REFORM CONVENTION.

The Reform Convention last Saturday was the largest and most enthusiastic meeting of the kind ever held in Brockville. The Hon. C. F. Fraser was nominated for re-election to the Ontario Legislature and W. H. Comstock, Esq., was selected to oppose J. F. Wood, M. P. The utmost harmony characterized the meeting. In accepting the nomination, Mr. Fraser delivered a powerful address, ably defending himself against the charges of his defamers. The pressure upon our columns makes it impossible for us to report Mr. Fraser's address and other excellent speeches delivered by the nominees of the convention. A great many of our readers will have an opportunity of hearing Mr. Fraser and his co-workers during the contest.

The next clause was on the communication from the Scott Act Association, asking for the sum of $315.68, being the amount spent by the Association in assisting to enforce the Scott Act.

The Rev. S. D. Chown, President of the Association, was allowed to be heard in support of this claim. He referred to the Order-in-Council regarding the disposition of the monies paid in as fines, and asked that the Association be given a grant from the fund now on hand and likely to accrue.
His reason for asking this was that to the efforts of the Association properly belonged the credit for the enforcement of the Act up to the present time. He did not wish to cast any reflections upon the Inspector; but from the thorough organization all over the Counties they were able to get information which the Inspector could not. Nearly $1,500 had been imposed in fines, and some 14 cases were now pending. Of this money they would only ask a small portion, for actual and necessary expenses. The Association would be willing to take one-third of the fines, as under the Dunkin Act, if the Council preferred.
They thought they had a claim upon the money now on hand. He did not want the money until the sums due the License Commissioners had been taken out.

Mr. Simpson moved the adoption of the clause.

Mr. Richardson moved in amendment that the clause be struck out; but this demand, coming as it did at the last session of the Council, looked like an election dodge to force an expression of opinion from them with regard to the Scott Act. He thought it unfair to press this question at the present time.

Rev. Mr. Chown disclaimed all idea of making political capital out of any remarks of the members of the Council. The bills were put in at that late stage because the Order-in-Council was only passed some ten days before. He read over the items, showing what the money had been spent for. Messrs. Gillies and Dailey voted the grant, as also did Mr.
Simpson, who said the money was on hand to pay just such bills as these.

Mr. Keating took the chair and read the petition which set forth that much expense was now incurred by bringing witnesses long distances; that a large amount was accruing from fines, which could be applied towards the salary of the police magistrate, making the expense to be borne by the counties very small; and that by the appointment the Act would be better enforced.

Messrs. Clark, Simpson and Richardson took part in the discussion. Mr.
Richardson contending that the counties were well supplied with police magistrates, there being one at Brockville, another at Kemptonville and another at Gananoque. He thought it would be difficult to send such an official from place to place in the counties, as had been suggested.

Mr. Gillies said that the police magistrates had no jurisdiction in Scott Act cases outside the towns and villages, unless associated with another magistrate.

Mr. Saunders suggested that the committee should rise, report progress and sit again, in order to give the members a chance to consider the question.

Mr. Bradley favored the appointment of a police magistrate without salary in each municipality.

A committee consisting of Messrs.
McIntyre, Saunders, Rutherford, and McCrae (Welford) was appointed, to whom the whole matter was referred.

Mr. D. Derbyshire asked permission for the Eastern Division's Association to hold its annual convention in the court house, on the 5th of next month. Granted.

The special committee reported that they had scoured rooms for the Junior Judge over Fulford's drug store, at a rental of $6 monthly. Concurred in.

Mr. Halladay gave notice of a motion to amend by-law No. 584.

FRIDAY'S SESSION.
On the Council assembling at 10 a.m., Mr. Rutherford made a motion for the addition of three more names to the committee on the appointment of a police magistrate. In support of his motion he said that the committee had failed to meet as agreed upon.

Mr. McIntyre came in at this stage and apologized for being unable to meet the committee, and moved a reference of the whole matter to the Finance Committee. The motion carried.

A committee consisting of Messrs.
Keating, G. C. and J. J. were appointed to consider the question of County bridges, and the Council adjourned to two o'clock.

On resuming, the report of the Finance Committee was taken up, with Mr. Chapman in the chair.

Several minor items were passed, and on the 11th clause being read a lively discussion ensued. This was the demand of the Leeds License Commissioners for $406.66, and of the Grenville License Commissioners for $639.00, the pro rata share of the Counties in the expenses of the Inspector and the Commissioners. The clause was finally adopted.

Delta.

