Bright Outlook for Western Terminus

(The Outlook)
A visit to Port Wade as to the mines at Torbrook impresses one with the fact that the Canadian Iron Corporation and Messrs. McKenzie & Mann have strong faith in the future of the iron industry in Annapolis Co. Within the next 12 months the two corporations just mentioned are to spend $120,000 on ore loading facilities at Port Wade.

A wing 120 feet long is to be built on the eastern end of the pier and the main part of the pier will be widened. A tower 50 feet high and capable of holding 200 tons of iron ore is to be erected on the outer end of the pier. Elevated loading pockets with a total capacity of 7000 tons are to be built at the head of the wharf. Underneath these will be installed heavy machinery excavations for which are now being made. A power house is also being built close by. An endless chain carrying buckets will convey the ore from the pockets to the loading tower at the end of the wharf. This machinery is expected to load 1000 tons of ore per hour. For this 800,000 square feet of timber, 20,000 feet round native logs and 150 piles, 75 feet long will be required, so we were informed by Mr. D. C. Fleming, who was in charge of the work for Messrs. Reid and Archibald, the contractors.

A concrete wall 64 feet long, 15 feet high and five feet thick is to be built to protect the works against the possibility of a landslide of the road bed across the head of the pier. An elevated track with a long sweep is also to be built to enable the ore laden cars to reach a position above the ore pockets. This will make it possible to unload the cars very quickly.

If mining and shipping ore is carried on upon the scale which the facilities at the mines and at the shipping point indicate it will mean two or three trains daily from Torbrook to Port Wade and return. This will mean a lot of money in circulation at both points. It should also make it easy for the railway company to provide a daily passenger and freight service on this poorly served section of the H. & S. W. The presence of so many steamers at Port Wade may lead in time to the shipment of a good proportion of the fruit crop of the Valley at this point instead of being hauled by rail the long distance to Halifax. This port may also become a distributing point for coal, fertilizer, etc., destined for the western part of the Valley.

THE GREAT RIVER CLOSED

The navigation of the St. Lawrence below Montreal, closed on the 26th Nov. It sounds oddly with the weather in the sea-provinces, so warm and sunny at the close of the week, that the St. Lawrence River and Gulf should be storm-swept and ice-bound. The "key" will not be turned again at Quebec probably before the 10th of May. It is not fair to Canada that Quebec and Montreal should be regarded as our national ports when Halifax and St. John are open all the year around.—Presby. Witness.

Defence of Nestia's Captain

Editor Yarmouth Times:—
Sir,—I desire to correct a wrong impression abroad respecting the late lamented Captain Newman and his conduct in leaving some of the crew behind on the ship. On the afternoon of the funeral Second Engineer Morgan came to my house. Asked as to why the Captain left him and five others behind, Mr. Morgan related the facts which I herewith append:

It was in a most leisurely manner that arrangements were completed for leaving the ship. Having lost two of the boats by heavy seas washing them away, two boats remained—a large and a small one. About five o'clock all hands were ordered to the boats. Twenty-five men were appointed to the captain's boat and fifteen to the small one; among the latter were Dunnigan, the boatswain, the Galloway boys and the six survivors. As is usual four men were appointed from each group to release their respected boats from the davits and then run down the falls themselves. At the word of command the captain who was practically the last man to leave the ship, took his seat in the large boat and at once it was released, and the four men having come down the falls, the captain's boat was soon away with its twenty-five occupants. Just as the small boat was about to be released an unfortunate accident happened and it was this that caused six men to be left behind. A heavy sea climbing up the ship's side struck the stern of the boat was soon parted from the automatic fastening and suspended in mid-air in a perpendicular position; the eleven occupants (among whom were Morgan and MacViekar, two of the survivors), were speedily precipitated into the sea. The four who had remained on deck to let go the boat witnessed the accident and of course were left on board. After much difficulty Morgan and MacViekar were rescued, making the number of survivors six. Mr. Morgan told me that just as the accident occurred Dunnigan, the boatswain, was handing him a knife to cut the oars' lashings. When Morgan came to the surface he only heard one cry, that of the Galloway boy. The only possible theory was, then, that the captain picked up eight or nine of these men. Since all had on life preservers, had he not done so, it is reasonable to suppose that Morgan, who was in the water for forty minutes, would have heard their calls for help. In the face of these facts I do not see how any one can charge Captain Newman with unseamanlike conduct.

I hold no brief for the dead captain. His record as a navigator was too well established to require posthumous praise. But there remain those who are deeply sensitive to any charge of cowardice urged against one who was dear to them and out of regard and sympathy for them and out of respect for one whose lips are forever sealed, I desire to do the manly thing in removing any aspersions cast upon his name.

TENNIS AND QUOT CLUB CONCERT

Successful Musical Entertainment Given by Bridgetown Tennis and Quoit Club with Chorus of Twenty

The Tennis and Quoit Club added to their former well-earned laurels in their second attempt at a public entertainment which was given in the Court House on Monday evening last. Solos and choruses, selections from popular operas, in costume, made up the main part of the program, which was as follows:—

Opening Song, "Anchored"
Solo, "You Can't Guess What He Wrote on my slate" Duet and Chorus, Churning Song by Milk Maids.
Duet, Polly Hopkins and Toney Tompkins

Solo and Chorus, "So Long, Mary"
Banjo Solo, Mr. Emery Amiro.
Solo and Chorus, Fishing Maids Orchestra Selection.

Solo and Chorus, "Yip-i-addy-i-a"
Reading, Mrs. W. A. Warren
Chorus, Quaker Maids and Wooling Song.

Amusing Sketch, "A Pair of Lunatics"
Comic Duet, "By Chance We're Both Willys" Solo and Chorus, "The Witches"
Chorus, "Mystery of Love"

The choruses were given with good effect. The solo by little Lorna Congdon and the duet by Dorothy Lloyd and Ronald Ruggles were pleasingly rendered and received due appreciation. The duet in the "Churning Song" was taken by Miss Mattie Dearness and Mr. Fred Beckwith, and the singing and acting in the chorus was excellent. Miss Dearness took the solo part in "So Long, Mary," with happy effect and in the other parts proved herself a favorite amateur. "Fishing Maids" in which Miss Bessie Crowe took the solo part in her usual effective manner was the hit of the evening. The leader and chorus were equipped with fishing rods with red hearts attached to their lines and their manner of fishing for hearts received delighted applause. Quaker Maids and Wooling Song was given with excellent effect as was also the weird chorus "The Witches" with solo part by Miss Dearness in striking costumes. The solo part in "Yip-i-addy-i-a" which was to have been taken by Mr. Munro was taken at short notice by Mr. Wheeler.

Mrs. Warren in her usual refined and graceful manner gave a pleasing reading and was called upon to respond to an encore. The amusing sketch "A Pair of Lunatics" was cleverly acted by Miss Katharine Piper and Mr. B. Simpson, while the low comedy element was successfully furnished by Mr. E. Amiro in negro impersonations with banjo selections and Messrs. F. R. Beckwith and Mr. Munro in a character duet.

Much of the success of the evening was due to the excellent music rendered by the Bridgetown Orchestra, composed of Ross Bishop, 1st violin, George Hatt, 2nd violin Louis Young cornet, Elton Burns, base horn, C. B. Longmire, trombone and Mrs. A. R. Bishop pianist. Mrs. Bishop was also the efficient accompanist through the evening.

To the efforts of the committee, Messrs. F. R. Beckwith and R. Simpson and Misses Madge Morse and Alice DeWitt was the success of the occasion due. Notwithstanding very bad roads and a pitchy dark night there was a large attendance and the sum of eighty dollars was realized. We venture to say if the concert were repeated on a moonlight night with better roads an equally large attendance would be secured from those who could not be present on this occasion.

The following ladies and gentlemen comprised the chorus:—
Mrs. Patrick, Misses G. Healy, B. Hoyt, M. Dearness, B. Crowe, F. Cochrane, F. Giles, F. Bishop, B. Burgess, B. Young, G. Reed, E. Johnson, M. Lockett, R. Lloyd and K. Piper, Messrs. C. Wheeler, J. Kinsman, M. Munroe, M. Salter, E. Burns, F. Beckwith, R. Simpson, V. Lloyd P. Munroe and W. Dargie.

Cost of Cape Breton's Strike

"Strikes don't pay," was the sentence of one Debs, a great fomentor of these evils. So it seems; for it is now estimated that already a million and a half has been lost as a consequence of the Cape Breton coal strike. The men have lost $537,000 in wages. The labor organization has lost $250,000 paid out for the relief of the suffering. The province has lost $73,500 in royalties. The public will lose $33,000—the cost of soldiers to preserve the peace. The business men and the transportation companies have lost heavily, and the Coal Company has lost profits on the sale of nearly 600,000 tons of coal. So says the Halifax Herald, which does not, however take into account the misery caused the families of the strikers who were forced to strike, against their own inclinations by a foreign combination. And this misery ensued as a consequence of the strike, in spite of the $25,000 alleged to have been paid out "for the relief of the suffering". The men did not want relief; they needed work which they were not allowed to take. It is time for a change.—Montreal Trade Review.

