CATALOGUE

OF AN EXTENSIVE COLLECTION OF STANDARD

Out-of-the-way, Curious and Miscellaneous Books

ON SALE BY

JOHN BRITNELL,

280 YONGE STREET, - - - - TORONTO, CANADA.

Our Literary Friends, who love the best old books, and who appreciate our system of doing business, will be CASTING UNPERISHABLE BREAD UPON THE WATERS OF TIME by aiding in the circulation of our catalogue, bearing in mind—

1. The Annexed prices are net, and do not include postal or express charges.
2. We have by far the most extensive stock of the best old European Literature in Canada.
3. Professional Bookselling is not with us a business in which large profits are made or extortionate prices charged. We have no fancy prices.
4. We pay ready money for all purchases in England or America, and sell at the lowest possible remuneration to all customers for cash.

In selecting books, Friends will kindly state how they prefer them to be forwarded—POST, EXPRESS OR FREIGHT—considering it to be our duty, but reserving to ourselves the right of paying a portion of the expenses on heavy parcels to the UNITED STATES. The barbarous tax on knowledge, together with the extortionate charges of the Express Companies is apparently framed for the express purpose of keeping the people in a state of continuous childhood or total ignorance.

STANDARD BOOKS FOR THE LIBRARY.

The New Translation, complete, of Moliere's Whole Dramatic Works, rendered into English by H. VAN LAUN, trans. of Taine's "History of English Literature," with prefatory Memoir, Introductory Notices, Appendices and Notes. Portrait and 33 beautiful Etchings executed especially for this edition by Ad. Lalauze, a fine paper copy. 6 vols, royal 8vo, cloth, 25.00. Edin. 1875-77.

This beautiful edition is now complete. "Its excellencies," says the Athenaeum in its elaborate review of it, "will win for it a place in every dramatic library. It is not only the best translation of Moliere in existence, but the best to be hoped. Those unfortunate enough to be unable to read Moliere in the original will obtain from this version as correct an impression as can be hoped of the first of comic dramatists. As we have said, however, the value of the book does not end here. It is a direct and valuable contribution to European Scholarship."

Cervante's Don Quixote, MOTTEUX'S TRANSLATION. Illustrated by numerous beautiful etchings by LALAUZ, the whole executed in the best style on fine paper, only 200 copies printed. Imperial 8vo, cloth. This being No. XXIII, 14.25. Edinburgh 1879-84.

- Looking to its clearness of definition, its general solidity, honesty, insight and succe-sful method it may be called the best of all dictionaries. There is in it a kind of architectural nobleness. There it stands like a great solid square-built edifice, finished symmetrically complete, you judge that a true builder did it.—Thomas Carlyle
- Still keeps its ground and has had no successor that could supplant it. This is owing to the admirable plan of giving passages from the writers cited as authorities for each word, and this part of the design is very well executed. Hence the book b-comes almost as entertaining to read as useful to consult.—Lord Brougham.

Gentleman's Magazine, complete, from its commencement in 1781 to Dec. 1813; many hundred portraits and other engravings of old English and parochial and national antiquities; has a book-plate of the Hon. GEORGE AGAR ELLIS in each volume, and in some volumes will be found MS. notes by EDMUND MALONE (who died in 1813), the well-known Shakespearean commentator, to whom the set formerly belonged, 117 vols, full calf gilt, yellow edges, including 3 index and correspondence vols, the cover of 1 vol broken in transit, but not otherwise injured; a fine and uniform set, 45.00. 670

Commenced as a monthly miscellany in January 1831, it is now a most valuable book of reference for all subjects appertaining to local history, historical events, literature, biography, family history, American affairs; full list of births, marriages and deaths for upwards of eighty years. Mr. Allibone, in writing of CAVE, the founder, well says, "It should be in the library of every student of English literature and political history." And we may add that Cave was perhaps the most enterprising and fearless newspaper originator of his time. He it was who broke through the cast iron rule and defied the Commons in reporting Parliamentary news, and in the number for June, 1738, we have Gulliver's account of the famous empire of Great Lilliput, meaning by this the English Parliament. The Commons after this not interfering with his publication of the so called Lilliput debates. DR. JOHNSON was part editor, and in the commencement of his literary career, drew his chief means of support from his contributions to the "Gentleman's Magazine." In 1778 JOHN NICHOLS obtained a share in the magazine, and rendered it more valuable than at any period of its former history. EDMUND BURKE entitled it one of the most chaste and instructive miscellanies of the age—an opinion corroborated by DR. WARTON and EDWARD GIBBON, the latter of whom urged Nichols to make a selection for future reference from its overflowing pages. RICHARD GOUGH was for many years a constant contributor.

ADAM was a native of Usk in Monmouth, educated at Oxford, and became mixed up with the riots which took place in the University. After this, about 1390, he pleaded for seven years in the Archbishop's court at Canterbury, and in 1397 was daily in attendance in Richard's last Parliament at Westminster. Adam was a lawyer and a priest. This Chronicle is a most interesting Record of events, as well as a faithful picture of the times. The surprising thing is the fact of its never having been printed previously.

Hunter (Sir W. W.) C.S.I., LL.D., The Imperial Gazetteer of India, 14 vols, 8vo, half green morocco, 14.25. Trubner 1885-87.

The great feature of this remarkable article, (India, in the above Cyclopaedia), and that in which its chief usefulness consists, is perhaps the constructive accounts of the Indian people, and the Synthesis of Hinduism from actually existing facts as revealed by Dr. Hunter's survey and by the first Indian census.—The Times first notice, May, 1881.

It is one of the grandest works of administrative statistics which have ever been issued by any nation, and should earn for its author and designer the gratitude of every one who has the welfare and good government of our Indian Empire at heart.—The Times (second notice).

No nation has ever attempted so comprehensive, so detailed, and so stupendous a statistal enterprise, and the whole has been planned and executed with a smoothness and a certainty which are truly marvellous.—The Athenaeum.

It sets forth the fruits of the author's personal and long protracted researches, and forms a monument of Dr. Hunter's knowledge of the topography, agriculture, administration, and health-aspects of the whole Empire of India.—Kölnische Zeitung.
