KING PREPARED

Premier and Opposition Leader to Fire Opening Guns in Ottawa

OTTAWA, July 12.—The Mail and Empire publishes the following from its Ottawa staff reporter: "It is believed here that His Excellency Lord Bynng will not return to England in August, as was first intended. Owing to unsettled political conditions, it is very probable he will remain until after the general election, when a government endorsed by the electorate will be in force. He will be able to then leave to his successor, Lord Willingdon, a stable administration."

OTTAWA, July 12.—Politicians came back to Ottawa today to begin another week of quiet activity in preparation for the date of polling is still to be announced, so is the actual personnel of the cabinet. It is not likely that Premier Meighen will make this public today. Tuesday, possibly Wednesday, will reveal the plans of both party leaders.

Right Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King has practically completed his itinerary and is ready, after a rest in his country home, for a coast to coast speaking tour.

He has not decided the exact date on which he will embark on this tour but some definite announcement is expected soon. It is expected that Premier Meighen and ex-Premier King intend to make their opening speeches in Ottawa.

MEIGHEN'S SON TO STUDY AT LAVAL

Becomes Member of Prominent Quebec Law Firm—To Learn French

QUEBEC, July 12.—Theodore Meighen, eldest son of Premier Meighen will not only study law at Laval University, but today was announced that he had become a member of the firm of Fitzpatrick, Dupre, Gamon & Pigeon, barristers.

In becoming a member of that firm, the son of Canada's Prime Minister associates himself with Sir Charles Fitzpatrick, also with the son of the late Arthur Fitzpatrick, K. C., crown prosecutor, and with the son of the late Hon. S. N. Parent, Mr. Charles Parent. He will also be a partner of Mr. Maurice Dupre, K. C., a prominent Conservative of this district, candidate in the last general elections in Kamouraska, and at present president of the Canadian Club, and Mr. O'Neill Gagnon, K. C., also a leading Conservative in the Ancient Capital.

That young Meighen will have to learn French to study law is evidenced by the fact that all courses at Laval University are given in that language.

EMPIRE PARLEY POSTPONEMENT IS NEVITABLE

Canadian Political Situation Said to be the Cause

BRUCE'S PLANS

South African Premier to Sail Sept. 3, Provided No Cancellation

LONDON, July 12.—It is regarded inevitable that the Imperial Conference, scheduled for October next will be postponed in view of the apparent impossibility of the Canadian political situation being cleared up in time for Canada's participation.

Canadians in England, to whom the government frequently looks for advice in matters of Dominion concern, doubt whether it would be possible for the Prime Minister to leave Canada after the election, even if that contest were over in sufficient time to permit him to sail.

Prime Minister Bruce of Australia, planning to leave for England August 31, and Mr. Hertzog, Prime Minister of South Africa, is booked to sail September 3 provided no news of cancellation of the conference is received beforehand.

BRITISH CONJECTURE

British officials are inclined to believe that if the election is over as early as September 14, and if the successful party gets a good majority, it will be possible for the Prime Minister to attend.

While it is officially emphasized that Lord Clarendon's visit will be devoted solely to overseas settlement work it is considered likely that the under-secretary of state will confer with the Governor General and with Canadian political leaders on this point when he reaches Canada this week and that the conference will be delayed until Whitehall has had time to hear from him.

SPANISH DICTATOR IN PARIS TONIGHT

Communists Reported to be Fomenting Trouble—Precautions Taken

PARIS, July 12.—The French government and the City of Paris will extend a warm welcome to the Spanish Premier, General Primo De Rivera, when he arrives here tonight. Spain's dictator comes to attend the military review of the principal festival of Bastille Day, July 14, and will occupy a place by the side of President Doumergue and Moulai Youssef, Sultan of Morocco.

There is danger in the visit of Primo De Rivera. The Communists have been preparing to take advantage of his presence to foment trouble, but police precautions have been extensive, and the Spanish visitor will be safeguarded in every way possible.

General Da Costa To Be Expatriated

LISBON, July 12.—General Gomes Da Costa, who held the role of dictator for a short time, but was ousted on July 9 by the new government set up by General Carmona, was sent out of Portugal yesterday aboard a warship. He is bound for the Azores, where he will be set at liberty. General Da Costa refused to transfer his Presidential powers to the Carmona government, and the government's first intention was to imprison him in a fortress outside of Lisbon. This intention, however, was abandoned for the easier way of expatriation.

Police Called Out For Religious Riots

CALCUTTA, India, July 12.—Armed police today were patrolling Palpara, six miles from Calcutta, as a result of fighting between Hindus and Muslims in which 12 persons were seriously injured Sunday. None are reported to have died in the rioting which apparently was most serious of the incidents which occurred in various parts of Bengal during the celebration of the feast of Rathlatri.

Cloudbursts Cause Damage in Germany

BERLIN, July 12.—Renewed cloudbursts in central and southern parts of Germany have caused further great washouts and much damage to property. At Lichtenfels, Bavaria, a bridge across the River Main collapsed only a minute or two after a lapped passenger train had safely traversed it. The bridge was literally swept away by the surging flood, which had been battering its foundations. Steady improvement in the weather is reported in northeastern Germany.

