German Cannonading Smashes Windows Only 17 Miles From Paris

Germans in V Shaped Mass Force Their Way Nearer To The Capital Allies Make Valiant Resistance Against Overwhelming Numbers

British Forces Still Intact and Inflict Immense Damage on the Germans—English Troops an Army of Athletes in Top Form

London, Sept. 4.—The correspondent of the Times at Dieppe, under Thursday's date, indicates that the Germans are less than twenty-five miles from Paris. He says: "All day yesterday the head of wedge, which now forms the German right, was furiously forcing its way to Paris, battering the rear of the retreating French through Creil, Senlis and Crepy-En-Valois. The cannonading broke windows in Chantilly, which is only seventeen miles north of Paris. The Germans are also near Soissons."

London, Sept. 4.—The correspondent of the Telegraph, writing from Forest-Les-Baux, twenty-five miles northeast of Rouen, under Wednesday's date, says: "The allies continue to show valiant resistance to the overwhelming forces of the enemy. The allies are compelled by their weight of numbers to continue to fall back. It is an orderly retreatment, but it is not a retreat. The German army has gradually narrowed its principal attacking point until it has become an arrow head or 'V' shaped mass pointed directly for Paris."

London, Sept. 4.—The Ostend correspondent of the Chronicle quotes one of the officials at the American consulate as the authority for the account he sends his papers of the escape of a party of British troops who were captured by the Germans. "Seventeen British troops were captured by the Germans near Waterloo, the story runs. The Germans marched them to the nearest cafe, where the prisoners were made to wait while the Germans partook of refreshments. The celebration over their capture became a debauch, and most of the Germans became intoxicated, whereupon the British fell on the Germans, took away their arms, killed several and then fled."

London, Sept. 4.—There is an unconfirmed report in Basel, Switzerland, from Bern, setting forth that General Lieutenant Von Deinling and the German forces under his command, have crossed into Switzerland, to prevent their capture by the French. London, Sept. 4.—In a despatch from Rouen, a correspondent of the Chronicle says he has learned that the French authorities in Paris are considering the surrender of the city to the Germans to avoid the destruction of property from artillery fire.

Empire Committed to Long War Is Belief in Minds of English Overseas Resources Promise a Decisive Factor for Victory Power of Britain and Russia Eventually Must Wear Out Strength of Germans Speculation as to Enemy's Designs Before Paris

London, Sept. 4.—The conviction is growing in England, that Great Britain is committed to a long war, the newspapers declare, that the power of the British Empire and of Russia eventually must wear down the numerical forces of the enemy and that the resources of Canada, Australia, and India, promise to prove a decisive factor in the long run. The casualty list of the British forces operating on the continent, issued last night, shows that the British losses in the second battle, were apparently the same as in the first making the total 10,000. From Switzerland comes a report that nearly 100,000 Austrians are being carried westward in trains to support the left wing of the German army operating against France.

ASQUITH CALLS ON BRITAIN'S MEN TO AID COUNTRY IN HOUR OF NEED

London, Sept. 4.—In the historic Guild Hall of London, Premier Asquith today started the crusade to stimulate enlistment under the British flag which he intends to push throughout the country. He is calling upon every able-bodied Briton of military age to come to the help of his country in the hour of need. The premier opened his address with the heartening announcement that up to today between 250,000 and 300,000 recruits had responded to the call of Lord Kitchener, the secretary of war.

SOME ST. JOHN VOLUNTEERS COMING HOME WAR POST CARD REACHES CITY

London, Sept. 4.—A despatch from the British War Office, dated September 2, says that twelve men from the St. John militia are expected to return home from the front. The men were selected for their excellent physical condition and their proficiency in marksmanship. The postcard, which was received from Miss Katherine Cathles, daughter of the late David Cathles of Hawick, and a sister of L. P. Cathles, formerly a clerk in the Bank of New Brunswick and now a divinity student at Wycliffe College, Miss Cathles was at home at the time of the outbreak of war and immediately volunteered for active service as a nurse. She was accepted and sent to the front. She has visited St. John several times and has many friends here who will be glad to know that it was one reassuring sentence which her card contained.

RUSSIANS OCCUPY LEMBERG; AUSTRIAN LOSSES ARE HEAVY Smashing Blow To Enemy By Czar's Forces

Austrians Retreating After Desperate Fighting in Galicia, Leaving Nearly 5,000 Dead on the Field—Many Guns Captured by the Russian Armies Who are Successful All Along The Line

London, Sept. 4.—A Petrograd special to Reuter's says the commander-in-chief has notified the Emperor that the Russians have occupied Lemberg. The message was as follows:—"With extreme joy and thanking God, I announce to Your Majesty that the victorious army, under General Rusky, captured Lemberg at eleven o'clock this morning. The Army of General Brusiloff has taken Halicz. I beg Your Majesty to confer on General Rusky, in recognition of services preceding the battles, the fourth class of the order of St. George and for the capture of Lemberg, the third class of the same order; and on General Brusiloff, the fourth class of the same order."

