STOP FOOD PROFITEERING SAYS O'CONNOR AS MR. CONSUMER PAYS THE SHOT EVERY TIME; SHOWS UP THE OPERATORS

Ottawa, Feb. 20.—The cost of living has issued his ordinary monthly statement of the quantities of food held in storage as at February 1, 1918. His figures are derived from the return of companies holding about 99 per cent of the total cold storage space available in Canada.

These in storage, on February 1, 1918, were: Butter, 7,542,447 pounds; cheese, 7,529,922 pounds; eggs, 1,560,039 dozen. Beef (fresh and pickled), 40,127,651

Some Mighty Increases. The holdings of the firms reporting quantities of food commodities on hand February 1, 1918, who also have reported for February 1, 1917, show the following comparisons:

	Feb. 1, 1917	Feb. 1, 1918
Butter	7,725,330	6,973,299
Cheese	3,311,801	6,457,783
Eggs	738,337	1,480,229
Beef (fresh and pickled)	31,090,631	40,127,651
Pork (fresh and pickled)	22,872,061	19,999,327
Bacon and ham and smoked meats	16,909,551	12,305,432
Mutton and lamb	5,970,344	4,301,106
Fish	9,472,448	15,162,765
Poultry	4,724,173	15,162,765

The commissioner says concerning these relative increases: "I must again protest that a 100 per cent increase of egg holdings and an almost equivalent increase of cheese holdings over those of a year ago, fall to justify prevailing prices for these commodities."

London Firemen, With Boats, Take Man and Wife From Ice After They Made Attempt to Escape to Shore.

Mr. and Mrs. Hotham, residing near the river south of Komoka, were marooned on their houseboat by the Thames flooding its banks today, and were rescued with greatest difficulty.

LONDON ELECTRIC PLANT TO BE OPERATED FOR TIME AT LEAST

Power Consumers and Others Will Be Cared For by Company, City or Power Controller, Declares Utilities Man after.

"The customers of the London Electric will be cared for. That is certain. The method of taking care of the business has not been decided, but it will be. The London Electric plant will have to be operated for a time at least, whether by the company, the city, or the power controller."

This statement was made today by General Manager E. V. Buchanan of the utilities commission in discussing the situation.

"The hydro department cannot take them all on at once," he continued. "With three line gangs at work, our plant could connect up 20 services a day. There are about 1,800 consumers of the London Electric. It will take three months to connect all of them up, so you understand we could not give them power by the first of the month."

Some of the consumers, he said, are power users particularly, are down town, and we cannot handle them. They have direct current motors. We cannot handle that load, but if they had alternating current, we could handle it. We have already made arrangements for some motors, so you see we are doing something. I tell the customers not to worry, as they will be looked after. We have some generators, but it will have to be kept in operation to take care of the customers. When we get them connected up, we will look after them. We will connect them, but the consumers will have to get equipment. I have no idea how the London Electric Company's plant will be handled, but it will have to be kept in operation to take care of the customers. When we get them connected up, we will look

GRAND RUNS AMUCK WHEN JAM CRUMPLES AND GALT SUFFERS

Considerable Damage Done at Low Points of City.

BRIDGES FEEL SQUEEZE

Dam Broke and River Rose Twelve Feet in Few Minutes.

Galt, Ont., Feb. 20.—As a result of the annual flood on the Grand River this morning Main and Concession street bridges are badly damaged, water runs over the bridges are leaking and considerable damage has been caused as a result of cellars in the valley being flooded. The ice broke up on the dam about 5:45 a.m. and within a few minutes the river rose about twelve feet. Retaining walls through the city and property to some extent, but the Grand River railway bridge backed up a good deal of ice on to Water street.

BRANTFORD ALARMED

Brantford, Feb. 20.—The heavy rains and mild weather of the past few days have caused the waters of the Grand River to rise so high as to cause some alarm. The river is now at its highest stage in Brantford, but while the ice has broken up at Oak Park Farm, there is a jam at several points in the river.

33 MILLS RATE SAYS MAYOR OF THIS YEAR'S TAX

Might Be Pared Below, But Chief Magistrate Doubts Wisdom.

The tax rate will be 33 mills net, in the opinion of Mayor C. R. Somerville, and no less. It will not reach a higher figure.

"The estimates received so far are satisfactory," said Mayor Somerville, "and it looks as if the rate will be 33 mills. It might be pared a little from that figure, but I doubt the wisdom of so doing. It will be no more."

German Forces Have Advanced Northeast and East of Captured Dvinsk, While Russians Continue To Fight Amongst Themselves.

Petrograd, Feb. 20.—Gen. Hoffmann, the German military representative at the Brest-Litovsk peace conference, has telegraphed to the Bolshevik Government for a written authentication of the Russian wire less peace message sent yesterday to Berlin. Gen. Hoffmann, according to a Russian official statement given out today, says that the authentication must be sent to the German command at Dvinsk.

The Russian official statement says that a messenger from Petrograd is being sent to Dvinsk today with the original peace message, which was signed by Premier Lenine and Foreign Minister Trotsky.

Berlin, Feb. 20.—Via London.—German forces on the Russian front yesterday advanced to the northeast and east of Dvinsk, the German war office announced today.

ALLIED TONNAGE OUTLOOK BETTER

Low Point of Available Shipping Passed, Washington Announces.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 20.—The low point of available Allied shipping has been passed, two three weeks earlier than officials expected and confidence was expressed today that the amount of shipping available for the future would increase steadily.

THE WAR SITUATION

Germany has not yet replied to the Bolshevik offer to accept an enforced peace. Her armies, having occupied Dvinsk and Lutsik, continue the invasion of Great Russia on a front of more than 400 miles, from the Gulf of Riga to Lusk.

Menaced by the power of German militarism, the Bolshevik Government, unprepared for warfare and its armies partly demobilized, agreed to accept the hard terms refused but a few days ago at Brest-Litovsk. It is uncertain whether the breakdown on the part of Great Russia will halt the onward march of German armies, or may tend the capture of a great portion of Russia, torn as it is by internal rivalry.

Bolshevik power depends greatly upon making peace, the cry for which has caused the overthrow of three other Russia Governments within a year. In agreeing to a German peace, the Bolsheviks have not only announced that they will accept the terms of the German peace, but they have also announced that they will accept the terms of the German peace.

Although quiet prepared to advance against the German army, the Germans have made no offensive movement on the western front. Activity has been confined almost wholly to artillery bombardments, particularly in Champagne and northeast of Verdun. Raiding and artillery operations are becoming more active on the Italian front.

Aerial Activities. The German air force continues on the western front and Entente aviators have accounted for 39 more German machines. British aviators in three days have brought down or disabled 57 German airplanes. British and French aviators have not let up in their bombing attacks on important points in German territory, both night and day raids, being carried out. Air-dromes, docks and other targets in Belgium are being bombed by British naval aviators. The German reports the destruction of seven Allied airplanes.

Attacks on the Lisco George Government have been carried out by the premier in a personal appeal to the House of Commons either to accept the policy annexed on at Versailles or to put in another government. No announcement for a vote of a warrant of confidence was made. The Opposition apparently not wishing to carry the matter that far.

GOOD FUEL TO BE FOUND IN CITY'S GARBAGE

Ottawa, Feb. 20.—That 200 tons of good combustible fuel can be manufactured daily from the garbage of Ottawa is the contention of Dr. J. A. Armstrong of Toronto, who demonstrated to several officials of the city yesterday that he can put this scheme into effect. This would mean that Ottawa would make for itself 60,000 tons of fuel each year, which is undoubtedly a great saving in the conservation of the coal supply.

SKIES OF FLANDERS BEING SWEEPED CLEAR OF ENEMY'S AIRMEN

57 Planes Downed in Three Days—Docks, Airdromes Are Hammered.

London, Feb. 20.—Naval aviators continue to sweep the skies of Belgium and other targets in Belgium, and have accounted for four German airplanes, the admiralty statement states. Large quantities of explosives were dropped Tuesday on the airdrome at Aertrycke and the dump at Engel with good results.

An enemy seaplane was brought down at sea on Monday night, and within the British lines and a third was sent down out of control.

Within the last three days 57 German airplanes have been brought down or disabled by British airmen.

Declares Germany Must Preserve Order in Occupied Regions.

Amsterdam, Feb. 20.—"We can no longer believe in the peace intentions of Russia and must see that peace and order prevails in the occupied regions of the adjoining countries," Dr. Von Kuehlmann, the German foreign minister, declared in addressing the Reichstag today.

EPILEPSY

I have much sympathy for sufferers from that dreaded malady—Epilepsy, and I firmly believe that my preparation—HACKING'S HEART AND NERVE REMEDY, will help you. Dr. Reason tells me that any medicine that will soothe and quiet the nerves and the brain, and at the same time cleanse the blood of poisons and build up the system, will be a great help to Epilepsy. Bromides help for a while, but the remedy is worse than the disease—build up, don't tear down. HACKING'S HEART AND NERVE REMEDY will surely help you, but you must have faith and perseverance in the treatment. Persons who have been suffering for years should not expect to be cured in a few weeks. Insist on getting HACKING'S. Price, 50 cents a box, six boxes for $2.50, from your dealer or by mail, postage paid. C. K. Hacking, Plunk, B., Litchfield, Feb. 19, 1918.

FORMER LONDON BLIND NEWSIE IS OAKLAND'S REAL JOY DISPENSER; HAS A COMFORTABLE PHILOSOPHY

C. N. Williams Sends Interesting Clippings From California City—Wants Canadian Slackers in United States Gathered Up and Made Fight Against Kaiser.

C. Nixon Williams, a former London man, has written from his home in Oakland, California, interesting clippings from an Oakland publication, which reflects much credit upon another former Londoner, Will Judson, nephew of Judson, the artist, who was well known here for many years.

The clippings are as follows:
Public Benefactor.
"The city ought to pension Will Judson, the blind man who sells papers at Thirteenth and Washington streets, or at least give him a medal. With his exuberant optimism he is a decided comfort to all who pass his way. When he is not handing out a good word along with his wares, Judson is whistling from his repertoire of latest airs and perhaps drumming the time of his tune on the resonant box that serves him alternately as seat and counter. The other day when the wind was blowing a gale and it was as cold as it ever gets in California, Judson stood on his corner all smiles and whistling like a lark. A man stopped and demanded, 'Are you crazy?' 'No,' replied the newsman, 'I wish I was, but I get a fair amount of fun out of life as I am.'"

Comfortable Philosophy.
"Judson says that his philosophy of life is contained in the little girl's parable of the Twenty-third Psalm: 'The Lord is my shepherd, I should worry.' He has been blind for over twenty years more than that time has made his own way in the world, having sold papers in Canada, Chicago, Los Angeles and San Francisco, as well as in Oakland. He is married and supports his wife and a number of children. His career is an object lesson in the value of an optimistic temperament. People walk out of their way to patronize him, and one man carried the picture of the whistling blind man

HOSPITAL, SAVE IN MILITARY BRANCHES, TO COST LESS IN 1918

Total Estimates For Year Call For $185,734.

The hospital trust at its meeting yesterday afternoon passed its estimates, and ordered them forwarded on to the council.

The city will be asked for $132,459 more than last year. The chief cause is in the increase in the cost of maintaining the military branch of the hospital service, and the trust will ask the Government to pay this charge. Added heating costs, etc., are the reasons for the advance.

The total expenditure is estimated at $185,734, as compared with $180,412 last year.
The city will be asked for $98,534.40 for general expenses, as compared with $100,000 in 1917, a substantial reduction. However, the trust asks $7,500 for heating, and oversight of the military end of the hospital, as compared with $4,200 last year. The receipts from paying patients are fixed at $68,000, as compared with $62,533.17 in 1917. The rates have been increased and will yield this revenue. The balance of the expenditure is for materials, etc., and shows little advance.
It was decided to pay the supervisors $50 a month for the first year, $55 for the second, $60 for the third, $65 for the fourth and $70 for all over that. This is an advance of $2 a month. The superintendent of the hospital, during the month of January 27 patients had been admitted, 56 males, 15 females and 86 children. During the same period 252 were discharged, 68 males, 11 females, and 13 children. There were 29 deaths and 18 births. The number of patients in the hospital on January 31 was 250, and the number treated at the outdoor department was 195. The cash receipts were $54,733, as compared with $44,659 for the same month last year.

With Fingers! Corns Lift Off

Doesn't hurt a bit to lift any corn or callus right off. Try it!

