

MRS. ANDERSON TELLS WOMEN

How Backache and Periodic Pains Yield to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Leslie, Sask.—"For about a year I was troubled with a distressing down-bearing pain before and during the periods, and from terrible headaches and backache. I tried to go to a doctor, and as I knew several women who had taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound with good results, I finally bought some and took four bottles of it. I certainly do recommend it to every woman with troubles like mine. I feel fine now and hope to be able to keep my medicine on hand at all times, as no woman ought to be without it in the house."—Mrs. OSCAR A. ANDERSON, Box 15, Leslie, Sask.

Mrs. Kelsey Adds Her Testimony
Copenhagen, N. Y.—"I read your advertisement in the papers and my husband induced me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to relieve me from pains and weakness. I was so weak that I could not walk at times. Now I can do my housework and help my husband out doors. I am willing for you to publish this letter if you think it will help others."—Mrs. HARRIET KELSEY, R.F.D., Copenhagen, N. Y.

Lady Wyvernes' Daughter.

CHAPTER XXIV.

For some moments the count and the lady sat in perfect silence, both collecting their forces for the final struggle.

"You must remember, my lady," said the Italian, at length, "that you are entirely in my power. One word from me, and Lord Lynne would never see you again."

"I am half inclined to speak that word myself," she replied. "I would rather be at Lord Lynne's mercy than in your power."

Looking at her proud, calm face, Count Rinaldo knew that she spoke truly. For the first time he felt that he stood in the presence of his superior. He did not wish to drive her to extremes. A sudden thought flashed through his mind.

"Inez," he said, "be reasonable. You are happy, prosperous, and beloved. I do not wish to deprive you of all that makes life dear and precious. I am contented to forego my claims if you will give me your assistance."

"In what?" she asked briskly.

"In helping me to find a rich English wife."

"Do you dare to ask my aid in betraying another as I myself have been betrayed?" she said, proudly.

"See, Inez," he replied, "there is much to be said on both sides. If I meet with any one I like, and am a good and true husband, how can you call that betrayal?"

"You forget," she said, "that you burdened yourself as well as me with vows."

"Ah," said he, "you would imply that, being a married man, I cannot have the happiness of repeating the ceremony; but I have my serious doubts as to whether that hurried marriage of ours stands good in English law. I do not wish to press the matter, as I am sure you would not care to be known to Lord Lynne as having occupied any less dignified position than that of wife."

He had stung her at last, she stood erect before him, with flaming eyes.

"If I were a man," she said, "I would slay you."

"I do not doubt it," was the reply; "but you had better coolly and calmly consider the position. I do not wish to interfere with you; what has happened will ever remain buried as regards myself. You are just as you are. I know you love your husband. In return for my forbearance, I only ask one favor; when I come to you and tell you I have found the lady I should like to make my wife, promise to help me with all your influence."

"And what if I refuse?" she added.

"In that case my course is very simple," he replied; "I shall go direct to Lord Lynne and ask him for the lady who is, or ought to be, my wife. If the English law is against me, and you are not my wife, your disgrace will be the greater; my lord will spurn you. If you are my wife, you must share your earthly goods with me. I give you the benefit of the doubt. Think twice before you give the world such a delicious dish of scandal over the fair and dainty Lady Lynne. Hark!" he added, suddenly; "that is my lord's voice. I will wait to see him. I am anxious to know more of him."

Inez could not interfere to prevent him; she was obliged to stand by calmly and see her husband touch the hand of the man she loathed. Then Lord Lynne went up to his wife and asked if she was better, and spoke so kindly and tenderly to her that Rinaldo's face grew even darker.

"How he loves her, that quiet, cool Englishman! Ah, my lady, you would not like to leave him," he said to himself.

Then the door opened again, and Agatha entered. She looked very graceful, the fair, sweet face, wearing a delicate flush, and a drooping white plume contrasting with the golden hair. She went up to her sister, and asked, anxiously, if she felt better. The count rose, and Lord Lynne, unconscious that by that very act he was commencing a tragedy, introduced him to his sister-in-law.

"This," thought Rinaldo to himself, "is the co-heiress; had a fair, dainty creature, too."

From that moment his plans were laid.

Thinking to please his wife, Lord Lynne was most cordial to her friend. He made him welcome in his generous, hospitable way; he pressed him to dine with them, but the look on my lady's face warned him it were better to decline, and not to try her too far. Count Rinaldo, who possessed a great, almost magical power of charming when he chose, laid himself out to please Lord Lynne and Agatha. He interested and amused them; when he rose to take his leave, they begged him not to be long before he came again.

"We are going to the opera to-morrow evening," said Lord Lynne. "Join us there, and return with us. Lady Lynne expects one or two friends to a petit souper."

Count Rinaldo promised to do so.

"Inez," said Agatha, "why did you never tell us that you had such a nice friend as Count Montaliti?"

"I do not consider him very nice," said her sister. "I never thought of naming him; it is so long since I have seen or heard anything of him."

"Where did you know him?" asked Philip; "he is one of the best bred men I ever remember having seen. I did not know you received such courtly visitors in your old castle of Serrano."

"Nor did we, as a rule," she replied. "His coming there was quite accidental."

"It is a wonder he did not fall in love with you, Inez," said Agatha, with a smile. "He must be invulnerable."

"He is the last person I should imagine any one could love," said Inez, hastily; then seeing something like surprise on the face of her husband and sister, she continued, carelessly, "I am prejudiced, perhaps; but a frank, noble Englishman, seems to me the only kind of man to love. I am heartily tired of dark foreign faces."

Lord Lynne laughed, and thanked her for the implied compliment. Agatha smiled, and yet thought her sister's manner strange. To her husband's distress, Lady Lynne did not recover from the little indisposition that had attacked her on the evening of the ball. She looked ill,—her spirits were unequal. At times she seemed to dread going out; and again, no persuasion could induce her to remain at home. They saw her flushed as with a burning fever, and again pale and cold.

"She has been out too much," he thought. "This gay, fashionable life is too great a change for her. I shall be glad when the season is over."

"I do not think I shall go to the opera to-night," said Lady Lynne to Agatha. "I am tired,—you can go with Philip."

"As you like, dear," replied Agatha. "Do you think I can entertain two gentlemen? The count is to join us, you know."

A sudden thought struck Lady Lynne, and her face grew pale.

"I had half forgotten that," she said. "I think I will go."

Agatha wondered why her sister looked half impatient when she saw her in her white opera-dress.

"What pains you have taken with your toilet to-night, Agatha!" she said. "Are you equipped for conquest?"

"No," replied the young girl, with a smile. "Conquests are not in my line."

She did look very sweet and lovely in a dress of rich white lace, without any ornaments, except a simple green wreath in her golden hair.

Many were the glances directed to Lady Lynne that evening, the contrast between the glowing, magnificent beauty of the Andalusian and the delicate loveliness of her sister struck and charmed every one. People wondered, too, who that dark, handsome man was bending so attentively over the young English girl.

To Lady Lynne he was deferential, almost reverential; to her sister, he was all that one could imagine a chivalrous and courteous man to be.

It was a gay little party assembled that evening in the cozy boudoir of Lady Lynne; supper was already prepared, and no one seemed so unimpaired or so happy as the count. He did not conceal his great admiration of the golden-haired, graceful girl by whose side he lingered. He amused and interested every one—his social talents were of no mean order; and Count Rinaldo seemed in a fair way to find an easy entrance into the highest, and most exclusive circles, in London.

Later in the evening the conversation turned upon the autumn and its sport.

Amundsen Prepared for Hazardous Polar Flight.

Bergen, Norway, May 15.—(A.P.)—Ronald Amundsen, the famous Norwegian Arctic explorer, will attempt his hazardous air flight from Point Barrow in Alaska, to Spitzbergen at the end of June, if it is announced here. Between these two points he will traverse what has hitherto been the Arctic "blind region," a territory of which nothing whatever is known. The greater part of this blind sector lies directly between Point Barrow and the North Pole.