Spain And Portugal Plan Combined World Flight

MADRID, July 12.—Spain and Portugal are planning another round the world air flight early in 1927. Spanish and Portuguese aviators intend to start together from Lisbon and cross the Atlantic by way of Las Palmas, Bissau, Fernando de Noronha and Pernambuco. They then will fly to Buenos Aires, the Falkland Islands, Cape Occident, stopping successively in Mary Tierra Island off Chile, Easter Island, Pitcairn Island, Tahiti, Apia, Noumea, Townsville, Australia, Dill and Surabaya in Java, to reach the Asian continent at Singapore. Continuing they will follow the strait of Malacca to Kota Radji in the north-east part of Sumatra, thence across the Bay of Bengal to Colombo along the Malabar coast to Villanova de Goa, Karachi, Bushire, Alexandria, Syracuse and back to the Iberian Peninsula where the flight was initiated.

FRANCO IN PARTY

It is likely that the Spanish aviators will be the now famous commandant Franco who flew from Palos de Moguer to Buenos Aires, his mechanic, Pablo Rada, and Captains Loriga and Gallera who commanded the expedition. The Portuguese aviators who are preparing for the world flight are Commandant Sarmiento de Beires, who flew from Lisbon to Mexico, Lieutenant Jose Cabral, commander of the maritime aviation, and Captain Jorge de Castilho, another Portuguese ace.

Protest Over Dismissal Of Colored Crews

OTTAWA, Ont., July 12.—The intimation of the management of the Canadian National Railways that colored crews on the International Limited operating between Montreal and Chicago are to be replaced with white crews has aroused vigorous protests from other railway workers. A delegation headed by A. R. Mosher, president of the Canadian Brotherhood of Railroad Employees, will seek an interview with Sir Henry Thornton upon the return of the Canadian National Railway president from his holidays, asking that this proposed action be rescinded.

TANGIER PACT UP FOR CONSIDERATION

Italians Agree With British on Grant of Certain Concessions

LONDON, July 12.—In consequence of an exchange of views between the British and Italian governments, it is stated in authoritative quarters, the Italian government has agreed to adhere to the Tangier Pact, provided it is granted certain concessions with regard to the local administration.

Before the pact can be definitely settled, however, it is expected conversations through the usual diplomatic channels will take place among the British, French and Spanish governments.

Tangier is governed as a neutral zone by representatives of Great Britain, France and Spain under an agreement signed December 18, 1925. The pact for fortifications of any sort within this zone came into force on December 1, 1924.

SPANISH DICTATOR IN PARIS TONIGHT

Communists Reported to be Fomenting Trouble—Precautions Taken

PARIS, July 12.—The French government and the City of Paris will extend a warm welcome to the Spanish Premier, General Primo De Rivera, when he arrives here tonight. Spain's dictator comes to attend the military review of the principal festival of Bastille Day, July 14, and will occupy a place by the side of President Doumergue and Moulai Youssef, Sultan of Morocco.

ELKS GATHER IN ANNUAL SESSION

More Than 250,000 Members Convene at Chicago—Ballroom Race

CHICAGO, July 12.—More than 250,000 Elks from all sections of the United States and from Alaska, Hawaii, Philippine Islands, and the Canal Zone are in Chicago today for the opening of the annual B. P. O. E. convention which will last through July 18.

The convalesce rivals in splendor and attendance all previous conventions, Grand Lodge officials said. A balloon race, mammoth parade with 100 bands, Charleston contest for delegates, and the Beauty Derby in which a dashing array of pulchritude has been collected, are novel entertainments on the program.

The balloon race, which will be under the direction of the International Aeronautics Association, offers a $1,000 purse for the pilot covering the greatest distance. If weather conditions are satisfactory the race will start tomorrow.

FROM CANAL ZONE

Twenty members of the Balboa Lodge made the long journey from the Canal zone and arrived in Chicago Saturday.

The convention will open this afternoon with a public meeting at the Auditorium when Acting Mayor O'Brien and Governor Len Small address the delegates. A golf tournament and dinner for Grand Lodge officers will follow.

HERE is the first full view of the U. S. submarine S-51, obtained as the water was drained out of her dry dock and navy workmen prepared to enter and bring out the bodies of the crew who perished at their posts. Notice the crumpled prow, the great gash in her side where the City of Rome struck. Two of the pontoons that floated her to the Brooklyn Navy Yard can be seen, and the half-masted flag. The ship cost $2,500,000, and can be reconditioned, officials estimate, for $750,000.

French Veterans In Appeal Direct To American People For Modification Of Debt

PARIS, July 12.—Twelve thousand French war veterans, many of them wounded, have gone out on the heads of diplomats and governments to appeal to the American people for modification of the Franco-American war debt agreement. The Paris police today had in their possession a stone plaque taken from the foot of the equestrian statue of George Washington in the Place D'lena and on which was inscribed:

"Over the head of diplomacy and far from political and financial combines the war veterans of France appeal straight to the people of the United States. After the deceptions of peace, the proposed debt settlement would consecrate the ruin of France and the loss of its independence."

"America will understand that the war veterans of France, who are honest, sincere and loyal, are asking in a friendly manner that the study of the question should be taken up once more."

The French veterans deposited the plaque and a wreath at the foot of the statue yesterday in the course of a parade that had been protested against by the American Ambassador and forbidden by the French government.

