NEW YORK BEAUTY DEAD; A POISON BOTTLE NEARBY

Police Think it Murder; it May be Suicide

Body of Dorothy King, an Artist's Model, Found by Colored Maid—Room had Been Ransacked, Jewelry Reported Missing.

New York, March 16—The body of Miss Dorothy King, an artist's model, was found by police yesterday in her fashionable apartment in West 87th street.

Dorothy King, an artist's model, who was found dead in her apartment on West 87th street, has been identified as the daughter of Mrs. Anna Kiernan, of 101st street.

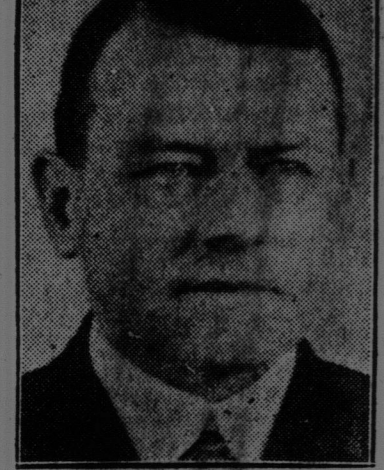

Dressed in a cramp, attired in a silk night dress, the body of the woman, described as one of the city's most beautiful girls, was found in her bed at noon by a colored maid.

An empty chloroform bottle was found near the body, and the police believe Miss King was murdered, but admitted she might have committed suicide.

Foremost among the murder theories was that of robbery. Through the remainder of the apartment was in order the sleeping room was torn up. Drawers had been pried open and clothing strewn on the floor.

A tall, striking man in a dark Van Dyke, was taken to the apartment last night by the police. His name was given as Albert Quimares, of Boston, and the police declared he admitted acquaintance with several men identified with the robbery of Mrs. C. P. Hugo Schoellkopf of Buffalo, at a New Year's party here.

"SHEER INVENTION" REV. MR. GOODWIN SAYS OF REPORT

Denies Veracity of Published Report of Hartland Speech—He Did Not Say Vendor Was Told to Get Busy.

(By Canadian Press.)

Fredericton, N. B., March 16—Characterizing as "a sheer invention" the published report of his statements at Hartland on Monday evening, Rev. H. A. Goodwin, St. John, secretary of the Evangelical and Social Service for the Maritime Provinces, who has been acting as organizer for the N. B. Temperance Alliance, completely denied the veracity of the account of his statements which have since given rise to contradiction by members of the New Brunswick Board of Liquor Commissioners and which were the subject of a statement by Premier Veniot yesterday in Legislature.

"I made absolutely no such statement to the effect that the liquor interests controlled the Government of New Brunswick and that Premier Veniot would act placed on the statutes of the province as they have in British Columbia," said Rev. Mr. Goodwin on his arrival here from Oromocto.

The Vendor Matter.

The statement which he did make in reference to the St. John vendor, declared Mr. Goodwin, was that a young man, who said he represented the liquor commissioners, had called on the vendor some weeks ago, which Rev. Mr. Goodwin explained, was prior to the time when Mr. Veniot became Premier of the province.

TOOK SIX MEN TO CARRY SIKI ABOARD SHIP

Wild Man of Borneo Outdistanced by the Senegalese Fighter—To Meet McTigue Tomorrow.

Hoboken, N. J., March 16—All the wild men who ever came from Borneo as tame as domestic house cats compared to Battling Siki, the Senegalese warrior, who slumped Georges Carpentier from his world light heavyweight seat, according to the crew of the President Adams, on which Siki recently rode from Cherbourg to Quebec.

Siki's manager booked passage for him on the ship so that he could get to Ireland to train for his match with Mike McTigue on St. Patrick's day. The battler disappeared four days before the ship sailed. His wife, a Dutch woman, did not know where he was. Finally they found him in a Paris apartment. He had been getting down to work by drinking strong liquor. When his wife tried to get him out of the apartment, he blacked her eye. It was under a patch when she went on the ship.

Siki, kicking like a roper calf, was carried aboard by six of the strongest stevedores in Cherbourg. Locked in his room, he acted like a polar bear in a Paris apartment. He snorted, he roared, he kicked the doors, he banged the furnishings and declared he was dying from thirst. He left the boat peacefully just then, he spat his disgust and calmed. He left the boat peacefully.

"But, say," remarked a seaman on the President Adams, "ain't that guy got a nerve to fight an Irishman in Ireland on St. Patrick's day? Win or lose, he's bound to get killed."

Nice, March 16.—Suzanne Lenglen defeated Mrs. Molla Mailouf, 6-0, 6-0, in their singles match today.

Tells Horror Of Vault Prison

Paterson Bank Clerk Says Rescuers' Hammers Almost Crashed Him—Nearly Suffocated.

Paterson, N. J., March 16.—Details of his imprisonment in a vault in the People's Park Bank were given out by Charles Di Giacomo, bank clerk, through his uncle, James J. Di Giacomo. According to the uncle, the young man told the following story: "During the first two hours in the vault I could breathe all right, but that awful hammering nearly drove me insane. I knew that I was in a serious plight and that I would soon breathe up all the air in the small enclosure, but I held hope that my rescuers would get to me in some way. All this time I was standing up because I was too frantic to sit down. Then by degrees the air became so hot and heavy that I found difficulty in breathing. I knew that I was dying and I began to higher levels, so I got down on my knees. "For a short time breathing was easier, but it was not long until I had to lie down on my back. I began to feel weaker. My head spun around and around. I remember clutching at my collar and tearing it open so I could breathe easier. I was about to cash in when through the haze I saw the hole that my rescuers had cut through the top of the vault. Although scarcely able to move, I managed to get to my feet after a minute that seemed years. Finding myself too short to reach the hole, I succeeded in climbing on top of a chair that had been left in the vault. The chair had a number of ledgers on it, but I could not find strength to push them off. Finally, after much struggling, I climbed to the top of the books and pushed a note through the hole. Then I fell. The chair and ledgers fell on top of me. It was in this position that my rescuers found me."

Worst Since Year Of Titanic Loss

U. S. Coast Guard Cuts Puts Out to Warn of Berg Danger.

Boston, March 16.—The coast guard cutter Tampa set out yesterday for the annual season of service on the ice patrol of the North Atlantic steamship lanes. For two weeks bergs have been reported south of the Grand Banks, and the cutter Seneca was sent from New York a week ago to act as outpost until the Tampa was equipped for the service. Ice conditions are said to be more serious this spring than in any year since the Titanic went down in collision with a berg in 1912, with a loss of 1,500 lives.

WIFE A WITNESS FOR MRS. WELLS

Mrs. Pettit Says Husband Told Her He Almost Killed Housekeeper—Dead Man Wagered Heavily.

Minneapolis, N. Y., March 16.—Mrs. Madge Pettit, the second wife of James Pettit, tavern keeper who was shot to death at Massapequa Inn last January, took the witness stand in defence of Mrs. Mary Elizabeth ("Billie") Wells, who is charged with the shooting.

Mrs. Pettit said her husband had always been a great spender of money and wagered heavily on horse races. After their separation she had not objected to Mrs. Wells acting as housekeeper, or hostess, in Massapequa Inn, which Pettit owned, she told the jury. Mrs. Pettit asserted her husband had received $100,000 from the estate of his mother, but had spent most of the money recklessly. She said she knew he had attacked Mrs. Wells several times, and told of his coming to her and telling her he had almost killed his housekeeper. She said her husband was "always" kind, but never affectionate.

A small arsenal was placed in evidence today at the trial. It included five shotguns and a revolver with a bullet in the barrel.

Mrs. Pettit, who contends that Pettit killed himself, displayed marked interest in the testimony of Charles W. Hanson, fingerprint expert, who said the said area and the length of spars involved raising the masts to cut off six or eight feet from the base of each. When the masts had been raised, it was found that each had been broken so badly just below the deck planking that any heavy strain would, in the opinion of fishermen and riggers, have caused both sticks to go by the board.

Both Masts of The Mayflower Found Broken

Discovery Made When Spars Were Raised to be Shortened—Might Have Resulted in Loss of Both.

Halifax, N. S., March 16.—A despatch from Gloucester to the Evening Mail describes a timely discovery in connection with the spar rigging of the Mayflower, disqualified aspirant in the international schooner races during the last two years. A decision to reduce the said area and the length of spars involved raising the masts to cut off six or eight feet from the base of each.

A petition, signed by 460,000 electors, has been submitted by Dr. O. F. Melle, President of the Methodist Episcopal Seminary at Frankfurt-on-Main.

As Hiram Sees It

"Hiram," said the Times reporter to Mr. Hiram Hornbeam, "I was unable to sleep last night. A man told me we were to be visited soon with terrible spring floods, that would make the winter snowstorms seem like zephyrs. He said people would be drowned, live stock drowned, buildings washed away, and the whole face of the country changed. Isn't it dreadful? I pictured to myself a night of the flood and I could not sleep at all."

"That minds me," said Hiram, "of two fellows I heard talkin' the first of March. One started in to complain about a lovely day, for when March come in like a lamb it 'ud be sure to go out like a lion. The other fellow said he thanked the Lord for one fine day—and he wasn't worryin' about what it 'ud be like a month from then—for he mightn't be here. Now that fellow felt sense. An' if you had sense you'd tell that there crappanigger to get over into the next lot afore you could lay hands on a slash. Don't you lose any sleep over what you don't know nothin' about. That 'ud be my advice—yes, sir."

LABOR CHIEF ILL

Samuel Gompers, veteran president of the American Federation of Labor, has been seriously ill in New York with influenza and bronchial pneumonia. He is seventy-three years old and his advanced age is telling against him.

LIGHTNING BOLT MISSES VESSEL

New York, March 16.—A lightning bolt which struck the sea 100 feet in the wake of the Albany, during a severe electrical storm Tuesday night, shook the ship as if she were a leaf in a hurricane and knocked her captain and the first officer senseless on the bridge.

Captain Gibbons gave an account of the storm which the vessel arrived yesterday. The lightning shaft, he said, opened a yawning crater in the sea. He declared the shock was so heavy the mechanism of the ship was momentarily paralyzed.

The passengers, making merry at a ball in the dining saloon, believed the ship had struck a derelict mine and rushed for the boat deck and life preservers.

STATEMENT BY LABOR LEADER

Ottawa, March 16.—Tom Moore, president of the Trades and Labor Congress, declared here last night that organized labor is definitely opposed to registration under the trade union act as suggested by A. R. Mosher, grand president C. B. of R. E., and does not intend to be stampeded into changing its attitude and accepting incorporation of trade unions with all that they may involve, simply because of the one decision of that nature recently rendered in a Winnipeg court.

Norton Deland of this city, who will be 102 on March 26. She is Portland's oldest resident.

Mrs. Deland steadfastly asserted her opinion that a woman's place is in the home. "I could always find respect for Incubable," she said, "Madame Marie Rosa, aged eighty, died from shock in the Hotel Dieu."