Funeral of Augustus Gibson

The remains of Mr. Augustus Gibson were forwarded to Bridgetown on Wednesday last and were interred in Bridgetown cemetery. The service was conducted by Rev. N. MacNeil, of the Baptist church and Rev. E. Underwood, of the Church of England. A letter from the contractor of the construction camp where he died, states that Mr. Gibson was apparently in his usual health in the morning and ate his usual breakfast. During the morning he complained of not feeling very well and went to his sleeping camp where he was found about noon unconscious. He was carried into the open air and everything possible done to revive him, but he passed away shortly afterwards. A coroner was summoned but on learning the facts considered an inquest unnecessary and the death certificate states that the deceased came to his death from heart disease.

The Prohibition and the Labor Votes

Provincial byelections were held on Wednesday, Nov. 24th, in Victoria, Cumberland, Hants and Lunenburg. In Victoria, Buchanan, Liberal was elected by acclamation.

The vote in Cumberland was Livingston, Liberal, 2932; Rogers Liberal, 2639 and Landry, Labor 1232. Parsons, Lib-Con. won in Hants with 42 majority and McLean, Liberal in Lunenburg with 535, the latter winner being a foregone conclusion.

The byelections have resulted in no change of the strength of the political parties in our Legislature.

The Liberals have elected Mr. Livingston in Cumberland and Attorney General McLean in Lunenburg, and the Liberal Conservatives have elected Mr. Parsons to succeed Mr. Wilcox in Hants.

In Cumberland the Labor candidate Mr. Landry, has lost his deposit, but he cut deeply into both political parties, especially into the Conservative vote in Springhill. Mr. Livingston's majority is some 300 over Mr. Rogers, 3,000 less than at the Dominion election—the violent storm would account for this very considerably, says the Truro News.

In Lunenburg Mr. McLean had a majority of over 500 over Mr. Margeison.

The hottest contest was in Hants County. The late Mr. Wilcox had carried this constituency by 59 majority at the general elections, and in this by-election Mr. Parsons, the Liberal Conservative, has been elected by some 40 majority.

In Hants the Prohibitionists certainly got in their good work, and likely some Temperance Liberals voted for Mr. Parsons.

The Moose Record

The moose hunting season closed Nov. 16th. More than 300 monarchs of the forest went down before the unerring aim of the hunters in the province during the 60 days the season was open, and average of a little better than five a day. By counties the killing was as follows:—

Halifax Co., 79; Annapolis Co., 42; Queens Co., 31; Guysboro Co., 27; Yarmouth Co., 19; Lunenburg Co., 12; Kings Co., 11; Colchester Co., 11; Hants Co., 5; Pictou Co., 3; total 331.

Last year the moose killing, actually and legally reported were 590, the animals consisting of 300 bulls 240 cows, and 50 no sex given. But from reports from wardens it was estimated that the total killing would amount to about 800. This year the killing of cows is altogether eliminated and this means that there may be a possible reduction of about 240 in the year's killing.

The falling off in comparison to last year is no doubt due to the fact that only bull moose could be killed this year.—Exe.

Cross Accusation in Truro Robbery

Truro, Dec. 3.—Indications are that the mystery of the Truro holdup in the Canadian express office here last summer is rapidly being cleared up.

W. L. Burgess, in jail for the past month, made a confession exonerating his brother employed in the express office and implicating one W. L. Rutledge in the affair.

For the past month Detective Walsh has been on the trail of Rutledge through many western states and eventually located him in Chicago last Sunday. He was arrested and brought to Truro a couple of days ago.

Since here he also has made a confession and, if true, places the guilt of the crime upon the two Burgess brothers.

As a result of Rutledge's confession William J. Burgess, the express clerk was last night arrested also, and is now in jail. Next week all three will be up for a preliminary examination.

RICH COAL AREA

Ten thousand acres of rich bituminous coal, which will coke to the extent of 86 per cent., have been located on the Peace River just across the border of British Columbia by a syndicate which includes several prominent capitalists of Eastern Canada and which is represented in Edmonton by Mr. R. Brutinel.

This is the latest discovery in the far famed Peace River country. Small seams of coal have been found at intervals along the Peace River well up towards the mountains, but nothing of the extent and quality of the huge coal area which has been filed upon by this syndicate.

Three Days and Three

Nights in Open Boat

(Digby Courier)

A telephone message to the Courier from Digby tells an awful tale of suffering and the narrow escape of two of Westport's prominent fishermen.

At 3 o'clock Monday morning Mr. Geo. Repool, aged 20, sailed from Westport in a twenty-foot open gasolene boat fitted for trawling. They made a set in St. Mary's Bay and were afterwards sighted by the Freeport schr. Swan, Capt. Nelson Thurber, who reported them hauling trawl at 10 o'clock the same morning.

They failed to return with the rest of the fishing fleet and as the greatest gale of the season prevailed from Monday until early yesterday morning everybody believed that their little craft had blown to sea or foundered while endeavoring to make port.

The only hope held out until last night was that they had been picked up by a large outward bound bark from Weymouth for Buenos Ayres which had been seen to lay to for a few minutes at the mouth of the bay.

About one o'clock yesterday afternoon they were picked up some twenty miles off shore near Trinity Ledge by the schr. Augusta Evelyn, which is also a Freeport vessel commanded by Capt. Joseph Thurber.

The men were landed in Westport at four o'clock yesterday afternoon in an exhausted condition, but Dr. Bishop, Freeport's popular physician, took them, with careful nursing, they will both recover.

The men are not able to give a full account of their terrible experience, but as near as can be learned, their engine became disabled after the squall struck them Monday morning. They anchored their little craft four miles off shore and two miles west of Grand Passage where they rode out the gale three days and three nights without food and with but a very little water.

Just imagine their sufferings throughout those terrible days and nights, the heavy wind being accompanied by snow followed afterwards by rain.

Then early yesterday morning when they had a little hope of being seen from the land, their anchor rope parted and they drifted to sea not being picked up until they were more than twenty miles from home.

Their families and the people generally on Brier Island are rejoicing over their rescue, and the kindness shown the sufferers by Capt. Joseph Thurber and his crew will long be remembered.

J. E. LLOYD

Richard the Brazen

Copyright, 1909, by Methuen, Yard & Company.

"Bless my soul," he spluttered. "Is this the—eh?"

"The Earl of Croftland, of course," answered Mr. Renwyck, striving to control his growing impatience at all these interruptions.

"Of course," said Richard solemnly. "Didn't you just recognize me yourself?"

"Fellow! Chaps! This isn't the Earl of Croftland, Mr. Renwyck. He's an impostor, sir. You are being grossly deceived."

If a lyddite shell had been exploded on the lawn of Restmore it could not have created a more profound sensation. There were several startling exclamations, short and sharp, then a sudden silence, which finally the farmer broke.

"Dog my cats!" he roared excitedly. "I know he was tryin' to woole me!"

"Come into the house," said Mr. Renwyck sternly. "All of you. We'll sift this matter to the bottom."

The assemblage which gathered in the large wide hall was indeed a mixed collection. Besides the haughty Miss Schermerly and the dismal Mr. Van der Awe, there were one wondering English gentleman, two detectives, a constable, several more or less terrified servants, a farmer, an automobile agent, a lawyer, a banker and a scapgoat. This is not counting Mrs. Renwyck, who found herself in a frightened state of agitation which Miss Schermerly could not soothe, nor Miss Chittendon, who was worse off; nor Miss Renwyck, nor Miss Sumpson, who was displaying her "rippin'" figure from a point of vantage on the stairs between the other two.

"Now," said Mr. Renwyck, facing the scapgoat in the center of the hall—"now, sir, may be good enough to give an account of yourself."

"What would you like to know first?" asked Richard in an exasperatingly level voice.

"Are you an Englishman?"

"An Englishman? Well, rather not," answered the scapgoat.

"No, thank 'ee," came the fervid answer. "An American and proud of it!"

Sir Rodney's face flamed redder than before. So did Miss Harriet's, but hers from a very different cause.

"Oh, I say!"—disposed the ambassador.

"His English!" laughed the farmer. "Good!"

"I knew there was something wrong," began Miss Schermerly in malicious triumph. "I always thought his manner had not the repose that—"

"His manner?" continued Mr. Renwyck, glaring about him savagely. Then he turned once more to Richard. "You have imposed on my hospitality, sir. Who are you?"

