MISSISSIPPI DELTA IS DEVASTATED MANY LIVES LOST—PROPERTY DAMAGE ENORMOUS MOBILE CITY PARTIALLY INUNDED

Lower River Bank Strawn With Wreckage, Cotton Crop Ruined and Water Seven Feet Deep in Many Streets—No Communication With Coast Towns Where Havoc Has Been Great.

Mobile, Ala., Sept. 28.—(Via Meridian, Miss.)—Loss of life, variously estimated from five to fifty persons, many injured, 5000 houses damaged, the business quarter devastated and a property loss of fully $3,000,000 is the effect of the tropical hurricane of the last forty-eight hours in this city.

The storm struck Mobile Wednesday midnight and lasted for many hours, the wind reaching a velocity of 90 miles an hour. Water from Mobile Bay was blown into the city by the gale, and for a time the sea day stood seven feet deep in the whole lower quarter from Royal-street to the Alabama River.

The loss of life is believed mainly to be among negroes. Mobile has been placed under the control of the militia. Nobody is permitted on the streets except news-papers men and persons wearing badges. Much apprehension is felt for the suburban towns, and it is feared that they have been obliterated. The loss of life on Dauphin island probably is heavy.

Many fishermen live on Dauphin island and other outlying marshy tracts from which no tidings have been received.

The suffering in Mobile is severe. The annihilation of transportation facilities has shut off all supplies and unless help reaches Mobile from the outside world soon, great distress will result.

Every church here was damaged. The damage to Christ Church Cathedral is estimated at $40,000 and to St. Francis Baptist Church $10,000. Revenue Cutter Sank.

Mobile shipping suffered more than anything else. Many of the river boats now are beached or sunken and complete wrecks. Their docks and those of private corporations are fearfully wrecked. The revenue cutter Alert has gone down in Mobile River. She was rammed by some unknown vessel and sank immediately. Her crew is believed to have escaped.

The city was put under martial law at dark Thursday and no person is allowed to enter the whole city quarters.

All wharves from Frascati-street, the extreme south end of the city, as far up the river as Three Mile, are wrecked. This includes also the new Mobile & Ohio docks and the Louisville & Nashville docks.

Telegraphic communication is paralyzed, with poor prospects of wires for several days.

All business has been suspended. The Mobile & Ohio Railroad was the first to get a train out of the city, leaving at 4 a. m. Friday.

Numerous soldiers in the southern and marshy regions have been either washed away by the terrific waves or torn to splinters by the wind. Their bodies and limbs are to be seen scattered over the city and floating down the slowly falling river.

The harbor steamer Kamp Carney, plying between Mobile and the eastern shore, lies beached just across the river, and opposite St. Francis-street. It is jammed in and her upper structure blown away. Much fear is entertained for Fort Morgan where the government quarantine station is situated and many soldiers live. In the city many persons and much live-stock were rescued after heroic efforts.

Provisions Exhausted. Restaurants are almost exhausted. Supplies on hand for the future, hams and eggs are the staple food. These, too, soon will be exhausted. Wholesale houses lost many thousands of dollars from the flood, and willingly paid as high as $1.00 an hour for common labor, earnestly begging men to accept such pay, so frantic were they to save goods. Even at this figure few men would accept work.

Between 6 o'clock Thursday evening and Friday noon trees were felled and FIFTY DEAD; PROPERTY LOSS $3,000,000. At least 50 lives were lost, 5000 houses were damaged, and $3,000,000 damage resulted from the tornado that struck Mobile, Ala., Wednesday night and devastated the business section of the city.

Five river boats were sunk at the wharves. The business section, a quarter of a mile wide, thru the whole length of the city, was inundated, and the city, on Thursday night, was in darkness. Militia guard the streets, with orders to shoot to kill. Pillagers are reported in the business section. One negro was caught and nearly beaten to death.

Buildings have been razed. A river steamer turned turtle, but her crew escaped. A revenue cutter was lost. Surrounding towns have been devastated.

The velocity of the wind was 90 miles an hour. At times the sea stood seven feet deep in the wholesale quarter. Provisions are almost exhausted, and supplies cannot be got into the city.

Every church was damaged, as also were many of the hotels. Communication with gulf towns is shut off, and it is feared loss of life along the coast has been great.

ONE ARREST, 7 WARRANTS FOR BRIBING ELECTORS

Sensational Allegations Concerning the Conduct of the London By-Elections of Last Year—102 Voters in One Subdivision Accepted Money to Support Hyman—Prominent Citizens Charged.

There was a veritable bomb exploded yesterday in political circles when John O'Gorman of the Munro Commission Co. this city, but formerly of London, was arrested on a warrant charging him with conspiracy to bribe in the London by-election of last year. He appeared in police court and an immediate hearing of the case was begun, evidence being given by John Collins, an ex-hotel-keeper of London.

As a further result of Collins' revelations warrants were last night made out, calling for the apprehension of seven others, two of them being leading citizens of London. At midnight the chief of police at London declined to say whether the information had reached him. The seven who are accused of having assisted in the wholesale bribery of voters are: George Reed of Reed Bros., manufacturers of ledgers and blank books; Ed. J. Sifton, manager of the Electrical Construction Co.; Dan Wiley of the customs service; Wm. J. Mulloy, an ex-hotel-keeper; Wm. Servais, carpenter; Jos. Hardy, now on his way home from Manitoba; and George Ardy.

An O'Gorman warrant was placed in Provincial Detective Rogers' hands for execution and O'Gorman was taken to the police court. He declined to plead or elect. Mr. Robinette appeared for him, and protested that the case should be referred to a grand jury. Mr. Mulloy was buying votes he told Collins that the money was coming from O'Gorman of the Munro Commission Company, No. 2 Court-street, Toronto, which, Mulloy said, had something to do with providing supplies for the G. T. P. construction.

Mulloy and Collins worked chiefly in the by-election of last year. Mulloy and Collins also did considerable in subdivision No. 7.

FIRST CUBAN REPUBLIC GOES OUT—TAFT RULES

After Day of Waiting President Palma Tearfully Announces His Final Determination to Resign—Spirit of Apathy in Congress.

Havana, Sept. 28.—(2 p.m.)—The governor of Santiago reports that the rebels are organizing and concentrating in the vicinity of that city.

