PT. GEO. M'RAE DIES OF WOUNDS

Another Campbellton Boy Makes Supreme Sacrifice While Fighting in Flanders.

It was with deep sorrow that Campbellton learned on Monday that Pte. George M'rae had died of wounds. The word was received by his mother, Mrs. Mary M'rae, in a despatch from the records office.

The deceased was a general favorite here. He enlisted with the 128th Battalion and was later transferred to another New Brunswick battalion, where he has been "carrying on" for some time. He was 31 years of age. He is survived by his mother, Mrs. Mary M'rae, two brothers, Fred and Allen, both of Campbellton, and four sisters, Annie at home, Mary in Montreal, Mrs. G. R. Fielder, Westmount, and Mrs. Thos. Nevin of New York. He is also survived by a half brother, David R. McRae of town.

Deceased worked for a number of years on the I. N. R. with the late Thos. Mahon. He threw up his job to fight for his country. He was also a valued member of the Campbellton Fire Brigade.

NOMINATION DAY PROCEEDINGS HERE

Two Candidates Duty Notified
And Battle Will Be Hot.

Returning officer for Restigouche and Madawaska, T. Robinson, opened his court in the Town Council Chamber here at noon on Monday for the nomination of candidates in the Federal election to be held on December 17th. Two names were placed in nomination.

The nomination papers of Mr. P. Michael of Edmundston were filed by Mr. A. T. LeBlanc while Mr. R. A. Carr performed a like service for Mr. D. A. Stewart. A poll was demanded and granted. The returning officer then adjourned his court.

Announcement was made that a public meeting would be held at the Opera House at 2.30.

Public Meeting
At the appointed time the large auditorium was filled with electors eager to hear something of the various issues of the contest.

Hon. Wm. Currie called the meeting to order and stated that in a meeting of this kind it was the custom to appoint joint chairmen, and he proposed Mr. V. R. Violette of St. Leonard and Mayor A. A. Andrew of Campbellton as such. This was seconded and carried.

His Worship in a few remarks asked all to give the various speakers a good hearing and British fair play.

Mr. P. Michael

Mr. Michael was the first speaker introduced, and addressed the meeting in part as follows:—

Mr. Chairmen, ladies and gentlemen, electors of Restigouche and Madawaska.

It afforded him much pleasure to address them for a short time, first in English and later in French.

Two years ago at a convention of the Liberals of Restigouche and Madawaska he had been unanimously chosen as the standard bearer of the party at the next election, and in answer to that call he was present today. Over ten years ago he had been elected by acclamation for Victoria and Madawaska. In 1908 he was elected over his opponent by over 1800 majority. In 1911 he was again elected by a majority of 1845 votes. This, Mr. Stewart, was his record, and it was now his (Mr. Stewart's) opportunity to beat it.

He had been a follower of the grand old chief Sir Wilfrid Laurier for over ten years and would continue to be a follower of him—Applause.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier is the only man who can save the country at the present time.

He was just as much a Win the War man as his friend, Stewart. Canada has sent over 420,000 men to the war and we are now enrolling 100,000 more. Is this not enough for present needs. The Laurier party are for win the war, are in the war to the limit. Are we disloyal because we have our own way of winning the war. People differ in tactics used. We favor one way the Conservatives favor another. But people, paid with some of the money Flavelle and others supplied are running about the country shouting that any one supporting the Liberal candidates are disloyal.

Now what is this Union government. So far as he could see it is the old Tory party under a new guise. The same old party who have discarded some of its dead wood. The same old class rule instead of rule by the masses. In other words it was not a win the war party but a win the election party.

He hoped every elector would read Sir Wilfrid Laurier's manifesto. It was a promise of government for the people by the people. The tariff would be revised with a generous preference to Great Britain.

In conclusion he thanked the English electors for the kind hearing extended to him. He intended to stay a week in this part of the constituency and hoped to meet many personally. He asked all to vote for him and thus assist the cause of good government. Applause.

Mr. Michael also spoke in French and his remarks were frequently interrupted by applause.

EXEMPTION BOARD WORK DELAYED

Cannot Deal With Cases Unless Medical Sheet is On Hand.

The Exemption Board have been sitting since November 12th for the consideration of Claims for Exemption. Before the Board can determine intelligently upon any claim for exemption, the Medical Sheet of each applicant must be in evidence and the Board are asking that every person in the matter of applying for exemption should forward their Medical Sheet, or appear in person with it, and make known the grounds of their Claim for Exemption.

It is very important that this matter should be completed very soon and all persons who have registered should get examined by the Medical Board, and when they have been examined should forward their Medical Sheets at once. A delay in forwarding the Medical Sheets to the Board only complicates the whole situation. There is an uncertainty amongst the people and a delay in the carrying out of the provisions of the Act.

There has come before the Board up to date about 330 names and the Board has only been able to decide upon 101 up to this time. This delay is mostly caused by the lack of reports of their medical examinations. A number have been exempted because of their value to the State in their present capacity. The railroads are demanding a certain number of men to keep up the farming conditions of the country and to raise the food necessary, claims certain men, and the Board are doing their best to determine between the different needs.

