FORTIETH ANNUAL REPORT

OF THE

Committee of Management of the St.
George's Society of Toronto,

FOR THE YEAR 1874.

The Committee of Management beg to present to the Members the Fortieth Annual Report of the proceedings of the Society for the year 1874, to which is attached the Treasurer's Statement of Receipts and Expenditure, and the Auditors' Report and Certified Statement of the Investments of the Society.

The total Income of the year, from all sources, including the balance of $287 78 on hand from last year was $3,209 19, and the Total Expenditure was 3,085 70, leaving a balance in the Treasurer's hands of $123 49.

The total number of Members on the books of the Society is 437, classified as follows:—17 honorary, 150 life, and 270 ordinary members, being an increase of 8 during the year. It may be noticed that the increase in the life membership is 56, resulting in the handsome sum of $560 being added to the Permanent Funds of the Society.

During the year there were 1,008 applicants for relief, who were assisted; and taking an average of five persons to a family this gives a total of over 5,000 who have participated in the relief afforded by the Society. The amount given, in money, bread, and meat, was $1,030 34. Passes over the different railways were granted at a cost to the Society of $47 50. The sum of $6 was paid as burial fees on six interments made in the Society's plot in the St. James's Cemetery. A further sum of $50 has been paid on the Society's lots in St. James's Cemetery leaving a balance to be paid next year of $50. A very large number of applicants for relief have been refused. The Committee have as far as possible visited at their homes those who have applied for relief, and satisfied themselves as to the correctness of the statements made by the applicants.

On the Sunday previous to St. George's Day, the usual annual service was held in St. James' Cathedral. The sermon was preached by the Rev. Alex. Williams, M.A., one of the Society's Chaplains. Mr. John Carter, organist, conducted the musical part of the service. On the Sunday following St. George's day a service was held in the Metropolitan Church. The sermon was preached by the Rev. F. H. Marling, one of the Society's Chaplains, and the musical part of the service was conducted by Mr. F. H. Torrington. The net amount realised from these services was $235 14.

The 23rd of April, St. George's Day was observed by a dinner at the American Hotel. Over one hundred members and guests were present, and in addition to the social pleasure derived on the occasion, the Committee have to report a balance, after paying all expenses of $42 90 towards the charitable funds of the Society.

The Committee engaged the Rev. Canon Kingsley to deliver a lecture on the 27th of April, and after paying all expenses connected therewith, including the sum of $175 paid to the Rev. Canon Kingsley, there was a balance of $190 50 in favor of the Society.

Your Committee organized a Moonlight Excursion for the 25th day of August, which was most successful as to the enjoyment of the excursionists, and also as to the pecuniary results, $60 being added to the funds of the Society after paying all expenses.

The Committee are glad to state that they have been able on several occasions during the past year to rent the Society's tent to advantage, and the sum received from this source, after paying for insurance, storage, repairs, &c., amounts to $116 12, which has been written off the price of the tent, and re-invested in the permanent funds of the Society, from which part of the cost was originally taken.

The annual Christmas distribution to the deserving English poor of the city took place on Thursday, the 24th of December, in the warehouse on Colborne-street, kindly lent by Messrs. Robert Walker & Sons. Over 7,000 pounds of meat 4,500 pounds of bread were given away on the occasion, besides a quantity of tea. Your Committee would suggest that if in future a different course should be adopted as to the Christmas distribution, as a large number of those who procure tickets of recommendation are quite unworthy of the Society's relief, and it is suggested that if, instead of giving a quantity of bread and meat to a very large number of families, a more substantial relief was afforded to those who are known to be in real need and distress, the objects of the Society would be more fully carried out, and the harm that is now unquestionably done by indiscriminate charity, in fostering in the newly-arrived emigrant that spirit of dependence on others which he has acquired in England, would in a great measure be done away with.

Your Committee would draw attention to the Statement of the Society's Permanent Investments. It will be seen that the very handsome sum of $1,000 has been added to the fund during the past year, and this amount has been invested in the Imperial Loan and Savings Co.'s Stock, which yields a dividend of 8 per cent per annum.

