

MYSTERIOUS INSECT CAPTURED BY YOUTH

Bug Specialist Consulted by The Advertiser Says It Is Ordinary Insect.

Two young men, who were evidently not familiar with the army worm, captured a strange looking insect on Dundas street late Wednesday evening.

The captors immediately rushed their prize into the night office of The Advertiser, hoping thereby to receive credit for being the first ones to exhibit one of the much-dreaded army worms in London.

Possibly the young men had visions of selling tickets in front of a large tent, on the outside of which was a huge sign announcing that within one might see the only army worm ever captured alive in the city of London, for the small and insignificant sum of ten cents.

But, alas for the hopes and ambitions, if such they were, of the young men, for as soon as was compatible with dignity, a "bug" specialist was called into consultation and asked to pass his opinion on the "beast"—"well, it ain't no army worm," he says. Then and there the dreams of the two enterprising young men were shattered, and they realized that their hopes of ever following in the footsteps of the famous P. T. Barnum were at an end.

After a further investigation, it was ascertained that what had at first been thought to be one of the much-talked-about army worms was nothing but an ordinary bug, which is quite common to this part of Ontario, although it must be admitted that the bug was a savage looking one, and it will be remembered by several that he had a pair of pincers at the end of his head, rather the manner of a crab, that he was not at all backward about using.

The bug is to be kept on exhibition at the night office of The Advertiser, and may be seen upon application to the office boy.

SEEKS RELIEF FROM MARAUDING ANIMALS

Dog With a Pendant for Breaking Into Chicken Coops Causes Alarm.

A dog with a pendant for breaking into chicken coops is causing grave concern among chicken farmers, who find the animal uses considerable persistency in breaking in on their feathered beauties.

A correspondent writes: News-people are probably kindly hearted, but they shouldn't let all their goodwill go to the dogs. There's the unfortunate gardener and farmer, who suffers much from marauding dogs and cats, and has no relief from these pests. Only a couple of weeks ago I was caused from slumber at 4 a.m. and had to rush out in pyjamas and cold feet, to drive a "fine, well-bred" dog that was trying his best to break into a coop of fancy chickens. Fortunately he was driven away before committing promiscuous murder on my feathered pets. The same dog came back a night or two after, was again discovered and shooed. He went up the street to a neighbor's chicken-raiser, and then broke into a coop and murdered a grand show bird, leaving it torn, bleeding and nearly dead.

Again, I had a bed of lilies, that in the morning bore over a hundred lovely flowers, and it was admired by all who passed by. When returning from work in the evening, a big "well-bred" sporting dog was lying right in the midst of the lilies and snapping off all that he had not already broken down with his body. That lily-bed all died out, from such dog-gone treatment, and it had taken years to get it to show as much beauty.

Board of Health Serves Notice on Western Fair Board That Conditions Must Be Bettered.

At a meeting yesterday of the parks commissioners, the chairman, William Wyatt, drew attention to the fact that the board of health had served notice on the Western Fair board that the toilets in Queen's Park would be closed unless they were put in proper condition before the fair opened.

The members present felt that the fair board, and not they, were responsible, and no action was taken.

TORONTO HAS ITS HYDRO TROUBLES

Owes Commission $5,300 and the City More Than $500,000.

REFUSES A REDUCTION

Is Therefore Billed With Daily Penalty of $100 Since June.

Toronto is having its hydro-electric troubles in no uncertain manner. Already the local commission there has been taxed $5,300 by the provincial commission for its failure to comply with the latter's orders and reduce the rates on the 1st of June. For 53 days the commission's order has been ignored and every one of those days costs the city $100.

None of the money has yet been paid, no demand having been made for it. It is hardly expected either that the commission will tamely submit to the dictation of the provincial board. The other troubles of the local commission there are numerous. Now that a settlement has been effected with its employees and the threatened strike averted, it is expected that attention will be given to the demands of the city that claims the commission owes it over half a million dollars for unpaid interest and principal on sinking fund debentures.

An interesting situation. The "fine" for the non-reduction of rates has made that situation an interesting one. It was on July 10 that H. H. Cousins, general manager of the Toronto Hydro, wrote to the city council declaring that "the commission-ers beg to advise that unless instructions are received from the council by Wednesday, June 17, or unless the Hydro-Electric Commission of Ontario decide to amend or postpone the order in the meantime, the commission-ers propose to make public the course of action they propose to pursue."

Still in the dark. Five days later, on June 15, the council voted down a motion requesting the city commission to obey the order to reduce rates, and contented itself with making the request that the commission-ers reduce the rates as soon as possible. Ten days after the formulation of this request the city commission met, but the only announcement made was that information would be given out in a week or so. That is just a month ago, and there is little prospect of the commission's attitude being disclosed for some time. The most that can be said is that the commission-ers, as trustees for the ratepayers of Toronto, still believe that the present state of finances does not justify a reduction of rates, and that they could not obey the order without doing injustice to those who have purchased their debentures. It seems evident that nothing short of compulsion will make them obey the order. They have taken their stand, and there is no need to do or say more. The next move must be on the part of the provincial commission.

A high authority on hydro business in Toronto says that there is absolutely no complaining about the city's rates to consumers being too high.

IRISH BENEVOLENT SOC. PICNIC TO BREAK RECORDS

Meeting Will Be Held Tonight to Complete Arrangements for Big Gala Event.

An important meeting of the members of the Irish Benevolent Society will be held this evening at 8 o'clock in the board of trade rooms, city hall. Committee will be named to look after the annual picnic at Port Stanley on August 6. Arrangements for the gala event will be completed, and all members are expected to attend. The picnic is expected to be a record-breaker this year, and the executive is sparing no pains to make it one of the big attractions of the season at the lake resort.

No Cream on Milk After Standing Hours

"A Victim" Believes London Has Poorest
Supply of Cities.

To the Editor of The Advertiser:

You are on the right track in raising the question as to the cause of the poor quality of a good deal of the milk sold in London. I have lived in five Ontario cities, and the quality of the milk supplies my family here is the poorest we ever had. We can hardly see a sign of cream on it after it has stood several hours. We don't change to another milkman because we can't hear where we can do any better.