Deplorable Crime But No Indictment

Bastrop, La., March 16.—No indictment was returned by the Moore Parish grand jury in connection with the slaying of Watt Daniel and T. F. Richard, on August 24 last, and various hooded band activities, which the jury has been investigating for the last ten days.

Will Do Nothing Until France Leaves Ruhr

No Negotiations Till That is Done, Says Berlin

Government Believes it is Backed by the People in This Decision—A Train Wrecked, French Killed—Railway Bridge is Dynamited—France Sends More Troops.

(Canadian Press.)

Berlin, March 16.—Germany's official response to the recent announcement that France and Belgium will evacuate the occupied regions as fast as possible, has been expressed only in the press and in Reichstag circles, but it is known that editors and politicians alike have been informed by the government that any negotiations on the reparations question are conditional upon the return of the Ruhr to German control.

Die Zeitung, the Industrialists' Journal, asserting that the "occupation of territory is no guarantee for deliveries," adds that "not a penny will be given until the last soldier is evacuated from the Ruhr."

This seems to epitomize fairly the attitude of both the newspapers and the Reichstag parties for it finds a general expression in the press. The government is convinced that it has the unswerving support of Germany's millions in setting forth that there can be no negotiations while the Allies remain in the Ruhr Valley.

"The presence of even restricted forces of occupation," a Socialist leader said, "would be a constant reminder of the ten weeks of terror to which the Ruhr workers have been subjected, and would also constitute a permanent basis of friction."

Dusseldorf, March 16.—A French soldier was killed and three soldiers and three French railroad men were injured when a French troop train was wrecked near Treves, in the Rhineland, today, as the result of sabotage.

The railroad engineers over the Kalkum River between Duisburg and Dusseldorf was dynamited. The French patrol guarding the bridge was fired upon by the saboteurs.

Near Coblenz, three miles of telephone and telegraph cable, which included fourteen important military wires, were cut and destroyed. The French said it would take six months to repair this damage.

A bomb was thrown at the railway station at Weiden, but only slight damage was done.

Additional reinforcements to the guards for the engineering mission are beginning to arrive. It was announced today that 15,000 French troops were coming in, and 6,000 Belgians, although Brussels reports say the Belgian troops are merely replacements. This will make a total of seven divisions in the Ruhr, besides various auxiliary forces.

(Canadian Press Cable.)

Paris, March 16.—German Nationalists, wearing French uniforms, and posing as French horsemen, are declared French official advices from the Ruhr to have been committing robberies and other outrages with their own country's people as the victims. Their purpose, as interpreted here, is to excite the public against the troops of occupation and stiffen the German resistance.

At Least Twenty-five Persons Reported Injured in Tennessee Blow.

Memphis, Tenn., Mar. 16.—The town of Savage, Miss., near the line between Tunica and Tate Counties, had been wiped out by a wind storm, according to reports reaching here. No lives were lost.

War Talk By Von Hindenburg

Hanover, March 16.—Field Marshal von Hindenburg, addressing the Veterans League, said: "We do not wish to instigate war, but in view of the present realities we cannot deny the truth of Schiller's words: 'The most peaceful person cannot live in peace if a wicked neighbor does not wish it, and the nation is unworthy that does not stake everything upon its honor.'"

MR. BENTLEY IS RIGHT

In his thoughtful speech in the Legislature on Wednesday Mr. A. F. Bentley, M. P., said he had no doubt the demand for hydro would pass over the province like a prairie fire. This prediction is well founded. Those localities which are already receiving the benefits of the hydro development at Musquash are so well pleased that the good news will spread. When St. John gets the current the good news will spread still faster.

REV. MR. GOODWIN'S REMARKS

If Rev. H. A. Goodwin had charged that, prior to the declaration by the new Premier of his determination to enforce prohibition, the vendors were selling far greater quantities of liquor than could possibly be needed for medicinal and sacramental purposes, the truth of the charge would have been found, and is found, in the liquor revenue statement of the Government. It was notorious that there was far more selling than was justified under the law.

THE AMERICAN PORTS.

Hon. W. E. Foster very properly called the attention of the Provincial Legislature to the report that "the management of the Grand Trunk Railway has definitely and finally decided to proceed at once with the work of completing the southern New England extension from Palmer, Mass., to tide-water at Providence, if the Rhode Island General Assembly will grant a two-year's extension of the charter."

PART-TIME TRAINING.

The following from a letter in the Boston Herald gives an illustration of how vocational training is given to young people in that city: "The Boston high schools have various industrial courses on the part-time basis. Two years ago a co-operative, week-in-and-week-out course in retail selling was started at the High School of Practical Arts. More than 100 high school pupils have been employed by local merchants under written agreement on this basis—to be retained as permanent employees after graduation. Two girls hold one 'job' and alternate one week in school and one week in the store. At least 50 per cent. of the vocational contents of a course in selling is in the store work itself, and a part-time retail selling course establishes that desirable and reasonable balance between academic instruction and the exercise, training and responsibility of productive industry. A part-time course of this kind makes for the immediate application of instruction to vocational necessities. It gives educational assistance when and where it is needed. The teacher comes in contact with each individual when vocational counselling is vital. The high school pupil can be judged, checked and improved when on the job, and the necessary adjustments can be made while the pupil is still in school. Apprenticeship of this kind, with school supervision, is good for the pupils, the parents, the high schools and the employers."

A TORONTO DISPATCH SAYS:

"McClelland and Stewart, publishers, announced today that they will publish in the early fall what is claimed will be the first complete literary history of Canada by Dr. J. D. Logan, of Acadia University, entitled Highways of Canadian Literature."

The morning local train between Springhill Junction and Moncton was derailed yesterday morning between Seckville and Dorchester at Evans' Sliding, and traffic on the main line was held up for several hours.

A VICE-PRESIDENT'S PLEA

Self-reliance rather than reliance upon Government is the need to preserve liberty, Vice-President Coolidge declared in an address at the Founders' Day celebration of the Randolph-Macon College in Lynchburg, Va., this week. "It is altogether too much public complaint, too much public condemnation, because some one does not come where it is needed. The teacher comes in contact with each individual when vocational counselling is vital. The high school pupil can be judged, checked and improved when on the job, and the necessary adjustments can be made while the pupil is still in school."

IRISH LANCERS IN MONS

A memorial offered to the town of Mons by the 8th (Royal Irish) Lancers, who began and ended the war in that town, has been handed over in the presence of the Municipal Council. The memorial, which is the work of the sculptor, Alfred Gilbert, and the architect, May, of London, bears the names of the officers and men who fell round Mons. Underneath is the inscription, "Their name liveth for evermore."

Harold W. Turner, wireless operator on the steamer Methven, writing to the radio club here, claims to have established a new record for listening in. When off the coast of Ireland he says he distinctly heard a concert being broadcasted from New York.

THE IRISH PLOT.

Some queer things are brought to light by the Irish arrests in England and Scotland. One of the most remarkable disclosures is that those enemies of the Irish Free State who call themselves the Irish republican army have an "officer commanding in Great Britain." This plainly implies that a part of the insurgent army is there taking action on British soil against the Irish Free State.

From the heads of the murder and arson gangs in Ireland there will come angry cries and fierce accusations. It will be said that the British Government is engaged in an anti-Irish plot and policy, and that the Irish Government is no more than its instrument.

IN SUPPORT OF THE MARITIME VIEW

(Moncton Transcript) Sir Henry Thornton is reported to have assured Mr. Hensley, chairman of the Transportation Committee of the Halifax Board of Trade, that the present boundary of the Eastern Division of the C. N. R. was temporary, and that the whole matter was receiving his attention.

It is well that Sir Henry is reconsidering the matter. But his statement that there would be considerable clashing with the Grand Trunk and other lines requires further elucidation. The Maritimes fear that Grand Trunk officials will naturally be inclined to work in the interest of the line from Montreal to Portland.

Operating Under Difficulties. London.—A daring and successful surgical operation was performed on board the steamer Taiyuan in midocean during a voyage from Hongkong to Sydney, according to the Sydney correspondent of "The London Daily Telegraph." One of the officers being seriously ill, the ship's surgeon requested Dr. Babington, fleet surgeon, of the China Naval Station, who was a passenger, to join him in consultation, as the outcome of which the operation was performed.

Y. M. C. I. Dramatic Club Presents "The Spider" Before Appreciative Audience—To be Repeated Tonight.

An audience of between 500 and 600 was delighted with the St. Patrick's Day play, "The Spider," presented in the St. Vincent's Auditorium last evening by the Y. M. C. I. Dramatic Club.

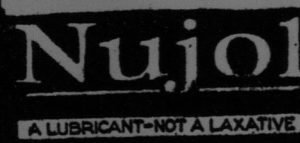

The play was a generous and hearty as it was well earned, and curtain calls were taken by the company at the end of the first two acts.

He was ably supported by Miss Florence Walsh, as the sympathetic daughter of the hard-boiled business man.

Joseph Calnan played the part of Judge Milford, a crooked member of the bar hiding behind his official and social position, and supported the role

The show was a very good one and deserved the appreciation shown by the audience. The lines were spoken without any of the unhappy breaks generally found in amateur performances.

THE RIDDLE OF THE SPINNING WHEEL

Being An Exploit in the Career of Hamilton Cleek, Detective By MARY E. AND THOMAS W. HANSHEW

(Continued from yesterday) "Hardly that, Lady Paula. And well, I don't happen to be well up on these matters at all, the law, y'know, and all that—only the law of criminology, and that's an altogether different thing. No doubt one of the family has put it away. It will turn up in time. Now, please go away before the rest of the constables arrive. You want every atom of your strength to see this appalling thing through, believe me, and therefore I insist that you harbour it."

could look archly at another man over her own husband's dead body was surely no woman at all, but a harpy in woman's guise. It was ghoul-like, horrible! . . . And if the excuse were false, what did she come for—in the early hours of the morning, when servants were only just astir in the other wing of the house, and she knew that there was that dead thing who had been her husband to be confronted? Would a woman face a murdered man for a mere handkerchief? . . . She would lose a thousand such sooner, from what he knew of the feminine sex. No, there was some other reason, and that was already gone. Was it to remove some distinguishing clue which she feared might be found to connect her with this crime? What was it?

