CANADIANS RESTING AFTER GREAT FIGHT

Likely to Have Two Weeks Respite, Says Report

Tension on Home Folks Relieved But Anxiety For News in Casualty Lists is Keen—Nothing to do But Wait For Them and That May Mean Several Days—Likely Very Heavy Losses

Toronto, April 27—A Mail and Empire cable from London says: The Canadians have just been relieved, and are now resting behind the line. Hundreds of wounded are arriving at the base hospitals. Some are already here. Many are suffering from the effects of gas fumes. The first and fourth Ontario battalions did exceptionally brilliant work, but suffered heavily. Non-commissioned officers filled the gaps. These units, together with two Highland Battalions, were in the front line, bearing the brunt of the initial German attack.

The division now will probably rest for a week or two.

TENSION IN CANADA RELIEVED

Ottawa, April 27—Word from the front that after four days of intense fighting the Canadians have been relieved, has had the effect of removing some of the tremendous tension which has prevailed since the first news of the battle came on Saturday. The military department today has little news additional. Casualty lists are arriving but very slowly. When it is stated that casualties from the Neuve Chapelle fight some days ago are still coming it will be apparent that it will be several days before there is a complete list from the terrific struggle north of Ypres.

From all parts of the country some solicitous inquiries from relatives of soldiers. Those who do not figure in the lists may, of course, be assumed to be safe. Moreover, according to the War Office regulations, relatives have to be notified first. This is done immediately upon advice of the casualty being received. There is little delay at this end, what there is occurs mainly on the other side.

Experience shows that the heavier the fight the greater the disorganization and the resultant delay of assembling casualty lists where the engagement covered several miles of territory. Under the circumstances there is nothing to do but wait, however intense may be the strain of solitude. The fact that this morning saw somewhat of a lull in the receipt of news of the engagement is not interpreted here as meaning that all have been heard from. The severity of the hand to hand fight and the particularly heavy losses among the officers leads to the conclusion that the fallen in the ranks are all too numerous.

AS TO PRISONERS

Ottawa has no advice as yet confirmatory of a report from Berlin that 1,000 Canadians have been captured. There is a disposition to regard it as possibly true although likely exaggerated.

GENERAL HUGHES WANTS BETTER MUSIC

Ottawa, April 27—General Sam Hughes does not like the music furnished for the Canadian soldiers. He dislikes the rag time tendency of many bands and considers that the music lacks inspiration. "The Girl I Left Behind Me" the general considers an improvement on "Tipperary," for marching.

With the idea of having something better the minister has appointed Lieut. J. Slater, bandmaster of the Toronto Highlanders, Lieut. John Waldron, bandmaster of the Toronto Grenadiers, and Lieut. Light, bandmaster of the R. C. A. at Kingston, to arrange suitable music for soldiers to march to.

GERMANS ADMIT THAT CANADIANS UPSET THEIR PLANS

London, April 27—Troops of the allies defending Ypres are being attacked by the Germans from north, northeast and northwest. The great battle which began a week ago, 135 miles from London, is raging with undiminished fury. Despite their heavy losses, estimated at more than 25,000 in some despatches received here today, the Germans are maintaining their terrific offensive.

Emperor William is reported to have reached the Flanders front yesterday afternoon. If this is correct, still more furious attacks may be expected. While the Germans are continuing their attack upon Ypres, the keystone of the allies position in Flanders, the wedge that thrusts itself halfway across the Ypres canal is extending its front. It has reached Boesinghe about three miles from Ypres and is about two miles southeast of Lierne, the first town stormed by the Germans on the west bank of the canal.

"Boesinghe has been completely destroyed," says a despatch from Amsterdam. "The ruins are burning, but stubborn fighting continues amid the wreckage. The collapse of the church steeple buffed German and French soldiers as they were fighting in the very shadow of the edifice.

"Lierne is in possession of the Germans, who have held their ground despite repeated attacks by the French and Belgian troops. For a short time Sunday the allies gained the upper hand, driving the Germans from Lierne back to the canal, but German reinforcements arrived in time to recapture the town."

Weather Bulletin. Issued by authority of the Department of Marine and Fisheries, R. F. Stewart, director of meteorological services.

Drive For Calais Fails

London, April 27—The Kaiser's third drive for Calais has been stopped, and stopped short. German attacks on Ypres have been repulsed and the allies have the offensive.

Re-inforcements rushed to the allies have permitted them to regain considerable of the ground lost in the first furious attacks of the German Army.

BRITISH TO LAND TROOPS IN BELGIUM TO OUTFLANK THE GERMANS ALONG THE YSER?

Washington Hears, From Dutch Sources, About Great Massing of Transports and Warships

New York, April 27—A Washington special to the "Times" says:—From Dutch sources, based upon what were said to be the latest advices from that country, as well as the fact that England had absolutely stopped all channel and North Sea shipping, came a report last night that England has been massing transport ships and large vessels, which are bound for the Belgian coast, while remaining out of the German coast batteries, and will probably try to land a new expeditionary force somewhere between Ypres and Blankenberg or elsewhere north of Ostend for the purpose of attacking the right flank of the German forces now attacking along the Yser canal.

One suggestion is that this explains a statement from Berlin that the main German fleet put to sea several times recently but failed to encounter the British fleet. It is pointed out that, accepting the Berlin report as true, the German fleet failed to encounter the British fleet for the reason that the latter was concentrating near the Belgian coast for offensive purposes, looking to land operations.

It is possible that 250,000 troops may be aboard transports which are supposed to be assembling off the Flanders coast, with the idea of landing so soon as the British warships have reduced the German batteries along the coast.

CANADA'S ANSWER WILL BE SHIP LOADS OF TROOPS

Ottawa, Ont., April 27—Shiploads of troops will be Canada's answer to Germany's attack on the Canadian north of Ypres last week. They will go forward as reinforcements to make good the losses and to strengthen the Canadian forces for further attacks.