For a few cents you can get a small bottle of the magic drug freezone recently discovered by a Cincinnati man. Just ask at any drug store for a small bottle of freezone. Apply a few drops upon a tender, aching corn or callus and instantly all soreness disappears and shortly you will find the corn or callus so loose that you lift it off with the fingers. Just think! Not one bit of pain before applying freezone or afterwards. It doesn't even irritate the surrounding skin.
Hard corns, soft corns or corns between the toes, also hardened calluses on bottom of feet, shrivel up and fall off without hurting a particle. It is almost magical.
Ladies! Keep a tiny bottle on the dresser and never let a corn or callus ache twice.

SELF DEFENSE DEFEAT BACKACHE AND KIDNEY TROUBLE WITH ANURIC.

Many people in Canada have suffered from rheumatism and kidney trouble and have found Anuric to be the most successful remedy to overcome these painful and dangerous ailments.

The lucky people are those who have heeded Nature's warning signal in time to correct their trouble with that new discovery of Dr. Pierce's called "Anuric." You should promptly heed these warnings, some of which are dizzy spells, backache, irregularity of the urine or the painful twinges of rheumatism, sciatica or lumbago. To delay may make possible the dangerous forms of kidney disease, such as diabetes or stone in the bladder.

To overcome these distressing conditions you should take plenty of exercise in the open air, avoid a heavy meat diet, drink freely of water and at each meal take Dr. Pierce's Anuric Tablets (double strength). You will, in a short time, find that you are one of the firm, vigorous, an-an-uric, as are many of your neighbors.

Sold Dr. V. M. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., or Bridgeburg, Ont., 10c for trial pack; age.

St. Catharines, Ont.—For several years I suffered with gravel and uric acid, causing rheumatic pains. Nothing ever helped me until I commenced to take "Anuric," and the first thing I noticed was that the gravel had disappeared and has never made a reappearance. My general health has improved and I have a better nerve condition and my eyesight seems better, too. I used to have such dizzy spells at times I thought I would faint, but these no longer trouble me. My only regret is that I did not know of Anuric before.—Mrs. H. Marjoram, 124 Albert street.

THE PENSION PROBLEM.

SCORES of returned soldiers are expressing dissatisfaction with the awards of the pensions board. The pensions question will become one of the most important and one of the most awkward with which the country has to deal. When a man goes to France and serves for a year or two the sum of $5 monthly seems a paltry allowance. Yet many men who have seen the hardest kind of service, and have been wounded, receive no larger pension.

The difficulties of the problem are apparent. There is a limit to the amount which the country can pay, but when a man who has done his bit, who surveys the prosperity of the "stay at home" and hears of the new crops of millionaires, receives his discharge and faces the world, no longer a soldier, but an empty-handed civilian who pulled up the roots of his former occupation, it is easy to understand that he may be a crestfallen and disgruntled citizen. It is true that honorably discharged men are supposed to receive three months' post-discharge pay. But this is usually discounted in advance through the process of home re-establishment and the always-haunting H. C. L., and when a soldier goes searching for work he may indeed wish to be back in the army.

For months he has been a cog in the great machine. The power of decision was taken from him. However bravely he may face the fight to gain a position, it must be realized that while he was under rigid discipline the stern rules of military life ruled his destiny, but when his discharge is received this anchor to windward is pulled up. He becomes more a human problem than an official problem. And the same machinery that fits his case as a soldier cannot fit his case as a civilian. The need for human sympathy begins when the Canadian boy or man steps out of khaki. More understanding of the problem could be derived by appointing men of common sense who have been through the military mill.

AN AMAZING EXHIBITION.

WITH all the force at his command Sir Adam Beck, before the Rotary Club, condemned the Government for the C. N. R. deal. He said among many other things that the Government was getting "a pig in a poke" when it took over the C. N. R. and referred to the never-ending railway lobbying which goes on at Ottawa.

Sir Adam Beck favors taking over all the big railways but the C. P. R., the one paying concern among them all. He would have the country take up the "dead dogs," including the T. and N. O., which he characterizes as a failure. It was a paradox that Sir Adam pointed to the Ontario Government's railway to North Ontario as a deficit producer along with the private-owned systems. It is well known that the C. P. R. is doing everything in its power to prevent its inclusion in the Government-owned railways, although those who favor nationalization have seen the chance to support the other weaker ones through the enormous profits of the C. P. R. Sir Adam Beck does not recognize this possibility.

It is also strange that when the Liberal party in its campaign of two months ago was urging nationalization and demanding the repeal of the C. N. R. bill, Sir Adam Beck was standing on the Unionist platform, absolutely silent as to the railway problems of the country. If it was his duty to attack the matter last Monday he should have come forward with equal vigor during the election campaign.

LOSS OF THE SOCIAL SIDE.

HAS much of the old-time spirit of camaraderie gone from men, and is the war building social barriers rather than tearing them down? The debate might develop itself into a new subject for the societies in small towns that "choose up" for mental exercise, after the war.

"Efficiency" has certainly robbed many callings of the free and easy good-fellowship that was to be found in business offices. Perhaps the ease of the newspaper editorial room is typical. Ten or fifteen years ago, the average newspaper had not been speeded up to such degrees of new-gathering perfection. Advertising had not developed the push and punch that involved better newspapers, higher salaries and more constant and systematic labors. A news story was handled with more leisure and much of the writing of the last decade was marked with an attempt at literary finish. Today the demand of the public is for facts, rather than fine writing. And the newspaper business, from an undeveloped "game," became a highly-organized and speeded-up system. News that is two days old is almost certain to be rejected by a newspaper; in the old days much of it was many days old and sometimes weeks old. Today the "game" is a race with the clock, involving exhausting labor for long hours. In the "old days" reporters had time to foregather. Many news items of today got no attention then. The newspaper social club flourished, and the close friendships held the staff of a newspaper together. Today gives the chance for more service and the rewards of accomplishment. But occasionally when one of the "old guard" happens along, the memories return of days when dollars were few and good times were many. There is no time for camaraderie now. It is all keyed-up "efficiency."

And as to the war and the social intercourse of the people. The majority of people have stopped "calling." Most families have given up the card party, the neighborly dinner, even the children's birthday gatherings. War cut these things from the calendar. People are not visiting one another as before. They seek a manufactured companionship at the theatres or else where. They don't make their own fun any more. In the summer the motor car claims families and keeps old friends apart. Will the old style of living return after the war? Will we move along in separate existences, nodding at Sunday church services and chatting on the street? Perhaps it is a mistake that visiting back and forth has died away. The knitting circle has a place, but the spirit of intense efficiency, rather than sociability, fills the hours of those who meet for war work. The wonder of the whole matter is how the dear ladies get in their "gossiping." The men, of course, can indulge their conversational abilities almost anywhere and any time.

A TIME TO GO SLOW.

THE ANNOUNCEMENT of Hon. F. B. Carvell that Canada will require in the neighborhood of $800,000,000 for the purposes of war and government during the present year should give Canadians pause. At a moment when men whom it is difficult to fathom are counselling tremendous expenditures that should never be thought of until we are out of the war woods, the country should resolve to cut to the line of expenses and to stand off loading up with further burdens until after peace has come.

A deadly enemy in our midst could do no greater harm to the Allied cause than to counsel wild extravagance and to stampede people into the taking over of enterprises which can well afford to go along for a few more years as they have been doing. The motive for such propaganda should be carefully examined. How much would be covered up if hundreds of millions were added to an endless chain of expenditures upon which no independent audit has ever been made?

It is regrettable to see Mr. Carvell apparently compromising with the railway outlook. If we are not careful the war may suddenly be made to take second place to the chaos of domestic problems in which the country could be plunged by those who serve their own overwhelming ambitions first of all.

WHAT LABOR WON.

LABOR does not come empty-handed from its joint campaign with Liberalism at the last election. The Tory party has seen the menace of the combination of working people, and, after conferences at Ottawa, has practically granted labor that for which it asked through the platform brought down by George S. Gibbons in London and adopted by Liberal candidates throughout Ontario—representation on all boards having to do with matters affecting working conditions.

The returned soldier whose influence was solicited and won by the Unionist party has not been as fortunate as the labor man who opposed the Government.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The United Farmers meeting at Vanneck were told that they could force the Government to deal fairly with the farmers. If they do they will accomplish the hitherto impossible.

Sir Adam Beck says that the Borden Government, in taking over the C. N. R. at a cost of many millions, has purchased a "pig in a poke" for the people of Canada. Sir Adam should be able to identify the animal.

This war has been marked by a fall in generals. The passing of Lieut.-General Sir William Robertson recalls the fact that he is not the only lieutenant-general who has passed into oblivion. Sir Sam Hughes beat him to it.

An official party candidate for the German Reichstag has been defeated by a "Peace by Understanding" Pacifist. Does this mean that the Kaiser, with almost every atrocity possible to his credit, hesitates at winning an election by the manipulation of the soldier's vote?

Edmonton Unionists have protested to Premier Borden over the appointment of W. J. Harmer, a deputy minister of Alberta, to the Senate. In the meantime most people are wondering what the Senate ever did to ex-Premier Arthur Sifton, who is responsible for the Harmer appointment.

UP, UP WITH THE FLAG.
Up, up with the flag! Let its colors be gleaming
Wherever, by right, its colors should be
Let us show to the earth, while our standard is streaming,
That we are united, undaunted and free!

Up, up with the flag o'er the homes of the people,
From North unto South, from East unto West!
Let it blaze the sky o'er school-house and steeple—
The flag of our fathers, blood purchased and blessed!

Up, up with the flag o'er the bounds of the nation!
Let us keep it aloft on sea and on land!
'Tis the badge of our worth, our seal of salvation—
Let us raise and defend it wherever we stand!

Up, up with the flag! for Washington will fit!
His spirit commands; be quick to obey!
So long as the breath of loyalty fills it
No power can pluck our loved banner away.

MY COUNTRY OF MYSTERY.
My Country—of Mystery beckons me,
At the end of the city street,
And wakens the pipes in my blood,
To hasten my wayward feet.

Whether the day be grey with storm,
Or hung with blue and gold,
Where the hillside goes to meet the sky,
There's a challenge sweet and old.

Draped in mists of silvery sheen,
Calling and calling me—
Yet only a glimpse must keep my soul,
For my Country of Mystery.

And when I look at the end of day
There is only darkness there,
And the hurrying, homeward, anxious throng,
And the street lights' empty glare.

Yet the stars keep watch in the velvet night,
And a memory lives with me,
And the morrow will bring that glimpse again
Of my Country of Mystery. AMY E. CAMPBELL.

NEWSPAPER ERRORS.
[From the New York Tribune.]
"Where do you get the absurd facts you print?" is a favorite query put to newspaper men. In the view of these cynics, newspapermen spend most of their time mispelling names, imagining incidents that never happened, and generally misrepresenting life as it is led.

There is just one answer to be made to the query above, and that is: "Newspapers get much of their facts as are absurd from the absurd human beings who for one reason or a thousand refuse to relate facts accurately." Newspapers, truth telling newspapers, spend a very large part of their time correcting these misstatements, running them to their source, and getting at the truth. A certain proportion of error goes by—not as great a proportion as can be heard in any village neighborhood gossip, for it is the concern of newspapers of honest ones, that is, to allow for errors and correct them, whereas it is the concern of those purveyors of news, gossips, to create errors whenever they are more interesting than the truth.

The next time you find an error in your favorite newspaper, try an experiment. Try to capture one small fact yourself, in your own home town. You will quickly discover just how wary a bird the truth is and how very unpopular.

MARY—1918.
Mary has a little pig;
His name is Dimple Dandy.
She feeds it on canary seed,
Angel cake and candy.

She'll tie a ribbon on its nose,
To add to piggy's charm;
And take it with her when she goes,
To visit on the farm.

It followed her to work one day,
And wallowed in the mire;
Which made the children laugh and play,
But rankled Mary's ire.

"You naughty, naughty little pig,"
Cried Mary, in despair;
"How can you ever grow up big,
If you soil your silky hair?"

It will grow into a hog some day,
Under gentle Mary's care;
Then Mary will have cash to pay
For jewelry to wear.

For Mary knows the need today
Is real'n' pigs for bacon;
So fall in line without delay,
And some money you'll be makin'.

THE GLOAMING HOUR.

[To Edna.]
In the soft, sweet gloaming hour,
My thoughts go travelling, trailing,
And I meet my love in a rose-grown bower,
And hearts are light, as eyes beam bright
From out the dear, warm gloaming hour.

In the deep, calm gloaming hour,
My soul goes wand'ring, wand'ring,
To keep sweet tryst with a saintly love,
To clasp a hand in the shadow land,
All in the deep, calm, gloaming hour.