Classes who to-day are ruling Canada. Since he arrived in Campbellton he had frequently heard it remarked that anyone who opposed this Union was disloyal. Ladies and gentlemen you want to be careful of these loyal individuals, they are the disloyal ones in Canada who would endeavor to steal another election by the loyalty cry.

When he stepped off the train at Campbellton the first man he met was his opponent, Mr. Stewart.

The next was a returned soldier without a job, with a wife and mother to support. It was a shame that this great win the war party did not look after its returned wounded men.

The next man he met followed him about, spying on him and those with whom he consulted. Electors, is this Germany, that a spy must follow an opponent about.

He was just as much a Win the War man as his friend, Stewart. Canada has sent over 420,000 men to the war and we are now enrolling 100,000 more. Is this not enough for present needs. The Laurier party are for win the war, are in the war to the limit. Are we disloyal because we have our own way of winning the war. People differ in tactics used. We favor one way the Conservatives favor another. But people, paid with some of the money Flavelle and others supplied are running about the country shouting that any one supporting the Liberal candidates are disloyal.

Now what is this Union government. So far as he could see it is the old Tory party under a new guise. The same old party who have discarded some of its dead wood. The same old class rule instead of rule by the masses. In other words it was not a win the war party but a win the election party.

In conclusion he thanked the English electors for the kind hearing extended to him. He intended to stay a week in this part of the constituency and hoped to meet many personally. He asked all to vote for him and thus assist the cause of good government. Applause.

WOMANHOOD AT THE OPERA HOUSE

This Fine Picture Well Spoken
Of By Press—Don't Miss It.

The announcement made by The Graphic last week that our townspeople were to be given an opportunity of witnessing in our own town tomorrow night, also on Friday night "Womanhood, the Glory of the Nation" was particularly pleasing to all. No better picture than this has ever been screened, we care not what the admission fee to have been charged may have been. From our exchanges, and these include some of the most reliable newspapers in the country, we find but one opinion expressed in so far as the excellence of this picture is concerned, and that opinion is that it is one of the most interesting and instructive pictures yet put before the people. Last week we devoted considerable space giving the views of the most exacting critics on "Womanhood, the Glory of the Nation," everyone of whom pronounced the picture a masterpiece in itself, far surpassing that of "The Battle Cry of Peace," or such similar pictures as have been so much enjoyed by the people of Canada.

The admission fee for to-night and Friday night will be but 25 cents for adults and 15 cents for children. Owing to the length of the show the picture will only be screened once each evening, starting at eight o'clock. Don't fail to be on hand early, as seats will undoubtedly be at a premium both evenings.

QUARTER MILLION MARK PASSED

Victory Loan Figures Are Mounting—Good Work
All Section.

Hurrah for Restigouche!
Again she is a "bit" better.
When the Victory Loan campaign was being pushed it was thought that if Restigouche county subscribed a quarter of a million dollars toward the Victory Loan that would be all that could be expected. But in the second week of the campaign, to be exact the first nine days, over that amount had been subscribed and the bonds are still going strong.

In some parishes no returns have yet been sent in, but they will be heard from.

An effort is being made to reach the half million mark and if all those who have money in the savings banks would only stand to be convinced that Victory Bonds are just as safe and a much better investment, that amount would surely be reached.

The following amounts from the different parishes have already been reported:—

Parish	Amount
Campbellton	$75,800
Dalhousie	37,800
Durham	27,150
Colborne	49,650

"CASARETS" WORK WHILE YOU SLEEP

For Sick Headache, Sour Stomach, Bile, Liver and Bowels—Take Casarets tonight.

Furred Tongue, Bad Taste, Indigestion, Salty Ede and Miserable Headache come from a torpid liver and clogged bowels, which cause your stomach to become filled with undigested food, which sours and ferments like garbage in a cill barrel. That's the first step to untold misery—indigestion, foul gases, bad breath, yellow skin, mental fears, everything that is horrible and nauseating. A Casaret to-night will give your constipated bowels a thorough cleansing and straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep—a 10-cent box from your druggist will keep you feeling good for months.

YES! MAGICALLY! CORNS LIFT OUT WITH FINGERS

You simply say to the drug store man, "Give me a quarter of an ounce of Trezona." This will cost very little but is sufficient to remove every hard or soft corn from one's feet.

A few drops of this new ether compound applied directly upon a tender, aching corn almost relieve the soreness instantly, and soon the entire corn, root and all, dries up and can be lifted out with the fingers.

This new way to rid one's feet of corns was introduced by a Cincinnati man, who says that, while Trezona is sticky, it dries in a moment, and simply shrivels up the corn without irritating or even irritating the surrounding tissues or skin.

Don't let father die of infection or lockjaw from whitening at his corns, but clip this out and make him try it.

D. A. STEWART CHOICE OF SO CALLED UNION CONVENTION

Meeting Held Here Friday Night Chooses Union Standard Bearer—Not Much Enthusiasm and a Quiet Meeting

A convention to choose a Union candidate was held in the Town Council Chambers here Friday evening and about sixty persons were present in the hall. The parties of Durham and Colborne were largely represented, but other sections outside the Town of Campbellton apparently took little interest in the meeting or the representative electors of these sections were not notified. In this matter of advertising the meeting those in charge made a sorry mess of matters.