RUSSIANS TAKE 32 CANNON

Petrograd (St. Petersburg) Sept. 4 (via Paris).—An official statement issued by the government says concerning the operations of the Russian army in Galicia, official reports that the enemy is retreating after the desperate fighting near Halicz, leaving 4,500 dead on the field. The Russians took thirty-two cannon and railway material. On the south in front of Warsaw, the Austrian attack was repulsed and the offensive taken by the Russians. AUSTRIANS PANIC STRICKEN

London, Sept. 4.—A Russian official communication issued on Thursday and carried here in a despatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company from Petrograd (St. Petersburg), says:—"On September 1, the Austrian troops tried to break through the Russian centre between Lubin and Kholm, but failed. They were forced to beat a hasty retreat, the Russians capturing one ensign, eight maxims and 1,000 prisoners. On the following day, hard fighting was resumed, with renewed energy. Prisoners taken by us report that the second Austrian army, constituting the covering force to the east of Lemberg, is perfectly panic-stricken. In the neighborhood of Lemberg, on September 2, twenty more guns were captured by the Russians, making a total of 170. On this front the Russian advance continues uninterrupted. A Reuter despatch from Petrograd contains an official communication, issued by the Russian government. It says:—"According to latest reports, the battles of September 2 resulted in Russian victories. In order to counteract Austrian intentions, a vigorous attempt was made which resulted successfully, the enemy retreating precipitately. Our trophies are a flag, mitrailleuses and many prisoners."

Milan, Italy, Sept. 4.—The Secolo's Bucharest, Roumania, correspondent, usually well informed, says the Russians have occupied Csanowitz, an eastern crown land of Austria-Hungary, without resistance and are now marching southward from that city in the direction of Szucsava in the same province and near the Roumanian border. Stranded Ones Get Home. London, Sept. 4.—A Reuter despatch from Amsterdam says the Great Eastern steamer Dresden was preparing to leave the Hook of Holland on Friday morning, with a large number of stranded Englishmen. Only British subjects having certificates proving their nationality were allowed on board. A royal decree in Amsterdam forbids the exportation of rice flour, which is being used in Holland as a substitute for wheat flour. The prohibitive prices asked for foreign wheat is the cause. A Jewish Hero. London, Sept. 4.—A Petrograd despatch to the Central News says that a Jewish medical student of Vilna, named Omas, received the military cross of St. George for saving the colors of his regiment in the last extremity during the terrible fighting in East Prussia. Omas was badly wounded and his commander telegraphed the doctors to do everything possible to save the life of "Omas, the hero."

FORMAL OPENING OF EXHIBITION

Plans For Tomorrow Evening—A Glance at the Various Departments

The St. John exhibition of 1914 will open on Saturday evening with formal exercises in the large amusement hall. All the preparations for the big entries well advanced and those who visit the grounds tomorrow evening will find the exhibition in nearly complete shape.

In the main building the exhibits are unusually attractive. Many of the permanent structures have been allowed to remain and others of pleasing design have been added. Among the new entries is that of the Corona Company, Ltd., local candy manufacturers, and there are several new exhibitors from other provinces, the new booths numbering twenty-five or thirty.

The management has made an effort to provide more extensive decorations and better illuminating effects than ever before and the scene, especially at night time, will present a most attractive picture.

W. L. R., who has just returned from the Toronto exhibition, has complimented the management on their success and says in respect to quality, the display will compare favorably with the big fair of the Queen City.

There will be an unusually good display of live stock. J. F. Frost, of Hampton, superintendent of this department, reported this morning and again took charge of the live stock end of the exhibition.

W. D. Golding also arrived this morning to assume charge of the poultry department for which the number of entries has been largely in excess of expectations.

Under the management of L. C. Daigle of the provincial agricultural department it is expected that the dairy department will repeat the success of other years. The butter and cheese entries are exceptionally heavy and include one from Alberta.

The dog show promises to be an exceptionally good one. There will be an elaborate display of fireworks on every fine night next week and Richard Burden, representing the P. W. Hunt Company, who is superintending the fireworks, has made it his business to prepare for the magnificent programmes.

In the women's department a large committee has been at work on the exhibits which are more numerous and of a higher quality than ever before. In synthetic part of the building, which is expected to attract most interest.

The art department also promises to be of exceptional interest and the many works of art which have been sent in are being hung to the best advantage. On the same floor will be found the extensive educational exhibit in charge of William McLaughlin, which will well repay close study.

The midway will be conducted on a new basis this year and will be of a higher type although fully as amusing and interesting as ever. Henry Bentum, representing Henry Meyerhoff, who is superintending the attractions, arrived in the city this morning and is preparing amusement features of many different kinds.