Experts in polar work consider that one of the greatest of the difficulties Amundsen will have to contend with, will be that of orientation—the determination of his latitude and longitude while under flight. Assuming that Amundsen starts from Point Barrow under ideal conditions, and in due course finds himself directly over the Pole, he will, according to astronomical theory, have south of all sides of him. It is of vital importance that he start his southward course along the right meridian, for although in which ever direction he flies it will be south, the following of a wrong meridian may lead him along the icy wastes of the Greenland tableland or even across to Siberia.

Another danger, according to polar experts, is that he may find himself over the open sea between Greenland and Spitzbergen, which is some 350 miles at this point, and entirely out of the routes of any vessels employed in Arctic work. Spitzbergen is notorious for the thick fog which suddenly and completely envelops it in the course of a few moments, and here again lies a danger.

The success or failure of the adventurous flight, polar navigators say, depends upon atmospheric conditions, and on these alone—engine failure, of course, excepted.

A STYLISH GOWN FOR A MATURE FIGURE.

4882 This is very smart in the new figured silks, or in printed crepe or voile. The blouse and skirt are finished separately, but may be joined together under the belt of the blouse. The sleeve is new and distinctive and the lines of the model are altogether slenderizing and pleasing.

The Pattern is cut in 7 Sizes: 35, 38, 40, 42, 44, 46 and 48 inches bust measure. A 35 inch size requires 6 1/2 yards of 36 inch material. The width of the skirt at the foot is 2 1/2 yards.

Pattern mailed to any address on receipt of 10c. in silver or stamps.

A PRETTY PROCK FOR A YOUTHFUL FIGURE.

4368. Figured silk and georgette are here combined. The binding is of satin in a contrasting color. This is a very popular style. It will develop well in tulle, figured voile, and crepe.

The Pattern is cut in 3 Sizes: 14, 18 and 20 years. A 16 year size requires 4 1/2 yards of 36 inch material. For waist and skirt band of plain material 1/2 yard is required. The width at the foot is 5 1/2 yards.

Pattern mailed to any address on receipt of 10c. in silver or stamps.

Women were Delighted.

Montreal, June 16.—Prof. A. C. Clay, of Yale University, lecturing at McGill on a recent journey through Babylon and Assyria, brought warm applause from the feminine portion of his audience by the exhibition of a slide showing a picture of a payroll and revealing the information that so far back as the time of Moses women were sometimes employed to do the work of men, and that in one particular case at least, she received a salary equal to that paid to a man for similar work.

Strike in Sydney is Settled

Ex-Premier of Bulgaria Killed by Peasants
—Forest Fires in N. B. Beyond Control
—Wholesale Murder on Rum Runner.

STRIKE ENDED.
SYDNEY, June 15. The strike of miners and maintenance men employed by the British Empire Steel Company at North Sydney Mines, which commenced yesterday morning at four o'clock, ended at noon to-day following an agreement between the Corporation and members of the U. M. W. Executive. The threatened strike in the Cape Breton District also has been averted for the time being, satisfactory agreement having been reached. The reinstatement of the men of the Florence Colliery, over whose dismissal the trouble arose, formed the basis of settlement to-day. The conferences are planned and the situation in Cape Breton labor is now brighter than for some time.

STAMBOLISKY KILLED.
SOFIA, June 15. Premier Stamboulsky, of Bulgaria since the formation of the Peasants' Government in 1918, was overthrown last week by the Bulgarian army, was killed this morning in the village of Votren near the town of Slavovitsa. He was regarded as the course of an attempt by a party of peasants to rescue him from the guards who had captured him after a three day pursuit.

HOW STAMBOLISKY MET HIS DEATH.
LONDON, June 15. The Bulgarian Agency here announced this afternoon the death of ex-Premier Stamboulsky, who was killed this morning during a fusillade after a party of armed peasants had attacked the car in which he was passing through the village of Slavovitsa. The ex-Premier was being transported to Sofia under an armed guard being afraid of giving himself up to the party of searching troops. Angry villagers whom they passed along the way made frequent attempts to lynch the fugitive, but without effect, until a fusillade sent after the car a bullet struck Stamboulsky and killed him. The Government has ordered a searching enquiry to ascertain who fired the fatal shot.

DEATH REGRETTED IN LONDON.
LONDON, June 15. The news of the death of former Premier Stamboulsky, of Bulgaria, causes deep regret in diplomatic and official circles in London, where he was regarded as a sincere friend of the Entente. Marquis Curzon and HURDER ON RUM SMUGGLER.

NEW YORK, June 15. The discovery of scraps of a woman's clothing on the two-masted smuggler Mary Beatrice, which was picked up Wednesday at the entrance to New York Harbor, after her crew had been slain in battle with Chinese passengers, to-day added another knot to the tangle the port authorities are seeking to unravel. Captain William Williams, of the Treasury Department, said he had been given information by an unnamed "stool pigeon" that he and a woman had gone aboard the vessel a week ago from a rum running motor boat as the Mary Beatrice lay with this rum fleet off the Jersey Coast. The man and woman fled, Capt. Williams was informed, when the light broke out between the passengers and crew in which all the crew of five, except the Captain, who had abandoned the schooner, were slain, after the killing of five Chinese whom the captain had agreed to smuggle into the United States. One of the Chinese who was wounded said to-day that the battle started when a member of the crew attempted to collect an additional two hundred and fifty dollars from each passenger. He said five of the Chinese had been summoned on deck to help handle the schooner on the pretext that a storm was coming up. As they went up three were stabbed and two shot, he said, the rest swarmed on the deck and slew the crew.

FIRE BEYOND CONTROL.

FREDERICTON, June 15. The forest fire which swept across from Quebec into New Brunswick, destroying hunting clubs on the Restigouche, is reported to have reached such proportions that it is futile to try to control it by human means.

FOREST FIRE LOSSES.

FREDERICTON, June 15. Lumbermen to-day placed the monetary forest loss suffered so far in destruction by the forest fire which has burned more than two hundred and fifty square miles in New Brunswick during the past two weeks, at not less than four million dollars. These figures were reached by a valuation basis of an average of twenty-five dollars to the acre; in addition there have been losses in destruction of mills, houses, barns and other buildings, several highway bridges and crops.

TWO VILLAGES COMPLETELY WIPED OUT.

QUEBEC, June 15. The villages of Sully and Les Etroits, in the Gaspé County, have been completely destroyed by forest fires, and unconfirmed reports say that two lives have been lost. Every residence and even the churches suffered in the flames, seventy-five structures having been reduced to ashes. The fire came upon them so swiftly that many of the people saved nothing.

UNEARTHLY SCANDALS IN BULGARIA.

SOFIA, June 15. Newspapers continue to publish various versions of alleged irregularities and scandals of the Peasant Premier's regime. Trains are now running to all points in Bulgaria and private messages are permitted over the Government wires.

DROWNED THE LIQUOR.

NEW YORK, June 15. The steamer George Washington arrived off Sandy Hook to-day with eighty-seven cases of liquor which the passengers had not consumed. The liquor was thrown overboard.

RESIGNED UNDER DURESS.

LONDON, June 15. Li Yuan Hung, former President of China, has issued a statement from Tientsin repudiating his resignation, which he declares was tendered under duress.

Public Opinion Must Rule.

