FINDING ON GARROW CASE.

Mr. J. C. Herdman, on behalf of the Committee on the Dr. Garrow appeal case reported the following as their finding :

The Synod, having heard the parties in this case, find as follows :

They sympathize with the Session of the First Church, Victoria, in the difficulty they experienced in dealing with an unusually complicated question, but they regret that the Session did not investigate the fama in regard to Dr. Garrow before he applied for his certificate of Church membership. Recognizing that this case has an interest for the whole Church, they instruct their clerk to procure from the proper officer of the Court in Oregon a copy of the decree of divorce granted to Mrs. Jennie Crogan ;

They direct that a reference be then drawn up by a committee consisting of the Clerk, Messrs. McLaren and Buchanan to be sent in the name of this Synod to the General Assembly praying for a deliverance upon the following points :

1. "Is a member of the Church to be granted his Certificate on application if there are no charges against him before the Session ?
2. Is marriage to a woman whose husband has been divorced on the plea of "desertion and cruelty" a valid ground for exclusion from membership ?"

They direct that a clear statement of the history of this case accompany this reference, and they counsel all parties to accept the deliverance of the General Assembly in a spirit of loyalty and brotherliness.

The Synod wish it to be understood that nothing in the finding is to be construed as countenancing any laxity in opinion or practice as regards the marriage tie.

It was moved by Mr. J. C. Herdman, and seconded by Mr. J. A. Logan, that the Synod accept this as its finding, and it became the mind of the Synod and was declared accordingly.

The parties to the case were then called to the bar of the Synod, the finding read to them and they were asked if they acquiesced in the decision.

Dr. Garrow stated that he accepted the decision of the court.

Dr. Campbell, Moderator of the Presbytery of Victoria, asked liberty for the Presbytery to retire and convene which was granted, whereupon the Synod adjourned for fifteen minutes.

When the Synod resumed business, being duly constituted, Mr. D. McRae, Clerk of the Presbytery of Victoria, stated for himself and the Presbytery, that they protested against the finding of the Synod, for reasons to be given, and appealed to the General Assembly, and craved extracts.

The Moderator then appointed a Committee to answer the reasons of Appeal as follows.—Messrs. E. D. McLaren, Convener, J. C. Herdman, J. W. McMillan, J. Buchanan and John A. Logan.

TIME AND PLACE OF NEXT SYNOD.

The time and place of next meeting of Synod was taken up, when it was moved by Mr. Thos. Scouler, seconded by Mr. James Buchanan, and agreed to that the next meeting of Synod shall be held at Vancouver, and in 1st Presbyterian Church there on the first Wednesday of May next, at 8 o'clock in the evening, also that the Ministers of Vancouver be a Committee to make all necessary arrangements with Mr. G. R. Maxwell, Convener.

The accounts of the Treasurer, having been audited by Mr. J. W. McMillan and found correct, they were ordered to be attested accordingly.

Mr. Thos. Scouler, Treasurer, presented a supplementary and completed report.

The hour for adjournment having arrived its consideration was deferred until the afternoon, then to come up as the first item of business.

The Synod then adjourned to meet at 2 o'clock p.m., and this Sederunt was closed with the benediction.

SIXTH SEDERUNT.

At the same place and at 2 o'clock p.m., the Synod met, and was constituted with prayer led by Mr. J. A. Matheson at the request of the Moderator.

Minutes of the morning Sederunt were read and approved.

Mr. J. W. McMillan stated that there were present, the Rev. Messrs. Wilkinson and Welsh of the Methodist Church, who on motion, were asked to sit and correspond.

Consideration of the Treasurer's Report was resumed and after discussion, Mr. J. C. Herdman moved and Dr. Campbell seconded and it was agreed, that the Clerk of the Synod write the Clerks of the various Presbyteries, enclosing a list of the Congregations which have not contributed their share to Synod Fund during the past year, and asking with authority of Synod that steps be taken in the various Presbyteries to gather in the funds allocated both for the past year and from year to year according to the annual claims.

ARREARS TO CLERK.

The Treasurer asked for instructions as to the arrears due Mr. Ross, the late Clerk, when Mr. D. A. McRae moved, and Mr. G. R. Maxwell seconded, that the amount due Mr. Ross be paid when the funds permit of it.

HOME MISSION REPORT.

The Synod then resumed consideration of the Home Mission Report, when Mr. E. D. McLaren submitted the following recommendations, which were received and taken up seriatim. After discussion, it was moved by Mr. J. C. Herdman, seconded by Jas. Buchanan, that the recommendations be adopted and the General Assembly overtured in terms thereof.

