SAM BARTER AT THE FRONT

Is with the Fighting 26th; Met and Bunked with Roy Stevens

Dear Observer: I am in Sunny France just a month yesterday and I find it rains, snows, freezes and also has sunshine the same as good old New Brunswick.

Pussy Willows began to sprout before February was gone but last night ground froze quite solid. We see Germans shelling our aeroplanes almost every day, also our boys shelling theirs. The British aeroplanes fly much lower than the Germans do, for gunners seem to be very superior to those. I was under actual shell fire Sunday but one gets used to even that.

I find more home news in your paper than in any New Brunswick paper I can get and I give it a much warmer welcome than any other paper that comes to me. My wife sends me each copy. But I have had no copy since one published in February. I know they are coming some where on the road if they were not in the "Laconia" which went down under the devilish Hun warfare.

I see Roy Stevens here quite often; he is doing well and looks fine. He and I were bed fellows for a time.

Please drop me a line at 26th Canadians, 2nd Int. Batt., London, Eng., Army, P. O. France. I hope all goes well. I note Mr. C— has gone and you stayed. Well done! Do you know I have no word of how New Brunswick election went, but hope we have a new government.

Yours as ever,
S. G. Barter.

[Roy Stevens has been in the trenches for more than a year and a half and has never been wounded. He is a son of Charles Stevens of Hartland and is one of the handful of boys left of the thousand who made up the original Fighting 26th.]

Birnie—Chapman

On Wednesday evening, April 18, a quiet wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Chapman of Florenceville, when their only daughter, Jennie McKenzie, became the bride of John Bowman Birnie of Baker Brook, N. B. The ceremony was performed by Rev. M. H. Manuel in the presence of a few of the bride's nearest relatives and friends. Mr. Birnie is a native of Aberdeen, Scotland, and the bride is a popular school-teacher. They will reside at Baker Brook where the groom is employed by the Fraser Lumber Company.

TWO FIRES CAUSE HEAVY LOSSES

On Saturday afternoon fire destroyed a barn owned by D. E. Morgan and situated on his "back place," a block of land that was formerly the rear of the Moses and Charles Hallett farms. The barn was full of prime hay, and a recently built shed attached contained $700 worth of farm implements bought last year. The destruction to all was entire and there was no insurance. Mr. Morgan places his loss at more than $2000.

On Tuesday, just after the noon hour, an alarm was rung for a blaze in J. W. Montgomery's building in Main street occupied by himself as a hardware store and, upstairs, by Cyr Violette as a dwelling. The fire had gained much headway in the attic and was first noticed coming through the roof by A. G. Baker from his home across the river.

After a few minutes hard work and with the aid of two powerful streams of water, the blaze was under control, but not before the roof and upper portion of the building was badly damaged. The contents of the building were badly damaged by water, and altogether a thousand dollars would be small recompense for the total loss sustained.

OUR BOYS PAYING PRICE FOR FREEDOM

Private Herbert Bradley Gives His Life—Others Seriously Wounded

Private Herbert Leonard Bradley has given his life for the cause of freedom. The sad news came in a telegram from Ottawa on Monday. Private Bradley was a popular lad around the village and, enlisting before he was sixteen, was not quite 17 at the time of his death. He is survived by his mother, Mrs. William Grant of Highgate, and several brothers and sisters, one of the latter being the wife of M. W. White of the C. P. R. He joined the colors in the 140th Bant. and was stationed here with Platoon 15 last spring. He was home for a short time in September.

Private Guy Sanborn, son of Levi Sanborn of Mount Pleasant, is reported wounded in the right shoulder on April 11. He was wounded previously.

Private Guy Webster Mean, son of Robert Mean of Mount Pleasant, is reported wounded by gunshot in the back.

Roy Hallett is reported wounded in the right hand by a rifle shot, this being the second time a Hun bullet found him for a mark. He enlisted from Middle Simonds and was one of the few left in action of the original 26th.

Alexander Curtis Hayward has been missing since April 11. He is one of two sons of C. E. Hayward at the front. A few weeks ago The Observer published a cheery letter from him.

Cecil Karl Flewelling, son of F. D. Flewelling of Avondale is suffering a gunshot wound in the neck. He was with the 104th. William Andrews, who was here with Platoon 15, has a gunshot wound in the wrist. He was the son of an English woman who last summer kept house for Guy Christian and has since returned to the old country.