Sooner or later it will have to be considered whether the public does not merit the contempt with which it is treated. In the last few years as it was never evidenced before people displayed little or no resentment against the indifferent and somewhat greater flagrant manner in which the country's best interests have been violated. Force of public opinion in years past proved a strong check against any persons or party who by right of position endeavoured to encourage misrule or maladministration of the country's affairs. We have instances whereby patriotic citizens stood firm against a policy that meant disaster. In these instances public opinion gained the day and the perpetrators of the misdeeds in question received severe setbacks. The proposed Reid-Humber Deals which will be debated in the House of Assembly the coming weeks are indeed matters that mean a lot to the people of Newfoundland. From the facts already elicited a certain ring of politicians duped the people into the belief that they possessed a policy which held a great future for the Colony but which apparently throws back on an already overtaxed populace a burden which a country of much greater population and resources might hesitate to assume. The Newfoundland Power and Paper Limited, owned and controlled by the Reids and some of the directors of the Reid N.M. Co., hold 29 grants totalling 571,887 acres of land in the Humber Valley and vicinity; this Company seeks the ratification of a deal from the House of Assembly that will guarantee them the sum of ten million dollars; they also asked that they be paid one hundred and ten thousand dollars yearly for certain railway transportation services, which because of the grave mistakes made by the Government have cost the Colony some five millions of dollars in the short space of three and a half years, when they (the Government) annulled the contract the Reids had with the Colony as contractors. Surely public opinion is going to assert itself at such a crisis. The situation as it stands to-day is a very serious one for Newfoundland. The mere promise of employment under such terms will be poor recompense to the people who will naturally have to bear increased taxation to pay the interest on stupendous loans which will be necessary to finance this enterprise. If the people are content with such conditions as pointed out, then by all means endorse the Government's intention to increase the burden by sitting silently; and without raising a voice of objection satisfy themselves that when called upon to pay the consequences they will do so without a murmur of protest. The concessions granted to the Reids under the terms of the agreements now before the Assembly are of vital importance to the people whose money will make possible the projects as already outlined. In this instance it is the will of the people that will sanction the proposals or set them aside. The will of the people must be heard and it only can be heard by a united expression of public opinion in its manifestation of approval or discontent. Patriotic Newfoundlanders who love their country, who have a stake in the country, who want to live and bring up their families in the country, to them the duty is paramount. Party politics or party prejudices are lost when such grave measures which threaten to jeopardize the welfare of the people and country are made apparent to all. The responsibility rests with true public spirited Newfoundlanders who must sponsor public opinion at a time when anything in the nature of a national scandal is about to be enacted.

ADVERTISE IN THE EVENING TELEGRAM.

C. L. B. Cadets.

Avalon Battalion is steadily carrying on as usual. Lt.-Col. Walter Rendell, C.B.E., in command. Rev. Arthur Sterling, Rector of St. Mary's, reading the prayers, and the following officers on duty:—Major Williams and Tait, M.C., Adjutant; Captains P. B. Rendell, Joseph Snow, and Lieut. R. G. Ash, W. R. Mott, M. Job Taylor, Harold Hayward, A. B. Ferlin. The Battalion prepared for a route march under Captain P. B. Rendell countrywards as a preliminary to their long trail to Camp Topsis, August 2nd. Special Battalion orders are issued for a church parade on Sunday 17th inst., at 2.15 p.m. to attend Divine Service at St. Thomas's Church. All ranks must attend, no leave being granted.

Orders of June fourteenth announce the Annual Camp will be held at Topsis from Thursday, August 2nd, to Saturday, August eleventh. It is hoped to arrange if possible for transport to convey the lads by motor instead of the old way of marching the thirteen miles out and return. Motor truck and car owners are asked if they will kindly consider the needs of the lads on August second.

Fees for camp are as follows to cover the ten days' outing: Privates, two dollars; Lance Corporals and Corporals two dollars and fifty; Sergeants and W.O.'s two dollars and fifty; Officers, five dollars each. Major Tait, M.C., will likely be Camp Commandant. Captain A. B. Lewis, Paymaster, will run a first class canteen on good old English sound commercial principles, so there will be large stacks of eatables and drinkables provided you have the cash! The Captain will surely pay a dividend this year. Eight officers will be in camp for the full ten days and Headquarters are expecting officers representing all the Outport Companies as well as this year's camp. Outport Officers will please notify Headquarters names of officers attending as well as number of lads who wish to participate in the 1923 Camp.

Second Lieut. M. Job Taylor is receiving congratulations these days on his promotion to a full pledged Lieutenant. Lieut. M. Job Taylor is a live wire in C.L.B. circles and has won his spurs on merit. The order is dated May 1st.

Parades for the summer season are ordered for Thursday nights only instead of Tuesdays and Thursdays. Battalion night in future will be changed from Tuesday to Thursday.

Corporal E. Hammond has been promoted to Sergeant's rank. Congratulations.

The Rev. Arthur B. S. Sterling, Rector of St. Mary's and C.L.B. Chaplain is on duty for the month of June.

Lieut. George Hunt, a Veteran of the Royal Canadian Regiment in the Great War and the Brigade Instructor in drilling recruits, after a period of good loyal service and excellent work owing to pressure of business has resigned and is placed on the Reserve of Officers. All ranks also regret the resignation of Regt. C.M. Sergt. R. Dowden. Lieut. Mott's chief of staff, who has also done many years of faithful service to the Brigade. We are glad that ex-Sergt. Guy Shears, one of the Brigade's best workers in the past, has rejoined and is posted to the Quartermaster's Department. We extend to him a hearty welcome.

The Lt.-Col. announces the Battalion will participate with the Great War Veterans Parade in Memorial Day Service on Sunday morning, July 1st.

Bandmaster Captain Sandy Morris and his musical artists are starting their busy season. Engagements are now being booked. Last week it was St. Mary's Garden Party. We feel sure they will try to manage a Sunday afternoon sacred concert for the patients at the General Hospital, and the trivalled sick veterans at Sudbury and the sick under ex-Surgeon Major H. Rendell at the Sanitorium, Topsis Road.

The Old Comrades report that the public have failed to respond to provide the funds to build a new race boat for the 1923 Regatta. As the C.L.B. is itself a Charity Organization it cannot be expected to provide a new race boat for the benefit of an annual public holiday. In response to the appeal only two hundred and sixty-five dollars was received and the public only have themselves to blame. The cost of keeping up a boathouse on Quidi Vidi lake is heavy—due to maintenance repairs to boats, cost of new cars, etc.—besides the amount of free labour and responsibility in connection with the Regatta is tremendous. Repairs to the Blue Peter in her last accident, cost over seven hundred dollars alone. The Old Comrades are now considering as to whether they will open the Boat House this year for the use of the practice boats.

or close the lid. The Club has made their Headquarters Rooms at the Armoury very comfortable, the billiard table with new lights has been erected and is now considered the best table in St. John's after the thorough renovation by the butlers. New cues and balls have been imported and the Old Comrades are delighted with their outfit for this gentlemanly game.

The Brigade are holding their Outdoor sports in St. George's Field on June 27th, and the Athletic Association are making enthusiastic arrangements for a successful day. The "expert gym squad" under Sergt. Major Rendell, is making great progress to give a good show.

Quartermaster Mott is shipping thirty rifles and a case of kit off to Buria Company this week.

Headquarters London is preparing a set of lantern slides of the C.L.B. for distribution and is asking for photographs of the Newfoundland Battalion, camp scenes, etc., for this purpose.

Bonavista Company reports 31 lads on the strength for May under Lieut. Bishop.

Grand Falls report is sent in for May by Captain L. R. Cooper, Adjutant. This Company has 66 on the strength. A church parade was held June 10th and the Grand Falls Ladies Auxiliary was organized on May 31st. Reorganization is going on and this company under Major Windeler, M.C., is going to be a big success.—G.

Predicts America Olympiad Winner.

GENERAL SHERRILL, OLD YALE STAR, DOESN'T LIKE TO BOAST, BUT—

ROME.—(Associated Press)—With an army of 300,000 athletes from which to choose the 1924 American Olympic team, the United States is in the most formidable position of all the competing countries and looks like the sure winner of the Paris Olympiad next year, according to General Sherrill, the old Yale star and originator of the "crouch start," who is spending a few days in Rome after the meeting of the International Olympic Committee.

"We hate to boast," said General Sherrill, "but we seem to have the best collection of athletes in the whole world, and there is no reason why we should not walk away with the honors. Just taking the colleges and universities alone, they present a formidable array of athletic possibilities.

"For the sprints, I think Paddock can be depended upon to take the prize from all comers." The General continued. "Then there is that wonder, Gourdin, for the broad jump. Nothing will be able to touch him. Young Weismuller in swimming will carry off all that he will be required to do.

"Both the army and navy are sending strong teams. In rifle work, they will make all the rest hum. Then in fencing and rowing, they are going to show up well. We also will have our team of winter sports, which will enter the events at Chamonix, France, next January. In the equestrian games, the American Remount association is interesting itself and will send a strong representation.