CHAPTER XI A New Clue

It was a silent, horror-haunted breakfast-table that morning at which however, every member of the family appeared, as though driven downstairs for the mere comfort of being among familiar things, and with one another, in this time of tragedy. Cleek partook of breakfast with them, but the black looks which Ross directed at him would have made a weaker man lose his appetite. He smiled to himself now and again, missing nothing of what went on about him, yet seeming, indeed, to see nothing at all but his own plate, which was plentifully filled in response to a hearty appetite. He found Cynthia Debenham a bonny, red-cheeked country girl of the best type, athletic and muscular as a boy, and very obvious in her expressions, as just such a normally healthy girl of her generation usually is. Her cousin, Catherine Dowd, was on the contrary a black-haired witch with slanting eyes and close mouth and the finely chiselled nostrils of a thoroughbred mare. He did not take to her upon sight. There was so much concealed behind those closed lips, so much that was secretive in the whole type of her. But she was obviously very fond of them all, and upon excellent terms with every member of that ill-assorted family. So that at least Miss Dowd of the black locks was endowed with the mixing spirit, which was very much in her favour. Cyril, large-eyed and serious, sent his glance roving from one face to another, as though seeking for the secret of this horrible thing that had taken place here in the midst of them, and Cleek could not refrain from a pang of pity for the white-faced boy. He looked so frightened and miserable, and now and again his eyes roved up to Ross's face with something of inquiry in them, as though he felt that this big stepbrother must surely hold the key to the tragic happenings of last night. Ross, indeed, ate nothing and said, less, although his fiancee did all in her power to bring some sort of a smile into his morose face. While upon the other side of him Maud Duggan sat in a silence which was fraught with all the dreadful happenings of that dreadful night, showing a face to the world which spoke mutely of the fact that sleep had not visited her during the long dark hours. Lady Paula alone tried to make some sort of desultory conversation, aimed at random at each member of the party, and missing its mark each time. It was as though a pall had been dropped over them, shutting out the possibility of speech. Breakfast at length over, Cleek took the situation quietly in hand, and turning toward them in the open doorway, made his desires known. "If you will all be so kind as to step into the library in an hour's time," he said blandly, "I should like to reconstruct the scene of last night's tragedy in the presence of all those who took part in it. . . . No, Miss Duggan, you need not be afraid. Your father's body will have been removed by then. But if any one of you have any knowledge whatever to impart to me—representing, as I do, Scotland Yard in the absence of Mr. Narkom (who is already upon his way here) I shall be only too pleased to speak with you in the little ante-room close by. I may use that as a sort of office for the time being, may I not, Lady Paula? You've no objections, I trust?" She shook her head at him, flashing him a killing glance from under her full lids. The flattery of his choice of her as principal of the bereft family pleased her immensely. "None whatever." "Thanks very much." Then he withdrew to the said ante-room, took out pen and paper, and began figuring out something upon it which caused him not a little worry, by the look of his face. Five minutes brought a gentle tap upon the door, and without raising his head from his work he called, "Come in." Catherine Dowd stood in the aperture, looking more like the Mona Lisa than he had ever seen a living person do before. "There was something of the same inscrutable smile lingering upon her lips, the same mysterious impassivity in her quiet countenance. "I've brought you something, Mr. Deland," she said in a soft purring voice. "Something which I imagine has great bearings upon last night's tragedy, and which I found hidden in the left-hand curtain of the window. It was stuck carelessly into the inner lining of the green silk, and hung there. Here it is."

IRISH MINSTRELS WELL RECEIVED

Enjoyable Performance in
St. Peter's Auditorium
Under Choir's Auspices.

A real old fashioned Irish minstrel show was presented in St. Peter's Auditorium last evening, under the auspices of St. Peter's church choir, and it was thoroughly enjoyed by a large assemblage. It was teeming with wit and humor and was replete with beautiful and tuneful melodies. The singing of the principals was a feature, while the chorus scored a hit, their voices blending beautifully and coming out strong and clear. The work of the four end men was praiseworthy and to them went the credit for the fun, which was brought out by their witty and amusing dialogue. The majority of the singers have frequently appeared behind the footlights and last night they again regaled the audience with their beautiful and pleasing voices. One of the soloists, appearing for the first time, was Miss Helen McBrady who sang most acceptably "My Mother's Lullaby." She has a beautiful voice and her initial appearance was a marked success.

At the conclusion of the minstrel a short drama entitled "The Bishop's Candlesticks" was presented. The participants are well known in local amateur circles and their acting was consistent and pleasing. One and all scored new triumphs and they were accorded hearty and well merited applause.

Music was furnished by St. Peter's Lugeon orchestra.

WORLD-WIDE RADIO SOON TO FLASH WORDS TO ARGENTINA

Buenos Ayres, Feb. 8.—(By Mail).—The big, high powered wireless station at Monte Grande, near Buenos Ayres, the first South American station in the international commercial radio system, is almost completed, and it is announced that service will begin in June or July next. It will place Argentina in direct wireless communication with the United States for the first time, as well as with Europe.

Radio engineers say there are two strange, static "dead areas," one near the equator of Brazil, and one in the South Atlantic, which only a station equipped like that at Monte Grande can overcome. The new station has been built entirely with American materials. All that remains unfinished are the control lines from Monte Grande into the city, a distance of twenty-four kilometers, which will be placed in underground conduits leading to the company's office in the business center.

KING'S BENCH JUDGMENT. In the case of Colwell vs Corbett in the King's Bench Division of the Supreme Court this morning Chief Justice McKeown set aside a judgment entered by the plaintiff against the defendant for the sum of about $2,000. In this case a specially endorsed writ had been issued and had been allowed to go to judgment before question as to its validity was raised. Objection was taken that the statement of claim included interest on money paid. The court found that there had been nothing of a contractual nature for payment of interest, such as a bill of exchange or written instrument and declared a special endorsement on the writ improper. This rendered the judgment a nullity. An order will be taken out within a few days to bring the case before the court for a hearing. G. H. V. Belyea, K. appeared for the plaintiff and J. S. Tait for the defendant. Costs were ordered against the defendant no matter which party succeeded.

Vendor Fined and His License Cancelled

Magistrate Takes Drastic Action in Drug Store Liquor Case

Plea for First Offence of No Avail—Magistrate Refers to "Orders from Headquarters" and Imposes the Extreme Penalty.

For the first time since prohibition became law in New Brunswick Magistrate Ritchie today at noon ordered the cancellation of a vendor's license under the Prohibition Act. The case was one against Rudman Allan, proprietor of a drug store in West St. John, and grew out of a visit by Inspector J. Killen to the premises this week when thirty-three bottles said to contain Haig & Haig whiskey were found over and above the number allowed by the law. In addition to having his license cancelled the magistrate imposed a fine of $200.

E. J. Henneberry appeared for Mr. Allan and asked that the minimum fine be imposed in view of the fact that his client was now prepared to plead guilty and this had been his first offence. William M. Ryan, for the prosecution, said that he had received his orders and would have to do his duty. Mr. Allan was by his own admission guilty of offering liquor for sale contrary to the intoxicating liquors act and he was in addition a legal vendor under the prohibition law. The act said, he pointed out, that the discretion regarding the cancelling of the license lay with the magistrate. He asked that a fine be imposed and the license cancelled.

Orders From Headquarters. Magistrate Ritchie reviewed the case at length. He said that in view of the fact that "orders had come from headquarters" to enforce the law there would have to be done to do but to impose the extreme penalty. The act told him what to do and as the defendant was proven to be a legal vendor he would have to carry out the law. He accordingly ordered the license cancelled and struck an additional fine of $200.

Under section 92 of the present prohibition act it sets out that should a legal licensee offer liquor for sale contrary to the provisions of the said act he would be liable to a minimum fine of $50 and a maximum of $200 and it lay within the magistrate's discretion as to whether or not the license be cancelled. The magistrate remarked that the present case would be a warning and lesson to others although he regretted the fact that he was compelled by the law to impose the full penalty.

CATTLE MAY BE HERE TOMORROW

Shipment Now on Way to be Followed by More

Young Steers for England to be Given Grazing There Before Killing—St. John is Finely Equipped for Speedy Handling.

For the first time in years a shipment of store cattle is enroute to this city to be sent across the Atlantic to England. Yesterday 427 arrived in Montreal from West Toronto stock yards and it was reported that they had gone forward en route to this city to be shipped on the Manchester Division. No word of their arrival on the New Brunswick district was received today, but it is expected that, unless some unforeseen trouble is encountered as a result of the storm, they will arrive here tomorrow.

Heretofore stock cattle were shipped from this port and they were supposed to be killed within twenty-four hours after their arrival overseas. This shipment consists of store cattle, which are now allowed to be shipped to Great Britain for fattening purposes. They are nearly all steers and it is said their average weight are about 1,000 pounds. They will require from one month to six weeks grazing before they will be ready for killing. It is said that their ages average between two to three years.

A few years ago several steamers had permanent fittings to handle cattle shipments, but in recent years they have been done away with. Vessels taking cattle from this port at present have to be fitted to handle these shipments and as a result it is making work for local ship liners. St. John today can boast of the finest cattle sheds and the best facilities for handling cattle on the Atlantic coast. Exceptionally quick despatch in handling is made possible by tidal conditions which permit the placing of cattle on any deck without having to be slung. An example of quick despatch was given here recently when 850 head were loaded to the Manchester Producer in thirty-seven minutes—actual working time.

The present shipment of store cattle is coming here via the C. P. R. in twenty cars and they will be taken right to the shed in West St. John. Another shipment is expected in the near future when between 400 and 600 are to be sent on the Manchester Brigade. All are being sent to Manchester, England.

TO INVESTIGATE THE SCHOOL FUND

A committee, composed of Councilors Bullock, Wigmore and O'Brien, has been appointed to study the county school fund. Owing to a shortage in the fund, the county treasurer, the county secretary and the auditor have refused to borrow money to pay the last issue of school drafts amounting to $16,071.60, and the Board of Education is issuing drafts in excess of collections. The committee has been appointed to seek a remedy.

LIKELY UNVEIL ST. JULIEN MEMORIAL ON DOMINION DAY

First of Eight Similar Monuments to be Erected in Flanders—15,000 Names for the Vimy Ridge Memorial.

(By Canadian Press.)

Montreal, March 16.—The widely heralded Canadian memorial, now in the making at St. Julien, will be unveiled at a striking ceremony to take place on Dominion Day, the first of July, according to announcement made yesterday by Brigadier-General Hughes, chief engineer of the Canadian battlefields memorial commission. At St. Julien is the first of eight similar monuments which it is planned to erect, the other seven having not yet been commenced. If the memorial commission gives unreserved approval to that at St. Julien, the rest will be constructed along the same lines and placed at Sennoy Wood, Passchendaele, Drury Cross Roads, Bourlon Wood, Courcellette, LeQuensel and Amiens.

On Vimy Ridge. A contract was let this year for the memorial of Vimy Ridge, which will be placed on what was known to the men of the trenches as Hill 145. Fully fifteen thousand names of missing Canadians will be inscribed on the Vimy monument, the names of the known fallen being placed, in every instance, on individual tombstones. In addition to this, said General Hughes, there are the thousand names of the missing soldiers of the Dominion on the huge memorial arch erected by the British at Menin Gate, Ypres.

GIRL CASE IN POLICE COURT

Child Protection Act Figures in It—To Be a Written Judgment.

The case of a fifteen year old girl charged with vagrancy was to have come before Magistrate Ritchie for judgment this morning. The Magistrate started to give judgment under the Child Protection Act of 1919 stating that this was one of the few cases that he had tried under this act. William M. Ryan, on behalf of the girl, said that the girl was not being tried under this particular act but was charged with the ordinary charge of vagrancy. "That will mean then," said the magistrate, "that we will have to go all over the evidence again." The girl was sent into jail and the case will be heard under the act within the next few days.

