The tuberculosis sanatorium of the London Health Association at Byron was inspected yesterday afternoon by the members of the county council This body has been asked to give a grant of $4,000 to the sanatorium, and it was for the purpose of letting the members see what they are investing their money in that the health association invited the council down the

The councillors appeared to be well pleased with the building and its equipment. A particular source of gratification was the excellent water supply available. An official stated that a flow of 20,000 gallons a day can be gotten from the springs. All that is needed is 10,000 gallons. A Beautiful Situation.

The situation of the sanatorium was another fact which found favor with the council. The building stands or the top of a high bluff, with a splendid view for miles around, while the The rates which the association immediately on the reassembling of Parliament.

There was an idea, Lord Rosebery said, that the recent bereavement of the nation would afford an opportunity for some form of pacification as between the acute demands of the two parties on this great constitutional issue. There was also a feeling, Lord Rosebery declared, that it was not desirable to embarrass the beginning of a new reign by pushing forward issues affecting the constitution so grave as those that they have been discussing this year. In his (Lord Rosebery's) judgment that did not apply to his resolutions. It was said that if he pressed his resolutions he would invite reprisals and would provoke those who were not unwilling to be provoked. Nothing could be more unfounded in logic, said his lordship, than any such pretence. Their lordships resolutions had nothing to do with the veto power, and he had no intention of deferring them. His resolutions, he said, bore no relation to the Government's

NOTABLE EULOGY

Devotes Three Columns to Goldwin Smith's Life and Comments Thereon.

London, June 9.—The Pall Mali Gazette says that in Goldwin Smith we ose one of the most brilliant and most deadly wielders of the pen that modern times have seen. The keen, cold ogic, witty sarcasm, bright charm of humor in word and thought which played around the sting, were the best kind of rapier play. Whatever cause it was at which Goldwin Smith was strikng_slavery, Irish Nationalism, imperial federation, or woman's suffrage —he struck home, and the brilliant neatness of the blow was admired, the fifth rib.

Times' High Tribute. The Times, in the course of a three-column memoir of Goldwin Smith, says he was almost unequalled among his contemporaries as a master of English prose. He was perfectly free from party ties or bias. In Canadian politics he was the determined foe of po-litical corruption. Standing alone in the prestige of an intimate association with great literary and political figures wrote nothing which did not at once command an attentive hearing. He set ary excellence in Canadian journalism which is everywhere recognized and appreciated. He stood for purity in civic administration, and for honor in political conduct. Unscrupulous tools of party dreaded the lash of his cutting satire. Even those who differed from him most, read with interest and pleasure his brilliant periods, but in spite he never gained the place of influence in Canadian life to which he probably aspired, and to which his abilities appeared to entitle him.

KNOWLEDGE OF FOOD

PROPER SELECTION OF GREAT IMPORTANCE IN SUMMER.

The feeding of infants is a very serious proposition, as all mothers know. Food must be used that will easily digest, or the undigested parts will be thrown into the intestines and cause sickness.

It is important to know that a food can be obtained that is always safe; that is Grape-Nuts. A Texas mother writes: "My baby took the first premium at a baby show and is in every way a prize baby. have fed him on Grape-Nuts since he was five months old. I also use your Postum for myself," Grape-Nuts food is not made solely for a baby food by any means, but is manufactured for all human beings. One special point of value is the food is partially predigested in the process of manufacture, not by any drugs or chemicals whatsoever, simply by the action of heat, moisture and time, which permits the diastase to grow, and change the starch into dextrin, a portion of which is further changed to dextrose or grape-sugar This presents food to the system ready for immediate assimilation. Its especial value as a food, beyond the fact that it is easily digested, is that it supplies the needed elements to quickly rebuild the cells in the brain and nerve centres throughout the

Heart Trouble Cured by Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills,

Mrs. Andrew Savoy, Grattan's, N.B., writes:—"In the year 1905, I was taken sick and did not think I could live any length of time. For seven weeks I could hardly cross the floor. I had no pain, but was so weak nobody in the world can believe how I felt. I had given up all hopes of living and had given my little girl to my sister-in-law.

"One day a friend came to see me, and calling me by name, said, 'Lizzie, if I were you I would try a dose of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills as they are good for heart trouble.' My husband got me a box, but for two days I was not feeling any better, but on the fourth day my husband said, 'I believe those pills are doing you good.' I was able to say, 'Yes, I feel a good deal better this morning.' He said, 'Well, I will get you another box right away.' I took two boxes and three doses out of the third one, and I was perfectly well and have not been sick since then.

