PLUCKY LAWYER'S HOUSE DESTROYED BY BOMB.

He and His Wife Narrowly Escape—He Had Been Active Against Violators of Law.

OMAHA, Neb., Nov. 22.—The home of Elmer E. Thomas, a prominent lawyer of this city and attorney for the civic federation, was wrecked by a bomb placed on the front porch early today. Mr. Thomas and his wife were in the house at the time and he considered it a miracle that they were not injured. Mrs. Thomas was awakened by a noise on the porch and aroused her husband, believing that burglars were trying to enter the house. Mr. Thomas began an investigation, and discovered a fire on the front porch. He picked up a large rug and attempted to smother the flames when a terrific explosion occurred. Although but a few feet from the bomb he escaped injury. The front wall of the house and the doors were shattered and an immense hole torn in the ground. The interior of the building is a wreck. A squad of police were on the scene in a short time, but no clue to the perpetrator could be found. The explosion was heard for three miles. Attorney Thomas has been active for some time in the prosecution of saloon keepers for violation of the liquor law, which prohibits all night and Sunday openings of the saloons. He has also been active for the civic federation in the habeas corpus proceedings in which Thomas Deminon has sought to avoid being taken out of Iowa in connection with the $75,000 Pollock diamond robbery.

JAP ATTACK WAS REPULSED.

Russians Pluckily Defended Poutloff Hill

Activity at Vladivostok Reported—Additions are Being Made to the Fortifications.

MUKDEN, Nov. 21, via Tien Tsin, Nov. 22.—Since the Japanese attack on Poutloff Hill, on the night of Nov. 18, no activity has been apparent. The character of the attack on Poutloff Hill is not fully understood beyond the fact that three or four battalions participated. It probably was made on the initiative of the local commander without the consent of headquarters and as an attack it can only be favorably regarded in the light of a reconnaissance in force. This incident is the most important movement since the battle of Shakhe. Poutloff Hill, which is now the center of interest of the entire line, could be seen flashing signals of attack from her fortresses as the Japanese infantry advanced. On account of repeated reports that the Japanese intended to attack on Nov. 19, the assault was believed to be the signal for an advance on the entire line and consequently the entire Russian army on the qui vive began its own hostile movements both east and west of Poutloff Hill. The Japanese arrived within fifty yards of the Russian trenches. The Russian fire was too deadly for a further advance. The next morning disclosed about 80 Japanese dead, which the Russians buried yesterday. The Japanese succeeded in carrying off in haste 20 wounded. The Russians lost half a dozen men in the trenches. Scouting operations on both sides resulted in daily encounters, some times between battalions, but the encounters are little more than skirmishes. The scouting is for the evident purpose of identifying opponent's positions and local strength. The Russians are daily to shell the Japanese position at Linshepu.

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—A Woson, Korea, Nov. 21, says: A Korean arriving overland from Vladivostok reports a large number of warships engaged in throwing up a new line of fortifications outside of those already constructed within the harbor presented a scene of activity. Four large steamers were loading thousands of tons of supplies. Three large warships have completed repairs and are ready for instant service. Eight torpedo boat destroyers are also ready and auxiliary gunboats have been prepared by mounting guns on small steamships. Troops arrive daily by railway and immediately begin work on the fortifications.

CHRISTIAN ATROCITIES

WORSE THAN TURKISH

Conditions in Macedonia Now More Desperate Than Ever—Christian Factions Fight Each Other.

LONDON, Nov. 22, 8.22 a. m.—The Standard today prints a long letter from Constantinople dealing with the situation in Macedonia. The writer says there has been a marked change in the last six months. Formerly it was a question of protecting the Christian population against violence, but now it has become one of intervention between various Christian elements. Since the polling of Macedonia has been taken out of Turkey's hands, there has been conflicts between rival nationalities, Bulgarians, Serbs and Greeks, accompanied by barbaric cruelties as outrageous as those with which the Turks were formerly reprobated. The truth is, according to the Standard's correspondent, each of these Christian elements wants independence, and their hatred of each other exceeds their detestation of the Turks. The Austro-Turkish reform scheme, therefore, has not hastened more liberation of the Macedonia problem nor brought autonomy any nearer.

INVESTIGATION A FARCE.

Nothing Done at Safety Board Inquiry Last Night. From what information could be gleaned this morning about last night's fire investigation, conducted by the Safety Board, it would appear, taking the firemen's side of the case, that the accused, to use a vulgar phrase, are yet on top. The investigation could hardly be called such; it was more like an informal chat. At times, however, sharp phrases were flung across the table. No charges of intoxication were made out, beyond the admission that some of the firemen were in the habit of taking an occasional glass. Among the firemen themselves last night's investigation is generally regarded as a farce. The meeting on account of its utter informality, of bringing anything out, and the firemen declare that it will require a public investigation duly conducted to place them in a proper position before the public.

It now transpires that on Saturday last Chief Kerr summarily discharged a member of No. 5 company, against whom charges of drunkenness were brought, and yesterday as summarily reinstated him. The fireman was discharged, it is said, for drunkenness, but why he was again reinstated it is not known.

NO CLUE YET TO NORTH END HIGHWAYMEN.

Men Who Sandbagged and Robbed Ship Laborers' Treasurer, on Public Street, are Still at Large

The sand-bagging and robbing of Frank Priest, treasurer of the Ship Laborers' Union, last night was the general topic of conversation about town this morning. The average citizen seemed amazed that such a robbery could occur in a quiet city like St. John and particularly within twenty yards of one of the busiest streets of the city. The deed was done, however, and if it was known there have been other attempts of a similar kind. The Star knows of a gentleman who was assaulted on King street east and in a similar way to that in which Priest was attacked. In this case, however, the blow did not land effectively and the man ran away.

