TRANSATLANTIC TRADE IS ORDERED TO RESUME SHIPPING IN NO DANGER

Special to The Toronto World. WASHINGTON, D.C., August 17.—England has made good her title of "Mistress of the Seas," and the trans-Atlantic lines between Great Britain and Canada and the United States will be soon running without hindrance, according to despatches from United States Ambassador Page at London today. This means that tourists now stranded in England will be able to leave on the regular lines as fast as accommodation for them can be provided, said the state department to-night.

Resumption of trans-Atlantic traffic, it was explained, is made possible by the fact that Great Britain has bottled up the German fleet in its naval bases at Wilhelmshaven and Kiel, while the combined French and British squadrons in the Mediterranean have virtually driven the German and Austrian warships to cover. Great Britain also announced that it had the trans-Atlantic steamer lanes well policed, and that now there was no danger to shipping from German or Austrian vessels.

Official Announcement. The state department tonight issued the following statement: "Those in this country having relatives in Europe will be gratified to learn that the department of state is in receipt of a telegram from the American ambassador at London, reporting that all steamship lines have been ordered open and all possible boats will be pressed into the service. This situation will enable every American in Great Britain to return home in a few weeks on regular lines. It is believed that the vessel which was being arranged for to bring stranded Americans home from England will be used for transportation of traffic across the sea will relieve the situation immeasurably the administration will not halt the preparations being made to outfit and despatch army transport to Europe for the return of American citizens. This was announced today, and Secretary Garrison ordered Lieut. Colonel William E. Morton, of the Quartermaster's Corps to proceed to Newport News, Va., at once to superintend the work of remodeling the army vessels for the relief work.

PREPARING FOR A BIG FALL'S BUSINESS.

"Where are all those goods coming from? I thought there would be a shortage in shipments this season," was the question asked by a representative of The World, when passing Dime's busy corner at Yonge and Temperance streets yesterday afternoon. All hands were hard at it unpacking the new fall goods, which nearly blocked the street.

"Oh, this is only our first shipment, there will follow shortly," said Mr. Dime. "Those goods come principally from England, and came through very promptly, having been shipped by the steamer 'Australia,' which sailed from Liverpool on Aug. 1. Yes, we are looking for a good trade this fall; no reason to do otherwise. The war, undoubtedly, will do great injury to manufacturing firms that do an export and import business with many foreign countries, but out of this evil, good will spring. We have a new country and nearly everything desired can be manufactured at our very doors; no need to be panicky. This fall's trade will be as brisk as ever, and I am glad to say that we will have no shortage of goods in any of the departments, and the public can depend the prices will be kept down to the very lowest possible figures."

What Japan Will Do

LONDON, Aug. 17.—10.32 p.m.—The following statement was issued tonight by the British official press bureau: "Any action Japan takes against Germany will not extend beyond the China Seas, except in so far as may be necessary to protect Japanese shipping lines."

U. S. Government Will Assume Marine Risks

Treasury Department Called Upon to Insure American Vessels Against Loss, as Result of Senate's Vote to Allow Foreign-Built Vessels to Register in U. S.

Special to The Toronto World. WASHINGTON, Aug. 17.—Congress is to be asked to authorize the treasury department to engage in insuring American vessels against loss as the result of war. A bill for this purpose has been drafted and will probably be introduced tomorrow. It was prepared by shipping men in consultation with government officials and has received the sanction of the administration.

The bill will provide for the setting aside of a fund of $5,000,000 in the treasury department for the purpose of guaranteeing war insurance. Vessels will be charged a minimum premium on the risk assumed, but this insurance will merely supplement and not supplant ordinary marine insurance.

To Fly Starry Flag Congress today passed the emergency shipping bill which will authorize the president to admit foreign-built ships to American registry, so that commercial fleets may sail the seas under the protection of the American flag while belligerents of Europe are at war and securing the oceans for prizes. President Wilson will sign the bill tomorrow.

Culmination of the effort to enact this legislation followed repudiation by the senate of the conference report on the measure, which previously had been radically amended in the senate. As it goes to the president the bill was the same as it passed the house more than a week ago.

Decisive Vote The conference report met defeat in the senate by a vote of 40 to 59, because of determined opposition to the provision which would have admitted to the American coastwise trade all foreign built vessels taking American registry within two years. As finally agreed to, the bill, besides providing for the registry of foreign built ships, authorizes the president, in his discretion, to suspend provisions of the law requiring all watch officers of American vessels in the foreign trade to be citizens of the United States, requiring survey, inspection and measurement of vessels admitted to registry by officers of the United States.

BRUSSELS, Aug. 17.—The Belgian Government is leaving at once for Antwerp, the German advance having rendered Brussels untenable as the seat of government. The fact that the authorities have decided to quit this city shows that the Germans have advanced somewhat at least. Brussels may soon be occupied by the invaders.

For the past two days the Germans have been menacing the left of the allies with the plan of driving it back from the defence of Brussels. They apparently have succeeded.

One of the last despatches out of Brussels admitted that a German cavalry force had advanced as far as Wavre, 13 miles from the Belgian capital, but had been repulsed after a skirmish which was declared to have been unimportant. The Belgian War Office declared that Brussels had not been in danger, but this apparently was not true.

Midway between Brussels and Antwerp, Belgium's important port, is the City of Mechlin. To the west of Brussels is Louvain, the reported location of the Belgian army headquarters. A German advance midway between Brussels and Louvain northward, in the direction of Antwerp, would not be a surprising development in view of the news that the Belgian Government is quitting Brussels.

War Correspondents Barred By Great Britain and France

Passes Issued by British Army Council Have Been Revoked—All Correspondents Will Be Asked to Leave Belgium.

Canadian Press Despatch. LONDON, August 17, 9.25 p.m.—The British army council has decided not to allow any war correspondents to accompany the expeditionary force for the present. Some passes had been issued, but these were revoked.