"I Had Bilious Attacks and Stomach Weakness"

Mrs. Wm. Robinson, Yorker, Sask., writes:
"I suffered from stomach and liver trouble, and used to have bilious attacks so bad that I could do nothing for weeks at a time. My stomach would be so weak that not even a drink of water would stay on it. On my sister's advice, I began to use Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, and must say that they have made me feel like a new woman."

Harbor Grace Gives Enthusiastic Welcome TO VICE-REGAL PARTY.

Monday afternoon last the citizens of Harbor Grace had the honour of welcoming His Excellency the Governor, Sir William Allardye, Lady Allardye and suite, it being the Governor's first official visit to the old harbor town and second city. Every one evinced the fact that the harbor town was one of outstanding importance. The business places were open for the day, and a great many of the town, and as H.M.S. "Wistaria" entered the harbour, the Governor and suite, who were accompanied by a Committee representing the citizens of the town, the War Veterans and First Harbor Troop of Boy Scouts, who were met up on the wharf, the party were taken to many places of interest. Churches, Impregnable Cable Office, Boot and Shoe Factories, Munn's and the Marine Dock were visited, and a luncheon was given at the residence of Mr. J. H. Power, M.H.A. On the grounds of the harbor, a Public Meeting was held at 2.30 P.M. which was presided over by John Casey, Esq., J.P., and the Mayor, who presented an address of Welcome to his Excellency, which was read by the Secretary of the Citizens Committee, J. Goodland. His Excellency then addressed the meeting, and commented on the depression in trade here in Newfoundland, due to the great European War, the world at large suffered—such was the aftermath of the war, that the Governor saw no reason for the exodus of so many people from our shores. Conditions might right themselves in due course, something could be gained by leaving Newfoundland and seeking a livelihood in many cases, another view. But there was room for all in the old Dominion—Britain's oldest colony. His Excellency made mention while visiting the Imperial Cable here he was pleased to receive the cable "Greetings" from the Master General of Great Britain, which he suitably replied. Lady Allardye also addressed the meeting, and endorsed all that his Excellency had said. She spoke particularly to the ladies, impressing on them that whatever the Governor's calling, that of "Home Maker" should be their chief aim. The home needs them. She hoped the Girl Guide Movement would go its way along here, and to which she would gladly render any assistance. Mr. Higitt also addressed the meeting, referring particularly to the Scout Movement, which is new to the town. The Rev. gentleman, in doing his bit, we may add, but the organizer, Rev. Mr. Coffin, he ought to ascribe all praise. Monday morning the Governor and Lady Allardye again visited Coughlin Hall, for the special benefit of school children, and both addressed them. The girls were told to combine with the Girl Guide Movement, while the boys would be set to work on their own. It was again impressed upon them the fact that the mission of every girl should be to become a real "Home Maker," which is their chief mission in life. The Scout Law, and what it means, was thoroughly dealt with by his Excellency. It would be unwise to attempt to do justice here to the address given by his Excellency, the Governor and Lady Allardye at both meetings, but we may add the effect of the far reaching visit of both children and grown-ups, for all enjoyed a treat. A vote of thanks to his Excellency and Lady Allardye for specially coming to speak to the children was proposed by E. Simmons, M.H.A., and seconded by Frank C. Gough, who both made appropriate remarks. The children were given a holiday, which was clamorously demanded by the youngsters. During the meeting little Miss Winnie Hinton, daughter of Mr. Hinton, Supt. Imperial Cable Co. here, presented her father with a bouquet. The party left for Carbonear on H.M.S. "Wistaria," at which another enthusiastic reception awaited them.

By EDGAR A. QUEST.

RAIN.
The skies are hanging low to-day,
And countless mountains in the street,
Splutter and splash about our feet;
The city wears a dress of gray,
And every sad-faced passer-by
Seems almost audibly to sigh.

The gusty wind is biting cold,
Buildings seem mournful when they're wet;
The tender grain needs rain, and yet
The joy of rain is seldom told.
But like the bitter grief which numbs,
We're never ready when it comes.

We know some day the rain must fall
We know some day that we must wrap
And lose the precious joy we'd keep
This is the common fate of all.
Yet always to Our God we pray,
Let us not bear the blow to-day.

We are not ready now for tears,
A few days longer let us smile,
Spare us for just a little while;
We shall be braver down the years!
Lord, let these dark clouds pass Away,
Let us not suffer grief to-day.

So standing at life's window pane,
Let us remember and be brave,
Life is not finished at the grave,
Our tears must fall as falls the rain;
Let us, when sorrow comes our way
Be ready with our faith to-day.

Salvage Notes.

Messrs. Henry Dyke and Thomas Oldford, who had been spending some time in the land of Uncle Sam, returned home a few days ago. We regret that Mr. Oldford is not feeling quite fit but trust his native air may quickly restore him to vigor and strength.

Mr. H. J. Oldford returned from St. John's yesterday via Malakoff, after making his usual spring purchases.

Mr. James Brown, of Bishop's Hr., accompanied by his daughter Miss H. Brown, arrived from the city on Saturday.

Messrs. John Moss, Bishop's Hr., Edward Oldford and H. J. Oldford, of Salvage, are at present in the city getting their customary spring stock.

Mrs. Curtis, King's Cove, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Oldford, Bishop's Hr., arrived by s.s. Malakoff yesterday, to spend a few days with relatives and friends.

Mr. James Moss, in his new schooner, Olive and Josie, is coasting for a time to St. John's. The Olive and Josie was built at Alexander Bay, and is about 40 tons. We hope that Mr. Moss will have a bumper trip from the Labrador, particularly as the purchase of a new schooner under present conditions is a hazardous undertaking.

Most of our men are now gone to Newman's Sound, as two pulp steamers have arrived—one to be loaded by Mr. B. Barry, the other by the Company—for whom Mr. Collishaw is presumably agent. It is fortunate that just at this juncture our men are able to get a little work to keep things moving.

In connection with the much heralded passes for the Humber, neither one has yet been received, but Mr. Arch Brown fared forth to the Humber and happily got work. So far, however, the bonanza is very slowly revealing itself.

We regret to state that through a faulty mainmast and apparent impossibility to get a substitute, the Mab, Mr. Baxter, Oldford, skipper, will not go to the Labrador this year. While sympathizing with the skipper and crew in their disappointment, may we express the wish that their summer's work be none the less profitable whatever calling it may be. —COR.

Our Dumb Animals.

REPORT FOR WEEK ENDING JUNE 15.

I was asked to go to the Model Farm to humanely put to death an old horse; the animal was past its labor. On Sunday I went to the railway station and attended to the landing of 34 head of cattle consigned to Campbell & McKay. 7 of these were loose in the car and one was very much bruised by being walked on by the others. There is a great need of a water trough at the railway station which would prevent those cattle being driven through the streets on Sunday. Those cattle were two days without water. I received a report from a lady of a horse being in a swamp near the old railway track in the East End. I attended to this; also attended to the landing of 42 head of cattle and 24 sheep from the Sable I; all were taken charge of by Mr. Halliday and watered and fed. Those cattle were all in splendid condition. I received word from a lady on LeMarchant Road of two laundry horses being over-driven, one being lame. I interviewed the owner who promised to give it particular attention. Attended to the landing of 25 head of cattle at the railway station for Geo. Neal, Ltd. They were taken charge of by Mr. Duffett, watered and fed and carefully looked after. I received word from one of the Commercial Cable Co.'s messenger boys of a horse being over-driven by a cabman on Bond Street, on the 5th of June, at 5 o'clock in the afternoon. The boy got the owner's name and took a note of all particulars and reported same to me, for which I am very thankful. I found the owner, warned him if caught again what the consequences would be. He promised me it would not happen again. Got word from the Impounder of a horse he had impounded with a very sore hoof. The horse is to be kept off the street until better; also a phone message of a horse falling in a hole where some men were excavating a house on Merrymount Road. When I arrived the man had him out. Attended to the case reported by Dr. Macpherson of a pony in his yard on Rennie's Mill Road. The pony was in a very poor condition; it had been brought here from an outpost, and the owner had it in a field near the old railway station. It got out of the field in some unaccountable way; it is suffering from some skin disease; a Veterinary Surgeon is looking after it now. I also humanely put to death an unlicensed dog on the Southside. All complaints are being promptly attended to. —BARTER, Chief Agent.

