

LESSON IX .- NOV 26. 1911.

Nehemiah's Prayer.-Neh: 1: 1-11. Commentary -I. A report from the Lond of Judah (vs. 1-3). I. Words — "History."—R. V., margin. Nehemiah the son of Hachaliah—He is thus dis-tinguished from the Nehemiah who ac-companied Zerubbabel upon the first return from captivity (Ezra 2. 2), and from the Nehemiah who assisted in re-building the walls of Jerusalem (ch. 3. 16). It is not known to what tribe he belonged, but from v. 2 and ch. 2. 3 it is thought he way to and ch. 2. 16). It is not known to what tribe he Judah. He was a man of deep devotion, a man of prayer and a man of deeds. Chisleu-The ninth month of the Jewish year, corresponding to the latter part of November and the first part of December. Twentieth year-- The twen-tieth year of the reign of Artaxerss Longimanus, king of Prrsis. Exra had gone with his company from Babylon to Jerusalem thirteen years before this. Shushan-Two hundred fifty miles east of Babylon. It was one of the three capitals of Persia, and the favorite winter residence of the king. Palace-Nehe-miah, as an officer in the king's court, performed the duties of his office the palace. The magnificence of this building is shown by the fact that its ruins, discovered many years ago, cover about three thousand square fect.

2. Hanani-From ch. 7. 2 it appears ". Hanami was a brother of Nehe-miah, which is probable, yet the term "brother" is used in the scriptures to other near relatives. Men of -"Out of Judah."--R. V. Some denote Judak—"Out of Judah."---R. V. Some who had returned from Judah. Had escaped—This has reference to those who had gone to Jerusalem from the captivity in Babylon. Left of the captivity --Those who had returned from the cap-tivity and had survived the hardwhine of tivity and had survived the hardships of honorable position in the royal palace did not keep him from being solicitous for the prosperity of his fellow Jews in Jerusalem.

3. The Province-The land of Judah was one of the provinces of the Jersian empire. In great affliction- Their subjection to Persia forced itself upon the Jews at every turn. The tribute im-posed on them was a heavy burden to a poor people. Jewish recruits had doubt. been forced into the Persian armless been forced into the Persian arm-ics., the country was pillaged in open day, and many Jews were carried into slavery by nightly surprises, while the corpses of murdered men were often found on the road.—Geikie. The stand which the Jews had taken in refusing their neighbors the privilege of joining with them for the purpose of joining with them for the purpose of building the house of the Lord, and in breaking up the practice of intermaniage of the Jews with outside nations had exposed the Jews to the hostile attacks of other peoples. The wall-Is broken don-After the destruction of the walls by Nebuchadnezzar one hundred and forty years before, it was partly rebuilt by Ezra. The enemies of the Jews had by Ezra. The enemies of the sere and destroyed the walls and gates of Jeruanorm, thus rendering the city virtually unprotected. Stanley says "In those day, rather, one may say, in those coun-tries of disorder, a city without locked gates and lofty walls was no city at all." salem, thus rendering the city virtually ing for me; Mr. A. M. Ikerd. said I had cancer of the stomach and there was no cure. I almost thought the same, for my breath was offensive and I could not eat anything without great misery, and I gradually grew worse.

4.11)

Grew Worse. Relieved by Peruna.

"Finally I concluded to try Peruns and I found relief and a cure for that dreadful disease, catarrh. I took five bottles of Peruna and two of Manalin. and I now feel like a new man. There is nothing better than Peruna, and I keep a bottle of it in my house all the time."

true suppliant. He was convinced of God's greatness; he came with humil-ity; he begged for a hearing; and he ity; he begged for a hearing; and he had an important petition to make. Day and night. This expression shows his earnestness an importunity. Both I and my father's house have sinned. The suppliant made genuine confession of ain. He had no disposition to spare himself. He acknowledged that the re-sponsibility for national sins rested upon individuals and families, and that the deplorable condition of the nation the deplorable condition of the nation existed because of their sin. 7. Cor-Among other things the Jews rupty. were guilty of oppression (ch. 5:1-7. 10, 11. the desceration of the Sabbath (ch. 13:15-, and intermarriage with heathen nations (Ezra 9:1, 2). Commandments. Divine precepts to govern the life. Statutes. Rules relating to the Jewish Statutes. Rules relating to the Jewish religious system. Judgments. The pre-cepts of justice relative to our conduct to one another.—Clarke. S. Remember..... the word—Nehe-miah strengthened the force of his sup-plication by pleading God's promises. If ye transgress—This is not a quotation, but a reference to the general sense of various passager. e.e. for instance. Lev. various passager, and for instance, Lev. xxvi. 27-30; Deut. xxviii, 45-52, 62-67.--Pulpit Com. 9. If ye turn unto me-lt s an exhibition of God's merey that man is given an opportunity to repent and to be restored to the divine favor. "When we turn to sin God turns to discipline; when we turn to righteousness He turns ices of dieorder, a city without locked ates and lofty walls was no city at 1." H. Nchemiah's prayer for help. (vs. 4. Wept, and mourned. Nehemiah's tense interest in the walfers of help. (vs. 4. Wept, and mourned. Nehemiah's tense interest in the walfers of help. (vs. 4. Wept, and mourned. Nehemiah's tense interest in the walfers of help. (vs. 4. Wept, and mourned. Nehemiah's tense interest in the walfers of help. (vs. 4. Wept, and mourned. Nehemiah's of the Lord. Place that I have chosen tense interest in the walfers of help. (vs. 4. Wept, and mourned. Nehemiah's of the lord. Place that I have chosen tense interest in the walfers of help. (vs. 4. Wept, and mourned. Nehemiah's of the lord. Place that I have chosen tense interest in the walfers of help. (vs.

4.111. 4. Wept, and mourned. Nehemian's intense interest in the welfare of his own nation moved him to weep and lament when he heard of their affliction. We remuber that the Oriental is of We remise a step further in his in-there and uses argument. He has referred to God's promise and now ideads that the Jews are included in referred to God's promise and now from Him. Such godly grief brought vie itations of God's help. Nehe prayer was reverent, persistent, pleads that the Jews are included in that promise. Whom Thou hast re-deemed The redeniption, here spoken tent, scriptural, definite and confident of, looks back, beyond the recent re-storation from Babylon, to the original deliverance from Egypt, which sealed forevor the relation between Jehovah and His people.—Cam. Bible. Nehemiah pleads this relation and the great care the Lord had exercised for the mation. 11. Thy servant.—Nehemiah. Grant him mercy.—Ha pravad that he might have mercy - He prayed that he might have favor in the sight of the king. "Sche-minh had decided that to remove the reproach of Jerusalem he must go there in person; that to do so he must obtain the king's permission; to get his per-mission he must be in special favor with him."--Rawlinson. The king's eupbearer -As the term indicates, he had charge of the wines used by the king. This was "Covenant" an important office, and one in which er. Coventant and mercy. "Covenant" refers to God's definite promises. "Mer-cy" refers to his loving character, which gives more than is pledged.—Hurlbut, 6. Let thine ear now be attentive. Nehemiah approached the Lord as a niged with the king's drink. The arer often became the king d counsellor. Nehemiah was high the king's asted counsellor. Nehemiah was high-esteened by the hing. Questions. How long after Ears's ourney to Jerusalem was this lesson? Where did Nehemiah live? How did he Where did Nehemiah live? How did he learn of the affairs in Jerusalem? How was he affected? Why was he thus affected? What was the condition of those in Jerusalem? How did Nehemiah pray for his people? What office did he hold? Who was the king at this time? How was Nehemiah's position an advantage to him? In what way is Nehemiah as example for us? PRACTICAL SURVEY. Topic.—Piety and patriotism.

Topic.—Piety and patriotism. I. Distinguished Nehemiah in Babylon. II. Moved Nehemiah to prevailing prayer. 1. Distinguished Nehemiah in Baby-and Support Statesman, and tarth of the stomach and small intes-tines for a favorite, but to him such honors did not have as much weight as the rela-tion he sustained to the Jews in Jernumber of years I went to a number of doctors and got no relief, and finally doctors sent me to Chi-me to Chi-carco, and I but gave him opportunity for manifest-ing it, and at the same time to help his brethren. Neither distance nor place met the same fate. They nor dignity of station could alienate his affections for them. Nehemiah was true to his nation and loyal to his God. He sald they could do noth.

took upon himself the burden of his countrymen, but gave him opportunity for manifesting it, and at the same time to help his brethren. Neither distance alienate his affections for them. Ne-bemiah was tute to his nation and loy-al to his God. He took upon himself the burden of his country's wors. He recog uized a divine sovereignty in human af fairs. He was prepared to make sacri-fairs. He was prepared to make sacri-fice in the cause of patriotism. In Ne-hemiah piety and patriotism were blend-ed and intertwined. His case proves that God never places men in situations God never places men in situations where it is impossible for them to love and obey him. At the proper time he brings them into contact with their lifework. In Nehemiah is set forth the pow or of one man to do great things for God when God is with him. All true service for the world nust begin with close communion with God. He has his servants in all conditions of life, and through them he is made known to the world. Nehemiah's fidelity to his convictions commanded respect apart from the merit of the convictions themselves. Every detail in a good man's life is a part of the divine plan. II.Moved Nehemiah to prevailing prayer. Nehemiah first sought to gain accurate information from a reliable source, both as to the need that existed and the nature, of the work that had to be done. To him sympathetic contemplation of surrounding sorrows was a duty. Ilis way of helping men was in sharing their burdens. So deeply moved was he that he put himself on a level with his brethren and then im plored God's mercy. Nehemiah was bur-dened heart found relief in prayer. It was no trifle, no imaginary sorrow that brought tears from his eyes. He did not restrict prayer to spiritual needs only He embraced the affairs of every-day life and all lawful undertakings, great and small. Nehemiah counted prayer a practical reliance in achieving results. Ilis best way to succeed in any enterprise with men was to comme them to God. His brethren in Jerusalem were more needy than ever and was not indifferent to their condition All personal ambition was lost sight of in his desire for their good. Nehemiah associated national disaster with sin. He pleaded God's former mercies to his people. Fasting joined with supplica-tion expressed his sorrow for sin. sym-pathy with his afflicted brethren, distress to see the cause of God in re-proach and earnestness in seeking help

Nehemiah's

peni

Lamb. 9 00 10 00 SUGAR MARKET.

Sugars are quoted in Toronto, in bags, Do., Redpath's Do., Acadia mperial granulated 5 80 tess.

FRUIT MARKET.

4 50 0 00 f.o.b. cars, in bulk 1 05 Onions, Canadian, bag ... 2 00 Onions, Spanish, lg. case... 3 50 Oranges, Jamaicas...... 2 75 1 05 1 10 0 00 3 75 3 Grapes, Tokay, 25-lb. boxes 2 00 2 25 Grapes, Malaga..... 5 00 4 50 Parsnips, per bag.. 0 10

GRAIN MARKET.

Ontario wheat -- No. 2 white ,red or mixed, 87 to 88c, in car lots, outside. Manitoba wheat -- No. 1 northern, $1.05; No. 2 northern, 1.02 1-2; No. 3 northern, 98 1-2, track, bay ports. Manitoba feed wheat, 73c.

Canadian western oats-No. 2, 45 1-2e; No. 3, 44e, track, bay ports. Ontario oats-No. 2 white, 44c, on car will make double the gain on the same grain for the first three months of the at country points and 47c on track, To ronto? pasture season, as compared with the late months of the feeding period. I'his Corn-American No. 2, yellow, 78c, c important factor, as well as the influ-all rail. December shipment, track, To-Peas-No. 2, $1.05 to $1.10, car lots, outside.

Buckwheat-No. 2, 60c, outside.

Rye-No. 2, 89 to 90c, outside, Barley-88 to 90c, outside, for malt ng. and 70 to 75c for feed. the results of five years' experiments in fattening cattle of various ages on blue grass pasture. This extensive investi-Millfeed-Manitoba bran, $23, in bags, Toronto; shorts, $25; Ontario bran, nominal, at $24, in bags; shorts, nomtion involved the feeding of 263 cattle divided into 36 distinct experiments and is the largest and most complete uves nal. at $26. tigation of this subject which has even inal, at $26. Manitoba flour—First patents, $5.50; second patents, $5: strong bakers, $4.80. Ontario flour—Winter flour, 90 per cent, patents, $5.50 to $5.60. Montreal freight for export, and $3.75 for home onsumption board at 137-8c.

OTHER MARKETS.

CHEESE MARKETS.

$5.50:

erns, nominal.

$3.50 to $4.

Wheat-

May, old

to $3.65.

May, new 98 Oata

Nov. . . 403's

Nov.

Brockville-At to-day's Cheese Board the offerings were: 1,085 colored, and 300 white. The sales were 35 colored at 300 white. The sales we 13 3-8c, balance refused. Soard this afternoon 120 boxes of color-weight of the output would have been Board this afternoon 120 boxes of colored and 76 of white were boarded. Sales three times as great and the value $75, were made at 135-Se. Winchester—At the last meeting of the Cheese Board held here for this sea-delicious food product to the nation, delicious food product to the nation, delicious food product to the nation, milk and eggs.

New York-Beeves-Receipts 1,735

head: nothing doing: fceling firm. Calves- Receipts 500; market fully steady. Veals, $6 to $7; culls. $4.50 to

Shep and lambs--Receipts 7,500. Sheep few smalel lots at higher prices; culis,

Hogs-Receipts 3.000. About steady at $6.40 to $6.60.

WINNIPEG GRAIN MARKET.

BUFFALO LIVE STOCK.

East Buffalo-Cattle-Receipts, 200 head; market, dull and steady. Prime steers, $7.30 to $7.75; butcher grades,

Calves-Receipts, 150 head; market, active, steady; cull to choice, $6 to Sheep and lambs-Receipts 16,000 head. Market slow. 10 to 20e lower. Choice Market slow, 10 to 20e lower. Choice lambs, $5.50 to $5.60; cull to fair, $4.25

to $5.25; yearlings, $3.75 to $4; sheep, $2

Hogs-Receipts, 5,100: market. active,

5c to 10c higher. Yorkers, $6.50 to $6.70: stags, $5 to $5.25: pigs, $6 to $6.10: mixed, $6.70 to $6.75: heavy,

LIVERPOOL PRODUCE.

Liverpool despatch: Closing-Wheat, Snot steady. No. 2. Manitoba, 78 8 1-2; No. 3. 78 6 1-2d; Futures, October, firm, Dec. 78 1 5-5 a; March 78 2d; May, 78 1 1-8 Flour-Winter patents 278 6d; Hogs-In London (Pacific Coast) fill to, e19

$6.80 to $6.85; roughs, $5.50 to $6,

Close, Open. High. Low. Close,

....

....

403/

39%

421/

steady; lamba, 35c lower. Sheep, $2 to $3.50; culls, $1.50; lamba, $4.50 to $5.60; barnyard calves, $3 to $4; west-the Cheese Board held here for this sea-son to-night 250 colored and 305 white but as they made it they treated it an-

Columbia, Mo.

CHICAGO LIVE STOCK.

Chicago despatch: Cattle -- Estimated receipts, 10,000; market, dull, 10 to 25e lower; beeves, $4.50 to $0.10; Texas steers, $4 to $5.90; western steers, $4.30

Hogs- Estimated receipts, 29,000; market, steady to a shade higher; light, $5.90 to $6.55; mixed, $6.10 to $6.65;

heavy, $6.10 to $6.67 1/2; roughs, $6.10 to $6.30; good to choice heavy, $6.30 to $6.67 1/2; pigs, $4.25 to $5.90; bulk of sates

Sheep--Receipts estimated at 28,000;

market, steady to 10e lower; native $2.50 to $3.75; western, $2.55 to $3.70;

yearlings, $3.75 to $4.70; lambs, native

GARDEN

FARM NEWS.

Cattle fattened on plue grass pactures been made in this country. The bulletin will be sent on request by writing to the Director of the Experiment Station,

Three hundred billion bees, according to one expert apiarian, made enough honey last year to fill a train of cars

$8.75 to $5.85; western, $3.75 to $5.76.

at $6.35 to $6.80.

said it is due to the destruction of quai in Illinois that the potato bug is be-coming such a pest; that quail on the table is worth a few cents, but that quail on the farm is worth many dol-lars; that every hawk and owi is worth on an average $30 to the State; that one "flicker" can eat 5,000 ants at a single meal; that the kingfisher is the most powerful defender of the poultry yard in existence. to $7.30; stockers and feeders, $2.90 to $5.75; cows and heifers, $1.90 to $5.75; calves, $5.50 to $8.25.

In a study of the root system, of wheat, made at the Langdon N. ().) sub-station, it was found that the roots went to a depth of four feet four inches, while the grain was only 24 inches high. About 75 per cent. of the roots were at a depth of over two feet.

tillers of the soil, earth worms stitute a great army. It is estimatthat there are 54,000 worms in each cre of garden ground, and about half that number in cornfnelds. Nine bur-rows or worm holes are usually found in two square feet of garden son. It is further computed that in all cultivated lands in which worms are able to live no less than ten tons of earth are brought to the surface in each acre by the worms each year. Worm burrows are frequently found extending for five or six feet down below the rurface.

TEN COMMANDMENTS FOR HEALTH (Farmer's Advocate.)

It is from the Jeanes fund, established for the general benefit of the colored people, and with the aid of the l'ublic Health Service, that a new table of ten commandments for health in country lite has been issued, intended first for southfor whom it may concern, of whatever race or color. They are boiled down from a more technical, longer draft and are as follows:

ence of age, nitrogeneous supplements and the margin of profit are discussed in Bullerm 90 of the Missouri Experi-First-Have sand spittoons. Spitting ment Station. This bulletin was writ-ten by Dean F. B. Munford and records on floors spreads consumption and other discases.