At the formal opening tomorrow evening addresses will be given by Lieutenant Governor Wood, Acting Premier Hon. George Clarke, Hon. J. A. Wilson and Mayor Frank.

The Best Quality at a Reasonable Price

A Square Deal For Your Eyes

You use your eyes constantly all the time you are awake. You use your teeth probably two hours out of the 24.

But you care for your teeth twice daily and have an expert examine them at least once a year, and neglect your hard working eyes. Not until you are forced to do you give your eyes any attention.

Now that isn't a square deal. It is not ordinary common sense. You ought to have the expert watch your eyes as well as your teeth. You ought to give them the attention he tells you to give.

Thoughts About Pleasure Pleasure used in rightful moderation is a tonic, cheering us up so that we may face our daily trials with fresh strength. But excessive devotion to pleasure is a deadly, clogging weed, which robs us of our best qualities and makes us useless weeds ourselves. Pleasure at another's pain is a mighty accurate kind of boomerang. It is going to come back and hit—hard. The only kind of pleasure of which one can never tire is that of giving to others. The old maxim about "Business first" is not dead yet, by a long chalk. No decent man or woman can have a thorough enjoyment of pleasure while many tasks are shouting to be done. Half the misery of the foolish comes from confusing happiness with that very shoddy imitation, gaiety. 'Tis a false religion that condemns all pleasure. The abuse, and not the use of it, is wrong.—Scottish-American.

At the Picnic

An eight-year-old boy went to a church picnic and, being a favorite with the ladies, had been liberally supplied with the good things to eat. Later in the day one of the ladies noticed the boy sitting near a stream with a woe-begone expression on his face and his hands clasped over his stomach. "Why, what's the matter, Willie?" she very kindly asked. "Haven't you had enough to eat?" "Oh, yes'm," said the boy. "I've had enough. But I feel as though I don't want all I've got."

Loyalty of India To Great Britain

Referring to the loyalty of India to Great Britain, the Marquis of Crewe said: "It has been deeply impressed on the government that the wonderful wave of enthusiasm and loyalty at the present time passing over India is largely due to the desire of the Indian people that Indian soldiers should stand side by side with their comrades in the British army."

"India is aware of the employment of African troops to assist the French army, and it would have been a disappointment if they had not been debarred from taking part in the war in Europe. "Our army will thus be reinforced by soldiers—high-souled men—of first-class training, and I am certain that they will give the best possible account of themselves. I venture to think that this keen desire of our Indian fellow-subjects to co-operate with us is not less gratifying than the same desire shown in the self-governing dominions, some of whose soldiers in due course will no doubt also be found fighting side by side with British troops and Indian troops in the war. Of course, we all know that India does not possess an inexhaustible reservoir of troops, and the defence of India must in itself be a primary consideration not only to India itself but to Great Britain also. It is to be stated that so far as external aggression is concerned—which I hope and believe there is no prospect, and I should like to say there is scarcely a possibility—in spite of the heavy drafts on the Indian army, the Indian frontiers will be fully and adequately secured. As regards the risk of internal troubles, I believe that the enthusiasm which pervades all classes and races in India will render anything of that sort altogether impossible.

"That enthusiasm has found vent in many different ways—in some cases by gifts of great liberality for benevolent work to the troops in the field. I was told only yesterday by the Viceroy of India that some of the principal Indian princes expressed an offer of 60 lakhs (about $2,000,000) for the use of the troops in the field, and there has been on varying scales a number of offers of the kind. "I feel confident therefore that the action we take will meet with a most enthusiastic reception in India and I believe it will be approved by Your Lordships, the House of Commons and by public opinion here generally."

TO Meet Sugar Situation.
Edmonton, Alta., Sept. 4—Sharp advances in sugar prices in the United States and Canada, resultant from the European war, have prompted a syndicate of American and Canadian investors to investigate certain districts in central Alberta, with a view to planting a large acreage of sugar beets.

Gas for Calgary.
Calgary, Alberta, Sept. 4—A determined effort is being made to have the city of Calgary embark in the gas business as a municipal undertaking. Natural gas is being tapped in the wells now drilling for oil adjacent to Calgary. The proposition is merely a matter of distribution to the consumers, the cost of piping the gas to the city limits being only nominal. It appears likely that the city will soon add this to its other successfully operated public utilities.

TRADES CONGRESS.
The trades and labor council met last evening, and proceeded with arrangements for the convention of the trades and labor congress which will meet here this month. Owing to the war and disturbed industrial conditions it was said the attendance is not likely to be so large as expected, but that there would be several hundred delegates.

There are 40 daily publications in London, 188 dailies in the rest of the kingdom, while British weekly and monthly publications total 2,548 and 1,482 respectively. England, including London, has 188 daily papers and 1,385 weekly.

THE WAR NEWS.