Election Expenditure

The figures published in our issue of yesterday in connection with the pre-election expenditure in Ferryland District of over six thousand dollars may be taken as an indication of what the total all over the country is likely to be when the returns are tabled in the House of Assembly.

fact that in the present low financial condition of our country we cannot well afford to indulge in any ambitious expenditure, but this seems to be an undertaking so fraught with possible future financial benefit to the trade and commerce of the country that the question which naturally arises is: "Can we afford to keep out of it?"

In Passing.

From those who claim to be an authority we learn that the next Royal Gazette will contain the appointment of Mr. J. T. Meaney as Controller General.

Following this appointment a re-organization of the various departments it is said, will take place and some drastic changes are scheduled.

At a meeting of the Cabinet three weeks ago the Council voted for and endorsed the appointment of Mr. Meaney, but for some unknown reason the order in Council was not presented to His Excellency the Governor to receive the official signature which is necessary to make the appointment legal.

The radical changes referred to are imperative in view of the many existing scandals under the present system which tends to demoralize and degrade self-respecting citizens.

The suggestion that two or more public dispensaries or sub-stations in charge of deputies seems to meet with the approval of the majority of the Cabinet, the members of which openly assert any system or regulations other than that now in force would be better for all concerned.

As already stated in the Assembly the Government proposes to take over the railway and steamship services held by the Reid Newfoundland Company the report that a new ministerial appointment will be made in the person of Hon. Dr. Campbell who will be created Minister of Transportation seems feasible.

Mr. Downey, member for the District of St. George's will be given the portfolio of Minister of Agriculture and Mines and Mr. Hawco will be appointed a Commissioner in this Department.

The offices of the new Minister of Transportation will be in the Court House formerly occupied by the late Minister of Shipping.

Magistrate's Court.

A 36-year-old laborer, charged with being drunk, was released upon payment of cab hire.

A 29-year-old cook, of Pleasant St., arrested for being drunk was also discharged.

Const. John McGrath summoned a motor mechanic this morning for driving a motor car on the public street in excess of the speed limit and contrary to Section 1 of Chapter 27 Consolidated Statutes, third series, entitled "Of Motor Vehicles."

A Government official, who appeared on a charge of being loose and disorderly on the evening of the 12th inst., was fined $1 and costs.

Head Constable Byrne summoned a city medic for a breach of Section 15, Chapter 68 of the Consolidated Statutes, entitled "Of the Prohibition of Intoxicating Liquors Act."

Portia Arrives.

OWNERS HELD UP FOR WANT OF SUPPLIES.

Portia, Capt. J. Field, returned from the Northward at 6 o'clock last evening bringing a part freight and following passengers—Messrs. E. G. Reid, F. M. Wells, E. G. Reid, W. Hackett, J. Parsons, G. D. Davis, Jones, Layman, Scammon, C. Norris, Murphy, C. Blandford, Fr. Murphy, Murphy, Fr. Murphy, Messdames Poole, Best, Jones, Ginn, Ledrew, Winsor, Penny, Rose, Lynch, Fowlow, Welshman, Casey, Pathing, Bishop, Hayward (2), Lynch, and 32 in steerage. Capt. Field reports that the ship made all ports as far as Quirpon. The ship held up at St. Anthony for two days when the ice jam, but succeeded in making the remaining French Shore and as a result operations in these waters were hampered. Several schooners already arrived at St. Anthony and to the Labrador. A large number of schooners that formerly frequented the Labrador fishery are being sent up to change islands and ports because the owners are unable to get the necessary supplies. It is estimated that a large number of men will be left idle, and must seek employment elsewhere to earn a livelihood. It is reported plentiful at Harlow, but there is very little sign of fish along the coast. The Portia will leave for North on Tuesday next at 10 a.m.

Majestic Closes

To-Night for Summer.

THE FINE SHOW BEAU REVEL

father and son are arrayed against each other for the love of a woman "Beau Revel." The Rivoli feature this week. The old man, fighting with age, with a hundred contests to his record, discovers his lack of energy with a dancer. The idea of the boy thrown himself away for the illusion of love. Revel calls him to account. With the memory of many years who have passed through his life, without leaving a permanent impression, the father proclaims swankiness to be false. He offers to prove it by winning the sweetheart his son, thus to convince the lad of his folly. The boy wavers at the suggestion and the father forces him to accept. In the attraction of his son's youth and manliness, "Beau Revel" tries to bear the experiences of 20 years of conquest, coupled with the eyes of a connoisseur in femininity. He flags a net of fascination about the dancer, and draws to him so closely that the real nature of the man is revealed. When the mocking face of the man he has ruined, appears enthralled about him, the old beau goes bounding out of the romance, and when is served again. The actor Vidor makes a charming hero, handling the role with restraint and sincerity. Lewis Stone is admirable—one might well say ideal—the beau.

Fishery Prospects Good.

FAVORABLE REPORT FROM STRAITS.

According to a message received yesterday by Messrs. Bain Johnston & Co., from J. T. Croucher, the Company's agent at Battle Harbor, the fishery prospects on the West Coast of the Straits were looking favorable at present. The message went from Hawks Harbor and reads as follows:—"Good trapping at Battle Harbor, Trout River and Bonno plenty caplin. Reported no ice straits."

Ship Arrives

Hubley, Master C. A. Anger, A. G. Kaubart, F. L. G. Scott, A. R. Smith, J. L. Whelan, Mrs. C. Williams, A. J. and Mrs. Miss Ida Byrne, Mrs. H. G. Deveraux, Miss M. Butler, Mrs. J. Deveraux, Mrs. K. Deveraux, J. P. Maher, Mrs. H. Martin, Mrs. Martin, Misses Mrs. Marjorie Edna and Marie G. Edna, Mrs. M. J. Sweeney, Miss E. Sweeney, Miss T. Sweeney. The Digby left for Liverpool Monday forenoon.

Romance of Deer Lake.

DEVELOPING THE WEALTH OF NEWFOUNDLAND.

(By C. A. FURU, in Newcastle Chronicle, May 26.)

The elections in Newfoundland are over. The Government of Sir Richard Squires has been returned with a majority; and the industrial progress of the Colony is thereby assured; the great Humber Valley Hydro Electric Scheme will be proceeded with and the immense natural resources of the West Coast of Newfoundland will at last be opened up.

The little wayside station of Deer Lake is reached in about 12 hours (9 by train from St. John's (the capital) on the East Coast, and in about 2 hrs. from Humbermouth on the West Coast. It is twenty-five years since the railway was completed, and although it is the junction in the winter time, where the mail and occasional passengers take the overland route by dogteam to the northwest coast, yet so slow has the progress been, that the whole settlement consists of four houses including the railway station shed. Now in one clear sweep all of this is to change and within a year or two Deer Lake may become one of the leading industrial centres of the island.

ARMSTRONG WHITWORTH PROJECT.

It is a wonderful sight to stand at the Lake, a minute's walk from the station. It is about fifteen miles long, and from one to two miles broad, and on the opposite side for miles and miles are gradually sloping hills; which as far as the eye can see are covered with the most wonderful virgin fir and spruce forest that one can imagine. It is here at the end of the Lake that the new town site is springing up; and it is, thanks to the energy, the pluck and the public spirit of Newfoundland's hard working, industrious Premier Sir Richard Squires—in the first place—that this scheme has been made possible.

Sir Richard spent many months in London last autumn to carry through this plan; the British Government through the Trade Facilities Act agreed to advance two million sterling and the Dominion Government will now be empowered through the result of the election to guarantee a similar sum, thereby securing a total amount of four million pounds sterling to harness the water-power at Deer Lake. The co-operation was sought and promptly given (after an inspection of the arms) by Armstrong Whitworths, and apart from the power available for the larger paper and pulp mill, which it is intended to erect at Deer Lake, there will be a surplus sufficient for all local or domestic purposes on the whole of the west coast as also for the large mining areas in that part. Four thousand men will find active work and the amount to be expended on local labour yearly is estimated at over four million dollars.