Previous to sending the girl back to jail the magistrate went into the drastic features of the act under discussion. He said that he would prepare a written judgment on the case as he was convinced it was important to all children under sixteen years of age who were found out after 8 o'clock in the evening. One of the strong features of the act was that a juvenile could be arrested any time after 8 o'clock for even "loitering" about the streets.

One man for drunkenness appeared in the police court this morning. Questioned by the court where he received the liquor he gave information which led the magistrate to believe that there was a case for the inspectors. Inspector Carson interviewed the man but he said that the individual from whom he received the "wet goods" had left for Montreal. He was remanded to jail.

Couldn't Wait For Canvassers

Hydro Enthusiast Comes to City Hall to Sign Contract—Not to Be Bluffed.

A supporter of the progressive hydro policy of the city called upon the secretary-accountant of the hydro commission yesterday and wanted to sign an agreement to take the hydro contract. He said he was going out of town for a few days and was afraid that the canvassers for current might call during his absence. He said he would take the current regardless of any reduction in the rates offered by the N. B. Power Company as he said he considered this only a subterfuge.

TO INCREASE TONNAGE ON MONTREAL ROUTE

The Canadian Government Merchant Marine, Ltd., has announced a change in the service from Montreal to the West Indies to commence with the opening of the Montreal season. Four boats of about 4,000 tons gross, all considerably larger than those now on the route, will be put on this service and will maintain fortnightly sailings. The steamers to be used will be the Canadian Carrier, Canadian Squatter, Canadian Runner and Canadian Otter. All these ships have been in St. John during the winter. The Canadian Carrier is now waiting to sail for Cardiff and Swanes, the Canadian Runner arrived in Glasgow from this port yesterday, the Canadian Squatter was here recently and the Canadian Otter was here earlier in the season. The increase in the size and number of the boats is taken as an indication of better trade conditions.

LIFE SENTENCE FOR A WOMAN

Chicago, March 15.—Convicted of the poisoning of her third husband, Mrs. Tillie Kilmeck holds the unique position of being the first woman ever sentenced to life imprisonment in Cook county courts.

Fourteen persons, 18 of whom are dead, have been listed by county authorities as victims of an alleged poison conspiracy between Mrs. Kilmeck and her cousin, Mrs. Nellie Koulik, who is awaiting trial on a murder charge.

Frank Kupoyk, her third husband was the "corpus delicti" named in Mrs. Kilmeck's trial which ended with her conviction last night. Her fourth husband is in a hospital here, paralyzed, according to physicians, from the effects of a rat poison.

KLASMEN INVADE CHURCH IN NEWARK

Enter as Choir Sings "Onward Christian Soldiers," and are Greeted by Pastor.

New York, March 16.—Astonishment was expressed in official circles here over the boldness of the Ku Klux Klan in sending forty hooded and gowned Klansmen to a public service in the Grace Methodist Episcopal Church, Newark, N. J., Sunday evening.

The forty Klansmen entered the Newark church, which is at New York avenue and Ann street, while the choir was singing "Onward Christian Soldiers." They marched up the main aisle and one of them, later introduced as "the Exalted Cyplopes," mounted the pulpit and shook hands with the pastor, the Rev. Parris C. Greenly.

"This is a white man's organization for exalting the Caucasian race and teaching the doctrine of white supremacy. This does not mean, as some would have you believe, that we are enemies of the colored and mongrel races, but does mean that we are organized to maintain the solidarity of the white race."

"This is a Gentile organization, and as such as its mission the inferiority of the highest ideals of the white Gentile people. However, we sing no hymns of hate against the Jew."

"It is a Protestant organization and its membership is restricted to those who accept the tenets of free Christianity, which is essentially Protestant. We are to the world that our fathers founded this as a Protestant country and our purpose is to establish and maintain it as such."

The speaker denied that any Klansmen had been concerned in the Mer Rouge murders in Louisiana, and that nowhere did Klansmen violate the law or take it into their own hands.

The pastor followed the address with a sermon on the Klan membership in the city and to estimate it at about 76,000. There were said to be thirty police men who are Klansmen in the city and five police captains were Klansmen or that any other officials in New York were Klansmen.

The "wooden spoon" is a mythical emblem of defeat and national humiliation; it is the "booby prize."

The game tomorrow is vested with much interest in selling but no fact that it is sixteen years since Scotland won the international championship. Scotsmen are hoping for a hard, fast field and a windless day.

FINE AGAINST HOCKEY PLAYER CAUSES COMMENT

(By Canadian Press) Toronto, March 16.—A $100 fine and costs meted out to Gordon Dewar, defence player of Iroquois Falls in the Toronto police court for striking a police inspector during the game between Iroquois Falls and Kitchener is causing much comment.

Mayor Maguire is going to take it up with the police commissioners and in an interview says it is unfortunate that Dewar was arrested at all that a reprimand should have sufficed.

The Telegram criticizes the police, claiming they "made a mountain out of a mole hill." The Iroquois Falls player, it says, could hardly be blamed for being excited when the champion was at stake and his team had just had a goal taken away from them on a close decision.

"Perhaps the decision was right, perhaps the decision was wrong," says the editorial.

GOOD THINGS COMING TO THE THEATRES OF ST. JOHN

FAST COMEDY AND BOXING ROMANCE

Imperial Has Snappy Bill for the Week-end, With Special Singer Extra.

The Imperial's Friday-Saturday programme is unusually bright and will allow no watcher to lapse in interest for a moment. A speedy comedy with plenty of laughter is Wallace Reid's final contribution to the screen entitled "Thirty Days." Then follows the last of the "Leather Pushers" series of boxing stories entitled "Joan of Newark."

This will be the forty-fifth game between Wales, Ireland and France to their credit, they are supremely confident of vanquishing the Englishmen in the titanic engagement tomorrow. They will start up the engine again until Friday, I wanting to hold it in case we had a chance to chase a boat and get aboard her along Sunday night and Monday, eating just as little as we could and holding off sparingly on the water, but we had to do with us and we kept smoking and this sort of kept us up.

"Tuesday evening we finished the forecastle work on the boat. We had a bottle of rye with us, but when we tried to drink it we only got more thirsty. I tried to boil some of the sea water, but I didn't get it to boil. I guess it was Wednesday morning, to boil some more and I put some coffee and sugar into it, but it was a damned nuisance to get the water itself.

"Wednesday we began to feel so we didn't care where we were heading and we tried chewing tobacco to moisten up our mouths. It worked pretty fair, but toward night I got so dry I took some of the salt water.

"On Thursday I took five basins of the salt water and I got pretty well 'shut up,' because I grabbed Matthews around the waist and tried to throw him over the side. I was just 'bughouse' for the time, I guess. I don't know whether I slept at all during the whole time, but I guess I did. I think I thought my time had come but we stuck it out pretty well until being taken the salt water. On Wednesday, Harry wanted to take some iodine from a bottle I had for cuts. He said that we could both kill ourselves. I told him I wouldn't do it and that I was going to wait a while longer. I took the bottle away from him and put it in the locker.

"On Friday, along about 6 o'clock in the afternoon, I sighted a 90-foot schooner which had been sighted and was just getting under way on a tack which would bring it somewhere near us. Although I was about crazy from drinking salt water, I knew enough to start the engine and we started over to meet the schooner. She was the Catherine M. I hailed the Swedish captain and he got a rope to us and we went aboard."

THE FIRST RAIN SINCE JANUARY

Rain fell today in the city for the first time in two and a half months. This is the first rain since New Year's night and is probably the longest period, during the history of old King Winter, that rain has not fallen in St. John during the months of January and February and part of March. Storm signal No. 4 has been displayed all along the coast. The forecasts are south west gales with rain, with tomorrow partly fair and gradually getting colder.

ADRIET FIVE DAYS WITHOUT FOOD OR WATER

Freeport, N. Y., March 16.—Always the silence, broken only by the creak of gear rest under the long sea swells. Swirling snow that isolated their little craft on the waste of waters. A faint compass that left them blind. Food and fresh water gone. Five days of drifting. One man trying to hurl his companion over the side. Later the compass crumpled in a bung weakly tabbling of suicide with iodine.

Such is the stuff of an epic that might have belonged to some far sea, but it was the real life of a man in Freeport, N. Y. It was related by Capt. Bergen Smith, Jr., and his companion Harry Matthews, two fishermen of Freeport, who put to sea a week ago last Sunday and were believed to have reached the "port of missing men."

They were picked up 66 miles south-about as thick as I've ever seen. The mind of each was almost as near exhaustion as his tortured body. Matthews, who was on his first deep sea fishing venture, and the more Smith, a professional cod catcher, stands close to six feet and his 180 pounds is largely work built.

CZAR'S OFFICER AT ELLIS I, SAYS LIFE HANGS ON STAY

Depotation Would Mean His Execution, He Pleads Through Great-Grandson of Grant.

New York, March 16.—Influential friends of Captain George Gulischer, held for deportation at Ellis Island because Russia's immigration quota has been exhausted, have intervened in his behalf, declaring that a deportation warrant would be his death writ, as he was an officer of the imperial bodyguard in Russia and fought with Wrangel against the Red army.

Mrs. Eleanor de Spensky, relative of Captain Gulischer by marriage, took a letter to Ellis Island recently which was written in his behalf by Count Spensky, son of Prince Cantacuzene, President Grant's grandfather. Count Spensky was an officer in Captain Gulischer's regiment.

An appeal in his case has been filed with the Department of Labor which will act as a stay in the deportation proceedings. Captain Gulischer came to this country from Turkey, and if deported would be sent back to Constantinople. As Turkey has an agreement with Russia to send refugees back to that country, his life would be forfeit, he says, whether he was sent to Russia or Turkey.

LOCAL GIRLS IN FASHION SHOW

F. W. Daniel & Co. Make Impressive Display and Please Throngs of Ladies.

A living model style show conducted yesterday afternoon, Wednesday, at F. W. Daniel & Co.'s, was quite an affair. The main feature was as much the graceful display of the store's staff as the mannequins as the beauty of the apparel introduced. This is the first time a St. John establishment has undertaken a fashion presentation of this kind.

Both afternoons the place was packed, many who were crowded out the first time, having their look yesterday, and all seemed well pleased with the exhibits. Unique new cloths and colors appeared in this year's costumeing, even the Tutankhamen trimming being already on view. Paisleys of everlasting charm were also prominent

Terrible Headaches And Dizziness

Mrs. S. Raphael, 237 Kenilworth Ave., N. Hamilton, Ont., writes:—I used to suffer from terrible headaches and dizziness. Last summer, while I was walking up a side street, I got a dizzy spell and fell in the middle of the road. An old gentleman helped me to get to where I was going and told me to get a vial of Milburn's Laxative Pills. Well, I did, and they did wonders for me. I don't know how to thank you, as I don't get headaches or dizzy spells any more.

