$800.00 IN SPLENDID PRIZES TO BE AWARDED IN CONTEST

Ladies of Carleton-Victoria Only Are Eligible to Share in Prize Distribution—Contest is a Straight-forward Business Proposition With Conditions Fair to All—Sure Reward for Every Contestant

The Observer takes pleasure in announcing today the opening of its great voting contest, in which prizes of the aggregate value of $800.00 will be distributed among the ladies who take part. The contest will be open only to ladies residing in Carleton and Victoria counties, and married or unmarried ladies more than 18 years of age may participate.

The first grand prize in the contest will be a beautiful cabinet grand "Lonsdale" piano, manufactured and guaranteed in every respect by The Lonsdale Piano Co., of Toronto. The piano will, indeed, be a magnificent reward, and will be given away absolutely free of charge to the lady obtaining the highest number of votes during the contest. The "Lonsdale" is one of the finest instruments manufactured in Canada, and in Toronto and the western portion of the country, where it has had a remarkable sale, it is recognized as a piano of the very highest class, and among people of cultured musical tastes it has achieved a most enviable reputation for its superior tonal qualities. The lady who wins the "Lonsdale" will have just cause to feel proud of her success.

The second grand prize, which will be awarded to the lady obtaining the second highest number of votes in the contest, will consist of a handsome solid oak cabinet, containing 116 pieces of silver plated tableware, manufactured and guaranteed by Canadian William A. Rogers, Limited, of Toronto. Every piece of this silverware is stamped with the trademark and guarantee of quality of the Rogers firm, and is guaranteed to be the highest class of such ware manufactured. The retail value of this prize is $175.00, and the lady who comes into possession of it will win a prize of the greatest beauty and usefulness, which she will keep and cherish for many years to follow after the contest is ended.

The third prize also bears the trademark and guarantee of quality of Canadian William A. Rogers, Limited. This prize, which consists of a six piece silver plated tea service, will be awarded to the lady who obtains the third highest number of votes during the contest. The exceedingly beautiful pattern of the articles constituting the tea service, and their superior merit, will commend them to every lady with a taste for the beautiful. The retail price of this service is $125.00.

Besides the prizes described above other prizes to the value of $100. will be awarded in the company. Further announcement in regard to them will be made shortly.

All of these prizes, as stated above, will be won by ladies who obtain votes in the Observer Contest, which begins today.

HOW TO GET VOTES

To secure votes is a simple, easy, pleasant and intensely interesting employment. Every lady has hundreds of friends who will be glad to assist her by giving her their votes, if she will only ask for them. Everybody, in fact, is a possible source of votes. Any one who is now, or who may become a subscriber to The Carleton Observer or MacLean's or Farmers Magazine, may vote for a lady by paying his or her subscription, and for each subscription payment votes will be credited according to the vote schedules published in the display advertisement elsewhere in this issue.

While securing votes is easy, interesting and pleasant work, it should be realized that they are not obtained simply by wishing. Things that are not worth asking for are not worth having, and no lady who is too timid to ask for votes in The Observer voting contest can hope to accumulate many of the votes which will be essential to success.

In the Observer contest, as in all the serious undertakings of life, the factors that spell success are earnestness, energy, enthusiasm, determination and persistence. In winning the Lonsdale piano and the other prizes which will be awarded in The Observer contest, luck will count for little, but pluck will play an important part.

Within Carleton and Victoria counties today live the ladies who will soon become the owners of the splendid prizes which The Observer will give away. Perhaps, unknown, unrecognized by themselves, they possess just the combination of qualities which will enable them to achieve success in this contest, and to become the proud owner of the prizes. By bringing into action the forces which they possess, by figuratively reaching out their hands, they may a few weeks hence realize long cherished, but heretofore hopeless desires. Who can tell? The only way to determine the question is to enter the contest at once, and start on the road to success by securing votes.

No expenditure of any kind is needed to enter the contest. It is not even necessary for contestants to be subscribers to The Observer or to the magazines. All supplies required for use in the contest are provided free. No restrictions are imposed upon contestants in regard to subscriptions, which may be obtained from anyone, anywhere, for any length of time. Any lady living in Carleton and Victoria counties

UNION IS REAL IN HARTLAND

Hon. F. B. Carvell Given Fine Reception at Monday's Meeting

On Monday the election campaign was opened at Hartland in behalf of Hon. F. B. Carvell, Minister of Public Works. The hall was filled to overflowing and while the enthusiasm was all that could have been desired, it was of a subdued order that appears fitting to the solemn question of the hour. The boys at the front need more solid backing than cheers.