The particulars of Priest's hold up are as follows: Mr. Priest had attended the meeting of the S. L. U. last evening and in his official capacity received the yearly dues of the members, which were being paid that night. In all he had in his pocket over $250 of the union's money, as well as $45 of his own, when he set out for home at the close of the meeting. He was accompanied by Capt. W. S. Brown, a member of the union. They stopped at Brown's restaurant on Main street for a lunch and about 11 o'clock they proceeded up the street. At the corner of Acadia and Main streets Capt. Waters left Priest and went on to his home. The latter stepped into Baxter's lunch store and had a glass of milk, but left very soon for his residence on High street.

According to his usual custom he went via Acadia street. All this time Mr. Priest had his money securely in his right hand overcoat pocket, and to make sure of its presence he carried a small bag on his back. As he turned the corner of Acadia streets curves slightly when about half way between Main and High streets, and the latter end is lighted by an electric lamp on High street. This angle causes the right side of the street to be considerably darkened along this side and when passing along the side and when opposite an alley leading to the rear of Jones' grocery store Mr. Priest was struck down suddenly from behind that he had no time to see his assailant or to judge of the instrument which inflicted the blow. When next he became conscious he found himself lying in the mud well back into the roadway and the money was missing. He was able to grope his way along to his home, but when he reached the doorway unconsciously against an overpowered him and he sank down in the porch.

Here he was found by his brother Harry, who summoned Dr. Roberts. He found Mr. Priest in a semi-conscious state and at once administered restoratives. Three marks showed where Mr. Priest had received blows, one at the back of the right ear, another on the temple, and a third under the eye. In no case was the skin broken. The nature of the bruises and the suddenness of the effect point to the use of sandbags by his assailant or assailants; and not satisfied with the first blow, which had stunned Mr. Priest, they deliberately dealt two more, in vulnerable spots. Mr. Priest was resting very easily, when he fell no more than happened than he could last night. The police went to work under the direction of Chief Clark and are leaving no stone unturned to get to the bottom of the mystery, but so far without success. They have absolutely no clue yet, but are hopeful that within a few hours that they will be on the right track.

Noting but expressions of regret can be heard among the ship laborers for the mishap which last night befell their officer, Michael J. Kelly, speaking to a Star reporter, said that Priest was a most trustworthy official. Mr. Kelly scouted the theory that some party or parties had been in the association, were held by bonds, a precaution never deemed necessary. It is Mr. Priest's duty as treasurer to collect money paid in and when he has a considerable sum to hand it over to the trustees of the association. The affair is receiving immediate attention by the proper committee.

C. P. R STAFF CHANGES. Geo. C. Wells Succeeds Alex Notman—C. E. Foster is Passenger Agent for Ontario.

(Special to the Star), MONTREAL, Nov. 22.—The following Canadian Pacific Railway changes were announced here: George C. Wells is appointed assistant general passenger agent for lines east of Fort William, to succeed the late Alex. Notman, with headquarters here. R. L. Thompson succeeds Mr. Wells as chief clerk to Robert Kerr, the company's passenger traffic manager. C. E. Foster, formerly stationed at St. John, N. B., is appointed district passenger agent for the Ontario division, and will be stationed at Toronto. He will have charge of all lines in Ontario west of and including Sharnhor Lake and Kingston. No decision has as yet been reached on the proposed change at St. John.

It is understood here that the St. John appointment will be announced tomorrow.

GREAT INTEREST IN NAN PATTERSON'S TRIAL. Dead Man's Widow Will Give Evidence—Prosecution Unable to Locate an Important Witness

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—Search for a missing witness, who for months has eluded the detectives from the district attorney's office and the possibility that one of the central figures in the case, the dead man's widow, would appear before the jury and tell her story, were the points of special interest today when the trial of Nan Patterson for the alleged murder of Cesar Young was resumed in the supreme court. In outlining his case yesterday, Assistant District Attorney Rand informed the jury that the prosecution, after months of endeavor had been unsuccessful in locating J. Morgan Smith, who, he claimed, purchased the revolver with which Young was killed. He hoped, however, that Smith would be brought forward by the defence at the proper time. Later in the day Miss Patterson's counsel presented the defence case. But those who are in a position to speak authoritatively, say that even much higher levels must yet be attained to bring about a forced reduction in consumption. Once there is a reduction in consumption the advance in price must stop, and that consequence appears inevitable under the present figures. A wild speculation will doubtless continue to run its course on the European sugar exchange for some time to come. The best crops are now virtually finished. No advance affecting the Canadian market has been heard of for the last two days.

THE SUGAR MARKET. The most recent intelligence from sugar centres is to the effect that the situation has somewhat improved. Sugar producers, it appears, have already disposed of some 130,000 tons of the early product and have orders to the extent of some 200,000 tons. Large profits are in sight, and it is natural to suppose that the planters will continue to take their cue from the European market. Despite this, however, there seems reason to believe that the great advance will be checked for the present. But those who are in a position to speak authoritatively, say that even much higher levels must yet be attained to bring about a forced reduction in consumption. Once there is a reduction in consumption the advance in price must stop, and that consequence appears inevitable under the present figures. A wild speculation will doubtless continue to run its course on the European sugar exchange for some time to come. The best crops are now virtually finished. THREE WOMEN DROP TO DEATH

Fell From Cornice of Burning House

Fatal Fire in Brooklyn—Mother Saved Baby at Cost of Her Own Life.

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—Three women were probably fatally hurt and five firemen were injured severely in a blaze that destroyed two buildings in Brooklyn early today. The fire started in the cellar of a drug store at Fulton and Adolphus streets. Three upper floors were occupied by three families, consisting of fifteen persons. The flames spread upwards so quickly that when the sleeping tenants were aroused by the smoke and crackling flames they found all escape by the stairway had been cut off. Bella Hill, Florence Seabrook and Hetta Richardson, all of whom lived on the fourth floor, made their way down one story and out on the cornice. Mrs. Seabrook had her baby in her arms. The cornice gave way and the women fell to the ground. Mrs. Seabrook clasped the infant to her bosom in such a way that when she struck the sidewalk the little one escaped injury. The women were hurriedly carried to a hospital where their injuries were pronounced probably fatal. Eight families, comprising thirty-four persons, escaped or were rescued from a building adjoining the drug store before the house was destroyed. The firemen played great bravery in the work of rescue. The financial loss was small.