The remedy is a simple one. Let an official inspection and test be made every two or three months without any previous notification, of course, and let the results be published in the newspapers as often as the tests are made. This is the plan resorted to some years ago, with most satisfactory results, by the authorities of Ottawa and Brantford.

If it is true that milk with only 2 per cent of butter fat is being sold in London, and I for one do not doubt it, the matter calls for vigorous handling by the proper officials. Every little while we read in our daily paper that they are going to get after the offending milkmen. Why don't they do it and keep on doing it?

A VICTIM.

BOARD OF TRADE TENDERED LUNCHEON BY PRESIDENT

E. C. Mitchell Is Host at Dinner, Henceforth To Be Observed Annually.

A meeting of the executive of the board of trade was held in the Tecumseh House yesterday following a luncheon tendered to the members by E. C. Mitchell, the president. The subject of the meeting was the theory being that the members' time will be saved thereby. Subsequent luncheons, however, will be paid for by the individual members.

The chief item of yesterday's business was the appointing of a committee consisting of F. E. Leonard, George Belton and E. C. Mitchell, to arrange with the city the details of a reception and entertainment to be given to the members of the Dominion royal commission during their visit to the city, from Aug. 10 to 12.

A communication was read from E. H. Scammell, organizing secretary of the Peace Centenary Association, saying that he was prepared to address the citizens interested in the peace movement early in September. The secretary was instructed to arrange for an address.

It was decided to ask Prof. J. C. McMillan, of Toronto University, to address the board on the metric system at the regular board meeting of Oct. 30.

A resolution was adopted to urge the telephone and telegraph companies to paint all the poles in their belt before the Old Boys' reunion or, if that is impracticable, at least before the week of the Western Fair, so that the poles may be as little an eye-sore as possible.

Those present at the meeting were: E. C. Mitchell, Lieut.-Col. Garthshore, George Belton, E. H. Nelles, Dr. F. T. Reason, Sam Stevely, F. E. Leonard, C. J. Fitzgerald and Gordon Philip, commissioner of industries.

WORK ON RIDOUT ST. CHURCH TO START SOON

The Subscriptions Will Soon Reach Ten Thousand Dollars, It Is Said.

Plans for the proposed new Ridout Street Methodist Church are now in the hands of the church executive. Collections will be made at once, and it is thought that the church will be in a position to proceed with the new building within the course of a few months.

It was stated to The Advertiser last night that the ten thousand dollar mark was in sight, and that within the next few weeks an additional thousand had been added to the subscription fund. It is the aim of the church to raise twenty-five thousand dollars.

A meeting of the church officials will be called in the near future, when final building arrangements will be made.

THIS OLD BOY WANTS TO COME TO REUNION

Brantford Man Can Recall Early Newspaper Days on The Advertiser.

Here is an old boy who remembers some things that are not found in the history of the city. He lives in Brantford, and writes to know if he is entitled to an invitation to the re-union. The old boys hadn't heard about him lately, and his case will be brought to the notice of Edwin Smith, secretary, who undoubtedly will send him a special invitation and welcome to the city.

Here is what he says:

"Please let me know after you read the following letter if I am entitled to an invitation to Old Boy's Reunion, lived in London 1846. When I came of age, was the first one in Bond street school, and went to the little schoolhouse in same yard as Union school. Miss Cusack was my teacher—moved to Mr. Vanslyke's room, then to Mr. Hunter's room, then to Nick Wilson's room. Many times I walked with Barry Boyd. Hunter used to write for the Proto-type when they used to print across from The Advertiser on Dundas street."

"I remember The Advertiser when they first started on Dundas street, printed by hand machine first, turned by big derrick, and I used to get behind and help him, and then we would get our papers earlier."

"Many a time I have sung out 'Ad-vertiser, only a penny!' if you don't take it now you won't get any; the last one I got, and at the same time have four or five under my coat."

"Now, if I am not entitled to one—I will be there anyhow. I could tell you some funny things when I went to the Union school, and while selling The Advertiser, but I am keeping it till I go to London. I can tell it better than I can write it."

"You will see your way clear to send me an invitation to the 'I remain, one of the Old Boys,' J. A. ADAMS."

Law Partner of Minister of Labor In $10,000 Job

Samuel Price, K.C., recently appointed chairman of workmen's compensation commission, Ontario.

DISSATISFIED WITH COMMISSIONER

Labor Men Objected to the Nanaimo Report of Sam Price.

WAIT FOR NEXT MOVE If No Labor Representative Is Appointed, It Will Be a Significant Move.

Appointment of Sam L. Price, of St. Thomas, law partner of Hon. Thomas Crothers, minister of labor, as chairman of the workmen's compensation committee of Ontario at a salary of $10,000 a year, may cause some friction in the province, according to advices from Toronto.

Controller James Simpson, Toronto, one of the big labor leaders of Ontario, made the declaration yesterday that labor was not satisfied with Mr. Price's report on the Nanaimo miners' troubles. Mr. Price, in the absence of the Minister of Labor in England, was sent to the Pacific coast to handle this strike for the labor department. The Toronto Labor-Socialist controller further declared that the labor interests were waiting for further action on the Government's part.

"We are waiting to see whether the Government will ignore labor entirely by not appointing a labor man on the commission, if it does not appoint one, we will be inclined to take it as signifying the Government's belief that there is no one in the Labor party of the province mentally capable of fulfilling a commissioner's duties."

W. A. CHARTER MEMBER GIVEN PURSE OF GOLD

Presentation to Miss Gower—a Feature of St. George Church Picnic.

A very enjoyable feature of the annual picnic of the Women's Auxiliary and King's Daughters of St. George's Church, held yesterday afternoon at Springbank, was the presentation of a purse of gold to Miss Gower, a charter member of St. George's W. A. and Dorcas society of the auxiliary in Huron Diocese. Miss Gower has been an active worker in both St. George's parish and in the diocesan branch for a number of years, and is one of the delegates to attend the triennial convention of Women's Auxiliaries in Vancouver in September. Miss Agnes Wallace, secretary-treasurer of St. George's Auxiliary, made the presentation on behalf of various church organizations. Miss Gower replied briefly, stating what a pleasure she had always felt in any duty undertaken in the parish.

