IRISH INTELLIGENCE.

QUEENSTOWN CLAIMS A SEAT IN PARLIAMENT.—The Queenstown Town Commissioners discussed yesterday the claims of the town to be separately represented in the House of Commons.

ARTIAN INDUSTRIAL SCHOOLS, QUENY, DELAWARE.—His Eminence Cardinal Cullen laid the foundation stone of the above schools at two o'clock on Tuesday, the 15th ult.

COLLECTION FOR THE HOLY FATHER IN LIMERICK.—The faithful of the diocese of Limerick have conferred immortal honour on themselves by their spirit of devotion to the Holy Father Pope Pius IX.

S. DOMINGO'S DAY IN KERRY, IRELAND.—The feast of S. Domingo was kept on the 4th ult. at the Black Abbey one of the oldest churches in the neighborhood of Kilkenny.

THESEUS LAW.—If we may accept the unanimous verdict of the press and the people, given by men of all shades and opinions, after an impartial consideration of ascertained facts, then the Government, acting through its responsible officers, the Lord-Lieutenant and his Chief Secretary, is solely responsible for the melancholy affair in Phoenix Park.

THE LORD MAYOR HAS SHOWN A VERY commendable independence in declining the knighthood proposed to him by the Lord-Lieutenant. In this matter of honours we are, as in everything else, subjected to inferiority as compared with English-Italians.

THE LAST OF THE FOUR MASTERS has passed away. O'Curry, O'Donovan, Petrie, left Owen Connellan in solitary loneliness. He is now gone. Dr. Conwell was in his 74th year; and with all his diffidence, his retirement, his studious seclusion, he made troops of friends who sincerely mourn his demise.

THE O'CONNELL MONUMENT.—Nothing can be more justifiable than the eager impatience of Ireland to see erected in the streets of her capital the statue of her greatest son.

France is among the most remarkable events in the history of the world. Even while yet in the pangs of her mortal agony, while the Prussian was still at Saint Oden, while the ruins of the Tuileries smouldered, and the streets of Paris were still red with civil blood, the divines, the statesmen, and the journalists of France were all proclaiming trumpet-tongued to the world the services of Ireland; and the gratitude of Gaul. But, unsatisfied with these informal assurances, France determined by a formal and public act to place on record her sense of the services Ireland had rendered her.

But a short time ago we were rejoicing at the magnanimous offer of the Catholics of Derry to meet the Orangemen upon a common ground, by yielding up, on both sides, the antagonistic demonstrations. The good faith of one side is evinced by the proceedings on Saturday last, and the notice of Mr. Johnston that he will take the first opportunity to call the attention of the House of Commons to the action of the authorities on that occasion.

We commend the subjoined letter, which has been addressed to the Rev. Mr. Duncan, P.P., to the study of the gentry of Meath:

TO THE VERY REV. J. DUNCAN, P.P., Tyrrellstown, Mullhuddart, 29th July.

DEAR DEAN SIR—I beg to hand you herewith a draft of £10 towards the fund for the Meath Tenant Defence Society. It is well, even though so late, to agitate in favour of the tenant of the small tenement class left in the country, not that I think that under the present state of the land-laws it will effect much.

Possibly there never has been an important subject on which the press, of all shades and opinions, was so unanimous as in laying on the shoulders of the Government the sole responsibility for the melancholy affair of the 6th of August. For once English and Irish, Liberal and Conservative papers are in complete accord.

The Lord Mayor has shown a very commendable independence in declining the knighthood proposed to him by the Lord-Lieutenant. In this matter of honours we are, as in everything else, subjected to inferiority as compared with English-Italians.

him with their bludgeons. They might have killed him, but that his face and clothes, all bathed in blood, told that he probably was "done for." A lady and gentleman, wife and husband, were quietly walking in the main road of the Park, towards the Zoological Gardens, when some of the police rushed into the road, and with truncheon blows laid him and wife prostrate!

THE REPRESENTATION OF GALWAY.—Captain Nolan has canvassed the town of Denmore with the Rev. Mr. Loftus. He was promised the support of every voter there, and of numbers from the neighbourhood.

THE POLICE OF COBURG.—A meeting of the city magistrates was held for the purpose of considering whether a reduction of the present police force in the city was possible.

GREAT BRITAIN.

DORLING, SOUTHWARK.—A school and presbytery are to be built in Dorling at the expense of her Grace the Duchess of Norfolk. The works will be commenced forthwith, and will cost about £2200.

MR. J. G. MAYER, the head of the well-known firm of Mayer and Co., of Munich and London, has received from the Holy Father the Order of S. Gregory.

THE MILITIA.—According to a recent War-office return it appears that of the 21,253 men enrolled in the militia of Great Britain and Ireland from the 1st of January to the 24th of May, 1870, 10,858 were under 20 years of age; 6,555 were from 20 to 25, and 2,824 were between 25 and 30.

ON THE SUBJECT OF COALS.—The Royal Commission appointed to enquire into the duration of our coal field is still engaged in its work.

THE TROUBLESOME BARONET.—Mr. Purcell, the junior counsel for the defence in the Tichborne case, left London on Thursday, viz. Dindist, for Australia, on business connected with the above-mentioned case.

FOURTHLY CONDUCT OF AN EXCELSIORIST.—FATAL RESULT.—A sensation was created in Ramsgate a few days ago by the report that a person had been killed by a fall from the East Cliff.