Ex-Warden E. C. Morjan occupied the chair and in a few forceful remarks expressed pleasure at being called upon to preside over the first union meeting ever held in Hartland.

George Ross of the staff of J. M. Robinson & Son, St. John, was the first speaker and dealt very clearly and convincingly with the Victory Loan campaign, and pointed out the many advantages of its form of investment, which, while helping the nation in its war struggle, pays the handsome return of 5 1/2 per cent interest.

M. L. Hayward spoke of the union sentiment in Brighton, addressing himself particularly to the Conservatives present. As chairman of the local Conservative party he assured the Minister of Public Works of the undivided support of the Conservative voters in the parish.

Hon. Mr. Carvell was received with cheers from the big audience composed of the best elements of both parties. At the outset of his remarks the speaker referred to the seriousness of the present crisis, and expressed the opinion that if the people of the constituency realized the situation there would be no election in Carleton-Victoria.

Addressing the Liberals present the Minister said that he had always been a radical, that his economic and political views were still unchanged, but as far as events after the war were concerned he would not attempt to predict. "We are joined together for the period of the war," said the speaker, "after the war the future can take care of itself."

Continuing Mr. Carvell made a stirring appeal for the Victory Loan from a patriotic standpoint. Canada, it was pointed out, was doing business on a gold basis

GUARANTEED REWARD FOR EVERY

CONTESTANT

Besides the Lonsdale Piano and other splendid prizes which will be awarded in the contest, each contestant who fails to win a prize will be paid ten per cent cash commission on all money collected by her. From beginning to end the contest is a straight-forward, fair business proposition, in which every worker is assured fair compensation for her efforts. The contest is not a something-for-nothing proposition in any way. Every worker is sure of a reward. Those who do not work get nothing.

Conditions of the contest favor those who start early. Nothing is gained by procrastination, which most truly is said to be the thief of time—and of opportunity. Today, now, this minute, is the best time to enter this contest. If you, lady, would like to win the Lonsdale piano, the cabinet of silverware, the silver tea service, or one or more of the special prizes, call on, write or telephone the Campaign Director, and receipt books, and full instructions will be given you at once.

UNITED FARMERS IN SESSION

Conservative Member Resents Criticism of Agricultural Department

The executive committee from the United Agricultural Societies of New Brunswick met in St. John last week with president C. M. Shaw in the chair. The meeting was very lively and considerable cross firing took place between different members.

A warm discussion took place over a section in the secretary's minutes which M. A. McLeod, of Sussex, and others claimed was introduced in an attempt to bring politics into the association.

The section complained of related to an interview which the late Secretary Wilson had with the minister of agriculture, Mr. Wilson stated that he had asked the minister to retain H. B. Durost on the staff of the department.

The request was refused, and as an alternative proposition the minister was asked if a member would be provided to do the work for the association formerly done by Mr. Durost. He claimed this was also refused on the ground that the fertilizer interests were not to be given a hold on the department of agriculture. Mr. Wilson said that Messrs. Reek and McLeod were present when this interview took place. Mr. McLeod deprecated any attempt to bring politics into the affairs of the association and said that Mr. Reek was an able official who had always made it a point to do his duty without bringing party politics into his work.

J. P. McKenna, editor of the Maritime Farmer, who was present said, "I am a Conservative and have nothing in common with the present government, but in Mr. Reek we have a man worthy of every consideration. He is a man who will do something and I will stand behind him."

Mr. McKenna stated that he would do the work for $500, that Mr. Durost was charging $3,000 for, and that he could supply the farmers with fertilizer at a much lower figure than they were now paying Mr. Durost.

Studholm and Sussex agricultural society was, he said, opposed to having Mr. Durost act in handling fertilizer for them and the matter was not a political but business transaction.

Mr. Durost said that he was doing all the business that he wanted to and did not care whether he handled the association's business or not.

Mr. Durost accused some of the members of introducing politics and Isaac Carpenter, ex-M. P. P., of Wickham told him that he (Durost) himself had brought politics into the meeting. Then Mr. Durost made a rather warm attack on A. R. Wetmore of Clifton, claiming that he had no right to be a delegate.