Car Thefts Increase In The Windy City

CHICAGO, June 12.—Chicago police officials predicted last night that the total number of cars stolen in Chicago this year will double the figure for 1925 and the present startling rate is maintained. The prediction was made when statistics revealed that ninety-six cars had been stolen during Saturday, Sunday night and this morning, and that the total for the fourth was 128. The total for 1926 is 7,600 as compared with 8,200 in all of 1925.

FLAMES STILL IGNITE SHELLS AT N. J. BASE

Nearly 900 Refugees of Nearby Towns Being Cared For

ARSENAL SAVED

Ten Dead, 33 Missing With Damage Placed at $100,000,000

DOVER, N. J., July 12.—Fire and barrages of exploding shells today were preventing complete toll of the warlike death and havoc wrought in peace time, when lightning caused the Navy's largest ammunition depot, that at Lake Denmark, N. J., 35 miles west of Jersey City, to blow up Saturday afternoon.

Ten persons are reported dead, 3 of whom have been recovered and identified; 33 persons are listed as missing. Damage of $100,000,000 is estimated by the army and navy officials on the scene. For a radius of 30 miles houses were shaken and automobiles overturned on the highways, and barrages of shell, smoke and fire checked the entrance of investigators.

The Lake Denmark depot was the navy's largest ammunition storage establishment, covering more than 800 acres.

STORAGE PLANT

During the war it was extended by an addition of 188 new buildings and other extensions of considerable magnitude. The depot was a storage place where ammunition and supplies were received and forwarded to other points, upon demand.

Flames, started when lightning struck a TNT magazine Saturday afternoon still smoldered among debris of the 200 buildings demolished within the reservation limits and danger from further bombardments was great as ammunition stores were reached made it highly dangerous to enter the area.

IDENTIFIED DEAD

The identified dead are: Lt. George W. Botts, Richmond, Va.; Harry C. Brown, pharmacist, Poughkeepsie, N. Y.; Mrs. Francis Peasey, Brooklyn, a visitor at the plant.

The seven other bodies were seen in the ruins by watchers from a nearby hillside.

The list of enlisted men and civilians missing has yet been made public by the officers.

Roads leading to the area are under close military guard, the soldiers so assigned have difficulty to keep out curiosity seekers. The 400 or 500 refugees from the villages of Mount Hope, Hibernia, Rockaway and Denmark stumbled from their homes as they began to fall about them following the first blasts were content to remain out of the danger zone.

MANY REFUGEES

T. R. Buchanan, Assistant National Director of Disaster Relief from Washington, estimated today that there are 900 refugees from the area surrounding the naval arsenal at Lake Denmark. Six hundred of these are being cared for at Morristown and 800 in and around Dover.

In many instances families were widely separated, but all have been reunited save two. Mr. Buchanan reported one man still unable to find his wife and three children, and another looking for his wife and two children.

The injured, according to Mr. Buchanan, are being cared for at Morristown and 800 in and around Dover.

FLAMES STILL
IGNITE SHELLS
AT N.S. BASE

Buchanan, number about 200, of which 80 are severely but not dangerously hurt.

GAME SUDDENLY.

So sudden came the initial blast that precautions for safety could not be taken. One story, told by a marine who made his escape by crawling along the ground after being hurled 40 feet into the air, was that following the first lighting the shells were so hot that they were being thrown about 400 feet in the air, he said, and the concussion crushed the brick and stone houses like egg shells.

There followed showers of 14 and 16-inch shells. They were stacked, officials said, on the base, thus causing them to shoot straight into the air. Had it not been thus, the surrounding towns would have been cut to pieces by direct shell fire.

EXPLOSIONS CONTINUE.

Fires still smouldered and as the flames, creeping slowly along, reached new supplies there would be a flash and a burst of flame and the shells were hurled skyward. A few seconds later they would rain down, starting additional fires.

A CHANGE IN THE WIND WAS THOUGHT TO HAVE SAVED THE HEADQUARTERS AREA, AS THE FLAMES WERE HEADING IN ITS DIRECTION SATURDAY NIGHT.

Brigadier-General Drum late yesterday permitted one newspaperman and a photographer to make a trip into the area with an inspection party. They soon had to abandon their automobile because of debris which blocked the road, and the shell fire made it necessary to crawl to vantage points on higher grounds surrounding the naval reservation.

HOUSES CRUSHED FLAT.

They proceeded to the arsenal powerhouse, which was demolished, and there could see houses crushed flat to the ground. A large wooden tank nearby had been split in two and the water had swept down the hillside. The roads are scattered with leaves, twigs and limbs of trees, timbers from wrecked buildings, scraps of metal and other debris. In some places it is almost impossible for a car to make its way through the wreckage and avoid the shell holes and pitfalls caused by the explosion.

Not one of the 500 army buildings is uninjured. Roofs are scattered across the lawns and driveways, broken glass litters the yards and areas; furniture and other household effects, shattered and crumpled, are lodged in all sorts of incongruous places.