A bountiful repast was provided by the ladies present, and thoroughly enjoyed by about seventy members and guests. Early in the evening a program of sports was participated in, the following being the prize-winners:

W. A. ladies' race—Miss Gower, Miss Kingsmill, Mrs. Garrett.

King's Daughters' race—Mrs. Sims, Miss Gahan.

PRE-INVENTORY CLEARING OF FURNITURE FRIDAY

Like the market for all other merchandise, the furniture market has its divisions, and printed prices and extravagant claims are not the only factors that influence people to visit and buy. The reliability of the furniture and the factory in which it is made are more important considerations than flaring newspaper challenges. As in all other departments, goods must not remain too long on the floor. If a piece of furniture is not sold the season it is bought it receives radical price treatment at this store. So at this time it is a matter of wisdom to carefully weigh the printed word, and be quite sure that the amount you are to pay will bring its utmost equivalent in dependability as well as correct style in return.

Tomorrow we offer a collection of furniture gathered from our stock which have received radical price treatment to insure a quick exit before stock listing. We say Friday because the reductions are so great and the furniture so good that all should go in one day. The prices quoted below in some cases are not the original prices; some were much more and in some cases the sale prices are but a fraction of the cost to manufacture. The number of pieces are limited, so come at 8:30 Friday and avoid disappointment.

Paris, July 23. — Prof. Ribemont-Dessaigne, in an address at the Acad-emy of Medicine today, said that the problem of painless childbirth has been solved by the discovery of his new anaesthetic.

At the same session of the academy Prof. Vincent read a paper giving radical means for preventing premature burial. He said that special tweezers applied to the tongue are infallible in showing whether a person is dead or still alive.

BACK FROM CONVENTION

J. C. Beemer Returns from Big Gathering of Chalmers Dealers.

J. C. Beemer, the local agent for Chalmers and Overland automobiles, has returned from a trip to Detroit and Cedar Point, Ohio, where he, with 500 other Chalmers dealers from all over Canada, and the United States, attended the five-days convention of the Chalmers Motor Company. Mr. Beemer says the convention taught him many things which will be of inestimable use to him in his business.

"The mass of information I obtained," said Mr. Beemer, "will be of the greatest possible value to every owner and prospective owner of a Chalmers car in my territory. The enthusiasm of these dealers from all over North America, and the keen interest they displayed, was a revelation to me, and I am more than ever convinced that this is going to be another great year for the Chalmers cars."

"The convention was not all work, as considerable entertainment was provided for the visitors. I had an enjoyable time, as well as learning many things of value."

PRISONER SHOWS STRAIN

Hears Corroboration of Some of Evidence for Prosecution.

SYMPATHY IS DIVIDED

Rival Wives Each Seem to Have Friends Eager to Applaud Them.

[Canadian Press.]
Paris, July 23.—Judge Louis Albanel's court in the Palace of Justice, where Mme. Caillaux, wife of the former premier, is undergoing trial for the murder in March last of Gaston Calmette, editor of the Figaro, was as crowded as ever when the fourth hearing started today. Many of the people had come with the desire to obtain an opportunity of seeing Joseph Caillaux confronted, according to the practice of the French courts, with a former premier, Louis Barthe, who had been subpoenaed as a witness. The testimony was to be concluded today with the evidence of Mme. Caillaux, who is the first wife of M. Caillaux, but before they were due to come to the stand half a dozen other witnesses of lesser importance are to be sworn.

The argument of Procurator-General Jules Herbaux for the prosecution, and of Fernand Labori, counsel for defendant, would, it was announced, take up the day.

Mme. Caillaux took her place in the prisoner's enclosure punctually at noon. She carried in her right hand a little bag of smelling salts and a notebook. Then minutes afterwards the red-robed judges filed into court, and an expectant hush fell over the crowded courtroom. Here, however, there was a Japanese paper fan gave a striking note of color to the scene.

Joseph Caillaux and his friend Pascal Ceccaldi had visited the prisoner in the Conciergerie before the hearing began. They found that the long strain was beginning to tell on her, and that she felt tired, but she showed her determination to face her ordeal with calmness.

Evidence Contradicted.
The testimony of the first private witness, who had been called to the stand, was that the defence seeks to show Gaston Calmette intended to publish the article which was the cause of the murder. Paul Painlevé, who had yesterday testified that M. Dreyfus had told him the Figaro was going to publish a number of private letters, must have misheard, said him. He had referred to the Victor Fabre report on the Rochette swindle, but not to private letters about which he knew nothing.

On official of the treasury department, Andre Reissner, testified to being present during a conversation of the group of journalists in the lobby of the Chamber of Deputies, when it was stated that letters shortly would be published.

Letters Were Offered.
Francois Descaux, chief secretary of M. Caillaux, who was minister of finance, declared that Andre Vervoort, editor of the Paris Journal, came to him and told him Mme. Gueydan had him to publish two letters proposed to him to publish. He had, he said, which she M. Caillaux of this and he explained:

"But those are letters which were stolen from me. I have no newspaperman can be asked to publish them."

The rapid succession of witnesses was interrupted by the confronting of Gaston Dreyfus and Paul Painlevé, both of whom had taken place before or after the deposition with considerable heat.

Corroborates Interview.
Andre Vervoort was next called to the stand, and corroborated the testimony of M. Descaux, but was unable to say whether his interview with Mme. Gueydan had taken place before or after the marriage of M. Caillaux to his present wife in 1911.

Maitre Labori drew from the witness the opinion that Mme. Caillaux, not knowing as he did the character of Calmette, might well have feared the publication of her letter.

"Call Mme. Gueydan," then said the judge.

Nearly every one in court stood up to see M. Caillaux's first wife, who has been regarded as the intrigante behind Calmette, and as the person responsible for most of the misfortunes which have overcome the French statesman and his second wife.

Former Wife Arrives.
Mme. Gueydan, a slender woman of medium height, was drawn up in the office of County Engineer Charles Talbot. She was dressed simply in black and wore a small blue hat with blue feathers. She looked to be 35 or 36 years old. Her face was drawn and tired, but her black eyes, showing from lines, her black hair, showing from great sections in her wasted cheeks. She seemed ill, but she walked with calm dignity past her former husband standing in front of the judges and the jury.

The witness asked if she might refer to her notes, but the request was refused by the judge.