Mr. McKenna characterized the attack as "disgraceful." It was stated that several agricultural societies had not received notices to attend the meeting. Mr. McKenna claimed that if any members had a right to be present and had not received notice the executive had no right to do business and its acts would be illegal. Mr. McKenna also claimed that there had never been a proper audit made of the affairs of the association, and he said that he had come to the meeting to ventilate matters. He would not say that the work had been improperly done but a chartered accountants should have been secured to do it.

President Shaw appealed to the executive to get to get to work, and the financial report was received. It showed the amount received during the year to be $1,161.35 and expenditures $404.19 leaving a balance on hand of $757.16.

It was agreed to hold the annual meetings in the future at Fredericton instead of St. John, as it was claimed that the former was the more central place and a by law was passed allowing the directors $3 per day and expenses for attending meetings.

The directors were elected for the ensuing years as follows: Stanley Wilson, C. M. Shaw, Wm. H. Moore, J. P. McKenna, Roy McCain, Boyd K. Merritt, and R. J. Haggard.

The directors then withdrew and elected officers as follows: President, W. H. Moore, Scotch Lake; vice-president, C. M. Shaw, Hartland; secretary-treasurer, J. P. McKenna, Sussex; purchasing committee, C. M. Shaw, W. H. Moore and Roy McCain.

Tweedie-Lunn

A very pretty home wedding was celebrated at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lunn, Summerfield on Nov. 7 when their daughter, Lena A., was united in marriage to Guy E. Tweedie of Middle Greenfield. The bride looked very pretty in a becoming costume of white. The ceremony was performed by Rev. F. A. Wightman beneath an arch of flowers, and in the presence of a very large number of guests.

After the marriage all sat down to an elaborate wedding supper. The bride and groom were both very popular and their gifts were numerous and costly. All wish them a happy future.

TAKES OFF DANDRUFF, HAIR STOPS FALLING

Save your Hair! Get a small bottle of Danderine right now—Also stops itching scalp.

Thin, brittle, colorless and scraggy hair is mute evidence of a neglected scalp; of dandruff—that awful scourge. There is nothing so destructive to the hair as dandruff. It robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life; eventually producing a feverishness and itching of the scalp, which if not remedied causes the hair roots to shrink, loosen and die—then the hair falls out fast. A little Danderine tonight—now—any time—will surely save your hair.

Get a small bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store. You surely can have beautiful hair and lots of it if you will just try a little Danderine. Save your hair! Try it!

New Idea in Home Planning

"Our architects are gradually learning that after all it is said and done the thing worth while is to make a home that is attractive, in which people will want to live and to which they will return with delight." So says Louis C. Tiffany, founder of the Tiffany Studios, in the December issue of Harper's Bazar.

Mr. Tiffany, himself, has a very beautiful estate at Cold Spring Harbor, New York, and from his description of it in this number of Harper's Bazar, you can gain quite a little valuable information on how to beautify and make attractive your home.

GIRLS! WHITEN YOUR SKIN WITH LEMON JUICE

Make a beauty lotion for a few cents to remove tan, freckles, sallowness.

Your grocer has the lemons and any drug store or toilet counter will supply you with three ounces of orchard white for a few cents. Squeeze the juice of two fresh lemons into a bottle, then put in the orchard white and shake well. This makes a quarter pint of the very best lemon skin whitener and complexion beautifier known. Massage this fresh, creamy lotion daily into the face, neck, arms and hands and just see how freckles, tan, sallowness, redness and roughness disappear and how smooth, soft and clear the skin becomes. Yes! It is harmless, and the beautiful results will surprise you.

The Egg-Profiteers.

Millions of dozens of eggs have been stored by profiteers who now find they cannot export them, and they have had the nerve to ask the food-control department to help them advertise these eggs and urge the people to eat eggs instead of bacon. That is to say, being unable to reap the enormous profits they anticipated by exporting eggs, they now want to wring those profits out of the people of Canada, and they ask the government to help them do it. They know perfectly well they have only to reduce the price to a reasonable figure and throw the eggs on the market and they will be snapped up in a twinkling by the consumers; but to do that would be to relinquish some of the profits.

Of course the food control department will give them no comfort. Indeed it would be serving them right if it fixed a reasonable maximum price and invited them to sell. It is time an example was made of some of the gentry who are still trying to fatten themselves on the war.