IN GOSFIELD FARM CASE

TORONTO, Feb. 19.—When L. Huron & Erie Mortgage Corporation, arranged to purchase from John Coghill a mortgage upon farm lands in Gosfield South it was found that there was what looked like a weak link in the chain of titles. In 1909 Morley Wigle and other members of the Wigle family had sold the property for $3,000. Looking up the will under which Morley Wigle held the property it was found that it contained a clause whereby he was not to sell, lease or mortgage the property till he was 60 years of age. In case he died leaving no children the property was to go to his sister Mildred, with the same restrictions as to fee simple of one of its attributes.

Secrets of Health and Happiness

Why a Child With Whooping Cough Should Be Quarantined

By DR. LEONARD KEENE HIRSBERG,
A. B., M. A., M. D. (Johns Hopkins University.)

A. HIRSBERG

Weather conditions at this time of the year are so uncertain that every precaution possible must be taken to safeguard your child from the danger of whooping cough.

Whooping cough is caused by a definite bacterium and is easily contracted from child to child. To a comparatively, it is about as contagious as measles, but perhaps more so in the first place, there are few children who are fortunate enough to have what is known as a "mild" case of whooping cough. Although this may be true of measles, it cannot often be said of whooping cough, because this, by its very nature, involves much strain and energy for every effort to cast out of the body the mechanism that imparts its operations.

Complications Sometimes Follow.
Not only does whooping cough entail suffering, but the disease is apt to leave behind it are, perhaps, more to be feared than the malady itself.

Whooping cough is very apt to leave the sufferer predisposed to infectious ailments. The inflammation of the bronchial tubes may become so serious as to lead to a disease of the lungs. Deterioration, then, not only of the lungs but of the entire human machine, may so rapidly develop that it sometimes is hardly possible to keep pneumonia from becoming fatal.

In some instances the child is apt to recover from the complications caused by whooping cough, yet remain with such an abnormal mechanism that the sufferer may be too weak to fight disease bacteria. This very frequently such a child succumbs to tuberculosis or some other serious infection.

Whooping cough usually plays its most wicked role in the weaker mechanisms of children under one year. These little tots have not yet built up their protective agencies against hostile forces.

Two, three and four year old children and over sometimes become little pests because they often like to bring their elders and keep away from a fascinating little "baby brother" or "baby sister" when told to do so.

A kiss, however, is not the same means by which a child infected with whooping cough can infect another. If sufficient care is not exercised to guard the contact of the younger child, the disease may become scattered throughout the atmosphere of the room, and if in that neighborhood there happens to be a tender babe under the age of one, it is apt to fall an easy victim.

In the past fifteen years there has been practically no decrease in the number of infants who have succumbed to whooping cough, whereas the number of baby victims of tuberculosis, diphtheria and scarlet fever has decreased.

DAILY BIBLE QUESTION CLUB

Suggestive questions on the Sunday School Lesson, February 24, 1918. One Golden Text Study by Rev. S. Linscott, D. D.

Jesus Teaching by Parables. The Growth of the Kingdom—Mark, vi, 21-34.

QUESTIONS FOR TODAY.

7. Verse 25.—What does "the kingdom of God" here refer to, and what relation does the seed bear to this kingdom?

8. Verse 27.—After a minister, or any other Christian, has sown the seed, what should be his state of mind concerning it, as to anxiety or restlessness?

9. Verse 28.—The earth produces a great variety of things by self-propagation, without human instrumental aid; would you say or not, and why, that Christianity is in any way analogous to this?

10. In preaching the gospel in heathen lands, what are generally the first results, and what are the various stages in the process to the ripe fruit of Christianity?

Golden Text.—The earth shall be full of the knowledge of Jehovah, as the waters cover the sea.—Isa. xl, 5.

THE ADVANCE OF EDUCATION IS SPREADING THE KNOWLEDGE OF JEHOVAH.

A multitude of things which were not dreamed of in the past, and which when hinted at, were thought not to be possible, are now matters of assured certainty. The telescope, the microscope, the testing tube, and scientific experiments have demonstrated things which were thought to be impossible. Who would have thought possible, a hundred years ago the telephone, and the flying machine, who would have thought of the existence of life as evidenced in biology? These are but a few of the things which have become the facts of every day experience. Every advance in science is a step nearer to the absolute power of God.

Answers to Health Questions

A READER, Q.—Will you please tell me what causes cold feet, also what I can use to remedy the trouble?
A.—Cold feet may be habitual, constitutional or from ill-health. Commonly, they are caused by tight shoes, sedentary life and overeating. While the little ventilation of the feet or the stockings are too thick the relief is not easily secured. The feet are kept warm better by wearing tight hose and shoes, cold baths and vigorous massage, active exercise outdoors, especially walking, than by inactive indoor life. Frequent daily washing of the feet restores their warmth.

R. P. H. Q.—Will you kindly repeat the formula to be used for frostbitten feet?
A.—Apply a little of the following to the feet each night:
Ichthyol 1 dram
Tannic acid 1 dram
Rosewater 1 ounce
Benzoin 1 dram
Take internally two teaspoonfuls of compound of syrup of hypophosphites in water at bed time.

D. H. London, Ont.—A—Send a self-addressed stamped envelope and I shall be glad to help you.

NIGHTMARE, London, Ont.—Q.—Please tell me what I can do for nightmares.
A.—Restless dreams arise from skin irritations, nose, throat, intestines, teeth, head, stomach or other troubles. Have the source removed and the active care this office.

AN APPEAL FOR MONEY FOR HALIFAX Y.M.C.A.
Halifax, in the midst of her great shock and suffering, deeply appreciates the abundant sympathy and help which have been so promptly poured out to her by individuals and communities over the continent. The first great emergency has been passed, and now the city realizes some of its deeper and more permanent needs. Among these, a new and larger building for the Young Women's Christian Association is urgent.

This association is the oldest in the Dominion of Canada and has done much good work in the past, but its present building, old, utterly inadequate, and shaken, cannot possibly house the work as it has burst upon it, since the terrible explosion.

The members would support a prisoner of war in Germany, as well as support two Belgian children. The ladies collected $25.00 for the house-to-house canvass, which amount will be used in purchasing yarn for soldiers' socks.

"You make it easier for me to ask the favor I want of you, Margaret," she said. "I want to send Agatha away and have you take care of me until I am well."

C. B. H. Q.—I am at present suffering with constipation. Will you please prescribe a remedy?
A.—Take 10 grains of bicarbonate of soda every four hours and sulphide of calcium, 1 grain, after meals. Ammoniated mercury ointment should be applied to the caruncles themselves.

N. C. J. Q.—I am troubled with an itching of limbs. How can I get relief?
A.—Apply a little of the following to the affected parts:
Pink Ointment 2 1/2 drams
Zinc oxide 2 drams
Glycerine 2 drams
Phenol 80 drops
Lime water 2 ounces
Rosewater 2 ounces

G. M. P. L. Q.—I have a habit of biting my nails. What would be a good thing to stop this?
A.—You should have a careful examination made to discover remediable defects that may be causing the irritation. The daily bath is very important. If you are nervous you should take 10 drops of the syrup of iodine of iron three times daily, after meals, in water. Constipation should be corrected if it exists. The nail-biting habit is often excited as an expression of nervous irritation or of nervous energy denied proper outlet, as, for example, in active play.

Dr. Hirschberg will answer questions for readers of this paper on medical, hygienic and sanitation subjects that are of general interest. He cannot always undertake to prescribe or offer advice for individual cases. Where the subject is not of general interest letters will be answered personally. If a stamped and addressed envelope is inclosed, Address ALL INQUIRIES to Dr. L. K. Hirschberg, care this office.

Jimmy Coon Stories

By Dr. Warren G. Partridge.

JIMMY COON HAS A GYMNASIUM.

Jimmy Coon likes Playthings, and a Gymnasium, just as boys do; and he planned to build the Farmer Boy gymnasium for playthings, and Jimmy Coon walked carefully, and he walked over the ground, by setting his cunning little hands hold of the chains which were fastened to each trap.

And then Jimmy Coon could travel safely along his wooden path, on the fallen trees. And then Jimmy Coon saw the funniest sight in all his checkered life. The Farmer Boy had fastened a tin can, a sassafras can, by a string to a limb of a tree, directly over one of the steel traps.

Why did that smart little William do this? Because he noticed the habits of the clever wood folk, and knew all their cunning ways. The Farmer Boy knew that Jimmy Coon had lots of curiosity, and that he would play for hours with any bright or strange thing.

Jimmy liked playthings, just as children do. And little William planned to have Jimmy Coon see this shining tin can in the moonlight and begin to play with the bright tin can, and then get so excited playing that he wouldn't notice the steel trap and walk right into danger.

It was a very clever plan on the part of the smart Farmer Boy. But Jimmy Coon was too cunning to be fooled in this way. And what was the funniest thing that Jimmy Coon did next? Why, he sat astride that fallen tree and his little hand could just reach that shining tin can, and Jimmy began to play with the tin can. It was awfully funny to see Jimmy Coon play with that tin can in the moonlight.

Jimmy Coon used that tin can as a punching-bag, and that tin can hung by that string from the limb of the tree every time Jimmy Coon struck the tin can with one of his little hands the tin can would swing out in the air. And when the tin can came back Jimmy would give it another whack and away the tin can would swing, again and again.

And Teddy Pasmis rolled over and over on the ground laughing to see Jimmy Coon play with that tin can. And all the little wood folk came out to see the fun. The house-to-house canvass, which amount will be used in purchasing yarn for soldiers' socks.

Arrangements were made for a patriotic concert to be held about the middle of February, at the Exeter hall.

A New Year's Resolution For Our Country. After refreshments were served a collection of $5 was taken from the members present. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. W. H. Hardy.

NEWBURY.—The Red Cross Circle shipped to Hyman Hall on Friday 72 shirts, 35 pairs of socks, and a trench coat. The circle has so far this year shipped 136 shirts and 83 socks, and held a social evening, which netted $50.

DAUGHTERS OF THE EMPIRE

The annual report of the Princess Patricia Chapter of the Daughters of the Empire shows an ever-increasing interest in patriotic work. The receipts for the year have been $2,021.75, the disbursements, $1,472.33, leaving a balance of $549.42, of which $262.21 is the general fund and $287.21 in the hospital fund.

In March, 1917, it was decided to lend the room to the Canadian Chapter of the Women's Christian Association, 66 Hollis street, Halifax, Nova Scotia. "He who gives quickly, gives twice."

In January 1918 ribbon sock measures were made and sold at 25 cents each with a profit of $2.50. During the week of the Halifax relief work the chapter was pleased to be able to lend the room to the Canadian Chapter of the Women's Christian Association, 66 Hollis street, Halifax, Nova Scotia. In addition to the above-named work the chapter has secured the services of the men of the London south fire hall, who have more than kept them supplied with sock legs. This is an important branch of the chapter's work. On January 23 Cannon Davidson, Chaplain No. 1, Stationary Hospital in France, spoke in the chapter room at a meeting of the friends and relatives of the men of that unit. On September 9, owing to bad weather, only $15 was the net proceeds from a hand concert at the Victoria Hall. On April 1, 1917, and February 11, 1918, successful Sunday night concerts at the Victoria Hall, including expenses.

On March 23, a lecture by Mr. Joakins in the Parish Hall was not only extremely instructive and interesting but brought in net proceeds of $31.50. On several different occasions members offered their services for the day held by other chapters. Early in the winter on a memorably cold, stormy day they undertook to canvas the whole of London West for the sailors' fund. On October 4 it was decided to furnish a recreation room for the military hospital at the barracks. The members entered most heartily into the undertaking, and their success far exceeded all their anticipations. On October 31 the room was opened officially, with an attendance of about 60 soldiers and 25 guests. All were charmed with what had been accomplished. A large room 40 by 20 feet, formerly a barracks dormitory, had been transformed into a cheerful lounge room for convalescent soldiers. Bright chintz curtains and cushions, bookcases of inviting books, easy chairs, draughts, piano, writing desks, colored posters, etc., gave promise of much pleasure and profit for many an otherwise weary hour. The chapter is very grateful to the many friends who so kindly sent donations and helped to make the recreation room attractive. Once since an entertainment was given for the men, and a committee has been formed to visit the barracks at intervals.

OBJECTORS WHO WILL NOT OBEY ORDERS TO LANGUISH IN JAIL

Are Being Sent Overseas With First Draft.

FACE COURT-MARTIAL

If Convicted They Will Then
Be Placed in Custody.

Drafted men who refuse to obey orders, alleging that they have conscientious objections to performing military service and offer passive resistance, will be tried by district court-martial and sentenced to imprisonment, under section 5, subsection 1 or 2, of the army act.