C. N. R. DIRECTOR OF INVESTIGATION HERE

H. J. Page, Native of Saint John, Talks of Historic Birthplace

An interesting visitor to the city today was H. J. Page, Director of Investigation of the C. N. R. transcontinental system. In other words, Mr. Page is chief of the police and detective service of the government railway and immediately attached to the executive of Sir Henry Thornton, general manager. He told a Times-Star reporter that his visit to the Maritimes is always a pleasurable one as his duties are never very strenuous here because of the efficiency of the staff, and also because it was in this city of Saint John he was one of the officers in charge of this depot at the time. Afterwards the family moved to Upper Canada where as a youth Mr. Page entered government railway service. Speaking of the old military barracks in South End, Mr. Page gave the names of a number of men, some of them still living, who have become prominent figures in the life of Canada and the Empire, who were also born within the walls of the prosaic building in South End. Among these were Lord Dundas; Farquarson, designer of the Rideau Canal and a descendant of the Farquarson who designed the Martello towers, General Talbot and several others.

Mr. Page was driven about the city today by C. N. R. Officer Ryan, and with his wife and daughter spent a very pleasant day here.

Earl L. Crabb will be in charge of Mr. Larsen's interests during his absence. Mr. Crabb is an associate of the Keith-Albee office in New York city and a man who has had a wide experience as a showman.

Mr. Larsen was formerly a Saint John newspaper man.

Sign Suggested For Market Building
Many tourists and other visitors to the city frequently ask the police and others where the Saint John market building is. A Boston man in town recently had heard of the big market and when he was shown the building he expressed surprise that there was no sign on the building as well as an electric sign with the same lettering.

Strangers who see the sign for the first time are favorably impressed with it and consider that the city is fortunate in possessing such a commodious building. New Brunswick visitors to the city who have never seen the market building have difficulty in locating it and these, too, advocate the labeling of the structure.

TIRE PRICE SLASH IS EXPECTED HERE
Canadian Trade Likely to Follow Movement in United States
With a reduction of automobile tire prices in the United States amounting on the average to approximately 9 per cent, a corresponding drop in the price on this side of the line can confidently be expected, according to many tire men. The drop in the price of crude rubber, amounting to almost 75 per cent in the past six months, coupled with the general tendency for lower prices in the fall, is given as further reason for this belief.

The French Franc Is Going To Par

The French franc recently touched the lowest value in its history. An upward movement is immediately anticipated, and the franc is considerably higher. Its future major movements are hard to forecast than upward in nature. Parity of exchange with the gold standard (19,300 francs per 100,000 francs) is now in sight.

This situation of affairs of shrewdness and foresight one of the most attractive opportunities of the present generation. It is now possible to purchase French Government Bonds, direct obligations of the Republic to value, with assured France, at a fraction of their normal exchange value, and economic and financial position approaches its normal value. We very strongly recommend French Government Bonds of 1920. Incidentally, we advise the purchase of French Bonds in preference to the currency because from them an interest income of 4 to 5 per cent can be obtained. A 100,000 franc French Government Bond can today be bought for $3,700.00. With the franc at parity of exchange its value will be $10,000.00. This investment, therefore, possesses a potential net profit of $6,300.00. This is without considering the income from interest coupons which yielding about 4 per cent per annum now will return nearly 4 1/2 per cent on present investment when the franc is 100,000 francs. These interest coupons are exempt and can be cashed, at the prevailing exchange rate, at any bank in Canada and throughout French Government 6% Bonds.

While the number of investors who perceive this opportunity prevails only because of the Danish and Norwegian exchanges. These countries have been faced with critical economic conditions but the Danish krone is now worth 26.50 cents or $26,500.00 per 100,000 kroner whereas in 1921 it had fallen to 13 cents or $13,000.00 per 100,000 kroner. The value of 100,000 Danish kroner has increased by $13,500.00 in less than five years' time. The Norwegian franc has risen from 11.7 cents or $11,700.00 per 100,000 kroner, to 21.84 cents or $21,840.00 per 100,000 kroner, showing a NET RISE OF $10,140.00 PER 100,000 DURING THE SAME PERIOD.

The Spanish peseta from 11.75 cents or $11,750.00 per 100,000 pesetas a few years ago, has now recovered to 15.84 cents or $15,840.00 per 100,000 and the unit is expected to touch parity this year.

Leading South American exchanges show similar wide improvements. Within three years the Brazilian milreis has advanced from 8.55 cents or $8,550.00 per 100,000, to 18.77 cents or $18,770.00 per 100,000, recording a NET GAIN OF $10,220.00 PER 100,000 MILREIS. The Argentine peso was not long ago worth only 23.37 cents or $23,370.00 per 100,000 pesos but TO-DAY it is quoted at 40.43 cents or $40,430.00 per 100,000. The value of 100,000 Argentine pesos has INCREASED BY $17,060.00.

In the light of these accomplishments it is easy to see how France with a balanced budget, debt funding agreements, in short, definitely ADVANCED UPON THE ROAD TO FINANCIAL RECOVERY, can put the franc back to parity with the gold standard (19,300 francs) within the comparatively near future.

You are familiar with the drift that makes France individually, the richest country in Europe to-day. The investor, therefore, cannot help but have confidence in the ability and skill of her forty-odd millions of people, the honesty and integrity of whom has never been questioned.

Make your investment in French Government 6% Bonds TO-DAY. Not to-morrow when the franc may be higher. We have only to remind you that with the franc at PAR every 1,000-franc French Government 6% Bond will be worth $193.00; every 5,000-franc Bond will be worth $965.00; every 10,000-franc Bond will be worth $1,930.00; every 25,000-franc Bond will be worth $4,825.00; every 50,000-franc Bond will be worth $9,650.00; every 100,000-franc Bond will be worth $19,300.00.

