R. M. ANDREWS, ESQUIRE, Dear Sir, -I have delayed responding to our appeal to me as Chairman of the late County Meeting for the correctness of your statement of what took place on the occasion, until all the parties had an opportunity of sending forth their communications on that subject to the world, through the medium of the press; but as I think the topic must now be nearly exhausted, I have no objection to answer your call-That Captain Owen's insinuation that "two of the resolutions were expunged from the proceedings of the meeting," was totally unfounded, requires no other proof than that they actually appeared with the others in the Standard. Captain Owen certainly should have either waited until those proceedings were published, or have procured better information before throwing such an unjust im-Putation upon the Chairman and Secretary. The same gentleman further says in his extraordinary production, that I, (calling me by name, which is not usually done in such ca-ses) did not feel myself competent to dissolve the meeting while one person remained. This I distinctly deny; I neither said nor thought any thing so preposterous, after the second motion to adjourn; (moved by Captain Owen, and seconded by Mr. Brown,) had been lost, and a good deal of discussion followed, I stated in plain-terms that the Chairman had it not in his power to adjourn a meeting when regularly organized, while there was a majoagainst it, and here'l will take leave to add that it did not exhibit much delicacy in bemselves, or respect to the constituency, when two members of the body, on whose conduct that meeting was called to pass judge-ment, should both by their own exertions, and that of their immediate friends, take such an active part in endeavouring to disperse it.

It is also asserted that the meeting was got up for electioneering and party purposes—this is almost too absurd to make a reply to, but as my name has been unnecessarily introduced into the paper war by Captain Owen, I 'What-Esquire, who neither took an active part nor player within ten miles, and I know little or a voted at the election alluded to, seconded by nothing of draughts, besides having a distaste voted at the election alluded to, seconded by yourself, who on that occasion acted as a personal friend to Captain Owen, and voted for him. At this time tacter was, in my opinion, one hundred persons present, among whom were the magistrates you mention, and I considered it a numerous and respectable meeting, especially when coupled with the fact that a similar one of the Parishes of St. Stephen, St. David and St. James, consprising about one half of the County, had been held at the moved.