This regulation, published in camp orders, applies only to those conscientious objectors who do not come within the meaning of section 11, subsection 1, clause (f) of the military service act, which provides ground for exemption for certain conscientious objectors. In other words, those who are not exempted as conscientious objectors within the meaning of the act but who still allege that they are and passively resist orders, are to be subject to imprisonment.

On their conviction by court-martial they are to be handed over to the civil authorities for custody but their release will be applied for immediately before the departure of a draft for overseas, to which they will be attached, and with which they will be sent under arrest. They will thus remain in prison only until a draft is leaving for overseas service.

Clause (f) of section 11, subsection 1, of the M.S.A., referred to above, is as follows: "That he conscientiously objects to the undertaking of combatant service and is prohibited from so doing by the tenets and articles of faith, in effect on the 8th day of July, 1917, of any organized religious denomination existing and well recognized in Canada at such date, and to which he is bound in good faith belongs."

This clause exempts from combatant service only.

NATIONS CANNOT MAKE PROGRESS AT EXPENSE OF OTHERS, SAYS SPEAKER

University Head Discusses After-War Problems.

"Some After the War Problems" was the subject of an address delivered by Dr. E. E. Brathwaite, president of the Western University, at a meeting Monday night of the men's club of St. John's Anglican Church.

Two problems were dealt with, the first being that of "human losses." Higher education and better physical development of the boys and girls of today was strongly advocated.

War, therefore, becomes the chief obstacle to the development of the world's civilization. This will never reach its proper culmination until we abolish war. There is no doubt that the fall of many of the ancient empires was due more to their active participation in devastating wars than to the corruption and inefficiency that prevailed.

The problem of the world's lasting peace was discussed from the standpoint of a broader internationalism. "The nations are coming to find that it is not only not good ethics, but also that it is not good politics to attempt to make progress for themselves at the expense of other nations," said the speaker. "The welfare of each people is the welfare of all instead of the proposed league to enforce peace, therefore, it will be better for the various countries to meet in a friendly council to consult in reference to legislation that will be for the interests not of anyone but of all."

NINE MORE SOLDIERS TEMPORARILY RELEASED FROM MILITARY DUTIES

The names, announced in camp orders, are:
Pte H. W. Walden, to October 1, while farming.
Pte David Tazman, while farming.
Pte L. C. Willson, Category E, till called.
Pte W. E. Gregory, Category E, until class called; Pte A. G. Poupard, to September 1, 1918.
Pte Frank Gignac, to December 1, 1918.

Pte T. Mercer, to March 15, 1918.
Pte A. C. Graver, to October 1, 1918, as farm laborer.
Pte Benjamin Moffitt, to December 1, 1918, farm laborer.

MOTHER SAYS SHE OFTEN HAD TO PROP HER SON UP IN BED

Could Hardly Get His Breath at Times—Is Now the Picture of Health.

"My son, Francis, is the picture of health since he took Tanlac," said Mrs. Annie Haxby, recently Mrs. Haxby, who is a well known business woman, owns and conducts a grocery store at the corner of St. John and Weston roads, Mount Denis, near Toronto.

"Francis is now fifteen years of age," Mrs. Haxby continued, "and has been suffering from something like asthma and catarrh of the head for several years. I have almost worried myself sick over his condition. He couldn't stand the least exposure without catching cold. His eyes would water and his head, bronchial tubes and nasal passages seemed to be completely stopped up. Sometimes the trouble seemed to go down into his chest and lungs and he would have spells of coughing. I often had to prop him up in bed at night before he could get a good breath. I have had him treated for years and have also given him the best known household remedies, but he never seemed to get more than a little temporary relief."

"I never had much idea Tanlac would help him, but everything else had failed, and I was so anxious about his case that I had him try it. Well, it is simply wonderful the way it has helped him. He has taken seven bottles now and his catarrhal trouble is about gone, and if he had asthma, that's gone, too. His health is better than it has been in years, and, in fact, he's just like a different boy. He has never been able to attend school regularly before on account of his health, but now he's going every day and is feeling fine. I'm just so glad to see how his health has been restored that I tell everybody who comes in the store about Tanlac."

Tanlac is sold in London by Standard Drug, Limited, under the direction of a special representative, and by an established agency in every town.

Try Making Your Own Cough Remedy

You can save about $2, and have a better remedy than the ready-made kind. Easily done.

If you combined the curative properties of every known "ready-made" cough remedy, you would hardly have in them all the curative power that lies in this simple "home-made" cough syrup which takes only a few minutes to prepare.

Get from any druggist 2½ ounces of Pinex (50 cents worth), pour it into a 16-oz. bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup. The total cost is about 55 cents and gives you 16 ounces of really better cough syrup than you could buy ready-made for $2.50. Tastes pleasant and never spoils.

This Pinex and sugar syrup preparation gets right at the cause of a cough and gives almost immediate relief. It loosens the phlegm, stops the nasty throat tickle and heals the sore, irritated membranes that line the throat, chest and bronchial tubes, so gently and easily that it is really astonishing. A day's use will usually overcome the ordinary cough and for bronchitis, croup, whooping cough and bronchial asthma, it is splendid.

Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract and has been used for generations to break up severe coughs. To avoid disappointment ask your druggist for 2½ ounces of Pinex with full directions, and don't accept anything else. A guarantee of absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded, goes with this preparation. The Pinex Co., Toronto, Ont.

COULD FIND NO TRACE, AT PONDS, OF SURFACE WASH

Utilities Manager and Chairman of Health Board Fail to Find It.

DEFENDS WATER PURITY
Head of Commission Willing to Let Decision Rest on Tests.

No reports of the tests made on city water have been received by General Manager E. V. Buchanan of the utilities Commission as yet.
"Controller J. H. Saunders, chairman of the board of health, and myself made a tour of Springbank yesterday afternoon, and we could see no evidence of surface water getting into the ponds," says the general manager. "We looked everywhere, but not a sign could we see. The water looked as good as it always does. There may be impurities, but I do not see how there can be. The tests will tell."
"The disease which is prevalent in London seems to be prevalent in many other places, not only in Ontario, but across the water. I received a letter from St. Louis yesterday, and in the city where I lived the same conditions prevail that we have here. I have consulted with a score or more of physicians and they tell me that the disease will come after a prolonged drought, or after a long, hard winter. I do not know, but we are taking every precaution to protect the water supply of the city."

Almost Carried Out Into Lake On Huge Floe of Ice

Port Franks Man Won in Nine-Mile Race With Death.

THEFT OF, Feb. 19.—Marley Martell of Port Franks went through an experience Saturday that he will remember till his dying day. Martell, who had a line of hooks set in the ice about two miles from shore, went out with his dog Saturday forenoon to visit them. He had not been long out when he discovered that the south-east wind was slowly, but surely, taking the ice out into the lake. The ice had broken off about half a mile from shore. Having no boat, he knew it was a matter of time before he would be carried out to sea. He tried to get to the shore, but the ice was too thin. He was carried out to sea, and he was in the water for about half an hour before he was rescued by a passing boat.

SUFFERED TERRIBLY WITH HER HEART

Would Wake Up Smothering

The terrible smothering and choking up sensations and sinking spells, the feelings of dizziness and faintness that come over those whose heart and nerves are deranged causes the greatest distress of both mind and body.
Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills give prompt relief and effect a complete cure in cases of such severity.
Mrs. A. M. Powell, Normal Station, Ont., writes: "I cannot speak too highly of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. I suffered five years with my heart and nerves, but the last two years I have suffered terribly. If I went to bed I would wake up as if I were smothering. I did not get one night's sleep out of seven. I got so very weak that the doctor was called in, and he said it was my heart, and that I must take great care of myself. I saw your advertisement in your Almanac for Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, and said I would try them. I have only taken two boxes of them and I feel a new woman. I will recommend them to anyone afflicted with heart trouble."
Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 50c a box at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

FLOOD, STOPPED BY COLDER SNAP, WAS SERIOUS

Rain Brought River to Few Inches of Friday's High Water Mark.

NORTH END INUNDATED
Blockade of Drains Washed Cellars Full and Swamped C. P. R. Tracks.

Today's cold spell, though it may not be acceptable to those with empty coal bins, undoubtedly saved the city from another flood. The river this morning was eight or nine feet higher than it was Tuesday morning, and was in some places within a few inches of the highest point reached during the Friday flood. It is gradually receding, however.
The rainfall on Tuesday and Tuesday night totaled .045 inch. However, it came down hard in the evening, and carried practically all the snow of the city down the gutters and sewers with it. The water was going over the Springbank dam, as compared with sixteen inches at the same time on Tuesday. No damage is reported from the river flood, but low-lying places about the city suffered in various ways.
Flood at C. P. R.
Waterloo and Pall Mall streets and the whole C. P. R. flats from Waterloo street to the large depression just south of the city station, were inundated with water, owing to the blocking of the drain under Richmond street, which carries the water to the river. Serious damage was caused to many homes. The Ford factory was threatened. During the night the drain opened, and this morning only patches of thin ice remain.
For a time last night the water rose to a threatening height. It was up to the freight tracks at Richmond street. This meant that it was from eight to ten feet deep in the hollow. It looked for a time as if Richmond street would be flooded. The large depression just below Kenneth avenue was also filled. The water was seven or eight feet deep.
The worst conditions prevailed at the corner of Waterloo and Pall Mall streets. The big Ford factory was the centre of a lake, and all down the C. P. R. flats the water ran in rivers. Incoming C. P. R. trains dashed and splashed through the water, throwing it in all directions.
Practically all the cellars in this vicinity were flooded. The water ran down Waterloo street almost to Hyman and north a considerable distance, although it took the water a long time to get to the Ford factory. Several employees of the concern were placed on guard in order to cut the wires of the electrical fixture in case the water penetrated the building. Several C. P. R. ties lay on lawns this morning, indicating the strength of the stream.
Following a turn to cooler weather late in the evening and the cessation of the rains the water subsided somewhat.
The residence of Mrs. Beattie was entirely surrounded by water all evening.
The C. P. R. switchman's shanty was completely swamped.
Citizens living in the vicinity stated

MAY ADD INTEREST TO INSURE PROMPT PAYMENT OF TAXES

Mayor Hopes to Secure Money as Fast as Possible.

Mayor Somerville announced today that there will be a different method of discount in the collection in taxes this year.
In other years, a discount was given, but last year one mill was added to the rate to be deducted for prompt payment.
The mayor is anxious that the city get its money at an early date, as much as possible when the first installment is due on July 1. It is probable that interest will be added after the first payment.
The more money we get early in the year the better for the city, and the better for the administration of the affairs," he declared today. "We will devise a scheme that will help us achieve that. I have not the details worked out, but we will work them out shortly."

COMING TO CITY AS FOOD "MISSIONARY"

Controller's Representative Will Visit All Hotels and Cafes.
A visit of inspection will be made on Monday next to all the city hotels and cafes by P. N. Mossop, Ottawa, representing the food controller's department. In a communication, addressed to License Inspector Kenney, the food controller's representative, in requesting the names of all the hotels, points out at the same time that his visit will be somewhat of a missionary character.
The object will be to impress upon the proprietors and employees in all hotels and cafes the necessity of eliminating as much as possible the waste of food. He will show how to conserve certain foods and how to use certain products that have in the past been discarded.

ESTIMATES COMING UP FOR SCRUTINY

First Figures Being Considered by the Finance Committee Tonight.

The finance committee of the city council will meet this evening to consider its estimates. These estimates will include the figures for the first department, the market, salaries of officials, etc.
It is not expected that they will greatly exceed those of last year. The board of works will consider its estimates on Thursday evening.

"CAMPAIGN OF 1917"

He has a message for Canadians, and there will be a large attendance at the meeting to hear him. He will also speak to the Women's Canadian Club in the Auditorium in the afternoon. Canadian Club members are expected to be present.

SMALLER SCHOOLS IN CITY CLOSED AGAIN FOR LACK OF FUEL

Further Trouble From Shortage Expected.

Several schools have been closed frequently during the winter, and some of them were closed Tuesday afternoon, and it may be that they will be closed later in the week unless more coal arrives.
Balling, Pottersburg, Charles Street, the Colborne (north) School and the Talbot Street domestic science classes have been closed at intervals. These are the smaller schools, all of them using hard coal.
"We have had some trouble, and it looks as if we will have more before the season is over," said Inspector Edwards.