Second-Use outhouses with tub or box under seat, which must be emptied box inder seat, which must be empirical at least once a week. Pour oil in the tub to keep insects away. Third—Haul away stable manure at least once a week, and let no netuse or stagnant water collect round the 1156

Fourth-Be careful to protect from flies, for flies carry several forms from flies, for flies carry several forms of disease. Sixth-Use only pure drinking water, and if it is uncertain whether the water is pure, bail it before drinking.

Seventh-Have plenty of fresh air in the room day and night. Avoid smoky long enough to reach from New York to Buffalo. At the low wholesale rate of 1 lemps.

cents a pound it was worth $25,000,000, and if the 700,000 beekeepers of the Eighth-Keep away from whiskey and all alcoholic drinks, including all patent industriously edicines.

Ninth-Wash frequently, and be very careful to have your fingers clean when cooking or handling food.

$3 00

3 25

0 00

25

an excitable disposition, and quickly af-fected by joy or sorrow; but the lan-guage here indicates that Nehemiah's sadness was not a mere passing emo-tion, but continued for days and months and ted to self denial and prolonged ac-tivity. Fasted and prayed. Nehemiah has set the world an example of prayer in times of diatrices. He fasted and prayed until the course of duty be-came clear. "As the mourning, so the earnestness of his faith." God of heav-This phrase, which becomes promin-in the later books of the Old Testamentment, was a usual title of the Supreme Being among the Persians. --Ills. Notes.

Beseech. A word denoting intensity of supplication. Lord of heaven. "Jehova, the God of Heaven."-R. V. "Jenova, the God of Heaven. "Jevoah" denotes the self-existing One: "Jevoah" denotes the self-existing One: "God," the invisible One. Great and ter-rible. Expresses his greatness and pow-

Gillette

SAFETY

312

RAZOR

No Strepping-No Honing

Triple silver plated, with 2 blade boxes, and 12 double-edged blades in neat case.

Standard Set, $5.00

Pecket Editions, $5.00 to $6,00

The great test of self-sacrifice was see The work of any real value is done by those whose hearts have been touched with the feelings of the miseries which they set themselves to cur. When Nehemiah had laid the cause of his people before the Lord and pleaded his promis-es in their behalf, he could confidently ask that the king might be inclined to favor his plan of going to Jerusalem. The people there needed a revival. They needed to fortify their city against intruders. It was necessary that some one should lead them. Nehemiah was ready to sacrifice case, wealth and promin-ence in the king's palace, that he might bring his people into better circum-T. R. A. stances. LADY TEACHER

> Committed for Trial for Punishing Child.

Brockville Despatch—A case that attracted some attention came betore Police Magistrate Deacon here to-day, heing a charge against Miss Nora Mc-Crea, now of Merrickville, of assaulting with grievous bodily harm Helen Mc-Coubrie, a nine-year-old pupil of a school near Frankville, of which she was until recently a torcher. In administer , $3 to $7. until recently a teacher. In administer-ing punishment it is alleged that Miss Metrea used a ruler on the bead of the Met rea used a ruler on the head of the child, inflicting injuries which produced brain tever. The whipping was repeated when the pupil returned to school after making complaint to her father, who accepted $500 from the teacher to withdraw criminal prosecution. Being a child placed by the Brockville (Children's Aid Society, the officers summoned Miss Mo(rea to court, and on the evidence submitted the magistrate committed her for trial. The defendant was admitted to bail in the sum of $400. The offences were committed on the 19th and 23rd of October last ,and the McCoubrie shild a still suffering from the effects of the assaults.

Hogs-In London (Pacific Coast) fil to, 11 to, 12 to the second 6d Lard-Prime Western in theres, 47s; American refined in nails, 48s 3d. Cheese-tanofian finest white, 70s; do. colored its 3d. It is extremely difficult for a man to be happily married unless he is a good listener.

were registered. Nearly all sold on the tiseptically with formic acid, thus pre venting impurities or decay. NEW YORK LIVE STOCK.

country had worked as

J. P. Gilbert, of the University of LHinois, said in a reecut lecture on "Birds of the Farm and City" that the hunters of the birds who did not realize the press, which left St. Louis at 1.45 o'clock value value of birds to farm products this morning, ran into an open switch made possible an annual loss from farm one mile west of Breeze, 111., about insects to crops and forests of the Unit-thirty miles from this city. The mail ed States of $700,000,000. Mr. Gilbert car was destroyed by fire.

FIVE PERSONS HURT.

St. Louis, Nov. 20.-Five persons were reported to have been injured when eastbound Baltimore & Ohio passenger

In the New Home

You want the best when starting in the new home. Above all, you want that home to be snug and warm and comfortable.

You are sure of warmth and comfort with a Perfection Smokeless Oil Heater.

The Perfection is the best and most reliable heater made. It is a sort of portable fireplace.

It is ready night and day. Just strike a match and light the wick. The Perfection is all aglow in a minute.

The Perfection Oil Heater does not smell nor smoke-a patent automatic device prevents that. It can be carried easily from room to room and is equally suitable for any room in the house. Handsomely finished, with nickel trimmings; drums of either turquoise-blue ename or plain steel.

Ask your dealer to show you a Perfection nokelessOil Heater, or write for descriptive cular direct to any agency of requires no stropping nor honing, it's always ready and it can be adjusted to suit the face of any man who shaves. The toughest beard and tenderest face each receives a perfect shave.

The Queen City Oil Company, Limited

Got into the Gillette class and save time trouble and money.

Shave with this Razor

ogressive Men Everywhere

THE Gillette beats every other shaving device economical, it snaves clean and easily, in

in a lot of ways-it's sale, it's quick, it

Ask your dealer to show you the Gillette. If he has neither the goods nor our catalogue, write us. We will see that you are supplied. Gillette Safety Razor Co. of Canada, Limited

Office and Factory-63 St. Alexander St., Montreal

THERE REPORTED AND AND AND THE ATHENS REPORTER, NOV. 22, 1911.

Sybil's Doom xxx 3

coat sleeve. "You know I do," in a reed-like whisper. "Then be my wife. Instead of going to France to-morrow, come with me to Scotland."

"You yeally mean it, Cyril ?" "I shall blow my brains out if you don't! Say you will come, Rose. I love you madly. I can't let you go. Say you will come!" "To Scotland? But a Scotch marriage is no marriage; and, besides, you are a minor, and can not legally contract a

"In Heaven's name! how many objec-"In Heaven's name! how many objec-tions will you raise, Rose?" the young man cried, flusbed and impetuous. "If the Scotch marriage does not suit you, we can easily be remarried upon our return to Engined, and as for being return to England; and, as for being a minor, there will be no one to dispute the legality of our union. Not my father-he never refused me anything He is not likely to begin now." h, Cyril! But this is not like any

"Oh, Cyril! thing else. Men have disinherited only sons for less." "My father father will not. And, besides, he can not. Monkswood Priory is en-tailed—comes to me, with its fertile acres, if I were disinherited to-morrow. will listen to more objections. Rose You must say yes-you must be my wife! I love you madly! I can not live without you. My beautiful Rose, look up, and eay, 'Cyril, I love you, and I will go with you to-morrow!'"

He bent over her, his handsome face flushed, hot, red. his eyes glowing, alight with wine and love and excitement. She raised her dainty, drooping head at his bidding, and looked him full in the force a glittering brightness in her large dark cyts. "I love you, Cyril," she repeated. "and

I will go with you to-morrow. Earth holds no dearer let for me than to be your wife. But if you repent later, remember, I have warned ycu." "I will never repent!" he cried, with a lover's rapturous kies. "Our honey-moon will last until our heads are gray. In all broad England there is not an such happy man as Cyril Trevan iop

She turned away her head to conceal smile-a smile strangely akin to derision. It was gone like a flash.

"And now I must turn you out," she said " "I have much to do between this and day-dawn. Whether one goes to France or Gretna Green, one must pack up. It is shockingly late besides. Mrs. Grundy will be horrified. For pity's sake, go at once!'

Sh pushed him playfully to the door. The black October night was blacker and chillier than ever, and the bleak, whe wind blew damply in their faces. Mies Adair shivered audibly. "I don't envy you your drive back," she said; "and the rain will overtake you if you don't hurry. We are likely she you if you don't hurry. We are likely to run away in a deluge to-morrow." "Blissful to-morrow!" exclaimed Cyril Trevanion. "Come rain and lightning and temptest, so that they bring me you, I shall thank them. For the last time. good-bye and good-night."

A love-like embrace; then the young A love-like embrace; then the young man sprunk lightly into his night-cab and whirled away. Rose Adair stood in the deor-way until he disappeared, de-spite the raw blowing of the chill morn-ing wind. In the darkness her pretty ing wind. In the darkness her pretty face wore a triumphant glow. "I have conquered!" she said, under

"I will be Cyril Trevanion's breath wife, as I knew from the first I would. Poor fool! And he thinks I care for him-a stupid boy of nineteen! The old life may go now. Mrs. Cyril Trevan-ion, of Monkswood Hall, may look up-

"Never without your promise. Rose. Rose, I thought you loved me?" The pretty face drooped against his hand an open letter from his only his hand an open letter from his only son, Cyril. The letter told him of that only son's marriage—dwelling with lover-like rap-ture on his bride's peerless heauty, her transcendent sweetness and charms. It old him that she was the loveliest, the most innocent, the purest, the gentless of her sex; but it also told him the and son. The young man was the first to speak. "You have received my letter, sir?" he said, very calmly. "I have received it. Here it is." He crumpled it up as he spoke, and flung it straight in the fire. One br:ght flash of flame—then it was gone. Cyril Trevanion turned a shade paler than hefore. but the hold unvicible and son.

than before; but the bold, mvincible look on his face was very like that on lovely-half so sweet as she! Even the crime of being an actress will be forget ten and forgiven then."

"I will never see your wife!" General

Trevanion answered, the fierce rage

within him only showing in the worki

of his fiery nostrils, the flashing of his stormy eyes. "I will never see your wife, never see you! I disown you-you are no longer a son of mine! For four hundred years you are the first of our race who ever made a mesaillance who mixed the pure blood with the filthy puddle in an actress' veins. No son and house, and still remain my son. 1 will never speak to you. I will never see you, though I were on my death-bed

I will never forgive you! -In the hour you cross yonder threshold, through you cross yonder threshold, through which women, with royal blood in their

be felled-the game hunted down find a barren waste and four gaunt walls to call your home-nothing more. I have said all I have to say-1 will never forgive you! Sybil Lennox shall be my heiress-for-you-1 never want to hear of you, dead or alive. Go!" Cyril Trevanion had spoken but twice since his entrance into the room. Now, to come. His hand was on th

"Cyril! Cyril! Cyril!" a perfect cream of childish ecstasy; "oh! Cousin

"Sybil!" the young man said, catch-

"Mamma is here, and baby Charley-

"My dear little Sybil," Cyril said, with

Cyril!'

ne shall bring disgrace on his name

General Trevanion's own.

most innocent, the purest, the gentlest of her sex; but it also told him the awful fact that there was no withhold-ing-that she was an actress. "Beautiful and pure as an angel from heaven!" the old man quoted from the letter, with a bitter sneer-"this spotless danseuse, this artless cherub from the boards of a third-rate London theatre! It used to be our London theatre! It used to be our boast that the Trevanion blood never bred foils or cowards. It has bred both in my son Cyril. Sont From this hour he is no longer a son of mine. Yet he is not quite a coward, either, or he would hardly dare to face me here." For the open letter told him that the writer was coming to "You are deeply displeased, sir," he said, still very quietly; "I expected as much. But wait until you see my wife --my Rose. Earth holds nothing half so writer was coming to

"Beard the lion in his den; The Douglas in his hall."

And that, within a very few hours af ter its receipt, General Trevanion might look for a penitential visit from his heir

"I will now fetch Rose with me, father," the young man wrote. "I know what a crime a low marriage is in your eyes. I know how you will revolt at first from the idea of an actress. But only wait until you see her, my father, in her exquisite beauty and youth, and grace and artlessness, and you will love her almost as dearly as I do."

her almost as dearly as I do." The old lion read this passage aloud again, and laughed outright in the bit-ter intensity of his scorn. "Fool! idout! driveler!" he cried, with passionate contempt, his fierer black eyes ablaze "I could curse the hour in which his mother gave birth to so be-softed an imbecile! What judgment has fullen on the Trevanions, that the last of their norms of the invadest and hearts, have stepped as brides-in the demi-monde-your seraph of the canaille -you are as dead to me as though the --you are as dead to me as shough the coffin hid had closed above you and they had had you in the family vault. If I slew you where you stood, your low-lived blood would hardly wash out their name-one of the proudest and noblest that ever old England boastedshould render himself an object of derithe stain of your disgravel?" He stopped; but the lightning of his sion to gods and men? The last of his race, did I say? Nay, Sybil is that-and by the eternal Heaven! Sybil shall fiery old eyes spoke more eloquently than words. He stopped, for the effort inherit every shilling I possess, every acre I command. The angelic actress to hold his passion in rein and speak steadily almost suffocated him. from Drury Lane may soar back to the celestial regions she hails from, with Cyril, drawn up to his full height, his the idiotic spooney of ninetcen she has duped into marrying her, for all she will ever reign at Trevanion. Sybil Lemox shall be my heiress, and he shall not inherit the price of a rope to hang his ing not. self!

He dashed the letter fiercely aside, and started up, pacing up and down. The grand old face was stormy with rage; the fiery dark eyes, that never lowered their light to friend or foe, flashing with impotent passion. Rage, grief, shame, all distorted the massive countenance and the singury bade countenance, and the sinewy hands elinched until the nails bled the palms.

"And he dare come here! he dare face me! I don't know what shall keep me The strode up and down the a dog!" / He strode up and down the magnifi-cent length of the library, quite alone in his impotent storms of fury. A spa-cious and splendid apartment, the wainscot lined with books from floor to ceiling, busts of grand old Greek poets gaz-ing serenely down on the lore of ages, and over the marble chimney-piece clock, with Amphytrite guiding a group f fiery sea-horses, in bronze.

In the deep fireplace where, for four hundred years, the blaze of Yule had risen high at Christmas-time, a sea-coal fire burned now, its red glow flashing fitfully on the dark paneling and wainsecting, on busts and pictures, books nzes, quaint old a r.a

he will see how a Trevanion - 1ys Back Full of Aches ng. The library door was flung wile as the thought crossed his mind. "Master Cyril, sir," announced the old, gray-bair-cd buller, and noiselessly withdrew. Gen-eral Trevanion stopped short in his walk, swung round and faced his son. The young man had advanced eagerly, lut with the first look at his father's face, he halted besitated stonmed and Headaches and Depression Much of Women's Suffering is Need-less and Can be Prevented by the Use of Dr. Hamilton's Pills. face, he halted, hesitated, stopped. and came to a standstill by the fire. The old lion stood—s large writing-table between them—drawn up to his of block batcht bis head thrown back falle between them—drawn up to his full kingly height, his head thrown back, his proua nostrils dilated, his dark eyes flashing. Cyril Trevanion, very pale, but altogether dauntless, encountered that look unflinchingly. So they met—father

3 Ways to Cook ROUND STEAK

MOCK PORTERHOUSE STEAK-Put one pound of round steak through the neat-hopper, and add a level teaspoonful of salt, a dash of pepper and two tablespoonfuls of water. Mix thoroughly and form into a cake the shape of a sirloin r porterhouse steak. Put an iron pan on the stove and grease it. and when ot put in the steak. Cook the steak or a moment on one side, turn it with a cake-turner and sear the other, and then push it over a moderate fire, or put it in the oven to cook slowly for fifteen minutes, turning once or twice. Transfer it to a second glatter, baste it with a little butter, and send it at once to the table. This may also be served with brown, sweet pepper or omato sauce.

STANLEY STEAK-Make chopped round steak into round cakes and broil or pan them. While they are cooking rubtogether two tablespoonfuls of but-ter and two of flour, add half a pint of milk, and stir until boiling. Add a ablespoonful of dry horseradish, or two became bloated and shaky, was sollow and thin, felt rheumatic pains, dizziness and chills. I unfortunately didn't sustablespoonfuls of horseradish pressed the vinegar, and half a teaspoonrom ful of salt. Pour this mixture in the bottom of the platter, stand the steaks in it, and put half of a baked banana pect my kidneys, and was nearly dead sufferings. I read so much about the wonderful health and strength that on each steak.

comes to all who use Dr. Hamilton's Pills that I felt sure they would help me SALISBURY STEAKS-Season one pound of chopped round steak with a teaspoonful of salt and the juice of half a lemon. Mix and form into round Such blessing of health and comfort l got from Dr. Hamilton's Pills I can't describe. They speedily put me right, and their steady use keeps me cakes half an inch thick. Broil or cook in a dry pan for eight minutes. Transfer to a heated plate, and paste with a active, energetic, strong and happy. I strongly urge others to regulate and torie their system with Dr. Hamil-ton's Pills of Mandrake and Butterlittle butter.

MONUMENT TO MME. DE SEVIGNE

A statute of Mme. de Sevigne was un-veiled to-day at Vitre in Brittany not far from where the Les Rochers, where she loved to live and the scenery of Hamilton's Pills for the cure of indi-gection, constipation, flatulence, liver, bladder and kidney trouble. Refuse which she exquisitely described in 25c. per box, or five boxes for $1,00, at all dealers or the Catarrhozone Comletters. M. Paul Deschanel, the Acad-emician, delivered the inaugural address, and the company paid a visit to the Chateau des Rochers, in which the Netumitres family preserves many relics of its famous actress .-- Paris corre pondence London Times.