BRITAIN STORM SWEEP

Snow Drifts Block Traffic—Telegraph Wires Dislocated—Royalty Inconvenienced

LONDON, Nov. 22.—Keen frost and heavy snow squalls are reported from all quarters of the United Kingdom. A gale raged all night long over the coasts driving vessels to the shelter and seriously dislocating the telegraph wires, especially in the north of England and in Scotland. Blinding snow storms raised huge drifts and rendered traffic difficult in the country districts and are necessitating a cessation of outdoor work in many provincial towns. In London little snow has fallen, but a sharp fall in temperature is accentuating the distress among the poor, which is already prevalent. The snow is so deep at Chatsworth that the King of Portugal and others of the house party there have been prevented from shooting. Some small craft have been wrecked. Up to Nov. 21 the weather had been unusually mild and the change is causing much misery. Winter weather seems general in Europe, frost being reported as far south as Naples.

SALOON KEEPER IN TROUBLE.

A complaint has been made by Inspector Jones against Robert Garnett, of 11 King Square, for selling liquor during prohibitive hours. The case came up in court this morning and Officer Charles Marshall swore that on Sunday morning Garnett took three men into his saloon and that they remained there some time. The case will be continued this afternoon.

HOW THE POLICY WORKS. During the recent campaign we were informed frequently by Liberal orators and newspapers that the Conservative contention that railroads of national importance should be opened by the people and operated in their interest by a non-partisan commission was a very foolish contention.

When it was pointed out that other countries had tried the public ownership policy with conspicuous success the oracles said that it might work elsewhere, but never in Canada. They did not explain why, but left room for the inference that Canadians had not the peculiar ability necessary for such business.

The election is over now and the Conservative policy is dead for a century. So it is in the spirit of "I told you so," rather than with the idea of doing any good that the Star points to an instance of the triumphant success of the policy it advocated and draws special attention to the fact that the success was largely due to the ability of a Canadian.

It was in June, 1903, that Mr. Thomas Tait, formerly superintendent of transportation on the C. P. R., landed in Australia to assume control of the government railways there under the new policy of freeing the railways from direct party political management.

Let us briefly inquire into those qualities which make the King successful as a diplomatist, which give him his personal equipment, writes Sir Gilbert F. Parker, M. P., in "The King's Story." "The idea of the new contrivance is that whenever a switch is opened at a station the semaphores are put up and closed again. This, it is claimed, will make it practically impossible to have accidents from misaligned switches."

With such a temperament as he possesses, there is also dominant in his makeup certain irascibility, due to his capacity to feel strongly, to the sharp decision of his mind. He is no wanderer, he does not need to lean on others, and he has a keen impatience with the dull or the inane; but long ago the native irascibility was brought—and kept—under control.

Insurance men are greatly concerned with the improvement of a city's fire equipment, while the cost of such improvement does not touch their pockets and they benefit more by the expenditure than any others. But they got very angry in Montreal the other day when it was proposed to tax the fire insurance companies with half the cost of keeping up the fire brigade.

Mr. B. O. Lott, the Liberal candidate for West Hastings, was unsuccessful in his attempt to enter parliament, but has succeeded in getting into jail. His talents, as illustrated by the evidence in the bogus ballot box case, admirably fit him for either place.

THE WHITE FLAG. I sent my love two roses—one As white as driven snow, And one a blushing rose, red, A flaming Jacquenot.

My heart sank when I met her; sure I had been overbold, For on her breast my pale rose lay In virgin whiteness cold.

WON'T SELL WARSHIPS. Chile Feasible the Report that Russia Has Purchased Part of Her Navy.

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—A Valparaiso, Chile, despatch to the Herald, dated Nov. 20, says: "In discussing the published despatch from London relative to the alleged sale of Chilean warships to Russia, through Columbia, a high government official said today: 'This news is absurd. It is unworthy of the slightest attention. Chile is a small power, considering her strength, but in respect of international law she occupies the same position as the other great powers.'"

Perhaps the common council would listen more favorably to the Historical Society's request for assistance in the erection of the Champlain monument if one of the aldermen was a sculptor.

KILLED AT SAND POINT. Matthew Wells Had His Skull Crushed By Falling From a Cargo Stage at the Side of the Ionian.

A sad accident occurred at Sand Point yesterday afternoon, the first of the winter port season. Matthew Wells, a sailor, attempted to go on board the str. Ionian, and in doing so fell between the vessel and the pier, striking his head on the fore and aft fender, and sustaining such severe injuries that he died last night about ten o'clock. The unfortunate man attempted to step from the cargo stage of No. 5 hatch, but stepped short. His skull was badly smashed and the brain injured.

DROWNED IN CAPE BRETON. Two Men Started Fooling in a Boat With the Usual Result.

HALIFAX, Nov. 21.—News reached Sydney today of the drowning at Big Bras D'Or on Monday of R. MacNeil and New Campbell. The unfortunate victim and a companion named Angus MacLeod, were crossing Big Bras D'Or ferry when some distance from shore they began fooling, as a result of which the boat upset, precipitating the drowning of the water. MacNeil was carried away by the strong current and drowned, but MacLeod clung to an ear buoy rescued by the ferryman.

MRS. DR. TRAVERS DEAD.

Her many friends will regret to learn of the death of Mrs. Katharine A. Travers, wife of Dr. Boyle Travers, which occurred somewhat suddenly at her home, 28 Sydney street, last evening. Mrs. Travers had been in rather delicate health for about a year, but yesterday afternoon was around the house as cheerful and seemingly as well as ever. Shortly after four o'clock she was stricken with apoplexy and rapidly grew weaker until the end came, two hours later.