London Minister's Son, German Prisoner, Forwards Unique Souvenir.
Rev. N. D. Drew, secretary of the First Methodist Church, has received an interesting photo postcard from his son, Corp. Noble Drew, showing the unveiling of a memorial tablet at the prison camp at Giessen, Germany, to the prisoners of war who have died. The picture shows the tablet, which is a memorial to the prisoners of war who have died in Germany, have been moved from camp to camp at short intervals.

FACE NOTHING BUT RUNNING SORES FROM ECZEMA

No rest day or night for those afflicted with that terrible skin disease, eczema, or, as it is often called, salt rheum.

With its unbearable burning, itching, torturing day and night, relief is gladly welcomed.
There is no remedy like Burdock Blood Bitters for giving relief to such sufferers; no other remedy has done, or can do so much for those who are almost driven to distraction with the terrible torture. Apply it externally and it takes out the stinging, itching and burning, and promotes a healthy healing.
Take it internally, and it gets at the source of the disease in the blood, and completely and permanently drives it out of the system.

Miss Mary V. Chambers, Anagnone Ridge, N. B., writes: "I used Burdock Blood Bitters for eczema. I had it when an infant, but it left me. Two years ago it came back. I used doctors' medicine, but it did good only while I used it. At last my face was nothing but a running sore. I saw in the paper what B. B. B. did for people. I took it, and today I am free from that terrible disease."

BE PRETTY! TURN GREY HAIR DARK

Try Grandmother's Old Favorite Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or grey. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this famous old recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, at a small cost.

Don't stay grey! Try it! No one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You can wash it with soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time, by now on Thursday hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy and attractive.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desire dark hair and a youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

ALMOST 40 YEARS AFTER CAMPAIGN.
IN WHICH SERVED, ENDED IN AFRICAMember of 7th Guard Detail
Received Belated Award
Held Up by Similarity of Regimental Numbers.

LANCE-CORP. MARTIN.

Almost two score years after he fought in the Zulu campaign of 1879, Lance-Corp. R. Martin of the 7th Regiment Guard Details has just received his medal for his South African war service from the British war office.

A Canadian by birth and son of a British army veteran who came to London in 1835 with the 23rd Regiment, Corp. Martin was a deep water sailor. Just before the Zulu campaign broke out, he reached England in a sailing vessel from California, and immediately enlisted in the 24th Foot. Later he volunteered for service in Zululand and was transferred to the depot of 50th Foot in the 24th Foot. He went to South Africa with the 50th, and served with that regiment throughout the campaign. At the close of the campaign he was invalided back to the depot in Scotland with African fever, and at the expiration of his three years' service with the imperial army, took his discharge.

Following his discharge from the army, Corp. Martin returned to his first love—the sea—and continued in the merchant marine for many years, having spent in all fifteen years before the war.

In London 23 years, Corp. Martin came to London and immediately joined the 7th Regiment Fusiliers. He was the colonial Auxiliary Forces' Long Service Medal for his 21 years' service with the 7th. In September, 1914, when the 7th Guard Details were first formed, the long-service man joined up, and has served continuously ever since.

The belated award of the Zulu Medal is explained by Corp. Martin's transfer from the 20th Foot to the 50th Light Infantry. By coincidence, there was already a man in the 50th with the same regimental number as Corp. Martin, and as a result he never received his medal when they were awarded. After almost two score years the veteran noticed a press dispatch which announced that nearly 400 Zulu Medals were unclaimed. He immediately got in touch with the Imperial authorities, but because of the duplication of regimental numbers had some difficulty in getting his claim through. Finally his claim was verified, and he was notified that he would receive his medal.

Had to Recast Medal.

Years ago the unclaimed medals were returned to the royal mint and melted. This meant that Corp. Martin's had to be recast. It reached him less than a fortnight ago. It now forms one of the most prized possessions of the old veteran, who lives at 603 King street. Another prize medal is the Red River Medal of 1879, won by his brother John, who fought with Sir Garnet Wolseley in the Canadian Northwest Campaign of that year.

The Zulu war decorations are few and far between in London now. Sergt. Major Nanfan, district bugle instructor, who got as far as England with the 32nd Battalion, possesses one. W. J. Smith Sen. of Smith, Son & Clarke is another veteran of the same campaign, while one or two old veterans now in home service here are also Zulu war survivors. There are, however, only a handful who can wear this old-time decoration.

Many Other Adventures.

Service in South Africa and in Zululand are not the only adventurous chapters in Corp. Martin's career, for during his fifteen years as a sailor, both before and after his connection with the British army, he had many thrilling adventures. On one occasion he was 21 months off the South American coast in an American sailing vessel.

SO SUSPICIOUS OF WATER, THEY REFUSE TO USE IT BOILED

As a result of epidemics in Toronto,

Hamilton and this city, believed to have been due to water infection, many persons are again inclined to believe it is the work of German agents who have contaminated the water supplies of the larger cities. These people are urging that the reservoirs be more carefully guarded, at the same time pointing the opportunities which exist for such fiendish operations on the part of enemy agents.

The Welcome Guest
Has a Good Stomach

Not What You Eat But What You Digest Tells the Story. Eat Anything If You Follow With a Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet.

The Man or Woman Who Can Eat Heartily and Not Fade Away Is the Welcome Guest Anywhere.

Many people just hate to eat in company. They prefer to crawl into some by-place for a dyspeptic's plate of molly collard. Business men often resort to this form of weakness under the belief they can work better. But it isn't what you eat but what you digest that counts. Some stomachs can't digest even a glass of milk. So they simply keep on feeding dyspepsia and get gas, waterbrash, sour risings and so on for the better informed and hearty eaters entirely avoid. This they do by using Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Many physicians prescribe them for stomach troubles and digestive disorders. They are sold at every drug store, everywhere, price 60 cents a box.

Ask your druggist more about them.

persons claim, appeared before the food, which they maintain leads to the belief that the work is that of German spies. Various samples of water are being subjected to tests at the institute of public health to ascertain the cause of the infection. If any material until the tests satisfy them the water supply is again free of contamination.

Six Are Barred From Service Because of Physique, But 31 Are in A.2 Category.

Recruiting records at the local mobilization centre appear to ebb and flow like the well-known tide. On Monday the returns were down to practically the lowest point in months. Tuesday they went up to a new high water mark of 38 would-be recruits handled by the centre at the armories. Of these men 15 came from the British-Canadian recruiting mission in the States, but many others from the States paid their own expenses to London in order to enlist. A number of the recruits gave their birth places as the United States, a rather surprising feature.

In all 23 of the recruits were from Detroit, one from Cleveland and two from Jackson, Mich. Thirty-one were able to pass the doctors as A.2, one was categorized as B and six were found unfit for active service.

The list of recruits follows: W. A. Fry, W. O. R., Cleveland; W. Whitting, W. O. R., Jackson; Jos. Ryan, C. E., Jackson; Geo. Wendell, F. and C., Detroit; J. R. Donahue, Special Service, Detroit; Arthur Gray, W. O. R., Detroit; S. E. Brown, W. O. R., Detroit; W. A. Fry, W. O. R., London; Harry O'Brien, unlit, Detroit; C. R. Wilson, unlit, Detroit; H. W. FINISH OF FRITZ

Soldier, Over Age, Who Crossed with 33rd, Wants To Fight.

Pte. Albert Heather, who has been on active service in France and Belgium for nearly three years, who returned to his home, 552 Ottawa avenue, on Sunday night, says that if he were 25 instead of 32 he would not have come home, but would have seen the finish of Fritz.

Heather was knocked down by the force of a shell explosion, and his spine injured. He is also crippled with rheumatism, and was invalided home. One of the original 32nd, Pte. Heather was transferred to a Company of 2nd Canadian Trenchers, serving with this company through many of the big engagements—Somme, Cambrai, Vimy Ridge, Peronne, Yser, Passchendaele and St. Julian.

It was some fun, says the old soldier, to nearly three years, who returned to his home, 552 Ottawa avenue, on Sunday night, says that if he were 25 instead of 32 he would not have come home, but would have seen the finish of Fritz.

Good Night Stories

Illustrated by Gruelle.
HOW HAPPY GIGGLES HELPED PEGGY AND GRANNY.

Peggy had played with her toy until she was tired of them all. Even dressing and undressing her dolls made her cross.

She was on the verge of tears when something fitted by the window, and Peggy ran out to see what it was.

There on the fencepost sat her little friend Happy Giggles, swinging his feet and smiling at Peggy.

"Hello, Peggy!" he cried in a cheery voice. "What's the trouble this lovely morning?"

"Oh, I'm tired of my toys and dolls!" pouted Peggy.

"Dear me! Being tired of your toys shouldn't make you cross," laughed Happy Giggles. "Why don't you find something else to do?"

"But there's nothing else to do," pouted Peggy.

"Indeed, there is: there is always something for willing hands to do," replied Happy Giggles. "Keep your hands busy and you'll never be cross."

"Then he whispered something in Peggy's ear that made her smile.

"Oh, that'll be lovely!" cried Peggy, and she ran into the house, soon returning with the scissors.

Peggy cut the prettiest flowers she could find in the garden, then tying her bonnet under her chin she ran down the road and knocked at Granny Hawkins' door.

"Come in," said a feeble voice.

Peggy pushed the door open to find Granny Hawkins propped up in a chair wrapped in her woolen blanket.

"Why, Granny, you're sick!" cried Peggy, laying her flowers in Granny's lap. "You just wait and I'll make you a nice cup of tea."

There's Nothing to Do.

Peggy soon had a steaming cup of tea and a nice piece of toast ready for Granny.

Then Peggy washed the dishes and cleaned up the house.

"Well, I never!" exclaimed Granny, her eyes filling with tears. "You're the best little girl to think of all these lovely things for poor old Granny."

"Oh, but I did think of it myself, Granny," laughed Peggy. "I was so tired of my toys that I was getting cross when Happy Giggles came along and suggested my bringing you some flowers. If he hadn't told me to I'd never have known you were ill."

"Well, Happy Giggles must be a good little elfin," laughed Granny, "for the tea and the toast have made me feel better already."

"Yes, indeed, Happy Giggles is fine!" exclaimed Peggy. "He says there's always something for willing hands to do, and that if folks would only keep their hands busy they'd never have time to grow cross."

"I guess I wouldn't feel busy so badly if my hands were near," laughed Granny.

So Peggy handed Granny the knitting bag, and sure enough she soon forgot all about feeling badly and was laughing and chatting merrily with Peggy, who by this time had forgotten all about being cross.

Happy Giggles helped them both.

The pajama negligee is becoming more and more popular. This dainty garment designed for boudoir wear is of well-pink satin with an over-drapery of cream thread-run lace. The Turkish trousers are gathered close about the ankles with pale blue ribbons and trimmed with pleated frills of lace. A garle of ribbon is knotted about the waist, the ends of which are finished in French ribbon flowers. A capelike array of lace hangs in graceful lines from the shoulders to the ankles.

Galt Objective in Patriotic Fund Increased $25,000

First Day's Canvas Surpasses Expectations of the Workers.

GALT, Feb. 19.—The fourth annual campaign in Galt for the Canadian patriotic fund opened today, and up to noon the magnificent sum of $21,329.30 had been subscribed. This year five per cent of the collection goes to the Red Cross. The team captains reported at the noon luncheon of the work, and another report will not be made until Wednesday noon. The canvass closes Wednesday night. Of the amounts subscribed this morning practically $25,000 was in renewals of 1917 subscriptions by pledge cards. While some slackers were encountered generally are giving liberally, and the objective has now been advanced from $75,000 to $100,000. Among outside subscriptions received were $100 from the Greenfield Twp. and Die Company, Greenfield, Mass.; $100 from the Green Fuel Economizer, New York; $150 from Canadian Cereal Company, Toronto, and $100 from Mrs. Shears, of Toronto.

EXPLAINS WORKINGS OF ASSESSMENT ACT

STRATFORD, Feb. 19.—Municipal clerks, treasurers and assessors from the rural municipalities met here this afternoon and heard an address by K. W. Mc-ray, of St. Thomas, editor of the Municipal World, on the new assessment act and the facilities it affords to rural township council boards. There was also an informal discussion on matters relating to county business.

Prince of Wales Is Sworn Into Lords

LONDON, Feb. 19.—The Prince of Wales took the oath and his seat in the House of Lords today. Queen Mary and the Princesses Mary and Victoria were present in the royal box. The prince wore royal robes, and the collar of the Order of the Garter. He was introduced to the lords with the usual ceremony. The peers in the procession wore their parliamentary robes.

HALF SEED CORN IN ESSEX WORTHLESS

WINDSOR, Feb. 19.—Half the seed corn in Essex County has been found to be worthless, and farmers will have to get part of this year's supply of seed from other places. A recent investigation of the seed corn saved by farmers from last season showed that 50 per cent of it was made useless because of the effects of heavy frosts in the fall.

