CAILLEAUX CASE IN MOTION PICTURES

Imperial Theatre Has Wonderful Picture Starting Tomorrow

Joseph Cailleaux charged with being a French traitor divorced his first wife to marry the slayer of General Calmette. Contracted to influence the French government to allow an outlawed claim of the Prieu estate for $1,200,000, on condition that he receive 80 per cent. Used his office as Minister of Finance to force the prosecutor to set free the notorious forger, Henri Rochette, Cailleaux's associate.

Listed, for his private interest, bad Argentine securities which lost the French people $50,000,000. Bestowed official favors and used official knowledge to reap a great fortune from the stock market. Involved his cleverly planned such serious financial tangles with Germany, that the famous Agadir Affair in Morocco in 1911 brought Europe to the verge of war.

Bought a settlement of the Moroccan question by giving to Germany territory in the French Congo equal to almost the whole of France. Carried on pro-German propaganda in South America, Italy and France. Planned a coup d'etat, by which he hoped to gain supreme power in the French Republic.

Conspired with Bols Pasha to demoralize the French armies and force German peace. Used his sinister power as leader of the secret Order of the Grande Orient to procure the acquittal of his wife after she had killed in cold blood the patriotic editor of "Figaro."

WANT NO MORE WAR AND THAT'S WHY SOCIALISTS WON MANY SEATS, SAYS NITTI

Rome, Nov. 25.—(Associated Press)—"The people of Europe will not have another war, and because the Socialists form a party which always has opposed war, the people of Italy voted for them," said Francesco Nititi, premier, in explaining the Italian situation and the true meaning of the last general elections, when the number of Socialists of the chamber of deputies more than tripled. He characterized reports that Italy was on the verge of a revolution as "simply absurd."

The re-opening of the chamber of deputies has been postponed for a few days because of delays connected with the election formalities.

WILL VOTE FOR THE EIGHT-HOUR DAY CONVENTION

(Continued from page 1) "Placing a young vigorous giant on the same footing as a man advanced in life," Canada, he said, should have an opportunity to manage her own affairs to suit her own circumstances.

An unsuccessful attempt had been made, he went on, in including commercial undertakings in the eight-hour day convention, and some countries had included agriculture in proposed legislation of this class.

"Evidently," Mr. Parsons declared, "what is aimed at ultimately is an attempt to drive all the workers of the world, like a flock of sheep, into the eight-hour pen regardless of the work requirements." Nor was it suggested that acceptance of the eight-hour day would permanently settle social and industrial problems, including the hours of work.

The Evening Times and Star

ST. JOHN, N. B., NOVEMBER 25, 1919

The St. John Evening Times is printed at 27 and 29 Canterbury Street, every evening (Sunday excepted) by The St. John Times Printing and Publishing Co., Ltd., a company incorporated under the Joint Stock Companies Act.

THE WATER IS FINE.

If more of the citizens of St. John could be persuaded that to take part in the work of organizations for civic betterment and social welfare is really interesting and not at all dry and unprofitable, there would be a greater and better division of the labor, everybody would be delighted with the results, and everybody would still have time for healthy relaxation, enjoyment, and pure fun.

It must be that ignorance is the explanation of the evident disinclination of so many people to take part in movements which have for their object the general good of the community. Is there a meeting of an Improvement League? Only a handful are interested. Is it the annual meeting of the Associated Charities? Only the active workers and a few friends are there—even when speakers who know their subject are to deal with a vital community problem.

And yet there is nothing dry about the discussions that take place. They deal with real life and real community problems, and are often more absorbing than a picture on the screen, while they also develop lines of activity that are intensely interesting to all who participate.

Possibly we are now on the eve of an awakening. The Rotarians last night sang their songs and were happy while they absorbed valuable information about street paving and saw pictures of what is being done elsewhere to improve city streets and country roads.

The vocational training board is making rapid progress in its preparations and there should soon be hundreds of young people spending some of their evenings in profitable study of some kind in the various buildings to be used for class purposes.

The Standard explains that what it said three months ago about harbor commission is not to be taken too seriously today. Neither is what it says today, or what it will say three months hence. The public thoroughly understands.

The Socialists in Italy are said to be nursing plans to overthrow the monarchy and introduce Bolshevism in that country. We can imagine what a Bolshevik mob would do among the priceless art treasures in Rome and the Vatican.

Sir George Paish asserts that at least a hundred million people in Europe are in danger of starvation this winter. He is not an irresponsible alarmist, and such a terrible condition of affairs must appeal to the sympathy of the whole world.

In the opinion of former Commissioner Wigmore the water pipes in Brussels street and City Road are not in a condition to warrant paving those streets next year. When doctors disagree who shall decide?