A NEW CHURCH ORGAN

Was Dedicated on Sunday in Trinity Church, Sussex.

SUSSEX, Nov. 21.—The new pipe organ built by Cassavant Freres of St. Hyacinthe, Ont., for Trinity church, which was lately placed in position, was dedicated on Sunday last and used for the first time. It is a splendid specimen of the workmanship of this well known firm of organ builders, and in volume and tone as well as in external finish is well adapted for the beautiful church in which it has been placed.

THE LADIES OF SUSSEX METHODIST CHURCH

MORE SENSATIONS.

B. O. Lott Was Arrested Last Monday.

And Several Other Prominent Liberals Will Soon be in Custody.

KINGSTON, Ont., Nov. 21.—There is a warrant issued at Belleville for the arrest of Byron O. Lott, liberal candidate for West Hastings in the recent election. That is the latest development in the bogus ballot box case, Col. Percy Sherwood of the dominion police, has laid information against Lott, and Magistrate Flint of Belleville, has issued the warrant. Lott has not yet been located. Warrants have also been issued for the arrest of W. J. Shibley, the liberal candidate for Frontenac, and O. J. Riley of Kingston. News of the intended arrests has caused a tremendous stir in Belleville, so far the only man whose arrest has been effected in Whalen of Prescott. Col. Sherwood has left Belleville and is said to be in Ottawa.

OTTAWA, Nov. 21.—Further examination of the register of the Russell House shows that W. J. Shibley, liberal candidate in Frontenac, visited Ottawa on Oct. 3rd. Whether or not his visit had to do with the procuring of bogus ballots has not transpired. Enquiry was made at the different city printing offices to see if B. O. Lott when here on Oct. 28th had been successful in his mission, but no printer would admit having seen Mr. Lott.

In the election of 1909 the ballots were printed at the different local offices, the paper being supplied by the printing bureau. This paper was prepared for the purpose and bears a water mark, a star and two circles. Where it is made even is kept a secret. But this year the ballots for every constituency were printed at the printing bureau. The ballots were printed in sheets of four and all that had to be done to them was to print in the names.

Mr. Dawson, king's printer, stated today that the ballots were sent out in sheets of four and all that had to be done to them was to print in the names.

LATER. B. O. Lott was arrested tonight. His friends are now looking for bail for him which has been fixed at $2,000.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY ASK $2,500 FOR MONUMENT.

Delegation Waited on the Reretary Board Yesterday Afternoon. The Aldermen in No Hurry.

A meeting of the treasury board was held yesterday afternoon in the council chambers to confer with the representatives of the St. B. Historical Society relative to the proposed Chalmers memorial in this city.

The aldermen present, Messrs. McGoldrick, Macrae, Maxwell, Daley, Tilly, Frink and Christie, and the delegates included Rev. W. C. Gaynor, president of the society, Dr. J. D. Jack, Dr. Hay, S. D. Scott, Timothy O'Brien and Hamilton McCarthy, whose design has been accepted by the society.

In the absence of the regular chairman, Ald. McGoldrick was elected to the chair.

D. R. Jack explained the object of the delegation, which was to urge upon the council the desirability of a statue to the great French discoverer and to ask aid from them to the extent of $2,500. The design had already been chosen, and the society was now only concerned as to the source from which the money should be raised.

The dominion government had promised $5,000, the local government which was asked to contribute $2,500, gave a favorable hearing to the proposition, though no definite amount has been promised. As the cost of the monument and workmanship, exclusive of the money spent in erecting the statue, the cost of foundation and other incidentals would be $10,000, the society would ask $2,500 from the civic government and the remainder might be raised by private subscriptions.

The president, Rev. W. C. Gaynor, was called upon. He considered the monument would symbolize a great deal in our history, and for that reason efforts should be made towards its erection. Father Gaynor informed the council that the government grant of $5,000 would likely be increased if the society again approached the federal government, as Sir Wilfrid Laurier was personally much in favor of these memorials to our past history.

S. D. Scott looked upon the matter as one in which the electors would uphold the council in the event of their giving a grant to the society. He sought to emphasize all our historic points for the benefit of our children, as well as for the interest of tourists, Quebec was more interesting and had more visitors than Hamilton. Annapolis was more attractive to the outside world than Bridgetown because of their historic associations. Cities which have these associations should emphasize them by outward signs from a financial point of view this monument would be a benefit to the city.

The educational point of view was touched upon by Dr. G. U. Hay and the effect of these memorials upon the young mind was commended. Too little in the way of reminders of past events is to be found in this city, and it was the place where the French first settled in all of Canada, and the home of the Loyalists, our history is somewhat striking. The citizens contributed liberally towards the memorial tablets and Dr. Hay thought they would support the council in a grant.

F. W. DANIEL & CO., London House, Charlotte St.

J. D. Howe also spoke briefly in reference to the place of Carriacou in the history of the country.

The council wished to know if the society were going to receive private subscriptions as well. Mr. Jack answered in the affirmative, saying that it would be necessary to raise another thousand dollars for expenses in erecting and various incidentals.

Ald. McGoldrick wished to hear from Mr. McCarthy and the latter spoke of the various monuments he had designed and erected in Canada, and the satisfaction they had given. Of all his work he liked the proposed statue in the city the best and felt sure that complete satisfaction would follow its erection. He promised to give his utmost attention to the work.

The statue will be about twenty-one feet in height, a granite pedestal two feet high, and a bronze statue 9 feet 6 inches.

The delegation then withdrew and some extent. It was pointed out by Ald. Macrae that the Quebec monuments had been paid for by the federal and local governments, and if this were so, it was hardly fair to ask the city to share in a similar landmark here.

The threecentenary had already cost $2,000 and various grants during the past twelve months had eaten up $1,000 of the civic assets. As the regular chairman was away it was finally decided to let the matter rest at present and Ald. Maxwell introduced a motion to that effect. It was carried and the board adjourned.

LET HER DOWN EASY.

