Some Americans Want To Vote Before Decision To Make War On Germany

Emergency Peace Federationists Are Lobbying in Washington—May Not Answer Latest Offer Made by Germany

Washington, Feb. 12.—A special train today brought a delegation of the emergency peace federation here from New York, Philadelphia and other eastern cities to solicit members of congress on behalf of pending measures to provide a popular referendum before declaring war.

They arranged a demonstration and meetings for which peace advocates were the speakers.

Arriving Americans

Washington, Feb. 12.—Within a few days the government will find a way whereby American merchant vessels now held in port by fear of German submarines may arm themselves and resume their sailings. This will be accomplished by private means.

The government will not supply guns or gunners direct, nor even formally advise arming. Shipowners have said that heretofore they have been unable to obtain either guns or gun material.

Officials today still incline to regard the latest offer of Germany to discuss means of preventing war, presented through the Swiss minister on Saturday, only as an effort to cast on the United States the appearance of being belligerent. The official attitude seemed to be that the United States and German government can have no diplomatic dealings until Germany gives up her programme of unrestricted submarine warfare, and that any other admission would serve only to belittle the issue of American rights. It is not certain that any answer will be made to the suggestion.

Washington, Feb. 12.—P. A. S. Franklyn, president of the International Mercantile Marine, today made formal application to the navy department for guns to arm the passenger liners of the American Line.

NEW YORK ARRIVES SAFELY, WAS THROUGH THE SUBMARINE ZONE

New York, Feb. 12.—The Associated Press carried the following this morning: The arrival of the steamer New York today brought the number of American trans-Atlantic passenger ships at this port up to four.

The American liner Kronland docked here yesterday and the Louis and St. Paul of the same line, are still at their piers while their owners await news from Washington.

The Cunard steamer Andania from Liverpool January 31, and the Italian steamer Giuseppe, which from Mediterranean ports, reached their docks here today.

The first American ship to leave Liverpool after Germany's war was decreed into effect, passed through the danger zone without sighting a war craft of any kind. It was common comment among the passengers that Germany's decree caused very little excitement in England as far as they could observe.

MILITARY TRAINING AT BASEBALL CAMPS

Chicago, Feb. 9.—Ban Johnson, American League president, and President Chas. Weeghman and Owner Comiskey of the Cubs and White Sox, approve "preparatory plan" of Captain Houston, part owner of the Yankees. Spring training camps may witness an entirely new brand of conditioning this season. Houston, who saw service in the Spanish-American war, plans for an hour each day to be devoted to military training in the camps.

GERARD TREATED BADLY ON LAST DAYS IN BERLIN

Efforts Made to Have Him Open Negotiations for Amendment to the Treaty of 1790—Relief When Swiss Border Crossed

Zurich, Switzerland, Feb. 11.—Vice Paris, Feb. 12.—Most of the members of Ambassador Gerard's large party gave a sigh of relief this afternoon when the Swiss border was reached. For the strain of the last few days had told more or less on the majority of the travelers. Ambassador Gerard met cordially a horde of newspaper men who crowded about him on his arrival at Zurich, clamoring for interviews for papers all over the civilized world, but he kept rigidly to his determination not to speak for publication until after he reported to President Wilson in Washington.

The strain of the situation for the Americans in Berlin had been heightened toward the end by the efforts of the German authorities to induce Mr. Gerard to open negotiations for an amendment to the Prussian-American treaty of 1790. At the same time the German newspapers were flooded with reports of the seizure of German ships by America and with stories of difficult and unprofitable encounters by Count Von Bernstorff.

Ambassador Gerard was refused permission to communicate in cipher with Washington and the authorities ignored all denials of the stories printed in the German newspapers until an official message received through the Spanish embassy made it clear that the standard of Gerard's telephone wires were cut, his mail and telegraphic privileges stopped, and that he could not even instruct the American consul—and he was, in his own words, a prisoner.

The combined result was uncertainty and petty friction which was decreased by the foreign military authorities shifted the responsibility for the delay in Mr. Gerard's departure from the city to the American minister. At least all Mr. Gerard could obtain any definite information in cipher with the officials in vain that their measures were applicable only to actual war, and that the admirable self-restraint and politeness of the German people with the resultant good effect, was being jeopardized.

THINGS AT A BAD PASS IN THE AUSTRIAN EMPIRE

People Fired Upon in Repression of Food Riots—Soldiers Mutiny—An Outcry For Peace to Save Germany and the Dual Monarchy

New York, Feb. 12.—The Sun publishes the following special cable: "Rome, via London, Feb. 11.—The Vatican has information from Austria that food riots have been repressed with bloodshed and that frequently soldiers have refused to fire upon the citizens. Several regiments have mutined and the situation is very serious. Sensational developments, including a revolution, are feared.

"Vatican clergymen and cardinals have been asked to implore the people to stand by their homes in order to save Germany and Austria-Hungary. "The Vatican organ, the Osservatore Romano, points out in an inspired article that a clash between the United States and Germany would establish a precedent for the right of the United States to influence European politics. It says that after the war Europe would be weakened and the United States could assume a preponderant position. "With the object of averting such an eventuality, the paper says, the Pope is striving to avert war between the United States and Germany and expects to succeed."

MORE FRENCH SOLDIERS IN CITY TODAY ON THE WAY HOME FROM FRONT

Corporal Lefevre and Privates Backer, Briand and Lepache, French soldiers, arrived in the city on the Boston train at noon today, fresh from the Somme and Meuse, after having served in the French army for more than two years. They arrived in New York a few days ago from France.

Three of the soldiers were attached to a French battalion, No. 83, and the fourth to another, No. 32. Although facing the front for that length of time and participating in the great battles at Ypres, Festubert and on the Somme they returned to France with no scars. Corporal Lefevre said that they had lived through many terrible engagements, and that they were not to have come through it alive. He said that at times shells broke around them like hail and that it was a miracle they were not blown to pieces.