How to Use Vicks VapoRub For Deep Grip Colds

First, It Is Very Important That a Thorough Rubefacient or Counter-Irritant Effect Be Produced on the Surface of the Skin Around the Lungs.

This Draws the Blood From the Congested Lungs and Lessens the Danger of Pneumonia.

Starting in the Southern States of the U. S. A., an epidemic of deep, grippily colds has been spreading Northward gradually until just recently it seems to have invaded Canada. In some sections these colds have been called influenza, but they are so much milder than the influenza cases during the first epidemic that health authorities have not agreed as to whether these cases were all due to the same infection or even whether there has been any real influenza.

New light has been thrown upon these matters by the announcement by Dr. Simon Flexner, director of the Rockefeller Institute of Medical Research, that the germ of influenza has been identified. The Institute staff, thru experiments on rabbits, has found how this germ injures the lung tissue so that it is no longer able to resist, to destroy the common bacteria of the nose and throat that cause bronchitis and pneumonia.

Dr. Flexner says, "Recent reports received from abroad and from points in the United States indicate that a secondary wave of epidemic influenza, relatively mild in character, is passing over parts of Europe and America."

The Danger is From Pneumonia. It, therefore, behooves anybody who develops a deep grippily cold to take his case seriously and work fast if all danger of pneumonia is to be avoided.

What is needed is something to decrease the congestion of the lungs. For this purpose there is nothing like a rubefacient or counter-irritant, as witness the use of blisters, poultices and plasters for generations. This counter-irritation reddens the skin—draws the blood from the congested parts to the surface; the circulation is improved; there is a sense of warmth and the possibility of pneumonia is greatly lessened.

Quick Counter-Irritant Needed. The value of this counter-irritant effect is greatly increased if it is produced quickly. Nearly every family has its favorite method—onion poultices, turpentine soaks, mustard plasters and poultices of various kinds—all are good.

A very simple method is to apply towels wrung out in hot water, as hot as the patient can stand. This not only reddens the skin quickly, but also opens the pores so that more Vicks can be absorbed. Some, however, prefer to use an ordinary mustard plaster, as the reddening effect lasts longer.

How to Heat and Apply Towels. Use an open kettle of very hot, not boiling water. Fold a medium weight towel, lay it into another towel, and holding the outer towel by its ends, let soak for two minutes. Wring out by twisting the outer towel. Apply the hot towel for two minutes, meanwhile heating another towel, and applying it the moment the first is taken off. Two applications usually will produce the desired redness, but use three or four if necessary.

Parts To Be Treated. Whatever method is used, the application should be applied over the throat and chest until the skin is thoroughly reddened. In very deep colds, the sides and especially the back from the middle of the shoulder blades to a point just above the waist, should also be treated.

The patient should be given a good purgative, and, if convenient, a hot mustard footbath for ten minutes—one tablespoon of mustard to a gallon of water.

built on a normal political basis," he said. "We are not going into Palestine to dominate anyone, but to build it up and take our place according to our merit."

"We will co-operate with the Arabs, who make up the bulk of the population, and strive to overcome prejudice and friction. Thousands have come and, regardless of the Arabs, it will go on as though a more normal state were a little league of nations in peace and harmony. When peace is born, I hope that Jerusalem may become the seat of the League of Nations."

Adolph Ochs, publisher of the New York Times, said that while he was not a Zionist, or in sympathy with the movement, he had been greatly impressed with the earnestness and idealism of the Jews in Palestine when he had been there recently.

Norman Hangerford, another speaker declared that nothing could relieve the prejudice against the Jews more than the Zionist movement.

DENIES LABOR IS SOURCE OF WEALTH

Lord Leverhulme Discusses the Possibility of Earning £100,000 a Year.

London, March 16.—An interesting debate, conducted by mail, has been going on between Lord Leverhulme, soap manufacturer, and Thomas Kennedy, secretary of the Social Democratic Federation on the question whether it is possible for a man by working to make £100,000 a year.

Mr. Kennedy took exception to a statement by Lord Leverhulme that he knew of young men who were content with £5,000 a year allowances from their fathers while they might, by entering business and working make £100,000.

Lord Leverhulme quoted the case of Henry Ford to show that it was possible for a man to make not only £100,000 but £2,000,000 a year.

Mr. Kennedy rejoined that there was a vital difference between making £100,000 by exploiting other people's labor.

"To this Lord Leverhulme replied that he could not for one moment agree that labor was the source of wealth. "When I was 33 years of age," he wrote, "I decided to go into the soap business. The only opening was through a business that had been losing money. I took over the same staff. These men had produced nothing but losses for my predecessor, but from the moment I took hold of the business the losses ceased and the profits began. In the second year I found I had made £50,000. I was strongly then of the opinion you hold, that I could not possibly have made that amount of money for myself. Reviewing the whole position, however, I could only find that I had the same staff who had lost money for my predecessor. I paid higher wages and higher salaries and had somewhat eased the hours of labor. It was merely the organization and system I had adopted that was responsible for turning a loss of several thousands a year into a profit of £50,000 a year."

FIVE NEW LIGHT VESSELS

Boston Herald: Five light vessels now under construction at Bath, Me., will enable the bureau of light-houses of the Department of Commerce to make important changes in beacons stationed in New England waters and particularly in Nantucket and Vineyard sounds. The Bath Iron Works has the contract well in hand, and trials of at least one fine steel vessel should take place next month.

The ships are from fifty per cent. to ninety per cent. completed, and, in every way, combine seaworthiness with comfort for crews. Their lights, too, and their signals are the best that Yankee ingenuity can devise.

FOG IN BOSTON

Wednesday's Boston Herald says: Fog yesterday forced a number of overseas ships to remain in the offing to await improved conditions, and the heavy early in the morning, soured the City of Gloucester, from Gloucester, and considerably behind schedule in reaching her berth at Central wharf. When fog lifted late in the afternoon vessels anchored in quarantine put to sea.

ACID IN STOMACH SOURS THE FOOD

Says Excess of Hydrochloric Acid is Cause of Indigestion.

A well-known authority states that stomach trouble and indigestion are nearly always due to acidity—acid stomach—and not, as most folks believe, from a lack of digestive juices. He states that an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach retards digestion and starts food fermentation; then our meals sour like garbage in a can, forming acid fluids and gases, which inflate the stomach like a toy balloon. We then get that heavy, lumpy feeling in the chest, we eructate sour food, belch gas or have heartburn, flatulence, water-brash or nausea.

He tells us to lay aside all digestive aids and instead get from any pharmacy four ounces of Jad Salts and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast, while it is effervescent, and furthermore, to continue this for one week. While relief often follows the first day, it is important to neutralize the acidity, remove the gas-making mass, start the liver, stimulate the kidneys and thus promote a free flow of pure digestive juices. Jad Salts is inexpensive and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and sodium phosphate. This harmless salt is used by thousands of stomach sufferers with excellent results.

Frank Simpson, charged with having been stronger than permitted under the act in his beer shop in Mill street, was before the Magistrate yesterday afternoon. Evidence was given by inspectors Killen and Carson, and the accused was fined $200. W. M. Ryan appeared for the prosecution.

Washington, March 15.—A new high record for Panama Canal traffic was established during the week ended Feb. 17, when 168 vessels, including eighty-one ships of the Atlantic Fleet, used the canal. The naval craft passed through to join ships of the Pacific fleet for joint manoeuvres in the Pacific waters without delay to commercial traffic.

Despite the heavy load, requiring operation of the locks until late at night, the traffic was handled by the regular organizations without any special arrangements being made, according to the current issue of the Canal Record, "and no unusual vessel failed of prompt transit on account of the passage of the fleet."

The bulk of the traffic was one way, although the commercial business of the canal was heavier than usual for the week, aggregating 414,817 tons, while the naval vessels totalled 314,940 tons. On Feb. 14, Gatun locks passed through twenty commercial craft, six destroyers, a mine sweeper and two naval auxiliary ships in 16 hours and 17 minutes. On Feb. 21 a total of twenty-one lockages were made, setting a new daily record, in 15 hours and 38 minutes. Fourteen commercial ships, five battleships, thirteen destroyers, and an auxiliary ship were sent through, making a total of thirty-eight craft, or a new daily record to that respect.

DECIDE FILM OWNERSHIP Supreme Court Gives Fight to "Over the Hill to the Poorhouse."

Washington, March 16.—In an opinion handed down by Associate Justice Brandeis, the United States Supreme Court decided that the sole rights to the moving picture film "Over the Hill to the Poorhouse" belonged to the late Will Carleton, belong to the Fox Film Corporation. It was understood later that representatives of the Fox interest, that producers now have either to make a settlement or would have to cease exhibiting the picture.

During the argument of this case before the Supreme Court, W. J. Hughes, Alfred A. Wreat and Otto O. Scholbohm, attorneys for the Fox Film Corporation, contended that their client obtained exclusive rights from Carleton's executor and from Harper & Brothers. The decision in the case hung on whether the laws gave an executor the right of renewal of copyright. The defendants argued that they did not, and that, therefore, the copyright had expired. The United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit, agreed with the contention, but today Mr. Justice Holmes reversed the lower court and dismissed decrees which had issued.

Carleton wrote "Over the Hill to the Poorhouse" and assigned his interest in these poems to Harper & Brothers, which published them in 1873.

GAS IN THE STOMACH IS DANGEROUS

Recommends Daily Use of Magnesia To Overcome Trouble Caused by Fermenting Food and Acid Indigestion.

Gas and wind in the stomach accompanied by flatulence, almost certain evidence of the presence of excessive hydrochloric acid in the stomach, creating so-called "acid indigestion." Acid stomachs are dangerous because too much acid irritates the delicate lining of the stomach, often leading to gastritis accompanied by serious stomach ulcers. Food ferments and sours, creating the distressing gas which distends the stomach and hampers the normal functions of the vital internal organs, often affecting the heart.

It is the worst folly to neglect such a serious condition or to treat with ordinary digestive aids which have no neutralizing effect on the stomach acids. Instead get from any drugist a few ounces of Bismarck Magnesia. It enables the stomach to deal with a glass of water right after eating. This will drive the gas, wind and blood right out of the body, sweeten the stomach, and prevent the formation of acid. It is harmless and there is no sourness or pain. Bismarck Magnesia (in powder or tablet form—never liquid) is used by thousands of people who enjoy their meals with no more fear of indigestion.

168 Vessels, Including 81 War Craft, Through in Week of Feb. 17.

Washington, March 15.—A new high record for Panama Canal traffic was established during the week ended Feb. 17, when 168 vessels, including eighty-one ships of the Atlantic Fleet, used the canal. MONCTON FIRE

Moncton, March 16.—Fire which broke out about 1:30 this morning totally destroyed the grocery and meat shop of Albert MacFarlane, at the corner of Latz and Queen streets, causing a loss of $3,000 or $4,000. The building was owned by W. K. Gross and is a total loss. A barn at the rear was also burned, but the horses were saved with considerable difficulty. The loss is partly covered by insurance.