"There have been so many lies told," said Mme. Gueydan, "that my notes are absolutely necessary if only to fix dates. Was not M. Caillaux allowed to read from papers?" I am confronted with a mountain of lies which I must climb break to pieces one by one. I am alone. I have no husband to defend me."

In saying this she cast a long glance at M. Caillaux, who, however, did not look at her.

Courtesy Promised.
"You are not here to accuse," interrupted Maitre Labori, "if you will find nothing but courtesy and deference for yourself, personally, if your role is simply that of a witness. But if you come here to accuse, then you will find me in front of you as a defender of my client."

Mme. Gueydan: "If you have spoken of me to M. Caillaux, we have told you that at least I have courage."

This was spoken in a chattering tone, and called forth "Bravos" from the spectators, whose sympathy seemed to have from the moment she entered the courtroom.

SECRETARY UNDISMAYED

Says There Is No Question of Inability to Secure It, But Hustling Is Necessary.

Preparations for the Old Boys' celebration are going on apace, and every thing is in a shape which, given good weather, promises the greatest reunion ever held. Just one matter is causing the executive some anxiety—the money is not coming in as fast as it should.

Up to the present only $1,000 has been contributed, and at least $3,000 is needed.

Ed. Smith, secretary of the home guard, however, is not discouraged. "We have to have the money, and it simply means that we must get out and hustle for it," he said. "There is no question of our not getting it; we must and we will."

As a headquarters the Old Boys' executive has secured room No. 7 in the old city hall building. The telephone number is 871, and Mr. Smith has been there at any time. He will be glad to supply any information covering the celebration.

GENERAL APPROVAL

river park. The reply was that the charter granted made no provision for the operation of cars on the park line. Citizens have been forced to stay at home on the hot days when the thermometer climbed up near the blood-heat mark.

With the system controlled by the city on that day, the suburban lines could be operated. According to H. J. Glauz, general manager of the hydro-electric commission, London owns the right-of-way over which the London Street Railway Company runs its cars to the park. Cars could also be run to the terminus of the Richmond street line and a service given to citizens in Broughdale.

Coles Enthusiastic.
Controller W. J. Coles is enthusiastic over the idea, providing some satisfactory arrangement could be made with the London Street Railway Company.

"The scheme certainly meets with my approval," said Mr. Coles. "It has always been my contention that the outlying districts should have the best service. For people near the heart of the city a Sunday car is not absolutely essential. But for people who live in London's outlying districts it is almost impossible to do without it."

Regarding a Sunday service to Springbank, it seems to me that Londoners are entitled to it. There is no reason why citizens should be denied the privilege of going to their park on Sunday. Particularly in the hot months when the city is almost unbearable a service to the river park would be a decided advantage.

Equal Privileges Here.
"Other cities do not deny their citizens the use of parks on Sunday. To me there is no reason why Londoners should not have an equal privilege. The majority of citizens have no other means of reaching suburban districts but by the street cars. It is high time that a service was operated to Springbank."

"I am heartily in favor of the idea of a city-controlled street railway for Sundays. As has been suggested we could rent the cars from the company and make arrangements regarding retaining the services of the crews for the day."

Controller Rose thought the matter worthy of serious consideration. "I am certainly in favor of having a Sunday car service to Springbank," he told The Advertiser. "It hardly seems right that citizens should be denied the opportunity of going to Springbank on Sunday. The park should be open to them at all times. Sunday is the only day many men have, and surely there could be no harm in them passing a part of it at the park on the Thames River."

Would Simplify Matters.
"The idea of the city running the lines on Sunday sounds all right. If London owns the right-of-way to the park it would certainly simplify matters, so far as obtaining a running charter is concerned."

Controller Hubert Ashplant did not care to express an opinion without first giving it his consideration.

Favors Sunday Cars.
Controller J. P. Moore is in favor of the operation of cars to the park on Sunday. To The Advertiser he stated that a Sunday service down the river was certainly desirable. The only opposition he saw was the interference of the Lord's Day Alliance which might follow the inception of the system.

"Sunday cars to Springbank certainly would meet with the patronage of citizens generally," said Controller Moore. "As to municipal ownership I have never given it a thought, and do not care to express an opinion."

Manager C. B. King, of the London Street Railway Company, was next interviewed.

Has No Power.
"If the city was to make you the proposition of renting the cars and equipment, as well as engaging the services of the car crews for Sundays, what would be your attitude?" he was asked.

"I have no power to answer that," said Manager King. "That would be a question for the directors of the company to answer. I do not see how the city could operate cars, though. Our company has not the privilege, and as the city does not own the right-of-way there would be no way in getting around the charter."

PEACE PACT IS SIGNED IN MEXICO

Hostilities To Be Suspended at Once, Says President — Carranza Likely to Enter the Capital Without Bloodshed.

[Canadian Press.]
MEXICO CITY, July 22.—That an armistice between the Government and the Constitutionalists was signed tonight and that hostilities will be suspended at once throughout the republic, was the statement given out tonight by Gen. Eduardo Irujo, governor of the Federal district, in the name of President Carranza.

Gov. Irujo added that the peace negotiations will be advanced upon a basis giving full guarantees to everybody.

CARRANZA IN TOUCH WITH THE CAPITAL.

VICTORIA, Mexico, July 22.—Direct telegraphic communication between Mexico City and Gen. Carranza, Constitutional chief, was opened here today. Officers with Carranza declare that the triumphal entry of the Constitutionalists into Mexico City without bloodshed is now assured. Carranza is here en route to Tampico.

Robles Dominguez, confidential agent of the Constitutionalists in Mexico City, asked for instructions, but Carranza's reply was not made public. It was to Dominguez that Gen. Diaz turned over the Government during the time between his departure for Europe and the entry of Madero.

Constitutionalist officials here think the Carranza-Carballo negotiations will be brief and that Carranza will enter the capital with little delay.

CARRANZA WILL INSIST ON PEACE.

MEXICO CITY, July 22.—Senor Lujan, under secretary of the Government, said tonight that although President Carranza is willing to transfer the Government to the Con-stitutionalists, it was a mistake to believe that he will deliver up his power unconditionally, and unless he is assured that the transfer will bring about peace and prevent further scenes of violence, he cannot be definitely stated at present.

THE MILLION DOLLAR
MYSTERY

Hundred Army Worms on This Hat

This picture, taken in Waterloo County, shows how numerous the grubs are. When the hat was thrown on the ground in their path, they climbed on it in scores.