VIEWS ON GERMANY.

Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, President of Columbia University, and of late much in the public eye, because of his denunciations of prohibition, has been visiting Germany, and makes some interesting comments on his study of conditions in that country.

The feeling is growing that pre-war Germany was too materialistic, too scientific, and too matter-of-fact; and that a religious trend is necessary for the country's welfare.

F. W. Peters, Retiring C. P. R. Superintendent In B. C. Is Second Oldest In Service

The following sketch of Francis W. Peters, whose retirement as superintendent of the C. P. R. at Vancouver was announced in The Times-Star on Saturday, was published in the Financial Post.

One realizes how young the billion-dollar Canadian Pacific Railway is when one learns that there are still many people working for the line who have been with it from the start.

Next in years of service is another official who enjoys a thousand intimate friendships and the stamp of old world will. He is Francis W. Peters, who rules with a smile and an iron will C. P. R. activities in British Columbia. The general superintendent of the C. P. R. in British Columbia is just a few months younger than that.

HE SAW THE PRESIDENT Mr. Peters was general agent at Port Huron for the Chicago and Grand Trunk Railway when his western fever reached its height. He asked headquarters one fine day to send someone to take over his job as he wished to resign. No attention was paid to this request nor to similar ones sent at various intervals, so without further ado the operator packed his trunk, balanced his books, handed over his cash to the local postmaster, locked the door of his office, wired headquarters what he had done and jumped the first train to see the president of the line.

The president of the road had been an ambitious young railroad man himself and without question accepted Mr. Peters' explanation and handed him a pass to Winnipeg.

It was 103 carloads of just such settlers' effects jamming up traffic and impeding construction operations at Brandon that gave Mr. Peters his opportunity to establish himself with Canadian Pacific officialdom. He was

The Wife Whose Faithless Husband Expects Her to Have the Family Quota of Faith—Can the Ashes of Love be Rekindled?—How Can the Farmer's Wife Appropriately Her Husband's Car?

DEAR MISS DIX—My husband complains bitterly because he says I have not the proper faith in him. How can I have faith in him when that faith has been jolted time and time again? How can I have faith in him when I see him philandering with other women and when I know that he spends hours in questionable places? Is it possible and human not to wonder what he is doing when he stays out night after night? Can I help being suspicious of the letters he gets from other women or what happens when he goes joyriding with them?

DOROTHY DIX

I am only a poor human woman and I don't seem able to summon up the faith in him that he expects me to have. ROSE MARIE.

ANSWER:

A cynic has defined faith as the ability to believe something that you know isn't true. Evidently your husband belongs to this school of thought and he expects you to be one of those gifted wives who can shut their eyes to all that they do not want to see and put an agreeable interpretation upon every act of the men to whom they are married and make it square with what they would like it to be. And curiously enough, there are such women. I once knew one who said that her faith in her husband was so great that even if she should see him do something wrong she would know that it was her lying eyes that had deceived her and that he really had not done it.

But few, alas! of us have this happy faculty of believing that we are beloved just because we desire to be loved and that we are the only ones to our husbands just because we desire to monopolize them. This is a hard-boiled age in which we look our gits horses in the mouth and in which we take very little for granted.

Most wives hail from Missouri and have to be shown. And so, when their husbands cease to take any interest in holding their hand and pass up petting parties, and especially when their husbands display more interest in other women than they do in them, they grow suspicious and fail to show their lovely, wifely trust which wandering husbands laud so loudly and do so little to deserve.

It always seems to me that men and women expect impossible virtues in the partners of their bosom. A husband will be unfaithful to his wife and then, because she finds it out or because he has an acute attack of conscience, he will ask her forgiveness and feel ill-used because she does not have the same implicit faith in him that she had before he betrayed her.

He does not seem to realize that faith is not an act of volition and that we can no more believe in a person we have found untrustworthy than we can make a broken staff whole again.

And men and women expect their husbands and wives to love them whether they are lovable or not, whether they do anything to hold affection or not. The man who never shows his wife any tenderness or affection, who grows at her and curses her, who is stingy and mean to her, is surprised when he finds out that she hates him. The woman who nags and curses and whines and complains, who is lazy and extravagant and never does a single solitary thing to make her husband comfortable or happy, considers herself a martyr when he ceases to care for her and falls in love with another woman.

Why? Goodness only knows, for it is certain that we cannot have our cake and throw it away, too. We can only have faith in the husbands and wives who deserve faith and we can only love those who are lovable. DOROTHY DIX.

DEAR MISS DIX—I have been married more than five years and have two beautiful children, but due to my husband's ugly disposition and abusive treatment of me my love for him is entirely dead. I have met another man for whom I care very much and who loves me. I have told my husband about this other man and that I was thinking of leaving him. Since then he is a changed man and says that if I will only give him another chance he will prove that he can make me happy.

What must I do? Divorce my husband and marry this other man? Or stay with my husband? Do you think we can ever be happy together? Can love that is dead ever be revived? WORRIED.

ANSWER: I think, all things considered, that you will stand a better chance of happiness with your husband than you would with the other man. Because there are the children, you see, and they make an alien element in any second marriage that nearly always wrecks it.