In short the details of the arrangements are:—

1. The British and Newfoundland Governments guarantee the interest on the £4 million required for constructional purposes.
 2. The Company to pay the Dominion Government $160,000 per annum in royalties.
 3. The 14 Directors of the Newfoundland Power and Paper Co. Ltd., will be appointed thus:—
- 9 Members by Messrs. Armstrong Whitworths.
 - 2 Members one each by the two governments.
 - 3 Members by the Reid Newfoundland Co. (who are disposing of large areas of Timber-land to the new Company).
- In the early part of November last a representative body of Armstrong Whitworths engineers left London for Deer Lake, and already in the early part of December the area selected for the new town site was being cleared of shrubs and undergrowth, the pipe-lips to connect Grand Lake and Deer Lake was staked out, and now when the snow will soon be off the ground the work will be continued.

GREAT TRADING POSSIBILITIES.

That this project will make an important town out of Deer Lake is certain, but it will do more, it will mean the awakening of that wonderful but absolutely unknown and untouched part of Britain's oldest Colony, the West Coast of Newfoundland. It will probably enable the rich shale of areas stretching from Deer Lake north to White Bay to be worked. It may open up the rich mineral deposits at the northern part of the Humber Valley and the West Coast generally, and will give power for working the extensive oil lands at St. Paul's Inlet and Parson's Pond, and it has certainly sent up the value of land in the district, because at the end of last year land round about Deer Lake Station was eagerly bid for at about $200 an acre, which a year or so previously could be obtained in any quantity at 30 cents or about 1s. 6d. an acre.

Such then is the romance of Deer Lake. This is but the beginning, the coast will be cleared and progress will be marked and rapid.

It seems inconceivable that a country so rich in natural wealth, in such close proximity to both the American continent and the British Isles should have remained so long untouched in the way of development.

The north-west coast covers an area many hundred miles long by 40 to 60 miles broad and has a population of less than 10,000 all living on the coast. About this part Sir Edgar Bowring, the first High Commissioner of Newfoundland, once said: "On the West Coast there is another belt of mineral wealth running the whole length of the island and this belt contains gold, lead, silver, and in greater quantities than any other deposit, coal. The mineral wealth of Newfoundland is nothing short of fabulous."

Seek Market For Canadian Fish.

THE FISHERIES ASSOCIATION PROPOSES CAMPAIGN TO DEVELOP THE INDUSTRY.

MONTREAL, June 11.—Eighty per cent of Canada's output of fish must find a market outside the boundaries of the Dominion. It was stated at the annual meeting of the Canadian Fisheries Association held here to-day. To increase the amount of consumption of fish in Canada, it was proposed that a publicity campaign be conducted throughout the country as soon as possible. The consensus of opinion was that the Federal Government and the Provincial Governments should assist financially as well as otherwise in the campaign, whilst various commercial interests should also contribute to develop the industry.

It was stated that Hon. Mr. Perreault, Provincial Minister of Colonization, Mines and Fisheries, had already been approached for a grant of $20,000 for this object. The Federal Government would be asked for $50,000.

National Troops Still Finding Arms in Ireland.

DUBLIN.—(A.P.)—Obedience to the cease firing order of Frank Aiken, Chief of Staff for De Valera, has been general throughout Ireland, and the doubt whether irregular activities could be stopped by anybody has not been justified. There have been a few cases of attempted outrage, but not more numerous than those alleged after the truce of the British in 1921. The most noteworthy was the firing of shots at the suburban home of Martin Fitzgerald, proprietor of the Freeman's Journal, when no damage was done. Many irregulars had dumped their arms and returned quietly to their families, and several dumps have been found by the National troops, whose searches continue to be minute and exhaustive. The expectation is that without any formal peace the whole conflict will wear out entirely within a couple of months.

Some good political judges, old members of the Irish parliamentary party at Westminster are of the opinion that the government's tact ignoring of the De Valera proclamation was much the wisest course, the public opinion is now veering that way. But there are many who think a formal peace would be worth buying, if the price were small enough, and intermediaries are still busy with that object.

Frank Fair, a republican member of the Dail, has urged "such a slight change in the constitution as would admit all sections to take part in the life of the nation." This means the abrogation of the oath of allegiance to King George, and Republicans believe that England would not now enforce by war that part of the treaty obligation.

An element of danger to the prevailing peace may be found in the continuance of executions. Some more are expected very soon following on trials for attacks on troops. Threatening notices have been received by some Free State officers warning that executions will be avenged. Such threats will not, of course, affect the decision of the commander-in-chief and the power to fulfill them has been largely curtailed. But the feeling of bitterness caused by the executions is very intense, and seems the most likely cause for a renewal of conflict.

SOME LONG ASSA

Amongst the things that have been a few in the past hope has been realized as been made at London various voyages. The overland does not end in a very long stage; but some of them have their time by many months. Our ships, which go to Brazil, are the distance of thirty days; and those who cross the near by waters, as the very long ones, seldom longer than thirty days. But there are ships which have met me which were buffeted by night and ninety days, and as high as some twenty days. Some of the brigantines, such as the J. & W. Stewart, are homeward bound, as up as lost. The ship is late in November, a period of one or two days, was unreported, and therefore it was missing. It was given up in March, after the sale there was a signal from the vessel, but the captain, as the average, might possibly be a sale, but being changed if the vessel was broken, she had Stewart's home, as she intended to do, as there was a vessel of ice at the time, and was frozen over.

WEEK-END NOTES.

CHAPTER XXIV.
(I. C. MORRIS.)

SOME LONG PASSAGES.

Amongst the missing ships there have been a few cases in which the hope has been realized, and port has been made after tedious and dangerous voyages. Our own local ship does not engage in what may be termed very long voyages, as to distance, but some of them have exceeded their time by many days and nights. Our shipping which trades with Brazil ports, usually covers the distance in thirty and forty days, and those which cross to Oporto, the near by Mediterranean market, make very good passages, and seldom longer than twenty-five or thirty days. But there have been a few ships which have met delay, and have been buffeted on the ocean for weeks and ninety days, and a hundred and as high as one hundred and twenty days. Some fifty two years ago the brigantine Gertrude, of the name of J. W. Stewart, made a very long homeward passage, and was given up as lost. The ship left the Cape late in November, and for the period of one hundred and twenty days was unreported and unaccounted for. It was not until many months later that she was abandoned, and that she was given up as lost. But one day in March after the sealers had gone, there was a signal from the Cape, and the water front excitement rang as the average person thought it might possibly be a sealer, but on the vessel being changed, it was found that she was a brigantine, and she had the sealers' house flag. This news intensified the excitement, and it was wondered if it be the Gertrude, as there was no vessel due just from Stewart's firm. The bay was full of ice at the time, but the har- were frozen over, and tugs were lac-the crew, and of the seaworthiness of the ships, because it was only that the ships were substantially built, and well equipped, that they survived the buffeting of such severe Atlantic voyages. Those voyages were truly long, but they had an ending, and when the anchor was cast, there went up a sigh of relief, that the last watch had been weathered, that the last watch had been called, and the calm waters of the harbors entered. The dangers of colonization were indeed many, and the weariness of those long voyages was of itself enough to dampen the ardor of the warmest enthusiast; but faith in the future, and hopes in the country, seemed to soothe all these obstacles. And so with the men who manned our sailing ships; they were brave, fearless and hardy; and it was by their endurance and seamanship that the trade of Newfoundland was established. They paid the price; we reap the benefit.

RUDOLPH VALENTINO AT THE NICKEL MONDAY.

Admirers of Rudolph Valentino, the famous impersonator of "The Sheik," will be glad to know that they will be able to see him at his best in his latest production, "The Conquering Power," a Rex Ingram picture at the Nickel on Monday. The result of the Rex Ingram method of producing a film story is to give life on the screen to the men and women conceived in the brain of an author. The characters in Balzac's "Eugene Grandet," which forms the base of "The Conquering Power," live and move through the picture with the convincing reality of life itself—an achievement that is always aimed at, and often missed, in screen drama. Another mark of merit is the direct and dramatic way the story is told. The local color is never absent, but it never has the scene to itself. The dramatic action is unbroken; the human interest always holds the centre of the stage.