Billy—Mr. Josheim complimented me on my intellectuality last night. What do you suppose he meant by that? Phyllis—Oh, it was a polite way of admitting that he hadn't the nerve to call you a beauty.

SOCIALISM AND LABOR.

Two Elements Fight in San Francisco.

John Mitchell and Sam Gompers Charged With Treason to Labor Cause and Acquitted.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 21.—Today's session of the American Federation of Labor was most exciting. During the debate which followed the unexpected intersection of the question of Socialism before the delegates, Samuel Gompers and John Mitchell were charged with being traitors to the cause of labor. These charges and the bitter socialistic debate which followed were caused by the introduction of the following resolution by the delegates: "Whereas, the unprecedented concentration of wealth in the United States and the rapid development of the trusts in almost every branch of industry make it obvious that the capitalist class will soon reach its culmination point and will have to make room for another phase of civilization, and whereas, it is evident that this nation is destined to take the lead in this grand struggle for better conditions and higher culture; therefore be it resolved that we hereby recommend to all organizations affiliated with the American Federation of Labor to have their members study the economic conditions; to have lectures upon the subjects in their lodge rooms, homes, and in meetings for this purpose; and to do everything in their power for the enlightenment and intellectual advancement of the people."

The resolution committee reported to the convention that it recommended the adoption of the measure with the exception of the clause following the first "Whereas." A socialist delegate asked why the particular section should be expurgated. This opened the floodgates of oratory and vituperation, and the battle was not over until an hour and fifteen minutes after the regular time for adjournment. By an overwhelming vote the delegates then passed the resolution as recommended by the committee and the delegates with confidence in John Mitchell and Samuel Gompers.

During the debate, feeling ran so high that John Mitchell rose in the convention and said that unless Delegate Victor Berger, of Milwaukee, was able to prove his statement that he (Mitchell) had been a traitor to the working man, he must stand before the eyes of all present as a convicted liar. Then a motion was made to suspend the rules and allow President Gompers and John Mitchell an opportunity to defend themselves.

The trouble rose over a printed slip distributed to some delegates which mentioned Mr. Mitchell with dining with President Eliot of Harvard University. The article in question said the place with which meal was eaten was an unfair house and that President Eliot was the man who called the "red" boys "red."

The reply of President Gompers was bitter and impassioned, and the delegates declared that as long as he was connected with the labor movement he would fight against the mixing of politics with unionism.

Mr. Mitchell made a quiet address, but was accorded close attention. He was loudly applauded when he said that he defied any man to point to any act of his which might be interpreted as against the interests of the workingman.

The convention voted unanimously to endorse the demand of the Typographical Union for a vote on the resolution pledged itself to an assessment on each member if such a course should become necessary. The Typographical Union has set the date for the vote on the eight hour day will be demanded by their organization.

Mr. Mitchell has asked for OTTAWA NEWS.

OTTAWA, Nov. 21.—Parliament is called to meet on Wednesday, January 14th.

This decision was reached at today's meeting of the cabinet. It will be welcome news to members-elect. For years commoners have been protesting against summer sessions, due to the fact that parliament has not been called until late in February or early in March. The existing feeling took the shape last session of such a vigorous kick that the prime minister promised if he still held office to mend his ways, and he has now redeemed his pledge.

The first day will be devoted to swearing in of new members and the election of a speaker. The formal opening will take place on Thursday, January 15th, when the new governor general will explain the reasons for calling parliament together. Being the first appearance of Earl Grey in his gubernatorial capacity, the opening proceedings will doubtless be characterized by more than the usual brilliancy.

His excellency will give his first state dinner on January evening, and will hold his first drawing room on Saturday evening, January 14th.

The session, it is well understood, will be a short one. The government has not an extensive bill of fare, and it is the general impression that parliament will have concluded its labors by the first week in May.

Rules regarding private bills legislation, which have been systematically violated for some years, will be rigidly enforced during the coming session, so that promoters may just as well make a note of the fact.

He looked surprised at this suggestion. "I never am anywhere but here on the twenty-third of May," he declared. "Miss Tuttle needed some advice."

"Ah, probably." "You would have been a good one." "And a welcome one, eh?" "I hardly thought he would have been a welcome one, but I did not admit the fact. Nevertheless he seized the advantage he evidently thought he had gained and added, 'Miss Tuttle likes me even less than Veroni did. I do not think she would have desired, my presence in her company. But of one thing I wish her to be assured, her and the world in general. Any money she may need at this—at this unhappy crisis in her life, she will find it amply supplied. She has no claims on me, but that makes little difference where the family honor is concerned. Her mother's husband was my brother—the girl shall have all she needs. I will write her so.' "It was moving toward his carriage.

"Ere moving?" he interrogatively demanded. "I assented with all the surprise with all the wonder even—which his subtle egotism seemed to invite. "It is the best that I could raise in the time I allotted him. When really finger the money, we shall see what we shall see."

His foot was on the carriage-step. He looked up at the west. The sun was almost down, but not quite. "Have you any special business with me?" he asked, lingering with what he thought a surprising display of conscientiousness till the last ray of direct sunlight had disappeared.

He glanced up at the coachman sitting in his box as rigid as stone. "You may speak," said he. "Caesar neither hears nor sees anything but his horses when he drives. He is completely at home on the box and as quiet and composed in his service as if he had driven this man for years."

"He understands his duty," finished the master, but with no outward appearance of pride. "What have you to say to me?" "I hesitated no longer."

"Miss Tuttle is supposed to have secretly entered the Moore house on the night you summoned us. She even says she did. I know that you have sworn to having seen no one else at that house, but notwithstanding this haven't you some means at your disposal for proving to the police that she had not been there?"

"Public opinion is so cruel. She will be ruined if she is proved guilty. I admitted attending the dinner, but denied every inference drawn therefrom, and declared that as long as he was connected with the labor movement he would fight against the mixing of politics with unionism."