In a letter announcing the decision, the council says that the French army officials have also decided not to allow any correspondents to accompany their forces.

It is understood that correspondents will be asked to leave Belgium. Some are already returning.

CRUISER PATROLS SOUTHERN STRAIT

Conde Stops American Vessel and Let Her Go Near Key West.

Special to The Toronto World. CHARLESTON, S.C., Aug. 17.—Captain Pennington of the Ruby, a steamship of the Philadelphia-New Orleans Transportation Company, on arrival here today reported that the French cruiser Conde intercepted the Ruby off Sand Key Light, near Key West, Florida, and after establishing the identity of the steamer as American, gave chase to another vessel in the distance, whose identity could not be ascertained by Captain Pennington.

The point where the Conde met the Ruby, was about eleven miles from the American shore. The Conde is believed to be patrolling the waterways between Key West and Havana.

LONDON, Aug. 17.—The fact that German troops—in all probability the first army of the Moselle, which has been operating thru Luxembourg—have taken up their position as far south as Dinant, which is within nine or ten miles of the French border, is cause for general remark.

Notwithstanding the news of French victories, including the seizure of 1000 prisoners and artillery equipment during a rapid advance along the valley of the Schirneck, which announcement has been confirmed by the war office, the Germans are steadily, the slowly, pressing forward to France, in spite of temporary setbacks.

THE KAISER'S INTENTION. It is evidently the intention of the kaiser, who is reported to be at Mainz, whence he will direct the army's operations, it is believed, to push his forces on across the French border before the huge army of Russia—said to number 800,000 men—is able to move in force on Germany.

With Japan preparing to make war on the German Empire since its ultimatum to the kaiser to withdraw all German battleships from the Orient and to evacuate Kiaochow by Aug. 23, the war lord doubtless realizes that his men must make a quick move.

The French military position is reported to be excellent. The tricolor of France floats over the heights to the north of the Alsatian frontier in German territory, so now the French line reaches thru Abnecheville, Lorquin, Azeudange and Marsal.

The French cavalry has come thru as far as Lutzelhausen and Mulbach. Again, news comes from Reichcourt, in Lorraine, 11 miles south of Saarburg, that the French are proceeding against Strassburg.

BRITISH TROOPS OPERATING. British troops are now operating with the French in the invasion of Alsace, according to Paris despatches.

The battle of Dinant, wherein the German forces consisted of a guard division, the first cavalry division, and the support of several infantry battalions and machine gun companies, is described as a brilliant victory for the French. When the German troops came on the left bank of the River Meuse, the French attacked with great vigor, and so impetuous was the onslaught that the Germans retreated, French cavalry in disorder, not a few being drowned in their flight. French cavalry then pursued the Germans for miles. Nevertheless, in spite of their prevailing in the engagement, latest advices say that the losses of the French between Namur and Dinant were heavy.

Regarding the Russian army, in which Germany soon will be forced to take considerable interest, it is reported that three large bodies of Russian troops—three separate armies—are moving toward Galicia. The Austrians who will resist the Russian column number 400,000. Near Warsaw they expect to join the German army of 500,000 men marching toward the same point.

MONTENEGRO MEET AUSTRIANS. In a despatch from Cetinje, Montenegro, the correspondent of Reuters says Montenegrin forces have been engaged for the last two days with a strong detachment of Austrian troops, in the neighborhood of Sarajevo. The Montenegrin casualties in dead and wounded were forty-five.

On Aug. 16 the Austrians attacked the western frontier of Montenegro from Krivosjelto to Sarajevo, at the same time Austrian vessels bombarded the Montenegrin position at Lovcen.

Inhabitants Take Refuge in Cellars and Streets Are Silent and Deserted.

Canadian Press Despatch. LONDON, Tuesday, Aug. 18.—(1.45 a.m.)—A despatch to the Reuter Telegram Company from Milan says The Corriere de la Serra has received an account of the conditions in Belgrade in consequence of the bombardment of that city by the Austrians on the opposite banks of the Danube.

The streets are silent and deserted, says the article, and the people of the town are living in cellars. Three thousand shrapnel shells have fallen in the city during the past week. As yet little damage has been done to property, but a shell falling on the central electric works put half the town in darkness. The stables of the royal palace are in ruins. Up to the present fifteen citizens have been killed, while many others have been injured.

MAD MOBS KILLED HUSBAND AND BABY

French Woman Bereft in Hanover, Germany—Arrested as Spies.

LONDON, Aug. 18.—(1.20 a.m.)—A Reuter despatch from Rennes, France, says: "Mme. Guillon, a wealthy resident of Combourg, a town a short distance southeast of St. Malo, has arrived here and told how her husband and a baby were killed by angry mobs in Hanover, Germany. The woman, who was terribly grief-stricken, said: "We were expelled on Aug. 2 from Kolberg (a town of Prussia in Pomerania) and tried to reach France thru Switzerland, but we were turned back before we reached the German frontier and compelled to retrace our steps and go by way of Holland. "On arriving in Hanover my husband and myself were arrested as spies and stoned by a mob, despite the protective efforts of the police. My husband unfortunately lost his self control and cried 'Long live France' and 'Long live England,' whereupon he was at once shot to the ground and killed. "My brother-in-law was thrown into prison at Bentheim. I escaped and after various adventures succeeded in reaching Holland."

Stand by Canada to Last Ditch, Is Slogan of Toronto Americans At Rousing Organization Rally

U.S. Residents of Queen City Decide to Carry Out Plans to Help Country in Present Need--May Finance Motorcycle Corps and X-ray Outfit.

There is no mistaking the sympathies or sentiments of the American strangers within the city gates of Toronto, in this time of war stress.

"We can be of some help to those who are fighting for the democracy of the world. We can do good in many ways. We can do much for the wives and mothers of the brave boys who go to the front.