At Guantanamo, Santiago Province, the rebels are collecting arms and horses, and bands of rebels are reported to be around Baracoa in the same province, indicating that the extreme eastern part of the island is in a more excited state than hitherto believed.

The governor of Matanzas reports that rebels are camped near Matanzas, capital of that province, and are stealing horses. Rebels have been seen in the vicinity of Colon, province of Matanzas.

It is reported that the rebels have fled on a government force near the Toledo plantations, south of Marianao, Province of Havana, and that they have also attacked the electric plant at Marianao, which is only seven miles from Havana City.

Havana, Sept. 28.—Up to the time that congress took a recess at 6 o'clock this was a day of waiting. After that hour various probabilities became certainties.

By 8:30 President Palma had tearfully but definitely and firmly announced that his resignation was irrevocable. Following this announcement, the moderates held a long consultation at the residence of Senator Dolz, president of the senate, at which it was decided that no moderates should return to the session after the recess which had been declared, thus precipitating a condition in which no provisional president could be elected.

This throwing up of their hands, practically, would give over the control of affairs to the American commissioners.

Up to that point the attitude of the commissioners also had been a waiting one. Secretary Taft said, on leaving to-night for dinner, that he then was in a position where he could not say anything for publication.

During the day Secretary Taft heard various kinds of propositions and counter-propositions about available and unavailable candidates for the presidency, including the extraordinary one from Zayas himself, that his own election as a provisional president might result in peace.

None of these proposals proved agreeable to all factions, and Secretary Taft, after the exchange of several cablegrams with President Roosevelt, assumed a waiting attitude.

PREMIER DEAKIN ANNOUNCES RECIPROCAL TREATIES WITH S. A. COLONIES

Fragments of Strathcona Feast Distributed Among Poor—Siberian Route Shorter Than C.P.R.—English Comment of Canadian Interest.

(Canadian Associated Press Cable) London, Sept. 28.—Premier Deakin of Australia has announced the conclusion of a reciprocal treaty with five South African governments.

Fragments of the great Strathcona feast at Aberdeen were distributed among 700 poor people.

A naval correspondent of The Daily News, commenting on Australia's naval program, says Australia is far from recognizing what Canada has long since recognized, that the defence of the colonies rests not on local efforts but on the efficiency of the imperial navy.

Lord Hawke has sailed on the Victorian for Canada on a shooting trip. Lord Strathcona, interviewed regarding the Aberdeen University celebrations, said he was extremely delighted with the success attending the various functions. Much of this was due to the glorious weather, but he was delighted with the way Aberdeen responded to the call made on her.

At Bow-street police court a lad of 15, who was charged with embezzling employers' money, was remanded in order that arrangements might be made by friends to send him to Canada.

The London County Council is introducing Canadian nomenclature in renaming the streets.

The Edinburgh Scotsman appeals to Earl Cairn to reconsider his decision to open the army contracts to American meat, on the ground that home feeders are already sorely pressed.

The Glasgow Herald says the decision of the Shanghai postoffice authorities of a great triumph for the Canadian Pacific, but points out the superiority of the trans-Siberian railway, by which a 90 per cent average speed in 48 miles an hour Shanghai is within sixteen days of London.

The Lake Manitoba embarked a large contingent of emigrants at Belfast Lough.

NIGHT CLERK MISSING. Wanted to Give Evidence at Gilmour Hotel Fire Inquest.

Ottawa, Sept. 28.—The police are asked to locate Night Clerk McVey of the burned Gilmour Hotel, who left the city.

Those Dishes Proprietor of the house was on the stand for a couple of hours to-night. He swore positively that all rooms and on the floor the fire escapes were indicated by red lights.

There are still a dozen witnesses to examine and sensational developments are expected before the end of the inquiry.

Best Time to Buy Furs. The Dipsen fur business is large beyond Toronto rivalry—a business built on expert knowledge and the most punctilious care in serving customers. Their display of Mink Stoles and Muffs is without equal in this market, with no suggestion of extravagance in the price. The store retains its popularity, and it well deserves its pre-eminence.

COBALT AND CANADIAN CAPITALISTS.

The rapid and wonderful advance in the value of the Cobalt mining properties is jarring on the nerves of the too cautious Canadian investor, who shakes his head knowingly and predicts dire disaster for every one except himself as the ultimate end of the discovery in the northern section of this province.

Canadian experiences in mining investments are mostly gauged by the unfortunate and ill-advised boom in British Columbia and Rainy River properties of a few years ago. Disaster befel many who took part in buying into properties where absolutely no prospecting had been done, and in others where no responsible authority could be had to show that money expended in development would return anything like the cost of such work.

Whatever may be the final result of Cobalt, it is a proved fact that mineral wealth of vast dimensions has already been uncovered and turned into cash. One of the most significant features of the situation is that Canadians are not participating to any extent in the return from the Cobalt mines. Original owners have long since disappeared, and in several instances where Canadian capitalists have followed up prospectors and made fortunate purchases they have not retained their holdings longer than to turn them over as soon as a good offer was forthcoming. United States investors, whether rightly or otherwise, have seized the opportunity to trust to future development to recoup them for the large sums of money they have paid for several of the Cobalt properties.

Nipissing mines appear to have already vindicated the judgment of the outsiders. This property, originally bought for $250,000, was later capitalized for $5,000,000, and is now selling at a valuation of $24,000,000. No less than four other mining properties in the Cobalt district are now under option to United States syndicates, and in one case the deal is said to have been closed. The common belief that Canada is not a successful mining country is not supported by the departmental statistics, which place the mining output for the year 1905 at over $65,000,000.

CANADA MAY LEARN.

Hearst and Hughes, as rival candidates for the governorship of New York, are the product of the recent insurance investigations in that state. In the same way, clear to many, but doubtless dark to others, the idea has taken hold that the people have been plundered by the corporations. The insurance scandals have given concrete color to this idea.

Hearst's candidature, no matter how engineered, is the outcome of the people's desire to curb predatory corporations. The managers of the Democratic party, hirelings of the corporations, are no friends of Hearst, but the chosen leader of the Independence League, created in the hour of public indignation over insurance frauds, has forced acceptance from them.

The Republican party managers, also the minions of the corporations, have named Hughes as a counter-irritant to Hearst, because his prosecution of the insurance enquiry proved him the friend of the people. It was a shrewd move, and the only move on the check-board of politics, when it was known that Hearst was sure of the Democratic nomination.