"I will never be without them in my home for God knows if it had not been for Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, I would not have been alive now.'

Argentina, which is this year celebrating the centenary of its independence, bears some resemblance to Canada. It has a population of about six and a half millions, and has vast and fertile areas to which it invites settlers. It is now enjoying a period of great material development. Like all such cases with no strain on its Canada, it is a growing producer of foodstuffs, its wheat exports last year being about equal in value to our own. In this respect the two countries have been running a close race for years. With the decline of the export trade of the United States in food products. An idea of the productiveness of the soil of Argentina may be gained from the fact that this year's surplus of corn for export is estimated at between 2,250,000 and 2,500,000 tons, of wheat 1,750,000 tons, of linseed 600,-000 tons, and of oats 350,000 tons. ALICE THAW GETS

Yarmouth. Pittsburg, June 9.-There was filed in the courts of Allegheny County yesterday by representatives of Alice Thaw, deeds which perhaps mean the last legal proceedings in the ill-fated The deeds are those of Alice Cornelia Thaw to a part of her own property, which since April, 1903, when she became the Countess of Yarmouth, have been in the name of her husband, the earl, who has enjoyed the income.

But Alice, since she divorced the earl has entered suit for the property which she gave in exchange for the earl's title, and her deeds filed here yesterday show that she has reclaimed every bit of her property which was in the earl's hands—about $500,000 worth of Pittsburg real estate. Of the million which the Thaws are known to have given the earl in addition to the $500,000 worth of property there is no trace. It is supposed to have been spent long since. The filing of the deeds was the first public document in admission of the fact that the Thaws paid for the title Alice bore so unhappily for some years. Though held up for $1,000,000 in negotiable bonds and $500,000 in real estate while her wedding crowd waited at the church, Alice Thaw appears to have yet held her head.

Her Pittsburg real estate was worth approximately $2,500,000, and she offered him one-fifth of this for life. The papers were hurriedly drawn, and Miss Thaw, who in a few minutes was to become the Countess of Yarmouth, insisted that the Fidelity Title and Trust Company, of Pittsburg, and Denniston Lyon become trustees for the earl's property, that he at no time could take it out of her hands. This appears to have been the move which enabled Alice Thaw to again step into full possession of her properties.

THE PRESIDENT'S REMARKS.

Gentlemen,-I have much pleasure in rising to move the adoption of

Since our last meeting we have had the great misfortune to lose our steemed colleague, the late Mr. Charles Cockshutt, who passed away after months of painless illness on the 9th of February last. Mr. Cockshutt's death was not only a severe blow to all those who have been associated with him in the administration of the Bank for the past six years, but it has deprived the Bank of the services of a devoted, unselfish, hard-working Director.

The vacancy occasioned by Mr. Cockshutt's death has been filled by the appointment of Mr. W. J. Gage, who, besides bringing to our councils many excellent qualifications and great experience in business affairs, has been for year a substantial shareholder.

The recent increase in the issued capital of the Bank by $1,000,000 is the result of mature deliberation. The last issue was made in 1906, when the capital of the Bank stood at $4,000,000, and the Deposits and Circulation at $31,500,000. Today our Capital stands at $5,000,000, with Deposits and Circulation at $45,000,000, with evidences of still further increases deposits and circulation to come. We think, therefore, in the interest of the Shareholders and of the public, for whose profit and convenience we were brought into existence, that the time has come to avail ourselves in part of the policy approved of by you on the 22nd of May, 1907.