Dodd's Kidney Pills

Sergent's own words:

SO HE TRIED THEM

a ngat lauga, "what unconscious havoe I have been making with your five-year-old hearts And you really like me so much as this?" "Like you! I love you better than anyhold energy with the source of CURED HIS WIFE anybody-ever so much better than bro-ther Charley. But then Charley's only three years old, and you're a great big man, and wear a lovely uniform, and handsome face stormily set, his dark eyes gleaming-tall, strong, princely-a son for any father's heart to exuit in I like big men.' "And lovely uniforms-highly char acteristic of the sex! But it is grow Leon Sergect found new health in -stood like a rock, listening and replying dark, my fairy princess, and if I am to catch the seven-fifty train back to London, it is high time I was on the

"I have let you come here," his father went on, "because from my own lips 1 would have you hear your fate. Take move. The fly from the railway is wait-ing for me just outside the gates." "Going back? Oh. Cyril!" your strolling player, your painted bal-let dancer, and go forth to beggary, if pany, Kingston, Ont.

nut.

And

"I must, my pet," the lieutenant said, smiling a little sadly at that reproach-ful cry. "It is Hobson's choice, if you you like, a stiver of my money ou emiling a little sadly at that reproach-will never see agan. Trevanion Park ful ery. "It is Hobson's choice, if you and all I possess—your mother's for know what that is. Say good-bye for me will, and not one farthing will you ever [kiss me yourself." command, though you were dying of hun-ger at my gates. Monkswood is en-tailed-Monkswood must descend to

"Ill go with you to the gates. Yes I will?" impetuously, as she saw her companion about to object. "Wait until I get my cloak; I won't be a minute." She darted afway like a minit you; but even there you will feel the weight of my vengeance. I will lay-it I get my cloak; I wont be a minute. She darted afway like a spirit— a little, slender thing, all in white, with bright brown ringlets down to her slen-der waist, and great wide eyes of lumwaster than a warren-the timber shall bke vermin-the house left to ruin and de-Bous blackness. Gone and back like a flash, cay. When you and your wife come here at the old man's death, you will

It is statements such as these that give Dodd's Kidney Pills their popu-larity. They are no cure-all. They sim-ply cure discussed Kidneys and the ills that come from discased Kidneys. But no matter what neighborhood you visit this time with a little cloak of scarlet cloth the hood drawn over the brown curls, and the bright, pretty face peeping out you find some man or woman who has rosily from te hood. "Little Red Riding-Hood," the young been sick and in pain and has been cur-ed by Dodd's Kidney Pills. For a score of years this work has been going on and to-day in every' part of Canada Dodd's Kidney Pills are known as the on, my fairy. Very polite of you, I must say, to escort me so far. Are you in the habit of seeing your gentlemen one sure cure for Kidney Disease, Ur-

Miss

THE SHADOW OF POOR HEALTH

Dispelled Through the Use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills

When the shadow of poor health falls on your life, when hope begins to fade and friends look serious, then is the time you should remember that thousands just as hopeless have been cured and restored to the sunshine of health by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. There wills actually wake now inthe block nearth by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Tore pills actually make new, rich blord, which brings a glow of health to amac-nic cheeks, cures indigestion, head-aches and backaches, drives out the stinging pains of rheumatism and of neuralgia, strengthens the nerves and relieves as no other medicine can do folk suffer from. In any emergency of poor health give Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a fair trial, and they will not disappoint you. Here is a case that will appoint you. Here is a case that will bring hope to many a weary sufferer. Mrs. F. K. Sanders, St. Thomas, Ont., says: "About four years ago I took a severe cold which I neglected, think-ing that I would soon be all right again. But instead I found myself in a weak and run-down condition. I seem-ed to have no ambition to de anything and my heart and nerves became ao had and my heart and nerves became so bad I was forced to bed. The doctor who was called in said the trouble was chronic anaemia, but in spite of his skilled st tendance I was unable to sit up and eat, but had to be fed with a spoon.

One day a visiting friend suggested my trying Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and I sent for a half dozen boxes. In a short while I began to eat better and feel bet-ter, and by the time the pills were used I felt altogether different; my beart did not bother me, my lips and cheeks regained their natural clor, and everybody who saw me remarked on how well I was once more looking. Wishing to be on the safe side I took two more boyes of the safe side I took two more block of the pills, which made a complete cure. as I have had neither ache nor pan since, and I now weigh 146 pounds. I al-ways recommend Dr. Williams' Pink ways recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and I hope that this letter may in the means of suggesting relief to many of of my sisters who suffer as I did." Sold by all medicine dealers, or sent by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes, for $2.50 by The Dr. Medicine Go., Brockville, Ont. Dr. Williams

WALKING STICK HANDLES.

Some of the Things That the Handles May Contain.

The ingenuity of the Frenchman has not been confined to the making of weapons out of apparently harmiess canes. In fact there is quite a variety of uses which the cane is made

One of the canes is fitted with a coin Suffered With His Kidneys and Was Very Feeble, But Now He is Feeling Fine. box and a match box, these being con-tained in the head, which is provided with a carefully concealed lid. The coin box is arranged to permit of depositing and easily removing the coin by a slight pressure of the thumb, thus obviating the necessity of fishing for coins in the Saint Walburg, Sask., Nov. 20. --(Special.).-One healthy, happy family in this neighborhood are always ready to speak a good word for Dodd's Kid-ney Pills. They are Mr. and Mrs. Leon Sergent, and here is the reason in Mr. the necessity of fishing for coins in the

Another cane handle shows a complete outfit of the game known as Petits Chevaux. When the lid is open "I suffered with my Kidneys and I was very feeble. My urine was thick and had a brick-dust sediment. As Dodd's Kidney Pills had already cured my wife I bought three boxes. Now my urine is normal and I feel fine." It is statements such as these that betting can begin and the horse crossing the wire first wins the stakes. One of the latest Parisian novelties consists in a ladies' parasol handle containing a roulette wheel, which can be used for gambling at any place or moment. These handles have become very popu-lar. They are of fine workmanship and generally of gold or silver. One handle contains almost everything that one would be likely to need. A long sheet of paper is wound around the rod, from which pieces may be torn off for taking notes. When the lid is the rod, from which pieces may be torn off for taking notes. When the lid is opened penknife, pencil. nail file, combs and looking glass are disclosed. These objects are small, but large enough for practical use.—Scientific American.

Sure Indication of Kidney Trouble. Mrs. Anna Rodriguez writes as fol-ows from her home in Valencia: "For a long time I suffered with failing strength and nagging headaches. My ondition grew steadily worse, my limber

when I discovered the true cause of my

No greater medicine exists than Dr.

bladder and kiducy trouble. Refuse substitutes for Dr. Hamilton's Pills

a light laugh, "what unconscious havon

on the nast as a horrible dream, ove and gone!"

On the close of the third lay a post-chaise rattled up to the door of an Aberdeen hotel, and Lieutenant Trevanion handed out his dav bride. The "Sootch mist" hung clammy over everything, the sky was of lead, the coming night was bleak and drear; but the face of the young officer was brighter than a sunset sky. Was he not a bridegroom of four-and-twenty hours standing, and was not this radiant little beauty beside him his bride?

"They will show you to your room my darling," he said. "I will join you join you presently. Here is your travelling-bag. It might hold the crown diamonds by its weight and the care you take of it. The servant will take it."

he servant will take it." "I will take it myself." She turned her back abruptly upon im him as he spoke, and followed the ervant upstairs. She dismissed the roman the moment she entered the him him as Vonian and turned the key in the door. The boxes had been sent up. She knelt down at once before one of them and "I will concert it here," she said. "I will concert it here," she said. in any case; but it is safer here.

She unfastened her travelling bag and drew forth the contents, whose weight and her solicitude about it had puzzled Lieutenant Trevanion. It contained but one thing a brightly burgicher but one thing--a brightly burnished copper box, securely locked and clasped. The box, securely locked and clasped. The little bride thrust this box out of sight

"Safe binds can be a state of the box out of sight "Safe bind, safe find." While you are secure I am secure. I don't think Cyril Trevanion will ever find me out. The day that brings you to light sees the last of Rose Trevanion. Rose Trevanion; A new name, a new alias! How means A new name, a new alias! How many have borne! Rose Lemoine, Rose Daw son, Rose Adair; and now-last, bright est and best-high-sounding Trevanion! What will be the next, I wonder, and which among them all will they carve on my tombstone?"

CHAPTER III. "And it all ends here! My ambition areams, my boundless pride, my grand aspirations for him-it all ends here! In the hour when I loved him dearest, I would sooner have slain him with my own hands than lived to see him fall so low!"

He was an old man, yet grandly crect in his sixtieth year; straight as a Nor-way pine, broad-shouldered, deep-chest.

ese cabinets, and vases as high as your command, he turned without a word. He knew his father-not fiercer at the tak ing of Douro or Talavera-not

The library was lighted by one vast Tudor window, with cushioned seats-a deadly at the grand charge of Waterloo vindow that was a study in itself, and -had that elarion voice which overlooked a wide vista of velvet lawn, cool depths of fragrant fern and his father, and he knew underwood, and waving belts of beech

A grand oid place is this Monkewood Hall-a monastery once in the Hall-a monastery once in the days long gone when there had been monks and monasteries all over England, before the Bluebeard and Royal Royal Bluebeard and his red-haired daughter came to banish and burn and behead. And under the leafy arcades of its primeval forest, of its majestic oaks, and towering elm and copper beech, the ghostly prior who had ruled there last, walked still, somebre and awful, with cowl and gown, in the stormy moonlight and still, black dead of night. And some ghostly curse had fallen on the usurping race of the "bold, bad Trevanions"; for the legend ran, that for many a night death of the head of the before the house, a solemn bell tolled in those ed in before the walls of Antioch in the Urusade days long syne. A grand and stately old entrance hall, where the tide windy turrets--an awful beil, that no mortal eye might see, no mortal hands might ring. The Prior's Walk lay open to all-s of wassail, the blaze of yule logs, had surged high many a merry Christmas. Massive doors of oak opened down the length of this interminable hall, and through some of these, standing ajar. woodland aisle-where the elms me above your head-where the inghtingal met sung o' nights, and the sward was as emerald velvet a long avenue of green the young man caught sight of long vis-tas of splendor and color, of glowing heauty and delight, and a short cut to the village. But for all its loveliness and convenience, there were few in all draperies, rich carving, and gleamin fire-light pictures of brightness an Speckhaven who cared to brave the luxury, to dream of strangely in weary ghostly horrors of the Prior's Walk at Tears ughtfall. A grand and stormy old place, loor to depart, when the shrill cry of a turs Monkswood-where the strong Tre child arrested him-a wild ery of and surprise, and the next instant vanions, father and son, had reigne since the days of the seventh Henrylittle fairy figure came flying down the stairs, and plumped headlong into his

of the show-places of the county The short November day was rapidly darkening down, and the mystic depths of fern looked illimitable seen from the arms. stately Tudor window. The clock, above which the fair sea-goddess guided her fierce chargers, pointed to half past four, and as the night drew on the wing astonisher! I thought you had gone for good to Scotland." roured more wildly down the vast stocks of chimneys, along the vast, draughty halls, and around the numberless gable ends.

General Trevanion glanced impatiently we are all come on a visit. But, oh, at the time-piece as the spectral gloam-ing came on apace; his massive face set-tlea slowly into a look of iron grimness Cousin Cyril! I didn't know you coming! Uncle Trevanion never told me. You will stay as long as we and determination. do, won't you? Oh, how tall and handway pine, broad-shouldered, deep-chest-ed, royal browed and bright-eyed, as it was in the nature of the Trevanions to be. He was General Trevanion, of ed almost before the wish was expressed. some you are!" with little gushes of impetuous kissing. "And how glad I am that you are here!"

friends to the entrance gates, Lemox ?

(To be Continued.)

"MRS. JARLEY'S WAXWORKS."

There stood, until some months ago in to the death or to the victory. He knew High Holborn, two doors away from Museum street, and facing the end of Drury Lane, an old building which himself and without one syllable of entreaty or exnostulation or defiance, he looked his last foreevr upon his father's face, and housed what was probabyl the original of Mrs. Jarley's Waxworks. It was once upon a time a popular exhibiton, known as Ferguson's Waxworks, foundwent forth to brave his fate. He left the library, crossed a tesselat-ed pavement of white and black stoneed by that gentieman in 1832 or 1833. In down a sweeping stair-way of slippery oak, black and polished, and wide enough to drive up the proverbial coach-ind-four. The vast baronial hall of the manor, with its gulfs of chimneys, its carved stone chimney-piecce, so lofty, that there must have been giants in the days when they could be used, hung with family portraits by Holbein and Van Dyck—with branching antlers of red deer, suits of mail that strong old war riors of the Trevanion blood had clankknown as Ferguson's Waxworks, found-ed by that gentieman in 1852 or 1853. In its extensive rooms and "promenade," were to be seen the characters King George IIL. An Grimaldt, as clown, Mary Queen ol Scots, and that "Unfortu-nate Maid of Honour in the time of Queen Elizabeth who died from pricking her inger in consequence of working upon a Sunday" (Lady Anne Wilson). All these are enumerated in Mr. Fer-guson's Catalogue (1840), which I have in my collection, the other personages men-tioned in the "Old Curlosity Shop" hav-ing doubless been changed into other celebrities, in accordance with the ami-able custom of waxwork proprietors. An old gentleman, who was for many years connected with the show, told me that their show-woman, Mrs. Jarvis (not Mrs. Harris) was the very "moral" of Mrs. Jarley, and that she told him that doften spoke with her. Ferguson's would often spoke with her. Ferguson's would often shok with her. Ferguson's mouth of Mrs. Harris was a frequent visitor and often stret, and that she told him that the "Sun," or "Mitror of Parkament," or "Morning Chronicle" newspapers, as high road then ran down High Holborn through Broad street, and High street, Biccumsbury, to Oxford street. New Ox-Charles Von Noorden In the November Strand.

MOTHERS PRAISE BABY'S OWN TABLETS

Every mother who has once Haby's Own Tablets readily admits that there is no other medicine to equal them. They are a never failing cure of all stomach and bowel complaints and many a precious little babe owes health end even life itself to their use. .Concerning the Tablets. Mrs. Fred Dove, Broadview, Sask., writes: 'I have used Baby's Own Tablets for my little girl and have found them of such great bene-fit I mend not be without them. 'When fit I would not be without them. They are truly a wonderful remedy for little ones." The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box, from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

The fellow who brags about what he is going to do to-morrow generally keeps quiet about what he did yester day

Dropsy, Diabetes, and Bright's Disease

A BRITISH VETERAN (From the London Standard.)

The cldest soldier in the British army is said to be Samuel Parsons, the King's gunner at Windsor Castle, who to-day celebrated the fifty-second anniversary of his appointment as the Royal Gunner in the Round Tower of Windsor Castle. of his aptointment as the Royal Gunner in the Hound Jower of Windsor Castle. Although enarry 87 years of gae, he is still on the active hist and has drawn hull military pay for sixy-five y-vars. Parsons still retains all his faculties, his signing very good, and enjoys good health. He was born at Morval, rist Loo, Cornwall, m liz5, and at the age of B years joined the Royal Artillery at Devolptor. He was at Quebec with his regiment for six years, and after three years home service was despatched to the Crimeal. After being laid up for a time with fever, Parsons returned to the seat of war the day before the charge of Balaklava, although he di dnot take part in that memorable charge, but was present at the battle of Inkermann. Af-ter the Crimea he went to Woolwich, and was appointed Royal Gunner at Windsor Costle on October 17th, 1850. Pursons possesses six medals, including the Crimean medal, with bars for Sebas-topol, Inkermann and Balaklava; the Turkish medal, the long service medal, Gueen Victoria's Jubilee medal, and King Recree's Coronation medal, and King Reforme the set mes has been at the Royad Twers Parsons has been at the Royad The from the ments at Broya Barbad files from the ments at Broya Barbad files from the ments at Broya Barbad files from the heat a subject the Jubility of the court. IN THE FIRE-HOLE.

IN THE FIRE-HOLE.

The captain's fine in his coat of blue, The mate is big and handsome, too; But of the hundreds in her crew It's the coolies who make her go!

Eight hours off and four hours on, Shovelling coal till the voyage is done Stirring the flame till the race is won Sweat the coolies who make her go!

Not even a name on the ship's pay roll, Only a number to take its toll. Just small mites in the human whole-Naked coolies who make her go!

No hint above of what's below, Kceping alive the fiery glow, Driving the engines fast or slow-Yeliow coolies who make her go!

Tumble 'em up from the hell in the hold, See how they shiver out in the cold. Eyes like a cat, and faces like gold, These, the coolies, who make her go. -Don C. Seitz, in Harper's Weekly.

HER FIRST EXPERIENCE.

(Boston Transcript.) Salesman-These are our best spring mutresses, madam. Mrr. Youngbride-Tut haven't you any white ones?

BE PRUDENT WITH THE WHIP.

When a driver whips a horse, observes an exchange, he usually does so in an-ger or excitement, and does it unwisely ger or excitement, and does it unwisely It is possible to punish a horse prudent-ly and effectively, but that is not crue-ty. Ninety-nine per cent. of the blows which horses receive are uncarned and which horses receive are uncarned and harmful. Many drivers whip a horse immediately after he has ahied from some passing object, like an automobile, which he does not understand, and which fills him with terror. It may be necessary to ply the whip to the fright-ened animal in order to keep him from turning of understand black which fills ened animal in order to keep him from turning and upsetting the "website," or colliding with other objects," and "this bringing disaster, but once the terroriz-ing object has been passed, the whip-ping of the horse for having been fright-ened is simply cruelty, which only serves to infuse greater terror in the animal toward the object, and causes him to be more frightened at the next meeting. --Farmer's Advocate -Farmer's Advocate Croup is Deadly!