But while both Hearst and Hughes may be taken as men fighting for public rights, still they differ. Some doubt is expressed as to the strength of purpose of Hughes, a corporation lawyer. For reasons not yet explained, his enquiry into insurance frauds halted at the verge of exposures, which would have been disastrous to the Republican interests. The international policyholders' commission asserted that his investigation merely "scratched the surface." Few practical results, other than more stringent regulations, have followed his work.

Hearst, on the other hand, thru his newspapers, aided Hughes in his probing and went further and demanded prosecution of the men who had been false to their trust and victimized the people who had put faith in them. Hughes stands for revelation and regulation; Hearst stands for revelation, regulation and prosecution. The Hearst platform on this point speaks with a vigor that commends itself to the public conscience. It says:

"The recent investigation of insurance companies manifestly affords but a faint idea of the gross and sordid corruption which has governed their administration for a long period. It is a scandal of unparalleled dimensions that these shocking exposures have resulted merely in the discharge of a few officers whose inefficiency for plunder was established by the fact that they had allowed their enormities to be discovered while the more desperate culprits who were most adroit in plotting these villainies and who profited by them most extensively, have been allowed to remain in control of the vast trust funds they have pillaged and wasted. We demand the passage of such legislation as will deal effectively with the whole subject of life insurance and encourage this form of economy by making its fruits absolutely secure. We are resolved, above all, that every rogue who has aided in planning this plunder, who has connived at it or shared in its profits, shall be pursued by every punitive weapon of the law, wielded by honest, fearless, loyal public prosecutors."

The political situation in New York State is the result of the moral issue raised by the insurance investigations. It affords food for thought for Canadians. What insurance investigations have done for political parties in New York, so in Canada, men of both parties have profited by an easy observance of the responsibilities of trusteeship. Signs are not wanting that a considerable body of public opinion would favor the breaking of hard and fast party lines in a movement to give the people a fairer deal. When the insurance commission has finished its labors it will be opportune for the political parties in Canada to take stock of themselves in the light of their alliances with corporations and men that have proven recreant to their trust. If they are wise and can get at the centre of gravity of public opinion, they will demand drastic changes in the insurance law, and tend towards socialism, among people above all, that the men who have played and loose with trust funds be pursued to the last ditch and made public examples of.

UNITED STATES RAILROADS.

In view of Mr. Bryan's declaration in favor of the nationalization of the United States railroads the statistics for the year ending June 30, 1905, just issued by the inter-state commerce commission, possess more than usual interest. They have been compiled from the reports of the railroads and demonstrate the gigantic nature of the undertaking, if any serious attempt is ever made to place them under federal and state control. As at the date given the total single track railway mileage in the United States was 218,101, or 4196 miles more than at the end of the preceding year. The operated mileage was 116,973 miles, but the aggregated length, including tracks of all kinds, was 306,796, handled by 2167 companies. Only 26 roads were in the hands of receivers in June, 1905.

The par value of the railway capital outstanding at that date was $13,805,258,121, and of that $2,435,470,337, or about one-sixth, paid no dividend. For the first time the gross earnings exceeded the two billion mark, the exact amount being $2,082,432,406, or $107,308,315 greater than for 1904. The operating expenses were $1,390,692,152, or over 66 per cent. of the gross earnings; the net return amounted to $691,739,254, and the amount of dividends declared during the year under review was $238,946,897, leaving as the surplus from the operations of the year $99,443,490 as against the previous surplus of $56,729,331. The reported number of passengers carried by the railways was 738,834,667, being 23,414,985 more than in 1904. There were returned as on the pay rolls of the companies, 1,382,196 persons, an average of 637 employees for every 100 miles of line. In their service the carriers used 43,357 locomotives, and 1,842,871 cars, but these figures do not include cars owned by private commercial firms or corporations.

An interesting comparison can be drawn between these figures and those of the railways of the United Kingdom. In 1904 the length of the British lines open was 22,435, a little over a tenth of the mileage of the United States roads. The number of passengers carried by the British railways (exclusive of season or commutation tickets holders), however, reached the double number of 1,186,265,185, or over one-third more than the number of United States passengers. A large proportion of them are short distance travelers who would in the United States be accommodated by the electric and other street railways—a fact which has an immediate bearing in the complaint made by American critics that the street railways of British cities do not serve suburban districts in the way United States street lines do. The paid up capital of the British railroads in 1904 was about one-half the par value of the capital of the United States road, but they earned only one-quarter as much gross earnings, and a little less than a third of the net traffic receipts.

During the year to June 30, 1905, there were 431 passengers killed and 693 injured because of collisions and derailments on the United States roads. In 1904 there were 25 passengers killed and 573 injured on British lines from the same causes. A keen controversy exists as to the relative safety of railway traveling in the two countries and different answers may be given according to the basis of comparison adopted. But there is little doubt that the British lines so far as the risk to the individual passenger is concerned have the better of the argument.

TAXPAYER.

Under our parliamentary system it naturally follows that the respective leaders of the two great parties must be members of the house. There is no such rule in the United States, and the Republican nomination has never occupied a seat in either branch of congress.

We are hearing so much of late respecting Mr. Bryan and Mr. Hearst that we are apt to forget that the Democratic nomination by no means forecloses the race for president. Indeed, it history is to guide us in forecasting the future, we would be far more interested in the choice of the people who have lived in the United States will understand why it is impossible for Mr. Roosevelt to succeed himself. Every school child in the republic is taught from infancy that George Washington declined a third term, and considered it as something dangerous to the country. This is not strictly accurate, but from Jefferson down the unwritten rule has been considered as no less sacred than the constitution. Even General Grant, at the greatest height of his popularity, found that the sentiment of the people against a third term was too strong to be resisted.

Whether the Democratic nominee be Bryan or Hearst, the great strength of the Democratic party, in the next campaign, will be the tremendous growth of what used to be considered socialist ideas, among the people of the United States. The avowed socialists, who voted for Eugene Debs in 1904, amounted to half a million. Their number by this time is largely augmented. But far more important is the wonderful growth of ideas that tend towards socialism, among people who would be quick to resent the charge that they are socialists. But whether their views be limited to certain forms of public ownership, or extend to the nationalization of corporations, the fact remains that they belong to a great army of voters who regard the historic parties as historic humbugs and demand a radical solution for the crying injustice and barbarous inequalities that disgrace modern life.