Two in the audience denounced and felt that the organization would embarrass the United States government. So great a roar of hostility blazed forth that the speaker was obliged to leave the room before his name could be gained.

"No one here questions the sanity of the British government, but it is wrong and an embarrassment to hold an official meeting declaring war on one nation and against another, it is not right and not wise," was the declaration.

"The gentleman is mistaken," he declared. "Who is he? What is his name?" But the speaker had hurried from the room.

"We respect the neutrality of the United States, but we have a right to express ourselves in this matter, and we will do it," continued the veteran.

"There is nothing we will not do to support the people who are holding up the flag and keeping a roof over our heads today," declared Chas. R. McColm from the platform.

"Let us show our sympathy as we individually feel it and as we are to do anything let it be at once," urged John Callinan. "Don't be weak-kneed in this affair but work to make it remembered for a long time. We are not speaking for our home government but for ourselves."

U. S. Women to Help. Special to The Toronto World. NEW YORK, Aug. 17.—The imperial order of daughters of the British empire in the United States, of which Lad Spring-Rice, wife of the British ambassador at Washington, is honorary president, and Mrs. J. Elliott Langstaff, president, has made a special appeal to all British-born women in the United States to aid in its efforts to alleviate the distress which will be brought about in the British Isles by the existing war.

It was stated at the prime minister's office this afternoon that the debate upon the address in reply to the speech from the throne would not be proceeded with until Wednesday.

Some discussion, however, may be expected when the financial proposals of the government come before the house for discussion. The government, it is understood, will ask for wide powers on many subjects, including the regulation of the prices of all food products and some of the Liberal members are contending that parliament should be kept pretty constantly in session during the present emergency.

FRENCH VICTORY AT HEAVY COST

Casualties in Fighting Between Namur and Dinant Were Severe.

Canadian Press Despatch. LONDON, August 17.—A Brussels despatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company says the French casualties in the fighting between Namur and Dinant were heavy, as the Germans were strongly entrenched and their artillery at the outset played great havoc with the French. The French wing at Dinant had been badly cut up and nearly routed when suddenly the strains of the Marseillaise resounded in the French lines and the men rallied and re-formed. With splendid gallantry they charged, hurling themselves on the German troops, breaking thru their lines and putting them to flight.

RUSSIAN CRUSADE AGAINST GERMANY

Authorities Also Use Forces of Racial Solidarity in War.

Canadian Press Despatch. LONDON, Aug. 17.—The St. Petersburg correspondent of The Daily Standard says that the Russian authorities are using two mighty forces to stimulate the zeal for war among the people—religious fervor and racial solidarity. The marching Russian troops are preceded by a bearded and robed priest in a black and gold surplice, carrying the cross. Bands play alternately religious music and barbaric airs. "It is not merely war," adds the correspondent. "It is a holy crusade, and also a crusade in accordance with the pan-Slavonic ideal."

The acting German consul protested, but the collector was firm. An inspector, he said, would examine how much coal he needed to take her to Apla, and that much and no more would be permitted her. The Leipzig had placed an order for 500 tons.

WARDERS OF CHANNEL

French Boats and English Forts Challenged Tiny Crossing Steamer.

The following letter from Miss Mary Boulton of Toronto is among the first received from Toronto people abroad since the war broke out. It is of special interest, as it tells how things appeared to her actually on Belgian territory when war was declared. Miss Boulton and her niece, Miss Margaret Cronin, who is with her, left Toronto the night before the face of the Empress of Ireland came to hand, and their trip on the whole seems fated to be surrounded with an atmosphere of excitement and uncertainty not always pleasant.

My Dearest Mother—So much has happened since my last letter. It was posted the night before we left Brussels. We left Saturday morning for Bruges. Before leaving Brussels we knew about the money panic, and got some changed with difficulty into silver. The next day we heard they refused travelers' cheques. Everywhere were soldiers, and all Saturday in Bruges we felt miserable. On Sunday morning I woke early, from troubled dreams, and heard the car rattling over the stony street. Looking out, I saw detachments of soldiers go by. They look like business here, not on holiday Sunday as at home. Sometimes an officer went by in a carriage; once a man was wheeled down, and wagons full of soldiers. I found Katharine Baines shared my fear, the Margaret slept thru it. Downstairs we saw an English clergyman, and he asked where the English church was. He gave us some directions, and said he was returning to England by the night boat. He had (fourteen miles away), as Germany had declared war at ten the night before. So Katharine and I went to the hotel. Cousin Dora's room was at the back, not on the street, and she had not heard the news, and was cooly coming out of the English church. We asked a lady about the British sub-consul. He was in it, and that there was a boat at 2.15 p.m. So we hurried back to the hotel and got our party to pack quickly and go at 2.15 from the station. There had been much rain, and this was the first day the sun shone on the harvest fields. We wondered as we looked out of the train windows would armies of soldiers soon be tramping them down. Instead of leaving at 2.15, our boat left five. Several trains of refugees came, and 700 crossed. We followed the soldiers and we were stopped by French gun-fire. All sorts of signals were given from the top of the station. The following officers were elected: Hon. president, Sir William Otter; president, Rev. J. Russell MacLean; secretary-treasurer, E. D. Mansell; executive committee, Mrs. Arkie, Mrs. Blythe, Miss Hills and Mrs. Middleton. One of the women present subscribed $25 and two dollars more was also given in various small amounts as a start.

In Tiny Human Stories

Great Men Live Today

By Winifred Black

Copyright, 1914, by Newspaper Feature Service, Inc.

Winifred Black

WHO was the first man to sail around the world? Was it John Cabot or Sebastian and was Sebastian John's son of his brother?

What! You don't know-you can't even guess-and you the head of your class in geography and not at the foot of your class in history, not so many years ago?

The little girl has an examination today and I had to hear her lessons last night. The little girl seems very small and very blue-eyed and very sweet, and just a little childish to me, but when I realized the questions she would answer, and answer for the most part correctly, in that test today, I felt like standing when she came into the room. Who would ever think that only head could hide so much exalted knowledge?