It seems almost impossible for either a man or a woman to rise to the heights of not being jealous of their stepchildren. A man adores the maternal passion in a woman when it is expended on his own children. He excuses her absorption in them, but he resents it with every fiber of his being when she displays this mother-love toward another man's children.

A woman glouts over her father's attention and generosity to her children, but she cannot endure him to be generous to his first wife's children and absorbed in them.

So if you take your children away from their own father and give them a stepfather, you not only do them a grievous wrong in depriving them of a father's love and care but you will almost surely put yourself in the unhappy predicament of having always to keep peace between them, and perhaps have to suffer the agony of seeing your little ones ill-treated.

Evidently your husband has received a badly needed lesson in finding out that he has lost your love by his cruelty toward you, so you may safely count upon his trying to make things pleasant for you hereafter. He will mind his p's and q's and probably make a pleasant companion that the other man whose peculiarities of temper and temperament you would have to risk. For every man shows himself in a different guise to a woman after he is married to her from the one he wore when he was courting her.

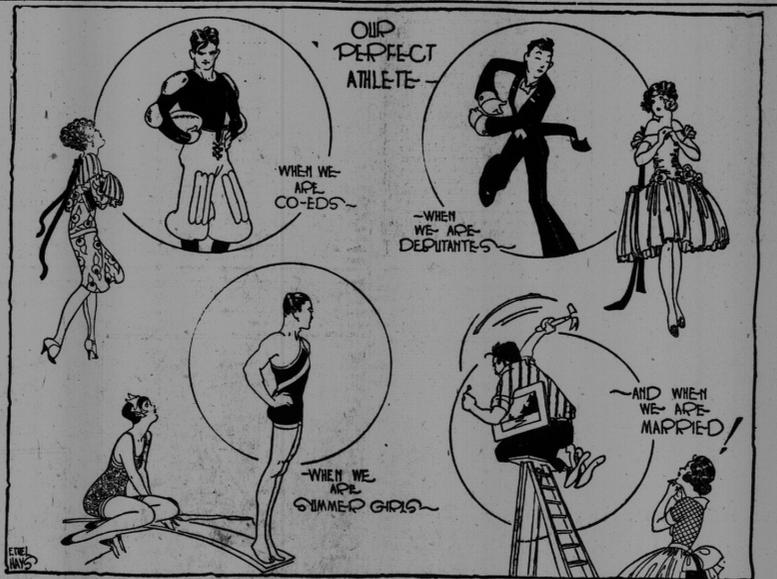

I do not believe that there is any way of breathing the breath of life into dead love. I do not think that you can ever bring back the thrill and the glamour once they are gone, but I do believe that on the ashes of a cold hearthstone you can light the fires of a friendship that will be very warm and comfortable to sit by during the declining years of your life.

And I think that you will always have the happiness of knowing that you have put duty before inclination and that you have done the brave thing and the right thing. DOROTHY DIX.

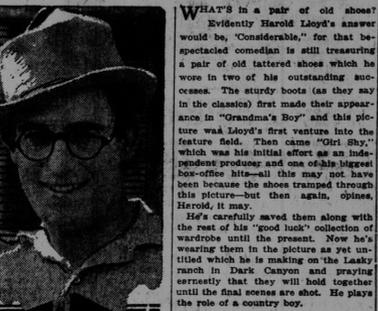

DEAR MISS DIX—My husband has a car that he worships and when I ask him to lend it to me he refuses. We live in the country and he doesn't mind my driving the cows and pigs and chickens, but he don't let me drive the Ford. How can I persuade him to let me use it? COUNTRY.

ANSWER: Don't ask him to let you use it. Just get in it and drive off before he can say "Scat!" As his wife, you have a half interest in it. Any woman who drives the livestock on a place to water and the pasture has earned the right to drive a Rolls-Royce, to say nothing of a Ford. Copyright by Public Ledger.

The Different Viewpoints

BEHIND THE SCREEN

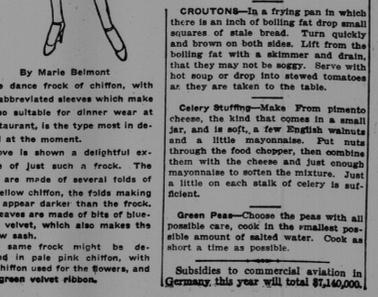

WHAT'S in a pair of old shoes? Evidently Harold Lloyd's answer would be, "Considerable," for that bespectacled comedian is still treasuring a pair of old tattered shoes which he wore in two of his outstanding successes. The sturdy boots (as they say in the classics) first made their appearance in "Grandma's Boy" and this picture was Lloyd's first venture into the feature field. Then came "Old Shy," which was his initial effort as an independent producer and one of his biggest box-office hits—all this may not have been because the shoes tramped through this picture—but then again, who knows, Harold, it may.

He's carefully saved them along with the rest of his "good luck" collection of wardrobe until the present. Now he's wearing them in the picture as yet untitled which he is making on the Leaky ranch in Dark Canyon and praying earnestly that they will hold together until the final scenes are shot. He plays the role of a country boy.

Lois Weber is going to complete the filming of "Uncle Tom's Cabin" for Universal. She has replaced Harry Belafonte, whose illness prevents him from finishing the filming of Harriet Beecher Stowe's work.

