In March of this year, the National Federation of Cana-dian University Students will publish Canadian Campus 1956, Canada's only national student magazine. The magazine will be distributed free to NFCUS members.

The Editorial Committee is de- * termined to produce a magazine which will be interesting, lively and good-looking, a magazine that Canadian students from coast to coast will enjoy reading and perhaps even re-reading.

In order to obtain the types of material that will be needed in Canadian Campus, the Editors are opening the pages for contribu-Very roughly, the following broad types of material are wanted:

Short stories articles (on sport, student government, etc.), humor, student government, etc.), humor, poetry and verse, individual photographs (with captions), photographic essays (with cap-tions), cartoons or other art work suitable for reproduction, mis-cellaneous (fillers, jokes, etc.) Payment will be upon publica-tion and will range from five to fifty dollars depending upon the length and calibre of the publish-ed material.

Seems Wilder

Dal's annual Coed Week, may seem to be a bit wilder than in former years because the bevy of screaming femmes realize it's Leap Year.

The fellows, pleased with royal treatment and the chance to relax their wallets, were towed to the movies on Monday night, where they suffered through feminine wailing in two sad, sad pictures. Last night they were dragged around the Dal rink. Somewhat milder entertainment is in store tonight, when the gals meet at Shirreff Hall about 7:30 to serenade the three residences Men's, King's and Pine Hill. Tomorrow night the Men's Fraternities will receive the same treatment.

Persistent campaign managers for Campus king candidates have been collecting pennies, nickels and dimes. The winnah will be crowned at the annual Sadie Hawkins' Dance to be held in the gym Friday evening. The gals will provide food and corsages. Tickets in the form of programs (to be paid for by the girls, of course) are $1.50 a couple and may be obtained at the door or from Janet Conrad at Shirreff Hall. Well Done

Although the Board of Governors and the Senate have broad interests in campus affairs, from the students' point of view no group plans a more vital role than does the Students' Council. It is appalling therefore that so few students take advantage of its open meetings. Perhaps this is an indication of contentment-that the student body is satisfied with the manner in which the council has tended its chores. Such an attitude is dangerous and can make for a conservative student government.

Fortunately for all concerned this is not the case with our present Student Council. Under the capable leadership of Doug and Elise much has been accomplished during the past year. Looking back at their election platform we see that they have kept their promises. First, initiation has been re-instated. Second, a secretary-treasurer has been appointed. Third, there is co-ordination of campus activities. Fourth, an effective publicity program has been developed. Fifth, the point system has been revised.

However a council's work is never over. To their successors falls much. Within a month nominations will be called for ,and new platforms will appear. The following sug-gestion might well be considered. Forgetting the canteen and the new men's residence for the moment, Dal has been too long without a band of its own, a popular college song, and pep rallies. More student hours in the rink are desired. We should have an official graduation ring, and maybe a pre-Christmas forum, etc. What do you think?

There is them as persons in their own international field. There is no student levy at Dalhousie for WUSC as there is at most other universities, for example last year University of Alberta donated $2500, Western On-tario $1400, and St. F.X. $400. It is hoped that the concession would make a similar levy at Dalhousie unnecessary.

W.U.S.C. Report On Race Relations

Whether or not one has the courage to affirm one's self as a Christian, there is no doubt that as a thinking being one fication based on number of publications plus enrolment . . . vote 9 can stand with Miss Roper in her observations on the inconsistencies in the rationale for the existence of fraternities. Racial discrimination in any sphere is deplorable, and when its spirit pervades certain aspects of university life, it is particularly disturbing.

The White - African relationship is not one to be described and that of Nigeria have an only in terms of race. It is the Africanization policy which proruler-ruled relationship, teacherstudent, employer - employee, master - servant, husband and wife. This does not mean that the whites are always in a superior role and the Africans in the inferior. We met African Cabinet ministers who had British undersecretaries or White stenographers, and other similar situations exist.

In any area where the question of race does not enter into the matter of these kinds of relationships, problems exist which are peculiar to the specific kind of relationship. For example, in Canada we do not hesitate to speak of an employer-employee relationship, but generally it is not seen as a point for discussion under the topic of race relations. It may be discussed in terms of the technical problems involved. Similarly one may speak of a relationship between the governed and those who govern in an impersonal way. In Africa however, all relationships are further com-plicated by the factors of social

Hats Off to Arts and Science

This, the largest society on the campus which has laid dormant for the past few years has suddenly forgotten that nasty word apathy, and come back to life. A successful ice carnival last fall precipitated their revival. A society fee was leveled on each student at registration this year which enabled them to get their spirit out of hock and win the inter-faculty rugger and cross-country battles. And there is plenty of fight left in them yet! Much credit for this fine showing goes to its president and his energetic executive.