Your Committee deeply regret having to report the loss by death during the past year, of the following members, viz.: Messrs. James Brunskill, Henry Jackson, and Thos. Holcroft.

NOTE.—The above List of Members includes those elected at the Annual Meeting on the 15th of January, 1875.

BY-LAWS.

I. The Society shall consist of such persons of English or Welsh birth or descent, in the male line as shall be elected members thereof according to the regulations hereinafter made.

II. The objects of the Society are to unite Englishmen and Welshmen, and their descendants, in a social compact for the promotion of mutual and friendly intercourse, and for affording to persons of English or Welsh birth or descent who may be in distress, their advice and counsel, and if necessary, such pecuniary assistance as the funds of the Society will admit of.

III. In addition to the Officers named in the Act of Incorporation, six Stewards shall be elected, who shall co-operate with the Committee in all celebrations to be held by the Society; also a Marshal and Standard Bearers shall be appointed by the President.

IV. The Officers of the Society shall be elected as follows: any member may nominate a Candidate for each office, in succession; and in the event of more than one nomination for any one office, the decision shall be by ballot.

V. The President and Vice-Presidents shall not be eligible for re-election to the offices respectively filled by them for the next succeeding year.

VI. The Annual General Meeting of the Society shall be holden on the third Friday in January in each year. In each year there shall be holden four Quarterly General Meetings, viz.: 1st. The Annual General Meeting, and one each on the first Friday of the months of April, July, and October. Monthly Ordinary Meetings shall be held on the first Friday of each month throughout the year, excepting in January, April, July, and October, as otherwise provided.

VII. Any gentleman desirous of joining the Society shall, at a General or Ordinary Meeting, be proposed and seconded by members, and may be elected by a majority of such meeting, on payment of the first year's subscription.

VIII. The Annual Subscription of Members shall be Two Dollars. The subscription year shall be from 1st January to 31st December. Any new Member elected between the 1st of January and 30th of September, shall pay the full subscription or the current year; any elected on or after 1st October, may be admitted on paying for the current quarter only.

IX. A subscription of $10 shall be a life-subscription, and the same, together with all donations of $10 and upwards, unless such donations are made for a specific purpose, shall be invested by the Managing Committee, and form a portion of the permanent fund, the interest on which shall be applied to the charitable purposes and ordinary expenditure of the Society. No ordinary member shall be eligible to life membership until he has paid all arrears of subscription as such ordinary member.

X. The annual meeting shall order the investment of such proportion of the surplus funds as may appear desirable, and in such manner as may be then determined, and the annual subscriptions, with the interest of investments shall constitute the ordinary funds applicable to the charitable purposes and ordinary expenses of the Society.

XI. The Treasurer shall be authorized to advance to a distressed individual a sum not exceeding two dollars, upon the written recommendation of the President or either of the Vice-Presidents, or of any member of the Managing Committee by them appointed to grant such relief; provided always, that such recommendation does not involve the payment of more than two dollars to any one person or family. In cases demanding more than the ordinary relief thus afforded, the case shall be referred for further enquiry and action to the Managing Committee as hereinafter set forth.

XII. The Managing Committee shall meet weekly, and any five members thereof shall form a quorum. It shall be their business to direct the affairs of the Society generally, under this Constitution; to determine all matters referred to them by the Society, and to prepare for each Annual Meeting a Report of the proceedings of the Society for the year, to be submitted previous to the election of Officers.

XIII. The Managing Committee may make loans (not exceeding twenty dollars to one person or family,) from the ordinary funds of the Society, to persons in temporary distress or trouble, upon receiving such reasonable security as they may deem expedient provided the period of such loans do not exceed six months. It shall have power to grant extended relief, in particular cases at discretion, the orders upon the Treasurer being in all such cases signed by two or more of the Members of the Committee.

XIV. The Committee assisted by the Stewards shall arrange for the Annual Celebration of St. George's Day, and report such arrangements at the Monthly Meeting in March. No expense of any celebration or social entertainment whatever, shall be charged against the funds of the Society.