JUDGE WILL CALL ANOTHER WITNESS IN SOMBRA CASE

SOMBRA, Feb. 19.—A peculiar case was heard by Judge Taylor of Sombra at the sittings of the division court here, Stubbs vs. Marr, an action to recover the value of six hogs sold at the auction sale of the plaintiff, Stubbs, October 28 last.

Darcy McGuire of Wallacetonburg, with his clerk, Myles McCarron, conducted the sale, and it appears, sold the six hogs to another man named Stubbs, at his bid of $109.50, whom Marr solicited for the transfer to himself shortly afterwards on the book.

From the testimony it appears that Marr, near the close of the sale, sought the clerk, McCarron, and had him figure up the discount, as he said he wanted to pay cash, nearly $103, instead of giving a note, as he at first intended, since he met his brother-in-law, Armstrong, a laborer, whom he said, was going to furnish the cash. The defendant, John Marr, swore that he paid the $103 to the clerk when he declared the discount, and his brother-in-law, Henry Armstrong, also swore that he saw the money he thus furnished paid to the clerk, who returned to him five of the seven cents due them in change, and they left for home, some six or seven miles distant. The clerk, McCarron, avers that he did not get a dollar of the money, and did not see them after he figured the discount.

Defendant Marr returned next morning and received the pigs from the plaintiff, declaring that he had settled for them in cash the evening before. It is alleged that the books are well kept, and that the plaintiff says that out of some 200 sales he has held this is the first trouble to arise over the work of his clerk, McCarron. The judge upon application of counsel for plaintiff added the clerk as a defendant in the case, and dismissing the defendant Marr from liability, said he would take the sales book and audit before completing judgment. Judge Taylor stated today that he will likely call another witness before giving his decision.

"I'm So Nervous I Could Scream"

Every woman burdened with household cares feels like that now and then—and more often as time goes on.

It is because of nerve strain, which makes the nerve tissues lose phosphates.

To get your nerves back to normal, healthy strength the phosphates must be replaced. That is the value of Penlar Dynamic Tonic—it is rich in the vital phosphates for which the weakened nerves are begging.

This is not mere theory or guesswork—it is a well-known scientific fact. There is no other remedy which is doing so much today to build up strong, vigorous, resilient nerves. You should find out what it will do for you.

METHODISTS OF LONDON FAVOR PRESENT SYSTEM

Quarterly Boards Vote Against Changed Terms.

SOME SUGGESTIONS MADE

Possibilities of Second Term, Where Needed, Brought Up by Members.

(1) Are you in favor of the continuance of the present time limit of the pastoral term?

(2) If not in favor of it, what change would you suggest?

The two questions quoted, sent down from the Methodist General Conference of 1914 to the quarterly boards of the churches throughout Canada at the February meeting prior to the holding of the next general conference, have been duly weighed and passed upon this month by a number of the local quarterly boards. If straws show which way the wind blows, then the votes in some of the representative London churches indicate a tendency on the part of Methodism in this section of the country to be satisfied with conditions as they are and to let well enough alone.

In the First Methodist Church, the quarterly board voted 15 to 5 to retain the present system. The five of the minority being largely in favor of continuance of the term from year to year at the wish of the board.

The February quarterly board meeting of the Dundas Centre Methodist Church, which was not largely attended, showed an opinion of two to one in favor of the present system. Suggestions for change, revealing careful thought given to the subject, were offered by those voting for change.

Suggested Changes.

One suggestion was that the time limit be retained, but that the privilege

HOW TO GET RELIEF FROM CATARRH

If you have catarrh, catarrhal deafness, or head noises go to your druggist and get 1 oz. of Parson's Catarrh Remedy. This will often bring quick relief from the distressing head noises. Clogged nostrils should be open, breathing become easy and the mucus stop dropping into the throat.

It is easy to make, tastes pleasant and costs little. Every one who has catarrh should give this treatment a trial. You will probably find it is just what you need.

GETS COMMISSION IN R. F. C., AFTER BEING ON SERVICE THIRTY MONTHS

Admiral Charles E. SUMNER, son of C. R. Sumner, jeweler, who has just received a commission in the Royal Flying Corps and is now in England training for his wings. Captain Sumner joined the 7th Mounted Rifles here and went overseas with the 2nd Divisional Cavalry, under Lieut.-Col. Davidson Leonard. For thirty months he has been in the country to be satisfied with conditions as they are and to let well enough alone.

leaves college, he cannot start in at a big church of one of wide influence. He must take his turn, and await his opportunity to fill the position for which he is fitted. On the other hand, there is this assurance for every man who enters the Methodist ministry: there is always a place for him. Under the present system of stationing and time limit on pastors, supply and demand are balanced.

This feature again has disadvantages. I believe it is responsible to a great extent for the low salaries paid ministers in the Methodist Church, an average of about $400 a year is paid, say in the Presbyterian. A congregation gets a man it doesn't particularly want, and has a certain incentive to effort removed. BRITISH PREMIER HAS WEATHERED ANOTHER WESTMINSTER 'CRISIS'

Waters Are Smooth Again After Tumultuous Week.

U. S. STRONG FOR UNION

Versailles Decision Is Largely Result of Urgent Desires of Washington.

London, Feb. 20.—Premier Lloyd George and his Government have surrounded another "crisis" and the parliamentary waters at Westminster after a week's turmoil stirred up by the retirement of Gen. Robertson, chief of the Imperial General Staff.

In the House of Commons yesterday the British premier explained and defended the recent organization of the Versailles council, with the added powers given to it, and his dealings with the famous British chief of staff. There was no proposal for vote of want of confidence, but H. H. Asquith, the former premier, expressed regret that he could not go into the subject without giving information to the enemy. Mr. Asquith supported the right of parliamentary criticism in such matters.

A Guarded Statement.

The occasion was not as stirring as one as have been several other occasions of the Welsh premier before the House when his Government has been under attack. His speech was a detailed but guarded recital of the proposals by which the four powers at Versailles had arrived at the principles of their latest form of co-operation. There were no oratorical passages except a few sentences at the close, when Premier Lloyd George appealed to the country to get together in the face of a common danger.

The plan finally agreed upon by the council, he said, was due largely to the strong logical representations which the American delegates had submitted in the form of a memorandum. He paid warm tribute to Gen. Robertson, and expressed the regret of the Government that it had been unable to induce him to take a position in which his abilities would be most useful. He declared that his personal relations always had been cordial.

Asquith's View.

Mr. Asquith asserted the country regarded with deep concern the recent retirement of the Government's chief naval and military advisers, Admiral Jellicoe and Gen. Robertson. The public and their own professions had the utmost confidence in these men. Mr. Asquith added that the country had noted that both retirements were preceded by a hostile press campaign. He questioned whether these losses were compensated by the retention of the Earl of Derby in the war matter, and expressed the view that the military representative at Versailles should be a representative of the general staff.

Mr. Asquith was heard impatiently at times by the members as he interjected remarks, and was interrupted with cries of "Get on with the war." The leader of the Opposition confronted the premier across the table like a cross-examining lawyer when trying to make a point that the premier had given the House to understand a week ago that the Government and the generals were in harmony at the Versailles conference, whereas General Robertson's opposition was then being considered. Some members shouted to the premier: "Tell the truth."

On the main point at issue the premier submitted that the Government had been obliged to grapple with the hard task of brushing aside the old professional prejudices of the army against new arrangements, while Mr. Asquith was disposed to hold that divided responsibility between Versailles and the home Government would prove unworkable. There was a large attendance of peers, diplomats and generals, but as a parliamentary field day tournament between the old and new ministers the session failed to meet expectations.

He Threatens to Quit.

If the House of Commons repudiated the policy, for which he was responsible, in which he believed the safety of the country depended, Lloyd George declared, he would quit office. His one regret would be that he had not greater strength and ability to place at the disposal of his country in its gravest hour.

The British commander, Field Marshal Haig, was present at the session of the supreme war council. Lloyd George went on. He drew attention to two weak points in the proposal, which were thereupon adjusted by the conference. General Robertson was present, when the decision was reported to the war cabinet, and did not object.

It was agreed, said the premier, that the permanent military adviser at Versailles should be a member of the army council. It was a part of this arrangement that the chief of the imperial staff was to remain the supreme military adviser to the Government.

Gen. Rawlinson Named.

He announced that General Sir Henry Seymour Rawlinson had been appointed to represent Great Britain on the supreme war council at Versailles.

The premier asserted that the conclusions reached at Versailles were the result of very powerful representations by the delegates of other Governments, notably the American Government.

VETERANS TO MARCH, LEGION OF 10,000, AGAINST UNION GOVT.

HAMILTON, Feb. 19.—Dissatisfied with the stand the Government has taken on the alien question, the Hamilton war veterans have started a movement to have 10,000 returned soldiers march to the Parliament Buildings at Ottawa on Good Friday and demand that the Union administration take some action. The veterans want the aliens, both enemy and friendly, either conscripted for war work at home, given places on ships, or deported to their native countries.

VACANT LOT GARDENING AS DOMINION CAMPAIGN

Montrealer Is Placed in Charge by Food Board.

OTTAWA, Feb. 19.—A Dominion-wide vacant and home garden cultivation campaign has been inaugurated by the Canada Food Board. Its organization has been placed in the hands of Fred Abraham, who was chairman of the vacant lots committee in Montreal, where it is estimated produce exceeding $500,000 in value was grown last summer.

Only the growth of vegetables high in food value will be encouraged, such as potatoes, beans, beets, peas, carrots, lettuce, onions and parsnips.

DECREASE OF 1,000 IN MILITARY HOSPITALS

OTTAWA, Feb. 19.—A statement issued this evening through the military hospitals commission says that, during the last month or two, the number of patients in Canadian military convalescent hospitals has decreased by about one thousand. The decrease is attributed to the fact that fewer hospital ships have been received during the winter. It is also probably partly due to the slackened activities at the front.

EIGHT-HOUR DAY IS DEMANDED AT WINDSOR

WINDSOR, Feb. 19.—Requesting an eight-hour day for city teamsters and for the inclusion of an eight-hour day clause in all municipal contracts, the teamsters, carpenters, brickmasons and mechanics' unions in Windsor have petitioned the city council to take action before conference work this year. The board of public works will act on the matter next week.

Ingersoll Family Taken From Home by Town Firemen

INGERSOLL, Feb. 19.—Floods caused much alarm in many sections of the town tonight. Shortly after 8 o'clock the fire department turned out and rescued a family named Weeks at the corner of George and Catherine streets. The home was surrounded by about three feet of water. From the hills to the north there poured into the district a great volume of water, and in a few minutes the family was trapped. In the house boards had been placed on chairs, and when the firemen took out the inmates by means of a ladder laid from a fence to a window, the water in the building was about two feet deep.

Several families residing on Water street moved out for the night because of the possibility of the dam at Smith's pond breaking. Vast stretches of farmland are inundated, the water in some places being two feet deep. A severe cold spell, it is feared, will seriously damage the wheat crop.

STRATFORD GIRLS PLAY OWEN SOUND THURSDAY

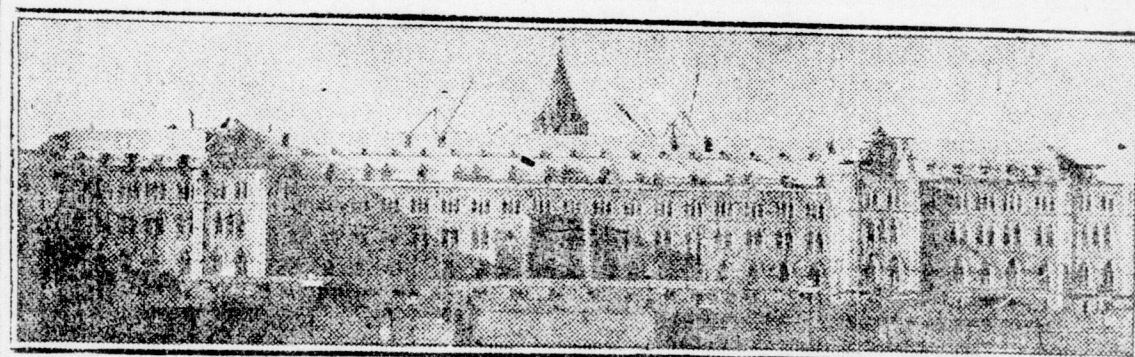

STRATFORD, Feb. 19.—On Thursday night arrangements were made by the girls' hockey team to play Owen Sound here, and they are hoping that the weatherman will sanction more favorable weather.