Raleigh and His Cloak.

The Cabots' mother, her a bit—she remembers the earmuffs and the tippet, too—but which is Cabot's brother or son—that is again, another story.

De Soto she remembers glibly—and so do I—don't you? I wonder why everybody remembers De Soto, and you couldn't forget Ponce de Leon to save your life. Who is there but loves to think of De Leon's voyage in the search for the Fountain of Youth?

Was he old when he took it, I wonder, and had he married him a young wife, or had he just begun to round into the hearty fifties, and did he want to stay fifty and just? Why did he cling so to the dream of youth—poor Ponce de Leon—and was it a very bitter ache to his heart when he found it was just a dream?

Christopher Columbus. Oh, wasn't he a lesson to all, with Queen Isabella and the crown jewels of Spain in the background, and the dungeon and the chains waiting for the return of the voyager!

Sir Walter Raleigh—why, little curly locks couldn't forget him if she tried. There was the little mud puddle and the cloak and Elizabeth, Queen of England. Was the cloak of purple velvet, did I think, and edged with gold, or was it fashioned of sky blue satin with silver fringe, and did I suppose that the Queen's delicate slipper made much of a mark upon it—then in the mire?

How much we are all alike, after all. A man may sail around the world and pick continents out from the water of the seas, and we don't care enough about him to remember. But if he played a trick with an egg and held his sailors from mutiny by it—that man we hold ever in the recesses of our brain and cannot forget him though we tried.

Men Love Kindly Deeds.

Da Gama, Magellan—what are they to most of us today but names? But who of us will ever forget that Richard the Lion-Hearted wore an armor of black and that a little foot page sang him out of a dungeon?

How little and fleeting and of small account it all seems to be—the knowledge of the head. It takes the knowledge of the heart to make us remember.

Whose face is that you see in the fire of a frosty evening? The face of the brilliant friend you admire, the strong face of the one who battled with the world and did not lose his fight, or the face of the simple human being, the one you loved long ago?

They come and they go—the clever people, the successful people, the brilliant people—but whose name would you speak today, if you started to call the roll of those you'd love to see again? Some kindly soul you loved—would he not lead them all?

Here's to you and your cloak, Walter Raleigh—I'm glad you threw it in the mud for a proud Queen to walk upon.

Here's to you and your search for the Fountain of Youth, De Leon of the trusting heart—I hope you've found the fountain long before now and drink deep of it whenever you are athirst.

Good Christopher Columbus—some day shall we look upon your face and get you to tell us how you felt when the generous Queen believed you and had faith in your strange vision?

When I write a history I'm going to find out the human things about the great men. Tell me why you remember Alfred of England so well, Confess, now, is it not the story of the burning cakes that fastens him in your mind?

John Cabot—was he the brother or the son, or perhaps even the father? Dear me, curlylocks, I hope you remembered all that this morning when you wrote your answers in the test.

It is all very, very important—for it all happened very, very long ago.

There was once a young soldier returned from the wars who had no money, no home and no way to earn a living, and now that the fighting was finished he did not know what to do. But one evening as he was walking in the woods an old woman came up to him and asked him politely to help her recover a tiny green lamp she had lost.

As they talked, the soldier, schooled in the ways of evil, looked into her eyes and saw that she was a witch, but, nevertheless, he searched for the lamp, because he was hungry, and she promised him something to eat. In a spring of clear water the soldier discovered the lamp, and it was still burning. He fished it out, and, desiring a smoke, he pulled out his pipe and lighted it at the green flame.

No sooner had he taken the first puff than a little old man appeared before him out of the smoke, and asked the soldier what he wished him to do. As he was very hungry the soldier asked for something to eat, and, in a twinkling of the eye a table loaded with goodies was spread before him.

Seeing, then, that this was a magic lamp, and that the little man was a genie, the soldier commanded him to seize the witch and deliver her up to justice. When this was done the soldier asked that his old mother be given a beautiful house and money to live in comfort the rest of her life, and then he wished to be carried instantly to the home of his sweetheart.

To her when he loved the soldier gave a beautiful ring and lovely clothes. To a comfortable house, and wished for himself a business where he might work and support himself and his wife.

And then, the day they were married, the soldier set the genie free, for he knew that happiness lies only in those things that men work hard to win.

THE POACHER : By Michelson

Copyright, 1914, by Newspaper Feature Service, Inc. Great Eastern Signal Service.

THERE ought to be places—really there should—where no danger lurked, where two people would be absolutely safe from any kind of intrusion, any kind of harm. Isn't it absurd that in a place that LOOKS safe, that gives no sign whatever of hazard, that ruthless poacher, Cupid, should sneak forth and bring down his game? A shameless trick, surely. And the worst of it is, the victims don't know they are hit—at first. But the wound shows in due time. Then they KNOW. Then they wonder how it happened. Talk of your noiseless guns! Cupid's "silencer" works in a comic way. Why, his inaudible weapon has been known to make more social NOISE than anything ever invented. No use warning Cupid away from these places; no, not in SUMMER!

Peter's Adventures in Matrimony

The truth about "the girl in the case" distinguishes this new series by Miss Dalrymple. Her character studies will not appear unfamiliar to the majority of readers, who will follow the fortunes of "Peter" with interest.

No. 150. The First Hitch.

MR. PENFIELD has a very decent looking car, but when Mary and I climbed in Mrs. Penfield was looking about her with considerable dissatisfaction.

"We've simply got to have a new car this spring," she said, with that very definite air that usually proclaims the head of the house. Mr. Penfield looked a little doubtful. He said nothing, however—that's his usual method of procedure with Mrs. Penfield—and started the car. Mary looked straight at me. "Peter," she said, "you spoke of stopping for that young friend of yours—the oculist. Where is his office?"

