged that since the accident he had "gone away with the dog by getting it away," several weeks ago. "Giving it away isn't doing away with it," remonstrated his worship. "You get the dog and kill it, pay the doctor's bill and end the case thus. To give you an opportunity to do both, I'll adjourn the case for a week. If you don't, it'll be $10 and costs."

Harry Lloyd, charged with having assaulted Mary Jane Cornish in his home on McRobert-avenue, was fined $10 and costs.

Henry Duffield was fined $5 for neglecting to obey police orders. When crossing the corner of Queen and Bay-street in an auto he had been ordered to stop by Constable Bolton and had not done so.

Wall St. Market Turns Strong And Shorts Are Driven In

New York Stocks Make Sharp Recovery Under Professional Operations—Domestic Issues Dull But Strong.

World Office.
Friday Evening, Aug. 26.
On a remarkably small amount of business the Toronto Stock Exchange showed a certain strength to-day. The market was given over almost entirely to transactions for investors, the professional element having apparently concluded that the situation offered no immediate returns on either the short or long account.
Speculative stocks were thoroughly inactive, but the responsible and urgent bids on most of these were accepted as an evidence of a desire for shorts to buy back what they had sold in expectancy of a lower market.
Maple Leaf securities were the strongest issues, the common stock advancing another point and closing at the highest price without offerings. The preferred shares, without offerings, were also in good demand at top figures.
Dominion Bank and Rio were the only other issues to attract attention, both securities exhibiting strength. Rio was in demand because of the last monthly statement issued by the company.
Firmness on the New York Exchange contributed somewhat to market sentiment, but was not responsible for much business.
All things considered, domestic securities gave a good account of themselves to-day, although it was contrary to the opinions of what is termed the professional trader.

WALL STREET POINTERS.
General London market stagnant. London settlement begins on Monday.
Illinois Central earning about 3 per cent. on capital stock.
Acholson's July earnings show small increase over July, 1909.
J. Ogden Armour optimistic over crop and business prospects.
Norfolk and Southern earns 4 per cent. on new capital stock.
Wheeling and Lake Erie needs $10,000,000 for improvements.
Spring wheat estimate for continent 235,000,000 bushels.
North Carolina cotton mills are to continue curtailment, southern manufacturing concerns still producing on a 50 per cent basis.
The known movements of money for the week ended with the close of business on Thursday indicate a net gain in cash by the banks of $50,000,000.
Joseph says: Weather conditions westward are by no means crop-promising; accordingly, C. & O. will prove a gem. Buy B.R.T. average long Pennsylvania.
The neutral attitude for daily traders is still advisable. Investors may buy discriminately on drop with intention to average. Sagging tendencies still are shown by Steel, Union Pacific, Reading, Amalgamated, St. Paul, Northern Pacific and New York Central. Frost-reports will hurt Atlas and Grangers. Good buying on a scale is noted in Rock Island, Kansas City Southern, Illinois Railway and Erie, also Car Foundry. Most houses seem to be advising sales on strong spots—Financial Bulletin.
The stock market during the next few days will be influenced largely by weather developments. Official forecasts are for a big drop in temperature over most of the corn producing sections of the belt. While we feel decidedly bearish on stocks and feel for a steady and orderly decline, should some severe dam-

ton. Retail trade is of fair volume for this time of the year, but a big increase is looked for during the Eucharistic Congress which next month is expected to attract fifty thousand visitors to this city. So far this year the tourist business has been excellent. Wholesale trade is of moderate proportion, but indications for the future seem quite satisfactory. While it is true some wholesalers have received cancellations of a certain percentage of orders from the southern portions of the western provinces, it is evident they will not be so serious as at first expected. From the northern part of the west and from Ontario and the Atlantic seaboard orders are good. Country business has been more active since the end of the harvest. Deliveries of produce have been heavy and prices are well maintained. Some slight improvement in collections is reported.
Toronto reports say general business has a decidedly healthy tone. The demand for general lines of wholesale goods is good for this season of the year. A return of hot weather has revived interest in sorting lines and orders for fall goods have so far been satisfactory. Considerable confidence is felt regarding the outlook for the future, there being every indication that the business of the coming season will set a record over that of the previous year. Grocers report an excellent movement of staple lines with prices generally steady. Sugar is unchanged at the recent decline. The hardware movement continues good. Builders' supplies are still in demand. Paints and oils are a little quiet as is usual at this time of the year. Country business continues good, particularly that part of it connected with summer resort trade. Receipts of produce continue to be good, but prices hold steady to firm. Latest reports state a fairly large peach crop is to be expected from the Niagara Peninsula.
Winnipeg reports say the more reassuring advice regarding the grain crops have had the effect of brightening the outlook for future business in all lines of trade. From certain sections of the country crops are reported to be giving record yields and in most other directions high prices will to some extent offset the damage done. A good general business is moving and wholesalers report they are sending out large shipments of fall goods. Prices are generally steady and collections fairly good.
Vancouver and Victoria reports say general up-country trade continues active and business with lumber and construction camps has shown some increase during the past week. General retail trade has been of good volume and collections are generally satisfactory. The fruit crops are generally good and trade in this connection has been heavy at good prices. The demand for fish is brisk. The catch of sockeye has not been heavy, but unusually large catches of halibut are reported from the coast.