GLASS OF SALTS IF YOUR KIDNEYS HURT

Eat Less Meat If You Feel Backache or Have Bladder Trouble.

Meat forms uric acid which excites and overworks the kidneys in their efforts to filter it from the system. Regular eaters of meat must flush the kidneys occasionally. You must relieve them like you relieve your bowels: removing all the acids, waste and poison, else you feel drowsy, heavy in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sour, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment; the channels often get irritated, obliging you to get up two or three times during the night.

To neutralize these irritating acids and flush out the body's urinous waste get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine and bladder disorders disappear. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys and stop bladder irritation. Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink, which millions of men and women take now and then, thus avoiding serious kidney and bladder diseases.

The Old and the New

The Dominion Houses of Parliament, destroyed by fire Feb. 3, 1916, were completed in 1866, forming one of the finest examples of Gothic architecture in America.

The cut herewith shows the new Houses of Parliament, with the temporary roof. The permanent roof will have towers at each end, and the main tower is still to be built. Except for an extra story, the exterior design follows closely that of the old building, the main difference being in the interior arrangement. The total cost will be about seven million dollars. During construction, Parliament will meet in the Museum Building.

LIQUOR NOT ALLOWED IN ROOM OVER STORE

WINDSOR, Feb. 19.—That a man cannot reside in a living-room above his store when the two are connected by a stairway, and claim the right to have liquor on his premises under the qualifying clause that it is a dwelling house, was a ruling made by Magistrate Leggett in police court here today in the case of Frank Orzechkin and John Houson, grocers, charged by the license inspectors with violating the Ontario temperance act. When the officers investigated the two establishments recently they found jugs of liquor in both. The defendants declared they were immune, as the whiskey was in their dwelling houses and not in their stores. The intercommunicating stairway, however, was the rock which tripped them up and each was fined $250, with costs.

BRITAIN WILL HAVE MOBILE FORCE FOR USE IN EMERGENCIES

LONDON, Feb. 19.—In the House of Lords, Earl Curzon, long president of the council and member of the war scheme Field Marshal Haig would have the same power over the movement of his troops as before. The only difference was that the Versailles council would have certain troops at their disposal, which they could add to Haig's forces, or send elsewhere, according to the exigencies of the moment.

STRENGTH EXHAUSTED BY ILLNESS

And the Strain of Nursing Sick Children—Had Dizzy Spells and Palpitation of the Heart.

Ingersoll, Ont., Feb. 20.—Gaining strength after an exhausting illness is usually a slow process, unless you get supply nourishment to the system in a condensed and easily assimilated form. Because Dr. Chase's Nerve Food does this very thing it is highly appreciated as a restorative by all whose blood has become thin and watery, or whose nervous system is exhausted. Mrs. Elizabeth Harriott, Ingersoll, Ont., writes: "I am writing to tell you of the benefit I have received from the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. About eighteen months ago I was very much run down after a severe attack of tonsillitis. This, and the strain of nursing several of my children who were sick almost at the same time, placed me in a very nervous, run-down state. I was very drowsy, took dizzy spells and had palpitation of the heart. A friend of mine advised me to try Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. I am always recommending this splendid medicine, and would not be without them in the house. They are pleasant to take, and you do not feel the effects of their working, and no pain. You are at liberty to use this letter for the benefit of others who may be suffering as I was." "I am acquainted with Mrs. Harriott, and believe that any statement she makes would be true."—R. N. Thurler, druggist. Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, 50 cents a box, a full treatment of six boxes for $2.75, at all dealers, or Edmanston, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto. Do not be talked into accepting a substitute. Imitations only disappoint.

GUELPH FEARS MOVE FOR LIVESTOCK SHOW

GUELPH, Feb. 19.—This city is not going to overlook the interest of the provincial winter fair in the discussion, going on in Toronto and Hamilton regarding the formation of a national livestock organization, which, it is felt, is distinctly inimical to the permanency of the local show. It is felt here that Guelph, where the winter fair has progressed, should receive the first call if a bigger show is proposed, and that the men of this section who have assisted so materially to make the winter livestock exhibition what it is should be in the lead.

VETERANS OF HAMILTON WANT THE CIVIC JOBS AS PROMISED BY CITY

HAMILTON, Feb. 19.—The war veterans of Hamilton are going to insist on Hamilton keeping its pledge that returned men shall be given the preference in civic appointments. PATRICIA

Thea Dara, the screen's most famous vampire woman, in "The Rose of Blood," attracted capacity audiences to the Patricia Theatre Tuesday. This photograph, quipped on the underlining, the overthrow and the end of Russian autocracy, is one replete with thrills and sensational scenes.

The Dara Duo present a high-class singing and musical act. In "The Rose of Blood," Miss Dara portrays Lisa Tapenka, daughter of the common people. As she has the advantage of a university education, Lisa finds little trouble in gaining employment as governess in the home of Prince Arbasoff.

When his wife dies, a short time later, the prince turns to Lisa for comfort and aid. He pleads that he loves her, but she turns away from him. Finally, when the prince's insistence becomes too severe, Lisa leaves his house and seeks refuge in Switzerland. There she falls in with a group of revolutionists, headed by one Vassya, known as "The Firebrand." Yielding to her fascination for this impassioned young Russian, Lisa joins their band and agrees to do her bit toward ridding her oppressed land of its haughty rulers.

Then Prince Arbasoff, still longing for Lisa, comes to Geneva, urges his suit on the beautiful girl, and marries her. Together they go back to the Russian capital, where Lisa is pledged to act as the agent of the revolutionists. Their first act is to demand the assassination of the chief of secret police. This Lisa accomplishes by wrecking a train which carries him as passenger. In token of the successful completion of her deed, she surreptitiously places a red rose on his bosom. Thereafter, she is forced to commit one murder after another, always against the wishes of the people. She consummates each deed with a red rose on the breast. When her husband becomes prime minister and begins his own reign of oppression, the revolutionists demand his death. Lisa refuses at first, then, urged on by her sense of duty toward the doctored, she blows up a building which contains him and his entire cabinet. And Lisa, alone in the world, has aided in the liberation of the newest republic.

Kay & Belle, society whirlwind dancers, present a high-class vaudeville offering at the Majestic at every performance this week. Their act is classy, snappy and clever. They introduce novelties in the terphichorean art.

ting for their act is of the futuristic type in black and white.

Clara Kimball Young at the Majestic today and Thursday.

Clara Kimball Young, who will appear at the Majestic today and Thursday in "The Iron Door," one of the season's most popular stage successes, had added to her forces Corliss Giles, whose work with Lou Tellegen in "The Ware Case" and "The King of Nowhere," placed him in the front ranks of the younger actors. His engagement with Miss Young marks his first appearance in the pictures. In "Shirley Kaye" Mr. Giles plays the part of John Rowan, the young railroad magnate, with whom Shirley first flirts and then falls in love. So pleased was Miss Young with his support and his artistic interpretation of the role, that she induced him to sign up for "The Marionettes," her next picture. Aside from his work with Lou Tellegen, Mr. Giles has a long record of achievement behind him; he appeared as leading man with Miss Catharine Couvres, also in "The One Woman" company, "The Iron Door" company and in "Mother Carey's Chickens"; for two years he played stock in the Castle Square Theatre, Boston, and for five seasons acted as leading man for Miss Jessie Bonstelle in Buffalo and Detroit.

DE ORO WINS FROM AUGIE KIECKHOEFER

Chicago, Ill., Feb. 20.—Alfredo De Oro of Cuba, who lost the world's three-cushion billiard championship to Augie Kieckhoefer of Chicago, two weeks ago, today defeated Kieckhoefer last night in the ambulance fund tournament, 52 to 32. De Oro played his best game of the tournament, running out in 54 minutes while his safety play left Kieckhoefer little chance. The latter's only flash of good playing was a run of eight in the early innings. A victory for Kieckhoefer would have won the tournament for him, and for Charles Ellis of Milwaukee, the runner-up, was defeated by Joe Capron of Chicago, 50 to 45.

ONLY SLIGHT CHANGE OCCASIONED BY BLUES LOSING TO CANADIENS

MONTREAL, Feb. 19.—E. W. Ferguson writes in the Herald: "The victory of the Canadiens over the Blues puts a rather different aspect on the race for second half honors, although Toronto must still be regarded as the favorites, for they cannot possibly be as bad as last night's score would indicate. A victory for Toronto last night would have clinched the title for them."

"All that is needed to cap the climax now is for Toronto to come here tomorrow night and wall up the Canadiens at the Jubilee rink. And looking over the results of games played with the Blues in the past few weeks, it wouldn't occasion more than passing surprise if the Toronto did just that little thing."

SINGLES AND DOUBLES NOW ON AT CINCINNATI

Cincinnati, O., Feb. 20.—St. Louis and Newark, N. J., bowlers will roll in the singles and doubles at the tournament of the American Bowling Congress here today. Both cities are represented by some of their best bowlers, as was indicated by their performances last night when, as members of the Cabanne five of St. Louis or the Neuberth Coits of Newark they captured first and second places respectively in the five-man event.

HARD FIGHT COMING OVER MARYLAND BILL LEGALIZING MUTUELS

New York, Feb. 20.—Persons who are in close touch with the racing interests in Maryland admit that the lower branch of the Legislature will defeat the bill legalizing pari-mutuels and the collection of a daily tax. They say that the real fight for existence will be made in the Senate, where the vote is expected to be very close. The reformers have aroused much feeling and are said to be spending money freely to carry on their crusade. If racing in Maryland is saved it will be a close thing, according to leading Baltimore politicians.

West Palm Beach, Fla., Feb. 20.—Miss Ethel Campbell had little opposition for the medal score in the qualifying round here yesterday of the Palm Beach Club's women's golf tournament. She finished with an 88, a safe lead over the runner-up, Mrs. L. E. Stumer. The receipts

ONTARIO INDUSTRIES MOVING TO QUEBEC FOR CHEAPER POWER

MONTREAL, Feb. 19.—Ontario industries are coming to Quebec because of cheap power. J. E. Aldred, president of the Shawinigan Power Company, told shareholders at the annual meeting of the company today.

Mr. Aldred said the company had

Separate Peace With Flanders Is Wanted

German Paper Says Government Is Working For It.

AMSTERDAM, Feb. 19.—Commenting on an article printed in the Rheinische Westfälische Zeitung, which declared that Belgium had ceased to exist as a state, and advocating a separate peace with Flanders, the Independent Socialist paper, Leipziger Volks Zeitung, says that doubtless the German Government is working in this direction.

HINT OF FOUL PLAY IN SPRING-RICE'S DEATH

London, Feb. 19.—In the House of Commons today, Noel Pemberton Billing asked whether in view of the fact that the late Sir Cecil Spring-Rice, the former British ambassador at Washington, was instrumental in the Callaghan-Paiva disclosures, an inquiry would be held to determine if his death was due to any cause other than that announced.

The speaker replied that Mr. Billing was required to put his question in writing, and that it would be answered in the regular order.

LAST LOOPHOLE IN ARMY DRAFT LAWS PLUGGED BY TREATY

Britain, U. S. and Canada Sign Documents Covering Application of Draft Law.

AFFECTS 36,000 HERE

By Enforcement of Treaty 328,000 Men Made Liable to Service.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—Treaties between the United States and Great Britain, and the United States and Canada, to govern the application of the army draft to citizens of each country residing in the other, were sent to the Senate today by Secretary of State Lansing. They were signed by Mr. Lansing, and Earl Reading, who affixed his signature to the documents as his first official act in the office of British high commissioner and special ambassador to the United States.

Under the treaties the United States may apply the draft law to British subjects and Canadians living in this country between the ages of 20 and 45 years, the British draft laws, while Great Britain and Canada may draft resident citizens of the United States from 21 to 45 years of age.

Similar conventions are now being negotiated by the state department with France and other co-belligerent nations, and probably will be ready for submission soon.

By the enforcement of the American-British treaty, it is expected more than 250,000 men in this country will be made liable to service, while at least 60,000 will be affected by the American-Canadian treaty. Estimates place the number of draft-age Americans in England at approximately 15,000, and in Canada at about 35,000.

BOLSHEVIKI PROTEST AGAINST CLOSING OF MANCHURIAN BORDER

Blame Britain and U. S. for Closing to Food Exports.

TAKE DRASTIC ACTION

"Goat" Government Will Vent Spleen on British Subjects in Russia.