When asked about the drive of the Germans on Paris, he said that those were trying days. "We were not in a position to cope with the Germans then, he said, "because our guns were not as powerful, or our men as well equipped. But we realized that we had to hold them off until they were exhausted. It was hard, and many a noble son of France shed his blood in that gallant defence, but they were eventually driven from their base. The result was we held them and eventually drove them back slowly but faster when we were given better guns and more ammunition."

Corporal Lefevre said that he and his companions were attached to units which were sent to the Somme. While there they engaged in the famous battles and were among the troops who got revenge on their enemy and drove them from their lines of trenches. He showed a long scar on the side of one of his hands where a bullet had glanced, but he said it was only slight and he was able to continue fighting, after having the wound dressed.

When asked about conditions when he left the front, he said that the French and their allies have the Germans outclassed and when they decide to begin another offensive they will soon show the Germans how to fight. He said they are better equipped and have all kinds of ammunition and men to take charge of it. He said the troops are confident that, when weather permits, they will make a drive which will have a big effect on stopping the war.

THE WAR SITUATION

The German submarine campaign does not justify German expectations. Less than ninety vessels have been sunk, and the daily number has decreased instead of increasing from day to day.

THE CAMPAIGN

The opposition party has strong candidates in twelve constituencies. Gloucester convention is called for tomorrow and tickets are yet to be nominated in Charlotte, Northumberland, Queens and St. John City.

Mr. W. E. Foster, leader of the opposition, delivered an important and inspiring address in St. Martins on Saturday evening, when he and Mr. A. F. Bentley were given a fine reception.

The attempt made by the government press and speakers to convey the impression that there is a very dangerous "old gang" trying to climb back into power is not impressive.

Mr. Carter then read the text of the letter dictated by Hon. Mr. McLeod in February, 1912, telling in detail of the raising of $187,000 for the campaign of 1912.

It is not surprising that the government press and speakers are much more deeply interested in what they allege transpired prior to 1908, rather than in the exposures made since 1912.

The opposition candidates in York county, in their card to the electors, deal with another phase of the situation, linking up Premier Murray and his government with the Flemming group.

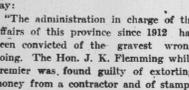

It is true that Mr. Flemming's name has suddenly been dropped from the headlines in the government press, but the fact that he was whitewashed with Mr. Murray's approval and support, and taken to Mr. Murray's bosom in the Carleton county by-election, establishes beyond doubt the sympathy between the two.

The St. John Globe on Saturday gave the opposition leader a fine certificate of character. It described him as a fine type of honorable and successful business man, that should be more largely represented in the legislature.

It can be said that each day we are coming nearer to the realization of our objects. The brave Russian army, which has assumed a formidable task; the gallant Italian troops, and finally, the Anglo-French forces, which are increasing in number, constitute the best guarantee of our final victory which hereafter will come promptly.

EXPOSURE OF THE TORY NATIONALIST CAMPAIGN IN DORCHESTER ELECTION

The Chief Canvass of the Borden Ministers Was That the Liberals Wanted Canada to Do More in the War and Would Force Conscription on the People—Elect Seigny and He Will Keep Conscription Off—Mr. Blondin's Double-dealing.

(Halifax Chronicle). Halifax, N. S., Feb. 8.—Hon. Mr. Blondin's answer in the House of Commons to the question asked by Mr. Seigny, in the recent Dorchester by-election, led to the people of St. John. He stated that if conscription came they would only have to go fourteen miles to cross the Maine border, and his further declaration that the Allison charges did not concern Canadians, because it was the money of England that was stolen, has been the one topic of discussion in Montreal and Quebec, where the circumstances are best known.

There is a widespread feeling that the affair will go much further, and that Mr. Blondin, who is being called the Jekyll and Hyde of Canadian politics, should be held responsible for what is perhaps one of the most serious charges levelled against a Minister of the Crown. Blondin's Organized Campaign.

While Mr. Blondin was preparing to tell the House of Commons of his whole-someled enthusiasm for the prosecution of the war, there is definite proof that he not only made the declaration of the St. John meeting, but he was actually urging the electors of Dorchester to vote against Lucien Cannon, the Liberal candidate, because he was in favor of participation in the war, and that the Liberal party even favored conscription, in order to win the war.

On the eve of the poll in Dorchester, Mr. Blondin and his friends circulated a newspaper bearing the date January 29th. It was published in French under the special direction of Mr. Lafontaine, Mr. Blondin's secretary. On page three there were three columns, there appeared the following heading:

"On the eve of the poll in Dorchester, the electors of Dorchester are now well aware that the Liberal party is in favor of conscription. First the article gives full absolution to Sir Robert Borden. It says: 'If the Borden government had wanted conscription it would have imposed it already. But it has declared that it does not want it.'"

The Phantom of Conscription. Having canonized Sir Robert Borden, the article proceeds to liberate the phantom of conscription in Liberal colors. It goes on to say: 'The Liberal party is in favor of the Liberal party. Would it be more reassured if the Liberal party were to have the power? Lucien Cannon himself declared to the Ontario newspapers that he is in favor of participation in the war. The most powerful lieutenants of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, as the Hon. Frank Oliver, declared last Tuesday in the House of Commons, affirm that the Borden government has not done enough for the war, and that the Borden government must impose conscription. All the Liberal newspapers are beseeching conscription, and Sir Wilfrid Laurier, the chief of the Liberal party, gives no disappointment to his lieutenants and to his newspapers, who promise conscription, because Sir Wilfrid Laurier knows well that these newspapers express an opinion of the majority of the Liberal party and that it is only with conscription that the Liberal party has any chance of coming back to power and to wipe out the Borden government, which has not done enough for England.'"