NASHUAOKSIS DRIVES ARE OUT

Others Coming on Well—Foxes Gain Liberty—The Legislature

Fredericton, April 27—A heavy down-pour of rain last night caused a big rise of the water in the brooks and has given quite a stimulus to driving operations. The drives in the Nashuaoksis are out and on the Roussegang stream and Keewick they are reported to be coming along well. The water in the main river is rising.

Three foxes owned by West End residents broke out of their kennels and played havoc with hen coops in the vicinity. The animals are still at large.

Members of the legislature are returning to the city today and will resume work this evening. Members of the government have been busy preparing important legislation to be passed this week.

Alfred Quartermain met with a severe accident yesterday. He was sitting in a carriage holding a Percheron stallion by a halter at the animal started suddenly throwing Quartermain from the carriage with such force that his right arm was almost wrenched from its socket.

A. R. Gould, president of the St. John and Quebec Railway Company, who has been on a trip to the west, arrived here this morning. He will interview the government in regard to the proposed Valley Railway legislation and will oppose any effort which may be made to eliminate it.

THE CAPTURE OF NEUTRAL SHIPS

London, April 27—Only thirteen neutral ships actually have been captured and thrown into prize court by Great Britain and France, according to the best obtainable figures.

BRITISH ON OFFENSIVE; DRESS BACK THE GERMANS

Several Attacks by Enemy First Repulsed—British Artillery Cut Down The Huns

London, April 27—The following report from Field Marshal Sir John French, commander of the British forces at the front, under today's date, was given out here today:

"Yesterday all German attacks north-east of Ypres were repulsed. In the afternoon our troops took the offensive and made progress near St. Julien and to the west of that place. The French co-operated on our left and farther to the north they took Hot Sas.

"In the course of yesterday's fighting our artillery took full advantage of several opportunities for inflicting severe casualties on the enemy.

"On the remainder of the front, there is nothing to report. In addition to the destruction of Courtrai Junction, mentioned in the communication last night, our armies yesterday bombarded successfully stations and junctions at Toucoung, Roubais, Ingelmunster, Staden, Langemarck, Thielt and Rondev.

FRENCH REPORT GOOD

Paris, April 27, 2.45 p. m.—The official statement given out today by the French War Office reads:

"There is nothing to add to our communication of last night except that we consolidated our positions and continue to make progress to the north of Ypres and also on the heights of the Meuse.

"The summit of Hartmann-Walckerhoff, which was taken from us yesterday morning, was recaptured by our troops the evening of the same day. We also took some prisoners.

BELGIAN REPORT

London, April 27—The following Belgian official report dated April 26, was given out today:

"Last night our infantry repulsed three attacks made south of Dinant by the Germans, who again are using asphyxiating gas. The Germans sustained heavy losses.

"Today along our front the artillery of the enemy has shown a certain amount of activity. Our artillery replied with success and by a strong proved of useful help to the French. These troops made an attack on Lierne, which yesterday fell into the hands of the enemy, but which was wrested from them again this afternoon."

YPRES IN FLAMES

London, April 27—Ypres is in flames, the Germans having thrown a ball of incendiary bombs into the town. Thus telegraphs the Morning Post's correspondent in Northern France. The fighting continues hotly all along this front.

"The Germans show extraordinary daring in bringing heavy artillery close to their front line, the guns used being mostly 13-inch Austro-Hungarian, on moveable carriages. The Germans also are using effectively armoured trains, carrying 47 guns. For the use of these trains the Germans have consolidated the destruction of Courtrai Junction, mentioned in the communication last night, by strengthening the system of light railways uniting several small towns in the neighbourhood of Ypres, to which they have added strategic branch lines."

BOMB IN TURKISH MINISTRY OF WAR

Paris, April 27—A powerful clock-work bomb was found hidden yesterday in the ministry of war at Constantinople according to a despatch from Salonika. It was timed to explode at an hour when the council would be in session. The meetings of these bodies are attended by Enver Pasha, minister of war, Field Marshal Goltz and General Liman von Sanders.

An investigation is said to have disclosed that the bomb was placed by a sweep. Several minor officials have been arrested. The police believe the plot was successful in the young Turks and the Germans.

GERMANS ON THE RUN IN AFRICA

German Gas Bombs. Paris, April 27—The first wounded soldiers arrived in Paris from the Ypres front with signs of the asphyxiating bombs used by the Germans.

"Their famous bombs killed nobody," said one of the wounded Frenchmen, "they just put to sleep those who breathe the gas. The bombs can do little harm in the open air, and require so many favorable conditions as to make their successful use difficult."

Washington Relieved. Washington, April 27—The United States government officials were greatly relieved today because of the action of Commander Thierfelder of the Kron Prince Wilhelm interned his cruiser for the remainder of the war.

SOLDIER CASE ENGAGES COURT

Police Rushed—Evidence as to Last Night's Trouble

An interesting case, was before Magistrate Bittles in the police court this morning when Private Madden, a soldier, appeared to answer a charge of interfering with the police while they were in the discharge of their duty, and also assaulting Sergeant Rankine and inciting others to interfere with the police in an arrest.

Sergeant Rankine testified that while assisting Deputy Chief Jenkins to make an arrest last night he was assaulted by the defendant, who struck him with his fist in the face. While being cross-examined by Major McKenzie, who appeared for the defendant, he denied assaulting the prisoner when he got him in the cell, but acknowledged having a scuffle with him.

Policeman Albert Gill said he saw Madden strike Rankine, while he (the soldier) had him by the throat. He went to his assistance.

Deputy Chief Jenkins testified: "While going along Charlotte street last night about 9.30 o'clock, I saw a soldier named Stevens kick at a civilian and then push and attempt to strike him. The civilian retaliated, and I went and placed both under arrest. The civilian broke away from me. I started along with Stevens, when a large number of soldiers rushed up. Madden caught hold of Stevens and said he was a picket and would take him to the barracks. He refused to tell his own name and also that of the prisoner. By that time we were swarmed by a crowd to North Market street. I saw Policeman Gill and called for his assistance. Sergeant Rankine then came along and assisted in the arrest. At the drinking fountain I heard the prisoner call 'Andy' Stevens. The crowd then swept us across the street, and at that point the soldiers succeeding in taking the prisoner away from us. I then came to the station and wrote out a report against Stevens for fighting."