"Now, whom do you think I am?" asked the Texan, with a most engaging smile.

There was silence for a moment; then Miss Sumpson spoke:

"Pardon me, Mr. Renwyck, but I think I can supply that information. He is—or says he is—Peter Wilson, chairman for the Layton Motor company. He intended to drive a car on a track."

"Can a broncho?" exclaimed Miss Harriet, to whom an illumination was dawning.

shown it from the first, yet now she recognized the fact that she loved the pseudo Englishman even if he had not turned out to be her hero of the plains. How splendid he looked as he faced the company, striving to shield two helpless girls by taking the blame of the robbery upon himself! For her sake he was being branded as a thief. Nothing else should not be!

"Imogene," she whispered. "I must tell. I must, I must!"

But Imogene clung to her appealingly.

"Oh, don't!" she pleaded. "Certain-ly will be so angry at me. Look at him glowering now! Just wait a little while. I shall die of shame. Please, please!"

Harriet bit her lip. It was too late now, anyway, for her lover was speaking again, and she did not wish to miss a word.

"Gentlemen," he was saying, "Mr. Renwyck has accused me of a crime. Perhaps he is justified in connecting me with the loss of his valuable property; but, on the other hand, I appeal to you as level-headed, thinking men. His evidence is purely circumstantial."

"Can you prove your innocence?" sneered the financier.

"Unfortunately, no, nor am I compelled to do so by the laws of the land," returned the Texan quietly.

"But I can wield as strong a chain around any member of this household whom you choose to select."

"Done!" retorted Mr. Renwyck angrily. "Make the choice yourself. Go on!"

"Very well," laughed Richard. "I will, Mr. Renwyck, I select you!"

"Me?" stormed the millionaire, starting back in genuine astonishment. "Preposterous!"

There was a chuckle of delight from a distant corner, and Mr. Renwyck had no trouble at all in fixing it upon Brother Michael. Richard stood with his feet slightly apart, his hands in his pockets, while he began to rock forward and backward on his heels and toes. The humor of the situation was causing him to grin.

"Gentlemen," he said, "and ladies, too, if you will allow me—this is merely for the sake of argument—our honorable host, for whom, believe me, I have the utmost respect and admiration, has unfortunately placed himself in a very ugly light. To begin with, he is involved in a certain financial scheme, the details of which I am not at liberty to disclose. Suffice it to say it requires a vast amount of capital. That Mr. Renwyck is plucked for money is proved by the fact that night before last he urged me to place $100,000 in his enterprise."

"What?" gasped Mr. Renwyck. "Why, sir—why?"

"Wait!" said Richard sharply. "I have the door." Again he turned to the company. "I declined to invest this amount of money for reasons of my own, though my host was much annoyed thereat."

The speculator, who could not imagine what Richard was driving at, stood speechless with amazement, while his brazen guest went on:

"Falling in this attempt, gentlemen, the prisoner at the bar next looks about him for other means to relieve his need. His daughter is possessed of diamonds valued at much more than the amount required by him. He has these gems in charge and claims to have put them in his safe. Did any one see him do it? No. Can he prove that he placed them there at all? I think not, gentlemen. By his own admission he is the only person who knows the combination of that safe. He was warned by an eminent lawyer to place detectives in his house and declined to do so for obvious reasons. He did not wish to be spied upon!"

"Bully!" chuckled Uncle Michael to himself behind the shield of a handkerchief stuffed into his mouth. "Oh, bully! I didn't think he had it in him! Go for him, Dicky, boy! Go for him!"

Mr. Renwyck was far too thunder-struck even to defend himself. He glared at his accuser savagely, while his rank cheeks grew paler still with impotent rage.

"Stop!" he shouted. "This is nonsense, infernal nonsense! What! I steal my own daughter's diamonds? Ridiculous!"

"Can you prove it?" asked the Texan suavely. "If so, the court will acquit you gladly. It's up to you, Mr. Renwyck. Fire away!"

"Well, by Jove!" exclaimed Sir Rodney, actually letting his monocle fall in his excitement.

CHRISTMAS STAMP CAMPAIGN THE 1909 BATTLE AGAINST THE DREAD WHITE PLAGUE.

Available Beds in the Muskoka Free Hospital for Consumptives Increased Three-Fold as a Result of Last Year's Sale of Christmas Stamps. The Number Can Be Doubled This Year If Everyone Will Help.

STIMULATED by the success of a year ago the National Sanitarium Association have made large preparations for the sale of the Christmas Stamp of 1909-10, issued on behalf of the Muskoka Free Hospital for Consumptives.

Nearly $50,000.00 was netted from last year's sale, making it possible for the trustees to increase the available beds for needy patients from an average of fifty-five a year ago to one hundred and forty, the accommodation to-day.

The trustees are hopeful that they may bring the accommodation up to 300 beds as the outcome of this year's sale of this little one cent messenger of hope and healing.

The Christmas Stamp, as a means of fighting the dread white plague, had its origin in Denmark in 1904, the sale from which has financed a hospital for consumptives in that country. The idea was taken up by the Red Cross Society of the United States in 1907, and interest has grown each year.

A year ago a Christmas stamp of special design was put in circulation by the Muskoka Free Hospital for Consumptives with the success already indicated in this article.

The price of the individual stamp is only one cent, but what wonderful things can be accomplished by so tiny an instrument. There is no reason why everyone who writes a letter, addresses a postcard, mails a newspaper or parcel from this day out should not use one of these stamps.

The educational value of the stamp appearing on every piece of mail matter would be enormous. One can hardly figure up the material results. It would mean a routing of the enemy.

The stamp of 1909 is more beautiful than that of a year ago. The design is as shown in this article, but printed in red and green, and is of same size as the regular government postage stamp.

This Christmas stamp will not carry any kind of mail, but any kind of mail will carry it—and carry too the Happy Season's Greetings from sender to receiver. The stamps will be done up in envelopes of ten, twenty-five, fifty and one hundred for ordinary selling, and large orders will be supplied in quantities. The price for ten or for one hundred is a cent each.

The banks, departmental stores, drug stores, book and stationery stores and many other stores will sell them. Women's clubs, church organizations, bible classes and Sunday schools, public schools, and many other organizations and individuals will help this year as last year.

There would seem to be no reason why everybody everywhere may not help in forming an army of willing workers to sell these stamps all over the Dominion. The Muskoka Free Hospital for Consumptives is in the fullest sense a national institution caring for patients from every province in Canada.

The first issue of the stamp for this year is one million, and these will be put into circulation immediately, but there can hardly be any reason why the issue should not be increased many times over before Christmas.

The direction of the sale of Christmas Stamps is in the hands of Mr. J. S. Robertson, Sec.-Treasurer, National Sanitarium Association, 317 King Street, West, Toronto, who will give prompt reply to any enquiries regarding the stamp.

MILITARY DRILL IN SCHOOLS.

(New Glasgow Chronicle)

Germany is accounted the most military nation on the earth; yet military training is not used in the common schools. In Nova Scotia the people are so forbearing as to permit Sir Fred. Borden's fad being taught in the common schools. At a convention of the W. G. T. U. lately such teaching in the schools was vigorously condemned, as it should be. The idea of introducing the teaching of military drill in our common schools is one of the absurdities created by faddists and should be abandoned. If the state wants soldiers let it take them and teach them such is its work—the work of the common schools is something entirely different.

Kidney Disease For Years

This Well Known Gentleman Strongly Recommends "Fruit-a-tives" to all Sufferers.

JAMES DINGWALL, Esq.

"I have much pleasure in testifying to the almost marvellous benefit I have derived from taking 'Fruit-a-tives.' I was a lifelong sufferer from Chronic Constipation, and the only medicine I ever secured to do me any real good was 'Fruit-a-tives.' This medicine cured me when everything else failed. Also, last spring I had a severe ATTACK OF BLADDER TROUBLE WITH KIDNEY TROUBLE, and 'Fruit-a-tives' cured these complaints for me, when the physician attending me had practically given me up. I am now over eighty years of age and I can strongly recommend 'Fruit-a-tives' for chronic constipation and bladder and kidney trouble. This medicine is very mild like fruit, is easy to take, but most effective in action."

(Signed) JAMES DINGWALL, Williamstown, Ont., July 27th, 1908. 50c a box, 6 for $2.50—or trial box, 25c—at dealers or from Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

TO HAVE NICE HANDS.

If the hands are washed in lard water it is very difficult to keep them in good condition. Bran bags will soften the water and may be used instead of soap, as they are composed of bran, shaved white castile soap, and a little powdered orris root to give a fresh clean fragrance. Mix the ingredients well together, and put them in bags of cheese cloth, each holding about two spoonfuls. It takes only a few minutes to sew up a sufficient number of bags to last a couple of weeks the object in having them tiny being that one bag need be used only once, or at most, twice, as a bran when moist sours in a wain room.