How They Taught "Patriotism." It was thus that Messrs. Blondin, Patenaude and Seigny, the evangelists of Dorchester, taught "patriotism" to the electors of Dorchester. The editorial page contains this gem: "Dare the chiefs say nothing because they hope that the Liberal party will come back to power, and when the Liberal party returns to power—if it ever does—it will impose conscription as the wish of the Liberals of all the provinces of Canada."

On the last page under the heading: "Read and understand—a handful of truths," there is the following:—"At the present time there is no question of conscription. No government will take upon itself to establish conscription. The Liberal party is the war alone can impose it. The election of Mr. Cannon will not change the government. He is a defender in the government. Elect Mr. Seigny. He will keep conscription off more surely than Mr. Cannon, if it can be kept off at all. If the Lib-

although it was twenty below zero. He then goes on to say: 'I have been wondering since if such a thing could have occurred in Ontario, and such deep interest could have been taken by the Ontario men and women as to attend a meeting twenty below zero, and with their children wait until twenty minutes past two for the speakers to arrive.'

Le Canada contends that Mr. Blondin, now that the Dorchester election is over, is naturally anxious to get away from the insidious insinuations he made during the campaign. It charges Mr. Blondin point blank with having lied to the House of Commons regarding his St. John speech. Mr. Blondin, it contends, is condemned first by the affidavits of the electors of St. John, secondly by the declarations of his own lieutenant, Mr. Desrochers, and thirdly by Mr. Blondin's own telegram to Sir Robert Borden. Le Canada says: "In the House of Commons, Mr. Blondin disavowed his lieutenant, Mr. Desrochers, a lawyer of Montreal, but it is undeniable that Mr. Desrochers was working for Mr. Blondin in Dorchester and was at the St. John meeting. What interest would Mr. Desrochers have in making the man he supported say things he did not say?"

St. Martins House Burned. A dwelling house, owned by William Morrow, at St. Martins, was destroyed by fire late Friday night. The loss is estimated at about $2,600. The house, insured for $800 and the furniture for $800.

General Sir Wm. McNeil, speaking at Bradford, said Britain had every reason to be thoroughly satisfied with what it had done up to date, seeing the start it had made, and might look forward to the future with complete confidence, subject to the condition that "we did the right thing and did it in time."

A man cannot possess anything better than a good outfit, says Dr. Chase's Ointment, in our home, and would wish for anything better for cuts, burns and bruises. A few years ago a friend of mine, whose baby was terribly afflicted with eczema had her child treated by their own family physician, but the little one got no better. They tried all the remedies, but they all proved useless. Upon the advice of a neighbor they got Dr. Chase's Ointment, and before the first box was used the child was completely cured. I can also recommend Dr. Chase's Nerve Food to suffering friends who I know will be glad to learn of something to relieve their nervous trouble. You have my permission to use this letter for the benefit of others.

Children Had Eczema Doctors Failed to Cure

Two Letters Which Prove the Efficiency of Dr. Chase's Ointment as a Cure for Eczema.

Fortunate are the mothers who know the virtue of Dr. Chase's Ointment, for there is no treatment so suitable for use after the bath to relieve irritation and itching and to thereby prevent eczema and similar skin diseases. Mrs. W. L. Barnes, Truro, Ontario, writes: "I want to tell you about the case of my little boy, who had had eczema when he was three months old, so I had him taken to the hospital, but the little one got no better. They tried all the remedies, but they all proved useless. Upon the advice of a neighbor they got Dr. Chase's Ointment, and before the first box was used the child was completely cured. I can also recommend Dr. Chase's Nerve Food to suffering friends who I know will be glad to learn of something to relieve their nervous trouble. You have my permission to use this letter for the benefit of others."

THE CASE OF MRS. CORNWALLIS WEST AND LIEUTENANT BARRETT

Mrs. Cornwallis West has been a prominent figure in the social world for more than thirty-five years. Her dazzling loveliness and magnetic personality took London drawing-rooms by storm. She is the mother of two celebrated beauties, Princess Henry of Fless and the Duchess of Westminster.

Mrs. Cornwallis West, wife of the Lord-Lieutenant of Denbighshire, England, who has been censured by an official court of inquiry, for interference in military matters. According to the court's finding, she took more than an ordinary interest in Lieutenant Patrick Barrett who largely owed to her influence his promotion from sergeant to commissioned rank.

He failed to respond to her interest, and finally wrote her a letter of remonstrance, which she sent to his commanding officer. As a result he was transferred to another battalion and severely censured. The court said in its findings: "We feel obliged to record our opinion that this lady's conduct as revealed in this case has been highly creditable, in her behavior towards Second Lieutenant Barrett before his letter of February 14, in her vindictive attempts to injure him afterwards, and in the untruthful evidence she gave before us."

THE FIRST STEP TOWARDS UNION

Rev. J. H. A. Anderson Resigns in Order to Clear Way for the Amalgamation of St. John and St. Stephen's Presbyterian Churches

At the evening service in St. John's Presbyterian church yesterday, Rev. J. H. A. Anderson announced that he had placed his resignation of the pastoral charge of the congregation in the hands of the clerk of the presbytery of St. John in order to pave the way for amalgamation of this congregation with St. Stephen's church, which has been vacant since the removal of Rev. Gordon Dickie to St. John's, Nfld., in November last.

In announcing his resignation Mr. Anderson spoke in part as follows:

"The presbytery's committee on church consolidation and extension has authorized the amalgamation of St. John and St. Stephen's churches. The result is a decisive vote being given in both congregations in favor of amalgamation, and warrants further steps, which will be taken.