In advocating a state commission to regulate the distribution and price of milk the New York Evening Post says: "An investigator of Philadelphia's milk supply system for the health department reports that the price per quart is four cents less there than here, though farmers receive the same rate; the principal saving lying in the delivery of from 400 to 700 quarts by each driver, instead of the 250 delivered in New York. A state commission could investigate and month by month adjust the price paid to the dairyman; could encourage greater efficiency in dairying; could force the distributors to effect those economies which every student of the situation recommends, and might keep prices at a level encouraging greater consumption."

Toronto Star: The increasing interest of the churches in social reform is one of the hopeful signs of the times. The earlier Christians perhaps carried to an extreme the idea of separation from the world, but they showed us a good example of indifference to worldly gain and to the passions associated with worldly ambition. To be unworried, to be deeply moved by its cries of pain, to be wrathful at injustice, to reverence man as man, to cherish high hopes for his future under better conditions—this is the spirit which will give driving power to the new movement of the churches.

Toronto Globe: President Wilson announces that the war time prohibition act in the United States will remain in force till peace is made with Germany. The owners of vast stores of liquor which will depreciate tremendously in value if they are not sold before Jan. 20, when the permanent prohibition measure comes into force, may now begin to use all their influence to have the treaty ratified by the senate next month.

The vocational training board is making rapid progress in its preparations and there should soon be hundreds of young people spending some of their evenings in profitable study of some kind in the various buildings to be used for class purposes.

THEN GO AHEAD.
Long years ago Dave Crockett said, "Be sure you're right, then go ahead." And this is counsel safe and sound; we'd save ourselves all kinds of pain, if each would paste it on his head, and do as old Davy said. In these excited, throbbing times, we go ahead with breaks and crimes, nor query, as we troop along, "Is this course right, or is it wrong?" We tread on 'other fellow's toes, and crush his hat and soil his nose, in our mad rush to gain a bone or boost some interest of our own. Old customs and old methods droop, and precedents are in the soup; we mutter deep contempt for laws, and Self becomes our only cause. If I can get what I desire, I care not if your home's aflame. This is the spirit of the time, and precepts are not worth a dime. We do not care if we are right when we kick up a useless fight; we do not care if we are wrong, so that our bank account is strong. And Davy Crockett sleeping lies; he left behind a message wise; but wisdom has no present lot in this mad world of ours, I wot.

CANADA—EAST AND WEST
Dominion Happenings of Other Days

PLANNING A REBELLION
On November 25, 1837, William Lyon Mackenzie, the leader of the radical element in Upper Canada, took steps that led in a few days to the rebellion in Upper Canada. On the evening of the previous day he had set out from Toronto for the north where he expected to find a more receptive atmosphere for his purposes. It had been determined in conference with his friends in Toronto to notify as many as possible of the radical unions north of that city to gather at Montgomery's tavern, near the city, between six and ten o'clock on the evening of Dec. 7. Mackenzie expected to have at least 2,000 men present on that occasion. A complete campaign for rebellion had been accepted by the radical element.

The following day he spent at Hogg's Hollow, six miles north of Toronto. There he set up a hand printing press and carried on paper he had brought with him, he printed and issued a proclamation to the district in which the "brave Canadians" were urged to "get their rifles and make short work of it. Our enemies in Toronto are in terror and dismay; they know their wickedness and dread our vengeance. He was very confident—so much so that before leaving the place a day or two later he revealed his intentions to a couple of friends. One was a friend of the Governor of Upper Canada, and so he promptly informed the authorities of the plans. The result was a hot reception for Mackenzie when he attempted his rebellion later in the year.

LIGHTER VEIN.
A venerable justice sat in the place of honor at a reception. As a young lady of dazzling charms walked past he exclaimed, almost involuntarily: "What a beautiful girl!"

The young woman overheard the justice's compliment, turned and gave him a radiant smile. "What an excellent judge," she said.

The war tax habit is contagious. Everywhere, now, it's so much for this, and a little bit more. But the other day in a criminal court the judge sentencing a man to two years and ten days.

"What's the ten days for?" demanded the prisoner.
"War tax," snapped his honor, as he called the next case.

Toward the end of Nat Goodwin's series of marriages—while he was for the moment without a wife—he was obliged one day to answer a number of official questions. He hurriedly put down the answers until he came to one which read: "Are you married, single, or divorced?"

He pondered over this for some time. Finally, his look of torment disappeared. Opposite the question he wrote the answer, "Yes."

"But even you may be mistaken in your views."
"All right," replied Senator Sorghum. "It's my duty to state 'em just the same. If I am mistaken, a whole lot of other people may be mistaken the same way, and if anybody can show us up it's coming to us for the common good."