The last twenty-four hours do not appear to have brought about any important change in the situation in France. The seat of government has been removed from Paris to Bordeaux, and Paris itself continues to make preparation for a siege.

the gallant Belgians, who had done nothing to warrant an attack upon them, but whose fields have been laid waste, their cities desolated, and their people driven in scores of thousands to the mad ambition of the German war-lord.

BRITISH HEROES.

The splendid heroism of the British soldiers in the war now raging in Europe will long be the theme of song and story. That they are fighting in a righteous cause makes their splendid example and their noble sacrifice the more inspiring.

THE DUGAL CHARGES

Some persons, and happily they are very few, appear to think that because Canada is in a state of war the matter of the Dugal charges in this province should not be further considered.

The government of New Brunswick has offered the Mother Country 100,000 bushels of potatoes and the gift has been accepted. The action of the provincial government will be heartily endorsed by every citizen.

THE AWFUL PRICE.

Europe is paying a dreadful price for the armed peace of recent years, but the heaviest price is being paid by Germany, the country responsible for the mad race of armament which had already placed an almost unbearable burden upon the people of all countries.

MAKE ARRANGEMENTS FOR AMATEUR PLAY

At the annual meeting of the St. John High School Alumnae Association held Tuesday evening in the High School building, there was a good number present, and the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Honorary president, Mrs. Harold Lawrence; president, Miss Jessie Lawson; 1st vice-president, Miss Alice Walker; 2nd vice-president, Miss Hazel Smith; secretary, Miss Louise St. Germain; treasurer, Gordon Lingley; additional members of the executive, Miss Alice Magee, Miss Barbara Dobson, Miss Marian Cruikshank, and W. J. Simonds.

Arrangements were made in connection with the amateur play being put on by the High School Alumnae under the direction of Irving Beers, on Sept. 24 and 25 in aid of the patriotic fund. Arrangements were also made for the umnase Association to serve afternoon tea in the Woman's Council booth at the exhibition on Wednesday afternoon, Sept. 9. It was decided that the new High School history would be placed on sale in one of the up-town book stores. Arrangements for the programme of a reading club was left in the hands of the executive to be announced later the month.

Paul A. Keith, of Boston, and Edward F. Albee, of New York, have decided the Imperial Theatre at the disposal of the Daughters of the Empire any night they may select for a patriotic concert in aid of the Soldiers' Families' Patriotic Fund. W. W. Ambourne, a prominent member of the Boston Opera Company's orchestra, and Stanley Lawton, late of Sousa's Band, now with the Imperial music department, have volunteered assistance for the arrangement of the concert. The affair is proposed on a large scale and should prove a great success.

The Gurney-Oxford is a Remarkable Stove

BUYING a stove is not something to be decided off-hand.

Cheapness is not the consideration. Quality is. If a stove is extravagant in fuel it should not have a place in your house.

The Gurney-Oxford is a truly remarkable stove.

The Economizer, fitted to the stovepipe, gives you complete control of the fire always. One turn of the handle dampens the fire down to a spark that consumes practically no coal at night and between meals.

The fire is supported on grates that present a large surface to the air. This means perfect combustion and economy.

The heat from the fire box goes through a series of divided flues, over and around the oven, and not up the chimney.

Will you come in and allow us to show you the many good points of the Gurney-Oxford Stove?

inches below normal—there is a belt of plain kid or patent leather. Serge at $1.60 a yard shows up well from the standpoint of appearance. It is 44 inches wide, 1 1/2 yards will be needed for the coat.

Begin by carefully and smoothly folding the cloth on the cutting table. Arrange the back (C) and belt (1) on a lengthwise fold of the goods, but place the remaining parts of the pattern on a lengthwise thread.

Now, carefully matching notches, sew the sleeve to front and back; then close under-arm and sleeve seams. Adjust underfacing to position underneath front, edges even. Gather lower edge of front and back between double "T" perforations. Close back seam of collar and cover with seamless bias material. Sew to neck edge. Close cuff seam as notched and sew to sleeve.

For a guide large "O" perforations are made to indicate center-fronts of skirt sections. Close center-back seam. Arrange together (skirt) skirt on top, centers and upper edges even; sew to front and back, centers even, small "o" perforations at under-arm seam. If desired, upper skirt section may be omitted. Adjust belt as illustrated, centers even; large "O" perforation in belt indicates center-front. The buttons used to trim the coat will last longer if they are made of the same material.

SUSPEND LIQUOR LICENSES WHILE EUROPEAN WAR LASTS

That is Prayer of Petitions Sent to Government Head in Alberta

Edmonton, Alta., Sept 4.—Mrs. Arthur Murphy, president of the Canadian Women's Press Club, and head of the Women's Press Club of Edmonton, and Rev. W. F. Gould, secretary of the Moral Reform and Temperance League of Alberta, have forwarded petitions to Premier Arthur L. Sifton, and Attorney General Charles W. Cross, urging the suspension of all liquor licenses in Alberta until next May, or such times as peace is declared by the nations at war in Europe.