"I may say that, personally, I am highly gratified with the practical unanimity which has been expressed in favor of such amalgamation. It is an important step towards a better readjustment of the Presbyterian church work in the city of St. John which I have long thought desirable. In view of the decisive vote thus given, and in order to pave the way for the harmonious and effective fulfillment of the expressed desire of the people, I have tendered to the presbytery of St. John my resignation of the pastoral charge of this congregation with the request that the presbytery give effect to the same at the earliest convenient date.

HOLLAND MENACED BY IMMINENT FAMINE

Existing Grain Stocks Sufficient for Only a Few Weeks

Amsterdam, Feb. 8.-Anxiety concerning Holland's future is more keen than at any time since the outbreak of war. Several factors contribute to the gravity of the situation. In the first place, Holland is now facing starvation. She can never produce more food than would suffice for her population for four and a half months in the year and the existing stocks of grain are only sufficient for a few weeks.

Until yesterday hopes were entertained that their warships would not attack from America by the channel between the two blockade zones. The Germans made a great show of making concessions to Holland, but it is pointed out here that the latest German assurances have much to be desired. Germans say that relative certainty will exist from Feb. 9 and absolute certainty from Feb. 10 and absolute certainty from Feb. 11. The Dutch are uneasy regarding the maintenance of their national honor they will carry the policy of conciliation to the furthest possible limits.

At the same time it is impossible to ignore the elements of danger which exist. The Dutch are uneasy regarding the maintenance of their national honor they will carry the policy of conciliation to the furthest possible limits.

Meanwhile it is hoped that the Germans will not proceed to the extreme lengths intimated in their note. In the best informed Dutch commercial circles, which have many relations with Germany and probably are capable of judging the situation as well as any one, the German menace is considered three-quarters bluff and one-quarter danger. It is further thought that the new policy is dictated by imperious demands of domestic politics.

In this connection it is worth noting that evidently the best intellects in Germany regard the whole step as a gigantic bluff, because in that case the German objection to Dutch trading with British ports would presumably apply to American ports as well.

The New Austrian Emperor The new Austrian Emperor has always been an unconventional sort of

The Gospel of Clothes Evening dress has been banned in the state-subsidized theatres of Paris (says the Chronicle). The distant pre-war days, when we could afford to be pleasantly remote from thoughts of the majority and the common fate, we used to make it a rule that no man should be admitted to this or that restaurant theatre unless he came in evening dress, and we flattered ourselves that we were conforming therein to the Parisian standard. Now the Parisian fashion is to go anywhere in the dress in which you have done your work for the day. It is a happier because a less artificial fashion, and it serves the not unimportant purpose of reducing appearances in these stern days to realities. The time which can be spared for relaxation from one's contribution to the common cause is so brief a minimum that there is no leisure to be stolen for personal adornment.

Foster, who recently accepted the office of leader of the opposition, was born near St. Martins, and the circumstances were auspicious. A. F. Bentley, the other candidate, belongs to St. Martins also, and it was evident that the people of that section will give both their hearty support.

The government of the province is not a party endeavor to link us up with the government previous to 1916. THE GOVERNMENT OF TODAY IS ON TRIAL, GENTLEMEN, NOT THAT BEFORE 1916. But they single out for attack men who happened to be in the government of that day; first, Hon. C. W. Robinson, a man highly honored and respected throughout the province, and if it becomes necessary for me to form a government, and I honestly believe I shall be called upon to form a government, I could not do better than Hon. Mr. Robinson for a place in the cabinet. Another who is criticized is Hon. P. J. Sweeney. I do not have to speak in his defence. He was a representative of the Irish-Catholic people and was considered most satisfactory by them, and is esteemed highly. No royal commissions, gentlemen, ever held trial over these gentlemen, but yet our opponents seem content to cast slurs on them. Another one singled out for attack is our organizer, E. S. Carter. He, too, is quite capable of looking after his own business, but he is doing his duty as an organizer, and working hard for better government. They seem to charge the duty of an opposition party—criticize. If they have made it necessary to report their activities in an odious light, it is no reason why Mr. Carter should be assailed. If that were the case, I tell you frankly that I was going to do what was being done to expose the crown land deal. We brought those charges at what we considered an opportune time and I am prepared to accept my responsibility for the consequences.

18 KING STREET

Baxter should have explained the increased expenditures. We know the money has been spent. We should like to know why we have not received proportionately increased value. No man will challenge the statement that the roads today are not as they were in 1912? Mr. Foster quoted the amount that had been forwarded to men in the parish of St. Martins during the year to do road work. Continuing, he said: "Under our policy the superior selected by the people would present his account in detail at an annual meeting, showing how the money was spent, and to whom it was paid and vouchers for the amounts. We believe that by the use of this method we will obtain better roads. The aim is not merely to get more votes as at present. If this policy commends itself to you signify your approval at the polling booth on February 26; "We propose to have engineers over these supervisors, each to have a reasonable area with the authority both to supervise and to issue instructions on road-building. The aim of obtaining roads of uniform width, etc. We also propose working in as far as possible with the New Brunswick Automobile Association. A convert to our policy to take the roads out of politics is W. B. Tennant, a prop of the Conservative party, formerly secretary of the highway board for the parish of Simonds he knows whereof he speaks. He supported a resolution to that effect when it came up at the meeting of the board. "I notice Hon. Mr. Baxter says that he has engineers surveying the crown lands. It's too late to do the surveying now, no business man would sell his stock of goods and value it afterward. We won't count them for twenty years. "The Workmen's Compensation Act," Mr. Foster continued, "is not all satisfactory to the working man. The government, I see, has appointed a commission to report on the matter. But the report will not be in before the election, just another scheme being used to hoodwink the workmen over the election. We propose to take the matter up immediately. They have satisfactory acts in Nova Scotia and in British Columbia and we have merely to adapt some one of them to suit our own conditions. "I would like now to say something to you," the speaker said in concluding, on the temperance question. You will notice the claim in Standard editorials and the premier himself makes the statement that if you vote for the Opposition the prohibition movement will be retarded. "At our convention held in January over a year ago one of the planks in our platform was a referendum bill to be submitted to a referendum and put in force within twelve months after the taking of the vote, and which I believe was in line with the sentiment prevailing at that time. The government followed without passing a prohibitory act without a referendum as the temperance ward in the meantime expanded. "But, gentlemen, we do not propose to defer the enforcement of prohibition. The temperance question is not an issue in politics. When the attorney-general brought it up in the house he had to drag it through politics, he gave it its first baptism and I do not propose to do so again. It is too big, too broad a question for that. Temperance today affects every man in some way. Gentlemen, there is a prohibitory law now on the statute books. IF WE ARE PLACED IN CHARGE OF THE ADMINISTRATION OF AFFAIRS IT WILL BE OUR BOUNDEN DUTY TO ENFORCE AND TO FULFIL THE TERMS OF THE ACT. And if it is necessary we will amend it to close up loopholes which may have been left." (Applause.)