"Say, looky yur," began a citizen of the Sandy Mush (Ark) region, entering the Palace drug store in "Tumbraville." "You fellows sold me this yur rat p'ison last week, and three or four of my children got hold of the box and ate it right smart of it. It didn't 'peet to damage 'em none, and I'll be dogged if I don't believe 'I've been swindled.'"

PASTOR ON SHORT RATIONS
The Rev. Walker Tolver, founder and for twenty-seven years pastor of the Zion Primitive Baptist Church at Harrisburg, Pa., resigned his position because the congregation refused to advance him a loan of $25 on his salary of $60 a month. Then the elder of his congregation "unleashed" him as a member of the "Second Ketchikan Baptist Association." The Rev. Mr. Tolver then started another church of his own and declares that more than half his old congregation have flocked to his new standard—Indianapolis News.

WOULD SPLIT INCOME.
London, Eng., Nov. 25.—"A bishop's income at the present time is an anxiety to himself, a butt for the scorner, and a hindrance and embarrassment to the church," declared Bishop Chavasse at the Liverpool diocesan conference, referring to the fact that he has $21,000 a year. He added: "It is so heavily taxed and rated that he never sees half of it, and it is not easy, unless he has private means, to die it out so as to maintain a large house, meet the heavy and rightful claims for whose sake so large an income has been given to him, and to support his family."
"It is a butt for the scorner, who speaks of the fatal opulence of the bishops, fearful that a man's riches are not to be reckoned only by his income but by his outgoings."
Dr. Chavasse suggested that $11,000

CRITICISES FISHER'S PAVING PROGRAMME

Pointed Remarks by R. W. Wigmore M. P. at Rotary Club Meeting—Dr. Gray Speaks on Asphalt. At the meeting of the Rotary Club in Bond's restaurant, where dinner was served last evening, R. W. Wigmore, M. P., presided and a special address was given by Dr. R. E. Gray of Toronto, representative of the Barber Asphalt Paving Co., of Philadelphia. Previous to the meeting the Rotarians assembled in the Unique Theatre and witnessed the presentation of pictures showing asphalt in Trinidad and Bermuda and the process of getting it to market. Rotarian Wigmore in an address opposed the paving of City road and Brussels street next year, saying there were other streets in greater need of it and besides these had not water and sewerage pipes in good condition. He thought the Rotarians should protest to the common council against the work. Dr. Gray spoke on paving matters and produced an apparatus which allowed each of the members to get a good look at pictures of the Trinidad asphalt. He explained the difference between natural and artificial asphalt and said that the best natural ones came from two lakes, Trinidad and Bermudez. Dr. Gray's address was heard with keen interest by the gathering. A nominating committee was appointed, consisting of H. S. Carter, F. Lewis, D. Merritt, P. D. McAvity, and Roy Thomson, and a stunts committee of E. A. Scholfield, Dr. Spangler and K. J. MacRae. E. Clinton Brown was chosen representative to a conference with Dr. Roberts on health education. Songs by Robert Ritchie and others were well received. Rotarian F. N. D'Arden reported $708 collected in connection with the $1,500 required for St. John's share in the national education movement. The following were proposed and accepted as members of the club: H. G. S. Adams, Kenneth Haley, Miles E. Agar, Thos. Nagle, George A. Martz, J. Bruce McPherson, Morton P. Smith, A. C. Smith, Thomas Guy, Geo. McA. Blizard, H. Everett Hunt, T. C. Leidingham.

RAISE $90,000 FOR ORANGE ORPHANAGE

In the neighborhood of $90,000 has been collected for the Loyola True Blue and Orange Home to be built on Yonge street, just outside Richmond Hill, Toronto. The True Blues have purchased there a site for the building of 35 acres at a cost of $15,000. Among the large subscriptions received by the grand treasurer, W. M. Fitzgerald, are $20,000 from W. H. Baird and $5,000 from Sir Edward Kemp. While the home is to be erected by the order, its doors will be open to orphans who are not children of members. The cost of the home is estimated at $30,000. The establishment of a juvenile court was discussed by delegates from organizations in the city, at a meeting in the Board of Trade rooms last night.

WAS ALARMED ABOUT HIS WIFE

Doesn't Believe She Would Have Lived if it Hadn't Been For Tanlac.

"I didn't think my wife would be able to live much longer but now since she has taken Tanlac I have never seen such an improvement in a person in my whole life," said Alexander Arnold recently in speaking of the experience of his wife, Mrs. Emily Arnold, with Tanlac. Mr. Arnold is engaged in the fishing business at Ship Harbor Lake, Nova Scotia, where he and his wife have resided for the past thirty years.