NO KNOWN MOTIVE

For the Suicide of Ruby Ferguson.

erguson.

Inquest Was Held Last Evening In Carleton City Hall.

The inquest into the death of the late Ruby Ferguson of Carleton was resumed last evening in the City Hall at Carleton before Coroner Kenney. Dr. Day was first sworn. He said he was called on Nov. 16th about 9 a. m. to attend Ruby Ferguson. When he reached the house she was unconscious. Her mouth, lips and tongue were burned and a strong odor of carbolic acid was coming from her mouth. The mouth was white. The acid had been taken from 1 1/2 to 2 hours previously. He had no idea that she could save her life. She did not regain consciousness while he was with her. He was not present when she died. Deceased had the appearance of a strong, vigorous girl. On first seeing her she was unable to swallow. He inserted a tube in her stomach and washed it out and introduced some peptic salts in the stomach. On later visits he gave regular treatment for carbolic acid poisoning. He was shown a bottle at the house with carbolic acid in it.

Mrs. John Connor, being sworn, said she was a half sister to the deceased. Ruby Ferguson was 18 years of age. She had lived with her for six years. Ruby was a strong and healthy girl. She had been more quiet than usual of late. She had bought a bottle of carbolic acid for a cut in her arm. The bottle produced was the same used. Last Wednesday morning she called to Ruby, asking her if she was up. Ruby answered something. Her boy came in and said Ruby had taken carbolic acid. Then she heard Ruby cough, and said, "That's a queer cough, Ruby." They both went down to the kitchen. She asked Ruby where the carbolic acid was. Ruby said, "I don't know; you had it last night." They went up stairs and she had a hard time to keep Ruby from jumping out of the window. While her husband was gone for the doctor she gave her sister some mustard and water. Ruby did not talk any. Ruby had never said anything of taking her life previously. She had always been on friendly terms with the family. Mrs. Connor sometimes had to correct her, however.

John Connor was the next witness. His evidence was much the same as that of his wife. He knew of no reason why Ruby should commit suicide. Once about two months ago she had gotten up early in the morning and gone to the schooner Hattie. When they found her she was working in the boat, and intended going to her home in Nova Scotia. His wife brought her back. She expressed no further desire to go home. She had never shown signs of worry or anxiety. She was always quiet and liked to be in a room by herself.

Ethel Capar was next called. She said she was a kitchen girl in a restaurant. She had known Ruby Ferguson quite intimately. They went around together. Ruby always seemed cheerful. She had never seen her depressed or melancholy, and she was not a girl of quick passions. Mrs. Connor was again called and asked a few questions, after which Coroner Kenney briefly reviewed the case as explained that the object of the inquest was to find what motive Ruby Ferguson could have had, being a strong, healthy girl, for taking carbolic acid.

The jury shortly brought in a verdict to the effect that Ruby Ferguson came to her death by carbolic acid administered by her own hand. They could find no reason whatever as to why she had committed the deed. They also found that all bodily conditions were normal.

PAULINE ARRESTED.

Hypnotist Now Performing in Fredericton Got Some Free Advertising.

FREDERICTON, Nov. 21.—The city was treated to a sensation today when "Pauline," the hypnotist and mind-reader, left his dinner table at the Barker house, he was met in the hall by Constable Roberts, who presented him with a capias issued by J. H. Barry, K. C., counsel for Mr. Hine, former manager of "Pauline." The capias was for the large sum of $300. The writ took the genial "Pauline" somewhat by surprise, but he accepted the position gracefully and accompanied Mr. Roberts to the sheriff's office. H. F. McLeod was telephoned to and that gentleman had not the least trouble in arranging bail for his client. Mr. Pauline was at once liberated, and the action probably resulted as a good advertising medium, as the house was packed to the doors tonight. The result of the whole proceeding is being watched with much interest by the people. "Pauline" has stirred the people up to quite a state of excitement, and they are standing by ready to condemn those who are wrong.

MAKING PORTLAND A NATIONAL PORT.

U. S. Government Has Spent Over $1,000,000 in Improving It.

PORTLAND, Me., Nov. 20.—How the harbor here has been improved and built up at a large cost by the United States government, is the substance of a report just prepared by Mayor S. W. Rossier of the United States engineering corps. The first work of improvement undertaken by the government was the construction of a breakwater. This was begun in 1858 and completed in 1874. The work of deepening the harbor was begun in 1868 and in 1869 congress adopted a project for dredging thirty feet at mean low tide over the greater part of the harbor at an estimated cost of $700,000, and including in the project the further improvement of Back Cove at a combined estimate of $46,200. This scheme was completed on June 30 last. There are no silt streams emptying into Portland harbor and the improved depths will be practically permanent. Two principal advantages have followed this large improvement. A large and well-sheltered deep water anchorage has been created under the shelter of the breakwater and the transatlantic vessels can arrive and depart from their docks at the lowest stages of tide. Up to June 30 last the total amount spent by the government on Portland harbor improvements was $1,869,947. The commerce of Portland for the last eight years is given as follows:

AN AGED WOMAN KILLED.

Crushed to Death Under a Street Car in Maine.

BRUNSWICK, Me., Nov. 21.—Mrs. Gertrude Caron, 70 years of age, a widow, and mother of ten children, was found to death by the wheels of a trolley car this evening. The coroner is approaching the body of the woman. Mrs. Caron had been calling on a friend near Hardings station, four miles from this town. Hearing a car approaching, she hurried out of the house and ran towards the street. The car, in charge of Motorman Fred Sells, was an unusual heavy one, used for carrying ice, and just as the forward part of the vehicle passed Mrs. Caron, her feet slipped on the icy pavement and more than half her body was carried under the car directly between the first and second set of trucks. Before still the rear car passed over the prostrate body and cut it in two.

POLICE PULL LONGBOWMEN.