In conclusion, Mr. Foster said he hoped that the electors would look into the issues and give support to the party opposing the present methods of handling affairs. He paid a tribute to his fellow candidate, A. F. Bentley, and hoped that he would have the honor of going to Fredericton with that gentleman to represent St. John county. Mr. Foster was followed by W. M. Ryan and H. S. Keith of St. John, who dealt with the issues of the campaign.

A. F. Bentley. When A. F. Bentley started to speak he was greeted with prolonged cheers. He referred in a general way to the issues of the day. He thanked the electors for their previous support. "I accepted the nomination," he said, "with some sacrifice, but I will make a strong canvass. This is not a party contest, but a fight between right and wrong. Will the people stand for the things of the present administration? It is for you to say to them: 'You are disgraced.' " (Applause.) "They may say to you: 'Now we are clean; we have got rid of Fleming.' But Fleming is no more politically dead today than is Hon. Mr. Murray.

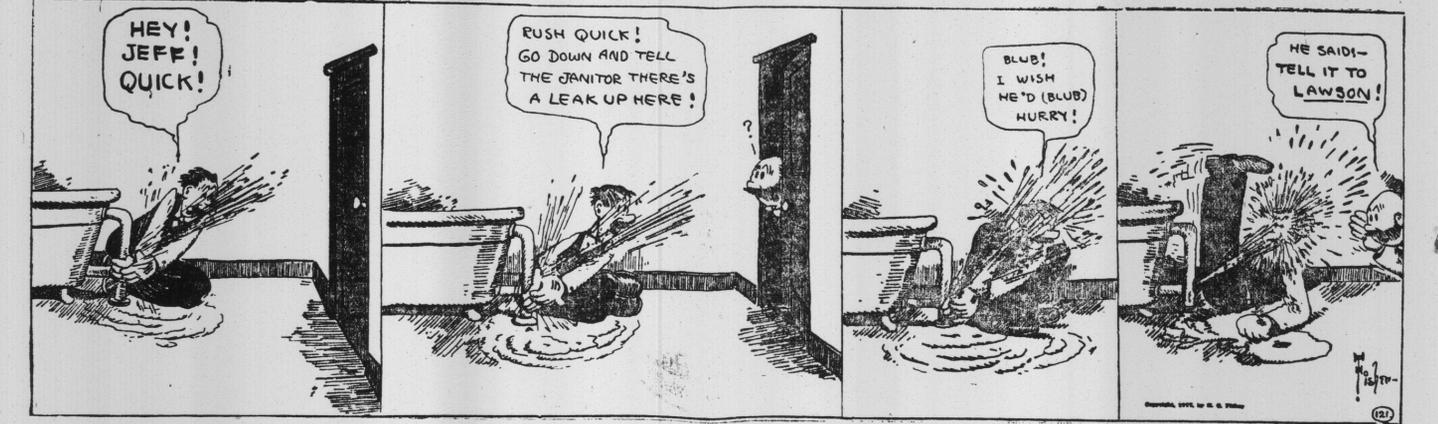

Councillor S. J. Shanklin, Shanklin Settlement; James McFarland, Fairfield. HIS WIFE AND CHILD MURDERED BY GERMAN New York, Feb. 8.—It took the silent grief of John M. Little, an Englishman, to bring keenly home to the officials and clerks of the Anchor Line offices today the loss of the California. Modestly, almost diffidently, Mr. Little, a spare, slight man, asked for news of his wife and four children, steerage passengers. The latest cable, he was told, reported his wife and one child missing—the others had been saved. "But the wife and baby," he pleaded, "can't you give me a word of hope?" No one dared reply. Tears welled from Mr. Little's eyes and rolled unstrainedly down his cheeks. The bustling activity stopped and heads were bowed. Straightening himself with an effort, Little squared his shoulders and walked away, the tears streaming down his face. Not a word was said as the work of the busy office was resumed. To keep a kettle clean always empty out the water before boiling it. The taste of tea is caused by the water that has been boiled before.

Mr. Fleming was not big enough scapgoat to carry away the aim of the government party. Why did they whitewash him and give him the federal nomination? Was it not because he refused to draw alone and had to be given this inducement to save the necks of the others? "Let us get rid of partisanship," Mr. Bentley continued. "Will we allow money and graft to influence our ballot on election day? Ask yourselves this question: Which will give you the better administration? I am confident that to unprejudiced men the answer will be in our favor. (Applause.) Mr. Bentley criticized the government for bringing on the elections in February instead of waiting until June, when conditions would be more favorable for voting. Councillor Howard also spoke briefly. The Opposition organization of the parish was placed on a still stronger footing at a meeting following the speech-making. Councillor Howard is chairman of the organization. A. F. Bentley, vice-president, and W. B. Bentley, secretary. The following were selected to look after the party's interests: Robert Dunlop, Little Beach; Warren Seelye, Salmon River; Thomas Hoey, Bay View; George W. Brown, Fair View; W. B. Bentley, St. Martins;

N. H. A. The race for the championship of the second half of the schedule or what remains of it, will be made by the Ottawa, Wanderers, Canadiens and Quebec. The Toronto club was suspended for the season for transgression of the rules.