PRINCE OF WALES SETS OWN MODES

Taste in Clothing Declared "Exotic" by Experts.

London, March 16.—The Prince of Wales is still arbiter of men's fashions. How the Prince's taste affects them was illustrated at the annual clothing exhibition at Agricultural Hall. Experts declared that the "Prince had rather an exotic taste in clothes, and whatever he orders in Jermyn street is slavishly followed by all the 'knuts' in town."

An example of this is a sweater which the Prince has been wearing recently. It is of highly colored jazz material, and created a mild sensation at the hard felt hat. "What I like about the Prince," said one of the experts, "is that he will please himself. He is like his grandfather, King Edward, who, not caring for what persons thought, creased his trousers sideways instead of down the front and back."

"I Can Now Do My Work Without Feeling Tired"

Mrs. A. Moffatt, Roxton Falls, Que., writes: "I suffered from a run-down system and nervous debility. I could not sleep or rest at night, and felt so weak I could not walk any distance. I took several tonics, but they only helped me while I was taking them. Mother advised me to take Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and I felt great benefit from the first box, and continued taking several boxes. Today I feel like a new woman, and am able to do my work without that dreadful tired feeling."

New York, March 16.—William H. Chapman, 75, of Millington, Conn., has reached Hoboken on the last lap of his hike from Miami, Fla., to Albany, where a $5,000 legacy awaits him. He is white haired, tall, impressive and full of vigor. In less than three years he has walked 9,000 miles. On May 11, 1920, he started to walk from New York to Vancouver, B. They are Happy and Well

You Should Be the Same

A LARGE number of women's ailments are not surgical ones. Serious displacements or radical changes have not yet taken place.

A tiny part in a fine clock may become loose and cause the clock to gain or lose. If not attended to in time, the part may fall from its place and cause serious trouble. So it is with women's ailments, they start from simple causes; but if allowed to continue, produce serious conditions.

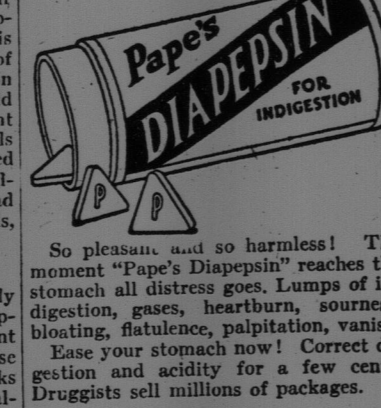

When the warning symptoms are first noted, take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to relieve the present troublesome ailment, and to prevent the development of serious trouble.

River Desert, Quebec—"I used to have a severe pain in my side. I would be unable to walk fast and could not stand for any length of time to do my ironing or washing but I would have to lie down to get relief from the pain. I had this for about two years, then a friend told me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as she had had good results. I certainly got good results from it too as the last time I had a sore side was last May and I have not had it since. I am also glad of having good nursing for my baby and I think it is your medicine that helped me in this way."—Mrs. L. V. BUDAZ, River Desert, Quebec.

Woodbridge, Ontario—"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for female troubles. I would have headaches, backaches, pains between my shoulders and under my shoulder-blades and back feelings in the lower parts on each side, in the groin. I was sometimes unable to do my work and felt very badly. My mother-in-law told me about the Vegetable Compound and I got some right away. It has done me more good than any other medicine I ever took. You are quite welcome to use this letter as a testimonial if you think it will help some poor sufferer."—Mrs. EDGAR SIMMONS, Woodbridge, Ontario.

Many such letters prove the virtue of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

PARIS RAFFLES HID BURGLAR KIT IN A BRIEF CASE

Fashionably Dressed Thief
Operated at Midday.

Three Times a Deserter —
Robber was of Good Family,
Well Educated and Showed Bravery in War.

Paris, March 15.—Paris boasts of a "gentleman burglar" in the person of one Serge Henri Louis de Leuz, a young man of good family, fashionable appearance and extravagant tastes, but with degenerate tendencies and a long criminal record. His trial, however, rubbed off most of the glamour of his career as a gentleman if not as a master of his profession.

Leuz is thirty years old and is the son of a former director of the Franco-Russian Bank. He lived a good deal of the time with his parents in the suburb of Neuilly while pursuing without their knowledge his double existence in Paris as a man of the world and a house-breaker.

He was educated at the Carnot Lyceum and the Paris School of Electricity. Before the war he served in the cavalry, but was discharged as unfit because of frequent attacks of hysteria. In 1914 he enlisted in the military supply train as a camion driver. He soon deserted, however, and, having also been accused of theft, was transferred after arrest to an African battalion. He asked to be sent to the front and behaved creditably there for a while, obtaining two citations for bravery. But once more he deserted. He was again arrested and was put into the non-combatant forces.

Three Times a Deserter.
He deserted a third time and was thrown out of the army. In November, 1920, he was sentenced to two years' imprisonment for burglary, but was soon released under the general amnesty. Since then it is estimated that he has committed thirty-five robberies, twenty-three of them involving house-breaking.

He operated almost exclusively between noon and 1 p.m., when most of the apartment house concierges are at meals. He was always stylishly dressed and carried his tools in a small bag something like a brief case. He stole only articles of little weight and high value.

Leuz was caught a few weeks ago through the vigilance of a concierge. She saw a young man with a limp enter the house, but asked no questions, mistaking him for the son of the owner. Presently he came out again, bag in hand. She halted him.

"You don't know whom you are talking to," he said contemptuously. But she insisted on an explanation.

"I am a wounded soldier," he went on, more ingratiatingly. "I just stepped in here to rearrange my brace. I didn't think it was necessary to ring at your office."

He then limped away and entered a

GIRL KIDNAPPER CALLED DRUG USER

Doctors Make Examination of Mary Conklin While Friends Congratulate the Minkin Boy's Parents —
Scars Found on Nurse.

Albany, March 15.—Physicians who examined today Mary Conklin, nurse girl, who kidnapped her charge, Leopold Minkin, Jr., son of Judge Minkin, decided, according to the police, that she is a drug addict. The physicians, who acted under instructions from the District Attorney, reported that they found scars on her body indicating that she was a "dope" user.

An Albany County Grand Jury is now in session and the kidnapping charge will probably be presented to that body in a day or so. District Attorney Herrick said that the woman was responsible for her acts and that she would be prosecuted to the full extent of the law.

Leopold Minkin, Jr., grew tired of telling the hundreds of friends who besieged the Minkin home of his experiences. He told his parents that he had been treated kindly by the nursemaid. He was much interested in the moving picture which he was enjoying in the Newburgh Theatre when he was recovered Saturday and gave a graphic description of all he saw. He was also much impressed with the reception he had in the lobby of the Palatine Hotel and later the return to Albany. Apparently he is none the worse for his experiences.

The police had expected that parents of the girl or a representative would come here to look out for her interests, but none has appeared.

The girl refused to eat breakfast and

Zam-Buk

Speedily Clears The Skin of
ECZEMA, PIMPLES, RASH ETC.

If your skin feels sore, rashy and irritable, or you suffer the pain and annoyance of unsightly spots, pimples, blotches or eczema, you will be astonished at the soothing, purifying power of Zam-Buk.

Zam-Buk acts as a tonic to a sluggish troublesome skin. Its wonderful herbal extracts, sucked through the pores, get right into the inner tissues of the root of trouble. Zam-Buk expels poisonous, pore-clogging impurities, stops smarting and itching and leaves the skin wonderfully fresh, clear and free of blemish. Start the Zam-Buk treatment to-day and wash with Zam-Buk Medicinal Soap.

GIRL'S FACIAL ECZEMA. Mrs. Henry Amey, 48, Lyall Avenue, Toronto, says:—"Despite medical treatment my daughter's face and neck remained a mass of sores. I was about to call in a skin specialist when I heard about the Zam-Buk treatment. So I bought a box of the balm and a tablet of the Medicinal Soap. This two-fold treatment was so effective that within a month my daughter's skin was cleared of all trace of the eczema."

PAINFUL SPRING BOILS. Mr. Ernest Hill, of Mossley R.R. No. 1, Ont., says:—"Every Spring, for three consecutive years, I was the victim of boils. Though I had these inflamed growths lanced I could not get rid until I got Zam-Buk. This herbal balm did wonderful good, and there has been no return of the old trouble."

PIMPLES & BLACKHEADS. "For four years my face was a awful sight with pimples and blackheads," says Mr. A. S. Whistler, Paradise Hill, Sask. "I used all sorts of ointments and took blood-medicines without effect. The first box of Zam-Buk convinced me that I had found something different. Under Zam-Buk treatment, disfigurement rapidly disappeared, and my skin became perfectly clear and smooth."

spent the day alone in her cell except for the visit of the physicians. She was silent throughout the day.

Mrs. Minkin, who was present for the kidnapping, was sufficiently recovered to receive many friends.

Your Estate

There is but one certain way of having an Estate, and that is through life insurance.

Canadian Government figures recently compiled show that out of 107,109 persons who died in one year, 100,031 left estates of less than $10,000. The vast majority left nothing.

This fact, that 93% of persons at death leave practically nothing, makes clear the necessity for Life Insurance.

Creating Your Estate

THE CANADA LIFE will guarantee to provide at your death an Estate which is twenty or thirty times greater than the amount of your annual deposit with the Company. And if you live—

Every dollar of regular annual deposit will be returned at the end of twenty years, and substantial dividends will be paid at intervals.

Our "Capital Return" Policy

1st. Deposits are made yearly. This is what you are saving, and at the end of 20 years the Canada Life guarantees the return of every dollar paid in.

2nd. Your life is insured from the day you make the first deposit—for $5,000, or whatever amount you decide.

3rd. Dividends are paid at stated intervals in addition to the return of all deposits at the end of 20 years.

4th. These dividends may be used to increase the amount of your insurance, or be allowed to accumulate at interest for 20 years.

5th. The cash value of Policy and Dividends represents a valuable asset, useful in business, and your "estate" is protected by the insurance.

6th. At the end of Twenty Years you can draw out all you have paid in, along with the accrued dividends—

you can draw a Special Cash Guarantee, together with the Accumulated Dividends, making a substantial sum, and leave the $5,000 Policy fully paid for and continuing to earn Dividends as long as you live—this Special Cash Guarantee may be applied to increase a $5,000 policy to more than $7,500.

neighboring house. The janitress became suspicious and followed him. She told the other concierge to go for a policeman while she detained the stranger.

"Here is a thousand franc note for you," the latter said, becoming alarmed.

The concierge refused it.

"Have pity on me," he pleaded, "I have a sick mother."

The second concierge appeared with the officer, who arrested Serge. At the police station they found that he carried a complete burglar's kit. He confessed and even furnished the police with a full list of his robberies.

He valued the articles which he had stolen at 2,000,000 francs, but said that he had realized very little on those he sold through stolen goods receivers.

At his trial it was brought out that he had had a passion for stealing since early youth. He had robbed his schoolmates. He had been arrested four times before the war for theft, and seven times in all before the two concierges trapped him.