There can be no question that additional bank capital to keep pace with the development of the resources of the country is needed; there can be no doubt that such additional capital can be supplied more economically by the financial institutions at present in existence than by new organizations. The wonderful development of the resources of the Northwest and of Brit-The wonderful development of the resources or the Northwest and of British Columbia, coupled with large immigration from the mother country and from the United States, and the demands of the additional population upon the manufacturing institutions of the country require a corresponding addition to the banking capital of the Dominion. It is, moreover, an obligation on the part of the older institutions to do their full share in supplying the needful. We have been in the van in the development of the Northwest and of British Columbia, without falling to do our duty to the older provinces; it now becomes necessary for us to look to the future and to be qualified way of capital and enterprise to remain in the front rank. To that end we have thought it advisable to ask you for your approval of a bylaw authorizing additions to the Capital Stock from time to time. The increase in Deposits and Circulation during the past year has been from $39,400,000 to $45,300,000. The opening of eighteen new Branches within the year has entailed considerable extra expense, which has been provided for out of the profits of the year. Profits have also suffered from the low rates of interest upon call money which has prevailed in the great reserve centres. There is every indication of better rates in the near future, the result of greater activity in trade and of increasing confidence in the financial situation. Canada, however, has no reason to complain; the neglect of railway and industrial securities in the United States, coupled with the political unrest in Great Britain, has brought enormous sums to Canada for investment, which are assisting in the development and utilization of our great natural resources.

Taking the figures which appear in the returns of the Chartered Banks to the Dominion Government as an index of commercial development, we find that the total assets of these institutions have grown from $951,053,557 in 1907, to $1,182,850,000 in 1910 (30th April). The circulation of Bank Notes has grown from $72,840,909 to $78,776,000, and public deposits in Canada from $574,588,438 to $768,000,000. Current loans, representing for the greater part loans to merchants, manufacturers and agriculturists (irrespective of loans on stocks, bonds and debentures) have grown from $586,149,738 in 1907 to $638,000,000 in 1910 (30th April).

It is estimated by Government and railway officials that there is now under crop in the three Northwest Provinces no less than 14,850,000 acres, as compared with 12,465,237 acres in 1909. The total yield of agricultural products in these three Provinces in 1909 is valued at $192,838,000. May we not reasonably look for a yield for 1910 of the value of $225,000,000, and yet only six per cent of the arable lands in these Provinces are under cultivation. Farm lands under cultivation in the three Provinces mentioned are valued by the statisticians at $23 per acre. The cash value of these lands is, therefor, no less than $341,550,000.

The value of the wheat harvest in the Northwest Provinces in 1909 was $121,560,000, as against in the rest of the Dominion only $19,760,000. On the other hand, the value of all field crops in Ontario for the same year was $200,398,000, as compared with $193,000,000 in the three Northwest vinces. The field crops of Quebec and the Maritime Provinces yielded $140.-000,000. The eastern Provinces are, therefore, so far as the value of field crops is concerned, still considerably in advance of our great West. The total value of the field crops of all Canada for 1909 was estimated at $533,000,000, the product of 30,065,000 acres of cultivated land, as compared with $432,500,000 in 1908, the product of 27,505,000 acres.

In 1909, over and above the value of agricultural products, fisheries yielded $25,450,000, and minerals $90,378,000, of which $12,382,000 was the product of the silver mines of Cobalt. It is regrettable to note that the gold of British Columbia and the Yukon, and the bulk of the silver of Cobalt and British Columbia still find their way to the smelters, assay offices and mints of the United States, instead of being refined in Canada. Last year we exported of cattle and their products over $51,000,000. Our total exports from all Canada were $242,603,000, of which $28,957,000 were manufactured goods, and our total imports $298,206,000, of which $186,172,545 were manufactured

BANK PREMISES.

The responsibility of providing suitable premises for the Bank over the vast territory in which we are represented is a serious problem, and will continue to be so, in view of the fact that in the majority of localities it is more economical for the Bank to provide its own premises than to rent from outsiders, who naturally look for a more substantial return upon their investments in a new country than would satisfy the Bank upon a similar investment of its own Capital. We have, however, nothing to apologize for. Our Bank premises are a sound investment, and yield a handsome return upon their book value. We expended during the year upon new premises $248,851 67. The amount beyond the $200,000 has been provided for out of the profits for the year. At the moment premises are under construction at Cranbrook, Kenora, Prince Albert, Wetaskiwin, South Woodslee and Humberstone.

The Shareholders of the Bank now number 1,327, as compared with 1,302 in 1909. It will perhaps interest you to know that we have at the moment 102 Branches and sub-branches, extending from Quebec to Victoria.

Our staff numbers 665, as compared with 589 in 1909.

RENEWAL OF BANK CHARTERS.

It was fully expected that the decennial revision of bank charters would have taken place during the recent session of the Dominion Parliament, but the demands of public business did not permit of this being done. The existing charters run until 1st July, 1911, so that it will be necessary to dispose of the matter during the course of the next session of Parliament. It is not expected that any radical changes will be made in the terms of the charters, unless in the direction of providing additional safeguards in the incorporaton and establishment of new institutions.