Thursday night at the Queen's Rink the police, longhorns and Carleton battle for supremacy in a tug-of-war contest. Rivalry runs high between these teams, and as each is relying on past victories, a great night's sport is in store for the St. John public. In addition to the above, the Boys' Brigade companies have kindly consented to give an exhibition of their drills. People of military inclinations should not miss this. A basket ball match between Y. M. C. A. teams and a game of indoor baseball between teams from the Y. M. C. A. and Mohawks will keep the crowd on its feet. As indoor baseball is an innovation here, none should miss this chance of seeing it. The Mohawks are holding these events in order to provide good hockey this coming winter, and depend on the results to help them bond the game.

I. C. R. CHANGES.

More Wires Being Pulled For Promotions.

Strike in Shives' Mill—Stole a Fur Overcoat—I. C. R. Inspector.

CAMPBELLTON, Nov. 21.—It is rumored that some changes are to be made in the I. C. R. shops here, chiefly in the mechanical department. The official head of one of the chiefs is to be severed. As usual, speculation is rife as to his successor, and already several applications have found their way to the officials at Moncton. It is altogether likely that an engine driver will get the plum, in spite of the claims and qualifications of one of the mechanical staff for the position. It is fast becoming a fixed principle of liberalization to ignore the just claims of those who hold aloof from political wire-pulling and intrigues. The policemen have been securing the country for a nimble-fingered gentleman who entered the I. C. R. shop last week and helped himself to a fine fur overcoat. So far their efforts have been unsuccessful.

The men in one of the Shives Lumber Co.'s mills went out on strike this morning. A reduction in wages for sawyers and burchers entirely without Hon. C. H. Lablouis and H. F. McLachy, M. P., in company with Mr. Cope, in the afternoon at the mill on a tour of inspection today. Everything was found in first-class shape. Work has been commenced on the third action, the first twenty miles having been completed.

MRS. SAMUEL GROSS DEAD.

I. C. R. Locomotive No. 239 May Have the Number Changed.

MONCTON, Nov. 21.—Mrs. Jane Elizabeth Gross, relict of the late Samuel Gross, died here this afternoon at the home of her daughter, Mrs. William Brown, aged 88. Deceased was a native of Albert county, but had lived in Moncton for thirty years. She retained her mental faculties in a remarkable degree till the last, though she had been bedfast for over a year. Her only son, Frank Gross of the I. C. R., and three daughters, Mrs. Brown and Mrs. William Steadman of Newburg, N. J. She was a member of the First Baptist church and was highly esteemed in the community. No. 239, last in collision at Oxford Junction, has been sent to the I. C. R. shop for repairs. It is possible that on account of prejudice because of many fatal accidents against her, she will appear with a new number.

FOR FIRE PROTECTION.

Street Railway Will Put a Big Pump in the Power House.

The street railway power house is to be equipped in the near future with a powerful pump to be used for fire purposes. The pump will be installed in the power house, making the power house available as a working point from which to fight any fires in the immediate neighborhood.

An order has just been given to a big Montreal concern for a Knowles Shippoff, Petrunkevitch, Prince Loeff, Count Holder and Rodzianski, the most prominent participants in the meeting.

MARRIAGE AND FUNERAL.

St. Rose's Church Yesterday Morning Had One Within Half an Hour of the Other.

Within half an hour after wedding bells rang in St. Rose's church yesterday morning the same bell tolled for a funeral, and scarcely had the wedding party left the church ere the hearse drew up at the door. The marriage was that of Frank White and Mrs. Babineau of Randolph. The ceremony was performed at half-past seven o'clock by Rev. Charles Collins in the presence of a large number of friends of the parties. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. White drove to Randolph, where they will live for the present with Mr. and Mrs. John Robitaille.

THE LIGHT THAT FAILED.

Fairville Has Been in Total Darkness For Two Nights.

The people of Fairville, and especially the merchants, are up in arms against the street railway electric service provided by the Carleton Electric Co. On Saturday evening, which is by far the best evening in the week for doing business, even more so than in the city proper, the merchants were just getting started on a good night's trade when all the lights went out. Scores of men and women were waiting to make their purchases, and were impatiently hoping for the lights to come on. But nothing came. Then lamps were provided. Now there was darkness and profanity. On the streets of Fairville there are no electric lights. Sometimes a man lights his pipe and then those in the immediate vicinity can see where to walk, but as a rule pedestrians rely on the light from the shop windows. There was not any on Saturday night. Finally, about eleven o'clock, when most of the people had felt their way to bed, the light came on again and stayed.

MURDERED BY NEGROES.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Nov. 21.—William Moore, a laboring man, was killed last night by three negroes, who attacked him in a saloon. The three negroes, James Garfield, John Taylor and Edward Taylor, came into the saloon, and with the words "We will clean out all you white dogs," began firing. Moore fell dead without a word. Edward Taylor and Garfield were caught and lodged in jail. At midnight a crowd gathered on the outskirts of the city with the intention of attacking the jail to secure the negroes. A riot alarm called all the policemen from their beats and they were stationed around the jail.

SETTLED OUT OF COURT.

The action for damages which was started by Mrs. Weyman and Mrs. MacDonald against the St. John Railway Co., was to have come up in circuit court today. But it has been settled. This action was for injuries sustained by the ladies by being thrown out of a car at the foot of King street during the summer.

CAUGHT BY A RUSE.

Sing Sing Prisoner Has Been Captured.

OSSINING, N. Y., Nov. 21.—Chas. W. Johnson, the prisoner who was missing in Sing Sing prison Saturday evening, was caught late tonight by a ruse. It was not believed in the prison he had got outside the walls, but he had at 10:30 tonight the big whistle in the prison sounded "O. K." This meant that the search had been abandoned and that the guards who were watching the roads might come in or go to their homes. The cordon of guards and keepers had been instructed to remain on the alert until a single blast was sounded on the whistle. The blast came within 15 minutes after "O. K." sounded. Johnson had climbed the iron fence which is the western boundary of the prison, dropped into the river, had swam outward beyond the north wall and then up the river to the dock just outside the north wall and had concealed himself under the dock. His sufferings since Saturday night must have been fearful, but he remained concealed until ten minutes after "O. K." whistle was sounded. Then he slipped up the dock, and was seen to drag himself onto the dock. He lay there exhausted and when he started to struggle to his feet two guards seized him.