Leuz made the claim that he committed his crimes while under the influence of drugs. But the physicians who examined him declared him to be completely responsible.

MAN BREAKS INTO PRISON TO STEAL FEW CIGARETTES

London, Feb. 15.—(By mail).—A charge of breaking into the Prison Officers' Club at Wandsworth Prison and stealing tobacco and cigarettes was made against Alfred Hale, a young man of no address, sat Southwestern Police Court, recently, according to The London Daily Mail.

Constable Armstrong said that he arrested Hale in York Road, Wandsworth, at two a. m. Hale was carrying a large parcel, which he admitted contained cigarettes. He refused to say where he got them, but on way to the station said: "This will do you no good. Let me go, and I will give you half." At the station he said: "It is all right. I got them at Wandsworth Prison. I have done them over twice before. The third time I was unlucky."

Hale, who was charged with carrying housebreaking implements, was remanded.

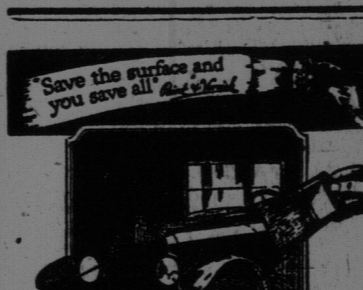

THREATENS A MAGISTRATE

Unknown Resents Fining of Man for Having Spoonful of Liquor.

Pittsburgh, March 15.—Police Magistrate B. L. Succop has turned over to the postal authorities, a letter from Providence, R. I., condemning the judge for fining a man who had a spoonful of liquor in his possession. The letter, signed by "John Williams," says: "It do wish and earnestly hope that there is one red-blooded American in Pittsburgh who will put a knife or a bullet in your dirty hide for imposing such a fine on any man for the possession of a spoonful of liquor."

The writer enclosed a newspaper clipping of the story of how the Magistrate fined Peter de Maridas $100, after police had confiscated the spoonful of liquor.

ARMY UNITS TO BEAR THE NAMES OF RAILROADS
Engineer Battalions Will be Raised from Employees of Various Systems.

Washington, March 15.—Names of American railway systems will hereafter appear in the military designations of battalions of railway engineers now being recruited as a part of the organized reserves. Under the new plan employees of the various systems who join the battalions would answer a call to the colors under the command of men who directed their work in peace time, and the units would carry with them into the active army the team work developed during years of association and the names of the railways from which they came.

The plan was suggested to the War Department by Lieut. Col. W. G. Arn of the Illinois Central Railroad, who is an engineer reserve officer and served in France during the war with the Thirteenth Engineers (railway). Previously the reserve programme called for organization of the railway units by corps areas and without regard to the railway systems, the battalion to be filled up with men or railway experience as they might apply.

It would be the business of these battalions to operate trains and keep up the tracks and equipment, while rail-road construction work would fall to the lot of regular engineer regiments. Railway operating battalions heretofore allotted to the regular army or National Guard for organization have been transferred to the organized reserves.

A work of organization already has begun in the Third Corps Area, which has recommended that the four battalions assigned to it be allotted as follows:

Pennsylvania system, Eastern region, headquarters Philadelphia; Pennsylvania system, Central region, headquarters Pittsburgh; Baltimore & Ohio system, Eastern region, headquarters Baltimore; Chesapeake & Ohio system, headquarters Richmond, Va. Numerically these battalions will be designated in order the 492d, 494th and 506th Engineer Battalions (Railway). The full title of each will include the name of the system, however, the 492d, for instance, becoming the "492d Engineer Battalion (Railway), (Pennsylvania Eastern region)."

Each battalion will include three companies. One will be composed of train operating personnel, one of maintenance of way men and the third of maintenance of equipment men. It is hoped that the Division Superintendent will accept command of the battalion, with rank of Major, the trainmaster commanding the operating company as a Captain with his assistant and the terminal trainmasters as Lieutenants, the division engineer commanding the maintenance of way company, with his assistant as Lieutenant, the division master mechanic commanding the maintenance of equipment company with his assistant as Lieutenant. Enlisted personnel for each company would be drawn from the entire system, so that in event of mobilization not more than 3 per cent. of the necessary technical personnel would be withdrawn, preventing any shortage of skilled men on the railroad itself.

OST MILLION BY STOCK DROP Anthony Brady's Son Admits Failure in Settling Father's Estate - Knew Brooklyn Transit Badly Off.

Albany, March 16.—James Cox Brady, son of Anthony N. Brady, former New York and Albany, and with his brother, Nicholas Brady, executor and trustee of the $75,000,000 Anthony N. Brady estate, admitted at a surrogate's court hearing that the estate had lost nearly $1,000,000 through his failure to dispose of its stockholdings in the Brooklyn Rapid Transit Company when securities began to decline.

Later, however, Mr. Brady testified that he did realize that B. R. T. stock was taking a decided slump and had been disposed of, 14,899 shares held by himself. These were sold, he said, between December 1917, and December 31, 1919, and brought $2,000,000.

Mr. Brady testified that he knew in 1918 that the B. R. T. stock was unable to pay dividends for at least three years, but said he did not begin to sell stock owned by the Brady estate until May 16, 1919, although the company went into the hands of a receiver on Dec. 31, 1918. The first shares sold, he said, brought $23 each.

She handed him a dollar bill to examine, and the boy fingered it for some time in silence before protesting: "But it's just paper, haven't you a real one?" The woman explained she had no silver dollar, but assured him the American paper was just as good as the silver, and even more valuable if he wanted to sell it at the bank.

He thanked the American woman politely and walked away in a dejected way under the intrusions of currency. His own foreigner's first pages, and fortunate is the man who can produce an American bill before astonished foreigners.

SURVEY PREDICTS GENERAL RISE IN PETROLEUM PRICES

Factors Combine to Make a Certainty of Increase, Says Review, Forecasting Larger Gasoline Demand.

New York, March 16.—Higher prices for petroleum and petroleum products are indicated in the survey of the position of the American oil industry just completed by P. S. Smithers & Co., an oil made public.

The report cites as six important factors in shaping the market trend: the heavy growth in gasoline production, the iniquity of domestic light oil supply, to satisfy increased refinery requirements, progressive exhaustion of Mexican oil fields, apprehension that the present rate of production may not be maintained, further expansion of fuel oil business and development of foreign supplies of crude oil.

STEALING IN WALL ST. AS EASY AS TAKING CHILD'S CANDY, SAYS JUDGE

New York, March 16.—"It is as easy to steal money in Wall street as it is to take candy from a child," declared Judge Otto Rosalsky, when he sentenced Oscar H. Bruen, a former stock broker, to from one to two years in state prison and fined him $2,000 for hyping customer's securities. Bruen formerly was a member of the brokerage firm of Bruen, Roberts & Stake, now bankrupt. Judge Rosalsky intimated that Wall street brokers who come before him after conviction need expect no mercy.

SAFEGUARD THE PROCEEDS OF YOUR LIFE INSURANCE

The German merchant marine now aggregates 1,967 vessels of 2,175,969 gross tons, or about 40 per cent of the American Bureau of Shipping from pre-war fleet, according to a report to H. Koeker, its representative in Hamburg. There were sixteen vessels of 51,462 tons laid up in Germany at the end of January. Twenty-three ships of 168,100 tons were under construction on that date.

THE SUGAR MARKET

A New York paper says there is nothing in the statistics of the coming crop to justify the jump in the price of refined sugar from 7 1/2 cents a few weeks ago to 9 cents, and that within the last week the statistical position has grown less favorable to any advance in prices and it is estimated that the new Cuban crop will be from 480,000 to 500,000 tons more than the crop of last year.

THE COPPER MARKET

Boston, March 16.—The copper market is quiet, with only fair demand. Producers are holding firm at 17 cents; tendency for second hands is to cut prices. Bilister stocks are getting so low that some refiners are refusing to permit producers shipping to them to anticipate their quota of current output.

HIGHER HARDWARE PRICES.

Boston, March 16.—Hardware Age says: Rising costs of metals, cotton and other raw materials necessary in the manufacture of hardware items are expected to bring about further advances in finished hardware. Staple lines are in moderate demand. The deliveries of spring goods are hampered by freight terminal congestion coupled with an inadequate supply of cars and locomotives.

WOOD PULP OUTPUT.

Washington, March 16.—The wood pulp production of 12 mills, producing about 72 per cent of the total output of the country, increased from 2,062,713 tons in 1921 to 2,487,430 tons in 1922, according to figures announced today by the department of commerce. It was estimated that the total production last year would be shown to exceed that of the year 1921 by about 17 per cent.

KILLS BIG WOLF IN ADIRONDACKS

Fox Hunter Brings Down Gaunt Stranger from the Far North

Saranac Woodsmen in Heated Controversy Whether Animal is Real Timber Wolf or Part Dog.

Saranac Lake, N. Y., March 15.—Wolf lore, with sportsmen, game protectors, and taxidermists all taking part in the controversy, is sweeping over the Adirondacks following the killing of an alleged timber wolf near this village.

The mounted "wolf," exhibited in the window of a local store, is the centre of heated arguments. Persons from far and near, familiar with the woods and its denizens, are viewing the specimen and registering their opinions.

The facts are as follows: The animal was shot by Carl Lawrence at Wilmington. Dogs that were fox hunting came upon the train and drove the wolf in great circles, always nearer to Lawrence. Armed with a double-barrelled shotgun, Lawrence crippled the animal at the first shot. Still it bore down towards Lawrence, with snarling fangs. The dogs meantime circled about the wounded animal, spilling the aim of the hunter until a lucky shot finally won the battle.

Taken to the shop of N. Miner, a local taxidermist, the wolf was found to weigh forty-one pounds. From head to tail it measured over five feet. "It is a real gray timber wolf," declared Mr. Miner, who has a life's experience among the animals of the Adirondack woods to back his assertion. "The fangs prove that conclusively. The color is also correct. I do not believe there is the smallest strain of dog in the animal."

A large number of sportsmen share this view. Enter Game Protector William Stearns into the controversy. "I frankly admit that I am puzzled," he says. "The head is not good, yet I would hesitate to definitely say that the animal is not a timber wolf. I believe, however, there is a dog strain in the animal. I doubt if the matter can ever be definitely settled."

Then, with the species of the animal still undetermined, the controversy turned upon the problem of explaining the wolf's presence in the Adirondacks. If it be a wolf, Game Protector E. A. Washburn, with years spent in the Arctic regions to lend authority to his statements, advances this theory:

"It may be a stray that drifted down from the Far North. The forest here in Canada may have had something to do with his migration. I do not think it improbable that the wolf has been in this section for many months before being routed out by the dogs. Hunger probably drove the beast nearer and nearer to human habitations. "There are other possibilities, however. I know of a score of fox farms in the Adirondacks that keep wolves on exhibition. This may be one that escaped, or it may be the offspring of one that has mated with a dog. The moving picture camps, which are also accustomed to keeping wolves caged, are another possibility. I know of the escape of two wolves from a moving picture camp not far from the place of the kill. One of the animals was caught, but I have never heard what became of the other."