If the people who are dissatisfied with present economic conditions support the Democratic nominee as a unit, his election is assured. It is for the Republican party to divide this vote by retaining within its ranks those who thru habit or sentiment will naturally prefer that party. If satisfied that it will endeavor to carry out the ideas for which Mr. Hearst is supposed to stand. This can not be done with a standard-bearer like Secretary Root, who has been a corporation lawyer all his life. Speaker Cannon, who is a confirmed old fogey, and Vice-President Fairbanks, who is accused of being a living refrigerator, are alike impossible.

But, with Taft it is different, he is a big man, physically and intellectually. He is genial, approachable and will naturally prefer that party. If satisfied that it will endeavor to carry out the ideas for which Mr. Hearst is supposed to stand. This can not be done with a standard-bearer like Secretary Root, who has been a corporation lawyer all his life. Speaker Cannon, who is a confirmed old fogey, and Vice-President Fairbanks, who is accused of being a living refrigerator, are alike impossible.

EVERY PALE WOMAN

Read This and Learn the Way to Good Color and Better Health.

Pale people have pale blood. In other words the blood is watery and lacks red corpuscles. The stomach is wrong. Assimilation is poor and food is not changed into blood. Naturally the system is robbed of vitality, lacks strength and reconstructive power. Don't slip from vigor into weakness. Don't allow the appetite to fail, but instead use Ferruzone, rejuvenated and strengthened at once. Appetite is braced up, digestion is stimulated, the bowels are regular, the stomach. Everything you eat is transformed into nutriment that supplies with your thin, weak system the vital, life-giving blood that makes rosy cheeks and dancing eyes—that's the kind that Ferruzone makes. The strength and buoyancy that defies depression and tiredness, that's the sort you get with Ferruzone. Every pale woman can transform her bleached-out appearance with Ferruzone. Not only will it improve looks and spirits, but by rebuilding all weak tired organs, Ferruzone establishes a soundness of health that is surprising. For every pale woman who wants to feel well, to look well, to be well and formidably healthy, to do any business, to stay well, nothing known in the annals of medicine is so certain as Ferruzone. Don't you try Ferruzone? Concentrated cure in tablet form, that's Ferruzone; 50 cents per box or six for $2.50, at all dealers.

and he would make no pre-election promises which he did not fully intend to carry out. Moreover, he is a skilled administrator, and the argument could be made that he would have the ability to carry out any reform to which he might be committed, while Mr. Hearst is entirely untried and perhaps unskilled in the administration of public affairs.

Finally Mr. Taft will have behind him the boundless wealth and great abilities that have so often saved the Republican party from what seemed to be an unavoidable defeat. Should Hearst be elected Governor of New York, his nomination in 1908 will be all but assured. He will enter that campaign as Bryan entered his famous campaign for free silver in 1896, with the mass apparently aligned behind him, and organized capital thoroughly beaten. But, as in 1896, the innate conservatism of the American people, when it comes to casting their votes, may again be found in harmony with the Republican and Democratic party. It will be a pretty contest, in any event, and one that is bound to forward the world-wide movement towards progressive economic reforms and the cause of the people as against the corporations.

WHAT A MEMBER OF BRIGHTON COUNCIL HAS TO SAY.

Editor World: An article appeared in The World dated Cobourg, Sept. 12 inst., entitled "Brighton to Buy Stock and Rescind Resolution." The first false statement the writer, whoever he may be, makes, is that as a deputation consisting of a citizen and councillor, we had written Mr. W. W. Porte of Brighton, managing director of the Northumberland-Durham Power Co., at their head office. I subscribed the name of the Northumberland-Durham Power Co., as I had no business with them in any respect whatever. I went to Cobourg to see my mother, an elderly lady, at the request of my brother, G. H. Stinson. The citizen referred to in The World is undoubtedly Mr. W. W. Porte of Brighton, who also was there purely on business, so far as he told me. I accidentally met Mr. J. A. Culverwell, who did not converse with him all told three minutes, and that was just as I was in the act of getting in the bus for the station. He said: "Brighton wants any stock they will have to pay cash for it." I do not know any one in Brighton who wishes to purchase the Northumberland-Durham Power Co. without paying for it, but I do know that Mr. Culverwell has made a present to a certain member of the Brighton Council for influence, and that that person is not the president with whom he finds so much fault to follow.

He intimates in The World of Sept. 12 that Mr. W. W. Porte and myself were there possibly to get stock, his casual remark being that Mr. J. A. Culverwell went to the same Mr. W. W. Porte and asked him to see me and I would, as he put it, be worth my while to fall in with Mr. Culverwell in his doings and transactions. He was curtly told that Mr. Stinson had no regard for Brighton and himself to stoop to such work, and consequently he would not mention it to me, as I would certainly put it down. That is Mr. J. A. Culverwell.

I again emphatically deny that at Cobourg, as mentioned in the article, Brighton council, rescinding their resolution, Mr. J. A. Culverwell, if you were the author of that article, would have mentioned such a thing as Brighton council, rescinding their resolution. Mr. J. A. Culverwell, if you were the author of that article, would have mentioned such a thing as Brighton council, rescinding their resolution. Mr. J. A. Culverwell, if you were the author of that article, would have mentioned such a thing as Brighton council, rescinding their resolution.

THE BELL PIANOS

A musical enthusiast said to us lately that in a little while everybody would have a Bell Piano, because of its magnificent tone and unusually fine construction. "All that is needed," said our patron, "is that people should be told about it and see it and hear it for themselves." The plain fact is that the Bell never fails to attract and enthral people of musical judgment and taste.

The tone is remarkable alike for its beauty and power. There are volume and power; there are delicacy and liquid purity; there are singing quality and balance—all in remarkable degree. The illimitable quick repeating action used makes the Bell an established favorite with musicians. You cannot listen to the Bell Piano without being conscious of the superiority of its tone—without being moved to warmest praise.

As the result of careful manufacture, as the outcome of technical exactitude in every particular, this instrument could not be other than fine. But what is more important to the purchaser, it is superlatively fine. As a matter of fact, no one can listen to the tone of the Bell without expressions of wonder and enthusiasm, for its tone is peculiarly delightful; it has warmth and singing quality, sweetness and power, volume and exquisite modulation.

