Gay Furbelows and Frilly Things That Make the Most Enchanting Gifts

Neckwear That is the Very Last Word in Modishness, in Most Alluring Array—Charming Silk Sweaters That Are New as Spring Itself, and a Trio of Effective Blouses.

D. Think how pretty and how Frenchy it would look on a morning frock—this collar of creamy flannel, with its spotted border—the spots in Saxe blue, in salmon pink and green. Price, $1.50.

F. Of velvet—actually velvet! For such is the latest adventure of Fashion in the realms of neckwear. And it's a creamy mirrored velvet, which is immensely becoming. The edges are bound with silk braid, and the corners weighted with acorns. Price, $2.25.

G. Perhaps it's a bit of real lace that someone has been sighing for. Then, what of a pretty round collar of this English pillow lace? The one below is $1.25, but others in various shapes and sizes are obtainable at from $1.25 to $3.50.

H. A veritable chameleon among collars—one with which you can achieve a multitude of effects—for it takes on the hue of whatever material it is worn over! Made of Paisley printed tulle over white, it is of a surpassing daintiness, while over dark colors it is vividly rich. The edges are bound with navy blue satin. Price, $3.25.

J. A sailor, yes, but the very newest thing in sailor collars, for it is made of striped flannel—black and white—and carries the earmark of modishness also in its pinked-out edge. Price, $1.50.

L. Just to show what a soft, heavy Crepe de Chine, cleverly manipulated tucks, and silk-embroidered dots and rings can do in the achievement of a distinctive blouse, here is a perfect marvel of dainty prettiness! And the back is just as attractive as the front, for the little square picot-edged collar falls in pretty folds over tucks and embroidery like those seen in the sketch. Provable in white and flesh color. It is $7.50.

M. Fashion is very faithful to the charms of the jabot, perhaps because of its universal becomingness to slender and stout figures alike. Here you may see it in delightful guise, pendant from beneath a large, round collar hemstitched and picot edged in black, most effective against the firmness of the Georgette of which the blouse is made. It is obtainable in flesh, maize, rose and ivory, and the price is $5.00.

K. Much distinction in the shape, more in the material, and, most of all, in the trimming of this charming set. It is made of an unusually heavy oyster white broadcloth, the edging being a most effective

Russian embroidery carried out in thick white wool, with yellow silk points, a glint of purple being visible in the interstices of the wool. Similar sets are available with rose or blue points, and some with big square collars. The price of the set is $6.00, and the price of a collar alone, $5.00.

N. If sweet simplicity be her bent, then do you think she'd like this blouse? It is made of crepe Georgette in artistic shades of maize, sky blue, also flesh and ivory. Its distinction lies in the little border of minute tucks hemstitched to the big, square collar, jabot and cuffs. And a most forceful attraction is the excellent value, for it is made of a good Georgette, and specially priced at $3.95.

T. Surely in the days of the Empire, when the cult of the scarf was at its zenith, there was nothing more elegant than the scarf sketched about it—There's a hint of the Oriental about it—not only in the exquisitely filmy white cotton crepe of which it is made, but in the "peacock's eye" spots and the charming line border, which are embroidered in chenille, in delightfully soft shades of rose and green. A similar design is obtainable embroidered in blue and yellow, and the price is most moderate at $5.00. Embroidered with chenille in a floral design are other crepe scarfs at $8.00.

U. Do you know someone who has a love for handsome laces? Then here is the very thing for her—this beautiful scarf of black Spanish lace—becoming in every inch of its 2 1/2 yards. The design is remarkably effective, and though it rejoices in the unusual width of 32 inches, it is most moderately priced at $12.50. It is one of a large family of black Spanish lace scarfs which are obtainable at the Neckwear Counter in fine scroll and heavy designs at prices ranging from $3.75 (6 inches wide) to $15.00. White Spanish lace scarfs range in price from $4.00 to $10.00.

A. The inevitable "something new" that everyone seeks, who wishes to choose a really distinctive Christmas gift? Then consider the claims of the very smart vest and collar of cream broadcloth sketched at the top. Its edges are bound with silk braid, of the wee buttons are of white velvet, and in New York it's considered the smartest thing in neckwear. Price, $4.00.