Later, the deputy said, Madden was arrested. While he was being taken to the lock-up a crowd followed them and cries of "charge the police," "use your side arms," and other remarks were made. He said six soldiers followed directly behind them, and if it had not been for them keeping the crowd back, he did not know what would have happened.

The case was then set aside until tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock.

The matter of right of the police or the picket to the custody of the soldier arises in the case.

FILL UP THE RANKS

(A. M. Belding.)

Canadian men, your brothers' blood Cries out across the Atlantic flood For vengeance on the Hun.

Be swift to answer, blow for blow, And hunt back Freedom's deadliest foe Till victory is won.

To arms! Fill up the shattered ranks Of them that fell on Ypres banks, But nobly won the day; Immortal those—though never more Their feet may tread their native shore, Their deeds live on for aye.

More men! More men! Heard ye the call? Who answers, there to stand or fall, In honor's sacred name? Their spirits call who stood the test; On alien soil their bodies rest; But theirs is deathless fame.

The coast! Aye, reckon it, but know There is a deeper human we Than tidings of the slain; It is to nurse the craven heart, To slay, to purge the coward's part, When duty's call is plain.

Thank God! No craven fears bring To Canada; the ardent flame Of valor thrills her men; Their arms are strong, their hearts are true, Their righteous vengeance will pursue The spoiler to his den.

Fill up the ranks! Your country calls, And glory waits for him who falls; Defend her front and right, Who strive to free his native land Forever from the iron hand Of hell-inspired might.

Twelfth Annual Session of Women's Auxiliary Opens

MEETINGS IN TRINITY CHURCH

Eloquent Sermon by His Lordship Bishop Richardson Marks Opening Session—Attendance is Unusually Large—Those Present

The twelfth annual meeting of the Fredericton Diocesan branch of the Women's Auxiliary of the Anglican church opened this morning in Trinity church.

The morning proceedings were largely formal, but the auxiliary will settle down to the business programme this afternoon. The attendance is unusually large, and the interest displayed in the proceedings, so far, argues well for the success of the annual meeting.

At 9.30 o'clock the delegates met in Trinity church for the opening devotional exercises, conducted by His Lordship Bishop Richardson. In his sermon His Lordship dwelt on the ideal woman, her characteristics and her activities.

He spoke warmly of the great place which Florence Nightingale had taken in the work of the world, and her influence in opening up new avenues of work for women. He pointed out that, while in the past the women had difficulty in securing the opportunity to offer their services for the welfare of humanity, in the present war there is an overwhelming demand for the work which only women can do. His Lordship referred to the large attendance as one of the encouraging signs of the place which the women are taking in the work of the world.

The sacrament of Holy Communion was celebrated by the Bishop with Ven. Archdeacon Raymond, Rev. Dean Schofield, Rev. Ralph Sherman and Rev. H. G. Alder in the chancel. More than 600 partook of the communion.

At eleven o'clock the delegates adjourned to the school room of the church for the opening session. After the registration of delegates and the opening prayer the roll was called and the minutes of the last meeting read.

Mrs. W. O. Raymond then extended a hearty welcome to the visiting delegates, in the course of her address referring to the principles of the auxiliary organization and its various forms of activity and the scope of its work. She concluded with a hearty welcome to the visitors.

In reply Mrs. A. B. Pipes of Dorchester, thanked the ladies of St. John for their generous hospitality and the efforts which they had put forth to make the meeting a success and to add to the comfort of the delegates. She referred to the special work on behalf of the soldiers during the closing months of their year, and expressed her gratification at finding that this had not been neglected.

Four are so seriously hurt that it is thought they will die.

He and a companion were leading a pair of horses to a gun carriage when a bomb dropped from a German aeroplane killed his companion and one of the horses. Belyea escaped unscathed.

LEG BROKEN IN COLLISION

An exciting runaway occurred this afternoon when a horse attached to a delivery wagon owned by Magee & Cotnam, bolted in Princess street, tore down the hill to Water and there collided with a team owned by Goddow Brothers. In the collision both wagons were badly damaged and the horse owned by Goddow Brothers had one of its front legs broken. Messrs. ST. JOHN BOYS OF FIELD AMBULANCE WHERE IT WAS HOT

John Merrick Writes Father About Experiences in Helping The Wounded

A letter received yesterday from his son, Private John Merrick of No. 1 Field Ambulance, "some place in France" by William Merrick, of 248 Brunel street, shows that he and his chum Louis Daley also of this city, were in the thick of recent heavy fighting possibly a few days before their commanding officer, Major J. L. Duval, of West St. John, was wounded. The letter was dated more than a week before. It told of the unit on the firing line, bearing them back to the hospital on stretchers. Young Daley and Merrick were with the same stretcher corps. "The bullets from a German machine gun came near getting us" he wrote, "but there were wounded to be picked up and we couldn't let them lie there. We did our part in helping some poor chaps and though the bullets whizzed so close that it felt as though we were getting our hair out, we came through in safety."

Corporal Garnett. Another St. John lad who has been through some stiff adventures near the firing line under Major Duval, of this city, is Corporal Willard Garnett, whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Garnett, of Lombard street, received a letter today, dated April 4, in which he gives some interesting news. The unit was then billeted in a schoolhouse, where they had established a hospital, and the shocks from the firing of the big guns nearby, he said, had broken most of the windows in it. In the last billet, where they were located, a bomb had been dropped from an aeroplane, shattering the glass in the building all over some lads sitting near a window, and two days later a shell struck a house just four doors away, and tore the rear of the building, killing a non-com sergeant stationed there.

WOUNDED CANADIANS TELL GRAPHIC STORY OF THE GREAT FIGHT

(Special Cable to The Daily Telegraph, by F. A. McKenzie.) (Copyright.)

Falkenstein, England, April 26.—All England throbs with pride today at the story of the Canadians' great charge.

The words, "Bravo, Canadians," on one newspaper bill, typifies the general sentiment here.