As to emollients to use on the hands, after washing at night, a lot depends on the skin, some women like a lotion of glycerine, lemon juice and rose water, others cannot use glycerine. A cucumber emulsion, is softening and whitening. Remove from the hands traces of the day's grime, with flesh brush, hot soft water, and a pure soap, rinse and dry them, and apply emollient, continuing rubbing gently until it has all been absorbed by the skin.

What Our Trade-Mark Means to You

IT means that the flour contained in bags and barrels so trade-marked is decidedly whiter, a great deal stronger and more nutritious than other flours.

It means that the flour has been properly aged to mature its full strength.

It means

"More bread and better Bread" and better pastry, too.

It means elimination of uncertainty—"your money back" if Purity fails to give entire satisfaction.

Costs more than the other kind, but worth the difference.

FASHION DETAILS.

The New Fall Blouse is of Silk Jersey. A Daring Costume Venture.

The latest thing in blouses is made of silk jersey. "Put it not in Gath, whisper it not in Askalon," but this is just the material of which the top of your satin petticoat, of last year was made. The dresser models are simply made and richly embroidered.

A daring venture is the using of black steves and yoke in an all white gown, but they are chic and have a tremendous amount of style. For instance, you may have the yoke and sleeves of black chauntilly lace, or the bodice may be veiled with black chiff.

PRINCESS COSTUME.

fon, and to further emphasize the note of black a wide black silk scarf is draped about the hips from the waist down to a distance of twelve inches.

Princess costumes are very smart and promise to continue their vogue for a long time to come. The gown illustrated is made after one of the latest models, with a founce that provides graceful and becoming fullness and flare, while it is smooth fitting at the body.

The Waist Line Now Normal—Vagaries of the Winter Modes.

The waist line has come down to its normal position, and it is laced rather tightly. All kinds of contrasting belts with rosettes will be worn. In fact, this is to be a fluffy season.

The hat shape turned up in the back is again with us, and this, of course, means a different style of hairdressing. Sleeves are to be absolutely plain across the top in most cases this season, which at least gives a graceful shoulder line.

While the princess tunic will not be abandoned for a long time to come, it will form a compromise with the newer modes in some cases by having the underskirt, which shows through the transparent princess, laid in close plaits.

Cashmere makes charming winter gowns for the younger girls. The frock pictured is of this material, and the color is one of the new grayish blues, and the trimming is silk banding, while the gumpie is of white muslin.

OUTDOOR SLEEPING AT HOME.

As to outdoor sleeping at home, many methods have been devised. There are the sliding beds, on which the upper half of the sleeper extends out of the window and is covered with an awning, having one side open; the roof cage, for city houses with boarded tin or shingle top, and screen sides; the porch, tent and the back-yard shack, two sides of which are lattice work, with inside storm curtains of canvas that can easily be lowered; but the most practicable of all is the sleeping balcony. This balcony, or upper porch, is generally built upon the rear of the house off an inside dressing-room that is kept at a comfortable temperature. Such a structure, say 7 by 9 feet, can be built upon brackets at a cost of fifty to one hundred and fifty dollars. One side of it should be fully enclosed to protect the sleeper from prevailing winds, and there should be an overhanging roof. The house wall, of course, affords additional protection. The other two sides should be boarded three feet up from the floor, and above that they may be left open, with canvas curtains drawn up to the top, ready to be let down and buttoned securely in bad weather, always leaving a narrow gap at the roof protected top for ventilation. Lattice-work may screen the open-air sleeper. It prevents the bed-room and uprising from becoming neighborhood affairs.—Baily Milhard.

MEETS DEATH IN GAME

Football has claimed another victim in Archie Christian, the eighteen-year-old halfback of the University of Virginia team, whose injury in the game with Georgetown University yesterday was followed by death at Georgetown University hospital. An autopsy disclosed that death was due to cerebral hemorrhage following concussion.

Ravages of Consumption

ALL HER RELATIVES HAD DIED OF CONSUMPTION. In the year 1890, 18 years ago, Mrs. G. S. Censer, of Belle Mead, N.S., was in a sad condition. All her relatives had died of consumption, and there was every indication that she was going the same way. At this point her husband suggested to try Psychine. The doctor who attended said Psychine was worthless; but it effected a wonderful cure. Eighteen years after in a letter bearing date August 14, 1908, Mrs. Censer says, "I am better than I have been for years. My lungs have not troubled me since I took your treatment. My physician told me I could not take a better tonic than PSYCHINE, and I recommend it to all who are suffering from Lung Trouble and General Debility."

FALL FASHIONS.

Drapery Used on Waists—Shoulder Seams Disappear From Sight.

Drapery in the form of bretelles and sash effects are to appear as waist trimming on the new gowns, and the idea is to cover the shoulder seam as much as possible—exactly what we did not do last winter.

Jacket fronts are appearing in bodices which are en suite with skirts. One such waist of princess style has turned back lapels of the jacket which are heavily braided. The open front shows the princess waist cut round below a shallow yoke of embroidery and lace and a second yoke of tuck net.

Short waist lines except in evening gowns are rare among the best costumes and will probably be completely out of the running by fall. The loose fitting long coat fills a great many needs, for it can be worn for traveling, for motoring and for general utility. The coat seen in the cut is desirable for every one of these uses. In the illustration it is made of lightweight shower proof cloth, but all cloakings are appropriate. This fall hosiery and diagonals will be exceedingly smart, but the plainer cloths are always in demand. The back of this coat can be made either plain or with a seam.

Don't Boil Clothes

It isn't necessary—it's expensive and it means doubling your work. You don't have to boil clothes when you use Taylor's Borax Soap, for it dissolves and removes the dirt in a jiffy—yet it never harms the daintiest textures, nor shrinks woolsens.

It leaves everything whiter, sweeter and cleaner than you ever dreamed possible. Try it and see.

TUB TALK No. 2

To wash colored muslins, linens or lawns, first make a strong suds with Taylor's Borax Soap and luke warm water. Wet but one piece at a time. Unless the article is very much soiled, do not run the soap directly on the article. Rub gently with the hands until perfectly clean. Wring out the clothes, and rinse thoroughly in water of the same temperature as that previously used. Never boil colored clothes. A very little Taylor's Borax Soap added to boiled starch will prevent it from sticking, and makes the clothes iron smoother and easier.

WEDNESDAY, December 8, 1909.

—Although a quantity of interesting and timely matter is crowded out of our columns this week by the pressure on our advertising space we do not feel called upon to apologize for this fact, since, to the majority of our readers, nothing is more interesting than the timely advertising matter we are giving them.

Every progressive merchant appreciates advertising as the live wire of communication between him and his customer, and the wide awake reader never fails to respond to this intimation from the merchant that his custom is wanted and his needs are catered to. The merchant who neglects this means of unity with his customer labels himself "behind the times."

Joseph H. Appel, manager of Wan-amaker's Philadelphia store, says about advertising:

"Advertising is both production and distribution. It distributes the merchandise of the world and then produces demand for still more. It both creates wants and supplies them.
"Advertising is the great builder.
It builds business; it builds fortunes;
it builds homes and communities and cities and nations. But its highest work is in upbuilding humanity. The constitution and the church follow the flag, but both the flag and the missionaries follow business created through advertising.

"Advertising is the greatest educator; the great humanizer; the great civilizer. It teaches a better way of living; a better way of furnishing homes; a better way of managing our affairs. It brings communities closer together; it makes friends of enemies and brothers of friends; it binds the whole world together; it makes the world kin.

"Advertising is the product of America; of the last half-century of America's young life; it is the creative power of this the most wonderful age
the world has ever seen.

"The world moves faster because of advertising. Man achieves more because of advertising. And the human family grows wiser and better through intercourse of the people which is possible only because of advertising.

"The civilized world of today is one big business family, and advertising is its guide and mentor. 'How to live,' says Herbert Spencer, 'is the vital question,' and advertising gives the answer."

CHEAP BUTTER

A Western produce dealer, who has no apparent interest in depressing the price of butter, states that in the Provinces of Manitoba and Saskatchewan, there is a decided overplus of this staple product. It is quite certain, at any rate, that this firm issued circular post cards last week offering dairy butter at 15 to 18 cents per pound, which shows a notable downward tendency of prices.

The above was the subject of some discussion on 'Change this morning.'
One produce dealer pertinently remarked that the quality of this butter must be tainted, else holders of a surplus of it, if the quality was nothing worse than second rate, could find a ready outlet for their whole stock in the East, where stocks are not abundant.

The West continues to order supplies of all grades of butter from Montreal, and this fact makes the situation more problematical. Manitoba dairy selections are quoted here, in a wholesale way, at 20c. to 21c;
finest creamery at 25c, and current make at 24c to 25c.—Montreal Witness.