Billiards Hindle Defeats Gray. (Halifax Recorder). George Gray, an Australian champion, gave another fine exhibition at McCarney's billiard hall last evening. Gray again gave W. E. Hindle 875 in 730 points, but was unable to overcome the handicap, the final score being Hindle 750, Gray 708. Gray made many brilliant plays, and Hindle two made sensational shots, both players gaining much applause from the deeply interested spectators.

Baseball Doyle Will Captain Cubs. Chicago, Feb. 9.—Leroy Doyle, second sacker, will be field captain for the Cubs this season. Manager Mitchell has notified Doyle.

Cubs to Report on Feb. 13. Members of the Chicago Cubs were instructed on Friday to report at Chicago on Feb. 13, two days before they are to depart for the training camp at Pasadena, Cal. This morning President Weegham said, will give him an opportunity to learn how many players, if any, are to obey the orders of the Baseball Players' Fraternity. Pitcher James Vaughan has joined the hold-outs. It was learned, but President Weegham said he expects to come to terms with him.

Diamond Sparkies. David L. Fultz, president of the Baseball Players' Fraternity, has received a letter from Max Flack, outfielder of the Chicago Cubs, denying that he had signed a new contract with the Chicago club. Phil Schenck, ground-keeper of the Yankees, has left for Macon, Ga., where he will get the ball field into condition for the invasion of Bill Donovan's men. Heinie Wagner, of the Bronx, former shortstop, signed with the Boston Red Sox recently. Wagner will act as coach for the team as well as first lieutenant to Jack Barry, the new manager.

A wave of economy has struck the officials of the Washington club, and the first step to reduce expense will be the releasing of Jack Ryan, veteran scout of the team. Clark Griffith declared the other day in Washington that he would not part with Eddie Foster for Derrell Pratt, second baseman of the St. Louis Browns. "Foster isn't on the market," says Griffith, "and, furthermore, he is the last player on my team with whom I would part."

Word came from Pittsburg on Thursday that Jimmy Callahan, manager of the Pirates, has two deals pending which he hopes to close within a day or two. The Cincinnati Reds have eighteen players under contract for 1917. Heinie Grob, second baseman of the Reds, has informed Garry Herrmann that unless he receives a big increase in his salary he will quit the game for good.

Both started badly, but Gray then ran sixty-five and Hindle also improved, making a run of forty-one. Gray followed with runs of 107, 92, 89 and Hindle 97, 85, and others, and the game was an interesting stage with the score 391 to 301 in favor of Hindle. But the balls broke badly thereafter, neither making any large runs, and Hindle won by forty-one points. Gray shook hands with him, congratulating him on his win. It was the second time he had lost on his Canadian tour, the other occasion being at Vancouver. Gray says Hindle is above the average men he has met on his tour. Hindle made a run of 169 in a game yesterday.

Gray afterwards gave a fine exhibition of masse and other fancy shots, and he invited any person present to name shots, and though many were difficult, he succeeded in making them all.

Janet-general of military district No. 6, arrived on the steamer. Colonel Thompson was at the front for some time and was with the Canadian forces. He said he could not find words adequate to describe them. "They are wonderful fighters and rush into the fray with a smile, an oath or a joke," he said. While at the front he visited Verdun and saw the defences there. He also took a long trip in an aeroplane.

Four St. John men, returning from the front, were on the steamer. They are: Private H. Crump, 14 St. Patrick; Sergeant H. W. Prince, 58 Simonds street; Private J. Dougherty, and Corporal James Spencer, Champlain street.

INDIANAPOLIS BECOMES LABORATORY FOR COUNTRY ON VOCATIONAL EDUCATION Interest in the State-wide Survey, Near Completion, Widespread—National Meeting to Discuss the Problems

Manufacturers, educators, labor leaders and noted economists from all parts of the Union will meet in Indianapolis on February 21-24, 1917, to attend the Tenth Annual Convention of the National Society for the Promotion of Industrial Education. The chief interest of the gathering centers around the state-wide survey which Indiana has been carrying on for the past year, and which will go down in history as the first state to make a complete vocational survey for the purpose of increasing the productive efficiency of its commonwealth. In city, town and rural district, unusual questions have been asked about the training that workers can get on their jobs; about the extent and uses of apprenticeship; about part-time courses and evening schools; to what extent the industries may give special training which they do not now provide and to what extent the schools can be a factor in providing that training. It is already apparent that the answering of these questions will show Indiana the kind of vocational education which the state will need and how it best can be given. Out of the findings Indiana expects to develop a programme of vocational training that will take several years to work out completely, but that will put Indiana in the forefront of American industry.

The national value of this survey will be found in the suggestions which it will offer to other states, cities and towns interested in providing practical education for their people. In addition to the discussions on the survey, prominent leaders in manufacturing, labor and education circles will discuss questions of deep interest to all who believe that an important part of national preparedness is that which springs with the promotion of the industrial efficiency of its workers.

The annual banquet this year, which will take place on Thursday night will emphasize more particularly the progress that has been made in vocational education for the past ten years and a look toward the future. The Friday morning meeting of the National Society for the Promotion of Industrial Education will discuss "The Permanency of Women in Industry." Friday afternoon, February 23rd, will be devoted to a number of section meetings where administrative and technical problems which are live issues in the vocational education movement will be taken up.

With the passage of the vocational education bill providing federal grants to the states for stimulating vocational education, many states will be faced with the problem as to what legislative action a state has to take in order to secure the benefit of the national grants which are to be provided. John A. Lapp, director Bureau of Legislative Information, who has given much time and study to this question, will speak on Saturday morning, February 24th.