It must be stopped quickly. Nothing so sure as Nerviline. Give it internally, and rub it on chest and throat droug and rub it on cless and through Group soon vanishes. No doctor can write a more efficient prescription than Pol-son's Nervilne, which reaches the trou-ble and cures quickly. The marvelous power of Nerviline will surprise you; it's the best household remedy coughs, colds, sore chest, croup and for ternal pain of every kind. Large bot-tles have been sold by all dealers for nearly fifty years at 25c.

RED HAT IS WORN ONLY ONCE.

The red hat which the Pope himself will place on the heads of the new Car dinals is the crown of a prince of the Church. It is chief among the insignia of the office of Cardinal.

It is a small hat with two tassels on the brim. Hanging from the hat on either side are five rows of tassels, each row symbolizing a step in the religious life of the Cardinal; priest, vicar, bia-hop, archbishop, cardinal. The red hat is never worn after the first time and is kept to be placed over the body of the cardinal when he is deceased. The cardinal's beretta is also made of red material. It has three semi-circular mounts on top, with a cord loop in the centre. It is worn on unofficial occonount iòns

New Zealand condenses and powders great quantities of mill-

1

THE ATHENS REPORTER, NOV. 22, 1911

PROMPTING AN AUDIENCE.

English Actors Give a Signal When It's Time to Laugh. "Nothing illustrates the difference between English and American wit more, probably, than the manner in which playwrights write their lines," said Rupert Hughes. "There are few. people who realize the intricacy of the science of writing a 'laugh'-that is, a line capable of producing a laugh from dience

"A man may write one of the funniest lines ever given to the American stage and see it ignored by an audi-ence because of some act on the part of the producing company or one mem-ber of that company. I have seen the wittlest remarks wasted because of the move of a hand or of the head of the comedian or actor who enun it. Then, again, the laugh is taken out of a line by the moving of some per-son in the stage setting or by the moving of some part of the stage set-ting itself. It is funny how the slightest move on the part of an actor, after reciting certain lines, absolutely eliminates the wit from what he has just spoken, so far as the audience is concerned

"This is so of American audiences. but not so of the English theater going public. They will not laugh unless the withcism is finished by a nod of the head or a certain movement of the

"It is on this account that certain comedies, great successes in this coun-try, are absolute failures in Great Britain," he continues. "Something must be done when a 'laugh line' is spoken on the English stage to give the audience an inkling that the witticism has been completed. Then you get your laugh.

"Not so, on the contrary, with Americans. I remember of hearing of an incident involving one of Olga Nethersole's first appearances in this coun-try. Several times during the performance the celebrated actress walked to the sides and exclaimed to the stage manager: 'What's the matter? Are they going to hiss me off? Why, they applaud before they hear the end of the lines.' In each instance she was told that the audience was quicker than the audiences to which she had been accustomed to playing. She was told the Americans grasped the meaning and the wit of her lines when she had spoken only half of them. The actress, although she received all kinds of applause during the performance, seemed disheartened." - Washington Post.

A Wig and a Tragedy. It is just as well that our enthusiasm for oriental curiosities should be tempered by discretion. Eastern antiquities may be picturesque and with all the charm of mystery, but at the same time they may have a history that, if known, would consign them to the stove without benefit of clergy. Here is a story bearing upon the point and with its obvious moral. A young and extremely pretty girl went to a fancy dress ball in Chinese costume. The triumph of her makeup was a real oriental wig, and she wore it proudly. Some time after a strange mark ap-peared on her forehead, and this was treated as a trifling skin affection. But it refused to disappear; in fact, it grew larger, and then the specialist was consulted. It was leprosy.-Argonaut

Color of Lightning. The color of lightning is almost entirely due to the nature of the substance in its track that is made incandescent. The blue, red, purple or silver tints, which are ordinarily much more brilliantly marked in tropical the Man Whe Dared to Disabey His "One Man Whe Dared to Disebay His Imperial Masten" The diary of Fourniss de la Mheutie (born 1780, died in 1908), recently translated into English, has something about Napoleon, that remarkable man who continues to be the most interest-ing figure in European history. Here is one about Napoleon's carelessness in dress and what came of it: In 1510, when Napoleon mat to

NAPOLEON'S TAILOR

In 1810, when Napoleon went to Complegne to receive Marie Louise, his sister, the Princess Borghese said to

"Your clothes are badly cut and do not fit you. You are so obstinate abo not wearing braces-your trousers al-ways look as if they were falling off"-"Well," answered the emperor, "what do you advise me to do about it? Can you recommend another tallor?"

"Have a talk with Constant."

Constant, the emperor's valet, was sent for and named one Leger, who was tailor to Murat, Prince Eugene, Joseph and Jerome Bonaparte. A mes-senger was sent to summon him, and he arrived at Complegne the next day. From that moment he made everything Napoleon wore. He consistently ignored his imperial patron's sugges tions concerning his clothes. For instance, the emperor wished the skirts of his tunics to be turned back, like those of Frederick the Great. -1 should not think of allowing such a thing, sire! You would look absurd. and my reputation would be lost. The eyes of the whole world are upon your majesty, and if you were seen wearing such a uniform as you propose it would be a disadvantage to you, and I should have to bear the blame. I would not make you such a tunic if you offered me the whole of your empire."

ESKIMO SEALERS.

A Battle of Alertness Betwe Hunter and His Prev.

The Eskimo method of hunting seals shows a primitive calling improved to a fine art. When a seal is discovered the direction of the wind is at once noted. Then the hunter, keeping himself to the leeward of the seal, walks up to within about a quarter of a mile of it. Beyond this he begins to crouch and advances only when the seal's head is down.

Now, as the seal is one of the most wideawake of animals and has the habit of throwing up its head quickly every few seconds to guard against danger, it follows that the Eskimo has to be extremely alert if he would get his seal. When the seal's head is down upon the ice its eyes are shut, and it is said that in these brief intervals it takes its sleep.

The hunter by carefully watching the seal's movements is able without much difficulty to get within about 200 yards of it, but at closer quarters he is obliged to employ other tactics. He lies down at full length on the ice.

Then the real sport begins. When the seal's head is down the hunter, who keeps a keen eye on his prey, is able to approach still nearer by dragging himself forward on his elbows. This maneuvering continues for some time until the distance between man and beast has been re-duced to a few yards.

When near enough to make a sure shot the Eskimo takes his bow and arrow from his side and sends a swift shaft through the head of his outwition. Sometimes instead of ted compan the how and arrow a harpoon is used with equal effect.-Harper's Weekly.