At 8 o'clock Mr. D. A. Stewart called the meeting to order and Mr. W. R. McMillan of Durham Centre was chosen chairman and H. B. Anslow Secretary.

Mr. D. A. Stewart said that this meeting of electors had been called for the purpose of choosing a candidate for the constituency of Restigouche and Madawaska in the interests of Union Government. Those interested in calling the meeting were late in issuing the call because they were waiting for a report from Mr. W. S. Montgomery who, two weeks ago went to Ottawa. Unfortunately while Mr. Montgomery was in Ottawa, Mr. Carvell, the New Brunswick leader of the Union Government was in the Maritime provinces and so could not be interviewed. When Mr. Montgomery returned they immediately got together and decided to hold a convention.

Tuesday morning Mr. Carvell was going through on the Limited and a delegation composed of Messrs. D. E. Richards, Alex. McLennan, S. S. Harrison and himself waited upon Mr. Carvell. Mr. Carvell stated that any candidate chosen by a duly called convention would have the support of the Union government. This he put in writing. Now convention had been called and was open for business.

Mr. D. McAllister moved, seconded by O. Smith, that nomination be made by ballot.—Carried.

Mr. Alex. McLennan suggested that the candidates be named in open convention and then balloted for. The suggestion was adopted.

H. M. McLennan moved that Hon. C. H. LaBillette be a candidate. This was seconded by Mr. H. C. Gillis.

Mr. D. Champoux stated that shortly before the meeting Hon. Mr. LaBillette had called him up and stated that he could not offer as his health was such that he could not stand the work of a campaign.

Mr. P. M. Shannon moved that his name be submitted with others and if chosen a committee wait upon him.—Carried.

Mr. O. Smith moved, seconded by Mr. Nathan McDavid that D. A. Stewart be a candidate.—Carried.

W. S. Montgomery moved the nominations close.—Carried.

Messrs. D. McAllister and A. Murdie were named to provide ballots.

Mr. D. A. Stewart said that this convention had taken a peculiar turn, and he would certainly not allow his name to go before the convention until Hon. C. H. LaBillette was brought to the meeting and set clearly before the convention his stand as regards to Union government. If Mr. LaBillette was not man enough to come out in the open and declare himself he (Stewart) would not allow his name to be voted upon. The man who was chosen tonight was as sure of defeat as he was of going home. Let Mr. LaBillette come out and tell where he stands.

Mr. O. Smith said according to his view Mr. LaBillette's name was not before this convention.

Mr. Shannon said that he would like to see a committee wait upon Mr. LaBillette and endeavor to persuade him to allow his name to go before the meeting.

Mr. Champoux again stated what LaBillette had told him.

H. M. McLennan suggested that a committee of two Conservatives and two Liberals be chosen to interview Mr. LaBillette.

Mr. H. C. Gillis moved that such a committee be appointed to wait upon Mr. LaBillette.—Carried.

Messrs. Montgomery, D. E. Richards, Gillis and Alex. McLennan were chosen such committee.

A recess was then taken to enable the committee to interview Mr. LaBillette.

Upon the meeting being called to order Mr. Montgomery reported that Hon. Mr. LaBillette had positively declined to allow his name to go before the convention.

The suggestion was made that the meeting be thrown open for further nominations.

Mr. Montgomery said that with the permission of his second he would withdraw his motion that nominations close.

Mr. C. S. O. Crockett suggested the name of Mr. Montgomery, but that gentleman refused.

Mr. N. McDavid moved that Mr. Stewart's nomination be made unanimous.

Mr. Stewart said that he would rather the meeting be re-opened for additional names.

Mr. M. A. Kelly said there was one outstanding name, one who had done more for the county of Restigouche than any other, one who was fighting our battles at the front. He had much pleasure in naming Lt. Col. A. R. C. McKensie—Applause.

Mr. Montgomery asked if Mr. Kelly had any confirmation from Col. McKensie that he would accept. Could he be nominated without personally signing the nomination papers and affidavit.

Mr. Kelly replied that he had no positive knowledge that Col. McKensie would accept nomination, but if we could so honor him let us do so. He hoped that within a year, perhaps six months Col. McKensie would be coming home with the laurels of victory about his shoulders. In the meantime we would do without a representative at Ottawa in favor of the "No Treason" party.

The meeting then adjourned with the singing of the National Anthem and cheers for Mr. Stewart.

AUTOINTOXICATION OR SELF-POISONING

The Dangerous Condition Which Produces Many Well Known Diseases.

HOW TO GUARD AGAINST THIS TROUBLE

"FRUIT-A-TIVES"—The Wonderful Fruit Medicines—will Protect You

Auto-intoxication means self-poisoning, caused by continuous or partial constipation, or insufficient action of the bowels.

Instead of the refuse matter passing daily from the body, it is absorbed by the blood. As a result, the kidneys and skin are overworked, in their efforts to rid the blood of this poisoning.