They recite that Alberta's expenditure for liquor runs into hundreds of thousands of dollars, annually and that if the province were placed upon a "dry" basis, an enormous amount of money would be available for the maintenance of households, the heads of which have been sent to the front, and to the general strengthening of the financial situation of Alberta.

Edmonton, Alta., Sept. 4.—Trappers returning from the north country brought ninety-seven black and silver foxes to Edmonton during a recent week. Woman's Hair Reaches to Knees

Year Ago Was Threatened With Baldness. Tells How She Made Her Hair Grow.

Mrs. Esther Emery, now visiting friends in the city, is the fortunate possessor of marvellously beautiful hair, which, when loosened from its coils, falls to her knees. Moreover it is of soft, silky and fluffy texture and in color of glorious glossy gold. Yet just one year ago she was threatened with baldness. Urged to tell how she had obtained this wonderful growth in so short a time, she said "Had anyone told me such marvellous results could be accomplished so quickly, I positively would not have believed it. Twelve months ago my hair, which then reached barely to my shoulders, was falling out at an alarming rate and growing very thin, actually exposing the bald scalp in several spots. It was dull and lifeless in color, turning grey in patches, and very dry and brittle. My head was covered with dandruff and itched like mad all the time. I tried fully a dozen different hair tonics, but they were all the same and never did me a bit of good. One day I chanced to read in my home paper a simple home prescription to make my hair grow that was recommended by a well known physician. It said that by using ordinary Lavona de Composee mixed with Bay Rum and Menthol crystals and applying to the scalp each night with the finger tips that new hair would grow very rapidly. I decided to try it and I had my druggist mix 2 oz. of the Lavona de Composee with six oz. of Bay Rum and 1-2 drachm of Menthol crystals, and started to use it. My hair, which had stopped falling, the itching ceased and the dandruff disappeared. Then my little hairs appeared all over my scalp. These grew and grew as though nothing would ever stop them. They were growing yet, and while, of course, I have used the treatment steadily and expect to continue it, at least until my hair reaches the floor, I might have stopped and been perfectly satisfied at the end of three months. I think that any woman can get long, thick, beautiful hair by using this prescription as I was recommended to do several friends and all are delighted with the result. The prescription is very inexpensive and any druggist can fill it."

SAYS EMINENT SPECIALIST
 So-called stomach troubles, such as indigestion, wind, stomach-ache, and inability to retain food, are in probably 90 per cent of ten simply evidence of fermentation is taking place in the contents of the stomach causing formation of gas and acids. Wind is the result, and causes that oppressive feeling sometimes known as heartburn, while the acid irritates and damages the delicate lining of the stomach. The trouble lies entirely in the fermenting food. Such fermentation is unnatural, but may involve most serious consequences if not corrected. To stop prevent fermentation of the food contents of the stomach and to neutralize acid, and render it bland and harmless, a teaspoonful of bisulphated magnesia, probably the best and most effective corrector of acid stomach known, should be taken in a quarter of a glass of cold water immediately after eating, or whenever wind or acidity is felt. This stops the fermentation, and neutralizes the acidity in a few moments. Indigestion, wind and acidity are dangerous and unnecessary. Stop or prevent them by the use of a proper anti-acid, such as bisulphated magnesia, which can be obtained from any druggist and enables the stomach to do its work properly without being hindered by noxious gas and dangerous acids.—F. P.

SO GOOD OF VON BERNSTORFF NOT TO PROTEST AGAINST BRITISH PURCHASES IN U. S.

Washington, Sept. 8.—Count Von Bernstorff, the German ambassador, said while at the state department today he would make no protest against the purchase by Great Britain of munitions of war from American firms.

The practice of nations in the observance of neutrality is not to restrict the traffic in contraband, the privilege to prevent such commerce on the high seas resting with the belligerents in their right of search and capture.

Morning War Notes

King William of Albania has deserted his kingdom and gone to Italy. His brief reign was too exciting for him, as his rough mountainous subjects continually plotted his downfall.

Recruiting continues steadily in England, and in the last three days it is said that 30,000 men have joined the colors.

The total casualties of the British to date amount to 10,858, the killed numbering 248, wounded 1,076, and missing 9,086.

Dominion Revenues

EXTRA GOOD YEAR FOR ALBERTA FARMERS

Calgary, Alberta, Sept. 4.—Owing to the greatly improved weather conditions, the grain and other field crops of central Alberta will be decidedly better than was thought possible a month ago.
The price of all grain is about twenty-five per cent higher than for years.
Every indication points to the most profitable year the farmers of this part of the country ever had. For the first time wheat in Alberta has passed the dollar mark.

BEANS FIRM

A firm feeling prevails in the market
for beans owing to the limited supplies available on spot, for which there is a good demand. According to recent advices from the west the prospects are favorable for a good crop, as the acreage sown was 51,140 acres, which promises to yield 17.2 bushels to the acre, or a total of 879,625 bushels, which is however, smaller than last year's crop.