The Parents' Joke. Some parents seem unable to resist

~~~~~

Lady Stenographers Wanted 150 Male Stenographers Wanted Business College Teachers Wanted Bank Clerks Wanted 250 35

Total 710 This grand total represents approximately the positions that we will be asked to fill durduring the next school year. Our students soon become graduates and our graduates are immediately introduced to the business public.

OUR NEW YEAR Term opens Jan. 2. 1912. Send for free Catalogue. Special Farmers' Sons' Course $20.

BROCKVILLE - - ONTARIO

Brockville Business College

W. T. ROGERS,-PRINCIPAL

To protect your family from the ravages of disease and infection; and the rigors of winter; to make your home the abode of Health and Happiness.

IT IS UP TO YOU

Statistics tell us that there were over 250,000 deaths in North America last year from fever and pneumonia; over 90 per cent of these cases were traceable to out-door closets, and all the result of insanitary conditions.

Are you going to allow this terrible death rate to continue? Why not insure health by installing a "Parkyte" Sanitary Chemical Closet.

Absolutely sanitary and odorless; carries the endorsement of Physicians and health Officials, and our own iron-clad guarantee. Requires no expensive water system, no plumbing, no sewage. Can be installed in any part of your home at the cost of a few minutes of your spare time. Lasts a life-time and costs less than a cent a day.

"Parkyte" Chemical has been proven by bacteriological test to be the most powerful Disinfectant, Deodorant and Germicide known to Science.

The "Parkyte" Sanitary Chemical Closet is sold by KARLEY & PURCELL, Athens, Ont.

A call there will convince you. No fuother argument will be necessary.

Parker-Whyte, Limited

1203 McArthur Bldg. Winnipeg, Man.

Branches: Toronto, Edmonton, Vancouver.

CASTORIA

The Kind Ycu Have Always Bought, and which has been in use for over SO years, has borne the signature of and has been made under his perhar H. Flitchers. sonal supervision since its infancy. Allow no one to deceive you in this. All Counterfeits, Imitations and "Just-as-good" are but Experiments that trifle with and endanger the health of Infants and Children-Experience against Experiment.

What is CASTORIA

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregeric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is Pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other Narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. It destroys Worms and allays Feverishness. It cures Diarrhœa and Wind Colic. It relieves Teething Troubles, cures Constipation and Flatulency. It assimilates the Food, regulates the Stomach and Bowels, giving healthy and natural sleep. The Children's Panacea-The Mother's Friend.

CENUINE CASTORIA ALWAYS 7 Bears the Signature of

hart Flitcher The Kind You Have Always Bought

In Use For Over 30 Years.

Statements made by patients taking the New Method Treatment. They know it Cures

No Names or Testimonials u

CONSTITUTIONAL BLOOD DISEASE. Patient No. 16474. "The spots are all gone from my legs and arms and I feel good now. I am very grateful to you and shall never forget the favor your medicines have done for me. You can use my name in recommending it to any sufferer. I am going to get mar-ried soon. Thanking you once more,

SAYS TWO MONTHS CURED HIM.

Patient No. 16765. Age 23. Single. Induiged :: immoral halts 4 years. De-posit in urine and drains at night. Varicose Veins on both sides, pains in back, weal. sexually. He writes:--'T received your letter of recent date and in reply I am pleased to say that after taking two months' treatment I would consider myself completely cured, as I have seen no signs of them coming back (one year).

THE WORLD SEEMS DIFFERENT.

Patient No. 15923. "I have not had resultar No. 19923, "I have not had a regular Emission I don't know when and am feeling fine. The world seems altogether different to me and I thank God for directing me to you. You have been an honest doctor with me."

CURES CUARANTEED OR NO PAY

We treat and cure VARICOSE VEINS, NERVOUS DEBILITY, BLOOD AND URINARY COMPLAINTS, KIDNEY AND BLADDER DISEASES and all Diseases CONSULTATION FREE. BOOKS FREE. If unable to call write for a Question Blank for Home Treatment.

NOTICE All letters from Canada must be addressed to our Can-

d without written c VARICOSE VEINS CURED.

VARICOSE VEINS CURED. Case No. 16888. Symptoms, when he started treatment:—Age 21, single, in-dulged in immoral habits several years. Varicose Veins on both sides—pimples treatment he writes as follows:—'Your welcome letter to hand and am very glad to say that I think myself cured. My Varicose Veins have completely dis-appeared for quite a while and it seems a cure. I work harder and feel less tired. I have no desire for that habit have very reason to believe I will, Thanking you for your kind attention.'' etc.

GAINED 14 FOUNDS IN ONE MONTH. Patient No. 13522. This patient (ared 58) had a chronic case of Nervous De-lity and Sexual Weakness and was run down in vigor and vitality. After one month's treatment he reports as fol-lows:—"I am feeling very well. I have gained 14 pounds in one month, so that i will have to congratulate you." Later report:—"I am beginning to feel more like a man. I feel my condition is getting better every week." His last re-port:—"Dear Doctors—As I feel this is the last month's treatment that I will have to get, I thought at one time I would never be cured but I put con-fidence in you from the start and you have cured me." GAINED 14 POUNDS IN ONE MONTH.

| DRS, KENNEDY & KENNEDY, WINDSOR, ONT.                                         | countries than they ever are in thislatitude, are due to the same circum-stance as that which produces the      | the temptation to make a joke with theChristian names of their children, saysthe London Chronicle. The Somerset | Arrivals at Brockville :                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | and surrounding districtto sell high class stock for                                                         |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| DRS. KENNEDY & KENNEDYCor. Michigan Ave. and Griswold St., Detroit, Mich. | color designedly communicated to thelight of different kinds of fireworks.                                          | House registers testify to the existenceof a Mr. Mineral Waters, a Frosty                                           | *10.00 a.m., Express, from Ottawaetc.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | The Fonthill Nurseries                                                                                           |
| Cor. Michigan Ave. and Griswold St., Deton, Mich.                             | Each different foreign ingredient thattoats in the air has its own properture, which it can communicate to the  | Winter and an Alfred Days Weeks.There is something to be said in favorof naming children in the order of        | * 1.35 p.m., Express.† 9.35 p.m., Express.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·                                                                            |
|                                                                               | in the which it can communicate to thein thing. The vapor of iron has onekind of shine and the vapor of sulphur | their arrival—Primus, Secundus, etc.—but it is unfortunate for a well known                                         | Departures from Brockville:                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | More fruit trees will be planted in theFall of 1911 and Spring of 1912 than                                  |
|                                                                               | anotherHarper's Weekly.                                                                                                 | Canadian named Cumber that itshould have fallen to his lot to be                                                    | † 7.10 a.m., Express.* 2.80 p.m., Express.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | ever before in the history of Ontario,The orchard of the future will be                                      |
| Karley & Purcell                                                              | Stolen Elequence."It is better to be silent," said a                                                                | Quintus, for his name is always appearing in the papers as Mr. Q. Cum-                                                  | * 7.00 p.m., Express.*Daily except Sunday.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | the best paying part of the farm.                                                                                |
| Andrivy & A droom                                                             | prominent clergyman, "than to be elo-quent by unfair means.                                                         | ber.                                                                                                                    | †DailySecure full particulars, illus-                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | We teach our men Salesmanship,Tree Culture and how big profits in                                            |
|                                                                               | "There was once a divine whose goodwife said to him:                                                                | A Besten Street.It was one of the older conductorsbreaking in a new recruit who had                             | trated booklets, sleeping car spaceand all information from                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | fruit-growing can be made.                                                                                       |
|                                                                               | "James, dear, the Rev. Dr. Tenthlyhas made over $200 by the publicationof a volume of sermons. You preach      | shown that he was not particularlyquick to catch an idea. The car came                                              | GEO. E. M'GLADE, CITY AGENT                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | Pay weekly, permanent employmentand exclusive territory.Write for particulars.                           |
| WHEN YOU WANT                                                                 | much better than Dr. Tenthly, dear.Why not print a few of your sermons?                                             | to Webster street, and the older con-ductor whispered the name to the re-                                           | Brockville City Ticket and TelegraphOffice, east corner King St. andCourt House Ave.                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | STONE and WELLINGTON                                                                                             |
|                                                                               | "'My love,' the man whispered                                                                                           | cruit. The latter did not understand,and the conductor, losing patience,                                            | Steamship Tickets on sale byall lines to all parts of the World.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | The Fenthill NurseriesToronto — Ontario                                                                      |
| A Stove or Range                                                              | ago.' "                                                                                                                 | said, "Webster-Webster's dictionary."And the passengers were amazed tohear the new man bawl out, "Web-          | Tours arranged, reservations madeon application                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |                                                                                                                  |
| A SUUVU UI Mangu                                                              | A National Mistake."I wonder why the English peoplehave taken the rose as their national                        | ster's dictionary."-Boston Post.                                                                                        | Electric Destorer for Men                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |                                                                                                                  |
| Call and see what we have to offer.                                           | flower?"Why not?"                                                                                                   | Yearned For Excitement."Yes, the great society leader is ab-                                                        | Pho, phonol restores every nerve in the bodyto its proper tension; restoresyim and vitality. Premature decay and all sexual                                                                                                                                                                              | AUTIMN                                                                                                           |
| Can and see what we have to oner.                                             | "Judging by the way their peeragehunt American fortunes, I should                                                   | solutely ennuied.""Tired of everything, ch?"                                                                        | Pho.phonol restores every nerve in the bodyto its proper tension; restoreswim and vitality. Premature decay and all sexualweakness averted at ence. Phosphonol willmake you a new man. Price $5 a box, or two for$6. Mailed to any address. The Sochell DrugCo., $t. Catharines. Ont. | AUIUMN -                                                                                                         |
| Our stock has been greatly enlarged and now includes                          | think a more appropriate floral emblemwould be marygold."-Baltimore Amer-ican.                                  | "Positively. The last time I sawher she was faintly wondering in abewildered way whether she'd better           | Co. St. Catharines, Unt.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | PACHIANC                                                                                                         |
| Exampthing in Shalf and                                                       | Dad Was Hersey.                                                                                                         | take up aviation or get a divorce."-Cleveland Plain Dealer.                                                         | 17 60-                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | - PADHIUND                                                                                                       |
| Everything in Shelf and                                                       | "Pa, what did Herodotus do?""Oh, I think he won a purse that                                                        | A Ouick Recovery.                                                                                                       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                  |
| Heavy Hardware                                                                | was offered for three-year-olds once.Say, can't you quit bothering me when                                          | Miggleton-it looks like rain. Ham-baugh-What looks like rain? Miggle-                                               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | The latest fashion plates now here.Call and select the style of Suit youwant for Spring and Summer wear. |
|                                                                               | I'm trying to read what is going on inthe world?"—Chicago Record-Herald.                                            | ton (taken by surprise but equal to the occasion)—A shower bath in action.—Chicago Trivune.                         |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                  |
|                                                                               | Too Great a Sacrifice.She (weary of waiting)-If you sell                                                            | Enmeshed.                                                                                                               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | LATEST FABRICS                                                                                                   |
| KARLEY & PURCELL                                                              | t' dog, John, we could get married. He-An' wouldn't Oi look silly to sell a                                         | Maud-After all, a hammock is noth-ing but a net. Jack-Right! Many a                                                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | We have in stock a line of newgoods of extra value. Leave your                                               |
|                                                                               | dog like that to be married!-London                                                                                     | girl makes a good catch in oneEx-change.                                                                            | Dr. de Van's Female Pills                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | order at "The Old Reliable" and youwill get garments that will fit well,                                     |
| Glass, Putty. Oils and Varnishes, Brushes, all kinds of Tools                 | "It is not work that kills men-it is                                                                                    | One may ruin himself by frankness,but one surely dishonors himself by                                               | A reliable French regulator; never fails. Thesefills are exceedingly powerful in regulating the                                                                                                                                                                                                              | look well and wear well.                                                                                         |
| for Workshop, Field and garden.                                               | stroys machinery, but the friction."                                                                                    | duplicityVieillard                                                                                                      | A reliable French regulator; never fails. Thesepills are exceedingly powerful in regulating theremarkive portion of the female system. Refuseall cheap imitations. Dr. de Van's are sold at55 a box, or three for $10. Mailed to any address.The Scobell Drug Co., St. Catharines, Ont.     | A. M. CHASSELS                                                                                                   |
|                                                                               |                                                                                                                         |                                                                                                                         |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                  |
|                                                                               |                                                                                                                         |                                                                                                                         |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | S                                                                                                                |
|                                                                               |                                                                                                                         |                                                                                                                         |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                  |

THE ATHENS REPORTER, NOV 22, 1911 AROUND THE COUNCIL FIRE ----The chiefs of a small town had met GREAT Atound the council fire. They all had come with good intent RETIRING SALE And none for merely hire ; And some of them were older men. Whose hair was turning gray, And some of them were younger men. But no less wise were they. Long o'er their papers they had wrought With nothing left behind Of all they sold, of all they bought, BEACH'S Or treaties to be signed ; But yet one more petition came, With theme as dark as soot, Asking a place in which to sell And drink some "tangle-foct." Great Retiring Sale will begin to-morrow Thursday, November 23 Then rose another, not a chief, And asked if he might speak, And said, "Our motives here should at 9 a. m., and closes Thursday, November 30. Store open every evening during Sale, be Each others good to seek, $3,600 in Cash Prizes for Farmers But this petition that ye have Would want and miserv bring, W HEN you enter the Canada Coment Prize Contest, your dealer will assist you. Consult him in reference to conditions of the centest. Refer all questions of doubt to him to decide. Confer with him when his ex-perience and advice and his knowledge of our plan would seem helpful. All seasonable goods in the store will be placed on For selling 'fire-water' is sale at slaughtered prices A very wicked thing. For 7 Days "Now brothers, ere you grant this thing, I ask you to beware, plan would seem helpful. Don't hesitate about doing this. We have requested him to assist to the bast of his ability any farmer in his locality competing in this con-test—whether it's a matter involving the applica-tion of cement, or how to go about winning one of the prizes offered in this contest. Do you realize that you have as good a chance as the "next man to win one of these prizes? There are four for each Province, as follows: PRIZE "A' __5100.00 to be given to the farmer in each Province who will use during 1911, the greatest number of bags of "GANADA" Cement. PRIZE "B'__5100.00 to be given to the farmer in each Province who in 1911 uses "GANADA" Cement sem for the greatest number of purpose. PRIZE "C'__$100.00 to be given to the farmer in each Province who furnishes us with photograph For it would surely bring us in To Satan's hidden snare ; Don't miss this opportunity to get bargains. Make out a list of your wants for the next six months before coming to the Twould lead us from the path of Sale. truth. In which our fathers trod, Remember that it is not possible to display all the different And turn the footsteps of our youth kinds of goods all at once. What you don't see, ask for. Everything in the store goes at the same bargain prices. Boots, Shoes and Rubbers for Men, Women and Children. From heavenward and God. For God has said, and He is true, Dress Goods at less than half price. No lot nor part is found, Ladies' and Gents' Furnishings, Staple Dry Goods, Men's and Boys' Ready-made Clothing. Ladies' Jackets. Small-For him who dies a drunkard, In the Happy Hunting Grounds. And if we furnish them with rum, wares, &c. He'll ask us in that day, Canada Cement Company, Limited, Montreal Everything must be cleared out. See large bills. When we shall each to judgment come AUCTION SALE of special lines every afternoon on and Where is thy brother, pray. ? after the 25th. between 3 and 4 p.m. 'Now, send ye that petition back At G. W. BEACH'S STORE, Athens The way by which it came, barrel. This reduction-with the re-And bid them never bring it back, G. T. P. NOTES duction made last year-means a very In the Great Spirit's name." T. W. RALPH, Sales Manager large saving to the cement consumers The chiefs then all agreeing said of Canada. Our business now may cease, We trust that the expectations of A We'll cover up our council fire Am Row man B lower cost voiced by the President of And smoke the pipe of peace. the Canada Cement Company, will be realized again next year, so that the When this was done, they said "good-Company may continue its policy of A REFERENCE AND A REPORT OF A REFERENCE AND A R night. Fire Insurance his trip. giving the benefit of these reductions And each one went his way PROFESSIONAL CARDS. to its customers-thereby enlarging the uses to which Cement may be put. And slept the slumber of the just NAMES OF TAXABLE PARTY Until the dawn of day. E. J. PURCELL And there was joy within their gates DR. C. M. B. CORNELL. A GENT for the Royal, Monarch, Waterlloo Mutual Fire Insurance Companies. Risks promptly effected. Office and residence, Henry Street, Athens And plenty in their store, And all the people said "God bless Our couhcil evermore." Bank Clerks Wanted. COR. GARDEN AND PINE ST Young men of at least 4th book BROCKVILLE public school education who may desire PHYSICIAN SURGEON & ACCOUCHEUR E. Robeson, to enter the banking profession are in-SHINGLES Hard Island, Nov. 8, 1911. vited to communicate with us regard-DR. T. F. ROBERTSON ing a preparatory course for same. Appointment with our introduction COR. VICTORIA AVE BROCKVILLE THE THREE-FIFTHS CLAUSE. positively certain. Send for our cata-I have been appointed agent for EYE, EAR, THROAT AND NOSE. ogue, New Term. Jan. 2nd. the sale of the famous Brockville Business College, Toronto Globe : Since 1906 local Metal Roofing, W. T. Rogers, Principal. J. A. McBROOM mountaineer. option by-law have received a majority Metal Siding, There was no mistake about Mount Physician and Surgeon of the votes cast in 306 municipalities, Robson. It is without doubt, as was Metal Ceiling, and have been beaten by a majoity vote in SI The three-fifths require-' ment changed the result of the voters X-Rays and Electricity employed in treatment of cancer and chronic diseases Annual Thanks-Offering. stated by one of the most travelled and Rubber Roofing, skilled mountaineers of the day, Dr. The annual thank-offering meeting Norman Collie, one of the most magniof the W. F. M. S. of St. Paul's Pres Carey Roofing, etc. action so that the by-laws were carried byterian church was held in the S. S.

showing the best of any particular kind of work done on his farm during 1911 with "OANADA" Coment. PRIZE "D" -$100.00 to be given to the farmer in each Province who submits the best and most complete description of how any particular piece of work shown by accompanying photograph, was done.

Be sure and get a copy of our Contest Circular, telling all about the contest. Ask your dealer for one or use the attached coupon, if you find it more convenient.

More convenient. In writing us, mention whether yeu have received your copy of "What the Farmer Can De With Concrete," a profusely-illustrated 160-page book, which tells you how to build with concretes, so that you ean do much of the work yourself. It's a mighty handy and useful book, and should save you many a dollar. Farmers who have received it, say it is splendid. Write to-night and it will go back to you with Frise Contest Folder, by return mail. Please send Circular and Book Contest will close on November 16th, 1911, and as soon as possible thereafter, prizes will be swarded.

E. TAYLOR Licensed - Auctioneer

Name.....

Address .....

Sales conducted any place in the United Counties. Farm and real estate sales a specialty. Call on, write or telephone to

E. TAYLOR. Tel. 24 A Athens.

IF YOU SUBSCRIBE AT ONCE YOU CAN GET THE 52 WEEKLY ISSUES OF