E. To achieve something new and chic, Fashion has taken Paisley silk, which has been engaging her attention for some time, has veiled it with white Georgette, and the charming result you may see above! The rich colors of the silks are dimmed to a most becoming tone, and the price of this prettiness is $2.25.

O. The woman who enjoys being well abreast of the modes would simply revel in the possession of a sweater coat like this. Like the rest of the group, it is a 1917 Spring model, is made of a closely knitted fibre silk, and is somewhat longer than the coats of last season. There's the demureness of a lawyer's bands about the triple-pointed white collar, but a most alluring jauntiness about the ensemble, and it is procurable in delightful shades of rose and blue, with white collar, cuffs and sash. Price, $13.50.

B. "The little more and how much it is!"—For two colored revers and 4 white bone buttons are added to a round white broadcloth collar, and at once you have something that is smart and distinctive in the extreme—a collar (above) that will answer equally well on coat or dress. It is obtainable with French blue or rose revers, and the price is $2.50.

Q. They may be discussing the rival merits of other sweaters, or just talking of the War, but one thing is certain—the lady on the left is eminently satisfied with her own coat—as who wouldn't be? An entirely new model of Milanese silk, it is gathered all round to a belt, one end of which is run through a slot in front and buttoned at the side. Other new features are the longer length, square hemstitched collar, close-set buttons and dropped shoulder. Colors emerald, rose, blue, gold, white. Price, $17.50.

C. A simple little sailor collar of cream flannel, but there's something quite extraordinarily smart about the inward-sloping lines of the back, and the effective trimming of the three lines of black and white silk soutache, with three black buttons at either corner. The price is an additional attraction, for it is only $1.00.

R. Admiring comments will surely follow the back as well as greet the front of the woman who is lucky enough to obtain this smart coat, for at the back you may see the exceeding grace of the very large square collar (in a lighter tone to match sash and cuffs), and a novel arrangement in the sash, which is crossed and held in rather high points by two buttons. Of knitted silk fibre in the new "sun ray" stitch, it is obtainable in rose and white, and gold and white. Price, $16.50.

S. Smartness lies in the big square black and white striped collar, the deep cuffs and the white tassels of the sash, though it be but a simple coat of plain silk fibre. It is obtainable in black and white, rose and white, burnt orange and white, the price being $15.00.

MORE ZEAL NEEDED IN MUNITION WORK

J. W. Flavelle Says Manufacturers Should Show Greater Energy.

WAR FIRST AND LAST

Pleasure and Profit Must Be Set Aside for Duty's Sake.

According to J. W. Flavelle, chairman of the imperial munitions board, who arrived from England in Toronto Saturday, manufacturers of munitions in Canada will be required by the British Government to fulfil their contracts for 1917, referring to a conversation which he had with the British minister of munitions, he said that it was thought in England that two years' probation was quite sufficient, and Canada would be expected to fulfil her contracts made for munitions during the coming year.

The need of greater zeal on the part of Canadian manufacturers was referred to by Mr. Flavelle, who said that they were behind with their contracts. He had no intention, however, of blaming the manufacturers, but said he thought far too much energy had been expended on the securing of credits and too little in filling them.

Speaking particularly of the employment of women in the manufacture of ammunition, the chairman pointed out that in order to play her part in the present war, Canada required all the resources at her command. "I think we have been inclined in Canada to look upon the war as something more or less of an extra, and that everything would go on as usual, notwithstanding the war," he declared.

CANADIAN AVIATORS WILL TRAIN HERE

Government to Take Over and Greatly Enlarge Curtiss Plant.

SIX FLYING SCHOOLS

Training to Be Completed Here and at Government's Expense.

Extensive plans for the manufacture of aeroplanes and the training of aviators in Canada will be begun soon in the Curtiss Aeroplane Company's plant, Strachan avenue, which has been bought by the "Canadian Aeroplanes Ltd.," a creation of the imperial munitions board, according to E. R. Wood, a member of the commission.

It will take at least a year to carry out plans into effect, declared Mr. Wood in discussing the new scheme, and they may mean the establishment of at least six flying schools in different parts of Canada. The plans may include, too, the building of a barracks for aviators. Under our scheme a Canadian will receive his complete aeronautical and military training before going overseas.

North Toronto Ratepayers Determined to Obtain Double-Deck Bridge.