MARSHALL-O'DELL

Annapolis Royal, December 1.—A very pretty home wedding took place here this morning at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. G. O'Dell when their eldest daughter, Miss Fanny O'Dell and Mr. Harry Marshall, of Halifax, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony by Rev. H. How, the rector of St. Luke's, in the presence of relatives of the contracting parties. The bride was very prettily dressed in a costume of blue cloth with hat to match, and looked charming. The couple were unattended. After the ceremony a wedding repast was served and the happy pair were driven to the railway station, where they took the train for Halifax, where they will in future reside. The presents were numerous and costly, for the bride is deservedly popular. A large number of friends were at the train to extend congratulations, bid them farewell and wish them bon voyage on the matrimonial sea and shower them with confetti.

Obituary.

LEANDER ELLIOTT

At his home in Clarence, on November 23rd., Mr. Leander Elliott passed away, aged 73 years.

His was a happy release after many months of suffering which was borne with true Christian fortitude.

He united with the Clarence church more than fifty years ago and since has lived an exemplary Christian life.
As long as health permitted he was ever in his place in the Sabbath School and prayer service.

A wife, two daughters, Mrs. Laura Bishop, of Clarence and Mrs. (Dr.)
McCurdy, of Bluehill, Maine, and one son, Lorenzo, of Clarence, will ever mourn a loving husband and father.

The funeral services were conducted by Rev. C. H. Havestock of Nictaux.
The interment was at Pine Grove cemetery.

ILL HEALTH IS MORE EXPENS-IVE THAN ANY CURE

This country is now filled with people who migrate across the continent in all directions seeking that which gold cannot buy. Nine-tenths of them are suffering from throat and lung trouble or chronic catarrh resulting from neglected colds, and spending fortunes vainly trying to regain lost health. Could every sufferer but only the past and cure that first neglected, cold, all this sorrow, pain, anxiety and expense could have been avoided,

EUREKA UNDERWEAR IS "WELL FINISHED".
UNSHRINKABLE NOVA SCOTIA WOOL
If there is one thing more than another in which Eureka Underwear excels it is in the way it is finished. This after all, is a most important feature, it has a lot to do with the comfort, shapeliness and wear resist-

Ask your dealer to show you Eureka Underwear for men, examine it, compare it with others. Notice the way the button holes are made, the way the seams are overstitched and the other good points.
It's really unshrinkable. In heavy weights at medium prices.

LOCAL AND SPECIAL

Miss Bess Ruggles opens a private dancing class in Ruggles Hall this evening.

If this weather keeps on we shall require bridges rather than street crossings.

Mrs. Leslie Nickerson, of Freeport, has been spending the past two weeks with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Geo. N. Eaton.

The Dominion Parliament will begin its Christmas vacation on the 17th December, and will reassemble about the 11th January.

Don't forget the Tea and Fancy Sale to be held in the vestry of the Paradise church, tomorrow night, as previously advertised.

The Provincial Legislature is further prorogued until the 10th day of February, 1910, when it will probably meet for the dispatch of business.

Two men were killed in the steel works at Sydney on Monday, one leaving a wife and ten children, the other a wife and fourteen children.

The wrecked steamer Hestia, on the Old Proprietor Ledge, disappeared during last week's storm. Only a small portion of her cargo was taken out.

The shareholders of the Bridgetown Rink Co. will hold a meeting in the Council Room on Friday evening, at eight o'clock. It is urged that all members be present.

The Board of Trade is appealing to the public for funds to carry on the campaign with a view to bringing the C. P. R. to Halifax. A subscription list is open.—Halifax Herald.

The Semi-Annual meeting of the Tennis and Quilt Club will be held in the Council Chamber on Thursday evening, Dec. 9th, at 7.30. All members are urgently requested to be present.

Mr. H. A. Cosman, bookkeeper for McKenzie Crowe & Co., returned from St. John last week, where he went to attend the funeral of his father, Mr. G. W. Cosman, who died suddenly on the 23rd ult.

The regular monthly meeting of the Town Council was postponed from Monday evening last to next Monday owing to the absence of the town clerk, who was attending Probate Court. There should be "something doing" in regard to lights when next the council meets.

The "Jeanne A. Pickels," the schooner launched from Mr. Shafner's shipyard here this season, and commanded by Capt. Richards of La Have, made a record trip on her maiden voyage. She left Annapolis with a cargo of lumber on Nov. 12th, and landed it in Havana on the 24th, just twelve days from port to port.

Schr. Helen Shafner, which was ashore on Liverpool ledge, Barrington Passage, was floated on Thursday of last week by the Provincial Wrecking Co., after discharging 125 tons of coal. She was taken to the Government wharf and cargo reshipped. She was taken in tow on Monday morning for Halifax. Her false keel is gone and the vessel is slightly leaking, says an exchange.

The home of John W. Jamieson, St. John, was the scene of a sad tragedy at an early hour Thursday morning, when, as the result of falling on a stairway with a lighted lamp his wife was burned to death and the house badly gutted by the fire that followed. Mr. Jamieson and his son and the other occupants of the house barely had time to escape in their night clothes.

The latest information regarding the whereabouts of Mr. Arthur Gerner, who was reported as having taken a sudden departure from his home causing great anxiety to his friends, is that he has obtained employment in or near Boston and will not return this winter. His wife will join him there and his brother-in-law, Mr. Frank McAndrews and wife have taken charge of the homestead farm for the present.

An official notice in another column says the Yarmouth Times, announces important changes in the running of freight and accommodation trains between Yarmouth and Digby, commencing next month. These changes will give quick transit to freight between Yarmouth and Halifax. Under the new arrangement freight leaving Yarmouth in the morning will reach Annapolis the same day and be sent forward from that place early next morning and goods leaving Halifax in the morning will arrive here the following afternoon. This schedule will be eminently satisfactory to all patrons of the D. A. R., says the Times.

LOCAL AND SPECIAL

Mr. J. W. Beckwith returns today from a business trip to St. John.

Mass will be celebrated in St. Alphonso's church next Sunday.

Mrs. Reg. Miller, of Annapolis, visited friends in town the first of the week.

Dr. Croaker, of Middleton, was a guest of M. W. Graves for a few days quite recently.

Mrs. Agnes Murdoch leaves in a few days to spend the winter in Halifax with her son.

Ratepayers are asking the question, "What becomes of the money we are paying for street-lighting?"

Mrs. Leslie Porter, of Yarmouth, came to Bridgetown last week to attend the funeral of her brother, Mr. Augustus Gibson.

Mrs. Anderson and family have returned from a visit to Dorchester, N. B., and the doctor has rented apartments in the house of Mrs. Murdoch for the winter.

Mr. W. A. Chute, the building mover, of Bear River, has been in Bridgetown during the past week and has successfully accomplished the moving of a house for Mr. Burton Walker, without disturbing any of the contents.

The Nova Scotia Fruit Grower's Association met at Kentville last week and was a large and enthusiastic gathering. A report of the proceedings is crowded out of this issue of the Monitor-Sentinel, but will appear next week.

Mr. A. M. DeWitt, of Eustis, Florida, has sent the Monitor-Sentinel a fine booklet published by the Eustis "Boost Club" descriptive of the attractions of Eustis. Why not a "Boost Club" for Bridgetown? Who will set the ball rolling?

Gravelling of the sidewalks is still going on but not rapidly enough for public comfort,—neither is the work of cleaning out the ditches to allow the water to run off the streets and sidewalks, at which at least half a dozen more men should be set at work.

A portion of the road fronting the properties of Avar Anderson and M. Slocum has been in such bad condition that teams turned out on to the sidewalk with the result that the sidewalk was ruined and made dangerous for foot travel and is in consequence barred off. Now the road is almost impassable in any way and is dangerous after dark.

Very sad news for the many friends of Mrs. Irvin, of this town will be the information that her death occurred this morning at St. John, where she has been spending several months with her daughter, Mrs. H. McAvity. Mr. Irvin was with her when she passed away. It is expected that the body will be taken to her old home at Truro for interment.

In Cassier's Magazine Mr. Julian Chase Smallwood declares that we should train the schoolboy to think independently instead of treating him as now, like a keg with a funnel in its bung hole to receive the liquid poured into it. In other words we should educate his reason rather than his memory.

Death of Mrs. Margeson.