Among the most famous of the French novelist's tales, "Eugene Grandet" is a powerful and absorbing "slice of life." Students of Balzac will welcome the modern theme of this story in its screen version. Allee Terry is an ideal Eugene in appearance, and acts with corresponding truth and understanding. Rudolph Valentino plays Chas. Grandet and is eminently fitted to the role. "The Conquering Power" is a distinct triumph for the screen by reason of the fine intellectual quality of the story and its production, and its high entertainment value.

Editor Evening Telegram.
Dear Sir,—I beg to acknowledge with thanks the receipt of a cheque for $245.13.8 from Mrs. MacKeen, Honorary Treasurer of the Beaumont Hamel Collection Committee, and also the amount already placed to my credit in London. This sum will be spent in conjunction with the amount contributed by the Government for the laying out of the Newfoundland Memorial Park at Beaumont Hamel, during the current year.

I also take this opportunity of thanking those kind ladies who formed the Committee, for the trouble and labour they spent in making the collection, and I am sure in doing so I am expressing the sentiments of not only those who are deeply interested in Beaumont Hamel, but of all Newfoundlanders and I assure them and all who contributed to the Fund that the money will be well spent, and when I have finished, those sacred acres will be a credit to Newfoundland, and a worthy monument to the memory of the gallant men who fell there.

Yours sincerely,

Mt. Carmel Cemetery.

ANNUAL MEETING OF COMMITTEE

The Mount Carmel Cemetery Committee met last night when the executive committee as follows were re-elected: M. F. Cull, Chairman; John Dalton, Treasurer; P. Grace, Secretary. The report of the committee showed that good use had been made of last year's funds. This beautiful and well cared resting place of the dead is now entirely free from all encumbrance and debts thanks to the sympathetic and practical interest of those of our citizens whose loved ones are interred there. This being so, the Committee feels confident that they will again as in the past, have the hearty co-operation of the public in the proposed extension of the concrete retaining wall along the roadside, which borders what is known as the new ground and other improvements—particulars of which will be announced later—which will call for a big outlay. The Cemetery is now receiving its annual clean-up under the direction of the sexton, Mr. John Warren, preparatory to the annual Mass which will be celebrated as usual on the Feast of Our Lady of Mount Carmel. Through the energy and devotion of Rev. Padre Nangle, the Naval and Military plot overlooking the Lakeside has been completed, and with its handsome concrete border and grassy slope forms a worthy memorial to those who made the Great Sacrifice. It reflects great credit on Mr. William Edney who supervised its construction.

The St. George's Coal Fields

Limited.

MAKES IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT TO ITS SHAREHOLDERS AND THE GENERAL PUBLIC.

We wish to announce to our many Shareholders and the general public, that we are offering to the market a limited amount of Shares in the above-named Company.

This Company owns over ELEVEN SQUARE MILES of COAL BEARING LANDS, containing, according to surface measurement of all the known seams on the property, about ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTY MILLION TONS of high grade Bituminous Coking Coal. As a NATIONAL ASSET at a valuation of TEN CENTS per TON in taxes, and ONE DOLLAR and TWENTY-FIVE CENTS per TON in Labor, this property ought to be worth to NEWFOUNDLAND, in addition to the profits which the SHAREHOLDERS ought to make, over TWO HUNDRED MILLION DOLLARS, or sufficient to pay off our NATIONAL DEBT many times over.

A Company is now being formed in the United States to take over and operate on an extensive scale these Coal areas. The terms provide a substantial cash return over a period of TEN YEARS to the SHAREHOLDERS OF THE ST. GEORGE'S COAL FIELDS, LTD., thus increasing the value of ONE DOLLAR SHARES to TWO DOLLARS or more in the NEW COMPANY.

An extensive development and working policy has been decided on by the NEW COMPANY which is bound to increase the STOCK to such an extent as to make this proposition attractive to the investor. Our reason for making this offer of shares, is to raise sufficient funds to clean up the seams already opened and to develop other discoveries of great promise on the property, before the arrival of Engineers from the United States.

All the legal requirements of the Company since its formation have been carried out, and the following contracts entered into:

- Contract dated the 28th day of July, 1918, between Thomas J. Freeman, of St. John's, the owner, of the property and the Company for the sale of the properties for shares in the Company.
- Contract dated the 1st day of August, 1918, between the said Thomas J. Freeman and the Company for the transfer by the said Thomas J. Freeman to the first purchasers of Stock of 75,000 shares.
- Contract dated the 31st day of March, 1923, between the said Thomas J. Freeman and the Company for the sale of the property, of Los Angeles and Boston, for the sale of the property.

As this may be our last appeal and your last opportunity to participate in what promises to be Newfoundland's most important MINING VENTURE, we would ask you to let us have your application as early as possible.

"Rev." John Rogers a Real Fake.

JUDGE MORRIS SENTENCED BORN CROOK TO 12 MONTHS IN PRISONMENT.

A rather unusual case came up for hearing in the Magistrate's Court yesterday morning, when a man named John Rogers, who professes to have a mission to direct people in "the straight and narrow path," and consequently has been connected with one of the small churches in the city, appeared on a charge of obtaining money under false pretences. Rogers, who elected to be tried summarily by Judge Morris, was held on remand for a week, pending further police enquiry; and pleaded guilty to the charge, which reads as follows:—"That you, John Rogers, obtained from one, John Norris, by false pretences, to wit: by depositing with him an envelope said to contain $2800, and during the past two months, obtained board and lodging to the value of $27.00, also cash to the amount of $12.00, knowing that the said envelope did not contain any money."

The first witness examined was John Norris, an old crippled man, who had to be assisted to the stand by the police. He stated that the defendant came to his house for lodging on the 8th day of May last. His nephew, Robert Barnes, a keeper at the Lunatic Asylum, where the defendant had been a former inmate, recommended prisoner to his house, and guaranteed him that his board would be paid, as he had plenty of money. When the accused took up lodgings with the old man, he left an envelope with him for safe-keeping, which was marked on the outside as containing $2800.00. Rogers boarded with witness for three weeks and three days, and did not pay one cent of board during this period, which had then amounted to $27.00. During his stay at the house Norris gave defendant money on different occasions, amounting to $12.00. He (witness) being then under the impression that Rogers would return the money loaned to him after receiving his cheque from the Militia Office, as he did not want to break the sealed envelope which contained the $2800.00, Norris concluded by stating that he had been paid no board money, neither had he been paid back any of the money loaned.

The next witness was Robert Barnes, a keeper of the Lunatic Asylum. Witness first met the defendant at the institution for the Insane. Witness did not know whether Rogers was admitted to the Asylum by certificate or not. Rogers was an inmate of No. 1 Ward, but witness did not know how he got there. He was supposed to be an insane patient. He was later removed to No. 3 which is the ward I am keeper of. There was nothing wrong with the man during his stay in my ward. One evening Rogers left the institution, stating that he was going to town to do some business. He set out to visit the Militia Department, upon his return he told me that he had done good business, meaning that he had secured some money. Rogers then handed me an envelope marked as follows:—"This is to certify that John Rogers has handed over to Uncle Robert Barnes the sum of $2800.00, until placed in the bank." Witness took the package and placed it carefully in the safe. Asked as to how long Rogers was an inmate of the Asylum witness could not say definitely, but presumed that he had been there a month or more. On the day after he had passed over the money Rogers told witness that he was leaving the institution to board in town, and he then immediately unlocked the safe and gave him the much prized envelope, and before leaving witness told him that he could secure board with his uncle, John Norris, 229 Water Street. After defendant had been staying at Norris's house, he gave the old man the envelope, and when witness called to see how everything was going on frequent occasions, he saw Rogers at the boarding house only once, and it was on this occasion when they again met, that accused passed over the envelope to witness for a second time. Barnes stated that he had kept the package in his possession for safe-keeping, about two weeks after Rogers had gone to board, and warned the old man about it, fearing that he might lose it, he proceeded to the Court House and gave it to Sergt. Fitzgerald. Witness visited the home of Norris on several occasions. He understood that Rogers paid his board in advance every week, and told Rogers when he met him, "whatever you do be honest with the old man, and pay your board," and Rogers distinctly told me that he had paid in advance. Head Const. Byrne next told the Court that he had broken the sealed envelope, two or three days after it had been in possession of the police. Upon breaking the seal, he found it had contained another envelope, and inside of that again was found two sheets of old paper, and some negatives. Head Const. Byrne then got a warrant and placed Rogers under arrest. Upon being asked as to whether he knew anything about the character of prisoner at the bar, witness, used the term, that he had been a nuisance to the police and Militia Department during the past three years. Many complaints have been made against him. One was that he claimed to be studying for the church, and people acting on his word gave him money and clothes to carry out his mission. Another case where the man acted the real fakir was when he complained of being sick in a certain boarding house, and as he did not expect to live, he willed his property, a house valued at $3,000 over to his proprietress. In the meantime the expected to be beneficiary practically made all arrangements to enter the new home, when his faking was found out. Rogers also claimed to be the sole survivor of the Clan McNaughton, and has bluffed the authorities right and left with a little story of his own during the past three years. Before passing sentence, Judge Morris gave the crook a severe lecture and committed him to His Majesty's Penitentiary for a term of twelve months' penal servitude with hard labor. The prisoner took his sentence calmly.