The recommendations are as follows :—

I.—That the Synod overture the General Assembly—

(1.) To fix the minimum salary to be paid to unmarried ordained missionaries in the Synod at $750 instead of $700 as proposed by the Assembly's Committee ;

(2.) To make the remuneration of students $6.00 per Sabbath in the summer, and $7.00 in the winter ; instead of $5.50 and $6.50 respectively, as proposed by the Assembly's Committee ;

(3.) To instruct its Committee in making grants to the fields in this Synod to take into account the great expense of living in some of these fields, the outlay for house rent being in certain places four times the amount allowed by the Committee as an equivalent for a Manse ;

(4.) To direct that in the event of there being a deficit in the Home Mission funds at the close of any ecclesiastical year, the grants promised to Missionaries for the half-year then closing be paid in full, and that whatever reduction in the payments to missionaries may be rendered necessary by such deficit, be only made after six months notice has been given to missionaries of the likelihood of such reduction taking place ;

(5.) To recommend its Committee to guard against any tendency towards unnecessary separation or division in the Home Mission work of the Church, and therefore to return to the practice that has hitherto prevailed of dealing in the same way with the claims presented by the various Presbyteries, instead of voting a lump sum to each of the Synods of Manitoba and B. C., as was done at the last meeting of the Committee ;

(6.) To instruct its Committee to remain in Session for at least four days, at the annual meeting in March, in order that the whole Home Mission work of the Church (W Section) may be brought fully under the review of the Committee.

II. That the Synod enjoins all the Ministers and Missionaries within the bounds to bring more frequently under the notice of their congregations the vast extent of our Home Mission field, and the absolute necessity of a vigorous prosecution of this work in the interests alike of the nation and the Church.

OVERTURE ON CO-OPERATION.

A discussion followed, taken part in by Messrs. D. McRae, J. Buchanan, E. B. Chestnut, Thomas Paton, E. D. McLaren, A. B. Winchester, J. A. Logan, Dr. Campbell, J. M. McLeod and D. McRae.

or where organization is already in process, that it be brought to a proper completion as speedily as possible.

5. More interest in Missions is recommended; reluctantly we acknowledge not only indifference, but in some cases hostility to the taking up of needed contributions, but that our devices be forecast in particular, that information be given from the pulpit that missionary services be sometimes held, that the practical interest of our Young People's Home Mission, our Woman's Foreign Mission and our Christian Endeavor and kindred societies be enlisted more fully in our missionary work, and that Sessions make endeavor, where practicable, to have our Church papers extensively circulated throughout their congregations.

6. That conferences be held in Presbyteries at convenient times, not only upon the general subject of the state of religion, but also upon specific questions involved, such for example as these: why the paucity of applications for Church membership; how to make our preaching more profitable; what should be the attitude of the Church towards educational, social and moral questions; how best can we bring the importance of supporting mission funds before our congregations, and so forth.

Mr. J. W. McMillan on behalf of the Committee appointed to examine the communication of Mr. J. F. Dean, reported as follows:—

On examination of the documents submitted to them they found—

1. That Mr. Dean had complained to the Presbytery of Victoria, of language used against himself by the Rev. D. A. McRae, in the pulpit of St. Andrew's Church, Nanaimo, which he, the complainant, regarded as unwarranted and unbecoming.

2. That the Presbytery had referred this complaint to a Committee to report upon.

3. That the Committee having examined the papers in the case, and having heard Mr. Dean and Mr. McRae, had recommended that the complaint be dismissed and Mr. Dean held morally responsible for the injury done Mr. McRae by the criticisms that have appeared from time to time in the Free Press newspaper.

4. That the Presbytery had adopted the recommendation of its Committee and dismissed the complaint.

5. That Mr. Dean had not appealed from this finding of the Presbytery until several weeks after the finding had been arrived at.

The Committee decided that it would be advisable to allow Mr. Dean to appear before them and state his grounds of complaint. After hearing both the complainant and Mr. McRae, the following decision was unanimously agreed to:—

While emphasizing the importance of keeping the pulpit as free as possible from all personal references, the Committee cannot refrain from expressing their sympathy with Mr. McRae in the unfavorable criticism to which he had been subjected for a considerable time, before he preached the sermon complained of, and their unimpaired confidence in the purity of the motives by which he has been actuated in his arduous, and successful labors in the City of Nanaimo. They therefore recommend that the Synod take no further action in this matter.

It was moved by the Clerk, and seconded by Mr. J. C. Herdman that the report be received and adopted.

The motion was passed unanimously.

The Moderator called for the report on Sabbath Schools which was presented by Mr. J. W. McMillan, when it was moved by Mr. James Buch-