NEW WORM APPEARS IN THE PEA FIELDS

Although the army worm so far has not made its appearance in Bruce, another pest that promises to be almost as destructive made its appearance yesterday.

From Lucknow and Kincardine come reports of the devastation wrought among the peas by a small green bug, the exact nature of which is not yet known. It is expected that it will be placed by agricultural experts, who are to investigate.

The green bug is not, farmers say, the old time pea weevil, but is more destructive. Around Lucknow it has already done heavy damage, and growers of peas are at a loss to know how to combat it, and are working overtime cutting the crop.

GRASSHOPPERS THREATEN ALSO

New Plague Arises in Wellington County and Can Only Be Checked by Heavy Rains—Invade Guelph Streets.

[Special to The Advertiser.] GUELPH, July 22.—Grasshoppers are proving a pest this year. In Puslinch Township they are much more numerous than they have been for some years, and like the army worms, are giving the farmers all kinds of trouble.

In Guelph Township they are also more numerous than usual, but the farmers there are not having the same trouble as their brothers in the Puslinch Township, and are not worrying much about them.

Later in the season, according to an entomologist, the farmers in the district may have cause to worry. He stated that the dry weather would hatch out millions of them and that unless there was a rainstorm soon they might cause havoc with the crops. The west side of Upper Wyndham street this afternoon was alive with them. They were hopping around in great numbers in the entrance of the Apollo Theatre and the entrance to Mr. Sylvester's store was fairly alive with them. At the American Hotel they were in the front door in droves. The awning in front of Robert Stewart's factory was covered with them for a time, and hundreds of them were crushed under the feet of pedestrians.

the army worm appeared yesterday, was visited by the pest two years ago.

Yesterday, upon commencing to cut a field of rye, he found that the army worm had accomplished very serious damage to the field and was then passing into a field of oats. Mr.
Noble was at once informed, and the battle with the pest undertaken at once. It is believed that the farmers will be successful in isolating it in the field which it has already attacked.

Change Their Course.
Last night, the army worm was reported to be within a half a mile of the borders of East Middlesex, but farmers are certain that they were passing on the pest, and have every hope that they will fight it back, and keep it from getting in.

The worms had been heading westward, but last evening changed their course, and are now moving in a northeasterly direction. They left a field at George Furze's place, and moved into one of John Pearson's.

Immense numbers of the worms have been killed, and by plowing all about the field the farmers hope to stop their advance.

REACH TWO FARMS NEAR BORNHOLM

[Special to The Advertiser.] MITCHELL, July 22.—The farmers of this district have been working from daylight till dark to get their crops off for fear that there would be an invasion of the army worm.
It was reported that this pest had not reached Perth County, but this afternoon the worms were in this neighborhood.

John Mogk, of Bornholm, five miles from Mitchell, stated to The Advertiser that a field of barley had been almost destroyed, and that the worms had entered his oatfield and that his pasture field had been badly damaged.

The farm across the way from Mr.
Mogk's has also been invaded by the pest, and around Monks, farmers are doing their best to combat the caterpillars.

The haycrop, which is a large one, has all been well saved, and part of the wheat has been harvested, but if the worm spreads as rapidly in the next few days as it has today farmers will be greatly delayed with their oat and barley crops, as ways and means will have to be devised in saving them.

Logan is one of the best under-drained townships in the county, and farmers were surprised when the be suffering from the ravages of this troublesome pest.

ALSO APPEAR IN EAST ELGIN.

[Special to The Advertiser.] ATLIMER, July 22.—The army worm has invaded East Elgin, making its first appearance in a field on the farm of E. Laidlaw & Sons, south-east of this place.

Messrs. Laidlaw got busy immediately on noticing the pest and plowed a furrow along the edge of the field, and then at short intervals in the furrow bored holes.

The worm crawls to the furrow and unable to get out, crawls along and drops into the holes, where the farmers find and kill or burn them.

ATTACK OATS IN WATERLOO.

[Special to The Advertiser.] GALT, July 22.—While there have been no new outbreaks of the army worm reported at the Department of Agriculture, the worm has appeared in thousands on the farms of J.
Studman and Hugh Nicoll, at Sheppardsburg, and on the farm of Mr.
Strong, have been kept busy assisting the farmers whose fields have been infested. So far in this county the worms have been found in oat fields, with the exception of the Barrie farm, where they infested a barley field.

While inspecting some of the affected fields, Mr. Knapp found that the tashina fly, an enemy of the army worm had been busy, and it is now hoped that the next brood will be killed off.

SOUTH MERSEA IS SUFFERING.

LEAMINGTON, July 22.—The farmers here are having their attention turned to the army worm. Early in the season the onion growers and an attack from the army worm was attacking larger crops, oats, corn, and some growers are becoming anxious about the tomatoes, which here are a very important crop.

So far the worms seem to be confined to the southern part of Mer-sea, and many report that oats are suffering from their ravages, and farmers are in a hurry to cut them to save as much as possible.

Did Heavy Damage.
Alfred Hainsworth, who is on the north side of Talbot street, noticed them last evening at work. Considerable damage was done to one field of oats in the field was practically destroyed.

This led him to think they were more apt to be in fine sandy soils; as far as he could see they did not do any harm to the pasture or hay crops.
He noticed them at work in the evening and early in the morning, but at a later hour, when the sun was hot, he could see nothing of them, and so far as he could observe, they did not seem to travel. There was not a trace of them north of the railroad which divides this farm.

In Corn Fields.
Some of his neighbors also discovered them in their oat fields, and they declared they were attacking their corn fields. That would be more serious, as the oat crop is rapidly ripening and in a short time will be harvested. The means of preventing them are very difficult.
They are not noticed until they are in the crop, and then the only way is to pull them out or let them work on. However, they are watched, and if they travel means will be taken to stop them. Several methods have been tried.

A trench across their line of march, it is said, will stop them. Poisoning with a mixture of paris green and molasses is said to be effective, and some farmers have burned sulphur in the fields, the fumes of which be-heavy air at night suffocates them.

MILLIONS OF THEM NEAR OWEN SOUND.

OWEN SOUND, July 22.—The army worm has appeared in the township of Derby. Several fields of oats and barley have been destroyed. The worms are making their way down the river in millions.