Tigeresses Thump Mt. A

At Sackville last Saturday the Dalhousie Girls Basketball team gained their second straight win in the Intercollegiate circuit with a 45-33 victory over Mt. Allison. Although handicapped by colds, sore backs and a strange floor, the Dal co-eds still proved to be strong in the clutch.

During the first half the Tigresses were rather unorganized, but managed to keep the score down with Mt. A. holding a slight 17-16 edge at the end of that frame. Dot Terry and Pat Barbour proved a strong pair in the early moments as they notched four and six points respectively. Mary Chipman, who played good ball throughout the game, garnered eight points in the opening half.

In the last half both the Dal offense and defense picked up. Good solid teamwork was the deciding factor. The Black and Gold guards had difficulty in coping with Dot Terry as she collected eleven of her team's sixteen points in this period. For Dal the scoring honours were well split up, but the potent Montgomery-Flemming combination really put the game on ice as the latter scored eight points in the two minutes of play. The game was exciting throughout with changing hands repeatedly until the final two minutes. With three minutes remaining the score was 34-33 for Mt. A. when Carolyn Flemming sank a field goal. From then on the Tigresses held the play

High scorer for Dal was Mary Chipman with 13 points. Ruth McLeese, Liz Montgomery and Carolyn Flemming notched 12, 11 and 9 respectively. For Mt. A. Dot Terry was the big gun with 15 points while Pat Bar-bour and Kay Weble each got seven.

Inter-Faculty Hockey

Interfac hockey results to date show that the Legal Beagles have the league lead, with the Teeth Pullers a close second; while the Millionaires and Sawbones just don't rate high enough at this point to cause a real scare to first place supremacy. Arts and Science and Engineers look good, but that's all and the Druggists don't even count. League play in February might cause rumblings under the surface, as the Lawyers can expect a tough go when the annual battle with the Meds arrives, and the Dents hope to clean up on the second division teams and Commerce might suddenly splurge.

processing of these raw materials and the abundant

Accentuation of greater production by Canadians of our raw materials into the finished products. Efforts will be made to promote such expansion in all parts of Canada so that each section may benefit as far as possible. A Maritime Power Board will be established to investigate

- We will resume technological development in various forms of guided missile research.
- Canada should continue to play a great part in the sphere of international relations.
- We will introduce a contributory health insurance program, in co-operation with the provinces, which will insure to every Canadian proper diagnostic, medical, and surgical treatment. We will set up a Joint Committee of the House of Commons and the Senate to settle positively the design of a distinctive Canadian flag.

Steps will be taken to retain and expand Canada's muskets abroad.

MARITIME RIGHTS

- We urge the adoption of a vigorous policy of encouraging the processing of Maritime resources, particularly coal and agriculture.
- Our party deplores the wholesale export of Maritime materials which must, of necessity, be later imported as manufactured goods or finished products.
- We believe that appropriate measures should be taken im-mediately by the federal government to extend the principal of Unemployment Insurance to persons engaged in the Fish-Hugh Dunlop, Les Bryan and Tom ing Industry.
- We will launch an extensive research program to make a better and more exhaustive use of coal and its important byproducts
- We will encourage the promotion of home-owned industry in the Maritimes.
- We will guarantee a floor price of 95c a bushel for Valley apples. (At present the government guarantees approximately 40c a bushel.)
- We urge the adoption of Dominion-Provincial grants on the basis of need.
- We will strive for increased federal aid to Maritime univerversities.

TAXATION

E.

- The whole system of Federal Taxation will be reviewed. 1. University student will be allowed to deduct (for Income Tax purposes) an additional $500 per year to cover university expenses. All medical expenses will be made fully deductable for In-
- come Tax purposes.
- EDUCATION
- Establish a program of scholarships to enable worthy students to attend university.

 Offer long-term, non-interest bearing loans to universities for increasing or improving present facilities.
 TRADE AND COMMERCE

This government will do everything in its power to increase Canada's Industrial and Economic Prosperity:

By creating self-sufficiency in those industries which are economically feasible.

- By establishing sound export industry.
- 2. By extending reciprocity to any nation willing to ex-tariff preference to us 3. (a)
- We propose to eliminate tariffs on all goods entering (b) Canada from any of the Commonwealth countries.

To establish a National Health Insurance Program through joint Federal and Provincial co-operation.
 To increase Old Age Pensions.
 IMMIGRATION

- Canada will open her doors to people who are sincere in
- their wish to come to this country. Present standards for medical qualification will not be low-
- ered, but the out-dated quota system will be abolished