While the food controller is urging the people to save meat and wheat, an excellent substitute is being held by profiteers at a prohibitive price. Now that the government knows about it we have right to expect prompt action. Attention should also be directed to the stocks of butter and potatoes in dealers and producers' hands.—Times

Government Ownership of Railways Inevitable

A decade ago the president of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railway, E. P. Ripley, said: "I am thoroughly convinced that I shall live to see the railroads of the country in the control of the government." He was then sixty-two. "The signs may not be plain to you but they are to me."

This remark was made to "Boersianer," who, in his article on the subject of the future of the railroads, which appears in Hearst's Magazine for December, draws significant conclusions based on a searching analysis of the whole range of events, affecting the financial status of the United States since the beginning of the war in Europe.

10 CENT "CASCARETS" FOR LIVER AND BOWELS

Cure Sick Headache, Constipation, Biliousness, Sour Stomach, Bad Breath—Candy Cathartic.

No odds how bad your liver, stomach or bowels; how much your head aches, how miserable you are from constipation, indigestion, biliousness and sluggish bowels—you always get relief with Cascarets. They immediately cleanse and regulate the stomach, remove the sour, fermenting food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry off the constipated waste matter and poison from the intestines and bowels. ### Honor or Bourassa?

The Canadian casualties in the battle of Passchendaele were about eleven thousand. This means another large draft upon the fast thinning reserves in England.

What would the men in the trenches say, knowing as they do that Germany is raising large additional forces from the Russian to the Flanders front, if they were told there was a possibility of their being deserted by Canada, and no further assistance given them?

This is a question every Laurier Liberal should ask himself or herself, for the Henri Bourassa policy means just that and nothing else. It means withholding assistance and leaving the Canadian divisions to dwindle and die.

Gen. Mewburn plans to send over twelve thousand men in January. If union government loses, these reinforcements will not be sent. The Laurier policy would take Canada out of the war, and any assertion to the contrary is misleading and deceptive. Maritime province Liberals who vote for Laurier candidates will be turning their backs on the men in the trenches. They may deny that they intend to do so, but that will be the effect of their action.

Child Was Nervous, Irritable, Tired Out

She Had No Appetite, and Her Complexion Was Pale and Sallow.

How many parents realize the strain which going to school means to the child who is naturally nervous and of delicate health?

You see them come from the schools daily with pale faces, many wearing glasses, and looking tired and worn. At home they are irritable, and do not sleep well at night, and are upset by a little extra excitement. If they are to grow to healthy manhood and womanhood their systems must have attention now. Such treatment as Dr. Chase's Nerve Food does to school children in this condition. We are constantly receiving letters from grateful parents telling what the Nerve Food has done for their children. This one is a fair sample:

Mrs. Stephen Hartman, Italy Cross, Lunenburg Co., N.S., writes: "My little sister at eleven years of age became nervous, irritable and seemed all tired out. She had no appetite, was lifeless and drowsy and her complexion grew pale and sallow. Finally she had to keep her bed and have somebody with her all the time. She was afraid of everything, would get excited and tremble all the bed would shake. As she seemed to be getting worse under the doctor's treatment, mother decided to try Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. After she had used about four boxes, improvement was noticeable and it was wonderful to see how much lighter and stronger she grew week by week. She used ten boxes altogether and they cured her. She got fat and rosy and went to school every day with an ambition that she never seemed to have before. I do not hesitate to recommend Dr. Chase's Nerve Food to anyone, for it was indeed wonderful what it did for her."

NO ALCOHOL IN GIN PILLS

Many have wondered how the famous old household remedy, Gin Pills, derived its name, since obviously there could be no spirits contained in pill form.

The origin of Gin Pills can be traced to Gin, which has for a great many years been recognized for its medicinal qualities, particularly its beneficial effects on kidney complaints.

But in the first place there are many who have conscientious objections to taking alcohol, even as a medicine. Secondly, the curative agent of Gin operates in spite of the alcohol, not because the alcohol is a help to the cure.

Investigations were made to determine just what it was in Gin that tended to relieve Rheumatism, Lumbago, Sciatica, Backache, Swollen Joints, Constant Headaches and all disorders arising from the kidneys, bladder and urinary system.

This active agent, separated from the alcohol, was then combined with other diuretics and given the name of Gin Pills, for which a demand has grown greater than for any other medicine in Canada. Gin Pills have a wonderful record of success and anyone applying to the manufacturers can obtain copies of many of the testimonials received.