The Only Remedy Says This Doctor

"The treatment of skin diseases (eczema) and diseases of the scalp is known to be difficult, but there is one remedy that is known to be entirely dependable in the most distressing and troublesome diseases. I refer to D. D. D. Prescription."

CHAFE-PARSONS.

A quiet but pretty wedding took place at the Episcopal Church of St. Stephen, Lynn, Mass., on Wednesday, June 6th, the contracting parties being Miss Beatrice Alexandra Chafe, daughter of Mr. L. G. Chafe, Chief Examining Officer of H. M. Customs, St. John's and Mrs. Chafe, and Mr. Donald Walter Parsons, son of the late Mr. Andrew Parsons, Planter of Harbor Grace, Newfoundland, and Mrs. Parsons. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. A. W. Lawrence. The bride looked charming in a dress of grey Canton Crepe, with oriental trimming, and black picture hat, and carried a bouquet of white roses. Miss Sise Parsons, sister of the groom, acted as bridesmaid and looked very pretty in a dress of sand shade silk and black picture hat. The groom was attended by his brother-in-law, Mr. Thomas G. Henderson. After the ceremony the bridal party motored to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henderson, which was decorated very artistically for the occasion, where a reception was held. Among the guests were friends from Boston, Haverhill, Malden, Saugus and Lynn. The bride was the recipient of many cheques and valuable presents. On the eve of her departure from St. John's she was presented with a substantial cheque by the British Import Co., Ltd., and a purse of gold from the employees. The numerous telegrams of felicitation received showed the high esteem in which the young couple were held.

Harry Lauder, when asked what he was going to do with the proceeds from one of his concerts, said, "Every penny of it shall go to the widow of the 'Unknown Soldier'."

A PORTRAIT.

I have, on my desk, before me what I should call an excellent portrait of the modern woman as she is painted by herself.

And painted the subject knowing it was being done. And without the artist having read my article, I perfectly cut short this suspense by giving you the answer at once.

The portrait is painted not in colors in words. And it is painted unobtrusively because it is simply part of the life of the woman.

It is painted by herself. And painted the subject knowing it was being done. And without the artist having read my article, I perfectly cut short this suspense by giving you the answer at once.

France Plans Great Electrical Development

Paris, May 20.—(A.P.)—Electrification in France, held back by the war, its devastation and the upward swing of prices, is now being furthered in many ways by the government, and within a few years many pretentious plans should be completed.

The greatest progress is being made in the devastated regions, for there villages and towns must be built from the ground up and an electric installation frequently precedes gas. The government, in reimbursing owners for destroyed factories, urged from the first that manufacturers mortgaged their plants.

Water-power development in the southeastern mountainous region is well under way, and power soon will be available for the first stretches of electrified railroads. In Brittany, on the Atlantic coast, the tide as a source of power soon will be tested in an experimental installation.

Electric appliances for cooking and cleaning, which came formerly almost entirely from America and Italy, are now being made in France. Electric stoves recently appeared, but the French cook still sticks to her hard coal stove.

Plan World Encircling Flight.

BRITISH AIRMEN WILL STOP AT NEWFOUNDLAND ON THEIR FINAL LAP.

MONTREAL, June 9.—An airplane flight around the world by a British airplane, manned by British pilots, under the auspices of the Legion of Frontiersmen, was the project unfolded here yesterday by Captain Harwood Steele, M.C., son of the late Major General Sir Samuel Steele, who has arrived in Montreal in connection with the proposed around-the-world all-British flight.

The Legion of Frontiersmen, Captain Steele explained, was an organization of adventurous British Frontiersmen, pioneers, sailors, fishermen of that type from all corners of the Empire, who had banded themselves together in an Empire-wide organization for Imperial service either in peace or war. The present President of the Legion, he said, was Major General Lord Loch, who was taking an active part in the proposed adventure, whose main idea was to win for British airmen the honor of being the first to make a globe-encircling flight.

Captain Steele said it was planned for the world encircling flight to start from England some time next year, with a powerful seaplane of a type yet to be chosen, but of British make. The route as at present mapped out will be across France to the Mediterranean, Egypt, India, thence across Asia to Japan and Kamashka, the Aleutian Islands, and across the Behring Sea to Alaska, down Pacific coast to Vancouver.

Thence the flight will continue across Canada with stops at such points as Calgary, Winnipeg, Port Arthur, Toronto, Montreal, Quebec and on to Halifax. For the final lap of the flight the machine will proceed to Newfoundland, thence to Iceland, the Orkney Isles, and south to the starting point in England. The seaplane is to be flown by two pilots, both with good war records, Captain Norman MacMillan, M.C., A.F.C., and Capt. G. H. Maillis, O.B.E.

Speaking of broadening, he reminds me that I am on diet again. "I must go down and prepare lunch now. The children have just come in. They will have mashed potatoes, beef, ham, creamed corn, and chocolate cake. I shall have two lettuce leaves, a glass of skim milk, and a pretzel."

When I began I meant to end my quotation from her letter where she stops speaking of club life. I included the rest for two reasons. That you might realize what a thoroughly unconscious, natural letter it was, and that you might not feel that the woman who would take such vital interest in outside affairs had no children or perhaps neglected them. She has three, and I don't think that lunch sounds like neglect, do you?

Millions of New Women. And, as a matter of fact, she finds more time to enjoy her children and be enjoyed by them than any other woman I know.

Of course this woman has a tremendous measure of vitality, but I know and am happy in knowing that there are millions of women in this country who, in so far as their straight pins, are leaving the daily routine of household tasks with stimulating interests such as this woman describes.

What a splendid thing, both for them and for the country! Truly, the time our grandmothers spent in weaving and candle dipping and making soap and all such industries has not been given back to us in vain.

Fads and Fashions.

A small hat with an especially smart air has a black straw crown and a narrow brim ornamented with fluted black and white ribbon.

A white China silk shirtwaist dress is worn with a long coat of white China silk, elaborately quilted, and lined with gay-colored print.

Openwork straw for hats promises to be very popular. One pretty shape is turned up across the back and trimmed with a fan shape of tulle.

A black and white printed crepe frock is made without sleeves with a square neck, and two plaited bouffants almost covering the straight underskirt.

An evening gown of silver lame is strewn with tiny, gay-colored flowers. The long folds in front are held by an embroidered and beaded motif.

The majority of the new crepe frocks are sleeveless—witness a black Georgette crepe model, showing a broad white Georgette crepe panel at the back.

A beautiful costume seen at the races at Longchamps was composed of an almost straight black crepe skirt and a coat of wool embroidered in bright colors.

An attractive blue serge costume shows a coat opening in a surplice lined and fastening with a long black tassel. Ruchings of the material serve as trimming.

A white satin gown shows a neckline cut in a deep "U" at the back. A full gathered tunic is set on at the waistline at back only, and extends into a short train.

Gold and bronze embroidery used on dark blue Georgette crepe makes one of the prettiest afternoon gowns of the season. A waist-length cape falls from the shoulders, and full panels extend from hips almost to the ground.