Promise of Peace In Mexico

(Bradstreet's)
While the clash of arms has been resounding on many battlefields in Europe,
a promise of peace has been settling down upon long distracted Mexico. It was at one time thought that the transfer of power from Carranza to Carranza would have to be brought about by force, in view of the difficulties which arose between the former and the Constitutionalist leader, but the situation was relieved by the retirement of Car-rujal from the provisional presidency and his departure from the Mexican capital, the latter event occurring on August 12. On Thursday, Aug. 20, General Carranza made a peaceable, triumphal entry into Mexico City, and on the same day Carranza left Vera Cruz for Galveston. Carranza declared in a public address on the occasion of his entry that though the successful revolution which he had headed did not proclaim a policy of pardon, it harbored no rancor, and all it did would be based on justice. In addition, he promised the people a real constitutional government. On August 21 the new chief of the state issued a circular declaring that he had assumed executive control under the plan of Gaudelupe of March 27, 1913. One of his first acts was the publication of an order restoring stamp duties to the rates
at which they had stood prior to the Huerta regime. The situation has been decidedly improved by the re-opening of several important banks in Mexico City

following the announcement by the government of its willingness to receive the currency issued by Huerta for all payments due to the treasury.
Mexico, it is true, is not entirely free from disturbance at present, but the Constitutionalists, are gradually crushing out such disaffection as exists, or removing it by means of negotiation. According to late advices, the day that witnessed Carranza's entry into Mexico City saw the defeat of General Orozco by Colonel Salinas. Within the week it has been learned that Zapata, long the leading revolutionist in the south of Mexico,
is willing to lay down his arms providing certain agrarian measures are carried out. There has been some uneasiness in regard to the attitude of Villa,
the most efficient fighting chief of the Constitutionalists, toward Carranza. He is quoted as saying that he has no personal feeling for or against the latter,
but that he is determined to do what he can to prevent Mexico from suffering under a military regime again. He is thought by some to be aiming at the presidency himself, but others say that he is in favor of the election of a civilian. His services to the Constitutionalist cause render him a man to be reckoned with.

UNEMPLOYED PUT TO WORK GETTING GOLD OUT OF THE SASKATCHEWAN RIVER

Edmonton, Alta., Sept. 4.—Scores of men, working with "grizzlies" and pans,
are scattered along the banks of the Saskatchewan River, which bisects Edmonton, washing gold from the gravel and sand on the bars. The daily clean-up ranges from $2 to $4 a man. Experienced miners are directing the work, which is designed to solve the unemployed problem during the next three months.
"The plan, which was suggested by Dr. W. D. Ferris, will give employment to several thousand men within the city limits and as many more up and down the river," said M. S. Booth, commissioner of safety and health. "It has been taken up by some of the old-timers, who washed out from $40,000 to $50,000 in gold each season in the early nineties, when Edmonton was a village, and they are giving their services in teaching the men to work the 'grizzlies.' Placer miners say that the newest tenderfoot should make from $1.75 to $2.50 a day."
A gravel company, which has been operating in the Saskatchewan river since territorial days, using a steam dredge to take the gravel from the beds and bars, takes out thousands of dollars in four gold each season. The fine particles of the precious metal are caught in wooden blankets after passing into the riffles.

"There is gold in the river for anyone who isn't afraid of a little hard work," said L. W. Huff, who has been engaged

POPE GIVES HIS FIRST BLESSING

Multitude Gathered to See The New Pontiff

SCENES FOLLOWING ELECTION

Cardinals Pay Homage to New Head of Church—American Cardinals Reach Rome Just Too Late For the Conclave