SAYS HARRIS UNFAIR

Alderman Ball Replies to the Statement of Works Commissioner.

More than 150 of the business men of North Toronto on Saturday night, in the Eglinton town hall, by a strongly worded resolution, reaffirmed their absolute approval of the Summerhill double-deck bridge as an outlet for the Mount Pleasant civic car line and as a means of giving access into the Moore Park and North Rosedale district, and unanimously pledged themselves to wait upon the board of works at its meeting this afternoon and press home the matter to a conclusion.

Dealing with the report of Commissioner Harris, in which he opposed the construction of the bridge, in connection with the C.P.R., Ald. Ball said: "No man is more anxious than I to maintain the credit of the city and to practice the strictest economy, but when we see a private company anxious and willing to go ahead and spend millions of dollars, and the C.P.R. showing corresponding enterprise in the expenditure of millions more, what shall be said of some members of the city council who seek to evade the carrying out of a pledge given by the city by a vote for the construction of the Mount Pleasant car line and the agreement entered into in March last for the building of the bridge?"

"I Stand By My Promise!"

George Lawrence Promised that if 10,000 New Customers Backed Him Up in Reducing the Price of Bread, He Would Keep the Price Down Until Spring

Only 5,000 More Customers Needed

Saturday Night and Sunday are good days for reflecting upon the affairs of life. Most people are too busy on week-days to get the right perspective on important things, even ones that directly concern themselves. The Reduction of the Price of Bread was one of the most important events of local interest. One Baker, single-handed, not only brought down the price of his own bread, but brought down the price of all the other bakers' bread as well. The point that interests the public is this:—No Baker, except Geo. Lawrence, wants to sell bread for less than 9 or 10 cents a loaf, and it is only the pressure of the Lawrence Bakery that keeps the price down now. What will the public do? George Lawrence says:—"If the people really want 8-cent Bread continued, they should and must throw the volume of their trade to the Bakery which originated the reduction, and which needs the extra patronage to make 8-cent bread pay its way."

Send Your Bread Orders to the Lawrence Bakery--and Your Name to the List of Customers--Every Order Helps in This Good Cause

"The public have responded handsomely," says Mr. Lawrence. "I am satisfied that when the people realize that it is their duty as well as their privilege to support me in my reduction of the price of bread, that the 5,000 new customers now needed will not fail me."

BASEBALL PROBLEMS BEFORE MAGNATES AT MEETINGS THIS WEEK IN NEW YORK

International to Tackle New Schedule and Re-arrange Circuit—Minor League Demands.

New York, Dec. 10.—The International League will meet at the Hotel Inwood tomorrow, when the organization will receive a committee from the American Association and arrange for an inter-league series at the close of their championship seasons, which may be cut to 112 games.

There is likely to be a change in the International circuit, also. Sam Lichtenhein, owner of the Montreal club, is anxious to get rid of his holdings and some one of the cities of the New York State League may take over his franchise.

A committee from the International and other Class AA leagues will also confer with the National League this week relative to a new minor league board to settle minor league cases. This committee will include President Barrow of the International League, President Hickey, the newly-elected head of the American Association, and J. Cal Bowling of the Oakland Club of the Pacific Coast League.

Minor League's Petition. Problems that will have an important bearing on the baseball season await the officials of the National League, who will assemble here on Tuesday. Foremost among these is the petition of the minor leagues for a new board to settle minor league cases.

Whether the McGraw case, growing out of the Grant Johnson suit, is the last that his club did not play its best game in the final series with the Dodgers last season, will come up for discussion and appears to be a matter of doubt. It may come up before the National League meets on Tuesday, but according to August Herrmann, chairman of the National Commission, who probably will be present, baseball owners are more inclined to ignore the matter entirely.

Canadian Soldiers Make Baseball Game Popular in England. It is predicted that the war will bring about many revolutionary changes in society, and according to a young Canadian officer, a movie photographer, one of the great changes will be the introduction of baseball into the British Isles.

Getting Wise in New York Concerning the Wrestlers

New York, Dec. 9.—Now that the football season is positively over, why are the newspaper writers who were going so strong at this time last year? The first O.H.A. championship schedule arranged is that of Group No. 10, intermediate series, consisting of Glencoe, Benheim and Bothwell-Thamesville clubs. Priest-Journalist Speaks Only for Himself, Says Nationalist Leader.