FIVE TOWNSHIPS IN LENNOX BEING CLEARED.

NAPANEE, July 22.—The army worm has been working serious damage in Lennox County, in the townships of Richmond, Ernestown, Adolphustown, North and South Fredericksburg. The greatest damage has occurred along the Bay of Quinte shore, from Adolphustown to Bath, where the worms have been marching and cleaning out everything green before them.

Middlesex is free from the ravages of "Cholera Infantum"

IS ONE OF THE MOST COMMON SUMMER COM-PLAINTS OF INFANTS.

Cholera Infantum begins with a profuse diarrhoea; the stomach becomes irritated, and in many cases vomiting and purging set in. The child rapidly loses flesh, and is soon reduced to great languor and prostration.

Cholera Infantum can be quickly cured by the use of Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry.
Mrs. George Henley, Boxgrove, Ont., writes: "I can recommend Dr.
Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry for Cholera Infantum. My little girl was so sick I did not think she could live, as we could not lift her up, for when we moved her her bowels would move. I gave her 'Dr. Fowler's' and the first dose helped her, and one bottle cured her. I recommended it to my sister, whose child was sick, and it cured her also. Then again I have told other friends about it, and they have found that it is a grand medicine to have in the house all the time."

HAMMONDSPORT, N.Y., July 22.—
"Airholes? There are no such things!"

"There are AIR GEYSERS and AIR CASCADES, but a hole in the air is exactly as impossible as a hole in the water."

So exclaimed Lieut. John H. Towers, U.S.N., when I asked him what, beside the storms, would constitute the navigational problems of the "America" in her trans-Atlantic flight.

"Once at sea, the 'America' will be SAFER in the air than the ship will be in the water beneath her!" he declared.

And Lieut. Towers proceeded to explain that there could be no higher authority than he on the subject of over-sea navigation. He is head of the United States naval flying school at Pensacola, Fla., and the most expert birdman in the Government aviation corps.

He would doubtless have been the pilot of the "America" instead of Porte, had Rodman Wansted not desired an Englishman for the post.

"The so-called 'airholes,'" said Towers, "are ascending or descending columns of air. Sometimes they are called 'soft spots,' but that term is just as erroneous as 'hole.' On the same level, the air is always just as dense at one spot as another, and MUST be so, because its own pressure would fill up any 'soft' or 'empty' spot as soon as formed."

"But, over the land, there ARE rising or falling currents in the air.
They are caused by differences in temperature or neighboring areas of land. The earth warms up under the sun faster than water. Hence it heats the air above it, and the warm air rises."

Whale, district representative of the Department of Agriculture, confirms the opinion that as yet the worm has not appeared in this vicinity.

WOODSTOCK, July 22.—Several new outbreaks of army worms in Oxford were reported today at the department of agriculture office.
West Zorra and South Norwich have not been invaded yet.

The representatives of the agricultural department, Messrs. Green and Sutton, are still out assisting and advising the farmers in their fight to save their crops.

The plague of worms in this county has caused heavy loss to the farmers. No one can estimate yet the damage to crops and pasture lands.
Up to the present the worms have not touched turnips, potatoes or wheat.

NEAR FINGAL.
FINGAL, July 22.—The army worm was discovered here today. So far, the damage has not been particularly heavy.
Farmers, however, are making every effort to stamp out the pest, and are doing everything possible under the direction of the district agricultural experts. They have every hope of saving the largest part of their crop.

"Encountering such an air-geyser is one of the worst perils of the overland flyer."

"An air-cascade is a similar peril.
Both hit the plane, and may cause it to capsize!"

"But Porte will not meet ONE of them at sea!"

"For the ocean temperature remains uniform practically clear across, and the air above is motionless. Crossing the gulf stream Porte might encounter a slight tendency to rising air currents, but it will be very slight."

"The 'America' will fly steady as rock, all the way, I can guarantee."

"Of course, there are horizontal air currents—winds and storms—to be feared."

"But we of the naval flying corps have helped chart all the air currents for low levels, and by the use of air charts, and his own thorough knowledge of conditions, Porte need have little of this fear of storms."

"A good student of clouds, as he is, can tell when a small local storm is approaching, and can actually steer AROUND it, or go OVER it!"

"And should he be forced to fly straight through a rainstorm, he will be protected by his cabin window.
The greatest peril from a thunderstorm is the lashing of your face by the rain, which hits more cruelly than hail, when you are going miles an hour into it—as I know from frequent experience."

"Our study and charting of the shows us that along the route where Porte will follow there is at this season a prevailing, strong, steady breeze from the northwest."

"He will have this wind behind him, and if he picks his day right, it ought to add 15 MILES AN HOUR to his speed. All he approaches the Azores, when he will encounter a head-wind, which will not seriously impede him, however."

"In fact, it is only in the neigh-hood of land, where air currents become treacherous because of the difference in temperature between land and water, that the 'America's' bir-men will encounter danger."

"When people are sympathizing with them as being 'lost' in the terrifying waste of mid-ocean, they will really be most at home and most safe!"

brings the situation within the bounds of constitutional practice.

The King has been in an unpleasant position during the whole of this controver. He has tried to conduct himself with all the impartiality of a sovereign with a responsible government.

As a consequence he finds it difficult to please all parties, or for that matter, any party. A year ago he was being abused in Ulster meetings, and threatened "he would not turn against his regular advisers. Now some of the friends of his Government are disap-satisfied. "Uneasy lies the head that wears a crown." But he would probably be still more uncomfortable if instead of being King of England he were president of a British republic.

We hope his device for securing peace will be successful, but we have doubts.

The Government cannot go farther than it has gone without losing the support of the Nationalists, and probably that of the Labor members as well, which means defeat. The people of Ulster may be ready to recede rather than fight, but their leaders have so far committed themselves to an extreme course that it is doubtful if they will accept the Government's proposals. There would seem to be only two possible alternatives.

Either the Government must remain firm and proceed with the establishment of home rule at all risks, or make further concessions, be defeated in Parliament, and go to the country. The latter is what the Conservatives have been struggling for, and they would consider it a tactical victory. But what the result of the election would be is very uncertain.