for 1912 for only (2.00; also all the issues for the remaining weeks of 1911 Free. It is your just chance to get the paper at this price. On January 1, 1912, it will be advanced to $2.25.

COURT HOUSE SQUARE - BROCKVILLE

Mr. A. O. Wheeler, F.R.G.S. Direcfor of the Alpine Club of Canada, has just returned to Vancouver from a summer spent in the Canadian Rock ies in the vicinity of the Yellowhead Pass, and is greatly impressed with In an interview with Mr Wheeler he stated --- "It has been the general in presison that the Rocky Mountains of Canada abtain their greatest average height not very far north of the boundary line. True, of late years, much has been heard of Mount Rob. son which dominates the region of Yellowhead Pass, but the popular notion was that there was nothing else in the neighborhood worth seeing, and that the Grand Trunk Pacific would pass through a region of little interest from the point of view of the tourist or

HUE STREAM CHEDRONAL MOV 23 1917

THE ATHENS REPORTER, NOV. 22, 1911.

becam

Nasal Discharge Proves Catarrh is Active

THE PURE BALSAMIC ESSENCES OF CATARRHOZONE AFFORD SUREST AND QUICKEST

CURE.

Aria

Catarrhozone is certain to cure be-cause its healing vapor is carried with the breath direct to the seat of the chest, nose or throat trouble. Being composed of the purest balsams and composed of the purest balsams and pine essences, it immediately allays irritations, facilitates the ejection of mucus, soothes and wtimulates the lungs and bronchial tubes. The mar-vel of the age in curding winter ills-that's what thousands say about Ct-tarrhozone. There is nothing so sure to cure, and to those in fear of change-able weather-those who easily catoli cold-these who work among lung-chilling surroundings, or where dust, chilling surroundings, or where dust, impure air, fog or damp can affect them-let them get Catarrhozone and use it several times daily-it will cure every time.

BAD CASE CURED IN TWO DAYS BAD CASE CURED IN TWO DAYS. "I was unfortunate enough to catch a bad cold from sitting in a draught in my bare head," writes Miss Nora E. Jemieson, well known in Sangre Grande, Td. "An acute condition of catarrh developed in my nostrils, and fer three days my eyes and nose ran most copiously. The usual remedies entirely failed to railbox. I read in The Mirror newspaper about Catarrh-ozawe, and sent to Bmith Bros.' drug store for a dollar outfit. In two days Catarrhozome cleared out my mostrils, cured the sneezing, coughing, and all traoes of catarrh."

Large size Catarrhozone, sufficient for two months' use, guaranteed, price $1.90; smaller sizes, 25c and 50c. Beware of imitations, and substitutors, and insist on getting "Catarhozone" only. By mail from the Catarhozone Company, Buffalo, N. Y., and King-stan Ont ston, Ont

THE DOGS OF FLANDERS.

THE DOGS OF FLANDERS. Dogs to the French peasant are what horses are to the American farmer. They assist in many ways on the farm, pull the produce to market and deliver the milk from the dairy. Foltunately for them, their lives are controlled by constitutional laws, which prohibit the whip and the carrying of human cargo. Although this some box not always prevent the lazy messenger boy from knposing on his damb companion, it will be seen that the Government endeavors to supress any at-foundiand dog, sturdy and intelligent. To an English eye there is no more pletur-ford and dog, sturdy and intelligent. To an English eye there is no more pletur-funder with milk cans, whish its mester -a Frencish bey, with crude wooden sa-bote-walks inzily alongside.-- Wide World Magazine.

A SHOWING UP.

P. F. Willis, of Dallas, the leader the Texas delegates to the Associated Advertising Clubs' convention in Bos-ton, was condemning dishonest advertising. "The dishonest advertiser," he said, "gets shown up in the long run. He fares the same as Gus Blake.

"Gus Blake was a trolley conductor ne day when the car was crowded One day when the car was crowded a gestleman halted Gus in the sisle and said, extending a nickel: "Here you are, my man." "But, sir, said Gus, in an astonished tone, 'you paid before.' "Teh gentleman then frowned and said in a very loud, stern voice: "Yes, I know, but this is fo rthe com-Dany."

in stubborn places fine sharp emery or Mr. Jas, Davey, of 786 Ellice avenue, Winnipeg, says: "A few months since I was cured of a poisoned finger through the timely use of Zam-Buk. "I cut a deep gash scross the knuckle on the first finger of my right hand in opening a lobster can. I suffered at the time with the soreness and pain, but had no idea it would become a sert-ous wound. However in about five sand paper. sand paper. To remove ink from fumiture wipe the spots with oxalic acid; let it stand a few minutes and then rub well with a cloth wet in warm water. To remove whitish marks resulting from placing hot dishes on the table, pour kerosene on the spot and rub it hard with a soft cloth. Then pour a El ....

FIXING UP FURNITURE

Revarnishing and Renovating in Or

To remove old varnish use alcohol, and

der at This Season

pour kerosene on the a hard with a soft cloth. hard with a soft cloth. Then pour a little spirits of wine or cologne water on it and rub dry with another cloth. When stain is desired on an article always apply it before the first coat of varmish. Never attempt to mix the stain with the varnish itself. To get best results apply three coats of variash to plan surfaces, wearing the first two coats down smoothly (this means very lightly) with the finest sandpaper, the third coat being allowed to set in its lustre.

To take out bruises wet the parts with warm water; double a piece of brown paper several times and lay it over the paper several times and lay it over the bruise, and on this apply a warm but not hot flatiron till the moisture is evapor-ated. Sometimes it is necessary to re-peat the process before the rent is raised to the surface.

TELLING A STORY.

(Montreal Herald.)

(Montreal Herald.) In comment upon a recent marriage between a Protestant and a Catholic, performed in this city by a Protestant minister, a paragraph has been going the rounds of the Ontario and maritime press declaring that "upder the laws of Quebec, as interpreted by the judges of the courts of that Province, this mar-riage is inveilid." This is a common misunderstanding of the situation. There is no judicial deci-sion on recort in this Province regarding the legal validity of a "mixed" marriage. The fiebert case, where the marriage was annuled, concerned two Catholics who were married by a Protestant minister and involved a different point of law. It is true thiat the Catholic Church re-gerds a marriage of any Catholic lergy-man, but the law of Quebec bas not given this decree legal status. In fact, a case of that kind has not yet come be-fore the courts for decision.

Well, Well!

TITT

THIS is a NOME DYE

hand and arm to the clow became suddenly inflamed, and the finger was much discolored, showing signs of blood-poisoning. The pain was dreadful and I was forced to leave off my work and go home. "The wound wound on the knuckle been poisoned by dust and dirt getting into it. I then decided to start the Lam. Buk treatment, and having first bathed the cut, I applied the healing balm. It soothed the pain almost in-stantly, and by next day there was a "In a week's time, through persever

hand and

Zam-Buk Is A Sure Cure.

ous wound. However in about two days I was greatly alarmed, as my whole

arm to the elbow

"In a week's time, through persever-ance with this wonderful preparation, a complete cure was brought about." Zam-Buk is just as good for eczema, ulcers, scalp sores, abscesses, piles, ringworm, boils, varicose ulcers, run-uin sores, cold sores, chapped hands, ctc. It draws all poisonous fourness from a wound or sore and then heals. Use it. too. for cuts. burns, bruises and

Use it, too, for cuts, burns, bruises and all skin injuries. Zafn-Buk Soap should be used in conjunction with the balm for washing wounds and sore places. Excellent, too, for baby's bath.

All druggists and stores sell Zam-Buk at 50c box and Zam-Buk Soap at 25c tablet. Post free upon receipt of price from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto.

HOW TO MIX COLORS.

The first named color always pre ominates.

Mixing dark green and purple nakes bottle green. Mixing white and medium yellow makes ouff tint. Mixing red, black and blue makes dark brown.

Mixing bronze, biue, lemon, yellow

Mixing white, hake and lemon yellow makes tiesh tint. Mixing lemon yellow and bronze due makes grass green.

Mixing white and black makes that ANYONE Can use ray tim. Mixing white and purple makes s.5e u228dsnrd shr snrd shrdlu Mixing red, black and medium yellow 16.5e makes maroon.

Mixing lake and purple makes mu

Mixing medium yellow and purple makes olive green Mixing meanin yellow and red makes orange. Mixing white, ultramarine blue and black makes pearl tint. Mixing white and lake makes pink. Mixing ultramarine blue and nakes purple. Maxing orange, lake and purple, makes russet. Mixing medium yellow, red and white makes sionna.

Mixing white and altramarine blue makes sky blue.

Mixing ultramarine blue, black and white makes slate. white

Mixing vermilion and black makes Turkey red. Mixing white, yellow, red black makes umber. and

Unless it was raining, the umbrells used to be the badge of middle age, the sector be the badge mind: the token

We believe MINARD'S LINIMENT is the best: Mathias Foley, Oil City, Ont.

Joseph Snow, Norway, Me.

TREWARE OF BLOOD-POISON PROVINCES PRODUCING SHINGLES. (Forestry Press Bulletin, No. 35.)

The production of shingles increases steadily in Canada, and in a bulletin to be published by the Forestry branch of the Department of the Interior this is together with the relative in portance of the provinces for 1940. Com-entire shingle industry amounted to les than the value of each of the five most important species—spruce, white pine, Donglas fir, hemlock and cedar—during 1910. Considered separately, the shingle production assumes considerable import ance, especially in British Columbia ance, especially in British Columbia. (This province is far in advance of the castern provinces as a sningto producer, and made up approximately half of the Canadian 1910 production of nearly two billion shingles, worth over three and a half million dollars. Over one quarter of the sningles were manufactured in Que-bec, where the five hundred and thirty-nine million pieces reported were an in-crease of sixty per cent. over the 1900 amount. Ontario and New Brunswick produced nearly equal amounts in 1910. produced nearly equal amounts in 1910, one-tenth of the Canadian production being from each of these provinces. Ninety-eight per cent. of the total pro-duction was in the above four provinces, although shingles are made in every province of the Dominion. Nova Scotia in every provin province of the Dominion. Nova Scotta, Saskatchewan, Prince Edward Island, Alberta and Manitoba together produced two per cent. of the total. The average price of shingles in 1910 was sl.50 per thousand, the values ranging from $1.50 per for shingles in Nova Scotia to $2.27 in askatchewan.

REFLECTIONS OF A BACHELOR.

New York Press.) Politics begins at the exact spot where principles leave off. A girl who marries a man to reform him usually has to support his children as well.

as well. What makes a girl believe in the brains of a man she loves is for him not to have any.

any. A woman can rent a bungalow for six weeks for $40 and speak of it as her country estate. A trip around the world, meeting only strangers, isn't half as much to a wo-man as three hours in an opera box with friends down in the dress circle to see

A NEW MOUNTAIN WORLD As further particulars are received the exploration party under Mr. A. U. Wheeler, director of the Canadian Alpine Club, regarding their tecent ex-peation over the Grand Trunk Pacific Kailway through the Canadian Rocky Mountains, it is known that the new Transcontinental Railway will be able to offer to its patrons the finest scenery of any of the Transcontinental railways in America. In the last report received the territory in the vicinity of the head waters of the Athabasea and Whirlpool Rivers is touched upon, and are, Mr. Wheeler states, opening up a field for explora-tion and research, mountaineering and camping that is absolutely new, and of which practically nothing is known. This group of mountains is magnificent. It rises approximately to 12,000 feet above sea level, and shows contours of the wildest and boidest possible forms. Immense snow fields and huge glaciers are everywhere. Boidest and most inacces sible rise the awful black precipices of Mount Gaikie, the central point of the group. Again to the south are an endless array of peaks, towers, pyramids domes, castles and ramparts in bewildering confusion. An attempt was made to identify the nuch-talked-of giants, Columbia, Bryce, Lvall, Forbes, etc., but in the chaotic whole it could not be done with any certainty.

A PARDONABLE MISTAKE.

A PAHDONABLE MISIARE. "The cold weather is coming on, and we shall soon as some very remarkable cold weather motoring suits." "Til be glad when cold weather motor-ing clothes are made more sightly. They give us such a shaggy look now, don't they? Did you ever hear about the per-forming bear? They: Do you for forming bear? "Wei, a country hotel, a good deal fre-"Wei, a country hotel, a showman quented by motorists, took in a showman for morn-

Stop it in 30 minutes, without any harm to any part of your system, by taking *NA-DRU-CO* Headache Walers 25. a box, at all drugsiss. MONTREAL, 27

HEAD

NATIONAL DRUG AND CHEMIC

Stop it in 30 minutes

Every Woman 3616 About the wenderful MARVEL Whiring Spray The new Veginal Syrings, by 19 All a Vaginal Syringe. by convenient. It cleans Instantly. Ask ye druggist for it Whe cannot supply the MARVE - accept no other, but end stamp ter illustrated both - saided. It gives foll partice wars and directions invaluable to balles. -SOR SUPPLT CO.

CHILDBIRTH Without Danger & Aimost Painless, A Been to Prospective Methers. Nurse Elies' MATRIXINE Removes the Parils of Childbearing & Strengthene Hother and Child. Malled with layaig-able Information. §5 or three for $12. The Scientine Remove Cr. 82 ADELAIDE ST. EAST, TORONTO.

THE MONK AND HIS CAT. Pangur, my white eat, and 1, Shent ply our special crafts; Hunting mice his one pursuit, Mine to shoot keen spirit shafts.

Rest I love, all Fame beyond, In the bond of some rare book: Yet while Pangur from his play Casts, my way, no jealous look.

Thus alone within one cell Safe we dwell-not dull the tale-Since his ever favorite sport Each to court will never fail.

Now a mouse to swell his spoils In his toils he spears with skill; Now a meaning deeply thought I have caught with startled thrill.

Now his green full-shining gaze Darts its rays against the wa Now my feebler glances mark wall; Through the dark bright knowledg

Leaping up with joyful purr, In mouse fur his sharp claw sticks; Problems difficult and dear With my spear I, too, transfix.

Crossing out each other's will. Diverse stoll, yet still allied, Following each his own lone ends. Constant friends we here abide.

Pangur, master of his art, Plays his part in pranksome youth; While in age sedate I clear Shadows from the sphere of Truth. Alfred Percival Graves in the Specta

CURED BY GIN PILLS

Bridgeville, N. S. "For twenty years I have been trouble, ed with Kidney and Bladder Trouble, and have been treated by many doctors but found little relief. I had given up all hope of getting cured when I tried Gin Pills. Now, I can say with a happy neart, that I am cured."

Cheyenne Chief. (Toronto Saturday Night).

ACHE

It was in this war, at the battle of Indian Creek, that Buffalo Bill killed the great Cheyenne chief, Yellow Hand, in single combat. And this was perhaps the most thrilling and dramatic inci-dent in the history of this modern Sir Galahad.

Galahad. Imagine if you can, a dry river bed, with the land gently sloping up from it on either hand. On the top of the ridge on the one side lay the United States army; on the other the flower of the Sieux and Cheyenne nations. Be-tween them was this level grassy plain, without a stick of timber, without even a boulder of any size These two armies a boulder of any size. These two armies lay on their rifles, their horses tethered, each watching the other. The war whoop of the Indians could be barely distinguished in the silent, sullen, waiting camp of the whites. Of a sudden, a horseman appeared, moving out from the lines of the waiting savages. He rode on and on in silent dignity, to the centre of the plain. He rode on until his beautiful bucksin here had negotiated half the distance between the two armies, and his head-dress of eagles' feathers and his trappings announced him as the greatest In-dian warrior of his day, Yellow Hand, the Cheyenne. Then it was that Yellow Hand rent the air with his battle ery and his chal-lenge. And it said: "Is there a white lenge. And it said: "Is there a white dog who dares come forth and fight Yellow Hand single handed?" Down the hill opposite the waiting Indian chief, rode Buffalo Bill, astride his formatic horse Hore was the role.

his favorite horse. Here was the answer to the challenge. Resting easily over Buffalo Bill's arm was his Winchester; in the holster his trusty Colts. The pace was a gentle canter, as if on par-ade, and Cody's long hair flew out over the shoulders of his buckskin coat as the shoulders of his buckskin coat as he moved along. He was as silent as Yellow Hand was noisy. He was as sil-ent and as releatless as grim death it-self. On they rode toward each other. The canter became a run. Yellow Hand circled and then fired. At the flash, Cody ducked. Yellow Hand had missed. A movement of Cody's knees, a word of command and his horse stood like a statue I be went Cody's rife, ping shed statue. Up went Cody's rifle, ping sped the bullet, and Yellow Hand paused. He fired again and Yellow Hand reeled from the saddle a corpse. Nothing more dramatic than this combat between this prince of plains-men and this Indian chief enters into the annals of nation building on this continent, and some day perhaps a writer will arise to the oceasion and properly describe for our children and our children's children these events.

WHAT FATHER TOOK. (Philadelphia Record.) He came down the garden path, a sad corrowful figure. She watched him with "How did father take it?" she asked. "He took it well," replied the young main to the term is provided in the point "Oh, I am so glad, George," she cried, pressing her hands together. "Are you?" replied George, flopping folloriby by her side. "Well, I can't say that I am, dear. At first your father wouldn't listen to me." "Why didn't you tell him that you had $2.50° in the bank, as I took you fo?" she 2.60° in the Dana, as tota yes an exclaimed. "I did, after all else had failed," an-swered George, dejectedly. "And what did he do, then?" "Do!" echoed the young man, passing his hand wearlig through his hair. "He berrowed it!" DANIEL F. FRASER.

UMBRELLAS DRIVE, OUT CANES.

A FINE SIGHT

A prominent New York gentleman

through a difficult country, most of the

is studded with fine lakes and rivers

The Influence of Dust on Mortality.

Four locomotives will be used for each vessel, one on each bow and one

THE MYSTERIES.

Unless it was raining, the umbrella used to be the badge or middle age, the indication of a serious mind; the token, one might almost say, of the Sabbath. But in its last ten years the umbrella habit has surreptitiously stolen on the majority of the inhabitants of thase is-lands, and has become so much of a cus-tom that no one notices it. The holday maker carries a stick on his country walks, but the young man about town no longer wields a cane by day and a crutch to go with his opera hat by night. He carries instead the modern umbrella, a siender, elegant implement, less sturdy than a cane. Early in the present year the stick, encouraged by the summer and the sun, setemed on the verge of a reviv-al. Gay young whangees, brilliant pen-angces, steady old malaccas came out from hiding and, disporting themelves in the best circles, challenged the long supremacy of the umbrella. But with the autumn rains they are going back to their shelter, and a wet winter, we fear, will establish the umbrella habit on a firmer base than ever.-From the London Graphic. We are embosomed in fearful myster ies. We stand related to that which is highest and greatest in the universe; and though we may be frivolous, we be come conscious that life is not frivolous, but most serious and earnest. And, then, too, trailing in its dread shadow across the skies, comes over us the idea of death. One companion after another is taken away, till we almost look into the open gates of sternity. In a few years we must pass the dread boundary. What is there beyond? The eye sees not, the mind falls back appalled from who has made a sojourn in Canada at the Laurentian Club, Lac-La-Peche, ?. Q., in a letter addressed to Grand Trunk headquarters, says "I have been over the new Transconfore the clouded mystery. We can hear the boating of the surf, the faint murmur of the sea on whose dark waters we must soon embark. But what doom is beyond, who shall declare? We feel that our hope in that untrodden eternity must depend on hav-ing wills and inclinations submitted to time, aifording the expected comfort of travel even now. The whole territory the will of Him who is over all. Whatever is best in the human beart, and in human relations, and most and will surely open up like this at the Laurentian Club." the awful in human destiny, declares the necessity of the Christian heart and life. -Ephraim Peabody.

Out of every thousand of those whose occupation calls for constant work in AN AVERAGE. A Western Representative in Compress was talking one day of his record while in that body. "I'm not ashamed of it." said he. "I think I've done very well, on the whole. When I reflect upon it I are reminded of an epitaph that I saw once in an old burying-ground in a coun-try town of my State. "This epitaph devoted a verse of four inv to the virtues of the good man who lay beneath the stone, and concluded with "He averaged well for this vicinity."" dusty quarters, five die of consumption, according to German official figures, whereas among those who rae not ex-posed to the action of dust, only two out of a thousand die of the disease named.

-Lippincott's

Charles Whoten, Mulgrave, N. S.

Rev. R. O. Armstrong, Mulgrave, N. S. Pierre Landers, sen., Pokemonche, N. B.

Thomas Wasson, Sheffield, N. S.

"NOTHING BUT LEAVES."

As if that weren't enough! And what could be more beautiful? Forests groan with their lovely foliae Gorgeous leaves flutter on the radian

Dried leaves rustle crisply as one walks through them.

Fluttering leaves fill the air as they sift gently earthward. Some of the oaks show red leaves of tinental Line as far as Parent, five miles from the end of steel, and thor tremendous magnificence ooughly enjoyed the opportunity of seeing this portion of your line. It is the same high standard of construction

Is there a more exquisite red than that which is shown on the maples? The chestnuts halt between their original greens and yellow and russet hues Bewitching red shades are to be admired among the leaves on the dainty dogwoods.

Seen in the distance these leaves of in time of war. Though a party to the Geneva convention, Turkey has steadthe forest are also exquisite, hazy pur-pling shades of brown, red, gold and fastly refused to use the emblem of that

Minard's Liniment Cures Garget in

Cows. FOLLOWED THE FASHION.

that Italy will look on the crescent as equivalent to the red cross.-Westmin-

Is Putnam's Painless Corn and Wart Extractor which has been used successfully for 30 years. It takes out the sures the Corn, and prevents it returning. Price 25c per bottle.

PROVED

PROVED. "There's no question about it," said Scribbleigh. "Birghand is the place for an author to live i nwho wishes to write perfect English. We become marely the expression of our environment, after all, and I wish to do my work in an atmos-phere in which, the language I use for the expression of my ideas is speken in all its pristine purnity. Do you not agrees with me, Lord Miggleton?" "By Jowve, you're bally right, old sop!" repited his lordship.—Harper's Weekly. In his annual report Dr. Gemmel, med-ical superintendent of the county asylum at Whittingham, England, says that his experience shows that in many cases drink is the effect and not the cause of inenaity, intemperance being a premoni-quented by motorists, took in a showman and his performing bear, and one morn-ing the bear escaped from the stable. "Every norry fied before the animal. The hotel man, however pursued it cour-accously. It entered the hotel, mounted the stairway, pushed open a bedroom door and vanished. "Then the hotel man, close behind, heard from the bedrom an angry excla-mation in a feminine voice and the words: "George, dear, how often have I for-bidden you to come into my rom without knocking-and in your automobile coat, too."--Washington Star.

W. 8, Windsor, Ont., will send free to any mother her successful home treat ment. with full instructions. Send no

THE RED CRESCENT.

Among the nations of Europe Turkey is the only one which flies no Red Cross their god sense or influence. They don't seem to think that the large majority of the audience wants the programme to proceed as it is set down, and is com-pletely satisfied with one recall. An encore is right, but the abuse of it, which is so common, should be suppressed. A second, third, fourth encore is not necessarily a compliment. A winking danseus in vaudeville always gets that .-- Colum

WHEN A MAN RUNS.

There are men in this world who will run miles in any weather to avoid talk-ing to a woman who knews more than they so, and knows it, and shows that she knows that she knows it.-Henry Sydnor Harriston.

bus Journal.

Write us for free sample of Gin Pills to try. Then get the regular size boxes at your dealer's or send direct to us-50c a box, 6 for $2.50. Money refunded if Gin Pills fail to cure. National Drug & Chemical Co., of Canada, Limited. Dept. H. L., Toronto.

BETTER THAN SPANKING

THE OPEN MOUTH. Spanking does not cure children of bed

wetting. There is a constitutional cause for this trouble. Mrs. M. Summers, Box

THE OPEN MOUTH. (Chleago Tribune.) Speaker Champ Clark's reiteration of his belief that the American people are strongly in favor of the annexation of Canada came up in the House of Com-mons The Ministerial reply was po-litely to the effect that Mr. Clark's re-mark is not taken seriously. The only region where it ought to be taken seriously is in the camp of Mr. Clark's supporters. The American people are not at all likely to put the tremend-ous responsibilities of the Presidency upon a man whose tongue is swung in the middle. If Mr. Clark is silly enough to believe what he says, he at least ought not to be silly enough to say it. Th a delicate international complication, God save the republic from a Champ Ciark. any mother her successful home treat-ment. with full instructions. Send no money. but write her to-day if your child-ren trouble you in this way. Don't blane the child, the chances are it can't help it. This treatment also cures adults and aged people troubled with urine dif-ficulties by day or night.

Minard's Liniment Cures Distemper.

convention, the Greek Cross, to protect its sick and wounded in time of war. Pilgrim-"If I come in will the dorg bite me? Mrs. Hawkins-We ain't no ways sure, mister. But the feller that let us take him on trial said he'd claw In place of the cross the Furkish army cent on a white ground, but this deup a tramp in lessn'n two minutes, but, land sakes, we ain't goin' to believe it till we see it done.—Chicago News. Drog. Rundschau. parture from the recognized international emblem has never received the sanc-tion of the nations signatory to the Geneva convention. There is little doubt