Berwick, Dec. 4.—The death took place last evening after many months of suffering, which she bore with christian fortitude, of Amanda, wife of Noble Margeson, about a year ago finding that she was suffering from gangrene in her foot, she went to the hospital in Halifax, and had part of her foot removed. But the dread disease broke out again a few months later, and about six weeks ago she underwent another operation at her home here: this time having her leg amputated above the knee. Dr. Murray, of Halifax, performed the operation being assisted by Dr. McNally of this town, and Dr. Killam, of Wolfville. For a time she seemed to be doing nicely but other complications set in, and her sufferings were intense, until death released her. She was a very estimable christian woman. She was a daughter of the late Peter Wilson, of Aylesford. Her first husband was James Mc Masters by whom she had two children, both of whom are dead. By Mr. Margeson she had a son, who with his family lived with his parents, and a daughter, Mrs. McLeod, of Bridgetown. She also leaves four brothers, Elijah Wilson, of Waterville; Christopher, John M., and Enoch, all of Massachusetts, and a sister, Mrs. Susie Smith, Mass.

SPUR LINE WILL BE BUILT.

Kentville, Dec. 3.—The spur line running west from the C. V. R. branch of the Dominion Atlantic Railroad is now a settled fact. At a recent meeting of the committee composed of A. E. MacMahon, J. A. Kinsman and A. S. Fisher, with General Manager Giffins of the D. A. R. they received the assurance that the Company is ready to build the road, if the people wanted it, and that construction work would begin early in the spring. The first ten miles will be started. This running west from Centreville will reach the vicinity of Somerset.

The Local Government gives a subsidy of $3,200 per mile, and the Federal Government the same. This will possibly cover the cost of construction of the road-bed.

This spur line will pass through one of the most important parts of the fruit growing districts, some of the largest and best orchards in the County and lying between the line of the D. A. R. and the North Mountain.

The produce of apples and potatoes has to be carried in many cases from twelve to fourteen miles, and one of the largest growers stated that it was impossible for him to put his fruit on the market with the present shipping facilities.

FOR A LAME BACK

When you have pains or lameness in the back, bathe the parts with Chamberlain's Liniment twice a day. Then dampen a piece of flannel slightly with this liniment and bind it over the seat of pain, and you may be surprised to see how quickly the lameness disappears. For sale by W. A. WARREN, BRIDGETOWN, A. E. ATLEE, ANNAPOLIS ROYAL, and BEAR RIVER DRUG STORE.

VERDICT OF THE JURY

Campbellton, Nov. 30.—The inquiry into the disaster at Nash's Creek on the morning of Oct. 6 was brought to a close this evening when the jury brought in their verdict, completely exonerating the authorities of the I. C. R., and fixing the blame upon Conductor Thompson and Driver Whalen, of the freight special. The jury also placed themselves on record as opposed to the existing system of orders, and recommended that a sufficient number of night operators be appointed to safeguard the travelling public and train crews. The coroner's charge to the jury was absolutely impartial. He simply pointed where the evidence conflicted and left it to the jury to decide on their verdict according to the evidence.

Hattie LeBlanc, an Arichal girl, aged 16 years, is under arrest in Waltham, Mass., for the murder of her employer, Glover, a laundry man. The police believe there are others implicated and Mrs. Glover and her brother are under suspicion.

The Breeding of Horses

(Sussex Record)

That good horses pay has been proved over and over again by leading breeders and dealers in Ontario. At the big New York house show, which is one of the society events of the continent, Canadian horsemen have, in late years, won many distinctions. Last week they captured many first honors in the classes in which they were competitors and had no difficulty in disposing of their winners at high figures. This sort of thing has been going on for some years. The Ontario farmer has come to the realization that good horses pay and has been devoting considerable attention to improving the horse-flesh on his farm. It is from among this class of horses that many high priced equines have been purchased by leading dealers who have fitted the animals and then disposed of them in New York at fancy prices, after winning much fame and valuable awards in competition with the best breeders of the United States. In last week's bout Canadians swept the field in Clydes, and won distinction in the big fair at Seattle a Canadian swept driving and hunting classes. At the the boards in the Percheron classes and Canada has been represented in the trotting and pacing world by some of the fastest horses on the American circuit during the past two years, the products of Ontario farms. The commanding position now occupied by Ontario was not won in a day. It has required years of scientific breeding to get the results arrived at. Good horses have been brought in to the province and a foundation laid from high-class animals, the best in America, have been produced. There is no reason why New Brunswick cannot reach a similar goal. Possibly we are too impatient in the matter of the improvement of our horses. The stock hereabouts is badly run down and often a breeder expects too much from a poor dam and a high-class stallion. Only the succeeding generations bred in turn to high-class animals can be looked to for progeny equal to the best Ontario horses. The American horse-breeder, the highest authority on trotting and pacing stock in the world, points out in each issue, that in order to get good stock the blood of the thoroughbred is necessary. The Horse Breeder is responsible for the statement that no great race horse has been campaigned in the United States for years, which has not shown a full measure of thoroughbred within three or four generations. That has been the history of Ontario in her campaign for the best horses and it is blood that New Brunswick needs. Everybody knows that good horses, animals that will stand right up to hard driving, are scarce in this province. When they can be secured, good prices are realized for them. Within a few months several importations of high-class stock will be brought to New Brunswick by private dealers. The animals are to be sold at St. John and every purchaser will be assured of good stock. The mares will have been bred to pure bred animals and in this way there will be a further acquisition to the horseflesh of the province. Purchases may be made conditionally or unconditionally as the buyer desires. He may, under the former arrangement, secure assistance from the local government to the extent of having freight paid to point of delivery on the understanding that the animal must remain in the province for five years, or he may buy, pay the freight and then be in a position to sell when and where he chooses. The first importation is to be a lot of Clydes, mares and stallions. Other breeds will follow later. An effort should be made to get some of these animals for Kings county, either through private buyers or agricultural societies. It is necessary to do so if we want good horseflesh and no sane man will deny that we are badly in need of just that commodity.

Why He Deals Home

A physician in a town in the American West recently received a personal letter from one of the Chicago mail-order houses in which his patronage was solicited. This eloquent appeal concluded as follows:

"If there is any reason why you do not buy of us, please give us your reasons in the enclosed stamped envelope and we will strive to remove the cause."

The forcible reply of the physician in which a loyal stand on behalf of the home town was taken, was as follows:

"Your letter asking why I had not traded with you for a long time received, and as you ask me to tell you frankly, I will give you a few reasons: "1. I am in business in this community and am looking to this community for my support. I cannot ask the merchants of this town for their support if I do not give them mine.

"2. In looking over my book I fail to find the name of either your company's officials, which reminds me that none of these gentlemen have evaded given me a penny's patronage. Why is this? Am I too far away, or have neither of them needed a physician, or are they afraid of the mail-order plan when it comes to the practice of medicine? I can certainly give as good satisfaction by mail as your house can, and will appreciate a call from either of them when in need of medical service.

"3. In looking over the subscription lists for improving our streets and public highways, I have failed to find the name of any member of your firm down for one penny to assist in the work. Also, I have failed to find your name on any of the charity lists where help has been rendered to our poor; in other words, you are not down as a contributor to our Helping Hand Society. In fact, in all the movements for the betterment of our condition, where our community has needed the united efforts of her public spirited citizens, I have failed to find your name among the list of our contributing merchants. Your name is not on our city tax books, nor do I find where you have paid a city license to do a mercantile business in competition with our home merchants. "These are a few answers to your questions, and I trust you will see the justice of them."

HEALTH, WEALTH, AND WORK.

So long as Nature's laws require that mankind shall work, the necessity of keeping one's self in health and strength is of first importance. Many people believe that men of great wealth do nothing. That is a mistaken idea. They may not work with hammers or shovels, but they work with their nerves, brains and minds. Scores of millionaires have worked themselves into nervous prostration in their efforts to control, to avoid losing, their millions. But it is the humble workers who suffer most. Mr. Arves Berter, of Robertson, Gloucester Co., N. B., is a sturdy man of 65, who works in the lumbering districts in winter, and who, therefore, must have good health. Some years ago, he suffered much from Dyspepsia, with headaches, dizziness and rheumatism. In a statement, dated June 24th, '09, he says he used only Mother Seigel's Syrup and four bottles cured him completely.

DULL TIMES IN THE STATES.

At a meeting of the Georgia Industrial Association held at Atlanta, attended by prominent cotton-mill men from all parts of the state, it was decided to curtail production by reducing the operating time of cotton mills of the state 25 per cent. This action affects 150 mills.

It was declared that the mills face critical conditions in view of the wide difference in the prices of raw and manufactured cotton. For two months or longer the mills will operate on three-fourths time, the curtailment to continue after January 2, providing the price of cotton goods does not advance to a point where the mills can operate without sustaining a loss. Following the plan of curtailing production of manufactured goods in this country and abroad, owing to the prevalent high price of cotton, the management of the Everett, Mass., mills announce that the plant will shut down for the week on Thursday night, and that beginning on Monday Nov. 1, until further notice, the mills will run on a schedule of fifty hours weekly, a curtailment of two hours daily. Twelve hundred hands will be affected. The mill consumes about 150,000 pounds of cotton a week.