Poisoning of the blood in this way often causes Indigestion, Loss of Appetite and Disturbed Stomach. It may produce Headaches and Sleeplessness. It may irritate the kidneys and bring on Pain in the Back, Rheumatism, Gout, and Rheumatic Pains. It is the chief cause of Eczema—and keeps the whole system unhealthy by the constant absorption into the blood of this refuse matter.

"Fruit-a-tives" will always cure auto-intoxication or self-poisoning—as "Fruit-a-tives" acts gently on bowels, kidneys and skin, strengthens the bowels and tones up the nervous system.

50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size, 25c. At all dealers or sent postpaid on receipt of price by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

Restigouche has had no representative at Ottawa, and why the rush.

Mr. Montgomery said he would be very sorry to put Col. McKensie up against a forlorn hope. When Col. McKensie comes home Restigouche will no doubt honor him.

Mr. Kelly—If this is a forlorn hope why put a candidate in the field at all. Why create turmoil and strife here if there is no hope of victory.

Mr. Montgomery stated that he felt sure Lt. Col. McKensie could not be legally nominated. He wanted no hitch in the nomination.

Mr. Kelly stated that there might be difficulties in nominating Lt. Col. McKensie. But surely there was a man in the counties of Restigouche and Madawaska who had never run an election campaign who would be acceptable as a Union Candidate. So far as he was concerned he was not in favor of Mr. LaBillette or Mr. Stewart or any other partisan. What we wanted was a man of business ability but who had never been mixed up with either political party. He suggested Mr. Alex. McLennan's name.

Mr. McLennan refused the honor.

Mr. C. Cook moved that Mr. Stewart's nomination be made unanimous.

Mr. Stewart then addressed the convention. He said he was glad to see such a representative gathering of both parties and thanked them for the honor conferred upon him. He assured the Liberals that they had nothing to fear from him. At the announcement of the formation of a Union Government he had decided to drop party politics. During the time at his disposal he would not be able to visit all personally but hoped all would work for his election. He pledged himself to stand behind the Union government as long as there was a Union government.

Mr. Montgomery assured Mr. Stewart that his time was at his disposal. The fight was not so hopeless as many supposed. Throughout Madawaska there was a large number of voters of military age who had not registered and had thus forfeited their franchise. Every one of these votes was a vote for their opponent, and they should see that not one was polled. He felt sure there was a fighting chance and asked all to give Mr. Stewart every support. If we do not win we will at least keep Mr. Michael from going into any other constituency to help defeat Union candidates.

The meeting then adjourned with the singing of the National Anthem and cheers for Mr. Stewart.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Harry Campbell
For the period of five months (with the exception of a young child) an interment had been made in the newly re-located cemetery of New Richmond until the afternoon of Wednesday, the 14th inst., when the remains of Ruth Wardrop Campbell, beloved wife of Harry Campbell were laid to rest.

Great has been the sorrow over the early death of this winsome girl wife. She was the eldest daughter of the late John Brash, and was only twenty-one years of age. Fifteen months ago she was married to Harry, son of J. A. Campbell of New Richmond.

During the long weeks of her illness, hope was entertained that she might be spared, but it was ordered otherwise and to-day an entire community sympathizes with the grief-stricken friends.

To a large number she was a personal friend for she had the ability of being loved. At school she was studious and attentive, and a successful teacher in several schools.

She was brought to her mother's home, where a short service was held by the pastor, Rev. E. J. Rattee, B. A., and then to the church, where a most beautiful and touching service was conducted. In earnest, loving words Mr. Rattee spoke to the living from Ps. 121: 2, which was a favorite text of the deceased. The pastor bore testimony to the sincere, clear faith in the Saviour which characterized Mrs. Campbell. Looking at the beautiful remains one realized how much it means to be ready for the summons.

The church was crowded down stairs; from all parts of the congregation relatives and friends came to show their affection for the dead, and their sympathy with the living. The flowers were beautiful.

To mourn her early death are her husband and baby daughter, (only six weeks old) when the young mother was called home; her mother, and stepfather, Mr. John Watson, Jr., four sisters and two brothers.

She was young, but rich in spiritual knowledge, and earnest Christian, loving wife, daughter and sister. To all who mourn her early death we join in loving Christian sympathy.

WILL BE APPRECIATED.

Send the Graphic to absent friends; it is sure to be appreciated. $1.50 to addresses in Canada or $2.00 to United States.—Ed.

WOULD CAUSE A RIOT.

To speak the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth may be all right and essential in a court of law, but it would create havoc and disaster for a newspaper. THICK, GLOSSY HAIR.

FREE FROM DANDRUFF.

Girl! Try It! Hair gets soft, fluffy and beautiful—Get a small bottle of Danderine.

If you care for heavy hair that glitters with beauty and is radiant with life; has an incomparable softness and is fluffy and lustrous, try Danderine. Just one application doubles the beauty of your hair, besides it immediately dissolves every particle of dandruff. You can not have nice heavy, healthy hair if you have dandruff. This destructive scour robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life, and if not overcome it produces a feverishness and itching of the scalp; the hair roots famish, loosen and die; then the hair falls out fast. Surely get a small bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store and just try it.