I am witnessing the other side of the newspaper's endurance. Our first batch of wounded is already here, and others are arriving today.

Canada may rest assured that everything is being done that love, admiration and pity can suggest to ease their lot and help them back to health.

From stories of the wounded men, I am able to piece together part of the story of the fight. After the heavy fighting the Canadians moved around occupying positions north of Ypres.

The Canadians were not alarmed and finished their game and, receiving no orders, retired as usual. At 1 o'clock in the morning they were aroused and called to arms.

The Canadians lay low, saying little. Now and again some irresponsible joker would send a laugh around his circle with some quip.

ORDER TO ADVANCE. About 7 o'clock in the morning word was passed round to make ready for an advance.

At this point the personal narrative ceases, for every lad I have spoken to fell before the hill top was reached.

Nothing impressed me more in talking with the boys than their calm matter-of-fact way of doing up the affair.

Local War News. The men enrolled for service in the Canadian remount depot in England are by this time quartered in St. John's.

RECRUITING. This was a slow day for recruiting in St. John with the 48th.

Field Kitchen. An object of interest in the city today was a military field kitchen shown in a vacant lot near the Public Library.

THE WAR NEWS

The battle of Ypres is still in progress. The Germans had evidently made up their minds to anticipate the great drive of the Allies by a powerful counter-attack, and if they have not succeeded they have at least made a very formidable attack. Their losses must have been tremendous, but today's cables say that with their admirable system of light railways they have been able to bring up great masses of men and munitions on the offensive. Their first drive failed, however, and confidence is expressed in the ability of the Allies to continue to hold them in check.

MEDICAL INSPECTION

The address by Dr. W. F. Roberts before the German Street Brotherhood last evening and the resolutions adopted in favor of medical and dental inspection in the public schools direct attention once more to a matter which is of vital importance to the welfare of the community. If the citizens could be got to realize how much such inspection would mean, not only to the health of the children themselves, but to the health of the community in preventing the spread of disease, they would never rest until provision for such inspection had been made.

Last night's cables brought news that the fleet has again attacked the Dardanelles, and is supported by an army which disembarked under the guns of the fleet and began its advance against the Turkish position. This time a more determined effort will be made to force the passage of the Straits. From the Carpathians comes word that the Russians have successfully repulsed further attacks by the enemy, but for the moment no great action has developed, and attention is centred on the operations in Flanders and at the Dardanelles.

The Italian press is conducting a vigorous campaign in behalf of intervention on the side of the Allies. The opinion appears to grow that Italian armies will soon be in the field against the Austrians, and the Italian fleet co-operating with that of Britain and France. Such a diversion would have a notable effect upon the fortunes of the war.

The list of the German commercial raiders is off the sea. The Kron Prince Wilhelm will be interned at the Norfolk yard during the period of the war, so far as the naval situation is concerned, the rumors about a great possible battle in the North Sea do not appear to have had any foundation.

THE AWFUL COST

The Canadian people realize today as never before what the people of the Mother Country have been suffering for many months past, and what the people of France and Belgium have suffered to a far greater extent. The number of Canadians killed and wounded, although the news has shocked the whole country, is but insignificant in comparison with the losses sustained by the other nations involved in this gigantic war. While there is a measure of satisfaction in the fact that the commander-in-chief and others in regard to the gallantry of the Canadian soldiers, their conduct is no more than was confidently expected of them by their fellow countrymen. They had not been accustomed to war, but their courage was of the sort that characterizes a free people defending their freedom and their homes; for the homes of Canada are being defended by the Canadian soldiers in Belgium and France today. The whole attitude of the Canadian people toward the war, however, will be materially altered by the news of the heavy casualties among the Canadian troops. These men will not die unavenged. There will be a new note in Canadian patriotism. It is impossible to read of the death or wounding of those we know without an increased feeling of bitterness against those responsible for the war, and a greater determination to play a more vigorous part in crushing forever the spirit of Prussian militarism. Canada will be the poorer for the sons she has lost, but the richer for their example. Their deeds are imperishable, and will shed lustre upon the name of Canada through all the coming years. In a great crisis in world-history they have proved themselves worthy of their heritage, and of the freedom they have enjoyed. There will be many dark days in the next months to come, but this war is not of Britain's making or of Britain's choice. Two widely different ideals are striving for the mastery in the world, and there can be no compromise. We know what British freedom stands for, and we have been learning of late what Prussian militarism would involve. There can be no compromise. Doubtless great questions will arise after this war is over, calling for the exercise of the highest statesmanship. Great difficulties must be overcome and differences adjusted, but the paramount duty of this

KIDNEY TROUBLE AFFECTED HIS SPINE

Suffered for Forty Years Until He Used "Fruit-a-tives" Bronte, Ont., Oct. 31st, 1913. "For about forty years I was troubled with Lumbago brought on by Kidney and Bladder Trouble. I was never confined to my bed with the trouble, but it affected my spine and I had to rest for a time. I took advertised remedies which never did me any good. Then I saw 'Fruit-a-tives' advertised and decided to try them. They did me more good than any other remedy. My son suffered from the same trouble and frequently had to leave off working, but 'Fruit-a-tives' remedied it for him. I would strongly advise anyone suffering from Kidney and Bladder Trouble to use 'Fruit-a-tives'."

LIGHTER VEIN

Little Everett was a member of the Band of Mercy Society, and was proud of the membership. He wore his badge, a small star, as if it were a policeman's insignia, and was often heard reproving other boys and girls for cruel treatment of dogs and cats. One morning a woman of the neighborhood heard a commotion outside to find Everett in the act of tormenting the cat.

Harmonious Neutrality

A correspondent sends us this story, evidently from an ironical Swiss paper. A few soldiers belonging to part of a Swiss regiment in garrison in Basel went to a certain cafe for refreshments. One of them sat down alone at a table. Later a civilian, a German, joined him and the two began to talk war politics. "Would you shoot on the Germans if they invaded Switzerland?" asked the German. "Oh, no, never!" exclaimed the soldier. "Walter, a pint of beer and a beef-steak with potatoes for this brave man!" ordered the civilian.