A PERMANENT LIFE GUARD

PORT STANLEY is too busy with its fishing to give the proper attention to the saving of human life. There is not a man down there who would not venture out in any gale to rescue, but what is needed during the summer season is a Government lifesavers crew. It is usually the city visitors who need saving, and one life saver is worth all the Federal squares the city ever received. A regularly employed life-guard at Port Stanley would also be able to keep canoes and other light craft off the lake in rough weather. Usually it is because the paddlers think they can do it, that they venture out. Port Stanley, St. Thomas and London, working together, could probably bring influence to bear to have a life-saving corps appointed.

And, if they cannot persuade the Government to do the work, the three municipalities should share the expense.

THE TERROR OF THE

MANY persons must have been amazed by dispatches, announcing that the French army had four hundred aeroplanes in the air at one time, as a part of the summer manoeuvres.

As a matter of fact, all the great powers have powerful squadrons of aeroplanes, which hold a definite position in the fighting forces of the nations. This, of course, means that in the next great war, and in all wars, the aeroplane is to play an important part. But it does not necessarily mean that the power with the greatest air fleet will carry everything before it, for while the war offices have been busy evolving destroyers of the air, they have been equally active developing weapons to destroy the destroyers.

It is conceded that an army aviator, by dropping bombs, can do a terrible execution against an enemy, but Great Britain, France and the United States are experimenting with a gun that will send an aeroplane tumbling like a hard

THE LABORITES IN BRITAIN.

[Le Doyeur.]

The advanced Labor group prefers the ephemeral triumph of the Conservative candidates because they believe that they could smash like glass any Conservative government which attempted to reverse the machine or even to slacken the speed now required, and they want to teach the Radicals and the parliamentary labor representatives that slow and gradual concessions to their requirements will not suffice. Believe me, the "German peril" and civil war in Ireland are

IN WOODSTOCK FOR TWENTY-FIVE YEARS

James Anderson Passes Away at Chatham—Prominent Wagonmaker.

[Special to The Advertiser.] CHATHAM, July 22.—James Anderson, one of the city's most prominent citizens, passed away at his home on Grand avenue early this morning. The funeral is to take place on Friday next, the service being conducted at the house at 10:30 a.m. The body will be taken to the C. P. R. station, and shipped to Woodstock for burial.

Mr. Anderson was 65 years old, and was born at Cranworth, Scotland. He lived in Woodstock for 25 years, being superintendent of the Bain Wagon Works of that city. Upon his arrival in Chatham he accepted a similar position with the Chatham Wagon Company, and afterwards served for the International Harvester Company, when they acquired the plant. Mr. Anderson was possibly one of the best known wagonmakers in Canada.

He leaves a widow and three sons, John, of Cincinnati, George and McDonald, and two daughters, Bessie and Mary, at home. The cause of death was cancer of the stomach.

PIONEER OF RALEIGH TP.

[Special to The Advertiser.] BLENDHEIM, July 22.—One of Raleigh's old residents, in the person of David Walker, of the 13th concession, passed away yesterday. The funeral is to be held on Friday. Besides a wife, he leaves four sons—Thomas and John, who reside at home; James and Alfred, of Vancouver, B. C., and two daughters, Carrie, of Winnipeg, and Mrs. J.
L. L. of Blendheim.

John Wood, one of the town's veteran Orangemen, lies in a very serious condition at his home here. He was at the celebration at St. Thomas, taking a leading part, and it is thought that the damp weather had a serious effect on him, for since that time he has been very ill. Little hope is held out for his recovery.

Farmers in this vicinity are fearful lest an outbreak of the ravages of the army worm should take place. Some of them well remember the ravages of the pest some sixteen years ago, and read with fear and trembling the accounts reported daily in The Advertiser of its doings elsewhere.

FACTORY FOR WEST LORNE

[Special to The Advertiser.] WEST LORNE, July 22.—A first meeting of the recently organized company, known as West Lorne Motors Limited, was held last evening. The following officers were elected—Dr.
Webster, president; Mac McKillop, vice-president; Dr. Webster, C. O. Grandy and John A. McKillop, directors.

The business of the West Lorne Foundry and West Lorne Garage operated for the past ten years by Duncan and H. A. Carmichael, has been purchased, and new machinery is to be added to take care of the rapidly increasing business.

H. A. Carmichael will continue in full charge for the time being, which has an authorized capital of $50,000.
They will manufacture a fire engine as well as other specialties.

The village looks forward to a thriving industry in a few years.
The possibilities are that within the next few months cycle cars of a late design will be manufactured here.

The natural gas company's men are held up for a few days waiting for a small connection which was to arrive from the United States, then gas will be turned on for public use.

Miss Farrell, of New York City, is visiting friends in the country.

FOUND BODY OF INDIAN IN ST. CLAIR RIVER

Henry Johnson Was Drowned Several Months Ago—Went Through the Ice.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
SARNIA, July 22.—The body of Henry Johnson, an Indian, was found floating in the St. Clair River early today by Edward Smith, of Algonac. Johnson was drowned last winter while attempting to cross ice on the river. The remains were taken to Algonac and the body was sent to Walpole Island reserve for burial.

Captain Thomas Reid, of the Reid Wrecking Company, has received word that the wrecking tug Manistique had succeeded in floating the steamer Prentiss, which went ashore at Mitchell's Bay, and after making temporary repairs, the Prentiss is owned by S. G.
McLouth, of Marine City. She will be repaired in Port Huron.

Business Is Quiet.
The low volume of freight on the Great Lakes during this season has been the subject of various comments from marine men. Great steel boats, which were carrying cargoes of freight from one point to the other on the Great Lakes, are now seen lying idle at the docks along the shore.

Among the marine towns, Port Huron and Sarnia are fortunate not to be so badly affected. Other ports are not so fortunate, and many of the boats have been thrown out of employment. Nearly two-thirds of the traffic on the lakes has been held up by scarcity of cargoes.

That the old ferry which has been operating between North Port Huron and Point Edward has been abandoned because of the failure of the United States to maintain an immigration inspector at that point has just been brought to the attention of Congressman Cranston.

Mr. Cranston intends to use his influence to get the department of labor to designate the customs office at North Port Huron to act as immigration inspector. This ferry, according to a petition signed by many citizens of Point Edward, carries many persons annually to Michigan.