Death of James Young

On Friday, April 20, James Young passed away at his home in Central Glassville. Deceased was born in Ayrshire, Scotland, in August 1838. He came to Canada in 1864 and settled in Glassville where he spent the rest of his life. Before leaving his native land he was married to Miss Mary Smith who survives him. Besides his wife he leaves three sons, John of Houlton, David of West Glassville and Robert at home; and five daughters: Mrs. Duncan MacDonald of Glassville, Mrs. William Minelies of Monticello, Mrs. Walter Elder of Vermont, Mrs. Frank Beek of New Limerick, Me., and Mrs. George Allen of Glassville; also several grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Mr. Young was a highly respected citizen. The funeral was held on Sunday afternoon, the service being conducted by Rev. M. H. Manuel, and the body was laid to rest in the Glassville cemetery.

Could Not Sleep

Miss Gertrude Pratt, Wolsley St., Barrie, Ont., writes: "I was very much run down and could not sleep either day or night and my legs and arms ached so that life was very miserable. After using six boxes of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food I feel well and strong again."

A SINGED CAT

It is now known that B. F. Smith, who was Minister of Public Works in the old administration, was the most surprised man in the province over the verdict of February 24th. He had leased a mansion in this city, had placed a large order for costly road machinery and had made other elaborate plans for the future. But "the best laid schemes of mice and men gang aft agley," and it was so with Mr. Smith's little schemes. It was hard to make him believe that the government of which he was a member had lost the confidence of the people, and he went right on awarding contracts for important public works, just as if he had a cinch for life on the job. The government clung to office for five weeks and finally threw up the sponge. Since the personnel of the new ministry was announced, Mr. Smith has spent most of his time traveling between St. John and Grand Falls, trying to stir up opposition to Premier Foster and Hon. Mr. Tweeddale in Victoria county. He indulged in big talk and made lavish promises, but it would not go down with intelligent electors of Victoria. Many who had actively supported the old government told him that they did not think it would be in the interest of the country to oppose the re-election of the ministers, and intimated that if such a course were followed they would bolt the party, and there would be deposits forfeited. The threatened strike of the faithful finally brought Mr. Smith to his senses, and for the second time within a month he reluctantly bowed to the will of the people. A few months ago Mr. Smith labored under the belief that he was a Royal Bengal tiger; he has since awoke to the fact that he is only a singed cat.—Mail.

SUFFERING CATS! GIVE THIS MAN THE GOLD MEDAL!

Let folks step on your feet hereafter: wear shoes a size smaller if you like, for corns will never again send electric sparks of pain through you, according to this Cincinnati authority. He says that a few drops of a drug called Frezone, applied directly upon a tender, aching corn, instantly relieves soreness, and soon the entire corn, root and all, lifts right out. This drug is a sticky ether compound, but dries as once and simply shrivels up the corn without inflaming or even irritating the surrounding tissue. It is claimed that a quarter of an ounce of Frezone obtained at any drug store will cost very little but is sufficient to remove every hard or soft corn or callus from one's feet. Cut this out, especially if you are a woman reader who wears high heels.

SENATOR BAIRD HAS PASSED AWAY

Senator George T. Baird died at his home at Andover at an early hour Friday morning after a long and painful illness. His death was not unexpected to his relatives as he had been in poor health for the past few years and has been confined to his bed since early in December.

Mr. Baird had always been an active business man and was the head of the firm of George T. Baird Co., Ltd. of Perth. A few years teacher in the public schools, a man prominent in lumbering business, a member of Legislature and Legislative Council, on June 19, 1895, he was appointed to the Senate. His age at his death was sixty-nine years. He was the eldest son of the late George and Mrs. Baird of Bairdsville and had six brothers: Daniel of River de Chute, Wesley and William of Bairdsville, Douglas of Perth, James and John (deceased); also three sisters, Mrs. Joseph B. Porter, Mrs. Columbus Craig (deceased) and Miss Frances Baird (deceased). He leaves a wife who before her marriage was Miss Ida Sadler, daughter of the late Dexter Sadler of Maple View, and two sons, T. Herbert Baird of Andover and G. Frederick of Minto.

Senator Baird was a member of the Anglican church and a Conservative in politics, although in provincial matters he supported and was a member of the Blair government.

The funeral on Monday was very largely attended.

In conversation with one of the assessors for this parish it was stated the work of assessment was about completed and the list would be handed to the collector in a short time. The amount to be raised in this parish is nearly double last year's assessment and taxes will be accordingly that much higher. The increase is our share of the War Fund and nobody ought to kick. However there will be some wide open eyes when the tax bill is presented to some and the collector will hear this one remark more than any other "I am paying more than neighbour."

The roads are drying up nicely. Very little frost in the ground and farmers will soon be able to get on the land.

Whit Bishop lately of Cochran, Ont., has rented the Harold house, one mile from the village, and is going into the pig business on a large scale. There is a large swamp partly cleared on this farm and Mr. Bishop intends turning out there a very large number of all kinds of pigs. His venture will be watched with interest. One thing sure, Whit usually gets there.