In connection with the annual convention of the National Society for the Promotion of Industrial Education, and under the auspices of the Manufacturers' Division of the Indianapolis Chamber of Commerce, a conference of unusual interest to mechanics and manufacturers as well as educators will be held on the afternoon and evening of Wednesday, February 21st, 1917, just preceding the convention of the National Society. Word has already been received that some of the most prominent business men, scientific management experts, and educators will be present to take part in the conference.

TWELVE HUNDRED MEN IN FORCES TO BE IN ST. JOHN SOON

Definite information was received in the city this morning to the effect that soon more than 1,200 troops from western Canada will arrive in the city. The units are the 22nd battalion, Toronto, under the command of Lieut.-Col. Earchman, and the 23rd battalion, Edmonton, under the command of Lieut.-Col. Lettbridge.

The 22nd is recruited in Sudbury, Ont., and is a construction battalion. It was later removed to Toronto, where it has been quartered for the last six months. Its total strength is about 900 men, including twenty-eight officers.

The unit while here will be quartered in the exhibition building, in the old quarters of the 11th battalion. It is understood that this unit will be in the city but a short time.

The coming of this unit will prove of special interest to the St. John hockey fans, as their hockey team has been playing in the N. H. A. with considerable success. Their team is mostly composed of officers and includes Progers, Oatman, Aboour, Driscoll, Meehan and the McNamara brothers. It is possible that this famous team will be seen on local ice.

The 23rd battalion was recruited in the northwest, and has been quartered in Edmonton for the last ten or twelve months. The total strength is only 800. During their stay in the city they will be quartered on Partridge island. Three brothers of the deceased also enlisted.

OFFICERS INSTALLED.

The installation of officers of the Ladies Council St. Anne de Garcheville, No. 19, F. of La Societe L'Assomption, in this city took place at two o'clock yesterday afternoon in their hall, Union street. The installing officer was Rev. Benoit of Moncton, and he was assisted by Jean E. Leger, master of ceremonies. After the ceremony good addresses were given by the president, Mrs. Jean E. Leger, also by Mr. Benoit, Mr. Leger and all the officers. The Ladies' Council of this society begins the year with bright prospects, as ten new members were initiated at yesterday's meeting, and ten more are to be initiated at the next meeting. The officers are:

President, Mrs. Jean E. Leger; first vice-president, Mlle. Madeleine Cormier; second vice-president, Mme. Marguerite Ross; secretary, Mlle. Beatrice Saulnier; assistant secretary, Mlle. Judith Boudier; treasurer, Mme. Helen Boute; first commissioner, Mme. Suzanne Noel; second commissioner, Mlle. Marguerite Monse; counsellors, Mme. Emile Mallette, Mme. Alma Noel, Mme. Marie C. Cadie; chancellor, Mlle. Celeste M. Babin.

FORMERLY OF ST. JOHN

Private Arthur Wilkins, officially reported today as killed in action, was a son of William Wilkins, a farmer who lives in Salisbury road, near Moncton. The family came from England to Canada and moved to Moncton from St. John about four years ago. Three brothers of the deceased also enlisted.

AXE APPLIED BY COUNCIL TO THE WATCHING STAFF

A Reduction From 51 to 30 Men is Order

MORE NOT NEEDED IS EXCUSE

Commissioner Russell Charges Others With Inconsistency and Would Like to See Enforced Economy in Other Departments

The decision to reduce the number of wharf watchmen from fifty-one, the present number, to thirty, of whom eighteen would be assigned to the west side and twelve to the east side, was arrived at by the common council in committee this morning. Commissioner Russell strongly objected to a reduction below thirty-six, which he considered was the least he could get along with and he had the support of Commissioner Wigmore. The motion was carried by the mayor's casting vote. Commissioner Russell then charged the council with inconsistency and suggested that the other departments should be called upon also to sacrifice efficiency for economy.

Commissioner Fisher presented an outline for restrictions against the enforcement of business in residential districts.

Applications for the use of the exhibition building for Y. M. C. A. and other military purposes were referred to Commissioner McLellan.

The council decided to hold their Monday and Thursday committee meetings at 4.30 p.m. instead of 11.30 a.m. until May 1.

Mayor Hayes presided and all the members of the council were present. Commissioner Fisher gave notice of motion to the effect that "legislation be sought authorizing the council to enact a by-law giving the council control of the issuing of permits for construction of business premises; also for enlargement and addition in districts to be called residential, where seventy-five per cent. of the occupation of land, in any street or block of not less than eight hundred feet in length, taking both sides of the street into account, is purely residential."

This was offered in place of his previous recommendations for business restrictions and was received with general approval. Commissioner Fisher will discuss the matter with the city solicitor before moving the adoption of his resolution.

The Watchmen

The matter of the west side watching staff was then brought up for discussion. Commissioner Russell said he was willing to recommend a reduction of fifteen men on March 15. There are now fifty-one men on the pay roll and this would leave thirty-six. Several other men were thinking of leaving also. He would make other reductions as he considered it advisable.

Attention was drawn to the use of watchmen on the old C. P. R. wharf, which is given of charge to the government and on several east side wharves where the other commissioners thought the expense was too great for the revenue received.

The mayor suggested one man to each of the six west side wharves, in eight hour shifts, would take only eighteen men and Commissioner McLellan thought twice would be ample for the east side. The latter also inquired as to the 62nd home guard corps.

Commissioner Wigmore thought that the militia should guard the wharves. He suggested that the harbor commissioner should press the matter upon the attention of the O.C. of this district and even go to Ottawa if necessary.

The mayor said he did not think the council should urge the necessity of guarding by militia or any one else. The city should notify the militia department and if Ottawa thought the guards were necessary, they could be provided by the dominion authorities.