Rome, Sept. 4.—On the election of Cardinal Della Chiesa as Pope, Mgr. Bogliani, secretary of the conclave, with the master of ceremonies, the dean of the cardinals and other high church dignitaries, bowed before the chair where Cardinal Della Chiesa was seated. He asked the cardinal would accept the pontificate and, upon an affirmative reply all the canopies above the cardinal's thrones were lowered, excepting that of Cardinal Della Chiesa. In answer to the question of the dean of the cardinals, the new Pope said he desired to take the name of Benedict XV. Mgr. Bogliani, assisted by the other officials, recorded the act of election, and the members of the conclave then entered the Sistine chapel with the Pope. The Pontiff was clothed in a flowing white robe, red sashes, and high stock, with a broad red cravat. Cardinal Della Chiesa placed over his shoulders a red stole, embroidered with gold. The Pope then mounted the throne to receive the homage of the cardinals. The cardinals first kissed the feet and then the hands of the Pontiff who administered the accolade and pronounced the benediction. Cardinal Della Chiesa placed upon the Pontiff's finger the fisherman's ring, which the Pope returned to Mgr. Damico, to have engraved with his name. The Pontiff then proceeded from the Sistine chapel to the Basilica of St. Peter's where he gave benediction. He returned to the Sistine chapel, where the second act of homage by the cardinals was accorded him. When the Pope was asked to present himself before the people for the first benediction he turned to Cardinal Ruffini, Del Val, Papal secretary of state, and said: "I hope I shall have strength to overcome my emotion." Crowds outside clamored to see the new Pontiff, and several of the cardinals, including Cardinals Gibbons, Parley and O'Connell tried to calm the assembly to obtain silence. The excitement reached a climax when the Pope himself emerged. He was alone, and a hush fell over the multitude. All knelt, and the Pontiff raised his hand, with three fingers outstretched, and impeded, with melodious voice, the apostolic blessing. A great cheer rang out as he turned to withdraw. Even in the conclave the election of the new Pope caused much excitement. The cardinals surrounded him and addressed to him their greetings, and congratulations in Latin. All wished to be the first to kiss his hand. Cardinals Gibbons and O'Connell, who reached Rome just a little before noon yesterday, expressed their gratification at being first to kiss his hand. SUFFRAGETTE LEADER HAS TAKEN UP A BETTER WORK

London, Sept. 4.—Christabel Pankhurst, a militant suffragette, who, in other days, gave the authorities plenty of trouble, and who has been in exile in France for about two years, has returned home to carry on a patriotic propaganda.

GILBERT S. WALL OF ST. STEPHEN DEAD

St. Stephen, N. B., Sept. 4.—Gilbert S. Wall passed away suddenly at his home this morning at the age of eighty years. He was about town yesterday, and last week had returned from a pleasant visit with friends in Westmorland county. Mr. Wall was for many years a prominent business man of this town, having been engaged in the boot and stationery business, but retired from business a few years ago. He was a member of the Methodist church, and a member of its trustee and quarterly office boards. He leaves two sons, Harry L. and John N. Wall, conducting business in this town, and one daughter, Mrs. H. H. Johnson of New Glasgow, N. S. The funeral will take place from his late residence on Sunday afternoon.

SPENDING MONTH HERE

Dr. and Mrs. E. Morrison, of Newton, N. J., accompanied by their daughter, Mrs. R. Hall and their son, Frederick, are spending the month of September at the Hill Hurst Hotel, Fair Vale. Doctor Morrison is a native of West St. John, but has been a prominent physician in Newton for many years.

Today's despatches tell us that the conviction is growing in England that this will be a long war, and that the assistance of Canada, Australia and other overseas states of the Empire will be one of the decisive factors in the struggle. There can be no doubt whatever that the overseas states will cheerfully by their full duty, at whatever sacrifice, to achieve the final success.

CAPTAIN JOHN SIMPSON DEAD

Veteran Pilot of Eastern Steamship Corporation Passes Away in St. Andrews

Death this morning removed one of the oldest and best known men in the Eastern Steamship Corporation's international service, in the person of Captain John Simpson who for the last twenty-seven years had ably filled the position of pilot on the company's steamers between Boston and St. John. Captain Simpson passed away early this morning at his home in St. Andrews. He was born in Eastport about sixty-eight years ago and since a young man had been connected with coastwise shipping. At an early age he started on his career in a sailing vessel and while he was yet in his twenties was master of schooners, sailing out of Eastport. Later he was in command of the coasting steamers Secret and Hunter, plying between Boston, Yarmouth and St. John. Captain Simpson went into the service of the International Steamship Co., later the Eastern Steamship Co., and he had been actively engaged in the service up to five weeks ago when he took suddenly ill soon after he was relieving Captain Allan in command of the Governor Cobb. Captain Simpson is survived by his wife, who was formerly Miss Sarah Ross, of St. Andrews, and one son, Aaron Simpson, of St. Andrews, and one daughter, Mrs. Joseph Kilpatrick, of St. Andrews, three grandsons and one grand-daughter, all now living in St. Andrews this morning. Captain Simpson was a man of sterling character, genial and whole-souled. On all hands he had many friends who will be grieved to learn of his death. Captain Allan's Tribute

Captain William A. Allan, commander of the steamer Governor Cobb, this morning ordered the flag on his steamer, at St. Andrews, to be flown at half-mast. Speaking with a Times reporter this morning, Captain Allan said, "It was with great regret that I learned this morning of the death of Captain Simpson. He and I have been together for the last fourteen or fifteen years on the steamer Cumberland, State of Maine, St. Croix, Governor Cobb and Calvin Austin. He was a fine man and a mighty good shipmate, was well liked by the traveling public, and a most entertaining man to talk with. He has piloted all the company's boats on the St. John run and has been with me on the Governor Cobb almost every trip from the time he was built up to the time he became ill."