Joker's Corner

HARDLY FOR IMMEDIATE USE.

On the day the boy was 11 years old he visited an artist friend. The artist liked boys. He gave him a gun and cigarette coupons worth $2.50. The boy was proud of the gun, but he thought still more of the coupons. "What are you going to get with them, son?" asked his mother. "I don't know," said the boy. His mother was about to offer a few suggestions, but the boy's father interfered.

"Just let Jim alone," he said. "Let him pick out his own prize. He knows what he wants." "But he'll get something foolish," argued the practical mother. "No, he won't," said the father. "That boy's got the best judgement of any boy I ever saw. He won't throw his money away. He'll come home with something useful—something that he needs right on the spot. I wouldn't be afraid to bet on that."

So the mother finally gave in. On Saturday the boy went downtown to exchange his coupons for a prize. When he came home the family was gathered at the dinner table talking about him. "Come, dear," said his mother. "show mother what her little man got." They sat expectant while the boy unwrapped his prize. After a little they spoke. The mother said: "What did I tell you?" and the father said: "Well, I'll be darned!" The boy had bought a razor.

NOVEL ARGUMENT WON

At an important state function in London, blue tickets were issued to persons of high rank, admitting them to that part of the hall reserved for members of the royal family. Less distinguished guests were given white tickets. Through some mistake, an important public man received a blue card while his wife received a white one.

When the couple reached the audience chamber, there began to be trouble, inasmuch as the lady firmly declined to be separated from her husband. An aide endeavored to reason with her, pointing out the dreadful consequences that would follow a mingling of blue and white. "How absurd!" exclaimed the lady. "What do you take us for—a Seidnitz powder?" She was permitted to enter with her husband.

THE CAMPAIGN FUND AGAIN

A political office in a small town in Iowa was vacant. The office paid two hundred and fifty dollars a year, and there was keen competition for it. The Democratic candidate, Ezekiel Hicks, was a shrewd old fellow and a neat campaign fund was paid over to him. To the astonishment of all, however, he was defeated.

"I cannot account for it," said one of the Democratic leaders gloomily. "With that money, we should have won. How did you lay it out, Ezekiel?"

"Well," said Ezekiel, slowly pulling his whiskers, "yer see, that office only pays two hundred and fifty dollars a year salary, an' I didn't see no sense in payin' nine hundred dollars out to get the office, so I just bought me a little truck-farm instead."

TRAPPED

"No, I don't go to church very often," a young man declared to the girl whom he had accompanied to a house of worship Sunday evening. "but when I do go I make up for my absences by slipping a five dollar gold piece in the offering."

"I don't think I have been to church in six months, so that sort of squares me," he whispered, when he dropped a coin about the size of the five-dollar piece in the box as the usher passed it.

At the close of the service the minister arose and announced: "The collection for foreign missions this evening amounted to $326."

The young man didn't have much to say on the homeward walk.

WORKMEN IN PULP MILL, MILTON, N. S., HAD NARROW ESCAPE FROM HORRIBLE DEATH

A workman in the big pulp works, at Milton, Queens County, had a narrow escape from a horrible death at that place one day last week says the Truro Sun. During the greater part of the day he had been engaged, with others, unloading a car, or cars, of coal; his clothes becoming drenched by rain that fell steadily during the time he was at work. When the task was completed he went to the boiler to warm and dry himself. Attached to the boiler is an arched brick flue. When wet and cold certain employees had been in the habit of standing on the arch of the flue, which is always quite warm. They had been frequently warned that it was not safe to do this, but this warning the man in question did not heed, with the result that the arch gave way, and he dropped into the flue filled with flames. The engineer noticing that something was wrong, turned on more draught, thus causing a greater amount of flame to rush into the flue. This not making any change for the better he started to investigate, and was startled when he met the victim of the accident with his face as black as the ace of spades, the hair nearly all burned from his head and with nothing on but his under clothing and his boots, the latter burned to a crisp. The man's clothing had been burned away to the underclothing, which, by the way, happened to be Stanfield's unshrinkable. Strange to say, the man was not severely injured. There were burns on his hands, his knees and his feet. He said he had passed through a terrible few minutes while fighting his way out of the flames.

TORTURED BY PILES

Could not Rest! Could not Work! Could not Play,

How Zam-Buk Brought Relief

Mr. Julius Glacier, of Denbigh, Ont., says:—"I was so tortured by piles that I could not get ease whether lying down, sitting or standing. The ailment robbed me of strength, of appetite, and of all desire to live! I had suffered so long and so acutely that I came to think there was no ease for me, but one day I found out that I was wrong! "I was told that Zam-Buk cured piles, and that this balm was altogether different to ordinary ointments scores of which I had proved useless for bad a case as mine was. I got a supply of Zam-Buk, and began to use it regularly. "Without going into unnecessary details in a few weeks I found myself cured. I owe my cure to Zam-Buk entirely, and I trust my experience will be the means of leading other sufferers to try this great herbal balm."

Nothing need to be added to this plain, powerful testimony save one question—if you suffer like Mr. Glacier did, why not get relief from the same source as he did?

Zam-Buk—as he truly says—is "something different" to the ordinary ointments and salves. It is a powerful combination of healing and soothing herbal essences. No mineral astringents or poisons; no impure animal fats.

It is a proved cure for inflamed areas (as in piles) erysipelas, eczema, ulcers, sores, abscesses, cold cracks, chapped hands, burns, cuts, scalp sores, and all skin injuries and diseases. It is the most suitable balm for children's rashes. All Druggists and Stores at 50c. box or post-free from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, for price

A little girl came to her mother with a plaint that her shoe hurt her. The mother looked at the little foot and asked the child where it hurt, and then demanded alcohol. This being at hand, she thoroughly saturated the child's shoe over the part where the hurt was, using her fingers and pressing them gently on the shoe. The remedy eased the child's pain, and the mother said that she always used it to loosen a tight shoe. For either kid or canvas shoes the treatment was the best where the shoe could not be put on a last.

D. 1909, at 12 o'clock noon pursuant to an order of foreclosure and sale made herein and dated the 16th day of November A. D. 1909 unless, before the day appointed for such sale the amount due to the plaintiff with its costs be paid to it or its solicitors:

All the estate, right, title and equity of redemption of the late John T. Anderson, deceased and of all persons claiming or entitled by, from or under him in and to ALL and singular those certain lots, pieces or parcels of land situate, lying and being at ROUND HILL in the County of Annapolis, Province of Nova Scotia, conveyed to the said John T. Anderson by William Spurr and wife by deed bearing date the first day of April, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five, the same being bounded and described as follows:—

FIRST: ALL that certain lot beginning at the main post road leading from Annapolis to Bridgetown on the eastern side of the Spurr road, so called, at Round Hill; thence southerly along the east side of said Spurr Road to the north line of lands now or formerly of William Wagstaff; thence easterly along the north line of lands now or formerly of said Wm. Wagstaff, to the west line of lands, now or formerly owned by Bernard W. Spurr; thence northerly along said Bernard W. Spurr's west line to the post road; thence westerly along said post road to the place of beginning, containing twenty-three acres, more or less.

SECOND: ALL that certain other lot of land, beginning on the east side of the Spurr road at the south-west corner of lands now or formerly owned by William Criss; thence southerly along the east side of the said road one and a quarter miles; thence westerly one and a half rods to the east line of lands, now or formerly, of Joseph A. and Samuel Bancroft; thence southerly along the said Bancroft east line to the base line of the Township lots; thence along the said base line easterly to lands, now or formerly of Thomas Spurr (being the west line of said last mentioned lands), thence northerly along the west line of said lands now or formerly, of Thomas Spurr to the southeast corner of lands now or formerly of the said William Criss; thence westerly along the said William Criss's south line to the Spurr road at the place of beginning, containing, by estimation, two hundred acres, be the same more or less.

THIRD: Also, another certain lot, piece or parcel of marsh land beginning at the south-west corner of a certain board fence, bounded on the east by Isaac Healy, running north two degrees west forty-two rods to land belonging to Daniel Cameron, thence north eighty-three and a half degrees west eleven rods and eleven links following a board fence which is the south boundary of land, now or formerly belonging to said Daniel Cameron; thence south two degrees east forty-two rods to a stake; thence south eighty-three and a half degrees east eleven rods and eleven links to the corner of the first named board fence at the place of beginning, containing three acres more or less.

FOURTH: Also, another piece or parcel of marsh land beginning at a certain stake in the board fence in the south line of land, now or formerly, belonging to Daniel Cameron, being distant from Isaac Healy's west line at right angles eleven rods and eleven links; thence north eighty-three and a half degrees west containing as the board fence runs north-westerly and thence westerly until it makes eleven rods and seven links at right angles; thence south two degrees east forty-three rods to a stake; thence south eighty-three and a half degrees east eleven rods and eleven links to the place of beginning, containing three acres more or less.