If you have any room for a square piano, buy a Bell. You should see the good ones that we sell here from $350.00. We also have in our bargain room a fine upright piano, right, by various makers at small prices. Easy payments. If you cannot call write for list.

JAPS RAID SEAL ROOKERIES ARE HARVESTING BIG CATCH

First of Returned Victoria Fleet Report Poor Luck, While Yellow Men Get All.

Victoria, B.C., Sept. 28.—(Special.)—Promiscuous raiding by Japanese sealers on and close to the Islands of the Bering Sea is reported by the members of the Traction Company by the board, who will see that the requirements are fully complied with.

Capt. Folger asserts that 25 Japanese schooners are harvesting a big catch, shooting indiscriminately close to the Islands, while the Victoria fleet, comprised of 20 leaguers off shore, has had poor luck.

The Eva Marie, Umbrina and Casco are heat liners, each with over 100 tons. The Casco also has twelve sea otter, and the City of Sandiego one.

Capt. Folger says numerous Japanese schooners are armed with loaded firing guns, with which they have boldly bombarded the huts of the rookery guards while raiding the Japanese, including one captain, have been killed this season, and fully as many Russians.

SHAKE-UP IN HEALTH METHODS

Dr. Sheard Suggests Creation of a Central Executive.

Dr. Sheard stated yesterday that his appointment to the provincial board of health had come as a complete surprise to him.

In view of his recent expressions as to the duty of the provincial board in the matter of regulating the methods of farmers in their handling of milk supplies, it is likely that some radical changes will be evolved.

Somewhat different in dealing with smallpox cases may also come to pass. Yesterday he said:

"If smallpox occurs in an outside municipality the medical health officer, after looking the patient over, says, 'You better get down to Toronto and see Dr. Sheard.' He comes here, and as a measure of self-protection we have to look after him.

"Now, if we had a central executive organization we would simply take care of that patient and all cases, which would be traced to the government charge the municipality from whence he came—charge them heavily, make it cheaper for them to look after their own smallpox cases, and not menace the public by shipping them in here. If we haven't got the power, why, I'd get it thru the medical health board, which would, of course, act in an advisory capacity to the executive organization, and recommend to the government changes in laws and new legislation which would give the executive power to handle the problems as they crop up.

"On the executive staff I should say we would need six or seven men. We want a couple of good doctors to look after smallpox and such outbreaks, an engineer to handle sewage and waterworks and similar matters, and three or four good, hustling, energetic men, men of judgment and experience, who, when they went to a place where there was cause for complaint, could say: 'This is how it should be remedied.'

Next Week at the Theatres.

"The House of Mirth," which is shortly to be seen in this city, and which is a stage version of Mrs. Wharton's celebrated novel, made by the authoress in conjunction with Clyde Fitch, is said to be a play of intense interest as a study in manners. It is really a pitiless indictment of the morals and the somewhat shady practices of the group in society known as the ultra-smart set. Most of the dialog, which comes direct from the book, is razor-like in its keenness. Over all, as may be judged by those who have read the story, hovers an atmosphere of intrigue, hypocrisy, worship of wealth and sacrifice of principle for material gain, with Lily Bart, the weak, vacillating, but fascinating heroine, longing for the ease, fine feathers, good manners and fashions of society; striving to steer her way thru the puddle without loss of self-respect, and gradually sacrificing one ideal after another, until in the end her very sacrifices bring her to a tragic finish. Fay Davis is said to play Lily Bart with resourceful technical skill.

Probably the wittiest operatic comedy that is touring the country, as well as one of the most tuneful, will be seen at the Grand Opera House next week, when Richard Cagley's and H. L. Heartz's great success, "The Tenderfoot," will be the attraction. The sale of seats for this musical production is now open, and the advance indicates a capacity business. The music of "The Tenderfoot" is particularly swinging and characteristic, while the scene of the opera, Texas, makes it possible for the management to furnish particularly bright and attractive costumes and scenery.

"The Land of Promise" is a brand new, original, unique opera in a class at the top of the list. The lines are delightfully clean and witty. The musical numbers cast and company. costumes. The Mexicans and senoras mingle with cowboys and cowgirls, Texas rangers, soldiers and Indians. Oscar L. Figman, one of the greatest of musical-comedy artists in the country, is the star of the organization, and he has scored heavily in the piece in Chicago. The chorus is a large one, the company numbering nearly seventy people. During the week the usual matinees will be given on Wednesday and Saturday.

The management of the Star Theatre takes pleasure in announcing that "The Land of Promise," a dainty, charming operetta by Lawrence Rorchner, Hext and J. Edwin Owen, is booked to appear with the original New York cast and company.

Hecla Furnaces

What Fused Joints mean to Furnace Buyers

They Mean a Clean House.—Fused Joints make the "Hecla" Furnace dust, gas and smoke, tight. They are permanent joints and there is no possibility of their opening to permit anything escaping into the house.

They Mean no Trouble.—Furnaces, put together with bolts and cement, come apart. Bolts loosen—cement drops out—leaving holes that can only be closed by calling in the furnace man. "HECLA" Fused Joints are tight for all time.

They Mean a Healthy Home.—The heat, generated by a "HECLA" Furnace, is fresh and pure. Fused Joints keep dust, gas and smoke out of the hot air chamber, and ensure a healthful and comfortable atmosphere.

Now, don't these FUSED JOINTS mean a lot to you? Don't they mean so much that you are going to investigate them thoroughly?

Write, now, to the "Clare Furnace Builder" for a free copy of the Hecla Catalogue. If you will send me a rough sketch of your home, I will tell you just what it will cost to install the right "Hecla" Furnace. Do it NOW.

TORONTO AGENTS: ALBERT WELCH & SON, 302 QUEEN STREET WEST.

Miss Norma Seymour, soprano, and W. U. Cripps, tenor, are heard in several new musical hits. From the scene of the wisteria grove, the change is made to the deck of a battleship. Will Rogers is a bona-fide cowboy, and, riding a magnificent horse, does some astonishing stunts in rope-throwing. Fred Ray and Company have a new Roman travesty, and their ridiculous modernizing of ancient history is bound to win a laugh for every line. Sam Elton, "The Man Who Made the Shah of Persia Laugh," has the most laughable of all juggling acts. The Lavine-Cimaron Trio, two men and a dainty woman, are doing something unique in comedy acrobat dancing. Tom Moore comes back after a long absence, and has a whole budget of new comic songs. The Kinograph has grown to be an attractive weekly feature, and will close the bill.