"For about ten years my wife has been troubled with indigestion and a general run-down condition," continued Mr. Arnold, "and each year her health has gradually been getting worse. She is hardly able to keep herself alive. Why, I have seen her sit down, take just a few bites and then leave the table and even then she would complain of cramping pains and at times would have to lie down before she could get relief. Gas formed so bad that it rose up into her chest and around her heart and she could hardly get her breath, and all the time she went about complaining of a heavy, distressing feeling. She was troubled with constipation and always had to be taking laxatives and she was subject to severe headaches. She was so nervous that the least little noise would make her jump, and for the sleep she got, she might as well have stayed up all night. Why, many a time I don't believe she closed her eyes at all. Last fall she took a sudden turn for the worse and went down from one hundred twenty-four pounds to one hundred and eight and was simply a nervous and physical wreck and I became alarmed at her condition.

CELINE K. GOLDMAN FLOATED

The New York Maritime Register has the following article about the schooner Celine K. Goldman, which was built in St. Martins and was sold by A. F. Bentley to Toronto interests.

The Celine K. Goldman from Montevideo for New York, which was ashore about two and a half miles west of Punta Ballena, was surveyed on September 27. The wreck lies with her head about N. E. and with her forefoot almost dry, but the after end of the vessel appears to have settled in the sand and the water reaches the level of the rudder trunk. The starboard side appears to be considerably raised above the deck line at the centre, indicating that the vessel is hogged. With fine weather the quebracho cargo could be salvaged.

The vessel is apparently too badly damaged to be worth salvaging and the surveyor recommends the wreck to be sold as scrap.

"London, Nov. 16.—Sch. Celine K. Goldman from Montevideo to New York, before reported ashore near MacDonalds, has been assisted off."

J. T. Knight & Company, local agents for the schooner, recently received a cable saying that she had been floated.

NAVY ISLAND. The city is confronted with somewhat of a problem in regard to the evacuation of Navy Island. Although the report of the district board of health reported that there were eight families resident upon the island, the city records show only three habitations. The other residents are supposed to be either living upon leased lots which were not intended to be built upon, or are squatters on the island. The whole matter is now being investigated and action will be taken as soon as the desired information is obtained.

POOT INJURED. While engaged at work upon a house in Sand Point yesterday afternoon as a carpenter, Thomas Baird of Clarence street, aged seventy-eight years, was injured. A staging on which he was working is said to have given away when he fell a plank struck him heavily upon the foot. He was taken to the General Public Hospital and an X-ray examination will be made.

YUGO-SLAVS ARE IN FIGHTING MOOD

Said Only Interference of Allies Can Prevent War With Italians Over Adriatic Matter

Geneva, Nov. 24.—Telegrams received by the Serbian bureau at Berne from Belgrade, Zara and Spalato, convey the impression that only prompt interference by the Allies can prevent war over Adriatic situation, as the Yugo-Slavs are said to have lost patience and to be ready to fight the Italians.

"We are astonished that the peace conference permits our people to endure constant Italian persecutions," says one Belgrade paper received here. "Everybody must wear a brassard inscribed 'Italy or Death,' or be badly treated, and that Slavs are afraid to leave their houses."

Another paper accuses Italy of desiring to blockade Yugo-Slavia's exports and imports, and thus "strangle her." A third repeats recent reports that a reign of terror prevails in Zara, that everybody must wear a brassard inscribed 'Italy or Death,' or be badly treated, and that Slavs are afraid to leave their houses.

Paris, Monday, Nov. 24.—Despatches confirming reports from Geneva that the situation along the eastern shore of the Adriatic is critical are issued by the Yugo-Slav bureau here.

The bureau says the Yugo-Slavs government has asked its ministers at Paris, London and Washington to draw the attention of those governments to the dangerous situation arising from D'Annunzio's raids and those he is reported about to make.

The controller-general said he would submit the highest tender to the provincial government for approval. This tender nets an interest rate of approximately 6.01%.

IN WALL STREET. New York, Nov. 25.—Copper shares were the only noteworthy exceptions to the further advance of prices at the opening of today's stock market.

The market drifted idly after the first inquiry for stocks, but dullness had no effect upon the advance, which assumed broader dimensions. General Motors extended its gain to thirteen points and others of that class were two to six points higher.

Chicago, Nov. 25.—Fresh strength developed in the corn market today owing more or less to scantiness of country offering and to hopes of enlarged export demand. Besides, receipts were light and it was expected that the arrivals would be readily absorbed by industrial requirements. Gossip was current also that the settlement of the coal strike would mean enlarged purchasing by industries.