AT 60 ENJOYING PERFECT HEALTH

By the time a man or woman is 60, the kidneys and bladder need a little help to keep them in good working order.

Rheumatism and backache so often accompany the later years of life, most people have an idea health and vigor cannot be expected much after the fiftieth year.

As a matter of fact there is no basis for these fears, we could show a number of letters proving our contention that if GIN PILLS are taken to keep the urine normal, prevent colds settling on the kidneys or bladder, and ward off rheumatic attacks, almost everyone can enjoy perfect health at this late period.

To quote from a letter received from a prominent Consulting Engineer of New York City—"Your remedy I find, at 60 years of age, to give perfect relief from the kidney and bladder troubles incident to one of my age."

Perhaps you know a man or woman whose life is made a torment by Rheumatism, Backache, Sciatica, or Swollen Joints. Don't let it continue, for GIN PILLS will surely bring that longed-for relief. You don't have to buy GIN PILLS to try them. Write for a free sample. Address the National Drug & Chemical Co. of Canada Limited, Toronto; or if you live in the United States write to P. O. Box 100, 328 Main St., Buffalo, N.Y.

Worth Protecting

A good article is worthy of a good package. A rich, strong, delicious tea like Red Rose is worth putting into a sealed package to keep it fresh and good.

A cheap, common tea is hardly worth taking care of and is usually sold in bulk. Red Rose is always sold in the sealed package which keeps it good.

THIS is Thomas A. Edison, who although seventy years of age, is now working eighteen hours a day for his country, without pay or thought of reward.

His work is being done secretly; but it is probably true that the United States is placing more reliance on Mr. Edison than on any other single man except the President.

Mr. Edison is conceded to be the greatest inventor the world has ever known.

The NEW EDISON

"The Phonograph with a Soul"

It is Mr. Edison's latest invention. It is the achievement in which he takes the greatest pride.

Do you believe that there is any other man in the world—or group of men—who could invent as good a phonograph as Mr. Edison's new phonograph?

This wonderful new instrument is built by experts under the direction of technical men in accordance with laboratory standards established by Mr. Edison personally.

COME TO OUR STORE. Let us prove that The New Edison gives a musical result which no other sound reproducing device is capable of producing.

TO THE BOYS AND GIRLS OF NORTHERN NEW BRUNSWICK.

The Dept. of Agriculture at Charlottetown would like the attention of the boys and girls for a few minutes. Listen:

In order to advance education, and interest along farm lines, it is necessary to have the whole-hearted co-operation of the boys and girls, and to these ends we are setting out to organize clubs composed of boys and girls, for the purpose of raising pigs, hens and calves.

New boys and girls what are these clubs and how are they managed? Ten boys and girls, between the ages of twelve and eighteen, in the one locality can form a club. You are then organized by appointing one of your number a president, another a secretary, etc. Each member is then presented with (say a sow pig.)

He keeps this pig, and raises more pigs, one of each of the first two litters is given back to the person giving the pig and thus you pay for your pig, and at the same time you are making money. The pig is to be cared for by yourself. You will be required to go to the nearest fair to show your stock and you will have an opportunity of winning prizes. Think of it boys and girls, winning prizes! That sounds funny does it not? But other boys and girls are doing it, so can you.

Listen to this—J. Robt. Reed, a boy in the state of Louisiana won $122.00 in prizes at the State fair and refused $400.00 for his sow and litter; of course Robert's case is rather unusual but it just shows what you boys and girls can do. The same applies to other clubs. Any boy or girl interested in this work please write the Dept. of Agriculture. Write us yourselves. Write us, we will go and see you, help you get organized, and do everything possible to make this club work the greatest work in agriculture. Boys and girls get busy and see how soon you can own some stock. These clubs are to be in full swing about the first of April 1918, but start now and be ready when the time comes. This applies to the counties of Beauséjour, Gloucester and Northumberland.

COUNTY CHECKS. The Graphic can supply your needs in this respect. Let us send you samples and prices, any kind supplied.

O. Henry Stories

II.—The Discounters of Money

By O. HENRY

THE spectacle of the money capital of the present day going about Bagdad—oh, how the people are enough to make the great Al Raschid turn Haroun in his grave. If not so then the assertion should be made, the real caliph having been a wit and a scholar and therefore a hater of puns.

How properly to alleviate the troubles of the poor is one of the greatest problems of the rich. But one thing agreed upon by all professional philanthropists is that you must never hand over any cash to your subject. The poor are notoriously temperamental, and when they get money they exhibit a strong tendency to spend it for stuffed olives and enlarged crayon portraits instead of giving it to the installment man.

And still old Haroun had some advantages as an economist. He took around with him on his rambles his vizier, Glafar (a vizier is a composite of a chauffeur, a secretary of state and a night and day bank), and old Uncle Mervin, his executioner, who carried a snicker-sneeze. With this entourage a caliph's tour could hardly fail to be successful. Have you not noticed any newspaper articles headed "What Shall We Do With Our Ex-presidents"? Well, now, suppose Mr. Carnegie should engage them and Jose Willard to go about assisting in the distribution of free libraries? Do you suppose any town would have the hardness to refuse one? That caliph alone combination would cause two libraries to grow where there had been only one set of B. P. Roe's works before.