The rivalry among the burlesque managers this season has resulted in the formation of some of the most light and breezy form of entertainment. One of the most pretentious of these is "The Broadway Gaiety Girls" Company, which will appear at the Star Theatre during next week. It is said of this aggregation that money has been lavishly spent in an endeavor to provide something wholly superior to the average so-called burlesque offerings with the result that a company of thirty pretty, young and vivacious girls, picked for their qualifications as singers and actresses, and a coterie of comedians known throughout the country as mirth-provokers, has been gathered.

The reputation which the Westminster and Concert Party has won during their recent world tours should be sufficient guarantee that those who go to watch this unique body at the Massey Hall on Oct. 6 are not likely to be disappointed. A feature is the appearance of the solo soprano boys, who are said to rank among the most celebrated boy soloists in England. A special children's matinee will be given on Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Gullbert will be heard in Toronto at Massey Hall on Monday evening, Oct. 8, making her joint appearance with Albert Chevalier, in their transatlantic tour, under the Liebler & Co. direction.

Plans have been completed for three new normal schools, at Peterboro, Stratford and North Bay.

They will measure 7x10 feet, and be built of red brick, and will contain library, reading-room, gymnasium, manual training section, laboratories, domestic science rooms and lecture rooms, as well as the usual classrooms and other necessary accommodation.

Tragedy of Misplaced Love—Woman Defends Herself from Stabbing With Shears.

Paterson, N.J., Sept. 28.—Two pistol shots ringed out in quick succession in a fashionable boarding-house on Summer-street here early to-day in a room with a bullet in his head and a woman cowering in the corner screaming and wringing her hands.

The woman said she was Paige, that the man was Floyd Bingham, and they had fled from Binghamton, N.Y. According to her, the man was a desperado at first claimed that she was the dead man's wife, Bingham had killed himself while concealing over his lack of money, and after he had attacked her with a pair of shears, Bingham was unceremoniously and promptly killed here, and the couple frequently quarreled.

To-day, after a dispute of unusual violence, Bingham tried to stab her with the shears, the woman declared, and she defended herself. In the struggle her hand was cut by a revolver, pointed the weapon at his head and fired. He missed his aim, but the second time she was wounded in the head and he entered his head and pierced his brain. He appeared to have died almost instantly.

The Paige woman admitted that she was married, and that she had deserted her husband, the police say. She is about 25 years old and of attractive appearance.

Used Marriage.
Questioned further by the police, Mrs. Paige told the police that her home was in Greene, Chenango County, N.Y., and gave her age as 25 years. She said about ten days ago they came to Paterson and took a room at the Freeman Hotel, where they were a week ago to the boarding-house where she is now staying.

Mrs. Paige said that when they were about to retire last night Bingham commenced to talk about divorcing her to become his wife. She told him that that was impossible, as she was already married. Then he suddenly became angry and took up a pair of shears, rushed at her and tried to stab her. She fought him off, and while winding up the blow aimed at her received several slashes on her hands. Bingham suddenly desisted from his assault, and pulled her away from him. The first bullet went into the ceiling, but the second found its mark and the man died.

Changes Her Name.
At police headquarters it was said that this appeared to be a woman who doubt the woman's story or to suspect that the man had not died by his own hand, in which the tragedy occurred in the city.

The investigation of the chief of police the woman said her real name was Cora E. Hackett, and not Paige. She said she had lived with her husband for two years, also that they were not divorced. She said Bingham was also a resident of Greene. She was later taken to the No. 100 morgue and in default of $300 security for her appearance at the coroner's inquest was sent to jail.

The Spirit of the Fall, Beside a woodland stream whose waters brawled, All passively sits the Spirit of the Fall. Her garments brown and gold, her shoulders bare. Her bosom curtained by her loosened hair. Her brow entwined with maple leaves aglow: One brow-foot stretched to meet the water's flow. The other pressed deep in the mosses rank. Which grow in rich profusion on the bank. One rounded elbow rests upon her knee. With chin in hand, she sits there silently. Gazing adown the wide ways of the wood.

To see each tree spotted with its own life-blood. The leaves fall gently 'round her, and the breeze plays with her shining hair. The drone of fervid silence like a muffled lute; A wood-thrush calls, like sweetest note of flute.

And so she sits, sad-eyed and still, A beggar queen upon a wildwood throne—

DUPLICATE SPEED
TRAIN GUARD IS CENSURED

Board of Trade Inspectors Report on the Causes of Salisbury Wreck.

London, Sept. 28.—Excessive speed, causing the engine to overturn, it has been decided by the board of trade inspectors, caused the Salisbury rail-road disaster of July 1, last, in which upwards of a score of passengers lost their lives.

The report issued to-day says that all the evidence points to the fact that the speed was at least twice as great as authorized by the company and possibly it was as much as seventy miles per hour.

Harrison, the guard of the train, is censured for not applying the brake when he knew the speed was dangerous, which would have greatly reduced the speed of the train.

The board found no evidence to support the allegation that passengers were in the habit of tipping the engineers of steamboat expresses in order to encourage them to run at excessive speed.

WOMAN BURNS WITH COTTAGE

Had Been Living Alone After Disasters in Family.

Owen Sound, Sept. 28.—Word has been received of the death of Mrs. Anne Irvin in the burning of her cottage on the 4th line of Sullivan, twelve miles from Owen Sound, where she lived alone, early Wednesday morning.

The fire was not noticed by the neighbors, and the charred skull and a few bones were all the remains that were found among the ruins the next morning.

Mrs. Irvin was over 50 years of age, and her husband died about 15 years ago. She lived with her son, Andrew Irvin, on the homestead, till eight years ago. She and her son's wife did not agree very well, so he built his mother a cottage on another part of the farm within a few feet of the road.

This summer, Andrew Irvin quarreled with his wife, and left her with the farm and went to work for a neighbor, Wm. Moran.

The last person to see old Mrs. Irvin was a neighbor named Craig, who passed her hours about dusk on Tuesday evening. He inquired as to her health, and she complained of a painful back. Craig recommended that she apply liniment and salt.

It is a theory that Mrs. Irvin arose during the night, and in an endeavor to prepare the remains of the coal of a fire and the house was a mass of flames before she could escape.