Gin Pills are sold by all dealers everywhere on a strict guarantee of satisfaction or your money back. They are 50c. a box or 6 boxes for $2.50. A free sample can be obtained by writing to the National Drug & Chemical Co. of Canada, Limited, Toronto, or to the U.S. address, Na-Dru-Co. Inc., 202 Main St., Buffalo, N.Y.

AN OPERATION AVERTED

Philadelphia, Pa.—"One year ago I was very sick and I suffered with pains in my side and back until I nearly went crazy. I went to different doctors and they all said I had female trouble and would not get any relief until I would be operated on. I had suffered for four years before this time, but I kept getting worse the more medicine I took. Every month since I was a young girl I had suffered with cramps in my sides at periods and was never regular. I saw your advertisement in the newspaper and the picture of a woman who had been saved from an operation and this picture was impressed on my mind. The doctor had given me only two more days to make up my mind so I sent my husband to the drug store at once for a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and believe me, I soon noticed a change and when I had finished the third bottle I was cured and never felt better. I grant you the privilege to publish my letter and am only too glad to let other women know of my cure."—Mrs. THOS. MCGOWAN, 2432 Hartville Street, Phila., Pa.

field Presbyterian church on Sunday morning, Nov. 18, when a large and sympathetic audience paid their tribute to the departed hero and expressed their sympathy towards the sorrowing family. The service was conducted by Rev. M. H. Menuel.

Besides his parents Private Chapman is survived by four brothers, Charles and Patrick of St. Andrews and James and Douglas at home; also one sister, Mrs. John B. Birnie of Baker Brook.

LISTEN TO THIS! SAYS CORNS LIFT RIGHT OUT NOW

You reckless men and women who are pestered with corns and who have at least once a week invited an awful death from lockjaw or blood poison are now told by a Cincinnati authority to use a drug called Freezone, which the moment a few drops are applied to any corn, the soreness is relieved and soon the entire corn, root and all, lifts out with the fingers.

It is a sticky ether compound which dries the moment it is applied and simply shrivels the corn without inflaming or even irritating the surrounding tissue or skin. It is claimed that a quarter of an ounce of Freezone will cost very little at any of the drug stores, but is sufficient to rid one's feet of every hard or soft corn or callus. You are further warned that cutting at a corn is a suicidal habit.

ONE COMMON OBJECT! ONE SUPREME CAUSE!

To defeat the Germans and preserve liberty and democracy

and would continue to do so, without resorting to fiat money as in the case of the Central powers.

Reply to the criticisms that he had gone back on his trade policy, Mr. Carvell stated that he was still in favor of removing the duties on the necessities of life, but that this was no time to talk tariff as Canada needed every dollar that could be raised from all sources. "Therefore," said Mr. Carvell, "I cannot say where I will stand after the war, but if I have anything to say, I will favor raising a large part of our revenue by income tax."

The real reason for Union government, Mr. Carvell said, was that it simply came to a question of supporting the soldiers at the front by means of conscription when voluntary recruiting failed to meet the case. Sir Wilfrid Laurier had been asked to go into a Union government but had refused, and then the premier had offered a position in the Union government to Mr. Carvell, which was accepted.

Coming to the details of the conscription scheme, the Minister pointed out that the local tribunals were working matters out satisfactorily, and that Canada was the last civilized country to adopt conscription.

"I am not going to say that our 100,000 men will win the war," said Mr. Carvell, "but some 100,000 men will, and it may be ours."

England fifteen months after war began introduced conscription, and the bill was put through the House of Commons of Lloyd George, the greatest radical in the Empire, and the United States immediately adopted it without any referendum or appeal to the people.

"Suppose," said the speaker, "that the Laurier party win. They are pledged to a referendum, and if they can win the election why can't they win the referendum? The result would be that Canada would quit as Russia has quit. Even if the referendum carried, the men couldn't be put on the firing line before 1919, by which time the war would be decided one way or the other."

At the conclusion of his address the Minister was heartily applauded.

Children Must Be Protected.

The children must be safeguarded, for if they do survive the frequent coughs and colds, it is often with the lungs so weakened that they become chronic sufferers from bronchitis or consumption. Being composed of simple ingredients of undoubted value, Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine is admirable suited as a treatment for children. It is pleasant to the taste. So much so that children delight to take it on this account, as well as because of the quick relief it affords them.