But, as I said, the money capital are handicapped. They have the idea that earth has no sorrow that dough cannot heal, and they rely upon it solely. Al Raschid administered justice, rewarded the deserving and punished whomsoever he disliked on the spot. He was the originator of the short story. Whenever he succeeded in any chance pickup in the bazaar he always made the success tell the sad story of his life. If the narrative lacked construction, style and sense he commanded his vizier to dole him out a couple of thousand ten dollar notes of the First National Bank of Bagdad, or else gave him a job as Keeper of the Bird Seed for the Buhnia in the Imperial Gardens. If the story was a smacker-jack he had a flogging, executioner, which only Al Raschid administered justice, rewarded the deserving and punished whomsoever he disliked on the spot.

And now follows the "Story of the Millionaire." The Indolent Increment and "The Babes Drawn From the Wood."

Young Howard Pilkins, the millionaire, got his money orthogonally. He was a shrewd judge of stocks and got in on the ground floor at the residence of his immediate ancestor, the Pilkins Banking company. For his mother was a partner in the business. Finally old man Pilkins died from a stroke, and then Mrs. Pilkins died from worry on account of torpid delivery wagons—and there you have young Howard Pilkins with $4,000,000, and a good fellow at that. He was an agreeable, modestly arrogant, young man, who implicitly believed that money could buy anything that the world had to offer. And Bagdad—the Subway for a long time did everything possible to encourage his belief.

But the rat trap caught him at last. He heard the spring snap and found his heart in a wire cage regarding a piece of cheese whose other name was Alice von der Ruyssing.

The Von der Ruyssings still live in that little square about which so much has been said and in which so little has been done. Today you hear of Mr. Tilden's underground passage, and you hear Mr. Geck's elevated passage, and that about ends the noise in the world made by Gramercy square. But once it was different. The Von der Ruyssings live there yet, and they received the first key ever made to Gramercy park.

You shall have no description of Alice v. d. R. Just call up in your mind the picture of your own Maggie or Vera or Beatrice, straighten her nose, soften her voice, tone her down and then tone her up, make her beautiful and marvellous, and you have a faint dry point etching of Alice. The family owned a sumptuously built house and a coachman named Joseph in a coat of many colors, and a horse so old that he claimed to belong to the order of the Perimeter. Before noting it they made Joseph swear it over with a mixture of oaths and oint. It was the Von der Ruyssing family that bought the territory between the Jersey and East River and Livingston streets and the Basin of Liberty, in the year 1880, from an Indian chief for a pair of trousers and a pair of shoes. The Von der Ruyssings were exactly the kind of poor aristocrats that turn down their noses at people who have money—oh, well, I don't mean that; I mean people who have just money.

One evening Pilkins went down to the red brick house in Gramercy square and made what he thought was a proposal to Alice v. d. R. Alice, with her nose turned down and thinking of his money, considered it a proposition and refused it and him. Pilkins, summing up all his resources as any good general would have done, made an indiscreet reference to the advantages that his money would provide. That settled it. The lady turned so cold that Walter Wellman himself would have waited until spring to make a dash for her in a dog sled.

But Pilkins was something of a sport himself. You can't fool all the millionaires every time the ball drops on the Western Union building.

"If at any time," he said to A. v. d. R., "you feel that you would like to reconsider your answer send me a rose like that."

Pilkins audaciously touched a jack rose that she wore loosely in her hair. "Very well," said she. "And when do you wish to understand by it that either you or I have learned something new about the purchasing power of money. You've been spoiled, my friend. No; I don't think I could marry you. Tomorrow I will send you back the presents you have given me."

"Present!" said Pilkins in surprise. "I never gave you a present in my life. I would like to see a full length portrait of the man that you would take a present from."

"You've forgotten," said Alice v. d. R., with a little smile. "It was a long time ago when our families were neighbors. Yes, were seven, and I was trundling my doll on the sidewalk. You gave me a little gray, hairy kitten with a shabby collar. Its head came off, and it was full of candy. You paid 5 cents for it—you told me so. I haven't the candy to return to you. I haven't developed a conscience at three, so I ate it. But I have the kitten yet, and I will wrap it up neatly and send it to you tomorrow."

Between the lightning Alice v. d. R.'s talk the steadfastness of her rejection showed firm and plain. So there was nothing left for him but to leave the crumbly red brick house and be off with his abhorred millions.

On his way back Pilkins walked through Madison square. The hour hand of the clock hung about 8. The air was chilly and cool, but not at the freezing point. The dim little square seemed like a great, cold, unroofed room, with the four walls of houses spangled with thousands of inefficient lights. Only a few loiterers were huddled here and there on the benches.