I had said nothing of the sort, but I gathered it was up to me to help lure my unsuspecting mother-in-law into an oculist's and, therefore, I took a hand in the general game of strategy and played my card. "Bank building," I said. "He's simply crazy over antiques. I thought if you wouldn't mind, Mrs. Penfield, I'd stop and pick him up and take him on to the auction. He—er—has a house full of that sort of thing: knows all about Chippendale—and—and all sorts of furniture."

"I was manufacturing my story out of whole cloth, but I had to give some reason for dragging my friend to an auction of which he'd never heard. We rolled on down to the bank building. It was a day in late March, very bleak and raw. I jumped from the car and Mary followed as a matter of course. Mr. Penfield looked at me, then at his wife. "It's entirely too cold to sit out here and wait," he said. "Molly, my dear, we'd better go upstairs with Peter."

WHAT Our RIVER NAMES Once MEANT

Espirito Santo bay in Texas is "the bay of the Holy Spirit." Osage, the name of a Missouri river, means "the strong." Muskogee, the name of a Michigan river, means "plenty of fish." Onondaga is an Indian word meaning "the people of the beacon stone." The Mississippi, in Vermont, was at first the Missis-kocooo, "much water flow." Albemarle Sound was named after George Monk, Duke of Albemarle, one of the members of the original charter company.

Secrets of Health and Happiness

Why Your Dizzy Spells Show a Lack of Control

By Dr. LEONARD KEENE HIRSHBERG

A. B., M. A., M. D. (Johns Hopkins).

TO level the word "giddy" at any one is as much as to politely say he or she is silly or near the frontier of insanity. To say, though, that you feel dizzy is to mean an entirely different matter. Briefly, to be giddy is allowable. It is not associated in many thoughts as physical or pathological. In fine, it is supposed to be a state of mind—a sort of momentary mental vocation.

Dizziness, on the other hand, is a horse of another color. At least it is so regarded, despite the synonymy of the words. To be dizzy indicates a loss of physical balance, an unstable centre of gravity, an absent equilibrium.

The word dizzy is usually not taken figuratively or metaphorically, except when used to mean surprise, as "it knocked me dizzy." "Giddy," however, signifies the picturesque or poetic effervescence of youth, or a pretended youthfulness, or a pretended youthfulness, or a pretended youthfulness, or a pretended youthfulness.

I have often seen mothers deliberately mislead the adaptable powers of their children in this regard. "Don't ride fast, as they rank the children from such seats and face them forward, 'it will make you dizzy.' You may be sure ever afterward such children are badly disciplined candidates for the 'dizzy wagon.'

Dizziness is a frequent, even an early, symptom of the onset of spells of high blood pressure and arterial tension. Any disorder of the kidneys of long standing may give rise to this form of dizziness in the morning when you jump up from bed.

Pressure within the skull from tumours, abscesses, tumours, ear trouble, mastoid disturbances or arterio-sclerosis of the brain vessels are at times accompanied by dizziness.

Some Beauty Exercises for the Early Morning

By LUCREZIA BORI

Prima Donna of the Metropolitan Opera Company, New York.

Special arrangements have been made with Senorita Lucrezia Bori, the famous prima donna soprano, who has created a wonderful impression in Europe and New York on account of her remarkable beauty and artistic attainments, to write for this paper a series of articles on beauty. There is probably no authority her equal in giving the newest and most approved methods of attaining and preserving "the divine right of woman."

LUCREZIA BORI

HAVE you ever seen a group of jack-tars swinging their bodies in unison at the command of an officer? Each morning when the bagpipes sound the call "to quarters" on our battleships, the men take their places for the daily exercise, which is compulsory.

You, too, should feel that the morning exercise is "the divine right of woman."

"Come on, mother," said Mrs. Penfield. "I thought if you wouldn't mind, Mrs. Penfield, I'd stop and pick him up and take him on to the auction. He—er—has a house full of that sort of thing: knows all about Chippendale—and—and all sorts of furniture."

Dear ANNIE LAURIE: What is the best thing to do? There is a young man who has been keeping company with me for about a year. He is very good to me, but he thinks I am mean because I will not let him kiss me every night before he goes home. I told him it wasn't manly to do so when I wished him not to. What am I to do now, because he won't quit it?

I like him and he likes me. We are about 18 and 21 years.

QUEENIE: UGH! I to kiss him good night? "Must I kiss him when he comes to the door?"

"How often is it proper for a young girl to kiss a young man—when she's not engaged to him?"

"What does a man mean when he insists on kissing me, even when I try to prevent it?"

Dozens of them—dozens in every mail—letters with these silly questions. Girls, whatever is the matter with you? Don't you know anything at all—anywhere, any time—anyhow?

A man ought not to try to kiss every attractive girl he sees—and, of course, he does—if she is "good enough to let him."

What harm is there in a kiss? No harm at all—in some kisses for some people—and the bitterest, most dreadful

Answers to Health Questions

Have your teeth looked after and also your ears. It is doubtful whether it is due to your eyes themselves or to some hyper-sensitiveness of your ears.

Dr. Hirschberg will answer questions for readers of this paper on medical, hygienic and domestic subjects that are of general interest. He will not undertake to prescribe or offer advice for individual cases. Where the subject is not of general interest, letters will be answered generally, if a stamped and addressed envelope is enclosed. Address all inquiries to Dr. L. K. Hirschberg, care of this office.

Cool and Confident

Nothing can be gained by anyone thru falling into panic. The more nearly we can all go along just as if there was no war at all, the more effectually will we be able to help the empire, and our own country in particular. A good deal depends on how long the war continues as to the effect on those of us who have to stay at home and provide the wherewithal for the fighting men. It is not a wholly ignominious task to keep those well supplied in the field who are able to go.