Kidney Disease Cured Sworn Statement. Of Mr. Wesley Maxwell, Who Gratefully Gives All Credit To Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. It is one thing to make big claims for a medicine and quite another thing to produce irrefutable evidence that it actually cures in serious cases. We prefer to let the cured ones speak for themselves, and that is why you find in almost every newspaper the report of someone who has been cured by the use of Dr. Chase's medicine. Today we present the sworn statement of Mr. Wesley Maxwell. When a man goes to this trouble in expressing his gratitude there can be no question of the report of someone who has been cured by the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, and I must tell you that before I started using them I could only make water with the greatest difficulty, and had very severe pains in the back. I am completely cured now by the use of these pills. Before that I used a lot of doctors' medicine without any benefit that I could see. I am thankful for being cured, and can

URGENT LONGSHOREMEN TO SEE TO "SAFETY FIRST"

The inquest held by Coroner Kenney in regard to the death of Arthur J. Bodington, longshoreman, who was killed while at work on the Dominion liner Marina, was concluded last night. The verdict was, in effect, that Bodington was killed by being knocked into No. 3 hold of the steamer Marina; that the sling was caused to swing past the usual landing place by the winch not being reversed and by the boom being guyed too far over towards the hatch.

at $9,112,916, as against $9,278,875 in 1914, and $9,578,026 in 1913. With the exception of these two years the import values for the year just ended were larger than for any other year in the history of St. John. One evidence of the satisfactory conditions at the port of St. John is shown by the fact that, for the week ending April 24, the sum of approximately $40,000 was paid out in loading and discharging of ocean steamers and in the loading and discharging of car freight.

Dandruff Surely Destroys the Hair

Girls—if you want plenty of thick, beautiful, glossy, silky hair, do by all means get rid of dandruff, for it will strew the hair and ruin it if you don't. It doesn't do much good to try to brush or wash it out. The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it when you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid aurore; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips. By morning, most, if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it.

RECORD YEAR AT THIS PORT

In a news letter which is being sent out by the board of trade, attention is called, among other matters, to the big increase in export business from this port during the last year, as follows: "The value of exports at the end of March 31, 1915, is officially given as $43,973,992, which is $18,278,211 in excess of the year 1914, the banner year of the port. AMUSEMENTS THRILLING, GRACEFUL ACT AT IMPERIAL

Dancing Acrobats Make a Great Hit — Under the Gaslight — Pleasing Revival — Big Feature Tomorrow

The Imperial's vaudeville act this week appears as if a star item from some great circus had been transplanted from the sawdust ring to the elaborate setting of a real theatre, for the Clairmont Brothers in their spottles all tight, white clown paint, shining nickel trappings and vaulted black cloth stage surroundings, gave the performance this appearance. As a novelty as well as a form of entertainment the sturdy little gymnasts were a hit. When they got up their full speed on the revolving ladder to the double-quick tempo of the orchestra, people sat breathless for fear something devil would happen. However, the boys are too old at the game to take any chances and they silt gracefully to the floor and bowed the audience into submission after five calls.

The Clairmont Brothers' act was not the only highlight on the bill, for the melodrama, Under the Gaslight, was a gripping story from start to finish, reaching dramatic heights in the railway scene when the heroine broke down the door of the shack with an axe and rescued her unfortunate companion from the railway track where he had been tied, just as the train was crashing by. There was a whole batch of splendid world views in the Universal Animated Weekly, the best feature of which was the display of 10,000 Australian children in a patriotic demonstration at Sydney. Photo news from the various war fronts was also contained in this weekly. One of George Ade's inimitable Fables in Song closed the bill, which was interesting throughout.

Tomorrow and Thursday, The Crucible, a powerful story of a girl's triumph over threatening evils, will be put on five acts by the Famous Players Co., who have selected their favorite actress, Marguerite Clark, to play the leading role. The subject has been produced with commendable attention to detail and a lavish investment of settings appropriate to the story and its characters.

REVUE THIS WEEK MUCH BETTER THAN LAST

Distinct Improvement Noticed and Programme Last Night Much Enjoyed

A distinct improvement was noticeable last night in the performance given by Mack's Musical Revue in the opening of their third week at the Opera House. The programme was of a more varied nature, and the various features were bright and snappy, and given with especial cleverness. From the time of the opening melody to the last feature on the bill the show went with a better "panch" than has previously been given, the opening number being received with particular warmth and hearty applause. Walter DeLuna who was here with last fall's company, was given an enthusiastic welcome and Louise Adele also. They gave a pleasing vaudeville number. An entertaining act sketch "Down On The Farm" presented by Miss Akers.

THE HISTORY OF H. P.

Every popular commodity has a history of paramount interest to somebody. Here is the history of H. P. Sauce—we think it will interest you.

At Birmingham, England, there is a very large malt vinegar brewery, in fact, the largest in the world, and as malt vinegar is the essential foundation of all high-class sauces, the proprietors of the vinegar brewery are constantly in touch with all kinds of sauces.

Now some time ago, it occurred to them that nearly all the sauces on the market were far too thin and pungent, and too imperfectly blended to be worthy of the name of relishes, and that if a rich sauce of super-excellent fruity flavor, and thick, creamy consistency were produced, and placed on the market at a very moderate price per bottle its success would be assured.

The forthwith began to experiment very carefully at their great vinegar brewery. The doctors' Oriental fruits and spices were judiciously blended together and skilfully blended with pure malt vinegar, but here until the new production had touched perfection in flavor, appearance and consistency, was the sauce christened "H. P." (an abbreviation of the name British "House of Parliament") and sent out to make its own way in the world.

H. P. does not separate in the bottle, there is no sediment and it therefore requires no shaking. If poured on the edge of the plate it can be taken with the most like mustard. It possesses a delicious flavor, sets down very quickly, and always leaves a clean, fruity taste in the mouth, instead of the burning and stinging sensation left behind by old-fashioned relishes.