But suddenly Pilkins came upon a youth sitting brave and as if confident with summer sunlight, coatless, his white shirt sleeves conspicuous in the light from the globe of an electric fan. Close at his side was a girl, smiling dreamily, happy. Around her shoulders was, palpably, the missing coat of the cold defying youth. It appeared to be a modern pattern of "Babes in the Wood," revised and brought up to date, with the exception that the robe hadn't turned up yet with the protecting fur.

Pilkins sat on the bench, one seat removed from the youth. He glanced cautiously and saw (as men do see and women—oh, never can't that they were of the same order).

Pilkins leaned over after a short time and spoke to the youth, who answered smilingly and courteously. From general topics the conversation concentrated to the bedrock of grim personalities. But Pilkins did it as delicately and heartily as any caliph could have done. And when it came to the point the youth turned to him, soft voiced and with his undiminished smile.

"I don't want to seem unappreciative, old man," he said, with a youth's somewhat too early spontaneity of address. "but, you see, I can't accept anything from a stranger. I know you're all right and I'm tremendously obliged, but I couldn't take of borrowing from anybody. You see, I'm Marcus Clayton—the Claytons of Rossome county, Va., you know. The young lady is Miss Eva Bedford—I reckon you've heard of the Bedfords. She's seventeen and one of the Bedfords of Bedford county. We've sloped from home to get married and we want to see New York. We got in this afternoon. Somebody got my pocket-book on the ferryboat and I had only 8 cents in change outside of it. I'll get some work somewhere tomorrow and we'll get married."

"But, I say, old man," said Pilkins in confidential low tones, "you can't keep the lady out here in the cold all night. Now, as for hotels—"

"I told you," said the youth with a broader smile, "that I didn't have but 8 cents. Besides, if I had a thousand, we'd have to wait here until morning. You can understand that, of course. I'm much obliged, but I can't take any of your money. Miss Bedford and I have lived an outdoor life and we don't mind a little cold. I'll get work of some kind tomorrow. We've got a paper bag of cakes and chocolates and we'll get along all right."

"I can't say, sir, that I do think so," said Clayton of Rosome county. "I've been raised to look at such things differently. But I'm mightily obliged to you, just the same."

"Then you force me to say good night," said the millionaire. "Twice that day had his money been earned by simple ones to whom his dollars had appeared as but tin tobacco tags. He was no worshiper of the actual material gain or stamped paper, but he had always believed in its almost unlimited power to purchase."

Pilkins walked away rapidly and then turned abruptly and returned to the bench where the young couple sat. He took off his hat and began to speak. The girl looked at him with the same sprightly, glowing interest that she had been giving to the fight against starvation and sky reaching buildings that made the old square seem so far away from Bedford county.

"Mr.—er—Rosome," said Pilkins, "I admire your independence—your ideas so much that I'm going to appeal to your chivalry. I believe that's what you southerners call it when you keep a lady sitting outdoors on a bench on a cold night just to keep your old, out of date pride going. Now, I've a friend—a lady—whom I have known all my life—who lives a few blocks from here—her parents are rich and sisters and aunts and all that kind of indorsement, of course. I am sure this lady would be happy and pleased to put up—that is, to have Miss—er—Bedford give her the pleasure of having her as a guest for the night. Don't you think, Mr. Rosome—er—Virginia, that you could unbend your prejudices that far?"

Clayton of Rosome rose and held out his hand.

"Old man," he said, "Miss Bedford will be much pleased to accept the hospitality of the lady you refer to."

Pilkins conducted them to the crumbly red brick house of the Von der Ruyssings. His card brought Alice downstairs.

"Of course I will take her in," said Alice. "Haven't those southern girls a thoroughbred air? Of course she will stay here. You'll look after Mr. Clayton, of course."

"Will it?" said Pilkins delightedly. "Oh, yes, I'll look after him! As a citizen of New York and therefore a part owner of the public parks I'm going to extend to him the hospitality of Madison square tonight. He's going to sit there on a bench all morning. There's no use arguing with him. Isn't it wonderful? I'm glad you'll look after the little lady, Alice. I tell you those 'Babes in the Wood' made that 6—er—made Wall street and the Bank of England look like penny arcades."

Miss von der Ruyssing whisked Miss Bedford to Bedford county up to restful regions upstairs. When she came down she put an oblong small pasteboard box into Pilkins' hands.

"Your present," said Pilkins, "I am returning to you."

"Oh, yes, I remember," said Pilkins, with a sigh, "the woolly kitten."

He left Clayton on a park bench and shook hands with him heartily.

"After I get work," said the youth, "I'll look you up. Your address is on your card, isn't it?"

"Thanks. Well, good night. I'm awfully obliged to you for your kindness. No, thanks, I don't smoke. Good night."

In his room Pilkins opened the box and took out the staring, funny kitten, long ago ravaged of his candy minus one whose button eye. Pilkins looked at it sorrowfully.

"After all," he said, "I don't believe that just money alone will—"

And then he gave a shout and dug into the bottom of the box for some thing else that had been the kitten's resting place—a crushed but red, fragrant, glorious, promising Jacqueminto rose.