FIFTH: All that certain piece or parcel of land situate, lying and being at ROUND HILL in the County of Annapolis, Province of Nova Scotia, conveyed to the said John T. Anderson by William Spurr and wife by deed bearing date the first day of April, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five, the same being bounded and described as follows:—

said in the County of Annapolis and conveyed to the said John T. Anderson by George Rufus Whitman and wife by deed bearing date the first day of April, A. D. 1895, the same being bounded and described as follows: viz., FIRST: All that certain lot of land bounded on the south by the main post road; on the north by the Annapolis River; on the east by lands of Edwin Anderson and on the west by lands of Bernard Spurr, containing ten acres more or less. SECOND: All that garden lot bounded on the north by the main post road, on the east by lands of Edwin Anderson; thence from the said Anderson's west line following round the mill pond with a west course till it strikes the main Post Road; thence along said Post road to Edwin Anderson's west line, containing one acre, more or less. THIRD: The salt marsh lot bounded on the north by the Annapolis River; on the south and west by the creek and on the east by lands of Bernard Spurr. FOURTH: ALL that certain wood lot bounded on the north by lands of Robert Spurr, Jr. on the south by the base line of lots; on the east by lands of Edwin Anderson and on the west by lands of E. D. Spurr, containing one hundred acres more or less. FIFTH: All that certain piece or parcel of land situate as aforesaid on the north side of the main post road bounded as follows:— Commencing on the main post road to front the western front door so as to include the hall door of the dwelling house in the western end; thence running parallel with the eastern line of said homestead northerly to the river thence along the river westerly until it comes to where a line of the middle ditch of the salt marsh strikes the river; thence along said ditch southerly to the creek; thence along said creek easterly to the end of the picket fence; thence northerly to a rock marked with three straight marks diagonally; thence in a direct line to the end of the stone wall southerly to the main post road aforesaid; thence easterly along said road to the place of beginning. Save and except all those certain parts of the said described lands and premises which have heretofore been conveyed to the Windsor and Annapolis Railway Company.

TERMS:—Ten per cent deposit at time of sale; remainder on delivery of deed.

A BEEF DISH

An excellent way to cook round beef steak is as follows: Spread a large slice on the meat board and slash it across both ways with a sharp knife or pound it with a beef pounder, and sprinkle it with salt and pepper now making a dressing the same as for roast of pork, add some finely chopped onions, and spread this dressing on the steak as it lies on the board; now roll it up tightly and tie it securely the whole length of the roll with strong cord, and place it in a stew kettle with half water enough to cover it. Add to this one tablespoonful of vinegar and boil two and one half hours; then remove from the kettle and bake one-half hour in a moderate oven. This is found very appetizing, and when sent to the table it should be garnished with parsley and served with gravy made by thickening the stock in which the meat was boiled.

The addition of the spoonful of vinegar to the water in which the meat is cooked gives it a piquant flavor, and a zest to the gravy, which is generally relished.—What to Eat.

HARBOR IMPROVEMENTS

The estimates for the coming fiscal year recently tabled by the Finance Minister at Ottawa contain the following appropriations for harbor improvements in this vicinity: Annapolis (ice piers), $1,000; Deep Brook wharf $1,500; Delap's Cove breakwater, $1,000; Litchfield breakwater, $4,000; Parker's Cove harbor, $2,000; Phinney's Cove breakwater, $4,000; Digby harbor, $30,000. Wolfville is to have $15,000 towards a public building.

UNION BLEND TEA

the tea that satisfies

YOU know the kind of tea you like—will you let Union Blend prove its own case? That's all I ask. Simply go to your grocer, order a pound packet—or a half pound if you prefer—and see for yourself if it doesn't make half as many cups again as the kind you are using. Just count the cups. A tea at 40c that goes half as far again as a 30c tea is economy, isn't it? Your own teacup can be the judge—I'll stand by the decision it makes. Try it.

COULD GET NO RELIEF

"The Father Morrissy's No. 10"
Cured Bronchial Trouble.

Pictou, N.S.
MORRISSEY MED. CO., LTD.
I can testify to the benefit derived from Father Morrissy's cure for bronchial trouble.

For some time I was a sufferer from this trouble, and could get no relief from it, until I used his medicine prescribed.

On taking Father Morrissy's medicine, to my surprise, I began to improve, and was completely cured.

With a grateful heart, I give this testimony, to the great value of Father Morrissy's prescriptions.

I remain,
JOHN GRATTAN.

This is simply a sample of hundreds of letters which were received by Father Morrissy during his lifetime, and since then by the Father Morrissy Medicine Co., Ltd. Do not despair, even though your cough has defied ordinary cures, but get a bottle of "Father Morrissy's No. 10," and experience yourself the relief it has brought to so many sufferers. AN EARLY SERMON ON CHRISTMAS GIFTS

It is now high time to begin to plan systematically for the Christmas shopping. Many women have been fashioning dainty gifts in their spare moments all through the summer, but now they should take up the matter in earnest making out the list of persons whom they intend to remember, and then jotting down a note for each.

MAKES ASTONISHING CURES

There is just one way to cure dyspepsia and stomach disorders, trival or serious and that is to tone up or put energy into the stomach walls, so that they will be able to properly mix or churn the food.

MI-O-NA TABLETS CURE DYSPEPSIA BY PROMPTLY REMOVING THE CAUSE OR MONEY BACK.

Harry Dodd, of Bridge St., Hastings, Ont., says: "For seven years I had suffered and spent much money doctoring, but all to no avail. I could eat but very little, as the food would ferment and sour, making gas, which caused serious heart oppression. I was in constant misery, sour gas would belch from my stomach, I was languid and weak and had no ambition. I did not feel like going anywhere or seeing anyone. There was a constant dull pain in the pit of the stomach. I was unable to sleep, was nervous, restless and would awake more tired than on going to bed. I tried MI-O-NA and soon found relief, and in less than six weeks MI-O-NA had completely cured me."

S. N. Wear, the druggist, sells MI-O-NA TABLETS at 50 cents a large box, under a rigid guarantee to do all that is claimed for them or money back.

Practically one of the best ways to ventilate a room, is to turn its occupants out of doors at regular and frequent intervals. This is particularly true of school children, indoor workers, and busy housewives. Man is not built to live indoors. While his body engine is run chiefly by the bottled up sunshine contained in his food and its furnace draught is supplied by the oxygen of the atmosphere where-ever found, he still must take a certain proportion of both these-sources of energy and purification at first hand in the open air.—Outing for November.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED.

By applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out, and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh), that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

Dr. Grenfell first met his bride during a trip from England, last spring. The young lady is a graduate of Vassar, and has been actively engaged in sociological work in Chicago. After a honeymoon trip, which will be attended by a series of lectures by the doctor they will return to Newfoundland by the end of the year and proceed to St. Anthony.

MUST NOT SPIT IN CARS OR ON RAILWAY PLATFORMS

Ottawa, Nov. 26.—An Order in-council has been passed providing for a fine not exceeding twenty dollars, in case of any one found guilty of spitting on any passenger-car or railway platform, or other premises of Government railways, and also imposing a similar penalty for smoking in the railway passenger cars, etc., other than in places or compartments designated for that purpose.

FASHION NOTES

It looks as though we were coming in for a big season of black—hats, gowns, wraps and accessories.

One hears more of the all black gown in the dressmaking houses than for years past. It is not now advised for economy's sake but for fashion. It is to be worn for the street, for the house, and quite a good bit for the evening. There is no hint of color being combined with it, but always a touch of white.

Mr. Lloyd George, in his recent budget speech, stated that the consumption of whiskey had gone down by twenty to twenty-five per cent, since the imposing of the extra duty. This means that nearly 9,800,000 gallons less whiskey is being drunk. The drop this year in spirits is equal to the total drop in the previous ten years.

BOLT FROM SKY STRUCK NEAR TRURO

The Truro Sun is authority for the following statement:—

Mr. Alexander Currie, of Crow's Mills, witnessed a somewhat strange affair one day recently. At the time he was standing in the doorway of his house. Heavy black clouds darkened the sky, when suddenly there shot from one of them a ball of fire, which struck the earth in his field with a dull thud. Immediately Mr. Currie went to the spot and, digging down a short distance from the surface, found a ball of metal, or a conglomeration of metals, still quite warm. It was about the size of a man's fist, the predominating metal having the appearance of melted copper. A Sun representative saw a piece of the mass. An explanation of this on the part of scientists would prove interesting.

The great art of love is to write little and burn all. Half the scandals of life would be averted if people only followed this admirable counsel.