REFLECTIONS OF A BACHELOR.

(New York Press.)

(New York Press.) Cents come, dollars go. You know a man you can trust by how many friends tell you not to. School teachers don't seem to learn an awful lot less than their pupils. A man and a woman hove each other beccuse there is no reason for it. A splendid thing about education is when it doesn't make a fool of anybedy who gets it.

Minard's Liniment Cures Diphtheria.

THE SELFISH COOK.

THE SELFISH COOK. (Now York Tribune.) Judge E. H. Gary, at a dinner given in Washington, said that the successful man shows in his work none of the apirit evin-ced by a certain Wehaton cook. "This cook, on a hot afternoon, was making a frozen custard. She siapped her ingredients together with such care-leseness that a kitchen maid said: "You're certainly not giving much at-tention to that custard, cook!" "Why should I?" the coo kanswered. They never leave any for us."

CEMENT FOR IVORY.

Dissolve alum in hot water until a Dissolve alum in hot water until a thick fluid mass is obtained; of this a coating is applied to each end of the broken ivory, the parts pressed together and kept in this position antil the mass is dry. The cement holds very well.—

BECAUSE loss of this Sugar is required for sweetening than other Sugars, and as it has the greatest amount of sweetening to the pound, Sugar that saves you money is

Caurence Sugar

You also get full measure, and all packages contain absolutely correct weight, and, when bought this way, substitution is impossib

Try St. Lawrence Sugar to-day-and SAVE MONEY.

THE ST. LAWRENCE SUGAR REFINING CO. LIMITED, MONTREAL

P

Locomotive for Panama Canal. The Isthmian Canal Commission will shortly advertise for bids for an experimental towing locomotive for towing steamers through the locks of the Pan-ama Canal. Should this machine be successful, says the Scientific American, bids will be asked for thirty-nine more.

POLLOWED THE FASHION. (New York Sun.) The wearled searcher for apartments in Manhattan had ended his hunt. When he anounced the result to a friend be delivered himself in this epigram: "There are just two kinds of apart-ments in New York, those you can't af-ford to live in, and those you wouldn't live in anyhow." "What did you do?" psked the friend. "Or." said the searcher's wife, "we followed New York fashion and took one we couldn't afford to live in." Minard's Liniment Cures Colds, &c.

The Most Certain Corn Cure

ster Gazette. ENCORES. One will notice, if he watches closely, that the second recall of a performer at a concert or theatre is generally by those persons who are not conspicuous for

THE ATHENS REPORTER, NOV. 22, 1911.

NEWS OF THE A Trial Treatment DAY IN BRIEF of Cuticura Soap and Ointment Free

Brantford Man Drops Dead on Way Home.

Twin Sisters Asphyxiated at Brooklyn.

Kingston Favors Erection of a Big Hotel.

A chauffeurs' protective association way formed in Toronto.

Herman Affeldt was acquitted at erlin of the charge of setting fire to his wife's barn.

The death occurred very suddenly of Thomas Elliott, of Galt. Penumonia was the cause of death.

At Maribank, Hungerford Township, the Orange Hall and a house adjoining, owned by Mr. Ogleman, were destroyed by fire

Daniel Lynch, an employce of the Time Recording Company at 17 Alice street, Toronto, dropped dead shortly after starting work.

Edward Willis, a properous farmer residing about three miles from Mill-brook. Ont., was kicked by a horse, receiving injuries to his skull to which succumbed.

Enquiry was made at Kingston from Watertown, N.Y., regarding Miss Mabel Briceland, a stenographer of that eity, who mysteriously disappeared on Tues-day overing. day evening.

Charles Melville was possibly fatally and three others slightly injured in an explosion of the melting tank of the Bitulithic Paving Company's plant at St. Bomface, Man.

H. L. Reinhardt, after ten months' absence, resumed his position as ac-countant at the Royal Bank, Guelph. Mr. Reinhardt was injured in a tobogganing accident last January.

Chas. K. Buchanan, a well known resi-dent and accountant of Brantford dropped dead on his way home to dinner He had lived retired for some years Death was due to heart failure.

Twin sisters. 83 years old, Mrs. Eva L. Eno and Mrs. Ada L. Sanford, of New Britain, Conn., were found dead from gas asphyxiation, at the home of their niece, Mrs. J. E. Ilumason, of Brooklyn.

While working on a roof of a new ouse on Pauline ascaue, Toronto, George S. Barber, a young man who lives with his father at 3 Awde street, slipped and fell to the ground, a distance of 30 feet.

Just after completing a nine months' sentence in the Central Prison for house breaking in Ottawa, Albert Noel was again placed under arrest on a similar charge. The latter offence was con mitted at Aylmer, Que., about -a year

Prof. Alexander MacPhail, of Queen' School of Mining, who has been elected to the Prince Edward Island Legisla-ture, will become Minister of Agricul-ture in the new Conservative Governit is understood, in the event of meat. which he will retire from the staff of Queen's.

While crossing one of the busiest ections of Woodward avenue, Detroit. Mrs. M. A. Heath, 81 years old, and re-siding at 47 Windsor avenue, Windsor, was struck by a struct car and so seriously injured that she died in St. Mary's Hospital.

('vri' Asquith, the younger son of the British Prime Minister, has been swarded the Hertford scholarship, a university prize for Latin, tenable for one year. It amounts to $210. This FRUIT GROWERS DELIBERATIONS Want More Government Inspectors Appointed.

Mr. Ceaser Deals With Diseases of Peaches.

Better Orcharding Wanted --Election of Officers.

Toronto despatch: The Ontario fruit Growers: Association continued its deliberations and discussions yesterday in the Foresters' Hall, College street. District directors for the coming year were elected as follows: Wm. Alford, Ottawa; W. C. Beaven, Prescott; W. H. Dempsey, Trenton; Wm. Stinton, Oshwa; W. J. Bragg, Bowmanville; L. A. Hamilton, Lorne Park; J. W. Smith, Winona; A. Onslow. Niagara-on-the-Lake; Jos. Gilbertson, Simeoe; D. Johnson, Forest: R. R. Slam, Porter's Hill; F. M. Lewis, Burford; Adam Brown, Owen Soind; Prof. J. W. Crow, Brown, Gwen Sound; Froi. J. W. Crow, Ontario Agricultural College. A resolution was passed expressing appreciation of the appointment of Mr. Martin Burrell to a portfolio in the Borden Cabinet. Four resolutions dealt with fruit inspectors and inspection, the forden Caninet. Four resolutions deals with fruit inspectors and inspection, the substance of which were as follows: That the Ontario (iovernment provide short courses at the O. A. C., Guelph, short courses at the O. A. C., Guelph, for fruit inspectors and fruit schools throughout the province for packers; that the Dominion Government aménd the inspection and sales act so as to define a minimum size for grades in the various varieties of apples, and to provide for the appointment of a larger provide for the appointment of a larger number of inspectors, and for the services. on request of growers, of these inspectors at the point of shipment; that the Dominion (overnment appoint commission of three in each p a commission of three in each province to examine and to recommend for ap-pointment applicants for positions of fruit inspector. Other resolutions asked the Domin-

Mador

Iweed

Exeter

Hensall

Lanark. Perth....

Bath

Athens.

Tiverton.

Hastings.

'olborne

Cobourg.

Uxbridge

Point Edward. 874

arnia

. 342

9936

999

. 1433

1015

934

.7433

.1145

Brighton

Hawkesbury

Vankleek Hill., 1577

18.31:

. 439

1351

762

1395

3846

.1188

. 3397

4660

3883

.1484

5311

. 1775

.. 1624

.1491

1098

246

595

15.153

.1197

1:20

638

69.56

.1002

482

505

426

alone for organization."

Mr. James' special topic was "Edu-cational Methods in Agriculture." "It

Like been a decided increase in produc-tion and in quality. "The reason why so many farms in go at country run down and become uproductive is the lack of good, efficient method. Why not go in and in-orease indefinitely the producing power of your land? If the farmer would only rouse bimself and assimilate pro-

the value of in

707

823

883 Mitchell

5073 Havelock

2247 L'Orignal.

...4757 Wellington

ion Government to secure by cable from the Cauadian Trade Commission from the Cauadian Trade Commission-ers in foreign countries daily market price of fruit in their respective dis-tricts, and to publish them in news-papers that circulate in the fruit dis-tricts; asked the Ontario Government to send a cauable man to Europe to to send a capable man to Europe to study co-operative methods and market-ing conditions, and to give the Horti-cultural Experiment Station at Joran Harbor every Harbor every encouragement in the work of plant breading, propagation and distribution: that the Dominion Gov-ernment provide for absolute uniform-ity in shapes of baskets used for carrying fruit; that the railway companies be asked to improve the condition of the many old refrigerator cars now in

A resolution that proposed the hold-A resolution that proposed the hold-ing in Ontario of a national apple show was turned down. Not one member spoke in favor of it. The feeling was that in the Ontario Horticultural Ex-hibition the province already had a show, and an annual one, that would eventually decident into an exhibition eventually develop equal to the biggest of big shows anyinto an exhibition

Beaverton Mr. L. Caesar, of the Ontario Agri-'annington. cultural College, Guelph, gave a valu-able address on "Peach Diseases," in-cluding peach leaf curl, brown rot, seab, haha wa ... Whitby Port Perry. cankers, gumming, mildew, crown gall, yellows, and "little peach." but the dis-Woodstock. Embro. venows, and "fittle peach," but the dis-cussion chiefly centred around the last two, which are the most difficult to control. Mr. Cacsar stated that there Ingersoll ...

CENSUS FIGURES CONSCRIPTION Returns Given of a Number of Smaller Places. Military Conference Views Rural Corps Said to be in Manhood Suffrage Should Go With Service. Ottawa despatch: The military con-12555 .849 Kincardine... 1936 Wincnester 1143 Wiarton. .2264 Bowmanville .1235 Port Hope 2811 Port Elgin. Southampton 1681 Walkerton. 1681 5089 Millbrook .793 Newcastle 2099 Cardinal 454 Kemptville 1192 .332 Merrickville 99I Rodney ..... ...676 Markdale Dutton 836 Dundalk Meaford 2811 Durham 1579 Chatsworth .3302 35 Belle River . . 520 Hanover 2342 Amherstburg. 2556 Neustad Essex. Kingsville. .1356 Caledonia 952 Cayuga Dunnville .1427 736 Leamington. 2652 Tilfbury ... . 406 Hagersville 1106 Alexandria. 2318 Jarvis 510 Lancaster. Milton .610 165 Maxville .759 Acton 1720 Burlingto Prescott. 801 1831 Georgeto Oakville. 1574 Clinton. 2251 .2372 Goderich 4522 Deseronto .2018 Bothwell 1058 Dresden 1551 1368 Ridgetown 190 Belleville 9850 Wallaceburg 243 Trenton. 3994 Thamesville 809 Lueknow .967 Chatham 10761 Bancroft 620 Blenheim 138 Marmora . 865 Tilbury 962 Hepworth Portsmouth Stirling. .850 304 Winghan 2238 Blyth ... . 805 Forest . 1444 Brussels .902 Petroles 3518 Wroxete Alvinston 366 806 eaforth 1983 Paisley. 830 vice. Bayfield 499 Teeswater 855 Thedford. 1354 .792 Almonte 9450 Watford 1092 Carleton Pla .737 Wyoming 569 .3571 Courtright 375 Smith's Falls, 6461 Parkhill 1289 Newboro' Ailan Craig . 569 lananoque. 3764 1.netri 709 Westport 803 Strathroy. 2821 Vapanee. Glencoe .841 .347 Newbury 377 Bracebridge Gravenhurst Newburg 165 2776 1621 Niagara. 1319 Beamsville 1094 Huntsville .2358 Grimsby. 1669 Port Carling 389 Simeoe ... .3227 Delhi. Merritton 1470 82. Port Dalhousie, 1177 Port Dover 551 Waterford . l'ara.....

ference which was called together by Col. Sam Hughes, the new Minister of Militia, was a decided success. Some one hundred military men from all parts of Canada were present and they look bold at the took hold of the conference with en thusiasm. After an introductory ad Inusiasm. After an introductory ad-dress by Col. Sam Hugies the confer-ence dispursed into three sections, in-fantry, artillery, and cavalry. The id-fantry section was presided over by General Cotton. It was generally agreed that the rural regiments at present were in a serious condition, and to rem-ely this larger way and to remedy this larger pay and armories for the rural regiments were advocated, a resolution to this effect being passal, a number of officers advocated compul-sory service and the idea was greeted sory service and the idea was greeten with applause. However no action was taken, this and other matters being left Col. Weston, Col. L. Abelle, Col. David son, Col. Rogers and Col. Stuart, Genor Cotton advocated that the custom duty on uniforms and accourtements be removed. A suggestion which was re-ceived with considerable applause. It was (c), Ponton, of Belleville, w'.) brought up, the constitution of melleville, w'.) brought up the question of compul-sory service. He thought the pay was not the trouble so much as the need of campaign of inspiration amongst the young men. He deprecated the spirit of anti-militarism which was sweeping the country. He blought manhood suffrage should be dependent on service. The The country was ripe for this move. Col. Welmore egreed with this idea. It was an excellent suggestion. There should be some form of compulsory ser-Sir Henry Pellatt said that in To ronto the cadet corps was the great est strength for recruiting. As for jeer ing at the troops they never heard of such a thing. On the contrary they were always cheered. always cheered. Col. Fisher, of Brockville, also advo-cated some form of conscription. Lt.-Col. Thompson said that the city corps were at present up to strength, but the rural militia was a heartbreak. Unless there was an improvement they night as well disband. Better pay and armories, he thought was the r BEEKEEPERS 1138 1083 1319 Port Rowar 72 Campbellford Several Valuable Papers .. 3051 1766 at Convention. St. Mary's 3395 1433 Lakefield 139 Norwood . Peterboro 81

It With Favor.

Bad Shape.

Mr. James on Educational Methods in Farming.

Toronto despatch: The Beekeepers' 61( Convention continued yesterday with a 786 area number of delegates nr.

QUINN'S POLICY Brotherhood Won't Pay it to the Widow.

Chicago, Nov. 20 .- The Brothernood comotive Engineers will refuse to of La pay an insurance policy of $1,500 on the life of ohn Quinn, whose widow is in the county jail charged with responsibility for his death.

sibility for his death. Officials of the organization inform-ed Lt. James Mooney, of the Kensing-ton police station, yesterday that this action had been taken because of a clause in the by-laws of the organiza-tion, which states that the money will not be paid in cases where the benefi-ciary is supposed to be responsible for the death.

Two former boarders of the Quinn household, who are now in Chastanoo-ra, Tenn., were visited by Detective James Cafferty. It was ga, Tenn., were visited by Detective James Cafferty. It was stated they will be compelled to return to Chicago to testify before the grand jury.

Go and Sin No More, the Judge Told Him.

Warns Him Regarding the Black Hand Societies:

Toronto despatch: Found not guilty by a jury of the criminal assize sfter two hours' deliberation, "rank Griro, accused of murdering Frank Traro on July 30, at the corner of Wront and Church streets, was liberated by Mr. Justice Riddell yesterday afternoon.

"No person could possibly find taun with your verdict," said his lordship with your verdict," said his lordship, to the jury. "You believed his story, and you had every right to do so." Turning to the freed prisoner, who stood up in the dock, the judge said: "Let me jive you a word of warning, and, through you, to your people. You have no right to carry weapons. This has been the cause of many fatalities smoog your people. Also, do not be im-posed upon by people who tell you they are members of the Black Hand Society. are members of the Black Hand Society. They extort money out of people who fear that sort of thing. I charge you to come to the police. The laws of this country are strong enough to extend the hand of protection. Now go and behave you will and upome a good Canadian citizen." His lordship also asked Griro to break away from his former comparisms, and 'ead a decent respectable life. He said there was no reason why he should not become a credit to Limself and the country in which he is now a citizen.

credit to Limself and the count-y in which he is now a citz.a. Griro said: "I thank you, sir." and smilingly left the dock and strode out. of the court room, where he was greeted by a number of his friends. In his address to the jusy, following the submission of all the evidence, his lordship explained, thoroughly the meaning of shooting in solf distance.

lordship explained thoroughly the meaning of shooting in self-defence. He said that any man was perfectly justified to rejel anything which he had reason to believe would bring about serious injury to himself. His lordship said that the Camorra, which existed in Italy had brunches which existed in Italy, had branches elsewhere. If there were branches in Ontario, and the police unes thed them, the members would get the limit unes "thed which the law allowed the such diabelie roceedings.

LIGHTS WENT OUT

to Skin Sufferers If you, or someone dear to you, are suffering the itching, burning, sleep-destroying torments of eczema or other cruel skin eruption, with its embarrassing, un-sightly disfigurement; if you have tried all manner of treatment, no matter how harsh, to no avail, and have all but given up hope of cure, write to-day for a liberal sample of Cuticura Soap and Ointment. Thousands of skin-tortured sufferers, from infancy to age, have found that the first warm bath with Cuticura Soap and gentle application of Cuticura Ointment bring instant relief, permit rest and sleep, and prove the first steps in a speedy and successful treatment. Ad-dress "Cuticura," Dept. 10M, Boston, U. S. A.

with all the public schools. Flower cuiwith all the public scoons, Flower cut-ture had a great uplifting effect on a children. The beautifying of villages would do much to solve the problem of how to keep the younger generation from migrating to the L rge towns and effect the thought traves a mitche trom migrating to the 1 rge towns and eities: He thought it was a mistake to make free grants of seeds and bulke to children and suggest. I that a nomin-al charge be made. The fact of a child paying for a thing if it were only a cent, made it take a despect interest in it. So with the seels. They would be watched with in it. So with the seels. They would be watched with greater care. The treasurer reported receipts for the year, $177.68; exponses, $53.93; balance in hand $93.75. It was decided to amend the constitution to provide that all societizes with a membership of 200 or less, should contribute $2 per year, 100, 200 and up to 5-00, an extra $1 per 100 or fraction thereof. The pre-sident was authorized to nominate a sident was authorized to nominete a committee to wait apon the Govern-ment to secure a charter of metopolation for the Association, Papers were read on "Sweet Peas, Varieties and Cul-tivation." by Mr. T. D. Dockray; "The Sokool Garden." by Mr. W. Gayman, Jordan Harbor, His Worship, Mayor Commentational Sciences (Saraharan Sciences) Geary extended civic grading and come to the delegates. 15.61

Mrs. Dunnington-Grath of London, England, told the members of the Hor-ticultural Society last evening that the gridiron method of city planning, as adopted in Canada, posse al no ad-vantages and bad many faults. In order to go from the place to another was necessary to travel around was necessary to travel around two sides of a square, and ther were no lo endes of a square, and there were no to-cal points for public and lings. In connection with the garden suburb movement, she said Tore to could nev-er hope to have beautified suburbs for the workingmen without gatcher and cheaper means of transpertation, seen surface lines. Means of beautifying ci-ties and their suburbs were discussed by the speaker, with the assistance of limelight views. Hon, James S. Duff, Minister of Apri-

SUFFERING

YEARS

sion, and several other members of the scholarship is regarded as the blue ribbon of the classical school at Oxford. organization -poke.

While William Low was engaged at Port Dover hauling a cake of ice along the runway into the fish house, a string of cars was shunded down the siding which the runway crosses. Low was caught by a car and badly injured. He was removed to the hospital and his left leg amoutated.

The property owners of Kingston vot ed on a by-law to guarantee a bond issue of $100,000 to promote the erec-tion of a hotel on the harbor front near acht club house. The vote was: 1.450; against. 297. There is some uncertainty as to whether the measure received the necessary number of votes

FLOWER SOCIETIES

Growth of Ontario Horticultural Association.

Children and Seeds-The Laying Out of Cities.

Torouto despatch: There was a splenalid attendance of delegates at the sixt's annual convention of the Ontario flor ticultural Association at the city holl yesterday. The report of the superin-tendent, Mr. J. Lockie Wilson, showed considerable progress during the nast year, Four new societies had been form-ed and four more would be started within the next few weeks. The total membership of the affiliated societies was now over 11,000. There were still about 75 societies which had not yet utili-ated with the Central Society. Through he efforts of the Association the epirit of home and claic improvement was rapidly spreading throughout the province. In many towns and villages, prizes had been offered for the best kept lawn and gardens, which had giv-n a great stimulus to the movement. The best results were achieved in those towns where the movement was endorsed by the press. He advocates the entablishment of gardens in connection advice is free.

11:3

AFTER

er. digestion is bet ter, and I can walk with ambition. I have encouraged many mothers of many mothers of families to take it, as it is the best rem-edyin the world. You can publish this in the papers." – Mrs. WILLIAM BUURQUE, Fox Creek, N.B., Canada. The above is only one of the thou-sands of grateful letters which are sands of grateful letters which are constantly being received by the Pinkham Medicine Company of Lynn, Mass, which prove beyond a doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Com-pound, made from roots and herbs, actually does cure these obstinate dis-eases of women after all other means have failed, and that every such suf-fering woman owas it to berself to at have failed, and that every such suf-fering woman owes it to herself to at least give Lydis E. Pinkham's Vegeta-ble Compound a trial before submit-ting to an operation, or giving up hope of recovery.

Mrs. Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health and her were 50,000 peach trees, infected with these two diseases, that should be eut down. This is, however, only 4 per cent. Streetsvill of the total number of peach trees in the province. Probably nine-tenths of Listowel. diseased trees are found in 35 orthe chards.

cankers,

In order to prevent the spread of and to control insect and fungous pests of peach trees. Wr. Caesar made the fol-lowing suggestions: A good biologist should be appointed for studying the disease and teaching the inspectors, and the present system of appointing, pay-ing and overseeing inspectors should be remodeled. The suggestions were en-dorsed in a resolution by the associa-tion. How "little petch" and yellows are bandled in New York State or-chards were described by Mr. B 'D. Van-Buren, chief of the Bureau of Horticul-operation. As an argument in its favor, he said that in 1996, the Norfolk Asso-ciation had only 17 members, while this year the membership was 535. Before success could be hoped for a persistent educational campaign in better orcharding must be carried on among the mem-bers. In this regard the speaker thought that the Federal and Provincial Departments of Agriculture could lend greater aid than they were now doing.

BOMB BURST

Chicago Dance Hall.

Chicago, Nov. 20.—Bomb throwing, which for many weeks has been almost entirely missing, was renewed last night, when one of the missiles was burled at a dance hall in the Tenderloin district. Like many preceding in the last tew years, the resultant explosion did little lamage. The bomb exploded with a roar that ould be heard for half a mile. Buildings n the vicinity were shaken and a large plate glass window was blown out of the front of the dance hall. A dance was in progress at the time, and the dancers rushed to the street. It was the popular wellef that the bomb had been exploded ecause of the recent investigation into. vice by the civil service commission.

1

.2758 Pembroke Tillsonburg. 1109 Cobden Brampton ..... 3412 Arnprior 707 Renfrey Streetsville. 543 Eganville Stratford. ... 12.929 Casselman .2289 Rockland Milverton. . 826 Midland Orillia .... .6835, Preston Penetang'ne. .3568 Avr 651 New Humburg Coldwater. .

reemore. 643 Welland Alliston. 1279 Bridgeburg Barrie .... .6428 Chippewa Rectour. 564 Fort Erie Bradford 946 Port Colborne Tottenham... 507 Harriston French. Paris.... Berlin.

Elmira .... Galt. Hespeler. Frin. . . Fergus. Dunda -Waterdown. Markham Mimico..... . 1407 Aurora.

Mount Fogest...1837 411 Palmerston .. .. 1665 4095 Arthur 15192 Bellwood .4360 Clifford . Waterlo 1780 Drayton .10,299 Guelph ... ...2368 Elora... 511 South River 1534 Sundridge .4297 Powassan . 756 Lindsay 909 Bobcaygoon Richmond Hill 652 Fenelon Falls. Weston ...... 1875 Halburton Woodbridge ... 607 Omeration Richmond

1055 .. 1643 Newmarket ... 2968 Arkona. Holland Land'g 505 Oil Springs Stouffville .... 1025 Dryden 71. 5362 Keewatin 1:21.) 2558 1945 Chelmsford 1 550 864 Mattawa Little Current 1208 North Bay 1523 Luttle Current 1208 North B: Webbwood....657 Sturgeon Gore Bay....1703 Sudbury Pruce Mines...685 Bonfield S. Ste Marie...10986 Cobalt S. Ste Marie...10986 Cobalt 771.5 Sturgeon Falls 2188 .4139 484 5630 670

. 886 Haileybury opper Cliff...3086 Latchford ...428 ochrane....1714 New Liskeard ...2107 outh Essex...406 Tilbury Village 962

STEAMER FOUNDLAS. London, Nov. 20.—A despatch to the Lloyds from Cuxhaven says the British steamship St. Bride, from Hamburg,for Norfolk, has foundered off Schaerhorn. A lifeboat belonging to the St. Bride containing two bodies, was picked up of saa vesterday.

all parts of the province. The president,

Mr. W. J. Craig, was in the chair, The opening speech of the afternoon session was delivered by the president on "Beeswax from the Bee to the Founda-As Murderer Was Being Sentenced to Death

jon Mill." This was followed by an instructive address on "Methods of Organizing Beekeepers," by Mr. E. B. Tyrrell, secretary National Beekeepers London, Nov. 20 .- A trial for murder at the Stafford assizes ended under Association, Detroit. If they were going to handle supplies, he said, the plan he would lay before them was to dramatic circumstances last night, Just as the jury was about to prenounce the verdict of guilty, the electric lights in the court room suddenly went out and the whole building was plunged sell at the regular retail price, and not to cut the price. He proposed that they should become a business institution, not merely for themselves, but for into darkness.