GOOD WORK BEING DONE AT RIVER GLADE

Now Twenty Patients at the Jordan Memorial Sanitarium—One of the Difficulties

An encouraging report of the progress of his patients is given by Dr. David Townsend, superintendent of the Jordan Memorial Sanitarium, who was in the city this morning. "The number of patients undergoing treatment and all are making satisfactory progress. Our work is not as effective as it should be, because of the difficulty in securing patients in the earliest stages of the disease," said the doctor. "The results so far are eminently satisfactory and we are confident that we could report quicker cures if we could get the people when the disease makes itself felt. "One of the encouraging features of the work is the fact that when a patient returns to his or her home we usually get more patients from that district. They must spread a good impression of the institution. "As Mrs. Jordan is still ill, seriously ill, at her home in California, there has been no further discussion of plans for the formal opening of the sanitarium."

CASE DISMISSED

Carlton Matter of the Iceman and the Street Railway

William Harding, teamster for the Union Ice Company, charged with allowing his team to stand across the street car track in Union street, West St. John, and holding up the car for more than twenty minutes, pleaded not guilty in the police court this morning. It was contended that the place where the car was held up was not in Union street, but that it was the private property of Ex-Alderman William E. Scully and had been conveyed to him a few years ago by the city after the car tracks had been laid. Cross-examined by Mr. Harding, Policeman Watson, who made the report, said the place where the car was held up was in what was known as Union street. He said the car was held up for more than five minutes when he told Harding he would have to let the car pass and that the defendant replied that he had no business on the car. The witness said the car then went back to the ferry boats by the way it came. Mr. Harding asked the witness several questions as to how old he was and why he spent so much of his time riding round Carlton in the street car. He explained to the court that he was trying to show that the policeman was incompetent. Finally the witness asked the defendant if he thought he were conducting a police investigation. Harding replied "since you tried to get after me, I am trying to get back at you." Commissioner McLellan was present during the hearing. Edward J. Scully swore that the property had been bought by W. E. Scully. F. R. Taylor said the claim had never been recognized by the railway, as the city had allowed the track on the property before they sold it. Mr. Scully said the reason for the delay was that the wagon, which was being loaded with ice, sank into the soft mud. The magistrate took occasion to comment on street railway traffic in the city. He referred to the politeness of the conductors and their thoughtfulness in helping ladies and children on and off the cars, but said that teams driving in front of street cars often unnecessarily delayed the cars by not driving to one side to let the cars pass as readily as they might and in this way were delaying other citizens needlessly. The excuse of Mr. Scully was accepted and the case was dismissed.

LANCASTER PLANS FOR SOLDIER FUND

Ladies Take up Work of Making Useful Articles For Volunteers—Public Meeting Next Week

The spirit which prompted twenty-one young men from Lancaster to offer themselves for the front has evidently spread to those at home with equal force, judging by the initial steps taken last evening to boost the patriotic fund and also assist toward the comfort of the soldier boys on duty. Under the auspices of the W. C. T. U. a meeting was held at the home of Mrs. J. W. Stevens, Prospect street, to consider ways and means for the making of useful articles for the benefit of the volunteers at the front. It was decided to learn just along what lines the ladies of St. John were working and then the Lancaster ladies will procure material and start knitting socks as a beginner. Many unable to attend last evening are known to be in hearty sympathy with the movement and in order to secure their co-operation a canvass will be made for contributions of yarn and the assistance of willing helpers as well. The ladies are enthused over the prospect of doing something helpful and no doubt a large number will assist. The three councillors who have charge of the clothing campaign for the fund are also on the work. The temperance lodge last night donated the use of their hall for next Tuesday night and it has been suggested that each of the three councillors select a certain district to collect from and for which he will be responsible with local assistance. It has been generally to half a dozen districts, there will be quite a demonstration. Speeches will be made at the meeting next week and judging by the earlier indications, there will be quite a demonstration. On next Sunday at least one church will take collections at the morning and evening services to help swell the patriotic fund. The parish is quite alive from one end to the other to do all possible for the good cause.

A SILLY RUMOR

A correspondent says it is rumored in the United States that any Canadians living there and coming to Canada to spend their vacation will not be allowed to leave Canada again until after the war, and that this is actually stopping some people from coming. It is needless to say that such a statement is utterly ridiculous. People are as free to come and go in and out of Canada as before the war started, the only exception being Germans and Austrian reservists who want to go home and fight against Britain and Canada.

Advertising is a Business Tonic

Man or woman in splendid physical condition needs no tonic. But every man and woman who has the best physique reaches a point where it needs toning up. And so it is with business. No matter how strong the foundation, there are times—due to local, national, atmospheric, or other conditions—when it must stimulate trade. Advertising is to lagging business what a tonic is to a rundown body. It gives new life, new vigor, new opportunities, a new outlook! It is as necessary to invigorate your store and your stock with front of advertising as it is necessary for us to renew our failing strength with herbs and tea. Advertising is the impetus that sets the business whirl of activity in motion!