A couple of beardless youths from a village not many miles from here drove into Delta, one evening last week under the impression that the "old folks" of a certain family were on a little picnic, and that their services would be required around the premises, as a kind of body guard for the two young ladies who were to keep the fires going and see that the mice did not eat up the sweetmeats deposited in the pantry. Shortly after six p.m. on the night in question our young friends started out from the hotel, after giving the hostler carte blanche as to the quantity of oats he was to feed the quadruped. They also took the precaution to take a peering look in the mirror, to see if their cowlicks were properly brushed down and the corners of their stand up collars arranged a la Chesterfield. Everything being to their liking they sallied forth, bending their steps in the direction of the setting sun. Arriving at their destination, a gentle rap brought one of the fair inmates to the door. A constrained greeting welcomed their appearance and they were led—not into the parlor, as they fondly hoped, but into the presence of the "old folks" who, for pungent and weighty reasons had decided to postpone their departure to a more convenient season. An improvised lurch was tendered our young friends after partaking of which they concluded that "did and mam" required their services at home and they took their departure, to their evident chagrin and the hostler's disgust at not being able to run up a good paying bill. Along in the "wee-ma" hours they reached the parental domicile, away down towards the rising sun, firmly resolving, no doubt, to make sure that the old folks were on the road before they ventured on another excursion of the kind.

Clearing Sale.

Boss & White announce a genuine clearing sale. Look out for their advertisement next week.

Current Prices.

There are very few changes in market prices since last week. There is a slight rise in hay, which sells from $8 to $9. Large pork sells at $5 and medium at $5.50. Bulk oysters retail at 40c. per quart.

Westport Turkey Fair.

J. H. Martin and R. Janson advertise that they will buy all kinds of poultry, and beef hides and sheep skins at the Westport turkey fair, to be held on the 9th and 10th of this month.

Business Change.

Byron Cadwell has purchased the saw and provender mill at New Dublin, formerly owned by Kendrick & McConkey. While we are sorry to lose so estimable a citizen as Mr. Cadwell, we congratulate the people of New Dublin on the acquisition of a hard working and honorable gentleman.

Business Education.

Brockville Business College still excels all others in the thoroughness of the work done, in the success of its graduates and in the patronage of the business community. No examinations on entering. Students receive their instruction. Rates cheaper than at any other first-class college in Canada. It is the best. Send for their circulars.

West's Cough Syrup, a sure cure for coughs, colds, croup and consumption.

Political Meetings.

The Hon. G. F. Fraser and several other prominent members of the Reform party will address a meeting of the electors in the town hall here on Thursday evening the 2nd inst. The chair will be taken at 7 p.m. A meeting to be addressed by the same speakers will be held at Lyn on Friday evening, at the same hour.

Since the above was placed in type arrangements have been made to hold the Farmersville meeting in what was once the C. M. Church. A cordial invitation to attend this meeting is extended to the ladies.

The increasing demand for West's Cough Syrup is evidence of its great virtue in all throat and lung diseases. Three sizes. All druggists.

Church Re-opening.

On Sunday last special re-opening services were held in the Baptist Church at Plum Hollow, which has been almost entirely rebuilt and much beautified during the summer. At the morning service a large congregation assembled, when the Rev. S. Sheldon conducted a most impressive and soul-stirring meeting. Another service was held at half past two in the afternoon, when the church was crowded with an interested congregation. Mr. Sheldon preached a practical sermon from I Cor. 16. 13, and made an impression for good upon his hearers. The collections were for the purpose of paying for the lamps, etc., in the church. The pastor had the satisfaction of announcing that all the expense of the repairs had been provided for by subscription. The contractor was A. N. Sherman, who undertook the work for $625.00. This sum was increased to nearly $700 by extras and unforeseen contingencies. This church is one of the pioneer places of worship in the back country, and was built 43 years ago under the supervision of Eld. R. Nichols. It is situated on a very beautiful site, the rocky bluff on which it stands overlooking the picturesque valley of Plum Hollow, than which there is no more beautiful pastoral scene in the country. The building now presents a fine appearance. The pitch of the roof has been raised considerably and the walls are finished in Rosendale cement, pencilled in imitation of cut stone. The inside of the edifice presents to the eye a neat and even artistic appearance, and does credit to the energetic committee which had charge of the improvements. We congratulate the pastor and the members of the church on the successful termination of their efforts to beautify the sanctuary.

World-wide is the reputation of West's Cough Syrup, the truly marvellous remedy for coughs, colds, croup, whooping-cough, asthma and consumption. All druggists.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Editor Reporter: Your past services through your valuable paper in agitating many needed reforms encourages me in requesting you to further another and I think greater reform. Many of your readers are aware of the disgraceful state of our Town Hall, and of its total unfitness for present requirements. What would you think of our Municipal Council nominating a committee of say twelve men from this township to confer with the trustees of the C. M. Church, with a view of exchanging properties on fair terms? I believe it could be brought about. We are a progressive people and shall be obliged in the near future, if the above is not accomplished, to spend from $1,500 to $2,000 in enlarging and fitting up the present Hall. If this view does not meet with the approval of your readers, I would suggest that you call on our citizens generally to name a day in the near future for them to bring their brooms and mops and spend a few days making the town hall fit for occupation.

AN INTERESTED CITIZEN.