XV. The President (or in his absence, the Senior Vice-President,) shall direct the Secretary to convene a Special General Meeting of the Society, upon requisition (stating the purpose thereof) from any five members, and the Secretary shall call a Special Meeting of the Managing Committee, either by direction of the President, (or in his absence the Senior Vice-President,) or upon the requisition of any two members of the Committee.

XVI. The chair shall be taken thirty minutes precisely after the hour appointed for meeting, and if there be not then a quorum of at least ten members present, the meeting shall be forthwith adjourned.

XVII. Any member in arrear of subscription for two years may be considered as having withdrawn from the Society; and his name shall be erased from the list of members, after due notice being given him. No member shall be entitled to vote at the annual election of Officers or at any subsequent meeting, neither shall he be eligible for election to any office of the Society, if he shall not have paid his previous year's subscription.

XVIII. The annual subscription shall be considered due and payable in advance, on or before the 23rd day of April in every year.

XIX. The duty of the President shall be to preside and preserve order at all the meetings of the Society, and to protect and further its interests to the best of his ability. In his absence the Senior Vice-President present shall exercise the authority and duty of the President. In case of the absence of the first four officers from any meeting, the members present shall be empowered to elect a Chairman out of their number.

XX. The Secretary shall have charge of the Seal, Banners, and other Insignia of the Society. He shall keep a fair register of all proceedings, orders, rules, and regulations, and manage the correspondence. He shall, when applied to, and on payment of such fees as may be determined on by the Committee, issue certificates of admission to each member (on his having signed the Constitution,) to which he shall affix the Seal of the Society. He shall when necessary, summon the Society, to its various meetings, and shall sign such cards of Invitation to all Celebrations as may be required of him by the Committee and Stewards. He shall also, at all meetings of the Society, and of the Managing Committee, enter into the respective Minute Books the names of the members present at such meetings.

XXI. The Treasurer shall have the custody of the funds. He shall countersign such certificates of admission as may be issued by the Secretary. His accounts shall be fairly kept, and exhibited to the President and the Managing Committee, whenever called for, and shall also be laid before the Society at its January meeting. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer to open an account with such one of the Chartered Banks in the City as may be approved of by the President and Managing Committee of the Society, and there deposit the securities of the Society in the joint names of the President and of himself; and when directed by the Committee, all funds belonging to the Society, and paid to the Treasurer, shall be deposited in such Bank.

XXII. All vacancies in the offices of the Society, happening in the interim between two succeeding Annual Meetings, may be filled by election in the usual way at the Quarterly Meeting next after the same shall have occurred.

XXIII. To preserve order, and to expedite the business of the Society, any member who may have proposals to make, or observations to offer upon any proposition shall rise and address the President; and no person shall interrupt another when speaking, if the speaker be in order.

XXIV. The introduction of political or religious subjects, or their discussion, shall never be allowed at any meeting of the Society.

XXV. The members of this Society shall faithfully observe and conform to all the rules and regulations that shall be made by the Society, and entered in the books thereof, on pain of being dismissed from it, and having their names erased from the list of members.

XXVI. If the majority of all the members present at any General Meeting shall vote for the expulsion of a member, his name shall be erased, and he shall never afterwards be admitted to any meeting of the Society, unless again elected by ballot, as in the first instance: provided always, that no proposition for the expulsion of a member shall be in order, unless one month's notice has been given of an intention to submit it at the then next ensuing Quarterly Meeting.

XXVII. The Banners and Flags of the Society shall not be used except on occasions when the Society, as a body, takes part in the proceedings, or where the Society is represented by its officers.

XXVIII. At any Quarterly or Annual Meeting the members present may, on one month's notice previously given, elect any one of its members an honorary life member, in consideration of services rendered the Society; and also may elect any distinguished person eligible to become a member, in like manner for services rendered either to the Society or the country, and such honorary member shall be entitled to all the privileges of an ordinary member.

XXIX. An Obituary Record shall be kept by the Secretary of any member of this Society who may hereafter die, stating his birth and parentage, if known, date of admission as a member, his position, general character, and such other facts in regard to him as may be interesting to chronicle. Such record to be published with the Annual Reports.