During his stay in Toronto Mr. Horsman will be the guest of Professor and Mrs. W. W. Rouse of Walmer-road, and it is expected that he will preach in the Walmer-road church in the evening.

Bradford Agricultural Society Suffers a Severe Loss.

Bradford, Sept. 28.—At four o'clock this morning fire destroyed the large exhibition building and grand stand owned by the Bradford Agricultural Society in the building John Hill had about a thousand dollars worth of sleighs and cutters on which he had $400 insurance. It is generally supposed that tramps set the building on fire. The loss to the society will be two thousand dollars, with $500 in insurance.

The directors of the society have men engaged removing the debris and if a new building cannot be erected in time for the fall show tents will be erected to accommodate the exhibitors.

Canadians in Cuba.

Mrs. Maude Benson, Picton, Ontario, writes The World, Sept. 28, that she received a letter from her husband from Ceballos, Cuba, dated Sept. 16, in which he states that the whole island is now under martial law except the provinces of Santiago and Canagney. He also states that the British consul at Havana notified all British subjects, thru the Havana papers, to place a value on their destructive property and send it to him. As Mrs. Benson says, the Cuban subjects of old England are secure.

In Ceballos the officers of the Land Development Company ordered out the Rural Guards, and hoisted the American flag, thus showing all comers that they were Americans and took no part in the trouble, and also the little town was wholly unprotected. They escaped, so far, without molestation.

Eight Hurt in Car Accident.
San Francisco, Sept. 28.—Eight persons were injured, four seriously, in a street car accident on Oak-street, last night caused, it is claimed, by a defective brake.

As a Mission-street car was descending the Oak-street hill the brakes suddenly gave away and the car sped down the incline at a terrific speed. The car was so crowded that several persons were riding on the roof. At Scott-street the car struck a sand wagon. The wagon was thrown clear off the track. Its driver sustained a fracture of the skull.

His Last Farewell.

Madame Patti to Retire at Last.

The wonderful voice with which Mme. Patti has delighted millions of people all parts of the world will be heard for the last time in London on Dec. 1, the famous singer having finally decided to retire from the concert stage. Her final concert in London will take place at the Albert Hall, and in the autumn of next year she will give a series of the greatest concerts in the principal provincial towns and cities. It is just fifty-six years ago that Mme. Patti, then a young girl, first sang in public in New York. Her next appearance was nine years later, when, after several years of study, she played the role of Lucia, on Nov. 24, 1859, and achieved a tremendous success. Two years later she crossed the Atlantic to sing at Covent Garden, beginning a career at London's principal opera house, which lasted for twenty years. During those twenty years her annual earnings are stated to have ranged between $150,000 and $170,000. Tours of North and South America and Argentina have brought her even greater monetary rewards, and it is in no way overstating the facts when it is said that during the four and a half decades in which she has been singing to the world her voice has earned her $250,000. For many single engagements in London she has received $4000, while it is on record that in New York, when playing the opera, she once received $5000 for each performance, paid in her dressing-room before she went on the stage.

A New Songstress.

Heart, Throat, Liver and Skin
DR. AGNEW'S FOUR FAMOUS SPECIFICS CURE COMPLETELY THE WORST DISEASES OF THESE PARTS—DREADFUL HEART DISEASE RELIEVED IN THIRTY MINUTES.

Heart disease will affect people differently, but in all cases it must be viewed with great alarm. Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart is the one remedy that can be safely depended upon in times of trouble. It will give relief in thirty minutes.

Mr. Thomas Petry, of Aylmer, Que., was troubled with severe heart complaint for five years, the pain, at times, being so severe that he could not attend to business. Every other remedy failed until he tried Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart, which gave immediate relief, and his words are these: "I have now taken four bottles of the remedy and an entirely free from every symptom of heart disease."

A cold in the head need not be trifled with, for it is catarrh in an incipient condition, and catarrh is not to be trifled with. Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder, as scores of clergymen, members of parliament, and prominent citizens in the Dominion have borne testimony, drives away a cold in the head like magic, and where this has assumed the shape of aggravated catarrh, producing deafness and throat trouble, it effects a permanent cure.

It is not always safe to take pills for liver trouble. They not infrequently create other troubles that are serious. Dr. Agnew's Liver Pills, while thoroughly certain of removing all liver trouble, give no difficulty either at the time or afterwards. They are pleasant to take and cost only 10 cents.

The faculty that Dr. Agnew has displayed in getting at the seat of trouble is manifest in his Ointment, as in the other three remedies. This contains the elements that give speed and permanent relief in all skin diseases and is peculiarly effective in curing piles. 35 cents.

trimmed with point lace, and carried a shower bouquet of cream roses. Her only ornament was a pearl brooch, the gift of the groom. The bride, Miss Hattie Dawson, sister of the groom, was gowned in white silk with Valenciennes insertion and a profuse bouquet of pink roses, and wore a pearl crescent, the groom's gift. John Speers, brother of the bride, supported the groom, the groom's gift being a pearl tie pin. A tent on the lawn afforded protection from the afternoon sun, while the company did justice to the dainty breakfast, of which some eighty guests from Toronto, Weston, Etobicoke, Richview, Brampton, Merton and Malton, partook. The many beautiful presents bespeak the esteem in which the young couple are held. Mr. and Mrs. Dawson left for their new home at Richview, the bride wearing a blue broadcloth suit, opening over a point d'esprit blouse and a velvet turban trimmed with plumes and lace.

TRUST THE SUPERINTENDENT
School Property Committee Refuses to Sanction a Report, From Expense

By an almost unanimous decision the members of the property committee of the board of education yesterday reaffirmed their confidence in Superintendent Bishop by declining to consider Trustee Leeves' motion to appoint two experts to appraise the damage to Palmerston-avenue and Dovercourt schools, owing to lack of protection during the recent storms.

Chairman Harry Simpson argued strongly against expert evidence, while Superintendent Bishop stated that the cost of furnishing protection would be many times the amount of damage. Trustee Shaw moved that after hearing Mr. Bishop's explanation the board accept the same, which was accordingly done. Trustee Rawlinson alone objecting.

Gerrard-street Methodist Church, pending some alterations to the church, will be granted the use of two rooms of Park School.

AUTO AND BICYCLE COLLIDE.
No One is Hurt Tho' Machines Are a Trifle Damaged.