Moderate Rents

The five and six-room apartments of the Toronto Housing Company, on Bain avenue, are a new departure in housing accommodation in Toronto. Each apartment has its separate veranda and its own front door to the street. The rooms are large, sunny, attractively finished, and are heated from a central heating plant. Gas stoves, electric fixtures and window blinds are installed. They are in a desirable residential district, close to two large parks and only 20 minutes by street car from downtown. The rents are very moderate. An illustrated pamphlet, giving all information, will be sent free on application to the Toronto Housing Company, Ryrie Building.

The receipts of this concert and the donations amount to about $1100.

Waiting for the Explosion

To liken great things with small, the war situation in Europe may be compared with the small boy and the giant cracker. He has lighted the fuse and is waiting for the explosion. The small boy in his way presents the same spectacle of suspense with which the whole world is waiting for the news of the tremendous developments which must follow the burning down of the Lusitania. We can hear the diaboli-

PUMP CONTRACT IS UNDER FIRE President Nicholls Declares City Has Snatched Bread From Citizens' Mouths. SAYS PRICE WAS LOWER But Successful Tenderer Declares Unemployed Would Not Have Benefited.

The World has received the following correspondence from the Canadian General Electric Company and the Turbine Equipment Company, relative to the contract for the city's pumps. Editor World: In an interview with his Worship the Mayor states that the reason for awarding the pump contract to a foreign company was: "That it would have the very best pump obtainable and of proven merit, and that if such could have been obtained in the city the order would have been placed locally."

BOOSTING THE COST OF LIVING. W. F. Maclean, M.P. Dear Sir: It has come to the notice of the Ontario British Imperial Association that there are stores and shops who are taking advantage of the present conditions and are overcharging for the necessities of life. As these things are not warrantable, the interests of the workingmen, we believe, will receive your earliest attention. W. F. Maclean, 55 Eadsdale Avenue, Secretary.

The Turbine Company's Reply. Editor World: I beg to acknowledge your letter about overcharging for the necessities of life because of war conditions. Kindly let me have any individual facts, so that I may urge on the government at Ottawa legislation in this matter at the session of parliament opening tomorrow. I do not think any increase in prices is justified and I will assist in any way I can to prevent it.

JOHN BULL RETURNS TO BEER. "What is the cause of the revival in popularity of Beer and Ale as table beverages?" asks the London "Pall Mall Gazette." That there is a return of their ancient vogue in the restaurants of London is noted by Charles Pond, restaurant-owner. "Beer has been coming into fashion again for some time," he says, and the tendency is becoming more marked. I was dining in a West End restaurant last night and was surprised to notice how many were drinking beer. People have found out, I suppose, that beer is one of the best and purest of foods, and realize its value as they have not before.

ROAD WORK NEARLY OVER.
 The work of Commissioner J. F. Whitson, acting for the Ontario Government in the northern part of the province, is drawing to a close. An immediate result of the work which has been employed in the road work is being retired in daily instalments, the tension in labor conditions and general stringency figuring to some extent in the laying off.

The progress of northern development called for the expenditure of more than $1,000,000, and this has been carried out under the direction of Mr. Whitson. His work has been recognized as one of a highly efficient character.

A New Face Without Surgical Skin Peeling

The surgical operation of face peeling is too radical, too often dangerous, and gives a better way of removing the many who are desirous of a new and more youthful skin. This is done by the use of a certain medicine which enters the pores of the skin, softens it, and gradually and gently, unlike the surgical process, the skin is not forcibly taken off, but big pieces all at once, out almost invisible tiny particles are absorbed by the skin. About two weeks are required to complete the transformation. There's no pain or discomfort.

Many women's complexions are the same why shedding tiny cutaneous scales day by day. But deficient circulation, or other abnormal condition, may interfere with the shedding—a "bad complexion" results. This medicinal wax assists nature by hastening the removal of the aged, faded or discolored top skin. This new life-giving, healthy, glowing skin is in evidence, as in robust girlhood. This is why mercurized wax produces the indescribable beauty of ever-renewing youth. The wax is put on at night like cold cream, and washed off in the morning. You can procure it at any druggist's. Be sure it is sufficient.

 Big Overdraft for Local Improvements—Tax Rates Struck.

Tax rates were struck by the York Township Council yesterday as "penny-ants." General township rates, 4-18 mills, which this year include appropriations to take the place of the statute rate tax which has been abolished; county rate, 1-10 mills; general school rate, 1 mill, with special levies in each section.

While finance was the subject of prime importance a visit from Mr. Chisholm of the Bank of Commerce seemed opportune. He informed the council that until some of the hundred thousand dollars worth of debentures now held by the township could be sold, no further advances could be made to carry out local improvements.

The overdraft now amounts to about $10,000, so that outside work will be checked somewhat through the township until the debenture market begins to show signs of life.

A bylaw was passed authorizing the levy of sewer rental charges on the property benefited in accordance with the act of the legislature passed by the township for this purpose at the last session of the legislature.

WANT ROAD GRADED.
 A deputation of York Township farmers, headed by John A. Frye and Dan Dandy, appeared to ask the council to put in a new culvert and grade a half mile of the creek a mile and a half south of the creek on the York and Vaughan road. After some discussion the matter was laid over for further consideration.

 First Rehearsal for Exhibition Feature Held at Moss Park Rink.

The first rehearsal for the spectacle for this year's exhibition took place at Moss Park Rink last night. As nearly a thousand performers take part in the big feature number, it will surround necessary to hold all rehearsals in the open air. The scene builders, too, have started work on the scenery in front of the grand stand. It will surround a stage over 100 feet long. All day yesterday an extra force of clerks worked on the big batches of entries that come in by mail. As a result they had not got far enough to permit of comparison with other years, but there is every evidence they are well up to or above the record. On and after Monday next, Aug. 24, the general offices of the exhibition will be located at the Exhibition grounds.