THOUGHT SHE WAS DESERTED.

An Anxious Mother Was at the Depot Last Evening.

What looked much like a case of cold-hearted desertion occurred in the city yesterday. Daniel Simpson, his wife and two small children arrived on the Montrose in the morning from the old country, on their way to the land of golden promise in the west. Mr. Simpson brought his family over to the Union depot in the afternoon and returned to Sand Point to look after his luggage. Hour after hour the wife and two small children patiently awaited the return of the bread-winner, who in this case had all the winnings of his person. The Pacific train left, the evening drew on, and supperless and anxious, the three waited in the depot. At last the mother could stand it no longer, but approached the ticket booth and told her tale to Mr. Hinington. The evident refinement of the woman and her penniless condition made the supposed case of desertion seem all the harder. Mr. McGrath, who has charge of the restaurant, gave the mother and child a good meal, the first they had seen since they left the ship, and had them taken to the Halifax house. At a late hour the poor wife had given up all hope of seeing her husband, but the train from Boston arrived about 10 o'clock, bringing an anxious and inquiring father. His relief was very plain when told of the whereabouts of his family.

U. S. OFFICIALS.

Immigration Staff Settled Down to Work.

The U. S. immigration officials are with us again. There are some new faces, but a number are familiar, having been here during last winter. The staff who will have charge of the immigration work here the coming winter is headed by Col. John Thomas, chief commissioner, Major Conking, Chas. E. Gray, F. A. Olin, Wm. Fischer, inspectors; Dr. W. C. Billings and Mrs. Lucinda A. Chisnell, matron. They have been in Quebec all summer. They will have their offices this winter in the building on the corner of Union and Main streets, west side. Three rooms have been nicely fitted up, and they will be in every way adequate and comfortable. Their offices last year were in the Magee building, on the corner of Water and Exchange streets. The inspections, as before, will be made in No. 4 shed. Of the staff of last year Fred A. Funnberg has been transferred to Boston, James J. Woods, Jr., has been sent to Winnipeg, Martin J. Gorman is in Montreal and George Adams is the staff stenographer and typewriter, who has gone to Baltimore. Col. Wallace H. Parker, one of the inspectors who was here last year, met with a serious accident in Quebec the other day. He tripped on Peter street and sustained a compound fracture of a right arm, which has necessitated a serious operation. He is now in the Jeffrey Hall hospital, and it will probably be two or three months before he will be able to join his comrades here.

LECTURE ON THE HOLY LAND.

The lecture last evening by Rev. A. B. Higgins in the Carmarthen street Methodist church was attended by a large audience and seldom has any lecture in this city been listened to with greater delight. Mr. Higgins held the undivided attention of his audience for two hours, and sincere regret was expressed that the lecture was not even more extended. The lecturer took even more extended. The lecturer took even more extended. The lecturer took even more extended.

THE RUSSIAN PEOPLE

Are Asking for Representation in the Government.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 21.—In order to secure the proper development of the life of the state and the people, it is imperatively necessary that there be regular participation of national representatives, sitting as an especially elected body, to make laws, regulate the revenue and expenditure and control the legality of the actions of the administration.

The advice is the final form of the declaration of the Zemstvo representatives in favor of the election of a body, not merely to participate in legislation as at first reported, but to be entrusted with the framing of the laws of the empire.

The meeting also adopted a declaration in favor of granting general amnesty to political offenders imprisoned or exiled by administrative order.

This completed programme, declaring the necessity of the participation by the people in the government, was signed by 23 Zemstvo provincial Zemstvo committees out of 32 who attended the meeting. Two other provincial Zemstvo committees presidents from Olonets and Perm were unable to be present because of the remoteness of the provinces, Olonets having no railway communication with St. Petersburg and Perm being on the southern coast of the Ural mountains. The two who did not sign the memorial were not present when signatures were called for by Zemstvo organizations, are confirmed by the government. The signatures also included five marshals of nobility, the elections to which offices are also confirmed by the government.

The memorial will be presented within a couple of days to the minister of the Interior, Prince Sviatopolk-Mirsky, by a delegation composed of the Zemstvo, Petrunkevitch, Prince Loeff, Count Holder and Rodzianski, the most prominent participants in the meeting.

The Zemstvo meeting will now proceed with the discussion of the remainder of the programme, which, though it directly concerns Zemstvo work, is of minor importance.

GRAND JURORS WILL BE FINED.

Judge Hanington Strongly Censures the Absentees.

Opening of Circuit Court This Morning—No Criminal Business—Suit Against Street Railway

At the opening of the November circuit court this morning the presiding judge, Mr. Justice Hanington, in his address to the grand jury, dwelt upon the noticeable absence of crime in this community at the present moment.

"But," continued his honor, "this is no excuse for the absence of so many grand jurors this morning. I am heartily thankful for the presence of the grand jurors who are here, but I should like to have seen a large number. I do not think it is customary to find so few grand jurors in the St. John circuit as there are present this morning.

It was the glory, the pride and the safety of our country, said his honor, that the administration of justice is free and open and is carried on in due order and with quick results. He did not wish to call up by way of comparison the notable failure of justice in the great republic to the south, but nevertheless he expressed his regret that this failure of justice in the United States delayed.

His honor excused the grand jurors from further attendance, to be notified if needed, wishing them all a happy and prosperous New Year.

The grand jurors who were present were: James Ready, foreman; Henry Maher, William Young, J. Fred Sullivan, Edward J. Lanning, Peter Campbell, James Anderson, John McMullin, John McIntyre, Robt. McConnell, sr., Edwin J. Everett, Joseph St. Hiram, J. L. Sutherland, John McSherry.