A Born Speculator

By EUNICE BLAKE

"Jim," said Mrs. Martin, "the jig's up. We have nothing in the house for dinner, no money to buy anything, and our credit has been exhausted. I have begged you again and again to get a position, and you have not even tried to do so. I'm afraid I'll have to give up trying to live with you."

James Martin looked very ingenuous. Unlike his kind of druggery, he had not found a way of making a living without it. He had been a soldier and conspicuous for bravery, but it is notorious that a man especially built for war is not likely to be fitted for anything else. When Jim had married he had just made $10,000 on a real estate deal which he had put through on paper—that is, without any cash bit before he could strike another such bit.

Of late his profit was all gone. "Well, Betsy," he said, "you married a man unfitted for the ordinary humdrum of life, and you must take your medicine. I'll go out and hunt for something to do, but if I find anything it won't last very long. I'll probably be discharged within a few weeks."

"Not if you attend to business, keep a close mouth and don't try to advise your employer."

"I won't if I don't see him making mistakes, in which case I'll probably throw your advice to the winds."

Jim Martin found a position with a man named Summers, doing a conservative business of small capital. Jim had been with him but a month when he told him how he could make a lot of money by the investment of a very little capital.

"I don't like you to tell me how to run my business," said Summers and, drawing a check for his salary due, discharged him.

Jim was walking home cursing himself for a fool when he encountered a red flag at the door of a warehouse. Having a fellow feeling with red flags, which usually denote forced sales, he went in and learned that a stock of copper was for sale for a man who had gone bankrupt. The bidding was just beginning. A man sidled up to Jim and, slipping a ten dollar bill into his hand, whispered to him to raise the last bid. Jim did as requested, and was relieved by hearing the man who had paid him raise his bid.

But the rise in the bids was very slow. The great European war had just broken out and it occurred to Jim, who was familiar with a soldier's requirements, that copper entered into the composition of ammunition, and if the war lasted long enough the stock of the metal would be used up. He had no idea of buying it with, but somehow he could not resist the temptation to go on bidding. But the excitement of the contest got the better of him, and he suddenly awoke to the fact that $100,000 worth of copper had been knocked down to him. He had reached the price copper was selling at in the open market, and no one had any use for this lot at any higher figure. The buyer was at once called upon for 10 per cent of the price to be paid.

Jim was equal to the occasion. Taking advantage of his position as a speculator, he said: "You wanted this copper, so did I. I don't know why you wanted it, but I have been a soldier, and, knowing the necessity for copper in the manufacture of ammunition and considering the amount of ammunition that will be required by the combatants, I believe copper is going up. Within a few weeks or a few months this stock will be worth a great deal more than it is today. If you'll pay the 10 per cent required to carry it I'll take you for 20 per cent of the profit."

"Wait a minute till I get the last quotation," said the man, "and I'll let you know."

The last quotation was a quarter of a cent higher than the price Jim was to pay. "Make it half the profit," said the capitalist, "and I'll go you." Jim assented. The man paid the margin on the copper, and before the balance was to be paid copper had risen half a cent a pound.

Meanwhile Jim had gathered statistics as to the copper on hand, and the amount likely to be required. Orders for ammunition were beginning to come from abroad, and copper kept going up. Jim convinced his partner that the price must continue to rise, and the latter consented to hold on.

One day after the war had been going on for nearly a year the copper was sold, and Jim pocketed what was for him a small fortune. He and his wife had, on the strength of Jim's copper holdings, been able to borrow enough to keep them, and now they were in the pink.

"My dear," said Jim, "as I told you a year ago, you married a man unfitted for the ordinary humdrum of life. They say you can't make a silk purse out of a sow's ear, but in this case a speculator has been made out of a fool."

"I expect you're right, Jim," was the reply. "You were not born for a drudge. A drudge may always be able to get rich. A genius is pretty sure to get a good many kicks, but if he finds his vocation and an opportunity at the same time, he will surely lift himself far beyond his fellows."

Jim Martin met his old employer, Summers, on the street the other day, and Summers asked him if he knew of a good thing in which to invest some money for a slice.

VAMPIRE OF THE OCEAN.

"Ironing" the Devilfish is a Mode of Flirting With Death.