Fredericton, Nov. 25.—Paroline Place, next to the provincial legislature, may become an old ladies' home under the will of the late Mrs. Jane M. P. Fraser, widow of a former governor.

The executive of the South End Improvement League met last evening to discuss the question of funds to carry on the work, especially the skating rink, and an appeal will be made to the people of the south end. It is planned to have a larger checking room this winter and the skating rink will be very much larger.

COMMON DISEASES OFTEN DANGEROUS

Chief Among These is the Ordinary Cold in the Head—Prompt Treatment Required. Many people think a cold in the head is something which comes once or twice a year, and that it will always work itself off without attention.

When a cold in the head appears start work at once. Keep the system open. Check the fever which shows, especially toward night. Alay the sore-throat which develops in the muscles. Tone up the system to fight the after weakness.

Denver, Col., Nov. 24.—That "Bill" Carlisle, the bandit, is in Denver was the belief of many police officers today, due, they said, to letters received by Denver newspapers and a postcard addressed to Chief of Police Hamilton Armstrong, purporting to have been written by Carlisle.

Next time you hear from me I'll be in Texas," the postcard said. In his letters to the newspapers, the author said he would try the Denver and Rio Grande Railroad next.

HOSTEL FOR THE BRITISH WOMEN

Provisional Committee Completes Organization and Elects Officers

The committee appointed to locate a hostel building for women immigrants and present to the government a budget of expense for its upkeep, at its final meeting, yesterday, appointed a committee to take charge of the hostel chosen, the Metropole in Britain street, and passed a resolution asking for the appointment of a local woman to the bureau of civil employment to act as a connecting link between the hostel and the women immigrants.

The meeting was held in the board of trade rooms with the president, Mrs. J. Boyle Travers, in the chair, and many aspects of women's immigration were discussed. The committee to take charge of the hostel and to be the St. John branch of the Canadian council for the immigration of women for household service which the meeting elected was composed of the following officers: Mrs. H. A. Powell, president; Mrs. David Puddington, first vice-president; Mrs. John Owens, second vice-president; Mrs. J. H. Jenner, secretary; Mrs. M. Goldman, treasurer.

Mrs. J. W. V. Lawlor, Mrs. H. Lawrence and Mrs. Travers spoke on matters relating to immigration. Mrs. Lawrence said that only women with definite places to go to would be brought to the country and Mrs. Travers said that most of the women were in the war service and were self-reliant. A budget for the running expenses of the hostel was placed at $3,000. Mrs. Owens and Miss Sinclair also spoke on the work that might be carried out by the hostel committee.

BYRCE CRITICISES PEACE CONFERENCE

Committed Grave Errors, He Believes—Much of The Proceedings "Shrouded in Impenetrable Darkness"

London, Nov. 25.—Viscount Bryce, speaking on "The League of Nations" at a dinner recently, referred to the peace conference and asserted that, after making all allowances for it, he was bound to say he thought the Paris conference had committed very grave errors and was in danger of committing some others.

He cited as examples the lease of the Tyrol and Transylvania, in which, he said, a third of the population taken over by Roumania has certainly no affinity with the Roumanians. He also mentioned the controversy over the Balkan boundaries and maintained that commissions should have been appointed to examine the line that separated the different peoples and report to the conference. If the nations knew their claims had been fairly considered by competent authorities, there was a prospect of contentment and future peace.

"If such questions are going to survive there is further need for the League of Nations, which alone could deal with them," he declared. "The League of Nations appeals to the conscience of mankind and it cannot be effective unless supported by the public opinion of all that is best in every country."

Viscount Bryce was afraid "there were only two countries—Great Britain and the United States—where the idea had caught hold of the best opinion, and even there it had not got down to the minds of the bulk of the people." The reason, he said, was "they were so much occupied with their own affairs that they took little interest in foreign affairs and it was essential that the importance of this question should be brought home to every voter."

Viscount Bryce said that a great deal of the proceedings of the Paris conference had been "shrouded in impenetrable darkness." What had happened had shown that it was "possible to induce nations to acquiesce in secret diplomacy to an extent greater than any one would have believed possible."

Y. M. C. A. Special Commission Says it Made No Impression on Soldiers

Detroit, Nov. 25.—"Vaudeville religion"—religion sandwiched in between motion pictures and other entertainments—did not command the respect of American soldiers in camps at home or abroad, a special commission of the Young Men's Christian Association investigating relations between the churches and association reported to the fortieth international convention here.

"Whenever the association acted openly and unhesitatingly in its war work, on the principle that its supreme aim was building up the kingdom of Christ among men, it met with complete success," the report said. "Service, as a surreptitious cloak for evangelism is not effective and is not Christian."

The commission recommended a closer co-operation between evangelical churches and the association.