Special to The Toronto World. Montreal, Dec. 9.—Henri Bourassa breaks the silence today which the Nationalist leader has maintained since the arrival of the Pope's letter on the school question caused, he states, by the demand of many priests who, he says, have attacked Abbe Demours on all sides, and they cannot understand Bourassa's silence. He says that it is a systematic falsehood spread abroad by the imperialistic press to the effect that the priest journalist speaks for Cardinal Egin, when, as a matter of fact, he speaks for himself alone.

ALLIES' STRENGTH BOUND TO PREVAIL

Sir George Foster Delivers a Stirring Address at New York.

AVERT FUTURE WARS

International Policeman Idea to Crush Robber Nation in Future.

New York, Dec. 10.—Sir George E. Foster, Canadian minister of trade and commerce, despite an expressed desire to hasten back to Ottawa, remained in New York last night to attend the annual dinner of the Pennsylvania Society, of which he was the guest of honor. Among the other guests were James M. Beck, former assistant attorney-general of the U.S., Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, president of Columbia University, and John W. Davis, solicitor-general of the U.S.

In the course of his speech, Sir George said that there could be no peace while the entente allies are not victorious. Canada, Australia and "every British dependency" he asserted, are opposed to any discontinuance of the war until there is a guarantee that the cause which led to the conflict is abolished.

"It is an interesting thing," asserted Sir George, "that men of Canada and Australia should take the trouble to go to the plains of Europe and give their lives on the battlefields, and yet not so remarkable when you consider that those liberty-loving people, at peace for four generations, are standing for the ideal that the allied cause stands for.

"The neutral point of view can never be the same as that of the belligerent, but I ask you: 'Did it ever flash across your mind that there are about 800,000,000 of people in this war of which about 700,000,000 are in the allied cause and that today the allied cause is not victorious? Does any sensible man think that 700,000,000 are going to lay down at this particular time and cry for peace without the ideals for which they fight being attained? There must be in the peace that is finally won, not only restitution, but a guarantee that the same things that have happened shall not happen again," asserted Sir George.

"Speaking for Canada and Canadians," he said, "that is what the allies are fighting for. Once we come to a point where we can have a peace that is worth something we shall welcome it. There must be the international policeman idea. We must project the idea of the policeman into the international tribunal and make it impossible that a robber nation can enter another and despoil it, without being tried and having sentence passed and executed. Oh, yes! That can be done; it is going to be done, and I hope with all my heart that this great war is going to make another great war impossible."

FIRST GUNS ARE FIRED IN PATRIOTIC FUND CAMPAIGN

Officers of the Organization Greatly Elated Regarding Outlook.

Ottawa, Dec. 10.—The officers of the Canadian Patriotic Fund are greatly elated over the encouraging outlook for the fund in Ontario in 1917 owing to the generous action of the county councils of Simcoe, Victoria and Dufferin at the fall sessions recently held. The decision of these councils marks the real beginning of the campaign, which will reach its climax in January and February, to raise at least six millions in this province in 1917. As this is a million dollars more than was subscribed for 1916, it has been felt by the fund authorities that much of the success of the campaign would depend on the increase of the grants made by the county councils.

The three counties which have already acted have done so well and shown so generous an example that the chances of attaining the desired sum are now considered greatly improved. Simcoe, which in the past has left the support of the fund largely to the township and town councils, has decided to make a general levy on the whole county for the purposes of the fund. The sum to be given is $10,000 a month, making the fine aggregate of $120,000 in the year. But more than this, the Simcoe councillors expressed the hope that the voluntary grants by individuals and organizations would be continued.

Victoria, a county much smaller in wealth and population, has also excelled itself and has raised its contribution from $2500 a month to $5000, or a total of $60,000 in the year. This means a tax of three mills on the dollar. Dufferin in 1916 gave $500 a month. It has decided to quadruple this for 1917 and will give $2000 a month—a splendid increase.

The fund's campaign has certainly started with a bang. FORM ASSOCIATION. Kingston, Dec. 10.—Dr. Myers and W. R. Cook, Toronto, addressed a boys' conference here Saturday and Sunday and organized an association.