Nerves Were So Upset Could Not Endure Noise

Neuralgic Headaches and Extreme Nervousness Caused Keenest Suffering—Lasting Cure by Use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

Once the nervous system gets run down everything seems to tend to make it worse. You worry over your condition, are unable to get the required rest and sleep, nerves excite and irritate you and the future is most discouraging.

The nervous system does not get the proper nourishment from the food you eat, so you must have something else to lift you out of the run-down condition. You may find that your experience coincides with the writer of this letter and be encouraged to put Dr. Chase's Nerve Food to the test.

You will make no mistake in employing this food cure, for, acting as it does hand in hand with Nature, it is bound to do you good. Mrs. Jas. Would Cause A Riot

If the newspaper should some day print the contents of its waste basket there would certainly be a riot. There would certainly be trouble in many homes, arrests in many directions, shot-guns in another, trouble all around. But the patron never sees the waste basket, he only glances at the printed page, and complains if one letter is upside down, growls if one name happens to be wrong, kicks because his communication signed "Taxpayer" has been condensed into respectable English, frowns because the editor did not take his advice about publicly telling their neighbors of their shortcomings, and is generally disgruntled. He knows his share of the waste basket, but if he could look at the contributions to that receptacle he would be thankful for the existence of a man with intelligence and courage enough not to print all he knows, and to temper that which he does print.

Convincing Proof of This Fact.

Ridgway, Penn. — "I suffered from female trouble with backache and pain in my side for over seven months so I could not do any of my work. I was treated by three different doctors and was getting discouraged when my sister-in-law told me how Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had helped her. I decided to try it, and it restored my health, so I now do all of my housework which is not light as I have a little boy three years old." — Mrs. O. M. RHINES, Ridgway, Penn.

Mrs. Lindsey Now Keeps House For Seven.

Tennille, Ga. — "I want to tell you how much I have been benefited by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. About eight years ago I got in such a low state of health I was unable to keep house for three in the family. I had dull, tired, dizzy feelings, cold feet and hands nearly all the time and could scarcely sleep at all. The doctor said I had a severe case of ulceration and without an operation I would always be an invalid, but I told him I wanted to wait awhile. Our druggist advised my husband to get Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it has entirely cured me. Now I keep house for seven and work in the garden some, too. I am so thankful I got this medicine. I feel as though it saved my life and have recommended it to others and they have been benefited." — Mrs. W. E. LINDSEY, R. R. 3, Tennille, Ga.

The car was designed to be an efficient, economical, easy running and easy riding automobile for the man who does not care to invest in a six-cylinder model and it fulfills all these functions admirably.

The specifications alone are sufficient evidence to the man who knows motor car values. Read them and compare them point by point with other makes of cars selling under $1000.00.

We already have many orders for this model and our output for 1917 is fixed. The demand will doubtless be greater than the supply, but orders will be filled in rotation. Send for literature.

IMMIGRATION MEN'S CHURCH PROBLEMS

Western Canada Very Seriously Affected, Says Social Service Expert
—Overlapping and Inefficiency

The following by J. S. Woodsworth, Director Bureau of Social Research of the University of Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, discussed social conditions in Canada demand changes in church organization and methods. A quarter of a century ago the population of Canada was largely homogeneous, agricultural and rural. Today the population of Canada is heterogeneous, increasingly industrial and urban. Under modern conditions even the country demands co-operative effort. The farmers are realizing this and have organized extensive financial and social co-operative enterprises. The educationalists are beginning to realize it and to establish consolidated schools. The churches lag behind. They are still attempting to cover the field with denominational agencies. The result is overlapping and inefficiency.

A Case in Manitoba

Especially is this true of Western Canada, where the population is composed of such diverse elements. Even interdenominational co-operation now attempted does not meet the case. We think of a town in Northern Manitoba with a population of some five hundred, consisting mainly of Canadians, Old Country English, half-breeds, Icelanders, Ruthenians, and Poles. What provision is there for the religious needs of this district? A Church of England student, fresh from the old land, comes from the next town every Sunday morning to conduct a service in the schoolhouse for a little group of a dozen people. A Roman Catholic priest visits the district about once a month to conduct mass and baptize the children. A Lutheran minister pays a visit to the Icelanders about once every six months.

Will Become Pagan

There is an arrangement—regarded by the people as temporary and unsatisfactory—by which the Presbyterians have withdrawn their students. The Methodist supply is an inexperienced and untrained young Englishman. There is little moral or religious leadership. Unless there is a change that community—so far as the church is concerned—will lapse into paganism. In this particular case, a more experienced man has been sent in, but what can he do in the face of such divisions?