Zion City, Ill., Nov. 24.—From a platform six feet high, 138,997 bottles of 2 1/2 per cent beer today were emptied into a specially built trough that ran to an open sewer.

Mayor W. H. Clendenin poured the first bottle and Chief of Police Becker and his aides finished the operation. The ceremony was postponed several days ago to permit construction of the platform and trough so as to prevent "contamination" of the city's streets. The empty bottles were sold to a junk dealer for $2.18.

The beer was ordered destroyed by Judge Claire C. Edwards of the Waukegan circuit court, after it had been confiscated when seized from smugglers from Wisconsin.

Canada will be proud of the CHASE TRACTOR Institution

IN purchasing the interests of the Chase Motor Truck Company; in transferring the manufacturing headquarters to Toronto; in choosing Canada as the centre from which to conduct a world-wide business in tractors; this firm made tractor history.

Canada's future is closely linked to the tractor industry. Without tractors Canada's broad acres must stand untilled and unproductive.

It is fitting that Canada should have a tractor made to meet Canadian conditions.

And it is fitting that Canada, a leader among the farming countries of the world, should supply tractors to other countries.

There is a demand now among Canada's farmers for more tractors and better tractors. Not for cheaper tractors, but for tractors that are reliable, tractors that have power for every field job and every belt job on the farm.

Canadian farmers are not saying give us a tractor for less money. They know now they cannot afford to buy cheap tractors. They are turning to tractors like the Chase and paying more for them because that has proven to be the soundest economy.

The Chase Tractors project therefore must command interest.

That it will succeed is assured by the calibre of the men who have undertaken it, by their record as successful manufacturers, by their genius for industrial organization, and by the high ideals which have shaped the policies for this new enterprise.

Robert J. and William J. Cluff achieved a manufacturing miracle in producing over five million shells for the Allied powers. It is not too much to expect that they can produce tractors with the same degree of efficiency, adjust them as accurately, inspect them as rigidly.

These men are interested in only one grade of tractor, the very best that they can produce, the only kind they would want to use on their own farms.

They want the Chase to make money for the farmers who buy it. They insist that every part of every tractor must be right, that it must be properly adjusted, that it must be tested and inspected—and that after a farmer buys it, the factory must look after it for him.

In this project they give expression to their high ideals as manufacturers.

On this policy will be founded a big institution with a world-wide market.

In this industry Chase Tractors will be produced in sufficient quantities so that without cutting down quality, manufacturing costs will be reduced.