Commissioner Wigmore moved that the matter be referred to the mayor and commissioner of harbors to interview the military authorities and learn whether the latter considered the guarding necessary and if so to undertake it. Commissioner Russell opposed the motion as ineffective.

Commissioner Fisher also opposed it on the ground that it would be an admission that the guards were necessary.

The mayor said that he and Commissioner Russell would interview General McLellan, without an resolution.

Commissioner McLellan moved that the number of watchmen be reduced to eighteen for the west side and twelve for the east side.

Commissioner Russell wanted to know if the dismissals were because the guards were unnecessary or because it was desirable to save the money.

The mayor said that it was because they were not needed; the saving would be important but secondary.

Commissioner Russell said that if the number was placed at thirty-six, it could be worked out without any hardship to anybody.

The mayor seconded the motion for the reduction of the staff to thirty.

It was explained that this did not affect the sweepers, who were dropped on May 1.

The motion was put and opposed by Commissioners Russell and Wigmore, the latter supporting a reduction to thirty-six. The motion was carried by the mayor's casting vote.

A Counter Attack

Commissioner Russell said that if economy on this scale was necessary he thought the other departments should economize also. He could show where $70,000 could be saved. For instance the water department could cut off $30,000, the street department $20,000, and the police force could be cut down. Some of the bigger salaries could be cut down. He moved that the entire 1917 estimates be re-opened and reconsidered. If the city would cut down the other services he would be willing to dismiss a few more watchmen.

The mayor remarked that he had opposed the expenditures which Commissioner Russell had mentioned and he would be glad to discuss the matter again but, at the time, he had no support.

The matter was dropped on Commissioner Russell's explanation that he

BLINN-BOUDREAU

A very pretty wedding took place at eight o'clock this morning in St. John the Baptist church, when Father Goulet, chaplain of the 16th Battalion, united in marriage Miss Josephine Boudreau of St. John, and Private Charles Blinn, of the 16th. The bride was wearing a pretty blue broadcloth suit with white fox furs and white hat to match. She was attended by Mrs. J. Leclair and the groom was supported by James Leclair. After the ceremony the party drove to Mrs. Leclair's, where a dainty breakfast was served. Numerous presents received attest to the popularity of the bride and groom.

FOR ENFORCEMENT OF THE PROHIBITORY ACT

Evangelical Alliance Recommends Organization of League

Evangelistic Campaign in All City Churches Planned - Ministers Feel That Such is Needed at Present

An adjourned meeting of the Evangelical Alliance was held in the school room of St. Andrew's church this morning, with Rev. Neil J. McLaughlin presiding. The object was to hear the report of a committee concerning the enforcement of the prohibitory act. The recommendations of the committee were given as follows:

First, that on February 18, as far as possible, in all the churches of the city a sermon be preached on the new prohibitory act. Second, that an organization be effected looking to the enforcement of this act. Third, that the name of this organization be known as the "Prohibition Enforcement League."

Fourth, that a meeting be called for the organization of such a league.

Fifth, that this meeting be called on February 25, Sunday evening, at 8.30 o'clock in the Imperial Theatre.

Sixth, that one or two speakers be secured for the occasion; and Seventh, that a male chorus be secured.

This report was received and a committee, consisting of Revs. N. J. McLaughlin, D. Hatchinson, J. Hardwick, J. Charles B. Appel, W. H. Sampson, Hon. R. J. Ritchie, A. M. Belding and T. H. Honourable, was appointed.

Rev. W. H. Barralough spoke of a simultaneous evangelistic campaign in all the churches of the city beginning the last week of March and ending in the first week of April. A committee of five was appointed to make the necessary arrangements. Those on the committee are: Rev. Messrs. McLaughlin, Hatchinson, McKeigan, Appel and Barralough.

All those at the meeting expressed themselves as heartily in accord with the proposed movement. The general opinion was that a strong evangelistic movement was needed at the present time and also a community influence to make people live better.

MAY HAVE EFFECT OF INTERFERING WITH GUNNING OF "THE AMERICAN BOAT"

Boston, Feb. 12—A dispute among members of the crews of the ships of the company, Steamship Corporation, threatened last night to interfere with the company's passenger and freight service between New York, Boston, Portland, Maine, Halifax, N. S., and St. John, N. B.

The number of men involved was estimated between 700 and 1,000. Robert McDonald, international delegate of the marine firemen, sailors and water trawlers' union, contended that the management looked to 1,000 men because of their refusal to join a "welfare plan."

According to President George H. Wiley, of the Marine Engineers' Union, the differences are due to a jurisdictional fight between rival unions. Denying that any attempt had been made to enforce membership in a welfare organization, General Manager Frederick Jones, of the company, said last night that "whatever trouble existed among the men are probably due to disagreements among themselves."

merely wished to show the inconsistency of the council.

Commissioner McLellan moved that the committee meetings be held at 4.30 p.m. instead of the morning, until May 1.

Commissioner Russell moved in amendment that the hour be changed to three o'clock, but withdrew his amendment.

The motion was carried.

Reporting on the claim of J. A. Barry on behalf of Miss Mary McDonald for alleged false arrest, Commissioner McLellan said that he had found that the city was not liable, but he promised further inquiries and every justifiable effort to clear the young woman's reputation.

Commissioner McLellan presented a communication from H. H. Thus, military Y. M. C. A. secretary, asking quarters in the exhibition building in place of the premises taken over by the hospital. He also had requests from the military authorities for portions of the building for a warehouse and for a lecture room and also from T. McAvity & Sons for permission to place two machines in the machinery hall.

The mayor suggested that it would be proper to refer the Y. M. C. A. request to the commissioner of safety with a view to act after consultation with the military and insurance authorities.

Commissioner McLellan said he would report back before taking action.