MR. A. M. SULLIVAN'S ACCIDENT AT THE DUNDEE RACE.—Mr. A. M. Sullivan, who had just moved Mr. Smyth to the chair, says that suddenly there rushed into sight, round the south-western angle of the steps, a large body of police, who with bludgeons began to strike indiscriminately right and left at the people standing below.

reasonable care be taken, there is scarcely any risk that the disease will spread to persons who nurse and otherwise closely attend upon the sick. But cholera has a certain peculiar inactivity of its own, which, where local conditions assist, can operate with terrible force, and at considerable distances from the sick. The main object of endeavor should be to secure that "cholera contagium," when not disinfected, shall be unable to act extensively on the population. An immediate examination of sources of water supply should be made in all cases where these are in any way open to the suspicion of impurity, with water both from private and public sources.

The Emperor and Empress of Brazil visited the celleries of Messrs. Briggs, Son, and Co., near Wakefield, which are carried on the co-operative system. Their Majesties, in collier costume, descended the pits and inspected the workings. They afterwards visited the ironworks of Messrs. Thompson and Co., Normanton, and subsequently were visited by Lord Houghton, and a select party. Their Majesties afterwards went by train to Sheffield.

CHURCH OF ST. FRANCIS XAVIER, New York.—Sponsored by Rev. FATHER MERRICK OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN.—The festival of the Sacred Heart of Mary, Mother of Christ, was celebrated with due solemnity at this church on August 27. Mass was read by Rev. FATHER MERRICK. At the accustomed time Father Merrick ascended the pulpit and chose for his theme the gospel of the day, Luke xii. 48-51.

THE MARRIAGE CASE.

and good understanding that existed between them. But when she heard that her son was yet missing, and that he might have gone crazy, with what affectionate grief she was overwhelmed. And when he returned safely home well, and remained from asking curious questions, and pointed out the words of Jesus in her book, this manifested the depth and seriousness of a soul and the unbounded friendship which characterized the relation. It is to this union, which fidelity is sure to beget, that Mary owes all her greatness and her glory. Hence it is that our Holy Mother, the Church, after having decreed the celebration of a festival in honor of the sacred heart of Jesus, appointed also a day of devotion in honor of the sweet heart of Mary. Hence also as the Church annually renews the incarnation, the birth and the resurrection of our Saviour, so, too, she devoutly commemorates the annunciation, birth and assumption of his venerated mother. By this conduct the Church carries out to perfection the intention of our Lord Himself, and merely repeats what He has sanctioned. For was He not born in the arms of Mary? Did He not feed Him with her own milk, and did He not grow strong in her holy company?

HE WAS BORN TO DIE.

through life, and the more they became united the greater grew their mutual friendship. The Scriptures frequently allude to this union. The angel commanded Joseph to take Mary and the child to Egypt. When our Lord goes forth on his pilgrimage of three years He is accompanied by Mary; He stood by Him at the foot of the cross; she receives Him into her arms when He is risen from the dead, and when she has numbered her days on earth He receives her into His arms in heaven. How can the Church fail to honor her when Christ Himself has so much honored? Therefore it is that in every land and in every age, wherever there is an altar erected and sacrifice offered to the Most High, there, too, is an altar consecrated to Mary. The symbol and expression of true Catholic piety is found in the words Jesus and Mary. So it has been ordained by God; so have her praises been sung by the prophet of old under the inspiration of the Spirit of God. "From the beginning and before the world was created, and unto the world to come I shall not cease to be. From all eternity I was prepared, and before the abysses existed I am;—that is, in the mind of the Creator. She was present to His view, distinct from the rest of creation. It is impossible to conceive."

HOW GREAT SHE IS.

in the eyes of the Omnipotent. Is it any wonder, then, that as our Saviour granted to her whatever she asked, so also God the Father and the Eternal Spirit should grant her petitions? Jesus was the Mediator between God and the human race, and Mary is the mediator between Jesus and sinning man. Jesus sits at the right hand of God the Father; Mary sits at the right hand of God the Son. Jesus is the author of all graces; Mary is the source through which He communicates them from His sacred heart to the members of His mystical body. She was the mother of Jesus; and where is the child who would not give to his mother everything that could make her happy? But, although now supremely happy, she is not unmindful of those on earth who are afflicted or depressed. She herself was pierced with sorrow, and she continues to love those who suffer—even those who are undeserving of it. Hence she is styled

and the refuge of sinners. There, in all ages have turned to her with confidence, knowing that she is so privileged and so powerful that she can obtain anything she desires. Her heart is the centre of all her sentiments and affections; it purified the blood of Jesus which was to be shed for men; in that heart is centred every quality which made her illustrious and revered. Therefore we rejoice in the appointment of a festival in her honor. This has been done in our age, because the tendency of our times is toward a worship of the intellect, to the exclusion of the feelings of the heart. A man may be a villain of the deepest dye; his affections and sentiments may be depraved; if he be a genius he is idolized. So we come to

for their acuteness, utterly disregarding their moral worth. The hero of the modern tale is a smart young man or a smart young woman. Men speak of the affections of the heart; but what do they mean? That which is depraved, mean and unmanly; that which is more animal and beastly than peculiar to a rational being. From this horizon of depravity and degeneracy the Church tenderly invites us to lift our minds and hearts. She calls upon us to be generous, self-sacrificing, self-devoted and not self-loving, but loving our neighbors for the love of Jesus. Let us in obedience to this call, turn to the heart of the Great Man God, and to the loving heart of Mary, and so purify our hearts in these perilous times that we may love and revere His holy laws here below, and persevere to the end in His service.—N. Y. Tablet.