After a long and painful silence cand-les were procured by court attend-ants. Two lights were placed on the judge's dais and one was held in front of the prisoner, who stood erect in the dock waiting to hear his fate. Other everybody who wished to my. Mr. C. C. James, Deputy Minister, of Mr. C. C. cannes, neputy minister, of Agriculture, spoke next, and was well received. Referring to the previous speech, he said that the price of pro-ducts was going very high for the con-somer, yet he knew that the high price candles were put on the jury box and the barristers' table and in this dim light the jury formally delivered its was not going into the consumers' pockets. This is a serious problem to which you farmers should give at-tention," he said. "To see that you get a square deal is sufficient renson The prisoner, who was accused of murdering his sweetheart, was then sencational methods in Agriculture, "It is necessary that the farmers of Cutario be educated in the very best means for getting the best results. The department used to send out men to speak on methods of agriculture, and mach literature was distributed on the same subject. Yet these did Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., deepatch: Ralph Neault was almost instantly kill-ed this morning at the Merchant Mill of the Lake Superior Corporation. Neault, who is only 16 years old, op-erates a spike machine and in some manner his sleeves was caught in a belt which moves his machine. He was hadly crushed about the chest and his arm and much interature was distributed on the same subject. Yet these did little good. More recently, therefore we have made a change. We send a trained man right to the farm, where he takes off his coat and works along with the farmer. He process ultimate crushed about the chest and his arm was almost torn from his body. with the farmer. He prunes, cultivates, sprays, dfains, plans and the results have been a decided increase in produc-

VENUS AND MOON.

Burkeley, Cal., Nev. 20,-The moon and Venus were in conjunction at noon yesterdas. The shenomenon was observed by memoers of the astronom department of the University of Cali fornia here and by hundreds of persons, as both moon and star were visible to the naked eye against clear blue sky.

Superior, iWS., Nov. 20. -The ore ship-ping season is practically closed at this port. The Soo line ore dock loads its last eargo to-day and the Great North-ern docks will supend in a few days. More than 10,000,000 tons of ore have been shipped, the largest raount mov-end from any wort on the creat lakas ed from any port on the great lakes this year.

o

per methods of farming, yet uaknown to him, he would double farm. "Let me say in closing that I doubt

THE ATHENS REPORTER NOV 22, 1911

We are headquarters fdr

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | for their concert on the evening of                                                | Anniversary services in connections                                             | 44tf Anthony Preston, Plum Hollow.                                                                                                                     | Trunks and Suit Cases                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | Dec. 7.                                                                            | with the Baptist church, Plum Hollow,                                           |                                                                                                                                                        | Prices the lowest and quality the                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | 1                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| Kingston Business                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | A coal oil heater in Mr J. P. Lamb's                                               | will be held on Sunday, Dec. 3 at 11                                            | Wood For Sale                                                                                                                                          | best.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | FURNITURE                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| THE PARTY OF                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | residence went wrong on Sunday even-                                               | a.m. and 7 p.m. Preacher, Rev. M. E                                             | A large stock of Hardwood-dry and green-ready for immediate delivery, Apply to                                                                     | Special Sale.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| College Limited                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | residence went wrong on Sunday even-ing and threatened the destruction of      | O De la la la la mai                                                            | 40tf FRANCIS BLANCHER, Athens                                                                                                                          | 20 per cent discount.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | CALL AND SEE                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | the building, but it was safely removedto the street where it made a brilliant | Ou DIOCE THE COALD HASE INCLOUDY                                                | Calin Densingd                                                                                                                                         | We can save you your dollars.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | ÷                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| KINGSTON ONTARIO                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | illumination,                                                                      | and only one lot was sold. The                                                  | Cushions Repaired                                                                                                                                      | CITAC D DUDD & CO                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | our stock of                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| Highest Education                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | A Citizona' Committee has been                                                     | number registered was small, only                                               | All new but springs and frame $2.35.Tops covered and relined $9.35.                                                                              | CHAS. R. RUDD & CO.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | High-Class Furniture                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | formed to oppose the repeat of Local                                               | 1,390 boxes.                                                                    | All new but springs and frame $2.35.Tops covered and relined $9.35.Everything new but the wood and iron.Freight paid both ways by stage. | BROCKVILLE                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | ingi class i unituro                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| At Lowest Cost                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | Option in Athens. President, Rev.                                                  | The B.W. & N.W. excursion to                                                    | Seven inch Belting made of 4-ply 12-oz Duck,25c per foot double.                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| m i til Fall tam bining                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |                                                                                    | Brockville on Monday evening, inconnection with Miss May Robson's           | 33tf JAS. W. JUDSON, Brockville                                                                                                                        | BASTERN ONTARIO                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | For the trade of this seasonwe have a stock of furniture                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| Twenty sixth year. Fall term beginsAugust 30th.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |                                                                                    | play "A Night Off," was well patron-                                            | Cattle and Horses                                                                                                                                      | EASTERN ONTARIO                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | well worthy of your attention.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| Courses in Bookkeeping, Shorthand                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |                                                                                    | ized.                                                                           | Cattle and Horses                                                                                                                                      | Live Stock and Poultry                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| Civil Service and English.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | Since the last Monday in Decemberthis year falls on Christmas Day, the         | Mrs Rebecca Smith of North Au-                                                  | For Holstein cattle any age, pure tred orgrades: also horses, any style for any purpose                                                            |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | Whether you require a com-plete suite for the Parlor, Din-                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | insting of andidator for mombon                                                    | gusta, who was severely burned a few                                            | -Apply to                                                                                                                                              | Show                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | ing Room, Bedroom, or simply                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| Our graduates get the best positionsIn a short time over sixty secured                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | this is municipal councils will be hold                                            | days ago, was removed to her son's                                              |                                                                                                                                                        |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | an individual piece, we can                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| positions with one of the largest rail.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | on Friday 22nd. December, as provid                                                | remain during the winter.                                                       | Lumber for Sale                                                                                                                                        | OTTAWA, Jan 16 to 19, 1912                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | meet your requirements.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| way corporations in Canada. Enter                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | ed by section 124 of the consolidated municipal Act, 1903.                         |                                                                                 | About 80,000 feet of lumber for sale-suitable                                                                                                          | Large classes for the leading kinds of                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | Our long experience enables                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| any time. Call or write for informa-                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | And so the old question of "Wet or                                                 | Gananoqueans are looking forwaad                                                | About 80,000 feet of lumber for sale-suitablefor all kinds of building-composed principal-ly of pine and hemlock, piled at Athens and          | Large classes for the leading kinds of                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | us to buy only reliable goods,                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| tion.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | Dry," Local Option or the open bar,                                                | As the next Dominion election is                                                | Delta.21 tf F. BLANCHER, Athens                                                                                                                    | Hor ses                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | and we offer them at very                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| H. F. METCALFE, Principal                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | is again to be decided by the people of                                            | years away, they may have to practice                                           |                                                                                                                                                        | Dairy and Beef Cattle, Sheep.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | attractive prices.Your inspection invited.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| approximation international and a state of the state of t | Athens. It is first, last and always a                                             |                                                                                 | House and Lots for Sale                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| the short of the first state of the second                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | moral question, and with the moralsense of the people of this community        | Married - Jaquette - Sexton - At                                                | House and 2 lots, on Mill st., formerly ownedby the late Thomas Henderson. Apply toT. R. REALE, Athens, or7tf ANDREW HENDERSON, El oida.   | $11.000.00 IN PRIZES                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | T. G. Stevens                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | the matter must be left.                                                           | 8, 1911, by the Rev. F A. Read.                                                 | T. R. BEALE, Athens, or                                                                                                                                | For free prize lists apply to the                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | Mrs Merrick went to Kemptville                                                     | Benjamin Jaquette to Ruby Sexton                                                |                                                                                                                                                        | Secretary                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | UNDERTAKING                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | yesterday to attend the funeral of her                                             | both of Delta.                                                                  | Farm For Sale                                                                                                                                          | PETER WHITE, D. T. ELDERKIN,                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | 1                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | sister. Mrs Gilmour. Mrs McKenny                                                   | The A.Y P.A. will meet next week                                                | 290 acres, 15 miles from Kingston and                                                                                                                  | Pres., Pembroke. Ssc'y, Ottawa                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                    | on Tuesday at 8 o'clock. A mission-                                             | one mile from the thriving Village of Har-rowsmith: good frame dwelling; three                                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | NT DI                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                    | ary study will be held, based on Sher-                                          | barns and other necessary outbuildings :                                                                                                               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | New Bakery                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | This week Mr B. W. Loverin of                                                      | India." This will also be the evening of                                        | small orchard : about 140 acres undercultivation. This farm is well watered                                                                        | Plants :                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | Lion Dunory                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| LERKE                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | Greentush is baving installed an Earl                                              |                                                                                 | and well wooded. A snap at $6,000.                                                                                                                    | Azaleas                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| ULO PUPE                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | gas generator for lighting his residence                                           | The man of love may be guilty of                                                | We have besides a large list of farmsfor sale in the vicinity of Kingston which                                                                    | Tulips                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | Having leased the Slack Bakery, I                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| A House on Your                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | and barns. An electric lighter will beattached to each burner, doing away      | many blunders of doctrine. while ccld-                                          | is one of the best markets for farm pro-duce in Canada.                                                                                            | Daffodils                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | am prepared to furnish the public                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | with the use of metabox                                                            | heartedness may always be intellectual                                          | T. J. LOCKHART,                                                                                                                                        | Hyacinths, etc.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | with a first-class quality of freshbread of all kinds.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| Hands                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | The opening meeting of this election                                               | ly right; but in the last great day lovewill be recognized as the one thing |                                                                                                                                                        | Cut Flowers:                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | · And the second s |
| Did you ever figure out how,suall a percentage of our popu-                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | campaign will be held by Mr A. E.                                                  | needful-F. W. Robertson.                                                        | Kingston, Ont.                                                                                                                                         |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | Fancy Cakes                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| lation: pass your house where                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | Donovan in the town hall on Monday                                                 | m                                                                               | CIDIC WANDED                                                                                                                                           | RosesCarnations                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | In the line of Fancy Cakes of all                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| they could see a "To Let" sign."                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | evening next. Mr Donovon will beaccompanied by S. J. Robins, Mr H.             | The Women's Institute will meet in                                              | GIRLS WANTED.$5.00 per week                                                                                                                       | TT' 1                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | kinds, we are not excelled. Weddingcakes furnished on short notice.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| they could see a "To Let" sign."or how large a percentage readour paper? Good temants arenot the limit (that have time towaste in going around lookingfor league, 'They, lesk in ourWast Ade"If you have by houst'se yourhade its "Ream to, Let" ad.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | A. Stewart, K.C., of Brockville, and                                               | The programme will include : Inex-                                              | to commence with                                                                                                                                       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | Cleanliness is our specialty. Your                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
| waste in going around looking                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | other speakers. The issues of this                                                 | pensive Christmas gifts, Mrs H. H                                               | for girls eighteen                                                                                                                                     | I THI THI TROUTING                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | patronage invited,                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
| Want Ade                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | campaign, from a Conservative pointof view, will no doult be clearly de-       | Arnold, Mrs Patton. Christmas Cakes                                             | and over. Apply at once.                                                                                                                               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | D I DUULLIDC                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| Babdo, in, " House, to, Lot " ad.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | fined by these able speakers, and there                                            | Musical number. Miss Lulu McLean                                                | D S PERRIN & Co. Limited                                                                                                                               | BROCKVILLE, - ONTARIO                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | R. J. PHILLIPS                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| detti hetni them to pen                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | will probably be a large attendance.                                               | Miss Jessie Percival                                                            | London, Ont                                                                                                                                            |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | ATHENS - ONTARIO                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| The second se                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                    |                                                                                 | · · ·                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                    |                                                                                 |                                                                                                                                                        |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | 같은 이번 것을 알려야 한다. 한번 것을 했다.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | 같은 사람이 말 감독을 위해 다 가지 않는 것을 했다.                                                     | 한 명그가 아직 방법을 즐고하는 것을                                                            |                                                                                                                                                        | 영향 가 안 감독이 있는 것이 없다. 같은 것은 것이 같이 많이 했다.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | 전 동안에서 여기 가지 않는 것이 많이 많이 했다.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                    | 그는 그는 그가 없다는 것이다.                                                               |                                                                                                                                                        |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| tore if the                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |                                                                                    |                                                                                 |                                                                                                                                                        |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | - 성격 가슴 영제에 가슴                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
| Max I                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                                                                                    | and Press Street and Address and Address and                                    | States of the second                                        | and the second sec | A la province l'anna de la province des                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |

to be highly entertaining programme