Dr. A. Bostock Hill, M. D., D. P., H. P. I. County analyst in analyzing a bottle of H. P. Sauce reports:—"It is made from the best materials, is of pleasing and pleasant flavor, and in every respect a thoroughly good sauce."

Under these exceptionally favorable circumstances, it is small wonder that the history of H. P. is a tale of unqualified progress.

stom, gave her an opportunity of again demonstrating her versatility in character work and she and those supporting her were given an appreciative hearing. "At The Hotel" was the title of a musical melange which concluded the programme but it gives only a vague idea of the many enjoyable features which marked the registration there. Some of the late popular tunes from Broadway were sung with good effect, and for the tableau a spirited marching song was vigorously applauded.

One of the hits of the evening was the singing of "Frenchy" by Miss Sande, while an ensemble "I Want to go to Tokio" was charmingly costumed and sung. Miss Alice Wallace gave pleasure in "You're Here and I'm Here" and Howard Smith was heard to advantage in "Good Bye, Little Girl." Pearl Evans floored delight in an operatic number while other hits scored were an Irish tang novelty by Bob Whinstanley, and a Jewish melody by Miss Akers.

This week's bill, as has been said, shows a marked improvement over the opening. In fact, it may be said that the company is getting a reader swing, and may be expected to present more popular bills at each change from now on. The bill given the last half of last week was a very good one, and has not yet presented, and this week's change is another step forward to better offerings. Good houses should be in mind during the remainder of the engagement if the class of show continues the same.

LYRIC ATTRACTION

Well Known Singer, Good Juggling Act and Interesting Pictures

Another laurel is being added to the already long list of the Lyric Theatre by the management presenting there the first three days of this week the well known American prima, Emma, Miss Maryette in a repertoire of popular and classic songs. Miss Maryette has been starred in several Broadway productions and has been engaged next season to appear with Miss Christie McDonald and Fritz Scheff in a vehicle now being prepared for them. She is a singer of temperament and style who interprets her songs in a highly artistic manner. Her voice is of a fine quality and even scale, her deportment is most pleasing and her costumes no small feature of her offering. Aside from these qualities as an artist, Miss Maryette is endowed with beauty and grace which with a charming personality bears out the truth of advance belief of her being, one of the best dressed women on the vaudeville stage. Mr. Mack, a pianiste of ability, acts as playing solo further delight to an act high class and pleasing. The Two Friends, a juggler and a trained dog, led variety in juggling feats and clever canine manoeuvres. The Three Brothers, two part Musical film is a worthy film feature, while the Mutual Weekly as usual has a number of interesting war views. The Los Kellers, in a circus act, is listed for the last three days of the week.

instrumental in provoking laughter. His inimitable acting and clever yet peculiar antics in Recreation with the different brick throwing scenes, bring forth laughter from the most sedate. ### Bloody Battle of Ypres Still Goes On Germans Were Successful at First and Then Came Famous Canadian Counter Charge—To Them the Honor of Spoiling German Plan—Action at Dardanelles

London, April 26, 10.30 p.m.—The tremendous battle, begun by the German attack on the Allied front around Ypres in the plains of Flanders, continues with undiminished fury, and England, like the rest of Europe, is awaiting the outcome with undisguised anxiety.

Even the news that the Allied fleet and army have commenced an attack on the Dardanelles and that troops are advancing against the Turkish entrenchments, which a few days ago would have aroused immense enthusiasm, has received only passing attention in the face of the stakes that are in the balance in the battle which is being fought across the English Channel.

While the majority of those capable of forming an opinion believe that the Germans, by the stroke they have delivered against the British, French and Belgians, are once more aiming at Dunkirk and Calais, there are others who believe that it is only a feint in force to draw the Allies reserves while preparations are being made for an attack at some other part of the long line.

Whatever are the intentions of the Germans, they certainly made a successful coup, which, while it did not break, did ding the Allies' line. The Canadians, who were holding the British portion of the line, were the first to recover themselves, and in a counter-attack, the praises of which are ringing throughout the empire—recaptured the ground they had been compelled to give up, and since then, with their comrades, have successfully withstood the Germans' assaults.

There is no inclination here, however, to belittle the initial success of the German sweep, and the work that is before the Allied armies before the situation can be fully restored.

A writer in the Pall Mall Gazette describes it as "a masterly tactical counter stroke," and declares that "if the Germans have waited long to take their revenge for Neuve Chapelle, they have taken it now."

British optimism in the outcome is encouraged by the success of the Allies in repelling similar attacks last October, when they were less well equipped than the Germans, whereas now there is believed to be little to choose as between the opposing forces in either numbers or the machinery of war. The battle has had a marked effect in recruiting, which enjoyed a considerable boom today.

BRITISH WAR OFFICE STATEMENT.

London, April 26, 11.15 p. m.—The British war office has issued the following statement respecting the battle around Ypres:

"First—Severe fighting to the northeast of Ypres still continues, the general situation remains unchanged. Our left flank, in readjusting its line to meet the altered conditions due to the original forced retirement of the French, had to face to the north and to extend to the west beyond St. Julien. This extension weakened our line for a time and, after a very gallant resistance by the Canadians against superior numbers, St. Julien was captured by the enemy. Our lines now run south of that place.

"Second—Our troops to the east of Ypres have borne the brunt of repeated heavy attacks, which they have stubbornly opposed throughout the battle, in an entirely unexpected situation, which has demanded the exercise of gallantry and fortitude by the men, and quick resource and other military qualities by their commanders.

"Third—Attacks were also delivered yesterday by the Germans on the east of the Ypres salient. In spite of the use by the enemy of asphyxiating gases, the attacks were repulsed and German officers and men were captured.

"In the fighting during the last three days we have inflicted very heavy casualties on the Germans. Our losses also have been heavy. The German wireless report that four English heavy guns were captured is untrue.

London, April 27, 3.13 a. m.—To the Canadians belong the honor of spoiling the Germans' plan in Flanders, according to a despatch to the Daily Mail from its correspondent in northern France. They were supported in turn by a French force, by Zouaves, by Belgians and by English regiments. The guns they lost temporarily were not behind their line but on the left side.

