GERMANY DISLIKES IT

U. S. Tariff Bill Held Hurtful to German Trade.

Berlin, Aug. 6 .- The state department at Washington has notified the German foreign office of the termination of the German-American tariff agreement within six months and ten days, the days being added to the stipulated six months in order to provide an interval for the signature of President Taft.

All of the schedules of the bill have been telegraphed in full to the Frankfort Zeitung, and comprehensive extracts have been published by journals. The act is not liked in Germany.

It is regarded as hurtful to German rade with the United States, but there does not appear to be any intenion of organizing a counter stroke, so the measure will be endured and Germany will make the best of it.

SARNIA MAN ADVANCES.

New York, Aug. 5.-Julius McVicker prominent role in Lillian Russell's new "The Widow's Mite." opens at the Liberty Theatre, New York, early in September. Mr. McVicker comes from Sarnia, Ont.

NEW SULTAN AND THE OLD.

The only revelation of himself that can be directly ascribed to Mehmed V. occurs in notes of a conversation transmitted by a correspondent of his nephew's and given publicity in several French dailies. Despite of every description, the new sultan would appear to have observed to a visitor who managed to elude the vigilance of his brother's spies, wish to inspire affection, no matter how unworthy they may be. The despot is soothed by the suspicion of affection for himself in one who serves him. Hence the best basis for influence over such a mind as that of Abdul Hamid is the pretense of love for him. Abdul Hamid, in fact, was always more prone to succumb to this species of dissembling than any despot before him. His creatures at Yildiz Kiosk pretended, therefore, that they were devoted to him unto death. Upon mere fidelity, the dethroned sultan looked as something rightfully his.

Linen of Snowy Whiteness

The real beauty of linen lies in its whiteness. It must come from the washing spotlessly clean. So, naturally enough, it is always rubbed twice as hard, and so wears

But here is a new way to wash linen as well as other fabric-a way that saves half the rubbing and doubles the life of the garment. This new way is the way of Taylor's Borax Soap. For no other soap saves both labor and garments as does this wonderful soap-it saves its own cost many times over.

Here is the Taylor way: Place the white clothes in warm, soapy water and let them soak over night. Then draw them out one by one and rub them lightly with Taylor's Borax Soap. When well soaped, roll them up and lay them in the bottom of the tub under water. Let them soak in this way for half an hour. Then rub them gently on the washboard, rinse and wring them out. Hang them on a rope clothes line, for wire may put iron rust spots on the clothes. Scalding is never necessary with this soap, for it removes the dirt by itself. The borax softens the water, so less soap is required, and also much less rubbing.

Colored clothes are washed the same, only they should not be left to soak over night, and never boiled. Follow these simple directions and your clothes will come out fresh, clean and free from any "soapy smell." white goods will be whiter, the colored goods brighter and the woolens softer than ever before. Borax not only softens the water, but also softens the hands-it leaves them even whiter than ever before. Also it purifies and sweetens-it destroys every germ and prevents the possibility of contagion.

Umpire Bush Has Stormy Session With Fans at Flint. Flint, Mich., Aug. 5.-Today's game between Flint and Bay City, which was won by the latter by a score of 1 to 0, was enlivened by a set-to between Umpire

Bush, angered at the Boston hostile demonstration, threw his mask at Clevel some of the more boisterous fans in the Chicag o stand. Bush's toss was a wild pitch and New threatened the umpire, but nothing more 3 than threats resulted.

Rain Interfered With Contest at Boston, But Jennings Was Glad of Postponement, as Team Is In Bad-Now for the Quaker Series.

[Special to The Advertiser.] Boston, Aug. 5.—The Tigers and Red Sox were prevented from playing their fifth game here this afternoon by a rainstorm, which threatened all morning. The postponed game will be played on Sept. 29.

Manager Jennings was glad of the postponement. His team is going bad right now, slumping in the worst form the champions have shown since the middle of last season. The day's rest will mean much to them, Detroit's team leaves this evening for Philadelphia, where a four days' engagement with the men of Connie Mack will be opened tomorrow afternoon. According to the best baseball critics of the east, the series of games to be played in the Quaker town will do more than anything to decide the pennant of 1909. The Quakers have been gradually creeping closer to the Tigers as a result of the slump of the champions. If they can take three out of four games, the Philadelphians will take the American League lead