The population of Canada, which was estimated at 7,145,040 in 1909. is now estimated as on 31st March, 1910, at 7,489,781, and it is to be noted that the increase by way of immigration consists in the main of the most desirable class of settlers. It seems they draw a ring around the beans, and the owner of the first bean to jump out of the circle wins the money. FAREWELL DINNER

Former President Receiving Many Letters On Guildhall Speech, Some Abusive.

London, June 9 .- Dorchester House, the residence of Whitelaw Reid, the American ambassador, was the scene yesterday of two functions in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Roosevelt-a reception in the afternoon to the members of the Pilgrims and American societies, and a farewell dinner tonight. Both were quiet affairs, on ac count of the court mourning, and the fact also that Mr. and Mrs. Reid are in mourning for the late Ogden Mills. and Mrs. Reid and Mr. and Mrs. Roose

Several hundred persons attended the dinner, including most of the prominent members of the American colony. Mr. velt received at the head of the grand staircase. The guests included the Archbishop of Conterbury, Sir Edward Grey (the foreign secretary), the Duke of Portland, Lord Curzon of Kedlestone, the Right Rev. Charles Henry Brent, American bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Philippines, and Lord At the luncheon at Col. Arthur H

Lee's, Mr. Roosevelt met two Englishmen of widely-separated political views, the Earl of Selborne, high commissioner in South Africa, and governor of the Transvaal, who has just returned from his post, and David Lloyd George, chancellor of the exchequer. Others at the luncheon were Sir Horace Plunkett, of the department of agriculture in Ireland; Sir Alfred Pease and W. W. Jacobs, the writer, who was invited on Mr. Roosevelt's specia request.

Mr. Roosevelt will spend his last day in England resting in the country. Hundreds of letters commenting on the Guildhall speech are pouring in. The great majority of them are laudatory, but some are abusive.

Newspaper clippings have reached the ex-president referring to the political imortance attached to the dinner which Robert Collier will give to Mr. Roosevelt on his return. Mr. Roosevelt today called attention to the fact that this engage ment was made when he lunched with Mr. Collier before starting for Africa, and said that there was absolutely no political significance attached to it.

HOMES FOR LITTLE ONES

Splendid Work Done by Children's Aid Society Last Year.

Toronto, June 8.—The Children's Aid Society has been busy during the past year, according to the annual report of Provincial Superintendent J. J. Kelso issued this morning. Homes have been found for 605 children, 468 Protestants and 137 Catholics. The provincial officers placed 191, the Ottawa Society 81, Berlin 75, Belleille 34, Toronto 30, Guelph 29, and Hamilton 19. The figures are creditable. Mr. Kelso points out, with the exception of Toronto. "Here," he says, the shelter is overcrowded and over 1,300 children are in public institutions. Authorities might well take this matter up and plan a special homefinding campaign.

SHARKEY WANTS TO TAKE JACK'S PLACE

Thinks Johnson Will Be Injured and Unable to Meet Jeffries.

weight champion named Fred Richau in Who Is This Canuck? Sharkey is now satisfied that if he could put away a 214-pound Canadian champion in two rounds he can defeat the boilermaker or the black man. Richau, the man he defeated, had cleanloose a 13-inch shell and sunk him.

I have not been in the saloon all the time, but have been out exercising my horses. On Nov. 26 next I will be 37 years old. CORRESPONDENCE

An Episode at Springbank. currence at Springbank Park yester- respect. The circumstances, he said, day afternoon appeared in this evening's issue of your paper; and since it is my desire to enlist the sympathies and co-operation of every right-minded citizen in the protection of the harmless birds and animals in cur beautiful park, I should like to give you a correct statement of the affair. On my way to the station at the farther end of the park I noticed a large group of boys of all sorts and sizes, urged on by a man (?) engaged in stoning a chipmunk which they had treed. One boy who had climbed the tree was keeping the little animal down within range. Knowing that boys often do these things out of thoughtlessness rather than brutality, and that they forget that though life can be easily taken it cannot be given back, I appealed to their sense of fair play, reminding them that forty to one was hardly "square." Most of the boys responded readily and willingly, and though some large poys jeeringly objected I was successful in seeing the little squirrel reach safety. As I was turning away these boys stirred up a baby chipmunk and eventually captured it. The captor ried to escape, but I "collared" him. apon which he threw it into the bushes. To my astonishment I was myself "collared" and threatened with arrest by an individual who professed to be a park official!!! Doubting the truth of his statement, since he was so anxious for the boys to escape, I sent for the police and detained him until they arrived.