"The flood of the German advance," says the correspondent, "cloaked under smoke and sulphurous gases, centered around these guns and passed the bulk of the Canadian forces, which maintained their calmness although their position became a promontory in the allied line."

"At times they had a double front, some trenches facing northeast and others southwest. They adapted their trenches to meet the new demands and transformed the back into the front.

In any manoeuvre they would have been adjudged annihilated but they held on and made good. They tied handkerchiefs over their noses to protect themselves from the gas fumes.

"It was only the Canadians' wonderful stand on the promontory, maintained many hours and varied by bayonet charges, that checked the Germans and enabled the Canadians to retire in good order and reform the general line."

"A summing up of the situation shows, however, that the Germans gained a good deal. They captured the Allies' salient northeast of Ypres and one point has become a German salient. Moreover, the Germans hold the area around Ypres which facilitates their offensive. Several villages east of the canal and one village on the left bank now are debatable ground."

London, April 27, 8.50 a. m.—The government has finally arrived at a moderate decision for dealing with the drink problem, according to the Times, which places the proposed restrictions under the following heads:

"First, prohibition of the sale of immature spirits; second, encouragement of the brewing of lighter beers; third, special public house restrictions in 'munition' areas; fourth, reduced hours of sale generally; fifth, compensation for the interests affected."

Dublin, April 27, 1.50 a. m.—Brigadier-General Hill, commanding all the troops in the Dublin district, has issued an order forbidding the sale of alcoholic liquors to soldiers or sailors.

London, April 26.—The national relief fund of the Prince of Wales today reached the total of $23,000,000.

London, April 26.—King George has opened with a donation of $2,500 a subscription list of the British committee for relief in Belgium.

The Situation Summarized.

London, April 26.—The Austro-Germans have evoked a new movement in the Carpathians. Apparently they have withdrawn the force which attempted to outflank the Russians in the direction of Stry and are attacking them in the neighborhood of Usok Pass and to the east of that point. Austria claims to have gained a considerable success in the capture of additional heights and prisoners.

All that is known of the attack on the Dardanelles is contained in a brief report issued by the war office and admiralty this evening, which simply says that, in spite of serious opposition, troops have been successfully landed at various points on the Gallipoli peninsula and that their advance continues.

The attack is being made by land, the sea and the air. The allied armies are playing an important part in the operations in locating and dropping bombs on the Turkish guns and trenches, and directing the fire of the warships which are coming to the landing of the troops. The Russians are doing their share by making a demonstration against the forces of the Black Sea entrance of the Bosphorus. The diplomatic situation with respect to Italy and Greece remains obscure. It is known, however, that conversations are still proceeding between the German allies and Italy, and it is reported that an agreement has been reached between Rome and the Triple Entente.

The position of Greece may be cleared up after the visit which Prince George is paying to Paris and London, although nothing is likely to happen until after the general election, which is about to take place.

Holland, another neutral country deeply interested in the war, is isolated, except by the assumption that the admiralty expects a naval battle with the German fleet which is cruising off Heligoland.

Friends of William Wall, a banker of Staunton, Ill., remembering his habit of borrowing tobacco had a huge quantity delivered at his house on his birthday a few days ago. They had sent cards requesting a donation to many of his business friends, and the birthday gift was the result. Wall declares he now has enough tobacco to last his family for several generations.

Will Canada Accept the Vast Trade Lost By Germany and Austria?

INEVITABLY the next few months will see vast and far-reaching changes in the commerce of Canada. There will be decided changes in the stocks of Canadian merchants. New accounts will be opened by manufacturers who have heretofore striven in vain against foreign competition.

All this because at a single stroke, literally over-night, the vast trade with Canada of Germany and Austria, to say nothing of other combatants in the European war, is wiped out.

CANADA HAS ALL IN HER FAVOR

SOMEBODY is going to get this business. England is alert for it. The United States wants it. Canada has the first choice. Here we know our people; we know the needs; we have the sales organizations; we have the factories; we have the workers; we have the market.

Also we have in our favor that newborn spirit of patriotism among Canadian purchasers that leads a man or woman to demand "Made-in-Canada" goods. The words "Imported" and "Direct From Europe" have lost their savour. Today "Made-in-Canada" sounds with a new ring—the ring of Necessity as well as of patriotism, and as a consequence, for the first time in the history of our Dominion, "Made-in-Canada" becomes a Hall Mark.

We do not presume to advise any manufacturer technically as to how the new lines are to be made. We believe this part of the proposition presents little difficulty to the manufacturer—certainly no unsurmountable difficulties. What we do emphasize is that now is the time to stop theorizing, and ACT.

Unless the Canadian manufacturer and merchant accept this opportunity NOW, it will be snatched up by more enterprising concerns, who are already training their guns on our market.

READ THE OPINION OF AN AMERICAN TRADE INVESTIGATOR

"TWO months ago I realized that we wanted the Canadian market. Today the Canadian market wants us. True, we must still fight for it, but our greatest problem—German and French competition—was solved almost overnight, and through no effort of our own. * * * Canada imports nearly seven hundred million dollars' worth of goods. * * * Right here is a great field for the American manufacturer. * * * The American manufacturer, once established here, will give all comers, even after the war is over, a stiff fight to take the market away from him."

There is no reason in the world why an American manufacturer cannot go into Canada now and practically sweep the market in his line. * * * So says an American trade investigator. He investigated the Canadian market, but not the Canadian manufacturer, who furnishes one very substantial reason why the United States cannot grab our trade.

The limitless forces of Initiative and Advertising enter vitally into the situation. Canadian manufacturers must use their initiative NOW and go after the market with greater vigor than they ever before exercised—they must study Canada's import statistics, and make the sternest possible bid to supply the demand.

THE TIME HAS COME FOR ACTION

REACH out for the markets with the mighty force of Advertising. Tell your story far and wide. Canada wants to know which are the right lines to buy, under the new condition. Faced with the necessity of choosing new brands to replace the imported products, and fired with the patriotic impulse to encourage "Made-in-Canada" merchandise, they await your message, eager to respond.