As D. J. Mackinnon of Dunbar-road, who was automobiling on West King-street turned north into Crawford-street, J. L. Jones of the Jones Engraving Company, who was bicycling, collided with the machine. Neither machine was going very fast, and as Mr. Jones had raised himself on the pedals, preparatory to jumping off, he was raised above the hood of the auto, and in reach of Mr. Mackinnon, who grasped him by the coat collar and held him safe.

The bicycle was a trifle damaged only, while the auto, the steering gear being released when Mr. Mackinnon reached out for Mr. Jones, turned into the curb, breaking the glasses of the headlights and twisting the axle.

NERVOUS DEBILITY

ESTABLISHED 26 YEARS. CURE OR NO PAY

Men, don't wait until your whole nervous system is tottering under the strain and you become a physical and mental wreck, unfit for work, business or pleasure. With special diseases and weaknesses you can make no compromise. You must conquer them with the proper treatment or they will fill your whole life with failure, misery and woe. Unskillful treatment may ruin your system. Avoid those doctors who have no reputation at stake. A few cheap diplomas don't make a good doctor. The worst cases we have to treat are those who have been experimented on by incompetent doctors who posed as specialists. Our NEW METHOD TREATMENT has established a world-wide reputation for us in curing NERVOUS, BLOOD, SKIN AND GENITAL diseases. This system of treatment has been used by us for over 26 years, and is the reason why some fakirs adopt a name very similar in order to mislead the public. Every afflicted man owes it to himself, his family and to the future generation to get cured. WE MAKE NO MISLEADING STATEMENTS OR DECEPTIVE PROPOSITIONS. We guarantee in all cases a SAFE, COMPLETE AND PERMANENT CURE in the quickest possible time, without leaving injurious after-effects in the system and at the lowest cost possible for HONEST, SKILLFUL AND SUCCESSFUL TREATMENT.

We cure VARICOCELE and STRICTURE (without operation), BLOOD DISEASES (without mineral poisons), NERVOUS DEBILITY, KIDNEY AND URINARY diseases. CONSULTATION FREE. If unable to call, write for Question Blank for Home Treatment.

LAWYERS' ASSOCIATION HAS ITS OWN PURPOSES

Will Not Conflict With Present Society — Officers Elected.

The Ontario Bar Association met yesterday and after transacting considerable business adjourned to meet again at Osgoode Hall on Thursday, Dec. 27.

The officers of the association are: A. H. Clarke, K.C., M.P. of Windsor, president; Frank Arnold, K.C. of Toronto; Frank M. Field of Cobourg; and Frank E. Hodgins of Toronto, vice-presidents; W. C. Mikel of Belleville, secretary; Geo. C. Campbell of Toronto, treasurer. It collects $125,000 from every lawyer in the province, representing every part of the province. Every practicing barrister or solicitor in Ontario in good standing is entitled to membership in the association on payment of the annual fee of one dollar. At the next meeting the constitution and by-laws, as revised and perfected by the executive council, will be presented for discussion and adoption. The president is empowered to call the association together at any time, but it is not anticipated that any meeting will be called before the regular meeting in December.

Charles Elliott, editor of The Canadian Law Review, and a member of the executive council, was asked how, if at all, the new organization would conflict with the Law Society of Ontario.

"Not at all," he replied. "The Law Society is a business organization, owning Osgoode Hall and other valuable property. It collects $125,000 from every lawyer in the province, and is charged with the care and maintenance of the law library, the conduct of the law library, and the business is entirely transacted by an executive, called the benchers, of whom there are twenty-four, elected by ballot every year. In December they will be an address delivered by some eminent jurist, and papers will be read by several members."

A CANADIAN ARMY?

Arguments on Both Sides Aply Presented in "Canada."

In a current number of "Canada" both sides of the question are ably presented in a symposium on the subject of "Canada and Imperial Defence." The question appears to be about Canada maintain a standing army for the defence of the empire, and if so, what number of men. A. B. Chalmers, who skillfully argues against the maintenance of such a force, contending that any contribution from Canada towards the defence of the empire should be voluntary, and that when it is needed, Canadian contribution will have no measure, but the need of the empire, and no limit to the resources of the Dominion." He prefers to write merely of the word "Canada" on the balance sheet of imperial defence, rather than write in cold blood a minimum figure for defence which would be a contribution of views left to ourselves and the occasion," he says, "Britain will get the maximum of our military ability," but to consider the maintenance of a permanent force "would impose upon our public men the necessity of putting down in cold figures what Canada will prepare in time of peace to do in time of war; a very different thing from estimating what Canada will really do in time of war."

The other side of the question is well presented by Mr. E. B. Osborn, who points out that to be of an use in an emergency, a force must needs be trained in time of peace in order to act promptly when their services are required. Time he says, is a mighty factor in all national struggles and "in a great way for the destruction of the British Empire, the time must occur with electric rapidity. The issue of the struggle would probably be settled in a few weeks and there would be time enough for Canada to make use of her latest military force." For this reason, he considers that "it would be better, from the Canadian point of view if Canada had her minimum force for the defence of the empire, subject to the condition that it was not to be employed without the consent of the Canadian government."

"ROD AND GUN" HUNTING NUMBER

Ever to the front with reasonable topics for sportsmen "Rod and Gun and Motor Sports in Canada," published by W. J. Taylor at Woodstock, Ont., has brought out for October an enlarged hunting number which will delight the heart of every sportsman when he sees it, and still more when he pursues the overflowing pages. There is a round dozen of stories dealing with hunting, the great bulk of them giving actual experiences and adventures in Canadian woods, and every one of them full of interest to the hunter and sportsman. "Scientific Deer Hunting," by Dr. Franklin Hawley, is a valuable paper which should be read and studied by everyone who goes to the woods, while others may also do the same with much profit to themselves. The fine illustrated accounts of the qualification climb for the membership of the Alpine Club of Canada, and of the first convention of the Ontario Fish and Game Protective Association form strong items in a number testifying on every page to the position and value of the magazine as the representative of Canadian sports interests.

New Lutheran Congregation.

The English-speaking Lutheran people are about completing the organization of a congregation in Toronto. They have been holding their services in Broadway Hall, and on Sunday expect to begin their Sunday school with the use of the Lutheran graded lessons and picture charts. These Sunday school supplies are furnished by a friend in New York, who also proposes to give a standard Sunday school library. This enterprise has no doubt an auspicious beginning, and no doubt will commend itself to all Christian people.