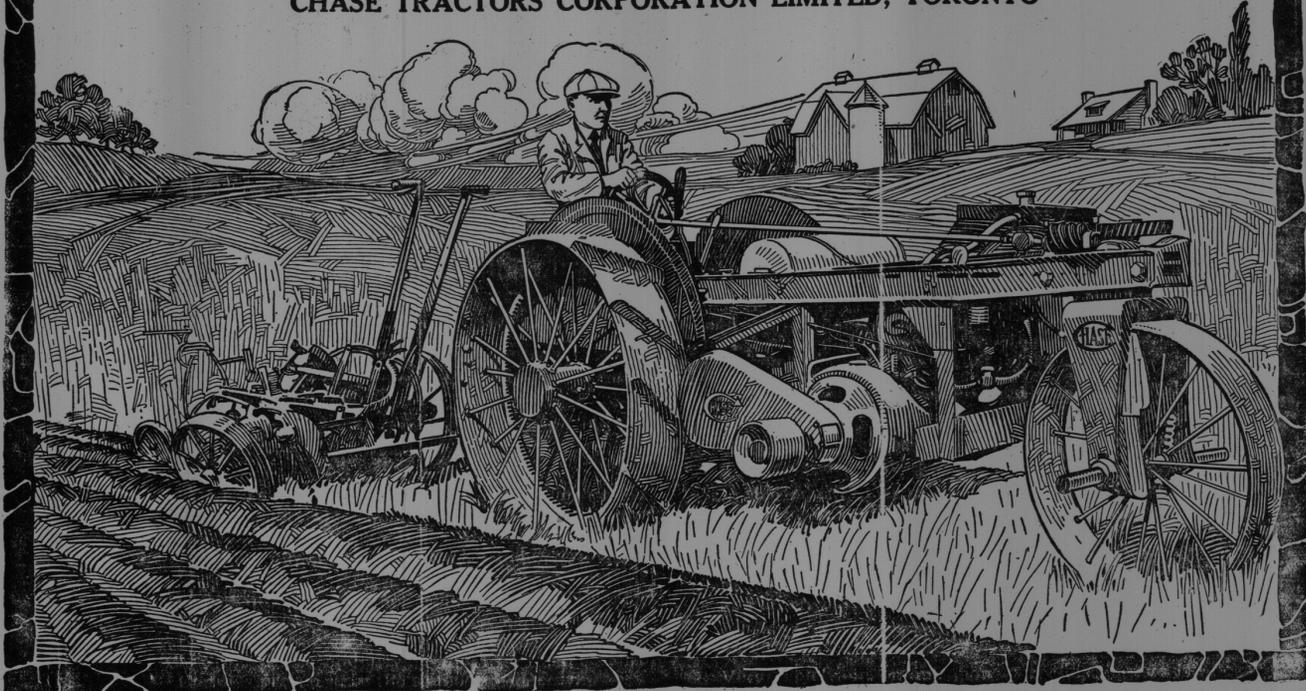

In this Chase Tractor the Canadian farmer finds dependable power that will make him a profit at home and bring Canada credit abroad.

Organization Opportunity for Local Dealers

Very rapidly an organization of big distributors is being formed to co-operate in carrying out the Chase policies. Reliable dealers will find an opportunity in every locality to create business and profit for themselves through a connection with the Chase Institution.

PRICE ADVANCES SINCE 1918

Two-thirds of Articles Listed Record Increases

New York, Nov. 25.—The first year following the armistice falls to show the reduction in prices which had been hoped for by many. In fact, prices have continued to advance, except in the few articles for which the war created a special demand, such as nitrates, high explosives, canned foods, copper, wool, barbed wire, firearms and certain grades of iron and steel.

A compilation by the National City Bank of New York shows that out of 150 articles enumerated in the government's price lists of imports and exports, 100 show advances, while, as above indicated, a large part of those showing a reduction is of the class for which the war created a special demand.

The price lists issued by the government in connection with its figures of imports and exports are especially informative by reason of the fact that they represent the average price of the entire quantity of the article named in the import or export figures covering the period in question, irrespective of the effect of local price variations. For example, the fact that the average import price of the 75,000,000 pounds of cattle hides imported in September, 1919, was 33 cents per pound, against 25.5 cents per pound in the month preceding the armistice, October, 1918, indicates that the average advance in the price of cattle hides the ports of hides come from a score of countries scattered over the entire world, the average import valuation named at the custom houses represents quite accurately the average wholesale price of the entire hide-producing world. The further fact that the average export price of men's shoes exported from the United States in September, 1919, was $4.40 per pair, against $3.22 per pair in October, 1918, renders it apparent that the average price at which the shoe manufacturers of the United States as a whole are exporting their product has advanced 36.6 per cent. in the period in question.

Paris, Nov. 25.—King Alfonso is likely to have created a new fashion during his stay in Paris, for at the dinner which he gave to President Poincare at the Spanish embassy, the king wore a violet evening dress coat. The king's taste is quite likely to be copied in Paris, for the frank enthusiasm he has shown for France, and particularly for the French army, during his

RHEUMATISM FOR OVER 16 YEARS

No Return Of The Trouble Since Taking "Fruit-a-tives"

103 Church St., Montreal. "I was a great sufferer from Rheumatism for over 16 years. I consulted specialists; took medicine; used lotions; but nothing did me good. Then I began to use "Fruit-a-tives," and in 15 days the pain was easier and the Rheumatism much better. Gradually, "Fruit-a-tives" overcame my Rheumatism; and now, for five years, I have had no return of the trouble. I cordially recommend this fruit medicine to all sufferers."

Shots at the King Pin

The Owls had their Royal Rooter from Black's working vigorously for them. In their second string the Birds of Wisdom introduced a new stunt—that of seeing how close to a century they could come without getting one. McDonald for the Owls rolled a nice consistent game, keeping in the nineties straight through. The Falcons gave the league leaders quite a scare in the first string. Tonight's game will probably decide the series when the Owls play the Swans, who are following them mightily close. A split would give the Owls the lead. Both teams will have their best men lined up with reserves on hand in case any of the players drop. The winning team should have to roll over this will be the last game of the series for both these teams.

Stecher Victor. Springfield, Mass., Nov. 24—Joe Stecher last night defeated John Grandovitch, styled the Serbian giant, in two straight falls in a wrestling match. The first fall came in forty-eight minutes and thirty seconds, with the scizors and arm lock, and the second in twenty-two minutes and thirty-two seconds with the same hold.

ATHLETIC

Will Have Marathons. New York, Nov. 24—The Marathon race will not be eliminated from the Belgian Olympic games, according to word received here tonight by the Amateur Athletic Association.

RING

Bout in Philadelphia. Philadelphia, Nov. 24—Joe Lynch of New York defeated Jack (Kid) Wolfe of Cleveland in a fast six round bout here tonight. Although the Cleveland boy forced the fighting in the early rounds Lynch had the advantage virtually all the way.