Advertising in the daily newspapers will reach them in their buying mood. Make it plain to them that by purchasing what you have to offer they are not only supporting Canada and the Empire, but they are getting as good quality and better value than the imported articles they heretofore bought. The people won't know these facts unless you tell them—and that is what advertising does.

Advertising in Canada today will "pull" better than ever before. The time is opportune to strike. Strike with a will.

R. E. Bradshaw Tells of Game and Asks for Equipment From Home Friends - Letter From Arthur Olive

A story of St. John boys in baseball at the front is told in the following letter:
April 15, 1915.
Sir—In honor of the boys of the guns the St. John boys still find time for sport, as was evidenced by a spirited game of baseball played tonight by No. 3 Section of the D. A. C. "Non-commissioned officers" versus "Gunsners and Drivers." It was a hot game and resulted in a 3-2 for the "Gunsners and Drivers."
G. Wiley, of Charlott, was pitcher for the Gunsners and Drivers and proved that soldiering had not spoiled his mind. Harry Andrews was catcher and did some good work. Sgt. W. Fellow surpassed himself at catching, as also did Doug Hirth from Sussex. The latter, though not very tall, climbed up to some very high balls.
I am not very good at reporting a baseball match, especially when all players seemed so well matched. I looked for special distinctive features to report, but the fact that nearly everything was "distinctive" makes my task the harder. However, here are some more of the St. John boys—Stafford, pitcher, and Dr. LeClair, catcher for N. G. O'Leary, Ebbey and bases; J. O'Leary, 3rd base; W. C. Campbell, C. field, and Corporal E. Clark did some good catching. Capt. Pickles of the 4th Battery from Yarmouth, was umpire, and he did not let the players forget he was there either.
One would almost forget there was a war on at such times, yet it was a significant fact that amongst the militia—healthiest and most standing with their equipment on and horses harnessed ready to go—well, on horses, and this in a war zone will be in a very different atmosphere.
Before I finish, may I ask on behalf of the boys of No. 3 Section, that if there are any of our St. John friends with any spare bats, balls, or other much appreciated if they would send them along.
Yours truly,
ROBERT E. BRADSHAW.
From Arthur Olive.
In a letter to his cousin, Mrs. W. H. Nyles, High street, Arthur Olive writes from France expressing thanks for a box from home. His company had been in the trenches for a month and at times of writing were having a rest. Chester Daley and Louis Lelecheur are in the same company as he. There are about a dozen St. John boys in the company. He had not met any others from St. John except those at the ambulance corps. The 6th boys, he wrote, still were in England and the ammunition column was somewhere in France.

SENT UP FOR TRIAL
Stealing From C. P. R. Steamer and From Samuel King Charged
James Hargis, arrested on Saturday on a charge of stealing a quantity of goods, the property of the C. P. R., from the steamer St. George, and also several articles of apparel from Samuel King, a deckhand on the steamer, was sent up for trial by Magistrate Ritchie this morning.
King testified that he was a deck-hand on the St. George, and while on duty last trip from Digby to this port he missed a rain-coat, a shirt and a pair of trousers. When the steamer arrived here he saw the defendant going ashore with a clothes bag and informed the chief officer. They went in search of the defendant and located him in the Salvation Army Metropole. They swore out a warrant for his arrest.
Policeman William A. Gibbs told of making the arrest and of finding one silver spoon, two silver knives, a towel and two laundry bags marked C. P. R. He also secured from the manager of the Metropole other missing articles. These were produced in court and identified by the witness.
R. P. Rustin, a lodger in the Metropole, told of finding three silver spoons, two silver butter knives, a silver fork and a silver cream jug under the mattress of his bed.
Detective Charles Worrell said he went to the steamer after the prisoner had been arrested and had searched his room and found hidden in his coat two silver knives and one fork, and in a valise a box of silver forks.
George McDonald, chief steward of the steamer, identified some of the goods produced in court as being the property of the C. P. R. He said he had always found the prisoner sprightly and a good reliable man.
William Lewis, manager of the Metropole, explained how the defendant applied for lodging. He had left in his care the three articles claimed by the complainant, King, and had turned them over to the police when so requested.
Captain Boylls, of the tug Musquash, which is in the employ of the C. P. R., said that the defendant was a deckhand under him when they sailed from Quebec to this port. He missed some silverware. He said the box taken from the defendant's room was the same as he had on his boat.
John S. Barclay, chief officer on the St. George, told of being present when Detective Worrell searched the room formerly occupied by the defendant.
As this concluded the evidence for the prosecution, and as the defendant did not desire to call any witnesses, Magistrate Ritchie committed him for trial.
Fred R. Taylor, K. C., appeared for the prosecution, and Leonard A. Cotton for the defendant.

TWO PROMOTIONS IN THE C. P. R. SERVICE
W. J. Pickrell to Ontario and A. E. Stewart Succeeds Him
Two changes of great importance in the Atlantic division of the C. P. R. were announced today. W. J. Pickrell, who has been assistant superintendent at Aroostook Junction for the last two years, has been promoted to the important position of master mechanic for the Ontario division, with headquarters in Toronto. His successor at Aroostook is A. E. Stewart who is expected to reach the city tomorrow from Toronto to take up his new duties.
Both appointments are in the way of promotions. The office taken by Mr. Stewart gives him jurisdiction over the lines of district No. 2, north of McAdam, under the superintendent at Woodstock, and is a responsible post. The appointment received by Mr. Pickrell is a most valuable one, carrying with it control of all the Ontario division in matters pertaining to the duties of a master mechanic, and is a promotion which speaks well for his standing with the company, though he is a comparatively young man. He was formerly associated with Mr. Groat, now Atlantic superintendent in Toronto, but was transferred two years ago to Aroostook, continuing there until the present promotion. He left for Toronto last night.

Is the Question of the Hour, Sir!
To be dressed out of season is to be dressed out of fashion, especially out of the good old fashion of common sense.
No sane, wide-awake man wants to be on the outs either with fashion or with common sense and, least of all, with both, for that means being out of tune with things in general.