DUAL VOICED VOCALIST HEADS BILL AT SHEA'S
 The place of honor on a well balanced bill at Shea's this week is held by Claire Rochester, the double-voiced vocalist and late star of Lew Fields' "All Aboard." She sings four numbers very sweetly and especially "Rigoleto," in which she displays a wonderfully clear baritone voice, and which wins her unstinted applause. A sensational statutory illusion is presented in "The Enchanted Pool," introducing Carlo Casanetta and Lillian Lester, in their weird "La Danse Demente." The act is beautifully staged and was well received. Dan Bruce and Margie Edgett Company in "A Corner in Wireless," present an amusing farce, in which the prospective son-in-law of a millionaire car dealer turns the tables on his future father-in-law by treating him to his own "saucer," and wins a charming bride. The rest of the bill is first-class.

The means by which enlistment is granted usually follows the granting of six months' leave of absence. Those who go have their positions secured for them on return and do not lose financially by the action.

Fairbank Demands an Explanation
 Deputation to Board of Control Regarding Pump Contract.

MANY MECHANICS IDLE

Say It is a Burning Shame Work Should Go to the States.

"Resolved, that we the West Fairbank Ratepayers' Association do most emphatically protest against the action of the mayor and board of control, on the recommendation of Works Commissioner R. C. Harris, in awarding the contract for a one-million gallon pump, to a United States firm, when it is well-known that the same can be manufactured by the Canada Foundry Company, Limited, of Toronto, and other Canadian firms.

In view of the large number of unemployed, in the skilled and unskilled labor market, at the present time, and considering that trade is rapidly going from bad to worse, the action of our city fathers, we believe, in the present crisis, needs immediate explanation.

Ald. Meredith, when communicated with on the matter, stated that he would be glad to introduce the deputation to the mayor and board of control, but was unfortunately going out of town immediately until Thursday. He recommended the members to apply to Ald. Mayhe, who on being approached, said he would be glad to introduce the members appointed to present the petition.

The board of control was freely criticized at the meeting by a number of mechanics recently discharged from the large foundries in the north-western section of Toronto.

"It is taking the bread out of our mouths," said one member of the association, "and we won't stand for it. There is little enough trade in the city at present, and we go without sending it out of the country."

Echo Answers, Who?
 Voice: Who gave them permission to send the contract out of the country?
 President Cunliffe: I don't know, but the protest coming from this association will have some influence in stopping it.

"It is a burning shame if the order goes to the States," said Mr. Cunliffe. "The money would pay the wages of 100 men for three months."

It was decided to send a deputation, consisting of President George Cunliffe and J. W. Rawton, to the city hall today at 11 a.m.

The matter of the garbage dump at the gravel pit came in for considerable discussion, and it was pointed out that all sorts of refuse was being deposited there, and the smell was most offensive. It was decided to communicate with the York Township Council and request that the nuisance be stopped.

Price Only Different.
 The deputation appointed to inspect the sidewalk on Dufferin street reported that the sidewalk made out of the $15 per thousand lumber is far superior to that laid down with lumber at $25 per thousand.

The women of the district will hold a meeting this evening when arrangements will be made for a canvass for subscriptions for the new hall.

President George Cunliffe occupied the chair.

SOME REAL FUNMAKERS IN "TANGO FACTORY"
 The Gayety Theatre this week offers a program that is hard to excel in burlesque circles. E. E. Forrester's "American Beauties in 'The Tango Factory' is one whirl of merriment from the opening of the performance till its close. Lew Hillon as Chiding Slender, Carlo Casanetta and Lillian Lester, in their weird "La Danse Demente," which is beautifully staged and was well received. Dan Bruce and Margie Edgett Company in "A Corner in Wireless," present an amusing farce, in which the prospective son-in-law of a millionaire car dealer turns the tables on his future father-in-law by treating him to his own "saucer," and wins a charming bride. The rest of the bill is first-class.

MERRY MINSTREL MAIDS SCORE AT HIPPODROME
 The Metropolitan Minstrels, the headline attraction at the Hippodrome this week, consists of seven merry minstrel maids, who not only have excellent voices, but also play almost every kind of musical instrument in such a pleasing manner that they were called back repeatedly before the footlights by the cheering audience. Fredrick Simon and Company, who are presenting a play entitled "Aboard the Liza Jane," were well received. The Wallin Trio in their singing and dancing act are good indeed. Lead in "Body-Maid," introduces a number of new songs. Clark and McCullough, eccentric comedians, have a number of new and amusing skits. The Wals and Boyd present a singing and dancing specialty, and Cervo with his piano-concertina is well worthy of special comment. The invisible symphony orchestra and a series of the latest photo-plays complete a bill which has not been equaled at the local playhouse this season.

PICTURES TELL STORY OF FAMOUS OPERA
 Despite the warm nature of the weather the Royal Alexandra was comfortably filled last night when "The Chocolate Soldier," the famous light opera, was shown for the first time in moving pictures. The opera is complete in five reels, visualized by the original cast, including Miss Alice Tompa as Nedina, daughter of Col. Popoff of the Bulgarian army, and Tom Richards as the irresistible "Chocolate Soldier." The first part shows the hero's military mobilizing in preparation for war against the Serbian forces, while Captain Bumer, "The Chocolate Soldier," is also preparing for military activity. The rest of the pictures show the lament of the Bulgarian ladies, whose lovers are at the front fighting their country's battle, the defeat of the Serbian army and the flight of the chocolate soldier.