LONDON, Feb. 19.—The Russian council of commissars, according to a dispatch from Petrograd to the Exchange Telegraph Company, has instructed Maxim Litvinoff, the Bolshevik representative in London, to lodge a protest with Great Britain against the closing of the Manchurian border and the prohibition on the export of cargo and foodstuffs into Russia. The council, it is said, regards the foregoing restrictions as having been taken under Anglo-American pressure.

Should Great Britain and America refuse to countermand the above orders, it is added, the council will apply repressive measures against the citizens of Entente Allied countries resident in Russia.

The protest of the Bolshevik Government to Great Britain against the closing of the Manchurian border doubtless refers to the action taken by the Chinese Government following the recent disorders at Harbin. The Chinese location at Petrograd replying to a proposal made with it by the Bolshevik representative in London, the council advised the Russian Government on February 14 that China had not settled Harbin, as had been reported, because Harbin had always been a Chinese city; that China was merely carrying out her treaty obligations by policing the Russian railway zone, keeping order, and

Regular Inspection Must be Deferred

So many skilled telephone workers have gone overseas that we have found it impossible for the present to keep up the practice of making a regular inspection of all subscribers' telephones.

It is important, in the interests of your service, that such defects as broken mouthpieces, frayed cords, etc., be reported to us promptly.

We therefore ask that subscribers promptly notify the "Trouble Department" (no number necessary) of any such defect in their telephone equipment so that we may remedy it promptly and protect the service.

"Our batteries opened a sudden fire on strong army parties in the Gal Marazara and Sereva valleys, and dispersed them. French batteries did effective concentrated firing along the French sector. "British patrols forded the Plave and raided the enemy's advanced trenches. In an air combat one of our airmen shot down an enemy machine. "Last night hostile airplanes dropped bombs on various inhabited localities. In the plains of Vienna, where four bombs exploded, there were a few victims. The damage was slight."

WILSON FATHERED THE PROPOSAL FOR UNITY OF EFFORT IN BATTLE

He Insisted, and Carried His Point—Italy a Lesson.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—Frank admission by Premier Lloyd George today that the convincing demand for unified military effort under a single directing body had come from the United States, confirmed the impression that has prevailed here since the proposal to send the mission headed by Colonel House to Europe first became known.

President Wilson was determined that the United States should not waste its strength in the war, but should, with the co-belligerents, wage an efficient battle of the most vigorous character.

The Italian disaster has been cited as a striking example of what the lack of complete co-operation among the Allies might bring about.

There are officers here who believe that the war would have been virtually over now had Cadorna's great effort been made with the full support of the British and French behind it.

ALL EFFORTS FAIL TO SHOW TRACE OF FORMER LONDONER

C. B. Smith Is Still Mysteriously Missing at Sarnia.

SARNIA, Feb. 19.—F. C. Slater, U.S. consul, who has interested himself in the disappearance of C. B. Smith, former Londoner, who has not been seen for ten days, stated this afternoon that nothing further has been heard, concerning the whereabouts of the missing man. His wife and one child reside on Christina street.

The last patient of the smallpox epidemic was released from quarantine today by Inspector Crosbie. The recent outbreak was considered one of the worst in the history of the city, and only prompt action by the health authorities prevented a more serious epidemic.

The fire department was called this evening to a small blaze in the millinery shop of Mrs. Wm. Richardson. The fire was extinguished before the firemen arrived. The damage was slight.

The contractor erecting the offices for the mayor and assessor in the city hall is making good headway. The work is well under way, and in the course of a few weeks the offices will be ready for occupancy.

STRATFORD WANTS TO KEEP INSPECTOR

STRATFORD, Feb. 19.—Strong protest has been made to the hydro commission at Toronto by the city council against the removal of the office of the local electrical inspector to Guelph. As a result of the protest a conference has been arranged between the chief inspector of the hydro and members of the city council to discuss the situation. The aldermen feel that as Stratford and district are important hydro users there is great need for an inspector here.

General von Kuhlmann was greeted by a number of high military and civilian officials.

WAR IS SHOWING IMPORTANCE OF FISH IN CANADA

Dominion Market Is Often Much Better Than American.

ST. THOMAS, Feb. 19.—The council chamber was crowded tonight to hear the address at the fishermen's convention. Prof. Prince, Dominion commissioner of fisheries, Ottawa, gave an illustrated lecture on some of the five questions for fishermen, national and international. He used about two hundred colored line-drawings from all over Canada, showing the fisheries methods and fish caught in the various waters. He dwelt upon the necessity of fishermen of Canada being given their rightful place. If the great war does nothing else than make people realize the importance of the Canadian fishing industry it will have accomplished a great deal, he said. He spoke of the importance of the general public regarding the hazards of the fisherman's life and the difficult nature of his work. To such waste. There was much waste of several varieties of the poorer fish, and he believed that if things were put in their proper channels they could be made to produce much revenue. He gave as an illustration the previous rabbit curse of Australia, when great wastage was permitted in the fishing industry, while today it has been made a very profitable industry, bringing in from three to four million dollars a year. He showed that poor fish in the province of Ontario was absolutely unnecessary, for the reason that the lakes were so close together. He stated that the fishermen should never rest until they have adopted proper methods of handling and caring for their fish. The fish should be cooled and frozen as soon as possible after being caught. The fishermen must realize the fish cannot be knocked about, as a slight bruise causes a fish to spoil quickly. The fish industry owed much to the former food controller, Mr. Hanna, as he was instrumental in increasing the consumption of fish, and had shown clearly how to handle frozen fish so that it was equally as good as fresh fish. He stated that the Canadian market, contrary to the general report, is a good one, very often better than the United States market, and Canadians must realize that Canada is our first thought. In conclusion the professor recited the case of an Indian woman living in British Columbia, who had reached the age of 115 years, and had, since girlhood, eaten only fish and berries, showing that fish was clearly a splendid food. J. A. Rodd, Dominion superintendent of fisheries, Ottawa, gave an instructive address on the fish culture in Canada. He dwelt on the methods of spawning and the necessity of getting better hatcheries for Canada.

FREIGHT CONDITIONS IMPROVING IN STATES

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—Freight conditions are so much better in the east that the railroad administration announced today it had been able to lift the embargo restrictions on a number of important articles of small bulk contributing to production of food, fuel or the maintenance of heat. In addition to food, fuel, shipments to the Government and railroad materials, which heretofore have been exempted from the freight embargo, the modifications are extended to printing paper and printing ink, agricultural implements, binder twine, canning machinery, carbide, carbon black, chrome and other dyes.

BRANTFORD COMPANY WILL START RANCHING IN WELLINGTON SOON

BRANTFORD, Feb. 13.—A local syndicate plan to commence ranching operations in Wellington County shortly. About 1,000 acres of grazing land have been secured. The necessary capital for carrying on operations is being raised here. The withdrawal of the Ontario Government war tax of one mill on the dollar will be the request by resolution of the city council here at its next meeting. A tax rate of 30 mills on the dollar will be struck, even with all non-essential expenditures eliminated. The assessment department has promised a million-dollar increase in the assessment, and an effort will be made to have all industrial fixed assessments non-effective for the duration of the war. That a new tract of industrial lands, 400 acres in extent, will be available for this city in the near future, was announced here today, following investigation into the water supply of the city and an effort to find a new source of supply. The Grand River is declared by experts to be the best source of supply for Brantford, and in this case a filtration plant will be installed, and the water commission will be able to dispose of the 400 acres of farm land held by order of the provincial board of health, to keep impurities from the present wells.

SMALPOX OUTBREAK CHECKED AT CHATHAM

CHATHAM, Feb. 19.—No developments have taken place in the local smallpox situation, and the health authorities believe that they have the outbreak well in hand. Yesterday, following the discovery of a case at the college institute, Dr. McRitchie, the medical health officer, accompanied by three doctors, visited the institution, and all pupils who could not show a certificate of recent vaccination were promptly treated on the spot. The managers of the poolrooms have been requested to keep close watch on their patrons to see that no high school students go there until the danger is over. The public library has also been ordered closed by the board for two weeks, and in the meantime the books will be thoroughly fumigated as a precautionary measure. The quarantine at Ursuline Convent, where the outbreak was first discovered, has been lifted, and the scholars will be permitted to resume studies on Wednesday. The separate school will also open on this date.

MARQUIS DE CASTILLO AFTER $50,000,000 IN U. S. BY PHONEY LOAN

NEW YORK, Feb. 19.—An English prison record for petty thievery stands against the erstwhile "Marquis de Castillo," real name, Edmund Russell, the dapper young Frenchman who came to New York and started fictitious negotiations through bankers for a fifty-million-dollar loan for the King of Spain. Scott's Yard knows him as "Number A-2472."

NO STOMACH PAIN, GAS, INDIGESTION IN FIVE MINUTES

"Pape's Diapiesin" is the best antacid and stomach regulator known.

"Really does" put upset stomachs in order—"really does" overcome indigestion, dyspepsia, gas, heartburn and sourness due to acid fermentation in five minutes—that's just what Pape's Diapiesin, the largest selling stomach antacid and regulator in the world, if what you eat ferments and turns sour, you belch gas and eructate undigested food or water; head is dizzy and aches; breath foul; tongue coated; your insides filled with indigestible waste, remember the moment "Pape's Diapiesin" comes in contact with the stomach all such distress vanishes. It's truly astonishing—almost marvelous, and the joy is its harmlessness. A large fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapiesin is worth its weight in gold to men and women who can't get their stomachs regulated. It belongs in your home—should always be kept handy in case of a sick, sour, upset stomach during the day or at night. It's the quickest, surest antacid for the stomach in the world.

CANADA'S PARLIAMENT LIKELY TO BE CALLED WEDNESDAY, MARCH 20

OTTAWA, Feb. 13.—Wednesday, March 20, is now regarded as likely to be the date for opening the first session of the new Parliament. The House meets on Wednesday when there is a speaker to be selected, as this is always necessary when a new parliament meets for the first time. The session cannot be summoned until the soldiers' vote is all counted, and added to the home vote, and considerably less than the customary thirty days' notice

Hacking Coughs

For hacking coughs—the kind that make your throat sore and your head ache, that rob you of your sleep until you are so run down that you are in danger of pneumonia or consumption—take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It soothes and heals the inflamed "Granny" Chamberlain passages, stops the tickling in the throat, and by its tonic effects helps you to throw off the disease.

Chamberlain's is quite different from the ordinary cough medicine, for it not only soothes but also heals, restores the affected parts to a healthy condition. I believe it is the best and most reliable preparation ever produced for coughs and colds. Yours for Health, —Granny Chamberlain

Not a Bite of Breakfast Until You Drink Water

Says a glass of hot water and phosphate prevents illness and keeps us fit.

Just as coal, when it burns, leaves behind it a mass of hot, glowing, combustible material in the form of ashes, so the food and drink taken day after day leaves in the alimentary canal a certain amount of indigestible material, which if not completely eliminated from the system each day, becomes food for the millions of bacteria which infect the bowels. From this mass of left-over waste, toxins and ptomaine-like poisons are formed and sucked into the blood. Men and women who can't get feeling right must begin to take inside baths. Before eating breakfast each morning drink a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash out of the thirty feet of bowels the previous day's accumulation of poisons and toxins and to keep the entire alimentary canal clean, pure and fresh. Those who are subject to sick headache, colds, biliousness, constipation, others who wake up with bad taste, foul breath, backache, rheumatic stiffness, or have a sour, gassy stomach after meals, are urged to get a quarter pound of limestone phosphate from the drug store, and begin practicing internal sanitation. This will cost very little, but is sufficient to make anyone an enthusiast on the subject. Remember inside bathing is more important than outside bathing, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, causing poor health, while the bowel pores do. Just as soap and hot water cleanser, sweetens and freshens the skin, so hot water and limestone phosphate act on the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels.

GARAGE DESTROYED IN SPECTACULAR BLAZE

One of the hottest fires with which the local department has had to fight in some time completely destroyed the interior of the garage of H. M. Laughton at 381 Wellington street yesterday afternoon. Four autos went up in smoke. Mr. Laughton was away, and some employees who were engaged in vulcanizing left the apparatus for a few minutes. When they returned a hot fire was in progress in the repair shop end of the garage. Instead of telephoning in an alarm one of the men ran to the fire hall and gave the alarm. In the meantime the flames had a chance to make great progress, and when they reached various inflammable materials spread quickly throughout the whole building. When the firemen arrived the interior of the building was a furnace, with sheets of flame shooting from the windows. With chemicals and three powerful streams Chief Aitken and his men soon got the fire checked, but it was nearly half an hour before it was out. The building is owned by Wm. Bernard of 38 Maple street. The loss on building and contents will be about $2,000.