The owner of the ferry, however, was compelled to abandon its operation for his own protection because the United States had no immigration inspector there. Canada maintains a joint customs collector and immigration inspector. Many citizens of Point Edward are complaining under the present conditions, to make a long trolley trip to Sarnia to get to Port Huron. Special complaint is made by employees of the Grand Trunk Boys and Cigarettes

CAUSE OF BAD FIRE

Chatham Police Chief Investigates Joseph Street Blazes.

[Special to The Advertiser.] CHATHAM, July 22.—Chief Groves spent some time today in investigating the fire that destroyed a couple of barns on Joseph street yesterday, and he has come to the conclusion that the fire was caused by boys smoking cigarettes and leaving the matches lying around in the barn. A number of boys were seen in one of the barns the night previous, smoking and lighting matches.

On the presence of Magistrate Stanworth, the county police court case in which William Green, colored, is charged with the destruction of the R. R. depot at Charing Cross and committing theft, was not disposed of. Word has been received by High Constable Peters that Green is in England in the custody of the Essex County, for the theft of a bicycle.

William McCarthine, colored, pleaded guilty in the police court to carrying a revolver. He was fined $20 and costs.
McCarthine is supposed to be one of the gunmen who have been causing disturbances of late on Taylor avenue.

TEAM FELL TWELVE FEET THROUGH FLOOR

[Special to The Advertiser.] LONDON, July 22.—While hauling hay into the barn recently, Gavin Middleton, living near White Church, met with an accident that might have had fatal results. He was unloading when the horses became frightened and dashed into the big door leading into the straw mow.
The floor of which was not strong enough to hold such a weight. The team and front wheels of the wagon broke through the horses falling into the ditch below, a distance of about twelve feet, where they were partly suspended, and after a deal of hard work on the part of the men they were released. They sustained a few nasty bruises and scratches.
Fortunately, no one was hurt, but considerable damage was done to the harness and floor.

THORNDALE WOMAN WAS BADLY SHAKEN UP

[Special to The Advertiser.]
THORNDALE, July 22.—Mrs. Egbert Rathburn had her knee badly cut and sustained a severe shaking up this afternoon, her horse dashing away when an auto, driven by W. Duffon, appeared on the road. Mrs. Rathburn was hurled to the roadway, and it was probably the most fortunate thing for her that she was, as the buggy turned over three times before the horse succeeded in breaking away. The vehicle was smashed to pieces, and had Mrs.
Rathburn stayed in it, she would likely have been killed. Mrs. Rathburn and Mary Armstrong left today to visit friends in Strathroy.

It is expected that the new public library will be opened about August 1.

HAD HIS RIBS FRACTURED

ST. THOMAS, July 22.—Peter West, of Port Talbot, sustained several broken ribs on Wednesday when his horse became frightened at a cement mixer and bolted, pitching him out. He was also badly bruised.

VERY MEAN TRICK ON A FORMER LONDONER

Dr. McFarlane's New Home at Wallacetown Spoiled by Acid in Plumbing.

[Special to The Advertiser.] DUTTON, July 22.—Police are searching for an unknown vandal who caused heavy damage in the handsome Wallacetown, by pouring acid into all the pipes and ruining the plumbing and fixtures.

Dr. McFarlane, who came here from about two years ago, was only married recently and was making an inspection of his new house today preparatory to moving when he discovered what had happened.

He was able to obtain about a cupful of the acid, which is of the most powerful description. Unable to determine what kind it is, he is sending it to Toronto for analysis. It ate away the pipes and destroyed the nickel-plated fixtures, and as a result he will be put to considerable expense in replacing them, besides having to tear out large portions of the new flooring and plastering.

Dr. McFarlane so far has not the slightest idea who perpetrated the outrage. The case, however, will be pressed to the limit, should the police locate the guilty party.

SEARCH FAILS TO REVEAL STOLEN MONEY

Roll Taken From St. Thomas Till Is Still Missing.

[Special to The Advertiser.] ST. THOMAS, July 22.—A very thorough search was made of the basement of Robbins' cigar store today by the police, in search of the stolen money, stated by Clinton Fick to have been hidden there, but no trace of the wad could be found.

The register-house, and the furnace pipes were examined, but the big roll of bills were not there. He was remanded until Friday, at the police court today. Bail was not asked for.
The authorities believe the prisoner knows where the money is, but does not care to reveal its whereabouts.

Still at Large.
No trace of George Banks, the prisoner who broke jail Tuesday, has sample to the police. In a little shanty in a nearby ravine was found his prison garb. He must have been met at this point by friends, and after exchanging his clothing, driven away, probably in an automobile.

STRATHROY PICNIC AT SPRINGBANK

[Special to The Advertiser.] STRATHROY, July 22.—The Methodist Sunday School will hold its annual excursion to Springbank on Wednesday, July 29. A special train will leave Strathroy at 9 a.m., and returning will leave London at 7:30 p.m. sharp. Special rates have been procured and a good crowd is expected for the outing.

In a fairly fast game of baseball today, the Clerks defeated the Progress by a score of 14 to 10. A feature of the game was a home run by Evan McCandless. Batteries: Clerks—Collins and McCandless; Progress—Campbell, Newton and Hamilton.

Umpires—Davis and Plummer.
A number of citizens got together this afternoon and went out a few miles in the country for a picnic.
They took all the necessities and served their evening meal on the grounds. Games and other amusements were their program, and an enjoyable time was spent.

Chief Wilson had three first-time drunks up before P. M. Noble today.
All pleaded guilty and paid fines of $20 and costs.

MEREDITH'S VIEW TO GOVERN E. LAMBTON

Judge Bell Will Withhold Decision Regarding Counterfoil Ballots.

[Special to The Advertiser.] CHATHAM, July 22.—It is likely that Judge Bell will withhold his decision in the matter of the counterfoil ballots, objected to as invalid in the recent election in progress in this riding, until the decision of Chief Justice Meredith is made as to the rejection or sustaining of ballots with the counterfoil attached, which have been in the hands of the recent county in East Lambton.

Judge MacWatt, of Sarnia, decided against the validity of some 120 ballots cast in the East Lambton election from which the counterfoil had not been torn off. The issue was immediately appealed to the Toronto court, and Chief Justice Meredith is to hear the appeal on Friday.