TO APPLY FOR LISTING.
NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—The Mines Company of America will apply for change upon the New York Stock Exchange upon the completion of the merger of Dolores and El Rayo companies.
MORE GOLD TO CANADA.
NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—Bank of Montreal is shipping an additional $50,000,000 gold coin to Canada.
ON WALL STREET.
Erickson Perkins & Co. had the following two-point rally for active issues to-day. It showed considerable activity in the last hour and closing prices were fairly well sustained. Doubtless much of the buying represented a driving in of shorts. The market has been very solid. Absence of frost in the corn belt somewhat further, after a continuous break of 8 to 9 points in leading issues for crop conditions are reassuring and the general business unquestionably shows a little improvement. It is no time to get extremely bearish after a sharp fall in stocks. We now know pretty well what the trend of politics is to be. There will be some Republican reverses in New England and also in other parts of the country. Roosevelt will pompet the corporations in his western speeches. They would not be Roosevelt speeches if they were tame. But that showed politician knows better than to induce business unduly on the eve of election.
Chas Head & Co. to R. R. Bongard: There was a much better tone to the market to-day, reflecting the fact that the predicted frosts in the corn belt did not materialize, but it could not be said that the advance was due to anything more than professional operations. Shorts covered because the advices from Nebraska and Iowa stated that danger from frost was over for the time being, the indications pointing to warmer weather. Temporarily, less was heard of the political situation, Roosevelt not being booked for any radical speech until later on. The market showed a good tone from the start to the finish, but there was some profit-taking at the close by traders. We still favor a conservative policy. Purchases on good breaks for moderate profits and sales on bulges.
J. P. Bickell & Co. from Finley Bar-chillon and Grangers. Good buying on a scale is noted in Rock Island, Kansas City Southern, Illinois Railway and Erie, also Car Foundry. Most houses seem to be advising sales on strong spots—Financial Bulletin.

Official forecasts are for a big drop in temperature over most of the corn producing sections of the belt. Consider this point for a moment. Isn't this arrangement much better than the old-fashioned back-breaking style?

SIMPSON'S ATTRACTIONS FOR THE OPENING DAY

Monday -- The Day of Our Millinery Opening

Among the events of general interest which cluster about our great annual fair, none is more eagerly expected or more enthusiastically appreciated by women than this Store's Autumn Millinery Opening.

For years Simpson's opening has been the authentic and authoritative millinery pronouncement for the season, and recent continental arrangements have enabled us to make our present showing one of the most elaborate ever seen in Toronto.

The spirit of the French Salons will be felt here, where it is not the hat itself, but the hat as a frame for the face, as the completion of the picture, that is studied. This is exemplified in the charming new models by Germaine, Louison, Dalang, Tore, Camille Roger, Georgette, Virot, and many others. The very large hats of plush, velvet or satin with broad low crowns are in striking contrast to the small close-fitting high-crowned hats, and along these two broad lines, the models are calculated to satisfy all artistic tastes. It seems that ostrich feathers will be worn more than ever, and some of the most striking models, notably the one sketched here, have this as a leading feature. Large flowers are also much in evidence—but one might as well try to reproduce in print the beauties of a lovely garden, as to describe the attractions that await you here on Monday.

Complete Showing of Fashionable New Silks and Dress Goods

On the same floor as our Millinery Salon, but in the new building, will be found a special exhibition of Silks and Dress Goods—an attraction equally worthy of your time and attention. We mention here a few of the fabrics that will be shown.

Early Autumn Dress Goods

This season there will be a large demand for light-weight piece-dyed worsted dress goods, such as fine serges, poplins and cashmeres, together with silk warp fabrics of a light character. The demand for these will be created by the general favor shown to one-piece dresses. For tailored suits, fancy woven chevots, principally piece dyed, will be employed. The sale of rough materials will tend toward such fabrics as pannelcloths and rough effects in Scotch mixtures. Heavy chevots will be in demand for long outer garments like auto coats, and worsted voiles will be much used for tunics.

Look particularly for the following fabrics on Monday:—

New tone Chevots, new shot Wale Suitings, new homespun Diagonals, new Niggerhead, Suitings, new wide wale Worsted Suitings, new West of England Suitings, new clear-cut Cheviot Serges, new Hopsac Wale Suitings, new Belgium Suitings. Latest showing of new Worsted Suitings.