Says Game Protector Stearns: "I killed the second animal referred to by Washburn after a hunt of a year. We have checked up ever place where wolves are kept in captivity and there is not a single escape on record."

There the controversy rests. Previous to Lawrence's kill, the "last wolf in the Adirondacks" was killed about fifteen years ago and is now mounted in a New York City museum.

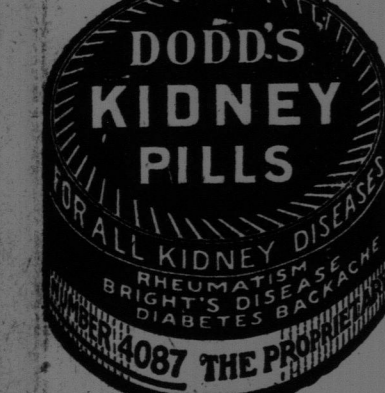

MAGICAL BEAUTIFIERS FOR WOMEN

Women everywhere are trying all kinds of beautifiers, only to find that their effects are transitory. The requisite of beauty is health. Without it the steps, eyes, are lustreless, dark circles appear beneath them, the complexion becomes sallow, and almost invariably the underlying cause is some ailment peculiar to women. There is a very inexpensive remedy for this condition in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which for nearly fifty years has been relieving women from some of the worst forms of female ills. Why not let it restore you to health and beauty and the joys of living?

Speaks Highly of This Home Made Cough Remedy

Says It Acts With Unusual Speed—Loosens the Mucus—Relieves the Irritation and Stops the Cough

Whenever anyone in my family catches cold and begins to cough and sneeze, and hawks and breathes heavy, it doesn't take me many minutes to fix up a remedy that will drive away all such troubles in double quick time. It's so secret—anyone can make a half pint of the finest cough medicine in the world for a trifling sum.

Get from any druggist one ounce of Parnint (double strength)—to this add a little granulated sugar and enough water to make one-half pint—that's all there is to it. But now you've got a real medicine—mind you—the first spoonful you take acts directly on the membrane of the throat and nose, the itching ceases almost instantly—the inflammation begins to disappear—up comes the stubborn mucus and, often in 24 hours, every trace of the cough that frightened you is gone.

It's really remarkable how this home made remedy acts on the mucous membrane and that is one reason it is so helpful to thousands of Catarrh sufferers.

BIBLE CLASS AT WATERLOO STREET CHURCH AT DINNER

A substantial amount was realized for church purposes. Rev. and Mrs. E. P. Wright, Mrs. Wigmore, H. C. Marley and S. Holder were among the guests.

Freeman, ably assisted by Mrs. Parlee, Mrs. Kierstead, Mrs. Morgan, Mrs. Hoyt and Mrs. P. A. Smith. Another committee looked after the serving of the guests under the co-operation of Miss Margaret Earle, assisted by Miss Agnes Pooley, Miss Ada Coates, Mrs. G. Brown, Mrs. Fetter, Mrs. S. Gregg, Miss Myers, Miss Paris, Miss Marguerite Lackey, Mrs. H. Hoyt, Miss Matie Hamilton, Miss Florence Kierstead, Miss Murphy and Miss Mildred Reicker.

Don't Squeeze Black-Heads—Dissolve Them

Squeezing and pinching out blackheads make the pores large and cause irritation. Blackheads are caused by accumulations of dirt and dirt and secretions from the skin, and there is only one safe and sure way and one that never fails to get rid of them—a simple way, too—that is to dissolve them. Just get from any drug store about two ounces of peroxide powder—sprinkle a little on a hot, wet cloth—rub over the blackheads briskly for a few seconds—wash off, and you'll be surprised to see that every blackhead has disappeared, and the skin will be left soft and the pores in their natural condition.

MORNING NEWS OVER THE WIRES

A loss of nearly $1,000,000 was the result of a fire which destroyed the Hospital for Incurables near Montreal yesterday afternoon. 350 people, some of them critically ill, were removed from the institution in safety and taken to other hospitals. A strong wind kept the flames strong and prevented the saving of the building.

Miss Grace Kuhring, daughter of the late Canon G. A. Kuhring, formerly of St. John, was the leader of a graduating class of fifty-four at the Royal Victoria Hospital, winning the Alexandra Dussault prize. Miss Annie Thomson Armstrong, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. G. Armstrong, of St. John, graduated with high honors.

R. Fraser Armstrong, retiring town manager of Woodstock, was the guest of honor last night at a banquet at the Carlisle Hotel. A handsome travelling bag and an address were presented to him. M. J. Rutledge, the new manager, was present. Fire completely destroyed the Bay View Hotel at Jacquet River on Wednesday morning. The blaze was discovered early but got too much headway to stop. The loss will amount to several thousands of dollars and it is understood that there is little insurance.

At a conference of the town council of Campbellton with C. O. Foss, of the New Brunswick Electric Power Commission, on Wednesday it was decided that the town would probably want 200 horse power and this was offered at a rate of $22 per horse power per year at the Campbellton switchboard. This was equal to about nine-tenths of a cent per kilowatt hour. Mr. Foss said the current would be supplied within eighteen months.

BROWNTAILS BACK IN MAINE AFTER ABSENCE OF 8 YEARS

Augusta, Me., March 16.—After an absence of eight years the brown-tail moth is making its appearance in several sections, it is announced at the department of agriculture. Reports have been received of irruptions in Kittery, Eliot, South Berwick, Berwick, Yarmouth, Lebanon and Wells. E. L. Newdick, chief of the division of plant industry, is sending out letters advising towns what steps to take to head off the pest.

The department of agriculture will attempt co-operative spraying with the towns in an effort to reduce to a minimum the injury to trees and discomfort to individuals.

LANTERNLESS DIOGENES FINED AS MOONSHINER

Boston, March 16.—Diogenes appeared in Federal Court charged with violating the Volstead law. He admitted a share in the possession of three stills and a quantity of moonshine, and was fined $1,000.

Frank Gamboa, who faced the court as the partner of John Diogenes, took the dark blame of the shoulders of the man with the name of the ancient philosopher. He said he was more to blame than Diogenes for the plant found on their premises in North Dighton. The judge believed Gamboa, who will have a three months' jail sentence.

The Coughs And Colds Of Children

Only the mother knows how hard it is to keep the children from taking cold, they will get overheated and cool off too suddenly, get their feet wet, kick off the covers at night, and do a dozen and one things the mother can't prevent.

A great many mothers are now giving their children

Wilson, Postage La Prairie, Man., writes: "I have used Dr. Wood's Norway Fine Syrup for my five children. My little girl, two years old, had a very bad cold last winter, which I thought was croup. I had some 'Dr. Wood's' in the house so gave it to her and she was fine the next day; also my baby, three months old, had a bad cold and I gave it to him. It cuts and brings up the phlegm, and is the best cough medicine I ever used." Price 35c and 60c a bottle; put up only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

"The Torch of Verified Circulation" Lights up the way for the Advertiser. The Telegraph and The Evening Times, with a combined daily net paid circulation exceeding 30,000 copies, are the only A. B. C. (Audit Bureau of Circulation) papers in the province of New Brunswick. These newspapers alone give the advertiser a verified circulation whose extent is absolutely known and established beyond question. Mr. Advertiser, do you realize what this means? All of the principal Canadian dailies are members of the A. B. C. That is, they give their advertisers, present and prospective, circulation figures which are audited, certified and approved by an independent court whose standing is recognized in business circles throughout Canada and the United States. Mr. Advertiser, look at this: The Following Canadian Newspapers are members of the A. B. C.: St. John—The Telegraph and The Evening Times (the only A. B. C. papers in New Brunswick). Halifax—The Chronicle and Echo, The Herald and Mail. Charlottetown—The Guardian. Quebec City—Le Soleil, L'Evenement. Montreal—The Gazette, The Star, The Herald, La Presse, La Patrie, Le Canada, Le Devoir, The Standard. Ottawa—The Citizen, The Journal, Le Droit. Toronto—The Globe, The Star, The Mail and Empire and Sunday World, The Telegram. London—The Advertiser, The Free Press. Brantford—The Expositor. Brockville—The Recorder and Times. Fort William—The Times-Journal. Hamilton—The Spectator. Kingston—The British Whig, The Standard. Windsor—The Border Cities' Star. Winnipeg—The Manitoba Free Press, The Tribune. Saskatoon—The Star, The Phoenix. Regina—The Leader, The Post. Calgary—The Morning Albertan, The Herald. Edmonton—The Bulletin, The Journal. Vancouver—The Province, The Sun, The World. Victoria—The Colonist, The Times. Mr. Advertiser, in that list you have the chief newspapers of Canada. They give you an independent audit of their circulation by a universally recognized authority. "Net Paid" circulation does not mean old lists of doubtful value. "Net Paid" means that every subscriber included in the figures is either paid in advance or does not owe for more than six months. The Telegraph and Times, remember, have a combined "net paid" daily circulation of more than 30,000 copies. Figuring by circulation The Telegraph and Times rates are the lowest in the Maritime Provinces. By putting the same ad in both papers you cover the city of St. John and the province of New Brunswick as with a blanket, so far as prospective buyers of your goods are concerned, for these two papers reach to a really wonderful extent the people in this city and this province who are in a position to purchase the goods that local or national advertisers offer for sale, be these goods bonds or toothpicks, razors or mowing machines, diamonds or medicines, shoes or silks. Think over the facts, Mr. Advertiser. Just ask yourself quietly and thoughtfully what that chain of leading Canadian newspapers means. Their verified circulation is their greatest advertising solicitor. Think about "the torch of verified circulation." THE TELEGRAPH PUBLISHING COMPANY THE TIMES PRINTING & PUBLISHING CO., LTD. ST. Image of a man in a suit.

I've just put my final O.K. on the new Robinson models for Spring, and I've got what the boys call 'A Wonderful Kick!' I claim they're by far the best—the handsomest, snappiest, most distinctive suits I've ever turned out. I'll go further: Money won't buy any cleverer goods than these to-day.

LEARN MUCH BY PLAYING ST. PATS.

Amherst Ramblers Picked Up Considerable Knowledge of Finer Points of the Game.

(Amherst Daily News)
As was expected, St. Patrick's world's hockey champions came, saw and conquered, but against them the Amherst Ramblers, strengthened by Nolan and MacLeod, put up a game fight, going down to defeat with a score of 3-2. Although the Irishmen did not let out at any time—sending only one and two men down the ice for scores, the fans for the most part, were well pleased with the exhibition.

While the St. Pats had a huge margin over the locals, at the same time the Ramblers picked up a good deal of fresh knowledge about the finer points of hockey. The system of covering opposing players as adopted in the N. H. I. was one of the points not let out at any time—sending only one and two men down the ice for scores, the fans for the most part, were well pleased with the exhibition.