WAR VETERAN SAYS

"I have served in the British Army for 14 years, in South Africa, India and France. In my occupation of shoemaking I have met with a great many accidents, for which I have used various remedies, but never have I used anything that can begin to compare with Zam-Buk. As a healer and preventive of blood-poisoning Zam-Buk is in a class by itself. Every soldier should carry a box of it in his pocket."

The above is an extract from a letter received from S. McIlwraith, of the 2nd Argyll and Sutherland Highlanders.

For the many injuries incidental to a soldier's life Zam-Buk is certainly invaluable. Nothing so quickly ends pain in a cut, a burn or a sprain, and for chapped hands, cold sores, chilblains and blisters it cannot be equalled. All druggists, or Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, Ont. Box 3 for $1.25.

THE ECONOMICAL GOVERNMENT
The Borden-Union Government's policy, is "Eat Less and Save! Save! Save!" This sounds nice when heard from a public platform, but we would like to see this combination at a little more consistent. On Tuesday of this week, a special train with Premier Borden aboard, passed through here enroute to Halifax, where he was going to open his political campaign. The cost of this special train from Upper Canada to Halifax would be over $500.00. And we are asked to eat less and save, while these officials travel in luxury. This is certainly an economical Union government. They should practice what they preach—Newcastle Leader.

BERNIER

THE TAILOR

ELECTION CARD.

To The Electors Of The Electoral District of Restigouche and Madawaska

Ladies and Gentlemen:—

On December 16th 1915, at a convention held at Saint Leonards, I had the honor of receiving the nomination as a liberal candidate for the united counties of Restigouche—Madawaska. On the occasion I laid before you my political platform and it received your unanimous approval. Since, owing to certain circumstances, the political life of our country has been somewhat changed and the party lines have been altered. I think that it is my duty to give some explanations in regard to the stand which I take on political issues now before the country.

1. I approve of and support the political platform of Sir Wilfrid Laurier as laid down in his Manifesto to the people of Canada.

My views in regard to conscription are well known to you. I voted in the House of Commons against the conscription Bill of Sir Robert Borden and supported the resolution of Sir Wilfrid Laurier asking that the question should be decided by the people by a Referendum before it should be put into force. To-day, I maintain the same attitude which I took in Parliament, and if I am elected as your representative, I hereby undertake to vote in Parliament for a Referendum to the people of Canada on the important question of conscription.

2. I do not approve of Union Government as presently constituted as I believe that this Union has not been brought about with a view of uniting Canada, but I believe it is a Union of big interests against the laboring classes. The main object of this Union is to cover the tracks of the misdeeds and scandals of the late Tory Government since its formation on the 21st day of September 1911. You are well aware that during the last three years, the Borden Government has most obviously misadministered the public funds of the country, has burdened the poor under heavy taxes and has favored solely the Big Interests while our soldiers were offering their lives on the battle field and enduring hardships for the defense of liberty, justice and freedom.

3. Unfortunately, the political Manifesto of Union Government does not offer any remedy for such abuses. I promise, if I am elected to support all measures tending to better the conditions in which our gallant soldiers now live, and also to establish the finances of the country on a solid basis and remove the same from the hands of a few political friends of the present Government.

4. You are all well aware, that since the late Mr. Clemens Silva and Mrs. Silva of Dalhousie.

A quiet marriage was solemnized at the Roman Catholic Church, Dalhousie, on Monday morning, November 19th when Mr. George Alexander son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Richardson of Bathurst was united in marriage to Miss Rene Silva, daughter of the Borden Government has taken power, the cost of living has been increasing out of all proportion. This is due largely to the fact that the Cabinet was made up of millionaires who were more attentive to their own business than to that of the country. The C. N. R. deal is a flagrant outrage to the people, and if I am elected I hereby promise to support any measures that would help the country out of this entanglement.

5. Union Government has not the support of the people of the country and to avoid defeat they are endeavoring to prevent the people from expressing its disapproval at the next election by imposing candidates of their choice in the different constituencies of the country. The War Time Election Act is a most outrageous piece of legislation and the like cannot be found on the Statutes Book of the wicked Germans. Hundreds, thousands of our women have been deprived of the right to say who is going to govern this country, while the franchise was granted to thousands of people who had never set a foot on the soil of our beloved Canada. The principles of constitutional Government have been forgotten and the pages of our constitution have been torn to pieces in order to prevent the people from expressing its voice. Sir Wilfrid Laurier, the greatest Canadian Statesman, had always respected the voice of the people and in power as in opposition, he has always stood for the principles of Government of the People, for the people and by the people, and to-day he stands for the same principles and asks you to endorse him. I offer myself as a candidate to the electors of the united counties of Restigouche and Madawaska standing on the platform above outlined, and I am confident that I will receive the support of all who stand for justice, union and freedom.

Yours obediently,

P. MICHAUD.

To strain the eyes continually during the waking hours is to put a severe task upon your brain and nerves, and to exhaust the entire system.

If you are a sufferer from head-aches and find that you cannot think as clearly and constantly as you should, the chances are that you need glasses, or, if you already wear them—different glasses.

If you require glasses you are doing yourself a great injury by doing without them. If you require them you should come to me for examination.