Perhaps I feel more strongly in the matter because I have recently witnessed several instances of men givdren by wantonly torturing and killing animals, not only harmless but useful, such as the wholesale slaughter of Halifax, June 8. — The most pressing need of the Presbyterian Church in Canada is more ministers and more students in the divinity halls of the colleges. A feature of today's session was an address by Rev. C. W. was pointed out that the church must man next autumn 250 preaching sta-tions in the west, while only 57 stu-dents in theology have graduated this year from the various Presbyterian colleges. As the church spends $250,-000 a year in maintaining colleges, each graduating student costs about $5,000. Dr. Gordon declared that the system of educating ministers had broken down somewhere. In the face of this rather serious statement the assembly agreed to the launching of cona, where the provincial university of Alberta is located. The assembly this morning dealt first with the report on the reception of ministers from other churches. All the applications were received except two. That of Rev. George Jack was deferred, and that of Rev. Mr. Burrows was referred to the Synod of the Maritime Provinces.

Detroit, June 9.—Charles Drasler, of the American Tap-Bush Company, of Detroit, who has just returned from a six months' trip through South America, met Dr. Frederick Koch at Valapariso.

"While I was at the hotel in Valparaiso there was an American there who went by the name of Craig," Mr. Drasler said. "Some of the other Americans in the house thought they recognized him as Dr. Cook from his pictures, and later that identification was made absolute by a Danish engineer who had accompanied him on one of his exploring trips.

A New Rule Regarding Culverts__Accounts Ordered To Be Paid-A School Appeal.

An interesting point has arisen at the county council. At the January session a bylaw was passed enacting that all bridges under twenty feet in length were to be classifield as culverts without the jurisdiction of the county. The commmittee on bridges has recommended the building of bridges by the county in several cases under twenty feet. It is the opinion of a number of the councillors that a structure nineteen feet long is much too long for a culvert and the bylaw may be changed to read that all bridges under ten feet in length will be classified as culverts.

The county court case is that of Daunt against Fisher. It is an action brought by Charlotte Daunt as to whether certain insurance left under the will of William George Fisher, the income of which was to go to his mother, Mrs. Richard Fisher, for her life, and at her death the principal was to be used to pay off certain mortgages against William George Fisher's land.
Some of the money, it is alleged, was used to build an addition to the property of Charlotte Daunt. Mrs. Daunt is proceeding under one of the mortgages for $200, and it is alleged that this was diverted from the fund by Rachael Fisher, and should have beer left intact for the purpose of paynig off the mortgage.

The parties are just reversed in the surrogate court case. Rachael Fisher made a will last December. The will has Little iVola Stinchcombe, daughter of Mr. Archie Stinchcombe, of Rectory Bosanquet.

PARENTS READY TO COMPROMISE

Aberdeen School Damages Claims Are Again in the Limelight.

LOOKS LIKE SETTLEMENT

It Appears That the City Is Willing to Meet the Parents Half Way in the Matter.

At the meeting of the board of education held yesterday afternoon, H. W. Ashley asked the trustees to reopen the question of damages to the children injured in the accident at Aberdeen School a year or so ago.

It will be remembered that the parents of several of the children applied for damages. The board made an offer to them, which they refused. Suits were threatened, and City Soll-citor Meredith advised the board not to pay the money, as the city was not liable, he said. Now many of the parents are will-ng to accept the offer made by the board, and the application of yester-day was to reopen the case.

Dr. Wyckoff suggested that the claimants be offered the same as they were before. Trustee Gunn thought that was the proper suggestion, as the people were poor and needed the money. How-ever, it was decided to refer the mat-ter to No. 1 committee, who will settle the claims.

Inspector Edwards reported that the enrollment in the public schools for the month of May was as follows: Public school, 5,014; kindergarten, 847. This is an increase of 81 in the public school, and 45 in the kindergarten over May, 1909. The average attendance shows a decrease of 128 for the month, due to the prevalence of measles and whooping cough.

The fees for the departmental ex-