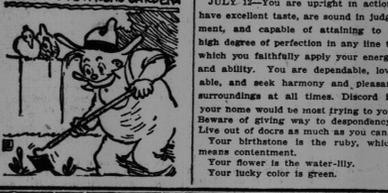

TITLE CHANGE The title of Marshal Nellan's first Paramount picture starring Betty Bronson has been changed from "The All-Birmingham" to "The Wearing of the Green."

Fashion Fancies. By Marie Belmont. The dance frock of chiffon, with tiny abbreviated sleeves which make it also suitable for dinner wear at a restaurant, is the type most in demand at the moment.

Above is shown a delightful example of just such a frock. The roses are made of several folds of the yellow chiffon, the folds making them appear darker than the frock. The leaves are made of bits of blue-green velvet, which also makes the narrow sash. The same frock might be developed in pale pink chiffon, with rose chiffon used for the flowers, and deep green velvet ribbons.

SEE-SAWING ON BROADWAY

THEY tell a story on Broadway of a pretty 17-year-old chorine who appeared at the theatre with a dime savings bank. "And what the heck are you going to save for?" demanded her improvident sisters. "Well," came the reply, "I'm going to put away a dime a week so that I'll have enough money to get my face lifted when I get old." Beat this one and win a pair of asbestos ice tongs.

HELL'S KITCHEN, once the most menacing section in all Manhattan, now broods peacefully over its past sins. Where gang guns peppered the street in the old days, lines of push-carts now present a colorful panorama. Corners that were melodramatically listed as "sure death" have become bustling market places for housewives.

"Hell's Kitchen" was the name given a belt the theoretical geography of which was 84th to 91st streets and Ninth avenue to the waterfront.

Here ranged the "Gopher Gang," a band of death-dealing gangsters whose exploits rival the bad men of the "wild and woolly west."

Such names as "Rubber" Shaw and "Tanner" Smith climbed into notorious eminence. Merchants of the neighborhood, fear in their hearts, paid big protection money. They would contribute to funds used for keeping gangsters out of prison.

TIME began to pat a soothing hand over this fevered belt. The "gophers" went the way of all gangs. But the name "Hell's Kitchen" stuck and still has a fearsome connotation.

Peace-loving people went about their ways and, little by little, commerce invaded the district.

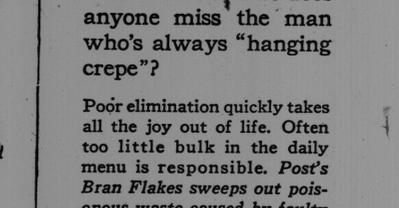

Outside of Orchard street upon the East Side, there is, perhaps, no section of New York so colorful with pushcarts as this death hole of yesterday.

The peaceful hucksters find bold youngsters their only menace.

ONE merchant, who weathered the stormy years, looks back and smiles. Does he ever see any of the old gangsters? Yes, indeed. And as they grew up they became industrious and substantial citizens, he recites. Several are married.

ORANGE ORDER HOLDS ANNUAL CHURCH PARADE

People Line Streets in Spite of Rain to Watch Big Turnout

REV. H. C. RICE SPEAKS ON UNITY OF EMPIRE

Patriotic Exercises, Including Short Addresses, at War Memorial

In spite of the showery weather of yesterday afternoon, the streets through which the church parade of the members of the Orange Order in the city passed, were lined with people.

and they lived happily ever after

"Jack, dear, do you remember the day when you told me at breakfast how much you loved jams and jellies with hot toast? Well, I immediately called Mother to see how she made the Strawberry Jam we all raved about last year."

"Mother said she had always had such a hard time to get certain fruits to jelly, such as strawberries, raspberries, pineapples and so on, that she decided to try the new CERTO method Aunt Mary told her about."

"I'll never forget the feeling of pleasure and pride I experienced when in a short time I had so many delicious jars of jam and jelly to store away for winter—all sparkling, set perfectly firm and clear, and half as much again as you would get from the same amount of fruit by the old method."

"I am so happy, Jack, that I know of CERTO so early in my new career as housewife."

CERTO is the jellifying substance—abundant in some fruits and almost lacking in others—extracted and put up in convenient form for use in jam and jelly making. It is as pure as the fruit itself and best of all you are absolutely free of success.

The new CERTO method only takes from one to two minutes of hard boiling, in place of the old fifteen or twenty minutes' constant stirring over a hot stove. The fruit is more natural in color and flavor than before, because none of this delicate color or flavor is boiled away but all retained.

Housewives everywhere are praising CERTO. More jam and jelly from the same amount—more delicious in flavor—more and more in color.

and banners of the order. The Baker quartette sang two appropriate selections and the hymn, "Nearer My God To Thee," was beautifully rendered by Mrs. O. Brennan.

UNITY OF EMPIRE. Rev. Mr. Rice took, as his text, the fifth verse of the twentieth psalm, "In the Name of Our God will we set up our banners."

"An ardent campaign to make the significance of the word 'citizenship' more prominent in the minds of the people at the present day," declared Rev. Mr. Rice. "This cannot be done by the making of laws, but it can be accomplished by our churches, schools, civic and business organizations and our newspapers."

LEAGUE OF NATIONS. The speaker dwelt for a few moments on the League of Nations Society and characterized its campaign for the abolishing of warfare as a most worthy movement and one that should have an advocate in every human being.