STOMACH TROUBLES Due to Acidity
 SO SAYS EMINENT SPECIALIST.
 Stomach troubles, such as indigestion, wind, and stomach-ache are probably nine cases out of ten simply evidence that fermentation is taking place in the food contents of the stomach, causing the formation of gas and acid. Wind distends the stomach, and causes heartburn, while the acid irritates and inflames the delicate lining of the stomach. Such fermentation is unnatural, and, if continued, it produces a permanent acid condition of the stomach, the consequences if not corrected. To stop or prevent fermentation of the food, stop the action of the stomach and neutralize the acid, and render it bland and harmless. The trouble lies entirely in the fermenting food. Such fermentation is the result of bacteria known as the "acid bacteria." They multiply in the stomach, and produce the acid. The best and most effective corrector of acid stomach trouble should be taken in a quantity of a glass of cold water immediately after eating, or whenever wind or acidity is felt. The acid is neutralized and the bacteria are killed in a few moments. Fermentation and acidity are dangerous and unnecessary. Stop or prevent them by the use of a proper antacid, such as bicarbonate of soda, which can be obtained from any druggist, and thus enable the stomach to do its work properly without being hindered by poisonous gas and dangerous acids.—M.F.P.

A New Face Without Surgical Skin Peeling

The surgical operation of face peeling is too radical, too often dangerous, and gives a better way of removing the many who are desirous of a new and more youthful skin. This is done by the use of a certain medicine which enters the pores of the skin, softens it, and gradually and gently, unlike the surgical process, the skin is not forcibly taken off, but big pieces all at once, out almost invisible tiny particles are absorbed by the skin. About two weeks are required to complete the transformation. There's no pain or discomfort.

Many women's complexions are the same why shedding tiny cutaneous scales day by day. But deficient circulation, or other abnormal condition, may interfere with the shedding—a "bad complexion" results. This medicinal wax assists nature by hastening the removal of the aged, faded or discolored top skin. This new life-giving, healthy, glowing skin is in evidence, as in robust girlhood. This is why mercurized wax produces the indescribable beauty of ever-renewing youth. The wax is put on at night like cold cream, and washed off in the morning. You can procure it at any druggist's. Be sure it is sufficient.

The call of the militia is being answered constantly by members of the civil service staff in Queen's Park. One of the latest to leave for service is R. E. The means by which enlistment is granted usually follows the granting of six months' leave of absence. Those who go have their positions secured for them on return and do not lose financially by the action.

CANADIAN GOLF PROS AT CHICAGO

U. S. Open Championships Start Today at Chicago—The Draw.

CHICAGO, Aug. 17.—(Special.)—Six Canadian professionals reached here this morning to compete in the national open golf championship of the United States, which will commence at the Midlothian Country Club on Tuesday. George Cumming of Toronto, the Canadian professional champion, Willie Bell of Scarborough, Kaffer of Ottawa, (Canadian open champion), Charlie Murray of Ottawa, H. Fletcher of Winnipeg and Jack Burk of Fort William are those who have put in their appearance so far. Black of Ottawa and Albert Murray of Montreal, who had entered, were forced to return home without a fight.
 One hundred and twenty-five entries have been received—111 professionals and 14 amateurs, including Francis Guimet, the Boston youngster, who is the present holder of the title, and also of the French amateur championship. Macdonald Smith of Oakmount had been surprising the talent with his seven-ty-two in the Canadian contingent arrived. George Cumming threw a scare into them, however, when he turned in an excellent card of 69 the first time he played over the course. The very fact that the championship course is an exceedingly long one shows how well Cumming is playing. Chas. Murray had a 75. Charles Murray has been drawn with Warren K. Wood of Flossman, an amateur. In the first qualifying round on Tuesday, Willie Bell will play Fred Brand of Mt. Lebanon, Jack Burk has Joseph Mitchell of Cleveland as a partner, and Percy Barrett has Jack Dowling of Scarborough as his nearest rival. On Wednesday George Cumming in the second qualifying round will stack up against Louis Tillier, the ex-French open champion, and Gust Kaffer will take on Tommy McNamara of Boston.

DR TYRER BLAMED FOR GIRL'S DEATH

Coroner's Jury Find Dorothy Leonard Died Following Illegal Operation

CORONER'S SUMMING UP

Dr. Young Declares Child Murder is Becoming More Prevalent.

Besides finding that Dorothy Leonard, 17 Bloor street east, came to her death as a result of septic poisoning caused by an illegal operation performed by Dr. B. Roy Tyrer, 1166 St. Clair avenue, a jury under Coroner W. A. Young at the morgue yesterday afternoon added a rider to their verdict to the effect that the negligence was not confined to the General Hospital after Miss Leonard was taken there on July 21. This verdict was not unanimous. There were nine men on the jury and one objected to any mention of the General Hospital, while another refused to sign the verdict because a rider was put in saying that Alex. McCorquodale, who is charged with procuring an abortion on Miss Leonard, was fully aware of her condition during her illness.

GAINS ARE MADE IN WHEAT MARKET

When Shorts Began Covering, Better Class of Buying Developed.

CHICAGO, Aug. 17.—The grain markets today regained the losses of Saturday, wheat closing $\frac{3}{8}$ to $\frac{1}{2}$ cent, corn $\frac{1}{4}$ to $\frac{1}{2}$ cent, and oats a shade to $\frac{1}{8}$ cent. The September options, provisions closed from 10c higher for September, pork to 10c higher, and lard $\frac{1}{2}$ cent. The corn market opened lower on larger receipts than had been expected, anticipation of a heavy movement this week, weakness in the spot market, and reports of a slow eastern call. As the session advanced, however, the eastern demand became moderately brisk and it was observed that the country showed no inclination to sell old corn on the break. Shorts covered and the close was near the top.

HALIFAX PROVINCIAL EXHIBITION POSTPONED BECAUSE OF THE WAR.

(Special Correspondence.)
HALIFAX, N.S., Aug. 17.—It has been decided by the Exhibition Commission that there will be no 1914 provincial exhibition, on account of the war. The commission decided against holding the exhibition after careful consideration. The law requires that a fair shall be held yearly, but at the next session the legislature the omission will be legalized. There were important reasons given for the postponement. In the first place, nearly all the exhibitors in the industrial department have canceled, and the buildings would not have been filled. It was felt that an exhibition