LESSONS ON WEST

Much For East to Learn in Solving Its Problems

Western Canada provides Eastern Canada with lessons on social service, according to Rev. George C. Pidgeon, who in an address, gave a capital picture of the new conditions and the newer life which had sprung up in the West, "the birth of a new nation," he termed it, "whose volume when it flows into the rest of Canada will not only add to its power but will change its character." A fine feature of the West was the vigor with which they faced their problems. They had seen some of the mistakes of the East and had avoided them. Suffrage manhood and female were mentioned, but Dr. Pidgeon insisted that the rapid spread of the community spirit was a thing which could be copied in the East. The western ideal of liberty had evolved out of the old notions of license, but the schools, churches and social work were modifying this and making it powerful for usefulness. The broad Canadianism of the western people was healthy and good. Dr. Pidgeon told of the way in which the foreign element was being absorbed by this movement counteracting their separatist notions under the name of "nationalists." It was for every other section of Canada to take the problems in the same way as the West had done.

WITH WOMAN DOG DRIVER

Mrs. Mary Tong Uses Common Sense Methods With Her Canines

Mrs. Mary Tong, a noted dog team driver in Kildonan, Man., says: "I just use my dogs for sport, so they have all kinds of speed. I often hunt wolves with them. I've shot nine wolves already. They take me around anywhere a lot faster than any horse and rig could. I never say 'mush' or 'yip' or anything like that, they could not understand it. When I want them to start, I say 'giddyup' in plain English, though they usually get started before I have time to say anything. When I want them to stop I say 'whoa!' They always start off at a trot, so when I want them to go a little faster I say 'go on, laddies,' and when I want real speed, I say 'kick em.' When I want them to turn I say 'come 'ere' and crack my whip on the outside of the curve. They think I am calling them and turn around. They never tasted fish meat in their lives. I find horse meat is the best for them, it's so much stronger than beef. I just feed them horse meat once a day, at night, and they get along well. They don't run if I give them more. I drive into the city every day, and often I go 'way out into the country after wolves, or just for the fun of it."

Winnipeg to Edmonton

In '82 and for sometime afterwards, mails were carried from Winnipeg to Edmonton and intervening points every six weeks. At distances supposed to constitute a journey, stations were erected for the convenience of the mail carriers, small shacks with a stable just large enough to hold two teams of horses. During the summer a supply of hay and oats was stored at each station, but neither the summer nor the winter feed was intended for the general public.

AN APPRECIATION OF REV. B. C. BUBAR

The Rev. B. C. Bubbar will (D. V.) next Sabbath morning begin an evangelistic campaign in the United Baptist church of Woodstock. Mr. Bubbar is widely known as a soul-stirring evangelist, and seems more than willing to be a servant of Christ in any reasonable way, without the slightest air of assumption in his manners. Though a pastor wise and useful, serving one Church in that capacity for eight consecutive years, he is also an evangelist by right of a gift bestowed by the Holy Ghost, as certainly as there ever was such in the history of the church. No doubt he has heard voices condemning him, and voices innumerable admiring him. Many a pen has been dipped in gall by jealous rivals, and many a pen in honey by generous critics. Yet Mr. Bubbar still lives—lives in the affections of thousands, and in the smile and approbation of God for whom he is gathering sheaves large and small.

The crowds which during the last six weeks congregated in the church in Hartland were only examples of those which in cities, towns and villages throughout America listened attentively to his expositions of the Holy Scriptures. The above named Church has been spiritually quickened and refreshed, and men who knew no church as theirs have had the Cup's bottom turned upwards for them, and women have been elevated from lives of indifference and worldliness, and youths whose lives are about to develop in all their charms of reality have been redeemed by the power of the Christ he serves.

In his style of preaching he seems to dwell apart from his fellows, to pass by the nonessentials, the trifling episodes in church history, the symbols upon which we do not agree, and exalts the great simplicities of the Gospel. At no time does he indulge in a chilling fog of lugubrious cant, or simpering formalism. Never does he introduce himself after the following mode: "Dearly beloved brethren and my esteemed and respected friends: Permit me to invite your serious and solemn attention to that portion of celestial Truth which you will find recorded in the One hundred and Seventy-seventh verse of the Sixty-ninth chapter of Saint Icha-bod's sixteenth epistle to the simpletons." On the contrary, he comes directly before the people, impelled by something actually felt, which needs to be speedily uttered to the dying but immortal crowds who always press towards a frank heart and true lips.

It is his to lift up Jesus as the true illumination for a ship-shod world. That is the kind of preaching that exalts into the higher realm where unity and love have their dwelling.

To this dear brother we say "all hail!" This last drop of ink hastens into words, which may perchance meet your eye amidst the exhausting toil of your spiritual gladiatorialship. Let me assure you of fraternal sympathy and prayers at our little altars in this village. May the grace of God, our common Father, the love of Christ, our Elder Brother, and the constant association of the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, bind you in humble allegiance to the Cross and render you yet more radiant for the benefit of a dark and perishing world.