"I am so happy, Jack, that I know of CERTO so early in my new career as housewife." The following clipping from the Phoenix, Ariz., Republican of June 27 is of interest to friends in New Brunswick. "The marriage of Miss Emma J. Turpie, daughter of Mrs. Emma J. Turpie, to De Vere Jack, took place on Thursday morning at 8 o'clock in Trinity Cathedral, with only the members of the family and intimate friends in attendance."

Historic Dressing Room Star Still Shines

Lenore Ulric, most poignant of present-day Belasco stars, is touching the famous dressing room star which has a history unique in theatrical annals. The star was first the property of William Charles Cressy; then it passed to William Scott and for many years adorned the dressing room. He gave it, at last, to Percy Winter, who, in turn, passed it on to Belasco. Now it marks Miss Ulric's dressing room door.

The Opportunity of a Lifetime
FRENCH GOVERNMENT 6% BONDS
ARE ON THE BARGAIN COUNTER

WE BELIEVE that an investment made today in French Government 6% Bonds (Loan authorized Dec. 16th, 1920; redeemable at par at the option of the Government on or after Jan. 1st, 1931), presents an exceptional opportunity for profit on any material advance in the value of French money (Francs).
Due to the depreciation of French Francs a French Government 6% Bond (of 1,000 francs denomination) can now be bought for $27.00, with French exchange at normal (19.3c per Franc) the same Bond would have a value of $193.00.
International bankers believe French Francs will sell at 10 cents per Franc before very long. Just think what this means to French Government Bonds; with the Franc worth 10 cents, each Bond of 1,000 francs will have a value of $100.00—a rise of over 270%. Or a profit of $73.00 for every $27.00 invested today.
With the Franc selling at 15 cents, each Bond of 1,000 francs will have a value of $150.00, a rise of more than 455%, or a net profit of $123.00 for each Bond of 1,000 francs, or for every $27.00 invested today.
We made a lengthy and thorough investigation to determine the best way to buy French Francs for maximum profits. We are of the opinion that these French Government 6% Bonds offer the best medium, for they represent to French investors precisely what British Government and our Canadian Government Victory Bonds represent to us, being legal investments for every Institution, Trust Fund and Savings Bank in France, and constituting a strictly high-grade Government investment. They may be sold again instantly for spot cash, as they are listed on the Paris Stock Exchange and traded in throughout the financial centres of the world. The interest coupons (payable June and December 16th) have always been paid promptly on the dot, and can be cashed in Montreal, New York, London, and other financial centres through our House, banks or other institutions.
French Government Bonds will, we believe, unquestionably come back to normal ($193.00 per 1,000 franc Bond.) The United States were financially bankrupt after the Civil War. Their securities could be bought for a song, yet in a few years the Americans were on their financial feet again, and today are considered the richest nation in the world.
Even England was once faced with what seemed to be a financial disaster. With Napoleon virtually pounding at her gates, British Bonds went for next to nothing, but the victory at Waterloo sent them sky-rocketing. The Rothschild family accumulated the major portion of its wealth by investing in British Bonds and selling them when Wellington's victory became known.
The experience of France, too, bankrupt at the hands of Bismarck, is within the memory of living men. Her Bonds sold down to 7% of their value after the Franco-Prussian War. They appeared hopeless, yet in two years they had recovered 95%, making fortunes for the far-sighted investors who had the courage to invest in them. When millions of men and populations of nations lend their collective efforts to the task—nothing is impossible. The French Franc will undoubtedly come back to normal.
A study of history convinces one forcibly that the most difficult thing in the world to destroy is national existence. History is repeating itself. The opportunity of a lifetime, to earn remarkable profits, exists today for investors, through the purchase of these high-grade French Government Bonds. They rank as the pre-eminent class of French Government securities, and are virtually a first mortgage on the entire assets and resources of the vast and wealthy Republic of France. The Bonds are valid for 30 years after maturity, and the interest coupons for 5 years after their respective maturity dates, thus enabling the investor to cash them at any time the exchange rates are favorable.
France is a first-class commercial, naval and military power of the world. French industries are thriving and working overtime. France is exporting goods to every country of the globe; her shipping is crowding the world's ports, and the nation shows every evidence of industrial and economic progress. Reparation payments from Germany are further enhancing the French treasury. These conditions will be quickly reflected in a rapid rise in the French Franc, which in turn increases the value of French Government Bonds. That is why we urge you to buy French Government Bonds NOW, while they are on the bargain counter.

Table Showing Present Price and Possibilities
Denominations: 1,000 Francs, French Government 6% Bonds, Present Price $27.00, 15 Cents, 10 Cents, 5 Cents, 1926

WE ARE selling a large number of these Bonds at the above price, which covers every expense. Upon receipt of accepted cheque or money order we will at once confirm sale. Bonds are forwarded by registered and insured mail. Order with remittance to cover purchase, must be received by early mail to insure these prices at quotations change frequently.
For many years this Investment House has been Canada's foremost exclusive foreign Bond house. It is vitally important to us to have our clients select those bonds which will make the most money for them and make it most quickly. Our interest does not cease after a sale, for it is our constant aim to keep in touch with our clients, especially throughout the length and breadth of Canada, the United States and Newfoundland, to render it gratuitous service, informing clients when Bonds rise in market value and when they are selling at a profit, so that they may be able to sell them at a profit. This service is expensive to ourselves, but its value to our clients is incalculable.