Referee Stopped It

Duluth, Minn., Nov. 24—A scheduled ten round no-decision bout here tonight between Sam Langford of Boston, negro heavyweight, and Jack Thompson of Philadelphia, negro, was stopped in the sixth round by the referee and declared "no fight." According to the referee neither man made an effort to box.

Stiff Bout in Montreal

Montreal, Nov. 24—Oscar Deschamps earned a victory over Young Baker of Syracuse in a ten round bout that developed into the feature of three scheduled fights at a Monument National last night. The other bouts came to an abrupt termination, the first in the fourth round when it was discovered that Mike Rogers of Syracuse, who was fighting Gerardi, a local boxer, had suffered a fractured jaw. The scheduled feature, a meeting between Kid Thomas and Clay, a colored fighter, was stopped in the seventh, when Clay said that he had broken his hand. It was so well faked that Clay fought throughout the seventh round with his right hand hanging by his side. After the bout had been stopped an examination was made by Dr. Stewart, who said that the colored fighter's hand had not been injured as he had said it was.

The meeting between Deschamps and Baker developed into one of the most vicious encounters witnessed in a local ring in a long time. Although Deschamps earned his victory, he was not deserving of any more credit than Baker. The Syracuse fighter was pounded into submission in the early stages of the bout, but refused to quit, and fought back at Deschamps, although tottering and staggering around the ring.

Jimmy Power Reviews Racing in The Provinces During Last Season; Many Records Established

The 31st annual review by the Acadian Recorder of the turf season in the Maritime Provinces shows that it surpassed all previous years, notwithstanding that Halifax, which formerly had a seven days' meeting, was unable to hold racing owing to the grounds still being occupied by victims of the great explosion of 1917, and which were erected at that time to accommodate many who had suffered by that terrible disaster, writes Jimmy Power, the veteran racing authority and sporting editor of the Halifax Recorder.

Seventy-three meetings with 252 races were held during the season, with 667 heats trotted or paced in 2.30 or better again 412 in 1918. For the first time in the history of the Maritime Province turf 2.10 was not only beaten, but seven times better were trotted or paced in 2.10 or better. Last year 29 heats were trotted or paced from 2.10 3/4 to 2.15; this year there were 80 heats from 2.08 3/4 to 2.15. Two hundred and seven heats were won from 2.15 to 2.30 and 373 from 2.30 to 2.50.

These facts well illustrated how Maritime Provinces compared in speed with any section of the United States and Canada with a similar population. Forty new performers entered the list and 19 already therein reduced their records.

The New Track Records. No fewer than 18 track records were reduced and the class of horses in the Maritime Provinces may be gauged by those which made these new marks. The new track records are as follows:

ATTACKS STATEMENT RE BRUSSELS STREET AND CITY ROAD WORK

Commissioner Jones Makes Statement in Answer to Mr. Wigmore—Work Still Being Done

With reference to statements made by R. W. Wigmore, M. P., at the Rotary Club last evening, Commissioner Jones, head of the water and sewerage department said this morning that so soon as the water and sewerage work which is now being done in Brussels street and City road is completed, the services will be in as good condition as in any street in the city. In City road the old 12-inch water pipe which was laid there sixty-two years ago has been replaced by a 16-inch main along its entire length and the work on the sewerage pipes is now being proceeded with. In Brussels street the old ten-inch main which has been in service for eighty-one years, has been replaced by a new 16-inch pipe.

With regard to sewerage, the wood sewer which extends along Brussels street from Exmouth to the Marsh bridge, has been reconstructed and recovered, while the terra cotta pipe which is in use in the upper end of the street was found to be in good condition and the whole sewerage system, both in this street and in City road, was considered safe for at least another generation.

It is suggested by a citizen this morning that last evening's speech was the zero hour which opened the barrage for the next civic campaign.

The Lamp Should Be Decorative as Well as Useful

While its function as a source of light is very essential, the almost unlimited possibilities of the lamp in the decorative scheme of home furnishing make its careful selection of first importance.

The lamp is the first thing you see when you enter the room. In daylight hours it provides the touch of color and variety of proportion which make for effective furnishing. Lighted, its soft glow dignifies and lends elegance to the surroundings. It should be chosen with thoughtful consideration for its effectiveness under both conditions.

This store has lamps of all types—Floor Lamps, Piano Lamps, Library Lamps, Reading Lamps, and wonderful shades of individual creation for each and every purpose.

When you contemplate the selection of a lamp to contribute to the beauty and comfort of your home, we sincerely believe you will find it to your best interest to come and see our comprehensive showing.