"Ironing" the devilfish, the largest of all the rays and one of the largest creatures of the sea, means flirting with death. The devilfish is also known as the ocean vampire. Its scientific name is Manta vampyrus, and all these names tell something of its habits. It gets its name devilfish from the fact that projecting from either side of the head is a hornlike appendage which in reality is a detached part of the pectoral fin or wing. The horns, sometimes three feet long and freely movable, are used to bring food to its mouth.

These fins have been known to circle above the bow of a boat, lifting the vessel out of the water and deluging the occupants of the boat with gallons of water. When they stop back to the surface they make a noise that can be heard far off. Exciting? Dangerous? The sport is both. The only thing that saves devilfish hunters at a time like this is preparedness. Every man must be at his station, all must obey the will of the harpooner, and if a bit of luck is thrown in the manta is killed.

The devilfish gets its name of manta, meaning blanket, from the pearl divers of the Caribbean sea, who are of the belief that it devours people after enveloping them in its enormous wings.

The fish has prodigious strength and has been known to tow a hundred ton vessel far out to sea. An authenticated story is told of a manta that towed eight boats, lashed together, for hours until finally the crews were compelled to cut the rope and let the devilfish escape.

Its vitality is wonderful. There are records of specimens escaping after having been harpooned, lanced and shot many times with rifles of heavy caliber. It fights even after the brain and heart have been pierced. Death comes only when the spinal cord back of the brain is severed.

TRAVEL IN THE AIR.

The Safety That Goes With Transportation by Aeroplane.

It is a new idea that the aeroplane is a safe means of transportation in safe hands, yet it is an idea that we must firmly get into the popular mind. The average citizen is still frightened at the prospect of leaving the ground and having no support except the air itself. Yet at the speed which we expect an aeroplane to maintain—seventy or eighty miles an hour—there is no means of transportation that is so safe.

The obstacles that cause accidents with trains and automobiles do not exist for flying craft. A locomotive has to follow a definite track, which may cause a frightful calamity. The aeroplane is not so circumscribed. Its tracks are wherever it wishes to go. There are no obstructions in the air—unless we regard "air pockets" as such—no bridges to cross, no mountains to penetrate, no signals to obey, and no switches to be misplaced.

Or compare this new craft with the rough road of the automobile. The slightest mistake or even intention on the part of the driver, going say, forty or fifty miles an hour, may hurl the machine over a precipice or overturn it on an embankment. But such a lapse on the part of an aviator has no such deplorable results. There are no precipices to fall from and no obstructions to collide with.

The aeroplane is even safer than some forms of water travel. The motorboat, going at a speed of forty miles an hour or even slower, is a more risky mode of transportation than an aeroplane. If such a boat strikes even a small obstruction, such as a floating plank, its side is punctured and it sinks in a few seconds. But there are no such dangers in the air.

Marines.

Marines—soldiers serving on ship-board—date back to the year 1694, when an order in council, dated Oct. 16, authorized 1,200 soldiers to be raised and formed into a regiment. More regiments were later on formed, and in the latter years of the French wars they numbered 32,000. The marines are today a feature of every navy, and in most countries officers of the marines are equal in rank with those in the army and navy.

Slaves of the Gown.

Some women live in a state of perpetual preparation of wardrobe. They never seem to acquire one in any approach to completion, and they are always in the act of either planning or of obtaining some separate portion of one in such a way that it would seem as if they lived to and for no other end or purpose. The materials of which their gowns are made must be of the nature of Penelope's web.

Womanly Retort.

"Women are terribly inconsistent," protested Mr. K. W. "John," replied his wife, "you know the poet says, 'Consistency's a jewel.' And you told me yourself that much jewelry is not good form."

The First Question.

"Opportunity is at your door. Wants you to go with him."

"Has he a car?"

Ventriloquism.

Ventriloquism was first described in 725 B. C. Greeks ascribed it to the operation of demons.

Tired Eyes.
When the eyes are tired and dulled use either an eye lotion bath or one made of water to which a little borax powder has been added. Keep the eyes open in the water. This both strengthens and brightens them. Knitting the brows when reading or working is a habit certain to produce disagreeing lines on the face.

His Cruel Critic.
"I shall now give out the effect of distance," he said to her, and he sang so low as to be scarcely heard. "A little further, please," she said cruelly, and he picked up his voice and went away with it into the chilly night.

Commissioned Officers.
An officer never "enlists." He is commissioned by the president of the United States. Only private soldiers, including corporals and sergeants, can "enlist."
